16 And the men feared the Lorde exceedingly, and offered a sacrifice vnto the Lord, and made f vowes.

17 And the Lorde prepared a great fyshe to swallowe vp Ionas: and Ionas was in the bellye of the fyshe three dayes and three nyghtes.

f. To serue the Lord, to cal vpon him, as Dauid oftentymes in the Psalmes maketh mention, and none other vowes.

¶ The.ii Chapter.

1. Ionas is in the Fyshes belly. 3. His prayer. 10. He is delyuered.

1 AND Ionas prayed vnto the Lorde his God out of the a fyshes belly,

2 And sayde, In affliction I cryed vnto the Lorde, and he hearde me: out of the belly of hel cryed I, and thou heardest my voyce.

3 Thou hadst cast me downe into the deepe, into the middest of the sea, and the flooddes compassed me about: all thy billowes and waues passed ouer me.

4 And I sayde, *I am cast away out of thy syght, yet wyl I looke agayne toward thine holy temple.

5 *The waters compassed me euen vnto the soule, the deapth closed me on euery syde, and the wedes were wrapte about my head.

myne lyfe from corruption, O Lord my God.

7 When my ſoule fainted within me, I remembred the Lorde, and my prayer came in vnto thee into thy holy temple.

b. All that is lying vanitie that a man inuenteth of him ſelfe to truſt in. "Or, their owne.

8 They that holde vppon b lying vanitie, forſake "his mercy.

9 But I wyl ſacrifice vnto thee with the voyce of thankes geuyng, and wyll pay that that I haue vowed: for ſaluation is of the Lorde.

¶ The.iii. Chapter.

2. Jonas is ſent agayne to Niniue. 3. The repentaunce of the king of Niniue.

1 AND the woorde of the Lorde came vnto Jonas the ſeconde tyme, ſaying,

2 Aryſe, and goe to Niniue that great citie, and preache agaynſt it the preachyng whiche I ſpeake vnto thee.

3 So Jonas aroſe, and went to Niniue, accordyng to the woorde of the Lord: (Niniue was a great citie, and a excellent, of three dayes iourney.)

a. In the Hebrue it is a great citie to God: but ſo the Hebrues call great & excellent thynges, ſo the hyll of God, the Cedar of God, for a great hyl and hygh Cedar.

4 And Jonas began to enter into the citie a dayes iourney, and he cryed, and ſayde, Yet fourtie dayes, and Niniue ſhalbe deſtroyed.

5 * And the men of Niniue beleeued God, and proclaymed a faſt, and put on ſackcloth, from the greateſt of them, to the leaſt of them.

"Mat.12.41 Luke.11.32.

6 And woorde came vnto the kyng of Niniue: whiche aroſe from his throne, and put of his robe, and couered hym ſelf with ſackcloth, and ſate downe in aſhes.

7 And he cauſed a cryer to crye, and ſay thorowe the citie by the counſel of the king and his nobles, Let neyther man nor beaſt, bullocke, nor ſheepe, taſte ought at al, neyther feede nor drynke water.

8 And let both man and beaſt put on ſackcloth, and crye myghtyly vnto God: yea let euery man turne from his euyl way, & from the wyckednesſe that is in his handes.

b. God is ſayd to repent, whē he doeth thoſe things that mē doo repenting. c. Of the euil, that is, of the plague whiche is euyll to our ſelfe, although not in his owne nature.

9 Who can tel whether God wyl turne and be mooued with b repentance, and turne from his fierce wrath, that we peryſhe not?

10 And God ſawe their woorkes that they turned from their euyl waies, and he repented of the c euyll that he ſayde he woulde doo vnto them, and dyd it not.

1 AND this diſpleaſed Jonas greatly, and he was a angry within hym ſelfe.

a. Because here by he ſhould be taken as a falſe Prophet, and ſo y name of God which he preached, ſhould be blaſphemed. "Or, preuented.

2 And he prayed vnto the Lorde, and ſayde, I pray thee, O Lorde, was not this my ſaying whē I was yet in my countrey? therefore I "haſted to flee vnto Tharſis: "For I knewe that thou art a gratious GOD, and mercyfull, long ſufferyng, and of great kyndeneſſe, and repenteſt thee of euyl.

"Pſal.86.5, Joel.2.13.

3 And nowe, O Lorde, take I beſeeche thee my lyfe from me: for it is better for me to dye then to lyue.

4 Then ſayde the Lorde, Doeſt thou wel to be angrye?

5 And Jonas went out of the citie, and ſate hym downe on the Eaſt ſyde thereof, and there made hym a boothe, and ſate vnder it in the ſhadow, tyl he might ſee what ſhould be doone in the citie.

6 And the Lord God prepared a gourd, and made it ſpryng ouer Jonas, that it myght be a ſhadowe ouer his head, to delyuer him from his greefe: So Jonas was exceedyng glad of the gourde.

7 But God prepared a wooрme, when the morrowe roſe the next day, whiche ſmote the gourde, that it wythered.

8 And when the Sunne roſe, God prepared a feruent Eaſt wynde, and the Sunne beat vppon the head of Jonas that he fainted, and wyſhed vnto his ſoule that he myght dye, and ſayde, It is better for me to dye, then to lyue.

9 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Jonas, Doeſt thou wel to be ſo angry within thee ſelfe for the gourde? And he ſayde, I doo well to be angry, euen vnto death.

10 Then ſayde the Lorde, Thou haſt had compaſſion on the gourd, about the which thou beſtowedſt no labour, neyther madeſt it growe, whiche came vp in a nyght, and peryſhed in a nyght:

11 And ſhall not I ſpare Niniue that great citie, in the whiche are more then fyue ſcore thouſande perſons that knowe not their ryght hande and their left, and alſo muche cattel.

The booke of the prophete Micheas.

¶ The fyrſt Chapter.

Of the deſtruction of Samaria, becauſe of theyr idolatrie.

1 THe woorde of the Lorde came vnto Micheas the Morasthite, in the dayes of Iotham, Ahas, and Ezecias, kynges of Iuda, whiche he ſawe concernyng Samaria, and Hieruſalem.

Deut.32.1, Eſai.1.2. 2 *Heare al ye people, marke this wel, O earth, & al that therein is, yea let the Lorde God hym ſelfe be witneſſe agaynſt you, euen the Lorde from his holy temple.

Eſai.26.21 3 *For beholde, the Lorde ſhal come out of his holy place, and come downe & treade vpon the high thynges of the earth.

4 The mountaynes ſhal melt vnder hym, and the valleyes ſhal cleaue aſunder, like as wax melteth before the fyre, and as the waters runne downewarde.

5 And al this ſhalbe for the wyckednesſe of Jacob, and the ſynnes of the houſe of Iſrael: but what is the wyckednesſe of Jacob? is not a Samaria? whiche are the hygh places of Iuda? is not Hieruſalem?

a. Samaria ſtil Hieruſalem were ſ cheefe cities of ſ two kingdomes: i. idolatrie vſed in them, ſheweth general corruption thoroughout al.

6 Therefore I wyll make Samaria an heape of the feelde meete for the plantyng of a vineyarde: her ſtones wyl I tumble downe into the valley, and diſcouer her foundations.

7 Al her images ſhalbe broken downe, and al her a garmentes ſhalbe brent in the fyre, yea al her idols wyl I deſtroy: for they are gathered out of the hyre of an b harlot, and into an harlots hyre ſhal they be turned agayne.

a. Ryal gorgius cuyl ſpent.

8 Wherefore I wyl mourne and make lamentation, bare and naked wyl I goe: I wyl mourne lyke the Dragons, and take ſorowe as the Eſtriches.

9 For theyr wounde is paſt remedie, it is come into Iuda, and hath touched the gate of my people at Hieruſalem alredy.

10 Declare it not at Gath, neyther weepe yer: for the houſe of Aphra roule thee ſelfe in the duſt.

a. Names of cities that ſignifie be fyrſt ſpoyled by the enimie.

11 Thou that dwelleſt in Saphir geat thee hence naked with ſhame: ſhe that dwelleth at c Zaanan, ſhal not come forth in the mourning of Bethezel: the enimie ſhall receyue of you for his d ſtandyng.

d. The long continuance of an armie in our place is hurtful 12 For the inhabitantes of Maroth wayted for good, but the plague ſhal come from the Lorde, euen vnto the gates of Hieruſalem.

e It appeareth that this citie was one of the firſt whiche receyued the woorſhypping of the golden Calues, ſet vp by Ieroboam.

13 O thou e inhabitant of Lachis, bynde the charet to the ſwifteſt f beaſt, ſhe is the beginning of the ſynne of the daughter of Sion: for the tranſgreſſions of Iſrael were founde in thee.

f. Make haſt to flee away.

14 Therefore ſhalt thou bryng preſentes to g Mozesheth Gath: the houſes of Achzib ſhall be as a lye to the kynges of Iſrael.

g. A citie ſo named.

15 And as for thee, O thou that dwelleſt at Marela, I wyl bryng a poſſeſſioner vpon thee, he ſhal come to Adullam the glorie of Iſrael.

h. Shauyng and pluckyng of heare, was vſed in tyme of mourning.

16 Make thee baulde, h and ſhaue thee, becauſe of thy tender chyldren: make thee cleane baulde as an Eagle, for they ſhalbe carryed away captiue from thee.

¶ The.ii. Chapter.

Threatnynges agaynſt the ſinneſull people.
6. They vvoulde teache the prophetes to preache.

1 WOe vnto them that imagine iniquitie, and worke wyckednesſe vppon theyr beddes: when the morowyng is lyght they practiſe it, becauſe theyr hand hath power.

2 And they couet feeldes, and take them by violence, and houſes, and take them away: ſo they oppreſſe a man and his houſe, euen man and his heritage.

3 Therefore thus ſayth the Lorde, Behold, agaynſt this houſeholde haue I deuiſed a plague, whereout ye ſhal not plucke your neckes: ye ſhal no more goe ſo proudely, for it wyl be a perillous tyme.

4 In that day ſhal this parable be vſed, and a mournyng ſhalbe made ouer you on this manner: We be vtterly "deſolate, the portion of my people is changed: howe wyll "he part vnto the lande that he hath taken from vs?

"Or, vvaſted.
"Or, he vvil ſhal he take our Land to reſtore it vnto meſſeyng the enimie) hath deuided it

5 Therefore there ſhalbe no man to diuide thee thy portion in the congregation of

a. The people tooke vppon them to forbyd the prophetes to preache and rebuke ſinne.
b God threatneth he wyll ſende no moe prophetes to preache vnto them, which is the greateſt plague that can come to a nation.

6 Ye ſhal not a propheſie ſay they to them that propheſie: b they ſhal not propheſie to them, neyther ſhal they take ſhame.

7 O thou that art named the houſe of Jacob, is the ſpirite of the Lorde ſhortened? are theſe his wooркes? are not my woordes good vnto hym that walketh vpryghtly?

8 But he that was yeſterday my people, is ryſen vp on the other ſide as agaynſt an enimie: they ſpoyle the beautiful garment from them that paſſe by peaceablie, as though they returned from the warre.

9 The women of my people haue ye ſhut out from theyr pleaſant houſes, and taken away "mine excellent gyftes from theyr chyldren.

"Or, my glory.

c. Taking vpon them the office of a prophete, and pretendyng that he is directed by the ſpirite of God.
d. Flatteryng them, by promiſſing plentie, & not reproouing theyr ſinnes.
e. To make an vniuerſal deſtruction.
f. Where was great plentie of ſheepe, by reaſon of the good Paſtures.
g. As a pryſoner or captiue.
h. To ſtirre his wrathful indignation agaynſt the Iſraelites, for theyr obſtinate wickednes.

10 Up, geat you hence, for here ſhal ye haue no reſt: becauſe the lande is defiled, it ſhall deſtroy you with vtter deſtruction.

11 If a man c walke in the ſpirite, & would lye falſely ſaying, I wyl propheſie to thee of d wine and ſtrong drynke: that were a prophete for this people.

12 I wyl ſurely geather e thee wholly, O Jacob, I wyl ſurely geather the remnant of Iſrael, I wyl put them togeather as the ſheepe of f Bozra, as the flocke in the middeſt of their folde, they ſhal make great noyſe by reaſon of the multitude of men.

13 The breaker ſhal come vp before them, they ſhal breake out, and paſſe by the gate, and goe out by it: and theyr kyng g ſhall goe before them, and the Lord ſhalbe vpon h theyr heades.

¶ The iii. Chapter.

Agaynſt the tyrannie of princes and falſe prophetes.

1 AND I ſayde, Heare, I pray you, O heades of Jacob, and ye princes of the houſe of Iſrael, ſhoulde not ye knowe iudgement?

2 But they hate the good, and loue the euyl, they plucke of theyr ſkinnes from them, and theyr fleſhe from theyr bones.

3 And they eate alſo the fleſhe of my people, and flay of theyr ſkinne from them: and they breake theyr bones, and chop them in peeces as for the pot, and as fleſhe within the cauldron.

4 Then ſhal they crye vnto the Lorde, but he wyl not heare them: he wyl euen hyde his face from them at that tyme, becauſe they haue done wyckedly in theyr wooркes.

a. Falſe prophetes deuoureth the ſubſtance of theyr followers, and make gayne of religion.

5 Thus ſayth the Lord concernyng the prophetes that deceyue my people, a and byte them with theyr teeth, and crye peace: but if a man put not into theyr mouthes, they prepare warre agaynſt hym.

6 Therefore b night ſhalbe vnto you for a viſion, and darkeneſſe ſhalbe vnto you for a diuination: and the ſunne ſhal goe downe ouer the prophetes, & the day ſhalbe darke ouer them.

b. The knowledge whiche we nowe pretende, ſhalbe knowen to be greſſe ignorance.

7 Then ſhal the ſeers be aſhamed, and the ſoothſayers confounded: yea c they ſhall al couer theyr lyppes, for they haue no anſweare of God.

c. They ſhal couer theyr faces for ſhame.

8 Yet notwithſtanding, I am ful of power by the ſpirite of the Lorde, and of iudgement, and of ſtrength, to declare vnto Jacob his tranſgreſſion, & to Iſrael his ſinne.

9 Heare this, I pray you, ye heades of the houſe of Jacob, and princes of the houſe of Iſrael: they abhorre iudgement, and peruert al equitie.

10 d They buylde vp Sion with blood, and Hieruſalem with iniquitie.

d. They fortifie and garniſhe their citie with goodes wrongfully gotten, which here are called blood and iniquitie.

11 *(The heades therof iudge for rewardes, and the prieſtes thereof teache for hyre, and the prophetes thereof propheſie for money: yet wyl they leane vpon the Lorde, and ſay, Is not the Lorde among vs? no euyl can come vpon vs.)

*Eze. 22. 27

12 *Therefore ſhal Sion for your ſake be plowed as a feelde, and Hieruſalem ſhalbe an heape, and the mountayne of the houſe as the hygh places of the foreſt.

*Jerre. 26. 18

¶ The. iiii. Chapter.

The callyng of the Gentiles, and conuerſion of the Iewes.

1 BUt *in the a latter dayes it wyl come to paſſe, that the hyll of the Lordes houſe ſhalbe prepared in the top of the mountaynes, and ſhalbe ſet vp hygher then any mountaynes or hylles, and people ſhal preſſe vnto it.

a. When Chriſt ſhal come.

2 Yea the multitude of the Gentiles ſhall haſt them thyther, ſaying, Come, let vs goe vp to the hyl of the Lorde, and to the houſe of the God of Jacob, and he ſhal teache vs his wayes, & we wyl walke in his pathes, for the lawe ſhal come out of Sion, and the woorde of God from Hieruſalem.

3 And he ſhal iudge many people, and rebuke mightie nations of farre countreyes: ſo that of theyr ſwoordes they ſhall make ploughſhares, and ſythes of theyr ſpeares: one people ſhal not lyft vp a ſwoorde agaynſt another, yea they ſhal no more learne to fight.

4 But euery man ſhal ſit vnder his vineyard, and vnder his figge tree, and no man ſhal make them afrayde: for the mouth of the Lorde of hoſtes hath ſpoken it.

5 Therefore al people wyl walke euery man man in the name of his God: and we wyll walke in the name of our Lorde God for euer and euer.

6 At the same tyme, sayth the Lorde, wyl I geather vp the lame and the outcast, and suche as I haue chastened, Ezech.31.9 7 *And wyll gyue a remnant vnto the lame, and make of the outcast a myghty people: *and the Lorde hym selfe shalbe their kyng Dan.7.14. vpon the mount Sion, from this tyme forth Luc.1.33. for euermore.

8 And vnto thee, O thou towre of the flocke, thou strong holde of the daughter Sion, vnto thee shal it come, euen the lordship, and kyngdome to the daughter Hierusalem.

9 Why then doest thou crye and lament? is there no kyng in thee? are thy counsaylours perished, that thou art so payned as a woman in her trauayle?

10 And now, O thou daughter Sion, sorow and lament as a woman in her trauayle: for nowe must thou geat thee out of the citie, and dwell vpon the playne feelde: yea, vnto Babylon shalt thou goe, but there shalt thou be delyuered, and there the Lorde shall redeeme thee from the hande of thyne enimies.

11 Nowe also are there manye people geathered togeather agaynst thee, saying, Sion shalbe condemned, and our eye shall looke vpon Sion.

12 But they know not the thoughtes of the Lorde, they vnderstande not his counsel: for he shall geather them togeather as the sheaues in the barne.

13 Therefore geat thee vp, O thou daughter Sion, and threashe out the corne: for I wyl make thy horne iron, and thy bones brasse, that thou mayest breake in peeces many people: their goodes shalt thou consecrate vnto the Lorde, and their substance vnto the ruler of the whole worlde.

Of the destruction of Hierusalem.

'Or, nowe assemble thy garrisons, O daughter of garrisons.

1 NOwe 'shalt thou be robbed thee selfe, O thou robbers daughter: they shall laye siege agaynst vs, and smyte the Iudge of Israel with a rodde vppon the cheeke.

'Matth.2.6. Ioan.7.42. 2 *And thou Bethlehem Ephrata art litle among the thousandes of Iuda, out of thee shal he come forth vnto me whiche shall be the gouernour in Israel, whose outgoyng hath been from the begynnyng, and from euerlastyng.

3 Therefore wyll he geue them vp for a season, vntyll the tyme that she whiche shall beare, haue borne: then shal the remnant of his brethren be converted vnto the children of Israel.

4 He shall stande fast, and geue foode in the strength of the Lord, and in the maiestie of the name of the Lorde his God: and when they be converted, he shalbe magnified vnto the farthest partes of the worlde.

5 And he shalbe our peace: when the Assyrians shal come into our land, when he shal treade in our palaces, then shall we rayse agaynst hym seuen Shepheardes, and eyght principal men.

6 These shal subdue the land of Assur with the sworde, and the lande of Nimrod with their naked weapons: thus shal he delyuer vs from the Assyrian when he commeth within our lande, and setteth his foote within our borders.

7 And the remnant of Iacob shalbe among the multitude of people as the deawe of the Lorde, and as the droppes vpon the grasse, that tarrieth for no man, and wayteth on no body.

8 Yea, the residue of Iacob shalbe among the Gentiles, and the multitude of people, as the Lion among the beastes of the wood, and as the Lions whelpe among the flockes of sheepe, whiche when he goeth through, treadeth downe, teareth in peeces, and there is no man that can delyuer.

9 Thyne hande shalbe lyft vp vpon thyne enimies, and all thyne aduersaries shall perysshe.

10 And it shal come to passe in that day, saith the Lorde, that I wyll take thyne horses from thee, and destroy thy charrets.

11 I wyll breake downe the cities of thy land, and ouerthrowe al thy strong holdes.

12 Al witchcraftes wyl I roote out of thine hande, there shall no moe soothsayinges be within thee.

13 Thyne idolles and thyne images wyll I destroy out of thee, so that thou shalt no more bowe thee selfe vnto the woorkes of thyne owne handes.

14 Thy groues wyll I plucke vp by the rootes, and breake downe thy cities.

15 And I wyll execute a vengeaunce in my wrath, and indignation vpon the heathen, suche as they haue not hearde.

¶ The.vi.Chapter.
1. An exhortation to heare the iudgement agaynst Israel being vnkinde. 8. What maner of sacrifices doo please God.

1 HEarken ye nowe what the Lord sayth, Aryse thou, and contende with the mountaynes, and let the hylles heare thy voyce.

2 Heare

2 Heare, O ye mountaynes, the Lords quarrell, and myghtie fundations of the earth: for the Lord hath a quarrel agaynſt his people, and wyl pleade with Iſrael.

3 O my people, what haue I doone vnto thee? or wherein haue I greeued thee? geue me anſweare.

*Exod.15.16 4 *I haue brought thee out of the land of Egypt, and delyuered thee out of the houſe of bondage, and I made Moſes, Aaron, and Miriam to leade thee.

*Num.22.5. and.23.7. 5 Remember, O my people, *what Balac the kyng of Moab hath deuiſed agaynſt thee, and what anſweare that Balaam the ſonne of Beor gaue hym, from Sethin vnto Galgal, that ye maye knowe the ryghteouſneſſe of the Lorde.

6 Wherwith ſhal I come before the Lorde, and bowe mee ſelfe to the hygh God? Shal I come before hym with burnt offerynges, and with Calues of a yeere olde?

7 Hath the Lorde a pleaſure in many thouſandes of Rammes, or innumerable ſtreames of oyle? ſhal I geue my firſt borne for myne offences, and the fruite of my bodye for the ſinne of my ſoule?

8 He hath ſhewed thee, O man, what is good, and what the Lord requireth of thee, namely, to doo iuſtlye, to loue mercie, and to humble thee ſelfe to walke with thy God.

9 The Lordes voyce cryeth vnto the citie, and the man that ſhalbe ſaued conſydereth thy name: hearken what is your rodde, and heare hym that warneth you.

10 Are not yet the treaſures of wyckednesſe in the houſe of the wycked, and the ſcant meaſure, whiche is abominable?

11 Shoulde I iuſtifie the falſe ballances, and the bagge of deceitefull weyghtes?

12 For the ryche men thereof are ful of crueltie, and the inhabitantes therof haue ſpoken lyes, and haue deceytefull tongues in their mouthes.

13 Therfore I wyl take in hand to punyſhe thee, and to make thee "deſolate becauſe of thy ſinnes.

"Or, ſicke.

14 Thou ſhalt eate, and not haue ynough, yea, thou ſhalt bryng thee ſelfe downe in the myddes of thee, thou "ſhalt flee, but not eſcape, and thoſe that thou wouldeſt ſaue, wyl I deliuer to the ſwoorde.

"Or, the women ſhal conceiue, but not bryng forth, & whom they bring forth, will I deliuer to the ſworde.

15 *Thou ſhalt ſowe, but not reape, thou ſhalt preſſe out Oliues, but oyle ſhalt thou not haue, to annoynt thee ſelfe with oyle: thou ſhalt treade out ſweete mult, but thou ſhalt drynke no wyne.

*Deut.28.38 Aggæ.1.6.

16 Ye keepe the ordinaunces of Amri, and al the cuſtomes of the houſe of Ahab, ye walke in their counſayles: therefore wyll I make thee waſte, and cauſe thy inhabiters to be hyſſed at, and ye ſhal beare the reproche of my people.

13 Notwithstanding, the lande must be wasted, because of them that dwell therein, and for the fruites of their owne imaginations.

14 Therfore feede thy people with thy rod, the flocke of thyne heritage (whiche dwelt desolate in the wood) let them feede vpon the e mount of Carmel: in Basan and Gilead, as afore time.

15 Marueylous thinges wyl I shewe thee, like as when thou camest out of the lande of Egypt.

16 This shal the Heathen see, and be ashamed for all their power: so that they shall lay their hand vpon their mouth, and theyr eares shalbe deake.

17 They shall licke the dust like a serpent, and as the woormes of the earth that tremble in their holes: they shalbe afrayde of the Lorde our GOD, and they shall feare thee.

18 * Who is such a God as thou, that pardonest wickednesse, and forgeuest the offences of the remnant of thyne heritage? he keepeth not his wrath for euer: for his delite is to haue compassion. * Act. 10. 43.

19 He shall turne agayne, and be mercifull to vs, he shal put downe our wickednesses, and cast all our sinnes into the bottome of the sea.

20 Thou wylt perfourme to Jacob thy trueth, and thy mercie to Abraham, like as thou hast swoorne vnto our fathers in olde tyme.

The booke of the prophete Nahum.

The first Chapter.

Of the destruction of the Assyrians, and the deliuerance of Israel.

1 THE burden of a Nimue: the boke of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.

2 God is ielous, and the Lorde auengeth, ỹ Lorde auengeth & hath wrath in store: ỹ Lorde taketh vengeance of his aduersaries, and keepeth wrath in store for his enimies.

3 The Lorde is slowe to anger, and also of great power, and in no case wyl acquite the wicked, the Lords dealing is with blustring tempest and whirle winde, and the cloudes are the dust of his feete.

4 He rebuketh the sea, and dryeth it vp, all the ryuers also he maketh drye: Basan and Carmel are destroyed, the spring also of Libanus is destroyed.

5 The mountaynes quake "at his power, and the hilles are resolued: the earth also burneth at his countenance, the world, and all that dwelleth therein.

6 Who can stand before his wrath? or who can ryse vp before the anger of his countenance? his fiercenesse is powred out lyke fyre, yea the rockes cleaue in peeces at his might.

7 The Lorde is gracious, a strong hold in the day of trouble, and knoweth them that trust in him.

8 But with an ouerrunnyng floodde he wyl destroy her place, and wyl pursue his enimies with darkenesse.

9 What imagine ᵇ ye agaynst the Lord? he makes an vtter destruction: ye shall not be troubled twyse. ᵇ Meanyng Ninive, and the Assyrians.

A complaynt againſt the wicked that perſecute the iuſt.

1 THe a burden whiche Habacuc the prophete dyd ſee.

2 O Lorde, howe long ſhall I crye, and thou wylt not heare? euen cry out vnto thee for violence, & thou wylt not helpe?

3 Why doeſt thou ſhewe me iniquitie, and cauſe me to behold ſorowe? for ſpoyling and violence are before me, and there are that rayſe vp ſtrife and contention.

4 Therefore the lawe is " diſſolued, and iudgement doeth neuer goe forth: for the wicked doth compaſſe about the righteous, therfore wrong iudgement proceedeth.

5 "Behold among the heathen, and regard, and woonder, and marueyle: for I wyll worke a worke in your dayes, ye wyl not beleeue it, though it be tolde you.

6 For loe, I rayſe vp the Chaldeans, that bytter and furious nation, whiche ſhall "goe vppon the breadth of the lande, to poſſeſſe the dwellyng places that are not theirs.

7 They are terrible and fearefull: b their iudgement and their dignitie proceede of them ſelues.

11 Then ſhall they "take a courage, and tranſgreſſe, and do wickedly, imputyng this their power vnto their God.

12 Art not thou of olde, O Lorde my God, my holye one? we ſhall not dye, O Lorde, thou haſt ordeyned them for iudgement, and O God, thou haſt eſtabliſhed them for correction.

13 Thou art of pure eyes, and canſt not ſee euyl, thou canſt not beholde wickednes: wherefore then doeſt thou looke vppon the tranſgreſſours, and holdeſt thy tongue, whē the wicked deuoured the man that is more ryghteous then he,

14 And makeſt men as the e fyſh of the ſea, and as the creepyng thynges that haue no rule ouer them?

15 They take vp all with the angle, they catche it in their net, and geather it in their yarne, wherefore they reioyce, and are glad.

¶ The.iii.Chapter.

4. Againſt the gouernours of Hieruſalem. 8. Of the calling of all the Gentiles. 11. A comfort to the reſidue of Iſrael.

1 WOE to that abominable, filthy, and cruel citie,

2 She heard not the voyce, ſhe re-

ceyued not correction, she trusted not in the Lorde, she drewe not neare to her God.

3 Her rulers within her are as roryng Lions, her iudges are as Woolues in the euening, whiche leaue " nothyng behynde them tyll the morowe.

4 Her Prophetes are lyght persons and vnfaythfull men, her Priestes haue polluted the sanctuarie, and haue wrested the lawe.

5 But the iust Lorde that doeth no vnryght, was in the myddes therof, euery mornyng shewyng them his lawe clearly, and ceassed not: but the vngodly wyl not learne to be ashamed.

6 I haue destroyed the nations, their towres are desolate, I haue made their streetes waste that none shall passe by, their cities are destroyed without man, and without inhabitant.

7 I sayde vnto them, O feare me, and be content to be refourmed, so their dwellyng shoulde not be destroyed, howsoeuer I visited them: but neuertheles they rose vp early, and corrupted al their woorkes.

8 Therefore wayte ye vpon me, sayth the Lorde, vntyll the tyme that I ryse vp to the pray: for I am determined to geather the people, and to bryng the kyngdomes togeather, that I may powre out myne anger, yea all my wrathfull displeasure vppon them: * for all the earth shalbe consumed with the fyre of my iealousie.

9 *And then wyl I cleanse the lyppes of the people, that they may euery one call vppon the name of the Lorde, and serue hym with one "consent.

10 From beyonde the ryuers of Ethiopia, the daughter of my dispearsed praying vnto me, shal bryng me an offeryng.

11 In that tyme shalt thou no more be confounded, because of al the imaginations wherethrough thou haddest offended me: for I wyl take away the proude boasters of thyne honour from thee, so that thou shalt no more tryumphe because of my holy hyll.

12 In thee also wil I leaue a final poore simple people, whiche shall trust in the name of the Lorde.

13 The remnant of Israel shall doo no wyckednesse, nor speake lyes, neyther shal there anye deceytefull tongue be founde in their mouthes, for they shalbe fedde, and take their rest, and no man shal make them afrayde.

14 Reioyce, O daughter Sion, be ioyfull, O Israel: reioyce and be glad from thy whole hart, O daughter Hierusalem:

15 For the Lorde hath taken away thy " punyshment, and hath cast out thyne enimies: the kyng of Israel, euen the Lord him selfe is with thee, so that thou "needest no more to feare any myschiefe.

16 In that tyme it shalbe sayde to Hierusalem, Feare not: and to Sion, Let not thyne handes be "slacke:

17 For the Lorde thy God in the myddes of thee is myghtie, he wyl saue thee, he wyl reioyce ouer thee with ioy, he wyll quiet hym selfe in his loue, he wyll reioyce ouer thee with gladnesse.

18 After a certayne tyme wyl I geather the afflicted that were of thee, and them that bare the reproche for it.

19 And behold, in that tyme wyl I destroy al those that vexe thee, * I wyl helpe the lame, and geather vp the castaway: yea I wyll geat them prayse and honour in al landes where they haue been put to shame.

20 At the same tyme wyl I bryng you agayne, and at the same tyme wyl I geather you: I wyl geat you a name and a good reporte among al people of the earth, when I turne backe your captiuitie before your eyes, sayth the Lorde.

Here endeth the Propheſie of Sophonia.

The booke of the Prophete Aggeus.

¶ The firſt Chapter.

1. The tyme of the propheſie of Aggeus. 3. An exhortation to buylde the temple agayne.

IN the ſecond yere of Kyng Darius, in ỹ ſyxth Moneth, the fyrſte day of the Moneth, came the woꝛde of the Loꝛde by the miniſterie of the Pꝛophete Aggeus a vnto Zoꝛobabel b the ſonne of Salathiel, a Pꝛince of Juda, and to Joſua the ſonne of Joſedech the hygh Pꝛieſte, ſaying.

2 Thus ſpeaketh the Loꝛde of hoſtes, ſaying, This people ſayth, c The tyme is not yet come foꝛ the Loꝛdes houſe to be buylded.

3 Then came the woꝛde of the Loꝛde by the miniſterie of the Pꝛophete Aggeus, ſaying, 4 Is it tyme foꝛ you your ſelues to dwell in ſeeled houſes, and this houſe lye waſte?

5 Nowe thus ſayth the Loꝛd of hoſtes, Conſyder your owne wayes in your hartes.

6 Ye haue d ſowen muche, but ye bꝛing litle in: ye eate, but ye haue not ynough: ye dꝛynke, but ye are not fylled: ye clothe you, but ye be not warme: and he that earneth wages, putteth the wages into a bꝛoken bagge.

7 Thus ſayth the Loꝛd of hoſtes, Conſyder your owne wayes in your hartes.

8 Geat you vp into the mountaine, and fetch wood, and buylde this houſe, and I wyll take pleaſure in it, and I wyll be gloꝛified, ſayth the Loꝛde.

9 Ye looked foꝛ muche, and loe it came to litle, and when ye bꝛought it home, I dyd blowe vpon it: and why, ſayth the Loꝛd of hoſtes? becauſe of my houſe that is waſte, and you runne euery man into his owne houſe.

10 Therfoꝛe vpon you the heauen is ſtayed from deawe, and the earth is ſtayed from yeeldyng her encreaſe.

11 And I haue called foꝛ a dꝛought vpon the lande, and vpon the mountaynes, and vpon the coꝛne, and vpon the wyne, and vpon the oyle, and vpon all that the ground bꝛingeth foꝛth, vpon men, and vpon cattel, and vpon al the labour of the handes.

12 Then Zoꝛobabel the ſonne of Salathiel, and Joſua the ſonne of Joſedech the hygh Pꝛieſte, with all the e remnaunt of the people, heard the voyce of the Loꝛd their GOD, and the f woꝛdes of the Pꝛophete Aggeus, as the Loꝛde their God had ſent hym, then the people dyd feare before the Loꝛde.

13 Then Aggeus the Loꝛdes meſſenger ſayde in the Loꝛdes meſſage vnto the people, ſaying, I am with you, ſayth the Loꝛde.

14 And the Loꝛde ſtyred vp the ſpirite of Zoꝛobabel the ſonne of Salathiel, a pꝛince of Juda, & the ſpirite of Joſua the ſonne of Joſedech the hygh Pꝛieſt, and the ſpirite of al the people: and they came and dyd the woꝛke in the houſe of the Loꝛde of hoſtes their God.

a. Though the people tranſgreſſe, yet the Prophet is ſent to the Prince & Prieſte, whoſe negligence oftentymes is the cauſe of ỹ peoples ſinne.

b. Zorobabel was the ſonne of Phadaia, as, 1.Chro.3.18. his fathers name is loſt out, & his Grandfathers name ſupplyed, becauſe it was not ſo obſcure as was ỹ other.

c. And yet there were now ſeuẽteene yeeres paſt ſince Cyrus had graunted them libertie to buylde.

d. God is the geuer of encreaſe, neyther may anye thing proſper without his bleſſing

c. For the greater part tarried in Babylon, and would not take ỹ liberty which Cyrus had geuen them.

f. Here is no difference made betweene the woorde of the Prophete & the woord of God, to ſhewe that the Prophete ſpeaketh not ſo ſpeake, & the people ſo heare them as ỹ woꝛdes of God.

¶ The.ii. Chapter.

He ſheweth that the glory of the latter temple ſhall exceede the firſt.

1 IN the a twentie and fourth day of the ſyxth moneth, in the ſeconde yeere of king Darius,

2 In the b ſeuenth moneth, in the twentie and one day of the moneth, came the woꝛde of the Loꝛd by the miniſterie of the pꝛophet Aggeus, ſaying,

3 Say nowe to Zoꝛobabel the ſonne of Salathiel pꝛince of Juda, and to Joſua the ſonne of Joſedech the hygh Pꝛieſte, and to the reſt of the people, ſaying,

4 Who is among you left, whiche ſawe this houſe in her fyrſt gloꝛy, and howe doo ye ſee it nowe? Is it not in your eyes in compariſon of it as nothyng?

5 Yet nowe be of good cheare, O Zoꝛobabel, ſayth the Loꝛde, and be of good comfoꝛte, O Joſua thou hygh Pꝛieſt ſonne of Joſedech, and be ſtrong al ye people of the lande, ſaith the Loꝛde, and woꝛke: foꝛ I am with you, ſayth the Loꝛde of hoſtes.

6 Accoꝛding to the c woꝛde that I couenaunted with you, when ye came out of Egypt: and my d ſpirite ſhal remayne with you, feare ye not.

a. They had been three weekes & three dayes ere the Prophet, & to prepare their tooles for theyr work, ſo diligent were they after the preaching of the Prophet.

b. Thei had now not wrought a full moneth yet they wanted wꝛyte, & therfore had neede to be ſet on a freſhe by the propheta who was there before nowe ſtirred vnto thẽ againe.

c. God made many promiſes to his people after theyr departure out of Egypt: but it as much as he geueth about to ſpeake of Chriſt in this place, he maye well be thought that he meneth here by promyſe made

d. Before he confirmed his promyſe made of Chriſt, nowe he promyſeth his ſpirite: therefore there is no cauſe of feare.

Deut. 18. and repeated. Acte. 7.

7 For thus sayth the Lorde of hostes, e *Yet a litle whyle, and I wyl shake the heauens, and the earth, and the sea, and the drye lande:

8 And I wyl moue al nations, and the desyre of al nations shal come, and I wyll fyl this house with glory, sayth the Lorde of hostes.

9 The siluer is mine, and the golde is mine, sayth the Lorde of hostes.

10 The glory of the latter house, shalbe greater then the glory of the fyrst, sayth the Lorde of hostes: and in this place wyll I geue peace, sayth the Lorde of hostes.

11 In the twentie and fourth day of the nienth moneth, in the seconde yeere of kyng Darius, came the woorde of the Lord vnto the prophete Aggeus, saying,

12 Thus sayth the Lorde GOD of hostes, Aske nowe ye priestes concernyng the lawe, saying, 13 If one beare holy flesshe in the skirt of his coate, and with his skirt doo touche the bread, potage, wine, oyle, or any other meate, shal it be holy? And the priestes answeared, and sayde, No.

14 And Aggeus sayde, If a polluted person touche any of these, shal he not be polluted? And the priestes answeared, and sayd, He shalbe polluted.

15 Then Aggeus answeared, and sayd, So is this people, and so is this nation before me, sayth the Lorde, and so is al the woorke of their handes: and that which they offer there is vncleane.

16 And nowe consyder, I pray you, in your myndes, from this day and vpwarde, before there was layde one stone vppon another in the house of the Lorde.

17 Before these thynges were done, when one came to a heape of twentie measures, there were but tenne: so who came to the wine presse for to drawe out fiftie vesselles of wine out of the presse, there were but twentie.

18 I smote you with blasting and with mildeawe, and with hayle in al the woorke of your handes, and you turned not vnto me, sayth the Lorde.

19 Consyder nowe in your myndes from this day, and afore, from the foure & twentieth day of the nienth moneth, euen from the day that the fundation of the Lordes temple was layde, consyder it in your myndes:

20 Is the seede yet in the barnes, as yet the vines and the figge tree, and the pomegranate, and the olyue tree hath not brought foorth? from this day wyl I blesse you.

21 And f agayne the woorde of the Lorde came vnto Aggei in the foure and twentieth day of the moneth, sayng.

f. He is sent twyse in one day to prophesie vnto the people.

22 Speake to Zorobabel the prince of Iuda, and say, I wyl shake the heauens and the earth:

23 And I wyl ouerthrowe the " throne of kingdomes, and I wyl destroy the strength of the kyngdomes of the heathen, & I wyl ouerthrowe the chariets and the sitters thereon, and the horse and the ryders shall fall downe euery one by the swoorde of his brother.

" Or, seate.

24 *In that day, sayth the Lorde of hostes, wyl I take thee Zorobabel my seruant, sonne of Salathiel, sayth the Lorde, and wyl make thee as a signet: for I haue chosen thee, sayth the Lorde of hostes.

*Eccl.49.13

The ende of the Prophesie of Aggeus.

The booke of the Prophete Zacharias.

¶ The first Chapter.

1. He moueth the people to returne to the Lorde, and eschewe the wyckednesse of their fathers. 36. He prefigureth Christe and his Apostles.

1 IN the eyght moneth of the seconde yeere of king Darius, came the woorde of the Lord vnto Zacharias ỳ sonne of Barachias the sonne of Addo ỳ prophete, saying,

2 The Lorde hath ben sore displeased with your forefathers.

3 And say thou vnto them, thus sayth the Lorde of hostes, *Turne you vnto me, sayth the Lorde of hostes, and I wyl turne vnto you, sayth the Lorde of hostes.

*Mala.3.7.

4 Be ye not like your forefathers, vnto whom the prophetes cryed, saying, *Thus sayth the Lorde of hostes, Turne you from your euyl wayes, and from your wycked imaginations: but they would not heare nor regarde me, sayth the Lorde.

*Esai.21.8. Iere.3.12. Ose.14.2. Ioel.2.12.

5 What is nowe become of your forefathers? and doo the prophetes lyue for euer?
6 But did not thy wordes and statutes whiche I commaunded by my seruantes the prophetes take holde of your forefathers? and they returned, and sayde, Lyke as the Lord of hostes determined to doo vnto vs according vnto our owne wayes and imaginations, euen so hath he dealt with vs.
7 Upon the twentie and fourth day of the eleuenth moneth (which is the moneth Sebah) in the seconde yeere of Darius, came the worde of the Lorde vnto Zacharias the sonne of Barachias the sonne of Addo the prophete, saying,
8 I sawe by nyght, and beholde, there sate one vpon a red horse, and stoode styl among the Myrthe trees that were in a bottome: and behinde him were there red, speckled, and white horses.
9 Then sayde I, O my Lorde, what are these? And the angel that talked with me, sayde vnto me, I wyl shewe thee what these be.
10 And the man that stoode among the Myrte trees answeared, and sayde, These are they whom the Lorde hath sent to goe through the worlde.
11 And they answeared the angel of the Lorde that stoode among the Myrte trees, and sayde, We haue gone through the worlde, and beholde, al the worlde sitteth styl, and is careles.
12 Then the Lordes angel gaue answeare, and sayde, O Lorde of hostes, howe long wylt thou be merciful vnto Hierusalem, and to the cities of Juda, with whom thou hast ben displeased nowe these threescore and ten yeeres.
13 So the Lorde gaue a louyng and a comfortable answeare vnto the angel that talked with me.
14 And the angel that communed with me, sayde vnto me, *Crye thou, and speake, Thus sayth the Lord of hostes, I am exceedyng ielous ouer Hierusalem and Sion, 15 And sore displeased at the careles heathen: for where as I was but a litle angrie, they helped forwarde the affliction.
16 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde, I wyl returne vnto Hierusalem in tender mercie, so that my house shalbe buylded in it, sayth the Lorde of hostes: yea and the a line shal be stretched vpon Hierusalem.
17 Crye also and speake, thus sayth the Lorde of hostes, My cities through prosperitie shall be spread abrode, the Lord shal yet comfort Sion, and choose Hierusalem.
18 Then lyft I vp mine eyes and sawe, and beholde foure hornes.
19 And I sayde vnto the angel that talked with me, What be these? He answeared me, These are the hornes which haue scattered Juda, Israel, and Hierusalem.
20 And the Lorde shewed me foure Carpenters.
21 Then sayde I, What wyl these doo? He answeared, and sayd, These are the hornes which haue scattered Juda, so that no man durst lyft vp his head: but these are come to fraye them away, & to cast out the hornes of the Gentiles, which lyft vp their horne ouer the land of Juda, to scatter it abrode.

*Zach.8. 2.

¶ The.ii. Chapter.

The renewyng of Hierusalem and Iuda.

1 I Lyft vp mine eyes agayne and looked: and beholde a man with a measure line in his hande.
2 Then sayde I, Whyther goest thou? And he sayd vnto me, To measure Hierusalem, that I may see howe long and howe brode it is.
3 And beholde the angel that talked with me, went his way forth: then went there out another angel to meete hym,
4 And sayde vnto hym, Runne, speake to this young man, and say, Hierusalem shall be inhabited without any wall, for the very multitude of people and cattel that shall be therein.
5 For I mee selfe, sayth the Lorde, wyl be vnto her a wall of fyre rounde about, and wyl be the glory in the middest of her.
6 O geat you forth, O flee from the lande of the North, sayth the Lorde: for I haue scattered you into the foure wyndes of the heauen, sayth the Lorde.
7 Saue thee selfe, O Sion, thou that dwellest with the daughter of Babylon:
8 For thus sayth the Lorde of hostes, After this glory hath he sent me out to the heathen which spoiled you: for who so toucheth you, shal touche the apple of his owne eye.
9 Beholde, I wyl lyft vp myne hande ouer them, so that they shalbe spoyled of those which afore serued them: and ye shal know that the Lorde of hostes hath sent me.
10 Be glad and reioyce, O daughter Sion: for loe, I am come to dwel in the middest of thee, sayth the Lorde.
11 At the same tyme there shal many heathen cleaue to the Lord, and shalbe my people: thus wyl I dwel in the middest of thee, and thou shalt knowe that the Lorde of hostes hath sent me vnto thee.
12 The Lorde shal haue Juda in possession for his part in the holy lande, and shall choose choose Hierusalem yet agayne.

13 Let all flesshe be styl before the Lorde: for he is rayſed vp out of his holy place.

¶ The.iii.Chapter.

3. Of the lowe and high eſtate of Chriſte, vnder the figure of Ioſua the hygh Prieſte. 8. A propheſie of Chriſte.

1 AND he ſhewed me Ioſua the hygh Prieſt ſtandyng before the angel of the Lorde, and Satan ſtoode at his ryght hande to reſyſt hym.
2 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Satan, The Lorde reproue thee thou Sathan, yea the Lord that hath choſen Hieruſalem reproue thee: is not this a brande taken out of the fyre?
3 Nowe Ioſua was clothed in vncleane raiment, and ſtoode before the angel.
4 And he anſwered and ſayde vnto thoſe that ſtoode before hym, Take away the foule clothes from hym. And vnto hym he ſayde, Beholde, I haue taken away thy ſinne from thee, and I wyl clothe thee with change of rayment.
5 And I ſayde, Let them ſet a fayre myter vpon his head. So they ſet a fayre myter vpon his head, & put on clothes vpon hym, and the angel of the Lorde ſtoode there.
6 Then the angel of the Lorde teſtified vnto [a] Ioſuah, and ſpake, 7 Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, Yf thou wylt walke in my waies, & kepe my watch, thou ſhalt iudge my houſe, and keepe my courtes, and I wyll geue thee place among theſe that ſtande here.
8 Heare, O Ioſua thou hygh Prieſte, thou and thy felowes that ſit before thee, for they are monſtruous perſons: beholde, [b] I wyl bryng forth the branche my ſeruant.
9 For loe, the ſtone that I haue layde before Ioſua, vpon one ſtone ſhalbe ſeuen eyes: beholde, I wyl cut out the grauyng therof, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, and I wyl take away the ſinne of the lande in one day.
10 In that day ſhal euery man cal his neighbour vnder the Vine, and vnder the Fygge tree, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes.

[a] Iehſua.

¶ The.iiii.Chapter.

The viſion of the golden candleſticke, and the expoſition thereof.

1 AND the angel that talked with me came agayne, and waked me, as a man that is rayſed out of his ſleepe,
2 And ſayde vnto me, what ſeeſt thou? And I ſaide, I haue looked, and beholde a candleſticke al of golde, with a bowle vppon it, and his ſeuen lampes therein, and vppon euery lampe ſeuen pipes,
3 And two Oliue trees therby: one vpon the right ſide of the bowle, and the other vpon the left ſide.
4 So I anſwered and ſpake to the angell that talked with me, ſaying, O my Lorde, what are theſe?
5 The angel that talked with me anſwered and ſaide vnto me, Knoweſt thou not what theſe be? And I ſaide, No my Lorde.
6 He anſwered and ſaid vnto me, This is the woorde of the Lorde vnto Zorobabel, ſaying, Neither through an hoſt of men, nor through ſtrength: but through my ſpirite, ſaith the Lorde of hoſtes.
7 What art thou great mountaine before Zorobabel? thou muſt be made euen, and he ſhal bring forth the head ſtone therof, with ſhoutinges, crying, Grace, grace vnto it.
8 Moreouer, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſaying,
9 The handes of Zorobabel haue layde the fundation of this houſe, his handes ſhal alſo finiſhe it: and thou ſhalt knowe that the Lorde of hoſtes hath ſent me vnto you:
10 For who hath deſpyſed the day of ſmall thynges? they ſhal reioyce, and ſhal ſee the ſtone of [a] tynne in the hand of Zorobabel: theſe ſeuen are the eyes of the Lorde, which goe through the whole worlde.
11 Then anſwered I, and ſayde vnto him, What are theſe two Oliue trees vpon the ryght and left ſyde of the candleſtycke?
12 I ſpake moreouer, and ſayde vnto hym, What be theſe two Oliue branches, which through the two golden pipes emptie themſelues into the golde?
13 He anſwered me, and ſayde, Knoweſt thou not what theſe be? And I ſayde, No my Lorde.
14 Then ſaide he, Theſe are the two Oliue branches that ſtande with the ruler of the whole earth.

[a] A plummet of tinne, as now men vſe plummets of lead.

¶ The.v. Chapter.

1. The viſion of the fleeing booke, ſignifiyng the curſe of theeues, and ſuche as abuſe the name of God. 6. By the viſion of the meaſure, is ſignified the bryngyng of Iuda to Babylon.

1 SO I turned me, lyftyng vp myne eyes, and looked, and behold a fleeyng booke.
2 And he ſayde vnto me, What ſeeſt thou? I anſwered, I ſee a fleeing booke of twenty cubites long, and ten cubites brode.

3 Then ſayde he vnto me, This is the curſe that goeth foorth ouer the whole earth: for al theeues ſhalbe "iudged after this booke, and all periured perſons ſhalbe iudged accordyng to the ſame.

4 And I wyl bryng it foorth, ſayth the Lord of hoſtes, ſo that it ſhall enter into the houſe of the theefe, and into the houſe of him that falſly ſweareth by my name, & ſhal remaine in the myddeſt of his houſe, and conſume it, with the tymber and ſtones thereof.

5 Then the angel that talked with me, went foorth, and ſayd vnto me, Lyft vp thyne eyes, and ſee what is this that goeth foorth.

6 And I ſayd, What is it? He anſwered, This is a "meaſure goyng out. He ſayde moreouer, Euen thus are they that dwell vpon the whole earth to looke vpon.

7 And beholde, there was lyft vp a talent of lead: and loe, a woman ſate in the myddeſt of the "meaſure.

8 And he ſayde, This is vngodlyneſſe: ſo he caſt her into the myddeſt of the "meaſure, and threwe the lumpe of lead into the myddeſt of the "meaſure.

9 Then lyft I vp myne eyes, and looked, and beholde, there came out two women, and the wynde was in their wynges: for they had wynges lyke the wynges of a Stozke, and they lyft vp the "meaſure betwixt the earth and the heauen.

10 Then ſake I to the angel that talked with me, Whyther wyl theſe beare the meaſure?

11 And he ſayde vnto me, Into the lande of Sinnaar to buyld it an houſe, and it ſhalbe eſtabliſhed, & ſet there vpon her owne place.

" Or, out of (as it is vvritten) on the one ſide: and al periured perſons ſhalbe cut of, as is in the other ſide.

" Or, Ephah.

" Or, Ephah.

" Or, Ephah.

" Or, Ephah.

¶ The. vi. Chapter.

2. By the foure charrets he deſcribeth the proſperitie of foure kingdomes.

1 MOreouer I turned me, lyftyng vp myne eyes, and looked, and beholde, there came foure charrets out from betwixt two hils, which hils were of braſſe.

2 In the firſt charret were red hoꝛſes, in the ſecond charret were blacke hoꝛſes,

3 In the thyꝛde charret were whyte hoꝛſes, in the fourth charret were hoꝛſes of dyuers colours, and ſtrong.

4 Then ſpake I, and ſayde vnto the angell that talked with me, O my Lord, What are theſe?

5 The angel anſwered, and ſayde vnto me, Theſe are the foure ſpirites of the heauen, whiche be come foorth to ſtande before the ruler of al the earth.

6 That with the blacke hoꝛſe went foorth into the lande of the Noꝛth, and the whyte folowed them, & the ſpeckled hoꝛſes went foorth towarde the South.

7 And the "ſtrong hoꝛſes went out, and required to goe and take their iourney ouer the whole earth: and he ſayde, Get you hence, and goe through the woꝛlde: ſo they went throughout the woꝛlde.

" Or, the ſpeckled.

8 Then cryed he vpon me, and ſpake vnto me, ſaying, Beholde, theſe that goe toward the Noꝛth, ſhall ſtyl my wꝛath in the Noꝛth countrey.

9 And the woꝛde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſaying,

10 Take of the priſoners that are come from captiuitie, namely, Heldai, Tobiah, and Idaia, whiche came from Babylon: and come thou the ſame day, and goe vnto the houſe of Joſiah the ſonne of Sophonia.

11 Then take golde and ſyluer, and make crownes therof, & ſet them vpon the head of Joſua the ſonne of Joſedech the high prieſt, 12 And ſpeake vnto hym, Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, "Beholde the man whoſe name is the branche, and he ſhal growe vp out of his place, and he ſhal buylde vp the temple of the Lorde.

" Luk. 1. 78.

13 Yea euen he ſhall buylde vp the temple of the Lorde, and he ſhall beare the prayſe: he ſhal ſit vpon "the Lordes throne, and haue the dominion: a Prieſt ſhal he be alſo vpon his throne, and a peaceable counſell ſhalbe betwixt them both.

" Or, his.

14 And the crowne ſhalbe to Helem, and to Tobiah, and to Idaia, & to Hen the ſonne of Zophoni, for a memorial in the temple of the Lorde.

15 And ſuche as be farre of ſhal come and buylde in the temple of the Lorde, that ye may knowe howe that the Lorde of hoſtes hath ſent me vnto you: and this ſhal come to paſſe, yf ye wyll hearken diligently vnto the voyce of the Lorde your God.

¶ The. vii. Chapter.

1. The true faſting. 11. The rebellion of the people, is the cauſe of their affliction.

1 AND the fourth yeere of kyng Darius, the woꝛde of the Lorde came vnto Zacharia, in the fourth day of the nienth moneth, whiche is called Calleu,

2 What tyme as Saraſar & Rogomelech, and the men that were with them, ſent vnto the houſe of God for to pray before the lord:

3 And that they ſhould ſpeake vnto the prieſtes whiche were in the houſe of the Lorde of hoſtes, and to the Prophetes, ſaying, Should Shoulde I weepe in the fifth moneth, and abſteyne as I haue done nowe theſe ſo many yeeres?

4 Then came the woorde of the Lorde of hoſtes vnto me, ſaying,

5 Speake vnto al the people of the lande, and to the prieſtes, & ſay, *When ye faſted and mourned in the fifth and ſeuenth moneth nowe this threeſcore and ten yeeres, dyd ye faſt vnto me? *Zach.7.5.

6 When ye dyd alſo eate and drynke, dyd ye not eate and drynke for your owne ſelues?

7 Are not theſe the woordes which the Lord ſpake by his Prophetes aforetyme, when Hieruſalem was yet inhabited and wealthie, he and the cities rounde about her, when there dwelt men both towarde the South and in the playne countreyes?

8 And the woorde of the Lorde came vnto Zacharie, ſaying, 9 Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, Execute true iudgement, ſhewe mercie and louyng kyndneſſe euery man to his brother.

Exo.22.22 Eſai.1.23. Ier.6.28. 10 *Doo the widowe, the fatherleſſe, the ſtrangers and poore no wrong, and let no man imagine euyl againſt his brother in his hart.

11 Neuertheleſſe, they would not take heede, but turned their "backes, and ſtopped their eares, that they ſhoulde not heare. "Or, ſhoulders.

12 Yea they made their hartes as an Adamant ſtone, leſt they ſhoulde heare the lawe and woordes whiche the Lorde of hoſtes ſent in his holy ſpirite by the Prophetes aforetyme: wherefore the Lorde of hoſtes was very wroth at them.

13 And thus is it come to paſſe, that like as he cryed, and they woulde not heare: euen ſo they cryed, and I would not heare, ſayth the Lorde God of hoſtes, 14 But ſcattered them among al the nations whom they knewe not: thus the lande was made ſo deſolate after them, that there trauayled no man in it, neyther to nor fro: for that pleaſant lande was vtterly layde waſte.

The viii. Chapter.

1. Of the returne of the people vnto Hieruſalem, and of the mercie of God toward them. 16. Of good woorkes. 20. The calling of the Gentiles.

1 AND the woorde of the Lord of hoſtes came vnto me, ſaying,

2 Thus ſayth the Lord of hoſtes, I was in great ielouſie for Sion, yea I haue ben very ielous for her with great wrath.

3 Thus ſayth the Lorde, I wyl returne vnto Sion, and wyl dwel in the middeſt of Hieruſalem: ſo that Hieruſalem ſhalbe called, A faythful and true citie, the hyl of the Lorde of hoſtes, an holy hyl.

4 Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, There ſhal yet olde men and olde women dwel agayne in the ſtreetes of Hieruſalem: yea and ſuch as goe with ſtaues in their handes for very age.

5 The ſtreetes of the citie alſo ſhalbe ful of young boyes and damſels, playing in the ſtreetes thereof.

6 Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, If the reſidue of this people thinke it to be vnpoſſible in their eyes in theſe dayes: ſhoulde it therefore be vnpoſſible in my ſight, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes?

7 Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, Beholde, I wyl delyuer my people from the countreyes of the Eaſt and Weſt, 8 And wyl bryng them agayne, that they may dwel in the middeſt of Hieruſalem: they ſhalbe my people, and I wyl be their God in trueth and ryghteouſneſſe.

9 Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, Let your handes be ſtrong, ye that nowe heare theſe woordes by the mouth of the Prophetes whiche are in theſe dayes, that the fundation of the houſe of the Lord of hoſtes is layde, that the temple may be buylded.

10 For before theſe dayes neyther men nor cattel coulde winne any a thyng, neyther might any man come in and out in reſt for trouble: but I let euery man goe againſt his neyghbour.

a. They laboured & toyled them ſelues and their cattel without encreaſe, becauſe they cared not for Gods glory in reedifying of the temple, but went about their priuate gayne.

11 Neuertheleſſe, I wyl nowe entreate the reſidue of this people no more as aforetime, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes.

12 For the ſeede ſhal proſper, the vine ſhall geue her fruite, the grounde ſhall geue her encreaſe, and the heauens ſhall geue their dewe, and I ſhal cauſe the remnant of this people to haue the ſame in poſſeſſion:

13 And it ſhal come to paſſe, that lyke as ye were a curſe among the heathen, O ye houſe of Iuda & ye houſe of Iſrael, euen ſo wyl I delyuer you, that ye ſhalbe a bleſſing: feare not, but let your handes be ſtrong.

14 For thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, Like as I thought to puniſhe you, what tyme as your fathers prouoked me vnto wrath, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, and ſpared not:

15 Euen ſo am I determined nowe in theſe dayes for to doo wel vnto the houſe of Iuda and Hieruſalem: therefore feare ye not.

16 Nowe the thynges that ye ſhal doo, are theſe, *Speake euery man the trueth vnto his neyghbour, execute iudgement trulye *Ephe.4.25.

17 And let none of you imagine euyl in his hart againſt his neyghbour, and loue no falſe othes: for al theſe are the thinges that I hate, ſayth the Lorde.

18 And the woorde of the Lorde of hoſtes came vnto me, ſaying, 19 Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, The faſt of the fourth moneth, the faſt of the fifth, the faſt of the ſeuenth, and the faſt of the tenth, ſhalbe ioy and gladneſſe, and proſperous hygh feaſtes vnto the houſe of Iuda: onely loue the trueth and peace.

20 Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, There ſhal yet come people, and the inhabiters of many cities:

21 And they that dwel in one citie ſhal goe to another, ſaying, Ay, Let vs goe and pray before the Lorde, let vs ſeeke the Lorde of hoſtes: I wyl goe with you.

22 Yea muche people and mightie nations ſhal come to ſeeke the Lorde of hoſtes at Hieruſalem, and to pray before the Lorde.

23 Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, In that tyme ſhalten men (out of al maner of language of the Gentiles) take one Iewe by the hemme of his garment, and ſay, We wyl goe with you: for we haue heard that God is among you.

¶ The.ix. Chapter.

1. The conuerſion of the Gentiles. 9. The commyng of Chriſte ſittyng on an Aſſe.

1 THe burden of the woorde of the Lorde in the lande of Hadrach: and Damaſcus ſhalbe his reſt, when the eyes of men, euen al the tribes of Iſrael ſhalbe towards the Lorde.

2 The borders of Hemath ſhalbe harde thereby, Tyrus alſo and Sidon, for they are very wyſe.

3 Tyrus ſhal make her ſelfe ſtrong, heape vp ſyluer as the ſande, and golde as the clay of the ſtreetes.

4 Beholde, the Lorde ſhal ſpoyle her, he ſhal ſmite downe her power in the ſea, and ſhe ſhalbe conſumed with fyre.

5 This ſhal Aſcalon ſee, and be afrayde: Gaza ſhalbe very ſory, ſo ſhal Accaron alſo, becauſe her hope is come to confuſion: For the kyng of Gaza ſhal perihe, and at Aſcalon ſhal no man dwel.

6 Strangers ſhal dwel at Aſdod, and as for the pride of the Philiſtines I ſhal roote it out.

7 Their blood wyl I take away from their mouth, and their abominations from betweene their teeth: Thus they that ſhalbe left ſhalbe for our GOD, he ſhalbe as a prince in Iuda, and Accaron lyke as a Iebuſite.

8 And I wyl pitche a campe a about mine houſe againſt the armie, againſt hym that paſſeth by, and againſt hym that returneth, and no oppreſſour ſhal come vppon them any more: for nowe I haue ſeene with mine eyes. a God is ſtrong yenough to defende his Church againſt al his aduerſaries.

9 Reioyce thou greatly, O daughter Sion, be glad, O daughter Hieruſalem: for loe, thy kyng commeth vnto thee, euen the righteous and ſauiour, lowly and ſimple is he, he rydeth vpon an Aſſe, and vpon the foale of an Aſſe. *Eſai.62.11 Matth.21.5.

10 I wyl roote out the charrettes from Ephraim, and the horſe from Hieruſalem, the battayle bowes ſhalbe deſtroyed, he ſhall geue the doctrine of peace vnto the heathen: and his dominion ſhalbe from the one ſea to the other, and from the ryuer to the ende of the worlde.

11 Thou alſo ſhalt be ſaued through the bloud of thy couenant: I haue looſed thy priſoners out of the pit wherein is no water.

12 Turne you nowe to the ſtrong holde ye that be in priſon and long ſore to be deliuered: euen this day I bryng thee woorde, that I wyl rewarde thee double againe.

13 For Iuda haue I bent as a bowe for me, Ephraim his hande haue I fylled, and thy ſonnes, O Sion, wyl I rayſe vp againſt the Greekes, and make thee as a Giantes ſwoorde.

14 The Lord God ſhalbe ſeene aboue them, and his dartes ſhal goe forth as the lyghtnyng: the Lorde God ſhal blowe the trumpet, and ſhal come forth as a ſtorme out of the South.

15 The Lorde of hoſtes ſhal defende them, they ſhal conſume and deuoure, and ſubdue them with ſlyng ſtones, they ſhal drynke and rage as it were through wine, they ſhal be fylled lyke the baſons, and as the hornes of the aulter.

16 The Lorde their God ſhal delyuer them in that day, as the flocke of his people: for as pretious ſtones of a Diademe they ſhalbe ſet vp ouer his lande.

17 O howe great is his goodneſſe, and howe excellent his beautie? For the corne ſhall make the young men cheareful, and the newe wine the maydens.

¶ The x. Chapter.

1. The people is moued to requyre the doctrine of the trueth of the Lorde. 3. The Lorde promiſeth to viſite and comfort the houſe of Iſrael.

1 Pray

1 PRay the Lorde then betymes to geue the latter rayne, so shal the lord make bright cloudes, and geue you rayne yenough, and to euery one grasse in the feelde.

2 For vayne is the answeare of idols, the soothsayers see lyes, and the dreamers tell but vayne thynges, the comfort that they geue is nothyng worth: therfore they went away lyke a flocke of sheepe, and were troubled, because they had no shepheard.

3 My wrathfull displeasure was mooued agaynst the shepheardes, and I wyl visite the Goates: for the Lorde of hostes wyll visite his flocke the house of Juda, and wyll make them as a goodly fayre horse in the battell.

4 Out of Juda shal come the corner, the nayle, the battell bowe, and the appoynter of tribute also.

5 They shalbe as giantes whiche in the battell treade downe theyr enimies in the myre of the streetes: they shall fyght, for the Lorde shalbe with them, and the horsemen shalbe confounded.

6 I wyl comfort the house of Juda, and preserue the house of Joseph, I wil bring them againe, for I pitie them, and they shalbe like as they were when I had not cast them of: for I the Lord am their God, and wyl heare them.

7 Ephraim shalbe as a Giant, and their hart shalbe chearefull as through wyne: yea, their children shall see it, and be glad, and their hart shal reioyce in the Lorde.

8 I wyl hisse for them, and geather them togeather, for I wyll redeeme them, they shal encrease, as they encreased afore.

9 I wyll sowe them among the people, that they may thinke vppon me in farre countreys, they shal lyue with their children, and turne agayne.

10 I wyll bryng them agayne also from the lande of Egypt, and geather them out of Assyria: I wyl carie them into the lande of Gilead, and to Libanus, and a place a shall not be founde for them.

11 And affliction shall passe ouer vnto the sea, and smite the sea waues, so that al the deepe floods shalbe dryed vp, the proude boastyng of Assur shalbe cast downe, and the scepter of Egypt shalbe taken away.

12 I wyll comfort them in the Lorde, that they may walke in his name, sayth the Lorde.

a The multitude shalbe so great.

¶ The.xi.Chapter.

1. The destruction of the temple. 4. The care of the faythfull is committed to Christe by the father. 7. A greeuous vision agaynst Hierusalem and Iuda.

1 OPen the doores, O Libanus, that the fire may consume thy Cedar trees.

2 Howle ye fyrre trees, for the Cedar is fallē, yea, al the proude are wasted away: Howle, O ye Oke trees of Basan, for the myghtie strong wood is cut downe.

3 Men may heare the shepheardes mourne, for theyr glorie is destroyed, men may heare the Lions whelpes roare, for the pride of Jordane is wasted away.

4 Thus sayth the Lorde my God, Feede the sheepe of the slaughter,

5 Whiche haue ben slayne of those that possessed them, yet they tooke it for no sinne, but they that solde them, sayde, The Lorde be thanked, for I am ryche, yea, their owne shepheardes spare them not.

6 Therefore wyl I no more spare those that dwell in the lande, sayth the Lorde: but loe, I wyll delyuer the people, euery man into his neyghbours hande, and into the hande of his kyng, that they may smyte the lande, and out of theyr handes I wyll not delyuer them.

7 I mee selfe fedde the slaughter sheepe, a poore flocke veryly, and tooke vnto me two staues, the one called Beautie, the other called Bandes: and so fedde the sheepe.

8 Three shepheardes I put out of office in one moneth, for I myght not away with them: neyther had they any delyght in me.

9 Then sayde I, I wyl feede you no more: the thyng that dyeth, let it dye: and that that wyll perysh, let it perysh: and let the remnaunt eate euery one the fleshe of his neighbour. *Jere.15.2.

10 I tooke also my staffe euen Beautie, and brake it, that I myght disanul the couenant whiche I made with all people.

11 And so it was broken in that day, then the poore simple sheepe that had a respect vnto me, knewe thereby that it was the worde of the Lorde.

12 And I sayde vnto them, If ye thynke it good, bryng hyther my wages, if no, then leaue. So they wayed downe thirtie syluer pence, the value that I was prysed at. *Mat.27.7.

13 And the Lorde sayde vnto me, Cast it vnto the potter, a goodly price for me to be valued at of them. And I tooke the thirtie syluer pence, and cast them to the potter in the house of the Lorde.

14 Then brake I my other staffe also, namely Bandes, that I myght loose the brotherhood betwixt Inda and Israel.

15 And the Lorde sayde vnto me, Take thee also the staffe of a foolishe shepheard. "or, instrument,

16 For loe, I wyll rayse vp a shepheard in the lande, which shal not seeke after the thynges that be lost, nor seeke the tender lambes, he shall ſhal not heale the wounded, he ſhal not nouriſhe the thynges that are whole: but he ſhal eate the fleſhe of ſuche as be fat, & teare their clawes in peeces.

17 O idol ſhepheard that leaueth the flocke, the ſwoorde ſhall come vppon his arme, and vppon his ryght eye: his arme ſhalbe cleane dryed vp, and his ryght eye ſhalbe ſore blynded.

¶ The.xii. Chapter.

Of the deſtruction, and buyldyng agayne of Hieruſalem.

1 THE heauy burden whiche the Lorde hath deuiſed for Iſrael. Thus ſaith the Lord which ſpread the heauens abrode, layde the fundation of the earth, and gaue man the breath of lyfe.

2 Beholde, I wyll make Hieruſalem a cup of "ſurfet vnto all the people that are round about her: yea Juda hym ſelfe alſo ſhalbe in the ſiege agaynſt Hieruſalem.

"Or, poyſon.

3 At the ſame tyme wyl I make Hieruſalem an heauie ſtone for al people, ſo that al ſuche as lift it vp ſhalbe torne and rent, and al the people of the earth ſhalbe geathered togeather agaynſt it.

4 In that day, ſayth the Lorde, I wyl make al horſes aſtonied, and thoſe that ryde vpon them to be out of their wittes: I wyll open mine eyes vpō the houſe of Juda, and ſmite al the horſes of the people with blyndneſſe.

5 And the princes of Juda ſhall ſay in their hartes, The inhabiters of Hieruſalem ſhall geue me conſolation in the Lorde of hoſtes their God.

6 In that tyme wyll I make the princes of Juda like an hot burning ouen with wood, and lyke a fyrebrande among the "ſtrawe, ſo that they ſhal conſume al the people rounde about them, both vpon the right hande, and vpon the left: Hieruſalem alſo ſhalbe inhabited againe, namely in the ſame place where Hieruſalem ſtandeth.

7 The Lorde ſhall preſerue the tentes of Juda as aforetyme, ſo that the glory of the houſe of Dauid, and the glory of the citizens of Hieruſalem, ſhall not be exalted agaynſt Juda.

8 In that day ſhall the Lorde defende the citizens of Hieruſalem, ſo that the weakeſt then among them ſhalbe as Dauid, and the houſe of Dauid ſhalbe as Gods houſe, and as the angel of the Lorde before them.

9 At the ſame tyme wyll I goe about to deſtroy all ſuche people as goe agaynſt Hieruſalem.

10 Moreouer, vpon the houſe of Dauid, and vppon the citizens of Hieruſalem wyll I powre out the ſpirite of grace and compaſſion, ſo that they ſhal looke vpon me whom they haue pearſed, and they ſhall lament for him, as men mourne for their only begotten ſonne: yea, and be ſory for hym, as men are ſory for their firſt chylde. *Iohn.19.37

11 Then ſhall there be a great mournyng at Hieruſalem, *lyke as the lamentation of Adadriemmon in the feelde of Mygeddon. *2.Chro.35.22.

12 And the lande ſhal bewayle, euery kinred by thē ſelues alone: the kynred of the houſe of Dauid by them ſelues, and their wyues by them ſelues: the kynred of the houſe of Nathan them ſelues, and their wyues by them ſelues:

13 The kynrede of the houſe of Leui them ſelues alone, and their wyues by them ſelues: the kynrede of the houſe of Semei them ſelues alone, and their wyues by them ſelues.

14 In lyke maner, all the other generations euery one by them ſelues alone, and their wyues by them ſelues.

¶ The.xiii Chapter.

1. Of the vvel of grace and trueth. 2. Of the cleane ryddance of idolatrie, and of falſe prophetes.

1 IN that tyme ſhal the houſe of Dauid and the citizens of Hieruſalem haue an open well to waſhe of ſinne and vncleanneſſe.

2 *And then ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, I wyl deſtroy the names of the idolles out of the lande, ſo that they ſhal no more be put in remembrance: as for the falſe prophetes alſo, and the vncleane ſpirites, I wyll take them out of the lande. *Exe.30.13

3 So that if any of them propheſie any more, his owne father and mother that begate him, ſhal ſay vnto him, Thou ſhalt not liue, for thou ſpeakeſt lyes vnder the name of the Lord: yea, his owne father and mother that begate hym ſhal wounde hym when he propheſieth.

4 And then ſhal thoſe prophetes be confounded, euery one of his viſion when he propheſieth: neyther ſhall they weare heare cloth any more to deceiue men withal.

5 But he ſhalbe fayne to ſay, I am no prophete, I am an huſbandman: for ſo am I taught by man from my youth vp.

6 And yf it be ſayde vnto hym, Howe came theſe woundes then in thyne handes? he ſhal anſweare, Thus was I wounded in the houſe of myne owne freendes.

7 Aryſe, O thou ſwoorde, vppon my ſhepheard, and vpon the man that is my felow, ſayth sayth the Lorde of hostes: * smite the shepheard, & the sheepe shalbe scattered abrode, and so wil I turne my hand to ỳ little ones.

8 And it shal come to passe, saith the Lorde, that in al the land two partes shalbe rooted out and dye, but the third part shal remaine therein.

9 And the same third part wyl I bring thorowe the fyre, and wyl cleanse them as the siluer is cleansed, yea and try them like as golde is tryed: then shal they call vpon my name, and I wyl heare them. I wyl say, It is my people, and they shal say, Lorde my God.

1. The wasting of the Churche vnder the figure of Hierusalem. 9. Of the kingdome of the Lorde.

1 BEholde, the day of the Lord commeth, and thy spoyle shal be diuided in the middest of thee.

2 For I wyll gather togeather all the Heathen to fight against Hierusalem, so that the citie shalbe wonne, the houses spoyled, and the women defiled: the halfe of the citie shal goe away into captiuitie, and the residue of the people * shal not be caried out of the citie.

3 After that the Lord shal goe forth to fight against those Heathen, as men vse to fyght in the day of battayle.

4 Then shal his feete stand vpon the mount Oliuete that lyeth vpon the East side of Hierusalem, and the mount Oliuete shall cleaue in two, Eastward and Westward, so that there shalbe a great valley: and the halfe mount shal remoue toward ỳ North, and the other toward the South.

5 And ye shal flee vnto ỳ valley of my hilles, for the valley of the hilles shall reache vnto Asal: yea, flee shal ye like as ye fled for the earthquake * in the dayes of Oziah kyng of Juda: and the Lord my God shal come, and al the saintes with him.

6 In that day shal there be no cleare light, but darke.

7 This shalbe that speciall day whiche is knowen vnto the Lorde, neither day nor night: but about the euenyng time it shalbe light.

8 In that time shall there waters of life runne out from Hierusalem: the halfe part of them toward the East sea, and the other halfe toward the vttermost sea, and shall continue both sommer and winter.

9 And the Lorde him selfe shalbe king ouer all the earth: At that time shall there be one Lorde only, and his name shalbe but one.

10 All the lande shalbe turned as a plaine from Gibea to Remmon towards ỳ South of Hierusalem: She shalbe set vp, and inhabitied in her place, frō Beniamins port, vnto the place of the first port, and vnto the corner port, and from the towre of Hananel vnto the kinges wine presses.

11 There shal men dwell, and there shalbe no more destruction, but Hierusalem shalbe safely inhabited.

12 This shalbe the plague wherewith the Lorde wyl smite al people that haue fought against Hierusalem, their flesh shall consume away, though they stand vpon their feete, their eies shalbe corrupt in their holes, and their tongue shall consume in their mouth.

13 In that day shall the Lorde make a great sedition among them: so that one man shall take another by the hand, and lay his handes vppon the handes of his neyghbour.

14 Juda shal fight against Hierusalem, and the armies of al the Heathen shalbe geathered togeather round about with golde and siluer, and a very great multitude of apparel.

15 And this plague shall goe ouer Horses, Mules, Cammels, Asses, and al the beastes that shalbe in ỳ host, like as youder plague was.

16 Euery one that remayneth then of al the people whiche came against Hierusalem, shal goe vp yeere by yeere to worship the king euen the Lorde of hostes, and to keepe the feast of tabernacles.

17 And looke what generation vppon the earth goeth not to Hierusalem for to worship the king the Lorde of hostes, vppon the same shal come no raine.

18 Yf the kynred of Egypt goe not vp, and come not, it shal not rayne vpon them: This shalbe the plague wherewith the Lord wyll smite all the Heathen that come not vp to keepe the feast of tabernacles, 19 Yea this shalbe the plague of Egypt, and the plague of all people that goe not vp to keepe the feast of tabernacles.

20 At that time shal the ryding geare of the horses be holy vnto the Lorde: the kettles in the Lordes house shalbe like the basons before the aulter.

21 Yea, all the kettles in Hierusalem and Juda shalbe holy vnto the Lorde of hostes: and al they that slay offerynges, shall come and take of them, and seeth therein: And at that time there shalbe no more Chanaanites in the house of the Lorde of hostes.

The ende of the prophesie of Zacharias.

¶ The booke of the prophete Malachias.

The fyrſt Chapter.

A complaint agaynſt Iſrael, and cheefely the prieſtes.

1 THE a burden of the woorde of the Lorde to Iſrael, by the miniſterie of Malacht.

a. That is, the greeuous and threatnyng propheſie.

2 I haue loued you ſayth ỹ Lord: yet ye ſay, Wherin haſt thou loued vs? b Was not Eſau Iacobs brother, ſayth the Lord, * yet loued I Iacob.

b. In our election is Gods great loue to vsward declared.

*Rom. 9. 13.

3 And I hated Eſau, and made his mountaynes waſte, and his heritage a wylderneſſe for dragons.

4 Though Edom ſay, we are impouerished, but we wyll returne and build the deſolate places: yet ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, They ſhall build, but I wyll deſtroy: and they ſhal call them, The border of wickednesſe, and the people with whom the Lorde is angry for euer.

5 And your eyes ſhall ſee: and you ſhall ſay, The Lorde wyl be magnified vpon the borders of Iſrael.

6 A ſonne honoureth his father, and a ſeruant his maiſter: If then I be a father, where is myne honour? If I be a maiſter, where is my feare, ſayth the Lorde GOD of hoſtes, to you, O ye prieſtes that deſpiſe my name? and ye ſay, Wherein haue we deſpiſed thy name?

7 Ye offer vppon myne aulter c vncleane bread, and ſay, Wherein haue we polluted thee? In that ye ſay, The table of the Lord is not to be regarded.

c. Vnpure ſacrifices: for by bread in ſcripture, are ſignified al things that nourishe.

8 When ye bring the blind for ſacrifyce, you ſay it is not euil: and when ye bring ỹ lame and ſicke, you ſay it is not euil: offer it nowe d to thy prince, wil he be content with thee, or accept thy perſon, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes?

d. Thou offereſt that to me, which thou art aſhamed to geue to a mortall man, ſo greatly doeſt thou contemne my lawe.

9 And nowe I pray you, pray before God, that he may haue mercie vpon vs (this euyll hath been done by your meanes) wyll he regard your perſons, ſaith the Lord of hoſtes?

10 Who is there euen among you that would ſhut the doores, and kindle not fyre on mine aulter in vayne? e I haue no pleaſure in you, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, neyther wyll I accept an offering at your hand.

e. Againſt all thoſe that followe religion for lukers ſake.

11 From the ryſing of the ſunne vnto the going downe of the ſame, my name is great among the Gentiles, and in euery place incenſe ſhalbe offered to my name, & a pure offering: for my name is great among the very Heathen, ſayth the Lord of hoſtes.

f. Al nations ſhal call vpon my name: for incence doeth ſignifie the worſhip of god.

12 But ye haue g polluted it, in that ye ſay, The table of the Lorde is polluted, and the "fruite thereof, euen his meate is not to be regarded.

g. The Gentiles ſhal honor me: but you defile my name. Thus are you farre worſe then they, whom you iudge moſt vyle.

"Or, vyand.

13 And ye ſaide, Beholde, it is a weerineſſe, and you haue ſnuffed at it, ſayth the Lord of hoſtes, and ye haue offered the ſtolne, and the lame, and the ſicke, ye haue offered an offring: ſhould I accept this of your hands, ſayth the Lord?

14 Curſed be the deceitfull whiche hath in his flocke a male, and voweth, and ſacrificeth a corrupt thing to the Lord: becauſe I am a great king, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, and my name is fearefull among the Heathen.

¶ The.ii. Chapter.

Threatnynges agaynſt the prieſtes, being ſeducers of the people.

1 AND nowe, O ye prieſtes, this commaundement is for you.

2 * If ye wyl not heare it, nor regarde it, to geue the glory to my name, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, I wyl ſend a curſe vppon you, and wyl curſe your bleſſinges, yea I haue curſed them alredy, becauſe ye doo not conſyder it in your hart.

*Leui. 26. 14 Deu. 28. 15.

a. God is the authour of fearfulnes, leſt they ſhould impute it to any other cauſe.

3 Behold, I wyl a corrupt your ſeede, and caſt b doung on your faces, euen ỹ doung of your ſolemne feaſtes, and you ſhalbe like vnto it.

b. I wyl bring you to confuſion and ſhame.

c. To walke with God, is to walke accordyng to his wil.

d. Towardes God & towards men.

4 And you ſhal knowe that I haue ſent this commaundement vnto you, that my couenant which I haue made with Leui might ſtand, ſaith the Lord of hoſtes.

5 My couenant was with him of life and peace, and I gaue them him for the feare wherewith he feared me, and was afrayde before my name.

e. Al peace is not commended, but that which is in equitie: therefore euery ſent of the wicked is to be auoyded, becauſe it is not in trueth.

6 The lawe of trueth was in his mouth, and there was no iniquitie founde in his lippes, he c walked with me d in peace and in e equitie, and he turned many from their iniquitie.

f. The prieſt therefore muſt be learned in the law, otherwiſe the people ſeeke an anſweare at his mouth in vain.

7 f For the prieſtes lippes ſhall keepe knowledge, and they ſhall ſeeke the lawe at his mouth: becauſe he is the meſſenger of the Lorde of hoſtes.

8 But ye haue gone out of the way, ye haue caused many to fal by the lawe, ye haue corrupted the couenant of Leui, sayth the Lord of hostes.

9 Therefore haue I also made you despised and vyle before all the people, because you kept not my wayes, but haue ben parcial in the lawe.

10 * Haue we not all one father? hath not God made vs al? why then is euery one de-ceiued of his brother, to violate the covenant of our fathers?

11 Juda hath offended, and abomination is committed in Israel and in Hierusalem: for Juda hath defyled the holynesse of the Lord whiche he loued, & hath maryed the daughter of a strange God.

12 The Lorde wyll destroy the man that doth this, both the * rayser vp, and the ans-swearer out of the tabernacle of Jacob, and hym that offereth an offering vnto the Lord of hostes.

13 g And this agayne haue ye done in cou-eryng the aulter of the lord with teares, with weepyng and mournyng, and therfore there is no more respect to the offeryng, neyther acceptable receiuing of it at your handes.

14 Yet ye say, Wherein? Because the Lorde hath been witnesse betweene thee and the wyfe of thy youth, agaynst whom thou hast transgressed, yet is shee thyne owne companion, and the wyfe of thy couenant.

15 And dyd not he make one? yet had he abundance of spirite: And wherfore one? Because he sought a godly seede: therfore keepe your selues in your spirite, and let none transgresse against the wyfe of his youth.

16 If thou hatest her, put her away, sayth the Lorde God of Israel: yet he couereth the iniurie vnder his garment, sayth the Lord of hostes, and be ye kept in your spirit, and transgresse not.

17 Ye haue weeried the Lorde with your wordes, and you haue sayde, Wherein haue we weeryed hym? Whylest you saye, Euery one that doth euyll, is good in the sight of the lord, and he is pleased in them: or where is the God of iudgement?

¶ The.iii.Chapter.

Of the messenger of the Lorde Iohn Baptist, and of Christes office.

BEholde, * I wyl send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me, and the Lord a whom ye seeke, shal speedily come to his temple, and the messenger of the couenant whom ye desyre, beholde he commeth, sayth the Lorde of hostes.

2 But who may abyde the day of his commyng? and who shal stande when he appeareth? for he is lyke a purgyng fyre, and lyke Fullers sope.

3 And he shall sit downe to trye and fyne the syluer, and he shal purge the chyldren of Le-ui, and purifie them as gold and syluer: and they shal bryng vnto the Lorde offeringes in ryghteousnesse.

4 Then shal the b offerynges of Juda and Hierusalem be acceptable vnto the Lorde as in olde tyme, and as in the yeeres afore.

5 And I wyll come neare to you in iudge-met, and I wil be a c swift witnesse against the d soothsayers, and agaynst the adulte-rers, and agaynst false swearers, & agaynst those that wrongfully keepe backe the hire-linges wages, and vexe the widowe and the fatherlesse, and oppresse the stranger, and feare not me, sayth the Lorde of hostes.

6 For I am the Lorde, I chaunge not: and ye sonnes of Jacob are not consumed.

7 From the dayes of your fathers ye are gone away from mine ordinances, and haue not kept them: turne you to me, and I wyll turne to you, sayth the Lorde of hostes. And ye sayde, Wherin shal we returne?

8 Wyll a man e spoyle his goodes? yet ye haue spoyled me, and ye say, Wherein haue we spoyled thee? In tythes and offerynges.

9 Ye are cursed with a curie, and me haue ye spoyled, euen this whole nation.

10 Bryng euery tythe into the store house, that there may be meate in myne house, and proue me withall, sayth the Lorde of hostes: yf I wyl not open the wyndowes of heauen vnto you, and powre you out a blessing without measure.

11 And I wyl reproue the deuourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruite of the grounde, neyther shall your vine be bar-ren in the feelde, sayth the Lorde of hostes.

12 And all nations shall call you blessed: because you shalbe a pleasant lande, sayth the Lorde of hostes.

13 * Your woordes haue been stoute against me, sayth the Lorde: and you sayde, Wher-in haue we spoken against thee?

14 Ye haue sayde, It is but vayne to serue
God, and what profite is it that we haue kept his commaundement, and that we haue walked humbly before the face of the Lord of hostes?

15 And nowe we cal the proude happy: yea, the workers of wyckednesse are set vp, and also they that tempt God, yea they are deli-uered.

16 Then they that feared GOD, sayd euer one to his neyghbour, and the Lorde consydered and heard, and there was written a booke of remembrance before him, for them

a 2.Chr.35.1. b 2.kin.23.21

AND Ioſias helde * the feaſt of Eaſter in Hieruſalem vnto his lord, and offered the paſſeouer the fourteenth day of the fyrſte moneth.

2 He ſet the prieſtes alſo in order accordyng to theyr dayly courſes, beyng arayed in long garmentes, in the temple of the Lorde.

3 And he ſpake vnto the Leuites the holy miniſters of Iſrael, that they ſhould halow them ſelues vnto the Lorde, to ſet the holy arke of the Lord in the houſe that king Solomon the ſonne of Dauid had buylded,

4 And ſayd, Ye ſhal no more beare the arke vpon your ſhoulders: and nowe ſerue the Lorde your God, and take the charge of his people Iſrael, and prepare you after your villages and tribes,

5 Accordyng as kyng Dauid the kyng of Iſrael hath left in writing, and "accordyng as Solomon his ſonne hath honourably prepared, and ſtandyng eche of you in that degree of aucthoritie which in the diſtribution was appoynted vnto your fathers the Leuites, in the preſence of your brethren the chyldren of Iſrael:

6 Offer the paſſeouer in order, and make redy the ſacrifice for your brethren, and keepe the paſſeouer according to the commaundement of the Lorde, which was geuen vnto Moſes.

7 And vnto ỳ people that was found there, Ioſias gaue thirtie thouſand lammes and kyddes, and three thouſand calues. Theſe thinges were geuen of the kyngs owne poſſeſſions, accordyng as he promiſed to the people, to the prieſtes, and to the Leuites.

8 And Helkias, and Zacharias, and Sielus the gouernours of the temple, gaue to the prieſts for the paſſouer, two thouſand & fyre hundred ſheepe, and three hundred calues.

9 Moreouer Iechonias, and Semaias, and Nathanael his brother, and Sabias, and Ochiel, and Iozam, captaynes ouer thouſandes, gaue to the Leuites for the paſſeouer, fiue thouſande ſheepe, and ſeuen hundred calues.

10 And when theſe thynges were brought to paſſe, the prieſtes and Leuites ſtoode goodly in theyr order, and had the vnleauened bread throughout the tribes.

11 And after the degrees of preeminence appointed to their fathers, to offer to the Lord in the ſyght of the people, accordyng as it is written in the booke of Moſes: and thus dyd they in the morneyng.

12 And they roſted the Eaſter lambe with fyre, as accordyng was: as for the offerynges, they dight them in kettles & pottes with good ſauours, 13 And ſet them before al them of the people, and afterwarde they prepared for them ſelues and the prieſtes theyr brethren the ſonnes of Aaron.

14 For the prieſtes offered the fat, "vntyl the tyme was expired, and the Leuites prepared for them ſelues, and for the prieſtes theyr brethren the chyldren of Aaron.

"Or, vntyl the euenyng tyme.

15 The holy ſyngers alſo the chyldren of Aſaph, ſtoode in theyr orders accordyng as Dauid deuiſed, to wit, Aſaph, "Zacharias, and Iduthun, which was appoynted by the kyng.

"Or, Azarias, and Eddinus.

16 Moreouer, the porters and dooze keepers ſtoode by the doores and that diligently, ſo that none went out of his "ſtandyng and ſeruices, for theyr brethren the Leuites prepared for them.

"Or, his watch, or turne and courſe.

17 Thus were al thynges perfourmed that belonged to the offerynge of the Lord in that day, that they might holde the paſſeouer, 18 And offer ſacrifices vppon the aulter of the Lorde, accordyng to the commaundement of kyng Ioſias.

19 So the chyldren of Iſrael whiche were then preſent, helde a honourable paſſeouer, and the feaſt of ſweete bread ſeuen dayes long.

20 Yea ſuche a paſſeouer was not kept in Iſrael, from the tyme of the prophete Samuel.

21 And al the kynges of Iſrael helde not ſuche an Eaſter as this which kyng Ioſias helde, and the prieſtes, the Leuites, the Iewes, and al Iſrael, of al them that "were at Hieruſalem.

"Or, founde dwelling at Hieruſalem.

22 In the eyghteenth yeere of the raigne of Ioſias was this paſſeouer kept.

23 And with an hart ful of godlineſſe dyd kyng Ioſias rightly order all his woorkes before the Lorde.

24 And the thinges that came to paſſe in his tyme, they were written of olde before thoſe dayes, concernyng thoſe that ſinned, and were vngodly agaynſt the Lorde aboue all people and kyngdomes, and howe they greeued him in ſeruing ſenſible thynges, ſo that the woꝛdes of the Loꝛde roſe vp agaynſt Iſrael.

25 Nowe after al theſe actes of Ioſias, it came to paſſe that Pharao the kyng of Egipt came to Charcamis vpon Euphꝛates, to moone warre: and Ioſias went out agaynſt hym.

26 But the kyng of Egypt ſent to hym, ſaying, What haue I to doo with thee, O king of Iuda?

27 I am not ſent of the Loꝛde God agaynſt thee, foꝛ my warre is vpon Euphꝛates, and nowe the Loꝛde is with me, yea the Loꝛde maketh diligent *ſpeede with me: depart from me, and be not agaynſt the Loꝛde.

28 Howebeit Ioſias would not turne backe his chariot from hym, but vndertooke to fight with hym, and hearkened not to the woꝛdes of the pꝛophete Ieremie ſpoken by the mouth of the Loꝛde:

29 But pitched a batayle agaynſt hym in the feelde of *Mageddo: and the pꝛinces preaſſed to kyng Ioſias.

30 Then ſayd the kyng vnto his ſeruantes, Cary me away out of the batayle, foꝛ I am very weake. And immediatly his ſeruantes tooke hym away out of the front of the batayle.

31 Then gate he vp vpon his ſeconde charet, came to Hieruſalem, dyed, and was buryed in his fathers ſepulchꝛe.

32 And in al Iurie they mourned foꝛ Ioſias, yea Ieremie the pꝛophete lamented foꝛ Ioſias, & the rulers alſo with their wiues made lamentation foꝛ him vnto this day, and it became a cuſtome to be done continually in al the kinrede of Iſrael.

33 Theſe thinges are wꝛitten in the booke of the ſtoꝛies of the kynges of Iuda: and al the actes of Ioſias, and his gloꝛy, and vnderſtanding in the lawe of the Loꝛde, and the thynges which he had done befoꝛe, and that was nowe recited, are wꝛitten in the booke of the kinges of Iſrael and Iuda.

34 And the people tooke Iechonias the ſonne of Ioſias, and made hym kyng in ſteede of Ioſias his father, when he was twentie and thꝛee yeeres olde.

35 And he raigned in Iuda and in Hieruſalem thꝛee monethes: and then the kyng of Egypt put hym dowꝛne from raigning in Hieruſalem:

36 And rayſed vp a taxe of the people, namely an hundꝛed talentes of ſiluer, and one talent of golde.

37 The kyng of Egypt alſo made Ioacim his bꝛother kyng of Iuda and Hieruſalem.

38 a And thus he *bounde Ioacim and his gouernours: but Zaracen his bꝛother he apꝛehended, and led away with hym into Egypt.

39 Fiue and twentie yeeres olde was Ioacim when he was made kyng in the lande of Iuda and Hieruſalem, and he dyd euyll befoꝛe the Loꝛde.

40 Wherefoꝛe agaynſt hym Nabuchodonoſoꝛ the kyng of Babylon came vp, and bounde hym with bandes of iꝛon, and caꝛyed hym vnto Babylon.

41 Nabuchodonoſoꝛ alſo tooke of the holy veſſels of the Loꝛd, caꝛyed them away, and ſet them in his owne temple at Babylon.

42 But al his actes, and his pꝛophanation and wꝛeyoche, aꝛe wꝛitten in the Chꝛonicles of the kynges.

43 And Ioachin his ſonne raigned in his ſteade. He was made king being eyghteene yeeres olde, 44 And raigned but thꝛee monethes and ten dayes in Hieruſalem, and dyd euyl befoꝛe the Loꝛde.

45 So after a yeere Nabuchodonoſoꝛ ſent, and cauſed hym to be bꝛought vnto Babylon with the holy veſſels of the Loꝛde, 46 And made Zedechias kyng of Iuda and Hieruſalem when he was twentie and one yeeres olde, and he raigned a leuen yeeres.

47 *And he dyd euyll alſo in the ſyght of the Loꝛde, and cared not foꝛ the woꝛdes that were ſpoken vnto hym by the pꝛophete Ieremie fꝛom the mouth of the Loꝛde. *Ierem.38.21.

48 And where he had made an othe vnto kyng Nabuchodonoſoꝛ, he foꝛſwoꝛe hym ſelfe by the name of the Loꝛde, and hardened his necke and hart, and tranſgreſſed the lawes of the Loꝛde God of Iſrael.

49 The gouernours alſo of the people and pꝛieſtes dyd many thynges agaynſt the lawes, and paſſed al the pollutions of all nations, and defiled the temple of the Loꝛd which was ſanctified in Hieruſalem.

50 Wherefoꝛe the God of theyꝛ fathers ſent b his meſſenger to cal them backe, becauſe he ſpared them and his tabernacle alſo. b. Meaning Ieremie.

51 But they had his meſſengers in deriſion: and looke when the Loꝛd ſpake vnto them, they made a ſpoꝛt of his pꝛophetes.

52 This dyewe on ſo long tyll the Loꝛde was wꝛoth with his people foꝛ theyꝛ great vngodlyneſſe, ſo that he cauſed the kynges of the Chaldees to come vp agaynſt them:

53 Which ſlue theyꝛ young men with the ſwoꝛde, yea *euen in the compaſſe of theyꝛ holy temple, and ſpared no body, neyther young man noꝛ mayden, old man noꝛ childe among them. *Or, rounde about them.

54 But they were all delyuered into theyꝛ handes, handes, and al the holy vessellesof the Lord both great and small, with the vessellesof the arke of God: and they tooke & carryed away the kynges treasure into Babylon.

55 As for the house of the Lorde, they went vp into it, and brent it, brake downe the walles of Hierusalem, set fyre vppon her towres, 56 Destroyed all her "noble buyldynges, and brought them to nought, and the people that were not slayne with the sword, he carried vnto Babylon:

57 Whiche became seruauntes to hym and his children, tyll the Persians raigned, to fulfyll the woorde of the Lorde spoken by the mouth of Jeremias:

58 Tyll the lande had fully "taken her ease from them, whiche tooke that ease all the tyme she lacked her inhabitantes, to the end and terme of seuentie yeeres.

"Or, precious vessels.

"Or, kept her sabbaths.

The.ii. Chapter.

1. Cyrus gaue leaue to the Iewes to returne. 13 The names of them that returned. 14 Their aduersaries dyd let their buyldyng, 17. and kynges letters for the same.

1 NOwe when king Cyrus raigned ouer the Persians in his firste yeere, when the Lord wolde performe the woorde that he had promysed by the mouth of the Prophete Jeremie:

2 The Lord rayled vp the spirite of Cyrus the kyng of the Persians, so that he caused this writyng to be proclaymed throughout his whole Realme,

3 Saying, Thus sayth Cyrus kyng of the Persians, The Lorde of Israel, that hygh Lorde, hath made me kyng of the whole worlde:

4 And commaunded me to buylde hym an house at Hierusalem in Jurie.

5 Yf there be any nowe of your that are of his people, let the Lorde, euen his Lorde, be with hym, & let hym goe vp to Hierusalem that is in Judea, and buyld the house of the Lord of Israel, that is, the Lord that dwelleth in Hierusalem.

6 And all they that dwel rounde about that place shall helpe hym, all that dwell in his place I say, whether it be with golde, with syluer,

7 With gyftes, with horses, and necessarie cattel, and al other thyngs that are brought with a free wyl to the "house of the Lord at Hierusalem.

"Or, temple.

8 Then the principall men out of the tribes and villages of Juda and Beniamin stoode vp: so dyd the Priests also and the Leuites, and al they whose mynde the Lord had moued to goe vp, and to buylde the house of the Lorde at Hierusalem.

9 And they that dwelt about them, helped them in all thynges, with syluer and golde, horses, and cattel, & with "many free gyftes of many men, whose myndes were styred vp thereto.

"Or, sundrye vowes of sundrye men.

10 Kyng Cyrus also brought foorth the vessellesand ornaments that wer halowed vnto the Lorde, whiche Nabuchodonosor had carried away from Hierusalem, and consecrated them to his idol and image.

11 And hauyng brought them foorth, he deliuered them to Mithridates his treasurer.

12 And by hym they were deliuered to Abassar the deputie in Jurie.

13 And this was the number of them: a thousande golden cuppes, and a thousande of siluer, basons of siluer twentye and nine for the sacrifices, vialles of gold thyrtie, and of siluer two thousande, foure hundred and ten, and a thousande other vesselles.

14 So all the vessels of gold and siluer whiche were caried away, were fyue thousand, foure hundred, three score and nine.

15 These were brought by Salmanasar, with them of the captiuitie, from Babylon to Hierusalem.

16 But in the tyme of Artaxerxes kyng of the Persians, Belemus and Mithridates, and Tabellius, and Rathumus, and Beeltethmus, & Semellius the Secretarie, with other that were ioyned to them, dwellyng in Samaria and other places, wrote vnto hym agaynst them that dwelt in Judea and Hierusalem, these letters folowyng:

To the king Artaxerxes our Lord.

17 Thy seruauntes, Rathumus the storie writer, and Semellius the Secretarie, and the rest of their counsel, and the iudges that are in Coelosyria and Phenice:

18 Be it nowe knowen vnto our Lorde the kyng, that the Iewes whiche are come vp from you vnto vs, into the rebellious and wycked citie, begyn to buylde the market places, and to make vp the walles about it, and to set vp the temple anewe.

19 Nowe yf this citie, and the walles therof be set vp agayne, they shall not onely refuse to geue tributes and rentes, but also rebel vtterly agaynst kynges.

20 And for so much as they take this in hand nowe about the temple, we thought it reason to thynke no scorne of it:

21 But to shewe it vnto the Lorde the king, to thintent that yf it please the kyng, he may cause it to be sought in the bookes of olde,

22 And thou shalt fynde in recordes herof writtē, & shalt vnderstande that this citie hath alwaye been rebellious and disobedient, that it hath troubled kinges and cities, 23 And that the Iewes were rebellious, and rayled alwayes warres therin: for the whiche cause this citie is walked.

24 Wherfore nowe we certifie our lorde the kyng, that yf this citie be buylded and occupied agayne, and the walles thereof set vp a newe, thou canst haue no passage into Coelosyria and Phenice.
25 Then wrote the kyng to Rathumus the *scribe wryter, to Beelrethmus, to Semellius the Scribe, and to the other officers and dwellers in Samaria, and Syria, and Phenice, after this maner.
26 I haue read the Epistle whiche ye sent vnto me: therefore I commaunded to make diligent searche, and haue founde that this citie hath euer resysted kynges.
27 That the same people are disobedient, and haue caused muche warre, and that myghtie kynges haue raigned in Hierusalem, whiche also haue rayled vp taxes in Coelosyria and Phenice.
28 Wherefore I haue commaunded to forbyd those men that they shall not buylde vp the citie, and heede to be taken that there be no more doone in it:
29 And that they proceede no further in those wicked woorkes, for so muche as it myght be occasion of trouble vnto Princes.
30 Nowe when Rathumus and Semellius the Scribe had read the wrytyng of kyng Artarerres, they gate them togeather, and came in al the haste to Hierusalem, with an host of horsmen, and with muche people on foote, 31 And forbade them to buylde: and so they left of from buylding of the temple, vnto the seconde yeere of kyng Darius, kyng of the Persians.

¶ The.iii. Chapter.

1. The feast of Darius. 16. The three wyse sentences.

1 KYng Darius made a great feast vnto his *seruauntes, vnto al his court, and to al the officers of Medea and Persia,
2 Yea, to all the gouernours and captaynes, and Lieutenantes that were vnder hym, from India vnto Ethiopia, an hundred and twentie and seuen *countreyes.
3 So when they had eaten and dronken, being satisfied, and were gone home agayne, Darius the kyng went into his chamber, layde hym downe to sleepe, and after that awaked.
4 Then the three young men that *kept the kynges person, and watched his bodye, communed among themselues, and spake one to another,
5 Let euery one of vs speake a sentence, and looke who shall ouercome, and whose sentence may seeme wyser then the others, vnto hym shal kyng Darius geue great gyfts, and great thynges in token of victorie:
6 As to weare purple, to dronke in gold, and to sleepe in golde, and a charriot with bridles of golde, and an *head tyre of fyne lynnen, and a chayne about his necke:
7 Yea he shal syt next to Darius, because of his wysedome, and shalbe called Darius cosin.
8 So euery one wrote his *meanyng, sealed it, and layde it vnder kyng Darius pillowe, 9 And sayde, When the kyng aryseth, they woulde geue hym the wrytynges, and looke whose woorde the kyng and the three princes of Persia shal iudge to be the most wysely spoken, the same shal haue the victorie as it was appoynted.
10 One wrote, Wyne is a strong thyng.
11 The seconde wrote, The kyng is strong.
12 The thyrde wrote, Women haue very muche strength, but aboue all thynges, the trueth beareth away the victorie.
13 Nowe when the kyng was ryssen vp, they tooke their wrytynges, and delyuered them vnto hym, and so he read them.
14 Then sent he foorth to call all his cheefe lordes of Persia and of Medea, and the rulers, and the captaynes, and Lieuetenants, and consuls:
15 And when he had set hym downe in the counsell, the wrytynges were read before them.
16 And he commaunded to cal for the young men, that they myght declare their *meanynges them selues by mouth. So they were sent for, and came in.
17 And then he sayd vnto them, Shewe vs, and make vs to vnderstand what the thynges are that ye haue wrytten. Then began the first, whiche had spoken of the strength of wyne, 18 And sayde thus, O ye men, howe strong is wyne, that deceyueth all men whiche dronke it?
19 It maketh the kynges mynde and the fatherlesse to be both one, the bondmans, and the free, the poore mans, and the ryche.
20 It turneth also euery thought into ioye and gladnesse, so that a man remembreth neyther heauynesse nor debt.
21 And it maketh euery hart thynke it selfe rich, so that a man remembreth neither king nor gouernour, and it maketh to speake all al thynges by talentes.

22 Moreouer, when men haue dronke, they forgeat al freendſhyp and brotherly fayth-fulneſſe, and a litle after they drawe out ſwoordes:

23 And afterwardes when they are from the wine, they remember nothyng what was done.

24 O ye men, is not wine the ſtrongeſt, that thus enforceth men to doo? And when he had ſpoken this, he helde his peace.

¶ The iiii. Chapter.

1. Of the ſtrength of a kyng. 13. Of the ſtrength of women. 34. Of the ſtrength of trueth, which ſentence is approoued, 47. and his petition graunted.

1 Then the ſeconde that had ſpoken of the ſtrength of the kyng, began to ſay,

2 O ye men, are not men the ſtrongeſt of al, that conquer both by lande and ſea, and all the thynges that are in them?

3 Nowe is the kyng ſtronger, as lorde of al theſe thynges, and that hath the dominion ouer them: and looke what he commaundeth them, it is al done.

4 If he byd them the one agaynſt the other to make warre, they doo it: if he ſend them out agaynſt the enimies, they goe, & breake downe mountaynes, walles, and towres.

5 They ſlay and are ſlayne, and ouerpaſſe not the kynges commaundement: yf they geat the victorie, they bring al to the kyng, ſo wel the ſpoyle as other thynges.

6 Likewiſe the other that meddle not with warres and fighting, but tyl the grounde: when they haue ſowen and reaped, they bring to the kyng, and compel one another to pay his tribute vnto the kyng.

7 And if the kyng, though he be but one man, commaunde to kyl, they kyl, if he commaunde to "forgeue, they forgeue:

"Or, to ſpare, they ſpare.

8 If he commaunde to ſmite, they ſmite, yf he bydde "driue away, they driue away, yf he commaunde to buylde, they buylde:

"Or, make waſte, they make waſte.

9 If he commaunde to breake downe, they breake downe, if he commaunde to plant, they plant.

"Or, ſo all his people and al his armies obey vnto him.

10 "So the common people and the rulers are obedient vnto hym, and the kyng in the meane ſeaſon ſitteth him downe, eateth and drynketh, and taketh his reſt.

11 And theſe keepe hym rounde about, and not one of them dare geat hym out of the way to doo his owne buſineſſe, "but muſt be obedient vnto the kyng at a woorde.

"Neither diſobey they kyng any thyng.

12 Judge ye nowe, O ye men, howe ſhoulde not the kyng goe farre aboue, when in ſuch ſort he is obeyed? And when he had ſpoken thus he helde his tongue.

13 The third, whoſe name was Zorobabel, which had ſpoken of women, and of trueth, began to ſay after this manner.

14 O ye men, it is not the great kyng, it is not the multitude of men, neither is it wine that excelleth. Who is it then that ruleth them, or hath the lordſhyp ouer them? is it not women?

15 Women haue borne the kyng, and al the people whiche beare rule by ſea and by lande.

16 And euen of them were they borne, and they brought thoſe vp that planted the vines, wherof the wine commeth.

17 They make garmentes for men, they geat honour vnto men, & without women can not men continue.

18 Yea and if they haue geathered togeather golde and ſyluer, or any other pretious thyng, doo they not loue a woman for her comely ſhape and beautie?

19 And letting al thoſe thinges goe, doo they not gape, and euen with open mouth fixe theyr eyes faſt on her? and haue not al men more deſyre vnto her, then vnto ſiluer and golde, or any manner of pretious thyng?

20 A man leaueth his owne father that brought hym vp, leaueth his owne naturall countrey, and cleaueth vnto his wyfe.

21 Yea, he "ieopardeth his lyfe with his wyfe, and remembreth neyther father nor mother, nor countrey.

"Or, paſſeth.

22 By this alſo ye muſt needes knowe, that women haue dominion ouer you: doo ye not labour and trauayle, and geue & bring al to the woman?

23 A man taketh his ſwoorde, and goeth his way to ſteale, to kyl, to murder, to ſayle vpon the ſea, and vpon ryuers, 24 And ſeeth a Lion, and goeth in the darkneſſe: and when he hath ſtollen, "deceyued, and robbed, he bringeth it vnto his loue.

"Or, ſpoyled.

25 Wherefore a man loueth his wyfe better then father and mother.

26 Yea, many there be that runne out of theyr wittes, and become bondmen for theyr "wyues ſake.

"Or, for wemens ſakes.

27 Many alſo haue periſhed, haue erred, and ſinned alſo for women.

28 And nowe doo ye not beleeue me? is not the kyng great in his power? doo not al regions feare to touche hym?

29 Yet did I ſee him, & Apame the daughter of the great kyng Bartacus the kynges concubine, ſate beſyde the kyng vppon the ryght hande, 30 And tooke of his crowne from his head, and ſet it vpon her owne head, and ſtroke the kyng with her leaft hande.

31 And therewhile ſtedily the kyng looked vpon her with open mouth: if she laughed vpon hym, he laughed also: but if she tooke any displeasure with him, the kyng was fayne to flatter her & to geue her good vvordes, tyl he had gotten her fauour agayne.

32 O ye men, are not women then stronger? that doo these thynges?

33 Then the kyng and the princes looked one vpon another: so he began to speake of the trueth.

34 O ye men, are not women stronger? Great is the earth, high is the heauen, swift is the course of the sunne, he compasseth the heauens rounde about, and fetcheth his course agayne to his owne place in one day.

35 Is he not excellent that maketh these thynges? therefore great is the trueth, and stronger then al thynges.

36 All the earth calleth vpon the trueth, the heauen prayseth it, al woorkes shake and tremble at it, and with it is no vnryghteous thyng.

37 Wine is wycked, the kyng is wycked, women are wycked, al the chyldren of men are wycked, yea and suche are al their wycked woorkes, & there is no trueth in them, in their vnryghteousnesse also shal they be destroyed and perysshe:

38 As for the trueth it endureth, and is alway strong, it lyueth, and conquereth for euermore worlde without ende.

39 With her there is no exception nor differrence of persons, but she doeth that iust is, and refrayneth from al vniust and wycked things, & al men do wel like of her woorkes.

40 In the iudgement of it there is no vnryghteous thyng, and she is the strength, kyngdome, power, and maiestie of al ages. Blessed be the God of trueth.

41 And with that he helde his peace: and al the people cryed, and then sayd, Great is trueth, and aboue al.

42 Then sayde the kyng vnto hym, Aske what thou wylt, more then is appoynted in the writing, and we shal geue it thee, for thou art wyser then thy companion, thou shalt syt next me, and shalt be called my kinsman.

43 Then sayde he vnto the kyng, Remember thy promise and vowe whiche thou hast vowed and promised in the day when thou camest to the kyngdome, to buylde vp Hierusalem:

44 And to sende agayne al the vessels and iewels that were taken away out of Hierusalem, whiche Cyrus set apart when he vowed to destroy Babylon, and to sende them agayne thyther.

45 And thy mynde was also to buylde vp the temple, whiche the Edomites burnt, when Iuda was destroyed by ỳ Chaldees.

46 And nowe this onely O kyng is the thing that I requyre and desyre of thee, this is the princely liberalitie that I aske of thee, I desyre therefore, that thou performe the vowe, which thou with thyne owne mouth hast made vnto the kyng of heauen.

47 Then Darius the kyng stoode vp, and kyssed hym, wrote hym letters vnto all the deputies and lieftenantes, to al the lordes and nobles, that they shoulde conuey hym forth, & al them that went vp with hym, to buyld Hierusalem.

48 He wrote letters also vnto al the lieftenantes that were in Coelosyria and Phenices, and vnto them in Libanus, that they shoulde bryng Cedar trees from Libanus vnto Hierusalem, and buylde the citie with hym.

49 Moreouer, he wrote for al the Iewes that were gone out of his *realme into Iurie concernyng their freedome, that no officer, no ruler, no lieftenant, nor stewarde, shoulde enter into their doores:

50 And that al their land which they kept, shoulde be free, & not tributarie: and that the Edomites shoulde geue ouer the cities and villages of the Iewes which they had taken in:

51 Yea, and that there should be yeerely geuen twentie talentes to the buyldyng of the temple, vntil the time that it were finished.

52 And to maynteyne the whole burnt offeringes vpon the aulter euery day (as they had a commaundement to offer seuentiene) other ten talentes euery yeere.

53 And that al they whiche came from Babylon to buylde the citie, shoulde haue free libertie, they and their chyldren, and al the priestes that went away.

54 He wrote also concerning ỳ charges, and the priestes garment wherin they minister.

55 And lykewyse for the charges of the Leuites, to be geuen them, vntyl the day that the house were finished, and Hierusalem buylded vp.

56 And he commaunded that al they that watched the citie, shoulde haue their pensions and wages.

57 He sent away also al the vessels that Cyrus had separated from Babylon: and all that Cyrus had geuen in commaundement, the same charged he also that it shoulde be done, and sent vnto Hierusalem.

58 Nowe when this young man was gone forth, he lyfted vp his face to heauen towarde Hierusalem, and praysed the kyng of heauen.

59 And sayd, Of thee commeth victorie, of thee commeth wysedome, and thine is the glory, glorie, and I am thy seruant.

60 Blessed art thou whiche hast geuen me wysedome, for to thee I acknowledge it, O Lorde thou God of our fathers.

61 And so he tooke the letters, and went out, and came vnto Babylon, and tolde it all his brethren.

62 And they praised the God of their fathers, that he had geuen them freedome and libertie, 63 To goe vp, and to buylde Hierusalem and the temple, "wherein the name of the Lord is called vpon: and they reioyced with instruments of musicke and gladnesse seuen dayes long.

"Or, where his name is renowned.

¶ The. v. Chapter.

1. The number of them that returne from the captiuitie. 42 Theyr vowes and sacrifices. 54. The temple is begun to be buylt. 66. Theyr enimies vvoulde craftely ioyne vvith them.

1 Esd. 2. 1. 1 AFter this, were the "principall men of the houses of theyr fathers chosen in their tribes and kynredes, that they shoulde goe with their wyues, and sonnes, and daughters, with their seruauntes and maidens, with al theyr cattel and substance.

2 And Darius the king sent with thē a thousande horsemen, to conuey them safely vnto Hierusalem, & with musicall instrumentes, with tabrets, and flutes.

3 And al their brethren played, and he made them goe vp togeather with them.

4 And these are the names of the men which went vp out of the villages, according to the tribes, and after the order of their dignitie.

25 The sonnes of Pashur, a thousand fourtie and seuen: the sonnes of Charim, a thousand and seuenteene.

26 The

26 The Leuites, the ſonnes of Ieſue, Cadmiel, Banua, and Suia, ſeuentie and foure.
27 The ſonnes vvhich vvere holy ſingers the ſonnes of Aſaph, an hundred fourtie and eyght.
28 The porters, the ſonnes of Sallum, the ſonnes of Atal, the ſonnes of Talmon, the ſonnes of Dacobi, the ſonnes of Teca, the ſonnes of Sami, al vvere an hundred thirtie and nine.
29 The miniſters of the temple, the ſonnes of Eſau, the ſonnes of Aſipha, the ſonnes of Tabaoth, the ſonnes of Ceras, the ſonnes of Sud, the ſonnes of Phalen, the ſonnes of Labana, the ſonnes of Hagaba, 30 The ſonnes of Acub, the ſonnes of Ata, the ſonnes of Cetab, the ſonnes of Agab, the ſonnes of Sibe, the ſonnes of Anan, the ſonnes of Cathua, the ſonnes of Geddur, 31 The ſonnes of Raia, the ſonnes of Diaſan, the ſonnes of Necoda, the ſonnes of Chaſeba, the ſonnes of Gazem, the ſonnes of Azias, the ſonnes of Phinees, the ſonnes of Aſara, the ſonnes of Baſke, the ſonnes of Aſana, the ſonnes of Meunim, the ſonnes of Naphiſon, the ſonnes of Bacubub, the ſonnes of Acupha, the ſonnes of Aſſur, the ſonnes of Pharacim, ỹ ſonnes of Baraloth, 32 The ſonnes of Mehida, the ſonnes of Coutha, the ſonnes of Chareſca, the ſonnes of Bareus, the ſonnes of Aſerer, the ſonnes of Thomoth, ỹ ſonnes of Naſib, the ſonnes of Atiphan.
33 The ſonnes of the ſeruants of Salomon, the ſonnes of Hazophereth, the ſonnes of Pharuda, the ſonnes of Ocelah, the ſonnes of Lozon, the ſonnes of Iſdael, the ſonnes of Staphelia.
34 The ſonnes of Agia, the ſonnes of Phareth, the ſonnes of Sabin, the ſonnes of Spartia, the ſonnes of Matias, the ſonnes of Gar, the ſonnes of Addu, the ſonnes of Subah, the ſonnes of Apherra, the ſonnes of Barodis, the ſonnes of Sabat, the ſonnes of Allon:
35 Al the miniſters of the temple, and the ſonnes of the ſeruantes of Solomon, were three hundred ſeuentie and two.
36 Theſe came vp from Thelmiah and Thelharſa, Carathalat, and Alar leading them:
37 Neither coulde they ſhew their families, nor their ſtocke, howe they were of Iſrael. The ſonnes of Dalaias, the ſonnes of Thubia, the ſonnes of Necodan, ſixe hundred fiftie and two.
38 Of the prieſtes that executed the office of the prieſthood, and were not founde, the ſonnes of Hobia, the ſonnes of Hacoz, the ſonnes of Addus, which maryed Augia, one of the daughters of Barzeleus, 39 And was named after hym: The writyng of the ſame kynred, was ſought in the regiſter of their generation, but it was not founde, and therefore were they forbydden to execute the office of the prieſthood.
40 For vnto them ſayde Nehemias and Atharias, that they ſhould haue no portion in the ſanctuarie, tyll there roſe vp an hygh prieſt that were well inſtruct in the playne clearenes and trueth.
41 So of Iſrael from them of twelue yeres olde, and chyldren, they were all in number fourtie and two thouſande, three hundred and threeſcore, beſydes men ſeruantes and women ſeruantes.
42 Their ſeruauntes and handmaydens, were ſeuen thouſande three hundred fourtie and ſeuen. The ſingyng men and ſingyng women, two hundred fourtie and fiue.
43 Foure hundred thirtie and fiue Camels, ſeuen thouſand thirtie and ſixe Horſes, two hundred fourtie and fiue Mules, fiue thouſande fiue hundred twentie and fiue beaſtes vſed to the yoke.
44 And of their rulers alſo after their families, when they came to the temple of God that is in Hieruſalem, there were that vowed to ſet vp the houſe agayne in his owne place, accordyng to their habilitie:
45 And to geue into the holy treaſure of the workes, a thouſande poundes of golde, fyue thouſand of ſiluer, and an hundred precious garmentes.
46 And ſo dwelt the prieſtes and the Leuites, and the people in Hieruſalem, and in the countrey there about, the ſingers alſo and the porters, and all Iſrael in their villages.
47 But when the ſeuenth moneth came, and when the chyldren of Iſrael were euery man in his owne, they came altogether with one conſent into the open place of the gate, whiche is towardes the Eaſt.
48 And there Ieſus the ſonne of Ioſedec, and his brethren the prieſtes, and Zorobabel the ſonne of Salathiel and his brethren, ryſing vp, made redy the aulter of the God of Iſrael, 49 To offer whole burnt ſacrifices vpon it, ſo as it is wrytten in the lawe of Moſes the man of God.
50 And thyther were geathered againſt them, diuers of other nations of the lande: but they dreſſed the aulter in his owne place, although all the nations in the lande were enimies to them, and vexed them: and they offered ſacrifices to the Lord both morning and euenyng.

51 And alſo they helde the feaſt of tabernacles as it is commaunded in the lawe, and ſacrifyces dayly as it was appartey-nyng.

52 And after that alſo the continuall oblations, and the offeringes of the ſabbothes, and of the newe monethes, and of all holy feaſtes.

53 And al they whiche had made any vowe to God, began to offer ſacrifice to GOD, from the firſt day of the ſeuenth moneth, although the temple of the Lorde was not yet built vp.

54 And they gaue vnto the Maſons and Carpenters, money, meate, & drinke, with chearefulneſſe.

55 Unto them of Sidon alſo, and Tyre, they gaue Carres, that they ſhould bring Cedar trees from Libanus, whiche ſhoulde be brought by flote to the hauen Ioppe, accor-ding as it was commaunded them by Cy-rus king of the Perſians.

56 And in the ſeconde yeere and * ſeconde moneth, came into the temple of GOD at Hieruſalem, Zorobabel the ſonne of Sala-thiel, and Jeſus the ſonne of Joſedec, and their brethren, and the prieſts and Leuites, and all they that were come vnto Hieruſa-lem out of the captiuitie of Babylon.

57 And they laid the fundation of the houſe of God, in the " newe Moone of the ſeconde moneth, in the ſecond yeere that they were come to Iurie and Hieruſalem.

58 And they appoynted the Leuites, that were aboue twentie yeeres olde, ouer the woorkes of the Lorde: So Jeſus and his ſonne and brethren aſſiſted, and Cadmiel alſo his brother, and the ſonnes of Madia-bon, with the ſonnes of Joda, the ſonne of Eliadon, and his ſonnes and brethren, euen al the Leuites with one accord, folowed on earneſtly to aduaunce the woorkes in the houſe of God: ſo the woorkemen built vp the temple of the Lorde.

59 And the prieſtes ſtoode, and had their garmentes, with muſicall inſtruments, and trumpets, and the Leuites the ſonnes of A-ſah had Cymbales, 60 Geuing thankes and prayſes vnto the Lorde, according as Dauid the king of Iſ-rael had ordeyned.

61 And they ſong with loude voyces, ſonges to the prayſe of the Lorde, becauſe his mer-cie and glory is for euer in Iſrael.

62 And al the people blewe out with trum-pettes, and cryed with a loude voyce, pray-ſyng the Lorde together for the rearyng vp of the houſe of the Lorde.

63 There came alſo from among ẏ prieſtes and Leuites, and of the cheefeſt, according to the tribes and kynredes, to wyte, the elders, whiche hadde ſeene the former houſe,

64 To the building of this, with great crye and great mourning, many alſo with trum-pettes and great ioy cryed with loude voyce:

65 Inſomuch that the Trumpettes might not well be heard for the weeping and mournyng of the people: yet there was a great multitude that blewe Trumpettes marueylouſly, ſo that it was heard farre of.

66 Wherefore, when the * enimies of the tribes of Juda and Beniamin heard it, they came to know what that noyſe of trumpets ſhould meane. *1.Eſd.4.1.

67 And they perceiued that they whiche were come agayne out of captiuitie, built the temple vp a newe vnto the Lorde God of Iſrael.

68 So they went to Zorobabel and Jeſus, and to the rulers of the villages, and ſayde vnto them, Shall we builde with you alſo?

69 For we likewyſe, as you, doo obey your Lorde, and doo ſacrifice vnto him, from the daies of Aſbazareth the king of Aſſyria, which brought vs hyther.

70 Then Zorobabel, and Jeſus, and the ru-lers of the villages of Iſrael, ſayde vnto them, It doeth not agree that ye ſhoulde build the temple of our God with vs.

71 We our ſelues alone wyll build vnto the Lorde of Iſrael, * as is meete, and like as *1.Eſd.4.4 Cyrus the king of the Perſians hath com-maunded vs.

72 But the Heathen in the land made them ſluggiſhe that were in Iurie, and ſundred them, and letted their buildinges.

73 And by their embuſhmentes, ſeditions, and conſpiracies, ſtopped that the building could not be finiſhed, all the time that king Cyrus lined, ſo that they put of the buil-ding for the ſpace of two yeeres, vntyll the raigne of king Darius.

prophesied vnto the Iewes, and to them in Iurie and Hierusalem, euen in the name of the Lorde God of Israel.

2 Then Zorobabel the sonne of Salathiel, and Iesus the sonne of Iosedec, stoode vp, and began to build the house of the Lord at Hierusalem, when the prophetes of the lord were with them, and helped them.

3 At the same time, came Sisinnes the gouernour of Syria & Phenice, with Sathrabuzanes, and his companions, and sayde vnto them,

4 Who hath bidden and commaunded you to build this house, to make this roofe, and all other things againe? and who are ỳ *workmen that build them?

*Or, builders that dyd these thinges.

5 Neuertheless, the elders of the Iewes had such grace of the Lorde, after he had visited the captiuitie, 6 That they were not letted from building, vntyl the time that king Darius was certified thereof, and an answeare receiued from hym.

7 The copie of the letters whiche he wrote, and sent vnto Darius. Sisinnes gouernour of Syria and Phenice, and Sathrabuzanes, with their companions, whiche are head rulers in Syria and Phenice, sende their salutation vnto Darius the king.

8 We certifie our Lorde the king, that we came into the land of Iurie, and went to Hierusalem, where we found the auncients of the Iewes, that were of the captiuitie, in the citie of Hierusalem, 9 Building an house vnto the Lorde, great and newe, of hewen and costly stones, and the tymber alredy layd vpon the walles.

10 Yea, they make great hast with ỳ worke, and it goeth forth prosperously in theyr handes, and with great diligence and worship it is made.

11 Then asked we the elders, saying, By whose commaundement build you vp this house, and laye the fundations of these woorkes?

12 Whiche we demaunded of them, to the intent that we might geue knowledge vnto thee, and wryte vnto thee of those that gouerned it: and we required of them theyr names in wryting that were their cheefe leaders to it.

13 So they gaue vs this answeare, We are the seruantes of the Lord, which made heauen and earth.

2.king.6.2. 14 * And as for this house, it was builded many yeeres agone, by a king of Israel, great and strong, and was finished.

18 And the holy vessels of gold, and of siluer, that Nabuchodonosor had caried away out of the house at Hierusalem, and had dedicated them in his owne Temple: those brought Cyrus forth agayne out of the temple at Babylon, and deliuered them to Zorobabel, and to Sanaballarus the ruler:

19 Commaundyng him, that he should carry away those same vesselles, and put them in the temple at Hierusalem, and that the temple of the Lorde shoulde be built in his owne place.

20 Then the same Sanaballarus being come hyther, layde the fundations of the house of the Lorde at Hierusalem, and from that to this, being stil a buylding, it is not yet fully ended.

21 Nowe therfore, O king, yf thou thinkest it good, let it be sought in the libraries and rolles of king Cyrus:

22 And yf it be found then, that ỳ building of the house of the Lord at Hierusalem hath been done with the counsayle and consent of king Cyrus, and yf our Lord the king be so minded, let him geue answeare vnto vs thereof.

23 Then commaunded kyng Darius to seeke in the kinges libraries at Babylon: and so at Ecbatane, a towne in the region of Medea, there was found a place where these thinges was layde vp for * memorie.

*Or, remembrance.

24 * In the first yeere of the raigne of Cyrus, the same king Cyrus commaunded that the house of the Lord at Hierusalem should be builded agayne, where they doo sacrifice with the continuall fire.

*1.Esd.6.3

25 Whose heyght shalbe sixtie cubites, and the breadth sixtie cubites. with three rowes of hewen stones, and one rowe of newe wood, and of that countrey, and the expences thereof, to be geuen out of ỳ house of kyng Cyrus:

1.Esd.6.

26 And the holy vesselles of the house of the Lorde, both of golde and siluer, that Nabuchodonosor tooke out of the house at Hierusalem, & brought to Babylon, should be restored to the house at Hierusalem, and be set in the place where it was before.

27 And

27 And alſo he commaunded that Siſinnes the gouernour of Syria and Phenice, and Sathrabuſanes, with their companions, and other conſtituted rulers in Syria and Phenice, ſhoulde take heede not to medle with that place, but to ſuffer Zorobabel the ſeruant of the lord and gouernour of Juda, and the elders of the Jewes, to buylde the houſe of the Lorde in that place.

28 I haue commaunded alſo to haue it buſlt vp whole agayne, and that they be diligent to helpe thoſe that be of the captiuitie of the Jewes, tyll the houſe of the Lorde be fynished.

29 And out of the tribute of Coeloſyria and Phenice, a portion diligently to be geuen thoſe men vnto the offeringes of the Lorde, and the ſame to be deliuered vnto Zorobabel the officer, that he therwithal may ordeyne oxen, rammes, and lambes:

30 And alſo corne, ſalt, wyne, and oyle, and that continually euery yeere, after the expences whiche the prieſtes that be at Hieruſalem ſhal teſtifie to be made dayly, this ſhalbe geuen vnto them without delay:

31 That they may offer ſacrifices dayly to the hyghest GOD for the kyng and for his children, and to pray for their lyues.

32 And he commaunded alſo, that who ſo euer ſhould breake any poynt of the foreſayd and foredecreed thyngs, or make it voyde: of his owne goodes ſhould a tree be taken, and he thereon be hanged, and al his goodes ſeaſed vnto the kyng.

33 The Lorde therefore whoſe name is there called vppon, roote out and deſtroy euery kyng & nation that ſtretcheth out his hande to hinder or hurt and endamage that houſe of the Lorde in Hieruſalem.

34 I Darius the kyng haue ordeyned, that accordyng to theſe thynges it be done with diligence.

1. Siſinnes and his companions folowe the kinges commaundement, and helpe the Iewes to buylde the temple. 5 The tyme that it was buylte. 10. They keepe the Paſſeouer.

2.Eſd.6.13 THen * Siſinnes the gouernour in Coeloſyria and Phenice, and Sathrabuzanes, with their companions, obeyed the thynges that kyng Darius had ordeyned,

2 And were diligent aſſiſters in the holy workes, woorkyng with the auncientes and gouernours of the ſanctuarie.

3 And ſo the holy woorkes went forth and proſpered, when Aggeus and Zacharias the prophetes prophesied.

4 And they perfourmed al thynges through the commaundement of the Lorde God of Iſrael, and with conſent of Cyrus, Darius, and Artaxerxes, kynges of Perſia.

5 And thus was the holy houſe finished in the three and twentieth day of the moneth Adar, in the ſixth yeere of Darius kyng of the Perſians.

6 And the chyldren of Iſrael, the prieſtes and the Leuites, and other that were of the captiuitie that had any charge, dyd accordyng to the thynges wrytten in the booke of Moſes.

7 And to the dedication of the temple of the Lorde, they offered an hundred °oxen, two hundreds rammes, foure hundred lambes, °or, Bullocke.

8 And twelue goates for the ſinnes of all the people of Iſrael, after the number of the theke of the tribes of Iſrael.

9 The prieſtes alſo and the Leuites ſtoode arayed in their long robes, after their kynredes, in all the woorkes of the Lorde God of Iſrael, accordyng to the booke of Moſes, and the porters at euery dooze.

10 And the chyldren of Iſrael, with thoſe that were come out of captiuitie, helde the Paſſeouer the foureteenth day of the fyrſte moneth, after that the prieſtes & the Leuites were ſanctified.

11 They that were of the captiuitie, were not al ſanctified togeather: but the Leuites were all ſanctified togeather.

12 And ſo they offered the Paſſeouer for all them of the captiuitie, and for their brethren the prieſtes, and for them ſelues.

13 And the chyldren of Iſrael that came out of captiuitie, dyd eate, al they that had ſeparated them ſelues from the abominations of the people of that lande, and ſought the Lorde:

14 And they kept the feaſt of the vnleauened bread ſeuen dayes long, makyng merry before the Lord, 15 That the Lorde had turned the counſell of the kyng of Aſſyria towardes them, to ſtrengthen their handes vnto the workes of the Lorde God of Iſrael.

1. Eſdras commeth from Babylon to Hieruſalem. 10. The copie of the commiſſion geuen by king Artaxerxes. 28. Eſdras geueth thanks to the Lorde.

1 AND after theſe, when Artaxerxes the kyng of the Perſians raigned, there went vnto hym Eſdras the ſonne of Saraias, the ſonne of Ezerias, the ſonne of Hel-

Helchiah, the sonne of Sallum,
2 The sonne of Sadoc, the sonne of Achitob, the sonne of Amarias, the sonne of Ezias, the sonne of Menerath, the sonne of Sa-raias, the sonne of Sanias, the sonne of Boccas, the sonne of Abisun, the sonne of Phinees, the sonne of Eleazar, the sonne of Aaron the first priest.
3 This Esdras went vp from Babylon, being a scribe of good vnderstandyng in the lawe of Moses, that was geuen by the Lord God of Israel.
4 And the kyng fauoured hym, and did him great worshyp and honour "after all his desyres.
5 There went vp with hym also certayne of the chyldren of Israel, of the priestes, of the Leuites, of the syngers, porters, and ministers of the temple, vnto Hierusalem.
6 In the seuenth yeere of the raigne of kyng
Artaxerxes, in the fyfth moneth, whiche was the seuenth yeere (for they went from Babylon in the firste day of the firste mo-neth,
7 And came to Hierusalem according as GOD gaue them speede in their tourneney.)
8 For Esdras had gotten great knowledge to omit nothyng of that was in the lawe and the commaundementes of the Lorde, and to teache all Israel al the "ordinaunces and iudgementes.
9 The copie of the commission whiche Artaxerxes the kyng wrote, and that was geuen to Esdras the priest and reader of the lawe of the Lorde, this is it that folow-eth.
10 Kyng Artaxerxes sendeth his greetyng vnto Esdras the priest and reader of the lawe of the Lorde.
11 I hauyng wayed thyngs with pitie, haue ordeyned and charged, yf there be any of the Iewes, of the priestes and Leuites in my "Realme, whiche desyreth and is content to goe with thee vnto Israel, that he may doo it.
12 Therefore, so many as long thereafter, let them depart together, & goe with thee, lyke as I am content, and my seuen freends
my counsaylours, 13 To see what they doo at Hierusalem and in Iurie, conuenientely, accordyng as thou hast in the lawe of the Lorde:
14 And to bryng the gyftes vnto God the Lorde of Israel, that I and my freendes haue "promised to Hierusalem, and all the syluer and golde that in the countrey of Babylon may be founde partcynyng to the Lorde in Hierusalem,
15 With the thyng that is geuen of the people to the Lorde their Gods temple at Hierusalem: that the same syluer and golde may be geathered for oxen, rammes, sheepe, and goates, and other that belong to these thynges,
16 That they may offer sacrifices vnto the Lorde, vppon the aulter of the Lorde their God, whiche is at Hierusalem.
17 And what so euer thou and thy brethren wyl do with the syluer and golde, that doo accordyng to the wyl of thy God.
18 And the holy vessels of the Lorde, whiche are geuen thee for the seruice of the temple of thy GOD which is in Hierusalem, thou shalt set them before thy GOD in Hierusalem.
19 And what so euer thyng els thou shalt remember for the vse of the temple of thy GOD, thou shalt geue it out of the kynges treasure.
20 And I kyng Artaxerxes haue also commaunded the kepers of the treasures in Syria and Phenice, that what so euer Esdras the priest and the reader of the lawe of the hyghest God shall sende for, they shoulde geue it hym with speede:
21 Euen to the summe of an hundred talentes of siluer: of corne also an hundred "measures, and tyll an hundred "vessels of wyne, and other thynges abundantly.
22 Let all thynges be done after the lawe of God diligently, vnto the hyghest God, that wrath come not vpon the kyngdome of the kyng and of his sonnes.
23 I commaunde you also, that ye require no tare nor tribute of the priestes, Leuites, holy singers, porters, and ministers of the temple, nor of any that haue doinges in this temple, and that no man haue authoritie to put any impost vpon them.
24 As for thee, O Esdras, set thou Iudges and arbitrers to iudge in the whole lande of Syria and Phenice after the wysedome of God, all suche as be skylfull in the lawe of God, and teache suche as are ignorant.
25 And let all them whiche shall offende a-gaynst the lawe of God and the king, be diligently punished, whether it be by death or other payne, by punishyng in money, or els by banishment.
26 Then sayde Esdras the scribe, Blessed be the onely Lorde God of my fathers, that hath geuen so good a mynde and wyll into the hart of the kyng, to magnifie his house that is at Hierusalem, 27 And hath "made me to be accepted in the sight of the kyng, and of his counsel, of his freendes, and of his nobles.
28 And so I was "stedfast in my mynde, accoꝛdyng as the Loꝛde my God helped me, and I geathered vp men of Israel to go vp with me.

Esth.8.r. 29 And these are the guydes after their families & oꝛders of diguities, that went vp with me from Babylon in the raigne of kyng Artaxerxes.

30 Of the sonnes of Phinehes, Gerſom: of the sonnes of Ithamar, Gamaliel: of the sonnes of Dauid, Hattus the sonne of Cechemah:

31 Of the sonnes of Pharez, Zacharias, and with hym there returned agayne an hundꝛed and fyftie men.

32 Of the sonnes of Pahath, Moab, Elioenai, the sonne of Zacharias, and with hym two hundꝛed men.

33 Of the sonnes of Zathoe, Sechenias, the sonne of Iezolus, and with hym thꝛee hundꝛed men: and of the sonnes of Adin, Obed the sonne of Jonathan, and with hym two hundꝛed and fyftie men.

34 Of the sonnes of Elam, Iesias, sonne of Gotholias, and with hym seuentie men.

35 Of the sonnes of Saphatias, Zarias sonne of Michael, and with hym thꝛeescoꝛe and ten men.

36 Of the sonnes of Joab, Badias sonne of Iezelus, and with hym two hundꝛed and twelue men.

37 Of the sonnes of Banid, Assalimoth sonne of Iosaphias, and with hym an hundꝛed and thꝛeescoꝛe men.

38 Of the sonnes of Babi, Zacharias sonne of Bebai, and with hym twentie and eight men.

39 Of the sonnes of Astath, Johannes sonne of Acatan, and with hym an hundꝛed and ten.

40 Of the sonnes of Adonicam the last: and these are the names of them, Eliphalet, Ieuel, and Maias, and with them seuentie men.

41 Of the sonnes of Bagouthi, sonne of Iacourus, and with hym seuentie men.

42 All these called I togeather by the water Thia, where we pytched our tentes thꝛee dayes, and there I mustred them.

Esd.8.15. 43 *As foꝛ the sonnes of the Pꝛiestes and Leuites, I founde none there.

44 Then sent I vnto Eleazar, and behold there came Maalman, and Maloban, 45 And Alnathan, & Samaian, and Joꝛibon, and Nathan, Ennatan, Zacharian, and Mosollamon the cheefe and best learned:

46 And I bade them that they shoulde goe vnto Daddeus the captayne, which was in the place of the treasurie:

47 And commaunded them that they should speake vnto Daddeus, and to his bꝛethꝛen, and to those that were the treasurers, to sende vs suche men as myght execute the Pꝛiestes office in the house of our Loꝛde.

48 And with the myghtie hand of our Loꝛd God, they bꝛought vnto vs men of good *experience, from among the sonnes of Moli, the sonne of Leui, the sonne of Israel, Seredia, and his sonnes, & his bꝛethꝛen, which were eyghteene.

*or, learning

49 And Alebia, and Amon, and Osaian his bꝛethꝛen, of the sonnes of Canaineus, their sonnes were twentie men.

50 And of them that serued in the temple, whom Dauid had oꝛdeyned, and the pꝛincipal men to the woꝛke of the Leuites, that were ministers in the temple, two hundꝛed and twentie, whose names are al signed vp in wꝛyting.

51 And *then commaunded I a fastyng vnto the young men befoꝛe the Loꝛde, that I myght desiꝛe of hym a pꝛosperous iourney, and a good vvay both foꝛ vs & them that were with vs, foꝛ our chyldꝛen, and foꝛ the cattel. I. Esd.8.21.

52 Foꝛ I feared to desyꝛe of the kyng men of hoꝛse and of foote, to conueygh vs safely agaynst our enimies.

53 Foꝛ we haue sayd vnto the kyng, that the powꝛ of the Loꝛd our God shoulde be with them that seeke hym, to directe them in all thynges.

54 And therefoꝛe we besought our Loꝛde agayne, as touchyng these thynges, & founde hym fauourable vnto vs.

55 Then I separated from among the cheefe of the tribes, and from the Pꝛiestes, twelue men, to vvit, Esebꝛias, and Assanias, and ten men of their bꝛethꝛen with them.

56 And I weyghed them the golde, and the siluer, and the holy vesselles of the house of our Loꝛde, whiche the kyng, and his counsell, and his pꝛinces, and whole Israel had geuen.

57 And when I had weyghed it, I delyuered vnto them syxe hundꝛed and fyftie talentes of siluer, and an hundꝛed talentes in siluer vesselles, and an hundꝛed talentes of golde, 58 And twentie golden basons, and twelue vesselles of bꝛasse, euen fyne bꝛasse, lyke shynyng golde.

59 And I sayde vnto them, Ye are holy vnto the Loꝛde, and the vesselles are holy, and the golde and the syluer is *pꝛomysed vnto the Loꝛde God of our fathers. *or, vovved.

60 *Be diligent nowe, and keepe it, vntyll the tyme that ye delyuer it to the cheefe of the Pꝛiestes and Leuites, and to the pꝛincipall men of the families of Israel in Hierusalem, in the chambers of the house of our God. *or, VVatche.

61 So the Priestes and the Leuites whiche receiued of me the golde, the syluer, and the vesselles, brought it vnto Hierusalem vnto the temple.

*1.Esd.8.31 62 And from the *ryuer Thia we brake vp the twelfth day of the firste moneth, accordyng to the myghtie hande of our Lorde whiche was with vs: and from the begynnyng of our iourney, the Lorde delyuered vs from euery enimie, so that we came vnto Hierusalem.

63 And when the thyrde day was past, the weyghed gold and syluer was delyuered in the house of the Lord, on the fourth day, vnto Marimoth the Priest, and sonne of Iori:

64 And with hym was Eleazar the sonne of Phinehes, and with them were Iosabdus the sonne of Jesu, and Moeth the sonne of Sabbanus, Leuites: all was delyuered them by number and weyght.

65 And al the weyght of them was wrytten vp the same houre.

66 After that, they that were come out of captiuitie, offered sacrifice vnto the Lorde God of Israel, euen twelue Oxen for all Israel, foure score and sixteene Rammes.

67 Three score and twelue Sheepe, twelue Goates for saluation, all in sacrifice to the Lorde.

68 And the kynges commission delyuered they vnto the kynges Stewardes, and to the gouernors of Coelosyria and Phenice, who honored the people and the temple of God.

69 Nowe when these thynges were doone, the rulers came vnto me, and sayde,

*1.Esd.1.9. 70 The *nation of Israel, the Princes, the Priestes and Leuites, haue not put away from them the strange people of the lande, nor the vncleannesse of the Gentiles, to wit, of the Chanaanites, Hethites, Pherezites, Iebusites, and the Moabites, Egyptians, and Edomites:

71 For both they and their sonnes haue mingled them selues with the daughters of them, and the holy seede is myxt with the strange people of the lande: and since the begynnyng of the affayres, the rulers and head men haue been partakers of this wyckednesse.

72 And as soone as I had heard these thynges, immediatly I rent my clothes and the holy garment, and pulled of the heare of my head and my bearde, and sate me downe sorowful and heauie.

73 So al they that were moued through the word of the Lord God of Israel, came vnto me whylest I wept for the iniquitie: but I sate styl ful of heauinesse vntyll the euenyng sacrifice.

74 Then stoode I vp from fastyng, hauyng rent clothes, & the holy garment, and kneeled downe vpon my knees, and held out my handes vnto the Lorde, 75 And sayde, O Lorde, *I am confounded and ashamed before thy face. *1.Esd.1.8.

76 For our sinnes are become many, euen aboue our heades, and our ignoraunces are lyfted vp, euen vnto heauen:

77 For since the tyme of our fathers, we are in great sinne vnto this day.

78 And for the *sinnes of vs, and our fathers, we, with our brethren, and with our kings, and with our Priestes, haue been geuen vp vnto the kinges of the earth, into the sword, and into captiuitie, and became a spoyle with confusion and shame vnto this day. *Deu.28.13.

79 And nowe, O Lorde God, howe great is the mercy that we haue gotten of thee, in that thou hast left vs a roote and a name in the place of thy sanctuarie,

80 And that thou hast discouered to vs a lyght in the house of the Lord our God, and hast geuen vs meate in the tyme of our seruitude:

81 And when we were in captiuitie, we were not forsaken of the Lord our God: but he made the kynges of Persia gratious and fauourable vnto vs, so that they gaue vs victualles and meate, 82 Yea and honored the temple of our Lord, and repayred the wasted places of Sion, and gaue vs assurance in Iurie and Hierusalem.

83 And nowe, O Lorde, what shal we say, hauyng all these thynges in possession? For we haue broken thy commaundementes, whiche thou gauest vnto vs by the handes of thy seruauntes the Prophetes, saying, 84 *Because the land, which ye goe to possesse as an heritage, is a lande defyled with the vncleannesse and filthines of the strangers of the lande, and with their abomination they haue polluted it altogether: *Deut.7.1.

85 Therefore nowe shall ye not ioyne their daughters vnto your sonnes, neither marry your daughters to their sonnes.

86 Moreouer, ye shall neuer seeke to make peace with them, that ye maye *encrease and eate the best in the land, and that ye maye leaue the inheritance of the land vnto your children for euermore. *Or, ouer strong, and eate the good thynges of the lande.

87 As for the thinges that are come to passe, they come all for our wycked woorkes and great sinnes: for thou, O Lord, hast made our sinnes lyght,

88 And geuen vs suche a roote: but we haue turned backe agayne, so that we haue broken thy lawe, and myngled our selues with with the vncleanneſſe of the outlandyſhe heathen.

89 Wyghteſt not thou be angrye with vs to deſtroy vs, ſo that thou ſhouldeſt leaue vs neyther roote, ſeede, nor name?

90 O Lorde God of Iſrael, thou art true: for our roote endureth yet vnto this preſent day.

91 And beholde, nowe are we before thee in our ſinnes, neyther can we ſtand before thee for them.

1.Eſd.10.1 92 And when Eſdras with this prayer had knowledged the ſinne, weepyng, and lying flat vpon the grounde before the temple, there gathered vnto hym from Hieruſalem, a great multitude of men and women, of young men & maydens: for there was a very great weepyng and mournyng among the multitude.

93 Then Iechonias the ſonne of Ieheli, one of the chyldren of Iſrael, cried out, & ſaide, O Eſdras, we haue ſinned againſt the Lorde God, becauſe we haue married ſtrange women of the nations of the lande.

94 And nowe al Iſrael hangeth in doubte: We wyll ſweare an othe therefore vnto the Lorde, that we ſhal put away al our wyues which we haue take of the "Heathen, with their chyldren:

"Or, ſtrange.

95 Lyke as it maye ſeeme good to thee, and to all thoſe that obey the lawe of the Lorde.

96 Stande vp, and put it in execution: for to thee doeth this matter apparteyne, and we are with thee to adde thee ſtrength.

97 So Eſdras aroſe, and tooke an othe of the cheefe of the Prieſtes and Leuites of all Iſrael, to doo after theſe thynges: and they ſware.

¶ The.ix. Chapter.

1. After Eſdras had read the lawe for the ſtrange wyues, 18. they promiſed to put them away.

1.Eſd.10.6 1 THen Eſdras "ryſyng from the court of the temple, went to the chamber of Joannan, the ſonne of Eliaſib, "Or, from.

2 And remayned there, & dyd eate no meate, nor dronke "drynke, weepyng for the great wyckednеſſe of the people.

"Or, water.

3 And there was made a proclamation in al Iurie, and at Hieruſalem, for all them that were of the captiuitie, that they ſhould gether togeather at Hieruſalem,

4 And that whoſoeuer met not there within two or three dayes, accordyng as the elders that bare rule appointed, their cattell ſhould be ſeaſed to the vſe of the temple, and he be excluded from them that were of the captiuitie.

5 And in three dayes were all they of the tribe of Iuda and Beniamin geathered togeather at Hieruſalem, the twentieth day of the nienth moneth.

6 And the whole multitude ſate tremblyng in the "court of the temple, for it was wynter.

"Or, the large roome.

7 So Eſdras aroſe vp, and ſayd vnto them, Ye haue doone vnryghteouſly, in that ye haue taken "outlandyſhe wyues to marriage, and ſo to encreaſe the ſinnes of Iſrael.

"Or, ſtrange.

8 And nowe knowledge the ſame, and geue prayſe vnto the Lorde God of our fathers:

9 And perfourme his wyll, departyng from the Heathen of the land, and from the "outlandyſhe wyues.

"Or, ſtrange.

10 Then cryed the whole multitude, and ſayde with a loude voyce, Lyke as thou haſt ſpoken, ſo wyl we doo.

11 But for as much as the people are many, and winter ſeaſon, ſo that we may not ſtand without the houſe, and becauſe this wooꝛke is not a thyng that can be finiſhed in a day or two, ſeeing we be many that haue ſinned in theſe thynges:

12 Ordeyne therefore that the rulers of the multitude, & they of our families that haue ſtrange wyues, tarrie.

13 And let the Prieſtes and Iudges come out of euery place in their tyme appointed, tyl they ſwage the wrath of the Lorde in this buſineſſe.

14 Then Ionathas the ſonne of Azahel, and Ezechias the ſonne of Thecan, receyued the charge of this matter: and Moſollam, and Leuis, and Sabbatheus helped them thereto.

15 And they that were of the captiuitie, dyd accordyng to all theſe thynges.

16 And Eſdras the Prieſte choſe vnto hym the principal men from among the fathers, and them al by name: and in the fyrſt day of the tenth moneth, they ſate togeather, to examine this matter.

17 And "ſo the matter was a determinyng, concerning ſ men that had married ſtrange wyues, vntyll the newe Moone of the firſt moneth:

"Or, ſo.

18 And of the Prieſtes that had myxte them ſelues with "outlandyſh wyues, there were founde,

"Or, ſtrange.

19 Of the ſonnes of Ieſu the ſonne of Joſedec, and his brethren, Mathelas, Eleazar, Joribus, and Joadanus:

20 Which offered them ſelues to put away their wyues, and to offer a Ramme vnto reconcilement for their purgation.

21 And of the ſonnes of Emmer, Ananias, and Zabdeus, and Canes, and Samaius, and Hiereel, and Azarias.

22 And of the sonnes of Phaisu, Elionas, Maasias, Ismaelus, and Nathanael, and Odidelus, and Talsas.
23 And of the Leuites, Jozabadus, and Semis, and Colius, who was called Calitas, and Patheus, and Dudas, and Jonas.
24 Of the holy Syngers, Eleazarus, Bacchurus.
25 Of the Porters, Sallumus, and Tolbantes.
26 Of them of Israel, of the sonnes of Phoros, Hiermas, and Eddias, and Melchias, and Maelus, and Eleazar, and Asibias, and Banaias.
27 Of the sonnes of Ela, Mathanias, Zacharias, and Hierelias, and Hieremoth, and Aedias.
28 And of the sonnes of Zamoth, Eliadas, Elisimus, Othonias, Jarimoth, and Sabatus, and Sardeus.
29 Of the sonnes of Bebai, Joannes, and Anananias, and Jolabad, and Ematheas.
30 Of the sonnes of Mani, Olamus, Mamuchus, Jedaias, Jasubus, Jasael, and Jeremoth.
31 And of the sonnes of Addi, Naathus, Moosias, Caleus, and Naidus, and Mathanias, and Selchel, and Baalmus, and Manasseas.
32 And of the sonnes of Annas, Elionas, and Asas, and Melchias, and Sabbeus, and Simon a Chosamite.
33 And of the sonnes of Asom, Altaneus, and Matthias, and Banaias, Eliphalet, and Manasses, and Semi.
34 And of the sonnes of Maani, Jeremias, Momdis, Omairus, Iuel, Mamai, and Maelias, and Amos, Carabasion, and Enasibus, & Mamminata, Naius, Elisaeis, Uamus, Eliali, Samis, Selemias, Nathanias: & of the sonnes of Ozoras, Sesis, Esril, Ezailus, Samatas, Sambis, Josiphus.
35 And of the sonnes of Ethna, Mazitias, Zabadias, Ethes, Iuel, Banaias.
36 All these had taken *outlandyshe women to marriage, and they put them away with their chyldren.
37 And the Priests and Leuites, and al they that were of Israel, dwelt at Hierusalem, and throughout al the lande, in the *newe Moone of the seuenth moneth: and the chyldren of Israel were in their * dwellynges.
38 And the * whole multitude came together with one accorde, into the wyde place before the East gate of the temple.
39 And they spake vnto Esdras the hygh Priest and reader, that he would bryng the lawe of Moses, whiche had been geuen of the Lorde God of Israel.
40 So Esdras the hygh Priest brought the lawe vnto the whole multitude, to man, and woman, and to all the Priestes, that they myght heare the lawe in the *newe Moone of the seuenth moneth.
41 And he read in the fyrste wyde place that is before the porte of the temple, from the morynyng early vnto myddaye, before men and women: and they applyed their mynde al vnto the lawe.
42 And Esdras the Priest, and reader of the lawe, stoode vp vppon a pulpyt of wood, whiche was made therefore.
43 And vpon his ryght hande, there stoode by hym Mathathias, Samus, Ananias, Azarias, Urias, Ezechias, and Balasan:
45 Thē tooke Esdras the booke of the lawe before the whole multitude (for he was the principal, & had in moste honor of them al.)
46 And when he expounded the lawe, they stoode al strayght vpon their feete. So Esdras *praysed the Lord the moste hygh God, the almyghtie God of hostes.
47 And all the people answeared, Amen.
48 And Jesus, Anus, Sarabias, Adinus, Jacobus, Bataias, Antamas, Maianias, Calitas, Azarias, Johaladdus, Ananias, and Biatas the Leuites, lyft vp their handes, and fel downe on the ground, and worshypped the Lorde, 49 And taught the lawe of the Lorde, and were earnestlye occupied togeather in the readyng therof.
50 Then spake Atharates vnto Esdras the hygh Priest and reader, and to the Leuites that taught the multitude, saying,
51 This day is holy vnto the Lorde: and all when they hearde the lawe, wept.
52 So Esdras sayde, * Depart your way therefore, and eate the fat meates, and drinke the sweete drynkes, and sende gyftes vnto them that haue nothyng.
53 For this day is holy vnto the Lorde, and be not ye sory: for the Lorde wyll bryng you to honour.
54 So the Leuites *published al these thynges to the people, saying, This day is holye to the Lorde, be not sory.
55 Then went they their way euery one to eate and drynke, and were mery, and sent presentes to them that had nothyng, and made very good cheare.
56 For they were as yet *fylled with the wourdes that had been taught them, and for the whiche they had been assembled.

¶ The fyrſt Chapter.

9. The people is reproued for theyr vnthankefulneſſe. 30. God vvyl haue another people, yf theſe vvyl not be reformed.

THe ſeconde booke of the *Prophete Eſdras, the ſonne of Saraias, the ſonne of Azarias, the ſonne of Helchia, the ſonne of Sadanias, the ſonne of Sadoc, the ſonne of Achitob,

*2.Eſdr.7.1.

2 The ſonne of Achia, the ſonne of Phinees, the ſonne of Heli, the ſonne of Amerias, the ſonne of Aziel, the ſonne of Marimoth, the ſonne of Arna, the ſonne of Ozias, the ſonne of Bozith, the ſonne of Abiſei, the ſonne of Phinees, the ſonne of Eleazar,

3 The ſonne of Aaron, of the tribe of Leui, which Eſdras was pryſoner in the lande of Medes, in the raigne of Artaxerxes kyng of Perſia.

4 And the wooꝛde of the Loꝛde came vnto me, ſaying,

5 *Goe thy way, and ſhewe my people theyꝛ ſinful deedes, and theyꝛ chyldꝛen their wickedneſſe which they haue done agaynſt me, that they may tel theyꝛ chylders chyldꝛen the ſame:

*Eſai.58.5.

6 Foꝛ the ſinnes of theyꝛ fathers are encreaſed in them: and why? they haue foꝛgotten me, and haue offered vnto ſtrange gods.

7 Am not I euen he that brought them out of the lande of Egypt from the houſe of bondage? But they haue pꝛouoked me vnto wrath, and deſpyſed my counſayles.

8 Pul thou "out then the heare of thy head, and caſt al euil vpon them, foꝛ they haue not ben obedient vnto my lawe: but it is a people without learnyng and nurture.

"Or of.

9 Howe long ſhal I foꝛbeare them, vnto whom I haue done ſo muche good?

14 I gaue you *lyght in a pyller of fyre, and great wonders haue I done among you: yet haue ye foꝛgotten me, ſayth the Loꝛde.

*Exo.13.21.

15 Thus ſayth the almightie Loꝛde, The *quayles were as a token foꝛ you, I gaue you tentes foꝛ your "ſuccour, neuertheleſſe in them ye murmured:

*Exo.16.13.
"Or, ſafegarde.

16 And "aſcribed not the victoꝛie of your enimies vnto my name, but euer to this day doo ye yet murmure.

"Or, and triumphed not in my name for the deſtruction of your enimies.

17 Where are the benefites that I haue done foꝛ you? when ye were hungry in the wylderneſſe, dyd ye not cꝛye vnto me, 18 Saying, *Why haſt thou bꝛought vs into this wylderneſſe to kyl vs? It had ben better foꝛ vs to haue ſerued the Egyptians, then to dye in this wylderneſſe.

*Num.14.3

19 Then had I pitie vppon your mourninges, and gaue you Manna to eate. *So ye dyd eate angels foode.

*Sapi.16.20.

20 When ye were *thirſtie, did not I cleaue the rocke, and waters flowed out, to ſatiſfie you withal? foꝛ the heate, I couered you with the leaues of the trees.

24 What ſhal I doo vnto thee, O Jacobs thou Juda wouldeſt *not obey me: I wyl turne me to the other nations, & vnto thoſe wyl I geue my name, that they may keepe my ſtatutes.

*Exo.12.8.

25 Seeyng ye haue foꝛſaken me, I wyl foꝛſake you alſo. When ye deſyꝛe me to be gracious vnto you, I ſhal haue no mercie vppon you.

26 *When ye cal vpon me, I wyl not heare you: foꝛ ye haue defyled your handes with blood, and your feete are ſwift to commit manſlaughter.

*Eſai.1.15

27 Ye haue not as it were foꝛſaken me, but your owne ſelues, ſayth the Loꝛde.

28 Thus sayth the almightie Lorde, Haue I not prayed you, as a father his sonnes, as a mother her daughters, and a nurse her young babes, 29 That ye woulde be my people, and I shoulde be your God, that ye woulde be my chyldren, and I shoulde be your father?

*Mat.23.37 30 *I gathered you together, as a henne gathereth her chickins vnder her winges: but nowe, what shal I doo vnto you? I wyl cast you out from my face.

*Esai.66.3. 31 *When you offer vnto me, I wyl turne my face from you: for your solemne feast dayes, your newe moone, and your circumcisions haue I forsaken.

32 I sent vnto you my seruantes the prophetes, whom ye haue taken and slayne, and torne their bodies in peeces, whose blood I wyl *requyre of your handes, sayth the Lorde.

¶ The.ii Chapter.

1. The synagogue findeth fault with her owne chyldren. 11. The Gentiles are called.

1 Thus sayth the Lorde, I brought this people out of bondage, I gaue them my cõmaundementes by my seruantes the prophetes, whom they would not heare, but despysed my counsayles.

2 The mother that bare them, sayth vnto them, Goe your way ye chyldren, for I am a wydowe and forsaken.

3 I brought you vp with gladnesse, but with sorowe and heauinesse haue I lost you, for ye haue sinned before the Lord your God, and done that thyng that is euyl before hym.

4 But what shal I nowe doo vnto you? I am a wydowe and forsaken: goe your way, O my chyldren, and aske mercy of the Lord.

5 As for me, O father, I call vpon thee for a witnesse ouer the mother of these chyldren, which woulde not keepe my conenant:

6 That thou bryng them to confusion, and their mother to a spoyle, that she beare no more.

7 Let their names be scattered abrode among the Heathen, let them be put out of the earth: for they haue *thought scorne of my couenant.

8 Wo be vnto thee Assur, thou that hydest the vnryghteous in thee: thou wycked people, remember what I dyd vnto *Sodome and Gomorrhe,

*Gen.19.24.

9 Whose lande is turned into cloddes of pitche, and heapes of ashes: euen so also, wyl I doo vnto al them that heare me not, sayth the almightie Lorde.

10 Thus sayth the Lord vnto Esdras, Tel my people that I wyl geue them the kyngdome of Hierusalem, which I would haue geuen vnto Israel.

11 Their glory also wyl I take vnto me, and geue them the euerlastyng tabernacles, which I had prepared for those.

12 They shal haue the tree of lyfe at wyl, as in the sweete sauour of oyntment, they shal neyther labour, nor be weerie.

13 Goe ye your way, and ye shal receyue it: pray that there may be fewe dayes, and the long tyme may be shortened for thee: the kingdome is alredy prepared for you, therefore watche.

14 Take heauen and earth to witnesse, for I haue broken the euyl in peeces, and trested the good: for I lyue, sayth the Lorde.

15 Mother embrace thy chyldren, and bring them vp with gladnesse, make their feete as fast as a pyller: for I haue chosen thee, sayth the Lorde.

16 And those that be dead, wyl I rayse vp agayne from their places, and bryng them out of the graues: for I haue knowen my name in Israel.

17 Feare not thou mother of the chyldren: for I haue chosen thee, sayth the Lorde.

18 And for thy helpe I shal sende thee my seruantes Esai and Jeremie, after whose counsayle I haue sanctified and prepared for thee twelue trees, laden with dyuers fruites.

19 And as many fountaynes, flowyng with mylke mylke and hony: and seuen myghtie mountaynes, wherevpon there grewe Roses and Lillies, whereby I wyll fyl thy chyldren with ioy.

20 Execute iustice for the wyddowe, iudge for the fatherlesse, geue to the poore, defende the fatherlesse, clothe the naked, 21 Heale the wounded and sicke, laugh not a lame man to scorne, defende the creeple, and let the blynde man come into the lyght of my clearenesse.

22 Kepe the old and young that are within thy walles.

Mat.10.22. 23 *Whersoeuer thou findest the dead, take them, and burye them, and I shal geue thee the firste place in my resurrection.

24 Abyde styll, O my people, and take thy rest, for thy quietnesse shal come.

25 Feede thy chyldren, O thou good nurse, stablyshe their feete.

26 As for the seruauntes whom I haue geuen thee, there shal not one of them perysshe: for I wyl seke them from among thy number.

27 Be not weery, for when the day of trouble & heaynesse commeth, other shal weepe and be sorowful, but thou shalt be mery and plenteous.

28 The Heathen shalbe ielous at it, but they shalbe able to doo nothyng agaynst thee, sayth the Lorde.

29 My handes shall couer thee, so that thy children shall not see the *fire euerlastyng.

30 Be ioyfull, O thou mother, with thy chyldren, for I wyl delyuer thee, sayth the Lorde.

31 Remember thy chyldren that sleepe, for I shal bryng them out of the sydes of the earth, and shewe mercy vnto them: for I am mercyfull, sayth the Lorde almyghtie.

32 Imbrace thy chyldren vntyl I come, and shewe mercye vnto them: for my *welles runne ouer, and my grace shall not fayle.

33 I Esdras receyued a charge of the Lorde vpon the mount Oreb, that I shoulde goe vnto Israel: but when I came vnto them, they set me at nought, & despysed the commaundementes of the Lorde.

34 And therfore I say vnto you, O ye Heathen that heare and vnderstande, *Looke for your Shepheard, he shal geue you euerlastyng rest: for he is nigh at hand that shal come in the ende of the worlde.

35 Be redy to the reward of the kyngdome, for the euerlastyng lyght shall shyne vppon you for euermore.

36 Flee the shadowe of this worlde, receyue the ioyfulnesse of your glorye: I testifie my Sauiour openly.

37 Receyue the gift that is geuen you, and be glad, geuyng thanks vnto hym that hath called you to the heauenly kyngdome.

38 Aryse vp, and stande fast, beholde the number of those that be sealed *in the feaste of the Lorde, *or, for.

39 Whiche are departed from the shadowe of the worlde, and haue receyued glorious garmentes of the Lorde.

40 Take thy number, O Sion, and shut vp thy *purified, whiche haue fulfylled the lawe of the Lorde. *or, those of thyne that are clothed in vvhyte.

41 The number of thy chyldren whom thou longedst for, is fulfylled: beseech the power of the Lorde, that thy people whiche haue been called from the begynnyng, maye be halowed.

42 *I Esdras sawe vppon the mount Sion a great people, whom I could not number: and they al praysed the Lorde with songues of thankes geuyng. *Apo.7.9.

43 And in the myddest of them there was a young man of an hygh stature, more excellyng then all they, and vppon euery one of their heades he set crownes, and was euer *hygher and hygher, whiche I marueyled at greatly. *or, and euer hygher then the other.

44 So I asked the angel, and sayde, Syr, what are these?

45 He answeared, and sayd vnto me, These be they that haue put of the mortall clothing, and put on the immortall, and haue *testified & knowledged the name of God: nowe are they crowned, and receyue the *rewarde. *or, haue confessed. *or, the Palmes.

46 Thē sayd I vnto the angel, What young person is it that crowneth them, and geueth them the Palmes in their handes?

47 So he answeared, and saide vnto me, It is the sonne of GOD, whom they haue *knowledged in the worlde: Then began I greatly to commende them that stoode so stydy for the name of the Lorde. *or, confessed.

48 Then the angell sayde vnto me, Goe thy way, & tel my people what maner of things, and howe great woonders of the Lorde thy God thou hast seene.

¶ The.iii. Chapter.

4. The vvonderous vvorkes vvhiche God dyd for the people, are recited. 31. Esdras marueyleth that God suffereth the Babylonians to haue rule ouer his people, vvhiche yet are sinners also.

1 IN the thirtieth yeere after the fall of the citie, I was at Babylon, and lay troubled vpon my bed, and my thoughtes came vp ouer my hart.

2 For I sawe the desolation of Sion, and the plenteous wealth of them that dwelt at Babylon.

3 And my ſpirite was ſore moued, ſo that I beganne to ſpeake fearful wordes to the moſt hyghest, and ſayde,

4 O Lord, Lord, thou ſpakeſt at the begynnyng, when thou plantedſt the earth (and that thee ſelfe alone) and gaueſt commaundement vnto the people,

*Gene.2.7. 5 And a * bodye vnto Adam without ſoule, whiche was a "creature of thy handes, and haſt breathed in hym the breath of lyfe, and ſo he lyued before thee:

"Or, vvorkemanshyp.

6 And thou ledeſt hym into paradiſe, whiche thy ryght hande had planted or euer the earth brought fruites:

7 And vnto hym thou gaueſt commaundement to loue thy way, whiche he tranſgreſſed, & immediatly thou appoyntedſt death in hym, and in his generations: of whom came nations, tribes, people, and kyndredes out of number.

*Gen.6.12. 8 And euerye people * walked after their owne wyl, and dyd woonderful thynges before thee: and as for thy commaundementes, they deſpyſed.

*Gene.7.10. 9 "But "in proceſſe of tyme thou broughteſt the water flood vppon thoſe that dwelt in the worlde, and deſtroyeſt them.

"Or, at tyme appoynted.

10 So that by the flood, that was wrought in eache of them, that was by death in Adam.

11 Neuertheleſſe, one of them thou lefteſt, namely, Noah with his houſhold, of whom came al ryghteous men.

12 And it "happened, that when they that dwelt vppon the earth began to multiplye, and had gotten them manye chyldren, and were a great people, they began to be more vngodly then the firſt.

"Or, came to paſſe.

*Gen.12.15. 13 Now when they lyued ſo wickedly before thee, thou dyddeſt * chooſe thee a man from among them, whoſe name was Abraham.

14 Hym thou louedſt, and vnto hym onely thou ſhewedſt thy wyl:

15 And madeſt an euerlaſtyng couenaunt with hym, promyſyng hym that thou wouldeſt neuer forſake his ſeede.

*Gen.21.2. 16 And vnto hym thou gaueſt * Iſahac, vnto Iſahac alſo thou gaueſt Iacob & Eſau.

*Gen.25.25. As for Iacob, thou dyddeſt chooſe hym to thee, and * put backe Eſau: and ſo Iacob became a great multitude.

*Deut.4.10 17 And it came to paſſe, that when thou ledeſt his ſeede out of Egypt, thou * broughteſt them vp to the mount Sina, "Or, abaſing.

18 Bowing downe the heauens, "ſetting faſt the earth, moouing the ground, making the depthes to ſhake, and troubling the world.

"Or, aſtonishing.

19 And thy glory went through foure "portes, of fyre, and earthquakes, and wyndes, and colde, that thou myghteſt geue the lawe vnto the ſeede of Iacob, and "diligence vnto the generation of Iſrael.

"Or, gates

"Or, and that vvhiche the generation of Iſrael shoule keepe vvith diligence.

20 And yet tooke ſt thou not away from them that wycked hart, that thy lawe myght bryng foorth fruite in them.

21 For the firſte Adam bearyng a wycked * hart, tranſgreſſed, and was ouercome: and ſo be al they that are borne of hym.

*Gene.3.6.

22 Thus remained weakeneſſe ſtyl: and the lawe in the hartes of the people, with the wyckednes of the roote, ſo that the good departed away, and the euyl abode ſtyll.

23 So the tymes paſſed away, and the yeres were brought to an ende: then dyddeſt thou * rayſe thee vp a ſeruaunt, called Dauid,

*1.Re.16.13. 2.Reg.5.2.

24 Whom thou commaundedſt to buylde a citie vnto thy name, and to offer vp incenſe and ſacrifice vnto thee therein.

25 When this was done now many yeeres, then the inhabiters of the citie forſooke thee.

26 And in al things dyd euen as Adam and all his generations had doone, for they alſo had a wycked hart.

27 And ſo thou gaueſt the citie ouer into the handes of thyne enimies.

28 But doo they of Babylon then any thing better, that they ſhoulde therefore haue the dominion in Sion?

29 For when I came thither, and ſaw there ſo great wyckednes that it coulde not be numbred, then my ſoule ſaw many euyl doers in this thirtieth yeere, ſo that my hart fayled me:

30 For I ſawe howe thou ſuffereddſt them in ſuch vngodlyneſſe, and ſpareddſt the wicked doers: but thine owne people haſt thou rooted out, and preſerued thyne enimies, and this haſt thou not ſhewed "me.

"Or, it.

31 I can not perceiue how this "happeneth. Doo they of Babylon then better then they of Sion?

"Or, commeth to paſſe.

32 Or is there * anye other people that knoweth thee, ſauyng the people of Iſrael? or what generation hath ſo beleeued thy "couenauntes, as Iacob?

*Ier.10.25

"Or, teſtimonia.

33 And yet their reward appeareth not, and their labour hath no fruite: for I haue gone here and there through the Heathen, and I ſee that they be "ryche and wealthie, and thynke not vpon thy commaundementes.

"Or, flovvin vvealth.

34 Weygh thou therefore our wyckednes nowe in the ballance, and theirs alſo that dwel in the worlde: and ſo ſhal thy name be no where founde, but in Iſrael.

35 Or when was it that they whiche dwell vppon earth, haue not ſinned in thy ſyght? or what people hath ſo kept thy commaundementes?

36 Thou ſhalt finde that Iſrael by name hath kept thy preceptes: but not the other people people and heathen.

¶ The iiii. Chapter.

The angel reproueth Esdras, because he seemeth to enter into the profounde iudgementes of God.

1 AND the angel that was sent vnto me, whose name was Uriel, gaue me an answeare,

2 And sayde, Thy hart hath taken to much vpon it in this worlde, and thou thynkest to comprehende the way of the hyghest.

3 Then sayde I, Yea my Lorde. And he answeared me, and sayde, I am sent to shewe thee three wayes, and to set foorth three similitudes before thee:

4 Whereof, if thou canst declare me one, I wyl shewe thee also the way that thou desirest to see: and I shal shewe thee from whence the wycked hart commeth.

5 And I sayd, Tel on my Lord. Then sayd he vnto me, Goe thy way, weygh me the weyght of the fyre, or measure me the blast of the wynde, or cal me againe the day that is past.

6 Then answeared I, and said, What man borne is able to doo that, that thou shouldest aske suche thinges of me?

7 And he sayde vnto me, If I shoulde aske thee howe deepe dwellings are in the middest of the sea, or how great water springes are in the beginning of the deepe, or howe great water springes are vpon the stretchyng out of the heauens, or whiche are the 'outgoynges of paradise:

8 Peraduenture thou wouldest say vnto me, I neuer went downe yet into the deepe, nor hel, nyther dyd I euer climbe vp into heauen.

9 Neuertheless, nowe haue I asked thee but onely of fyre, and wynde, and of the day wherethrough thou hast trauayled, & from the whiche thou canst not be separated, and yet canst thou geue me no answeare of them.

10 He sayd moreouer vnto me, Thine owne thynges, and suche as are growen vp with thee, canst thou not knowe:

11 Howe shoulde thy vessel then be able to comprehende the way of the hyghest, and nowe outwardly in the corrupt worlde to vnderstande the corruption that is euident in my syght?

12 Then sayde I vnto hym, It were better that we were not at al, then that we should lyue in wyckednesse, and to suffer, and not to knowe wherefore.

13 He answeared me, and sayde, I * came to a forrest in a playne, and the trees tooke suche a deuice, 14 And sayde, Come, let vs goe, and fight againste the sea, that it may depart away before vs, and that we may make yet more woods.

15 The flooddes of the sea also in lyke maner tooke counsayle, and sayde, Come, let vs goe vp, and fight againste the trees of the wood, that there we may make vs another countrey.

16 The thought and deuice of the wood was but vayne and nothyng worth, for the fyre came and consumed it.

17 The thought of the flooddes of the sea, came lykewyse to nought also: for the sand stoode vp, and stopped them.

18 If thou were iudge nowe betwixt these two, whom wouldest thou iustifie, or whom wouldest thou condemne?

19 I answeared, and sayde, Verily it is a foolishe thought that they both haue deuised: for the ground is geuen vnto the wood, and the sea also hath his place to beare his flooddes.

20 Then answeared he me, and sayd, Thou hast geuen a ryght iudgement: but why iudgest thou not thee selfe also?

21 For lykeas the grounde is geuen vnto the wood, and the sea to his flooddes: 'euen so they that dwel vpon earth, may vnderstande nothyng but that whiche is vppon earth: and he that dwelleth aboue the heauens, may onely vnderstande the thynges that are aboue the heauens.

22 Then answeared I, and sayde, I beseche thee, O Lord, let me haue vnderstandyng,

23 For it was not my mynde 'to be curious of thy hygh thynges, but of such as we daily meddle withall, namely, as wherfore Israel is geuen vp as a reproche to the heathen, and for what cause the people whom thou hast loued is geuen ouer vnto vngodly nations, and why the lawe of our forefathers is brought to nought, and the written 'couenances come to none effect:

24 And we passe away out of the worlde as the grasshoppers, and our lyfe is a very feare, and we are not worthie to obteyne mercie.

25 What wyl he then doo vnto his name which is called vpon ouer vs? Of these thynges haue I asked question.

26 Then answeared he me, and sayd, The more thou searchest, the more thou shalt marueyle: for the worlde hasteth fast to passe away, 27 And can not comprehende the thynges that are promised to the ryghteous in tyme to come: for this worlde is ful of vnryghteousnesse and weakenesse.

'Esai. 55. 8. Iohn. 3. 32. 1. Cor. 2. 12.

'Or, to enquire.

'Or, ordinances.

28 But as concerning the thynges whereof thou askest me, I wyl tel thee: The euyl is sowen, but the destruction therof is not yet come.

29 If the euyl nowe that is sowen, be not turned vpsyde downe, & if the place where the euyl is sowen passe not away: then can not the thyng come that is sowen with good.

30 For the corne of euyl seede hath ben sowen in the hart of Adam from the beginning: and howe muche vngodlinesse hath he brought vp vnto this tyme? and howe muche shal he yet bryng forth vntyll he come into the barne?

31 Ponder nowe by thee selfe howe great fruite of wyckednesse the corne of euyl seede bryngeth forth.

32 And when the stalkes shalbe cut downe, which are without number, howe great a barne shal it fyll?

33 Then I answeared, and sayde, Howe, and when shal these thinges come to passe? Wherefore are our yeeres fewe and euyl?

34 And he answeared me, saying, Haste not thou to muche aboue the most highest: for thy hastinesse to be aboue him, is but vaine, though thou doo al that thou canst for it.

35 Dyd not the soules also of the ryghteous aske question of these thynges in their chambers, saying, Howe long shal I hope on this fashion? when commeth the fruite of my barne, and our rewarde?

36 And vpon this, Jeremiel tharchangel gaue them answeare, & sayde, Euen when the number of the seedes is filled in you, for he hath weighed the world in the ballance.

37 In measure and number hath he measured the tymes, & mooueth it not, nor shaketh it, vntyl the sayd measure be fulfilled.

38 Then answeared I, and sayd, O Lorde, Lorde, nowe are we al ful of sinne:

39 And for our sake peraduenture it is that the barne of the ryghteous is not fulfylled, because of the sinnes of them that dwel vpon the earth.

40 So he answeared me, and sayd, Goe thy way to a woman with chylde, and aske of her, when she hath fulfylled her nine monethes, if her wombe may keepe the byrth any longer within her?

41 Then sayde I, No Lorde, that can she not. And he sayde vnto me, In the graue, the secrete places of soules are lyke the wombe of a woman:

42 For lyke as a woman that trauayleth, maketh haste to escape the necessitie of the trauayle: euen so doo these places haste to delyuer those thynges that are committed vnto them.

43 Looke what thou desyrest to see, it shalbe shewed thee from the beginning.

44 Then answeared I, and sayde, If I haue founde fauour in thy syght, and if it be possible, and if I be meete therefore, 45 Shewe me then whether there be more to come then is past, or more past then is for to come.

46 What is past, I knowe: but what is for to come, I knowe not.

47 And he sayde vnto me, Stande vp vpon the ryght side, and I shal expounde the similitude vnto thee.

48 So I stoode, and beholde an hot burning ouen passed by before me: and it happened, that when the flame was gone by, I loked, and behold, the smoke had the vpper hand.

49 After this there passed by before me a watrie cloude, and sent downe much raine with a stormie raine: and when the stormie raine was past, *the droppes remayned styl.

50 Then sayde he vnto me, Consyder with thee selfe: lyke as the rayne is more then the droppes, and as the fyre exceedeth the smoke: euen so, the measure of the thynges that are past hath the vpper hande, and the droppes and smoke worke much in quantitie.

51 Then I prayed, and sayde, May I lyue thinkest thou vntyl that tyme? or what shal happen in those dayes?

52 He answeared me, and sayde, As for the tokens whereof thou askest me, I may tell thee of them in part: but as touchyng thy lyfe, I am not sent to shewe thee: for I doo not knowe it.

*or, the late droppes came after.

¶ The v. Chapter.

1. In the latter tymes trueth shalbe hydde, vnryghteousnesse and al vnyckednesse shal raigne in the vworlde.

1 NEuertheless, as concernyng the tokens marke this: beholde, the dayes shal come, that they which dwel vpon earth shalbe taken in a great number, and the way of the trueth shalbe hyd, and the lande shalbe barren from fayth:

2 But *iniquitie shalbe encreased aboue that which nowe thou seest, or that thou hast heard long agoe. *Mat. 24.4

3 And the land that thou seest nowe to haue rule, shalt thou shortly see waste.

4 But if God graunt thee to lyue, thou shalt see after the thyrde trumpet, that the sunne shal sodaynly shine agayne in the night, and the moone three tymes in the day:

5 And blood shal droppe out of wood, and the stone shal geue his voyce, and the people shalbe vnquieted:

6 And euen he shall rule, whom they hope not that dwel vpon earth, and the soules shall ſhall flitte:

7 And the Sodomitiſhe ſea ſhall caſt out the fyſhe, and make a noyſe in the nyght, which many haue not knowen: but they ſhall all heare the voyce thereof.

8 There ſhalbe a confuſion alſo in many places, and the fyre ſhalbe oft ſent out agayne: and the wylde beaſtes ſhall chaunge theyr places, and menſtrous women ſhall beare monſters,

9 And ſalt waters ſhalbe found in the ſweet, and all freendes ſhal fight one agaynſt another: then ſhall all wit & vnderſtanding be hyd, and put aſyde into their ſecrete places:

10 And ſhalbe ſought of many, and yet not be founde; then ſhall vnryghteouſneſſe and *voluptuouſneſſe haue the vpper hand vpon earth.

*Or, incontinency.

11 One lande alſo ſhal aſke another, and ſay, Is righteouſneſſe that *maketh a man righteous gone thyrough thee? And it ſhall ſay, No.

*Or, that iuſtifieth. Or, that doeth righteouſly.

12 At the ſame tyme ſhall men hope, but nothyng obteyne: they ſhall labour, but theyr wayes ſhall not proſper.

13 To ſhew thee ſuche tokens I haue leaue: and yf thou wylt pray againe, and weepe as nowe, and faſt ſeuen dayes, thou ſhalt yeare yet greater thynges.

14 Then I awaked, & a fearefulneſſe went thyrough all my bodye, and my mynde was feeble, ſo that I almoſt ſowned withall.

15 So the angel that was come to talke with me, helpe me, comforted me, and ſet me vp vpon my feete.

16 And in the ſeconde nyght it came to paſſe, that Salathiel the captayne of the people came vnto me, ſaying, Where haſt thou ben? and why is thy countenance ſo heauie?

17 Knoweſt thou not that Iſrael is committed vnto thee in the lande of their captiuitie?

18 Up then, and eate, and forſake vs not as the ſhepheard that leaueth his flocke in the handes of *wicked woolues.

*Or, cruell.

19 Then ſayde I vnto hym, Goe thy wayes fro me, and come not nigh me. And he heard it, and as I ſayde, ſo he went his way from me.

20 And ſo I faſted ſeuen dayes, mournyng and weepyng, lyke as Uriel the angel commaunded me.

21 And after ſeuen dayes ſo it was, that the thoughtes of my hart were very greeuous vnto me agayne:

22 And my ſoule receiued the ſpirite of vnderſtandyng, and I began to talke with the moſt hyghest agayne,

23 And ſayde, O Lorde, Lorde, of euery wood of the earth, and of all the trees thereof, thou haſt choſen thee one only vineyard:

24 And of all landes of the whole worlde, thou haſt choſen thee one pit: and of al flowers of the grounde, thou haſt choſen thee one Lillie:

25 And of all the deapthes of the ſea, thou haſt fylled thee one ryuer: and of al buylded cities, thou haſt halowed Sion vnto thee ſelfe:

26 And of all the ſoules that are created, thou haſt named thee one Doue: and of all the cattel that are made, thou haſt prouided thee one ſheepe:

27 And among all the multitudes of peoples, thou haſt gotten thee one people: and vnto this people whom thou louedſt, thou gaueſt a lawe that is proued of all.

28 And nowe, O Lorde, why haſt thou geuen this one people ouer vnto many? & vpon the one rote thou haſt *prepared others, and why haſt thou ſcattered thy one only people among many?

*Or, ſaſt.

29 Whiche treade them downe, yea whiche haue euer withſtande thy promiſes, and neuer beleeued thy couenantes.

30 If thou diddeſt ſo much hate thy people, yet ſhouldeſt thou puniſhe them with thyne owne handes.

31 Nowe when I had ſpoken theſe wordes, the angel that came to me the nyght afore, was ſent vnto me, 32 And ſayde vnto me, Heare me, and I wyl inſtruct thee, hearken to the thyng that I ſay, and I ſhall tell thee more.

33 And I ſayd, Speake on my Lorde. Then ſayde he vnto me, Thou art ſore troubled in minde for Iſraels ſake: loueſt thou that people better then he that made them?

34 And I ſayd, No Lord, but of very greefe and compaſſion haue I ſpoken: for my reynes payne me euery houre, becauſe I woulde *haue experience of the way of the moſte hyghest: and ſeeke out part of his iudgement.

*Or, comprehends.

35 And he ſayd vnto me, That thou *mayeſt not. And I ſayde, Wherefore Lorde? wherevnto was I borne then? or why was not my mothers woombe then my graue, that I myght not haue ſeene the miſerie and trouble of Jacob, and the wearyng out of the ſtocke of Iſrael?

*Or, canſt not.

36 And he ſayde vnto me, Number me the thynges that are not yet come, geather me togeather the droppes that are ſcattered abroade, make me the flowres greene agayne that are wythered,

37 Open me the places that are cloſed, and bryng me fourth the wyndes that in them are ſhut vp, ſhewe me the image of a voyce: and then I wyll declare to thee the thyng that that thou labourest to knowe.

38 And I sayde, O Lorde, Lorde, who may knowe these thynges, but he that hath not his dwellyng with men?

39 As for me, I am vnwyse: howe may I then speake of these thynges whereof thou askest me?

40 Then sayde he vnto me, Lyke as thou canst doo none of these thinges that I haue spoken of: euen so canst thou not fynde out my iudgement, or in the end the loue that I haue promised vnto my people.

41 And I sayde, Beholde, O Lorde, yet art thou nigh vnto them that be reserued til the ende: and what shall they do that haue ben before me, or we that be nowe, or they that shall come after vs?

42 And he sayde vnto me, I wyll lyken my iudgement vnto a ring: Lyke as there is no slackenesse of the last, euē so there is no swiftnesse of the fyrst.

43 So I aunswered, and sayde, Couldest thou not make those that haue been made, and be nowe, and that are for to come, at once, that thou myghtest shewe thy iudgement the sooner.

44 Then aunswered he me, and sayd, The creature may not haste "aboue the maker, neyther may the worlde holde them at once that shalbe created therin.

"Or, before.

45 And he sayde, As thou hast sayde vnto thy seruaunt, that thou which quickenest al thynges, hast geuen lyfe at once to the creature or vvoorke that thou hast created, and the creature bare it: euen so myght it nowe also beare thē that nowe be present at once.

46 And he sayde vnto me, Aske the wombe of a woman, and say vnto her, If thou bringest forth chyldren, why doest thou it not togeather, but one after another? Pray her therefore to bryng forth tenne chyldren at once.

47 And I sayde, She can not: but must do it by distance of tyme.

48 Then sayde he vnto me, Euen so haue I diuided the distance of tyme the chyldbedde of the earth, for those that be sowen vppon her.

49 For lyke as a young chyld may not bring forth the thynges that belong to the aged, euen so haue I ordeyned "the worlde which I created.

"Or, the tymes.

50 And I asked, and sayd, Seyng thou hast nowe geuen me the way, I wyll proceede to speake before thee: for our mother, of whom thou hast told me that she is young, draweth she nowe nygh vnto age?

51 He aunswered me, and sayde, Aske a woman that beareth chyldren, and she shall tell thee.

52 Say vnto her, Wherefore are not they whom thou hast nowe brought forth, lyke those that were before thee, but lesse of stature?

53 And she shall aunsweare thee, They that be borne in the youth of strength, are of one fashion: and they that are borne in the tyme of age (when the wombe fayleth) are otherwyse.

54 Consyder nowe thee selfe, howe that ye are lesse of stature, then those that were before you:

55 And so are they that come after you lesse then ye, as the creatures which nowe begin to be old, and haue passed ouer the strength of youth.

56 Then sayde I, Lorde, I beseeche thee, yf I haue founde fauoure in thy sight, shewe thy seruant by whom thou visitest thy "creature.

"Or, vvorke manshyp.

¶ The. vi. Chapter.

1. God hath foreseene all thynges in his secrete counsayle, and is authour thereof, and hath created them for his chyldren. 25. The felicitie of the age to come.

1 AND he sayde vnto me, In the begynnyng when the "grounde was made, before the borders of the worlde stoode, or euer the wyndes blewe,

"Or, compasse of the earth.

2 Before it thundred and lyghtened, or euer the fundations of Paradise were layde,

3 Before the fayre flowres were seene, or euer the moueable powers were established, before the innumerable "multitude of angels were geathered togeather,

"Or, armie.

4 Or euer the hyghnesse of the ayre were lifted vp, afore the measures of the firmament were named, or euer the chimneyes in Sion were hot,

5 And or the present yeeres were sought out, & or euer the inuentions of them that nowe sinne were "put aside, before they were sealed that haue geathered fayth for a treasure:

"Or, turned away.

6 Then dyd I consyder and ponder al these thinges, and they al were made through me alone, and through none other: by me also they shalbe ended, and by none other.

7 Then aunsweared I, and sayde, What shalbe the "parting asunder of the tymes? or when shalbe the ende of the first, and the begynnyng of it that followeth?

"Or, diuision.

8 And he sayde vnto me, From Abraham vnto Isahac, when Jacob and Esau were borne of hym, Jacobs "hande helde first the heele of Esau:

"Gen. 25. ¶

9 For Esau is the ende of this worlde, and Jacob

Iacob is the beginnyng of it that folowethy.
10 The hand of man, betwixt the heele and the hand: Other question Esdras aske thou not.
11 I answeared then, and saide, O Lorde, Lord, yf I haue found fauour in thy sight, 12 I beseeche thee "shew thy seruant the end of thy tokens, whereof thou shewedst me part the last night.
13 So he answeared, and saide vnto me, Stande vp vpon thy feete, and heare "a perfect voyce and sound.
14 There shall come a " great motion, but the place where thou standest, shal not be moued.
15 And therefore when " thou hearest the wordes, be not afraide, for of the ende shall the worde be, and of the fundation of the earth shal it be vnderstand.
16 And why? the world thereof trembleth and quaketh: for it knoweth that it must be changed at the end.
17 And it happened, that when I had heard it, I stoode vp vppon my feete, and hearkened: and beholde, there was a voyce that spake, and the sound of it, was like ỹ sound of many waters,
18 And it saide, Beholde, the dayes come, that I wyl beginne to drawe nigh, and to visite them that dwell vpon earth:
19 And wyll beginne to make inquisition of them, what they be that haue hurt vniustly with their vnrighteousnesse, and when the lowe estate of Sion shalbe fulfilled.
20 And when the worlde that shall vanishe away shalbe ouersealed, then wyll I doo these tokens: the bookes shalbe opened before the " fyrmament, and they shal see altogeather:
21 And the children of a yeere olde, shall speake with their voyces, the women with childe shall bring forth vntimely children of three or foure moneths old, and they shal liue, and be rayled vp.
22 And sodainely shall the sowen places appeare as the vnsowen, the full store houses shal sodaynely be found emptie:
23 And the Trumpet shall geue a sounde, which when euery man heareth, they shalbe hastily afraide.
24 At that time shall freendes fight one against another like enimies, and the earth shall stand in feare with them: the springes of the wels shal stand styl, & in three houres they shal not runne.
25 Who so euer remaineth from all these thinges that I haue told thee, "shal escape, and see my saluation, and the ende of your world.
26 And the men that are receiued, shall see it, they that haue not tasted death from their birth: and the hart of the " indwellers shalbe changed, & turned into an other meanyng.
27 For euyl shalbe put out, and deceite shalbe quenched.
28 As for faith, it shal florishe, corruption shalbe ouercome, and the trueth which hath been so long without fruite, shalbe " declared.
29 And when he talked with me, behold, I looked a little and a little vpon him, before whom I stoode:
30 And these wordes said he vnto me, I am come to shewe thee the time of the night for to come.
31 Yf thou wylt pray yet more, and fast seuen dayes agayne, I shal tell thee more thinges, and greater thē before, which I haue heard by the day.
32 For thy voyce is heard before the highest: for why? the mightie hath seene thy righteous dealing, he hath seene also thy chastitie whiche thou hast hadde euer since thy youth:
33 And therefore hath he sent me to shewe thee all these thinges, and to say vnto thee, Be of good comfort, and feare not:
34 And hast not with the times that are past, to thinke vaine things, that thou mayest not hasten from the latter times.
35 And it came to passe after this, that I wept agayne, and fasted seuen dayes in like maner, that I might fulfil the three weekes which he told me.
36 And in the eight night was my hart vexed within me agayne, & I began to speake before the highest.
37 For my spirite was greatly set on fyre, and my soule was in distresse.
38 And I saide, O Lorde, thou spakest vnto thy creature from the beginnyng, euen the first day, and saydest, Let " heauen & earth be made: & thy word was a perfect worke. * Gene. 1. 1.
39 And then was there the spirite, and the darkenesses were yet on euery side, and scilence: there was no mans voyce as yet from thee.
40 Then commaundedst thou a "faire light to come foorth of thy treasures, that thy worke might appeare and be seene.
41 Vppon the seconde day thou madest the spirite of the fyrmament, and commaundedst it to part a sunder, and to make a division betwixt the waters, that the one part might remaine aboue, & the other beneath.
42 Vpon the thirde day thou broughtest to passe that the waters were geathered in the seuenth part of the earth: fiue partes hast thou dryed vp, and kept them, to the " intent that "Or, make an addition vnto my seruant thy talent.

"Or, mighty.
"Or, an earthquake.
"Or, when he speaketh.
"Or, heauen.
"Or, he shalbe saued.
"Or, inhabiters.
"Or, shewed forth.
"Or, bright.
"Or, to the intent that of them, there might be some to minister, before the sowen of God, and tylled.

that men might sowe and occupie husbandry therein.

43 As soone as thy woord went foorth, the woorke was made.

44 For immediatly there was great and innumerable fruite, and many diuers pleasures for the taste, and floures of vnchangeable colour, and odours of wonderful smel: And this was done the third day.

45 Upon the fourth day thou commaundedst that the Sunne should geue his shine, and the Moone her light, the Starres diddest thou set in order:

*Deut.4.9. 46 And * gauest them a charge to doo seruice, euen vnto man that was to be made.

*Gene.1.21. 47 * Upon the fifth day, thou saydest vnto the seuenth part where the waters were geathered, that it should bring foorth diuers beastes, foules, and fishes: and so it came to passe.

48 For the dumbe water and without soule, brought foorth liuing thinges at the commaundement of God, that al "people might prayse thy wonderous woorkes.

"Or, the nations

49 Then diddest thou ordeyne two soules, the one thou calledst "Enoch, and the other Leuiathan,

"Or, Behemoth.

50 And diddest separate the one from the other: for the seuenth part (namely, where the water was geathered togeather) might not hold them both.

"Or, Behemoth. 51 Unto "Enoch thou gauest one part, which was dryed vp the third day, that he shoulde dwell in the same part, wherein are a thousand hilles.

52 But vnto Leuiathan thou gauest the seuenth part, namely the moyst, and hast kept him to deuoure what thou wylt, and when.

53 Upon the sixth day thou gauest commaundement vnto the earth, that before thee it should bring foorth beastes, cattell, and all that creepe:

54 And besides this, Adam also, whom thou madest lorde of all thy creatures, of him come we al, and the people also whom thou hast chosen, specially vnto thee selfe.

55 All this haue I spoken before thee, O Lord, that I might shew how that the worlde is made for our sakes.

56 As for the other people whiche also come of Adam, thou hast saide that they are nothing, but be like vnto spittle, and hast likened the abundance of them vnto a droppe that falleth from a vessel.

57 And nowe, O Lorde, beholde, the Heathen whiche haue euer been reputed as nothing, haue begun to be lordes ouer vs, and to deuoure vs:

58 But we thy people (whom thou hast called thy first borne, thy only begotten, and thy feruent louer) are geuen into their handes and power.

59 If the world now be made for our sakes, why haue we not the inheritance of the worlde in possession? Howe long shall this endure?

¶ The .vii. Chapter.

5. Without tribulation none can come to felicite. 12. God aduertiseth all in time. 28. The comming and death of Christe. 32. The resurrection and last iudgement.

1 AND when I had made an end of speaking these woordes, there was sent vnto me an angel, which had been sent vnto me also the nightes afore:

2 And he saide vnto me, Up Esdras, and heare the woordes that I am come to tell thee.

3 And I saide, Speake on Lord my GOD, Then saide he vnto me, The sea is set in a wyde place, that it might be deepe and great.

4 But put case the entrance is narrowe and small, like a riuer.

5 Who then coulde goe into the sea to looke vpon it, and to rule it? If he went not thorowe the narowe, howe might he come into the brode?

6 Item "another. A citie is builded, and set vpon a brode fielde, and is full of all good thinges:

"Or, agayn.

7 The entrance therof is narowe, and is set in a dangerous place to fall, like as yf there were a fire at the right hand, and a deepe water at the left,

8 And as it were onely one straight path betwixt them both, euen betweene the fire and the water, so small that there could but one man goe there at once:

9 If this citie nowe were geuen to a man for an inheritance, and he neuer went thorowe the perilous way before, howe would he receiue his inheritance?

10 And I saide, It is so Lorde. Then sayde he, Euen so also is Israels portion.

11 And why? for their sakes haue I made the worlde: and when Adam transgressed my statutes, then was the thing so appointed as nowe is done.

12 Then were the entrances of the worlde made narowe, full of sorowe and trauayle: they are but fewe and euyll, full of perilles and labour.

13 For the entrances of the forworld were wyde and sure, and brought immortall fruite.

14 If then they whiche are liuing, enter not not diligẽtly through these straite and bytter thynges, they can not receiue the thinges so layde vp in secrete.

15 Why disquietest thou thee selfe then, seeyng thou art but a corruptible man? And why art thou mooued, whereas thou art but mortall?

16 And why hast thou not receiued into thyne hart, the thynges that are to come, rather then them that are present?

17 Then sayde I, O Lorde, Lorde, thou hast ordeyned in thy lawe, that the ryghteous shoulde inherite these thinges, but that the vngodly shoulde perishe:

18 Neuertheless, the ryghteous shall suffer straite thinges, and hope for wyde: for they that haue lyued vngodly, and suffered strait thynges, shall not see the wynde.

19 And he sayd vnto me, There is no iudge aboue God, and none that hath vnderstandyng aboue the hyghest.

20 For there be many that perishe in this lyfe, because they despise the lawe of GOD that is *set before them:

21 For God hath geuen straite commaundement to such as came, so oft as they came, what they shoulde doo to haue lyfe, and what they shoulde keepe to auoyde punishment.

22 Neuertheless, they were not obedient vnto hym, but spake agaynst hym, and imagined vayne thynges:

23 And deceiued them selues by wicked deedes, and denyed the power of the most hygh, and regarded not his wayes, 24 But his lawe haue they despised, and denyed his promises: in his statutes and ordinances haue they not been faythfull and stedfast, and haue not perfourmed his workes.

25 And therefore Esdras, for the emptie, are the emptie thinges, and for the ful, are the full thynges.

26 Beholde, the tyme shall come, that these tokens whiche I haue tolde ther, shall come to passe, and the bryde shall appeare, and the commyng forth shalbe seene, that nowe is vnder the earth:

27 And who so euer is deliuered from the foresayd euyls, shal see my wonders.

28 For my sonne Iesus shalbe openly declared, with those that be with hym, and they that remayne, shalbe merry within foure hundred yeeres.

29 After these same yeeres shall my sonne Christe dye, and al men that haue lyfe.

30 And the worlde shalbe turned into the olde silence seuen dayes, lyke as in the former iudgementes, so that no man shall remayne.

31 And after seuen dayes the worlde that yet awaketh not, shalbe rayled vp, and that shal dye that is corrupt.

32 And the earth shal restore those that haue slept in her, and so shall the dust those that dwell therein in silence, and the secrete places shall deliuer those soules that were committed vnto them.

33 And the most hyghest shalbe openly declared vpon the seate of iudgement, and all miserie shall vanishe away, & long suffering *shalbe gathered togeather.

*Or, haue an ende.

34 But the iudgement shall continue, the trueth shall remayne, and fayth shall ware strong, 35 The worke shal folowe, and the reward be shewed, the *ryghteousnesse shal watche, and the vnrighteousnesse shall beare no rule.

*Or, the good deedes shalbe offerce.

36 Then sayde I, Abraham prayed *first for the Sodomites, and *Moses for the fathers that sinned in the wyldernesse,

*Gene. 18. 15.
*Exod. 23. 11

37 And they that came after him, for Israel, in the tyme of Achas and Samuel,

38 And *Dauid for the destruction, and *Solomon for thē that came into the sanctuarie,

*2. Chr. 6. 14

39 And *Helias for those that receiued raine, and for the dead, that he myght lyue,

*3. kin. 17. 21

40 And *Ezechias for the people in the time of Sennacherib, and diuers other in lyke maner, which haue prayed for many.

*4. kin. 9. 15.

41 Euen so nowe, seeyng the *corrupt is growen vp, and wickednesse encreased, and the ryghteous haue prayed for the vngodly: wherefore shall it not be so nowe also?

*Or, vice.

42 He aunswered me and sayde, This present lyfe is not the end, oft times honour is retayned in it: therefore haue they prayed for the weake.

43 But the day of nowe shalbe the ende of this tyme, and the begynnyng of the immortalitie for to come, wherein all corruption shalbe vanished.

44 Intemperancie shalbe loosed, infidelitie be cut of, ryghteousnesse growe, and the veritie spring vp.

45 Then shall no man be able to saue hym that is destroyed, nor to oppresse hym that hath gotten the victorie.

46 I aunsweared then, and sayde, This is my first and last saying, that it had ben better not to haue geuen the earth vnto Adam: or els when it was geuen hym, to haue kept hym that he shoulde not haue sinned.

47 For what profite is it for men nowe in this present tyme to lyue in heauynesse, and after death to *looke for punishment?

*Or, feare.

48 O thou Adam what hast thou doone? For *though it was thou that sinned, thou not fallen alone, but we all that come of thee.

49 For what profite is it vnto vs, yf there be promised vs an immortall *tyme, whereas we do the workes that bryng death:

*Or, lyfe.

50 And that there is promised vs an euerlasting hope, whereas our selues are cuyl and vayne:

51 And that there is layde vp for vs dwellings of health and safetie, wheras we haue lyued wickedly:

52 And that the glorie of the hyghest is kept to defende them whiche haue led a pacient lyfe, whereas we haue walked in the most wicked wayes of all:

53 And that there shoulde be shewed a paradise, whose fruite endureth for euer, wherin *is freedome and medicine, whereas we shal not goe in:

*Or, safetie and health.

54 For we haue walked in vnpleasaunt places:

55 And that the faces of them whiche haue abstained, shal shine aboue ỹ starres: whereas our faces shalbe blacker then darkenesse:

56 For whyle we lyued and dyd vnryghteously, we consydered not that we shoulde suffer therefore after death.

57 Then aunswered he me, and sayd, This is the maner of the battayle, whiche man that is borne vpon the earth shall fight, 58 That if he be ouercome, he shal suffer as thou hast sayde: but yf he gtat the victorye, he shal receiue the thyng that I say.

59 For this is the lyfe wherof Moses spake vnto the people whyle he lyued, saying, Choose thee *lyfe, that thou mayest lyue.

*Deu.30.16

60 Neuertheless they beleeued hym not, neyther the prophetes after hym, no nor me which haue sayde vnto them.

61 That heauinesse shoulde not so be vnto their destruction, lyke as ioy is for to come ouer those *that haue suffered them selues to be enbourmed in saluation.

*Or, to whom saluation is perswaded.

62 I aunswered then, and sayde, I know Lorde, that the hyghest is called mercifull, in that he hath mercy vpon them which are not yet come vnto that worlde, 63 And vppon those also that walked in his lawe.

*Rom.2. 4. 64 And that he is *patient, for he long suffereth those that haue sinned, as his creatures.

65 And that he is liberall to geue, whereas neede requireth.

66 And that he is of great mercie: for he passeth in mercy muche both those that are present, and that are past, & also them which are for to come.

67 For if he multiplied not his mercies, the worlde coulde not continue his beyng with those that haue inheritance therein.

68 He *geueth also: for if he gaue not of his goodes, that they whiche haue doone cuyll, myght be eased from their wickednesse, the ten thousandth part of men shoulde not remayne lyuyng.

*Or, forgeueth

69 And yf he, being iudge, forgaue not those that be healed with his woorde, and tooke not away the multitude of contentions, 70 There shoulde be very fewe left, peraduenture in an innumerable multitude.

¶ The .viii. Chapter.

6. The vvoorkes of GOD are excellent. 20. Esdras praieth for him and for his people. 39. The promise of saluation vnto the iust.

1 AND he answered me, saying, The most hyghest made this worlde for many, but the worlde to come for fewe.

2 I wyll tell thee a similitude Esdras. As when thou askest the earth, it shall say vnto thee that it geueth muche *moulde, wherof earthen vessels are made, but litle of it that golde commeth of: euen so is it with the worke of this worlde.

*Or, earthy matter.

3 There be *many created, but fewe shalbe saued.

*Mat.20.16

4 Then aunswered I, and sayde, Then swalowe vp thy wit (O my soule) and deuoure the vnderstanding:

5 For thou art agreed to hearken & to geue eare, and wylling to prophesie: for thou hast no longer space but this lyfe geuen thee.

6 O Lorde, if thou suffer not thy seruant to entreate thee, that thou mayest geue seede vnto our hart, & buylde our vnderstanding, that there may come fruite of it, wherby ech man may liue that is corrupt: then who shal step foorth in the place of man?

7 For thou art alone, & we al one workmanship of thy handes, lyke as thou hast sayde.

8 For when the body is fashioned now in the mothers wombe, and thou geuest the members, thy creature is preserued in fyre and water, & nyene moneths doth thy worke suffer thy creature whiche is fashioned in her:

9 But the thynges that keepeth, and that is kept, shal both be preserued: and when the tyme commeth, the wombe preserued deliuereth vp the thynges that grewe in it.

10 For thou hast commaunded the partes of the body, euen the breastes, to geue milke vnto the fruite of the brestes:

11 That the thyng which is created and fashioned, may be nourished for a time, til thou disposest and ordrest it with thy mercy.

12 And then thou bryngest it vp with thy ryghteousnesse, nurturest it in thy lawe,

and

and reformest it with thy vnderstanding,
13 Mortifyest it as thy creature, and makest it liuing as thy worke.
14 Seeing then that thou destroyest him whiche with so great labour is created and fashioned through thy commaundement, thou couldest lightly ordeyne also that the thing whiche is made, might be preserued.
15 Now therefore Lorde, I wyl speake, (for concernyng all men in generall thou shalt rather pitie) but touchyng thy people, for whose sake I am sory.
16 And thine inheritance, for whose cause I mourne, and Israel, for whom I am wofull, and Iacob, for whose sake I am greeued?
17 Therefore beginne I to pray before thee for mine selfe, and for them: for I see the faultes of vs that dwel in the land.
18 But I haue heard the swyftnesse of the iudge which is to come.
19 Therefore heare my voyce, and vnderstand my wordes, and I shal speake before thee. This is the beginnyng of the wordes of Esdras, before he was taken vp.
20 O Lorde, thou that dwellest in euerlastingnesse, whiche beholdest from aboue thinges in the heauen and in the ayer?
21 Whose throne is inestimable, whose glorie and maiestie may not be comprehended; before whom the hostes of angels stand with trembling,
22 Whose keeping is turned in winde and fire, whose word is true, whose sayinges are stedfast, whose commaundement is strong, whose ordinance is fearefull,
23 Whose looke dryeth vp the depthes, whose wrath maketh the mountaynes to melt away, and whose trueth beareth witnesse:
24 O heare the prayer of thy seruant, and marke with thyne eares the petition of thy creature.
25 For whyle I liue, I wyll speake, and so long as I haue vnderstanding, I wyll answeare.
26 O looke not vpon the sinnes of thy people, rather then on them whiche serue thee in trueth.
27 Haue no respect vnto the wicked studies of the Heathen: but to the desire of those that keepe thy testimonies with afflictions.
28 Thinke not vppon those that haue walked faignedly before thee: but remember them whiche according to thy wyll haue knowen thy feare.
29 Let it not be thy wyll to destroy them whiche haue had beastly maners: but to looke vpon them that haue clearely taught thy lawe.
30 Take thou no indignation at them which are worse then beastes: but loue them that alway put their trust in thy righteousnesse and glorie. Or, apeare
31 For we and our fathers haue all the same sicknesse and disease, but because of vs sinners, thou shalt be called mercifull.
32 For yf thou hast mercie vppon vs, thou shalt be called mercifull to vs that haue no workes of righteousnesse.
33 For the righteous whiche haue layde vp many good workes together, shall out of their deedes receiue reward.
34 But what is man that thou shouldest take displeasure at him? Or what is this corruptible and mortall generation, that thou shouldest be so rough toward him? *3.Re.8.46.
35 For of a truth there is no man among them that be borne, but he hath dealt wickedly, and among the faythful, there is none which hath not done amisse. *2.Chr.6.36 Or, suche as confesse thee.
36 For in this, O Lorde, thy righteousnesse and thy goodnes shalbe prayed and declared, yf thou be mercifull vnto them which are not rich in good workes. Or, haue not the substance of good workes.
37 Then answeared he me, and said, Some thinges hast thou spoken aright, and according vnto thy wordes it shalbe.
38 For I wyll not verely confesse yͤ workes of them whiche haue sinned before death, before iudgement, before destruction: Or, of the wicked.
39 But I wyll reioyce ouer the worke and thought of the righteous, I wyl remember also the pylgrimage, the saluation, and the reward that they shal haue. *Gene.4.4.
40 Like as I haue spoken nowe, so shall it come to passe.
41 For as the husbandman soweth much seede vpon the ground, and planteth many trees, and yet alway that thing that is sowen or planted, is not all kept safe, neyther doeth it al take roote: euen so is it of them that are sowen in the world, they shall not all be saued. Mat.13.4. and. 20.16.
42 I answeared then, and saide, Yf I haue found grace, then let me speake.
43 Like as the husbandmans seede perisheth, yf it come not vp, and receiue not the rayne in due season, or yf there come too much rayne vpon it, and corrupt it:
44 Euen so perisheth man also, whiche is created with thy handes, and is like vnto thyne owne image, & to thee selfe, for whose sake thou hast made all thinges, and likened him vnto the husbandmans seede.
45 Be not wroth with vs, O Lord, but spare thy people, and haue mercie vppon thyne owne inheritaunce: for thou wylt be mer-

46 Then answeared he me, & said, Things present, are for the present, and thinges to come, for such as be to come.

47 For thou lackest yet much, seeing thou canst loue my creature aboue me: but I haue oft times drawen nygh vnto thee, and vnto it, but neuer to the vnrighteous.

48 In this also thou art maruelous before the highest.

49 In that thou hast humbled thee selfe as it becommeth thee, & hast not iudged thee selfe woorthy to be muche glorified among the righteous.

50 For many and great miseries remaine for them that in the latter tyme shall dwell in the worlde, because they * haue walked in great pride.

* Or, shall walke.

51 But vnderstand thou for thee selfe, and seeke out the glory for such as be like thee.

52 For vnto you is paradise opened, the tree of life is planted, the tyme to come is prepared, plenteousnesse is made redie, the citie is builded for you, and rest is prepared, yea perfect goodnesse and wysedome.

53 The roote of euil is * marked from you, the weakenesse and moth is hid from you, and vnto hell fleeth corruption in forgetfulnesse.

* Or, sealed vp.

54 Sorowes are vanished away, and in the ende is shewed the treasure of immortalitie.

55 And therefore aske thou no more questions concerning the multitude of them that perishe.

56 For when they had taken libertie, they despised the highest, thought scorne of his lawe, and forsooke his wayes.

57 Moreouer, they haue troden downe his righteous:

58 And saide in their * hart, that there is no GOD, * yea and that wyttingly, for they dye.

* Psal. 14. 1.

* Or, for all they knewe that they should die.

59 For like as the thing that I haue spoken of is made redy for you, euen so is thirst and paine prepared for them: for it was not * his will that man shoulde * come to nought.

* Or, Godes.

* Or, perishe.

60 But they whiche be created, haue defiled the name of him that made them, and are vnthankfull vnto him which prepared life for them.

61 And therefore is my iudgement nowe at hand.

62 These thinges haue I not shewed vnto all men, but vnto fewe, namely vnto thee, and to such as be like thee. Then answeared I, and said, 63 Beholde, O Lord, nowe hast thou shewed me the multitude of the wonders which thou wylt beginne to doo in the last times: but at what time, and when, thou hast not shewed me.

¶ The.ix Chapter.

1. All thinges in this world haue a beginnyng and an end. 10. Tormentes for the wicked after this lyfe. 15. The number of the wicked is more then of the good.

1 HE answeared me then, and said, Measure thou the time diligently in it selfe: and when thou seest that one part of the tokens come to passe, which I haue told thee before,

2 Then shalt thou vnderstand, that it is the very same time wherein the highest wyll beginne to visite the worlde whiche he made.

3 Therefore when there shalbe seene an earthquake, and vprore of the people in the worlde,

4 Then shalt thou wel vnderstand that the most highest spake of those things from the dayes that were before thee, euen from the beginning.

5 For like as al that is made in the worlde, hath a beginnyng and ende, and the ende is manifest:

6 Euen so, the times also of the highest haue plaine beginninges in wonders and signes, and ende in * woorking and in tokens.

* Or, effect and myracle.

7 And euery one that shalbe saued, and shall be able to escape by his works, and by faith, wherein ye haue beleeued,

8 Shalbe preserued from the said perilles, and shal see my * sauiour in my land, and within my borders: for I haue halowed * me from the world.

* Or, saluation.

* Or, mine selfe.

9 Then shall they pitie them selues, whiche nowe haue abused my wayes: and they that haue cast them out despitefully, shall dwell in paynes.

10 For such as in their life haue receiued benefites, and haue not knowen me;

11 And they that haue abhorred my lawe, whyle they had yet * freedome, and when they had yet open leysure of amendement and conuersion, vnderstoode not, but despised it:

* Or, liberte.

12 The same must knowe it after death in payne.

13 And therefore be thou no more * carefull how the ungodly shalbe punished: but enquire howe the righteous shalbe saued, and whose the world is, and for whom y world is, and when it is.

* Or, curious to knowe.

14 Then answeared I, and saide,

15 * I haue saide before, and nowe I speake,

* 4. Esd. 8. 3.

ſpeake, & wyll ſpeake it alſo hereafter: that there be many moe of them which peryſhe, then of them whiche ſhalbe ſaued:

16 Lyke as the flood is greater then a drop.

17 And he anſwearedme, ſaying, Lyke as the feeld is, ſo is alſo ỹ ſeede: as the floures be, ſuche are the colours alſo: ſuche as the workman is, ſuche is alſo the worke: and as the husbandman is hym ſelfe, ſo is his husbandrye alſo: for it was the tyme of the worlde.

18 And when I prepared for them that are nowe, or euer the worlde was made, wherin they ſhoulde dwell: then was there no man that ſpake agaynſt me.

19 For then euery one obeyed, but nowe the maners of them whiche are created in this worlde that is made, are corrupted by a perpetual ſeede, and by a lawe whereout they can not ryd them ſelues.

20 So I conſydered the world, and behold, there was peryll, becauſe of the "thoughtes that were come into it.

"Or, deuices.

21 And I ſawe, and ſpared them greatlye, and haue kept me a "wynebery of grapes, and a plant of a great people.

"Or, grape of the cluſter.

22 Let the multitude peryſhe then whiche are growen vp in vayne, and let my grape and vyneberye be kept, and my plant: for with great labour haue I made it vp.

23 Neuertheleſſe, yf thou wylt ceaſſe yet ſeuen dayes moe, but thou ſhalt not faſt in them:

24 Go thy way then into a feeld of flowres, where no houſe is buylded, and eate onely of the flowres of the feelde, taſte no fleſhe, drynke no wyne, but eate floures onely,

25 And pray vnto the higheſt continually, ſo wyl I come, and talke with thee.

26 So I went my way, and came into the feelde whiche is called Ardath, lyke as he commaunded me, and there I ſate among the floures, and dyd eate of the herbes of the feelde, and the meate of the ſame ſatiſfied me.

27 After ſeuen daies I ſate vpon the graſſe, and my hart was vexed within me lyke as before.

28 And I opened my mouth, and began to talke with the moſte hyghest, and ſayde, Exod.19.9 and.24.3. Deu.4.12.

29 "O Lord, thou that ſhewest thee ſelfe vnto vs, thou haſt declared and opened thee ſelfe vnto our fathers in the wylderneſſe, in a place where no man dwelleth, in a barren place, when they came out of Egypt:

30 And thou ſpakeſt, ſaying, Heare me, O Iſrael, and marke my wordes, thou ſeede of Iacob.

31 For beholde, I ſowe my lawe in you, and it ſhal bring fruite in you, and ye ſhalbe honoured in it for euer.

32 But our fathers whiche receyued the lawe, kept it not, and obſerued not thy ordinances and ſtatutes, and the fruite of thy lawe dyd not appeare, neyther coulde it: for why? it was thyne.

33 For * they that receyued it, peryſhed, becauſe they kept not the thyng that was ſowen in them.

*Deu. 32.28

34 And loe, it is a cuſtome when the ground receyueth ſeede, or the ſea a ſhyp, or a veſſell meate and drynke: that when it peryſheth, or is broken, wherein a thyng is ſowen, or wherein any thyng is put,

35 The thynges alſo periſh and are broken, whiche are ſowen or put therein and receyued, and the thynges that are receyued, remayne not then with vs: but in vs it hath not happened ſo.

36 For we that haue receyued the lawe, periſhe in ſinne, and our hart which alſo receiued the lawe:

37 Notwithſtandyng, the "lawe peryſheth not, but remayneth in his force.

*Eſa.48.3. 2.Tim.2.3

38 And when I ſpake theſe thynges in my hart after this maner, I looked about me with myne eyes, and vpon the ryght ſyde I ſawe a * woman whiche mourned ſore, made great lamentation, and wept with loude voyce, and was greeued in hart, & rent her clothes, and ſhe had aſhes vpon her head.

4.Eſ.10.44

39 Then let I my thoughtes goe that I was in, and turned me vnto her, 40 And ſayde, Wherefore weepeſt thou? why art thou ſory in thy mynde?

41 And ſhe ſaid vnto me, Syr, let me alone, that I may bewayle mee ſelfe, and take yet my ſorow, for I am ſore vexed in my mind, and brought very lowe.

42 And I ſayde vnto her, What ayleth thee? Or who hath doone any thyng to thee? tel me.

43 She ſayde vnto me, I thy ſeruaunt haue been vnfruiteful & barren, and haue had no chyld, though I haue had an husband thirtie yeeres.

44 And theſe thyrtie yeeres I doo nothyng els day and nyght, and al houres, but make my prayer to the hyghest.

45 After thyrtie yeeres, God heardt me thy handmayden, looked vpon my miſerie, conſydered my trouble, and gaue me a ſonne: and I was glad of him, ſo was my husbande alſo, and al my neyghbours, and we gaue great honour vnto the almyghtie.

46 And I nouryſhed hym with great trauayle.

47 So when he grewe vp, and came to the tyme that he ſhoulde "haue a wyfe, I made a feaſt.

¶ The .x. Chapter.

Esdras and the woman that appeareth vnto hym, commune togeather.

1 AND it so came to passe, that when my sonne went into his chamber, he fell downe, and dyed.

2 Then ouerthrewe we al the lyghtes, and al my neyghbours rose vp to comforte me, then tooke I my rest vnto the second day at nyght.

3 And whē they had al left of to comforte me, that I shoulde be quiet: then I rose vp by nyght, and fledde, and am come hyther into this feelde, as thou seest,

4 And am purposed not to returne into the citie, but to remayne here, and neyther to eate nor drynke, but continually to mourne, and to fast vntyl I dye.

5 Then let I my meditation and thoughtes fall that I was in, and spake to her in displeasure, saying,

6 Thou foolyshe woman above all other, seest thou not our heauynesse and mournyng, and what happeneth vnto vs?

7 Howe Sion our mother is all wofull and sorye, & howe she is cleane brought downe, and mourneth extremely?

8 Seeyng we be al nowe in heauynesse, and make our mone, for we al be sorowfull: art thou so heauie for one sonne?

9 Demaunde the earth, and she shal tel thee, that it is she which ought by reasō to mourne for the fal of so many that growe vppon her.

10 For from the beginnyng al men are borne of her, and other shall come: and beholde, they walke almoste all into destruction, and the multitude of them shalbe rooted out.

11 Who shoulde then by reason make more mournyng, then she that hath lost so great a multitude, and not thou whiche art sorye but for one?

12 But yf thou wouldest say vnto me, My mournyng is not lyke the mournyng of the earth: for I haue lost the fruite of my "bodye, whiche I brought foorth with heauinesse, and bare with sorowes:

13 But the earth is accordyng to the maner of the earth, and the present multitude goeth agayne into her, "as it is come to passe:

14 Then say I vnto thee, Lyke as thou hast borne with trauayle and sorowe, euen so the earth also from the beynnyng geueth her fruite vnto man, euen to hym that laboureth her.

15 *And therfore withholde thy sorowe and heauinesse by thee self, and looke what happeneth vnto thee, beare it "strongly.

16 For yf thou iudgest the marke and ende of God to be righteous and good, and receiuest his counsel in tyme, thou shalt be commended herein.

17 Goe thy way then into the citie, to thy husbande.

18 And she sayde vnto me, That wyll I not doo: I wyll not goe into the citie, but here wyl I dye.

19 So I commoned more with her, and sayde,

20 Do not so, but be counselled, and folowe me: for howe many falles hath Sion? Be of good comforte, because of the sorowe of Hierusalem.

21 For thou seest that our sanctuarie is layd waste, our aulter broken, our temple destroyed, 22 Our playing of instrumentes is layde downe, and songues are put to silence, our myrth is vanyshed away, the lyght of our candlesticke is quenched, the arke of our couenaunt is taken from vs, all our holye thynges are defyled, and the name that is called vpon ouer vs, is almost dishonoured: our chyldren are put to shame, our Priestes are brent, our Leuites are carried away into captiuitie, our virgins are defyled, and our wyues rauyshed, our righteous men spoyled, and our chyldren destroyed, our young men are brought in bondage, and our strong woorthies are become weake.

23 And Sion our seale, whiche is the greatest of all, is loosed vp from her woorshyp: for she is delyuered into the handes of them that hate vs.

24 And therefore shake of thy great heauynesse, and put awaye the multitude of sorowes, that the myghtie maye be mercyfull vnto thee, & that the hyghest may geue thee rest and ease from thy labour and trauayle.

25 And when I was talkyng with her, her face and beautie shyned sodaynely, and her countenance glystred, so that I was afraide of her, and mused what it myght be.

26 And immediately she cast out a great voyce, very feareful, so that the earth shooke at the noyse of the woman.

27 And I looked, & behold, the woman appeared vnto me no more: but there was a citie buylded, & a place was shewed from the ground and fundation: then was I afraid, and cryed with a loude voyce, and sayde, 28 Where is Uriel the angel, "whiche came to me at the firste? For he hath caused me to come in manye consyderations and hygh thoughtes, and myne ende is turned to corruption, and my prayer to rebuke. "4. Esd. 4. l.

29 And as I was speakyng these wooordes, he [illegible] vnto me, and looked vpon me:

30 And

"Or, vvombe.

"Or, as it is accustomed.

*Heb. 12. 2.

"Or, constantly.

30 And loe, I lay as one that had ben dead, and mine vnderſtanding was altered: and he tooke me by the ryght hande, and comforted me, and ſet me vpon my feete, and ſayde vnto me, 31 What ayleth thee? and why is thine vnderſtanding vexed, and the vnderſtanding of thy hart? and wherefore art thou ſory?

4.Eſ.5.20. 32 And I ſayde, "Becauſe thou haſt forſaken me, and I haue done accordyng vnto thy woordes, I went into the feelde, and there haue I ſeene thynges, and ſee that I am not able to expreſſe.

33 He ſayde vnto me, Stande vp, and be manly, and I ſhal geue thee exhortation.

34 Then ſayde I, Speake on to me, my Lorde, forſake me not, leſt I dye through my rafhneſſe:

35 For I haue ſeene that I knewe not, and heare that I doo not knowe:

36 Or is my vnderſtandyng deceyued, or doeth my ſoule dreame?

37 Nowe therfore I beſeche thee, that thou wylt ſhewe thy ſeruant of this woonder.

38 He anſwearedme then, and ſayd, Heare me, and I ſhal enſpurme thee, and tel thee wherefore thou art afrayde: for the hyghеſt hath opened many ſecrete thynges vnto thee.

Whirboſe. 39 He hath ſeene that thy "way is right, for that thou takeſt ſorowe continually for thy people, and makeſt great lamentation for Sion.

40 And therefore vnderſtande the viſion whiche thou ſaweſt a litle while agoe, after this maner.

41 Thou ſaweſt a woman mournyng, and thou begannеſt to comfort her.

42 Neuertheleſſe, nowe ſeeſt thou the lykeneſſe of the woman no more, but there appeared vnto thee a citie buylded:

43 And where ſhe tolde thee of the fal of her ſonne, ſo is this the ſolution of it:

44 This woman whom thou ſaweſt, is Sion: and where as ſhe tolde thee, euen ſhe whom thou ſeeſt nowe as a citie buylded.

45 And as touching that ſhe ſayd vnto thee, that ſhe hath ben thirtie yeeres vnfruitfull and barren: thoſe are the thirtie yeeres wherin there was no offering made in her.

46 But after thirtie yeeres, Solomon buylded the citie, and offered offerynges: and then bare the barren a ſonne.

47 And whereas ſhe tolde thee that ſhe nouriſhed him with labour: that was the dwelling in Hieruſalem.

48 But whereas ſhe tolde thee that her ſonne dyed as his chaunce was, when ſhe came into her chamber: that is the fal that is come to Hieruſalem.

49 And beholde, when thou ſaweſt her like one that mourned for her ſonne, and begannеſt to comfort her: of theſe thinges which haue chaunced, theſe are to be opened vnto thee.

50 For nowe the moſt hyghеſt ſeeth that thou art ſory in thy mynde, and ſuffereſt from thy whole hart for her, and ſo hath he ſhewed thee her clearenеſſe, and the fayreneſſe of her beautie.

51 And therefore I bade thee remayne in the feelde where no houſe was buylded.

52 For I knewe that the hyghеſt woulde ſhewe this vnto thee.

53 Therefore I commaunded thee to goe into the feelde where no fundation nor buylding is.

54 For in the place where the hyghеſt beginneth to ſhewe his citie, there can no mans buylding be able to ſtande.

55 And therefore feare not, and let not thine hart be afrayde, but goe thy way in, and ſee the beautie and greatneſſe of the buylding, as muche as thine eyes be able to ſee.

56 And then ſhalt thou heare as muche as thine eares may comprehende.

57 For thou art bleſſed aboue many other, and art called with the hyghеſt as the fewe.

58 But to morowe at nyght thou ſhalt remayne here:

59 And ſo ſhal the hyghеſt ſhewe thee viſions of the hygh thynges, which he wyl doo vnto them that dwel vpon earth in the laſt dayes. So I ſlept the ſame nyght and another, lyke as he commaunded me.

¶ The xi. Chapter.

1. The viſion of an Eagle comming foorth of the ſea, and of her feathers. 37. Of a Lion comming out of the forreſt.

1 Then ſawe I a dreame, & beholde there came vp from the ſea an Eagle, whiche had twelue feathered wynges, and three heades.

2 And I ſawe, and beholde, ſhe ſpread her wynges ouer al the earth, & all the windes of the ayre blewe on her, & gathered them togeather.

3 And I beheldе, and out of her feathers there grewe other contrarie feathers, and they became litle feathers, and ſmal.

4 But her heades remayned ſtyl, the head in the middeſt was greater then the other, yet reſted it with the reſidue.

5 Moreouer, I ſawe that the Eagle ſhewe with her wynges, and raigned vpon earth, & ouer all them that dwelt vpon the earth.

And I ſawe that all things vnder heauen [illegible] no man ſtrake againſt her, no not one creature vpon earth.

7 I ſawe alſo that the Eagle ſtoode vp vpon her clawes, and *gaue a ſound with her fethers, & a voyce, ſaying after this maner,
8 Watch not altogeather, ſleepe euery man in his owne place, and watch by courſe.
9 But let the heads be preſerued for the laſt.
10 Neuertheleſſe, I ſawe that the voyce went not out of her heades, but from the middeſt of her body.
11 And I numbred her contrary fethers, and beholde there were eyght of them.
12 And I looked, & beholde, vpon the right ſide there aroſe one fether, and raigned ouer al the earth.
13 And ſo it was that when it raigned, the ende of it came, and the place thereof appeared no more: ſo the next folowing ſtoode vp, and raigned, and had a great tyme.
14 And it happened that when it raigned, the ende of it came alſo lyke as the firſt, ſo that it appeared no more.
15 Then came there a voyce vnto it, & ſayd,
16 Heare thou that haſt kept the earth ſo long, this I ſay vnto thee before thou beginneſt to appeare no more,
17 There ſhal none after thee atteyne vnto thy tyme, neyther vnto the halfe thereof.
18 Then aroſe the thyrde, and raigned as the other afore: and appeared no more alſo.
19 So went it with al the reſidue one after another, ſo that euery one raigned, and then appeared no more.
20 Then I looked, and beholde in proceſſe of tyme, the fethers that folowed ſtoode vpon the ryght ſide, that they might rule alſo, and ſome of them ruled: but within a whyle they appeared no more.
21 For ſome of them were ſet vp, but ruled not.
22 After this I looked, and beholde, the twelue fethers appeared no more, nor the two winges:
23 And there was no more vpon the Eagles body, but two heades that reſted, and ſixe winges.
24 Then ſawe I alſo that two winges diuided them ſelues from the ſixe, and remayned vnder the head that was vpon ỹ right ſide: for the foure continued in their place.
25 So I looked, and beholde the fethers that were vnder the wyng, thought to ſet vp them ſelues, and to haue the rule.
26 Then was there one ſet vp, but ſhortly it appeared no more.
27 And the ſeconde was ſooner away then the fyrſt.
28 And I behelde, and loe, the two that remayned, thought alſo in them ſelues to raigne:
29 And when they ſo thought, beholde, there awaked one of the heades that were at reſt, namely it that was in the middeſt: for that was greater then the two other heades.
30 And then I ſawe that the two heades were ioyned with hym:
31 And the head was turned with them that were with him, & dyd eate vp the two vnder wynges that woulde haue raigned.
32 But this head put the whole earth in feare, and bare rule in it ouer al thoſe that dwelt vpon the earth, with much labour: he had the gouernance of the worlde ouer all the wynges that had ben.
33 After this I looked, and beholde, the head that was in the middeſt, ſodaynly appeared no more, lyke as the winges.
34 But there remayned the two heades which ruled vppon earth, and ouer thoſe that dwelt therein.
35 And I behelde, and loe, the head vppon the ryght ſide, deuoured it that was vpon the leaft ſide.
36 Then I hearde a voyce which ſayde vnto me, Looke before thee, and conſyder the thyng that thou ſeeſt.
37 Then I ſawe, and beholde as it were a Lion that roareth, running haſtily out of the wood: and I ſawe that he ſent out a mans voyce vnto the Eagle, and ſayde, 38 Heare thou, I wyl talke with thee, and the hygheſt ſhal ſay vnto thee, 39 'Is it not thou that haſt the victorie of the foure beaſtes whom I made to raigne vpon earth and in my worlde, that the ende of their tymes might come through them?
40 And the fourth came, and ouerranne al the beaſtes that were paſt, and had power ouer the worlde with great fearefulneſſe, and ouer the whole compaſſe of the earth with moſt wicked oppreſſion, & ſo long time dwelt he vpon the earth with deceyt.
41 For the earth haſt thou not iudged with trueth.
42 For thou haſt troubled the meeke, thou haſt hurt the peaceable and quiet, thou haſt loued lyers, and deſtroyed the dwellynges of them that brought forth fruite, and haſt caſt downe the walles of ſuche as dyd thee no harme.
43 Therefore is thy wrongful dealyng and blaſphemie come vp vnto the higheſt, and thy pryde vnto the mightie.
44 The hygheſt alſo hath looked vpon the proude tymes, and beholde they are ended, and their abominations are fulfylled.
45 And therfore appeare no more thou Eagle, and thy horrible winges, and thy wycked fethers, and thy vngratious heads, and thy ſinful clawes, and al thy vayne body:

46 That

*Or, ſpeake to her fethers, ſaying.

'Or, art not thou he that remayneſt of the foure beaſts.

Dan. 7

by it.

46 That the earth may be refreſhed, & come agayne to her ſelfe, when ſhe is delyuered from thy violence, and that ſhe maye hope for the iudgement, and mercye of hym that made her.

¶ The xii. Chapter.

The declaration of the former viſions.

1 AND it happened when the Lion ſpake theſe woordes vnto the Egle, I ſawe:
2 And beholde, the head that afore had the vpper hande, appeared no more, neither did the foure winges appeare any more that came to him, and were ſet vp to raigne, and their kyngdome was ſmall, & ful of vprore.
3 And I ſawe, and behold, they appeared no more, and the whole body of the Egle was burnt, ſo that the earth was in great feare: then awaked I out of the trouble & traunce of my mynde, and from great feare, & ſayde vnto my ſpirite,
4 Loe, this haſt thou geuen me, in that thou ſearcheſt out the wayes of the hygheſt.
5 Loe, yet am I weery in my mynde, and very weake in my ſpirite: and litle ſtrength is there in me, for the great feare that I receyued this nyght.
6 Therfore wyl I nowe beſech the hygheſt, that he wyl comfort me vnto the ende.
7 And I ſayd, Lord, Lord, yf I haue founde grace before thy ſyght, and yf I am iuſtified with thee before many other, & yf my praier in deede be come vp before thy face:
8 Comfort me then, and ſhewe me thy ſeruaunt the interpretation and playne difference of this horrible ſyght, that thou mayeſt perfectly comfort my ſoule:
9 For thou haſt iudged me worthy to ſhewe me the laſt of tymes.
10 And he ſayde vnto me, This is the interpretation of this ſyght:
11 The Egle whom thou ſaweſt come vp from the ſea, is the kyngdome whiche was ſeene in the * viſion of thy brother Daniel: Dan. 7. 7.
12 But it was not expounded vnto hym, therefore nowe I declare it vnto thee.
13 Beholde, the dayes wyll come, that there ſhall ryſe vp a kyngdome vpon earth, and it ſhalbe feared aboue all the kyngdomes that were before it.
14 In * the ſame kyngdome ſhall twelue kynges raigne one after another. * Or, it.
15 Wherfore the ſecond ſhal begin to raigne, and ſhall haue more tyme then the other twelue.
16 And this doo the twelue wynges ſignifie whiche thou ſaweſt.
17 As for the voice that thou heardeſt ſpeake, and that thou ſaweſt not to goe out from the heades, but from the myddes of the body therof, it betokeneth,
18 That after the tyme of that kyngdome, there ſhal aryſe great ſtryuynges, and it ſhal ſtande in peryll of fallyng: neuertheleſſe, it ſhal not then fal, but ſhalbe reſtored agayne into his begynnyng.
19 And the eyght feathers vnder the wynges, whiche thou ſaweſt hang vnto her wynges, betoken, 20 That in hym there ſhal aryſe eyght kynges, whoſe tyme ſhalbe but ſmal, and their yeeres ſwyft, and two of them ſhal peryſhe.
21 But when the myddeſt tyme commeth, there ſhalbe foure kept for a tyme, whyleſt * his tyme begynneth to come, that it maye be ended: but two ſhalbe kept vnto the ende. * Or, eache his time beginneth.
22 And whereas thou ſaweſt three heades reſtyng, this is the interpretation:
23 In his laſt dayes ſhal the moſt hygh raiſe vp three kyngdomes, and cal many thynges againe into them, and they ſhal haue the dominion of the earth,
24 And of thoſe that dwel therin, with much * labour, aboue all thoſe that were before them: therfore are they called the heades of the Egle. * Or, greefe.
25 For it is they that ſhal * bryng forth his wyckednelle agayne, & that ſhal perfourme and finiſhe his laſt. * Or, accompliſh his wyckednes.
26 And whereas thou ſaweſt that the great head appeared no more, it ſignifieth that one of them ſhall dye vpon his bed, and yet with payne.
27 For the two that remayne ſhalbe ſlayne with the ſworde.
28 For the ſworde of the one ſhal deuoure the other: but at the laſt ſhal he fal through the ſworde hym ſelfe.
29 And whereas thou ſaweſt two feathers vnder the wynges, paſſyng towarde the head that is on the ryght ſyde, 30 It ſignifieth, that it is they whom the hygheſt haue kept vnto their end: this is the ſmall kyngdome, and ful of trouble, as thou ſaweſt.
31 And the Lion, whom thou ſaweſt ryſyng vp out of the wood, and roryng, and ſpeakyng to the Egle, and rebukyng her for her vnryghteouſneſſe, with al the words which thou haſt heard, 32 Is the wynde whiche the hygheſt hath kept for them and for their wickednelle vnto the ende: he ſhal reproue them, and caſt before them their owne ſpoylynges.
33 For he ſhal ſet them alyue in iudgement, and ſhal rebuke them, and correct them.
34 For the reſidue of my people ſhal he delyuer by trouble, thoſe that be preſerued vpon my borders, and he shall make them ioyful vntyl the commyng of the day of iudgement, whereof I haue spoken vnto thee from the begynnyng.

35 This is the dreame that thou sawest, and these are the interpretations.

36 Thou onely hast been meete to knowe this secrete of the hyghest.

37 Therefore wryte al these thynges that thou hast seene in a booke, and hyde them, 38 And teach them to the wise of the people, whose hartes thou knowest may comprehende and keepe these secretes.

39 But wayte thou here thee selfe yet seuen dayes moe, that it maye be shewed thee whatsoeuer it pleaseth ỳ highest to declare vnto thee. And with that he went his way.

40 And when all the people perceyued that the seuen dayes were past, and I not come agayne into the citie, they geathered them altogeather from the least vnto the moste, and came vnto me, and sayde, 41 What haue we offended thee? and what euyll haue we doone agaynst thee, that thou forsakest vs, and sittest here in this place?

42 For of all the people thou onely art left vs, as a grape in the Vine, and as a candle in a darke place, and as an hauen or shyp preserued from the tempest.

43 Haue we not els aduersitie ynough?

44 Yf thou shalt forsake vs, were it not better for vs that we had been burnt with Sion?

45 For we are not better then they that died there. And they wept with loude voyce. Then answeared I them, and sayde, 46 Be of good comforte, O Israel, and be not heauie, thou house of Iacob.

47 For ỳ highest hath you in remembrance, and the myghty hath not forgotten you in temptation.

48 As for me I haue not forsaken you, neyther am I departed from you: but am come into this place to pray, because of the miserie of Sion, that I myght seeke mercye for the lowe estate of your sanctuarie.

49 And now go your way home euery man, and after these dayes wyl I come vnto you.

50 So the people went their way into the citie, lyke as I commaunded them:

51 But I remayned styll in the feelde seuen dayes, as "the angel bade me, and dyd eate onely of the floures of the feeld, and had my meate of the hearbes in those dayes.

" Or, he.

¶ The .xiii. Chapter.

2. The vision of a wynde comming forth of the sea, 3. Whiche became a man. 5. His propertie and power against his enimies. 21. The declaration of this vision.

1 AND after the seuen dayes, I dreamed a dreame by nyght.

2 And beholde, there arose a wynde from the sea, that it mooued all the wawes thereof.

3 And I looked, and beholde, there was a strong man with the thousands of heauen: and when he turned his countenaunce to looke, al the thynges trembled that were seene vnder hym:

4 And whē the voyce went out of his mouth, al they burnt that hearde his voyce, lyke as the earth fayleth when it feeleth the fyre.

5 After these I sawe, and beholde there was gathered togeather a multitude of men out of number, from the foure wyndes of the heauen, to fyght agaynst the man that came out of the sea.

6 And I looked, and beholde, he graued him selfe a great mountayne, and flewe vp vpon it.

7 But I woulde haue seene the region or place whereout the hyll was graued, and I coulde not.

8 And I sawe after these, that all they whiche came to fyght agaynst hym, were sore afrayde, and yet durst they fyght.

9 Neuertheless, when he sawe the fiercenesse & violence of the people that came, he "neither lyft vp his hand, "nor held swoorde, nor any weapon:

" Or, for he held no swoorde nor any instrument of warre.

10 But onely, as I sawe, he sent out of his mouth as it had been a blast of fyre, and out of his lippes the wynde of the flame, and out of his tongue he cast out sparkes and stormes.

11 And they were all myxt togeather: the blast of fyre, the wynde of the flame, and the great storme: and fel with "a rush vpon the people, whiche was prepared to fyght, and burnt them vp euery one, so that of the innumerable multitude, there was nothing seene but onely dust & smel of smoke: When I sawe this, I was afrayde.

" Or, violence.

12 Afterwarde sawe I the same man come downe from the mountaine, and callyng vnto hym another peaceable "people.

" Or, multitude.

13 And there came muche people vnto hym, some were glad, some were sorye, some of them were bounde, and other some brought of them that were offred: then was I sicke through great feare, and I awaked, and sayde,

14 Thou hast shewed thy seruaunt these woonders from the begynnyng, and hast counted me woorthy that thou myghtest receyue my prayer:

15 Shewe me nowe yet the interpretation of this dreame.

16 For thus I conseyued in my vnderstandyng:

dyng: woe vnto them that shalbe left in those dayes, and much more wo vnto them that are not left behinde:

17 For they that were not left, were in heauinesse.

18 Nowe vnderstande I the thinges that are layde vp in the latter dayes, which shal happen vnto them, and to those that are left behynde.

19 Therefore are they come into great perils, and many necessities, lyke as these dreames declare.

20 Yet is it easier that he which is in danger, fall into these, and nowe to see that whiche shal chaunce hereafter, then to passe out of this worlde as a cloude. Then answered he me, and sayde, 21 The interpretation of the sight shall I shewe thee, and I wyl open vnto thee the thyng that thou hast requyred.

22 Whereas thou hast spoken of them that are left behinde, this is the interpretation, 23 He that heareth the peryl in that tyme, hath kept hym selfe: they that be fallen into danger, are suche as haue workes and fayth vnto the most mightie.

24 Knowe this therefore, that they which be left behinde, are more blessed then they that be dead.

25 "This is the meaning of the vision, Whereas thou sawest a man comming vp from the "deepe of the sea, 26 The same is he whom God the hyghest hath kept a great season, whiche by his owne selfe shal deliuer his creature: and he shal order them that are left behinde.

27 And whereas thou sawest, that out of his mouth there came as a blast of wynde, fyre, and stormes:

28 And howe that he lyft vp neyther sworde nor weapon, but that the "rushing in of hym destroyed the whole multitude that came to fight agaynst hym: it signifieth,

29 That the dayes come, when the most hyghest wyl begin to deliuer them that are vpon earth:

30 And "in a traunce of minde shal he come vpon them that dwel in the earth.

31 And one shal vndertake to "fight agaynst another: one citie agaynst another, one place agaynst another, one people agaynst another, and one realme agaynst another, 32 When this commeth to passe, then shall the tokens come that I shewed thee before: and then shal my sonne be "declared, whom thou sawest climbe vp as a man.

33 And when al the people heare his voyce, euery man shal in theyr owne lande, leaue the battayle they haue one agaynst another:

34 And an innumerable multitude shalbe geathered togeather, as they that be wyllyng to come, and to ouercome him by fyghtyng.

35 But he shal stande vpon the toppe of the mount Sion.

36 And Sion shal come, and shalbe shewed to al men, being prepared and buylded, like as thou sawest the hyl grauen foorth without any handes.

37 And this my sonne shal rebuke those nations which are fallen into the tempest, for their wickednesse and euyl imaginations, 38 And into tormentes like to flame, wherewith they shalbe punished: and without any labour shal he destroy them, euen by the lawe, which is compared vnto the fire.

39 And whereas thou sawest, that he geathered another peaceable people vnto him, 40 Those are the ten tribes whiche were caryed away prysoners out of theyr owne lande in the time of Oseas the king, whom *Salmanasar the kyng of Assyria tooke prisoners, and caried them "ouer the water, and so came they into another lande.

41 But they tooke this counsayle among them selues, that they woulde leaue the multitude of the heathen, and to goe foorth into a further countrey, where neuer mankinde dwelt:

42 That they might there keepe their statutes, which they neuer kept in their owne lande, 43 And so they entred in at the narowe passages of the ryuer of Euphrates.

44 For the most hyghest then shewed * tokens for them, and helde styl the flood tyll they were passed ouer.

45 For thorowe the countrey there was a great way, namely of a yeere and a halfe iourney: and the same region is called Arsareth.

46 Then dwelt they there vntyl the later tyme: and when they come forth agayne, 47 The hyghest shal holde styl the springes of the streame agayne, that they may goe through: therefore sawest thou the multitude with peace.

48 But they that be left behinde of thy people, are those that are founde within my borders.

49 Nowe when he destroyeth the multitude of the nations that are geathered togeather, he shal defende his people that remayne:

50 And then shal he shewe them great wonders.

51 Then sayd I, O Lorde, Lord, shewe me this: wherefore haue I seene the man commyng vp from the "deepe of the sea?

52 And he sayd vnto me, Like as thou canst

"Or, these are mayntes.

"Or, middest.

"Or, fiercenesse.

"Or, he shal destroye the host of them: Apoc. 24.7.

"Or, reuealed.

*4. Re. 17. 3.

"Or, beyonde the ryuer.

*Iosue. 3. 15.

"Or, middest.

neyther seeke out nor knowe the thynges that are in the deepe of the sea: euen so can no man vpon earth see my sonne, or those that be with him, but in ỹ time of ' the day.

' Or, that day.

53 This is the interpretation of the dreame which thou sawest, and whereby thou only art here lyghtned.

54 For thou hast forsaken thine owne lawe, and applied thy diligence vnto mine, and sought it.

55 Thy lyfe hast thou ordered in wysdome, and hast called vnderstandyng thy mother:

56 And therefore haue I shewed thee the treasures of the hyghest. After other three dayes I wyl shewe thee more, & talke with thee more at large, yea heauie and woonderous thynges wyl I declare vnto thee.

57 Then went I foorth into the feelde, geuing praise and thankes greatly vnto God, because of his woonders whiche he dyd in tyme, 58 And because he gouerneth the same, and suche thynges as fall in their seasons: and there I sate three dayes.

¶ The xiii. Chapter.

3. Howe GOD appeared to Moses in the bushe. 10. All thynges decline to age. 16. The latter age worse then the former. 29 The ingratitude of Israel. 35. The resurrection and iudgement.

1 VPon the thirde day I sate vnder an oke tree, then came there a voyce vnto me out of the bushe, and sayd, Esdras, Esdras,

2 And I sayd, Here am I Lorde: and stoode vp vpon my feete.

*Exod. 3. L. 3 Then sayde he vnto me, In the *bushe did I appeare vnto Moses, and talked with hym when my people serued in Egypt.

4 And I sent hym, and ledde my people out of Egypt, and brought hym vp to the mount Sinai, where I helde him by me a long season:

5 And tolde him many wonderous workes, and shewed hym the secretes of the tymes, and the ende, & commaunded hym, saying,

6 These woordes shalt thou declare, and these shalt thou hyde.

7 And nowe I say vnto thee,

8 That thou lay vp in thyne hart the signes that I haue shewed, and the dreames that thou hast seene, and the interpretations which thou hast heard.

9 For thou shalt be taken away from among al, and hencefoorth thou shalt remayne with my counsayle, and with suche as be like thee, vntyl the tymes be ended.

10 For the worlde hath lost his youth, and the tymes begin to ware olde.

11 For the worlde is diuided into twelue partes, and the ten partes of it are gone alredy, and halfe of a tenth part.

12 And there remayneth there that whiche is after the halfe of ' the tenth part.

' Or, thyr.

13 Therefore set thyne house in order, and reforme thy people, comfort suche of them as be in trouble, and nowe renounce corruption,

14 Let goe from thee mortall thoughtes, cast away the burdens of men, put of the weake nature,

15 And set aside the thoughtes that are most heauie vnto thee, and haste thee to flee from these tymes:

16 ' For as for suche euyl and wyckednesse as thou hast nowe seene happen, they shal doo yet muche woorse.

' Mat. 24. 7.

17 For the weaker that the worlde is by reason of age, the more shal euyls encrease vpon them that dwel therein.

18 For the trueth is fledde farre away, and leasyng is harde at hand: For nowe hasteth the vision to come which thou hast seene.

19 Then answeared I before thee, & sayde,

20 Beholde Lorde, I wyl goe as thou hast commaunded me, and reforme the people which are present: but they that shalbe borne afterward, who wyl admonishe thē? Thus the worlde is set in darkenesse, and they that dwel therein are without lyght.

21 For thy lawe is burnt, therefore no man knoweth the thinges that are done of thee, or the workes that shalbe done.

22 But if I haue founde grace before thee, sende the holy ghost into me, and I shall write all that hath ben done in the worlde since the beginning, which was written in thy lawe, that men may finde the path, and that they whiche wyl lyue in the latter dayes, may lyue.

23 And he answeared me, saying, Goe thy way, gather the people together, and say vnto them, that they seeke thee not for fourtie dayes.

24 But looke thou gather thee many bore trees, and take with thee Sarea, Dabria, Selemia, Ecanus, and Asiel, these fiue, which are redy to write swiftly:

25 And come hyther, and I shal light a candle of vnderstanding in thine hart, whiche shal not be put out, tyl the thynges be performed which thou shal begin to write.

26 And then shalt thou declare some things openly vnto the perfect, & some things shalt thou shewe secretely vnto the wise: to morowe this houre shalt thou begin to write.

27 They

27 Then went I forth as he commaunded me, and gathered all the people together, and sayde,

28 Heare these wordes O Israel,

Psa.47.4. 29 Our * fathers at the begynnyng were strangers in Egypt, from whence they were deliuered, Deut.4.5. 30 And receiued the law of life, which they kept not, whiche ye also haue transgressed after them.

31 Then was the lande, euen the lande of Sion, parted among you by lot, to possesse: but your fathers, and ye your selues also, haue done vnryghteousnesse, and haue not kept the wayes whiche the hyghest commaunded you:

32 And for so muche as he is a ryghteous iudge, he tooke from you in tyme, the thyng that he had geuen you.

33 And nowe are ye here, and your brethren among you.

34 Therefore, yf so be that ye wyll subdue your owne vnderstandyng, and refourme your hart, ye shalbe kept alyue, and after death shal ye obteine mercy.

35 For after death shall the iudgement come when we shall lyue agayne: and then shall the names of the ryghteous be manifest, and the workes of the vngodly shalbe declared.

36 Let no man therfore come nowe vnto me, nor seeke after me these fourtie dayes.

37 So I toke the fiue men, as he commaunded me, and we went into the feelde, and remayned there.

Exech.3.2. 38 The next day a voyce called me, saying, Esdras, open thy mouth, and * drynke that I geue thee to drinke.

39 Then opened I my mouth, and beholde he reached me a ful cup, whiche was full as it were with water, but the colour of it was lyke fyre.

40 And I tooke it, and dranke: and when I had dronke it, my hart had vnderstanding, and wysedome grewe in my brest: for my spirit was strengthened in remembrance.

41 And my mouth was opened, and shut no more.

42 The hyghest gaue vnderstandyng vnto the fyue men, that they wrought the hygh thynges of the nyght, whiche they vnderstoode not.

43 But in the nyght they dyd eate bread: as for me I spake in the day, and helde not my tongue by nyght.

44 In fourtie dayes they wrote two hundred and foure bookes.

45 And it came to passe, when the fourtie dayes were fulfilled, that the highest spake, saying, The firste that thou hast written, publish openly, that the worthy and vnworthy may reade it:

46 But keepe the seuentie last, that thou mayest deliuer them only to such as be wyse among the people.

47 For in them is the spryng of vnderstandyng, the fountayne of wysedome, and the streame of knowledge.

48 And I dyd so.

of The.xv.Chapter.

1. The prophesie of Esdras is certayne. 5. The ryght that shal come on the vvorlde. 9. The Lorde vvyl auenge the innocent blood

1 BEholde, speake thou in the eares of my people the wordes of prophesie, which I wyll put in thy mouth, sayth the Lorde,

2 And cause them to be wrytten in a letter: for it * is the trueth. ro. they are

3 Feare not the imaginations agaynst thee, let not the vnfaythfulnesse of them trouble thee, that speake agaynst thee: faythfull and true.

4 For all the vnfaythfull, shall dye in their vnfaythfulnesse.

5 Beholde (sayth the Lorde) I wyll bryng plagues vpon the worlde, the swoorde, hunger, death, and destruction:

6 For wickednesse hath the vpper hande in all the earth, and their shameful workes are fulfylled:

7 Therefore sayth the Lorde,

8 I wyll holde my tongue no more of their wickednesse, which they do so vngodly, neyther wyll I suffer them in the thynges that they deale withal so wickedly: beholde, the innocent and ryghteous blood cryeth vnto me, and the soules of the iust complaine continually. Apoc.6.10. and.19.2.

9 And therefore sayth the Lorde, I will surely auenge, and receiue vnto me all the innocent blood from among them.

10 Beholde my people is ledde as a flocke of sheepe to be slayne, I wyll not suffer them nowe to dwell in the lande of Egypt:

11 But wyll bryng them out with a mightie hande, and a stretched out arme, and smyte it with plagues as afore, and wyl destroy all the lande of it.

12 Egypt shall mourne, and the fundations of it shalbe smitten with the plague and punishment that God shal bryng vpon it.

13 They that tyl the grounde shal mourne, for their seedes shalbe destroyed through the blastyng and hayle, & by an horrible starre.

14 Woe worth the worlde, and them that dwell therein:

15 For the swoorde and their destruction draweth nygh, and one people shal stand vp to fyght agaynst another, and swoordes in their handes.

16 For

16 For men shalbe vnstedfast, and some shal doo violence vnto other, they shal not regarde theyr kyng, and the princes shal measure the way of theyr doynges by theyr power.

*Or, for there shalbe sedicion among men.

17 A man shall desire to goe into a citie, and shal not be able.

18 For because of theyr pride, the cities shalbe troubled, the houses shall tremble, and men shalbe afrayde.

19 A man shal haue no pitie vpon his neighbour, but shall destroy theyr houses with the swoorde, and spoyle theyr goodes, because of the *hunger of bread, and because of the great trouble.

*Or, lacke.

20 Beholde, saith God, I cal togeather all the kynges of the earth to reuerence me, whiche are from the *vprysing, from the south, from the east, and Libanus, to turne vpon them, and restore the thynges that they haue done to them:

*Or, west.

21 Lyke as they doo yet this day vnto my chosen, so wyl I doo also, and recompence them in theyr bosome: Thus saith the Lord God.

22 My ryght hande shall not spare the sinners, and my swoorde shall not ceasse ouer them that shedde the innocent blood vpon earth.

23 The fire is gone out from his wrath, and hath consumed the foundations of the earth, and the sinners like the straw that is kindled.

24 Woe wooorth them that sinne, and keepe not my commaundementes, sayth the Lorde.

25 I will not spare them: goe your way ye children from the power, defile not my sanctuarie:

26 For the Lord knoweth al them that sinne agaynst hym, and therefore deliuereth he them vnto death and destruction.

27 For now are the plagues come vpon the world, and ye shal remayne in them: for god shal not deliuer you, because ye haue sinned agaynst hym.

28 Behold, an horrible vision commeth from the east,

29 Where generations of dragons of Arabia shall come out with many charrets, and the multitude of them shalbe carried as the wind vpon earth, that all they which heare them, may feare and tremble,

30 Euen the Carmanies ragyng in wrath, shal goe forth as the wilde boores of the forest, and with great power shal they come, and stand fighting with them, & shal waste a portion of the lande of the Assyrians.

31 And then shall the dragons haue the vpper hande, and remembryng their nature, shal turne about, conspiring togeather in great power to persecute them.

32 Then these shalbe troubled, and keepe silence in their power, and shall flee:

33 And from the lande of the Assyrians shal the enemie besiege them, and consume some of them, and in their host shalbe feare and dread, and stryke among theyr kynges.

34 Behold cloudes from the east, and from the north vnto the south, and they are very horrible to looke vpō, ful of wath & stormes:

35 They shal smite one vpon another, and they shal smite downe a great multitude of starres vppon the earth, euen their owne starres: and the blood shalbe from the swoord vnto the belly,

36 And the doung of man vnto the cammes slitter,

37 And there shalbe great fearefulnesse and trembling vpon earth: and they that see the wrath shalbe afrayd, and trembling shal come vpon them:

38 And then shal there come great raynes from the south, and from the north, and part from the west:

39 And strong windes shall aryse from the east, and shal open it, and the cloud whiche he rayled vp in wrath, and the starre styrred to cause feare toward the east & west wind, shalbe destroyed:

40 The great clouds shalbe lift vp, and the mightie cloudes ful of wrath, and ỳ starre, that they may make al the earth afrayde, and them that dwel therein, and that they may power out ouer euery high place an horryble starre,

41 Fire, and hayle, and fleeing swoordes, and many waters: that all fieldes may be full, and al ryuers, with the abundance of great waters.

42 And they shall breake downe the cities, and walles, mountaynes, and hylles, trees of the wood, and the grasse of ỳ meddowes, and al theyr come.

43 And they shall goe stedfast vnto Babylon, and make her afrayde.

44 They shall come to her, and besiege her, the *starre & al wrath shall they powre out vpon her, then shall the dust and smoke goe vp vnto the heauen, and all they that be about her, shal bewayle her:

*Or, constellation and tempest.

45 And they that remayne vnder her, shall doo seruice vnto them that haue put her in feare.

46 And thou Asia, that comfortest thee selfe also vpon the hope of Babylon, and art the glory of her person:

47 Woe be vnto thee thou wretche, because thou hast made thee self like vnto her, & hast decked thy daughters in whoordome, that they might * triumph, and pleasse thy louers, whiche haue alway desired to commit whoredome with thee.

48 Thou hast folowed the abominable citie in all her woorkes and inuentions: therfore sayth God, 49 I wyl send plagues vpon thee, wyddowhood, pouertie, hunger, warres, and pestilence, to waste thy houses with destruction and death.

50 And the glory of thy power shalbe dryed vp as a floure, when the heate ryseth that is sent * ouer thee:

51 Thou shalt be sicke as a poore wyfe that is plagued and beaten of women, so that the mighty and louers shall not be able to receiue thee.

52 Would I so hate thee, sayth the Lorde,

53 If thou hadst not alway slayne my chosen, exalting the stroke of thy handes, and laid ouer their death when thou wast drunken,

54 Set foorth ỹ beautie of thy countenance.

55 The reward of thy whoredome shalbe recompenced thee in thy bosome, therefore shalt thou receiue reward.

56 Like as thou hast done vnto my chosen, sayth the Lorde, euen so shall God doo vnto thee, and shal deliuer thee into the plague.

57 Thy children shall die of hunger, and thou shalt fall through the swoorde: thy cities shalbe broken downe, and all thyne shal perishe with the swoord in the feelde.

58 They that be in the mountaynes, shal die of hunger, and eate their owne fleshe, and drinke their owne blood, for very hunger of bread, and thyrst of water.

59 Thou as vnhappy shalt come thorowe the sea, and receiue plagues agayne.

60 In the passage they shall cast downe the slayne citie, and shall roote out one part of the land, and consume the portion of thy glory, and shall returne to her that was destroyed.

61 They shall treade thee downe like stubble, and they shalbe thy fyre:

62 And shall consume thee, thy cities, and thy land, and thy mountaynes, al thy woods and thy fruitefull trees shall they burne vp with the fyre.

63 Thy children shall they carry away captiue, and looke what thou hast, they shall spoyle it, and marre the beautie of thy face.

¶ The xvi Chapter.

31. 32. Of the euils that shall come vpon the worlde, with admonition howe to gouerne them selues in affliction.

1 WOE be vnto thee Babylon & Asia, wo be vnto thee Egypt and Syria:

2 Gyrd vp your selues with clothes of sacke and heare, and mourne your children, be sory: for your destruction is at hand.

3 A swoord is sent vpon you, and who wyll turne it backe?

4 A fyre is sent among you, and who wyll quenche it?

5 Plagues are sent vnto you, and what is he that wyll driue them away?

6 May any man driue away an hungry Lion in the wood? or may any man quenche the fyre in stubble when it hath begunne to burne?

7 May one turne agayne the arrowe that is shot of a strong Archer?

8 The mighty Lorde sendeth the plagues, and what is he that wyl driue them away?

9 The fyre is kindled, and gone foorth in his wrath, & what is he that may quench it?

10 He shal cast lightninges, and who shal not feare? he shal thunder, and who shall not be afraide?

11 The Lord shall threaten, and who shall not vtterly be beaten to powder at his presence?

12 The earth quaketh, and the foundations therof, the sea aryseth vp with waues from the deepe, and the waues of it are vnquiete, and the fishes therof also, before the Lorde, and before the glory of his power:

13 For strong is his right hand that bendeth the bowe, his arrowes that he shooteth are sharpe, and shall not misse when they begin to be shot into the endes of the world.

14 Beholde, the plagues are sent, and shall not turne agayne tyl they come vpon earth.

15 The fyre is kindled, and shall not be put out, tyll it consume the foundations of the earth.

16 Like as an arrowe whiche is shotte of a mighty Archer, returneth not backward: euen so the plagues that shalbe sent vppon earth, shal not returne agayne.

17 Woe is me, woe is me, who wyll deliuer me in those dayes?

18 The beginnyng of sorowes and great mournyng, the beginning of dearth & great death, the beginnyng of warres, and the powers shal stand in feare: the beginnyng of euils, and they shal tremble euery one.

19 What shall I doo in these thinges, when the plagues come?

20 Beholde, hunger, and plague, trouble, and anguith, are sent as scourges for amendement:

21 But for all these thinges, they shall not turne from their wickednesse, nor be alway mindfull of the scourges.

22 Behold, victuals shall be so good cheape vppon earth, that they shall thinke them

selues to be in good case: and then shal mischiefe grow vpō earth, warres, dearth, *gr. confusion. and great *disquietnesse.
23 For many of them that dwel vpon earth, shall perishe of hunger, and the other that escape the hunger, shal the swoord destroy:
24 And the dead shalbe cast out as doung, and there shalbe no man to comfort them: For the earth shalbe wasted, and the cities shalbe cast downe.
25 There shalbe no man left to till the earth, and to sowe it.
26 The trees shal geue fruite, and who shal pluche them of, and gather them?
27 The grapes shalbe ripe, and who shall treade them? For all places shalbe desolate of men:
28 So that one man shall desire to see another, or to heare his voyce.
29 For of one whole citie, there shalbe ten left, and two of the feelde, which shall hyde *gr. woodes. them selues in the thicke *bushes, and in the clifftes of stones.
30 Like as when there remaine three or foure Olives, in the place where Olives growe, or among other trees, 31 Or as when a Vineyard is gathered, there are left some grapes of them that diligently sought through the Vineyard:
32 Euen so in those dayes, there shalbe three or foure left, by them that searche their houses with the swoord.
33 And the earth shalbe laide waste, and the feeldes thereof shal wexe olde, their wayes, and al her pathes shal grow full of thornes, because no man shal trauell therethrough.
34 The virgins shall mourne, hauing no bridegromes, the women shal make lamentation, hauing no husbandes, their daughters shal mourne, hauing no helpers:
35 In the warres shal their bridegromes be destroyed, and their husbandes shal perishe of hunger.
36 But ye seruantes of the Lord, heare these thinges, and marke them.
37 Behold the word of the Lord, O receiue it: beleeue not the goddes of whom the Lorde spake.
38 Behold, the plagues draw nigh, and are not slacke in tarying.
39 Like as a trauailing woman, which in the ninth moneth bringeth forth a sonne, when the houre of the birth is come, an houre two or three afore that, the paines come vpon her body, and when the childe commeth to the birth, they tary not the twinkling of an eye:
40 Euen so shal not the plagues be slacke to come vppon the earth, and the worlde shall mourne, and sorowes shall come vpon it on euery side.
41 O my people, heare my word, make you redy to the battel, and in al euyll be euen as pylgrimes vpon earth.
42 He that selleth, let him be as he that fleeeth away: and he that buyeth, as one that wyll leese:
43 Who so occupieth marchandize, as he that winneth not, and he that buildeth, as he that shall not dwel therein:
44 He that soweth, as they that shall not reape: he that cutteth the vineyard, as he that shal not gather the grapes:
45 They that marrie, as they that shal geat no children: and they that marrie not, as the wyddowes.
46 And therefore they that labour, labour in vaine.
47 For strangers shall reape their fruites, and spoyle their goodes, ouerthrowe their houses, and take their children captines: for in captiuitie and hunger shal they geat children.
48 And they that occupie their marchandize with robberie, the more they decke their cities, their houses, their possessions, and their owne persons, 49 The more wyl I punishe them for their sinnes, sayth the Lorde.
50 Like as an whoore enuieth an honest and vertous woman:
51 So shall righteousnesse hate iniquitie, when she decketh her selfe, and shal accuse her to her face, when he commeth that shall bridle the authour of al sinne vpon earth.
52 And therefore be not ye like thereunto, nor to the woorkes thereof:
53 For or euer it be long, iniquitie shalbe taken away out of the earth, and righteousnesse shal raigne among you.
54 Let not the sinner say that he hath not sinned: for coales of fyre shal burne vppon his head, which sayth, Before the Lorde God and his glory, I haue not sinned.
55 Behold, the Lord *knoweth al the woorks of men, their imaginations, their thoughes, and their hartes. *Luk.16.15.
56 For he spake but the woorde, *Let the earth be made, and it was made, let the heauen be made, and it was created. *Gen.1.1.
57 In his word were the starres made, and he knoweth the *number of them. *Psa.146.4
58 He searcheth the ground of the deepe, and the treasures thereof, he hath measured the sea, and what it conteyneth.
59 He hath shut the sea in the middest of the waters, and with his woorde hath he hanged the earth vpon the waters.
60 He spreadeth out the heauens like a vaute, vpon the waters hath he founded it.

61 In:

61 In the deſart and dryе wylderneſſe hath he made ſpryngs of water, and pooles vpon the toppes of the mountaynes, that the flooddes myght poure downe from the ſtony rockes to water the earth.

62 He made man, and put his hart in the myddes of the bodye, and gaue hym breath, lyfe, and vnderſtandyng.

63 Yea, and the ſpirite of the almighty God which made all thynges, and hath ſearched the grounde of all the ſecretes of the earth, 64 He knoweth your imaginations and inuentions, & what ye thynke when ye ſinne, and would hyde your ſinnes.

65 Therefore hath the Lorde ſearched and ſought out all your workes, and he ſhall bewray you all:

66 And when your ſinnes are brought forth, ye ſhalbe aſhamed before men, & your owne ſinnes ſhalbe your accuſers in that day.

67 What wyl ye doo? or howe wyll ye hyde your ſinnes before God and his angels?

68 Behold, God him ſelfe is the iudge, feare him: leaue of from your ſinnes, and forget your vnryghteouſneſſe, and meddle no more with them: ſo ſhall God leade you forth, and deliuer you from al trouble.

69 For beholde, the heate of a great multitude is kindled ouer you, and they ſhal take away certayne of you, and ſhal ſlay for meat to the idols:

70 And they that conſent vnto them, ſhalbe had in deriſion, laughed to ſcorne, and troden vnder foote.

71 For there ſhalbe in euery place, and in the next cities, a great inſurrection vppon thoſe that feare the Lorde.

72 They ſhalbe lyke madde men, they ſhall ſpare no man, they ſhal ſpoile and waſt ſuch as yet feare the Lorde:

73 For their goodes ſhall they take frō them, and ſhut them out of their houſes.

74 Then ſhal it be knowē who are my choſen, and they ſhalbe tried as the gold in the fire.

75 Heare, O ye my beloued, ſayth the Lorde: beholde, the dayes of trouble are at hande, but I wyl deliuer you from the ſame.

76 Be not ye afrayd, diſpayre not: for God is your captayne.

77 Who ſo keepeth my commaundementes and preceptes, ſayth the Lorde God, let not your ſinnes waygh you downe, and let not your vnryghteouſneſſe be lyft vp.

78 Wo be vnto them that are bounde with theyr ſinnes, & couered with their wickedneſſe, lyke as a feelde is hedged in with buſſhes, and the pathe thereof couered with thornes, that no man may trauaile through: it is ſhut vp, & is caſt into the fire for euer, to be conſumed therewith.

The ende of the fourth booke of Eſdras.

The booke of Tobias.

¶ The firſt Chapter.

1. Tobias parentage. 3. His godlyneſſe. 6. His equitie. 8. His charitie and proſperitie. 23. He flyeth, and his goodes are confiſcate, 25. and after reſtored.

1 TObias was of the tribe and citie of Nepthali, whiche lyeth in the hygh countries of Galilee aboue Naaſſon, beſyde ẏ way that leadeth to ẏ Weſt, hauing the citie of Sephet vppon the left ſyde.

2.Re.17.3. 2 Though he was taken *priſoner in the daies of Salmanaſar king of the Aſſyrians, neuertheleſſe being in captiuitie, he forſooke not the way of trueth:

3 Inſomuch that what ſo euer he might get, he parted it dayly with his felow priſoners and brethren that were of his kynred.

4 And though he were younger then all the tribe of Nepthali, yet dyd not he, behaue hym ſelfe chyldiſhly in his workes.

5 And when al the other went to the golden Calues, whiche *Ieroboam the kyng of Iſrael had made, he alone fled al their companies: *3.Re.12.25

6 And gate hym to Hieruſalem vnto the temple of the Lorde, and there woorſhypped the Lord God of Iſrael, faythfully offering of *al his fyrſt fruites and tythes: *Exo.22.29 Deut.12.6.

7 So that in the thyrd yeere, he miniſtred al the tithes vnto the ſtrangers & conuertes.

8 Theſe and ſuche lyke thynges dyd he obſerue, accordyng to the law of God, when he was yet but young.

9 But when he was a man, he tooke out of his owne tribe a wyfe called *Anna: and of her he begate a ſonne, whom he called after his owne name. *Num.36.6,

10 And

10 And taught hym from his youth vp to feare God, and to refrayne from all sinne.

11 Now when he, with his wyfe, his sonne, and with al his *kinred, was come in captiuitie vnto the citie of Ninive:

12 *What time as they al did eate of the meates of the heathen, he kept his soule, and was neuer defyled in theyr meates.

13 And for so much as he was mindefull of the Lord in al his hart, God gaue him fauour in the sight of Salmanasar the king:

14 Whiche gaue him power to goe where he would, and so had he libertie to doo what so euer he would.

15 So went Tobias vnto al them ỹ were in captiuitie and comforted them, and gaue them wholesome exhortations.

16 And when he came to Rages, a citie of the Medes, hauing ten talentes of syluer (of the thinges wherewith the king had honoured hym,)

17 And sawe among a great companie of people of his kinrede, one Gabelus which was of his owne tribe being in necessitie, he gaue him the sayd weight of syluer, vnder an hand writyng.

18 After a long season, when Salmanasar the kyng was dead, and Sennacherib his sonne raigned in his steede, which hated the children of Israel:

19 Tobias went dayly throughout all his kinred, and comforted them, and gaue of his goodes to euery one of them, as muche as he might.

20 He fedde the hungery, clothed the naked, and buried the dead and slayne, and that diligently.

21 And when* Sennacherib the kyng came againe, and fledde out of Iurie (what tyme as God pounished him for his blasphemie) and in his wrath slue many of the chyldren of Israel, Tobias buried their bodyes.

22 But when it was told the kyng, he commaunded to slay hym, and tooke away all his goodes.

23 Neuertheleſſe, Tobias with his sonne, and with his wife, fledde away naked, and was hidde: for there were many that loued hym.

24 But after fourtie and fiue dayes, the king was slayne of his owne sonnes:

25 Then came Tobias agayne to his house, and al his goods were restored vnto him.

¶ The.ii. Chapter.

a Tobias calleth the faithfull to his table. 3 He leaueth the feaste to burye the dead. 10 Howe he became blynd. 18. His wyfe laboureth for his lyuing. 16. Hee reproueth hym bytterly.

1 After those thinges, vpon a solemne day of the Lorde, Tobias made a good feast in his house,

2 And said vnto his sonne, Goe thy way, & bring hyther some of our tribe, such as feare God, that they may make merry with vs.

3 And when he was gone, he came agayne, & tolde his father that one of the children of Israel lay slayne vpon the streete.

4 And immediatly he leapt from his table, left the feast, came fastyng to ỹ dead coarse, tooke hym, and bare him priuily into his house, that when the sunne was downe, he might safely bury hym.

5 And when he had hid the coarse, he did eate his meate with mourning and feare,

6 Remembryng the wordes that the Lorde said by the prophete Amos, Your *high feastes shalbe turned to sorowe and heauinesse.

7 But when the sunne was downe, he went his way, and buryed hym.

8 Then all *his neighbours reproued him, saying, It is not long since it was commaunded to slay thee because of this mater, & hast scarce escaped the danger of death, and buriest thou the dead agayne?

9 Neuertheleſſe, Tobias fearing God more then the king, tooke the bodies of the slayne, and hyd them in his house, and buried them at midnightes.

10 It happened vpon a day, that he had buried the dead, and was weery, came home, and layde him downe by the wal & sleapt.

11 And whyle hee was a sleepe, there fell downe vpon his eyes warme doung out of the swallowes nest, so that he was blynde.

12 This temptation dyd God suffer to happen vnto him, that they whiche came after, might haue an example of his patience, lyke as of holy Iob.

13 For insomuch as he euer feared God from his youth vp, and kept his commaundementes, he grudged not against God, that ỹ plague of blyndnesse chaunced vnto him:

14 But remained stedfast in the feare of god, and thanked god al the dayes of his life.

15 For like as blessed Iob was had in derision of kinges: euen so was he laughed to scorne of his elders and kinsfolkes, whiche sayde vnto hym, 16 Where is the hope for the whiche thou hast doone almes, and buryed the dead?

17 But Tobias rebuked them, and spake, Say not so:

18 For we are the children of holy men, and looke for the lyke whiche God shal geue vnto them that neuer turne their beleefe from hym.

20 And looke what lining she coulde geat with the labour of her handes, she brought it. And it happened that she tooke a Kidde, and brought it home:
21 And when her husband heard it crye, he saide, * Looke that it be not stollen: restore it agayne to the owners, for it is not lawful for vs to eate or to touche any thing of theft.
22 Then was his wyfe angry, and saide, ‘Nowe is thy hope become vaine openly, and thyne almes deedes are manifest.
23 Wyth these and suche like woordes, dyd she cast him in the teeth.

¶ The.iii. Chapter.

1. The prayer of Tobias. 7. Sara Raguels daughter, and the things that came vnto her. 12. Her prayer heard. 19. The angel Raphael sent.

1 THen Tobias * tooke it heauyly, & with teares began to make his prayer,
2 Saying, O Lorde, thou art righteous, and al thy iudgementes are true: yea, al thy wayes are mercie, faythfulnesse, and iudgement.
3 And nowe, O Lorde, be mindfull of me, and take no vengeance of my sinnes, neither remember my misdeedes, neither the misdeedes of my forefathers.
4 For we haue not been obedient vnto thy commaundementes, * therfore are we spoyled, brought into captiuitie, into death, into derision, and shame vnto al nations, among whom thou hast scattered vs.
5 And nowe, O Lord, thy iudgementes are great: for we haue not done accordyng to thy commaundementes, neyther haue we walked innocently before thee.
6 And nowe, O Lorde, deale with me, accordyng to thy wyll, and commaund my spirite to be receiued in peace: for more expedient were it for me to dye, then to liue.
7 At the same time it happened that Sara the daughter of Raguel, at Rages a citie of the Medes, was also reproched by one of her fathers handmaides,
8 That she had seuen husbandes, whiche as soone as they were gone in vnto her, were slayne of the deuil, called Asmodeus.
9 Therefore when she reproued the mayden for her fault, she answered her, saying, God let vs neuer see sonne nor daughter of thee more vpon earth, thou killer of thy husbandes.
10 Wylt thou slay me also, as thou hast slayne seuen men? At this woyce went Sara into an high chamber of her house, and three dayes and three nightes she neyther ate, nor drinke:
11 But continued in prayer, and besought God with teares, that he would deliuer her from this rebuke.
12 Upon the third day it came to passe, that when she had made an ende of prayer, she prayed the Lorde, 13 Saying, blessed be thy name, O GOD of our fathers, which when thou art wroth, shewest mercie, and in time of trouble thou forgeuest the sinnes of them that call vppon thee.
14 Unto thee, O Lorde, turne I my face, vnto thee lyft I vp myne eyes:
15 I beseeche thee, O Lorde, loose me out of the bondes of this rebuke, or els take me vterly away from the earth.
16 Thou knowest Lorde, that I neuer had desyre vnto man, and that I haue kept my soule cleane from all vncleanly lust:
17 I haue not kept company with those that passe their time in spoyt, neither haue I made mee selfe partaker with them that walke in light behauiour.
18 An husband haue I consented to take, not for my pleasure, but in thy feare.
19 Nowe peraduenture, eyther I haue been vnwoorthy of them, or els were they vnmeete for me: for thou happily hast kept me to an other husband.
20 For why? thy counsayle is not in the power of man.
21 But euery one that serueth thee, is sure of this, that yf his life be in trying, it shalbe crowned, and yf it be in trouble, that God no dnbt shall deliuer him: and yf his life be in chastenyng, that he shall haue leaue to come vnto thy mercie.
22 For thou hast no pleasure in our " damnation: and why? after a storme, thou makest the weather fayre and still, after weeping and heauinesse, thou geuest great ioy.
23 Thy name, O God of Israel, be prayed for euer.
24 At the same time were both their prayers heard, in the sight of the maiestie of the highest God.
25 And Raphael the holy angel of the lord, was sent to helpe them both, whose prayers " came at one time togeather before God.

" or, destruction.

" or, were receited at one time togeather.

¶ The.iiii. Chapter.

Preceptes and exhortations of Tobias, to his sonne.

1 SO when Tobias thought his prayer to be heard, that he might dye, he called vnto him his sonne Tobias:
2 And sayde vnto him, My sonne, heare the the woordes of my mouth, and lay them in thyne hart as a fundation.

3 When God taketh away my soule, bury thou my body: and *hold thy mother in honour, al the dayes of her life.

*Exo.20.12

4 For thou oughtest to remember, what, and howe great perils she suffered for thee in her woombe.

5 And when she also hath fulfilled the time of her life, bury her *beside me.

6 Haue God in thy thought all the dayes of thy life, and beware, lest at any time thou consent vnto sinne, & lest thou let slippe the commaundementes of the Lorde our God.

*Pro.3.9. 7 *Geue almes of thy goodes, and turne neuer thy face from the poore: and so shall it come to passe, that the face of the Lorde shal not be turned away from thee.

*Eccle.35.4 8 *Be mercifull after thy power.

9 If thou haue much, geue plenteously: if thou hast little, doo thy diligence gladly, to geue of that little:

10 For so geatherest thou thee selfe a good reward in the day of necessitie.

*Eccl.29.15 11 For *mercie deliuereth from al sinne, and from death, and suffereth not the soule to come into darknesse.

12 A great comfort is mercie before the high God, vnto all them that shewe it.

*1.Thes.4.3 13 My sonne, *keepe thee well from all whoredome: and beside thy wyfe, suffer not thee selfe to knowe of sinne.

14 Let neuer pride haue rule in thy minde, nor in thy woorde: for in *pride began all destruction.

*Gene.3.5.

15 Whosoeuer worketh any thing for thee, *immediatly geue him his hyre, and looke that thy hyred seruauntes wages remaine not at all with thee.

*Leui.19.13

*Math.7.12 16 Looke that thou neuer do vnto *an other man, the thing that thou wouldest not an other man should doo vnto thee.

17 Eate thy bread with the hungry, & poore, and *couer the naked with thy clothes.

*Luke.14.13

18 Set thy bread and wine vpon the buriall of the righteous, and doo not thou eate and drinke thereof with the sinners.

19 Alke euer counsayle at the wyse.

20 Be alway praysing of God, and beseeche him that he wyl *order thy wayes, and that whatsoeuer thou deuisest or takest in hand, it may remayne in him.

21 I certifie thee also my sonne, that when thou wast yet but a babe, I deliuered tenne talentes of siluer vnto Gabelus at Rages a citie of the Medes, and his hand writing haue I by me

22 And therefore seeke some meanes, howe thou mayest come by him, and receyue of him the said weight of siluer, and geue him his hand writing againe.

23 My sonne, be not afraide: trueth it is, we leade here a poore lyfe, but great good shal we haue yf we ferre God, and depart from al sinne, and doo wel. Rom.8.17.

The.v.Chapter.

Tobias is sent to Rages, 5. He meeteth with the Angel Raphael, which did conduct him.

1 THen Tobias answered his father, and saide, Father, all that thou hast commaunded me, wyl I doo, and that diligently.

2 But howe shall I require this money, I can not tell, neyther doeth he knowe me, nor I him: what token shall I geue him? And as for the way thither, I neuer knewe it.

3 Then his father answeared him, & sayde, I haue his hand writing by me, whiche when thou shewest him, immediatly he shal pay thee.

4 But goe thy way nowe, and get thee some faithfull man to goe with thee for an hyre, that thou mayest receiue the money whyle I am yet liuing.

5 Then went Tobias out, and vpon the streete he founde a fayre young man standing, gyrded vp, and as it were one redy to take his iourney.

6 And he knewe not that it was an angel of GOD, but saluted him, and saide, From whence art thou, thou good young man?

7 He answeared, Of the children of Israel. And Tobias said vnto him, Knowest thou the way that leadeth vnto the country of the Medes?

8 He answeared, I knowe it well, and all those *streetes haue I gone oft times, and haue lodged with our brother Gabelus that dwelleth in Rages a citie of the Medes, whiche lyeth vpon the mount Ecbatanis. *or, ways.

9 Tobias sayde vnto him, I pray thee tary for me, tyll I haue tolde my father these thinges.

10 Then went Tobias in, and told his father al: at the which his father marueyled, and prayed that he woulde come in vnto him.

11 Nowe when he came in, he saluted hym, and sayde, Joy be with thee for euermore.

12 And olde Tobias sayde, What ioy can I haue, that sitte here in darknesse, and see not the light of heauen?

13 The young man sayde vnto him, Be of good cheare, God shall helpe thee shortly.

14 And Tobias saide vnto him, Canst thou:

thou bring my sonne to Gabelus vnto the citie of Rages in Medea: and when thou commest againe, I shall pay thee thy hyre.

15 And the angel sayde vnto hym, I shall leade thy sonne, and bring hym to thee agayne.

16 Then Tobias answeared him, Tel me I pray thee, of what house, or of what tribe art thou?

17 The angel Raphael sayde vnto hym, Seekest thou after the kynrede of an hyrelyng, or an hyred man him self, for thy sonne to goe with hym?

18 But that I make thee not carefull, I am Azarias, the sonne of great Hananias.

19 And Tobias answeared, Thou art come of a great kynrede: but I pray thee, be not displeased, that I desyre to knowe thy kynrede.

20 The angel sayde vnto hym, Thy sonne shall I leade forth safely, and bring hym whole and sounde to thee agayne.

21 Then answeared Tobias, & sayde, Wel, goe on your way, and God be in your iourney, and his angel beare you companie.

22 So when they had prepared all thynges that they woulde take with them in their iourney, Tobias bade his father and his mother farewell: and they went on their way both togeather.

23 Nowe when they were gone, his mother began to weepe, and sayde, * The staffe of our age hast thou taken away, and sent him from vs, *Tobi.10.4

24 Would God that money had neuer ben, for the whiche thou hast sent hym away.

25 For our pouertie was sufficient for vs, why we shoulde haue counted it riches that we sawe our sonne here.

26 Then sayde Tobias vnto her, Weepe not, our sonne shall goe safely, and come to vs agayne sounde, and thyne eyes shall see hym.

27 For I trust that the good angel of God shall beare hym companye, and order well al the thynges that he doeth, so that he shall come to vs agayne with ioy.

28 At these wordes his mother left of from weepyng, and held her peace.

¶ The.vi. Chapter.

2. Tobias deliuered from the fishe, 9. Raphael sheweth hym certayne medicines. 19. He conducteth hym towarde Sara.

1 SO Tobias went on his way, and a dog folowed hym, and the first nyght they abode by the water of Tigris.

2 Then went he out to washe his feete, and beholde, there came forth an horrible fyshe to deuoure hym.

3 Of whom Tobias was afrayd, and cryed with a loude voyce, saying, Lorde, he commeth vpon me.

4 And the angel sayde vnto hym, Take him by the gyl, and drawe hym to thee. And he dyd so, and drewe hym vnto the lande: and the fyshe began to leape at his feete.

5 Then sayd the angel vnto hym, Take out the bowelles of this fyshe: and as for the hart, the gall, and the lyuer, keepe them by thee: for these thynges are necessary & good for medicines.

6 Tobias dyd so, and rosted the fleshe, and they tooke it with them in their iourney: the residue they salted, as much as was sufficient for them, tyll they came to Rages a citie of the Medes.

7 Then Tobias asked the angel, and sayde vnto hym, I pray thee brother Azarias, tell me, whereto are these thynges good of the fishe, that thou hast bydden me keepe?

8 The angel answeared hym, and sayde, Yf thou laiest a peece of ỳ hart vpon the coales, the smoke thereof driueth away all euyll spirites, whether it be from man or from woman, so that from thencefoorth the same shal come no more vnto them.

9 The gall is good to annoynt or to stryke the eyes withall, whereas there is anye blemyshe in them, so that they shalbe whole.

10 And Tobias sayde vnto hym, Where wylt thou that we remayne? The angel answeared, 11 And sayde, Here is a nygh kynsman of * Num.27.8 thyne, & of thy tribe, one Raguel by name, whiche hath a daughter called Sara, and hath neyther sonne nor daughter but her.

12 Al his good belongeth vnto thee, and thou must marrie her.

13 And therfore desyre her of her father, and he shal geue her thee to wyfe.

14 Then answeared Tobias, and saide, As I vnderstande she hath been married vnto seuen husbandes, and they all are dead: and I haue hearde say that the deuyl slue them.

15 I am afrayde therfore, lest suche thynges happen vnto me also: whiche yf it come to passe, seeyng I am the onely sonne of my father and my mother, I should bring them in their age with sorowe to their graues.

16 Then sayd the angel Raphael vnto him, Heare me, and I wyl tel thee what they be of whom the deuyl hath power.

17 Namely, they that receyue marriage after suche a fashion, that they shut God out from them, and from their hart, and geue them selues to their owne lust, euen as it were * an horse and Mule, whiche haue no vnderstandyng: vpon suche hath the * Psal.31.9.

18 But when thou takest her, and art come into the chamber, withhold thee selfe from her three daies, and geue thy diligence vnto nothyng but vnto prayer with her.

19 And in the first night roste the lyuer of the fishe, and the deuyll shalbe dryuen away.

20 The second nyght shalt thou be receyued into the company of the holy Patriarches.

21 The thyrde nyght shalt thou obteyne the blessyng of God, so that "whole chyldren shalbe borne of you.

"Or, sounde.

22 After the thyrde night, take the maiden in the feare of GOD, and more for the desyre of children, then for any fleshly lust, that in the seede of Abraham thou mayst obteine the blessyng in chyldren.

¶ The.xii. Chapter.

Tobias marrieth Sara Raguels daughter.

1 THen went they in vnto Raguel, which receyued them ioyfully.

2 And when Raguel looked vpon Tobias, he sayde vnto Anna his wyfe, Howe lyke is this young man vnto my sisters son?

3 And when he had spoken this, he sayde, Whence be ye ye young men, our brethren? They sayde, Of the tribe of Nephthali, out of the captiuitie of Niniue.

4 Then saide Raguel vnto them, Knowe ye my brother Tobias? They sayde, Yea, we knowe hym wel.

5 And when he had spoken muche good of hym, the angel sayde vnto Raguel, Tobias of whom thou askest, is this young mans father.

6 Then Raguel bowed hym selfe downe, and wept, and tooke hym about the necke, and kyssed hym:

7 And sayde, Gods blessyng haue thou my sonne, for thou art the sonne of a good vertuous man.

8 And Anna his wife, and Sara his daughter wept also.

9 Nowe when they had talked togeather, Raguel bade kyl a weather, and to make a feast: and when he had exhorted them to sit downe to dynner,

10 Tobias sayde, I wyll neyther eate nor drynke here this day, excepte thou firste graunt me my petition, and promyse me to geue me thy daughter Sara.

11 When Raguel hearde this, he was astonied: for he knewe what had happened vnto the other seuen men that went in vnto her: and he beganne to feare that it shoulde chaunce vnto him in like maner. And while he stoode so in a doubt, and gaue the young man no answeare.

12 The angel sayde vnto hym, Feare not to geue him thy daughter, for vnto this man that feareth God, belongeth thy daughter to wyfe: therefore nyght none other haue her.

13 Then sayde Raguel, I doubt not but God hath accepted my prayers and teares in his syght:

14 And I beleeue he called you to come vnto me for the same intent, that this daughter of myne nyght be married in her owne kynred, accordyng to the *lawe of Moses: and nowe doubte thou not, but I wyl geue her vnto thee.

*Num.36.6

15 So he tooke the right hand of his daughter, and gaue her into the right hand of Tobias, and sayde, The God of Abraham, the God of Isahac, and the God of Jacob be with you, ioyne you togeather, and fulfyll his blessyng in you.

16 And they tooke a letter, and made a wryting of the marriage.

17 And then made they merye, and praysed God.

18 And Raguel called Anna his wyfe vnto him, & bade her prepare another chamber.

19 And thither he brought Sara his daughter, and she wept.

20 Then sayde he vnto her, Be of good cheare my daughter: the Lorde of heauen geue thee ioy, for the heauynesse that thou hast suffered.

¶ The.viii. Chapter.

2. Tobias dryueth away the euyll spirite. 4. He prayeth to God vnto his wyfe. 11. Raguel prepareth a grauе for his sonne in lawe. 19. Raguel blesseth the Lorde.

1 NOwe after that they had supped, they brought the young man in to her.

2 Then thought Tobias vppon the woordes of the angel, and tooke out of his bagge a peece of the lyuer of the fyshe, and layde it vpon the hot coales.

3 So the angel Raphael tooke holde of the deuyl, and sent hym away, and bounde him in the wyldernesse of the hyghest Egypt.

4 Then spake Tobias vnto the Virgin, and sayd, Up Sara, let vs make our prayer vnto God to day, to morowe, and "ouermorowe: for these three nyghtes wyl we "reconcile our selues with God: and when the thyrde holy nyght is past, we shall ioyne together in the duetie of marriage.

"Or, the thyrde day.

"Or, ioyne our selues to God.

5 For we are the chyldren of holy men, and we may not come togeather as the heathen that knowe not God.

6 Then

6 Then stoode they vp both together, and them.

7 And Tobias sayde, O Lorde God of our fathers, praysed be thou of heauen & earth, of the sea, welles, and floodes, and of all thy creatures that be therein.
Gen. 2. 7. 8 Thou madest Adam of the moulde of the earth, & gauest him Eua for an helper.
9 And nowe Lorde, thou knowest that it is not because of voluptuousnesse that I take this sister of mine to wyfe, but onely for the loue of children, in whom thy name may be blessed for euer.
10 And Sara sayde, Haue mercie vpon vs,
O Lorde, haue mercie vpon vs, and let vs both come whole and sounde together to a good age.
11 And about the cocke crowyng it came to passe, that Raguel called his seruantes:
12 And they went with hym to make a graue.
13 For he sayde, It is chaunced nowe vnto hym peraduenture, as it did vnto the other seuen men that went in vnto her.
14 Nowe when they had made the graue,
Raguel came agayne to his wyfe, and sayd vnto her, Sende one of thy maydens to looke if he be dead, that I might burie him afore it be lyght day.
15 So she sent a mayden to see: which when she came into the chamber, founde them whole and sounde, sleeping together.
16 And so she came agayne, and brought good tydinges: then Raguel and Anna his wyfe praysed the Lorde,
17 And sayde, Praysed be thou, O Lorde
God of Israel, that it is not happened vnto vs as we thoughe.
18 For thou hast dealt mercifully with vs, and put away from vs the enimie that persecuted vs,
19 And hast shewed mercie vnto yonder two, the onely borne children of their parentes: O Lorde, cause them to magnifie thee more perfectly, and to offer the sacrifice of thy prayse and of their health: that all people may knowe that thou onely art
God in al the earth.
20 And immediatly Raguel commaunded his seruants to fyl the graue, that they had made, with earth, afore it was lyght:
21 And bade his wyfe prepare a feast, and to make redy al thynges that were necessarie for meate to suche as went by the way.
22 He called two fat kyne also and foure weathers to be slayne, & meanes to be prepared for al his neyghbours and frendes.
23 And Raguel charged Tobias to remaine with hym two weekes.
24 As for al the good that he had, he gaue
Tobias the halfe of it, and made this wryting, that the halfe which remayned should fal vnto Tobias after their death.

¶ The ix. Chapter.

The angel goeth to Gabelus at the desyre of Tobias vpon whose deliuerie the letter, and receyueth the money.

1 THen Tobias called vnto hym the angel, whom he thought to haue ben a man, and sayd vnto hym, Brother Azarias, I pray thee hearken vnto my wordes.
2 If I shoulde geue mee selfe to be thy ser-uaunt, I shal not deserue thy prouidence.
3 Neuertheless, I beseeche thee that thou take the beastes, and the seruantes, and goe vnto Gabelus in Rages the citie of the Medes, and deliuer him his bande wry-tyng, and receyue the money of hym, & pray hym to come to my mariage.
4 For thou knowest thee selfe that my father doeth number the dayes: & if I tarie one day to long, he wyl be sory in his mind.
5 Nowe seest thou howe earnestly Raguel hath required me, so that I can not say him nay.
6 Then tooke Raphael foure of Raguels seruantes, and two Camels, & went vnto Rages the citie of the Medes: and when he had founde Gabelus, he gaue him his hande writing, and receyued al the money.
7 He tolde him also of Tobias the sonne of Tobi, howe al things had happened: & caused him to come with him to the mariage.
8 Nowe when he came into the house of Raguel, he founde Tobias sitting at the table: and he leaped vp, & they kyssed one another, and Gabelus wept, and praysed
God,
9 And sayd, The blessyng of the God of Israel haue thou, for thou art the sonne of a right vertuous and iust man, and of one that feareth God, and geueth great almes:
10 And blessyng haue thy wyfe, and your elders,
11 That ye may see your children, and your childrens children vnto the thirde & fourth generation: and your seede be blessed of the GOD of Israel, whiche raigneth worlde without ende.
12 And when they al had sayde Amen, they went to the feast, but with the feare of the Lorde held they the feast of the mariage.

¶ The x. Chapter.

Tobias and his wyfe thynke long for their sonne.

Raguel sendeth Tobias and Sara

1 NOwe whyle young Tobias made long tarying, by reason of the mary-age, his father was full of care and heauinesse, saying, Canst thou thinke what shoulde be the cause that my sonne taryeth so long? or why he shoulde be kept so long there?

2 Thynkest thou Gabelus is dead, and no man wyl geue hym the money?

3 Thus began he to be very sorowfull, he and Anna his wyfe with hym: and began to weepe both togeather, because theyr sonne was not come agayne vnto them at the day appoynted.

4 As for his mother she weapt with discomfortable teares, and sayde, Wo is me my sonne, Oh what ayled vs to sende thee away into a strange countrey, thou light of *Tob.5.19. our eyes, thou *staffe of our age, thou comfort of our life, thou hope of our generatiō?

5 Seeyng al the thinges that we haue are onely in thee, we shoulde not haue sent thee away from vs.

6 Then Tobias comforted her and sayde,
Holde thy peace, and be not discomforted, our sonne is whole and sounde: the man that we sent hym withal, is faythful ye-nough.

7 Neuertheless, she might in no wyse be comforted: but dayly went out, looked about, and went about al the streetes whereby she thought he should come agayne, that if it were possible, she might see hym commyng a farre of.

8 But Raguel sayd vnto his sonne in lawe,
O tarie here, and I shal sende a messenger vnto thy father Tobias, to tel hym that thou art in good health.

9 Tobias sayde vnto hym, I am sure that my father and my mother count euery day, and that theyr hartes are sory.

10 So when Raguel had prayed Tobias with many wordes, and he would in no wyse heare hym, he deliuered Sara vnto him, and the halfe part of all his goodes, in seruantes and handmaydens, in sheepe, in cammels, and in kyne, and muche money:
& so sent hym away from hym with healthe and ioy.

11 And sayde, The holy angel of the Lorde be with you in your iourney, and bryng you foorth safe and sounde: that ye may finde all thynges in good case with your elders, and that myne eyes may see your chyldren afore I dye.

12 So the elders imbraced theyr daughter, kyssed her, and let her goe.

13 Exhorting her to honour her father and mother in lawe, to loue her husbande, to rule wel her household, to keepe her house in good order, & to shewe her selfe faithfull.

¶ The xi. Chapter.

1. The returne of Tobias to his father. 11. How he was receyued. 15. His father hath his sight restored, and prayseth the Lorde.

1 AS they nowe were goyng homewarde agayne, vppon the eleuenth day they came to Chatran, which lyeth in the halfe way towarde Ninyue.

2 And the angel sayde, Brother Tobias, thou knowest how thou hast left thy father.

3 Therefore if it please thee, we two wyll goe before, and let the household, with thy wyfe and the catel, come fayre and softly after vs.

4 And when Tobias was content that they shoulde goe before, Raphael sayde vnto hym, Take of the gal of the fyshe with thee: for it shalbe necessarie. So Tobias tooke of the gal, and they went theyr way.

5 But Anna the mother of Tobias sate day-ly by the way side vpon the toppe of an hyl, from whence she might see farre about her.

6 And whyle she was wayting there for his comming, she looked a farre of, and anone she perceyued her sonne comming, and ran and tolde her husbande, saying, Behold, thy sonne commeth.

7 And Raphael sayde vnto Tobias, Assoone as thou commest into the house, im-mediatly worshyp the Lorde thy God, and geue thankes vnto hym: then goe to thy father, and kysse hym.

8 And straightwayes strike his eyes ouer with the gall of the fyshe that thou hast brought with thee: for be sure that his eyes shal straight way be opened, and thy father shal see the light of heauen, and shal reioyce at the sight of thee.

9 Then the dogge that had ben with them in theyr iourney ranne before, and came as a messenger, and wagged his taile for glad-nesse.

10 So the blinde father arose, and begynne to runne, and stumbled with his feete: and gaue a seruant his hande, & ranne to meete his sonne,

11 Receyued him, and kyssed him, he & his wife, and they both began to weepe for ioy.

12 Nowe when they had worshipped and thanked God, they sate downe.

13 Then tooke Tobias of the fyshe gal, and annoynted his fathers eyes:

14 And taryed halfe an houre, & then bega the blemishe to goe out of his eyes, like as it had ben the white skin of an egge:

15 Which Tobias tooke & drewe from his eyes, & immediatly he receyued his sight.

16 Then

16 Then they prayſed God, he & his wyfe, and all they that knewe hym.
17 And Tobias ſayde, O Lorde God of Iſrael, I geue thee prayſe and thanks, for thou haſt chaſtened me, and made me whole: and loe, nowe doo I ſee my ſonne Tobias.
18 After ſeuen dayes came Sara his ſonnes wyfe alſo whole and ſounde, with all the houſholde and cattell, with Camelles, and muche money of his wynes, and with the money that he had receyued of Gabelus.
19 And he tolde his father and his mother, all the benefites whiche God had doone for hym by the man that led hym.
20 Achior alſo and Nabath, Tobias ſyſters ſonnes came, and were glad, and reioyced with hym, by reaſon of al the good thynges that God had ſhewed vnto hym: and ſo for the ſpace of ſeuen dayes they made merye, and were ryght ioyful euery one.

¶ The.xii. Chapter.

1. Tobias declareth to his father, the pleaſures that Raphael had doone hym. 5. The whiche he wolde recompence.

1 THen Tobias called his ſonne vnto him, and ſayde, What maye we geue this holy man that † went with thee?
2 Tobias aunſwered his father, and ſayde, Father, what reward ſhall we geue hym? or what thyng can deſerue his benefites?
3 He hath been my guyde, and brought me ſafe agayne, he receyued the money from Gabelus, he cauſed me to wed my wyfe, he droue the euyl ſpirite from her, he hath been an occaſion of gladneſſe to her father and mother, he delyuered me that I was not deuoured of the fyſhe, he hath made thee to ſee the lyght of heauen: yea, we all haue receyued great good of hym.
4 Howe ſhould we worthyly deſerue theſe thynges vnto hym? But, I pray thee my father, that thou wylt deſyre hym, yf happily he wyll vouchſafe, to take with hym the halfe of al that we haue brought.
5 So the father and the ſonne called hym, tooke hym aſyde, and beganne to pray hym, that he woulde be content to take in good worth, the halfe parte of all that they had brought.
6 Then ſayd he ſecretly vnto them, Prayſe ye the God of heauen, and geue thankes vnto hym before all men lyuyng: for he hath ſhewed his mercy vnto you.
7 It is good to hyde the kynges ſecrete: but to ſhewe and to prayſe the workes of God, it is an honourable thyng.
8 Prayer is good with faſtyng, and mercye is better then to hoorde vp treaſures of golde.
9 For mercy delyuereth from death, cleanſeth ſinne, and cauſeth to finde mercye and lyfe euerlaſtyng.
10 But they that doo ſinne and vnryghteouſnes, are the enimies of their owne ſoule.
11 Wherefore I tel you the trueth, and wyll hyde no ſecrete thyng from you.
22 When thou prayedſt with teares, and buriedſt the dead, and leafteſt thy dynner, and hyddeſt the dead in thyne houſe vppon the day time, that thou myghteſt bury them in the nyght, I offered thy prayer before the Lorde.
13 And becauſe thou waſt accept and beloued of God, it was neceſſarye that temptation ſhoulde trye thee.
14 And nowe hath the Lord ſent me to heale thee, and to delyuer Sara thy ſonnes wyfe from the euyl ſpirite.
15 For I am Raphael an angel, one of the ſeuen that ſtande before the Lorde.
16 When they hearde this, they were ſore afrayde, and trembled, and fel downe vppon their faces vnto the grounde.
17 Then ſayde the angel, Peace be with you, feare not.
18 For whereas I haue been with you, it is the wyll of God: geue prayſe and thankes vnto hym.
19 † You thought that I did eate and drinke with you, but I vſe meate that is inuiſible, and drynke that can not be ſeene of men. † Gene.18.7. Iudi.13.16.
20 Nowe therefore is the tyme that I muſt turne agayne vnto hym that ſent me: but be ye thankfull vnto God, and tell out all his woonderous workes.
21 And when he had ſpoken theſe woordes, he was taken away out of their ſyght, ſo that they coulde ſee hym no more.
22 Then fell they downe flat vpon their faces, by the ſpace of three houres, and prayſed God: and when they roſe vp, they tolde all his woonderous workes.

¶ The.xiii. Chapter.

A thankes geuyng of Tobias, who exhorteth all to prayſe the Lorde.

1 THen olde Tobias opened his mouth, and prayſed the Lorde, and ſayd, Great art thou, O Lorde, for euermore, and thy kyngdome worlde without ende.
2 For thou † ſcourgeſt and healeſt, thou leadeſt vnto hell, and bryngeſt out agayne: and there is none that maye eſcape thyne hande. † Deu.32.30 Sapi.16.13.
3 O geue thankes vnto the Lorde, ye chyldren of Israel, and prayse hym in the syght of the heathen:

4 For among the heathen which knows him not, hath he scattered you, to the intent that ye should shewe foorth his marueilous workes, and cause them for to know, that there is none other God almyghtie but he.

5 He hath chastened vs for our mysdeedes, and for his owne mercies sake shall he saue vs.

6 Consyder then howe he hath dealte with you, and prayse hym with feare and dread: and magnifie the euerlastyng kyng in your workes.

7 I wyl prayse hym euen in the lande of my captiuitie, for he hath shewed his maiestie vnto a sinful people.

8 Turne you therfore, O ye sinners, and do ryghteousnesse before God, and be ye sure that he wyl shewe his mercy vpon you.

9 As for me and my soule, we wyll reioyce in God.

10 O prayse the Lorde al ye his chosen, hold the dayes of gladnesse, and be thankeful vnto hym.

11 O Hierusalem thou citie of God, the lord hath punyshed thee for the workes of thyne owne handes.

12 O prayse the Lorde in thy good thynges, and geue thankes to the euerlastyng God, that he may buyld vp his tabernacle againe in thee, that he may cal agayne vnto thee all such as be in captiuitie, and that thou maist haue ioy for euermore.

13 With a fayre lyght shalt thou shyne, and al the endes of the worlde shal honour thee.

*Esai.49.18 Actes. 2.5.

14 The * people shall come vnto thee from farre, they shall bryng gyftes, and worshyp the Lorde in thee, & thy lande shal they haue for a sanctuarie: for they shall call vpon the great name in thee.

15 Cursed shal they be that despise thee, and all that blaspheme thee shalbe condemned: but blessed shal they be that buylde thee vp.

16 As for thee, thou shalt reioyce in thy children: for they al shalbe blessed, and geathered togeather vnto the Lorde.

17 Blessed are al they that loue thee, and that be glad of thy peace.

18 Prayse thou the Lorde, O my soule: for the Lorde our God hath delyuered his citie Hierusalem from al her troubles.

19 I wyll count me selfe happye, yf my seede remayne to see the cleanesse of Hierusalem.

*Apo.21.18. 20 The * gates of Hierusalem shalbe buylded with Saphir and Smaradge, and all the compasse of her walles with pretious stones.

21 Al her streetes shalbe paued with white and fayre stone, and in all streetes shall Alleluia be song.

22 Praysed be the Lord which hath exalted her, that his kingdome may be vpon her for euermore. Amen.

¶ The xiiii. Chapter.

5. Lessons of Tobias to his sonne. 8. He prophesieth the destruction of Niniue, 7. and the restoryng of Hierusalem and the temple.

1 AND so Tobias made an ende of speakyng: and after that Tobias had gotten his syght agayne, he lyued fourtie & two yeeres, and sawe his chylders children.

2 Nowe when he was an hundred and two yeeres olde, he dyed, and was buryed honourably in Niniue.

3 For when he was fyue and fyftie yeeres of age, he lost the syght of his eyes: and when he was thyrte score yeeres olde, he gate his syght agayne.

4 The residue of his lyfe led he in ioy, and encreased well in the feare of God, and departed in peace.

5 But in the houre of his death, he called vnto hym his sonne Tobias, & seuen yong 'springalds his sonnes children, and sayde vnto them. 'or, young imper.

6 The destruction of Niniue is at hand (for the woorde of the Lorde can not fayle) and our brethren that are scattered out of the lande of Israel, shall come thyther agayne.

7 And the whole lande of it that hath been waste, shalbe fylled, and the house of God that was 'brent in it, shalbe buylded agayne: and al suche as feare God, shall returne thyther. *1. Esd.3.8. and.6.14. 'brent

8 The heathen then also shall forsake their idolles, and come to Hierusalem, and dwell there:

9 And al the kynges of the earth shalbe glad in her, and worshyp the lord God of Israel.

10 And therefore my children, heare your father, * serue the Lorde in the trueth, seeke after his wyll, to doo the thyng that pleaseth hym. *Deut.6.13. Iosu. 24.14 1. Reg.7.3.

11 Commaunde your children that they doo ryght, gene almes, be mindeful of God, and euer to be thankful vnto hym in trueth, and with al their power.

12 Heare me now therfore my children, and abyde not here: but in what day soeuer ye haue buryed your mother by me in one sepulchre, geat you from hence:

13 For I see that the wyckednesse of it, shall bryng it to destruction and ende.

14 After the death of his mother, Tobias departed away from Niniue, with his wyfe and and chyldren, and with his chylders chyldren, and came agayne to his father & mother in lawe.

15 And founde them whole, and in a good age, and tooke the care of them: and he closed theyr eyes, and was heyre vnto al Raguels goodes, and sawe the fifth generation, and his chylders chyldren.

16 And nientie and niene yeeres beyng ended in the feare of God, they buryed hym with ioy.

17 And al his kinrede and posteritie continued in a good lyfe and holy conuersation: so that they were loued and accepted both of God and men, and of al the people of the lande.

The ende of the booke of Tobias.

¶ The booke of Iudith.

¶ The fyrst Chapter.

1. The buyldyng of Ecbatanis. 5. Nabuchodonosor made warre agaynst Arphaxad, and ouercame hym. 12. He threatneth them that woulde not helpe hym.

1 ARpharad kyng of the Medes, subdued many people vnto his dominion, and buylded a strong citie, whiche he called Ecbatanis.

2 The walles of it made he of free stone, foure square, seuentie cubites hygh, and thirtie cubites brode: he made towres thereupon an hundred cubites hygh.

3 But along the foure corners, euery side was twentie foote brode, he made the portes in the heygth, lyke as the towres.

4 This kyng trusted in his mightie hoste, and in his glorious charrets.

5 So in the twelfth yeere of his raigne, it happened that Nabuchodonosor the kyng of the Assyrians, whiche raigned in the great citie of Niniue, fought agaynst Arpharad:

6 And ouercame him in the great feelde called Ragau, beside Euphrates, and Tigris, and Iadason, in the feelde of Ectoth the kyng of the Elikes.

7 Then was the kyngdome of Nabuchodonosor exalted, and his hart was lyft vp: and he sent vnto al them that dwelt in Cilicia, in Damascus and Libanus:

8 And vnto the heathen that dwelt in Carmel and Cedar, and to suche as dwelt in Galilee in the great feelde of Esdrelon:

9 To al them that dwelt in Samaria, and beyonde the water of Iordane vnto Hierusalem, and the whole lande of Iesse, vnto the borders of Ethiopia:

10 Vnto al these did Nabuchodonosor the kyng of the Assyrians sende messengers.

11 But they all with one consent would not agree vnto hym, and sent the messengers agayne emptie, and put them away without honour.

12 Then Nabuchodonosor the kyng tooke indignation at al those landes, & sware by his throne and by his kyngdome, that he would be auenged of all those countreyes.

¶ The ii. Chapter.

Nabuchodonosor commaunded presumptuously that all people shoulde be brought in subiection.

1 IN the thirteenth yeere of king Nabuchodonosor, vpon the twentie & two day of the first moneth, it was deuised in the court of Nabuchodonosor the king of the Assyrians, that he would reuenge him selfe.

2 So he called vnto hym al the elders, all his captaynes and men of warre, and shewed them his secrete counsel,

3 And tolde them that his purpose was to bring the whole earth vnder his dominion.

4 Nowe when they were al content with this saying, Nabuchodonosor the kyng called Holophernes the cheefe captayne of his warres,

5 And sayde vnto hym, Goe thy way forth agaynst al the kyngdomes of the West, and specially agaynst those that haue despysed my commaundement.

6 Thou shalt spare no realme, al strong cities shalt thou bring in subiection vnto me.

7 Then Holophernes called togeather all the captaynes and rulers of al the power in Assyria, and muster ed the souldiers vnto the host, lyke as the kyng commaunded hym, namely an hundred and twentie thousande fighting men vpon foote, and twelue thousande archers vpon horsebacke.

8 Al his ordinance sent he before with an innumerable multitude of Cammelles, so that the host was wel prouided for with oxen and smal catel, and that without number.
9 He appointed to prepare corne out of all
Syria in his passage.
10 Much golde and syluer also tooke he out of the kynges house.
11 So he tooke his iourney, and al his host,
with charrettes, horsemen, and archers:
of whom there were so many, that they co-uered the grounde of the lande, lyke the grasshoppers.
12 And when he was come past the borders of the Assyrians, he came toward the great mountaynes of Auge, which lye vpon the left side of Cilicia: and so he went vp into al their castles, and wonne euery strong holde.
13 As for the wealthie citie of Melothus he brake it downe, and spoyled al the children of Tharsis, and the Ismaelites, which lay towarde the wildernesse, and vppon the South syde of the lande of Chellon.
14 He went ouer Euphrates also, & came into Mesopotamia, and brake downe al the high cities that were there, from the brooke of Mambre, tyl a man come to the sea:
15 And he tooke the borders in, from Cilicia vnto the coastes of Japhet, toward the South.
16 He caryed away al the Madianites, and spoyled al their goodes, & whosoeuer with-stoode hym, he slue them with the swoorde.
17 After this, he went downe into the fielde of Damascus in the tyme of haruest, and burnt vp al the corne, and al the trees and vines he caused to be cut downe:
18 And the feare of hym fel vppon all them that dwelt on the earth.

¶ The iii. Chapter.

1. The people subiect to Holophernes. 12. He de-stroyeth their gods, that Nabuchodonosor might onely be worshipped.

1 SO the kinges and princes of al the cities and landes, sent their Ambassadours, namely, they of Syria and Mesopotamia, Syria Sobal, and Libia, & Cilicia, which came to Holophernes, and sayde,
2 Let thy wrath cease towarde vs: it is better for vs to serue the great kyng Nabuchodonosor with our lyues, and to be subiect vnto thee, then that we shoulde dye, & with our slaughter suffer the euyls of our bondage.
3 Al our cities and possessions, all moun-taynes and hylles, al feeldes, great & smal, catel, sheepe, goates, horses, & cammels, all our goodes & houshoides, be in thy power.
4 Under thy subiection be al that we haue.
5 We our selues, and also our chyldren, wyl be thy seruantes.
6 Come vnto vs, peaceable Lorde, and vse our seruice at thy pleasure.
7 Then came Holophernes downe from the mountaynes, with horsemen and great power, and conquered al strong fenced cities, and al that dwelt in the lande.
8 And out of al cities he tooke strong men, and suche as were meete for the warre to helpe hym.
9 And there came suche a feare vpon thos countreyes, that the indwellers of al the cities, the princes and rulers, and the people togeather, went forth to meete him as he came:
10 And receyued hym honourably with garlandes and torches, with daunces, tabrets, and pypes.
11 Neuertheless though they did this, yet might they not swage his rigorous stomacke.
12 But he destroyed their cities, and hewed downe their woods.
13 For Nabuchodonosor the king had commaunded him that he shoulde roote out all the goddes of the "lande, to the intent that "Or, earth.
he onely might be called and taken for god of the nations, which Holophernes with his power might bryng vnder hym.
14 So went he through Syria Sobal, and through al Appamea, and of Mesopotamia, and came to the Idumeans in the lande of Gabaa,
15 And tooke their cities, and remayned there thirtie dayes, in which space he caused al the whole multitude of his host to be gathered togeather.

¶ The iiii. Chapter.

3. Eliacim the priest writeth to Bethulia, that they shoulde fortifie them selues. 8. They cryed to the Lorde, and humbled them selues before hym.

1 WHen the chyldren of Israel that dwelt in Iurie hearde this, they were sore afrayde of hym.
2 There came suche trembling also and feare vpon them, lest he shoulde doo vnto the citie of Hierusalem and the temple of the Lorde, as he had done to other cities and their temple.
3 So they sent into al Samaria rounde about vnto Iericho, tooke in and occupied all the toppes of the mountaynes:

4 And

4 And made fast the townes with walles, and prepared corne for them agaynst the battayle.

5 Eliacim also the priest wrote vnto all thē that dwelt towarde Esdrelon, whiche lyeth ouer agaynst the great fielde by Dothain, and vnto al those by whom men might haue passage vnto them,

6 That they shoulde take in the wayes of the mountaines, whereby there myght be any way and passage vnto Hierusalem, and that they shoulde holde diligent watche where any straight was betwixt the mountaines.

7 And the children of Israel did as Eliacim the priest of the Lorde had commaunded them.

8 And all the people cryed vnto the Lorde earnestly, and humbled their soules with fasting and prayers, they and their wyues:

9 The priestes put on heary clothes, & layde the young babes before the temple of the Lorde, and couered the aulter of the Lorde with an heary cloth:

10 And with one accorde they cryed vnto ỳ Lorde God of Israel, that their children shoulde not be geuen into a pray: and their wyues into a spoyle, that their cities should not be layde waste, and that their 'sanctuarie should not be vnhalowed, and so they to be a shame & rebuke vnto the heathen.

'Holy things

11 Then Eliacim the high priest of ỳ Lorde, went round about all Israel, and spake vnto them, 12 Sayeng, Be ye sure that the Lorde wyll heare your petitions, yf ye continue stedfast in fastynges and prayers in the sight of the Lorde.

Exod.17.12. 13 Remember * Moses the seruaunt of the Lorde, whiche ouerthrewe the Amelekites that trusted in their myght and power, in their host, in their shields, in their charets, and horsemen, not with weapons, but with holy prayers.

14 Euen so shall all the enimies of Israel be, if ye cōtinue in this worke that ye haue begunne.

15 So vpon this exhortacion, they continued in prayer before the Lorde.

16 Insomuche ỳ they which offered burnt sacrifices vnto the Lorde, offered the offerynges vnto the Lorde, being arayed in heary clothes, and had ashes vppon their heades.

17 And they al besought GOD from their whole hart, that he woulde visite his people of Israel.

¶ The. v. Chapter.

Achior the Ammonite doeth declare to Holophernes of the maner of the Israelites.

1 AND woorde came to Holophernes the prince of the warre of the Assyrians, that the children of Israel prepared thē selues to make resistance, and howe they hadde stopped the wayes betwixt the mountaynes.

2 Then was he exceedyng wroth, and called al the princes of Moab, and the captaynes of Ammon,

3 And sayd vnto them, Tel me, what people is this that kepeth in the mountaines? Or what maner, & how great cities theirs are? What is their power? Or what maner of hoast haue they? Who is their captayne?

4 And why do they despise vs more then all those that dwel in the east, and come not forth to meete vs that they might receyue vs with peace?

5 Then * Achior the captayne of al the Ammonites, aunswered, and sayde, Syr, yf it please thee to heare, I wyl tel the trueth before thee, concerning this people that dwell in the mountaynes, and there shall no vntrueth goe out of my mouth. * Iud.11.7.

6 This people is of the generation of the Chaldees:

7 They dwelt first in * Mesopotamia, for they woulde not folow the Gods of their fathers that were in the lande of the Chaldees: * Gen.11.31.

8 And so forsooke they the custome of their forefathers which had many Goddes, and worshipped one God that made heauen & earth: whiche also * commaunded them that they shoulde goe from thence and dwell at Charran. * Gen.12.1.

9 * Nowe when there came a dearth into the whole lande, they went downe to Egypt, and there they dwelt foure hundred yeeres, in the which they multiplyed greatly, that their host might not be numbred. * Gen.41.54 Gen.46.6.

10 * And when the kyng of Egypt oppressed them, and yoked them in buyldyng of his cities, with makyng of clay and bricke, they cryed vnto God their lorde, which punished the whole lande of Egypt with diuers plagues. * Exod.1.8.

11 * And when the Egyptians had cast them out, and the plague ceased from them, and they folowyng after them to take them and to bring them agayne into their bondage: * Exod.14.4

12 Whyle they were fleeyng away, the God of heauen opened the sea, so that the waters stoode fast vpon both the sides as a wal: and these went through the bottome of the sea dryshod.

13 In the whiche place when an innumerable people of the Egyptians folowed vpon them, they were so ouerwhelmed with the waters, that there remayned not one to tel them that came after how it happened.

14 So when this people was passed through the * red sea, they came into the wildernesse of mount Sina, where neuer man myght dwel afore, and where the sonne of man had neuer rested.

* Exo. 16. 1.

* Exo. 15. 25.

15 There were the bitter * waters made sweete for them, that they might drinke, & fourtie yeeres had they meate from heauen.

16 Whersoeuer they went, without bowe and arrowe, without buckler or sword, they: God fought for them, and caused them to haue the victory.

17 Yea, no man was able to hurt this people, except it were when they departed vnfaythfully from the worshipping of the lord their God.

18 But as oft as they worshipped any other beside they: God, he gaue them ouer to be spoyled, to be slayne, and to be put to confusion.

18 Neuertheless, as oft as they were sory for they: departyng from the worship of they: God; the same God of heauen gaue them power and strength to withstande theyr enimes.

* Iosu. 12. 21

20 Moreouer, they * slue the king of the Chanaanites, Iebusites, Pherezites, Hethites, Heuites, and Amorites, and all the mightie in Hesebon, and tooke they: landes and cities in possession:

21 And so long as they sinned not in the sight of their god, it went wel with them: for they: God hateth vnryghteousnesse.

* Iudi. 2. 11. 4. king. 25. 1.

22 * For in tymes past, when they went out of the way whiche God had geuen them, that they should walke in it, they were destroyed in diuers battayles of many nations, and many of them were caryed away prisoners vnto a strange countrey.

* 1. Esd. 1. 1.

23 * But now lately they haue turned themselues againe vnto the Lord they: God, and are come togeather agayne out of the countreys where they were scattered abrode: and thus haue they conquered these mountaines, and dwel therein: and as for Hierusalem where their sanctuarie is, they haue it agayne in possession.

24 And therefore my Lorde, make diligent inquisition, if this people haue doone wickednesse in the sight of they: God, then let vs goe vp agaynst them: for doubtlesse their God shal deliuer them into thine hands, and subdue them vnto thy power.

25 But if this people haue not displeased they: God, we shal not be able to withstand them: for they: God shal defende them, and so shal we be ashame to al the worlde.

26 Nowe when Achior had spoken out these woordes, al the great men of Holophernes were wroth, and thought to slaye him, and sayde one to another, 27 What is he this which dare saye that the children of Israel are able to withstand Nabuchodonosor the kyng, and his hoastes: whereas they are an vnweaponed people, without strength or vnderstanding of the feates of warre.

28 That Achior therefore may knowe that he hath deceyued vs, we wyll goe vp into the mountaynes: and when the mightie men of them are taken, he with them shalbe stickt with the sworde:

29 That al the people may knowe that Nabuchodonosor is the god of the earth, and that there is none other beside hym.

¶ The. vi. Chapter.

Holophernes blasphemeth God vvhom Achior confessed.

1 SO when they had left of speakyng, Holophernes tooke sore indignation, and sayd vnto Achior,

2 For so muche as thou hast prophesied vnto vs, saying that the people of * Israel shalbe defended of they: God: I wyl shewe thee that there is no God but Nabuchodonosor. * Iud. 5. 5.

3 Yea, when we slaye them al as one man, thou also shalt perishe with them through the swoorde of the Assyrians, and all Israel shalbe destroyed with thee:

4 And then shalt thou feele that Nabuchodonosor is the Lorde of the whole earth: then shall the swoorde of my knyghthood goe through thy sides, and thou shalt fal downe stickt among the wounded of Israel, and * shalt not come to thee selfe agayne; but be vtterly destroyed with them. * Or, shalt not drawe breath agayne.

5 Furthermore, if thou thinkest thy prophesie to be true, why dost thou then change thy colour? why art thou afrayde? Thinkest thou that my woordes are not able to be performed?

6 But that thou mayest knowe that thou shalt feele these thinges with them, behold, from this houre foorth, wyll I sende thee vnto ponder people, that when the punishment of my swoorde (whiche they haue woorthyly deserued) falleth vpon them, thou mayest be punished with them.

7 So Holophernes commaunded his seruauntes to take Achior, and to cary hym vnto Bethulia, and to deliuer hym into the handes of the children of Israel.

8 Then

8 Then Holophernelle ſeruantes tooke him, and went thꝛough the plaine feelde: but when they dꝛue nigh vnto the mountaynes, the ſlyng caſters came out againſt them.

9 Wherthelelſe, they gate them away by the ſide of the mountayne, and bound Achiꝛ hand and foote to a tree, and ſo left him bound with wythes, and turned againe vnto their Lꝛd.

10 After that, the childꝛen of Iſrael went downe from Bethulia, came vnto him, looſed hym, bꝛought hym into Bethulia, ſet hym in the myddeſt of the people, and aſked hym what the matter was that the Aſſyꝛians had left hym bounde?

11 Oſias the ſonne of Micha, of the tribe of Simeon and Charmi, which is alſo called Gothoniel, were the pꝛincipal rulers at the ſame tyme.

12 Nowe when Achiꝛ ſtoode in the myddeſt of the Senatours, and befoꝛe them all, he tolde them what anſweare he gaue Holophernes to the thyng that he aſked hym, and howe Holophernes people would haue ſlayne hym foꝛ ſo ſaying, 13 And howe Holophernes hym ſelfe was wꝛoth, and commaunded hym foꝛ the ſame cauſe to be delyuered vnto the Iſraelites: that when he ouercame the chyldꝛen of Iſrael, he myght commaunde Achiꝛ alſo to be put to death with dyuers toꝛments, becauſe he ſayde, The God of heauen is their defender.

14 And when Achiꝛ had playnely told out all theſe thynges, all the people fell downe vppon their faces pꝛayſyng the Lꝛde, and powꝛed out their pꝛayers togeather vnto the Lꝛde, with a generall complaynt and weepyng, 15 And ſayde, O Lꝛde God of heauen and of earth, beholde their pꝛyde, and looke vppon our lowlyneſſe, and conſyder how it ſtandeth with thy ſaintes, and make it to be knowen that thou foꝛſakeſt not thoſe which holde them faſt by thee, and howe that thou bꝛingeſt them lowe that pꝛeſume of them ſelues, and make their boaſt in their owne ſtrength.

16 So when the weeping and pꝛayer of the people (whiche they had made the whole day long, was ended) they cõfoꝛted Achiꝛ, 17 Saying, The God of our fathers, whoſe power and ſtrength thou haſt pꝛayſed, ſhall ſo reward thee, that thou ſhalt rather ſee their deſtruction.

18 When the Lꝛde our God then ſhall geue his ſeruantes this libertie, God be alſo with thee aiſtong vs: ſo that as it ſhal pleaſe thee, ſo thou with all thyne mayeſt dwell with vs.

19 Nowe when Oſias had ended the counſell, he tooke him into his houſe, and made a great ſupper, 20 Called the elders to it: and ſo they refreſhed them ſelues after the faſting.

21 And afterward was all the people called togeather, whiche made their pꝛayers all the night long "in the congregation, and beſought the God of Iſrael foꝛ helpe. "Or, within the Church.

¶ The. vii. Chapter.

Holophernes doth beſiege Bethulia.

1 THE nexte day Holophernes commaunded his hoſt to go vp againſt Bethulia.

2 There were an hundꝛed and twentie thouſand fighting men on foote, & two and twentie thouſand hoꝛſemen, beſide the pꝛeparing of them that were wonne, and came to them on euery ſide out of the countreys and cities which he had taken.

3 All theſe pꝛepared them ſelues vnto the battayle againſt the Iſraelites, and came on by the hill ſide, vnto the toppe that looketh ouer againſt Dothain, from the place whiche is called Belma, vnto Chelmon, that lyeth toward Eſdꝛelon.

4 Nowe when the childꝛen of Iſrael ſawe ſo great a multitude of the Aſſyꝛians, they fel downe flatte vpon the ground, ſtrawed aſſhes vpon their heads, and pꝛayed with one accoꝛd that the God of Iſrael woulde ſhewe his mercie vpon his people.

5 And ſo they tooke their weapons, and ſate betwixt the mountaynes in the narrowe place, and kept the way day and night.

6 But whyle Holophernes was going rounde about, he found the water ſpꝛing, whiche from the South ſide was conueyed into the citie by a conduite, and he commaunded their conduit to be cut in ſunder.

7 There were Welles alſo not farre from the walles, whiche they vſed ſecretly, moꝛe foꝛ pleaſure, "then foꝛ neceſſitie. "Or, them to drinke them.

8 Then went the Ammonites and the Moabites vnto Holophernes, and ſayde, The chyldꝛen of Iſrael truſt neyther in ſpeare noꝛ arrowe, but haue taken in and kept the mountaynes, and ſteepe hilles defende them.

9 That thou mayeſt ouercome them therefoꝛe without the ſtriking of any battayle, ſet men to keepe the welles, that they dꝛaw no water out of them, ſo ſhalt thou deſtroy them without ſwoꝛd: oꝛ at the leſt they ſhalbe ſo feeble, that they muſt be faine to geue ouer the citie, which they thinke not able to be wonne, foꝛ ſo much as it lyeth in the mountaynes.

10 These woordes pleased Holophernes well, and al his men of warre, and he set an hundred at euery well round about.

11 And when this watch had endured twentie dayes, the cesternes and al that had water, fayled them that dwelt in the citie of Bethulia, so that in ỹ whole citie they had not drinke yenough for one day, for the people had water geuen them dayly in a measure.

12 Then came the men and women, young persons and children, all vnto Dias, and sayd al with one voyce,

[a]Exod.5.21. 13 God be [*] iudge betwixt vs and thee, for thou hast dealt euyll with vs: thou wouldest not speake peaceably with the king of the Assyrians, therefore hath God solde vs into their handes.

14 And there is no man to helpe vs, whereas we are brought downe before their eyes in thirst and great destruction.

15 Therefore geather nowe togeather all the people that be in the citie, that we may all yeeld our selues wyllyngly vnto the people of Holophernes.

16 For better it is that we be captiue, and prayse the Lorde with our liues, then to be slayne and perishe, and to be laughed to scorne, and shamed of euery man, when we see our wyues and children dye before our eyes.

17 We take heauen and earth this day to record, and the God of our fathers, whiche punisheth vs according to the deserving of our sinnes, and geue you vvarnyng that ye geue vp the citie nowe into the power of Holophernes host, that our end may be short with the sword, which els shal endure long for want of water, and for thyrst.

18 When they had spoken out these woords, there was a great weeping and howling in the whole congregatiõ, and that of euery man, and they cryed a [*] whole houre long vnto God with one voyce,

[*] Or, many houres.

[a]Psal.105.6 19 Saying, [*] We haue sinned with our fathers, we haue done amisse, we haue dealt wickedly:

20 Thou that art gratious, haue mercie vpon vs, or punishe our vnrighteousnesse with thyne owne scourge, and geue not those ouer that knowledge thee, vnto a people which knowe thee not:

21 That they may not say among the Heathen, Where is their God?

22 And when they were so weery with this crying and weeping, that they helde theyr peace, 23 Dias stood vp with watry eyes, and sayde, O take good hartes vnto you deare brethren, and be of good cheare, & let vs waite yet these fiue dayes for mercie of the Lorde.

24 Peraduenture he shall put away his indignation, and geue glory vnto his name.

25 But yf he helpe vs not when the fiue dayes are past, we shal doo as ye haue sayd.

¶ The.viii. Chapter.

The parentage, lyfe, and conuersation of Iudith.

1 AND it happened when these woordes came to ỹ eares of Judith, a wyddowe, whiche was the daughter of Merari the sonne of Idor, the sonne of Joseph, the sonne of Osia, the sonne of Elai, the sonne of Jamnor, the sonne of Gedeon, the sonne of Raphaim, the sonne of Achitob, ỹ sonne of Melchia, the sonne of Enan, the sonne of Nathania, the sonne of Salathiel, the sonne of Simeon, the sonne of Ruben:

2 And her husband was called Manasses, which dyed in the dayes of the Barley haruest.

3 For whyle he was binding the sheaues togeather in the feelde, the heate came vppon his head, and he dyed at Bethulia his citie, and there was he buried beside his fathers.

4 Nowe was Judith his desolate wyddow three yeeres and sixe moneths.

5 And in the higher partes of her house she made her selfe a priuie chamber, where she dwelt, being closed in with her maydens:

6 She ware a smocke of heare, and fasted al the dayes of her life, except the sabbothes, and newe moones, and the solemne dayes that the people of Israel kept.

7 She was a very fayre and beautifull person, her husband also had left her great richesse, a plenteous household, great vnmouable possessions, and many cattell.

8 This Judith was a woman of a very good report with euery one, for she feared the Lorde greatly: and there was no body that spake an euyl woord of her.

9 When this Judith heard how Osias had promised the people, that after the fifth day he would geue vp the citie vnto the Assyrians, she sent for the elders, Chabri and Charmi.

10 And when they came to her, she sayde, What thing is this, wherein Osias hath consented, that yf GOD helpe not within fyue dayes, he wyl geue ouer the citie to the Assyrians?

11 What are ye, that ye tempt the Lorde?

12 This deuice obteyneth no mercie of god, but prouoketh him vnto wrath and displeasure.

13 Wyll

13 Wyl ye set the mercy of the Lord a tyme, and appoint him a day after your will?
14 Neuertheleſſe, for ſo muche as the Lorde is patient, let vs rather repent in this, powring our teares, and beſeeching hym of grace.
15 For God threatneth not as a man, neyther wyl he be prouoked vnto wrath, as the children of men.
16 And therefore let vs hartily fall downe before him, and ſerue him with a meeke ſpirite, 17 And with weeping eyes, ſay vnto the Lord, that he deale with vs according to his owne will ſpeedyly in mercy: ẏ like as our hart is now vexed & brought lowe through the pride of them, it *may ſo be comforted through his grace.
18 In ſo muche as we folowe not the ſinnes of our fathers, which forſooke theyr God, & worſhipped other Gods:
19 For the whiche ſinne they periſhed with the ſworde, were ſpoyled and brought to ſhame of all theyr enimies: as for vs we knowe none other God but only him.
20 For whoſe comfort let vs tarry with meekeneſſe, and he ſhall require and make inquiſition for our blood from ẏ vexations of our enemies: he ſhal bring downe all the heathen that riſe vp againſt vs, & put them to dishonor euen the Lord our GOD.
21 Therefore deare brethren, ſeeyng ye are the honourable and elders in ẏ people of God, and their life hangeth al vpon you, lift vp their hartes with your exhortation, that they may call to remembrance howe our fathers alſo in times paſt were tempted, that they might be proued if they worſhipped their God aright.
22 They ought to remember * howe our father Abraham being tempted, and tryed through many tribulations, *was found a louer and frend of God.
23 So was Iſahac, ſo was * Jacob, ſo was Moſes: and al they that pleaſed God, paſſed ſtedfaſt in fayth through manyfolde troubles.
24 Agayne, they that receyued not their temptations with the feare of god, but put them ſelues forth with vnpatiencie & murmuring againſt God, 25 * Periſhed of the deſtroyer, and were ſlayne of ſerpentes.
26 And therefore ſhould we not vndertake to be auenged for the thynges that are doone vnto vs:
27 * But to conſider that all theſe puniſhments are farre leſſe then our ſinnes & miſdeedes, and beleeuing that this correction commeth vnto vs as to the ſeruauntes of God, for amendement, and not for our deſtruction.
28 Then ſaid Oſias and the elders vnto Judith, Al that thou ſpeakeſt is true, & no man can reproue thy wordes.
29 Pray thou for vs now therefore vnto God, for thou art an holy woman, and feareſt God.
30 And Judith ſaid vnto them, Seeyng ye knowe that my wordes are of God, 31 Then proue my counſayle and deuice if it be of God: and beſeech God that he wyll bring my counſayle to good ende.
32 Then haue I deuiſed, Ye ſhall ſtande this nyght before the porte, and I wyl goe forth with Abra my mayden: and pray ye therefore vnto God, that he wyll graciouſly remember his people of Iſrael within fiue dayes, as ye haue ſayde.
33 As for the thing that I goe in hand withall, aſke ye no queſtions of it: and tyll I bring you word agayne of it, doo ye nothyng els but pray vnto the Lord our God for me.
34 Then Oſias the prince of the people of Juda ſayde vnto her, Goe thy way in peace, the Lord be with thee, that we may be auenged of our enimies. And ſo they went from her agayne.

The.in. Chapter.

Judith humbleth her ſelfe before the Lorde, and maketh her prayers for the deliuerance of her people.

1 NOwe when they were * gone theyr way, Judith went into her cloſet, put on a heary ſmocke, ſtrawed aſhes vpō her head, fel downe before the Lorde, and cryed vnto him, ſaying,
2 O Lord God of my father Simeon, which gaueſt him a ſworde for * a defence againſt the enemies that vſed violence in theyr vncleannes, and that raviſhed the virgin, and put her to ſhame and confuſion:
3 Thou that gaueſt theyr wiues into a pray, and theyr daughters into captiuitie, and all theyr pray for a ſpoyle vnto thy ſeruantes whiche bare a zeale vnto thee: helpe me widowe, O Lorde my God, I beſeeche thee.
4 For thou haſt made the firſt thinges: and after that looke what thou haſt taken in hande and deuiſed, it came euer to paſſe.
5 For al thy wayes are prepared, and thy iudgementes are put in thy euerlaſting foreknowledge.
6 O looke now vpon the * armies of the Aſſyrians

*Or, gone vp.

*Gene. 34. 13

*Or, for reuengement of the ſtrangers.

*Or, hoſtes

Assyrians, lyke as it was thy pleasure sometime to looke vpon the boast of the Egyptians, when they beyng weaponed persecuted thy seruantes, and put theyr trust in theyr charrets, horsemen, and in the multitude of theyr men of warre.

7 But thou lookedst vpon theyr boast, castyng a thicke darkenesse before them.

8 And when they came into the deepe, the waters ouerwhelmed them.

9 Euen so Lorde, let it goe with these that trust in the power and multitude of theyr men of warre, in theyr charrettes, arrowes, and speares,

10 And knowe not that thou onely art our God, whiche destroyest warres from the begynnyng, and *that thou art the Lorde.

*Or, and that it appertayneth to thee to be called Lorde.

11 Lift vp thyne arme nowe lyke as euer from the begynnyng, and in thy power bryng theyr power to nought: cause theyr might to fal in thy wrath, which make their boast that they wyl vnhalowe and defile thy sanctuarie, and to waste the tabernacle of thy name, and to cast downe the horne of thyne aulter with theyr swoorde.

12 Bryng to passe, O Lorde, that the pryde of *the enemie may be cut downe with his owne swoorde.

*Or, of this man

13 That he may be taken with the snare of his eyes in me, and that thou mayest smite hym with the lippes of my loue.

14 O geue me a stedfast mynde, that I may despise hym and his strength, and that I may destroy hym.

15 This shall bryng thy name an euerlastyng remembrance, yf the *hande of a woman ouerthrowe hym.

*Iudi. 4. 21.

16 *For thy power, O Lorde, standeth not in the multitude of men, neyther hast thou any pleasure in the strength of horses, neither was there from the begynnyng any proude persons that pleased thee: but in the prayer of the humble and meeke hath thy pleasure been euermore.

*Iudith. 7. 2
2. Chr. 14. 11

17 O thou GOD of the heauens, thou maker of the waters, and lord of al creatures, heare me poore woman callyng vppon thee, and puttyng my trust in thy mercy,

18 Remember thy couenant, O Lorde, and minister woordes in my mouth, and stablish this deuice in my hart, that thy house may continue styl in holinesse:

19 And that al the heathen may knowe that thou art God, and that there is none other but thou.

¶ The x. Chapter.

1 Iudith decketh her selfe, and goeth foorth of the citie. 11. Shee is taken of the watch of the Assyrians, and brought to Holopherne.

1 AND when he had left of crying vnto the Lord, she rose vp from the place where she had lien flat before the Lord,

2 And called her maiden Abra, went downe into her house, laid the heary cloth from her, put of the garments of her widowhood,

3 Washed her body, annoynted her selfe with pretious thinges of sweete sauour, brayded and platted her heare, set a coyfe vppon her head, and put on suche apparell as belonged vnto gladnesse, slyppers vpon her feete, bracelettes, spanges, eare ringes, fyngerringes, and decked her selfe with all her best aray.

4 The Lorde gaue her also a special beautie and fayrenesse, for all this decking of her selfe was not doone for any voluptuousnesse, but of a right discretion and vertue: therefore did the Lorde encrease her beautie, in that she was exceeding amiable and wel fauoured in all mens eyes.

5 She gaue her mayden Abra also a bottel of wine, a pot with oyle, pottage, cake bread and cheese, and went her way.

6 Nowe when they came to the porte of the citie, they founde Ozias and the elders of the citie wayting there.

7 Which when they sawe her, they were astonyed, & marueiled greatly at her beautie.

8 Nuertheleſſe, they *asked no question at her, but let her goe, saying, The God of our fathers geue thee grace, and with his power perfourme al the deuice of thy hart, that Hierusalem may reioyce ouer thee, and that thy name may be in the number of the holy and righteous.

*Iud. 8. 33.

9 And al they that were there, said with one voyce, So be it, so be it.

10 Judith made her prayer vnto the lord, and went out at the port, she and her mayd Abra.

11 And as she was goyng downe the mountaine, it happened that about the spring of the day, the spies of the Assyrians mette with her, and tooke her, sayeing, Whence commest thou? or whyther goest thou?

12 She answeared, I am a daughter of the Hebrues, and am fledde from them: for I knowe that they shalbe geuen vnto you to be spoyled, because they thought scorne to yeeld them selues vnto you, that they might fynde mercy in your sight.

13 Therefore haue I deuised by mee selfe after this maner, I wyl goe before the prince Holopherne, and tel hym al theyr secretes, and will shew him howe he may come by them, and wyn them: so that not one man of his hoast shal perishe.

14 And when these men had hearde her woordes, and considered her fayre face, they were were astonied (for they woondred at her excellent beautie,)

15 And sayd vnto her, Thou hast saued thy life by finding out this deuice, that thou wouldest come downe to our Lorde.

16 And be thou sure, that when thou commest vnto him, he shall entreate thee well, and thou shalt please him at the hart. So they brought her in to Holophernes pauilion, and tolde him of her.

17 Nowe when she came in before him, immediatly he was ouercome and taken with her beautie.

18 Then saide his seruantes, Who woulde despise the people of the Iewes, that haue so fayre women? shoulde we not by reason fight against them for these?

19 So when Iudith sawe Holophernes sitting in a canapie, that was wrought of purple silke, golde, smaragde, and pretious stones, 20 She looked fast vppon him, bowed her selfe, and fell downe vppon the earth: and Holophernes seruants tooke her vp againe at their lordes commaundement.

¶ The xi. Chapter.

1. Holophernes comforteth Iudith, 3. and asketh the cause of her comming. 5. She deceiueth him by her fayre wwoordes.

1 Then saide Holophernes vnto her, Be of good cheare, and feare not in thyne hart: for I neuer hurt man that would serue Nabuchodonosor the king.

2 As for thy people, yf they had not despised me, I shoulde not haue lift vp my speare against them.

3 But tell me nowe, what is the cause that thou art departed from them, and wherefore art thou come vnto vs?

4 And Iudith sayd vnto him, Syr, vnderstand the woordes of thy handmayden: for yf thou wylt doo after the woordes of thy handmayden, the Lord shall bring thy matter to a prosperous effect.

5 As Nabuchodonosor the king of the earth liueth, and as his power liueth, which is in thee to the punishment of all men that goe wrong: all men shall not only be subdued vnto him through thee, but al the beastes also of the feelde.

6 For all people speake of thy prudent actiuitie, and it hath euer been reported howe thou onely art good and mighty in all his kingdome, and thy "discretion is commended in all landes.

"Discipline.

7 The thing is manifest also that * Achior spake, and it is well knowen what thou commaundedst to doo vnto him.

Iudith. 5. 5

8 For this is plaine, and of a suretie, that our God is so wroth with vs by the reason of our sinnes, that he hath shewed by his prophetes vnto the people, howe that for their sinnes he wyl deliuer them ouer vnto the enimie.

9 And for so much as the children of Israel knowe that they haue so displeased their God, they are sore afrayde of thee.

10 They suffer great hunger also, and for want of water, they are dead nowe in a maner.

11 Moreouer, they are appointed to slay all their cattell, that they may drinke the blood of them:

12 And are purposed to spend y holy things of their God, which he hath forbidden them to touche, as of corne, wine, and oyle, and they wyl consume those things which they ought not to touche with their handes: Seeing nowe that they doo these thinges, it is a plaine case that they must needes be destroyed.

13 Which when I thy handmayden perceiued, I fled from them, and the Lorde hath sent me to shewe thee these thinges.

14 For I thy handmayden worship God, euen nowe here beside thee, and thy handmaiden shal goe foorth, and I wyl make my prayer vnto God.

15 And he shal tell me when he wyll reward them their sinne, then shal I come and shewe thee, and bring thee through the middest of Hierusalem, so that thou shalt haue all the people of Israel as sheepe without a shepheard, and there shall not so much as one dogge barke against thee.

16 For these thinges are shewed me by the prouidence of God.

17 And for so much as GOD is displeased with them, he hath sent me to tell thee the same.

18 These woordes pleased Holophernes, and all his seruantes: which marueyled at the wysedome of her, and saide one to an other, 19 There is not such a woman vpon earth, in fauour, in beautie, and discretion of woordes.

20 And Holophernes saide vnto her, God hath done wel that he hath sent thee hyther before thy people, that thou mayest geue them into our handes.

21 And for so much as thy promise is good, yf thy God performe it vnto me, he shalbe my God also, and thou shalt be excellent, and great in the court of Nabuchodonosor, and thy name shalbe spoken of in all the land.

Iudith vvould not pollute her selfe vvith the meate of the Gentiles.

1 THEN commaunded he her to goe in where his treasure lay, and charged that she shoulde haue her dwelling there, and appoynted what should be geuen her from his table.

2 Iudith answeared him, and saide, As for the *meate that thou hast commaunded to geue me, I may not eate of it as nowe, lest I displease my God: but wyl eate of suche as I haue brought me. *Gen.43.32

3 Then saide Holophernes vnto her, Of these thinges that thou hast brought with thee, fayre, what shal we doo vnto thee?

4 And Iudith saide, As thy soule liueth, my lorde, thy handmayden shal not spende all this, tyll God hath brought to passe in my hand the thinges that I haue deuised. So his seruauntes brought her into the tent whereas he had appoynted.

5 And as she was going in, she desyred that she might haue leaue to goe foorth by night, and before day to her prayer, and to make intercession vnto the Lorde.

6 Then commaunded Holophernesse his chamberlaynes, that she should goe out and in at her pleasure, to pray vnto God those three dayes.

7 And so in the night season she went foorth into the valley of Bethulia, and washed her selfe in the wel water.

8 And comming vp, she besought the Lorde God of Israel that he woulde prosper her way, for the deliuerance of his people.

9 And so she went in, and remayned cleane in her tent, tyll she tooke her meate in the euenyng.

10 Vppon the fourth day it came to passe, that Holophernes made a supper vnto his seruantes, and saide vnto Vagao his chamberlayne, Goe thy way, and counsell this Hebrueesse, that she may be wylling to consent to keepe company with me.

11 For it were a shame vnto al the Assyrians, that a woman shoulde so laugh a man to scorne, that she were come from him vnmedled withal.

12 Then went Vagao vnto Iudith, and sayd, Let not the good daughter be afraide to come in to my lorde, that she may be honoured before him, that she may eate and drinke wine, and be merry with him.

13 Vnto whom Iudith answeared, Who am I that I should say my lorde nay?

14 Whatsoeuer is good and best before his eyes, I shall doo it: and looke what is his pleasure, that shall I thinke well done as long as I liue.

15 So she stoode vp, and decked her selfe with her apparell, and went in, and stoode before him.

16 And Holophernes hart was whole moued: for he brent in desire toward her.

17 And Holophernes saide vnto her, Drinke nowe, and sit downe, and be merry, for thou hast found fauour before me.

18 Then saide Iudith, Syr, I wyll drinke, for my minde is merryer to day then euer it was in all my life.

19 And she tooke, and dyd eate, and dranke before him the thinges that her maiden had prepared for her.

20 And Holophernes was merry with her, and dranke more wine then euer he dyd afore in his lyfe.

1. Iudith prayeth for strength. 10. She smiteth of Holophernes head. 12. She returneth to Bethulia, and reioyceth her people.

1 NOwe when it was late in the nyght, his seruantes made haste euery man to his lodging, and Vagao shut the chamber doores, and went his way:

2 * For they were all ouerladen with wine. *Esth.1.10

3 So was Iudith alone in the chamber.

4 As for Holophernesse, he lay vpon the bed all drunken, and of very drunkennesse fell a sleepe.

5 Then commaunded Iudith her mayden to stand without before the doore, and to wayte.

6 And Iudith stood before the bed, making her prayers with teares, and moued her lippes secretly,

7 And saide, Strengthen me, O Lord God of Israel, and haue respect vnto the workes of myne handes in this houre, that thou mayest set vp thy citie of Hierusalem, like as thou hast promised: and graunt that I may perfourme the thing, whiche in hope that it may be done by thee, I haue deuised.

8 And when she had spoken this, she went to the piller that was at Holophernes beds head, and loosed his swoord that hanged vpon it, and drewe it out:

9 And when she had taken it out of the scabberd, she tooke holde of the heary lockes of his head, and saide, Strengthen me, O Lorde God in this houre.

10 * And with that she gaue him two strokes vpon the necke, and smote of his head, then tooke thee the canapie away from the pyllers, *1.Sa.17.

pyllers, and rolled the dead body aſyde.
11 Immediatly ſhe gate her forth, and deliuered the head of Holophernes vnto her mayden, and bade her put it in her wallet.
12 And ſo theſe two went forth together after their cuſtome, as though they woulde pray: and ſo paſſed by the hoſt, and came about through the valley vnto the port of the citie.
13 And Iudith cryed a farre of vnto the watchmen vpon the wals, Open the gates, ſayde ſhe, for God is with vs, whiche hath ſhewed his power in Iſrael.
14 And when they hearde her voyce, they called the elders of the citie together.
15 And they came all to meete her, litle and great, young, and olde: for they thought not that ſhe ſhoulde haue come ſo ſoone.
16 So they lyghted candles, and geathered about her euery one: but ſhe went vp into an hygh place, and cauſed ſcilence to be proclaymed.
17 And when euery man nowe helde his peace, Iudith ſayde, O prayſe the Lord our God, for he hath not delyuered nor forſaken them that put their truſt in hym.
18 And in me his handmayden he hath performed his mercye, whiche he promyſed vnto the houſe of Iſrael: Yea, in my hande this ſame nyght hath he ſlayne the enimie of his people.
19 And with that ſhe tooke forth the head of Holophernes out of the wallet, and ſhewed it them, ſaying, Beholde the head of Holophernes the captayne of the armie of the Aſſyrians, and this is his canapie wherin he laye in his drunkennelle, where the Lord our God hath ſlayne hym by the hand of a woman.
20 But as the Lorde lyueth, his angel hath kept me, goyng thyther, remaynyng there, and commyng hyther agayne from thence: and the Lord hath not ſuffred me his handmayden to be defiled, but without any defiling of ſinne hath he brought me againe vnto you, and that with great victorie, ſo that I am eſcaped, and ye delyuered.
Pſal.105.2 21 O geue thankes vnto hym euery one, for he is gratious, and his mercye endureth for euer.
22 So they prayſed the Lorde altogether, and gaue thanks vnto hym, and to her they ſaid, The Lorde hath bleſſed thee in his power, for through thee he hath brought our enimies to nought.
23 And Oſias the cheefe ruler of the people of Iſrael, ſayde vnto her, O daughter, bleſſed art thou of the lord the hygh God, aboue al women vpon earth.
24 Bleſſed be the Lord the maker of heauen and earth, whiche hath guyded thee aryght to wounde and to ſmyte the head of the captayne of our enimies.
25 For this day he hath made thy name ſo honourable, that thy prayſe ſhal neuer come out of the mouth of men, whiche ſhal remember the power of the Lorde, ſeeyng thou haſt not ſpared thyne owne ſelfe, but put thee in jeopardie, conſyderyng the anguiſhe and trouble of thy people, and ſo haſt helped their fal before God our Lorde.
26 And all the people ſayde, Amen. Amen.
27 Achior alſo was called, & he came: then ſayde Iudith vnto hym, The God of Iſrael, vnto whom thou gaueſt witneſſe that he woulde be auenged of his enimies, euen he hath this nyght through my hande ſmytten of the head of al the vnfaythful.
28 And that thou mayeſt ſee that it ſo is, behold, this is the head of Holophernes, whiche in his preſumptuous pryde deſpyſed the God of Iſrael, and threatned thee with deſtruction, ſaying, Whē the people of Iſrael is taken, I ſhal cauſe thee alſo to be ſtickt with the ſworde.
29 When Achior ſawe Holophernes head, he fel downe vpon his face to the grounde, for very anguyſhe and feare, ſo that he ſowned withal.
30 But after that he was come agayne to hym ſelfe, he fel downe before her, and praiſed her, ſaying, 31 Bleſſed art thou of thy God in all the tabernacles of Iacob: for all the people that heare of thy name, ſhall prayſe the God of Iſrael, becauſe of thee.

¶ The.xiiii Chapter.

1. Iudith cauſeth to hang vp the head of Holophernes. 6. Achior ſayneth hym ſelfe to the people of God. 7. The Iſraelites goe out againſt the Aſſyrians.

1 IUdith ſayd vnto al the people, Brethren, heare me, *Stycke vp his head vpon our walles: *2. Mach. 15. 35.
2 And when the Sunne aryſeth, take euery man his weapon, and fal out violently: not as though ye woulde goe beſyde them, but to runne vpon them with violence.
3 When the ſpyes ſee this, they ſhall of neceſſitie be compelled to flee backwarde, and to rayſe vp their captayne to the batayle.
4 So when their captaynes come into Holophernes pauilion, and finde the dead body wrapped in the blood, fearfulneſſe ſhall fal vpon them.
5 And when ye perceyue that they flee, folowe them without al care, for God ſhall *delyuer them vnto you to be deſtroyed. *Or, the Lorde ſhall breake the vnder your feete
6 Then Achior ſeeyng the power of God, which he had shewed vnto the people of Israel, fel of from his heathenishe beleefe, and put his trust in GOD, and let hym selfe be circumcised, & so was he numbred among the people of Israel, he and al his posteritie vnto this day.

7 Nowe as soone as it was day, thy stickte vp Holophernes head vpon the walles, and euery man tooke his weapon, and so they went out with an horrible crye.

8 When the spyes sawe that, they ran vnto Holophernes tent.

9 And they that were within the tent, came before his chamber, and made a great rushyng, that Holophernes myght awake, not by stirryng hym vp, but by their noyse.

10 For there durst not one of the Assyrians knocke, goe in, or open.

11 But when the captaynes, and princes, and all the cheefe in the kyng of the Assyrians host came togeather, they sayd vnto the chamberlaynes:

12 Goe your way in, and wake hym vp: for the Mice are crept out of their holes, & dare prouoke vs vnto batayle.

13 Then Bagao went into his chamber, stoode before the *bedde, and clapped with his handes: for he thought he had been sleepyng with Judith.

14 But when he hearkened perfectlye with his eares, and coulde perceyue no stirryng, he went nygher to the *bed, and lyfte it vp, and when he sawe the dead body of Holophernes lying there without a head, welteryng in his blood vppon the earth, he cryed with a loude voyce, and with weepyng rent his clothes,

15 And went into Judiths tent, and founde her not.

16 And so he leapt out vnto the people, and sayde, One woman of the Iewes hath brought all Nabuchodonozors people to shame: for loe, Holophernes lyeth vpon the grounde, and hath no head.

17 When the cheefe of the Assyrians host hearde that, they rent their clothes, & there fel an intollerable feare and tremblyng vpon them: so that their mindes were sore afrayde.

18 And there was an exceedyng great crye in *the whole host.

*Or, curtayne.

*Or, curtayne.

*Or, myddest of the host.

¶ The.xv. Chapter.

t. The Assyrians are afrayde and flee. 6. The Israelites pursue them.

1 NOwe when all the host hearde that Holophernes was beheaded, their mynde and counsell fell from them: and beyng amazed with feare onely & tremblyng, they saued them selues by fleeyng away.

2 One spake not to another, but hanged downe their heades, left all behynde them, and made haste to escape from the Hebrues: for they hearde that they were hastyng to come after with their weapons, and so they fled by the wayes of the feldes, and throughal the footpathes of the *dales.

*Or, vnder.

3 And when the children of Israel sawe that they fled, they folowed vpon them, & went downe with Trumpettes, blowyng, and makyng a great crye after them.

4 As for the Assyrians, they had no order, and kept not them selues togeather, but fled their way: neuertheless, the children of Israel fell vppon them with one companye and order, and discomfited as many as they myght get.

5 And Ozias sent messengers vnto all the cities and countreys of Israel.

6 So all the region and euery citie sent out their best men after them in harnesse, and smote them with the swoorde, tyll they came to the vttermost part of their borders.

7 And the other that were in Bethulia, came into the tentes of the Assyrians, and tooke al that they whiche were fled had left behynde them, & so they founde great good.

8 And they that came agayne to Bethulia from the batayle, tooke with them suche thynges as had been theirs: there was no number of the cattel, & of al costly iewelles, so that from the lowest vnto the hyghest, they were all made ryche of the spoyles of them.

9 And Joachim the hygh priest, came from Hierusalem to Bethulia, with all ỹ elders, that they myght see Judith.

10 Now when she came out vnto them, they beganne all to prayse her with one voyce, saying, Thou woorthyp of the citie of Hierusalem, thou ioy of Israel, thou honour of our people.

11 Because thou hast doone manly, and thy hart is comforted, and for that thou hast loued cleanlynesse and chastitie, and hast knowen no man but thyne owne husband: therfore hath the hande of the Lorde comforted thee, and blessed shalt thou be for euer.

12 And all the people sayde, So be it, so be it.

13 In thyrtie dayes coulde the people of Israel scarse geather vp the spoyles of the Assyrians.

14 But al that belonged vnto Holophernes, and had been his specially, whether it were of golde, of siluer, pretious stone, clothyng, and all ornamentes, they gaue it vnto Judith, and it was deliuered vnto her of the the people.

15 And al the people reioyced, both women, maydens, and young people, with Pipes, and Harpes.

¶ The xvi. Chapter.

1. Iudith prayseth God with a songue. 25. She offereth to the Lorde Holophernes stuffe. 26. Her continencie, lyfe, and death. 29. All Israel lamenteth her.

1 THen sang Iudith this song vnto the Lorde, saying,

2 Begin vnto the Lorde vppon the tabrettes, syng vnto the Lord vpon the Cymbales, O syng vnto hym a newe song of thankesgeuing, be ioyful, and call vppon his name.

3 It is the Lorde that destroyeth warres, euen the Lorde is his name:

4 Whiche hath pitched his tentes in the middest of his people, that he might deliuer vs from the hande of al our enimies.

5 Assur came out of the mountaynes of the North in the multitude of his strength, his people stopped the water brookes, & theyr hostes couered the valleyes.

6 He purposed to haue brent vp my *lande, and to slay my young men with the swoorde.

7 He woulde haue caryed away my chyldren and virgins into captiuitie, but the almightie Lorde hindred hym, and deliuered hym into the handes of a woman *whiche brought hym to confusion.

8 For theyr mightie was not destroyed of the young men, it was not the sonnes of Titan that slue him, neither haue the great giantes set them selues agaynst hym: but Iudith the daughter of Merari, with her fayre beautie hath discomfited hym, and brought hym to nought.

9 For she layde away her wydowes garment, and put on the apparel of gladnesse, to the reioycing of the chyldren of Israel.

10 She amoynted her face with oyntment, and bounde vp her heare in a coyffe, and tooke a newe *stole to beguyle hym.

11 Her slippers rauished his eyes, her beautie captiuated his mynde, with the swoorde smote she of his necke.

12 The Persians were astonied at her stedfastnesse, and the Medes at her boldnesse.

13 Then howled the armies of the Assyrians, when my simples appeared dyre of thyrst.

14 The sonnes of the daughters haue pearsed them through, and slayne them as fugitiue chyldren, they perished in the battayle, *for the feare of the Lorde my God.

15 Let vs syng a song of thankesgeuing vnto the Lorde, a newe song of prayse wyl we sing vnto our God.

16 Lorde, Lorde, thou art a great GOD, mightie in power, whom no man may ouercome.

17 Al thy creatures must serue thee: *for thou spakest but the woorde, and they were made, thou sentest thy spirit, and they were created, & no man can withstand thy voyce. *Gene. 1. 1. Psal. 32. 9.

18 The mountaynes shal mooue from the fundations with the waters, the stonie rockes shal melt before thee like waxe.

19 But they that feare thee, shalbe great with thee in al thynges.

20 Wo vnto the people that rose vp against my generation: for the almightie Lord wyl auenge him selfe of them, and in the day of iudgement wyl he visite them.

21 For he shal geue fire and wormes in theyr flesshe, that they may burne and feele it for euermore.

22 After this it happened, that after the victorie, al the people came to Hierusalem, to geue prayse and thankes vnto the Lord, and when they were purified, they offered al theyr whole burnt sacrifices, and their vowes, and theyr promised offeringes.

23 And Iudith offered al Holophernes weapons, and al the vvvelles that the people had geuen her, and the canapie that she tooke from his bed, and hanged them vp *vnto the Lorde.

24 The people were ioyful as the vse is: and this ioy with Iudith, by reason of the victorie, endured three monethes.

25 So after these dayes, euery man went home agayne, and Iudith was in great reputation at Bethulia, and right honourablie taken in al the lande of Israel.

26 Unto her vertue also was chastitie ioyned, so that after her husbande Manasses dyed, she neuer knew man al the dayes of her life.

27 Upon the high solempne dayes, she went out with great worshyp.

28 She dwelt in her husbandes house an hundred and fiue yeeres, and left her handmayden Abra free, 29 And dyed, and was buryed beside her husbande in Bethulia: and al the people mourned for her seuen dayes.

30 So long as she lyued, there was none that troubled Israel, and many yeeres also after her death.

31 The day wherein this victorie was gotten, was solemply holden, and reckened of the Iewes in the number of the holy daies, as it is yet greatly holden of the Iewes euer since, vnto this day.

The.xi. Chapter after the Latine.

The dreame of Mardochem.

1 MArdocheus the ſonne of Iari, the ſonne of Semei, the ſonne of Cis, of the tribe of Beniamin,

2 A Iewe, which had his dwelling in the city of Suſis, a man of great reputation, and excellent among al them that were in the kinges court:

3 Neuertheleſſe, he was one of the priſoners whom Nabuchodonoſor the kyng of Babylon had caryed away from Hieruſalem vnto Babylon, with Iechonias the kyng of Iuda.

*4. Reg. 24. 15. Ierr. 24. 1.

4 In the ſecond yeere of the raigne of great Artaxerxes, in ỹ firſt day of the moneth Niſan, had this Mardocheus ſuche a dreame.

5 He thought he heard a great tempeſt, horrible thunderclappes, earthquakes, and great vproze in the lande,

6 And that he ſawe two great dragons, redy to fight one agaynſt another.

7 Their crye was great: at the which roaryng and crye, al the heathen were vp to fight agaynſt the ryghteous people.

8 And the ſame day was ful of darkneſſe, and very vncleare, ful of trouble and anguiſhe, yea a great fearefulneſſe was there in the lande.

9 The righteous were amaſed, for they feared the plague and cuyl that was deuiſed ouer them, & were at a poynt with them ſelues to dye: So they cryed vnto God.

10 And whyle they were crying, the litle wel grewe into a great ryuer, and into many waters.

11 And with that it was day, and the ſunne roſe vp againe: and the lowly were exalted, and deuoured the glorious and proude.

12 Nowe when Mardocheus had ſeene this dreame, he awoke, and muſed ſtedfaſtly in his hart what God woulde doo: and ſo he deſired to knowe al the matter, & his mynd was thereupon vntyl nyght.

¶ The.xii. Chapter.

Mardocheus vttereth the treaſon deuiſed agaynſt the kyng, and is therefore rewarded of hym.

1 AT the ſame tyme dwelt Mardocheus with Bagatha & Thara in the kynges court, the kynges chamberlaynes and porters of the palace.

2 But when he heard their deuiſe, and had diligently conſydered their imaginations, he perceyued that they went about to laye their cruel handes vpon the kyng Artaxerxes, and ſo he certified the kyng thereof.

3 Then cauſed the king to examine the two 'gelded with tormentes: and when they had graunted it, they were put to death. 'Or, chamberlayns.

4 This the kyng cauſed to be put in the Chronicles for an euerlaſting remembrance, & Mardocheus wrote vp the ſame matter.

5 So the kyng commaunded that Mardocheus ſhoulde remayne in the court, and for this faythfulneſſe of his he gaue hym a reward.

6 But Aman, the ſonne of Amadathu the Agagite, whiche was holden in great honour and reputation in the kinges court, vndertooke to hurt Mardocheus and his people, becauſe of the two chamberlaynes that were put to death.

¶ The.xiii. Chapter.

1. The copie of the letters of Artaxerxes agaynſt the Iewes. 9. The prayer of Mardochem.

1 THe great king Artaxerxes, which raigneth from India vnto Ethiopia, ouer an hundred and twentie and ſeuen landes, ſendeth his freendly ſalutation vnto all the princes and deputies of the countrey, whiche be ſubiect vnto his dominion.

2 When I was made lorde ouer many people, and had ſubdued the whole earth vnto my dominion, my mynd was not with cruelties and wrong to exalt mee ſelfe, by the reaſon of my power: but purpoſed with equitie alway and gentleneſſe, to gouerne thoſe that be vnder my iuriſdiction, and wholy to ſet them in a peaceable lyfe, and thereby to bryng my kyngdome vnto tranquilitie, that men might ſafely goe thoroweon

3 Now when I aſked my counſellers howe theſe thynges myght be brought to a good ende, there was one by vs excellent in wyſedome, whoſe good wyll, trueth, and faythfulneſſe hath oft been ſhewed and proued, (whith was also the principal and next vnto the kyng) Haman by name,

4 Whiche certified vs, howe that in al landes there was ſcattered abyode a rebellious folke, that made ſtatutes and lawes againſt all other people, and haue alway deſpyſed the proclaymed commaundementes of kynges, and how that for this cauſe it were not to be ſuffered, that ſuche rule ſhoulde continue by you, and not to be put downe.

5 Seeyng nowe we perceyue the ſame, that this people alone are contrarye vnto euery man, vſing ſtrange & other maner of lawes, and withſtande our ſtatutes and dooynges, and goe about to ſtablyſhe ſhrewd matters, that our kyngdome ſhoulde neuer come to good eſtate and ſtedfaſtneſſe,

6 Therefore haue we commaunded, that al they that are appoynted in wrytyng, & ſhewed vnto you by Haman, which is ordeined and ſet ouer al our lands, and the moſt principall next vnto the kyng, and in maner as a father, ſhall with their wyues and chyldren be deſtroyed and rooted out with the ſworde of their enimies and aduerſaries, and that there ſhalbe no mercy ſhewed, and no man ſpared: and this ſhalbe doone the fourteenth day of the moneth called Adar, of this yeere.

7 That they whiche of olde, and nowe alſo haue euer been rebellious, maye in one day with violence be thruſt downe into the hell, to the intent that after this maner our empire may haue peace and tranquillitie.

8 But Mardocheus thought vppon all the woorkes and noble actes of the Lorde, and made his prayer vnto hym, 9 Saying, O Lord, Lord, thou valiant and almyghty kyng, for all thynges are in thy power: and yf thou wylt helpe and delyuer Iſrael, there is no man that can withſtande nor let thee.

10 For thou haſt made heauen and earth, and what wonderous thyng ſo euer is vnder the heauen.

11 Thou art Lorde of al thynges, & there is no man that can reſiſt thy maieſtie, O Lord.

12 Thou knowest al thynges, thou wotest Lorde that it was neyther of malice nor preſumption, nor for any deſire of glory, that I would not bowe downe mee ſelfe, nor worſhyp yonder proud preſumptuous Haman:

13 (For I would haue been content, and that with good wyl, yf it myght haue doone Iſrael any good, to haue kyſt euen his foot-ſteppes.)

14 But that I dyd it becauſe I would not ſet the honour of a man in the ſteade of the glory of God, and becauſe I would worſhyp none but onely thee, my Lorde: and this haue I doone in no pryde nor preſumption.

15 And therefore, O Lorde, thou God and kyng, haue mercy vpon thy people, for they imagine how they may bryng vs to nought, yea, their minde and deſire is to deſtroy and to ouerthrow thy people that hath euer been thyne inheritance of olde.

16 O deſpyſe not thy portion, whiche thou haſt delyuered and brought out of Egypt for thyne owne ſelfe.

17 Heare my prayer, and be mercyfull vnto thy people whom thou haſt choſen for an heritage vnto thee ſelfe, turne our complayne and ſorowe into ioye, that we maye lyue, O Lorde, and prayſe thy name: O Lorde, ſuffer not the mouthes of them that prayſe thee, to be deſtroyed.

18 Al the people of Iſrael in lyke maner cried as earneſtly as they could vnto the Lord, for their death and deſtruction ſtoode before their eyes.

¶ The .xiiii. Chapter.

The prayer of Eſther for the delyueraunce of her and her people.

1 QUeene Eſther alſo being in the *batayle of death, reſorted vnto the Lorde, *Or, perill.

2 Laide away her glorious apparel, and put on the garmentes that ſerued for ſyghyng and mournyng: In the ſteade of pretious oyntment, ſhe ſcattered aſhes & doung vpon her head, and as for her body, ſhe humbled it with faſtyng, and brought it very lowe: Al the places where ſhe was woont to haue ioy afore, thoſe fylled ſhe with her owne heare that ſhe pluckt of.

3 She prayed alſo vnto the Lorde GOD of Iſrael with theſe woordes, O my Lorde, thou onely art our kyng, helpe me deſolate woman, whiche haue no helper but thee:

4 For my miſerie and deſtruction is hard at my hande.

5 *From my youth vp, I haue heard out of the kynrede of my father, that thou tookeſt Iſrael from among al people, & ſo haue our fathers of their fore elders, that they ſhoulde be thy perpetuall inheritance, and looke what thou dyddeſt promyſe them, *Deu.4.20.

thou haſt made it good vnto them.
6 Nowe Lorde, we haue ſinned before thee, therefore haſt thou geuen vs into the handes of our enimies.
7 Becauſe we worſhypped their goddes: Lorde thou art ryghteous.
8 Neuertheleſſe, it ſatisfieth them not that we are in bytter and heauie captiuitie, and oppreſſed among them, but they haue layde their handes vpon the hands of their gods,
9 So that they begin to take away the thing that thou with thy mouth haſt ordeyned and appoynted, to deſtroye thyne inheritaunce, to ſhut and to ſtoppe the mouthes of them that prayſe thee, to quenche the glorye and worſhyp of thy houſe and thyne aulter:
10 And to open the mouthes of the heathen, that they may prayſe the power and vertue of the goddes, and to magnifie the fleſhlye kyng for euer.
11 O Lorde, geue not thy ſcepter vnto them that be nothyng, leſt they laugh vs to ſcorne in our miſery and fal: but turne their deuice vppon them ſelues, and punyſhe hym that hath begun the ſame ouer vs, and ſet hym to an example.
12 Thinke vpon vs, O Lord, and ſhew thee ſelfe vnto vs in the time of our diſtreſſe, and of our trouble: ſtrength me, O thou kyng of gods, thou Lord of al power:
13 Geue me an eloquent & pleaſaunt ſpeache in my mouth before the Lion: turne his hart into the hate of our enimies, to deſtroy hym, and al ſuche as conſent vnto hym.
14 But delyuer vs with thy hande, & helpe me thy handmaide, whiche haue no defence nor helper, but onely thee Lord.
15 Thou knoweſt all thynges, thou woteſt that I loue not the glorye and worſhyp of the vnryghteous, and that I hate & abhorre the bed of all the vncircumciſed, and of all heathen.
16 Thou knoweſt my neceſſitie, that I hate the token of my preeminence and worſhip, whiche I beare vppon my head what tyme as I muſt ſhewe mee ſelfe, and be ſeene, and that I abhorre it as an vncleane cloth, and that I weare it not when I am quiet and alone by mee ſelfe.
17 Thou knoweſt alſo that I thy handmaiden haue not eaten at Hamans table, and that I haue had no pleaſure nor delyght in the kynges feaſt, that I haue not dronke the wyne of the drynke offerynges.
18 And that I thy handmaiden haue no ioy, ſynce the day that I was brought hyther, vnto this day, but onely thee, O Lorde, O thou God of Abraham.
19 O thou myghtie God aboue al, heare the voyce of them that haue no other hope, and delyuer vs out of the hande of the wycked, and delyuer me out of my feare.

¶ The.xv. Chapter.

1. Mardocheus moueth Eſther to goe in vnto the king, and make interceſſion for her people. 9. And ſhe performed his requeſt.

1 MArdocheus alſo bade Eſther goe in vnto the kyng, and praye for her people, and for her countrey.
2 Remember (ſayth he) the dayes of thy lowe eſtate, howe thou waſt nouryſhed vnder my hande: for Haman whiche is nexte vnto the kyng, hath geuen ſentence of death agaynſt vs:
3 Cal thou therfore vpon the Lord, & ſpeake for vs vnto the kyng, and delyuer vs from death.
4 And vppon the thyrde day it happened, that Eſther layde away the mournyng garmentes, and put on glorious apparell,
5 And deckt her ſelfe goodly (after that ſhe had called vpon God, whiche is the beholder and ſauiour of al thynges) and tooke two maydens with her:
6 Vppon the one ſhe leaned her ſelfe, as one that was tender:
7 The other folowed her, & bare the traine of her veſture.
8 The ſhyne of her beautie made her face role coloured, the ſimilitude of her face was chearefull and amiable: but her hart was ſorowful for great feare.
9 She went in thrugh all the doores, and ſtoode before the kyng: the kyng ſate vpon the throne of his kyngdome, and was clothed in his goodly araye, all ſhynyng with golde, and ſet with pretious ſtones, and he was very terrible.
10 He lift vp his face that ſhone in the clearneſſe, and looked grymly vpon her: then fell the queene downe, was pale & faynt, leaned her ſelfe vppon the head of the mayde that went with her.
11 Neuertheleſſe, God * turned the kynges mynde, that he was gentle, that he leaped out of his ſeate for feare, and gate her in his armes, and helde her vp tyll ſhe came to her ſelfe agayne, he gaue her louyng wordes alſo, and ſayde vnto her, *Pro.21.1.
12 Eſther, what is the matter? I am thy brother, be of good cheare:
13 Thou ſhalt not dye, for our commaundement toucheth the commons, and not thee: come nygh.
14 And with that he helde vp his golden rod, rod, and layde it vpon her necke,

15 And imbraced her freendly, and sayde, Talke with me.
Gen.33.10. Re.19.27. 16 Then sayde she, * I sawe thee O Lorde as an angel of God, and my hart was troubled for feare of thy maiestie & clearenesse.
17 For excellent and woonderfull art thou, O Lorde, and thy face is ful of amitie.
18 But as she was thus speaking vnto him, she fel downe agayne for faintnesse:
19 For the whiche cause the kyng was afrayde, and al his seruantes comforted her.

¶ The. xvi. Chapter.

The copie of the letters of Artaxerxes, whereby he reuoketh those which he first sent foorth.

Esther.1.1. 1 THe great kyng Artaxerxes, * whiche raigneth from India vnto Ethiopia, ouer an hundred and twentie & seuen landes, sendeth vnto the princes and rulers of the same landes, suche as loue hym, his freendly salutation.
Dan.3.10. 2 There be many that for the sundry freendshippes and benefites whiche are diuersly done vnto them for their worshyp, be euer the more proude and high mynded:
3 And vndertake not onely to hurt our subiectes (for plenteous benefites may they not suffer, and begin to imagine some thing agaynst those that doo them good,
4 And take not onely al thankfulnesse away from men) but in pride and presumption, as they that be vnmindeful and vnthankeful for the good deedes, they goe about to escape the iudgement of God that seeth all thynges, which iudgement hateth and punisheth al wickednesse.
5 It happeneth oft also, that they which be set in office by the hygher power, and vnto whom the businesse and causes of the subiectes are committed to be handled, waxe proude, and defile them selues with sheddyng of innocent blood, whiche bryngeth them to intollerable hurt.
6 Whiche also with false and deceytfull wordes, and with lying tales, deceyue and betray the innocent goodnesse of princes.
7 Nowe is it profitable and good that we take heede, make search thereafter, & consyder not onely what hath happened vnto vs of olde, but the shameful, vnhonest, and noysome thinges that the deputies haue nowe taken in hande before our eyes.
8 And thereby to beware in tyme to come, that we make the kyngdome quiet and peaceable for al men, and that we might sometyme drawe it to a change.
9 And as for the thyng that nowe is present before our eyes, to withstande it, and to put it downe after the most freendly manner.
10 What tyme nowe as *Haman the sonne of Amadathu the Macedonian, a stranger verily of the Persians blood, & farre from our goodnesse, was come in among vs as an aliant, *Esther.3.1.
11 And had obteyned the freendshyp that we beare towarde al people, so that he was called our father, and had in high honour of euery man, as the next and principall vnto the kyng:
12 He could not forbeare hym selfe from his pride, hath vndertaken not onely to robbe vs of the kyngdome, but of our lyfe:
13 With manifolde deceyt also hath he desyred to destroy Mardocheus our helper and preseruer, which hath done vs good in al thynges, and innocent Esther the lyke partaker of our kyngdome, with all her people.
14 For his minde was (when he had taken them out of the way, & robbed vs of them) by this meanes to translate the kyngdome of the Persians, vnto them of Macedonia.
15 But we finde that the Iewes (which were accused of the wycked, that they might be destroyed) are no cuyl doers, but vse reasonable and ryght lawes:
16 And that they be the children of the most high lyuing God, by whom the kingdome of vs, and of our progenitours, hath been wel ordered hytherto.
17 Wherefore, as for the letters and commaundements that were put foorth by Haman, the sonne of Amadathu, ye shal doo wel if ye holde them of none effect.
18 For he that set them vp and inuented them, hangeth at Susis before the porte, with al his kinrede: and God, which hath al thinges in his power, hath rewarded hym after his deseruyng.
19 And vpon this, ye shal publishe and set vp the coppie of this letter in all places: that the Iewes may freely and without hinderance holde them selues after their owne statutes:
20 And that they may be helped, and that vpon the thirteenth day of the twelfth moneth Adar, they may be auenged of them, which in the tyme of their anguishe and trouble woulde haue oppressed them.
21 For the God that gouerneth al thynges, hath turned to ioy the day wherein the chosen people shoulde haue perished.
22 Moreouer, among the hie solempne daies that ye haue, ye shal holde this day also with all gladnesse:

23 That nowe, and in tyme to come, this day may be a remembrance of good, for all suche as loue the prosperitie of the Persians: but a remembrance of destruction to those that be seditious vnto vs.

24 All cities and landes that doo not this, shal horriblie perishe, & be destroyed with the swoorde and fyre, and shal not onely be no more inhabited of men, but be abhorred also of the wylde beastes and foules.

The ende of the rest of the booke of Esther.

The wysdome of Solomon.

¶ The first Chapter.

1. How we ought to enquyre and seeche after God. 2. Who they are that finde hym.

1 LOue ryghteousnesse, ye that be *iudges of the earth: consyder deepely of the Lorde in goodnesse, and seeke hym in singlenes of hart.

*3.Reg.3.3. Esai.56.1.

2 *For he wyl be founde of them that tempt hym not, and appeareth vnto suche as put no distrust in hym.

*Deu.4.29.

3 For wycked thoughtes separate from God, and his power when it is *tryed, reprooueth the vnwyse.

4 For why? wysedome shal not enter into a wycked soule, nor dwel in the body that is subiect vnto sinne.

5 *For the holy spirite of discipline fleeth from deceyte, and withdrawe th hym selfe from thoughtes that are without vnderstanding, and is declared when wyckednesse commeth.

*Iere.4.22.

6 *For the spirite of wysedome is louyng, and wyl not absolue him that blaspheme th with his lyppes, for God is witnesse of his reynes, and a true beholder of his hart, and an hearer of his tongue.

*2.Gal.5.2.

7 For the spirite of the Lorde fylleth the rounde compasse of the worlde, & the same that vpholdeth al thyngs, hath knowledge also of the voyce.

8 Therefore he that speaketh vnryghteous thynges, can not be hyd, neyther shall the iudgement of reprooфe let hym escape.

9 And why? inquisition shalbe made for the thoughtes of the vngodly, and the sounde of his wordes shal come vnto God, so that his wyckednesse shalbe punished.

10 For the eare of iealousie heareth al things, and the noyse of the grudginges shal not be hyd.

11 Therfore beware of murmuring, which is nothyng worth, & refrayne your tongue from slaunder: for there is no worde so secrete that it shal goe for nought, and the mouth that speaketh lies, slayeth the soule.

12 O seeke not your owne death in the errour of your lyfe, *destroy not your selues through the woorkes of your owne handes:

*Deu.4.25.

13 *For God hath not made death, neyther hath he pleasure in the destruction of the lyuyng:

*Ezec.18.32.

14 For he created al thynges, that they might haue theyr beyng, and *the generations of the worlde were healthful, and there is no poyson of destruction in them, nor the kyngdome of hel vpon the earth.

*or, beginning.

15 For righteousnesse is euerlasting and immortal: but vnrighteousnesse bringeth death.

16 Neuertheles, the vngodly *cal it vnto them both with woorkes and woordes: and whyle they thinke to haue it theyr freende, they come to nought, and they haue made an agreement with it, for they are woorthie to be of her part.

*Wisd.15.6.

a. To wit, death.

¶ The.ii. Chapter.

The imaginations and desyres of the wycked, and theyr counsel against the faythfull.

1 FOr the vngodly say, reasonyng with them selues, but not aryght, Our lyfe is short and tedious, and in the death of a man there is no remedie, neyther is there any man knowen to haue returned from the graue.

2 For we are borne at al aduenture, and we shalbe hereafter, as though we had neuer ben: for our breath is as a smoke in our nosethyrilles, and woordes as a sparke raysed out of our hartes:

3 Which being extinguished, our body shalbe turned into ashes, and our spirite shall vanishe as the soft ayre.

4 Our life shal passe away as the trace of a cloude, and come to nought as the mist that is driuen away with the beames of the sunne, and put downe with the heate thereof:

of our name also shalbe forgotten by litle & litle, and no man shal haue our woorkes in remembrance.

Eccl.29.17 5 * For our tyme is a very shadowe that passeth away, and after our ende there is no returning: for it is fast sealed, so that no man commeth agayne.

Esai.22.13 6 * Come on therefore, let vs enioy the pleasures that are present, and let vs chearefully vse the creatures lyke as in youth:

7 Let vs kyl our selues with good wyne and oyntment, and let there no flowre of the tyme escape vs.

8 Let vs crowne our selues with rose buddes afore they be wythered.

a This sentence of the wicked is not in the Greke. 9 a Let there be no fayre meddowe, but our lust goe through it. Let euery one of vs be partakers of our voluptuousnesse, let vs leaue some token of our pleasure in euery place: for that is our portion, and this onely our lot.

10 Let vs oppresse the poore righteous, let vs not spare the widdow nor olde man, let vs not regarde the heades that are gray for age.

11 Let the lawe of vnrighteousnesse be our strength: for the thing that is feeble is nothyng worth.

12 Therefore let vs defraude the righteous, and why? he is not for our profite, yea, he is cleane contrary to our doings, he checketh vs for offending against the law, and slaundereth the faultes of our maner of liuing.

Matth. 27.43. 13 * He maketh his boast to haue the knowlenge of God, yea, he calleth him selfe Gods sonne.

Ioh.7.6. 14 * He is made vnto vs for reproofe of our thoughtes.

Esa.53.8. 15 * It greeueth vs also to looke vpon him, for his life is not like other mens, his wayes are of another fashion.

b, counterfaite coyne. 16 He counteth vs but * vayne persons, he withdrawyeth him selfe from our wayes as from filthynesse, he commendeth greatly the latter ende of the iust, and maketh his boast that God is his father.

17 Let vs see then if his woordes be true, let vs proue what shal happen in the end of hym.

Psal.21.9. Mat.27.43. 18 * For if the iust man be the sonne of God, he wil receiue him, and deliuer him from the handes of his enimies.

Ier.11.19. 19 Let vs examine hym with * despiteful rebuke and tormenting, that we may knowe his meekenes, and proue his patience.

20 Let vs condemne him with the most shamefull death: for as hym selfe sayth, he shalbe rewarded of God.

21 Such thinges do they imagine, and goe astray, for their owne wickednesse hath blynded them.

22 As for the mysteries of God, they vnderstand them not, they neyther hope for the rewarde of righteousnesse, nor regarde the worshyp that holy soules shal haue,

Gen.1.2 23 * For God created man to be vndestroyed, yea, after the image of his owne likenesse made he him.

Gen.3.1. 24 * Neuertheless thorow enuie of the deuill came death into the worlde, and they that healde of his side doo finde it.

¶ The iii. Chapter.

1 The conseruation and assurance of the righteous. 7. The rewarde of the faythfull. 11. VVho are miserable.

Deut.33.3. 1 BUt the * soules of the righteous are in the hande of God, and there shal no torment touche them.

Heb.11.34. 2 * In the syght of the vnwyse they appered to die, and their ende is taken for misery, 3 And their departyng from vs to be vtter destruction: but they are in rest.

Rom.8.24 4 For though they suffer payne before men, yet * is their hope ful of immortalitie.

Ecc.16.2. Deut.8.2. 5 They are punished but in few things, neuertheless in many thyngs shall they be wel rewarded, for * God proueth them, and findeth them meete for him selfe.

6 As gold in the furnace doth he trye them, and receiueth them as a burnt offering: and when the tyme commeth, they shalbe looked vpon.

Mat.13.43 7 * They shal shine and runne through, as the sparkles among the stubble, Mat.19.28 8 * They shall iudge the nations, and haue dominion ouer the people: and their lorde shal raigne for euer.

9 They that put their trust in him, shall vnderstand the trueth, and suche as be faythful, shal perseuer with hym in loue: for his Saintes haue grace and mercy, and he hath care for his elected.

Mat.25.41 10 * But the vngodly shalbe punished according to their owne imaginations, for they haue despised the righteous, and forsaken the Lorde.

b, discipline, b, he is miserable. 11 For who so despiseth wisedome and nurture, he is * vnhappy, and as for the hope of suche it is but vayne, their labours vnfrutefull, and their woorkes vnprofitable.

12 Their wiues are vndiscreete, and their children most vngodly.

13 Their offspring or progenie is cursed: wherfore blessed is the barren that is vndefiled, * which hath not knowne the sinful bed, she shal haue fruite in the visitation of soules:

Esai.56.5

14 And the geldes whiche with his hands hath hath wrought no vnryghteousnesse, nor imagined wicked thynges agaynst God: for vnto hym shalbe geuen the special gyft of fayth, and the most acceptable portion in the temple of God.

15 For glorious is the fruite of the good labour, and the roote of wisedome shall neuer fade away.

16 As for the children of adulterers, they shall not come to a perfect ende, and the seede of an vnrighteous bed shalbe rooted out.

17 And though they lyue long, yet shall they be nothyng regarded, and their last age shalbe without honour.

18 If they dye quickly, they haue no hope, neyther comfort in the day of iniquitie.

19 For horrible is the ende of the vnryghteous generation.

¶ The.iiii.Chapter.

Of vertue, and the commoditie thereof, to The death of the ryghteous, and the condemnation of the vnfaithfull.

1 O How fayre is a chaste generation with vertue: the memorial therof is immortal: for it is knowen with God and with men.

2 When it is present, men take example at it, and if it goe away, yet they desire it: it is crowned, and euer triumpheth, when it hath wonne the reward of the vndefiled battayles.

3 But the multitude of the vngodly aboundyng in children, shall profite nothyng, nor geue deepe roote by the seede of adulterie, nor lay any fast foundation.

*Jer. 17. 6. Matth. 7. 19. 4 For * though they bud foorth in the branches for a tyme, yet shall they be shaken with the winde, for they stande not fast, and through the vehemencie of the wynde they shalbe rooted out.

5 The vnperfect branches shalbe broken, their fruite shalbe vnprofitable, and sowre to eate, yea, meete for nothyng.

6 And why? all the children that are borne of the wicked bed, must beare recorde of the wickednesse agaynst their fathers and mothers when they be asked.

7 But though the ryghteous be ouertaken with death, yet shal he be in rest.

8 For honorable age is not that whiche stondeth in length of tyme, nor that that is measured by number of yeeres:

9 But a mans wysedome is the gray heare, and an vndefiled life is the old age.

*Gen. 5. 24. Heb. 11. 5. 10 He * pleased God, and was beloued of him, so that whereas he lyued among sinners, he translated hym.

11 Yea, speedely was he taken away, to the intent that wickednesse shoulde not alter his vnderstandyng, and that deceite shoulde not beguyle his soule.

12 For wickednesse with bewitching, dooth darken the honest thynges: and the lightnesse of "voluptuous desire," turneth aside the single mynde.

13 Though he was soone dead, yet fulfilled he much tyme:

14 For his soule pleased God, therefore hasted he to take hym away "from among the wicked.

15 This the people see, and vnderstand it not, they lay not vp suche thynges in their hartes, howe that the louing fauour and mercye of God is vpon his saintes, and that he hath respect vnto his chosen.

16 Thus the ryghteous that is dead, condemneth the vngodly whiche are lyuyng: and the youth that is soone brought to an ende, the long lyfe of the vnrighteous.

17 For they see the ende of the wise: but they vnderstande not what God hath deuised for him, and wherefore the Lorde hath taken hym away to be in saftie.

18 And why? they see hym, and despise hym, therefore shal god also laugh them to scorne.

19 So that they them selues shall dye hereafter without honour, yea in shame among the dead for euermore: for without any voyce shal he burst those that be puft vp, and shake them from the foundations, so that they shalbe layd as vtterly wasted: they shalbe in sorowe, and their memorial perishe.

20 So they shall come afraid in remembrance of their sinnes, and their owne iniquities before their face shal conuince them.

" Or, enuie.

" Or, chaungeth, or altereth.

" Or, from out of the myddest of wickednesse.

¶ The. v. Chapter.

1. The constantnesse of the ryghteous before their persecutors. 14. The hope of the vnfaithfulis vaine. 15. The blessednesse of the saintes and godly.

1 Then shall the ryghteous stande in great boldnesse before the face of suche as haue dealt extremely with them, and taken away their labours.

2 When they see it, they shalbe vexed with horrible feare, & shall wonder at his health, so farre beyond al that they loked for.

3 And changing their opinion, with groning for the anguishe of mynde, they shal say, This is he whom sometyme we had in derision, and iested vpon.

4 * We fooles thought his life very madnesse, and his ende to be without honour:

* Wisd. 3. 3.

5 But

5 But loe howe he is counted among the children of God, and his portion is among the saintes.

6 Therefore haue we erred from the way of trueth, the light of righteousnesse hath not shined vnto vs, and the sonne of vnderstanding rose not vpon vs.

7 We haue wearied our selues in the way of wickednesse and destruction, yea we haue gone through tedious desartes, but as for the way of the Lorde, we haue not knowen it.

8 What good hath pride done vnto vs? or what profite hath the pompe of richesse brought vs?

9 *All those thinges are passed away like a shadowe, and as a Poste that hasteth by:

*1. Chron. 29. 15.

10 As a ship that passeth ouer the waues of the water, whiche when it is gone by, the trace thereof can not be found, neither the path of it in the floodes:

*Psa. 30. 19.

11 * Or as a bird that fleeth through in the ayre, and no man can see any token where she is flowen, but onely heareth the noyse of her wynges, beating the light winde, parting the ayre through the vehemencie of her going, and fleeth on shaking her wynges, whereas afterward no token of her way can be found:

12 Or like as when an arrowe is shotte at a marke, it parteth the ayre, whiche immediatly commeth together agayne, so that a man can not know where it went through:

13 Euen so we in like maner, as soone as we were borne, began immediatly to drawe to our ende, and haue shewed no token of vertue, but are consumed in our owne wickednesse.

This verse onely in the olde interpreter.

14 Suche woordes they that haue sinned speake in the hell:

15 For the hope of the * vngodly is like a *dry thystell flowre that is blowen away with the winde, like a thinne *scumme that is scattered abrode with the storme, like as the smoke whiche is dispearsed here & there with the winde, and as the remembraunce of a straunger that tarrieth but a day, and then departeth.

*Job. 8. 9. *Or, dust. *Or, some.

*Psal. 39. 5.

16 But the *righteous shal liue for euermore, their reward also is with the Lord, and the care for them is with the highest.

17 Therefore shall they receiue a glorious kingdome, and a beautifull crowne of the Lordes hand: for with his right hand shall he couer them, and with his arme shall he defende them.

*Psal. 17. 9.

18 * His ielousie also shall take on harnesse, and he shall arme the creature to be reuenged of his enimies.

*Ephe. 6. 13

19 *He shal put on righteousnesse for a brest-plate, and take vnfaigned iudgement in steade of an helmet.

20 The inuincible shielde of equitie shal he take.

21 His fierce wrath shall he sharpen for a swoord, & the whole compasse of the worlde shall fight with him against the vnwyse.

22 Then shal the thunder boltes goe *right out of the lightwynges, and come as out of the well bent bowe of the cloudes, to the place appoynted. *Or, strayght.

23 And as from an angry casting of stones, there shal fall thicke hayles, and the water of the sea shalbe wroth against them, and the floodes shall runne roughly together.

24 Yea a mighty wind that stand vp against them, & a storme shall scatter them abrode: thus vnrighteous dealing shall bring al the land to a wildernesse, and wickednesse shal ouerthrowe the royall *seates of the mightie. *Or, thrones.

¶ The. vi. Chapter.

2. The calling of Kinges, Princes, and Iudges, vvhich are also exhorted to search vvysdome.

1 WYsdome is * better then strength: & a man of vnderstanding is more worthy then one strong. This verse is onely in the olde interpreter.

2 Heare therefore (O ye kings) and vnderstand, O learne, ye that be iudges of the endes of the earth. *Psa. 16. 32.

3 Geue eare, ye that rule the multitudes, and glory in the number of peoples.

4 * For the power is geuen you of the Lord, and the strength from the highest, whiche shall trye your workes, and search out your imaginations: *Rom. 13. 1.

5 Howe that ye being officers of his kingdome, haue not geuen true iudgement, haue not kept the law of righteousnesse, nor walked after the wyll of God.

6 Horribly, and that right soone, shal he appeare vnto you: for an hard iudgement shal they haue that beare rule.

7 Mercie is graunted vnto the lowest: but they that be in authoritie, shalbe sore punished.

8 * For he which is lorde ouer all, shal * accept no mans person, neither shall he stand in awe of any mans greatnesse: for he hath made the small and great, and careth for all alike. *Deu. 10. 17 *Or, feare. *Or, spare.

9 But the mightie shall haue the sorer tryall.

10 Unto you therefore (O ye kinges) doo I speake, that ye may learne wysdome, and not goe amisse.

11 For they that keepe holinesse * holily, shalbe iudged holy: and they that haue learned such thinges, shal finde defence. *Or, holy things.

12 Wherefore

12 Wherefore * set your delight vppon my wordes, and desire them, so shal ye " come by nurture.

13 Wysedome is a noble thing, and neuer fadeth away: yea she is easely seene of them that loue her, & found of such as seeke her.

14 She preuenteth them that desyre her, that she may shewe her selfe vnto them.

15 Who so awaketh vnto her betimes, shall haue no great trauaile: for he shal finde her sitting redy at his doores.

16 To thinke therefore vpon her, is perfect vnderstanding: and who so watcheth for her, shal quickly be dispatched of care.

17 For she goeth about seeking suche as are meete for her, she weth her selfe chearefully vnto them in * their goinges, and meeteth them with * all diligence.

18 For the vnfaigned desyre of * reformation is her beginning: to care for nurture, is loue.

19 And loue is the keeping of her lawes, and the keeping of her lawes, is the assurance of immortalitie.

20 And immortalitie maketh a man familier with God.

21 And so the desyre of wysedome leadeth to the kingdome euerlasting.

22 * Yf your delight be then in royall seates and scepters (O ye kinges of the people) set your * lust vppon wysedome, that ye may raigne for euermore.

23 O loue the light of wysedome, all ye that be rulers of the people.

24 As for wysedome, what she is, and howe she came vp, I wyl tell you, and wyll not hide the mysteries of God from you: but wyl seeke her out from the beginnyng of her nativitie, and bring the knowledge of her into light, and wyll not keepe backe the trueth, 25 Neyther wyll I haue to doo with consuming enuie: for such a man shal not be partaker of wysedome.

26 But the multitude of the wyse is the welfare of the worlde: and a wyse king is the * vpholding of the people.

27 O receiue nurture then through my wordes, and it shal doo you good.

¶ The. vii. Chapter.

VVysedome ought to be preferred aboue al thinges.

1 I Mee selfe also am a mortall man, like as all other, and am come of the earthly generation of him that was first made.

2 And in my * mothers wombe was fashioned to be flesh in the time of ten monethes, being brought together in blood, through the seede of man, & the pleasure that came with sleepe.

3 And when I was borne, I receiued lyke ayre as other men, and fell vppon the earth which is of like nature, crying & weeping at the first as al other doo.

4 I was wrapped in swadling clothes, and brought vp with cares.

5 For there is no kyng that hath hadde any other beginnyng of byrth:

6 * Al men then haue one entrance vnto life, and one going out in like maner.

7 Wherefore I desyred, and vnderstanding was geuen me: I called, and the spirite of wysedome came into me.

8 I set more by her, then by kingdomes of royall seates, and counted richesse nothyng in comparison of her.

9 * As for precious stone, I compared it not vnto her, for all golde is but a little grauell vnto her, and siluer shalbe counted but clay before her sight.

10 I loued her aboue " welfare and beautie, and purposed to take her for my light: for her light can not be quenched.

11 * All good thinges together came to me with her, and innumerable richesse through her handes.

12 And I was glad in all thinges, because wysdome went before them: and I knewe not that she was the mother of them.

13 And I my selfe learned vnfaignedly, and make other men partakers of her without enuie, and hide her richesse from no man.

14 For she is an infinite treasure vnto men: which who so vse, become partakers of the loue and frendship of God, and are accepted vnto him for the giftes of * wysedome.

15 God hath graunted me to speake what my minde conceiueth, and to thinke as is meete for the thinges that are geuen me: for it is he that leadeth vnto wysedome, and teacheth to vse wysdome aright.

16 For in his hand are both we and our wordes, yea all our wysedome and knowledge of his workes.

17 For he hath geuen me the true science of the thinges that are, so that I knowe howe the world was made, and the powers of the elementes:

18 The beginning, ending, and middest of the times, howe the times alter, howe one goeth after another, and howe they are fulfylled,

19 The course of the yeere, the ordinances of the starres,

20 The natures of liuing thinges, the furiousnesse of beastes, the power of ye winds, the imaginations of men, the diuersities of young plantes, the vertues of rootes:

21 And al such thinges as are eyther secrete or manifest, them haue I learned.

22 For

" Or, enuet my wwordes.
" Or, be instructed & learned.
" Or, in theyr wayes.
" Or, euery thought.
" Or, discipline.
" Or, health.
" Or, knowledge.
" Or, stay.
* Iob. 10. 10
* Iob. 1. 21. 1. Tim. 6. 7.
* Iob. 28. 19
* 3. Re. 3. 13.
This verse is only in the olde interpreter.

22 For wysdome, which is the worker of al things, hath taught me: for in her is the spirite of vnderstanding, whiche is holy, one only, manyfolde, subtile, "quicke, mouyng, cleare, vndefiled, playne, sweete, louyng the thyng that is good, sharpe, whiche can not be letted, doyng good,

23 Kinde to man, stedfast, sure, feere from care, hauing all "vertues, "circumspect in all thinges, and passyng through al vnderstandyng, cleane, and subtile spirites.

24 For wysedome is nimbler then all nimble thinges, she goeth through, and atteyneth to all thynges, because of her cleanesse.

25 For she is the breath of the power of God, and a pure influence flowing from the glory of the almigtie God: therefore can no defiled thyng come to her.

26 For "she is the brightnesse of the euerlastyng light, the vndefiled mirror of the maiestie of God, and the image of his goodnesse.

27 And being but one, she can doo al things: and remaynyng in her selfe, she renueth all, and in al ages of tymes entryng into holy soules, she maketh Gods frendes, and prophetes:

28 For God loueth none, yf he dwel not with wisedome.

29 For she is more beautiful then the sunne, "and geueth more light then the starres, & the day is not to be compared vnto her.

30 For vppon "the day commeth night: but wickednesse can not ouercome wysdome.

¶ The. viii. Chapter.

The effectes of vvisedome.

1 WIsedome reacheth from one ende to another mightilie, and "louingly doeth she order al thinges.

2 I haue loued her, and "laboured for her from my youth vp: I did my diligence to marrie mee selfe with her, suche loue had I vnto her beautie.

3 That she hath the company of God, it commendeth her nobilitie: yea, the Lorde of al thynges hym selfe loueth her.

4 For she is the scoolemaistresse of the knowledge of God, and the chooser out of his woorkes.

5 If "a man would desire riches in this life, what is richer then wisedome that woorketh al things?

6 For if prudencie woorke, what is it among al thinges that woorketh better?

7 And if a man loue righteousnesse, her labours are but vertues: For why? she teacheth sobernesse & prudence, "righteousnesse and strength, which are such things as men can haue nothing more profitable in their life.

8 If a man desire muche "knowledge, she can tel the things that are past, & discerne things for to come: she knoweth the subtilties of wordes, & can expound darke sentences: shee foreseeth signes & wonders or euer they come, to passe, and the "endes of al times and ages.

9 Therefore I purposed after this maner: I will take her into my companie, that she may liue with me, knowing for certainetie she shall geue me good counsaile, and speake comfortably vnto me in my carefulnesse and greefe,

10 For her sake shal I be wel and honestly taken among the commons, and with honor among the elders though I be young.

11 I shalbe found to be of sharp iudgement, so that I shalbe marueylous in the sight of great men: "and the faces of princes shall woonder at me.

12 When I holde my tongue, they shall bide my leysure, and when I speake, they shall geue good eare vnto me, & if I talke muche they shal lay their hands vpon their mouth.

13 Moreouer, by the meanes of her, I shall obteyne immortalitie, and leaue behynde me an euerlasting memorial among them that come after me.

14 I "shall set the people in order, and the nations shalbe subdued vnto me.

15 Horrible tyrantes shalbe afrayde when they hoo but heare of me, among the multitude I shalbe counted good, and mightie in battayle.

16 When I come home, I shall find rest with her: for her companie hath no bitternesse, and her felowshyp hath no tediousnesse, but mirth and ioy.

17 Now when I considered these thinges by me selfe, and pondered them in my hart, how that to be ioyned vnto wisedome is immortalitie, 18 And great pleasure to haue her frendshyp, & that in the woorkes of her handes are infinite riches, and that who so "keepeth companie with her, shalbe wyse, and that he which talketh with her shal come to honour: I went about seekyng howe to get her vnto me.

19 For I was a lad of ripe wit, and had a good "understanding.

20 "But when I grewe to more understandyng, I came to an vndefiled body.

21 Neuertheless when I perceiued that I could not enioy it, except god gaue it me, and that was a poynt of wisedome also to know whose gyft it was, I stepped vnto the Lord, and besought hym, and with my whole hart I sayd after this maner.

¶ The x. Chapter.

The deliuerance of the righteous, and destruction of the enemies commeth through vvisedome

1 SHE preserued the first fourmed father of the worlde that was created alone, and brought hym out of his fal,

2 * And gaue hym power to rule all thinges. * Gen. 2. 20

3 But when the vnrighteous went away in his wrath from her, * he perished by the furious desire to murder his brother. * Gen. 4. 8.

4 For whom when the water * destroyed the whole world, wisedome agayne preserued it her selfe, gouerning the iust man by no coslly woorke of wood. * Gen. 7. 21.

5 *Moreouer, when the nations were confounded or ioyned togeather in their malicious confederacie, she found out the righteous, & preserued him faultlesse vnto god, & kept him strog against the loue of his sonne. * Gen. 11. 1.

6 *She preserued the righteous when he fled from the vngodly that perished, what time as the fire fell downe vppon the fiue cities. * Gen. 19. 17

7 Like as yet this day the vnfruitfull wall and smokyng lande geueth testimony of their wickednesse, yea the "vnrype and vnprofitably fruites that grow vpon the trees, & for a token of a remembrance of the vnfaithfull soule, there standeth a piller of salt. " Or, vnrype.

8 For al such as regarded not wisedome, gat not only this hurt, that they knewe not the thynges which were good: but also left behinde them vnto men a memoriall of their foolishnesse, so that in the thynges wherein they sinned, they coulde not be hyd.

9 But as for suche as tooke heede vnto wisdome, she hath deliuered them from sorow.

10 *When the righteous fled because of his brothers wrath, "wisedom ledde him the ryght way, shewed him the kyngdome of God, gaue him knowledge of holy thinges, made him rich in his labours, and brought to passe the thynges that he went about. * Gen. 28. 5 " Or, she.

11 In the "deceitfulnesse of suche as defrauded " Or, enuiousnesse, fraudes him, she stoode by him, and made him riche.

12 She saued him from the enimies, and defended him from the * deceiuers: in a strong battayle she gaue him the victory, that he might knowe how that the feare of God is stronger then all thinges.

*Or, here in prayer.

Gen.37.28. Iudg.7.10.

13 * When the righteous was solde, she forsooke him not, but deliuered him frō sinne: she went downe with him into the * dungeon,

Gen.41.40

14 * And kayled him not in the bandes, tyll she had brought him ỹ sceptre of ỹ realme, and power against those that oppressed him: as for them that had accused him, she declared them to be lyers, and brought him to perpetuall * worshipp.

*Or, glory.

*Exod.1.6.

15 * She deliuered the righteous people, and faultlesse seede, from the nations that oppressed them.

*Exod.3.10

16 * She entred into the soule of the seruant of the Lorde, and stoode by him in woonders and tokens againſt the dreadfull kinges.

*Or, the saintes.

17 She gaue the * rightеous the rewarde of their labours, and led them forth a marueylous way: on the day time she was a shadowe vnto them, and a light of starres in the night season.

*Exod.14.21

18 * She brought them through the redde sea, and carried them through the great water.

19 But she drowned their enimies in the sea, but brought them out of the bottome of the deepe.

*Exod.12.37. *Exod.15.1.

20 * So the rightеous tooke the spoyles of the vngodly, and * prayſed thy holy name, O Lorde, and magnified thy victorious hand with one accord.

21 For wysdome openeth the mouth of the dumbe, and maketh the tongues of babes to be eloquent.

i. The myracles done for Israel. 13. The vengeance of sinners. 18. The great power and mercie of GOD.

*Or, directed, or prospered.

1 SHE * ordered their workes in the * hands of the holy prophete:

*Exod.16.1

2 So that they went through the wylderneſſe that was not inhabited, and pitched their tentes in the wast desart.

*Exo.17.12.

3 * They stoode against their enimies, and were auenged of their aduersaries.

*Num.20.11.

4 * When they were thyrſtie, they called vpon thee, and water was geuen them out of the most high rocke, and their thirſt was quenched out of the hard stone.

*Or, they, that Israelites.

5 For by the thinges wherethrough theyr enimies were punished, were the children of Israel helped in their neede.

6 For in steede of a fountayne of the perpetuall runnyng flood, all troubled with gorie blood,

7 In reproche of the commaundement published to murder the infantes, thou gauest vnto them abundance of water, and that not looked for neyther:

8 Declaring by that thirſt then, howe thou hadst punished thyne aduersaries.

*Exo.7.20.

9 * For when they were tryed and nurtured with fatherly mercie, they knewe howe the vngodly were iudged and punished in the wrath of God.

*Dent.8.2.

10 * For these hast thou exhorted as a father, and proued them: but vnto the other thou hast been a boysterous king, * laydehard to their charge, and condemned them.

*Or, examined them straytly.

11 Whether they were absent or present, their punishment was alike.

12 For their greefe was double, and mourning for the remembrance of thynges past.

13 For when they perceiued that their punishmentes did them good, they * thought vpon the Lorde.

*Or, they sayd.

14 For whom, in his casting out before as an abiect, they had denied with derision, him in the ende, when they sawe what happened, they woondered at: for they were of an other thynſt then was the iuſt.

15 But for the foolishe deuises of their wickednesse, wherewith being deceiued, they woorshipped serpentes that had not the vſe of reason, and vile beastes, thou sentest a multitude of vnreasonable beastes vppon them for reuengeance:

16 That they might knowe, that looke wherewithal a man sinneth, by the same also shall he be punished.

17 For vnto thy almightie hand that made the worlde of nought, it was not vnpossible to send among them an heape of Beares, or wood Lions,

18 * Or cruel beastes of a strange kind, suche as are vnknowen, or spoute fyre, or cast out a smoking breath, or shoote horrible sparkes out of their eyes:

*Leui.16.20 Sapi.16.1. Jerem.8.17.

19 Whithe might not onely destroy them with hurting, but also kyll them with their horrible sight.

20 Yea, without these beastes might they haue been slayne with one wynde, being persecuted by the reuengeance, and scattred abrode through the breath of thy power: neuertheleſſe, thou hast ordered all thinges in measure, number, and weyght.

21 For thou hast euer hadde great strength and might, and who may withstand the power of thyne arme?

22 For why? like as the small thing that the ballance weyeth, so is the world before thee: yea as a droppe of the morning dewe that falleth downe vpon the earth:

the

*Rom.2.4. 23 * But thou hast mercie vppon all, for thou hast power of all thinges, and makest thee as though thou sawest not ỳ sinnes of men, because they should amende.

24 For thou louest all the thinges that are, and hatest none of them whom thou hast made: for thou wouldest not haue made any thing, yf thou hadst hated it.

25 Yea, howe might any thing endure, yf it were not thy wyl? or howe could any thing be preserued, except it were called of thee?

26 But thou sparest all, for they are thyne, O Lorde, thou louer of soules.

¶ The xii. Chapter.

The mercie of God towarde sinners. 14. The vvoorkes of God are vnreprouable. 19. God geueth leysure to repent.

1 FOR thy vncorruptible spirite, O lord, is in al thinges.

2 Therefore chastenest thou them measurably that goe wrong, and warnest them, by putting them in remembrance in what thinges they haue offended, that leauing their wickednes, they may beleeue on thee, O Lorde.

*Deu.9.3. and.12.29. 3 * As for those olde inhabiters of thy holy land, thou mightest not away with them:

4 For they committed abominable workes against thee, as witchcraft, sorcerie, and wicked sacrifices:

5 They slue their owne children without mercie, they did eate vp the bowels of mens flesh, and deuoured the blood as abominable banquettes, and had their mad fannaticall priestes:

6 And the fathers were the cheefe murderers of the soules destitute of helpe, these doers thou wouldest destroy by the handes of our fathers:

7 That the land which thou louest aboue al other, might be a meete dwelling for the children of God.

8 Neuertheles, thou sparedst them also as men, and sendedst the forerunners of thyne host, euen hornettes, to destroy them out by little and little.

9 Not that thou wast vnable to subdue the vngodly vnto the righteous in battayle, or with cruel beastes, or with one rough word to destroy them together:

*Exo.25.23.10 Deut.7.22. 10 * But thy minde was in punishing them by little and little, to geue them place for amendement, knowyng well that it was an vnrighteous nation, and wicked of nature, and that their thought might neuer be altered:

11 For it was a cursed seede from the beginnyng, yet hast thou not pardoned their sins wherein they offended, for that thou fearest any man.

12 * For who dare say vnto thee, what hast thou done? or who wyll stand against thy iudgement? or who wyll blame thee for the nations that perish, whom thou hast made? or who wyll come before thy face, to be reuenged for the vnrighteous men? *Rom.9.20

13 For there is none other God but thou, that carest for all thinges, that thou mayest declare howe that thy iudgement is not vnright. 1.Pet.5.7.

14 There dare neyther king nor tyrant, in thy sight, require accomptes of them whom thou hast "destroyed. "Or, punished.

15 For so muche then as thou art righteous thee selfe, thou ordereſt al thinges righteously, thinking it vnseemely for thy power to condemne him that hath not deserued to be punished.

16 For thy power is the beginnyng of righteousnesse, and because thou art lorde of all thinges, it maketh thee to be gratious vnto all.

17 For when men thinke thee not to be of a full strength, thou declarest thy power, and reproouest the boldnesse of the wyse.

18 But thou "maistering thy power, doest iudge with equitie, and orderest vs with great fauour: for thou mayest vse power when thou wylt. "Or, ruling.

19 By such woorkes nowe hast thou taught thy people, that the iust man shoulde be louing, and hast made thy children to be of a good hope, because thou geuest roome to repentance for sinnes.

20 For in so much as thou hast punished, and with suche deliberation and obtestation, the enimies of thy seruants which were woorthy to dye, where through thou gauest them time and place of amendement, that they might turne from their wickednesse:

21 With howe great circumspection then punishest thou thyne owne children, vnto whose fathers thou hast swoorne, and made couenantes of good promises?

22 So whereas thou dost chasten vs, thou "punishest our enimies a thousande tymes more: to the intent that when we punishe, we should diligently thinke of thy goodnes, and when we our selues are "punished, we should hope for mercie. "Or, scourge. "Or, iudged.

23 Wherefore, whereas men haue liued dissolutely and vnrighteously, thou hast punished them for with their owne abomi-nations,

nations.

24 * For they went astray very "long in the wayes of errour, and held the beastes (whiche euen their enimies despysed) for gods, deceyued as chyldren of no vnderstandyng.

25 Therfore hast thou sent them thy iudgement in scorne, as to chyldren voyde of reason.

26 As for suche as wyl not be reformed by thole scornes and rebukes, they shall feele the worthy "punyshment of God.

27 For looke in what thynges they "disdeyned whē they "suffred for their sakes whom they counted gods, seeyng them selues punyshed in the "same, they perceyued that he was in deede the true God, whom before they had denied to knowe, & therefore came extreme damnation vpon them.

¶ The. xiii. Chapter.

1. All thynges be vayne, except the knowledge of God. 10. Idolaters and idolles are mocked.

1 SUrely vayne are all men by nature, whiche were ignorannt of God, and * could not out of the good thingsthat are seene, know him that of him selfe is euerlastyng, neither tooke so muche regarde of the workes that are made, as thereby to knowe who was the craftes man of them:

2 "But some tooke the fyre, some the winde or swyft ayre, some the course of the starres, some the runnyng water, some tooke Sunne and Moone, or the lyghtes of heauen, for gods that rule the worlde.

3 But though they had such pleasure in their beautie, that they thought them to haue been goddes, yet shoulde they haue knowen howe muche more "fayer he is that made them: for the "maker of beautie hath ordeined al these thynges.

4 Or yf they marueyled at the power and worke of them, they should haue perceiued thereby, howe muche he whiche made these thynges, is myghtier then they.

5 For by the greatnesse of the beautye and of the creatures, the "maker therof, compared with them, may playnely be "knowen.

6 Notwithstandyng, they are the lesse to be blamed that seeke God, and woulde fynde hym, and yet peraduenture "mysse:

7 "For they beyng occupied in his workes, do seeke hym diligently, and are perswaded by the sight, because the thynges are beautiful that are seene.

8 Howbeit, yet neyther are they to be excused.

9 For yf their vnderstandyng and knowledge be so great, that they can "discerne the worlde and the creatures, why doo they not rather finde out the Lorde thereof?

10 But miserable are they, and "among the dead is their hope, that call them goddes which are but the woorkes of mens handes, golde, siluer, and the thyng that is founde out by "cunnyng, the similitude of beastes, or anye vayne stone that hath been made by hand of olde.

11 * Or as when a Carpenter cutteth downe a tree meete for the purpose, & pareth of all the barke cunnyngly, and so by art comely maketh a vessel profitable to the vse of lyfe:

12 And with that whiche is cut of from his woorke, doeth dresse his meate to fyll his belly:

13 And as for the other part that is left, whiche is profitable for nothyng (for it is a crooked peece of wood, & full of knobbes) he carueth it diligently by leysure, and according to the knowledge of his cunnyng, he geueth it some proportion, fashioneth it after the similitude of a man, 14 Or maketh it like some vile beast, straketh it ouer with red, and paynteth it, and looke what foule spot is in it, he casteth some colour vpon it.

15 Then maketh he a "conuenient tabernacle for it, setteth it in a wal, and maketh it fast with iron:

16 Prouidyng so for it, lest it happen to fal, "for it is wel knowen that it can not helpe it selfe: for why? it is but an image, and must of necessitie be helped.

17 Then makyng prayer for his goddes, for his marriage, and for chyldren, he is not ashamed to speake to that whiche hath no soule.

18 For health, he maketh his petition vnto hym that is "sicke: for lyfe, he humbly praieth vnto hym that is dead: he "calleth vpon hym for helpe, that hath no experience at al: and to sende hym a good iourney, he praieth hym that may not goe.

19 And for gayne, for worke, and for successe of his affayres, he asketh power of hym whiche is without al maner of power.

11 Therefore shal there a plague come vpon the idolles of the heathen: for out of the creature of God they are become an abomination, a "temptation vnto the soules of men, and a snare for the feete of the vnwyse.

"Or, a slaunder and offence, or stumblyng blocke.

"Or, the corruption.

13 For they were not from the begynnyng, neyther shal they continue for euer.

14 The vayne glory of men hath found them out vppon earth, therefore shall they come shortly to an ende.

15 For when a father mourned heauylye for his sonne, "so dainly taken away from him, he made him an image: and him which the was but a dead man, he nowe beganne to worshyp as a God, and ordeyned for his "seruantes ceremonies and sacrifices.

"Or, soone.

"Or, subiectes.

16 Thus by processe of tyme this "vngratious custome beyng waxen strong, was kept as a lawe, and images were worshypped by commaundement of tyrantes.

"Or, wycked.

17 As for those that were so farre of, that men myght not worshyppe them present, their visage being drawen out from farre of, was made as the "cleare image of an honourable kyng, that they myght with "affection flatter as well the absent as the present.

"Or, gorgeous.

"Or, diligence.

18 Agayne, the singuler ambition of the craftes man gaue the ignorant also a great occasion to encrease the superstition.

19 For he wyllyng to please one, peraduenture that "bare rule, laboured with al his cunnyng to make the image of the best fashion.

"Or, vse of authority.

20 And so through the beauty of the worke, the "common people beyng therto allured, tooke hym nowe for a God, whiche a litle before was but honoured as a man.

"Or, multitude.

21 And this was to the deceyuyng of mans lyfe, when men eyther with calamitie or tyrannie oppressed, ascribed vnto stones and stockes that name of God whiche ought not to be geuen to any thyng els.

22 Moreouer, this was not ynough for them, that they erred in the knowledge of God: but whereas they lyued in the great warre of ignorance, those so many and great "plagues, called they peace.

"Or, euilles.

23 *For eyther they slue their owne children, and offered them in sacrifice, or vsed secrete ceremonies, or folowed mad drunken dissolutenesse of rytes in sacrifice.

*Deu.18.10. Jerem.7.9. and.10.4.

24 So that they kept neyther lyfe nor matriage cleane: but eyther one slue another trayterously, or greeued hym by adulterie.

25 So that there raigned in al men without exception, blood, manslaughter, theft, "dissimulation, corruption, vnfaythfulnesse, sedition, periurie,

"Or, deceyte,

26 Disquietyng of good men, vnthankfulnesse, defilyng of soules, changing of birth, disorderyng of marriages, adulterie, and vncleannesse.

27 For why? the honoryng of "abominable images, is the begynnyng, the cause and ende of al euyl.

"Or, of idolles that ought not ones to be named of vs.

28 For they that worshyp idolles, eyther they are madde when they be merry, or prophecie lyes, or lyue "vngodlye, or els lyghtly for-sweare them selues.

"Or, vnlustily.

29 For in so muche as their trust is in the idolles whiche haue no "soule, though they sweare falsly, yet they thynke it shall not hurt them.

"Or, lyfe.

30 Therfore commeth a great plague vpon them, and that worthyly for both causes: for they haue an euyll opinion of God that geue heede vnto idolles, and they sweare vnlustily in deceyte, despysyng holynesse.

¶ The.xv. Chapter.

The voyce of the faythfull prayssing the mercie of God, by vvhose grace they serue not idolles.

1 BVt thou, O our GOD, art gratious, true, and long sufferyng, and in mercie ordereſt thou al thynges.

2 Though we sinne, yet are we thine, for we knowe thy strength: but we wyl not sinne, because we knowe we are counted thyne.

3 For to knowe thee, is perfect righteousneſſe: yea to knowe thy power, is the roote of immortalitie.

4 As "for the thing that men haue found out through theyr euyl science, it hath not deceyued vs, nor the paynters vnprofitable labour to vvit an image "spotted with diuers colours,

5 Whose sight entiſeth the ignorant to lust after it, & he desireth the "picture of a dead image that hath no breath.

6 Both they that make them, they that desire them, and they that worshyp them, loue euyls, and are worthie to haue such things to trust vpon.

Num.9.20 7 "For the potter tempereth soft earth, labooreth it, and geueth it the fashion, of what so euer vessel serueth for our vse: and of the selfe same clay he maketh both the vessels that serue for cleane vses, and also suche as serue to the contrarie: whereunto euery vessel serueth, the potter hym selfe beyng the iudge.

8 So by his wycked labour he maketh a vayne God of the same clay, this doeth euen he which a litle before was made of earth hym selfe, and within a litle while after returneth to the same out of which he was taken, when the loue of his lyfe shalbe demaunded from hym agayne.

9 Notwithstanding he careth not the more for this that he must labour, nor that his lyfe is short: but striueth to excel goldesmythes and siluersmythes, and endeuoureth to doo lyke the coppersmythes, and taketh it for an honour to make "deceyueable thynges.

10 His hart is but ashes, his hope is more vayne then earth, and his lyfe of "lesse honour then clay, 11 For asmuch as he knoweth not his owne maker, that gaue him his soule of power to worke, and breathed in him the breath of lyfe.

12 But they counted our lyfe but a passtime, and our conuersation to be but a market for gayne, and that men shoulde euery way be geatting, yea though it were by euyl meanes.

13 Nowe he that of earth maketh frayle vessels and images, knoweth him selfe to offende aboue al other.

14 Al the enimies of thy people that holde them in subiection, are most vnwyse, and are more miserable then very "fooles.

15 For they iudge al the idols of the heathen to be goddes, which neyther haue *eyesight to see, nor noses to "smel, nor eares to heare, nor fingers or handes to grope, and as for theyr feete they are to sloowe to goe.

16 For man made them, and he that borowed his owne spirite fashioned them: but no man can make a god like vnto hym selfe.

17 For seeing he is but mortal, it is but mortall that he maketh with vnryghteous handes: he hym selfe is better then they whom he worshippeth, for he lyued, as they dyd neuer.

18 Yea they worshipped such beastes also as are "most hateful: for if they were compared, for "madneſſe they are woorse then others.

19 Neither haue they any beautie why to be desired in respect of other beastes: but are al voyde of the prayse of GOD, and his blessyng.

¶ The xvi. Chapter.

1. The punishment of idolaters. 20. The benefites done vnto the faythfull.

1 THerefore by such thinges are they worthily punished, and through the multitude of beastes are they "rooted out.

2 In steede of the which punishments, thou hast *gratiously ordered thine owne people, preparyng for the desyre of theyr appetite, a strange taste, euen quayles to be theyr meate:

3 To the intent that by the thynges which were shewed and sent vnto them, they that were so greedie of meate, might beginne to lothe euen theyr necessarie appetite, & they which had suffered penurie for a short space, might be partakers of the new taste.

4 For it was requisite that without any excuse powertie shoulde come vpon those whiche vsed tyrannie, and to shewe onely vnto the other howe theyr enimies were "destroyed.

5 For when the * cruel "woodneſſe of the beastes came vpon them, and they perished through the stinges of the cruel serpentes, not vvithstanding thy wrath endured not perpetually.

6 But they were "put in feare for a litle season, that they might be reformed, hauyng a "token of saluation, to remember the commaundement of thy lawe.

7 For he that looketh backe to it, was not healed by the thyng that he sawe, but by thee, O sauiour of al.

8 So in this thou shewest our enimies, that it is thou which deliuerest from al euyl.

*Exod.10.4 Apoc.9.7. 9 *For then when they were bitten with grasshoppers, and flyes, they dyed, neyther was there any remedie found for their lyfe, for they were woorthie to be punished by suche.

10 But not the very teeth of venemous dragons did ouercome thy children: for thy mercy was euer by them, and healed them.

11 For they were pricked, because they should remember thy wordes, but speedily were they healed agayne, lest they should fal into so deepe forgetfulnesse, that they might not be called backe by thy benefite.

12 For it was neyther herbe nor plaster that restored them to health: but thy word, O Lorde, which healeth al thynges.

*Deu.32.39 1.Sam.2.2. 13 *It is thou, O Lorde that hast the power of lyfe & death, thou leadest "vnto deathes doore, and bryngest vp agayne.

"Or, downe to hel gates. 14 A man in deede through his wickednesse may slay another, but when his spirit is gone foorth, it turneth not agayne, neyther may he cal agayne the soule that is taken away.

15 But it is not possible to escape thy hand.

*Exod.9.23 16 *For the vngodly that would not knowe thee, were punished by the strength of thine arme: with strange raynes, hayles, and showres were they persecuted that they coulde not auoyde, and through fyre were they consumed.

17 For it was a woonderous thyng that fyre might doo more then water whiche quencheth al thynges: but the worlde is the auenger of the ryghteous.

18 For sometimes was the fire so tame, that the beastes which were sent to punishe the vngodly brent not, and that because they shoulde see and knowe that they were persecuted with the punishment of God,

19 And sometyme brent the fyre in the middest of the water, that it might destroy the fruites of the vniust lande.

*Exo.16.14. 20 In steede whereof, thou hast fedde thine owne people with angels foode, and sent them bread redy from heauen without their labour, "beyng very pleasant and of good taste.

"Or, beyng of force for all pleasures, and apt to euery taste.

21 For this thy substance vnto thy children declared thy sweetenesse, and seruing to his appetite that tooke it, tempered it selfe according to his desyre.

*Exo.9.23. 22 *But the snowe and yce abode the violence of the fyre, and melted not, that they might knowe that the fyre burnyng in the hayle, and sparkelyng in the rayne, destroyed the fruite of the enimies.

23 The fyre also forgate his owne strength agayne, that the ryghteous might be nourished.

24 For the creature that serueth thee which art the maker, is fierce in punishing the vnryghteous, but is easie and gentle to doo good vnto suche as put their trust in thee.

25 Therefore did it alter at the same time into al fashions, & was obedient vnto thy grace, which is the nurse of al thynges, according to the desire of them that had neede thereof:

*Deut.8.3. Mat.4.4. 26 *That thy children, O Lorde, whom thou louest, might knowe that it is not the "growyng of fruites that feedeth men, but that it is thy worde which preserueth them that put their trust in thee.

"Or, increase and nourish.

"Or, melde. 27 For looke what "might not be destroyed at al with the fire, assoone as it was warmed with a litle sunne beame, it melted:

28 That al men might knowe, that thankes ought to be geuen vnto thee before the sunne ryse, and that thou oughtest to be "worshipped before the day spring.

"Or, repaired to. 29 For the hope of the vnthankful, shal melt away as the winter yce, and flowe away as vnprofitable water.

¶ The.xvii. Chapter.

The iudgementes of God agaynst the vnryghteous.

1 FOr great are thy iudgementes O Lorde, and can not be expressed: therefore men doo erre that wyl not be reformed by thy wysedome.

2 For when the vnryghteous thought to haue thy holy people in subiection, they were bound with the bondes of "darknesse and long night, shut vp vnder rookes, and lay there to escape the eternal prouidence.

*Exo.10.23

3 And while they thought to be hyd in the darknesse of their synnes, they were scattered abrode in the very middest of the darke couerynge of forgetfulnesse, put to horrible feare, and "woonderously vexed.

"Or, astonied with sights of strange apparitions.

4 For the corner where they lay hyd, might not keepe them from feare, because the soundes came rounde about them, and vexed them, yea many terrible and "strange visions appeared vnto them,

"Or, phantasticall with vnfeigned countenance.

5 No power of the fyre might geue them light, neyther might the cleare flames of the starres lighten the horrible nyght:

6 But there appeared vnto them sodayne fyre onely, very dreadful: at the whiche sight, wherin they saw nothing throughly, they they were ſo afrayde, that they thought the thing which they ſawe to be "the more fearful.

"Exo.7.29. 7 "As for the illuſions of the magicall art, they came to nought, and it was a moſte ſhameful reproche of the pride that they had of their owne wyſedome.

8 For they that promyſed to dryue away the feares and troubles from the ſicke ſoule, were ſicke them ſelues with feare, worthy to be laughed at.

9 For though no terrible thyng dyd feare them, yet were they afrayde at the beaſtes whiche paſſed by them, and at the hiſſyng of the Serpentes.

10 In ſo muche that with tremblyng, they "ſowned, and "ſayde that ſawe not the ayre, which no man yet may eſcape.

11 For malice is a dreadfull thyng that is condemned by his owne witneſſe: and being preſſed with conſcience, it euer "ſuſpecteth cruel thynges.

12 For feare is nothyng els but a "betrayeng of the ſuccours whiche reaſon offereth.

13 And looke howe muche the leſſe his hope is within, the greater doeth he recount his ignorance of that cauſe that bryngeth the torment.

14 But they that dyd endure the nyght that in deede was intollerable, and that came from the dungeons of intollerable hell, ſlepyng the ſame ſleepe, 15 Were ſometymes chaſed with monſtruous apparitions, and ſometymes they ſowned as their owne ſoules had betrayed them: for an haſtie feare, and that was not looked for, came vpon them.

16 And thus whoſoeuer was there fallen, he was in priſon, but without chaynes.

17 For whether a man had occupied huſbandry, or had been an heardman, or laborer in the "woods, yf he were taken, he ſuffered "intollerable neceſſitie.

19 For they were al bound with one chayne of darkeneſſe: whether it were a blaſyng wynde, or a ſweete ſongue of the byrdes among the thycke branches of the trees, or the vehemencie of haſtie runnyng water, 19 Or great noyſe of the fallyng downe of ſtones, or the runnyng of playing beaſtes, whiche they ſawe not, or the myghty noyſe of rorying wylde beaſtes, or the "ſound that anſwearen agayne in the holownes of mountaynes: theſe terrible thynges made them ſowne for very feare.

20 For all the "earth ſhyned with cleare lyght, and no man was hyndered in his labour.

21 Only vpon them there fel an heauy night, an image of darkneſſe that was to come vpon them: yea they were vnto them ſelues more heauy then darkneſſe.

¶ The xviii. Chapter.

3. The fiery pyller that the Iſraelites had in Egypt.

8. The deliuerannce of the faythful.

1 NEuertheleſſe, thy "ſaintes had a very great lyght, whoſe voyce they hearyng, and not ſeeyng their figure, for that they ſuffered not the ſame thynges, they thought them bleſſed. "Exo.10.23

2 And for that they dyd not hurt them nowe of whom they had been wronged before, they thanked them, and beſought them pardon of that they had been enimies.

3 "Therefore thou gauelt them a burnyng pyller of fyre to leade them in the vnknowen way, and the Sunne not to hurt them in their honourable iourney. "Exo.13.21. Pſal.77.14.

4 But reaſon it was that they ſhoulde leeſe the lyght, and be put in the priſon of darkeneſſe, whiche had kept thy children "ſhut vp, by whom the vncorrupt light of the law was to be geuen vnto the worlde. or, in bondage

5 "After when they thought to ſlaye the babes of the ſaints, one child being caſt out, and preſerued to reproue them, thou tookeſt away the whole multitude of their children, and deſtroyedſt them altogether in a mighty water. "Exo.1.16. and.2.3.

6 "Of that nyght were our fathers certified afore, that they knowing vnto what othes they had geuen credence, myght be of good cheare. "Exo.14.24

7 Thus thy people receyued the health of the ryghteous, but the vngodlye were deſtroyed.

8 For lyke as thou haſt "reuenged our enimies, ſo haſt thou promoted vs whom thou haſt called. or, puniſhed.

9 For the ryghteous children of the good men offered ſecretely, & made a godly lawe with one conſent, that the ſaintes ſhoulde in lyke maner, receyue together both good and euyl, and that the fathers nowe ſhoulde ſyng prayſes.

10 But there was heard a diſagreeing voyce of the enimies, and there was a miſerable lamentation for children that were bewayled.

11 "The maiſter and the ſeruaunt were puniſhed after one maner: and lyke as the kyng, ſo ſuffered the common people. "Exo.12.27

12 So they had innumerable that dyed with one kynde of death altogether, neyther were the lyuyng ſufficient to burye "the dead: for in the twynklyng of an eye the nobleſt of ſpring of them was deſtroyed. or, them.

13 For whereas they woulde diſcredite al thynges, by reason of the enchauntmentes, in the destruction of the fyrst borne, they acknowledged that this people was the chyldren of God.

14 For whyle all thynges were styl in silence, and when the nyght was in the myddest of her course, thy almyghtie woorde, O Lorde, leapt downe from heauen out of thy royal throne,

*Or, fierce. 15 As a *rough man of warre in the myddst of the lande that was destroyed, 16 And brought thine vnfaigned commaundement as a sharpe swoorde, and standyng vp, fylled al thyngs with death, yea it stood vpon the earth, and reached vnto the heauen.

17 Then the syghtes of the euyll dreames vexed them sodaynly, and fearefulnes came vpon them vnawares.

18 Then lay there one here, another there, halfe dead, halfe quicke, and shewed the cause of his death.

19 For the visions that vexed them, shewed them these thynges afore, that they myght not be ignorant wherefore they perysshed.

20 Yea, the temptation of death touched the righteous also, and *among the multitude in the wyldernesse there was *insurrection: but thy wrath endured not long.

*Nu.16.46. 21 *For the blamelesse man went in all the haste, and tooke the batayle vppon hym, brought foorth the weapon of his ministration, euen prayer, and the reconciliation of incense, set hym selfe against the wrath, and so brought the misery to an ende, declaring therby that he was thy seruaunt.

*Or, the destroyer. *Or, that punyshed. 22 For he ouercame not the *multitude with bodyly power or force of weapons: but with the woorde he subdued hym that *vexed, alleagyng the othe and couenaunt made vnto the fathers.

*Or, cut of. *Or, brake. 23 For when the dead were fallen downe by heapes one vppon another, he stoode in the myddest, *pacified the wrath, and *parted the waye that it myght not come to the lyuyng.

*Exo.28.11. 24 *And why? in his long garment was al the beautie, and in the foure rowes of the stones was the glorye of the fathers grauen; and thy maiestie was wryten in the *crowne of his head.

*Or, diademe. 25 Unto these the destroyer gaue place, and was afrayde of them: for it was ynough that they onely tasted of the wrath.

¶ The.xix. Chapter.

1. The death of the Egyptians, and the great ioy of the Hebrues.

1 AS for the vngodly, the wrath came vpon them without mercy vnto the ende: for he knewe before what should happē vnto them:

2 Howe that when they had consented to let them goe, and had sent them out with great diligence, they woulde repent, and *followe vpon them.

*Or, pursue them.

3 *For whilest they were yet mourning and makyng lamentation by the graues of the dead, they deuysed another foolyshnesse, so that they persecuted them in their fleeyng, whom they had a caste out afore with prayer.

*Exo.14.5.

a. That is, the chyldren of Israel, who they before had desired and praied for to goe their way.

4 For the *necessitie whiche they had deserued, brought them vnto this ende, and made them forgeat the thynges that had alredy happened, that they myght by tormentes fulfyl their punyshment whiche remayned:

*Or, destruction.

5 And that thy people myght frye a marueilous passage: & these myght fynde a strange death.

6 For euery creature in his kinde was fashioned agayne of newe, seruyng the peculier offices, as was commaunded them, that thy chyldren myght be kept without hurt:

7 For the cloude ouershadowed their tents, and the drye earth appeared, where afore was water: so that in the red sea there was a way without impediment, and the great deepe became a greene feelde:

8 Where through all the people went that were defended with thy hande, seeyng thy marueylous strange woonders.

9 For as the horses, ryght so they neyghed, and leaped lyke Lambes, prayesyng thee (O Lorde) whiche hadst delyuered them.

10 And why? they were yet myndeful of the thynges that were doone whyle they dwelt in the strange lande, howe the grounde brought foorth flyes in steade of cattel, and how the riuer scrawled with the multitude of frogges in steade of fishes.

11 *But at the last they sawe a newe generation of byrdes, what tyme as they were styrred with lust, and desyred delicate meates.

*Exo.16.13. Num.11.31.

12 For why? the Quayles came vp to them from the sea for their comforte: but punyshment came vpon the sinners, not without the signes whiche came before to passe by vehemencie of the thycke lyghtenynges: for they suffered woorthyly according to their wycked nesse, because they dealt so churlishly with an hate of strangers.

dage

dage that did them good.

14 Nor onely ſo, but if they had been any where regarded, they coulde not ſuffer it: for they entreated ſtrangers very diſpitefully.

15 Others that had receyued them with great ſolemnitie, when they were admitted vnto theyr ſocietie, they afflicted them with greeuous labours.

Gen.19.11. 16 *Therfore were they ſtricken with blindneſſe, like as when they that were couered with ſodayne darkneſſe at the doores of the righteous, ſought euery one of them the entrance of his doores.

17 Thus the elementes being changed, agreed among them ſelues, like as when tunes are changed vpon an inſtrument of muſicke, & yet keepe ſtyl a melodie: which may eaſily be perceyued by the ſight of the thinges that are come to paſſe.

18 For the earthly thynges were turned into watrie: and the thyng that before ſwam in the water, nowe went vpon the ground.

19 The fyre had power in the water, forgeatting his owne vertue: and the water forgate his owne kynde to quenche the fyre.

20 Agayne, thy flames hurted not the fleſhe of the corruptible lyuing thinges, though they walked therein, neyther melted they that icie kynd of immortal meate, that was of nature apt to melt.

21 For in al thinges haſt thou promoted thy people (O Lorde) and brought them to honour, thou haſt not deſpiſed them, but alway and in al places haſt thou *ſtande by them.

The ende of the booke of Wyſedome.

¶ The booke of Ieſus the ſonne of Sirach, which is called in Latine Eccleſiaſticus.

The prologue of Ieſus the ſonne of Sirach vnto his booke.

MAny and great men haue declared wyſedome vnto vs out of the lawe, out of the prophetes, and out of other that folowed them, in the which thinges, Iſrael ought to be commended, by the reaſon of doctrine and wyſedome: therefore they that haue it, and reade it, ſhoulde not onely them ſelues by wyſe therethrough, but ſerue other alſo with teachyng and wryting. After that my grandfather Ieſus had geuen diligent labour to reade the lawe, the prophetes, & other bookes that were left vs of our fathers, and had wel exerciſed hym ſelfe therein: he purpoſed alſo to wryte ſome thyng of wyſedome and good manners, to the intent that they which were wyllyng to learne, and to be wyſe, might haue the more vnderſtanding, and be the more apt to leade a good converſation. Wherefore I exhort you to receyue it louyngly, to reade it with diligence, and to take it in good worth, though our woordes be not ſo eloquent as the famous oratours. For the thyng that is written in the Hebrue tongue, ſoundeth not ſo wel when it is tranſlated into another ſpeache: not onely this booke of mine, but alſo the lawe, the prophetes, and other bookes, ſounde farre otherwyſe then they doo, when they are ſpoken in theyr owne language.

Nowe in the thirtie and eyght yeere, when I came into Egypt, in the tyme of Ptolome Euerges, and continued there a long ſeaſon, I founde bookes there left ful of great and profounde learning. Wherefore, I thought it good and neceſſarie to beſtowe my diligence and trauayle to enterprete this booke: and conſydering that I had tyme, I laboured and did my beſt to perfourme this booke, and to bryng it vnto lyght, that the ſtrangers alſo which are diſpoſed to learne, might applie them ſelues vnto good manners, and lyue accordyng to the lawes of the Lorde.

¶ The fyrst Chapter.

1. VVysedome commeth of God. 11. A prayse of the feare of God. 29. The meanes to come by vvysedome.

1 ALl wisdome commeth of God the Lorde, and hath been euer with hym, and is *before all tyme.

2 Who hath numbred the sande of the sea, the drops of the rayne, and the dayes of *tyme? Who hath measured the height of heauen, the breadth of the earth, and the deepenesse of the sea?

3 Who hath sought out the ground of Gods wisdome, which hath been before al things?

4 Wysedome hath been created before all thynges, and the vnderstanding of prudence from euerlasting.

5 (Gods worde in the height is the wel of wysedome, and the euerlasting commaundementes are the entrances of her.)

6 *Unto whom hath the roote of wisedome been declared? or who hath knowen her wit?

7 Unto whom hath the doctrine of wysedome been discouered and shewed? and who hath vnderstande the manifolde entrance of her?

8 There is one, euen the hyghest, the maker of al thinges, the almightie, the kyng of power, of whom men ought to stande greatly in awe, whiche sitteth vppon his throne, being a God of dominion.

9 He hath created her through the holy ghost, he hath seene her, numbred her, and measured her.

10 He hath powred her out vppon all his workes, and vpon al flesshe, according to his gyft he geueth her richely vnto them that loue hym.

11 The feare of the Lorde is worshyp and triumphe, gladnesse, and a ioyful crowne.

12 The feare of the Lorde maketh a merrie hart, geueth gladnesse, ioy, and long lyfe.

13 Who so feareth the Lord, it shal goe wel with hym at the last, and in the day of his death he shalbe blessed.

14 The loue of God is honourable wysedome: looke vnto whom it appeareth, they loue it, for they see what woonderous thinges it doeth.

15 *The feare of the Lorde is the beginning of wysedome, & was made with the faythful in the mothers wombe, it shal goe with the chosen women, and shalbe knowen of the ryghteous and faythful.

16 *The feare of the Lorde is the ryght Gods seruice, 17 That preserueth and iustifieth the hart, and geueth myrth and gladnesse.

18 Who so feareth the Lorde shalbe happy, and when he hath neede of comfort, he shall be blessed, 19 She hath buylt her euerlasting fundations with men, and is geuen to be with their seede.

20 To feare God is the wysedome that maketh riche, and bringeth al good with her.

21 She fylleth the whole house with her gyftes, and the garners with her treasure.

22 The feare of the Lorde is the crowne of wisedome, and geueth plenteous peace and health: he hath seene her and numbred her: both these are the gyftes of God.

23 Knowledge and vnderstanding of wysedome hath he powred out as rayne, & them that held her fast hath he brought vnto honour.

24 The feare of the Lorde is the roote of wysedome, and her branches are long lyfe.

25 In the treasures of wysedome is vnderstandyng and deuotion of knowledge, but wysedome is abhorred of sinners.

26 The feare of the Lorde driueth out sinne, and when she is present, she driueth away anger.

27 For he that is without feare can not be made ryghteous, and his wylful boldnesse is his owne destruction.

28 A patient man wyl suffer vnto the time, and then shal he haue the reward of ioy.

29 A good vnderstanding wyl hide his wordes for a tyme, and many mens lyppes shal speake of his wysedome.

30 In the treasures of wysedome is the declaration of doctrine: but the sinner abhorreth the worshyp of God.

31 My sonne, if thou delyre wysedome, kepe the commaundement, and God shal geue her vnto thee.

32 For the feare of the Lorde is wisedome and nurture: he hath pleasure in fayth and louyng meekenesse, and he shal fyl the treasures thereof.

33 Be not obstinate and vnfaythful to the feare of the Lorde, and come not vnto hym with a double hart.

34 Be not an hypocrite in the syght of men, and take good heede what thou speakest.

35 Exalt not thee selfe, lest thou happen to fal, and bryng thy soule to dishonour: and so discouer thy secretes, and cast thee downe

1 He exhorteth the seruantes of god to right cousnesse, lone, vnderstandyng and pacience. 2 To trust in the Lorde. 15. A curse vppon them that are faynt harted and impatient.

1 MY sonne, yf * thou wilt come into the seruice of God, stande fast in righteousnesse and feare, and arme thy soule to temptation. *Matth.4.1 1.Tim.3.12 1.Pet.4.12.

2 Settle thine hart, and be patient, bow downe thyne eare, receiue the wordes of vnderstanding, and shrinke not away when thou art assaulted.

3 Holde thee fast vpon God, ioyne thee selfe vnto hym and suffer, that thy lyfe may encrease at the last.

4 Whatsoeuer happeneth vnto thee, receiue it: suffer in heauinesse, and be patient in thy trouble.

5 * For like as gold and syluer are tryed in the fyre, euen so are acceptable men in the furnace of aduersitie. *Sapi.3.6. Psa.17.3.

6 Beleeue in God, and he shall helpe thee: order thy way aryght, and put thy trust in him: hold fast his feare, and growe therin.

7 O ye that feare the lord, take sure hold of his mercy, shrinke not away from him, that ye fal not.

8 O ye that feare the lord, beleeue him, and your reward shal not be emptie.

9 O ye that feare the Lorde, a trust in good thinges, and mercy shal come vnto you for pleasure. a That is, looke for good thinges, and trust to haue the rewarde of euerlasting life, promised to them that with pacience continue in his feare.

10 O ye that feare the Lorde, set your loue vpon him, and your harts shalbe lightned.

11 Consider the old generations of men (O ye children) and marke them well: was there euer any one confounded that put his trust in the Lorde? who euer continued in his feare, and was forsaken? or whom dyd he euer despise that called faythfully vppon hym?

12 * For God is gratious and mercyfull, he forgeueth sinnes in the time of trouble, and is a defender for all them that seeke him in the trueth. *Psa.37.25

13 Woe be vnto them that haue a * fearfull hart, wicked lyppes, and euyl occupyed handes, and to the sinner that goeth two maner of wayes. *Or,double.

14 Woe be vnto them that are faint harted, which put not their trust in God, and therefore shall they not be defended of hym.

15 Woe be vnto * you that haue lost pacience, forsaken the ryght wayes, and are turned backe into frowarde wayes: what wyll you doo when the Lord shal begyn to visyt you? *Or,them

16 * They that feare the Lord, wyl not disobey his woorde: and they that loue hym, wil keepe his commaundementes. *Joh.14.20

17 They that feare the Lord, wyl seeke out the thynges that are pleasant vnto hym: and they that loue hym, her fulfylled with his lawe.

18 They that feare the Lorde, wyll prepare their hartes, and humble their soules in his syght.

19 They that feare the Lord, keepe his commaundementes, and wyll be pacient tyll they see hym selfe, 20 Saying, * If wee doo not repent, we shal fall into the handes of the Lorde, and not into the handes of men. *Ecc.24.12.

21 For his mercy is as great as hym selfe.

¶ The.iii.Chapter.

1 To our father and mother ought we to geue double honour. 10. Of the blessyng and curse of the father and mother.

1 THe children of wisedome are a congregation of the righteous, and their obeysyng is obedience and loue.

2 Heare your fathers iudgement (O my deare children) and doo thereafter, that ye may be safe.

3 * For the Lorde wyll haue the father honoured of the children: and looke what a mother commaundeth her children to doo, he wil haue it kept. *Exo.20.8. Deut.5.10.

4 Who so honoureth his father, his sinnes shalbe forgeuen hym: and he shall absteine from them, and shall haue his dayly desires.

5 And he that honoureth his mother, is like one that gathereth treasure together.

6 Who so honoureth his father, shall haue ioy of his owne children: and when he maketh his prayer, he shalbe heard.

7 He that honoureth his father, shall haue a long lyfe: and he that is obedient vnto the Lorde, shal comfort his mother.

8 He that feareth the Lorde, honoureth his father and mother, and doeth them seruice as it were vnto Lordes.

9 * Honour thy father and mother in deede, in woorde, & in al pacience, that thou mayest haue Goddes blessing: and his blessyng shal abyde with thee at the last. *Exo.20.12 Deut.5.10.

10 * The blessyng of the father stablisheth the houses of the children: but the mothers curse rooteth out the foundations. *Gen.27.27 Deut.33.1.

11. Reioyce

11 Reioyce not when thy father is reproued: for it is not honour vnto thee, but a shame.

12 For the worshyp of a mans father, is his owne worshyp: and the reproche of the mother, is the dishonestie of the sonne.

13 My sonne, make muche of thy father in his age, and greeue him not as long as he lyueth.

14 And if his vnderstanding fayle, haue patience with him, and despyse not him in thy strength.

15 For the good deede that thou shewest vnto thy father, shall not be forgotten: & when thou thee selfe wantest, it shalbe rewarded thee: and for thy mothers offence thou shalt be recompenced with good, yea, it shalbe founded for thee in righteousnesse.

16 And in the day of trouble thou shalt be remembred: thy sinnes also shal melt away, lyke as the yce in the fayre warme weather.

17 He that forsaketh his father shal come to shame: and he that defieth his mother, is cursed of God.

18 My sonne, perfourme thy workes with louing meekenesse, so shalt thou be loued aboue other men.

*Phil.2.3. 19 *The greater thou art, the more humble thee selfe in al things, and thou shalt finde fauour in the sight of God.

20 Many are excellent and of renowme: but the secretes are reuealed vnto the meeke.

21 For great power belongeth only vnto God: and he is honoured of the lowly.

*Pro.25.27 Rom.12.3. 22 Seeke not out the things that are aboue thy capacitie, and searth not the grounde of suche thinges as are to mightie for thee.

23 But loke what god hath commaunded thee, thinke vppon that alway, and be not curious in many of his workes: for it is not needefull for thee to see with thine eyes the thinges that are secrete.

24 Make not too muche search in superfluous thinges, and be not curious in many of his workes: for many thynges are shewed vnto thee alredy, whiche be aboue the capacitie of men.

25 The medling with such hath beguiled many a man, and tangled their wittes in vanitie.

26 Thou canst not see without eyes, therfore professe not the thing that thou hast not.

27 An harde hart shall feare euyll at the last: and he that loueth danger, shal perishe therin.

28 An hart that goeth two wayes shall not prosper, and he that is frowarde of hart, wyl euer be worse and worse.

29 An obstinate hart shalbe laden with sorowes, and the vngodly sinner wyl heape one sinne vpon another.

30 The counsaile of the proude hath no health, and his rootesteppes shalbe plucked vp: for the plant of sinne hath taken roote in him.

31 The hart of him that hath vnderstanding, shal perceiue high thinges: & a good eare wyll gladly hearken vnto wysedome.

32 An hart that is wise and hath vnderstanding, wyl absteyne from sinnes, & encrease in the workes of righteousnesse.

33 Water quencheth burnyng *fire, and mercy reconcileth sinnes. *Psa.40.2. Dan.4.24. Prou.5.7.

34 God hath respect vnto him that is thankfull: he thinketh vpon him against the time to come, so that when he falleth, he shal find a strong holde.

¶ The.iiii. Chapter.

Almes must be doone vnto gentlenesse. 11. The fruite of vnwisedome and her fruite. 20. An exhortation to eschewe euyll, and to doo good.

1 My* sonne, defraude not the poore of his almes, and turne not away thyne eyes from hym that hath neede. *Deut.15.4 Tob.4.7. Prou.21.13

2 Despise not an hungery soule, and defile not the poore in his necessytie.

3 Greeue not the hart of hym that is helpelesse, and withdrawe not the gift from the needefull.

4 Refuse not the prayer of one that is in trouble, turne not away thy face from the needie.

5 Call not thyne eyes aside from the poore for any euyll wyl, that thou geue hym not occasion to speake euyl of thee.

6 For if he complayne of thee in the bitternesse of his soule, his prayer shalbe heard: euen he that made hym shall heare hym.

7 Be courteous vnto the company of the poore, humble thy soule vnto thy elder, and bowe downe thy head to a man of worshyp.

8 Let it not greeue thee to bowe downe thyne eare vnto the poore, but pay thy det, and geue him a frendly answeare, and that with meekenesse.

9 Deliuer him that suffereth wrong, from the hand of the oppressour: and be not faynt harted when thou sittest in iudgment.

10 Be mercifull vnto the fatherlesse as a father, and be in stede of an husbande vnto they mother: so shalt thou be an obedient sonne of the highest, and he shall loue thee more then thy mother doeth.

ceiueth them that ſeeke her, and wyll goe before them in the way of righteouſneſſe.

12 He that loueth her, loueth lyfe: and they that ſeeke her diligently, ſhall haue great ioy.

13 They that keepe her, ſhal inherite glory: for where ſhe entreth in, there is the bleſſing of God.

14 They that honour her, ſhalbe the ſeruantes of the holy one: and they that loue her, are beloued of God.

*Rom.12.11 20 * My ſonne, make much of the time, eſchewe the thing that is euil:

21 And for thy life ſhame not to ſay y trueth: b for there is a ſhame that bringeth ſinne, and there is a ſhame that bringeth worſhip and fauour.

b Yo be aſhamed to confeſſe thy God, thy faith, to teſtifie the trueth, and to reproue ſin, doth bring ſin vpon thee: the contrary ſhame bringeth worſhip.

22 Accept no perſon after thyne owne wyll, that thou be not confounded to thyne owne decay: Be not aſhamed of thy neighbour in his aduerſitie.

23 And keepe not backe thy counſell when it may doo good, neyther hyde thy wiſdome in her beautie.

24 For in the tongue is wyſdome knowen, ſo is vnderſtanding, knowledge, and learnyng, in the talking of the wyſe, and ſtedfaſtneſſe in the woorkes of righteouſneſſe.

25 In no wyſe ſpeake againſt the woord of trueth, but be aſhamed of the lyes of thyne owne ignorance.

26 Shame not to confeſſe thyne errour, and reſiſt not the courſe of the ryuer.

27 And ſubmit not thee ſelfe vnto a fooliſhe man, neyther accept the perſon of the mightie.

28 And ſtriue thou not agaynſt the ſtreame: but for righteouſneſſe take paines with all thy ſoule, and for the trueth ſtriue thou vnto death, and God ſhal fight for thee againſt thyne enimies.

29 Be not haſty in thy tongue, neither ſlacke and negligent in thy woorkes.

30 Be not as a Lion in thyne owne houſe, deſtroying thy houſhold folkes, and oppreſſing them that are vnder thee.

31 Let not thine handes be ſtretched out to receyue, and ſhut when thou ſhouldeſt geue.

¶ The.v. Chapter.

1. In riches we may not put any confidence. 7. The vengeaunce of GOD ought to be feared, and repentaunce may not be deferred.

1 TRuſt not vnto thy ryches, and ſay not, Tuſh, *I haue ynough for my life, for it ſhal not helpe in the tyme of vengeance and temptation. *Luke.12.19

2 Folowe not the luſt of thine owne hart in thy ſtrength.

3 And ſay not, Tuſhe, howe haue I had ſtrength? or who wyll bring me vnder, becauſe of my woorkes? For doubtleſſe GOD ſhal auenge it.

4 And ſay not, I haue ſinned, & what euyll hath happened me? for the almightie is a patient rewarder.

5 Becauſe thy ſinne is forgeuen thee, be not therefore without feare, neyther heape one ſinne vpon an other.

6 And ſay not, Tuſhe, the * mercy of the Lorde is great, he ſhal forgeue me my ſinnes be they neuer ſo many: for like as he is merciful, ſo goeth wrath from him alſo, & his indignation commeth downe vpon ſinners. *Eccle.21.1.

16 Doo not rashly, neyther in great nor small.

¶ The vi. Chapter.

i. It is the propertie of a sinner to be euyll tongued. 6. Of freendship. 33. Desyre to be taught.

a. For that is a gaynst the rule of charitie, whiche loueth al, & hateth nothing but only sinne.

1 BE not of a freend an enimie: a for suche a man getteth an euil name, shame, and rebuke: and who so euer beareth enuie, and a double tongue, offendeth.

b. As a Bul tea reth in peeces a young tree with his horns, so thou trusting in thyne owne wysedome, and standyng in thyne owne conceyte, because of thy power, or ryches, shoulde destroy thee selfe.

2 Be not proude in the deuise of thyne vnderstanding: lest thy soule rent thee as a b Bull,

3 And lest thy leaues wyther, and thy fruite be destroyed, and so thou be left as a dyre tree in the wyldernesse.

4 For a wicked soule destroyeth him that hath it, maketh him to be laughed to scorne of his enimies, and bringeth him to the portion of the vngodly.

5 A sweete worde multiplieth freendes, and pacifieth them that be at variaunce: and a thankfull tongue wyll be plenteous in a good man.

6 Holde freendship with many: neuertheles, haue but one counsellour of a thousand.

7 If thou gettest a freend, proue him first, and be not hastie to geue him credence.

8 For some man is a freend but for his owne turne, and wyl not abide in the day of trouble.

9 And there is some freende that turneth to enmitie, and taketh part against thee: and yf he knowe any hurt by thee, he telleth it out.

*Eccle. 37. 5 10 * Agayne, some freend is but a companion at the table: and in the day of neede he continueth not.

11 But in thy prosperitie he wyll be as thou thee selfe, & deale plainely with thy household folke.

12 Yf thou be brought lowe, he wyl be agaynst thee, & wyll be hidden from thy face.

13 Depart from thyne enimies, yea and beware of thy freendes.

14 A faithful freend is a strong defence, who so findeth such one, findeth a treasure.

15 A faithfull freende hath no peere, the weyght of gold and siluer is not to be compared to the goodnesse of his faith.

16 A faythfull freende is a medecine of lyfe and immortalitie, and they that feare the Lorde shal finde him.

17 Who so feareth the Lorde, shall prosper with freendes: and as he is him selfe, so shal his freendes be also.

18 My sonne, receiue doctrine from thy youth vp, so shalt thou finde wysedome tyll thou be olde.

19 Goe to her as to one that plowest and soweth, and wayte patiently for her good fruites: for thou shalt haue but little labour in her woorke, but thou shalt eate of her fruites right soone.

20 O how exceeding sharpe is wysdome to vnlearned men: an vnstedfast body wyl not remayne in her.

21 Vnto suche she is as it were a touchestone, and he casteth her from him in all the haste.

22 For wysdome is with him but in name, there are but fewe that haue knowledge of her.

23 But with them that knowe her, she abideth euen vnto the appearing of God.

24 Geue eare, my sonne, receiue my doctrine, and refuse not my counsayle.

25 Put thy foote into her lynckes, and take her yoke vpon thy necke.

26 * Bowe downe thy shoulder vnder her, beare her patiently, and be not weery of her bandes. *Ma. 11. 29

27 Come vnto her with thy whole hart, and kepe her wayes with all thy power.

28 Seeke after her, and she shalbe shewed thee: and when thou hast her, forsake her not.

29 For at the last thou shalt finde rest in her, and that shalbe turned to thy great ioy.

30 Then shal her fetters be a strong defence for thee, and her yoke a glorious rayment.

31 For there is a golden ornament in her, and her bandes are laces of purple colour.

32 Thou shalt put her on as a robe of honour, and shalt put her about thee as a crowne of ioy.

33 My sonne, yf thou wylt take heede, thou shalt haue vnderstanding, and yf thou wylt apply thy mind, thou shalt be wyse.

34 Yf thou wylt bowe downe thyne eare, thou shalt receiue doctrine: and yf thou delite in hearing, thou shalt be wyse.

35 * Stand with the multitude of suche elders as haue vnderstanding, and consent vnto their wysedome with thyne hart, *Eccl. 8. 9.

36 That thou mayest heare all godly sermons, and that the woorthy sentences escape thee not.

37 And yf thou seest a man of discreete vnderstanding, get thee soone vnto him, & let thy foote treade vpon ỳ steps of his doores.

38 Let thy * minde be vpon the commaundements *Psalm. 1.

1.Sa.2.7. 12 *Accept no leasyng agaynst thy brother, neyther do the same agaynst thy freende.

13 Vse not to make any maner of lye, for the custome thereof is not good.

14 Make not many woordes when thou art among the elders: and when thou prayest make not muche bablyng.

15 Let no labourous workes be tedious vnto thee, neyther the husbandry whiche the almightie hath created.

16 Make not thy boast in the multitude of thy wickednesse: but humble thee selfe euen from thyne hart.

17 And remember that the wrath shall not be long in tarrying, and that the vengeance of the fiethe of the vngodly is a very fyre and woorme.

18 Gene not ouer thy freende for any good, nor thy faithfull brother for the best gold.

19 Depart not from a discrete and good woman that is fallen vnto thee for thy portion in the feare of the Lorde: for the gyft of her honestie is aboue golde.

20 *Whereas thy seruant worketh truely, entreate him not euyl, nor the hyreling that is faithfull vnto thee. *Leu. 19.15

21 Loue a discrete seruant as thyne owne soule, defraude him not of his libertie, neyther leaue hym a poore man.

22 *If thou haue cattel, looke wel to them: and if they be for thy profit, keepe them. *Deut.25.4

23 If thou hast sonnes, bryng them vp in nurture and learnyng, & holde them in awe from they' youth vp.

24 If thou haue daughters, keepe their body, and shew not thy face chearefull toward them.

25 Marry thy daughter, and so shalt thou performe a weightie matter: but gene her to a man of vnderstanding.

26 If thou haue a wife after thine owne mynde, forsake her not: but commit not thee selfe vnto the hatefull.

3 Striue not with a man that is full of woordes, and lay no stickes vpon his fyre.

4 Keepe no company with the vnlearned, lest he geue thy kynred an euyll report.

*Galat.6.2. 5 * Despise not a man that turneth him self away from sinne, and cast him not in the teeth withal: but remember that we are frail euery one.

*Leu.19.32. 6 * Thinke scorne of no man in his olde age, for we ware olde also.

7 Be not gladde of the death of thyne enimie: but remember that we muste dye all the sort of vs, and fayne would we come into ioy.

*Gal.6.33. 8 * Despise not the sermons of suche elders as haue vnderstandyng, but acquaint thee self with the wise sentence of them: for of them thou shalt learne wysedome, and the doctrine of vnderstandyng, and howe to serue great men without complaynt.

9 Goe not from the doctrine of the elders, for they haue learned it of their fathers: for of them thou shalt learne vnderstandyng, so that thou mayest make answeare in the tyme of neede.

10 Kyndle not the coales of sinners when thou rebukest them, lest thou be brent in the fiery flambes of their sinnes.

11 Resist not the face of the blasphemer, that they lay not wayte for thy mouth.

Eccl.19.4 12 * Lend not vnto hym that is mightier then thee self: yf thou lendest hym, count it but lost.

13 Be not suertie aboue thy power: yf thou be, then thinke surely to pay it.

14 Goe not to lawe with the Iudge: for he will iudge accordyng to his owne honour.

*Gene.4.8. 15 * Trauaile not by the way with him that is braynlesse, lest he do thee euyll: for he followeth his owne wilfulnesse, and so shalt thou perishe through his folly.

*Pro.22.24 16 * Striue not with him that is angry and cruell, and goe not with him into the wyldernesse, for blood is nothing in his sight, and where there is no helpe, he shall murder thee.

4 Vse not the company of a woman that is a player and a dauncer, and heare her not, lest thou perishe through her entising.

5 Behold not a mayden, that thou be not hurt in her beautie.

6 Cast not thy mynde vppon harlots in any maner of thyng, lest thou destroy both thee selfe and thyne heritage.

7 Goe not about gasyng in euery lane of the citie, neyther wander thou abrode in the stretes thereof.

*Gen.34.22 I.Sa.11.2. Iud.10.17. 8 * Turne away thy face from a beautifull woman, and looke not vpon the fayrenesse of other: many a man hath ben deceiued through the beautie of women, for through it the delyre is kyndeled as it were a fyre.

9 An adulterous woman shalbe troden vnder foote as myre, of euery one that goeth by the way.

10 Many a man woondering at the beautie of a strange woman, hath been cast out: for her woordes kindle as a fire.

11 Syt not with another mans wyfe by any meanes, lye not with her vpon the bedde, make no woordes with her at the wyne: lest thyne hart consent vnto her, and so thou with thy blood fall into destruction.

12 Forsake not an olde frende, for the newe shal not be like hym: a newe frende is newe wyne, let him be olde, and thou shalt drinke hym with pleasure.

*Iudit.9.3 13 Desire not the honour and riches of a sinner, for thou knowest not what destruction is for to come vpon hym.

14 Delite not thou in the thyng that the vngodly hath pleasure in, being sure that the vngodly shall not be accepted vntyll they graue.

15 Keepe thee from the man that hath power power to slay, so needest thou not to be afraide of death: and yf thou commest vnto him, make no fault, lest he happen to take away thy life: remember that thou goest in the middest of snares, and vppon the bulwarkes of the citie.

Eccle.7.8. 16 *Beware of thy neighbour as nigh as thou canst, & meddle with such as be wyse, and haue vnderstandyng.

17 Let iust men be thy ghestes, let thy mirth be in the feare of God.

18 Let the remembrance of GOD be in thy mind, and let all thy talking be in the commaundementes of the highest.

19 In the handes of craftes men shall the workes be commended: so shall the princes of the people in the wysedome of their talking.

20 A man full of wordes, is perilous in his citie: and he that is rashe in his talkyng, shalbe abhorred.

¶ The.x. Chapter.

i. Of kinges and Iudges. 7. Pride and couetousnesse are to be abhorred. 38. Labour is praysed.

1 A Wyse iudge wyl order his people with discretion: and where a man of vnderstanding beareth rule, there goeth it well.

Psal.39.12. 2 *As the iudge of the people is him selfe, euen so are his officers: and looke what maner of man the ruler of the citie is, suche are they that dwell therein also.

3 An vnwyse kyng destroyeth his people: but where they yͤ be in authoritie are men of vnderstanding, there the citie prospereth.

4 The power of the earth is in the hande of God, and all iniquitie of the people is to be abhorred, and when time is, he shall set a profitable rule vpon it.

5 In the hand of God, is the prosperitie of man, and vpon the person of the scribe shall he lay his honour.

Exod.19.17 6 *Be not angry for any wrong of thy neighbour, and meddle thou with no vnrighteous workes.

7 Pride is hatefull before God and man, a and all wickednesse of the heathen is to be abhorred.

That is, whereby idolatry a false religion, and all wickednesse raigneth in vs.

8 Because of yͤ vnrighteous dealing, wrong, blasphemies, and diuers deceytes, a realme shalbe translated from one people to another.

9 There is nothing worse then a couetous man: why art thou proude, O thou earth and ashes? there is not a more wicked thing then to loue money: and why? suche one hath his soule to sell, yet is he but filthy doung whyle he liueth.

10 Al tyrannie is of small endurance, and the disease that is hard to heale, greeueth the Phisition.

11 And though the Phisition drawe his helpe neuer so long, yet in conclusion it goeth after this maner, To day a kyng, to morow dead.

12 For when a man dyeth, he is the heyre of serpentes, beastes, and wormes.

13 The beginning of mans pride, is to fall away from God: and why? his hart is gone from his maker.

14 For pride is the originall of al sinne: who so taketh hold therof, shalbe filled with cursinges, and at the last it shall ouerthrowe him: therefore hath the Lorde brought the congregations of the wicked to dishonour, and destroyed them to the end.

15 GOD hath destroyed the seates of proud princes, and set vp the meeke in their stede.

16 GOD hath wythered the rootes of the proude heathen, and planted the lowly for them.

17 God hath ouerthrowen the landes of the heathen, & destroyed them vnto the ground: he hath caused them to wyther away, he hath brought them to nought, and made the memorial of them to cease from out of the earth.

18 GOD hath destroyed the name of the proud, and left the name of the humble in minde.

19 Pride was not made for man, neyther wrathfulnesse for mens children.

20 The seede of men that feareth GOD, shalbe brought to honour: but the seede which transgresseth the commaundements of the Lorde, shalbe shamed.

21 He that is the ruler among brethren, is holden in honor among them: and he that regardeth such as feare the Lorde, is acceptable in his sight.

22 The feare of the Lorde causeth that the kingdome fayleth not: but the kingdome is lost by crueltie and pride.

23 The glory of the riche, of the honourable, and of the poore, is the feare of God.

24 Despise not thou the iust poore man that hath vnderstandyng, and magnifie not the riche vngodly.

25 Great is the iudge, and mighty in honour, yet is there none greater then he that feareth God.

Pro.17.2. 2.Sa.12.13. 26 *Vnto the seruant that is discreete, shal the free doo seruice: he that is wyse and wel nurtured, wyll not grudge when he is reproued, and an ignorant body shall not come to honour.

27 Be not proude to doo thy worke, and dispayre not in the time of aduersitie.

*Pro.12.9. 28 *Better is he that laboureth, and hath plenteousnesse of all thinges, then he that is gorgeous, and wanteth bread.

29 My sonne, geat thy soule honour by meekenesse, and geue her her due honour.

30 Who shall iustifie him that sinneth against himselfe? Who wyll honour him that dishonoureth his owne soule?

31 The poore is honoured for his faithfulnesse and trueth: but the riche is had in reputation because of his goodes.

32 He that gouerneth himself honestly in pouertie, how much more shall he behaue himselfe honestlye in richesse? and who so gouerneth himselfe honestly in richesse, howe much more shal he behaue himself honestly in pouertie?

The xi. chapter.

1. The prayse of humilitie. 2. After the outwarde appearance ought we not to iudge.

*Gen.41.40 Dani.6.3. 1 THE * wysdome of him that is brought lowe, shall lyft vp his head, and shall make him sit among great men.

2 Commend not thou a man in his beautie, neyther despise a man in his vtter appearance.

3 The Bee is but a small beast among the foules, yet is her fruite exceeding sweete.

*Acts.12.21 4 * Be not proude of thy rayment, and exalt not thee selfe in the day of thy honour: for the workes of the highest only are wonderfull: yea, glorious, secrete, and vnknowen are his workes.

5 Many tyrantes haue been faine to sitte downe vpon the earth, & the vnlikely hath worne the crowne.

*1.Re.15.28 Hest.6.10. 6 * Many mighty men haue been brought lowe, and the honourable haue been deliuered into other mens handes.

*Deu.12.24 7 * Condemne no man before thou haue tryed out the matter: and when thou hast made inquisition, then reproue me righteously.

*Pro.8.13. 8 * Geue no sentence before thou hast heard the cause: but first let men tell out their tales.

9 Strue not for a matter that toucheth not thee selfe, and stand not in the iudgement of sinners.

*Mat.19.12 1.Tim.6.9. 10 * My sonne, meddle not with many matters: and yf thou gayne much, thou shalt not be blameles, and yf thou folowe after it, thou shalt not attaine it, and though thou runnest thy way afore, yet shalt thou not escape.

*Pro.10.13. 11 * There is some man that laboureth and taketh paine, and the more he wexeth him selfe, the lesse he hath.

12 Agayne, some man is slouthfull, hath neede of helpe, wanteth strength, and hath great pouertie:

13 * And Gods eye looketh vppon him to good, setteth him from his lawe estate, and lifteth vp his head: so that many men marueyle at him, and geue honour vnto God. *Iob.24.10

14 * Prosperitie, and aduersitie, life, and death, pouertie, and richesse, come all of the Lorde. *Iob.1.12. Ezech.28.4

15 Wysdome, nurture, and knowledge of the law are with God, loue, and the wayes of good are with him.

16 Errour and darknesse are made for sinners, and they that exalt them selues in euil, waxe olde in euil.

17 The gift of God remayneth for the righteous: and his good wyll shal haue prosperitie for euer.

18 Some man is riche by his care and wygardship, and that is the portion of his reward:

19 In that he sayth, * Nowe haue I gotten rest, and nowe wyl I eate and drinke of my goodes mee selfe alone: and yet he considereth not that the time draweth nigh, and death approcheth that he must leaue all these thinges vnto other men, and dye hym selfe. *Luke.12.19.

20 * Stand thou fast in thy couenant, and exercise thee selfe therein: and remayne in the worke vnto thy age. *Mat.10.22

21 Marueyle not at the workes of sinners, but put thy trust in God, and bide in thy labor: for it is but an easy thing in the sight of God to make a poore man riche, and that suddenly.

22 The blessing of God hasteth to the reward of the righteous, and maketh his fruites soone to flourishe and prosper.

23 Say not, What helpeth it me? and what good thing shal I haue hereafter?

24 Agayne, say not, I haue ynough, howe can I want?

25 When thou art in * welfare, forget not thyne aduersitie, and when it goeth not wel with thee, haue a good hope that it shall be better. *Eccle.18.25

26 For it is but a small thing vnto God in the day of death, to reward euery man accordyng to his wayes.

27 The aduersitie of an houre, maketh one to forget all pleasure: and when a man dyeth, his workes are discouered.

28 Iudge no man blessed before his death: for a man shalbe knowen in his children.

29 Bryng not euery man into thyne house:

house: for the deceytefull layeth wayte diuerslye, and a are like stomaches that belch fyl thyly.

a That is, after they knowe thy secretes, vtter the same with lyke thynges.

30 Lyke as a Partriche in a maunde, so is the hart of the proude: and lyke as a spye that looketh vpon the fal of his neyghbour.

31 For he turneth good vnto euyl, and slaundereth the chosen.

32 Of one sparke is made a great fyre, and of one deceytefull man is blood encreased: and an vngodly man laieth waite for blood.

33 Beware of the deceitful, for he imagineth wycked thynges, to bryng thee into a perpetual shame.

34 If thou takest an aliant vnto thee, he shal destroy thee in vnquietnesse, and dryue thee from thyne owne wayes.

¶ The xii. Chapter.

1. Vnto whom we ought to doo good. 10. Enimies ought not to be trusted.

1 WHen thou wylt doo good, knowe to whom thou doest it, so shalt thou be greatly thanked for thy benefites.

2 Doo good vnto the ryghteous, and thou shalt finde great rewarde, though not of hym, yet no doubt the Lorde him selfe shal reward thee.

3 He standeth not in a good case that is alway occupied in euyl, and geueth no almes: for the hyghest hateth the sinners, and hath mercy vpon them that shewe the workes of repentance.

4 Geue thou vnto suche as feare God, and receyue not a sinner.

5 As for the vngodly and sinners, he shall recompence vengeaunce vnto them, and kepe them to the day of wrath.

6 Geue thou vnto the good, and receyue not the sinner, doo wel vnto him that is lowlye, but geue not to the vngodlye: Let not the bread be geuen him, that he be not mightier then thee selfe therein: for so shalt thou receyue twyse as muche euyll, in all that good that thou doest vnto hym.

7 And why? the hyghest hateth sinners, and shal reward vengeance to the vngodly.

8 In prosperitie a freende shalbe knowen, and in aduersitie an enimie shal not be hyd.

9 For when a man is in wealth, it greeueth his enimies: but in heauynesse and trouble a mans very freende wyl depart from hym.

10 Trust neuer thyne enimie: for lyke as iron rusteth, so doeth his wyckednesse.

11 And though he make muche crouchyng and kneelyng, yet keepe well thy mynde, and beware of him, and thou shalt be to him as he that wypeth a glasse, and thou shalt knowe that all his rust hath not been well wyped away.

12 Set hym not by thee, neyther let hym sit at thy ryght hande: lest he turne hym, geat into thy place, take thy roome, and seeke thy seate, and so thou at the last remember my woordes, and be pricked at my sayinges.

13 Bynde not two sinnes together: for there shal not one be vnpunyshed.

14 Who will haue pitie of the Charmer that is stynged of the Serpent, or of all suche as come nygh the beastes?

15 Euen so is it with hym that keepeth companye with the wycked man, and lappeth hym selfe in his sinnes.

16 For a season wyl he byde with thee: but yf thou stumble, he tarrieth not.

17 An enimie is sweete in his *lyppes, he can make many woordes, and speake many good thynges: Yea he can weepe with his eyes, but in his hart he imagineth howe to throwe thee into the pyt, and yf he maye finde opportunitie, he wyll not be satisfied with blood. *Jere.41.6.

18 If aduersitie come vppon thee, thou shalt finde him there first: and though he pretende to doo thee helpe, yet shall he vndermyne thee.

19 He shal shake his head, and clappe his handes ouer thee for very gladnesse: and whyle he maketh many woordes, he shall dissemble his countenaunce.

¶ The xiii. Chapter. I

1. The companies of the proude and of the ryche are to be eschewed. 15. The loue of God. 17. Like doo company with their lyke.

1 WHoso toucheth pitche, shalbe defiled withall: *and he that is familier with the proude, shall clothe hym selfe with pryde. *Deut.7.2.

2 He taketh a burden vpon him, that accompanieth a more honourable man then hym selfe, therefore keepe no familiaritie with one that is rycher then thee selfe: howe agree the kettle and the pot together? for yf the one be smytten agaynst the other, it shalbe broken.

3 The ryche dealeth vnryghteously, and threateneth withall: but the poore being oppressed, and wrongfully dealt withall, suffereth scarcenesse, and geueth fayre woordes. If the ryche haue done wrong, yet must he be entreated: but yf the poore haue done it, he shall strayghtwayes be threatened.

4 If thou be for his profite, he vseth thee:

but yf thou haue nothyng, he shall forsake thee.

5 As long as thou hast any thyng of thine owne, he shalbe a good felowe with thee: yea, he shal make thee a bare man, and not be sory for thee.

6 Yf he haue needs of thee, he shall defraude thee, and with a priuie mocke shall he put thee in an hope, and geue thee all good wordes, and say, What wantest thou?

7 Thus shal he shame thee in his meate, vntyll he haue supt thee cleane vp twyse or thryse, and at the last shall he laugh thee to scorne: afterward, when he seeth that thou hast nothyng, he shal forsake thee, and shake his head at thee.

8 Submit thee selfe vnto God, and wayte vpon his hande.

9 Beware that thou be not deceyued and brought downe in thy simplenesse: Be not too humble in thy wisdome, lest when thou art brought lowe, thou be deceiued through foolyshnesse.

10 Yf thou be called of a myghty man, absent thee selfe, so shall he cal thee to hym the more oft.

11 Preasse not thou vnto hym, that thou be not shut out: but go not thou farre of, lest he forget thee.

12 Withdraw not the selfe from his speach, but beleeue not his many wordes: for with muche communication shall he tempt thee, and with a priuie mocke shall he question with thee of thy secretes.

13 The vnmercyful mynd of his shal marke thy wordes, he shall not spare to doo thee hurt, and to put thee in prison.

14 Beware & take good heede too thee selfe, for thou walkest in peryll of thy ouerthrowing: Nowe when thou heerest his wordes, make thee as though thou wast in a dreame, and wake vp.

15 Loue God al thy lyfe long, and cal vppon hym in thy neede.

16 Euery beast loueth his lyke: euen so let euery man loue his neyghbour.

17 All flesshe wyll resorte to their lyke, and euery man wyl keepe companye with suche as he is hym selfe.

18 But as the Woolfe agreeth with the Lambe: so doeth the vngodlye with the ryghteous.

19 a What peace is there betweene Hyena and a dogge? howe can the ryche and the poore agree togeather?

20 The wylde Asse is the Lions pray in the wyldernesse: euen so are poore men in the meate of the ryche.

21 Lyke as the proude maye not away with lowlynesse: euen so doeth the ryche abhorre the poore.

22 Yf a rych man fal, his frendes set him vp agayne: but when the poore falleth, his acquayntaunce forsake hym.

23 Yf a ryche man fall into an error, he hath many helpers, he speaketh proude woordes, and yet men iustifie him: but yf a poore man goe wrong, he is punyshed, yea though he speake wysely, yet can it haue no place.

24 When the rych man speaketh, euery body holdeth his tongue, and loke what he saith, they prayse it vnto the cloudes: but yf the poore man speake, they say, What felowe is this? and yf he doo amysse, they shall destroy hym.

25 Riches are good vnto hym that hath no sinne in his conscience; and pouertie is a wycked thing in the mouth of the vngodly.

26 The hart of man chaungeth his countenaunce, whether it be in good or euyl.

27 A chearfull countenaunce is a token of a good hart: for els it is an harde thyng to knowe the thought.

a. That is, with a sinner that returneth continually to his sinne againe as a dogge to his vomite: or els after the other translation, Hyena is a subtill beast, watchyng about Shepheardes foldes, resemblyng a mans voyce, and learnyng certaine names, doeth cal them foorth, and so destroy them, whese nature is contrary to the dog, which is a keeper of the folde, and freendly vnto man.

¶ The xiii. Chapter.

1. The offence of the tongue. 17. Man is but a vaine thyng. 22. Happy is he that continueth in wysdome.

1 BLessed* is the man that hath not fallen with the woord of his mouth, and is not pricked with the conscience of sinne. *Eccl. 14. 18. and 25. 11. Iames. 3. 2.

2 Happy is he that hath no heauinesse in his mynde, and is not fallen from his hope in the Lorde.

3 It becommeth not a couetous man and a nyggarde to be ryche: and what shoulde an enuious man doo with money?

4 He that with all his carefulnesse heapeth togeather vnryghteously, geathereth for other folkes, and another man shall make good cheare with his goods.

5 He that is wycked vnto hym selfe, howe shoulde he be good vnto other men? howe can suche one haue anye pleasure of his goodes.

6 There is nothyng woorse then when one disfauoureth him selfe: and this is a reward of his wyckednesse.

7 Yf he doeth any good, he doeth it, not knowyng thereof, and agaynst his wyll, and at the last he declareth his vngratiousnesse.

8 A nyggarde hath a wycked eye, he turneth away his face, and despyseth men.

9 *A couetous mans eye hath neuer ynough in the portion of wyckednesse, vntyll the tyme that he wyther awaye, and haue lost his owne soule.

10 a A wycked eye enuieth bread, and there is scarsenesse vpon his table.

*Pro. 17. 20

a. For he that is couetous and enuious, coueteth al for him selfe, is not layde vp for hym selfe, & pyneth away at another mans wealth.

11 Yf

11 My sonne, doo good to thee selfe of that thou hast, and geue the Lorde his due offerynges.

12 Remember that death tarieth not, and howe that the b graue is not shewed vnto thee: for the couenant of this worlde shall dye the death.

13 *Doo good vnto thy frende before thou dye, and according thy habilitie reathe out thy hande, and geue vnto the poore.

14 Be not disapoynted of the good day, and let not the portion of the good desyre ouerpasse thee.

15 Shalt thou not leaue thy trauayles and labours vnto other men? In the diuiding of the heritage geue and take, and sanctifie thy soule.

16 Woorke thou ryghteousnesse before thy death: for in the hel there is no meate to fynde.

17 *Al flesshe shal fade away like a garment, and like a flourishing leafe in a greene tree.

18 Some growe, some are fallē downe: euen so is the generation of flesshe and blood, one commeth to an ende, another is borne, and this is the condition of al tymes, thou shalt dye the death.

19 Al transitorie thynges shal fayle at the last, and the wonder thereof shal goe with all.

20 Euery chosen woorke shalbe iustified, and he that medled withal, shal haue honour therein.

21 *Blessed is the man that keepeth him in wysedome, and exerciseth him selfe in vnderstanding, & with discretion shal thinke vpon the foreknowledge of God.

22 Which considereth the wayes of wisedome in his hart, hath vnderstanding in her secretes, 23 Goeth after her as one that seeketh her out, and continueth in her wayes.

24 He looketh in at her wyndowes, and hearkeneth at her doores.

25 He taketh his rest beside her house, and fastneth his stake in her walles: he shal pitche his tent nyghvnto her hande, and in his tent shal good thinges rest for euermore.

26 He shal set his chyldren vnder her couering, and shal dwel vnder her branches.

27 Vnder her couering shal he be defended from the heate, and in the glory shall he rest.

a Though death be certayne, yet the tyme of it is vnknowen to vs. *Eccl.4.7. Luke.14.13.

Psal.1.2.

The xv. Chapter.

a. The goodnesse that followeth him which feareth God. b. God reiecteth and casteth of the sinner, c. God is not the authour of euyl.

1 HE that feareth God, wyl doo good, and who so keepeth the lawe, shal obteyne wysedome.

2 As an honourable mother shal she meete hym, and as the wyfe maryed of a virgin shal receyue hym.

3 *With the bread of lyfe and vnderstanding shal she feede hym, & geue hym the water of wholsome wysedome to drynke.

4 If he be constant in her, he shal not be moued, and if he holde hym fast by her, he shal not come to confusion.

5 She shal bryng him to honour among his neyghbours, and in the middest of the congregation shal she open his mouth: with the spirite of wisedome and vnderstanding shal she fyl hym, and clothe him with the garment of glory.

6 She shal heape the treasures of myrth and ioy vpon him, and geue hym an euerlasting name to heritage.

7 Foolishe men wyl not take holde vpon her, but sutche as haue vnderstanding wyl meete her: foolishe men shal not see her, for she is farre from pride and deceyte.

8 Men that goe about with lyes, wyll not remember her: but men of trueth shalbe founde in her, and shal prosper euen vnto the beholdyng of God.

9 Prayse is not seemely in the mouth of the vngodly, for he is not sent of the Lorde.

10 But if prayse come of wyse doune, and be plentyous in a faythful mouth, then the Lorde wyl prosper it.

11 Say not thou, It is the Lordes fault that I am gone by: for thou shalt not doo the thyng that God hateth.

12 Say not thou, He caused me to doo wrong: for he hath no neede of the vngodly.

13 God hateth al abomination of errour, and they that feare God wyl loue none suche.

14 God made man from the beginning, and left him in the hande of his counsel: he geue hym his commaundementes and precepte.

15 *If thou wylt obserue the commaundementes, and keepe acceptable faythfulnesse for euer, they shal preserue thee.

16 He hath set water and fyre before thee, reache out thine hande vnto whether thou wylt.

17 *Before man is lyfe and death, good and euyl: looke what hym lyketh shal be geuen hym.

18 For the wysedome of God is great and mighty in power, and beholdeth al things continually.

19 *The eyes of the Lorde are vpon them that feare hym, & he knoweth al the woorkes of man.

20 He hath commaunded no man to do vngodly, neyther hath he geuen any man licence to sinne: for he desireth not a multitude of infidels and vnprofitable children.

¶ The.xvi. Chapter.

1. Of vnhappie and wycked children. 19. No man can hyde hym selfe from God.

1 Desire not thou in the multitude of vngodly children, and haue no pleasure in them, if they feare not God.

2 Trust not thou to their life, and regarde not their labours.

3 For one sonne that feareth God, is better then a thousande vngodly: and better it is for a man to dye without children, then to leaue behinde hym suche children as are vngodly.

4 For by one that hath vnderstanding, may a whole citie be vpholden: but though the vngodly be many, yet shal it be wasted throwe them.

5 Many suche thinges hath mine eye seene, and greater thinges then these haue I heard with mine eares.

*Gen.19.24 8 *Neyther spared he them among whom Lot was a stranger: but smote them, & abhorred them, because of the pride of their woordes.

*Eccl.5.10. 11 For *mercie and wrath is with hym, he is both mightie to forgeue, and to powre out displeasure.

12 Lyke as his mercie is great, euen so is his punishment also: he iudgeth a man according to his woorkes.

13 The vngodly shal not escape in his spoyle, and the long patience of him that sheweth mercie, shal not bide behinde.

14 He wyl make a place for euery merciful deede, and euery man shal finde according to his woorkes.

15 The Lorde hardened Pharao that he shoulde not knowe him, & that his woorkes might be knowen vpon the earth vnder the heauen.

16 His mercie is knowen to al creatures, he hath separated his lyght from the darkenesse with an Adamant.

17 Say not thou, I wyl hide mee selfe from God: for who wyl thinke vpon me from aboue? I shal not be knowen in so great an heape of people: for what is my soule among so many creatures?

18 Beholde the heauen, yea the heauen of heauens of God, the deepe, the earth, and al that therein is, shalbe moued at his presence. *2.Pet.3.10

19 The mountaynes, the hylles, and the fundations of the earth shal shake for feare, when God visiteth them.

20 These thynges doeth no hart vnderstande woorthily: but he vnderstandeth euery hart.

21 And who vnderstandeth his wayes? no man seeth his stormes, and the most part of his woorkes are secrete.

22 Who wyl declare the woorkes of his righteousnesse? for who shalbe able to abide them? for the couenant is farre from some, and tryeng out of men is in the ende.

23 He that is humble of hart, thynketh vpon such thinges: but an vnwise and erroneous man, casteth his minde vnto foolishe thinges.

24 My sonne, hearken thou vnto me, and learne vnderstanding, & marke my woordes with thine hart: I wil geue thee a sure doctrine, and playnely shal I instruct thee.

25 Marke my woordes then in thyne hart: for in righteousnesse of the spirite doo I speake of the woonders that GOD hath shewed among his woorkes from the beginning, and in the trueth doo I shewe the knowledge of hym.

26 God hath set his woorkes in good order from the beginning, and part of them hath he sundred from the other.

27 He hath garnished his woorkes from euerlasting, & their beginnings according to their generations: they are not hungry nor weried in their labours, nor cease from their offices.

28 None of them hindered another, neither was any of them disobedient vnto his woordes.

29 After this God looked vpon the earth, and filled it with his goodnesse.

30 With al maner of liuing beastes hath he couered the grounde, and they al shalbe turned vnto earth agayne.

¶ The.xvii Chapter.

The creation of man, and the goodnesse that God hath done vnto hym. 10. Of almes. 16. and of repentaunce.

Gene.1.27. 1 GOD * shaped man of the earth, and made hym after his owne image, and turned him vnto earth againe, and clothed hym with his owne strength.

Gene.1.26. Eccl.11.7. 2 * He gaue hym the number of dayes, and certayne tyme, yea and gaue him power of the thynges that are vpon earth.

3 He made all flesshe to stande in awe of him, so that he had the dominion of al beasts and foules.

Gene.2.21. 4 * He made out of hym an helper lyke vnto hym selfe, and gaue them discretion and tongue, eyes, and eares, and a hart to vnderstande:

5 He gaue them a spirite, and a speach to declare his woorkes, and fylled them with instruction and vnderstandyng.

6 He created for them also the knowledge of the spirite, fylled their hartes with vnderstanding, and shewed them good and euyl.

7 He set his eye vpon their hartes, declaring vnto them his great and noble woorkes.

8 That they shoulde prayse his holye name togeather, reioyce of his woonders, and be telling of his noble actes.

9 Besydes this, he gaue them instruction, and the lawe of lyfe for an heritage, that they myght knowe that they were a mortall.

a Through their owne transgression.

10 He made an euerlastyng couenaunt with them, and shewed them his ryghteousnesse and iudgementes.

11 They sawe the maiestie of his glory with their eyes, and their eares heard the maiestie of his voyce, and he sayde vnto them, Beware of al vnryghteous thynges.

Exod.20. Deut.12.23. 12 * He gaue euery man also a commaundement concernyng his neyghbour.

13 Their wayes are euer before hym, and are not hydde from his eyes.

Gene.13.1. 14 * Euery man from his youth is geuen to euyl, and their stonie hartes can not become b flesshe.

b That is, milde and gentle, for the holye ghost to worke in them.

15 He hath set a ruler vppon euerye people, * but Israel is the Lordes portion:

Deut.4.20. 16 Whom he nourysheth with discipline as his first borne, and geueth him most louing lyght, and doth not forsake him.

17 All their woorkes are as the Sunne in the syght of God, and his eyes are alwaye lookyng vpon their wayes.

18 All their vnryghteousnesse is manyfest vnto hym, & al their wickednesse is open in his syght.

19 And as he is merciefull, and knoweth his woorke, he doeth not leaue them, nor forsake them, but spareth them.

20 The mercy that a man sheweth, is * as a seale with hym, and the grace that is geuen to man, preserueth hym as the apple of an eye, and geueth repentaunce to their sonnes and daughters.

c. As a thyng sealed vp is surely founde agayne, so is mercy layde vp in store.

21 At the last he shall awake, and rewarde euery man vppon his head, and shall turne them togeather into the neathermost parts of the earth.

22 But vnto them that wyll * repent, hath he geuen the way of righteousnesse: as for such as be weake, he comforteth them, suffereth them, and sendeth them the portion of the veritie.

*Acts.3.19.

23 O turne then vnto the Lorde, forsake thy sinnes, make thy prayer before the Lord, doo the lesse offence.

*Jere.3.12.

24 Turne againe vnto the Lord, for he wyll bryng thee from darknesse vnto wholesome lyght, forsake thyne vnryghteousnesse, be an vtter enimie to abomination.

25 Learne to knowe the ryghteousnesse and iudgementes of God, stande in the portion that is set forth for thee, and in the prayer of the most hygh God.

26 Goe in the portion of the holy world with suche as be lyuyng, and geue thankes vnto God.

27 * Who wyll prayse the Lorde in the hel? abide not thou in the errour of the vngodly, but geue thankes before death.

*Psal.6.6. Esai.38.19.

28 As for the dead, thankefulnesse perysheth from hym as nothyng: geue thou thankes in thy lyfe, yea whyle thou art lyuyng & whole shalt thou geue thanks, and praise God, and reioyce in his mercy.

29 O howe great is the louyng kyndnesse of the Lord, and his mercyfull goodnesse vnto suche as turne vnto hym?

30 For all thynges maye not be in man, and why? the sonne of man is not immortall, and he hath pleasure in the vanitie of wickednesse.

31 What is more cleare then the Sunne? yet shal it fayle.

32 What is more wycked then the thyng that flesshe and blood hath imagined? and that same shalbe reproued.

33 The Lorde seeth the power of the hygh heauen, and al are but earth and ashes.

¶ The.xviii.Chapter.

1. The marueylous woorkes of God. 6. The miserie and wretchednesse of man. 9. Against God ought we not to complayne.

1 HE that * lyueth for euermore, made all thynges togeather: God onely is ryghteous, and there is none other but he, and remayneth a victorious king for euer.

2 He ordereth the worlde with the power of his hande, and al thynges obey his wyl: for he gouerneth all thynges by his power, and diuideth the holye thynges from the prophane.

3 Who shalbe able to expresse the workes of hym? who wyl seeke out the grounde of his noble actes?

4 Who shal declare the power of his greatnesse? or who wyl take vpon hym to tel out his mercy?

5 As for the woonderous workes of the Lorde, there maye nothyng be taken from them, nothyng may be put vnto them, neyther maye the grounde of them be founde out.

6 But when a man hath doone his best, he must begyn agayne: and when he thynketh to be come to an ende, he must goe againe to his labour.

7 What is man? whereto is he worth? what good or euyl can he doo?

*Psa.89.10. 8 *If the number of a mans daies be almost an hundred yeeres, it is muche: and no man hath certayne knowledge of his death.

9 Lyke as the droppes of rayne are vnto the sea, and as a grauell stone is in comparison of the sande: so are these fewe yeeres to the dayes of euerlastyng.

10 Therefore is the Lord patient with them, and powreth out his mercy vpon them.

11 He sawe and perceyued the thoughts and imaginations of their hart that they were euyll, therefore heaped he vp his mercyfull goodnesse vpon them, and shewed them the way of ryghteousnesse.

12 The mercy that a man hath, reacheth to his neyghbour, but the mercy of God is vpon al flesshe: He chasteneth, he teacheth and nurtureth: yea euen as a Shephearde turneth agayne his flocke, so doeth he all them that receyue chastenyng, nurture, and doctrine.

13 Mercyful is he vnto them that diligently seeke after his iudgementes.

14 My sonne, when thou doest good, make no grudging at it: and whatsoeuer thou geuest, speake no discomfortable woordes.

15 Shal not the deawe coole the heate? euen so is a woorde better then a gyft.

16 Is not a freendly woorde a good honest gyfte? but a gratious man geueth them both.

17 A foole shal cast a man in the teethe, and that roughlye, and a gyfte of the nyggarde putteth out the eyes.

18 Get thee ryghteousnesse before thou come to iudgement, learne before thou speake, and goe to phylicke or euer thou be sicke.

19 Examine and iudge thee selfe before the iudgement come, and so shalt thou finde grace in the syght of God.

20 * Humble thee selfe afore thou be sicke: and whylest thou mayest a sinne, shewe thy conuersation. * 1. Cor. 11. 28.

a. For he is more perfect that may sinne, and doeth not it, then he that doeth folowe after it.

21 Be not let to pay thy vowe in good tyme, and tarrye not to be iustified vnto thy death: for the rewarde of God endureth for euer.

22 Before thou prayest, prepare thy soule, and be not as one that tempteth God.

23 Thynke * vpon the wrathfull indignation that shalbe at the ende, and the houre of vengeaunce when he shall turne away his face. * Eccle. 7. 18.

24 When thou hast ynough, * remember the tyme of hunger: and when thou art ryche, thinke vpon the tyme of pouertie and scarsenesse. * Eccl. 11. 17

25 From the morning vntyll the euening the tyme is changed, and all suche thynges are soone doone in the syght of God.

26 A wyse man feareth God in all thynges, and in the dayes of transgression he kepeth him selfe from sinne: but the foole doeth not obserue the tyme.

27 A discreete man hath pleasure in wysedome, and he that fyndeth her, maketh muche of her.

28 They that haue had vnderstanding, haue deale wysely in woordes, haue vnderstande the trueth and ryghteousnesse, and haue sought out wyse sentences and iudgementes.

29 The cheefe auctoritie of speakyng is of the Lorde alone: for a mortal man hath but a dead hart.

30 * Folowe not thy lustes, but turne thee from thyne owne wyl. * Roma. 6. 6. and. 13. 14.

31 For yf thou geuest thy soule her desyre, it shall make thyne enimies to laugh thee to scorne.

32 Take not thy pleasure in great voluptuousnesse, and meddle not too muche with all.

33 Make not too great cheare of the thyng that thou hast wonne by aduauntage, lest thou fal into pouertie, and haue nothyng in thy purse, els thou shouldest slaunderously lye in wayte for thyne owne lyfe.

¶ The xix. Chapter.

2. Wyne and whoredome bryngeth men to pouertie. 6. In thy woordes must thou vse discretion.

1 A la-

1 A labouring man that is geuen vnto dronkenneſſe, ſhal not be riche: and he that maketh not much of ſmal thinges, ſhal fal by litle and litle.

Gen.19.32. Iudg.11.1. 2 Wine & women make wyſe men runnagates, and put men of vnderſtanding to reproofe.

3 And he that companieth aduulterers, ſhall become an impudent man: mothes and wormes ſhal haue him to heritage, yea he ſhal be ſet vp to a great example, and his ſoule ſhalbe rooted out of the number.

Iohn.12.11 4 *He that is haſtie to geue credence, is light minded, and doeth agaynſt hym ſelfe.

5 Who ſo reioyceth in wickedneſſe, ſhalbe punished: but he that reſiſteth pleaſures, crowneth his owne ſoule: he that refrayneth his tongue, may lyue with a troubleſome man: he that hateth to be reſourmed, his life ſhalbe ſhortened: and he that abhorreth babling of wordes, quencheth wickedneſſe.

6 He that offendeth againſt his owne ſoule, ſhal repent it: and he that reioyceth in wickedneſſe, ſhalbe punished.

7 Rehearſe not a wicked & churliſhe worde twiſe, and thou ſhalt not be hindred.

8 Shewe thy ſecretes neither to freende nor foe: and if thou haſt offended tel it not out.

9 For he ſhal hearken vnto thee, and marke thee, and when he findeth opportunitie, he ſhal hate thee, and ſo ſhal he be alway about thee.

*Eccl.2.27. 10 *If thou haſt heard a worde agaynſt thy neyghbour, let it be dead within thee: and be ſure thou ſhalt haue no harme thereby.

11 A foole trauayleth with a worde, lyke as a woman that is payned with bearyng of a chylde.

12 Lyke as an arrowe ſhotte in a thygh of fleſhe, ſo is a worde in a fooles hart.

Leu.19.10. Mat.18.19. Luke.18.3. 13 *Tel thy freend his fault, leſt he be ignorant, and ſay, I haue not done it: or if he haue ſpoken, that he doo it no more.

14 Reproue thy neyghbour, that he keepe his tongue: and if he haue ſpoken, that he ſay it no more.

15 Tel thy neighbour his fault, for oft times an offence is made: and geue not credence to euery worde.

Eccl.14.1. 16 *A man falleth ſometime with his tong, but not with his wyl: for what is he that hath not offended in his tongue?

17 Geue thy neyghbour warning before thou threaten him: and geue place vnto the lawe of the Lorde.

18 The feare of the Lorde is the firſt degree to be receyued of hym: and wyſedome obteyneth his loue.

19 The knowledge of the commaundementes of the Lorde, is the doctrine of life: and they that obey hym, ſhal receyue the fruite of immortalitie.

20 The feare of God is al wyſedome: and he that is a ryghteous man keepeth the lawe.

21 If a ſeruant ſay vnto his maiſter, I wyl not doo as it pleaſeth thee: though afterwarde he doo it, he ſhal diſpleaſe hym that nouriſheth hym.

22 As for the doctrine of wickedneſſe, it is no wyſedome, and the prudence of ſinners is no good vnderſtanding: it is but wickedneſſe and abomination, and a blaſphemyng of wyſedome.

23 A ſimple man of ſmal vnderſtandyng that feareth God, is better then one that hath muche wyſedome, and tranſgreſſeth the lawe of the hyghest.

24 A craftie ſubtyl man can be wyſe, but he is vnryghteous, & with gyftes he wreſteth the open and manifeſt lawe: agayne, there is that is wyſe, and iudgeth ryghteouſly.

25 A wycked man can behaue hym ſelfe humbly, and can ducke with his head, and yet is he but a deceyuer within: he hydeth his face, and diſguiſeth it, and becauſe he ſhoulde not be knowen, he preuenteth thee, to hurt thee.

26 *And though he be ſo weake, that he can doo thee no harme, yet when he may finde opportunitie, he ſhal doo ſome euyl. *Mat.6.16.

27 A man may be knowen by his face, and one that hath vnderſtandyng may be perceyued by the looke of his countenance.

28 *A mans garment, laughter, and goeing, declare what he is. *Eccl.21.23

¶ The xx. Chapter.

1. Of correction and repentance. 6. Of the gyft of the wyſe man, and of the foole. 23. Of lying.

1 SOme man reproueth his neighbour oft times, but not in due ſeaſon: agayne, ſome man holdeth his tongue, and he is wyſe and diſcrete.

2 It is much better to geue warning and to reproue, then to beare euyl wyl: for he that knowledgeth him ſelfe openly, ſhalbe preſerued from hurt and deſtruction.

3 *Lyke as when a gelded man through deſyre and luſt defyleth a mayden: euen ſo is it with him that vſeth violence and vnryghteouſneſſe in the lawe. *Eccl.30.11

4 O howe good a thyng is it, a man that is reproued, to ſhewe openly his repentance:

for so shalt thou escape wylful sinne.

5 Some man keepeth scilence, and is found wyse: but he that is not ashamed what he sayth, is hateful.

6 Some man holdeth his tongue, because he hath not vnderstanding of the language: and some man keepeth scilence, wayting a conuenient tyme.

*Eccl.32.6.7 *A wyse man wyl holde his tongue tyl he see opportunitie, but a wanton and vndiscrete body shal regarde no tyme.

8 He that vseth many wordes, shal hurt his owne soule: and he that taketh auctoritie vpon him vnrighteously, shalbe hated.

9 Some man hath oft tymes prosperitie in wycked thinges: agayne, some man geatteth muche, and hath harme and losse.

10 There is some gyft that is nothing worth: agayne, there is some gyft whose reward is double.

11 There is an humilitie for glories sake, and some commeth to woorshyp from lowe estate.

12 Some man buyeth much for a litle price, and must pay for it seuen folde.

*Eccle.6.5. 13 *A wyse man with his woordes maketh him selfe to be beloued: but the merry tales of fooles shalbe powred out.

14 The gyft of the vnwyse shal doo thee no good, nor yet of the enuious: for his importunitie is seuen folde, for he looketh to receyue many thinges for one.

*Eccle.1.8. 15 *He shal geue litle, and say he gaue much: he openeth his mouth and cryeth out, as it were one that cryed out wide.

16 To day he lendeth, to morowe asketh he agayne: and suche a man is to be hated of God and man.

17 The foole sayth, I haue no freende, I haue no thanke for al my good dedes, yea euen they that eate my bread speake no good of me: O howe oft, and of howe many shal he be laughed to scorne?

18 He taketh a more perillous fal by suche wordes, then if he fel vpon the grounde: euen so shal the fall of wycked men come hastily.

19 In the mouth of him that is vntaught, are many vnconuenient & vnmeete wordes.

20 A wyse sentence shal not be alowed at the mouth of the foole: for he speaketh not it in due season.

21 Some man sinneth not, because he hath not wherewithal, and in his rest he shalbe stynged.

22 Some man there is that destroyeth his owne soule with shame, & for an vnwise bodies sake destroyeth he it, and with acceptyng of persons shal he vndoo hym selfe.

23 Some man promiseth his freend a gyft for very shame: and geatteth an enimie of hym for nought.

24 A lye is a wycked shame in a man: yet shal it be euer in the mouth of the vnwyse.

25 A theefe is better then a man that is accustomed to lye: but they both shal haue destruction to heritage.

26 The conditions of lyers are vnhoneste: and their shame is euer with them.

27 *A wyse man shal bryng him selfe to honour with his woordes: and he that hath vnderstanding, shalbe set by among great men. *Gen.41.44

28 *He that tilleth his lande, shal encrease his heape of corne: he that woorketh righteousnesse shalbe exalted, and he that pleaseth great men, shal escape much euyl. *Pro.12.11.

29 *Rewardes and gyftes blinde the eyes of the wyse, and make hym dumbe that he can not tel men their faultes. *Eccl.20.8.

30 *Wysedome that is hyd, and treasure that is hoorded vp, what profite is in them both? *Eccl.41.18

31 Better is he that keepeth his ignorance secrete, then a man that hideth his wisdome.

32 The necessarie patience of hym that followeth the Lorde, is better then he that gouerneth his lyfe without the Lorde.

¶ The xxi. Chapter.

1. Not to continue in sinne. 3. The prayer of the afflicted. 6. To hate to be reproued. 19. The mouth of the vvyse man. 26. The thought of the foole.

1 My sonne, *if thou hast sinned, doo it no more: but pray for thy formersinnes, that they may be forgeuen thee. *Ecclu.3.9.

2 Flee from sinne, euen as from a serpent: for if thou commest to nigh her, she wyll bite thee: the teeth thereof are as the teeth of a Lion, to slay the soules of men.

3 The wyckednesse of man is as a sharpe two edged swoorde, which maketh suche woundes that they can not be healed.

4 Strife and wrongful dealyng shal waste away a mans goodes, and through pryde rich house shalbe brought to nought: so the riches of the proude shalbe rooted out.

*Ecclu.3.9. a. with goodes borowed and not payed agayne, robbed stolen or craftily conueyed: geatthereth stones in winter to builde when the frost doeth so congeale the matter, that it can not hold the stones together.

5 *The prayer of the poore goeth out of the mouth, and commeth vnto the eares, & his vengeance or defence shal come hastily.

6 Who so hateth to be reboukned, it is a token of an vngodly person: but he that feareth God, wyl remember hym selfe.

7 A mighty man is knowen a farre of by his tongue: but he that hath vnderstanding, perceyueth that he shal haue a fall.

8 Who so buyldeth his house with other mens cost, is lyke one that geatthereth stones to make his graue.

9 * The congregation of the vngodly is like stubble geathered togeather, their end is a flambe of fyre.

10 The way of the vngodly is set with stones: but in their ende, is hel, darkenesse, and paynes.

11 He that keepeth the lawe, wyl holde fast the vnderstandyng therof: and the ende of the feare of God, is wysedome and vnderstandyng.

12 He that is not wise, will not be taught in good, but the vnwyse man aboundeth in wickednesse: and where bitternesse is, there is no vnderstandyng.

13 The knowledge of the wyse shall flowe lyke water that runneth ouer: and his counsayle is lyke a pure fountayne of lyfe.

14 * The hart of a foole is like a broken vessel, he can keepe no wisedome.

15 When a man of vnderstandyng heareth a wyse woorde, he shal commende it, & make muche of it: but if a voluptuous man heare it, he shal haue no pleasure therin, but cast it behynd his backe.

16 The talking of a foole is lyke an heauie burden by the way: but to heare a wyse man speake, it is pleasure.

17 Where a doubt is in the congregation, it is asked at the mouth of the wise, and they shal ponder his woordes in their hartes.

18 Like as is a house that is destroyed, euen so is wisedome vnto a foole: As for the knowledge of the vnwyse, it is but darke woordes.

19 Doctrine is vnto hym that hath no vnderstanding, euen as fetters about his feete, and like manicles vpon his right hande.

20 * A foole lyfteth vp his voyce with laughter: but a wise man shal scarse laugh secretly.

21 Learnyng is vnto a wyse man a iewel of golde, and like an armelet vppon his ryght arme.

22 A foolishe mans foote is soone in his neighbours house: but one that hath experience, shalbe ashamed at the person of the mightie.

23 A foole wyll peepe in at the wyndow into the house: but he that is wel nurtured wil stand without.

24 A foolishe man standeth hearkenyng at the doore: but he that is wise will be ashamed.

25 The lyppes of the vnwyse wyl be telling foolishe thynges: but the woordes of such as haue vnderstanding, shalbe weighed in the ballance.

26 The hart of fooles is in their mouth: but the mouth of the wise is in his hart.

27 When the vngodly curseth the * blasphemer, he curseth his owne soule.

28 A prince accuser of other men, shall defile his owne soule, and be hated of euery man: but he that keepeth his tongue and is discrete, shal come to honour.

¶ The xxii. Chapter.

1 Of the sluggarde. 3 Not to speake wordes to a fole. 16 A good conscience feareth not.

1 A Slouthfull body is moulded * of a stone of clay, and euery man wyll speake to his disprayse.

2 A slouthful body is made of the doung of oxen, and euery one that toucheth him, must washe his handes agayne.

3 A misnurtured sonne is the dishonour of the father: a foolishe daughter shalbe litle regarded.

4 A wyse daughter is an heritage vnto her husbande: but she that commeth to dishonestye, bringeth her father in beaminesse.

5 A daughter that is past shame, dishonoureth both her father and her husband: the vngodly shal regard her, but they both shall despite her.

6 A tale out of time, is as musicke in mourning: but wisedome knoweth the seasons of correction and doctrine.

7 If children liue honestly, and haue wherwithal, they shall put away the shame of their parentes:

8 But if children be proude with hautinesse, and foolishnesse, they blot out the nobilitie of their kinred.

9 Who so teacheth a foole, is euen as one that gleweth a potshard togeather, as one that telleth a tale to him that heareth him not, and as one that rayseth a man out of a heauie sleepe.

10 Who so telleth a foole of wisedome, is euen as a man whiche speaketh to one that is a sleepe, when he hath tolde his tale, he sayth, What is the matter?

11 * When one dyeth, lamentation is made for him, because the light fayleth hym: euen so, let men mourne ouer a foole, for he wanteth vnderstanding. Make but litle weeping because of the dead, for he is come to rest: but the life of the foole is worse then the death.

12 * Seuen dayes doo men mourne for him that is dead, but the lamentation ouer the vnwyse and vngodly, shoulde endure all the dayes of their life.

13 Talke not muche with a foole, and goe not with him that hath no vnderstandyng: beware of hym, lest it turne thee to trauayle

b For while he curseth an other, he dooth the same thing, and so curseth him selfe.

* Eccl.28.19

a That is, like as the idle stone geatereth mosse and fylth, so doth the slouthfull both sickenesse of body, and corruption of mynde, and as euery man doth auoyde the filthinesse of doung, and sheketh it of: so doth he auoid the company of idle loyterers, lest he be accounted like vnto them.

b Though lead be heauie, yet may it be born, but the insolent foole may not be borne as Prouer. 28. Heauie is the stone, & weightie is the sande: but the fury of a foole dooth passe thē both.

14 b What is heauier then lead? and what should a foole be called els but leade?

15 Sand, salt, and a lumpe of yron, is easier to beare, then an vnwise, foolishe, and vngodly man.

16 Like as the bande of wood bounde togeather in the foundation of the house cannot be loosed: euen so is it with the hart that is stablished in the thought of counsel. The thought of the wyse shall neuer feare, nor be offended at any tyme.

17 Like as a fayre plastered wall in a wynter house and a hygh buyldyng may not abide the wynde & stonne: euen so is a fooles hart afrayde in his imagination, he feareth at euery thyng, and can not endure.

18 A wauerynge hart in the imagination of a foole, wyl not euer stande in awe: but he that abideth in the commaundementes of God, wyl alway feare.

*1. Cor. 14.14. Heb. 4.12.

19 * He that nyppeth a mans eye, bringeth foorth teares: and he that pricketh the hart, bringeth forth the meanyng and thought.

20 Who so casteth a stone at the byrdes, frayeth them away: and he that blaspemeth his freende, breaketh frendshyp.

21 Though thou drewest a swoorde at thy freend, yet dispayre not: for thou mayest come agayne to thy freende.

22 If he speake sourely, feare not: for ye may be agreed togeather agayne, except it be that thou blaspheme hym, dispayne hym, open his secretes, and wound him traiterously: for all suche thynges shall dryue away a freende.

23 Be faythfull vnto thy neighbour in his powertie, that thou mayest reioyce with him also in his prosperitie: abyde stedfast vnto him in the time of his trouble, that thou mayest be heyre with hym in his heritage: for powertie is not alwayes to be contemned, nor the eyche that is foolishe to be had in estimation.

24 Like as the vapour and smoke goeth out at the ouen before the fire: euen so vnto woordes, rebukes, and threatninges, goe before bloodsheddyng.

25 Be not ashamed to defend thy frend, as for me, I wyl not hyde my face from hym though he should doo me harme: who so euer heareth it, shal be ware of hym.

*Psa. 141.3. 26 * Who shall set a watche before my mouth, and a sure seale vpon my lyppes, that I fall not with them, and that my tongue destroy me not?

The xxiii. Chapter.

1 A prayer against pryde, lechery, and gluttonie. 17. Many sinnes proceede of adulterie. 27. Of the feare of God.

1 O Lorde, father and gouernour of my life, leaue me not in their imagination and counsell: oh let me not fal in such reproofe.

2 Who wyll keepe my thought with the scourge, and the doctrine of wysedome in mine hart? that he spare not mine ignorance, that I fal not with them.

3 Lest mine ignorances increase, that mine offences be not many in number, and that my sinnes exceede not: lest I fall before mine enimies, and so mayne aduersaries reioyce, whose hope is farre from thy mercy.

4 O Lorde, thou father and God of my life, leaue me not in their imagination: O let me not haue a proud looke, but turne away al voluptuousnesse from me.

5 Take from me the lustes of the body, let not the desires of vncleanesse take holde vpon me.

6 And geue me not ouer into an vnshamefast and obstinate mynde.

7 Heare me, O ye children, I wyll geue you a doctrine, how ye shall order your mouth: who so keepeth it, shall not perish through his lyppes, nor be hurt through wicked woorkes.

8 As for the sinner, he shalbe taken in his owne vanitie: he that is proud and cursed shal fal therein.

*Ecclus. 20.7 9 * Let not thy mouth be accustomed with swearyng, for in it there are many falles: let not the namyng of God be continually in thy mouth, and meddle not with the names of Saintes, for thou shalt not be excused of them.

*Eccl. 27.15 10 For lyke as a seruant whiche is oft punished, can not be without some sore: euen so, what so euer he be that sweareth, and nameth God, shall not be cleane pourged from sinne.

11 A man that vseth much swearyng, shalbe fylled with wickednesse, and the plague shal neuer goe from his house, if he beguyle his brother, his fault shalbe vpon hym, if he knowledge not his sinne, he maketh a double offence, and yf he sweare in vayne, he shall not be found righteous: for his house shalbe full of plagues.

12 The woordes of the swearer bringeth death, God graunt that it be not founde in the house of Iacob: but they that feare God eschew al suche, and lye not wallowyng in sinne.

13 The

Eph.5.4. 13 Accustome not thy mouth to vnhonest and filthy talking, for in it is the dooing of sinne.

14 Remember thy father and thy mother when thou art set among great men: lest God forget thee in their sight, & lest thou doting in thy customs, suffer rebuke, and wyshe not to haue been borne, and so curse the day of thy natiuitie.

Ecc.16.7 15 The man that is accustomed with the wordes of blasphemie, will neuer be reformed all the dayes of his life.

16 Two sinne sworn is too much, but the third bringeth wrath and destruction: An hotte stomacke can not be quenched (euen lyke a burning fire) til it haue swalowed vp some thing: euen so an vnchaste man hath no rest in his flesh, till he haue kindled a fyre.

17 All bread is sweete to an whoremonger, he will not leaue of till he dye.

Eccl.29.15 18 A man that breaketh wedlocke, and regardeth not his soule, but sayth, Tush, who seeth me? I am compassed about with darknesse, the walles couer me, no body seeth me, whom need I to feare? the highest will not remember my sinnes:

19 He vnderstandeth not that his eyes see al thinges, for al such feare of men driueth away the feare of God from him: for he feareth only the eyes of men, and considereth not that the eyes of the Lorde are clearer then the sunne, beholding all the wayes of men, and the ground of the deepe, & looking euen to mens hartes in secrete places.

20 The Lorde GOD knewe all thinges or euer they were made, and after they be brought to passe also he looketh vpon them all.

21 The same man shalbe openly punished in the streetes of the citie, and shalbe chased abroade like a young Horse Foale: and when he thinketh least vpon it, he shalbe taken.

22 Thus shall he be put to shame of euery man, because he would not vnderstand the feare of the Lorde: and * thus shall it goe also with euery wyfe that leaueth her husband, and getteth inheritance by a strange mariage.

Leui.22.10 Deu.22.22.

Ezec.20.14 23 * First, she hath ben vnfaithfull vnto the lawe of the highest: secondly, she hath forsaken her owne husband: thirdly, she hath played the whoore in aduulterie, and gotten her children by an other man.

24 She shalbe brought out of the congregation, and her children shalbe loked vpon.

25 Her children shall not take roote: and as for fruite, her branches shall bring foorth none.

26 A shameful reporte shal she leaue behind her, and her dishonour shall not be put out.

27 And they that remayne, shall know that there is nothing better then the feare of God, and that there is nothing sweeter then to take heede vnto the commaundementes of the Lorde.

28 A great worshipp is it to followe the Lord: for long lyfe shalbe receyued of him.

The xxiiii. Chapter.

1. A prayse of wysedome proceeding foorth of the mouth of God. 6. Of her workes and place where she resteth.

1 WIsedome shall prayse her selfe, and be honoured in God, and reioyce in the middest of the people.

2 In the congregations of the highest shall she open her mouth, and triumph in the beholding of his power.

3 In the middest of her people shal she be exalted, and wondred at in the holy fulnesse.

4 In the multitude of the chosen she shalbe commended, and among such as be blessed, she shalbe praysed, and thal say,

5 I am come out of the mouth of the highest, first borne before al creatures.

6 I caused the light that fayleth not to arise in the heauen, and couered al the earth as a cloude.

7 My dwelling is aboue in the heigth, and my seate is in the piller of the cloude.

8 I mee selfe alone haue gone rounde aboue the compasse of heauen, and pearsed the ground of the deepe.

9 I haue walked in the floodes of the sea, and haue stand in all landes, my dominion is in euery people, and in euery nation, and with my power haue I troden downe the hartes of all both high and lowe.

10 In all these thinges also I sought rest, and a dwelling in some inheritance.

11 So the creator of all thinges gaue me a commaundement, and he that made me, appointed me a tabernacle, and saide vnto me, Let thy dwelling be in Iacob, & thine inheritance in Israel, and roote thee selfe among my chosen.

*Psa.8.23.

12 I was created from the beginning, and before the worlde, and shall not leaue of vnto the worlde to come: in the holy *habitation haue I serued before him, and so was I stablished in Sion.

*Exod.31.3.

13 In the holy* citie rested I in like maner, and in Hierusalem was my power.

*Psal.131.8

14 I tooke roote in an honourable people, euen in the portion of the Lorde, and in his heritage, and kept me in the fulnesse of the saintes.

15 I am

15 I am ſet vp an high like a Cedar vppon Libanus, and as a Cypreſſe tree vppon the mount Hermon.

16 I am exalted like a Palme tree in Cades, and as a Roſe plant in Jericho, as a fayre Olyue tree in the feelde, & am exalted like as a Plane tree by the water ſide.

17 I haue geuen a ſmell in the ſtreetes as the Cynamom and Balme that hath ſo good a ſauour, yea, a ſweete odour haue I geuen as it were Myrrhe of the beſt: I haue made my dwellinges to ſmell as it were of Rozin, Galbanum, of Cloues, Incenſe, and as Libanus, when it is not hewen downe, and myne odour is as the pure Balme.

18 As the a Terebint haue I ſtretched out my branches, & my branches are the branches of honour, and louing fauour.

a. Terebint, is a hard tree ſpread abrode with long boughes, where out runneth the gumme called a pure Turpentine, which cleanſeth the ſtomacke of putrified humors, and purifieth the eares: ſo the wyſdome of god declared in his ſcriptures, ſpreadeth abroade her manifold branches of knowledge & vnderſtanding to purge the inward eares and corruption of the ſoule.

19 As the Vine haue I brought forth fruite of a ſweete ſauour, and my flowres are the fruite of honour and richeſſe.

20 I am the mother of beutifull loue, of feare, of knowledge, and of holy hope: I geue eternall thinges to all my chyldren to whom God hath commaunded.

21 In me is all grace of life and trueth, in me is al hope of lyfe and vertue.

22 O come vnto me, all ye that be deſirous of me, and fill your ſelues with my fruites.

23 For my ſpirite is ſweeter then hony, and ſo is myne inheritance more then the hony combe: the remembrance of me endureth for euermore.

24 They that eate me, ſhall haue the more hunger: and they that drinke me, ſhal thirſt the more.

25 Who ſo hearkeneth vnto me, ſhall not come to confuſion, and they that worke in me, ſhal not offend: they that take me to be knowen, ſhal haue euerlaſting lyfe.

26 All theſe thinges are the booke of lyfe, the couenant of the higheſt, and the knowledge of the trueth.

27 Moſes commaunded the lawe in the preceptes of righteouſneſſe for an b heritage vnto the houſe of Iacob, and committed the promiſe vnto Iſrael.

b. Exo. 20. 1.

28 Be not weery to behaue your ſelues naliantly with the Lord, that he may alſo confirme you: cleaue vnto him, for the Lorde Almighty is but one God, and beſides him there is no other ſauiour.

29 (Out of Dauid his ſeruant, he ordeyned to rayſe vp a maſt mighty kyng, ſitting in the ſeate of honour for euermore.)

c. Gen. 2. 11.

30 This filleth with wyſdome, c like as the floodes of Phiſon, and as the flood of Tigris, when the newe fruites are a growing.

31 This bringeth plenteous vnderſtanding lyke Euphrates, and ſpreadeth vp as d Iordane in the tyme of harueſt. d. Ioſh. 3. 13.

32 This maketh mercure to breake forth as the light, and as the water Gehon in the harueſt.

33 The firſt hath not knowen her perfectly: no more ſhall the laſt ſeeke out y ground of her.

34 For her thought is fuller then the ſea, and her counſayle is profounder then the great deepe.

35 I wyſedome haue caſt out floodes, I am as a great water brooke out of the ryuer, I am as the ryuer Dozir, and as a water conduite am I come out of the garden of pleaſure.

36 I ſayde, I wyll water the garden of my young plantes, and fill the fruite of my byrth: So my water brooke became ryuer ouerflowing great, and my ryuer approched vnto the ſea.

37 For I make doctrine to be vnto all men as lighe as the fayre morning, and I ſhall make it to be euer the clearer.

38 I wyl pearſe throughe all the lower partes of the earth, I wyll looke vpon all ſuche as be a ſleepe, and lighten all them that put their truſt in the Lorde.

39 I ſhal yet powre out doctrine lyke as prophecie, and leaue it vnto ſuch as ſeeke after wyſedome, and their generations ſhall I neuer fayle vnto the holye euerlaſting world.

40 e Beholde howe that I haue not labored for mee ſelfe onely: but for al them that ſeeke after the trueth. e. Eccl. 33. 18.

¶ The xxiv. Chapter.

1. Of three thinges which pleaſe God, and of three which he hateth. 7. Of nine thinges that be not to be ſuſpect, and of the tenth. 13. Chiefely of the malice of a woman.

1 Three thinges there are that my ſpirite fauoureth, which be alſo alowed before God & men: The vnitie of f brethren, the loue of neighbours, a man & wyfe that agree well togeather. f. Gen. 13. 8. Rom. 12. 10. Gen. 2. 4.

2 Three thinges there be which my ſoule hateth, and I vterly abhorre the lyfe of them: A poore man that is proud, a riche man that is a lyer, and an olde body that doteth, and is vnchaſte.

3 If thou haſt geathered nothing in thy youth, what wylt thou finde then in thyne age?

4 O how pleaſant a thing is it when graye headed men are diſcreete, and when the elders can geue good counſayle!

5 O howe comely a thyng is wisedome vnto aged men? yea, vnderstanding and counsel to men of honour is a glorious thyng.

6 The crowne of olde men is to haue much experience: and the feare of God is theyr worship.

7 There be nyene things which I haue iudged in my hart to be happy, & the tenth wyll I tell foorth vnto men with my tongue: A man that while he lyueth hath ioy of his children, and seeth the fal of his enemies.

8 Wel is hym that dwelleth with an houswyfe of vnderstandyng, and that hath not fallen with his tongue, and that hath not bene fayne to serue suche as are vnmeete for hym. Ge. 19. 16. and 24. 1. Iacob. 3. 2.

9 Wel is hym that fyndeth a faythfull frende: and wel is hym which talketh of wisedome to an eare that heareth him. Ecclesiast.

10 O how great is he that findeth wisedome and knowledge? Yet is he not aboue hym that feareth the Lorde.

11 The feare of God hath set it selfe aboue al thynges.

12 Blessed is the man vnto whom it is graunted to haue the feare of God: vnto whom shal he be likened that kepeth it fast?

13 The feare of God is the begynning of his loue, and the beginning of fayth, is to cleaue fast vnto it.

14 The heauinesse of the hart is all the punishment, and the wickednesse of a woman goeth aboue al.

15 Al punishment and plague is nothyng in comparison to the plague of the hart: euen so, al wickednesse is nothyng to the wickednesse of a woman.

16 Whatsoeuer happeneth vnto a man, is nothyng in comparison of it that his euyll wyllers doo vnto hym: and all vengeance is nothyng to the vengeance of the enimie.

17 There is not a more wicked head then the head of the serpent: and there is no wrath aboue the wrath of a woman.

18 I will rather dwell with a * Lion and Dragon, then to keepe house with a wicked wyfe. Psa. 21. 19.

19 The wickednesse of a woman changeth her face, she shall muffle her countenance as it were a beare, and as a sacke shal she shewe it among the neighbours.

20 Her husband is brought to shame among his neighbours because of her, and when he heareth it, it maketh him to sygh.

21 Al wickednesse is but litle to the wickednesse of a woman: the portion of the vngodly shal fal vpon her.

22 Lyke as the clymyng vp a sandy way is to the feete of the aged: euen so is a wife ful of wordes to a styl quyet man.

23 * Looke not too narrowly vpon the beautie of a woman, lest thou be prouoked in desire towarde her. * Eccl. 42. 12. 2. king. 13. 2.

24 The wrath of a woman is dishonour & great confusion if a woman geat the maistrie, then is she contrary to her husband.

25 * A wicked wyfe maketh a sory hart, an heauie countenance, and a dead wound: Weake handes and feeble knees, is a woman that her husband is not the better for. * Gen. 36.

26 Of the woman came the beginning of sinne, and through her we al are dead. a. 1 Tim. 2. Adam was not deceyued. But to the Rom. 5. he sayth, By one man sin entred into the world. The occasion was offred by the woman, but the sinne was finished by the man consenting thereunto.

27 Geue thy water no passage, no not a litle, neither geue a wicked woman her wyl.

28 If she walke not after thy hande, she shal confound thee in the syght of thine enimies: cut her of then from thy flesshe, that she doo not alway abuse thee.

The xxvi. Chapter.

The prayse of a good woman. v. 6. Of the iealousie and drunkennesse of a woman.

1 HAppy is the man that hath a vertuous wife: for the number of his yeeres shal be double.

2 An honest woman maketh her husbande a ioyful man, and she shal fyl the yeeres of his lyfe in peace.

3 A vertuous woman is a noble gyft, which shalbe geuen for a good portion vnto suche as feare God.

4 Whether a man be rych or poore, he may haue euer a merry hart, and a chearefull countenaunce.

5 There be three thinges that my hart feareth, and my face is afrayd of the fourth: treason in a citie, a seditious people, and noysome tongues: al these are heauier then the death.

6 When one woman is ielous ouer another, it bryngeth payne and sorow vnto the hart: and a woman that telleth out al things, is a scourge of the tongue.

7 When one hath an euil wife, it is euen as when an vnlike prayre of oxen must drawe togeather: he that geatteth her, geatteth a scorpion.

8 A drunken woman is a great plague: for she can not couer her owne shame.

9 The whoredome of a woman may be knowen in the pride of her eyes & eye lidde.

10 * If thy daughter be not shamefast, holde her straightly, lest she abuse her selfe through ouermuche libertie. * Eccl. 42. 11.

11 Beware of all the dishonestie of her eyes, and marueyle not if she doo agaynst thee.

12 As a wayfaring man that is thirsty, when he hath founde a well, drinketh of euerery next water: ſo wyl ſhe ſyt downe by euery hedge, and make her ſelfe common to euery man that paſſeth by.

13 A louing wife reioyceth her husband, and feedeth his bones with her wyſedome.

14 A woman of fewe woordes is a gyft of God: to al nurtured myndes may nothing be compared.

15 An honeſt and mannerly woman is a gift aboue other gyftes: and there is no weight to be compared vnto a mynde that can rule it ſelfe.

16 Like as the ſuane when it aryſeth is an ornament in the high heauen of the Lord: ſo is a vertuous wyfe the beautie of her houſe.

17 Like as the cleare light is vpon the holy candleſticke: ſo is the beautie of the face, vpon an honeſt body.

18 Like as the golden pyllers are vpon the ſockettes of ſyluer: ſo are the fayre feete vpon a woman that hath a conſtant mynde.

19 Perpetuall are the foundations that be layde vpon a whole ſtony rocke: ſo are the commaundementes of God vpon the hart of an holy woman.

20 There be two thynges that greeue my hart, and in the third is diſpleaſure come vpon me: When an expert man of warre ſuffereth ſcarnefle and pouertie, when men of vnderſtandyng and wyſedome are not let by, and when one departeth from rychteouſneſſe vnto ſinne: who ſo dooth ſuch, the Lorde hath prepared hym vnto the ſwoorde.

21 There be two manner of thynges which mee thynke to be harde and perillous: A marchant can not lightly keepe him from wrong, neyther a tauerner hym ſelfe from ſinne.

¶ The xxvii. Chapter.

1 Of the poore that vvoulde be ryche. 5 The probation of the man that feareth God. 20 The vvicked imagineth euill, vvhiche returneth vpon hym ſelfe.

*2. Tim. 6. 9 Proue. 23. 4.

1 BEcauſe of * pouertie haue many one offended: and he that ſeeketh to be riche, turneth his eyes aſide.

2 Like as a nayle in the wall ſticketh faſt betwirt two ſtones, euen ſo dooth ſinne sticke betwirt the buyer and the ſeller.

3 If he holde hym not diligently in the feare of the lord, his houſe ſhall ſoone be ouerthrowen.

4 Lyke as when one ſifteth, the fylthynes remayneth in the ſine: ſo remaineth there ſome vncleane thyng in the thought of man.

5 The ouen proueth the potters veſſell: ſo doth temptation of trouble trye righteous men.

6 The tree of the fielde is knowen by his fruite: ſo is the thought of mans harte knowen by his woordes. Pro. 27. 21.

7 Prayſe no man, except thou haue heard him, for a man is knowen by his woorde.

8 If thou folowest righteouſneſſe, thou ſhalt geat her, and put her vppon thee as a fayre garment: and thou ſhalt dwel with her, and ſhe ſhall defende thee for euer, and in the day of knowledge thou ſhalt fynde ſtedfaſtneſſe.

9 The byrdes reſort vnto theyr lyke: ſo dooth the trueth turne vnto them that be occupied withal.

10 The Lion waiteth the pray: ſo dooth ſinne vpon them that worke vnrighteouſneſſe.

11 The talking of him that feareth god is nothyng but wyſedome: as for a foole, he changeth as the moone.

12 If thou be among the vndiſcreete, keepe thy woordes to a conuenient time: but among ſuche as be wiſe, ſpeake on hardly.

13 The talkyng of fooles is abomination, and their ſport is voluptuouſneſſe, and mis-nurture.

14 * Much ſwearyng maketh the heare to ſtande vp: and to ſtriue with ſuch, ſtoppeth the eares. * Eccle. 23. 9

15 The ſtrife of the proud is bloodſheddyng, and theyr blaſphemyng is beaute to heare.

16 Who ſo * diſcouereth ſecrets, leeſeth his credence, & findeth no frend after his will. * Ec. 19. 10. and. 22. 28.

17 Loue thy freende, and bynd thee ſelfe in faythfulneſſe with hym: but if thou bewray his ſecretes, thou ſhalt not geat hym agayne.

18 For like as the man is that deſtroyeth his enimie: ſo is he alſo that dealeth falſly in the freendſhip of his neighbour.

19 Lyke as one that letteth a byrde goe out of his hand, can not take her againe: euen ſo thou, yf thou geue ouer thy freende, thou canſt not geat hym agayne.

20 Yea, thou canſt not come by him: for he is to farre of: he is vnto thee as a Roe eſcaped out of the ſnare, for his ſoule is wounded.

21 As for woundes they may be bound vp agayne, and an euyl woorde may be reconciled: but who ſo bewrayeth the ſecretes of a freende, there is no more hope to be had vnto hym.

22 He that * winketh with the eyes, imagineth ſome euyll: and he that knoweth him, wyl let hym alone. * Pro. 10. 10

23 When thou art preſent, he ſhall highly commend and prayſe thy woordes: but at the the laſt, he ſhall turne his tayle, and ſlaunder thy ſaying.

24 Many things haue I hated, but nothing ſo euil: for the Lord him ſelfe alſo abhorreth ſuch a one.

25 Who ſo caſteth a ſtone an high', it ſhall fall vpon his owne head: and he that ſmiteth with guile, woundeth him ſelfe.

Pro.26.27 Eccl.10.8. 26 * Who ſo diggeth a pit, ſhall fall therin, and he that layeth a ſtone in his neighbours way, ſhal ſtumble thereon, and he that layeth a ſnare for an other, ſhalbe taken in it him ſelfe.

27 Who ſo geueth a wicked noyſome counſayle, it ſhal come vpon him ſelf, and he ſhal not knowe from whence.

28 The proud blaſpheme, and are ſcornefull: but vengeance lurketh for them as a Lion.

29 They that reioyce at the fal of the righteous, ſhalbe taken in the ſnare: anguiſhe of hart ſhall conſume them before they dye.

30 Anger and rigorouſneſſe are two abominable thinges, and the vngodly hath them both vpon him.

¶ The.xxviii.Chapter.

1. We ought not to deſire vengeance, but to forgeue the offence. 13 Of the vices of the tongue, and of the dangers thereof.

Deu.32.31 Iam.12.19. 1 HE that ſeeketh * vengeance, ſhal finde vengeance of the Lorde, whiche ſhal ſurely keepe his ſinnes.

2 Forgeue thy neighbour the hurt that he hath done thee, and ſo ſhal thy ſinnes be forgeuen thee alſo when thou prayeſt.

Pro.6.14. 3 * A man that beareth hatred againſt an other, howe dare he deſyre forgeueneſſe of God?

4 He that ſheweth no mercie to a man which is like him ſelfe, howe dare he aſke forgeueneſſe of his ſinnes?

5 If he that is but fleſhe, beareth hatred, and keepeth it, who wyll entreate for his ſinnes?

6 Remember the end, and let enmitie paſſe, whiche ſeeketh death and deſtruction, and abide thou in the commaundementes.

7 Remember the commaundementes, ſo ſhalt thou not be rygorous ouer thy neighbour: thinke vpon the couenant of the higheſt, and forgeue thy neighbours ignorance.

Eccl.8.1. 8 Beware of ſtrife, and thou ſhalt make thy ſinnes fewer.

9 For an angry man kindleth variance: and the vngodly diſquieteth freendes, and putteth diſcorde among them that be at peace.

Pro.26.21. 10 The * more wood there is, the more vehement is the fire, and the mightier that men be, the greater is the wrath: according to his richeſſe, his anger encreaſeth, and the longer the ſtrife endureth, the more it burneth.

11 An haſtie brawling kindleth a fire, and an haſtie ſtrife ſheddeth blood: a tongue alſo that beareth falſe witneſſe, bringeth death.

12 If thou blowe the ſparke, it ſhall burne, if thou ſpit vpon it, it ſhall goe forth, and both theſe come out of the mouth.

13 * The ſlaunderer and double tongued is curſed: for many one that be freendes, ſeeketh he at variance. *Eccl.21.30

14 The "thyrd tongue hath diſquieted many one, and driuen them from one land to an other: ſtrong cities of the riche hath it broken downe, and ouerthrowen the houſes of great men: the ſtrength of the people hath it brought downe, and been the decay of mighty nations. "Or, a double tongue, whiche ſayth and vnſayth, or ſpeaketh one thing, and thinketh an other. The third tongue do ſome take for that which ſpeaketh neither out of the olde nor the newe Teſtament, but of their owne braine.

15 The thyrd tongue hath caſt out many an honeſt woman, and robbed them of their labours.

17 The ſtroke of the rod maketh printes in the ſkinne: but the ſtroke of the tongue ſmiteth the bones in ſunder.

18 There be many that haue periſhed with the ſwoorde: but many moe through the tongue.

19 Well is him that is kept from an euyll tongue, and commeth not in the anger therof, which draweth not the yoke of ſuch, and is not bound in the bandes of it.

20 For the yoke therof is of iron, and the band of it of "ſteele. "Or, braſſe.

21 The death therof is a very euill death: hell were better for one, then ſuche a tongue.

22 But the fyre of it may not oppreſſe them that feare God, and the flame therof may not burne them.

23 Such as forſake the Lord, ſhal fall therein, and it ſhal burne them, and no man ſhalbe able to quenche it: it ſhal fall vpon them as a Lion, & deuoure them as a Leopard.

24 Thou hedgeſt thy goodes with thornes: why dooeſt not rather make doores and barres for thy mouth?

25 Thou weigheſt thy gold and ſiluer: why dooeſt thou not weigh thy woordes alſo vpon the ballance, and make a doore and a barre, and a ſure bridle for thy mouth?

26 Beware that thou ſlide not in thy tongue, and ſo fall before thyne enimies that lay wayte for thee, and thy fall be incurable, euen vnto death.

¶ The xxix. Chapter.

1. Howe we ought to lende our money, and doo almes. 15. Of a faythfull man aunswering for his freend. 22. Of liberalitie and hospitalitie.

1 WHo so wyll shewe mercie, let hym lende vnto his neighbour: and he that is able, let him keepe the commaundementes.

2 Lende vnto thy neighbour in time of his neede, and pay thou thy neighbour agayne in due season.

3 Keepe thy woord, and deale faythfully with him: and thou shalt alway finde the thing that is necessary for thee.

4 There haue been many, that when a thing was lent them, reckned it to be found, and made them trauayle and labour that had helped them.

5 Whyle they receiue any thing, they kysse the handes of such as geue them, and for their neighbours good, they humble theyr voyce: but when they should pay agayne, they keepe it backe, and geue cuyl woordes, and make many excuses by reason of the time.

6 And though he be able, yet geueth he scarse the halfe agayne, and reckeneth the other to be found: and yf he withholde not his money, yet hath he an enimie of him, and that vndeserued: he payeth him with cursing and rebuke, & geueth him euill woordes for his good deede.

7 There be many one whiche are not glad for to lend, not because of euill, but they feare to lose the thing that they lend.

8 Yet haue thou patience with the simple, and withhold not mercie from him.

9 Helpe the poore for ỹ commaundementes sake, and let him not goe emptie from thee, because of his necessitie.

10 Lose thy money for thy brother & neyghbours sake, and burie it not vnder a stone where it rusteth and corrupteth.

11 Gather thy treasure after the commaundement of the highest, and so shall it bring thee more profite then gold.

12 *Lay vp thyne almes in the *hand of the poore, and it shall keepe thee from al euill.

13 *A mans almes is as a purse with him, and shall keepe a mans fauour as the apple of an eye: and afterward shal it aryse, and pay euery man his rewarde vppon his head.

14 It shall fight for thee against thyne enimies, better then the shielde of a Gyant, or speare of the mighty.

15 A good honest man is a surety for his neighbour: but a wicked person letteth him come to shame.

16 Forget not the frendship of thy suretie: for he hath geuen his soule for thee.

17 The vngodly despiseth the good deede of his suretie.

18 a The wicked wyll not become suretie, and the vnthankfull and ignorant leaueth his suretie in danger.

a. As he is a foole that is suretie for euery man: so is he vngodly that wyll be suretie for no man.

19 Some man promiseth for his neighbours and when he hath lost his honestie, he shall forsake him.

20 Suretyship hath destroyed many a rich man, and remooued them as the waues in the sea, mighty people hath it driuen away, and caused them to wander in straunge countreys.

21 An vngodly man transgressing the commaundement of the Lorde, shall fall into an euill suretiship: and though he force him selfe to get out, yet shal he fal into iudgement.

22 Helpe thy neighbour out after thy power, and beware that thou thee selfe fall not in such debt.

23 * The cheefe thing that keepeth thy life, is water, and bread, clothing, and lodging, to couer the shame. *Eccl. 39. 33

24 Better is it to haue a poore liuing in a mans owne house, then delicate fare among the straunge.

25 Be it little or much that thou hast, holde thee content withall: and thou shalt not be blamed as a vagabound.

26 For a miserable lyfe is it to goe from house to house, and where a man is a fremd, he dare not open his mouth.

b. That is, a straunger without any acquaintance or kyndred.

27 Though one be lodged, and haue meate and drinke, yet shall he be taken as vnworthy, and heare many bitter rough woordes, namely thus.

28 Goe thy way thou straunger, and prepare a table for thee selfe, and feede me also of that thou hast.

29 Geue place thou straunger to an honourable man, my brother commeth into my house: and so telleth him the necessitie of his house.

30 These thinges are heauy to a man that hath vnderstanding, namely, the forbidding of the house, and that the lender casteth him in the teeth.

¶ The xxx. Chapter.

1. Of the correction of children. 14. Of the commoditie of health. 17. Death is better then sorrowfull life.

he grope not after his neyghbours dooyes.

Prou.6.74 2 He that * teacheth his sonne, shal haue ioy in hym, and neede not to be ashamed of him among his acquayntaunce.

3 Whoso enfourmeth & teacheth his sonne, greeueth the enimie: and before his freendes, he may haue ioy of hym.

4 Though his father die, yet is he as though he were not dead: for he hath left one behynde hym that is lyke hym.

5 In his lyfe he sawe hym, and had ioye in hym, and was not sory in his death, neyther was he ashamed before the enimies.

6 For he left behynde hym an auenger agaynst his enimies, and a good dooer vnto the freendes.

7 For the lyfe of chyldren he shall bynde the woundes together, and his hart is greeued at euery crye.

8 An vntamed horse wyl be harde, & a wanton chylde wyl be wylful.

9 Yf thou bryng vp thy sonne delicately, he shall make thee afrayde: and yf thou playe with hym, he shal bryng thee to heauyneſſe.

10 Laugh not with hym, lest thou weepe with hym also, and lest thou gnash with thy teethe at the last.

Luk.7.25 11 * Geue hym no libertie in his youth, and excuse not his folly.

12 Bow downe his necke while he is young, hyt hym vppon the sides whyle he is but a chylde: lest he waxe stubborne, and geue no more force of thee, and so shalt thou haue heauyneſſe of soule.

13 Teache thy chylde, and be diligent therin, lest it be to thy shame.

14 Better is the poore being whole & strong, then a man to be ryche, and not to haue his health.

15 Health and welfare is aboue al gold, and a whole body aboue al treasure.

16 There is no ryches aboue a sound body, and no ioy aboue the ioy of the hart.

17 Death is better then a bytter lyfe, & eternal rest better then continual sickeneſſe.

18 a The good thynges that are put in a closemouth, are lyke as when meate is layd vpon the graue.

19 What good doeth the offeryng vnto an idol? for he can neyther eate, taste, nor smell: euen so is he that is chased of the Lorde, and beareth the rewarde of iniquitie.

20 He seeth with his eyes, and groneth lyke a gelded man that lyeth with a Virgin, and sygheth.

21 Geue not ouer thy mynde into heauynes, and vexe not thee selfe in thyne owne counsell.

22 The ioy and cheareſulneſſe of the hart is the lyfe of man, and a mans gladneſſe is the prolongyng of his dayes.

23 Loue thyne owne soule, & comforte thyne hart, as for sorowe and heauineſſe, driue it farre from thee: for heauineſſe hath slayne many a man, and bryngeth no profite.

24 Zeale and anger shorten the dayes of the lyfe, careſulneſſe and sorowe bryng age before the tyme.

25 Vnto a mery hart euery thyng hath a good taste that he eateth.

¶ The xxxi. Chapter.

1. We ought to geue diligent heede to honeſtie. 2. Of them that take payne to gather riches.

1 TRauayle and careſulneſſe for riches, taketh away the sleepe, and maketh the sickne to consume.

2 When one lyeth and taketh care, he waketh euer vp, lyke as a great sickeneſſe breaketh the sleepe.

3 The rich hath great labour in gatherīng his riches together, and then with the pleasure of his riches he taketh his rest, and is refreshed.

4 But whoso laboureth, and prospereth not, he is poore: and though he leaue of, yet is he a begger.

5 He that loueth riches, shal not be iustified: and whoso folowerh corruption, shall haue ynough thereof.

6 * Many one are come in great misfortune by the reason of gold, and haue found their destruction before them. Eccle.8.3.

7 It is a tree of fallyng vnto them that offer it vp, and al such as be foolyshe fal therein.

8 * Blessed is the rych which is found without blemyshe, and hath not gone after gold, nor hoped in money and treasures. Luk.6.24

9 Where is there suche a one, and we shall commende hym, and cal hym blessed? for woonderfull thynges doeth he among his people.

10 Whoso is tryed and founde perfecte in suche thynges, shalbe commended and praised: who myght offend, and hath not offended? who could do euyl, & hath not done it?

11 Therefore shall his good be stablyshed, and the whole congregation shall declare his almes.

12 Yf thou syt at a great mans table, open not thy mouth wyde vpon it, and say not, There is much meate on it.

21 Yf thou feelest that thou hast eaten too muche, aryse, goe thy way, cast it of thy stomacke, and take thy rest, & it shall ease thee, so that thou shalt bring no sicknesse vnto thy body.

22 My sonne, heare me, and despise me not, and at the last thou shalt finde as I haue tolde thee: in al thy workes be diligent and quicke, so shal there no sicknesse happen vnto thee.

*Pro.22.9. 23 *Whoso is liberall in dealyng out his meate, many men shal blesse hym, and praise hym with their lippes, & the same is a sure token of his loue and faythfulnesse.

*Judit.13.2. 25 *Shewe not thy valeantnesse in wyne, for wyne hath destroyed many a man.

29 But yf it be dronken with excesse, it maketh bytternesse and sorowe vnto the mynd.

30 Drunkennesse kylleth the mynde of the foolyshe with shame and ruine, minisheth the strength, and maketh woundes.

¶ The xxxii. Chapter.

1. Of the discretion and prayse of the Preacher, and of the hearer. 13. Of the feare, fayth, and confidence of God.

1 YF thou be made a ruler, pryde not thee selfe therein, but be thou as one of the people: take diligent care for them, and looke wel thereto.

2 And when thou hast doone all thy duetie, sit thee downe, that thou mayest be merye with them, and receyue a crowne of honor.

3 Speake thou that art the elder, for it becommeth thee, but with sure knowledge: hynder not musicke.

4 Speake not where there is no *audience: and powre not foorth wisedome out of time at an importunitie. *Eccle.3.5

5 Lyke as the Carbuncle stone shyneth that is set in golde, so doeth a songne garnyshe the wyne feast.

6 And as the Smaradge that is set in golde so is the sweetnesse of musicke by the myrth of wyne.

7 Geue eare, and be styl, and for thy good behauiour thou shalt be loued.

8 Thou young man speake that becommeth thee, and that is profitable: and yet scarse when thou art twyse asked.

9 Comprehend much with fewe wordes, in many thyngs be as one that is ignorant: geue eare, and holde thy tongue withal.

10 Yf thou be among men of hygh auctoritie, desyre not to compare thee selfe vnto them: and when an elder speaketh, make not thou many wordes therein.

11 Before the thunder, goeth lyghtenyng: and before nurture and shamefastnes goeth loue and fauour.

12 Stande vp betymes, and be not the last: but geat thee home soone.

13 And there take thy pastyme, and do what thou wylt: so that thou doo no euyll, and defye no man.

14 But for al thynges geue thanks vnto him that hath made thee, and replenished thee with his goodnesse.

15 Whoso feareth the Lord, wyl receyue his doctrine: and they that geat them to hym betymes, shal fynde grace.

16 He that seeketh the lawe, shalbe fylled withall: as for hym that is but faigned, he wyl be offended thereat.

17 They that feare the Lorde, shal fynde the iudgement: and their ryghteousnes shalbe kyndeled kindled as lyght.

18 An vngodly man wyl not be reformed, but can helpe him selfe with the example of others in his purpose.

19 A man of vnderstanding dispiseth no good counsel: but a wylde and proude body hath no feare, yea euen when he hath dealt rashly with another man: but his owne dooynges shalbe his rebuke.

20 My sonne, doo nothing without aduisement: so shal it not repent thee after the deede.

21 Goe not in the way where thou mayest fal, nor where thou mayest stumble agaynst the stone: agayne, neyther trust thou to the way that is playne.

22 And beware of thine owne chyldren, and take heede of them that be of thine owne housholde.

23 In al thy woorkes put thy trust in God, from thy whole hart: for that is the keeping of the commaundementes.

24 Who so beleeueth Gods woorde, taketh heede to the commaundementes: and he that putteth his trust in the Lorde, shall want nothyng.

¶ The .xxxiii. Chapter.

1. The deliuerance of hym that feareth GOD. 12. Man is in the hande of God, as the earth is in the hande of the potter.

1 There shal no euyl happen vnto hym that feareth God: but when he is in temptation the Lord shal deliuer hym, and keepe hym from euyl:

2 A wyse man hateth not the lawe, but an hypocrite a is as a shyp in ragyng water.

3 A man of vnderstanding geueth credence vnto the lawe of God, & the lawe is faythful vnto hym.

4 Be sure of the matter, then talke thereof: be fyrst wel instruct, then mayest thou geue answeare.

5 The hart of the foolishe is like a cart wheele, and his thoughtes runne about like the axeltree.

6 b Like as a wilde horse that neyeth vnder euery one that sitteth vppon hym, so it is with a scorneful freende.

7 Why doeth one day excel another, seeing al the dayes of the yeere come of the sunne?

8 The wysedome of the Lorde hath so parted them a sunder, and so hath he ordeyned the tymes and solempne feastes.

9 Some of them hath he chosen and halowed before other dayes.

10 And al men are made of the ground, and out of the earth of Adam: in the multitude of science hath the Lord sundred them, and made their wayes of diuers fashions.

11 Some of them hath he blessed, made much of them, halowed them, and claymed them to hym selfe: but some of them hath he cursed, brought them lowe, and put them out of their estate.

12 Lyke as the clay is in the potters hande, and al the ordering thereof at his pleasure: so are men also in the hande of hym that made them, so that he may geue them as lyketh hym best.

13 *Agaynst euyl, is good, & against death, is lyke: so is the vngodly agaynst suche as feare God. *2. Cor. 6. 14

14 Beholde, these are the woorkes of the highest, & there are euen two against two, and one set agaynst another.

15 I am awaked vp last of all, as one that geathereth after in haruest, in the gyftes of God, and in his blessyng I am encreased, and haue fylled my wine presse like a grape geatherer.

16 *Beholde howe I haue not laboured only for mee selfe, but for al suche as loue nurture and wisedome. *Eccle. 24. 26.

17 Heare me, O ye great men of the people, and hearken with your eares ye rulers of the congregation.

18 Geue not thy sonne & wyfe, thy brother, and freend, power ouer thee while thou lyuest: and geue not away thy substance and good to another, lest it repent thee, & thou be fayne to aske of them againe.

19 As long as thou lyuest and hast breath, c let no man change thee.

20 For better it is thy children to pray thee, then that thou shouldest be fayne to looke in their handes.

21 In al thy woorkes be excellent, that thy honour be neuer stayned.

22 At the tyme when thou shalt ende thy dayes and finishe thy lyfe, distribute thine inheritances.

23 The fodder, the whyppe, and the burden belongeth vnto the Asse: meate, correction, and woorke vnto the seruant.

24 If thou set thy seruant to labour, thou shalt finde rest: but if thou let him goe idle, he shal seeke libertie.

25 The yoke and the whippe bowe downe the harde necke: but tame thou thy euyl seruant with boudes and correction.

26 Sende him to labour, that he goe not idle: for idlenesse bryngeth muche euyl.

27 Set hym to woorke, for that belongeth vnto hym, and becommeth hym wel.

28 If he be not obedient, binde his feete: but doo not to much vnto him in any wyse, and without discretion doo not hyng.

a. Of dreames, diuinations, and enchauntmentes.
6. We ought to confute vayne hope, and lyng.
13. The prayse of them that feare God.

1 VAyne people beguyle them selues with vayne and deceytful hope, a and fooles trust in dreames.

2 Who so regardeth dreames, is lyke hym that wyl take holde of a shadowe, and folowe after the wynde.

3 Euen so is it with the appearinges of dreames: before the face is the lykenesse of a face.

4 Who can be cleansed of the vncleane? or what trueth can be spoken of a lyer?

5 Soothsaying, witchcraft, sorcerie, and dreaming, is but vayne: lyke as when a woman trauayleth with chylde, and hath many fantsies in her hart.

6 Where as suche visions come not of God, set not thine hart vpon them.

7 For dreames haue deceyued many a man, and they fayled that put their trust therein.

8 The lawe shalbe fulfylled without lyes, and wysedome is sufficient to a faythfull mouth: what knowledge hath he that is not tryed?

9 A wyse man that is wel instruct, vnderstandeth muche: and he that hath good experience, can talke of wysedome.

10 He that hath no experience, knoweth litle, and he that erreth causeth muche wickednesse: he that is not tryed, what thinges knoweth he? he that hath been deceyued, is ful of subtiltie.

11 When I was yet in errour, I learned much also: yea I was so learned, that I coulde not expresse it al, 12 And came oft in peryl of death therefore, tyl I was deliuered from it through the grace of God.

13 Now: I see that they which feare God haue the ryght spirite, for their hope standeth in hym that can helpe them: and the eyes of the Lord are on them that loue him.

14 Who so feareth the Lorde, standeth in awe of no man, and is not afrayde: for the Lorde is his hope and comfort.

15 Blessed is the soule of hym that feareth the Lorde: in whom putteth he his trust? who is his strength?

16 For the eyes of the Lorde haue respect vnto them that loue hym, he is their mightie protection and strong grounde, a defence for the heate, a refuge for the hot noone day, a succour for stumbling, and an helpe for fallyng.

17 *He setteth vp the soule, and lyghteth the eyes, he geueth health, life, & blessyng.

18 *He that geueth an offeryng of vnrighteous good, his offeryng is refused: and the scorneful dealynges of the vnryghteous please not God. *Pro. 21. 27.

19 The Lorde is theirs onely that patiently abide him in the way of trueth and of righteousnesse.

20 The highest doeth not alowe the gyftes of the wicked: and God hath no delyght in the offeringes of the vngodly, neyther may sinne be reconciled in the multitude of oblations. *Pro. 15. 8

21 Who so bryngeth an offeryng out of the goodes of the poore: doeth euen as one that kylleth the sonne before his fathers eyes.

22 The bread of the needeful is the lyfe of the poore: he that defraudeth him therof, is a man of blood.

23 Who so robbeth his neyghbour of his lyuing, doeth as great sinne as though he slue him to death: he that defraudeth the labourer of his hyre, is a blood shedder.

24 When one buyldeth and another breaketh downe: what profite haue they then but labour?

25 a When one prayeth and another curseth, whose voyce wyl the Lorde heare?

26 He that washeth hym selfe because of a dead body, and then toucheth the dead agayne, what doeth his washyng?

27 So is it with a man that fasteth for his sinnes, and doeth them agayne: who wyl heare his prayer, or what doeth his fasting helpe hym?

16 Whoso serueth God after his pleasure, shalbe accepted: and his prayer reacheth vnto the cloudes.

17 The prayer of hym that humbleth hym selfe, goeth through the cloudes: tyll she come nygh she wyl not be comforted, nor go her way tyll the highest God haue respecte vnto her, geue true sentence, and performe the iudgement.

18 And the Lorde wyll not be slacke in comming, nor tarrye long, tyl he haue smitten in sunder the backes of the vnmerciful, and auenged him selfe of the heathen, tyl he haue taken away the multitude of the cruell, and broken the scepter of the vnrighteous, tyl he geue euery man after his workes, and rewarde them after their doynges, til he haue deliuered his people, magnifyed their cause, and reioyced them in his mercye.

19 O howe fayre a thyng is mercye in the tyme of anguyshe and trouble! it is lyke a cloude of rayne that commeth in the tyme of drought.

¶ The .xxxvi. Chapter.

1 A prayer to God in the person of all faythfull men, 22. The prayse of a good woman.

1 HAue mercy vpon vs, O Lord, thou God of all thynges, haue respect vnto vs: shewe vs the lyght of thy mercies,

2 And sende thy feare among the heathen and strangers whiche seeke not after thee, that they may knowe that there is no God but thou, and that they may shew thy wonderous workes.

Ier.10.25. 3 *Lyft vp thyne hand ouer the outlandishe heathen, that they may learne to know thy myght and power.

4 Lyke as thou art halowed in vs before them: so bryng to passe that thou mayest be magnified also in them before vs,

5 That they maye knowe thee, lyke as we knowe thee: for there is none other god, but onely thou, O Lorde.

6 Renue the tokens, and change the woonderous workes: Shewe thyne hande and thy right arme gloryously.

7 Rayse vp thyne indignation, and powre out thy wrath: take away the aduersarie, and smyte the enimie.

8 Make the tyme short, remember the couenaunt, that thy woonderous workes may be praysed.

9 Let the wrath of the fyre consume them that lyue so careleste: and let them perysh that doo thy people hurt.

10 Smyte in sunder the head of the Princes that be our enimies, and say, There is none other but we.

11 Gather al the tribes of Iacob togeather agayne, that they may knowe howe that there is none other God but only thou, that they may shewe thy woonderous workes: and be thou thy peoples heritage, lyke as from the begynnyng.

12 O Lord haue mercy vpon the people that hath thy name, and vppon *Israel whom Exo.4.22. thou hast lykened to a first borne sonne.

13 O be mercyful vnto Hierusalem the citie of thy sanctuarie, the citie of thy rest.

14 Fyll Sion with thyne vnspeakable verues, and thy people with thy glory.

15 Geue witnesse vnto thy creature whom thou madest from the begynnyng, and raise vp the prophesies that haue been shewed in thy name.

16 Rewarde them that waite for thee, that thy Prophetes may be founde faythful.

17 *O Lorde, heare the prayer of thy seruan- Num. 6.23 tes, according to the blessyng of Aaron ouer thy people, and guide thou vs in the way of righteousnes: that al they which dwel vpon the earth may know that thou art the Lord the eternal God, which is from euerlasting.

18 The belly deuoureth all meates: yet is one meate better then another.

19 Lyke as the tongue tasteth venelon: so doeth an hart of vnderstanding marke false woordes.

20 A froward hart geueth heauinesse: but a man of experience lyfteth hym vp agayne.

21 The woman receyueth euery man: yet is one daughter better then another.

22 A fayre wyfe reioyceth her husband: and a man loueth not hyng better.

23 Yf there be in her tongue gentlenesse, meekenesse, and wholesome talke: then is not her husbande lyke other men.

24 He that hath gotten a vertuous woman, hath a goodly possession: she is vnto hym a helpe, and pyller whereon he resteth.

25 Where no hedge is, there the goods are spoyled: and where no huswyfe is, there the freendlesse mourneth.

26 Lyke as there is no credence geuen to a robber that goeth from one city to another: so is not the man beleued that hath no nest, and must turne in where he may abyde in the nyght.

¶ The xxxvii. Chapter.

1. Howe a man should knowe freendes and counsellers, 12. and searche the company of holy men.

1 EVery freende sayth, I wyl be freendlye vnto him also, but there is some freend, whiche is onely a freende in name.

2 Remaineth not there heauines vnto death, when a companion and freende is turned to an enimie?

3 O most wicked presumption, from whence art thou sprong vp to couer the earth with falshood and deceyte?

Eccle.6.10 4 *There is some companion which in prosperitie reioyceth with his freende: but in the tyme of trouble he taketh part against him.

*or, There is some companion that helpeth his freende for the bellies sake, and taketh vp the buckler against the enimie.

5 *There is some companion that mourneth with his freende for the bellyes sake: but when trouble commeth, he taketh hold of the shielde.

6 Forgeat not thy freende in thy minde, and thynke vpon hym in thy ryches.

7 Seke no counsel at thy kynsmen, and hide thy counsel from such as beare thee no good wyl.

Eccle.8.2. and.9.21. 8 *Euery counseller prayseth his counsell: neuertheles, there is some that counselleth but for his owne profite.

9 Beware of the counseller, and be aduised afore whereto thou wylt vse hym (for he wyl counsel for hym selfe) lest he cast the lot vpon thee,

10 And say vnto thee, Thy way and purpose is good: and afterwarde he stande agaynst thee, and looke what shall become of thee.

11 Aske no counsell at hym that suspecteth thee for an enimie, & hyde thy counsell from suche as hate thee: aske no counsell for religion of him that is without religion, nor for iustice, of hym that hath no iustice: aske no counsel at a woman, touchyng her of whom she is ielous, nor at a fearfull and faint harted bodye, in matters of warre: nor at a marchant, holde deare he wyl cheape thy wares towarde his: nor at a buyer, of selling: nor at an enuious man, of thankes geuyng: nor at the vnmercyful, of louyng kyndenesse: nor at an vnhonest man, of honestie: nor at the slothful, of woorkyng: nor at an hyrelyng whiche hath no house, of profite or wealth: nor at an idle body, of muche labour: take no suche folkes to counsel.

12 But be diligent to seeke counsell at a vertuous man that feareth God, suche a one as thou knowest to be a keeper of the commaundementes, which hath a mynde after thyne owne mynde, and is sorye for thee when thou stumblest.

13 And holde thy counsell fast in thine hart: for there is no man more faythfull to keepe it, then thou thee selfe.

14 For a mans mynde is sometime disposed to tel out more, then seuē watchmen that sit aboue in an hygh place, loking about them.

15 And aboue all this, pray the hyghest, that he wyll leade thy waye in faythfulnesse and trueth.

16 Before al thy woorkes, aske counsel first: and or euer thou doest any thyng, be wel aduised.

17 There be foure thynges that declare a changed hart, wherout there springeth euil and good, death, and lyfe, and a maisterfull tongue that bableth muche.

18 Some man is apt, and well instructed in many thynges, and yet very vnprofitable vnto hym selfe.

19 Some man there is that can geue wyse and prudent counsell, & yet is he hated, and continueth a begger, 20 For that grace is not geuen hym of God to be accepted.

21 Another is robbed of al wisedome: yet is he wyse vnto hym selfe, & the fruite of vnderstanding is commendable in his mouth.

22 A wyse man maketh his people wyse, and the fruites of his wysedome faple not.

23 A wyse man shalbe plenteously blessed of God: and all they that see hym, shal speake good of hym.

24 The lyfe of man standeth in the nomber

number of the dayes: but the dayes of Israel are innumerable.

25 A wyse man shal obteyne faythfulnesse and credence among his people, and his name shalbe perpetual.

26 My sonne, proue thy soule in thee selfe, and if thou see any euyl thing, geue it not vnto her.

1. Cor.6.12 27 *For al thynges are not profitable for all men, neyther hath euery soule pleasure in euery thyng.

Eccl.31.22 28 *Be not greedie in euery eating, and be not to hastie vpon al meates.

29 For excesse of meates bryngeth sickenesse, and gluttonie commeth at the last to an vnmeasurable heate.

30 Through surfet haue many one perished: but he that dieteth hym selfe temperately, prolongeth his lyfe.

¶ The xxxviii. Chapter.

2. Aphisition is commendable. 16. To burie the dead. 24. The wysdome of him that is learned.

1 HOnour the Phisition, honour hym with that honour that is due vnto hym, because of necessitie, for GOD hath created hym.

2 For of the highest commeth medicine, and he shal receyue gyftes of the kyng.

3 The wysedome of the Phisition bringeth hym to great worshyp, and in the sight of the great men of this worlde he shalbe honourablie taken.

4 The Lorde hath created medicine of the earth: and he that is wyse wyl not abhorre it.

Exo.15.25. Iud.9.15. 5 *Was not the bitter water made sweete with a tree, that men might learne to know the vertue thereof.

6 The Lorde hath geuen men wisedome and vnderstanding, that he might be honoured in his woonderous workes.

7 With suche doeth he heale men, and taketh away theyr paynes.

8 Of suche doeth the Potheearie make a confection, yet can no man perfourme all his workes: for of the Lord commeth prosperous wealth ouer al the earth.

Eccl.38.2. 9 *My sonne, despise not this in thy sickenesse: but pray vnto the Lorde, and he shall make thee whole.

10 Leaue of from sinne, & order thy handes aryght, cleanse thyne hart from al wickednesse.

11 Geue a sweete sauoured offering, and the fine floure for a token of remembrance: make the offeryng fatte, as one that geueth the first fruites.

12 And geue roome to the Phisition, for the Lorde hath created hym, let hym not goe from thee, for thou hast neede of hym.

13 The houre may come, that the sicke may be helped through them.

14 When they pray vnto the Lorde, that he may recouer great health to lyue longer.

15 He that sinneth before his maker, shal fal into the handes of the Phisition.

16 My sonne, bryng foorth thy teares ouer the dead, and beginne to mourne, as if thou hadest suffred great harme thee selfe: and then couer his body after a conuenient manner, and dispise not his buryal. *Eccl.22.10 1. Thes.4.13

17 Enforce thee selfe to weepe, and prouoke thee selfe to mourne, and make lamentation expediently, & be earnest in mourning, and vse lamentation as he is worthie, and that a day or two, lest thou be euyl spoken of: and then comfort thee selfe, because of the heauinesse.

18 *For of heauinesse commeth death, the heauinesse of the hart breaketh strength. *Pro.15.13. and.17.22.

19 Heauinesse and powertie, greeueth the hart in temptation and offence.

20 Take no heauinesse to hart, driue it away, and remember the last thinges.

21 Forget it not, for there is no turnyng agayne, thou shalt doo him no good, but hurt thee selfe.

22 Remember his iudgement, thyne also shalbe lyke wyse: vnto me yesterday, vnto thee to day.

23 Let the *remembrance of the dead ceasse in his rest, & comfort thee agayne ouer him, seeyng his spirite is departed from hym. *2. Sam.12. 20.

24 The wisedome of the scribe is at conuenient time of rest: and he that ceasseth from exercises and labour, shalbe wyse.

25 Howe can he geat wysedome that holdeth the plough, and he that hath pleasure in the goade and in driuing the oxen, and is occupied in their labours, and his talke is but of the breeding of bullockes?

26 He setteth his hart to make forowes, and is diligent to geue the kyne fodder.

27 So is euery Carpenter also and workemaister that laboureth styl nyght & day: he carueth, graueth, cutteth out, and his desire is in sundry cunnyng thynges, his hart imagineth howe he may cunnyngly cast an image, his diligence also and watching perfourmeth the worke.

28 The iron Smith in lyke maner bideth by his stithie, and doeth his diligence to labour the iron: the vapour of the fire burneth his fleshe, and he must fight with the heate of the furnace: the noyse of the hammer euer soundeth in his eares, & his eyes loke styl vpon the thing that he maketh: he hath set his minde thereupon, that he wyl make out his woorke, and therfore he watcheth how he may see it out, and bryng it to an ende.

29 So doeth the potter set by his woorke: he turneth the wheele about with his feete, he is diligent and careful in al dooynges, and maketh his woorke in number.

30 He fashioneth the clay with his arme, and with his feete he tempereth it, his hart imagineth howe he may make it pleasant, and his diligence is to cleanse the ouen.

31 Al these hope in theyr handes, and euery one thinketh to be cunning in his woorke.

32 Without these may not the citie be mainteyned, inhabited, nor occupied:

33 Yet come they not high in the congregation, neither sit they vpon the iudgement seates: they vnderstande not the couenant of the lawe, they can not declare equitie and iudgement, they can not finde out the darke sentences.

34 But through them shal the creature of the world be mainteyned, theyr delyte concerneth only the woorke & labor of cunning.

¶ The xxxix. Chapter.

1. A vyse man. 16. The woorkes of GOD.
24 Vnto the good, thinges doo profite: but vnto the euyl, euen good thynges are euyl.

1 HE that applieth his minde to vnderstande the lawe of GOD, doeth diligently seeke out the wisedome of them of the olde time, and exerciseth hym selfe in the prophetes.

2 He keepeth the sayinges of famous men, and pearceth to the vnderstanding of darke sentences of wysedome.

3 He seeketh out the mysterie of secrete sayinges, and exerciseth hym selfe therein continually.

4 He doeth seruice among great men, and appeareth before the prince, he goeth into a strange countrey, and trauayleth through it: loke what good or euyl is among men, he proueth and seeketh it out.

5 He purposeth in his hart to resort early vnto the Lorde that made him, and to pray before the hyghest GOD: he openeth his mouth in prayer, & prayeth for his sinnes.

6 When the great Lorde wyl, he shalbe fylled with the spirite of vnderstandyng, that he may then powre out wyse sentences, and geue thankes vnto the Lorde in his prayer.

7 He shal order his deuise, and leade his knowledge aryght, and geue him vnderstanding of secrete thinges.

8 He shall shewe foorth the science of his learning, and reioyce in the couenant of the lawe of the Lorde.

9 The whole congregation shal commende his wysedome, and it shal neuer be put out: the remembrance of him shal neuer be forgotten, and his name shal continue from one generation to another.

10 *His wysedome shal be spoken of among the people, and the whole congregation shal openly declare his prayse. *Eccle.44. 14.

11 Whyle he liueth, he hath a greater name then a thousande beside: and after death, the same name remayneth vnto hym.

12 Yet wyl I speake of moe men of vnderstanding, for I am full as the moone.

13 Hearken vnto me ye holy vertuous children, bryng foorth fruite as the rose that is planted by the brookes of the fielde.

14 And geue ye a sweete smel as incense, flourishe as the rose garden, sing a song of prayse, & geue thankes vnto God ouer all his woorkes.

15 Geue magnificence vnto his name, and set him foorth in his prayse with your lippes, and with musicke and harmonie: yea euen with the song of your lyppes, with harpes and playing, and in geuyng thankes vnto hym, say after this maner:

16 * Al the woorkes of the Lorde are exceedyng good, and al his commaundementes are meete and conuenient in due season. *Gene.1.31. Mark.7.37.

17 A man needeth not to say, what is that? what is that? for at a time conuenient they shal al be sought: at his commaundement the water was as a wal, and at the word of his mouth the water stoode syl.

18 In his commaundement is euery thyng acceptable and reconciled, and his healthe can not be minished.

19 The woorkes of al flesh are before him, and there is nothing hyd from his eyes.

20 He seeth from euerlasting to euerlasting, and there is nothyng to wonderful or high vnto hym.

21 A man needeth not to say then, What is this, or that? for he hath made al thynges to doo good vnto man.

22 His blessyng shall runne ouer as the streame, & moysture the earth like a flood of water.

23 Like as he maketh the drouth: so shal his wrath fal vpon the heathen.

24 His wayes are playne and ryght vnto the iust: but the vngodly stumble at them.

25 For the good, are good thinges created from the beginning, and euyl thinges for the vngodly.

26 Al thinges necessarie for the life of man are created from the beginning: water, fire, iron, and salt, meale, wheate, and honie, milke, and wine, oyle and clothyng.

a. The creatures of God are good by creation, But as good men vse them to the glory of God, the profite of others, & their owne necessitie, so the vngodly doo not acknowledge them as the good gyftes of God, but abuse them either in prior & excesse, or els in miserable keeping of them, take them for their God.

27 All

27 * All these thinges are created for the best
1 Tim.4.4 to the faithful: but to the vngodly shall al these thinges be turned to hurte and harme.
28 There be spirites that are created for vengeance, and in their rigorousnesse haue they fastned theyr tormentes: in the tyme of the ende they shal powre out theyr strength, and * pacifie the wrath of hym that made
* accomplish. them.
Eccl.40.9 29 * Fyre, hayle, hunger and death: al these thynges are created for vengeance.
30 The teeth of wylde noysome beastes, the scorpions, serpentes, and the sworde, are created also for vengeance, to the destruc-on of the vngodly.
31 They shalbe gladde to doo his commaundementes, and when neede is, they shalbe redy vpon earth: and when theyr houre is come, they shal not ouerpasse the commaun-dement of the Lorde.
32 Therefore haue I taken a good courage vnto me from the begynnyng, and haue thought to put these thynges in writing, and to leaue them behynde me:
Gen.1.31. 33 * All the woorkes of the Lorde are good, and he geueth euery one in due season, and when neede is.
34 So that no man neede not to say, This is woorse then that: for in due season they are al pleasant and good.
35 And therefore prayse the Lorde with whole hart and mouth, and geue thankes vnto his name.

¶ The xl. Chapter.

1 Many miseries light in a mans life. 11. All thynges passe awaye, but a firme and a stable fayth remaineth. 14. Of the blessyng of the righteous, and prerogatiue of the feare of god.

1 A Great trauayle is created for al men, & an heauie yoke vpon all the sonnes of Adam, from the day that they goe out of theyr mothers wombe, tyl they be buryed in the earth the mother of al thynges.
2 Namely, theyr thoughtes and imaginations, feare of the hart, counsayle, meditations, longing and desiring the day of death:
3 From the highest that sitteth vpon the glorious seate, vnto the lowest and most simple vpon the earth:
4 From hym that is gloriously arayed, and weareth a crowne, vnto hym that is but homely and simply clothed.
5 There is nothyng but wrath, zeale, fearefulnesse, vnquietnesse, and feare of death, rigorousnesse, anger, and stryfe: and in the night when one shoulde rest & sleepe vpon his bed, the sleepe changeth his vnderstandyng and knowledge.
6 A litle or nothing is his rest in the sleepe, aswell as in the day of labour: he feareth, and is disquieted in the vision of his hart,
as one that runneth out of a battel.
7 And in the time of health he awaketh, and marueyleth that the feare was nothyng.
8 Suche thinges happen vnto al flesshe, both man and beast, but seuen folde to the vngodly.
9 Moreouer, death, bloodsheddyng, stryfe, * Eccl.39.35 and sworde, oppression, hunger, destruction, and punishment:

11 * Al that is of the earth, shall turne to * Gen.3.19.
earth agayne, and al waters ebbe agayne into the sea.
12 Al bribes and vnryghteousnesse shal-be put away: but faythfulnesse and trueth shal endure for euer.
13 The substance and goodes of the vngod-ly shalbe dryed vp, and sinke away as a water flood, a and they shall make a sounde lyke a great thunder in the rayne.
14 Lyke as the ryghteous reioyceth when he openeth his hand: so shal the transgressours be fayne, when theyr goodes vanishe and consume away.
15 The children of the vngodly shall not ob-teyne many branches:
16 And the vncleane rootes vppon the high rockes, shalbe rooted out before the grasse by the water side, and vpon the riuer bankes.
17 Frendlynesse and liberalitie in the increasse and blessing of god, is like a paradise and garden of pleasure: suche mercy also and kyndnesse endureth for euer.
18 * To labour and to be content with that * 1. Tim. 6. Phil. 4. 12.
a man hath, is a sweete pleasant life: and that is, to fynde a treasure of al treasures.
19 To begeat children and to repayre the citie, maketh a perpetual name, but an honest woman is more worth then they both.
20 Wine and minstrelsie reioyceth the hart:
but the loue of wisedome is aboue them both.
21 Piping and harping make a sweete noyse: but a frendly tongue goeth beyonde them both.
22 Thine eye desireth fauour & beauty: but a greene sede time, rather then they both.
23 A freende and companion come together at opportunitie: but aboue them both is a wyfe that agreeth with her husbande.
24 Brethren and helpers are profitable in tyme of trouble: but almes shall deliuer more then they both.

a That is, with great tumulte & trouble shall they be dispersed, and scattered abroade like as the rosting of thunder.

25 Golde

25 Golde and syluer fasten the feete: but a good counsell is more pleasant then they both.

26 Temporall substance and strength lyft vp the mynde: but the feare of the Lorde more then they both: the feare of the Lorde wanteth nothyng, and needeth no helpe.

27 The feare of the Lorde is a pleasant garden of blessing, and nothyng so beautiful as it is.

28 My sonne leade not a beggers lyfe: for better it were to dye then to begge.

29 The lyfe of hym that looketh vppon another mans table, is not to be counted for a lyfe, for he defyleth his soule in other mens meate: but a wise and wel nurtured man wyl beware thereof.

30 Beggyng is sweete in the mouth of the vnshamefast: but in his belly there burneth a fire.

¶ The.xli. Chapter.

a. Of the remembrance of death. 3. Death is not to be feared. 8. A curse vpon them that forsake the lawe of God.

1 O Death, a howe bitter is the remembrance of thee to a man that seeketh rest and comfort in his substance and rychesse, vnto the man that hath nothyng to vexe hym, and that hath prosperitie in all thynges, yea vnto hym that yet is able to receyue meate?

2 O death, howe acceptable and good is thy iudgement vnto the needefull, & vnto him whose strength fayleth, and that is nowe in his last age, & that in al thynges is full of care & fearfulnesse, vnto him also that is in dispaire, and hath no hope nor patience?

3 Be not thou afrayde of death, remember them that haue been before thee, and that come after thee: this is the iudgement of the Lorde ouer al flesshe.

4 And why wouldest thou be agaynst this pleasure of the hyghest? whether it be ten, an hundred, or a thousand yeeres, death asketh not howe long one hath lyued.

5 The children of the vngodly are abominable children, and so are they that keepe companie with the vngodly.

6 The inheritance of vngodly children shal come to nought, and their posteritie shall haue a perpetual shame and confusion.

7 The children complaine of an vngodly father: and why? for his sake they are rebuked and despised.

8 Wo be vnto you, O ye vngodly, which haue forsaken the lawe of the hyghest God: for though ye doo encreake, yet shall you perishe.

9 If ye doo liue, ye shall be accursed: if ye dye, the curse shalbe your portion.

10 * All that is of the earth, shall turne to earth agayne: so goe the vngodly also out of the curse into destruction. * Ecc.40.11

11 Though men mourne for their body: yet the * name of the vngodly shalbe put out, for it is nothyng worth. * Pro.22.1.

12 Labour to geat thee a good name: for that shall continue surer by thee then a thousande great treasures of golde.

13 A good life hath a number of dayes: but a good name endureth euer.

14 My children keepe wisedome in peace: for wysedome that is hyd, & a treasure that is not seene, what profite is in them both?

15 A man that hideth his foolishnesse, is better then a man that hydeth his wysedome.

16 Therefore be ye turned at my woordes: for it is not good in al thynges and alway to be ashamed: b true fayth must proue and measure it.

17 Be ashamed of whoredome before father and mother: be ashamed to leasing before the prince and men of authoritie:

18 Of sinne, before the iudge and ruler: of offence, before the congregation and people: of vnryghteousnesse, before a companion and freende:

19 Of theft, before thy neyghbours: as for the trueth of God and his couenant, be not ashamed thereof: c be ashamed to lye with thyne elbowes vpon the bread, or to be reproued for geuing or takyng:

20 And of silence, vnto them that salute thee: be ashamed to looke vpon harlottes:

21 Be ashamed to turne away thy face from thy kinseman: be ashamed * to take and not to geue:

22 Be ashamed also to looke vpon another mans wyfe, and to make many tryflyng woordes with her mayden, or to stand by her bedde side:

23 Be ashamed to vpbrayde thy freend: when thou geuest any thyng, cast him not in the teeth withal:

24 Or to repeat the matter that thou hast heard, or to disclose the secrete woordes: so shalt thou wel be shamefast, and shalt finde fauour with al men.

a. Temporall death is bitter no fouse sortes of men: one, to infidels that looke for no lyfe after this: second, to them that set their pleasure in their richesse, from whence they nowe must needes depart: thyrde, to them that neuer tasteth of the crosse: fourth, to them that be strong and lusty in body, for that they stogly strugle with death: but sweete vnto the contrary.

Or, there is no defence for lyfe agaynst the graue.

b. True fayth doeth al thynges in season & opportunitie, when and howe euery one ought to be ordered. For strong meate & hard bread nourisheth sinne, & strangleth others: some one bearbe healeth some mens diseases, and increaseth sores agayne.

c. Beyng bidden to an other mans table, presume not to the highest place, be not so bouldy that thou lye with thyne elbowes vpon the table ouer thy bread, for that is vnmannerly. Luke. xiiii.

Or, to take away a gyft from any man.

¶ The.xlii. Chapter.

1. The lawe must be taught. 9. A daughter. 14. A woman. 18. God knoweth al thinges, yea euen the secretes of the hart.

1 Of these thinges be not ashamed, and * accept no person to offende. Namely, of these thinges be not ashamed:

* Lyu.19.15. Iacob.2.1.

2 Of

2 Of the lawe of God, of the couenant, of iudgement to bring the vngodly from his vngodlynesse vnto ryghteousnesse, and to make hym a good man.

3 To deale faythfully with thy neyghbour and companion, to distribute the heritage vnto the frendes.

4 To be diligent to keepe true measure and weight, to be content whether thou getteſt much or little:

5 To deale truely with temporall goodes in buying and selling, to bring vp chyldren with diligence, to correct an euyl seruant:

6 To keepe that thyne is from an euyl wyfe, to set a locke where many handes are:

7 What thou delineresst and geuest out to be kept, to tel it, and weygh it: to wryte vp al thy outgeuing and receiuing:

8 To enfourme the vnlearned and vnwyse, of the aged that are iudged of the young: yf thou be diligent in these things, truely thou shalt be learned and wyse, and accepted of all men.

9 The daughter maketh the father to watch secretly, and the carefulnesse that he hath for her taketh away his sleepe, yea in her youth, lest she should ouergrowe him, and when she hath an husband, lest she should be hated:

10 Lest she shoulde be defiled and vanished in her virginitie, or gotten with chylde in her fathers house: or when she commeth to the man, lest she behaue her selfe not ryghte, or continue vnfruitefull.

Eccl.26.13 11 * Yf thy daughter be wanton, keepe her straytely, lest she cause thyne enimies to laugh thee to scorne, and the whole citie to geue thee an euyll report: and so thou be faine to hyde thy shame of euery man, and be confounded before all the people.

Eccl.25.28 12 * Behold not euery bodyes beautie, and haue not much dwelling among women.

Gene.3.6. 13 For like as the woorme and moth commeth out of clothyng: so * doth wickednesse come of women.

14 It is better to be with an euyl man, then with a frendely wyfe that putteth one to shame and rebuke.

15 I wyl remember the woorkes of the Lord, and declare the thing that I haue seene: In the woords of the Lorde are his woorkes.

16 The Sunne ouerlooketh al thynges with his shyne, and all his woorkes are full of the clearenesse thereof.

Al, and all the woorke therof is full of the glory of the Lord.

17 Hath not the Lord brought to passe, that his saintes shoulde tell out all his wonderous woorkes, whiche the almighty Lorde hath stablished: all thinges remaine in his glorye.

18 He seeketh out the ground of the deepe, and the hart of man, and he knoweth all their imaginations and wyledome: for the Lord knoweth al science, and he looketh into the token of the tyme.

19 He declareth the thynges that are past, & for to come, and discloseth thynges that are secrete.

20 No thought may escape him, neyther may any woorde be hyd from hym.

21 He hath garnished the high excellent woorkes of his wyledome, and he is from euerlasting to euerlastinge: vnto him may nothing be added, neyther can he be diminished, he hath no neede also of any mans counsayle.

22 O howe amiable are al his woorkes, and as a sparke to looke vppon!

23 They lyue all, and endure for euer: and when so euer neede is, they are all obedient vnto hym.

24 They are al double one agaynst another: he hath made nothyng that hath fault or blemyshe.

25 He hath stablished the goodes of euery one: and who may be satisfied with his glory when he seeth it?

a. As who should say, no man, for whom Dauid sayth, Psalm xvii. I shalbe satisfied when the glory appeareth: he speaketh of that glory whiche he desireth to obtayne, which he yet wanting, is not satisfied: but when he hath obteyned it, he hath the thyng he doeth desyre, and yet is not weery of it, but delyteth in that ioy which neuer shalbe ended, as i. Pet. 1.

y The xliii. Chapter.

The summe of the creation of the woorkes of GOD.

1 THE glory of the height, is the fayre and cleare firmamente, the beauty of the heauen is his glorious clearnesse.

2 The Sunne when it appeareth, declareth the day in the going out of it, a marueylous woorke of the highest.

3 At noone it burneth the earth, & who may abyde for the heate therof?

4 Who so beholdeth an Oouen when it is hot, thrise times more doth the Sunne burne vpon the mountaynes: when it breatheth out the fierie beames & shineth, with the brightnesse of it, it blyndeth the eyes.

5 Great is the Lorde that made it, and in his commaundement he causeth it to runne hastily.

6 * The Moone also in all thynges accordyng to her season, is a declaration of the time, and a signe for the worlde.

* Gene.1.16.

7 The * token of the solemne feast is taken of the moone, a lyght that minisheth and increaseth agayne.

* Exod. 12.2

8 The Moneth is called after the Moone, it groweth wonderously in her changyng.

9 The armie of heauen alofe in the height: in the firmament of heauen it geueth a cleare and a glorious shyne: this is the clearnes of the starres, a beautiful apparel of of heauen, the apparel that the Lord lyghteneth in the height.

10 In his holy worke they continue in their order, and not one of them fayleth in his watch.

*Gen.9.14. 11 *Looke vpon the Raynebow, and praise him that made it: very beautifull is it in his shine.

12 He compasseth the heauen about with a glorious circle, the *handes of the highest haue bended it. *Esa.40.12

13 Through his commaundement he maketh the snowe to fall, and the thunder of his iudgement to smite hastyly.

14 Through his commaundement the treasures are opened, and the cloudes flee as the fowles.

15 In his power hath he strengthened the cloudes, and broken the hayle stones.

*Or, moue. 16 The mountaynes *leape at the sight of him, the wynde bloweth accordyng to his wyll.

17 The sounde of his thunder beateth the earth, and so doo the stormes of the north: the whyrle winde also lighteth downe as a feathered fowle, casteth out, and spreadeth the snowe abrode, and as the Grashoppers that destroy al, so falleth it downe.

18 The eye marueyleth at the beauty of the whytenesse thereof, and the hart is afrayde at the rayne of it.

19 He powreth out the frost vpon earth like salt, and when it is frozen, it is as sharpe as the pricke of a Thistle.

20 When the colde north winde bloweth, hard Crystall commeth of the water: he lighteth downe vppon all the gatheringes together of water, and putteth on the water as a brestplate.

21 He deuoureth the mountaynes, and burneth the wylderneesses: and looke what is greene, he putteth it out like fyre.

22 The medecine of all these is, when a cloude commeth hastely, and when a deawe commeth vpon the heate, it shalbe refreshed agayne.

23 In his worde he stilleth the wynd, in his counsayle he appeaseth the deepe, and hath planted Ilandes in it.

24 They that sayle ouer the sea, tell of the perilles and harmes thereof, and when we heare it with our eares, we marueyle thereat.

25 For there be strange wonderous workes, diuers maners of wyld beastes, and Whale fyshes.

26 Through him are al thinges set in good order and prefourmed, and in his worde all thinges endure.

27 I speake much, but I can not sufficiently atteyne vnto it: for he him selfe onely is the perfection of al woordes.

28 We should prayse the Lorde after all our power, for he is great in all his workes.

29 The Lord is to be *feared, yea very great is he, and marueylous is his power. *Psal.96.4

30 Prayse the Lorde, and magnifie him as much as ye may, yet dooth he farre exceede all prayse: O magnifie him with all your power and labour earnestly, yet are ye in no wyse able sufficiently to prayse him.

31 *Who hath seene him, that he might tell vs? Who can magnifie him so greatly as he is? *Psa.106.2

32 For there are hydde yet greater thinges then these be: as for vs, we haue seene but fewe of his workes.

33 For the Lorde hath made al thinges, and geuen wysdome to such as feare God.

¶ The xliii. Chapter.

1. The prayse of certayne holy men. 16. Enoch, 17. Noah, 18. Abraham.

1 LET vs commend the noble famous men, and the generation of our fore elders and fathers.

2 Many more glorious actes haue the Lord done in them, and shewed his great power euer from the beginning.

3 *The noble famous men raigned in their kingdomes, and bare excellent rule in their wysedome and vnderstandyng, they folowed the counsel shewed in the prophecies: *Ec.18.10

4 They led the folke through the counsell and wysedome of the scribes of the people, wyse sentences are found in their instructions:

5 They taught the swetenesse of musicke, and brought forth the pleasant songues in scripture.

6 They were riche also, and could comfort and pacifie those that dwelt with them.

7 All these were very noble and honourable men in their generations, and were well reported of in their tymes.

8 These haue left a name behinde them, to that their prayse shall alway be spoken of.

9 *After ward there were some whose memoriall is gone, they came to nought and perished, as though they had neuer been, and became as though they had neuer ben borne, yea and their children also with them. *Gen.7.23.

10 Neuerthelesse these are louyng men, whose right consell shal neuer be forgotten, but continue by their posteritie.

11 Their children are an holy good heritage: their seede endured fast in y couenant.

12 For their sakes shall their children and

seede continue for euer, and their prayse shall neuer be put downe.

13 Their bodyes are buryed in peace, but their name liueth for euermore.

Ecclus.39.14 14 *The people can speake of their wisedome, and the congregation can talke of their prayse.

Gene.5.24 15 *Henoch walked right and acceptably before the Lorde, therefore was he translated for an example of amendment to the generations.

Gene.6.9. 16 *Noe was a stedfast and righteous man, and in the time of wrath he became a reconciling: therefore was he left a remnant vnto the earth when the flood came.

Gene.9.11. 17 *An euerlasting couenant was made with him, that al flesh should perish no more with the water.

Gene.17.4. 18 *Abraham was a great father of many people, in glory was there none lyke vnto him.

19 He kept the lawe of the highest, and came into a couenant with him.

20 He set the couenant in his flesh, & when he was proued, he was found faithful.

Gen.22.16. 21 *Therefore swore God vnto him with an othe, that he would blesse al people in his seede, that he would multiply and encrease him as the dust of the earth, and to exalt his seede as the starres: yea and that his seede should haue the possession and inheritance of the land, from sea to sea, and from the riuer vnto the borders of the worlde.

22 With Isahac did he stablishe the same couenant, for Abraham his fathers sake: Yea that gratious blessyng and health of all men, and couenant did he stablish with Isahac, & made it rest vpon the head of Iacob.

23 a He knewe him in that he prospered him so wel and ritchely, and gaue him an heritage, and sundred his portion by it selfe, and parted among the twelue tribes.

24 Merciful men brought he out of him, which found fauour in the sight of al flesh.

a He did allow him, it made him worthy and meete for such blessings of riches and herytage: or els he made be known by this blessing Laban vncle to oure sauyour Christ, though his daughter dyd not prosper in that it did not appere he bare a fauour vnto him as to Iacob and his.

¶ The.xlv. Chapter.

The prayse of Moses. 6. Aaron, and Phinehes.

Exod.11.3. Acts.7.22. 1 MOses *beloued of God & men, whose remembrance is in high prayse:

2 Him that the Lord made like in the glory of the saintes, and magnified him, so that the enimies stoode in awe of him.

3 Through his wordes he did great wonders: he made him glorious in the sight of kinges, gaue him commaundement before his people, & shewed him glorious power.

Num.12.3. 4 *He stablished him with faithfulnesse and meekenesse, & chose him out of al men.

5 For he heard his voyce, and he led him in the darke cloude, and there he *gaue him the commaundementes, yea the lawe of life and wisedome: that he might teache Iacob the couenant, and Israel his lawes. *Exo.19.9.

6 *He chose Aaron his brother also out of the tribe of Leuie, exalted him, and made him suche lyke. *Exod.4.14

7 An euerlasting couenant made he with him, and gaue him the priesthood in the people: he made him glorious in beautyful aray, and clothed him with the garment of honour.

8 He put perfect ioy vpon him, & gyrded him with strength, he deckt him with fine clothes and a tunicle, with an ouerbody coate alle, and a gyrdle.

9 *Rounde about made he him belles of gold, & that many: that when he went in, the sounde myght be heard, that they myght make a noyse in the sanctuarie, and geue the people warnyng. *Exo.28.20

10 The holy garment was wrought & broderd with golde, yelowe silke and purple: and in the brestlap there was a goodly woorke, wherein was fastened lyght and perfectnesse.

11 Upon the same also there was a woorke fastened and set with costly precious stones, al bound with gold, and this he brought in his ministration: the stones were fastened for a remembrance, after the number of the twelue tribes of Israel.

12 Upon his miter there was a plate of pure golde, a grauen image of holinesse, a famous and noble woorke, garnished, and pleasant to looke vpon.

13 Before him were there seene no such fayre ornamentes, & these it behoued him alway to vse: there myght none other put them on, but onely his children, and his childrens children perpetually.

14 Dayly perfourmed he his burnt offerings two tymes.

15 *Moses filled a his handes, and anoynted him with holy oyle: this was nowe confirmed him with an euerlasting couenant, and to his seede as the dayes of heauen, namely that his children shoulde alway minister before him, and perfourme the office of the priesthood, and wishe the people good in his name. *Leuit.8.12 a That was, either to put into his hande the booke of the lawe written, to reade vnto the people, or els some sacrifice, that he might offer vnto God for their offences.

16 Before al men liuing choose he him, that he shoulde offer incense before the lorde, and make odours for a sweete sauour and remembrance, that he should reconcile the people of the Lorde with him agayne.

17 *He gaue him auctoritie also in his commaundementes, and in the couenant, that he should teache Iacob the statutes & testi- *Deu.17.10 monies, monies, and enfourme Israel in the lawe.

*Num.16.1. 18 * Therfore there stoode vp certayne agaynst him, and had envie at hym in the wylderneſſe: namely they that were of Dathan and Abirams ſide, and the furious congregation of Chore.

19 This the Lorde ſawe, and it diſpleaſed him, & in his wrathfull indignation were they conſumed: a great wonder did he vpon them, and conſumed them with the fyre.

*Num.27.8 20 Beſides this, he made * Aaron yet more honourable and glorious, he gaue him an heritage, and parted the firſt fruites vnto him: vnto him ſpecially he appointed the bread of ſuſtenance.

21 For the prieſtes dyd eate of the offerynges of the Lorde: this gaue he vnto hym and his ſeede.

*Deu.12.12. and.18.1. 22 * Els had he no heritage nor portion in the lande and with the people: for the Lord him ſelfe is his portion and inheritance.

*Nu.25.13. 1.Mac.2.26 23 The thirde noble and excellent man is * Phinehes the ſonne of Eleazar, whiche pleaſed the God of Iſrael, becauſe he had the zeale & feare of the Lorde: for when the people were turned backe, he put him ſelfe forth ryght ſoone, and that with a good wyl, to pacifie the wrath of the Lord toward Iſrael.

24 Therfore was there a couenant of peace made with hym, that he ſhoulde be the principall among the righteous in the people, that he and his poſteritie ſhoulde haue the office of the prieſthood for euer.

25 Like as there was made a couenant with Dauid of the tribe of Iuda, that from among his ſonnes only there ſhould be a king, and that Aaron alſo and his ſeede ſhoulde be an heritage, to geue vs wiſedome in our hart, to iudge his people in righteouſneſſe, that his goodes ſhould not come into forgetfulneſſe, and that their honour might endure for euer.

The prayſe of Ioſue.9. Caleb.13. Samuel.

1 MAnly and ſtrong in battayle was Ieſus the ſonne of Naue, and was the *Ioſu.12.7. Num.27.18. Deu.34.9. Ioſue.1.2. * ſucceſſour of Moſes in prophecies, and was geuen to be captaine of the people, which according vnto his name was a great ſauiour vnto the elect of GOD, to punyſhe the enimies that roſe vp agaynſt Iſrael, that Iſrael myght obteyne their inheritance.

*Ioſ.8.3. 2 * O howe great, noble, and excellent was he, when he lyfte vp his hande, and drue out his ſworde agaynſt the cities.

3 Who ſtoode ſo manly before hym: for the Lorde hym ſelfe brought in the enimies.

4 * Stoode not the ſunne ſtyll at his commaundement, and one day was as long as two? *Ioſ.10.13.

5 He called vppon the highe & moſt myghtie, when the enimies preaſſed vppon hym on euery ſide, and the myghtie Lorde heard hym with the hayle ſtones.

6 They ſmote the heathenſhe people myghtely, and in falling downe they ſlue all the aduerſaries: ſo that the Heathen knewe his hoſt, and all his defence, that the Lorde hym ſelfe fought agaynſt them: for he folowed vppon the myghtie men of them.

7 In the * tyme of Moſes alſo, he and Caleb the ſonne of Iephune dyd a good worke, whiche ſtoode againſt the enimies, withholde the people from ſinne, and ſtilled the wicked murmuryng. *Num.14.

8 * And of ſixe hundred thouſand people of foote, they two were preſerued to bryng them into the heritage, namely a lande that floweth with milke and hony. *Nu.26.65

9 The Lorde * gaue ſtrength alſo vnto Caleb, which remayned with hym vnto his age: ſo that he went vp into the high places of the lande, and his ſeede conquered the ſame for an heritage: *Ioſ.14.11.

10 That all the chyldren of Iſrael myght ſee how good a thyng it is to be obedient vnto the Lorde.

11 And the iudges or rulers, euery one after his name, whoſe hart went not a whooryng, nor departed from the Lorde, and that forſooke not the Lorde vnfaythfully, whoſe remembrance hath a good report.

12 Yea their bones flouriſh out of their place, and their names ſhal neuer be changed: but honour remayneth ſtyll with the children of thoſe holy men.

13 Samuel the prophete, * beloued of the Lord his God, ordeyned a kyng, & annointed the princes ouer the people. *1.Sa.10.1

14 In the lawe of the Lorde ruled he, and iudged the congregation, and the Lorde had reſpect vnto Iacob.

15 The prophet was found diligent in his faithfulneſſe: yea and he is knowen faithful in his wordes, becauſe he ſawe the God of lyght.

16 * He called vppon the Lorde Almightie, when the enimies preaſſed vppon him on euery ſide, what tyme as he offered the ſucking lambe. *1.Sa.7.10

17 And the Lorde thundered from heauen, and made his voyce to be heard with a great noyſe.

18 He diſcomfited the princes of Tyre, and all the rulers of the Philiſtines.

19 *Before his last end, he made protestation in the sight of the Lorde and his annoynted, that he tooke neyther substance nor good of any man, no not so much as a shoe: and no man might accuse him.

20 After this he tolde that his ende was at hand, and shewed the kyng also his end and death, and from the earth lyft he vp his voyce in the prophecie, that the vngodly people should perishe.

¶ The.xlvii. Chapter.

1. The prayse of Nathan. 2. Dauid, 12. and Solomon.

1 AFterward in the time of kyng Dauid, there* rose vp a prophete called Nathan.

2 For like as the fat is taken away from the offering: so was Dauid chosen out of the children of Israel.

3 He played with the Lions as with Kyds, and with Beares, like as with Lambes of Sheepe.

4 *Slewe he not a Gyant when he was yet but young, & tooke away the rebuke from his people, what time as he tooke the stone in his hand, and smote downe proude Goliath with the slyng?

5 For he called vppon the highest Lorde, which gaue him strength in his right hand, so that he ouerthrewe the mighty Gyant in the battayle, that he myght set vp the horne of his people agayne.

6 *So he glorifyed him in tenne thousand, and made him to haue a good report in the prayse of the Lorde, that he shoulde weare a crowne of glory.

7 *For he destroyed the enimies on euery side, rooted out the Philistines his aduersaries, and brake their horne in sunder, lyke as it is broken yet this day.

8 In all his woorkes he praysed the hyghest and holyest, and ascribed the honour vnto him with his whole hart dyd he prayse the Lorde, and loued God that made him.

9 He set * Syngers also before the aulter, and in their time he made sweete songues, that they myght geue prayses euery day to God with songues.

10 He ordeyned to keepe ỹ holy dayes worshipfully, and that the solemne feastes throughe the whole yeere shoulde be honourably holden with prayfing the name of the Lord, and with singing betimes in the morning in the sanctuarie.

11 *The Lorde tooke away his sinnes, and exalted his horne for euer: he gaue him the couenant of the kingdome, and the throne of worship in Israel.

12 After him there rose vp the wyse sonne called Solomon, who by him dwelt in a large possession, and for his sake he droue the enimies a way farre of.

13 This *Solomon raigned with peace in his tyme, and he obteyned glory: for GOD gaue hym rest from his enimies on euery side, that he might builde hym an house in his name, and prepare the sanctuarie for euer. *3.Reg.4.21.

14 Howe wyse wast thou in thy youth, and filled with wysedome and vnderstandyng, as it were with a water floode?

15 Thou couerdst and filledst the whole land with similitudes, and wyse prudent sentences.

16 Thy name went abrode in the Iles, because of thy peace, thou wast beloued.

17 All lands marueyled at thy songues, prouerbes, similitudes, and at thy interpretations.

18 *And in the name of the Lorde GOD, which is called ỹ God of Israel, thou gatheredst golde as tynne, and thou haddest as much siluer, as lead. *1.Re.10.27

19 *Thou wast moued in inordinate loue towarde women, and wast ouercome in affection. *1.Re.11.1.

20 Thou staynedst thy honour and woorship, yea thy posteritie defiledst thou also, in bringing the wrath of the Lorde vppon thy children, and hast felt sorowe for thy folye.

21 So that thy kyngdome was diuided, * & Ephraim became an vnfaythfull and a rebellious kingdome. *1.Re.12.17

22 *Neuertheleſſe, God forsooke not his mercy: neyther was he vtterly destroyed, because of his woorkes, that he should leaue him no posteritie: as for the seede that came vpon hym, which he loued, he brought it not vtterly to nought, but gaue yet a remnant vnto Jacob, and a roote vnto Dauid out of hym. *2.Sa.7.15.

23 Thus rested Solomon with his fathers, and out of his seede he left behind hym a very foolishnesse of the people, and such one as hadde no vnderstandyng: euen * Roboam, whiche turned away the people thorow his counsaile, and Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat, *which caused Israel to sinne, & shewed Ephraim the way of vngodlynesse. *1.Re.12.10 *1.Re.12.28

24 In so muche that theyr sinnes and mysdeedes had the vpper hand so sore, that at the last they were driuen out of the land for the same.

25 Yea he sought out and brought vp all wickednesse, tyll the vengeance came vpon them.

¶ The.xlviii. Chapter.

The prayse of Elias, Eliseus, Ezechias, and Esaias.

*3.Re.17.3. 1 Then stoode vp * Elias the prophete as a fire, and his worde burnt like a cresset.

2 He brought an hunger vppon them, and in his zeale he made them few in number: for they might not away with the commaundementes of the Lorde.

*3.Re.18.38 3 * Through the worde of the Lord he shutte the heauen, and three times brought he the fyre downe.

4 O Elias, how honourable art thou in thy wonderous deedes: who may make his host to be like thee?

*3.Re.17.22 5 * One that was dead thou raysedst vp from death, and in the worde of the highest thou broughtest him out of the graue againe.

6 Thou hast cast downe kings, and destroyed them, and the honourable from their seate.

*3.Re.19.15 7 Vpon the mount * Sina thou hearedst the iudgement, and vpon Horeb the iudgement of the vengeance:

*3.Re.19.17 8 * Whiche diddest annoynt kinges to recompence, and ordeynedst prophetes after thee.

*4.Re.2.11. 9 * Thou wast taken vp in the storme of fire, in a charret of fierie horses.

10 Thou wast ordeyned in the reprouinges in time, to pacifie the wrath of the Lord before it raged, to turne the hartes of the fathers vnto the children, and to set vp the tribes of Jacob againe.

11 Blessed were they that sawe thee, and were garnished in loue, for we liue in lyfe: but after death we shal haue no such name.

*4.Re.2.11. 12 * Elias was couered in the storme, but Elizeus was filled with his spirite: whyle he liued, he was afraide of no prince, and no man might ouercome him.

*4.Re.13.21 13 * There could no worde deceiue him, and after his death his body prophecied.

*4.Re.5.14 14 He did wonders in his * life, and in death were his workes marueylous.

15 For al this the people amended not, neyther departed they from their sinnes, tyll they were carried away prisoners out of the

*4.Re.18.12 land, * and were scattered abroade in all countreys, so that of them there remayned but a very little people, and a prince vnto the house of Dauid.

16 Howbeit, some of them did right, and some heaped vp vngodlinesse.

4.Re.18.2. 17 * Ezechias made his citie strong, conueighed water into it, digged through the stony rocke with iron, and made vp a wall by the water side.

*4.Re.18.13 18 In his time came * Sennacherib vp, and sent Rabsakes, lift vp his hand against Sion, and defyed them with great pride.

19 Then trembled their hartes and handes, so that they sorowed like a woman trauayling with childe.

20 So they called vpon the Lorde which is mercifull, and lift vp their handes before him, immediatly the Lorde heard them out of heauen.

21 He thought no more vppon their sinnes, nor gaue them ouer to their enimies: but deliuered them by the hand of Esaias.

22 * He smote the host of the Assyrians, and *4.Re.19. 22.
his angel destroyed them.

23 For Ezechias had doone the thing that pleased the Lorde, and remayned stedfastly in the way of Dauid his father, as Esaias the great and faythfull prophete in the sight of God had commaunded him.

24 * In his time the sunne went backward, *4.Re.20. 10.
and he lengthned the kinges life.

25 * With a right spirite prophecied he what *Eli.38.1.
should come to passe at the last: and to such as were sorowfull in Sion, he gaue consolation, wherwith they might comfort themselues for euermore.

26 He shewed thinges that were for to come and secrete, or euer they came to passe.

¶ The.xlix Chapter.

Of Iosias, Ezechias, Dauid, Ieremie, Ezechiel, Zorobabel, Iesus, Nehemias, Enoch, and Ioseph.

precious sweete smelling thinges to geather: his remembrance shalbe sweete as Hony in all mouthes, and as the playing of muscke at a banquet of wine.

2 He was appoynted to turne the people agayne, and to take away all abominations of the vngodly.

3 He directed his hart vnto the Lord, and in the tyme of the vngodly he set vp the worshyp of God agayne.

4 All kinges, except a Dauid, Ezechias, and Iosias, committed wickednesse: for euen the kinges of Iuda also forsooke the lawe of God.

5 For they gaue their horne vnto other, their honour and worshyp also to a strange people.

6 Therefore was the elect citie of the sanctuarie burnt with fyre, and the streetes therof layde desolate and waste in the hande of Jeremie.

7 For they entreated him euill, b which neuertheless was a prophete, ordeyned from his mothers woombe, that he might roote out, breake of, and destroy, and that he might build vp, and plant agayne.

¶ The. L. Chapter.

1. Of Simeon the sonne of Onias. 22. An exhortation to prayse the Lorde.

2. Mac. 3. 4 1 SImon the sonne of * Onias the hygh preest, whiche in his lyfe set vp the house agayne, and in his dayes made fast the temple.

2 The height of the temple also was founded of hym, the double buildyng, and the hygh walles of the temple.

3 In his dayes the welles of water flowed out, and were exceedyng full as the sea.

4 He tooke care for his people, and deliuered them from destruction: he kept his citie, and made it strong, that it should not be besieged.

5 How honourable was his conuersation among the people, and when he came out of the house couered with the vayle?

6 He gaue lyght as the morning starre in the middest of the cloudes, & as the moone when it is full:

7 He shyned as the sunne in the temple of God, he is as bright as the rayneblow in the fayre cloudes,

8 And florisheth as the flowres and Roses in the spring of the yeere, and as Lillyes by the riuers of water, like as ỹ branches vpon the mount Libanus in the time of sommer:

9 As a fyre and incense that is kindled, like as an whole ornament of pure gold set with al maner of precious stones,

10 And as an Olyue tree that is fruitefull, and as a Cypresse tree whiche groweth vp an hygh.

11 When he put on the garment of honour, and was clothed with all beauty, when he went to the holy aulter, he made the garment of holynesse honourable.

12 When he tooke the portions out of the priestes hand, he hym selfe stoode by the hearth of the aulter, and his brethren round about in order, as ỹ branches of the Cedar tree vpon the mount Libanus, so stood they round about hym:

13 And as the branches of the Olyue tree, so stoode all the sonnes of Aaron in theyr glory, & the oblations of the Lorde in theyr hands, before al the congregation of Israel.

14 And that he myght sufficiently performe his seruice vpon the aulter, and garnith the offering of the hyghest God.

15 He stretched out his hand, and tooke of the drinke offeryng, and powred in of the wine: so he powred vpon the bottome of the aulter a good smel vnto the highest prince.

16 Then began the sonnes of Aaron to sing, and to blowe with trumpets, and to make a great noyse, for a remembrance and prayse vnto the Lorde.

17 Then all the people togeather were hasted, and fell downe to the earth vpon theyr faces, to worshipp the Lord their God, and to geue thankes to the almighty God.

18 They song goodly also with theyr voices, so that there was a pleasant noyse in the great house of the Lorde.

19 And the people in theyr prayer besought the Lord the hyghest, that he would be mercifull, tyll the honour of the Lord were performed, and they had ended theyr ministration and seruice.

20 Then went he downe, and stretched out his handes ouer the whole multitude of the people of Israel, that they shoulde geue prayse and thankes out of theyr lyppes vnto the Lorde, and to reioyce in his name.

21 He beganne yet once also to pray, that he myght openly shewe the thankesgeuing before the hyghest.

22 Alleluya, O geue prayse and thankes all ye vnto the Lord our God, whiche hath euer done noble and great thinges, whiche hath increased our dayes from our mothers wombe, and dealt with vs accordyng to his mercie.

23 That he wyll geue vs the ioyfulnesse of hart, and peace for our time in Israel:

24 Which faythfully keepeth his mercy for vs euermore, and alway deliuereth vs in due season.

25 There be two manner of people that I abhorre from my hart, as for the third whom I hate, it is no people:

26 They that sitte vppon the mountayne of Samaria, the Philistines, and the foolishe people that dwell in Sichimis.

27 I Iesus, the sonne of Sirach, Eleazarus of Hierusalem, haue tokened vp these informations and documentes of wysdome and vnderstanding in this booke, and powred out the wysdome of my hart.

28 Blessed is he that exerciseth him selfe therein: and who so taketh such to hart, shalbe wyse for euer.

29 If he doo these thinges, he shalbe strong in al: for the light of the Lord leadeth him, which geueth wysedome to the godly: the Lorde be praysed for euermore, so be it, so be it.

¶ The.li. Chapter.

The prayer of Iesus the sonne of Sirach.

1 I Wyl thanke thee, O Lord, and kyng, and prayse thee, O God my sauiour: I wyll yeelde prayse vnto thy name.

2 For thou art my defender and helper, and hast preserued my body from destruction, from the snares of trayterous tongues, and from the lyps that are occupyed with lyes.

3 Thou hast been my helper from suche as stoode vp against me, and hast deliuered me after the multitude of thy mercie, and for thy holy names sake, from the roring of them that prepared them selues to deuoure me, out of the handes of suche as sought after my life, from the multitude of them that trouble me,

4 And from them that went about to set fire vpon me on euery side, so that I am not brent in the middest of the fyre:

5 From the deepe of hell, from an vncleane tongue, from lying woordes, from false accusation to the kyng, and from an vnrighteous tongue.

6 My soule shal prayse the Lorde vnto death: for my lyfe drue nygh vnto hell downeward.

7 They compassed me round about on euery side, and there was no man to helpe me: I looked about me yf there were any man that woulde succour me: but there was none.

8 Then thought I vppon thy mercie, O Lorde, and vppon thy actes that thou hast done euer of olde: namely, that thou deliuerest such as put their trust in thee, and rydest them out of the handes of the heathen.

9 Thus lyft I vp my prayer from the earth, and prayed for deliuerance from death.

10 I called vpon the Lorde the father of my Lorde, that he would not leaue me without helpe in the day of my trouble, and in the tyme of the proude.

11 I wyl prayse thy name continually, yeeldyng honour and thankes vnto it: and so my prayer was heard.

12 Thou sauedst me from destruction, and deliueredst me from the vnrighteous tyme: therefore wyll I acknowledge and prayse thee, and magnifie the name of the Lorde.

13 When I was yet but young, or euer I went astray, I desyred wysedome openly in my prayer.

14 I came therefore before the temple, and sought her vnto the last: then flourished she vnto me, as a grape that is soone ripe.

15 My hart reioyced in her, then went my foote the ryght way: yea from my youth vp sought I after her.

16 I bowed downe myne eare, and receiued her: I found me muche wysedome, and prospered greatly in her.

17 Therefore wyll I ascribe the glory vnto him that geueth me wysedome.

18 For I am aduised to doo thereafter, I wyll be zelous to cleaue vnto the thyng that is good, so shall I not be confounded.

19 My soule hath wrestled with her, and I haue been diligent to be occupied in her: I lyft vp my handes on hygh, then was my soule lyghtened through wysdome, and I knowledged my foolishnesse.

20 I ordered my soule after her, she and I were one hart from the beginnyng, and I found her in cleannesse, and therefore shall I not be forsaken.

21 My hart longed after her, and I gate a good treasure.

22 Through her the Lord hath geuen me a newe tongue, wherwith I wyl prayse him.

23 O come vnto me ye vnlearned, and dwell in the house of wysdome. Esai.55.21

24 Withdraw not your selues from her, but talke and commune of these thynges, for your soules are very thirstie.

25 I opened my mouth, and spake, O come and buye wysdome without money.

26 Bowe downe your necke vnder her yoke, and your soule shall receiue wysedome: she is hard at hand, and is content to be found.

27 Beholde with your eyes, howe that I haue had but little labour, and yet haue found much rest. Eccl.6.20

28 O receiue wysdome, and ye shall haue plenteousnesse of siluer & gold in possession.

29 Let

The ende of the booke of Ieſus the ſonne of Sirach, vvhich is called in Latine Eccleſiaſticus.

¶ The booke of the prophete Baruch.

¶ The firſt Chapter.

1. Baruch vvrote a booke during the captiuitie of Babylon, vvhich he read before Iechonias and all the people. 10. The Iewes ſent the booke vvith money vnto Hieruſalem to their other brethren, to the intent that they ſhoulde praye for them.

a Baruch was ſecretary to Ieremie the prophete, of whom in Ieremie is often made mention.

1 AND theſe are the wordes of the booke, whiche were a written by Baruch the ſonne of Nerias, the ſonne of Maaſias, the ſonne of Sedechias, the ſonne of Helchias, at Babylon,

2 In the fifth yeere, and in the ſeuenth day of the moneth, what time as the Chaldees tooke Hieruſalem, & brent it vp with fyre.

3 And Baruch did reade the wordes of this booke, that Iechonias the ſonne of Joachim kyng of Juda might heare, and in the preſence of al the people that were come to heare the booke,

4 And before all the nobles, the kinges ſonnes, and before the elders, and before the whole people, from the loweſt vnto the higheſt, before al them that dwelt at Babylon, by the water of b Sodi:

b Or, Sud.

5 Which when they heard it, wept, faſted, and prayed before the Lorde.

6 They made alſo a collection of money, according vnto euery mans power:

7 And ſent it to Hieruſalem vnto Joachin the ſonne of Helchia, the ſonne of Salom priеſt, with the other prieſtes, & to al the people which were with him at Hieruſalem,

8 (What time as they had gotten the c veſſels of the temple of the Lorde that were taken away out of the temple, that they might bring them againe into the lande of Juda the tenth day of the moneth d Siuan, namely ſiluer veſſels, which Sedechias the ſonne of Iosias kyng of Juda had made,) c Or, ornaments.

d Siuan containeth part of May, and part of Iune, it is the thirde moneth after the reckoning of the Iewes.

9 After that Nabuchodonoſor king of Babylon had take Iechonias, with al his princes, Lordes, and al the people, and led them captiue from Hieruſalem vnto Babylon.

10 And they ſayde, Beholde, we haue ſent you money to buye you burnt offerynges and incenſe withal, prepare a meate offerynge, and offer for ſinne vpon the aulter of the Lorde our God:

11 And e pray for the proſperitie of Nabuchodonoſor kyng of Babylon, and for the welfare of Balthaſar his ſonne, that their dayes may be vppon earth as the dayes of heauen:

e. By this example we are taught to pray for kynges and princes, as 1. Tim. 2.

12 That GOD alſo may geue vs ſtrength, and lighten our eyes, that we may lyue vnder the defence of Nabuchodonoſor king of Babylon, and vnder the protection of Balthaſar his ſonne, that we may long doo them ſeruice, & finde fauour in their ſight.

13 Pray for vs alſo vnto the Lord our God: for we haue ſinned againſt the Lorde our God, and vnto this day is not his wrath turned yet away from vs.

14 And ſee that ye reade this booke, whiche we haue ſent vnto you, to be rehearſed in the temple of the Lorde vppon the high dayes, and at time conuenient.

15 Thus ſhal ye ſay, *The Lorde our God is righteous, but we are worthie of confuſion and ſhame, lyke as it is come to paſſe this day vnto all Juda, and to euery one that dwelleth at Hieruſalem, *Baru. 2. 6.

16 To our kynges, princes, prieſtes, prophetes, and to our fathers.

17 *We haue ſinned before the Lorde our God, we haue not put our truſt in him, nor geuen him credence.

*Dan. 9. 5.

18 We haue not obeyed hym, we haue not hearkened vnto the voyce of the Lorde our God, to walke in the commaundementes that he gaue vs openly.

19 Since the day that he brought our forefathers out of the land of Egypt, vnto this preſent day, we haue been euer a miſbeleeuyng and an vnfaythful people vnto the Lorde our God, deſtroying our ſelues vtterly, and ſhrynking backe, that we ſhould not heare his voyce.

20 Wherefore, there are come vpon vs great plagues, & diuers curſes, lyke as the Lorde *deuiſed by Moſes his ſeruant, whiche brought our fathers out of the lande of Egypt, to geue vs a lande that floweth with milke and hony, like as it is to see this day.

21 Neuertheleſſe, we haue not hearkened vnto the voyce of the Lorde our God, accordyng to all the wordes of the prophetes, whom he sent vnto vs and to our rulers.

22 But euery man folowed his owne mind and wycked imagination, to offer vnto ſtrange goddes, and to doo euyl in the ſight of the Lorde our God.

¶ The .ii. Chapter.

1. The Iewes confeſſe that they iuſtly ſuffer for theyr ſinnes. 21. The Lorde vvyl that vve obey vnto princes, although they be euyl.

1 FOr the which cauſe the Lorde our God hath performed his deuice, whereof he certified vs, and our heades that ruled in Hieruſalem, yea and our kynges, our princes, with al Iſrael and Juda:

2 And ſuche plagues hath the Lord brought vpon vs, as neuer came to paſſe vnder the heauen, lyke as it is fulfylled in Hieruſalem, *accordyng as it is written in the lawe of Moſes,

*Deu.28.53.

3 That a man ſhoulde eate the fleſhe of his owne ſonne, & the fleſhe of his owne daughter.

4 Moreouer, he hath deliuered them into the handes of al the kinges that are rounde about vs, to be confounded and deſolate, and ſcattered them abrode in al landes and nations.

5 Thus are we brought beneath, and not aboue, becauſe we haue ſinned agaynſt the Lorde our God, and haue not ben obedient vnto his voyce.

*Baru.1.15. 6 Therefore *the Lorde our God is righteous, and we with our fathers as reaſon is are brought to open ſhame, as it is to ſee this day.

7 And as for theſe plagues that are come vppon vs alredy, the Lorde hath deuiſed them for vs.

8 Yet woulde we not pray vnto the Lorde our God, that we might euery man turne from his vngodly wayes.

9 So the Lord hath cauſed ſuch plagues to come vpon vs: for he is righteous in al his workes which he hath commaunded vs:

10 Which we alſo haue not done, nor hearkened vnto his voyce, for to walke in the commaundementes of the Lorde, that he hath geuen vnto vs.

*Dan.9.15. 11 And *nowe, O Lorde GOD of Iſrael, thou that haſt brought thy people out of the lande of Egypt with a mightie hand, with tokens & wonders, with thy great power and outſtretched arme, and haſt gotten thee ſelfe a name, as it is come to paſſe this day.

12 O Lorde our God, we haue ſinned, we haue done wyckedly, we haue behaued our ſelues vngodly in al thy ryghteouſneſſe.

13 Turne thy wrath from vs we beſeche thee, for we are but a fewe left among the heathen where thou haſt ſcattered vs.

14 Heare our prayers, O Lord, and our petitions, bring vs out of captiuitie for thine owne ſake, geat vs fauour in the ſight of them which haue led vs away:

15 That al landes may knowe that thou art the Lord our God, and that Iſrael and his generation calleth vpon thy name.

16 O Lorde, *looke downe from thy holy houſe vpon vs, encline thine eare & heare vs. *Deu.26.15. Eſai.63.15.

17 *Open thine eyes and beholde, for the dead that be gone downe to theyr graues, and whoſe ſoules are out of theyr bodies, aſcribe vnto the Lorde neyther prayſe nor ryghteouſneſſe. *pſal.115.17

18 But the ſoule that is vexed for the multitude of her ſinnes, which goeth on heauily and weakely, whoſe eyes begynne to faile, yea ſuche a ſoule aſcribeth prayſe and ryghteouſneſſe vnto the Lorde.

19 For we powre out our prayers before thee, & requyre mercie in thy ſight, O Lorde our God, not for any godlineſſe of our fathers:

20 But becauſe thou haſt ſent out thy wrath and indignation vppon vs, accordyng as thou dyddeſt threaten vs by thy ſeruantes the prophetes, ſaying, 21 Thus ſayth the Lorde, Bowe downe your ſhoulders and neckes, and ſerue the kyng of Babylon: ſo ſhal ye remayne ſtyl in the lande that I gaue vnto your fathers.

22 *But if ye wyl not heare the voyce of the Lorde your God to ſerue the kyng of Babylon, *Ier.27.17

23 I wyl deſtroy you in the cities of Juda, within Hieruſalem and without: I wyll alſo take from you the voyce of myrth, and the voyce of ioy, the voyce of the bridegrome, and the voyce of the bride, and there ſhal no man dwel more in the lande.

24 But they woulde not hearken vnto thy voyce, to doo the kyng of Babylon ſeruice: and therefore haſt thou performed the wordes that thou ſpakeſt by thy ſeruantes the prophetes: namely that the bones of our kynges, and the bones of our fathers ſhould be tranſlated out of theyr places.

25 And loe, nowe are they layde out in the heate of the ſunne, and in the colde of the night, and dead in great miſerie, with hunger, with ſwoorde, vvith peſtilence, and are cleane caſt foorth.

26 As for the temple wherein thy name was called vppon, thou hast layde it waste, as it is to see this day, and that for the wickednesse of the house of Israel, and the house of Iuda.

27 O Lorde our God, thou hast intreated vs after al thy goodnesse, and accordyng to all that louyng mercie of thyne.

Leui.28.14 Deu.28.15. 28 *Like as thou spakest by thy seruaunt Moses, in the day when thou dyddest commaund hym to wryte thy lawe before the children of Israel, saying, 29 If ye wyll not hearken vnto my voyce, then shall this great multitude be turned into a very smal people among the nations, for I wyl scatter them abrode.

30 Notwithstandyng, I am sure that this folke wyll not heare me, for it is an harde necked people: but in the land of their captiuitie they shall remember them selues, 31 And learne to knowe that I am the Lord their God, when I geue them an hart to vnderstand, and eares to heare.

32 Then shall they prayse me in the lande of their captiuitie, and thinke vpon my name.

33 Then shall they turne them from their hard backes, and from their vngodlynesse: then shall they remember the thinges that happened vnto their fathers whiche sinned agaynst me.

34 So wyll I bring them agayne into the land whiche I promised with an othe vnto their fathers Abraham, Isahac, and Iacob, and they shalbe lordes of it, yea I wyl encrease them, and not minishe them.

35 And I wyl make another couenant with them, suche one as shall endure for euer: namely, that I wyl be their God, and they shalbe my people: and I wyl no more driue my people the chyldren of Israel out of the land that I haue geuen them.

¶ The.iii. Chapter.

36. Only God vvas the finder of vvysedome. 37. Of the incarnation of Christe.

1 AND nowe, O Lorde almighty, thou God of Israel, the soule that is in trouble, and the spirite that is vexed cryeth vnto thee.

2 Heare vs, O Lorde, and haue pitie vppon vs, for thou art a mercyful God: be gracious vnto vs, for we haue sinned before thee.

3 Thou endurest for euer: shoulde we then vtterly perishe?

4 O Lorde almighty, thou God of Israel, heare nowe the prayer of the dead Israelites, and of their chyldren which haue sinned before thee, and not hearkened vnto the voyce of the Lorde their God, for the which cause these plagues hang nowe vpon vs.

5 O Lord, remember not the wickednesse of our forefathers, but thynke vppon thy power and name nowe at this time:

6 For thou art the Lord our God, and thee, O Lord, wyl we prayse.

4 For thou hast put thy feare in our harts, to ỹ intent that we should call vpon thy name, and prayse thee in our captiuitie, and that we myght turne from the wickednesse of our forefathers that sinned before thee.

8 Beholde, we are yet this day in our captiuitie, whereas thou hast scattered vs, to be an abomination, curse, and subiect to exactions: lyke as it hath happened vnto our fathers also, because of al their wickednesse and departing from thee, O Lord our god.

9 O Israel, heare the commaundementes of lyfe, ponder them well with thyne eares, that thou mayest learne wysedome.

10 But how happeneth it Israel that thou art in thyne enimies land? thou art waxen olde in a strange countrey, and defiled with the dead.

11 Why art thou become like them that goe downe to their graues?

12 Euen because thou hast forsaken the wel of wysedome.

13 For yf thou hadst walked in the way of God truely, thou shouldest haue remayned styll safe in thyne owne land.

14 O learne then where is wysdome, where *vertue is, where vnderstandyng is: that thou mayest knowe also from whence commeth long continuance and lyfe, the lyght of the eyes, and quietnesse.

15 Who euer founde out her place? or who came euer into her treasures?

16 Where are the princes of the Heathen become, and suche as ruled the beastes vppon the earth, 17 They that had their pastyme with the foules of the ayre, they that hoorded vp syluer and golde wherein men trust so muche, and made no ende of their geatheryng?

18 What is become of them that coyned syluer, and were so carefull, and coulde not bring their woorkes to passe?

19 They be rooted out, and gone downe to hell, and other men are come vp in their stedes.

20 Young men haue seene lyght, and dwelt vppon earth: but the way of reformation haue they not knowen, 21 Nor vnderstand the pathes therof: neyther haue their chyldren receiued it, yea ryght farre is it from them.

22 It hath not been heard of in the lande of Chanaan, neyther hath it been seene at Theman.

23 The Agarenes sought after wysedome, but that whiche is earthly, lyke as the marchantes of the lande doo: they of Theman are cunning also, they labour for wisedome & vnderstandyng: but the way of true wisedome they know not, neither do they thinke vpon the pathes thereof.

24 O Israel, how great is the house of God? and how large is the place of his possession?

25 Great is he, and hath none ende: yea high and vnmeasurable.

26 What is become of those famous giantes, that were so great of bodies, and so worthy men of warre?

27 Those hath not the Lord chosen, neither haue they founde the way of reformation:

28 Therefore were they destroied, and for so muche as they had no wysedome, they perished because of their foolishnesse.

29 Who hath gone vp into heauen to take wysedome there, and brought her downe from the cloudes?

30 Who hath gone ouer the sea to finde her, and hath chosen her aboue golde, and so brought her hither?

31 No man knoweth the waies of wisedome, neyther is there any that can seeke out her pathes.

32 But he that woteth al thinges, knoweth her, and hath founde her out with his foreknowledge, ỹ same is he which prepared the earth at the beginning, and filled it with all maner of fowles and beastes.

33 When he sendeth out the lyght, it goeth: and when he calleth it agayne, it obeyeth hym with feare.

34 The Starres keepe their watche & geue their light, yea and that gladly: When he calleth them, they say, Here we be: & so with chearefulnesse they shewe lyght vnto hym that made them.

35 This is our God, and there shall none other be compared vnto hym.

36 It is he that hath found out al wisedome, and hath geuen her vnto Jacob his seruant, and to Israel his beloued.

37 Afterwarde did he shewe hym selfe vpon earth, and dwelt among men.

¶ The iiii. Chapter.

1. The reuvarde of them that keepe the lavve, and the punishment of them that dispise it.

1 THis is the booke of the commaundementes of God, and the law that endureth for euer: al they that keepe it shall come to life, but such as forsake it shal come to death.

2 Turne ther, O Jacob, and take hold of it, walke by this way through his brightnesse and shine.

3 Geue not thine honour to another, and thy worship to a strange people.

4 O Israel, how happy are we, seeing that God hath shewed vs suche thynges as are pleasant vnto him?

5 Be of good cheare, thou people of God, O thou auncient Israel.

6 Nowe are ye solde among the heathen, howbeit, not for your vtter destruction: but because ye prouoked God the Lord to wrath and displeasure, therfore were ye delyuered vnto your enimies.

7 For ye displeased the euerlasting God that made you, offeryng vnto deuylles, and not to God.

8 Ye haue forgotten him that brought you vp, and ye haue greeued Hierusalem that nursed you.

9 When she sawe that the wrath of God was commyng vpon you, she sayd, Hearken O ye that dwell about Sion, for God hath brought me into great heauinesse.

10 And why? I see the captiuitie of my people, of my sonnes and daughters, which the euerlasting God wyll bring vpon them.

11 With ioy did I nourysh them: but nowe must I leaue them with weeping & sorowe.

12 Let no man reioyce ouer me widowe & forsaken, which for the sinnes of my children am desolate of euery man: for why? they departed from the lawe of God.

13 They would not know his righteousnes, nor walke in the wayes of his commaundementes: and as for the pathes of trueth and godlynesse, they had no lust to go in them.

14 O ye dwellers about Sion, come and let vs call to remembrance the captiuitie that the euerlastyng God hath brought vpon my sonnes and my daughters.

15 He hath brought a people vpon them from farre, an vncurteous people, & of a strange language, whiche neyther regarde the olde, nor pitie the young.

16 These haue caryed away the deare beloued of the widdowes, leauyng me alone both desolate and chyldlesse.

17 But alas, what can I helpe you?

18 Nowe he that brought these plagues vpon you, delyuer you also from the handes of your enimies.

19 Goe your way, O my children, goe your way: for I am desolate and forsaken.

20 I haue put of the clothyng of peace, and put vpon me the sackcloth of prayer, and for my time I wil cal vpō the most highest.

21 Be of good cheare, O my children, crye vnto the Lord, and he shal deliuer you from the power of the princes your enimies.

22 For verily I haue euer a good hope of your prosperous health, yea, a very gladnes is come vpon me from the holy one, because of the mercie that ye shal haue of our euerlasting sauiour.

23 With mourning and weeping did I let you goe fro me: but with ioy and perpetuall gladnesse shal the Lorde bryng you agayne vnto me.

24 Like as the neyghbours of Sion sawe your captiuitie from God: euen so shal they also see shortly your health in God, which shal come on you with great honour and euerlasting worshyp.

25 O my chyldren suffer patiently the wrath that shal come vppon you: for the enimie hath persecuted thee, but shortly thou shalt see his destruction, and shalt treade vppon his necke.

26 My darlinges haue gone rough harde wayes, for they are ledde away as a flocke that is scattered abrode with the enimies.

27 But be of good comfort, O my chyldren, and crye vnto the Lorde: for he that ledde you away, hath you yet in remembrance.

28 And like as you haue been minded to swarue from your God: so shal ye nowe endeuour your selues ten times more to turne agayne, and to seeke hym.

29 For he that hath brought these plagues vpon you, shal bryng you euerlasting ioy agayne with your health.

30 Take a good hart vnto thee, O Hierusalem: for he which gaue thee that name, exhorteth thee so to doo.

31 The wycked doers that nowe put thee to trouble, shal perishe: and suche as haue reioyced at thy fal, shalbe punished.

32 The cities whom thy chyldren serue, and that haue caryed away thy sonnes, shalbe corrected.

33 For lyke as they be nowe gladde of thy decaye, and reioyce at thy fal: so shal they mourne in their owne destruction.

34 The ioy of their multitude shalbe taken away, and their cheare shalbe turned to sorowe.

35 For a fire shal fal vpon them from the euerlasting God, long to endure, and it shall be inhabited of deuyls for a great season.

36 O Hierusalem, looke about thee toward the East, & beholde the *ioy that commeth vnto thee from God. *Baruc.5.6.

37 For loe, thy sonnes whom thou hast forsaken, & that were scattered abrode, come geathered togeather from the East & West, reioycing in the worde of the holy one, vnto the honour of God.

¶ The.v Chapter.

1. Hierusalem is mooned vnto gladnesse for the returne of her people, and vnder the figure thereof the Church.

1 PVt of thy mourning clothes, O Hierusalem, and thy sorowe, and decke thee with the worshyp and honour that commeth vnto thee from God with euerlasting glory.

2 God shal put the garment of ryghteousnesse vpon thee, and set a crowne of euerlasting worshyp vpon thy head:

3 For vpon thee wyl God declare his brightnesse, that is vnder the heauen.

4 Yea an euerlasting name shalbe geuen thee of God, with peace of ryghteousnesse, and the honour of Gods feare.

5 Aryse, O Hierusalem, stande vp on high, looke about thee towarde the East, and beholde thy chyldren geathered from the East vnto the West, whiche reioyce in the holy worde, hauing God in remembrance.

6 They departed from thee on foote, and were led away of their enimies: but nowe *shal the Lord bryng them caryed with honour, as chyldren of the kyngdome. *Baru.4.36

7 For God is purposed to bryng downe all stonie mountaynes, yea and al high rockes, to fyl the valleyes, and so to make them euen with the grounde, that Israel may be diligent to lyue vnto the honour of God.

8 The woods and all pleasant trees, shall ouershadowe Israel at the commaundement of God.

9 For hyther shal God bryng Israel with ioyful myrth, and in the light of his maiestie, with the mercie & ryghteousnesse that commeth of hym selfe.

¶ The.vi.Chapter.

A coppie of the epistle that Ieremie sent vnto the Iewes, vvhich vvere ledde avvay prysoners by the king of Babylon: vvherein he certifieth them of the thyng that vvas commaunded him of God.

1 BEcause of the synnes that ye haue done agaynst God, ye shalbe led away captiue vnto Babylon, euen of Nabuchodonosor the kyng of Babylon. In this Chapter are the makers and mainteyners of images mightily confuted.

2 So when ye be come into Babylon, ye shal remayne there many yeeres, and for a long season, namely seuen a generations: and after that wyl I bryng you away peaceablie from thence. a. That is, seuentie yeeres.

3 *Nowe shal ye see in Babylon goddes of golde, of siluer, of wood, and of stone, borne vpon mens shoulders, to cast out a fearefulnesse before the heathen. *Esai.44.10.

4 But looke that ye doo not as the other: be not ye afrayde, and let not the feare of them ouercome you.

5 Therefore when ye see the multitude of people worshipping them behinde and before, say ye in your hartes, O Lorde, it is thou that oughteſt onely to be worſhipped.

6 Mine angel alſo ſhalbe with you, and I mee ſelfe wyl care for your ſoules.

*or, tongue. 7 As for the *timber of thoſe gods, the Carpenter hath pulliſhed them: yea gylted be they, and layde ouer with ſyluer, yet are they but vayne thynges, & can not ſpeake.

8 Like as a wenche that loueth paramours is trimly decked: euen ſo are theſe made, and hanged with golde.

9 Crownes of golde verily haue they: gods vpon they: heades: ſo the prieſtes them ſelues take gold and ſyluer from them, and put it to they: owne vſes:

10 Yea they geue of the ſame vnto harlots, and trim they: whoores withal: agayne, they take it from the whoores, and decke they: gods therewith:

11 Yet can not theſe goddes deliuer them ſelues from ruſt and mothes.

12 When they haue couered them with clothing of purple, they wype they: faces for the duſt of the temple, whereof there is muche among them.

13 One hath a ſcepter in his hand as though he were iudge of the countrey, yet can he not ſlay ſuche as offende hym.

14 Another hath a ſwoorde or an axe in his hand: for al that he is neither able to defend hym ſelfe from battel, nor from murderers.

15 By this ye may vnderſtande that they be no goddes: therefore ſee that ye neyther worſhyp them, nor feare them.

16 For lyke as a veſſel that a man vſeth, is nothing worth when it is broken, euen ſo is it with they: gods: when they be ſet vp in the temple, they: eyes be ful of duſt thorowe the feete of them that come in.

17 And like as the doores are ſhut in round about vppon hym that hath offended the kyng, or as it were a dead body kept beſide the graue: euen ſo the prieſtes keepe the doores with barres and lockes, leſt they: gods be ſpoyled with robbers.

18 They ſet vp candels before them, yea verily and that many, whereof they can not ſee one: but euen as blockes ſo ſtande they in the temple.

19 It is ſayd, that the ſerpentes & wormes which come of the earth, gnawe out they: hartes, eating them and they: clothes alſo, and yet they feele it not.

20 They: faces are blacke, through the ſmoke that is in the temple.

21 The Dwles, Swalowes, and byrdes flee vpon them, yea and the Cattes runne ouer their heades.

22 By this ye may be ſure that they are no gods, therefore feare them not.

23 The golde that they haue is to make them beautiful: for al that, except ſome body dight of they: ruſt, they wyl geue no ſhine, & when they were caſt into a fourme, they felt it not.

24 *They are bought for money, and haue no breath of lyfe within them. *Eſai. 46. 7.

25 They muſt be borne vppon mens ſhoulders as thoſe that haue no feete, whereby they declare vnto men that they be nothing worth: confounded be they then that worſhyp them.

26 For if they fall to the grounde, they can not ryſe vp agayne of them ſelues: Yea though one helpe them vp, and ſet them ryght, yet are they not able to ſtande alone, but muſt haue proppes ſet vnder them lyke dead men.

27 As for the thing that is offered vnto them, they: prieſtes ſel it, and abuſe it, yea the prieſtes wiues take thereof: but vnto the ſicke and poore they geue nothyng of it.

28 The women with chylde, and the menſtrous lay handes of they: offerynges: By this ye may be ſure that they are no gods, therefore be not ye afrayde of them.

29 From whence commeth it then that they be called gods? becauſe women *ſit before the gods of ſiluer, golde, and wood, *or, bring offer.

30 And the prieſtes ſit in they: temples hauyng *open clothes, whoſe heades and beardes are ſhauen, and haue nothing vpon their heades, *or, rent.

31 Roaring and crying vppon they: gods, as men doo at the feaſt when one is dead.

32 The prieſtes alſo take away the garmentes of the images, & decke their wiues and chyldren withal.

33 Whether it be good or euyl that any man doo vnto them, they are not able to recompence it: they can neyther ſet vp a king, nor put hym downe.

34 In like maner, they may neyther geue richeſſe, nor reward euyl: though a man make a vowe vnto them, and keepe it not, they wyl not requyre it.

35 They can ſaue no man from death, neyther deliuer the weake from the mightie.

36 They can not reſtore a blynd man to his ſight, nor helpe any man at his neede. *or, real. 40. The Chaldee alſo dishonoureth them, the which, if they ſhal ſee a dumme one that can not ſpeake, to preſent it to Bel, and deſire that it may ſpeake.

37 They can ſhewe no mercie to the wydowe, nor doo good to the fatherleſſe.

38 Their gods of wood, ſtone, golde, and ſiluer, are but euen as other ſtones that be hewen of the mountayne: they that worſhyp them, ſhalbe confounded.

39 Howe ſhoulde they then be taken for gods: yea, howe dare men cal them gods?

40 *And though the Chaldees worſhypped them not, hearyng that they were but dumbe, and coulde not ſpeake:

41 Yet

41 Yet they them ſelues offer vnto Bel, and would fayne haue him to ſpeake: as who ſay they could feele, that may not moue.

42 But when theſe men come to vnderſtandyng, they ſhall forſake them, for theyr goddes haue no feeling.

43 A great ſort of women girte with cordes, ſyt in the ſtretes, and burne "olyue berries: Nowe if one of them be conueyed away, and lye with ſuche as come by, ſhe caſteth her neighbours in the teeth, becauſe ſhe was not woorthyly reputed, nor her corde broken.

"Wheate.

44 What ſo euer is doone for them, it is but in vayne and loſt: Howe may it then be thought or ſayde that they are goddes?

45 Carpenters & Goldſmithes make them: neither be they any other thing but euen what the workeman wyl make of them.

46 Yea the Goldſmithes them ſelues that make them, are of no long continuance: howe ſhould then the thinges that are made of them be goddes?

47 Vayne therefore are the thinges, yea very ſhame is it that they leaue behynd them for theyr poſteritie.

48 For aſſoone as there commeth any warre or plague vpon them, then the prieſtes imagine where they may hyde them ſelues with them.

49 How can men then thynke that they be goddes, which neyther may defende them ſelues from warre, nor deliuer them from miſfortune?

50 For ſeeyng they be but of wood, of ſtone, ſiluer, and of golde, al people and kinges ſhal knowe hereafter, that they be but vaine thinges: yea it ſhalbe openly declared that they be no goddes, but euen the very woorkes of mens handes, and that God hath nothyng to doo with them.

51 It is manifeſt then that they are no gods, but the woorkes of mens handes, and no woorke of God in them.

52 They can ſet no king in the land, nor geue rayne vnto men.

53 They can geue no ſentence of a matter, neyther defende the land from wrong: for they are not able to doo ſo muche as a crow that fleeth betwixt heauen and earth.

54 When there happeneth a fire into the houſe of thoſe goddes of wood, and ſiluer, and of golde, the prieſtes wyl eſcape & ſaue them ſelues, but the goddes burne as the balkes therein.

55 They can not withſtande any kyng or battel: how may it then be thought or graũted that they be goddes?

56 Moreouer, theſe goddes of wood, of ſtone, of golde and ſiluer, may neyther defend them ſelues from theeues nor robbers.

57 Yea the very wicked are ſtronger then they: theſe ſtrippe them out of their apparel that they be clothed withal, theſe take their gold & ſiluer from them, & ſo geat them away, yet can they not helpe them ſelues.

58 Therefore it is muche better for a man to be a king, & ſo to ſhewe his power, or els a profitable veſſel in a houſe, wherein he that oweth it might haue pleaſure, yea or to be a doore in a houſe, to keepe ſuche thinges ſafe as be therein, then to be ſuche a vayne God.

59 The ſunne, the moone, and all the ſtarres, ſeeing they geue their ſhine & light, are obedient, and doo men good.

60 When the lightning gliſtreth, al is cleare.

61 The winde bloweth in euery countrey: and when God commaundeth the cloudes to goe rounde about the whole worlde, they doo as they are bidden.

62 When the fire is ſent downe from aboue and commaunded, it burneth vp hilles and woods: but as for theſe gods, they are not lyke one of theſe thinges, neyther in beautie, neyther in ſtrength.

63 Wherefore men ſhoulde not thinke nor ſay that they be gods, ſeeing they can neyther geue ſentence in iudgement, nor doo men good.

64 For ſo muche nowe as ye are ſure that they be not gods, then feare them not.

65 For they can neyther ſpeake euil nor good of kinges.

66 They can ſhewe no tokens in heauens for the heathen, neyther ſhine as the ſunne, nor geue light as the moone:

67 Yea the vnreaſonable beaſtes are better then they: for they can geat them vnder the roofe, and doo them ſelues good.

68 So can ye be certified by no maner of meanes that they be gods, therefore feare them not.

69 For like as a ſcarcrow in a garden of herbes keepeth nothing: euen ſo are theyr goddes of wood, of ſiluer, and golde.

70 And like as a white thorne in an Orchard that euery birde ſitteth vppon, yea lyke as a dead body that is caſt in the darke: euen ſo is it with theſe goddes of wood, ſiluer, and golde.

71 By the purple & ſcarlet which they haue vppon them, & ſoone fadeth away, ye may vnderſtande that they be no gods: yea they them ſelues ſhalbe conſumed at the laſt, which ſhalbe a great confuſion of the lande.

72 "Bleſſed is the godly man that hath no images and vvorshippeth none: for he ſhalbe farre from reproofe.

"Or, better.

The end of the booke of the prophete Baruch.

The ſong of the three children, which were put into the hot burnyng ouen, The common tranſlation readeth this ſong in the thirde Chapter of Daniel.

25. The prayer of Azarias. 46 The crueltie of the king 48. The fire deuoureth the Chaldeans. 49. The angel of the Lorde vvas in the furnace.

24 AND they walked in the middes of the flambe, prayſyng God, & magnifyng the Lorde.

25 Then Azarias ſtoode vp, and prayed in this maner, euen in the middes of the fyre opened he his mouth, and ſayde, 26 Bleſſed be thou, O Lorde God of our fathers, ryght woorthy to be prayſed & honoured is that name of thyne for euermore.

27 For thou art righteous in al the thinges that thou haſt doone to vs, yea, faythfull are all thy woorkes, thy wayes are ryght, and all thy iudgementes true.

28 In al the thinges that thou haſt brought vpon vs, and vpon the holy citie of our fathers, euen Hieruſalem, thou haſt executed true iudgement: yea, accordyng to right and equitie haſt thou brought all theſe thynges vpon vs, because of our ſinnes:

29 For why? we haue offended and doone wickedly, departyng from thee.

30 In all thynges haue we treſpaſſed, and not obeyed thy commaundements, nor kept them, neyther done as thou haſt bidden vs, that we may proſper.

31 Wherfore al that thou haſt brought vpon vs, & euery thing that thou haſt doone to vs, thou haſt doone them in true iudgement.

32 As in delyueryng vs into the handes of our enimies, among vngodly and wicked abominations, and to an vnrighteous kyng, yea the moſt frowarde vpon earth.

33 And now we may not open our mouthes, we are become a ſhame and reproofe vnto thy ſeruauntes, and to them that woorſhyp thee.

34 Yet for thy names ſake vve beſeeche thee geue vs not vp for euer, breake not thy couenaunt,

35 And take not away thy mercie from vs for thy beloued Abrahams ſake, for thy ſeruaunt Iſahacs ſake, and for thy holy Iſraels ſake:

36 To whom thou haſt ſpoken and promiſed, that thou wouldeſt multiplie their ſeede as the ſtarres of heauen, & as the ſand that lyeth vpon the ſea ſhore.

37 For we, O Lorde, are become leſſe then any people, and be kept vnder this day in al the worlde, becauſe of our ſinnes.

38 So that nowe we haue neyther prince, duke, prophete, burnt offeryng, ſacrifice, oblation, incenſe, nor ſanctuarie before thee.

39 Neuertheleſſe, in a contrite hart and an humble ſpirite let vs be receyued, that we may obteyne thy mercy.

40 Like as in the burnt offering of rammes and bullockes, and like as in thouſandes of fat lambes: ſo let our offeryng be in thy ſyght this day, that it may pleaſe thee: for there is no confuſion vnto them that put theyr truſt in thee.

41 And nowe we folowe thee with all our hart, we feare thee, and ſeeke thy face.

42 Put vs not to ſhame: but deale with vs after thy louing kyndeneſſe, and accordyng to the multitude of thy mercies.

43 Deliuer vs by thy miracles, O Lord, and geat thy name an honour, that all they whiche do thy ſeruauntes euil, may be confounded:

44 Let thē be aſhamed through thy almightie power, and let their ſtrength be broken:

45 That they may knowe howe that thou onely art the Lorde God, and honour woorthey throughout al the worlde.

46 And the kinges ſeruauntes that put them in, ceaſſed not to make the ouen hot with [a] wilde fire, drie ſtrawe, pitche, towe, & faggots.

47 So that the flambe went out of the ouen vpon a fourtie and niene cubites:

48 Yea it tooke away and brent vp thoſe Chaldees that it gate holde vppō beſide the ouen.

49 But the angel of the Lorde came downe into the ouen to Azaria & his felowes, and ſmote the flambe of the fire out of the ouen, 50 And made the middes of the ouen as it had been a cold winde blowing: ſo the fyre neither touched them, greeued them, nor did them hurt.

51 Then theſe three, as out of one mouth, prayſed, honoured, and bleſſed God in the furnace, ſayeing, 52 Bleſſed be thou, O Lorde God of our fathers: for thou art prayſe and honour woorthy, yea and to be magnified for euermore.

53 Bleſſed be the holy name of thy glo-

91 O all deuout men, ſpeake ye good of the Looꝛde, the God of all goddes: O prayſe him, and geue him thankes, for his mercy endureth wooꝛlde without ende.

¶ The

The storie of Susanna, which is the .xiij. Chapter of Daniel after the Latine.

1. The twoo Gouernours are taken with the loue of Susanna. 19. They take her alone in the Garden. 20. They entice her to wickednesse. 23. She chooseth rather to obey God, though it be to the danger of her lyfe. 34. She is accused. 45. Daniel doth deliuer her. 63. The Gouernours are put to death.

1 There dwelt a man in Babylon, called Joacim,

2 That tooke a wyfe, whose name was Susanna, the daughter of Helcia, a very fayre woman, and suche a one as feared God.

3 Her father and her mother also were good people, and taught their daughter accoꝛding to the lawe of Moses.

4 Nowe Joacim her husbande was a great ryche man, and had a fayre Oꝛcharde ioynyng vnto his house, and to hym resoꝛted the Iewes commonlye, because he was a man of reputation among them.

5 The same yeere were there made two Iudges, suche as the Loꝛde speaketh of, The wyckednesse of Babylon commeth from the elders, that is, from the Iudges whiche seeme to rule the people.

6 These came oft to Joacims house: and al suche as had anye thyng to doo in the lawe, came thyther vnto them.

7 Nowe when the people departed away at noone, Susanna went into her husbandes Oꝛcharde to walke.

8 The two elders seeyng this, that she went in dayly and walked, they burned foꝛ lust to her.

9 Yea, they were almost out of their wittes, and cast downe their eyes, that they should not see heauen, noꝛ remember that God is a ryghteous Iudge.

10 Foꝛ they were both wounded with the loue of her, neither durst one shewe another his greefe:

11 And foꝛ shame they durst not tel her their inoꝛdinate lust, that they would fayne haue had to doo with her:

12 Yet they layde wayte foꝛ her earnestlye from day to day, that they myght at the least haue a syght of her.

13 And the one sayde to the other, Up, let vs goe home, foꝛ it is dynner time. So they went their way one from another.

14 When they returned agayne, they came together, enquiring out the matter betwixt them selues, yea, the one tolde the other of his wyckked lust: Then appoynted they a tyme when they myght take Susanna alone.

15 It happened also that they spyed out a conuenient tyme, when she went foꝛth to walke, as her maner was, & no bodye with her but two maidens, and thought to wash her selfe in the Garden: foꝛ it was an hot season.

16 And there was not one person there, except the two elders that had hyd them selues to beholde her.

17 So she sayde to her maydens, Goe fetche me oyle and sope, and shut the Oꝛcharde dooꝛe, that I may washe me.

18 And they dyd as she bade them, and shut the Oꝛchard dooꝛe, and went out them selues at a backe dooꝛe to fetche the thing that she had cõmaunded: * but Susanna knewe not that the elders laye there hyd within.

* Or, but they sawe not the elders, because they were hid

19 Nowe when the maydens were gone foꝛth, the two elders gate them vp, and ranne vpon her, saying,

20 Nowe the Oꝛchard dooꝛes are shut, that no man can see vs, we haue a lust vnto thee, therefoꝛe consent vnto vs, and lye with vs.

21 Yf thou wylt not, we shall byyng a testimoniall agaynst thee, that there was a young felowe with ther, and that thou hast sent away thy maydens from thee foꝛ the same cause.

22 Susanna syghed, and sayd, Alas, I am in trouble on euery side, though I folowe your mynde, it wyl be my death: and yf I consent not vnto you, I can not escape your handes.

23 Well, it is better foꝛ me to fall into your hande without the deede dooyng, then to sinne in the syght of the Loꝛde.

24 And with that she cryed out with a loud voyce: the elders also cried out against her.

25 Then ranne there one to the Oꝛcharde dooꝛe, and smote it open.

26 Nowe when the seruantes of the house heard the crie in ỹ oꝛchard, they rushed in at the backe dooꝛe, to see what the matter was.

27 So when the elders tolde them, the seruants were greatly ashamed: foꝛ why? there was neuer such a repoꝛt made of Susanna.

28 On the moꝛowe after came the people to Joacim her husbande, and the two elders elders came alſo full of miſchieuous imaginations againſt Suſanna, to bring her vnto death, 29 And ſpake thus before the people, Send for Suſanna the daughter of Helchias, Ioacims wyfe. And immediatly they ſent for her.

30 So ſhe came with her father and mother, her children, and al her kinred.

31 Nowe Suſanna was a tender perſon, and maruelous fayre of face.

32 Therefore the wicked men commaunded to take her clothes from her face (for ſhe was couered) that at the leaſt they myght ſo be ſatiſfied in her beautie.

33 Then her frendes, yea and all they that knewe her, began to weepe.

34 Theſe two elders ſtood vp in the middes of the people, and layde their handes vpon the head of Suſanna, 35 Which wept, and looked vp toward heauen: for her hart had a ſure truſt in the lord.

36 And the elders ſaid, As we were walking in the Orchard alone, this woman came in with her two maydens, whom ſhe ſét away from her, and ſparred the Orchard doores:

37 With that a young felowe which there was hyd, came vnto her, and lay with her.

38 As for vs, we ſtood in a corner of the orchard: and when we ſaw this wickednelle, we raine to them, and we ſawe them as they were togeather.

39 But we could not holde him, for he was ſtronger then we. Thus he opened the doore, and gate hym away.

40 Nowe when we had taken this woman, we aſked her what young felowe this was, but ſhe wouldo not tel vs. This is the matter, and we be witneſſes of the ſame.

41 The common ſort beleeued them, as theſe that were the elders & iudges of the people, and ſo they condemned her to death.

42 Suſanna cryed out with a loude voyce, and ſayde, O euerlaſting God, thou ſearcher of ſecretes, thou that knoweſt all thynges before they come to paſſe:

43 Thou woteſt that they haue borne falſe witneſſe againſt me, and beholde I muſt dye, whereas I neuer did any ſuche thynges as theſe men haue malitiouſly inuented againſt me.

44 And the Lorde hearde her voyce.

45 For when ſhe was led forth to death, the Lorde rayſed vp the ſpirite of a young chylde, whoſe name was Daniel.

46 Whiche cryed with a loude voyce, I am cleane from this blood.

47 Then all the people turned towardes hym, and ſayde, What meane theſe woordes that thou haſt ſpoken.

48 Daniel ſtood in the middes of them and ſayde, Are ye ſuche fooles, O ye children of Iſrael, that ye can not diſcerne and knowe the trueth? Ye haue here condemned a daughter of Iſrael vnto death, and knowe not the trueth wherefore.

49 Goe ſitte in iudgment againe: for they haue ſpoken falſe witneſſe againſt her.

50 Wherefore the people turned againe in al the haſte: and the elders, that is the principal heades, ſayde vnto him, Come ſit downe here among vs, and ſhewe vs this matter, ſeeing God hath geuen thee as great honour as an elder.

51 And Daniel ſayde vnto them, Put theſe two aſide one from another, and then ſhall I examine them.

52 When they were put aſunder one from another, he called one of them, and ſayd vnto hym, O thou olde cankered carle, that haſt vſed thy wicke wyles ſo long, thyne vngratious deedes which thou haſt done afore, are now come to light.

53 For thou haſt geuen falſe iudgementes, thou haſt oppreſſed the innocent, and letten the giltie goe free: whereas yet the Lorde ſayth, The innocent and righteous ſhalt thou ſlay not. * Exod. 23. 7

54 Well then, yf thou haſt ſeene her, tell me vnder what tree ſaweſt thou them companying togeather? He anſwered, Vnder a Mulberie tree. * Or, lentiſke tree.

55 And Daniel ſayde, Very wel, nowe thou lieſt euen vpon thine head: loe, the meſſenger of the Lorde hath receiued the ſentence of hym to cut thee in two.

56 Then put he hym aſyde, and called for the other, and ſaid vnto him, O thou ſeede of Chanaan, but not of Iuda, fayre wyfe hath deceiued thee, and luſt hath ſubuerted thine hart.

57 Thus dealt ye afore with the daughters of Iſrael, and they for feare conſented vnto you: but the daughter of Iuda would not abyde your wickednelle.

58 Nowe tel me then, vnder what tree dydeſt thou take them companying togeather? He anſwered, vnder a * Pomegranate tree. * Or, a prime tree, or a mirobolane tree.

59 Then ſayde Daniel vnto hym, Very well, nowe thou lyeſt alſo euen vpon thyne head: the meſſenger of the Lorde ſtandeth waiting with the ſworde to cut thee in two, and ſlay you both.

60 With that al the whole multitude gaue a great ſhowte, and prayſed God, which alway deliuereth them that put their truſt in hym.

61 And they came vpon the two elders, whom Daniel had cõuict with their owne mouth, mouth, that they hadde geue falſe witneſſe,

62 And dealt with them euen lykewyſe as they woulde haue doone with their neighbours, yea they dyd according to the lawe of Moſes, & put them to death: Thus the innocent blood was ſaued the ſame day.
*Deu. 19.19 Prou. 19.5.
63 Then Helcias and his wyfe prayſed God for their daughter Suſanna, with Joachim her husband, and al the kinred, that there was no dishoneſtie found in her.
64 From that day forth was Daniel had in great reputation in the ſight of the people.
65 And kyng Aſtyages was layde with his fathers, and Cyrus of Perſia raigned in his ſtede.

The ende of the ſtory of Suſanna.

¶ The ſtory of Bel and of the Dragon,

Which is the fourteenth Chapter of Daniel, after the Latine.

1 DAniel dyd eate at the kynges table, and was had in reuerence aboue al his freendes.
2 There was at Babylon an image called Bel, and there were ſpent vpon him euery day twelue cakes, fourtie ſheepe, and ſixe great pottes of wyne.
3 Hym dyd the kyng worſhyp himſelfe, and went dayly to honour hym, but Daniel worſhipped his owne God: and the kyng ſayde vnto hym, Why doeſt not thou worſhyp Bel?
4 He anſwered and ſayde, Becauſe I may not worſhyp thynges that are made with handes, but the liuyng God which hath made the heauen and earth, and hath power vpon all fleſhe.
5 The kyng ſayde vnto hym, Thynkeſt thou not that Bel is a liuyng God? ſeeſt thou not howe much he eateth and drynketh euery day?
6 Daniel ſmiled, and ſayde, O kyng, be not deceiued therein: for this is but made of clay within, and of braſſe without, neyther eateth he euer any thyng.
7 Then the kyng was wroth, and called for his prieſtes, and ſaide vnto them, Ye muſt tel me who is this that eateth vp theſe expences, ye ſhall dye.
8 But yf ye can certifie me that Bel eateth them, then Daniel ſhall dye, for he hath ſpoken blaſphemie againſt Bel. Then Daniel ſaide vnto the kyng, Let it be, according vnto thy wordes.
9 The prieſtes of Bel were threeſcore and tenne, beſides their wiues and children. And the kyng went with Daniel into the temple of Bel.
10 So Bels prieſtes ſayde, Loe, we wyl goe out: and let thou the meate there, O kyng, and powre in the wine, then ſhut the doore faſt, and ſeale it with thyne owne ſignet.
11 And to morowe when thou comeſt in, yf thou findeſt not that Bel hath eaten vp al, we wyl ſuffer death: or elſe Daniel, that hath lyed vpon vs.
12 The prieſtes thought them ſelues ſure enough: for vnder the *aulter they had made a priuie entrance, & their went they in euer, and vſed to eate vp what there was.
*Or, table
13 So when they were gone forth, the kyng ſet meates before Bel. Now Daniel had commaunded his ſeruauntes to bring aſhes, and theſe he ſifted throughout al the temple, that the kyng myght ſee: then went they out, and ſparred the doore, ſealyng it with the kynges ſignet, and ſo departed.
*Or, ſtrowed
14 In the night came the prieſtes, with their wiues and children, as they were wont to doo, and dyd eate and drinke vp all.
15 In the morning betimes, as the kyng arose, & the day, the king arose, & Daniel with him.
16 And the kyng ſayde vnto Daniel, are the ſeales whole yet? He anſwered, Yea, O king, they be whole.
17 Now as ſoone as he had opened the doore, the kyng looked vnto the *aulter, and cryed with a lowde voyce, Great art thou, O Bel, & with thee is no deceite.
*Or, table
18 Then laughed Daniel, and held the kyng that he ſhould not goe in, and ſayd, Behold nowe the pauement, marke wel, whoſe footeſteppes are theſe?
19 The kyng ſayd, I ſee the footeſteps of men, women, and children.
20 Therefore the kyng was angry, and toke the prieſtes, with their wiues and children: and they ſhewed him the priuie doores where they came in, and did eate vp ſuche thinges as were vpon the aulter.
21 For the whiche cauſe the kyng ſlue them, and deliuered Bel into Daniels power, whiche deſtroyed him and his temple.
22 And in that ſame place there was a great Dragon, which they of Babylon worſhipped.
23 And the kyng ſaid vnto Daniel, Sayeſt thou that this is but a God of braſſe alſo? Loe, he liueth, he eateth and drinketh, ſo that thou canſt not ſay that he is no liuyng God: therefore worſhyp him.
24 Daniel ſaide vnto the kyng, I wyll worſhyp woorshyp the Lorde my God, he is the true lyuyng God: as for this, he is not the God of lyfe.

25 But geue me leaue, O kyng, and I shall destroy this Dragon without swoorde or staffe. The kyng sayd, I geue thee leaue.

26 Then Daniel tooke pitche, fat, and hearie wooll, and dyd seethe them togeather, and made lumpes therof, this he put in the Dragons mouth, and so the Dragon burst in sunder. And Daniel sayde, Loe, there is he whom ye woorshypped.

27 When they of Babylon heard that, they tooke great indignation, & gathered them togeather agaynst the kyng, saying, The kyng is become a Iewe, & he hath destroyed Bel, he hath slayne the Dragon, and put the Priestes to death.

28 So they came to the kyng, and sayde, Let vs haue Daniel, or els we wyll destroy thee and thine house.

29 Nowe when the kyng sawe that they rushed in so sore vpon hym, and that necessitie constrayned hym, he delyuered Daniel vnto them:

30 Whiche cast hym into the Lions denne, where he was sixe dayes.

31 In the denne there were seuen Lions, and they had geuen them euery day two bodyes, and two sheepe: whiche then were not geuen them, to thintent that they might deuoure Daniel.

32 There was in Iurie a Prophete called Habacuc, whiche had made pottage, & broken bread in a bowle, and was goyng into the feelde for to bryng it to the Reapers.

33 But the angel of the Lorde sayde vnto Habacuc, Goe carrie the meate that thou hast, into Babylon, vnto Daniel, whiche is in the Lions denne.

34 And Habacuc sayd, Lorde, I neuer sawe Babylon, & as for the denne, I know it not.

35 *Then the Angel of the Lord tooke hym by the toppe, and bare hym by the heare of the head, and through a myghtie wynde set hym in Babylon vpon the denne. *Ezech. 8. 3.

36 And Habacuc cryed, saying, O Daniel, thou seruant of God, haue, take the *breakfast that God hath sent thee. *Or, dynner.

37 And Daniel sayde, O God, hast thou thought vpon me? wel, thou neuer forsakest them that loue thee.

38 So Daniel arose, and dyd eate, and the Angel of the Lord set Habacuc in his owne place agayne immediatly.

39 Vpon the seuenth day the kyng went to beweepe Daniel: and when he came to the denne, he looked in, and beholde, Daniel sate in the myddest of the Lions.

40 Then cried the kyng with a loude voyce, saying, Great art thou, O Lord God of Daniel, and there is none other besides thee.

41 And he drewe hym out of the Lions den, and cast those that were the cause of his destruction into the denne, and they were deuoured in a moment before his face.

42 After this wrote the kyng vnto all people, kyndreds, and tongues, that dwelt in al countreyes,

43 Saying, Peace be multiplied with you: my commaundement is in al the dominion of my realme, that men feare and stande in awe of Daniels God: for he is the lyuyng God, whiche endureth euer:

44 His kyngdome abydeth vncorrupt, and his power is euerlastyng.

45 For he is he that can deliuer & saue, he doeth woonders and maruelous woorkes in heauen and in earth: for he hath saued Daniel from the power of the Lions.

The Prayer of Manasses King of Iuda, when he was holden captiue in Babylon.

O Lorde almyghtie, God of our fathers, Abraham, Isahac, and Iacob, and of the ryghteous seede of them, which hast made heauen and earth, with all the ornament therof, whiche hast * ordeyned the sea by the woorde of thy commaundement, which hast shut vp the deepe, and hast sealed it for thy fearful and laudable name, whiche all men feare, and tremble before the face of thy power, and not for the anger of thy threatenyng, the whiche is importable to sinners, but the mercye of thy promise is great and vnsearchable: for thou art the Lorde God most high aboue all the earth, long sufferyng, and excedyng mercifull, and repentaunt vpon the malice of men: thou Lord after thy goodnesse hast promised repentaunce at the remission of sinnes, & thou that art the God of the ryghteous, hast not put repentaunce to the ryghteous Abraham, Isahac, and Iacob, vnto them that haue not sinned agaynst thee: but because I haue sinned aboue the number of the sandes of the sea, and that myne iniquities are multiplyed, I am * humbled with many bandes of iron, and there is in me no breathyng, I haue prouoked thyne anger, and haue doone euyl before thee, in committing abominations, and multiplying offences: and now I bowe the knees of my hart, requiring goodnesse of thee. O Lord. I haue sinned Lord, I haue sinned, and knowe myne iniquities. I desire thee by prayer, O Lord forgeue me, forgeue me, and destroy me not with myne iniquities, neyther doo thou alwayes remember myne euyles to punyshe them, but saue me (whiche am vnwoorthy) after thy great mercie, and I wyll prayse thee euerlastyngly all the dayes of my life: for all the power of heauen prayseth thee, and vnto thee belongeth glorie, woorshyp without ende. Amen. * Or, bounde the sea. * Or, crooked.

¶ A necessarie Table for the knowledge of the state of Iuda, from the begynnyng of the Monarchie of the Grekes (where the Table that we haue set foorth vpon Esdras endeth) vntyl the death and passion of Iesus Christe.

¶ The 70 vweke foreshewed by Daniel. Dan. 9.

THE Angel of the Lorde sayde to Daniel, that it was seuentie weekes of yeeres, that is to say, seuentie tymes seuen, whiche commeth to. 490. from the geuyng foorth of the commaundement that Hierusalem shoulde be buylded agayne, & restored, vntyl Christ the Prince. This commaundement was geuen foorth by the mouth of Darius Longhands. Monarche of the Persians, the yeere of his raigne, as it is wrytten in Nehemias. 2. Therfore the sayd seuentie weekes ought to begin there, though al agree not therin: for some begin it in the seconde yeere of the sayde Darius: other, the first yere of Cyrus. So that from the begynnyng of the saide weekes, vntyl the tyme that Alexander vsurped the Monarchie, we reckon foure yeres & eightene weekes, which maketh. 130. yeeres. To shewe the perfiting of the said weekes, according to the aforesaide prophesie of Daniel. 9. we wyll proportion them with the yeeres in whiche the kynges of Syria (of here in order on the tyght hye) haue ended their kingdome each of them in order.

¶ The Monarchie of the Grekes.

ALexander the great, sonne to Philippe kyng of Macedo conquered the Monarchie of the Persians from Darius, the. 192 yeere of Cyrus the first Monarch, and transported it to the Grekes: he raigned fyue whole yeres, & the seuenth died, leauyng dyuers successours; to whom he diuided the sayde Monarchie before his death, that is, the Kingdomes of Syria, Asia, Egypt, and Macedonia. VVe wyll here treate of his successours the Kinges of Syria onely, because the Scripture maketh mention thereof, and maketh the supputation of the yeres by the tyme that the sayde Kinges raigned, begynnyng at the first, as appeareth in the first booke of the Machabees. And vve wyll orderly set their names, and the tyme that eache of them both raigned, to conserue them vvith the number of the vweekes placed on the leafe side of this Table, to the ende the sayde vweekes maye be verified, and that the Prophesie of Daniel may be playnely vnderstoode, touchyng the commyng and death of our Sauiour Christe.

¶ The state of the Iewes.

AFter the people of the Lorde were delyuered from the captiuitie of Babylon by Cyrus, and returned into their lande vnder the conducte of Zorobabel, there was no more name of King in Iuda, but of Prince and Gouernour, whiche were for the moste parte of the lyne of Iuda, and are these that folowe.

The first Booke of the Machabees.

The fyrst Chapter.

1. After the death of Alexander King of Macedonia, 11. Antiochus taketh the kingdome.

1 AFter that Alexander Kyng of Macedonia, son of Philip, went foorth of the land of "Cethim, and a slue Darius Kyng of the Persians & Medes, and raigned for hym as he had doone before in Grecia:

2 It happened that he tooke great warres in hande, wanne very many strong cities, and slue many Kynges of the earth,

3 Goyng throughe the endes of the worlde, and getting many spoyles of the people, insomuche that the whole worlde stoode in awe of hym, and therefore was he proud in his hart.

4 b Nowe when he had geathered a myghtie strong host,

5 And subdued the landes and people, with their Princes, so that they became tributaries vnto hym.

6 Then he fel sicke, and when he perceyued that he must needes dye,

7 He called for his noble estates, whiche had been brought vp with hym of chyldren, and parted his kyngdome among them whyle he was yet alyue.

8 So Alexander raigned twelue yeeres, and then dyed.

9 c After his death fell the kyngdome vnto his Princes, and they obteyned it euery one in his roome,

10 And caused them selues to be crowned as kynges: and so dyd their chyldren after them many yeeres, and muche wyckednesse encreased in the worlde.

11 Out of these came the vngratious roote "noble Antiochus, the sonne of Antiochus the kyng, which had ben a pledge at Rome: and he raigned in the hundred thirtie and seuen yeere of the Empire of the Grekes.

12 d In those dayes went there out of Israel wycked men, whiche mooued much people with their counsell, saying, Let vs goe and make a couenant with the heathen that are rounde about vs: for since we departed from them, we haue had much sorowe.

13 So this deuice pleased them wel.

14 e And certayne of the people tooke vpon them for to goe vnto the Kyng, which gaue them licence to doo after the ordinaunce of the heathen.

15 f Then set they vp an open schoole at Hierusalem, of the lawes of the heathen:

16 g And made them selues vncircumcised, but forsooke the holy testament, and ioyned them selues to the heathen, and were cleane solde to doo myscheefe.

17 So when Antiochus began to be myghtie in his kyngdome, he went about to obteyne the land of Egypt also, that he might haue the dominion of two realmes.

18 Vppon this entred he into Egypt with a strong hoast, with Charrets, Elephantes, horsmen, and a great number of shyppes.

19 h And began to warre against Ptolome the kyng of Egypt: but Ptolome was afrayde of hym, and fledde, and many of his people were wounded to death.

20 Thus Antiochus wanne manye strong cities in Egypt, and toke away great good out of the lande of Egypt.

21 And after that Antiochus had smytten Egypt, he turned againe in the hundred fourtie and three yeere, & went towarde Israel,

22 And came to Hierusalem with a mighty people,

23 And entred proudly into the sanctuarie, and tooke away the golden aulter, the candelsticke, and all the ornamentes therof, the table of the shewe bread, the powryng vessels, the Chargers, the golden Spoones, the vaile, the crownes, and golden apparel of the temple, & brake downe al in peeces.

24 He tooke also the syluer and golde, the pretious iewelles, and the secrete treasures that he founde.

25 And when he had taken away altogether, caused a great number of men, and spoken very proudly, he departed vnto his owne lande.

26 Therefore there was great lamentation throughout al Israel.

27 The Princes and the elders of the people mourned, the young men and the maydens were "defiled, and the fayre beautie of women was changed,

28 The bridegrome and the bryde tooke them to mournyng,

29 The land and those that dwelt therein, was mooued: for al the house of Jacob was brought to confusion.

30 i After two yeeres the kyng sent his cheefe treasurer vnto the cities of Juda, whiche came to Hierusalem with a great multitude of people, 31 Speakyng peaceable wordes vnto them, but all was receyte: for when they had geuen hym credence.

32 He fel sodenly vpon the citie, and smote it sore, & destroyed much people of Israel.
33 And when he had spoyled the citie, he set fire on it, casting downe houses and walles on euery side.
34 The women and theyr children tooke they captiue, and led away their cattel.
35 Then buylded they the citie of Dauid with a great and thicke wal, and with mightie towres, and made it a strong holde for them.
36 Beside al this, they set wycked people, and vngodly men to keepe it, 37 Stored it with weapons and victualles, geathered the goodes of Hierusalem, and layde them vp there: thus became it a theeuishe cattel.
38 Thus they became a heauie burden, laying wayte for the people that went into the sanctuarie, and for the cruel destruction of Israel.
39 Thus they shed innocent blood on euery side of the sanctuarie, and defiled it:
40 Insomuch, that the citizens were fayne to depart, and the citie became an habitation of strangers, being desolate of her owne seede: for her owne nations were fayne to leaue her.
41 Her sanctuarie was cleane wasted, her holy dayes were turned into mourning, her sabbothes were had in derision, and her honour brought to nought.
42 k Looke howe great her glory was before, so great was her confusion, and her ioy turned into sorowe.
43 Antiochus also the kyng sent out a commission vnto al his kyngdome, that al the people shoulde be one.
44 Then they left euery man his lawe, and al the heathen agreed to the commaundement of kyng Antiochus:
45 Yea many of the Israelites consented thereunto, offeryng vnto idols, and defyling the Sabboth.
46 So the kyng Antiochus sent his messengers with his commission vnto Hierusalem, and to al the cities of Juda, that they shoulde folowe the lawes of the heathen:
47 And forbad the whole burnt offeryng, meate offeryng, & peace offeryng to be made in the temple of God, and that there shoulde no Sabboth nor hygh day be kept:
48 But cõmaunded that the sanctuarie and the holy people of Israel should be defiled:
49 He commaunded also, that there should be set vp aulters, temples, & idols, to offer vp swines flesh, and vncleane beastes,
50 That men shoulde leaue theyr children vncircumcised, to defile theyr soules with al maner of vncleanneſſe & abominations:
51 That they might so forget the lawe, and change al the holy ordinances of God,
52 And that who so euer would not doo according to the commaundement of kyng Antiochus, shoulde suffer death.
53 In like maner commaunded he throwout al his realme, and set rulers ouer the people, for to compell them to doo these thinges:
54 Commaunding al the cities of Juda to doo sacrifice vnto idols.
55 Then went the people vnto the heathen by heapes, forsooke the lawe of the Lorde, and committed much euyl in the lande:
56 And they droue the Israelites into secrete places, euen wheresoeuer they coulde flee for succour.
57 The fiftenth day of the moneth *Casleu, in the hundred three score and fift yeere, set kyng Antiochus an abominable idol of desolation vpon the aulter of God, and they buylded aulters throughout al the cities of Juda on euery side, 58 Before the doores of the houses, and in the streetes, where they brent incense, and dyd sacrifice.
59 And as for the bookes of the lawe of God, they l brent them in the fyre, and rent them in peeces.
60 What so euer he was that had a booke of the testament of the Lord found by him, yea who so euer endeuoured hym selfe to keepe the lawe of the Lord, the kyngs commaundement was, that they shoulde put hym to death.
61 And through his authoritie they executed these thinges euery moneth, vppon the people of Israel that were founde in the cities.
62 The twentie and fift day of the moneth, what time as they did sacrifice vppon the aulter, whiche stoode in the steade of the aulter of the Lorde,
63 Accordyng to the commaundement of kyng Antiochus, they put certayne women to death, which had caused theyr children to be circumcised:
64 Not onely that, but they hanged vp the children by the nekkes throughout al theyr houses, and slue the circumcisers of them:
65 Yet were there many of the people of Israel, which determined in them selues that they would not eate vncleane thinges: but chose rather to suffer death, then to be defiled with vncleane meates.
66 So because they would not breake the blessed lawe of GOD, they were cruelly slayne.
67 And this great tyrannie encreased very sore vpon the people of Israel.

¶ The .ii. Chapter.

The mourning of Mathathias and his sonnes for the destruction of the holy citie.

1 IN those dayes there did stande vp one Mathathias the sonne of Iohn, the sonne of Simeon the priest, out of the kinrede of Ioarib, from Hierusalem, and dwelt vpon the mount of Modin,

2 And had fiue sonnes: Iohn called Gaddis,

3 Simon called Thassi,

4 Iudas, otherwyse called Machabeus,

5 Eleazar, otherwyse called Abaron, and Ionathan, whose surname was Apphus.

6 These sawe the euyl that was done among the people of Iuda and Hierusalem.

7 And Mathathias sayde, Wo is me, alas that euer I was borne, to see this miserie of my people, and the piteous destruction of the holy citie, & thus to sit so styl, it being deliuered into the handes of the enimies.

8 Her sanctuarie is come into the power of strangers, her temple is as it were a man that hath lost his good name:

9 Her pretious ornamentes are caryed away captiue, her infauntes are slayne in the streetes, and her young men are fallen thorowe the swoorde of the enimies.

10 What people is it that hath not some possession in her kyngdome? or who hath not gotten some of her spoyles?

11 All her glory is taken away, she was a free woman, and nowe she is become an handmayde.

12 Beholde our sanctuarie, our beautie and honour is wasted away, and defyled by the Gentiles.

13 What helpeth it vs then to lyue?

14 And Mathathias rent his clothes, he and his sonnes, and put sackcloth vppon them, and mourned very sore.

15 Then came the men thyther, whiche were sent of kyng Antiochus, to compell suche as were fled into the citie of Modin, for to doo sacrifice, and to burne incense vnto idols, and to forsake the lawe of God.

16 So many of the people of Israel consented and enclined vnto them: but Mathathias and his sonnes remayned stedfast.

17 Then spake the Commissioners of king Antiochus, and sayde vnto Mathathias, Thou art a noble man, of high reputation, and great in this citie, hauyng many sayre chyldren and brethren.

18 Come thou therefore first, and fulfyl the kynges commaundement, like as al the heathen haue done, yea, and the men of Iuda, and suche as remayne at Hierusalem, so shalt thou and thy children be in the kinges fauour, and enriched with golde, siluer, and great rewardes.

19 Mathathias answeared, and spake with a loude voyce, Though al nations obey the kyng Antiochus, and fall away euery man from keeping the lawe of their fathers, though they consent to his commaundementes:

20 a Yet wyl I and my sonnes and my brethren not fal from the lawes of our fathers, a. The father promiseth for his children that they shall serue God, so doeth Iosue for his household. Iosue. 24.

21 God forbid we shoulde: that were not good for vs that we shoulde forsake the lawe and ordinances of God, and to agree vnto the commaundement of kyng Antiochus.

22 Therefore we wyl doo no such sacrifice, neyther breake the statutes of our lawe, to goe another way.

23 And when he had spoken these wordes, there came one of the Iewes, which openly in the sight of all dyd sacrifice vnto the idols vpon the aulter in the city of Modin, according to the kinges commaundement.

24 When Mathathias sawe this, it grieued b him at the hart, so that his raines shooke withal, & his wrath kindled for very zeale of the lawe: with that he start vp, and kylled the Iewe beside the aulter, b. It is good to the godly to see the people of euil.

25 Yea and slue the kynges Commissioner that compelled him to doo sacrifice, and destroyed the aulter at the same tyme:

26 *Suche zeale had he vnto the lawe of God, lyke as Phinehes did vnto Zambri the sonne of Salouti. *Num. 25.

27 And Mathathias cryed with a loude voyce through the citie, saying, Who so is feruent in the lawe, and wyl keepe the couenant, let him folowe me.

28 So he and his sonnes fled into the mountaynes, and left al that euer they had in the citie.

29 Many other godly men also which lyued iustly & vprightly, departed into the wyldernesse, with their chyldren, their wiues, and their cattel, and remayned there: for the tyrannie increased sore vpon them.

30 Nowe when the kynges seruantes, and the host which was at Hierusalem in the citie of Dauid, hearde that certayne men had broken the kynges commaundement, and were gone their way to the wyldernesse into secrete places:

31 Then many pursued after them, and after they had ouertaken them, they camped themselues, and set the battel in aray against them in the sabboth day, 32 And sayde vnto them, Wyl ye yet rebel? Geat you hence, and doo the commaundement of kyng Antiochus, and ye shall lyue.

33 They

33 They answeared, We wyll not goe for thee, neyther wyll we doo the kynges commaundement, to defile the Sabboth day.
34 Then began they to fyght against them:
35 But the other gaue them none other answeare, neyther cast they one stone at them, nor made fast their priuie places:
36 But sayde, We wyl dye al in our innocencie, heauen and earth shall testifie with vs, that ye put vs to death wrongfully.
37 Thus they fought agaynst them vppon the Sabboth, and slue both men and cattel, their wynes and their chyldren, to the number of a thousande people.
38 When Mathathias & his frendes heard this, they mourned for them ryght sore, 39 And sayde one to another, If so be that we all doo as our brethren haue doone, and fyght not for our lyues, and for our lawes agaynst the Heathen, then shall they the sooner roote vs out of the earth.
40 So they concluded among them selues at the same tyme, saying,
41 Whatsoeuer he be that commeth to make battayle with vs vppon the Sabboth day, we wyl fyght agaynst hym, and not dye all as our brethren that were murdered in the wyldernesse.
42 Vpon this came the assemblye of the Asideans vnto them, which were of the strongest men in Israel, and all such as were feruent in the lawe.
43 And all they that were fled for persecution, came to helpe them, and to stande by them:
44 Insomuche that they geathered an host of men, and slue the wycked doers in their iealousie, & the vngodly men in their wrath: but the rest fled vnto the heathen, and escaped.
45 Then Mathathias & his frendes went about, and destroyed the aulters, 46 And circumcised the chyldren that had not yet receyued circumcision, as many as they founde within the coastes of Israel, 47 And followed mightily vpon the proude men: and this act prospered in their handes.
48 Insomuch that they kept the law against the power of the Gentiles and the kinges, and gaue not ouer their dominion vnto wicked doers.
49 After this, when the tyme drewe on fast that Mathathias shoulde dye, he sayd vnto his sonnes, Nowe is pryde and persecution encreased, nowe is the tyme of destruction and wrathful displeasure:
50 Wherfore, O my sonnes, be ye feruent in the lawe, and ieopard your lyues for the testament of the fathers.
51 Call to remembraunce what actes our fathers dyd in their tyme, so shal ye receyue great honour, and an euerlastyng name.
52 *Remember Abraham: was not he found faithful in temptation, and it was reckoned vnto hym for ryghteousnesse? *Gene.22.9.
53 *Ioseph in tyme of his trouble kept the commaundement, and was made a lorde of Egypt. *Gen.41.40 Num.25.15
54 *Phinehes our father, was so feruent for the honour of God, that he obteyned the couenaunt of an euerlastyng priesthood. *Ec.45.28.
55 *Iosuah for fulfylling the worde of God, was made the captayne of Israel. *Iosua.1.2. Num.14.6.
56 *Caleb bare record before the congregation, and receyued an heritage. *Iosu.14.13
57 *Dauid also in his mercifull kyndenesse, obteyned the throne of an euerlastyng kingdome. *2.Re.2.4.
58 *Elias beyng zelous and feruent in the lawe, was taken vp into heauen. *4.Re.2.11.
59 *Ananias, Azarias, and Misael, remayned stedfast in fayth, and were delyuered out of the fyre. *Dani.3.16.
60 *In lyke maner Daniel beyng vngiltie, was saued from the mouth of the Lions. *Dan.6.22.
61 And thus ye may consyder throughout al ages since the worlde began, that whosoeuer put their trust in God, were not ouercome.
62 Feare not ye then the woordes of an vngodly man, for his glory is but doung and woormes:
63 To day he is set vp, and to morowe he is gone: for he is turned into earth, and his memorial is come to nought.
64 Wherfore, O my sonnes, take good hart vnto you, and quite your selues lyke men in the lawe: for yf ye doo the thinges that are commaunded you in the lawe of the Lorde your God, ye shall obteyne great honour therein.
65 And beholde, I knowe that your brother Simon is a man of wysdome: see that ye geue eare vnto him alway, he shalbe a father vnto you.
66 As for Iudas Machabeus, he hath euer been myghtie and strong from his youth vp: let hym be your captayne, and ouer the battayle of the people.
67 Thus shall ye bryng vnto you all those that fauour the law, and see that ye auenge the wrong of your people.
68 And recompence the Heathen agayne, and applye your selues wholye to the commaundement of the lawe.
69 So he gaue them his blessyng, and was layde by his fathers, 70 And dyed in the hundred fourtie and sixth yeere at Modin, where his sonnes buried him in his fathers sepulchre, and al Israel made great lamentation for him.

¶ The.iii. Chapter.

6. Judas is made ruler ouer the Iewes. 11. He killeth Apollonius and Seron the princes of Syria.

Iosephus, cap. 8 9.10.11.12. Lat

1 THen stoode vp Judas Machabeus in his fathers steade,

2 And all his brethren helped hym, and so did al they that held with his father, and fought with cheerfulnesse for Israel.

3 So Judas gat his people great honour: he put on a brestplate as a Giant, and araied hym selfe with his harnesse, and defended the hoast with his swoorde.

4 In his actes he was lyke a Lion, and as a Lions whelpe rorying at his pray.

5 He was an enimie to the wicked, and hunted them out: and brent vp those that vexed his people:

6 So that his enimies fled for feare of hym, and al the woorkers of vngodlynesse were put to trouble: suche lucke and prosperitie was in his hande.

7 This greeued diuers kynges: but Jacob was greatly reioyced through his acts, and he gate hym selfe a great name for euer.

8 He went through the cities of Juda, destroying the vngodly out of them, turnyng away the wrath from Israel, 9 And recouering suche as were oppressed: and the fame of hym went vnto the vttermost part of the earth.

10 Then Apollonius a prince of Syria, gathered a mightie great host of the heathen, and out of Samaria, to fyght against Israel:

11 Whiche when Judas perceyued, he went forth to meete hym, fought with hym, slue hym, and a great multitude with hym: the remnant fled, and he tooke their substance.

12 Judas also tooke Apollonius owne swoorde, and fought with it al his lyfe long.

13 Nowe when Seron, a prince of the armie of Syria, heard say that Judas had gathered vnto hym the congregation & Churche of the faythful, 14 He sayde, I wyll get me a name and a prayse throughout the Realme: for I wyll goe fyght with Judas and them that are with hym, as many as haue despysed the kynges commaundement.

15 So he made hym ready, and there went with hym a great myghtie hoast of the vngodly to stande by hym, and to be auenged of the children of Israel.

16 And when they came nygh vnto Bethoron, Judas went forth against them with a smal companie.

17 And when his people sawe suche a great hoast before them, they sayde vnto Judas, Howe are we able, beyng so fewe, to fyght against so great a multitude, and so strong, seeyng we be so weerye, and haue fasted all this day?

18 But Judas saide, It is a smal matter for many to be ouercome with fewe: yea, there is no difference to the God of heauen, to deliuer by a great multitude, or by a small companie:

19 For the victorie of the battayle standeth not in the multitude of the hoast, but the strength commeth from heauen.

20 Beholde, they come against vs with a cruel & proude multitude to destroy vs, our wyues and our children, and to robbe vs:

21 But we wyl fyght for our liues, and for our lawes,

22 And the Lorde hym selfe shall destroye them before our face: therefore be not ye afrayde of them.

23 As soone as he had spoken these woords, he leapt sodainely vppon them: Thus was Seron smytten, and his hoast put to flyght.

24 And Judas followed vpon them beyond Bethoron, vnto the playne feelde, where there were slayne eyght hundred men of them, and the residue fled into the lande of the Philistines.

25 Then all the heathen on euery syde were afrayd of Judas and his brethren:

26 So that the a rumour of hym came vnto the kynges eares: for al the Gentiles could tel of the warres of Judas. a or, fame.

27 So when kyng Antiochus heard these tidinges, he was angry in his mynde: wherfore he sent forth, and gathered an hoast of his whole realme, very strong armes:

28 And opened his treasurie, and gaue his hoast a yeeres wages in hande, commaundyng them to be ready at al tymes.

29 Neuertheless, when he sawe that there was not money ynough in his treasuries, and that through the discorde and persecution whiche he made in the lande, to put downe the lawes that had ben of old times, his customes and tributes of the land were minished:

30 He feared that he was not able for to beare the costs and charges any longer, nor to haue suche gyftes to geue so liberally as he dyd afore, more then the kynges that were before hym.

31 Wherefore he was heauie in his mynde, and thought to goe vnto Perside, for to take tributes of the lande, and so to gather muche money.

32 So he left Lysias, a noble man of the kinges blood, to ouersee the kynges businesse, from the water Euphrates, vnto the borders of Egypt:

33 And to keepe well his sonne Antiochus tyl he came agayne.

34 More

34 Moreouer, he gaue him halfe of his hoſt, and Elephantes, and committed vnto him euery thyng, and gaue him the charge of al thinges that he woulde haue done, concernyng thoſe whiche dwelt in Iuda and Hieruſalem.

35 That he ſhoulde ſende out an armie agaynſt them, to deſtroy and to roote out the power of Iſrael, and the remnant of Hieruſalem, to put out their memorial from that place:

36 To ſet ſtrangers for to inhabite al their quarters, and to part their lande among them.

37 Thus the kyng tooke the other part of the hoſt, & departed from Antioch, a citie of his realme, ouer the water Euphrates, in the hundred and fourtie and ſeuen yeere, and went through the hygh countreyes,

38 And Lyſias chooſe vnto hym Ptolome the ſonne of Dorymenius, Nicanor, and Gorgias, mightie men, and the kinges frends. (Ioſeph. cap. 10. lib. xii.)

39 Theſe he ſent with fourtie thouſande footemen, and ſeuen thouſande horſemen, for to goe into the lande of Iuda, and to deſtroy it, as the kyng commaunded.

40 So they went forth with al their power, and came to Emmaus into the playne feelde.

41 When the marchantes of the countrey hearde the rumour of them, they and their ſeruantes tooke very much ſiluer & golde, for to buy the children of Iſrael to be their bondmen: there came vnto them alſo yet moe men of warre out of euery ſide, out of Syria, and from the Philiſtines.

42 Nowe when Iudas and his brethren ſawe that trouble encreaſed, and that the hoſt drewe nygh vnto their borders, conſyderyng the kynges wordes which he commaunded vnto the people, namely that they ſhoulde vtterly waſt and deſtroy them:

43 They ſayde one to another, Let vs redreſſe the decay of our people, let vs fight for our folke, and for our ſanctuarie.

44 Then the congregation were ſoone redy geathered to fight, to pray, and to make ſupplication vnto GOD for mercie and grace.

45 As for Hieruſalem it laye voyde, and was as it had ben a wyldernelſe: there went no man in nor out at it, and the ſanctuarie was troden downe, the aliantes kept the caſtle, there was the habitation of the heathen, the myrth of Iacob was taken away, the Pipe and the Harpe was gone from among them.

46 The Iſraelites geathered them togeather, and came to Maſpha before Hieruſalem: for in Maſpha was the place where they prayed aforetime in Iſrael.

47 So they faſted that day, and put ſackclothes vpon them, caſt aſhes vppon their heades, rent their clothes,

48 And layde foorth the bookes of the lawe, wherein the heathen ſought to paynt the lykeneſſe of their images,

49 And brought the prieſtes ornamentes, the firſtlinges, and the tithes: they let there alſo the Nazarites, which had accomplyſhed their vowes before God:

50 And cryed with a loude voyce towarde heauen, ſaying, What ſhal we doo with theſe? & whyther ſhal we cary them away? Vl, dayen.

51 For thy ſanctuarie is troden downe and defyled, the prieſtes are come to heauineſſe and diſhonour.

52 And beholde, the heathen are come together for to deſtroy vs: thou knoweſt what thinges they imagine agaynſt vs.

53 How wel may we ſtand before them, except thou (O God) be our helpe?

54 Then they blewe out the trumpet alſo with a loude voyce.

55 Then Iudas ordeyned captaynes ouer the people, ouer thouſandes, ouer hundredes, ouer fiftie, and ouer ten.

56 But as for ſuche as buylded them houſes, maryed wyues, planted them vineyardes, & thoſe that were fearefull, he commaunded them euery man to goe home agayne accordyng to the lawe. Deut. 20. 5 Iudic. 7. 3.

57 So the hoſt remoued, and pitched vpon the South ſide of Emmaus.

58 And Iudas ſayde, Arme your ſelues, be ſtrong, O my children, make you redy agaynſt to morowe in the morning, that ye may fight with theſe people, which are agreed togeather to deſtroy vs and our ſanctuarie.

59 Better is it for vs to die in battayle, then to ſee our people and our ſanctuarie in ſuch a miſerable caſe.

60 Neuertheleſſe, as thy wyl is, O God in heauen, ſo be it.

¶ The. iiii. Chapter.

Iudas goeth agaynſt Gorgias, vvhiche lyeth in vvayte.

1 THen tooke Gorgias fiue thouſand men of foote, and a thouſande of the beſt horſemen, and remoued out of the campe by nyght, (Ioſeph li. 12. cap 10.)

2 To come nigh where the Iewes hoſt lay, and ſo to ſlay them ſodenly: (Now the men that kept the caſtle, were the conueyers of them.)

3 Nowe when Iudas heard this, he remoued ned, and al the strong men that were with him, to smite the cheeke and principal of the kynges host at Emmaus:

4 For the armie was not yet come together.

5 In the meane season came Gorgias by night vnto Judas tentes, & when he founde no man there, he sought them in the mountaynes, and thought they had ben fledde away because of hym.

6 But when it was day, Judas shewed him selfe in the feelde with three thousand men onely, which had neyther harnesse, nor swordes to their mindes.

7 But on the other side they sawe that the Heathen were mightie and wel harnessed, and their horsemen about them, & al these wel expert in feates of warre.

8 Then sayde Judas to the men that were with him, Feare not ye the multitude of the, be not afrayd of their violent running.

*Exo.14. 9. 9 *Remember howe our fathers were deliuered in the red sea, when Pharao folowed vpon them with a great host.

10 Euen so let vs also crye nowe towarde heauen, and the Lorde shal haue mercie vpon vs, and remember the couenant of our fathers, yea and destroy this host before our face this day:

11 And al the heathen shal knowe that it is God him selfe which deliuereth and saueth Israel.

12 Then the heathen lyft vp their eyes, and when they sawe that they were comming agaynst them, 13 They went out of their tentes into the battayle, and they that were with Judas blewe vp the trumpettes.

14 So they buckled together, and the heathen were discomfited, and fledde ouer the playne feelde:

15 But the hindmost of them were slayne with the sworde: for they folowed them vnto *Assaremoth, and into the feeldes of Idumea towarde Azot and Jamnia: so that there were slayne of them vppon a three thousande men.

*Or, Gazaron.

16 So Judas turned agayne with his host,

17 And sayd vnto the people, Be not greedy of ỹ spoyles, we haue yet a battel to fight.

18 For Gorgias and his host are here by vs in the mountaynes, but stande ye fast agaynst our enimies, and ouercome them, then may ye safely take the spoyles.

19 As Judas was speaking these wordes, beholde there appeared one part of them vpon the mount.

20 But when Gorgias sawe that they of his partie were fledde, and the tentes brent vp (for by the smoke they might vnderstande what was doone) they perceyuing this, were very sore afrayde.

21 And when they sawe also that Judas and his host were in the feeld redy to strike battayle, 22 They fledde euery one into the lande of the heathen.

23 So Judas turned agayne to spoyle the tentes, where they gate much gold, & siluer, pretious stones, purple, and great richesse.

24 Thus they went home, & song a psalme of thankesgeuing, and praysed God in heauen: for he is gratious, and his mercie endureth for euer.

25 And so Israel had a great victorie in that day.

26 Nowe al the heathen that escaped, came and tolde Lysias euery thyng that had happened.

27 Wherfore Lysias was sore afrayd, & greeued in his minde, because Israel had not gotten suche misfortune as he woulde they shoulde, neither as the king commaunded.

28 The next yeere folowyng, geathered Lysias three score thousande chosen men of foote, & fiue thousande horsemen, to fight agaynst Hierusalem.

29 So they came into Jurie, and pitched their tentes at Bethoron: where Judas came agaynst them with ten thousand men.

30 And when he sawe so great and mightie an host, he made his prayer, and sayd, Blessed be thou O sauiour of Israel, * whiche diddest destroy the violent power of the gyant in the hand of thy seruant David, * and gauest the host of the heathen into the hand of Jonathan the sonne of Saul, and of his harnesse bearer:

*1.Re.17. 15

*1.Re.14. 15

31 Put this host nowe into the hande of thy people of Israel, and let them be confounded in their multitude and horsemen.

32 Make them afrayde, and discomfite the boldnesse of their strength, that they may be mooued through their destruction.

33 Cast them downe through the swoord of thy louers, then shal al they that knowe thy name, prayse thee with thankesgeuyng.

34 So they stroke the battel, & there were slayne of Lysias host fiue thousande men.

35 Then Lysias seeyng the discomfiting of his men, and the manlynesse of the Iewes, howe they were redy either to lyue or to die lyke men: he went vnto Antioch, and chose out men of warre, that when they were geathered togeather, they might come agayne into Jurie.

36 Then sayd Judas and his brethren, Beholde, our enimies are discomfited, let vs nowe goe vp to cleanse and to repayre the sanctuarie.

37 Upon this all the hoast geathered them togeather, and went vp into mount Sion.
38 Nowe when they sawe the sanctuarie layde waste, the aulter defiled, the dooꝛes bꝛent vp, the shꝛubbes growing in the courtes, lyke as in a wood, oꝛ vpon mountaynes, yea, and that the pꝛiestes chambers were bꝛaken downe.
39 They rent their clothes, and made great lamentation, cast ashes vpon their heads, 40 Fel downe flat to the grounde vppon their faces, made a great noyse with the trumpets, and cryed towarde heauen.
41 Then Judas appoynted certayne men to fyght against those which were in the castle, tyl they had cleansed the sanctuarie.
42 So he chose pꝛiestes that were vndefiled, such as had pleasure in the law of God:
43 And they cleansed the sanctuarie, and bare out the defiled stones into an vncleane place.
44 And foꝛ so muche as the aulter of burnt offerynges was vnhalowed, he tooke aduisement what he myght doo withal.
45 So he thought it best to destroy it, lest it shoulde happen to doo them any shame, foꝛ the heathen had defiled it: and therefoꝛe they bꝛake it downe.
46 As foꝛ the stones they layde them vp vpō the mountayne by the house in a conuenient place, tyl there came a pꝛophete to shewe what should be done with them.
47 So they tooke whole stones, accoꝛdyng to the law, and buylded a newe aulter, such one as was befoꝛe,
48 And made vp the sanctuarie within and without, and halowed the houses and the courtes:
49 They made newe holy oꝛnamentes, and bꝛought the candlesticke, the aulter of incense, and the table, into the temple.
50 The incense layd they vpon the aulter, and lyghted the lampes which were vpon the candlestick, that they myght burne in the temple:
51 They set the shewe bꝛead vppon the table, and hanged vp the vaile, and finished al the woꝛks which they had begun to make.
52 And vpon the twentie and fifth day of the nienth moneth (which is called the moneth of Casleu) in the hundꝛed, fourtie, and eyght yeere, 53 They rose vp betimes in the moꝛning, foꝛ to doo sacrifice accoꝛding to the law, vpon the newe burnt offeryng aulter that they had made.
54 After the tyme and season that the heathen had defiled it, the same day was it set vp agayne, with songues, pypes, harpes, & cymbales.
55 And al the people fell vpon theyꝛ faces, wooꝛshipping & thanking the God of heauen, which had geuen them the victoꝛy.
56 So they kept the dedication of the aulter eyght dayes, offeryng burnt sacrifices and thanke offerynges with gladnesse:
57 They deckt the foꝛefrunt of the temple also with cꝛownes and shieldes of golde, & halowed the poꝛtes and celles, and hanged doꝛes vpon them.
58 Thus there was very great gladnesse among the people because the blasphemie of the heathen was put away.
59 * So Judas and his bꝛethꝛen, with the whole congregation of Israel, oꝛdeyned, that the tyme of the dedication of the aulter shoulde be kept in his season from yeere to yeere, by the space of eyght dayes, from the twentie and fyfth day of the moneth * Casiue, with myrth and gladnesse. * Joh. 10.22 November.
60 And at the same tyme buylded they vp the mount Sion, with high walles & strong towꝛes round about, lest the gentiles should come and tread it downe as they did afoꝛe.
61 Therefoꝛe Judas set men of warre in it, to keepe it, & made it strong foꝛ to defende Bethsura, that the people might haue a refuge agaynst the Edomites.

¶ The. v. Chapter.

Judas vanquisheth the heathen that goe about to destroye Israel, and is holpen of his bꝛethꝛen Simon and Ionathan.

1 IT happened also, that when the heathen rounde about hearde how that the aulter and the sanctuarie were set vp in their old estate, it displeased them veꝛy soꝛe. Ioseph. ca. xii. Lib. xiii.
2 Wherefoꝛe they thought to destroy the generation of Jacob that was among them: in so much that they began to slay and to persecute certayne of the people.
3 Then Judas fought agaynst the childꝛen of Esau in Idumea at Arabathane: foꝛ they dwelt roūd about the Israelites, wher he slue & spoyled a great multitude of them.
4 He thought also vpon the malice and vnfaithfulnesse of the childꝛen of Bean, howe they were a snare & stop vnto the people, & how they laid wait foꝛ thē in the high way.
5 Wherefoꝛe he shut thē vp into the towꝛes, and came vnto them, besieged them, and destroyed them vtterly, and bꝛent vp theyꝛ towꝛes, with all that were in them.
6 Afterwarde went he agaynst the childꝛen of Ammon, wherof he found a mightie power, & a great multitude of people with Timothi theyꝛ captayne.
7 So he stroke many battayles with them, which were destroyed befoꝛe hym.
8 And when he had slaine them, he wan

Gazer

Gazer the citie, with the townes belongyng therto, and so turned agayne into Iurie.

9 The heathen also in Galaad geathered them togeather agaynst the Israelites that were in theyr quarters, to slay them: but they fledde to the castle of Dathemam.

10 And sent letters vnto Judas and his brethren, saying, The heathen that are about vs, are geathered against vs on euery side, to destroy vs:

11 And nowe they make them ready for to come and lay siege to the castle whereunto we are fledde, and Timothi is captayne of theyr hoast.

12 Come therefore, and deliuer vs out of theyr handes, for there is a great multitude of vs slayne alredy.

13 Yea and our brethren that were at Tubin are slayne and destroyed, welnigh a thousande men, and theyr wiues, theyr children, and theyr goods haue the enimies ledde away captiue.

14 While these letters were yet a readyng, beholde there came other messengers from Galilee with rent clothes, whiche told euen the same tydynges, 15 And sayde that they of Ptolemais, of Tyrus, and of Sidon, were geathered against them, and that all Galilee was full of enimies to destroy Israel.

*Or, strangers.

16 When Judas and the people hearde this, they came togeather a great congregation, to deuise what they might doo for theyr brethren that were in trouble, and besieged of theyr enimies.

17 And Judas sayde vnto Simon his brother, Choose thee out certaine men, & goe, deliuer thy brethren in Galilee: as for me and my brother Jonathas, we wyl goe into Galaaditim.

18 So he leaft Josephus the sonne of Zacharias, and Azarias to be captaines of the people, to keepe the remnant of the hoast in Iurie, 19 And commaunded them, saying, Take the oversyght of this people, and see that ye make no warre against the heathen, vntyll the tyme that we come agayne.

20 And vnto Simon he gaue three thousand men, for to goe into Galilee: but Judas himselfe had eyght thousand in Galaaditim.

21 Then went Simon into Galilee, and stroke diuers battayles with the heathen, whom he discomfited, 22 And followed vpon them into the port of Ptolemais: and there were slayne of the heathen almost three thousand men.

23 So he tooke the spoyles of them, and caryed away the Israelites that were in Galilee and Arbatis, with theyr wyues, theyr children, and al that they had, and brought them into Iurie with great gladnesse.

24 Judas Machabeus also, and his brother Jonathas, went ouer Jordane, and trauailed three dayes iourney in the wildernes:

25 Where the Nabathees met them, and receyued them louyngly, and tolde them euery thyng that had happened vnto theyr brethren in Galaaditim:

26 And howe that many of them were besieged in Barasa, Bosor, Alimis, Casbon, Mageth, and Carnaim (all these are strōg walled and mightie great cities,)

27 And that they were kept in other cities of Galaaditim also, and to morowe they are appoynted to bring theyr hoast vnto these cities, to take them, and to destroy them in one day.

28 So Judas and his hoast turned in al the haste in the wildernesse toward Bosor, and wan the citie, slue al the males with the swoorde, tooke al their goodes, and set fire vpon the citie:

29 And in the night they tooke their iourney from thence, and came to the castle,

30 And betymes in the morning when they looked vp, beholde there was an innumerable people bearing ladders and other instrumentes of warre, to take the castle, and to ouercome them.

31 When Judas sawe that the battaile began, and that the noyse therof went vp & rang into the heauen, and that there was so great a crye in the citie,

32 He sayde vnto his hoast, Fyght this day for your brethren.

33 And so came behynde theyr enimies in three companies, and blewe vp the trumpets, and cryed in theyr prayer to God.

34 But so soone as Timothees hoast perceyued that Machabeus was there, they fledde from hym: and he slue them right sore, so that there were kylled of them the same day almost eight thousande men.

35 Then departed Judas vnto Malpha, layde siege vnto it, and wan it, slue al the males in it, spoyled it, and set fire vpon it.

36 From thence went he and tooke Casbon, Mageth, Bosor, and the other cities in Galaaditim.

37 After this geathered Timothi another hoast, which pitched theyr tentes before Raphon, beyonde the water.

38 Judas also sent to spie the hoast, and they brought hym woorde agayne, saying, Al the heathen that be round about vs, are geathered vnto hym, and the hoast is very great:

39 Yea, they haue hyred the Arabians to helpe them, and haue pitched their tentes beyond the water, and are redy to come and fight agaynst thee. So Judas went on to mete them.

40 And Timothi saide vnto the captaynes of his host, When Judas & his host come nygh the ryuer, yf he goe ouer fyrst, we shal not be able to withstand him: for why? he wyll be too strong for vs.

41 But yf he dare not come ouer, so that he pitche his tent beyond the water: then wyl we goe ouer, for we shalbe strong ynough agaynst him.

42 Now as soone as Judas came to the riuer, he appoynted certayne scribes of the people by the ruer, & commaunded them, saying, See that ye leaue none behinde vpon this side of the ryuer, but let euery man come to the battell.

43 So he went fyrst ouer vnto them, and al his people after hym, and all the heathen were discomfited before him, and let their weapons fall, and ranne into the temple that was at Carnaim, 44 Which citie Judas wanne, and brent the temple, with al that were in it: So was Carnaim subdued, and myght not withstand Judas.

45 Then Judas gathered al the Israelites that were in Galeaditim, from the least vnto the most, with their wyues & their children, a very great host, for to come into the land of Israel.

46 So they came vnto Ephron, which was a mighty, great, & strong citie, and lay in their way: for they could not goe by it, neyther on the right hand, nor on the left, but must goe through it.

47 Neuertheless, they that were in the citie would not let them goe through, but walled vp the portes with stones: and Judas sent vnto them with peaceable woordes, saying,

48 Let vs passe through your land, that we may goe into our owne countrey, there shall no body doo you harme, we wyll but onely goe through on foote. But they would not let them in.

49 Wherefore Judas commaunded a proclamation to be made throughout the host, that euery man shoulde assault the citie in his order.

50 And so they dyd their best, lyke valiant men: and Judas besieged the citie all that day, and al that nyght, and so wanne it:

51 Where they slue as many as were males with the edge of the swoord, and destroyed the citie, and spoyled it, and went through al the citie ouer them that were slayne.

52 Then went they ouer Jordane, into the plaine feelde before Bethsan.

53 And Judas helped those forwarde that came behinde, and gaue the people good exhortation al the way through, tyl they were come into the land of Juda.

54 Thus they went vp vnto the mount Sion, where they offered whole burnt offerynges with myrth and thankesgeuing, because there were none of them slayne, but came home againe peaceably.

55 Nowe what tyme as Judas and Jonathas were in the land of Galaad, and Simon their brother in Galilee before Ptolemais:

56 Then Josephus the sonne of Zachari, and Azarias, the captaynes, hearing of the actes that were done, and of the battayles that were stricken, sayde, 57 Let vs geat vs a name also, and fyght agaynst the Heathen that are rounde about vs.

58 So they gaue their host a commaundement, and went toward Jamnia.

59 Then came Gorgias and his men out of the citie to fight agaynst them:

60 Josephus also and Azarias were chased vnto the borders of Jurie, and there were slayne that day of the people of Israel two thousand men: so that there was a great miserie among the people of Israel, 61 And all because they were not obedient vnto Judas and his brethren, but thought they should quite them selues manfully.

62 Neuertheless, they came not of the seede of these men by whom Israel was helped.

63 But the men that were with Judas, were greatly commended in the sight of all Israel, and all the heathen where so euer their name was heard vpon.

64 And the people came vnto them, bidding them welcome.

65 After this went Judas forth with his brethren, and fought agaynst the children of Esau in the land that lyeth towarde the South, where he wanne the citie of Hebron, and the townes that lye beside it: and as for the walles and towrs rounde about it, he brent them vp.

66 Then remoued he to goe into the lande of the *Philistines, and went through Samaria. *or, strangers.

67 At the same tyme were there many priests slayne in the battayle, whiche wylfully and without aduisement went out for to fight to geat them honour.

68 And when Judas came to Azot, in the Philistines land, he brake downe their aulters, brent the images of their idolles, spoyled their cities, and came agayne into the land of Juda.

¶ The

¶ The. vi. Chapter.

Antiochus wyllyng to take the citie of Elimas for a pray, is driuen away of the citizens.

1 NOwe when kyng Antiochus trauayled thyrough the hygh countreyes, he heard that Elimas in Perſia was a noble and plenteous citie in ſiluer and golde,

2 And that there was in it a very rich temple, whereas were clothes, coate armours, and ſhieldes of golde, which Alexander the ſonne of Philip kyng of Macedonia that raigned fyrſt in Grecia had left behind him.

3 Wherefore he went about to take the citie, and to ſpoyle it, but he was not able: for the citizens were warned of it, and fought with hym.

4 And ſo he fled, and departed with great heauineſſe, and came agayne into Babylon.

5 Moreouer, there came one which brought hym tydinges in Perſia, that his hoſtes whiche were in the land of Iuda were dryuen away:

6 And howe that Lyſias went forth fyrſt with a great power, and was dryuen away of the Iewes, how that they had wonne the victory, and gotten great goodes out of the hoſtes that periſhed:

7 How they had broken downe the abomination whiche he ſet vp vppon the aulter at Hieruſalem, and fenced the ſanctuarie with hygh walles, like as it was afore, yea and Bethſura his citie alſo.

8 So it chaunced, that when the king heard theſe wordes, he was afrayde, and greeued very ſore: wherefore he layde hym downe vpon his bed, and fell ſicke for very ſorowe, and all becauſe it had not happened as he had deuiſed.

9 And there continued he long: for his greefe was euer more and more, ſo that he ſawe he muſt needes dye.

10 Therefore he ſent for al his freends, and ſayde vnto them, The ſleepe is gone from myne eyes, for the very ſorowe and vexation of hart that I haue.

11 For when I conſider in my mind the great aduerſitie that I am come vnto, and the fluddes of heauineſſe which I am come in, whereas afore time I was ſo merie, and ſo greatly ſet by, by reaſon of my power:

12 Agayne, conſidering the euil that I haue done at Hieruſalem, from whence I toke all the richeſſe of golde and ſiluer that were in it, and ſent to deſtroy the inhabiters of Iurie without any reaſon why:

13 I knowe that theſe troubles are come vpon me for the ſame cauſe: and beholde I muſt dye with great ſorowe in a ſtraunge lande.

14 Then called he for one Phillip, a freend of his, whom he made ruler of all his realme, 15 And gaue him the crowne, his robe, and his ring, that he ſhould take his ſonne Antiochus vnto him, and bring him vp, tyll he might raigne him ſelfe.

16 So the kyng Antiochus * dyed there, in the hundred fourtie, and niene yeere. * Ioſeph. Capit. 14. Lib. 12.

17 When Lyſias knewe that the kyng was dead, he ordeyned Antiochus his ſonne, whom he had brought vp, to raigne in his fathers ſteade, and called him Eupator.

18 Nowe they that were in the caſtle at Hieruſalem, kept in the Iewes round about the ſanctuarie, & ſought euer ſtyll to doo them harme, and the ſtrengthenyng of the heathen.

19 Wherefore Iudas thought to deſtroy them, and called all the people together, that they might lay ſiege vnto them.

20 So they came together in the hundred and fyfty yeere, and beſieged them, laying forth their ordinaunce and inſtrumentes of warre.

21 Then certayne of them that were beſieged, went forth: vnto whom ſome vngodly men of Iſrael ioyned them ſelues alſo, 22 And went vnto the king, ſaying, Howe long wyll it be or thou puniſhe, and auenge our brethren?

23 We haue euer been minded to doo thy father ſeruice, to walke in his ſtatutes, and to obey his commaundementes:

24 Therefore our people fell from vs, and whereſoeuer they found any of vs, they ſlue them, and ſpoyled our inheritance.

25 And they haue not only medled with vs, but with all our countreys.

26 And beholde, this day are they beſieging the caſtle at Hieruſalem, to take it, and haue made vp the ſtrong holde at Bethſura.

27 And yf thou doeſt not preuent them right ſoone, they wyll doo more then theſe, and thou ſhalt not be able to ouercome them.

28 When the kyng heard this, he was very angry, and called all his freendes, the captaynes of his armie, and all his footemen and horſemen:

29 He hyred men of warre alſo, of other realmes, partaynyng to ỹ kynges that were confederate with him, and of the Iles of the ſea, which came vnto him.

30 And the number of his hoſt was an hundred thouſand footemen, and twentie thouſand horſemen, and thyrtie and two Elephantes well exerciſed to battell.

31 Theſe came thyrough Idumea vnto

Bethſura,

Bethſura, and beſieged it a long ſeaſon, and made diuers inſtrumentes of warre againſt it: but the Iewes came out and brent them with fyre, and fought like men.

32 Then departed Iudas from the caſtle at Hieruſalem, and remoued the hoaſt toward Bethzacharan, ouer againſt the kinges armie.

33 So the kyng aroſe before the day, and brought the power of his hoaſt into the way to Bethzacharan, where the hoaſtes made them redy to the battayle, blowing the trumpettes.

34 And to prouoke the Elephantes for to fight, they ſhewed them the ſappe of redde grapes and mulberies,

35 And diuided the Elephantes among the hoaſt: ſo that by euery Elephant there ſtoode a thouſand men wel harneſſed, & helmets of ſteele vpon their heades: yea vnto euery one of the Elephantes alſo were ordeyned fiue hundred horſemen of the beſt, 36 Whiche wayted on the Elephant, going where ſo euer he went, and departed not from hym.

37 Euery Elephant was couered with a ſtrong tower of wood, faſtened theron with inſtrumentes, whereupon were thirtie and two valiant men with weapons to fyght, & within was a man of Inde to rule the beaſt.

38 As for the remnant of the horſemen, he ſet them vpon both the ſides in two partes, with trumpets to prouoke the hoaſt, and to ſtyre vp ſuche as were ſlowe in the armie.

39 And when the ſunne ſhone vppon their ſhieldes of golde and ſteele, the mountaines glittered agayne at them, & were as bryght as the creſſets of fyre.

40 The kinges hoaſt alſo was diuided, one part vppon the hygh mountaynes, the other low beneath: ſo they went on, takyng good heede, and keepyng their order.

41 And all they that dwelt in the land, were afrayd at the noyſe of their hoaſt, when the multitude went forth, and when the weapons ſmote togeather: for the hoaſt was both great and myghtie.

42 Iudas alſo and his hoaſt entred into the battell, and ſlue ſixe hundred men of the kynges armie.

43 Nowe when Eleazar the ſonne of "Saura dyd ſee one of the Elephantes deckt with the kynges badge, and was a more goodly beaſt then the other, he thought the kyng ſhoulde be vpon hym:

44 And ieoparded hym ſelfe to delyuer his people, and to get hym a perpetuall name:

45 Wherefore, he ranne with a courage vnto the Elephant in the middeſt of the hoaſt, ſmiting them downe on both the ſides, and ſlue many about hym.

46 So went he to the Elephants feete, and gat him vnder hym, [a] and ſlue him: then fel the Elephant downe vpon him, & there he dyed.

47 Iudas alſo and his men, ſeeing the power of the kyng, and the mightie violence of his hoaſt, departed from them.

48 And the kings armie went vp againſt them toward Hieruſalem, and pitched their tentes in Iurie beſide mount Sion.

49 Moreouer, the king toke truice with them that were in Bethſura, but when they came out of the citie, becauſe they had no victuals, but were ſhut vp within, and the lande lay vntylled,

50 The kyng tooke Bethſura, and ſet men to keepe it, and turned his hoaſt to the place of the ſanctuarie, 51 And layde ſiege to it a great while, where he made all maner ordinance, handbowes, fierie dartes, rackets to caſt ſtones, ſcorpions to ſhoote arrowes, and ſlinges.

52 The Iewes alſo made ordinance againſt theyrs, and fought a long ſeaſon.

53 But in the citie there were no victuals, for it was the ſeuenth yere of the warres, & thoſe heathen that remayned in Iurie had eaten vp al theyr ſtore.

54 And in the ſanctuarie were fewe men leaft: for the hunger came ſo vpon them, that they were ſcattered abrode, euery man to his owne place.

55 So when Lyſias heard that Philip whom Antiochus the kyng while he was yet liuing, had ordeyned to bryng vp Antiochus his ſonne that he myght be kyng,

56 Was come againe out of Perſia and Media with the kinges hoaſt, and thought to obteyne the kingdome, with the gouernance of al thynges:

57 He gate him to the kyng in all the haſte, and to the captaynes of the hoaſt, and ſayde, We decreaſe dayly, and our victuals are but ſmall: agayne, the place that we laye ſiege vnto is very ſtrong, and it were our part to ſee for the Realme:

58 Let vs agree with theſe men, and take truice with them, and with al their people, 59 And graunt them to liue after their lawe as they did afore: for they be greeued, and doo all theſe thynges againſt vs, becauſe we haue "deſpiſed their lawe.

60 So the kyng and the princes were content, and ſent vnto them to make peace: and they receyued it.

61 Nowe

a This example is not to be folowed, becauſe it is contrary to the commaundement.

"Or, broken.

61 Nowe when the kyng and the princes had made an othe vnto them, they came out of the castle, 62 And the kyng went vp to mount Sion: but when he sawe that the place was wel kepted, he brake the othe that he had made, and commaunded to destroy the wal round about.

63 Then departed he in all the haste, and returned vnto Antioche, where he founde Philip hauing dominion of the citie: so he fought agaynst him, and tooke the citie againe into his handes.

¶ The.vii.Chapter.

Demetrius raigned after he had killed Antiochus and Lysias.

1 IN the hundred sixtie and one yeere, came Demetrius the sonne of Seleuchus, from the citie of Rome, with a smal company of men, vnto a citie of the sea coast, and there he bare rule.

2 And when he came to Antioche, the citie of his progenitours, his hoast tooke Antiochus and Lysias, to bring them vnto him.

3 But when it was tolde hym, he sayd, Let me not see theyr faces.

4 So the hoast put them to death. Now when Demetrius was set vpon the throne of his kyngdome,

5 There came vnto him wicked and vngodly men of Israel, whose captaine was Alcimus, that woulde haue been made hygh priest.

6 These men accused the people of Israel vnto the king, saying, Judas and his brethren haue slayne all thy freendes, and driuen vs out of our owne lande.

7 Wherefore, sende nowe some man to whom thou geuest credence, that he may goe, and see all the destruction whiche he hath doone vnto vs, and to the kynges land, and let hym be punished, with al his freends and fauourers.

8 Then the king chose Bacchides a freende of his, whiche was a man of great power in the Realme beyonde the water, & faythful vnto the kyng, and sent hym to see the destruction that Iudas had doone.

9 And as for that wycked Alcimus, he made hym high priest, and commaunded him to be auenged of the children of Israel.

10 So they departed from the kyng and came with a great hoast into the land of Juda, sendyng messengers to Judas and his brethren, and speaking vnto them with peaceable wordes, but vnder deceyt.

11 Therefore Judas and his people beleeued not them, saying: for they sawe that they were come with a great host.

12 After this came the Scribes togeather vnto Alcimus and Bacchides, to entreate of reasonable couenantes.

13 And the Assideans were the first among the children of Israel that required peace of them,

14 Saying, Alcimus the priest is come of the seede of Aaron, howe can he deceyue vs, though he come with an armie?

15 So he gaue them louing wordes, and swore vnto them, and sayd, We wyl doo you no harme, neyther your freendes.

16 And they beleeued hym: but the very same day tooke he threescore men of them, and slue them, according to the wordes that are written,

17 They haue cast the * flesshe of thy saintes, and shead their blood round about Hierusalem, and there was no man that would bury them. * Psal. 78.

18 So there came a great feare and dread among all the people, saying, There is neither trueth nor righteousnesse in them: for they haue broken the appoyntment and othe that they made.

19 And Bacchides remooued his hoast from Hierusalem, and pitched his tent at Bethzecha, where he sent foorth and tooke many of them that had forsaken hym: he slue many of the people also, and cast them into a great pit.

20 Then committed he the lande vnto Alcimus, and left men of warre with hym to helpe hym: and Bacchides hym selfe went vnto the kyng.

21 And thus Alcimus defended his high priesthood.

22 And al such as vexed Israel, resorted vnto hym: insomuche that they obteyned the lande of Juda, and dyd muche euyll vnto the Israelites.

23 Nowe when Judas saw all the mischeefe that Alcimus and his company had doone (yea more then the heathen themselues) vnto the Israelites, 24 He went foorth round about al the borders of Jurie, and punished those vnfaithful runnagates, so that they came no more out into the countrey.

25 So when Alcimus sawe that Judas and his people had gotten the vpper hand, and that he was not able to abyde them, he went agayne vnto the king, & sayde al the worst of them that he coulde.

26 * Then the kyng sent Nicanor, one of his cheefe princes, whiche bare euyl wyll vnto Israel, and commaunded him that he should vtterly destroy the people. * 2. Mach. 15.2.

27 So Nicanor came to Hierusalem with a great hoast, and sent vnto Judas and his his brethren with kreendly wordes: but vnder deceite, saying,

28 There shalbe no warre betwixt me and you, I wyll come with a fewe men, to see how ye doo, with freendshyp.

29 Vppon this he came vnto Judas, and they saluted one an other peaceably: but the enimies were appoynted to take Judas by violence.

30 Neuertheless, it was tolde Judas that he came vnto him but vnder deceyte, wherfore he gate him away from him, & would see his face no more.

31 When Nicanor perceiued that his counsel was bewrayed, he went out to fight agaynst Judas beside "Caphar salama:

32 Where there were slayne of Nicanors host fyue thousand men, and the residue fled vnto the citie of Dauid.

33 After this came Nicanor vp vnto mount Sion, and the priests with the elders of the people, went forth to salute hym peaceably, and to shewe him the whole burnt sacrifyces that were offered for the kyng.

34 But he laughed them and the people to scorne, mocked them, defiled theyr offrings, and spake disdainefully:

35 Yea & swore in his wrath, saying, If Judas and his host be not deliuered nowe into my handes, as soone as euer I come agayne and fare well, I shall burne vp this house. With that went he out in a great anger.

36 Then the priestes came in, and stood before the aulter of the temple, weeping, and saying,

37 For so much as thou, O Lord, hast chosen this house, that thy name might be called vpon therein, and that it should be an house of prayer and petition for thy people:

38 Be auenged of this man & his host, and let them be slayne with the swoord: remember the blasphemies of them, and suffer not them to continue any longer.

39 When Nicanor was gone from Hierusalem, he pitched his tent at Bethoron, and there an host met him out of Syria.

40 And Judas came to Adarsa with three thousand men, and made his prayer vnto God, saying,

41 "O Lord, because the messengers of king Sennacherib blasphemed thee, the angel went forth, and slue an hundred fourescore and fiue thousand of them:

42 Euen so, destroy thou this host before vs this day, that other people may know how that he hath blasphemed thy sanctuarie, and punishe hym according to his malitiousnesse.

43 And so the hostes stroke the feelde the thirteenth day of the moneth 'Adar, and Nicanors host was discomfited, and he himselfe was first slayne in the battell.

44 When Nicanors men of warre saw that he was kylled, they cast away theyr weapons, and fled:

45 But the Jewes folowed vppon them a whole dayes iourney, from Adazer vnto Gazara, blowyng with the trumpettes, and makyng tokens after them.

46 So the Jewes came forth of all the townes round about, and blewe out theyr hornes vpon them, & turned against them: thus were they all slayne, and not one of them left.

47 Then tooke they theyr substance for a pray, and smote of Nicanors head, and his ryght hand, which he helde vp so proudly, and brought it with them, and hanged it vp afore Hierusalem.

48 Wherefore the people were exceedingly reioyced, and passed ouer that day in great gladnesse.

49 And Judas ordeyned that the same day, namely, the thirteenth day of the moneth Adar, shoulde be kept in myrth euery yeere.

50 Thus the land of Juda was in rest a litle whyle.

'Februarie'

¶ The. viii. Chapter.

1. Judas considering the power and godly policie of the Romanes, maketh peace with them.
22. The rescript of the Romanes sent vnto the Iewes.

1 IUdas hearde also the fame of the Romanes, that they were mighty and valiant men, and agreeable to all thyngs that are required of them, and make peace with all men which come vnto them,

2 And howe they were doughty men of strength: besides that, it was tolde him of theyr battayles and noble actes which they dyd in "Galacia, howe they had conquered them, and brought them vnder tribute,

3 And what great thynges they had done in Spayne: howe that with theyr wysedome and sober behauiour they had wonne the mines of syluer and gold that are there,

4 And obteyned al the land, with other places farre from them: howe they had discomfited and slayne downe the kinges that came vpon them from the vttermost part of the earth, and howe other people gaue them tribute euery yeere:

5 Howe they had slayne and ouercome Philip and Perses kynges of 'Cethim, and other moe in battayle, whiche had brought their ordinance against them:

"Or, Frawnce.

'Or, the Macedonians.

6 Howe

6 How they discomfited great Antiochus king of Asia, that would needes fight with them, hauing an hundred and twentie Elephantes, with horsemen, charrets, and a very great host:

7 Howe they toke him selfe alyue, and ordeyned him, with such as should raigne after him, to pay them a great tribute, yea and to fynde them good sureties and pledges besides al this:

8 Howe they had taken from him India, Media, and Lydia, his best landes, and geuen them to kyng Eumenus.

9 Agayne, howe they perceiuing that the Greekes were comming to vexe them,

10 Sent against them a captaine of an host, which gaue them battel, slue many of them, led away their wyues and children captiue, spoyled them, toke possession of their lande, and destroyed their strong holdes, and subdued them to be their bondmen vnto this day.

11 Moreouer, howe that as for other kyngdomes and Iles, whiche sometime withstood them, they destroyed them, & brought them vnder their dominion:

12 But kept amitie with their owne frends, and those that were confederat with them, and conquered kingdomes both farre and nygh: and that who so euer heard of their renowme, was afraide of them.

13 For whom they woulde helpe to their kyngdomes, those raigned: and whom it liked not them to raigne, they put them downe: and howe they were come to great preheminence,

14 Hauing no kyng among them, neither any man clothed in purple, to be magnified therethrough:

15 But had ordeyned them selues a "parliament, wherein there sate three hundred and twentie Senatours dayly vppon the counsell, to dispatch euer the businesse of the people, and to keepe good order:

16 And howe that euery yeere they chose a "Maior, to haue the gouernance of al their land, to whom euery man was obedient, and there was neyther euyll wyll, nor dissention among them.

17 Then Judas chose Eupolemus the sonne of Iohn, the sonne of Iacob, and Iason the sonne of Eleazar, & sent them to Rome, for to make freendship, and a bond of loue with them, 18 That they might take from them the bondage of the Greekes: for the Iewes saw that the Greekes would subdue the kyngdome of Israel.

19 So they went vnto Rome, a very great iourney, and came vnto the "parliament, and sayde, 20 Judas Machabeus, with his brethren, and the people of the Iewes, hath sent vs vnto you, to make a bond of freendship and peace with you, and ye to note vs as your louers and freendes.

21 And that matter pleased the Romanes right well.

22 Wherefore it was written vp: of the which the Romanes made a writing in tables of brasse, and sent it to Hierusalem, that they might haue by them a memoriall of the same peace and bond of freendship after this maner:

23 God saue the Romanes and the people of the Iewes both by sea and by lande, and keepe the swoorde and enimie from them for euermore:

24 If there come fyrst any warre vpon the Romanes, or any of their freendes throughout all their dominion, 25 The people of the Iewes shall helpe them, as the time requireth, and that with all their hartes.

26 Also they shall neyther geue nor send vnto their enimies victuals, weapons, money, nor shippes: but fulfyll their couenantes at the Romanes pleasure, taking nothyng of them therefore.

27 Agayne, if the people of the Iewes happen fyrst to haue warre, the Romanes shall stand by them with a good wyll, according as the time wyll suffer.

28 Neyther shall they geue vnto the Iewes enimies victuals, weapõs, money, or ships: Thus are the Romanes content to do, and shall fulfyll their charge without any deceyte.

29 According vnto these articles the Romanes made the bond with the Iewes.

30 Now after these articles sayd they, if any of the parties wyll put to them, or take any thing from them, they shall do it with the consent of both: and whatsoeuer they adde vnto them, or take from them, it shall stand fast.

31 And as touching the euyl that Demetrius had done vnto the Iewes, we haue written vnto him, saying, Wherefore layest thou thy heauie yoke vppon the Iewes our freendes and louers?

32 If they make any complaint of thee agayne vnto vs, we shall defend them, and fight with thee by sea and by lande, according vnto iustice.

"Or, a counsaile or senate house.

"Or, one man.

"Or, Acchus.

"Or, senate house.

¶ The.ix. Chapter.

1. After the death of Nicanor, Demetrius sendeth his armie agaynst Iudas. 18. Iudas is slayne.

1 IN the meane season, when Demetrius heacde that Nicanor and his host was slayne slayne in the feelde, he proceeded further to sende Bacchides and Alcimus agayne into Jurie, and the cheefe strength of his hoast with them.

2 So they went forth by the way that leadeth vnto Galgala, and pytched their tents before Masaloth (which is in Arbellis) and wanne the citie, and slue muche people.

3 In the firste moneth of the hundred fyftie and two yeere, they brought their hoast, and layde their siege agaynst Hierusalem:

4 But rayling their campe, they came to Berea with twentie thousand footmen, and two thousand horsemen.

5 Now Judas had pitched his tent at Laisa, with three thousande chosen men,

6 And when they sawe the multitude of the other armie that it was so great, they were sore afrayde, and many conueyed them selues out of the hoast, insomuche that there abode no mo of them but eyght hundred men.

7 When Judas sawe that his hoast fayled hym, and that he must needes fyght, it brake his hart, that he had no tyme to gather them together: wherefore the man was in extreme trouble.

8 Neuertheles, he sayde vnto them that remayned with hym, Vp, let vs goe agaynst our enimies, peraduenture we shalbe able to fyght with them.

9 But they would haue stopped hym, saying, We shall not be able: therefore nowe let vs saue our lyues, and turne agayne to our brethren, for shoulde we fyght agaynst them, being so fewe?

10 And Judas sayd, a God forbyd that we shoulde flee from them: wherefore yf our tyme be come, let vs dye manfully for our brethren, and let vs not staine our honour.

11 Then the hoast remoued out of the tents, and stoode agaynst them, and the horsemen were diuided in two partes: and slyng casters and archers went before the hoast, and all the myghtie men were foremost in the feelde.

12 Bacchides hym selfe was in the ryght wing of the battayle, & the hoast drue nygh in two partes, and blewe the Trumpets.

13 They of Judas side blewe the Trumpets also, and the earth shooke at the noyse of the hoastes, and they strake a feelde from the morowetyde nyght.

14 And when Judas sawe that Bacchides hoast was strongest on the ryght side, he tooke with hym al the hardie men, 15 And brake the ryght wyng of their order, and followed vpon them vnto mount Azot.

16 Nowe when they whiche were the left wing, sawe that the right side was discomfited, they pursued Judas and them that were with hym hard at the heeles.

17 Then was there a lore battayle: for many were slayne and wounded on both the partes.

18 Judas also hym selfe was kylled, and the remnant fled.

19 So Jonathas and Simon tooke Judas their brother, & buried him in his fathers sepulchre in the citie of Modin.

20 And all the people of Israel made great lamentation for hym, and mourned long, saying, 21 Alas that this worthie shoulde be slaine, whiche deliuered the people of Israel.

22 As for other thynges parteynyng to the battayles of Judas, the noble actes that he dyd, and his worthynesse, they are not wrytten, for they were very many.

23 Nowe after the death of Judas, wycked men came vp in al the coastes of Israel, and there arose all suche as dyd worke vngodlynesse. Iosephus, cap. 3. lib. 13 an.

24 In those dayes was there a great dearth in the lande, and al the countrey gaue ouer them selues and theirs vnto Bacchides.

25 So Bacchides chose wycked men, and made them lordes in the lande.

26 These sought out, and made searche for Judas frendes, and brought them vnto Bacchides, whiche auenged him selfe vpon them with great despyte.

27 And there came so great trouble in Israel, as was not since the tyme that no prophet was seene there.

28 Then came al Judas frendes together, and sayde vnto Jonathas, 29 For so muche as thy brother Judas is dead, there is none lyke hym to goe forth against our enimies, against Bacchides, & such as are aduersaries of our owne people.

30 Wherefore this day we choose thee for hym, to be our prince and captayne, to order our battayle.

31 And Jonathas tooke the gouernaunce vpon hym at the same tyme, and ruled in steade of his brother Judas.

32 When Bacchides gat knowledge thereof, he sought for to slay hym.

33 But Jonathas and Simon his brother perceyuing that, fled into the wildernesse of Thecua, with al their company, and pytched their tentes by the water poole of Asphar.

34 Whiche when Bacchides vnderstoode, he came ouer Jordane with all his host vpon the Sabboth day.

35 Nowe had Jonathas sent his brother John a captayne of the people, to pray his frendes the Nabuthites, that they would lende them their ordinaunce, for they had muche.

[1] Or, Ambri.

36 So the chyldren of [1] Iambri came out of Madaba, and tooke John, and al that he had, and went their way withal when they had taken it.

37 Then came worde vnto Jonathas and Simon his brother, that the chyldren of Iambri made a great marriage, & brought the bride from Madaba with great pomp: for she was daughter to one of the noblest princes of Chanaan.

38 Wherefore they remembred the blood of John their brother, and went vp, and hyd them selues vnder the shadow of the mountayne.

39 So they lyft vp their eyes, and looked, and beholde there was muche adoo, & great preparation: for the bridegrome came forth, and his freendes and his brethren met them with Tympanies, instruments of musicke, and many weapons.

40 Then Jonathas, and they that were with hym, rose out of their lurkyng places agaynst them, and slue many of them: and the remnant fled into the mountaines, and they tooke al their substance.

41 Thus the marrtage was turned to mournyng, and the noyse of their melodie into lamentation.

a. Blood doth require blood.

42 And so when they had auenged the [a] blood of their brother, they returned againe vnto Jordane.

43 Bacchides hearyng this, came vnto the very border of Jordane, with a great power, vpon the Sabboth day.

44 And Jonathas sayde to his companye, Let vs geat vp, and fyght agaynst our enmies, for it standeth not with vs to day, as in tyme past.

2. Chr. 10. 3.

45 Behold, our enimies are in our way, the water of Jordane vppon the one side of vs, with bankes, fennes, & woods on the other side, so that there is no place for vs to departe vnto.

46 Wherefore crye nowe vnto heauen, that ye may be deliuered from the power of your enmies: So they stroke the battayle.

47 And Jonathas stretched out his hand to smyte Bacchides, but he fled backwarde.

48 Then Jonathas & they that were with hym, leapt into Jordane, and swymmed ouer Jordane vnto the further banke: but the other woulde not passe ouer Jordane after hym.

49 And there were slayne of Bacchides side that day a thousande men.

50 Therfore Bacchides with his hoast turned againe to Hierusalem, and buylt vp the castles and strong holdes that were in Iurie, Iericho, Emaus, Bethoron, Bethel, Thamnata, [1] Phara, and [2] Thapo, with hygh walles, with portes, and with lockes:

[1] Or, Pharathoni.

51 And set men to keepe them, that they myght vse their malice vpon Israel.

[2] Or, Tepha.

52 He walled vp the citie Bethsura, Gazara, and the castle, and prouided them with men and victuals.

53 He tooke also the cheefest mens sonnes in the countrey for pledges, and put them in the castle at Hierusalem to be kept.

54 Afterwarde, in the hundred fyftie and three yeere, in the seconde moneth, Alcimus commaunded that they shoulde destroy the walles of the inwarde court of the sanctuarie, and he pulled downe, and began to destroy the monuments of the prophetes.

55 But at the same tyme Alcimus was plagued, and smytten with a palsie, and his enterprises were hyndered, and his mouth was stopped by God, so that he coulde no more speake, nor cōmaunde any of his house concernyng his businesse.

56 Thus dyed Alcimus in great miserie at the same tyme.

57 And whē Bacchides sawe that Alcimus was dead, he turned agayne to the kyng: and so the lande was in rest two yeeres.

58 Then al the vngodly men held a counsel, saying, Behold, Jonathas and his companie are at ease, & dwel without care, wherefore let vs bryng Bacchides hyther, and he shal take them al in one nyght.

59 So they went, and gaue Bacchides this counsell:

60 Which arose to come with a great host, and sent letters priuily to his adherentes whiche were in Iurie, to take Jonathas and those that were with hym: but they myght not, for the other had gotten knowledge of their denice.

61 And Jonathas tooke fyftie men of the countrey, whiche were the ryng leaders of them, and slue them.

62 Then Jonathas and Simon, with their companie, departed vnto the citie [1] Bethbasin, whiche lyeth in the wyldernesse, and repayred the decay therof, and made it strong.

[1] Or, Bethbessen.

63 When Bacchides knewe this, he gathered al his hoast, and sent word to them that were in Iurie.

64 Then came he and layde siege to Bethbasin, and fought agaynst it a long season, and made instrumentes of warre.

65 Nowe Jonathas left his brother Simon in the citie, and went forth hym selfe into the countrey, and came with a certayne number,

66 And slue [1] Odomeras and his brethren, and

and the chyldren of Phaleron, in their tentes, so that he began to be strong, and to increase in power.

67 As for Simon and his companie they went out of the citie, and brent vp the instrumentes of warre, 68 And fought agaynst Bacchides, and discomfited hym: and Bacchides was sore vexed, because his counsel and trauayle was in vayne.

69 Wherfore he was wroth at the wycked men, that gaue hym counsel to come into theyr lande, and slue many of them: then purposed he with his companie to goe away into his owne countrey.

a Wycked counsel falleth on the counsellers.

70 Whereof when Jonathas had knowledge, he sent ambassadours vnto him, for to make peace with him, and that he should deliuer hym his prysoners agayne.

71 To the whiche Bacchides consented gladly, and did according to his desire: yea and made an othe that he should neuer doo hym harme al the dayes of his lyfe.

72 So he restored vnto hym all the prysoners that he had taken out of the lande of Juda, and then turned & went his way into his owne lande, neither purposed he any further to come into the borders of Juda.

73 Thus Israel had no more warre, and Jonathas dwelt at Michmas, and began there to gouerne the people, and destroyed the vngodly men out of Israel.

¶ The x. Chapter.

4. Demetrius desyreth to haue peace with Jonathas. 41. Alexander mooueth warre agaynst Demetrius. 50. Demetrius is slayne. 51. The friendshyp of Ptolomeus and Alexander.

1 IN the hundred & threescore yeere, came Alexander the sonne of a noble Antiochus, and tooke Ptolomais, whose citizens receyued hym, and there he raigned.

a Ethiopa-

2 When Demetrius heard thereof, he gathered an exceeding great host, and went forth agaynst hym to fight.

3 Wherefore Demetrius sent letters vnto Jonathas, with louing wordes, and praysed hym greatly:

4 For he sayde, We wyl first make peace with hym, before he bynde him selfe with Alexander agaynst vs:

5 Els he shal remember the euyl that we haue done agaynst hym, his brother, and his people.

6 And so he gaue Jonathas leaue to gather an host, to make weapons, and to be confederate with him, and commaunded the pledges that were in the castle to be deliuered vnto hym.

7 Then came Jonathas to Hierusalem, and read the letters in the audience of all the people, and of them that were in the castle.

8 And therefore were they sore afrayde, because they heard that the kyng had geuen him licence to gather an host.

9 Thus were the pledges deliuered vnto Jonathas, whiche restored them to theyr parentes.

10 Jonathas also dwelt at Hierusalem, and began to buyld vp, and to repayre the citie:

11 Commaunding the workemen to wall it, and the mount Sion, rounde about with free stone, to be a strong holde: & so they did.

12 As for the heathen that were in the castles which Bacchides had made vp, they fledde:

13 So that euery man left the place, and went into his owne countrey.

14 Onely at Bethsura remayned certayne of the Jewes, which had forsaken the lawe and commaundementes of God, for Bethsura was theyr refuge.

15 Nowe when kyng Alexander hearde of the promises that Demetrius had made vnto Jonathas, and when it was told him of the battayles and noble actes whiche he and his brethren had done, and of the great trauayles that they had taken,

16 He sayde, Where shal we finde suche a man? wel, we wyl make hym our frende, and be confederate with hym.

17 Upon this he wrote a letter vnto hym, with these wordes:

18 Kyng Alexander saluteth his brother Jonathas,

19 We haue heard of thee, that thou art a valiant man, and meete to be our frende:

20 Wherefore this day we ordeyne thee to be the hygh priest of thy people, and to be called the kynges frende (Uppon this he sent hym a purple clothyng, & a crowne of golde) that thou mayest consyder what is for our profite, and keepe frendshyp towarde vs.

21 So in the seuenth moneth of the hundred and threescore yeere, vppon the solempne feast day of the tabernacles, Jonathas put the holy rayment vpon hym: then gathered he an host, and prepared many weapons.

22 Which when Demetrius heard, he was marueylous sory,

23 And sayde, Alas what haue we done, that Alexander hath preuented vs, in gaatyng the frendshyp of the Jewes for his owne defence?

24 Yet wyl I write louingly vnto them also, and promise them dignities and rewardes, that they may be of my syde.

25 Whereupon he wrote vnto them these woordes, Kyng Demetrius sendeth greeting vnto the people of the Iewes:

26 Whereas ye haue kept your couenant towarde vs, and continued in our freendshyp, not inclining to our enemies, we were glad when we heard thereof.

27 Wherefore remayne styl, and be faythful to vs, and we shal wel recompence you for the thynges that ye haue done on our parte:

28 We shal release you of many charges, and geue you rewardes.

29 And nowe I discharge you and all the Iewes from tributes, I forgeue you the customes of salt, and release you of the crowne tares, of the thirde part of seede,

30 And halfe the fruite of trees, whiche is mine owne duetie, I do release them from this day forth, so that they shal not be taken of the lande of Iuda, nor of the three cities whiche are added thereunto out of Samaria and Galilee, from this day forth for euermore.

31 Hierusalem also, with al thinges belonging thereto shalbe holy and free, yea the tythes and tributes shal parteyne vnto it.

32 As for the power of the castle whiche is at Hierusalem, I remit and geue it vnto the high priest, that he may set in it suche men as he shal choose to keepe it.

33 I freely deliuer al the Iewes that are prysoners throughout al my realme, so that euery one of them shalbe free from paying any tribute, yea euen of their cattel.

34 Al the solemne feastes, Sabbothes, newe moones, the dayes appointed, the three dayes before and after the feast, shalbe free for al the Iewes in my realme.

35 So that in them no man shal haue power to doo any thyng, or to vexe any of them in any maner of cause.

36 There shal thirtie thousande also of the Iewes be written vp in the kynges host, and haue their wages payed, as all other men of warre of the kynges shoulde haue: and of them shalbe ordeyned certayne to keepe the kynges strong holdes, 37 Yea and some of them shalbe set ouer the kynges secrets affayres: and their gouernours and princes shalbe of them selues, and lyue after their owne lawes, as the king hath commaunded in the lande of Iuda.

38 And the three cities that are fallen vnto Iurie from the countrey of Samaria, shalbe taken as Iurie, and be vnder one, neyther be subiect to any strange Lorde, but to the high priest.

39 As for Ptolonais and the lande parteynyng thereto, I geue it vnto the sanctuarie at Hierusalem, for the necessarie expences of the holy thynges.

40 Moreouer, I wyl geue euery yeere fifteene thousand sicles of siluer of the kinges reuenues, and of the places appartaynyng vnto me.

41 And al the ouerplus whiche they haue not payde for thynges due, as they dyd in the former yeeres, from henceforth they shal geue it towarde the woorkes of the temple.

42 And besides this, the fiue thousand sicles of siluer which they receyued yeerely of the accompt appointed for the intertaynement of the sanctuarie of these yeeres passed, euen these thynges shalbe released, because they appartayne to the priestes that minister.

43 Item, who so euer they be that flee vnto the temple at Hierusalem, or within the liberties thereof, where as they are fallen into the kynges danger for any maner of businesse, they shalbe pardoned, and all the goodes that they haue in my realme shalbe free.

44 For the buylding also and repayring of the woorke of the sanctuarie, expences shalbe geuen out of the kynges reuenues.

45 Yea and for the makyng of the walles rounde about Hierusalem, for the breaking downe of the olde, and for the settyng vp of the strong holdes in Iurie, shal the costes and charges be geuen out of the kynges reuenues.

46 But when Ionathas and the people heard these woordes, they gaue no credence vnto them, neyther receyued them: for they remembred the great wyckednesse that he had done vnto Israel, and howe sore he had vexed them.

47 Wherfore they agreed vnto Alexander, for he was a prince that had dealt frendly with them, and so they stoode by hym alway.

48 Then geathered king Alexander a great host, and brought his armie against Demetrius. Ioseph. cap. 4. lib. 13.

49 So the two kynges stroke battayle togeather, but Demetrius host fledde, and Alexander followed after, and fell vppon them.

50 A mightie sore feelde was it, continuing tyl the sunne went downe, and Demetrius was slayne the same day.

51 And Alexander sent Ambassadours vnto Ptolome the kyng of Egypt, with these woordes, saying,

52 For-

52 Forasmuch as I am come agayne to my realme, & am set in the throne of my progenitors, and haue gotten the dominion, ouercommed Demetrius,

53 Conquered our land, and stricken a feeld with him, so that we haue discomfited both hym and his host, and sit in the throne of his kyngdome:

54 Let vs nowe make freendship togeather, geue me thy daughter to wyfe, so shall I be thy sonne in lawe, and both geue thee rewardes and her, accordyng to thy dignitie.

55 Ptolome the king gaue answere, saying, Happye be the day wherein thou art come agayne to the lande of thy progenitours, and set in the throne of their kyngdome:

56 And nowe wyll I fulfyll thy wrytyng: but meete me at Ptolomais, that we maye see one another, and that I maye marry my daughter vnto thee, according to thy desire.

57 So Ptolome went out of Egypt with his daughter Cleopatra, and came vnto Ptolomais in the hundred three score and two yeere, 58 Where kyng Alexander met hym: and he gaue Alexander his daughter Cleopatra, and marryed them at Ptolomais with great worshyp, lyke as the maner of kings is to be.

59 Then wrote king Alexander vnto Jonathas, that he shoulde come and meete hym.

60 So he went honourably vnto Ptolomais, and there he met the two kynges, & gaue them and their freendes great presentes of gold and syluer, and founde fauour in their syght.

61 And there came together agaynst Jonathas certayne wicked men, and vngratious persons of Israel, makyng complayntes of hym: but the kyng regarded them not.

62 As for Jonathas, the king commaunded to take of his garmentes, and to clothe him in purple: and so they dyd. Then the kyng appoynted hym to sit by hym, 63 And sayde vnto his princes, Goe with hym into the myddest of the citie, and make a proclamation, that no man complayne agaynst hym of any matter, and that no man trouble hym for any maner of cause.

64 So it happened, that when his accusers sawe the worshyp which was proclaimed of hym, and that he was clothed in purple: they fled euery one.

65 And the kyng made much of hym, wrote hym among his cheefe freendes, made hym a duke, and partaker of his dominion.

66 Thus Jonathas went agayne to Hierusalem with peace and gladnesse.

67 In the hundred threescore and fifth yere, came Demetrius the sonne of Demetrius, from Creta, into his fathers lande:

68 Whereof when Alexander hearde tel, he was right sory, and returned vnto Antioch.

69 And Demetrius chose Appolonius, whiche had the gouernaunce of Cotlosyria, to be his captayne: so he geathered a great hoast, and came vnto Jamnia, & sent worde vnto Jonathas the hygh priest, saying,

70 Darest thou withstande vs thee selfe alone? As for me, I am but laughed to scorne and shamed, because thou diddest vaunt thy strength agaynst vs in the mountaynes.

71 Nowe therefore yf thou trustest in thyne owne strength, come downe to vs into the playne feelde, and there let vs trye the matter togeather, for thou shalt knowe that I haue the strength of many cities,

72 And shalt know who I am, and the other that stande by me, whiche say, That your foote is not able to stand before our face, for thy fathers haue been twyce chased in their owne lande.

73 And nowe howe wylt thou be able to abide so great an hoast of horsmen and footemen in the feelde, whereas is neither rocke, stone, nor place to flee vnto?

74 When Jonathas hearde the woordes of Apollonius, he was mooued in his mind, wherefore he chose ten thousande men, and went out of Hierusalem: and Simon his brother met hym, for to helpe hym.

75 And they pytched their tentes at Joppa: but the citie kept hym forth, for Apollonius garison was in Joppa.

76 Then Jonathas layde siege to it, and they that were in the citie for very feare let hym in: and so Jonathas wanne Joppa.

77 Apollonius hearyng of this, tooke three thousand horsemen, with a great hoast on foote, and went to Azotus, as though he woulde goe further, and came immediately into the plaine feelde, because he had so many horsmen, and put his trust in them.

78 So Jonathas folowed vpon hym to Azotus, and the armie skirmished with his rereward, and there they stroke the battayle.

79 Nowe had Apollonius left a thousande horsemen behynde them priuily in the tentes.

80 And when Jonathas knewe that suche wayte was layde behynde them, they went rounde about the enimies hoast, and shot dartes at the people, from the morning to the euenyng.

81 As for Jonathas people, they kept their order as he had commaunded them, and the enimies horses were weerye.

82 Then brought Simon forth his hoast, and set them agaynst the footemen (for the horsemen were weery alredy:) and so he discomfited them, and they fled.

83 And they that were scattred in the feeld, gat them to Azotus, and came into the temple of Dagon their idoll, that they myght there saue their lyues.

84 But Jonathas set fyre vppon Azotus, and all the cities rounde about it, and tooke their goods, and brent vp the temple of Dagon, with all them that were fledde vnto it.

85 Thus were slayne and brent welnygh eyght thousande men.

86 So Jonathas remoued the hoast from thence, & brought them to Ascalon, where the men of the citie came forth, and met hym with great worshyp.

87 After this went Jonathas and his hoast againe to Hierusalem, with great substance of goods.

88 And when kyng Alexander hearde these thynges, he thought to doo Jonathas more worshyp:

89 And sent hym a coller of golde, as the vse is to be geuen vnto such as are of the kings next blood: he gaue hym also the citie of Accaron, with the landes belongyng thereto in possession.

¶ The.xi. Chapter.

1. The dissention betwene Ptolomeus and Alexander his sonne in lawe. 17. The death of Alexander.

Iosephus, cap. 7 lib. 13.

1 AND the kyng of Egypt geathered an hoast lyke the sand that lyeth vpon the sea shore, and many shyppes, and went about through deceyte to obteyne the kingdome of Alexander, and to ioyne it vnto his owne realme.

2 Vpon this he tooke his iourney into Syria, vsing gentle wordes, so that he was letten into the cities, and men came forth to meete hym: for kyng Alexander had commaunded them so to doo, because he was his father in lawe.

3 Nowe when Ptolome entred into any citie, he left men of warre to keepe it: and this he dyd throughout al the cities.

4 And whē he came to Azotus, they shewed hym the temple of Dagon, and Azotus that was brent vp, with the other thyngs which were destroyed, the dead bodies cast abrode, and the graues that they had made by the wayes side for suche as were slayne in the feelde,

5 And tolde the kyng that Jonathas had doone all these thynges, to the intent they myght geat hym euyl wyll, but the kyng sayde not one woorde thereto.

6 And Jonathas met the kyng with great honour at Joppa, where they saluted one another, and tooke their rest.

7 So when Jonathas had gone with the king vnto the water that was called Eleutherus, he turned agayne to Hierusalem.

8 Nowe Ptolome had gotten the dominion of the cities vnto Seleucia vppon the sea coast, imaginyng wycked counsels agaynst Alexander, 9 And sent ambassadours vnto Demetrius, saying, Come, let vs make a bond betwixt vs, so shall I geue thee my daughter that Alexander hath, and thou shalt raigne in thy fathers kyngdome.

10 I repent that I gaue Alexander my daughter, for he goeth about to slay me.

11 And thus he slaundered Alexander, because he woulde haue had his realme.

12 Thus he tooke his daughter from hym, gaue her vnto Demetrius, and forsooke Alexander, so that his malice was openly knowen.

13 And Ptolome came to Antioche, where he set two crownes vppon his owne head, the crowne of Egypt, and of Asia.

14 In the meane season was kyng Alexander in Cilicia: for they that dwelt in those places had rebelled agaynst hym.

15 But when Alexander hearde of this, he came to warre agaynst hym: so kyng Ptolome brought forth his hoast, and met him with a myghtie power, and chased hym away.

16 Then fled Alexander into Arabia, there to be defended: and kyng Ptolomeus honour encreased.

17 And Zabdiel the Arabian smote of Alexanders head, and sent it vnto Ptolome.

18 But the thyrde day after dyed kyng Ptolome hym selfe, and they whom he had set in the strong holdes, were slayne one of another.

19 And Demetrius raigned in the hundred threescore and seuenth yeere.

20 At the same tyme geathered Jonathas them that were in Jurie, to laye siege vnto the castle which was at Hierusalem, and so they made many instrumentes of warre agaynst it.

30 Then went there certayne vngodly persons, whiche hated their owne people, vnto kyng Demetrius, and tolde hym that Jonathas besieged the castle.

22 So when he hearde it, he was angrye, and immediately came vnto Ptolemais, and wrote vnto Jonathas, that he shoulde not not lay ſiege to the caſtle, but come & ſpeake with hym at Ptolemais in al haſt.

23 Neuertheleſſe, when Jonathas hearde this, he commaunded to beſiege it: he choſe alſo certayne of the elders and prieſtes of Iſrael, and put hym ſelfe in peryl, 24 And tooke with hym, golde, ſyluer, clothyng, and diuers preſentes, and went to Ptolemais vnto the kyng, and found him gratious.

25 And though certayne vngodly men of his owne people made complaintes vpon hym, 26 Yet the kyng intreated hym like as his predeceſſours had done before, and promoted hym in the ſyght of al his freendes, 27 Confyrmed hym in the high prieſthood, with al the worſhyp that he had afore, and made him his cheefe freende.

28 Jonathas alſo deſyred the king that he woulde make Jurie free, with the three head cities of Samaria, & the landes parteyning thereto: vpon this did Jonathas promiſe hym three hundred talentes.

29 Whereunto the kyng conſented, & gaue Jonathas writing of the ſame, conteyning theſe wordes, 30 Kyng Demetrius ſendeth greetyng vnto his brother Jonathas, and to the people of the Jewes.

31 We ſende you here a coppie of the letter which we dyd write vnto our coſin Laſthenus concernyng you, that ye ſhoulde knowe it.

32 Kyng Demetrius ſendeth greeting vnto Laſthenus his father.

33 For the faythfulneſſe that our freendes the people of the Jewes keepe vnto vs, and for the louyng kyndneſſe which they beare towarde vs, we are determined to doo them good.

34 Wherefore we aſſigne vnto the coaſtes of Judea the three gouernementes, Afferema, Lydda, and Ramatha, whiche are added vnto Jurie from Samaria, and al the landes parteyning thereunto, to be freely ſeparated for ſuche as doo ſacrifice in Hieruſalem, both concernyng the paymentes whiche the kyng tooke yeerely afore tyme, and the fruite alſo of the earth and trees:

35 As for other tythes and tributes that belonged vnto vs, we diſcharge them thereof from this tyme forth.

36 In like maner we graunt vnto them all the cuſtomes of ſalt, & crowne taxes, which were brought vnto vs: and this freedome ſhal they haue fyrme and ſtedfaſt from this tyme forth for euermore.

37 Therefore ſee that ye make a copie of theſe our letters, and deliuer it vnto Jonathas, that it may be ſet vppon the holy mount in a conuenient place.

38 After this, when Demetrius the kyng ſawe that his lande was in reſt, and that no reſiſtance was made againſt hym, he ſent away al his hoſt, euery man to his owne place, except certayne bandes of ſtrangers, whom he brought from the Iles of the heathen: wherefore all his fathers hoſt hated hym.

39 Nowe was there one Tryphon, that had been of Alexanders part afore, whiche when he ſawe that all the hoſt murmured againſt Demetrius, he went to Simalcue the Arabian, that brought vp Antiochus the ſonne of Alexander, 40 And lay ſore vpon hym to deliuer hym this young Antiochus, that he might raigne in his fathers ſteede: he tolde hym alſo what great euyl Demetrius had done, and howe his men of warre loued him not: and ſo remayned there a long ſeaſon.

41 And Jonathas ſent vnto kyng Demetrius, to driue them out which were in the caſtle at Hieruſalem, and thoſe that were in the fortreſſes, for they dyd Iſrael great harme.

42 So Demetrius ſent worde vnto Jonathas, ſaying, I wyl not onely doo theſe thinges for thee and thy people: but at time conuenient, I wyl doo both thee and thy people great worſhyp.

43 But nowe thou ſhalt doo me a pleaſure, if thou wylt ſende me men to helpe me: for al my armie is gone from me.

44 So Jonathas ſent hym three thouſande ſtrong men vnto Antioche, and they came vnto the kyng, wherefore the king was very glad at their comming.

45 But they that were of the citie, euen an hundred and twentie thouſande men, gathered them together in the middeſt of the citie, and woulde haue ſlaine the king:

46 Whiche fled into his court, and the citizens kept the ſtreetes of the citie, and began to fyght.

47 Then the kyng called for the Jewes helpe, whiche came vnto hym altogether, and went abrode through the citie, 48 And ſlue the ſame day an hundred thouſand men, ſet fyre vpon the citie, and gate many ſpoyles in that day, and deliuered the king.

49 So when the citizens ſawe that the Jewes had gotten their will of the citie, and they themſelues diſappoynted of their purpoſe, they made their ſupplication vnto the king, ſaying, 50 Graunt vs peace, and let the Jewes ceaſſe from troublyng vs and the citie.

51 And vpon this they cast away their weapons: thus they made peace, & the Iewes gate great worshyp in the sight of the king, and in the sight of al that were in his realme, and were spoken of throughout the kyngdome: and so they came agayne to Hierusalem with great goodes.

52 So the kyng Demetrius sate in the throne of his kyngdome, and had peace in his lande.

53 Neuertheless, he dissembled in all that euer he spake, and withdrewe him selfe from Ionathas, neyther rewarded hym accordyng to the benefites whiche he had doone for hym, but troubled hym very sore.

54 After this came Tryphon agayne with young Antiochus, which raigned, & was crowned kyng.

55 Then there geathered vnto him all the men of warre, whom Demetrius had put away, these fought agaynst Demetrius: which fled, and turned his backe.

56 So Tryphon tooke the Elephantes, and wanne Antioche,

57 And young Antiochus wrote vnto Ionathas, saying, I confyrme thee in thy priesthood, & make thee ruler ouer foure countreyes, that thou mayest be a freende of the kynges.

58 Upon this he sent hym golden vesselles to be serued in, & gaue hym leaue to drynke in golde, to be clothed in purple, and to weare a coller of golde.

59 He made his brother Simon also captayne from the coastes of Tyrus, vnto the borders of Egypt.

60 Then Ionathas tooke his iourney, and went through the cities beyonde the water of Iordane, and all the men of warre of Syria geathered them vnto hym for to helpe hym: so he came vnto Ascalon, and they of the citie receyued hym honourablie.

61 And from thence went he to Gaza, but they woulde not let hym in: wherefore he layde siege vnto it, burnyng vp and spoyling the places that were about the citie.

62 And the citizens of Gaza submitted them selues vnto Ionathas, which made peace with them: but tooke of theyr sonnes to pledge, sent them to Hierusalem, and went through the countery vnto Damascus.

63 Nowe when Ionathas heard that Demetrius princes were come into Cades, which is in Galilee, with a great host, purposing to dryue him out of the countrey.

64 He came agaynst them, and left Simon his brother in the lande.

65 And Simon came to Bethsura, and layde siege to it a long season, and discomfited them.

66 So they desyred to haue peace with him: which he graunted them, and afterwarde put them out from thence, tooke the citie, and set men to keepe it.

67 And Ionathas with his host came to the water of Genesar, and betymes in the morwyng gate them to the playne feelde of Azor:

68 And beholde, the hostes of the heathen met them in the feelde, and layde watch for them in the mountaynes,

69 So that when Ionathas came agaynst them, the other which were layd to watch, rose out of theyr places, and fought,

70 And they that were of Ionathas side fled euery man, and there was not one of them left, except Mathathias the sonne of Absalomus, and Judas the sonne of Calphi the captayne of the host.

71 Then Ionathas rent his clothes, layde earth vppon his head, [a] made his prayer, [a. Beholde the effect of prayer.]

72 And turned agayne to them in the feeld, where they fought togeather, and put them to flight.

73 Nowe when his owne men that were fled, sawe this, they turned agayne vnto hym, and helped hym to folowe vppon all their enimies vnto theyr tentes at Cades, and there they camped.

74 So there were slayne of the heathen the same day three thousande men, and Ionathas turned agayne to Hierusalem.

¶ The. xii. Chapter.

1. Ionathas sendeth ambassadours to Rome. 2. and to the people of Sparta, to renue theyr couenant of freendshyp. 20. Ionathas putteth to flight the princes of Demetrius, 40. Tryphon taketh Ionathas by deceyte.

1 IOnathas seeing that the time was meete for hym, chose certayne men, and sent them to Rome, for to stablishe and to renue the freendshyp with them:

2 He sent letters also vnto Sparta, and to other places in lyke maner.

3 So they went vnto Rome, and entred into the "counsel, and sayde, Ionathas the hygh priest, and the people of the Iewes, sent vs vnto you, for to renue the old freendshyp and bonde of loue. "Or, senate.

4 Upon this the Romanes gaue them free passportes, that men shoulde leade them home into the lande of Juda peaceablie.

5 And

5 And this is the copie of the letters that Jonathas wrote vnto the Spartians,
6 Jonathas the hygh priest, with the elders, priestes, and the other people of the Iewes, send greetyng vnto the Spartians their brethren.
7 There were letters sent long agoe vnto Onias the high priest, from *Arius which raigned then among you, that ye are our brethren, as the copie here vnder written dooth specifie.
8 And Onias entreated the Ambassadour that was sent honourably, and receiued the letters, wherin there was mention made of the bonde of loue and freendshipp.
9 But as for vs, we neede no suche writinges, for why? we haue the holy bookes of scripture in our handes to our comfort:
10 Neuertheleſſe we had rather sende vnto you for the renuyng of the brotherhood and freendshyp, lest we should be strange vnto you: for it is long since the tyme that ye sent woorde vnto vs.
11 Wherefore in the sacrifices that we offer, and other ceremonies vpō the high solemne dayes, and other, we alway remember you without ceasling, lyke as reason is, and as it becommeth vs to thynke vpon our brethren, 12 Yea, and are ryght glad of your prosperous honour.
13 And though we haue had great troubles and warres, so that the kinges about vs haue fought agaynst vs:
14 Yet would we not be greeuous vnto you, nor to other of our louers and freends in these warres.
15 For we had helpe from heauen that hath succoured vs, so that we are delyuered, and our enimies subdued.
16 Wherefore we chose Numenius the sonne of Antiochus, & Antipater the sonne of Jason, and sent them vnto the Romaines for to renue the old *bond of frendshyp and loue with them.
17 We commaunded them also to come vnto you, to salute you, and to deliuer you our letters concernyng the renouation of our brotherhood.
18 And nowe ye shall doo ryght wel to geue vs an answere thereunto.
19 And this is the copie of the writyng whiche Arius the kyng of Sparta sent vnto Onias.
20 Arius the king of the Spartians, sendeth greetyng vnto Onias the high priest:
21 It is founde in writyng, that the Spartians and Iewes are brethren, and come out of the generation of Abraham:
22 And now for so muche as this is come to our knowledge, ye shal doo well to write vnto vs of your prosperitie.
23 As for vs, we haue written our minde vnto you, our cattel and goods are yours, & yours, ours: these thynges haue we commaunded to be shewed vnto you.
24 When Jonathas heard that Demetrius princes were come foorth to fight against hym with a greater hoast then afore, 25 He went from Hierusalem, & met them in the lande of Hemath: for he gaue them no space to come into his owne countrey.
26 And he sent spies vnto their tentes, whiche came againe and told hym that they were appointed to come vppon hym in the nyght season.
27 Wherefore when the sunne was gone downe, Jonathas commaunded his men to watche all the nyght, and to be redy with weapons for to fyght, and set watchemen rounde about the hoast.
28 But when the aduersaries heard that Jonathas was redy with his men to the battayle, they feared, & were afrayd in their hartes, and kyndled fires in their tentes, brake vp, and gate them away.
29 Neuertheleſſe, Jonathas and his compayny knewe it not tyll the morning, for they sawe the fyres burnyng.
30 Then Jonathas followed vpon them, but he myght not ouertake them, for they were gone ouer the water Eleutherus.
31 So Jonathas departed vnto the Arabians, which were called Zabadei, slue them, and tooke their goodes.
32 He proceeded further also, and came vnto Damascus, and went through all the countrey.
33 But Simon his brother tooke his iourney, and came to Ascalon, and to the next strong holdes, departing vnto Joppa, and wanne it, 34 (For he heard that they would deliuer the holde to them that tooke Demetrius part,) wherefore he set men of warre in the citie to keepe it.
35 After this came Jonathas home agayne, and called the elders of the people togeather, and deuised with them for to buylde vp the strong holdes in Jurie, 36 And to make the walles of Hierusalem hygher, to set vp an hygh wal betwixt the castle and the citie, for to separate it from the citie, that it might be alone, and that men should neyther buye nor sell in it.
37 Vpon this they came togeather for to buylde vp the citie, and for so muche as the wall vppon the brooke of the east syde, called Caphetetath, was fallen downe, they repayred it.

38 And

*Or, Darius.
*Or, league.

38 And Simon set vp Adiada in Sephela, and made it strong, setting portes and locks vpon it.

39 Nowe when Tryphon purposed to raigne in Asia, to be crowned, and to slay the kyng Antiochus:

40 He was afraid that Jonathas would not suffer hym, but fyght agaynst hym, wherefore he went about to take Jonathas, and to kyll hym: so he departed, and came vnto Bethsan.

41 Then went Jonathas foorth against hym to the battayle, with fourtie thousande chosen men, & came vnto Bethsan also:

42 But when Tryphon sawe that Jonathas came with so great an hoast to destroye hym, he was afrayde:

43 And therefore he receyued hym honourably, commended hym vnto al his freendes, and gaue him rewardes, and commaunded his men of warre to be as obedient vnto hym, as to hymselfe:

44 And sayde vnto Jonathas, Why hast thou caused this people to take suche trauayle, seeyng there is no warre betwixt vs?

45 Therefore sende them home againe, and choose certayne men to waite vpon thee, and come thou with me to Ptolemais, for I wyl geue it thee, with the other strong holdes, men of warre, and their officers, as for me, I must depart, this is only the cause of my commyng.

46 Jonathas beleeued hym, and dyd as he sayde, puttyng away his hoast, whiche went into the lande of Juda.

47 He kept but three thousande by him, whereof he sent two thousande into Galilee, and one thousande went with hym selfe.

48 Nowe as soone as Jonathas entred into Ptolemais, the citizens sparred the gates of the citie, and tooke hym, and slue all them with the swoorde that came in with hym.

49 Then sent Tryphon an hoast of footemen and horsemen into Galilee, and into the great playne fielde, to destroy al Jonathas companie:

50 But when they knewe that Jonathas was taken, and al they slayne that waited vpon hym, they tooke counsel together, and encouraged one another, and came foorth agaynst them redy to fyght.

51 So when they whiche folowed vpon them, sawe that it was a matter of lyfe, they turned backe agayne.

52 As for the other, they went into the land of Juda peaceably, and bewayled Jonathas and them that were with hym ryght sore: and Israel made great lamentation.

53 Then al the heathen that were rounde about them, sought to destroy them.

54 For they sayde, Nowe haue they no captayne, nor any man to helpe them, therefore let vs ouercome them, and roote out their name from among them.

¶ The.xiii. Chapter.

1. After Ionathas was taken, Simon is chosen captayne. 17. Of whom Tryphon taking his chyldren and money for the redemption of Ionathas, killeth hym and his chyldren.

1 NOWE when Simon hearde that Tryphon geathered a great hoast to come into the lande of Juda, and to destroy it,

2 And sawe that the people was in great fearefulnesse and care: he came vp to Hierusalem, & geathered the people togeather.

3 And gaue them exhortation, saying, Ye knowe what great battayles I and my brethren, and my fathers house, haue fought for the lawe and the sanctuarie, and what maner of troubles we haue seene.

4 Through occasion wherof, al my brethren are slayne for Israels sake, and I am left alone.

5 And nowe let me not spare myne owne lyfe in any maner of trouble, for I am no better then my brethren:

6 But wyll auenge my people, and the sanctuarie, our chyldren, and our wyues: for all the heathen are geathered togeather to destroy vs of very malice.

7 At these woordes the hartes of the people were kyndeled togeather,

8 So that they cryed with a loud voyce, saying, Thou shalt be our captayne in steade of Judas and Jonathas thy brethren:

9 Order thou our battayle, and whatsoeuer thou commaundest vs, we shal doo it.

10 So he geathered al the men of warre, makyng haste to finishe all the walles of Hierusalem, whiche he made strong rounde about.

11 Then sent he Jonathas the sonne of Absolomus, with a freshe hoast vnto Joppa, whiche droue them out that were in the castle, and remayned there hym selfe.

12 Tryphon also remooued from Ptolemais with a great armie, to come vnto the lande of Juda, and Jonathas with hym in warde.

13 And Simon pytched his tentes at "Addus, before the playne feelde. "Or, Addida.

14 But when Tryphon knewe that Simon stoode vp in steade of his brother Jonathas, nathas, and that he would warre agaynst hym, he sent messengers vnto hym, saying, 15 Whereas we haue kept Jonathas thy brother, it is for money that he is owyng in the kynges accompt, concernyng the busynesse that he had in hand.

16 Wherefore, sende nowe an hundred talentes of syluer, and his two sonnes for suretie (that when he is letten foorth, he shall not forsake vs) & we shal send him againe.
17 Neuertheless, Simon knewe that he dissembled in his woords: yet commaunded he the money and chyldren to be deliuered vnto hym, lest the Israelites might haue hated him, 18 And saide, Because he sent him not the money and the chyldren, therefore is Jonathas dead.
19 So Simon sent hym the chyldren, and an hundred talentes, but he dissembled, and would not let Jonathas goe.
20 Afterward came Tryphon into the land to destroy it, and went round about by the way that leadeth vnto Ador: but whersoeuer they went, thyther went Simon and his host also.
21 Nowe they that were in the castle, sent messengers vnto Tryphon, that he shoulde make haste to come by the wyldernesse, and to send them victuals.
22 And Tryphon made redy all his horsemen to come the same nyght: neuertheless, it was a very great snowe, so that he came not because of the snowe, but he remoued and went into the countrey of Galaad.
23 And when he drue nygh Bascama, he slue Jonathas and his sonnes there, 24 And then turned for to goe home into his owne land.
25 Then sent Simon for to fetche his brothers dead coarse, and buried it in Modin his fathers citie.
26 So all Israel bewayled hym with great lamentation, and mourned for hym very long.
27 And Simon made vpon the sepulchre of his father, and his brethren, a buylding, hygh to looke vnto, of free stone, behind and before,
28 And set vp seuen pillers vpon it, one agaynst an other, for his father, his mother, and foure brethren,
29 And set great pillers round about them, with armes vpon them, for a perpetual memorie, and carued shipps beside the armes, that they myght be seene of men saylyng in the sea.
30 This sepulchre whiche he made at Modin, standeth yet vnto this day.
31 Now as Tryphon went forth to walke

Ioseph Cap. 10. li. 13.

with the young kyng Antiochus, he slue hym trayterously, 32 And raigned in his steade, crowned hym selfe kyng of Asia, and dyd much euil in the land.
33 Simon also built vp the castles in Iurie, makyng them strong, with hygh towres, great walles, portes, and lockes, and layde vp victuals in the strong holdes.
34 And Simon chose certaine men, and sent them to kyng Demetrius, to desyre hym that he would discharge the lande from all bondage, for Tryphon had spoyled it very sore.
35 Wherevpon Demetrius the kyng answered hym, and wrote vnto him after this maner, 36 Demetrius the kyng sendeth greetyng vnto Simon the hygh priest his frend, with the elders and people of the Iewes:
37 The golden crowne and precious stone that ye sent vnto vs, haue we receiued, and are redy to make a stedfast peace with you, yea, and to write vnto our officers for to release you concernyng the thynges wherein we made you free.
38 And the appoyntment that we make with you, shalbe firme & stable: the strong holdes which ye haue builded, shalbe your owne.
39 As for any ouersight or fault committed vnto this day, we forgeue it, & the crowne taxe that ye ought vs also: and where as was any other tribute in Hierusalem, it shall nowe be no tribute.
40 And looke who are meete among you to be in our court, let hym be written vp, that there may be peace betwixt vs.
41 Thus the yoke of the heathen was taken from Israel, in the hundred & seuentieth yeere.
42 And the people of the Iewes began to write in theyr letters and actes on this maner, In the first yeere of Simon the hygh priest, a gouernour and prince of ỹ Iewes.
43 In those dayes went Simon vnto Gaza, and besieged it round about, where he set vp ordinance of warre, and wan a towre, which he tooke.
44 So they that gate into the towre, leapt into the citie; whiche was in a great feare:
45 In so muche that the people of the citie rent their clothes, and clymed vp vpon the walles, with their wyues & children, beseeching Simon to be at one with thē, saying,
46 Deale not after our wickednesse, but be gracious vnto vs, and we shall doo thee seruice.
47 Then Simon for very pitie would fyght

fyght no more agaynst them, but put them out of the citie, & cauſed the houſes, wherein the images were, to be cleanſed, and ſo entred the citie with pſalmes of prayſe, geuing thankes vnto the Lorde.

48 So when he had caſt all abominations out af the citie, he ſet ſuche men in it as kept the lawe of God, and made the citie ſtrong, and buylded a dwellyng place for him ſelfe.

49 Nowe when they in the caſtle at Hieruſalem were kept ſo ſtraytely that they could not come foorth, nor goe into the countrey, and myght neyther buye nor ſell, they were very hungry, and many of them famiſhed to death:

50 In ſo much, that they beſought Simon to be at one with them, which he graunted them: ſo he put them out from thence, and cleanſed the caſtle from fylthynelle.

51 And vppon the twentie and three day of the ſecond moneth, in the hundred threeſcore and eleuenth yeere, they entred into it with thankes geuing, and branches of Palme trees, with Harpes, Croudes, Cymbales, and Lutes, ſynging pſalmes and ſongues of prayſe vnto God, for that the great enimie of Iſrael was ouercome.

52 And Simon ordeyned that the ſame day ſhould be kept euery yeere with gladneſſe.

53 And made ſtrong the hyll of the temple that was beſide the caſtle, where he dwelt hym ſelfe with his companie.

54 Simon alſo perceiuing that John his ſonne was a mighty man of armes, made him captayne of all the hoſtes, and cauſed him to dwell at [a] Gaza.

[a] Or, Gazara.

¶ The xiii. Chapter.

1, Demetrius is ouercome of Arſaces. 12. Simon beyng captayne, there is great quietneſſe in Iſrael. 18. The conenant of frendſhip with the Romanes, and with the people of Sparta renued.

1 IN the hundred threeſcore & twelfth yeere, geathered king Demetrius his hoſt, & departed vnto Media, to get him helpe for to fyght agaynſt Tryphon.

2 Nowe when Arſaces the kyng of Perſia and Media, heard that Demetrius was entred within his borders, he ſent one of his princes to take hym alyue, and to bryng hym vnto hym.

3 So he went and ſlue Demetrius hoſt, tooke hym ſelfe, brought hym to Arſaces, whiche kept him in warde.

4 And all the lande of Juda was in reſt ſo long as Simon lyued, for he ſought the wealth of his people, therefore were they glad to haue hym for their ruler, and to doo him worſhip alway.

5 Simon wanne the citie of Joppa alſo for an hauen towne, and made it an entrance into the Iles of the ſea.

6 He enlarged the borders of his people, and conquered them more land:

7 He geathered vp many of their people that were priſoners, he had the dominion of Gaza, Bethſura, and the caſtle which he cleanſed from fylthynelle, and there was no man that reſiſted him.

8 So that euery man tylled his grounde in peace, the land of Juda, and the trees gaue their fruite and encreaſe.

9 The elders ſate all in iudgement, & tooke their deuice for the wealth of the lande, the young men put on worſhip and harneſſe vpon them.

10 He prouided victuals for the cities, and made goodly ſtrong holdes of them, ſo that the fame of his worſhip was ſpoken of vnto the ende of the world.

11 For he made peace throughout the lande, and Iſrael was full of myrth and ioy.

12 Euery man ſate vnder his Vine & Figge trees, and there was no man to fray them away.

13 There was none in the lande to fyght agaynſt them, for then the kynges were ouercome.

14 He helped thoſe that were in aduerſitie among his people, he was diligent to ſee the lawe kept: as for ſuche as were vngodly and wicked, he tooke them away.

15 He ſet vp the ſanctuarie, and encreaſed the holy veſſels of the temple.

16 When the Romanes and Spartians had gotten woorde that Jonathas was dead, they were right ſory:

17 But when they heard that Simon his brother was made hygh prieſt in his ſtede, and howe he had wonne the lande agayne, with the cities in it:

18 They wrote vnto him in tables of braſſe, to renue the frendſhip and bond of loue, whiche they had made afore with Judas and Jonathas his brethren.

19 Whiche writynges were read before the congregatiõ at Hieruſalem. And this is the copie of the letters that the Spartians ſent.

20 The Senatours and Citizens of Sparta, ſende greeting vnto Simon the greate prieſt, with the elders, prieſtes, and ỹ other people of the Iewes their brethren:

21 When your Ambaſſadours, that were ſent vnto our people, certified vs of your worſhip, honour, and proſperous wealth,

we were glad of theyr comming,

22 And haue written the embassage in the publique recordes in this maner: namely that Numenius the sonne of Antiochus, & Antipater the sonne of Jason, the Jewes ambassadours, are come vnto vs for to renue the olde freendshyp with vs.

23 Vpon this, the people consented that the men should be honourably entreated, & that the copie of theyr embassage should be written in the special bookes of the people, for a perpetuall memoriall vnto the Spartians: Yea, and that we shoulde sende a copie of the same vnto Simon the great priest.

24 After this dyd Simon sende Numenius vnto Rome with a golden shielde of a thousande pounde weight, to confirme the freendshyp with them.

25 Whiche when the Romaines vnderstoode, they sayde, What thankes shall we recompence agayne vnto Simon and his chyldren?

26 For he and his brethren, and the house of his father, hath stablished Israel, and ouercommed their enemies, wherefore they graunted hym to be free, and confirmed the libertie therof: therefore they wrote this in tables of brasse, and set it vpon pillers in mount Sion.

27 The copie of the writing is this, The eyghteenth day of the moneth Elul, in the hundred three score and twelfth yeere, in the thyrde yeere of Simon the high priest,

28 In the great congregation of the priestes, rulers of the people, and elders of the countrey at "Saramel, were these wordes openly declared:

29 For so muche as there was muche warre in our lande, therefore Simon the sonne of Mathathias, come of the children of Jarib, & his brethren, put them selues in peryll, and resisted the enimies of theyr people, that theyr sanctuarie and lawe myght be mayntayned, and dyd theyr people great worshyp.

30 Jonathas in lyke maner, after that he had gouerned his people, and been theyr high priest, dyed, and lyeth buryed beside his elders.

31 After that would theyr enemies haue troden theyr holy things vnder foote, destroyed theyr lande, and vtterly wasted theyr sanctuarie.

32 Then Simon withstoode them, and fought for his people, spent muche of his owne money, weaponed the valiant men of his people, gaue them wages, 33 Made strong the cities of Juda, with Bethsura that lieth vpon the borders of Jurie, where the ordinance of theyr enimies lay sometyme, and set Jewes there for to keepe it.

34 He made fast Joppa also, which lieth vpon the sea, and Gaza" that bordereth vpon Azotus, where the enimies dwelt afore, & there he set Jewes to keepe it: and what soeuer was meete for the subduing of the aduersaries, that layed he therein.

" Or, Gaseris.

35 Nowe when the people sawe the noble actes of Simon, and what worshyp he purposed to do for them, his godly behauiour and faithfulnesse which he kept vnto them, and how he sought by al wayes the wealth of his people, because he did al this, therefore they chose hym to be theyr prince and hygh priest.

36 And in his tyme they prospered well by hym, so that the heathen were taken out of theyr lande, and they also which were in the citie of Dauid at Hierusalem in the castle, where they went out, and defyled al things that were about the sanctuarie, and dyd great harme vnto cleanlynesse:

37 And Simon put men of the Jewes in it, for the defence of the lande and citie, and set vp the walles of Hierusalem.

38 And king Demetrius confirmed him in his high priesthood.

39 For these causes, made hym his frende, and dyd hym great worshyp:

40 For he heard that the Romanes called the Jewes theyr freendes, louers, and brethren: howe honourably they receyued Simons ambassadours:

41 Howe the Jewes and priestes consented that he shoulde be theyr prince and hygh priest perpetually, tyll God raysed vp the true prophete:

42 And that he shoulde be theyr captayne to care for the sanctuarie, and to set officers vppon the workes thereof, ouer the lande, ouer the weapons, ouer the houses of defence, to make prouisiõ for the holy thynges:

43 And to be obeyed of euery man, and all the writynges of the lande to be made in his name, that he shoulde be clothed in purple and golde:

44 And that it shoulde be lawfull for none of the people nor priestes to breake any of these thynges, to withstande his wordes, nor to call any congregation in the lande without hym: that he should be clothed in purple, and weare a coller of golde.

45 And yf there were any whiche disobeyed or brake this ordinance, that he shoulde be punished.

46 So all the people consented to allow Simon, and to doo accordyng to these wordes:

47 Simon

47 Simon also him selfe tooke it vppon him, and was content to be the hygh priest, the captayne and prince of the Iewes and priestes, and to gouerne them al.

48 And they commaunded to make this writyng in tables of brasse, and fasten it vnto the wall that compasseth the sanctuarie, in an open place:

49 And to lay vp a copie of the same in the treasurie, that Simon and his posteritie myght haue it.

¶ The. xv. Chapter.

The Romaines wrote letters vnto kinges and nations in the defence of the Iewes.

1 MOreouer kyng Antiochus the sonne of Demetrius, sent letters from the Iles of the sea, vnto Simon the hygh priest and prince of the Iewes, and to al the people,

2 Concernyng these woordes, Antiochus the kyng sendeth greetyng vnto Simon the hygh priest, and to the people of the Iewes.

3 For so much as certaine wicked men haue gotten the kyngdome of our progenitours, I haue purposed to chalenge the Realme agayne, & to restore it to the olde state: Wherfore I haue geathered a great hoast, and made shippes of warre,

4 That I may goe through the countrey, and be auenged of them whiche haue destroyed our lande, and wasted many cities in my realme.

5 And therefore nowe I make thee free also from al the tributes whereof al kynges my progenitours haue discharged thee, and from other customes wherefrom they haue released thee, whatsoeuer they be.

6 Yea, I geue thee leaue to smite money of thyne owne within thy lande.

7 As for Hierusalem, I wyl that it be holy and free, and al the weapons and houses of defence which thou hast buylded, and kepest in thyne handes, shalbe thyne:

8 Where as any thyng is or shalbe owing vnto the king, I forgeeue it thee, from this tyme foorth, for euermore.

9 And when we haue obteyned our kyngdome, we shall doo thee, thy people, and the temple great worshyp: so that your honour shalbe knowen throughout the whole worlde.

10 In the hundred threescore and fourteenth yeere, went Antiochus into his fathers land, and all the men of warre came togeather vnto hym, so that fewe were left with Tryphon.

11 So the kyng Antiochus followed vpon hym, but he fledde vnto Dora, whiche lyeth by the sea side:

12 For he saw that there was mischiefe comming vnto hym, and that his hoast hadde forsaken hym.

13 Then came Antiochus vnto Dora, with an hundred and twentie thousand men of armes on foote, and eyght thousande horsemen: so he compassed the citie round about, and the shyppes came by the sea.

14 Thus they vexed the citie by lande and by water, in so muche that they suffered no man to goe in nor out.

15 In the meane season came Numenius, and they that had been with hym, from the citie of Rome, hauing letters written vnto the kinges and prouinces, wherein were conteyned these woordes, 16 Lucius the consul of Rome, sendeth greetyng vnto Ptolome the kyng.

17 The ambassadours of the Iewes our freendes, beyng sent from Simon the high priest, and from the people of the Iewes, came vnto vs for to renue the old freendship and bonde of loue, 18 Brought a shielde of golde, weighing a thousande pounde.

19 Wherefore we thought it good to write vnto the kynges and prouinces to doo them no harme, nor to take part agaynst them, theyr cities, nor countries, neyther to mainteyne theyr enimies agaynst them.

20 And we were content to receyue of them the shielde.

21 If there be any wicked persons therfore fled from theyr countrey, vnto you, deliuer them vnto Simon the hygh priest, that he may punishe them accordyng to theyr owne lawe.

22 The same woordes wrote the Romanes also vnto Demetrius the kyng, to Attalus, Araba, Arsaces, 23 And to al regions: as Samsames, to them of Spartia, "Delo, "Mydo, Sicyon. Caria, Samos, Pamphylia, Lycia, Alicarnassem, and to the Rhodes, to Facelidis, Coo, Sida, Arado, Cortina, Gnidum, to Cypres, and Cyrene.

"Or, Delus.
"Or, Mydus.

24 And of euery letter they sent a copie to Simon the hygh priest.

25 So Antiochus the kyng brought his hoast vnto Dora the seconde tyme, to take it, where he made diuers ordinances of warre, & kept Tryphon, in that he shoulde not goe eyther in or out.

26 Then sent Simon vnto Antiochus two thousand chosen men, to helpe hym, with golde, syluer, and other plenteous thynges.

27 Neuerthelesse he woulde not receiue them, them, but brake all the couenaunt whiche he made with Simon afore, and withdrew him selfe from him.

28 He sent Athenobius also a freende of his vnto Simon, for to reason with him, saying, Ye withhold from me Ioppa and Gaza, with the castle that is at Hierusalem, which are cities of my Realme:

29 Whose borders ye haue destroyed, and done great euyll in the land, hauyng the dominion in many other places of my kyngdome:

30 Wherfore, deliuer now the cities which ye haue taken, with the tributes of the places that ye haue rule vpon without the borders of Iurie:

31 Or els geue me fyue hundred talentes of siluer, yea and for the harme that ye haue done in the cities, and for the tributes of the same, other fyue hundred talentes: yf no, we shal come and fight agaynst you.

32 So Athenobius the kynges freend came to Hierusalem, and when he sawe the great worshipp and honor of Simon, in gold, syluer, and so great plentie of ornamentes, he marueyled: and tolde Simon as the kyng commaunded hym.

33 Then answered Simon, and sayde vnto hym, As for vs, we haue neyther taken other mens landes, nor withholden them: but only our fathers heritage, whiche our enimies had vnryghteously in possession a certayne tyme.

34 This heritage of our fathers haue we chalenged in processe of tyme.

35 And whereas thou complaynest concernyng Ioppa & Gaza, they dyd great harme to our people, and in our lande, yet wyl we geue an hundred talentes for them. Neuertheless, Athenobius answered hym not one worde:

36 But turned agayne wrathfully vnto the kyng, and tolde him all these wordes, and the great dignitie of Simon, with all that he had seene: and the kyng was very angry.

37 And in the meane tyme fledde Tryphon by ship vnto Dorthoias.

38 Then the kyng made Cendebeus captayne of the sea coast, and gaue hym an host of footemen and horsemen, 39 Commaunding him to remoue the host toward Iurie, and to build vp the citie of Cedron, to make vp the portes, & to warre agaynst the people of the Iewes: as for the king him selfe, he folowed vpon Tryphon.

40 So Cendebeus came vnto Iamnia, and began to vexe the people, to treade downe Iurie, to take the people prisoners, to slay them.

41 And to builde vp Cedron: where he set horsemen, & other men of warre, that they might come forth, and goe through the streetes of Iurie, like as the kyng had commaunded hym.

¶ The .xvi. Chapter.

Cendebeus the captayne of Antiochus host, is put to flight of the sonnes of Simon.

1 THEN came vp Iohn from Gaza, and tolde Simon his father what Cendebeus had done among theyr people.

2 Vpon this called Simon two of his eldest sonnes, Iudas and Iohn, and sayd vnto them, I and my brethren, and my fathers house, haue euer from our youth vp vnto this day, foughten agaynst the enimies of Israel: and God gaue vs good fortune to deliuer Israel oftentimes.

3 And nowe, for as much as I am olde, and ye by Gods goodnesse are of a sufficient age, be ye in steade of me and my brother, to goe forth and fight for our people: and the helpe of God be with you.

4 So he chose twentie thousande fighting men of the countrey, with horsemen also, which went forth agaynst Cendebeus, and rested at Modin.

5 In the morning they arose, and went into the plaine feelde, and beholde, a mighty great host came agaynst them, both of footemen and horsemen: now was there a water brooke betwixt them.

6 And Iohn remoued the host toward them: and when he sawe that the people was afrayde to goe ouer the water brooke, he went ouer fyrst hym selfe: & the men seeing this, folowed hym.

7 Then Iohn set his horsemen and footemen in order, the one by the other: for theyr enimies horsemen were very many.

8 But when they blewe vp the * priestes Trumpettes, Cendebeus fledde with his host: wherof many were slayne, and the remnaunt gate them to their strong holdes. *or, bad.

9 Iudas also Iohns brother was wounded at the same time, and Iohn folowed styll vppon theyr enimies, tyll he came to Cedron, which Cendebeus had builded.

10 The enimies fledde also vnto the towres that were in the feeldes of Azotus, & those dyd Iohn burne vp with fyre: thus there were slayne two thousand men of them, and Iohn turned agayne peaceably into Iurie.

11 And in the feelde of Iericho was Ptolome lome the ſonne of Abobus made captayne: whiche becauſe he had abundance of ſyluer and golde,

12 (For he had married the daughter of Simon the hygh prieſt,) 13 Waxed proud in his minde, and thought to conquer the land, imagining falſhood agaynſt Simon and his ſonnes, to deſtroy them.

14 Nowe as Simon was going about thorowe the cities that were in the countrey of Iurie, and caring for them, he came downe to Iericho with Mathathias and Iudas his ſonnes, in the hundred, three ſcore and ſeuenteenth yeere, in the eleuenth moneth, called Sabat.

15 Then Ptolome ỳ ſonne of Abobus receyued them, but with deceite, into a ſtrong houſe of his, called Dochus, whiche he had buylded, where he made them a banket, and had hyd men there.

16 So when Simeon and his ſonnes were merry, and had dronken well, Ptolome ſtoode vp, with his men, whom he had hyd there, and tooke their weapons, entred into the banket houſe, and ſlue Simon with his two ſonnes, and certayne of his ſeruantes.

17 Such great vnfaythfulneſſe dyd Ptolome in Iſrael, & recompenced euil for good.

18 Then wrote Ptolome theſe thyngs, and ſent vnto king Antiochus, requiring him that he ſhoulde ſende him an hoſt to helpe hym: and ſo ſhould he deliuer him the land, with the cities and tributes of the ſame.

19 He ſent other men alſo vnto Gaza, for to take Iohn, and wrote vnto the captaynes to come to hym, and he ſhoulde geue them ſyluer, golde, and rewardes.

20 And to Hieruſalem he ſent other, to take it, and the ſanctuarie.

21 Then ranne there one before, and tolde Iohn in Gaza, that his father and his brethren were ſlayne, and how that Ptolome had ſent to ſlay him alſo.

22 When Iohn heard this, he was ſore abaſhed, and layd handes on them that were come to deſtroy him, and ſlue them: for he knewe that they went about to kyll hym.

23 As for other thynges concernyng Iohn, of his warres, of his noble actes, wherein he behaued hym ſelfe manfully, of the buyldyng of walles which he made, and other of his deedes, 24 They are written in the Chronicles of his prieſthood, from the tyme forth that he was made hygh prieſt after his father.

The end of the fyrſt booke of the Machabees.

The ſecond booke of the Machabees.

a. An Epiſtle of the Iewes that dwelt at Hieruſalem, ſent vnto them that dwelt in Egypt, wherein they exhort them to geue thankes for the death of Antiochus. 19. Of the fyre that was hyd in the pit. 24. The prayer of Nehemias.

1
The brethren of the Iewes whiche be at Hieruſalem, & in the land of Iurie, wyſhe vnto theſe brethren of ỳ Iewes that are throughout Egypt, health and peace.

2 God be gracious vnto you, and thinke vpon his couenant that he made with Abraham, Iſahac, and Iacob, his faythfull ſeruantes:

3 And geue you al ſuch an hart, that ye may loue and ſerue hym, yea, and perfourme his wyll with an whole hart, and a wyllyng minde:

4 He open your hartes vnto his lawe, and in his commaundementes, and ſende you peace,

5 Heare your prayers, be at one with you, and neuer forſake you in time of trouble.

6 For ſo muche as nowe we here be praying for you,

7 What tyme as Demetrius raigned, in the hundred three ſcore and nine yeere, we Iewes wrote vnto you in the trouble and violence that came vnto vs in thoſe yeeres, after that Iaſon departed out of the holy land and kingdome.

8 They brent vp the portes, and ſhed innocent blood: then made we our prayer vnto the Lorde, and were heard, we offered vp ſacrifices and fyne floure, and lighted the lampes, and ſet forth the bread.

9 *And nowe come ye vnto the feaſt of tabernacles, in the moneth *Caſleu.

10 In the hundred foureſcore and eyghteene yeere, the people that was at Hieruſalem, and in Iurie, the counſayle, and Iudas himſelfe, ſent this wholſome ſalutation vnto Ariſtobulus king Ptolomes maiſter, whiche came of the generation of the annoynted prieſtes, and to the Iewes that were in Egypt:

*Leui. 23. 24.
*Nouember.

11 Inſo-

11 Inſomuche as God hath deliuered vs from great perilles, we thanke him highly, no leſſe at al then yf we had vanquyſhed the kyng in battayle.

12 For when he, with thole that had fought againſt the holy citie, hyd ſet vpon Perſia:

13 For as he was in Perſia, namely, the captayne with the great hoaſt, he periſhed in the temple of Naneas, being deceyued thorowe the deuice of Naneas prieſtes.

14 For when Antiochus, as he that ſhoulde marrie with her, came, and his freendes with hym, into the place to receyue by name of dowry the money which the prieſts of Naneas had ſet foorth, 15 He entred with a ſmal companie into the compaſſe of the temple, and ſo they ſhut the temple.

16 Nowe when Antiochus entred by openyng the priuie entraunce of the temple, the prieſtes ſtoned the captaine to death, hewed them in peeces that were with hym, ſmote of their heades, and threwe them out.

17 In all thynges God be prayſed, whiche hath deliuered the wicked into our handes to be punished.

18 Wheras we are nowe purpoſed to keepe the purification of the temple vppon the twentie & fyfth day of the moneth Caſleu, we thought neceſſarie to certifie you thereof: that ye alſo myght kepe the tabernacles feaſt day, and the day of the fire, which was geuen vs when Nehemias offered, after that he had ſet vp the temple & the aulter.

19 For what tyme as our fathers were led away into Perſia, the prieſtes whiche then fought the honour of God, tooke the fire priuily from the aulter, and hyd it in a valley, where as was a deepe dyre pyt: and therein they kept it, ſo that the place was vnknowen to euery man.

2.Mal.10.2. 20 Nowe after many yeeres, when it pleaſed God that Nehemias ſhoulde be ſent from the kyng of Perſia, he ſent the children chyldren of thoſe prieſtes whiche had hid the fyre, to ſeeke it: and as they told vs, they founde no fyre, but thycke water.

21 Then commaunded he them to drawe it vp, and to bryng it hym, and the offeringes withall: Nowe when the ſacrifices were layd on, and ordered, Nehemias commaunded the prieſtes to ſprynkle them and the wood with water.

22 When this was doone, & the tyme come that the Sunne ſhone which afore was hyd in the cloude, there was a great fyre kyndeled, inſomuche that euery man marueyled.

23 Nowe all the prieſtes prayed whyle the ſacrifice was a makyng: Jonathas prayed firſt, and the other gaue anſweare.

24 And Nehemias prayer was after this maner, O Lord God, maker of all thinges, thou fearefull and ſtrong, thou ryghteous and merciful, thou that art only a gracious kyng,

25 Onely liberall, onely iuſt, almyghtie and euerlaſtyng, thou that deliuereſt Iſrael from all trouble, thou that haſt choſen the fathers, and halowed them fauourably:

26 Receyue the offeryng for thy whole people of Iſrael, preſerue thyne owne portion, and halowe it, 27 Geather thoſe together that are ſcattered abrode from vs, deliuer them that are vnder the heathens bondage, looke vppon them whiche are deſpyſed and abhorred: that the heathen may knowe and ſee howe that thou only art God, which art our god.

28 Punyſhe them that oppreſſe and proudly put vs to diſhonour.

29 Set thy people agayne in thyne holye place, lyke as *Moſes hath ſpoken. *Deu.30.5.

30 And the prieſts ſong plaimes of thankes geuyng, ſo long as the ſacrifice endured.

31 Nowe when the ſacrifice was brent, Nehemias commaunded the great ſtones to be ſprynkled with the reſidue of the water.

32 Whiche when it was doone, there was kyndeled a flame of them alſo: but it was conſumed through the lyght that ſhyned from the aulter.

33 So when this matter was knowen, it was tolde the kyng of Perſia, that in the place where the prieſtes whiche were led away, had hyd fire, there appeared water, and that Nehemias and his companie had purified the ſacrifices withall.

34 Then the kyng, conſyderyng and ponderyng the matter diligentlye, incloſed the place, and conſecrated a temple, to proue the thyng that was doone:

35 And when he found it ſo in deede, he gaue the prieſtes many gyftes, and diuers rewardes, yea, he toke them with his owne hand, and gaue them.

36 And Nehemias called the ſame place a Nephthar, whiche is as muche to ſay, as a cleanſing: but many men cal it Nephi.

a. Ephthar, which is to ſay, a ſhynyng: it is alſo called Nephi, or Nephthar, which is a cleanſing.

¶ The.ii.Chapter.

4. Howe Ieremie hyd the tabernacle, the arke, and the aulter in the hil. 21. Of the fiue bookes of Iaſon conteyned in one.

1 IT is found alſo in the * writynges of Ieremie the prophet, that he commaunded them whiche were carried away, to take fyre, as it is ſayde afore. *Iere. 29.8.

2 He commaunded them alſo that they ſhould not forgeat the lawe and commaundements of the Lord, and that they shoulde not erre in their mynds, when they see images of siluer & gold, with their ornamentes.

3 These and such other thynges commaunded he them, and exhorted them that they shoulde not let the lawe of God goe out of their hartes.

4 It is wrytten also, how the prophet at the commaundement of God, charged them to take the tabernacle & the arke with them: and he went forth vnto the mountayne where Moses clymed vp, and sawe the heritage of God.

*Deut.34.1. 5 *And when Jeremie came there, he found an open cane, wherein he layde the tabernacle, the arke, and the aulter of incense, and so stopped the doore.

6 There came certayne men togeather also, folowyng hym to marke the place, but they coulde not fynde it.

7 Whiche when Jeremie perceyued, he reprooued them, saying, As for that place it shalbe vnknowen, vntyll the tyme that God geather his people togeather agayne, and receyue them vnto mercy.

8 Then shal God shewe them these thyngs, and the maiestie of the Lorde shall appeare, and the cloude also, lyke as it was shewed vnto Moses: and lyke as when Solomon desired that the place might be honourably sanctified, and it was shewed hym.

*2.Reg.8.5. 9 For he beyng a wyse man, handeled honorably and wysely, * offeryng vnto God in the halowyng of the temple when it was finished.

*Luk.10.24 10 *And lyke as when Moses prayed vnto the Lorde, the fyre came downe from heauen, and consumed the burnt offryng: euen so prayed * Solomon also, and the fire came downe from heauen, & consumed the whole burnt offeryng.

*2.Thr.7.2.

*Leui.10.18 11 And Moses sayde, *Because the sinne offeryng was not eaten, therefore it is consumed.

12 In lyke maner Solomon kept the dedication or halowyng, eyght dayes.

* Some reade, Nehemias. 13 In the annotations and wrytynges of * Jeremie were these thynges put also: and howe he made a librarie, & howe he geathered out of all countreyes the bookes of the kynges, and of the prophets, and of Dauid, and the Epistles of the kynges concernyng the holy gyftes.

14 Euen so Judas also, looke what he learned by experience of warre, and suche thynges as hath happened vnto vs, he geathered them altogeather, and so we haue them by vs.

15 Yf ye nowe desyre to haue the same, sende some body to fetche them vnto you.

16 Whereas we then are about to celebrate the purification, we haue wrytte vnto you: therfore ye shal doo wel yf ye keepe the same dayes.

17 We hope also that the God whiche deliuered his people, and gaue them al the heritage, kingdome, priesthood, and sanctuarie, 18 * That he promised them in the law, shal shortly haue mercy vpon vs, and geather vs togeather from vnder the heauen into his holy place, for he hath saued vs from great perylles, and hath cleansed the place. *Deu.30.5.

19 As concernyng Judas Machabeus, and his brethren, the purification of the great temple, the dedication of the aulter:

20 Yea and of the warres that concerne noble Antiochus, and Eupator his sonne:

21 And the miracles shewed from heauen by the valeant actes of those whiche defended the Jewes religion, so that a few ranne through the whole countrey, and draue away the barbarous armies:

22 Repayred agayne the temple that was spoken of throughout al the worlde, deliuered the citie, dooing their best that the lawe of the Lorde which was put downe, might with all tranquilitie be restored agayne vnto the Lorde that was so mercyfull vnto them:

23 As touchyng Jason also of Cyrene, we haue vndertake compendiously to bringe into one booke the thynges that were comprehended of hym in fiue.

24 For we considering the multitude of the bookes, and how hard it should be for them that shoulde meddle with storyes and actes, and that because of so diuers matters:

25 Haue vndertaken so to comprehende the storyes, that suche as are disposed to reade, myght haue pleasure and pastyme therein, and that they whiche are diligent in suche thyngs, might the better thinke vpon them: yea and that whosoeuer reade them, myght haue profite thereby.

26 Neuertheles, we our selues that haue medled with this matter, for the shortenyng of it, haue taken no small labour, but great diligence, watchynges, and trauayle.

27 Lyke as they that make a feast, woulde doo other men pleasure: euen so we also for many mens sakes, are very well content to take the labour:

28 Whereas we may shortly comprehende the thynges that other men haue truely wrytten.

29 For he that buyldeth an house anewe, must prouide for many thyngs to the whole buyldyng: but he that paynteth it afterwarde, seeketh but onely that is comely, meete, and conuenient to garnish it withal.

30 Euen

30 Euen so doo we also in like maner: and why? he that beginneth first to write a storie, must with his vnderstanding geather the matter togeather, set his woordes in order, and diligently seeke out euery part.

31 But he that afterwarde wyl shorten it, vseth fewe woordes, and toucheth not the matter at the largest: let this be sufficient for a prologue.

32 Nowe wyl we begin to shewe the matter: for it is but a foolishe thyng to make a long prologue, and to be short in the storie it selfe.

¶ The.iii. Chapter.

1. Of the honour done vnto the temple by the kinges of the gentiles. 6. Simon vttereth what treasure is in the temple.

1 WHat tyme as the holy citie was inhabited in al peace and wealth, and when the lawes were yet very well kept: for so was it ordeyned through the godlinesse of Onias the high priest, & other godly men that were enimies to wickednesse,

2 It came thereto, that euen the kynges and princes them selues did the place great worshyp, and garnished the temple with great gyftes:

3 In so muche that Seleucus kyng of Asia, of his owne rentes bare all the costes belongyng to the seruice of the offerynges.

4 Then Simon, of the tribe of Beniamin, being ruler of the temple, vpon a variance rysen betweene hym and the high priest, for wyckednesse that was done in the citie,

5 For that he coulde not ouercome Onias, he gate him to Appollonius the sonne of Tharsia, which then was cheefe Lorde in Celosyria, and Phenices,

6 And tolde hym that the treasurie in Hierusalem was ful of immunerable money, and howe that the common goodes which belongeth not vnto the offerynges were exceeding great also: yea and howe it were possible that al these might come vnder the kynges power.

7 Nowe when Appollonius had shewed the kyng of the money, as it was tolde him: the kyng called for Heliodorus his treasurer, and sent him with a commaundement to bryng hym the same money.

8 Immediatly Heliodorus tooke his iourney, but vnder a colour as though he woulde goe through Celosyria and Phenices to visite the cities, but his purpose was to fulfyl the kynges pleasure.

9 So when he came to Hierusalem, & was louingly receyued of the high priest, into the citie, he tolde what was determined concerning the money, & shewed the cause of his commyng: he asked also if it were so in deede.

10 Then the high priest tolde hym, that there was suche money layde vp for the vpholdyng of wydowes and fatherlesse chyldren,

11 And howe that a certayne of it belonged vnto Hircanus the sonne of Tobias, a noble man, and that of al the money (and not as that wicked Simon had reported) there were foure hundred talentes of siluer, and two hundred of golde:

12 Yea and that it were impossible for those mens meaning to be deceiued, that had put assured confidence in the holinesse of the place, and in the maiestie and vndoubted saferie of the temple, which is had in worshyp throughout the whole worlde, for the maintenance and honour of the same.

13 Whereunto Heliodorus answeared, that the king had commaunded him in any wise to bryng hym the money.

14 So at the day appoynted, Heliodorus entred into the temple to order this matter: wherefore there was no smal feare throughout the whole citie.

15 The priestes fel downe before the aulter in their vestimentes, and called vnto heauen vpon him whiche had made a lawe concernyng stuffe geuen to keepe, that they should be safely preserued for suche as committed them vnto keepyng.

16 Then who so had looked the high priest in the face, it would haue greeued his harte for his countenance and the changyng of his colour, declared the inwarde sorowe of his mynde.

17 The man was al in heauinesse, and his body in feare: whereby they that looked vpon hym might perceyue the greefe of his hart.

18 The other people came also out of theyr houses by heapes vnto the common prayer, because the place was lyke to come into confusion.

19 The women came togeather through the streetes with heary clothes about theyr brestes: the virgins also that were kept in, ranne to Onias, some of them ranne to the gates, some vp vpon the walles, other some looked out at the wyndowes.

20 Yea they all helde vp theyr handes toward heauen, and prayed.

21 A miserable thyng was it to looke vpon the common people, and the high priest, being in suche trouble.

22 But they besought almightie God, that the goodes whiche were committed vnto them, might be kept whole for those that had deliuered them vnto their keeping.

23 Neuertheleſſe, the thyng that Heliodorus was determined to doo, that perfourmed he in the ſame place, he hym ſelfe perſonally beyng about the treaſurie with his men of warre.

24 But the ſpirite of almightie God ſhewed hym ſelfe openly, ſo that al they whiche preſumed to obey Heliodorus, fel through the power of God, into a great fearefulneſſe and dread.

25 For there appeared vnto them an horſe, with a terrible man ſitting vppon him, decke in goodly aray, and the horſe ſmote at Heliodorus with his forefeete: nowe he that ſate vppon the horſe had harneſſe of golde vpon hym.

26 Moreouer, there appeared two fayre and beautiful young men, of notable ſtrength, in goodly aray, which ſtoode by him, ſcourged him on both ſides, and gaue hym many ſtripes without ceaſſyng.

27 With that fel Heliodorus ſodenly vnto the grounde: ſo they tooke hym vp, beyng compaſſed about with great darkeneſſe, and bare him out vpon a beere.

28 Thus he that came with ſo many runners and men of warre into the ſayde treaſurie, was borne out, whereas no man might helpe hym, beyng deſtitute of harneſſe and weapons: and ſo the power of God was manifeſt and knowen.

29 He lay ſtyl dumbe alſo by the power of God, deſtitute of al hope and lyfe.

30 And they prayſed the Lorde, that he had ſhewed his power vpon his place and temple, which a litle afore was ful of feare and trouble, and that through the reuelation of the almightie Lorde it was fylled with ioy and gladneſſe.

31 Then certayne of Heliodorus freendes prayed Onias, that in al haſte he would call vppon God, to graunt hym his lyfe, which was geuyng vp the ghoſt.

32 So the hygh prieſt, fearing leſt the kyng ſhoulde ſuſpect that the Iewes had done Heliodorus ſome a euyl, he offered an offeryng for his health.

a. In woorkyng ſome trecherie or forſerie againſt him.

33 Nowe when the high prieſt had obteyned his petition, the ſame young men in the ſame clothing appeared, and ſtoode beſide Heliodorus, ſaying, Thanke Onias the high prieſt: for, for his ſake hath the Lorde graunted thee lyfe.

34 Therefore ſeeyng that God hath ſcourged thee, geue him prayſe and thankes, and ſhewe euery man his might and power. And when they had ſpoken theſe woordes, they appeared no more.

35 So Heliodorus offered vnto God, made great vowes vnto hym whiche had graunted hym his lyfe, thanked Onias, tooke his hoſt, and went agayne to the kyng.

36 Then teſtified he vnto euery man, of the great woorkes of God, that he had ſeene with his eyes.

37 And when the kyng aſked Heliodorus who were meete to be ſent yet once agayne to Hieruſalem, he ſayde, 38 If thou haſt any enimie or aduerſarie vnto thy realme, ſende hym thyther, and thou ſhalt haue him puniſhed, if he eſcape with his lyfe: for in that place no doubt there is a ſpecial power and woorking of God.

39 For he that dwelleth in heauen, viſiteth and defendeth that place, and al that come to doo it harme, he puniſheth, and plageth them.

40 This is nowe the matter concernyng Heliodorus, and the keepyng of the treaſurie at Hieruſalem.

¶ The.iii. Chapter.

1. Simon reporteth euyl of Onias. 7. Iaſon deſyryng the office of the hygh prieſt, corrupted the king vvith rewardes.

1 THis Simon nowe (of whom we ſpake afore) beyng a bewrayer of the money, and of his owne natural countrey, reported the woorſt of Onias, as though he had mooued Heliodorus vnto this, and as though he had ben a brynger vp of euyl.

2 Thus was he not aſhamed to call him an enimie of the realme, that was ſo faythfull an ouerſeer and defender of the citie and of his people, yea and ſo feruent in the lawe of God.

3 But when the malice of Simon increaſed ſo farre, that through his freendes there were certayne manſlaughters committed:

4 Onias conſydered the peryl that might come through this ſtrife, and howe that Appollonius the cheefe Lorde in Celoſyria and Phenices was al ſet vpon tyrannie, and Simons malice increaſed the ſame,

5 He gate hym to the kyng, not as an accuſer of the citizens, but as one that by hym ſelfe intended the common wealth of the whole multitude:

6 For he ſawe it was not poſſible to lyue in peace, neyther Simon to leaue of from his fooliſhneſſe, except the kyng did looke thereto.

7 But after the death of Seleucus, when Antiochus, which is called the noble, tooke the kyngdome, Iaſon the brother of Onias laboured

laboured to be hygh prieſt:

8 For he came vnto the kyng, and promyſed hym three hundred and threeſcore talentes of ſiluer, and of the other rentes foureſcore talentes.

9 Beſides this, he promiſed him yet an hundred and fyftie more, yf he myght haue licence to ſet vp a ſcoole and an exerciſe of weapons, and that he myght call them of Hieruſalem Antiochians.

10 Whiche when the kyng had graunted, and he had gotten the ſuperiorittie, he began immediately to drawe his kynſmen to the cuſtome of the heathen,

11 Put downe the thynges that the Iewes had ſet vp of loue by Iohn, the father of Eupolonius, whiche was ſent Ambaſſador vnto Rome, for to make the bond of freendſhyp and loue, he put downe all the lawes and liberties of the Iewes, and ſet vp the wycked ſtatutes.

12 For when he had made a ſcoole of fence vnder the caſtle, he drewe al the cheefeſt young men on his ſide, and trayned them to weare a hattes.

a These hattes were tokens of vanitie that the Gentiles vſed.

13 And there was ſuche a feruent deſire to come to the maners of the heathen, and to take vp newe ſtrange faſhions, brought in through the vngratious and vnheard wickednelle of Iaſon, whiche ſhould not be called a prieſte, but an vngodly perſon:

14 Inſomuche that the prieſtes were nowe no more occupied about the ſeruice of the aulter; but deſpyſed the temple, regarded not the offerynges, yea, gaue their diligence to learne to fyght, to wreſtle, to leape, to daunce, and to caſt the ſtone:

15 Not ſetting by the honour of the fathers, but lyked the glory of the Grekes beſt of al:

16 For the whiche they ſtroue perylouſly, and were greedye to folowe their ſtatutes, yea their luſt was in all thynges to be lyke them, whiche afore were their enimies and deſtroyers.

17 Howbeit, to doo wyckedly agaynſt the lawe of God, ſhall not eſcape vnpunished, but of this we ſhal ſpeake hereafter.

18 What tyme as the * Olympians ſportes were played at Tyrus, the kyng hym ſelfe beyng preſent,

* These were very many ſtadyons.

19 This vngratious Iaſon ſent wycked men, bearyng from them of Hieruſalem (whiche nowe were called Antiochians) three hundred drachmes of ſyluer for an offeryng to Hercules: theſe had they that carried them deſyred, vnder ſuche a faſhion as though they ſhoulde not haue been offered, but beſtowed to other vſes.

20 Neuertheleſſe, he that ſent them, ſent them to the intent that they ſhoulde be offered vnto Hercules: but because of thoſe that were preſent, they were geuen as to the makyng of ſhyppes.

21 And Apollonius the ſonne of Meneſtheus was ſent into Egypt, because of the nobile men of kyng Ptolome Philometor. Nowe when Antiochus perceyued that he was put out from b medling in the realme, he ſought his owne profite, departed from thence, came to Ioppa, and then to Hieruſalem,

b. From his honor & gaines

22 Where he was honourably receyued of Iaſon, and of the citie, and was brought in with torche lyght, and with great prayſe: and ſo he turned his hoaſt vnto Phenices.

23 After three yeeres, Iaſon ſent Menelaus (the ſonne of Simons brother) to beare the money vnto the kyng, and to bryng hym anſweare of other neceſſarye matters.

24 But he, when he was commended to the kyng for magnifiyng of his power, turned the prieſthood vnto hym ſelfe, laying vp three hundred talentes of ſiluer for Iaſon.

25 So when he had gotten commaundementes from the king, he came hauyng nothing that becommeth a prieſte, but bearyng the ſtomacke of a cruel tyrant, and the wrath of a wylde bruite beaſt.

26 Then Iaſon, whiche had deceyued his owne brother, ſeeyng that he hym ſelfe was beguyled alſo, was fayne to flee into the lande of the Ammonites, 27 And Menelaus gat the dominion: but as for the money that he had promiſed vnto the kyng, he dyd nothyng therein, albeit Soſtratus the ruler of the caſtle requyred it of hym.

28 For Soſtratus was the man that gathered the cuſtomes: wherefore they were both called before the kyng.

29 Thus was Menelaus put out of the prieſthood, and Lyſimachus his brother came in his ſtead, and Soſtratus left Crates ouerſeer of the c Cipryans.

c. That is, of them that meaſured the corne

30 It happened in the meane ſeaſon, that the Tharſians & Mallotians made inſurrection, becauſe they were geuen for a preſent vnto Antiochus the kynges concubine.

31 Then came the kyng in all haſte to ſtyll them agayne, and to pacifie the matter, leauing Andronicus there to be his deputie, as one meete therefore.

32 Nowe Menelaus ſuppoſing that he had gotten a ryght conuenient tyme, ſtole certayne veſſels of gold out of the temple, and gaue them to Andronicus for a preſent: and ſome he ſolde at Tyrus, and in the cities thereby.

33 Whiche when Onias knewe of a surety, he reproued hym: but he kept hym in a sanctuarie beside Daphnis, that lyeth by Antioche.

34 Wherfore Menelaus gat hym to Andronicus, and prayed hym that he would slay Onias. So when he came to Onias, he counselled hym craftylye to come out of the sanctuarie, geuyng hym his hande with an othe (howbeit he suspect hym) and then he slue Onias, without any regarde of righteousnesse.

35 For the which cause not only the Iewes, but other nations also, tooke indignation, and were displeased for the vnryghteous death of so godly a man.

36 And when the kyng was come agayne from Cilicia, the Iewes and certaine of the Grekes went vnto hym, complaynyng for the vnryghteous death of Onias.

37 Yea Antiochus him selfe was sory in his mynde for Onias, so that it pitied him: and he wept, remembryng his soberneſſe, and manerly behauiour.

38 Wherfore he was so kindled in his mind, that he cõmaunded Andronicus to be stripped out of his purple clothyng, and so to be ledde throughout the citie, yea, and the vngratious man to be slayne in the same place where he committed his wyckednesse vppon Onias: thus the Lorde rewarded hym his punyshment, as he had deserued.

39 Nowe when Lysimachus had doone many wycked deedes in the temple through the counsell of Menelaus, and the voyce came abrode: the multitude geathered them togeather agaynst Lysimachus, for he had carried out nowe muche golde.

40 So when the people arose, and were full of displeasure, Lysimachus armed three thoulande vnthryftes to defend hym, a certayne tyrant beyng their captayne, which was growen both in age and woodnesse.

41 They therefore seeyng the enterpryse of Lysimachus, caught vp, some stones, some blockes endes, and some handfulles of dust that was next at hande, and threwe them vpon the rebelles of Lysimachus band that had set vpon them.

42 Thus there were many of them wounded, some beyng slayne, and all the other chased away: but as for the wicked churchrobber hym selfe, they kylled him beside the treasurie.

43 Of these matters therefore there was kept a court agaynst Menelaus.

44 Nowe when the kyng came to Tyrus, three men that were sent from the Senate, pleaded hym gyltie before the kyng.

45 But Menelaus beyng nowe conuicte, went and promysed Ptolome the sonne of Dorymenes to geue hym muche money, yf he woulde pacifie the kyng towarde hym.

46 So Ptolome went to the kyng into a court, whereas he was set to coole him, and brought hym out of that mynde:

47 Insomuche that he discharged Menelaus from the accusations, that notwithstandyng was cause of all mischeefe: and those poore men, whiche yf they had tolde their cause, yea before the Scythians, they should haue been iudged innocent, them he condemned to death.

48 Thus were they soone punished, whiche folowed vpon the matter for the citie, for the people, and for the holy vesselles.

49 Wherefore they also of Tyrus, moued with hatred of that wycked deede, caused them to be very honourably buried.

50 And so through the couetousnes of them that were in power, Menelaus remayned styll in auctoritie, encreasing in malice, to the hurt of the citizens.

The. v. Chapter.

3. Of the signes and tokens seene in Hierusalem. 6. Of the ende and office of Iason. 11. The pursuite of Antiochus agaynst the Iewes.

1 ABout the same tyme Antiochus vndertooke his seconde voyage into Egypt.

2 And then were there seene throughout all the citie of Hierusalem fourtie dayes long, horsmen runnyng in the ayre, with robes of golde, and as bandes of Spearemen,

3 And as troupes of horsemen set in aray, incounteryng and coursing one agaynst another, with shakyng of shieldes, and multitude of dartes, and drawyng of swordes, and shootyng of arrowes, and the glyttring of the golden armour seene, and harneſſe of al sortes.

4 Wherefore euery man prayed, that those tokens myght turne to good.

5 Nowe when there was gone forth a false rumour, as though Antiochus had been dead, Iason tooke a thousande men, and came sodaynely vpon the citie: the citizens ranne vnto the walles, at the last was the citie taken, and Menelaus fledde into the castle.

6 As for Iason, he spared not his owne citizens in the slaughter, neyther consydered he what great euyl it were, to destroy the

prosperitie of his owne kinsmen: but did as one that had gotten the victorie of his enimies, and not of his freendes.

7 For al this gate he not the superioritie, but at the last receiued confusion for his malice, and fled agayne like a vagabonde into the lande of the Ammonites.

8 Finally, for a rewarde of his wickednesse, he was accused before Aretha the kyng of the Arabians, in so muche that he was fayne to flee from citie to citie, being despised of euery man as a forsaker of the lawes, and an abominable person: and at the last, as an open enimie of his owne naturall countrey and of the citizens, he was driuen into Egypt.

9 Thus he that afore put many out of their owne native lande, perished from home him selfe: he went to Lacedemon, thinking there to haue gotten succour by reason of kynrede.

10 And he that afore had cast many one out vnburied, was throwen out him selfe, no man mourning for him, nor puttyng him in his graue: so that he neyther enioyed the burial of a stranger, neyther was he partaker of his fathers sepulchre.

11 Nowe when this was done, the kyng suspected that the Iewes would haue fallen from him, wherefore he came in a great displeasure out of Egypt, and tooke the citie by violence.

12 He commaunded his men of warre also, that they should kyl and not spare: but slay downe suche as withstoode them, or climen vp vpon the houses.

13 Thus was there a great slaughter of young men, olde men, women, chyldren, and virgins.

14 In three dayes were there slayne foure score thousande, fourtie thousande put in prison: and there were as many solde as were slayne.

15 Yet was he not content with this, but durst goe into the most holy temple of all the worlde, Menelaus, that traytour to the lawes and to his owne natural countrey, being his guyde.

16 And with his wycked handes tooke the holy vessels, which other kynges and cities had geuen thyther for the garnishyng and honour of the place, them tooke he in his handes vnworthily, and defyled them.

17 So mad was Antiochus, that he consydered not howe that GOD was not a litle wroth for the sinnes of them that dwelt in the citie, for the which such confusion came vpon that place.

18 And why? yf it had not happened them to haue ben lapped in many sinnes, this Antiochus as soone as he had come, had sodenly been punished and shut out of his presumption, like as Heliodorus was, whom Seleucus the kyng sent to robbe the treasurie. *2.Ma.3.24

19 Neuertheless, God hath not chosen the people for the places sake: but the place for the peoples sake.

20 And therefore is the place become partaker of the peoples trouble, but afterwarde shal it enioy the wealth of them: and lyke as it was nowe forsaken in the wrath of almightie God: so when the great God is reconciled, it shalbe set vp in high worshyp agayne.

21 So when Antiochus had taken a thousand and eyght hundred talentes out of the temple, he gate hym to Antioche in al the hast, thinking in his pride that he might make men sayle vpon the drye lande, and to goe vpon the sea, such an high mind had he.

22 He left deputies there to vexe the people: at Hierusalem left he Philip a Phrygian, in maners more cruel then hym selfe that set hym there:

23 At Garizim he left Andronicus and Menelaus, which were more greeuous to the citizens then other.

24 Nowe as he was thus set in malice agaynst the Iewes, he sent Apollonius, a cruel prince, with an armie of twentie and two thousande, commaundyng him to slay those that were of perfect age, and to sel the women, and the younger sort.

25 When he came nowe to Hierusalem, he faigned peace, and kept hym styl vntyll the Sabboth day: and then he commaunded his men to take them to their weapons, for the Iewes kepe holy daye.

26 And so he slue al them that were gone foorth to the open playne, running here and there through the citie with his men weaponed, and murdered a great number.

27 But Iudas Machabeus, whiche was the *tenth, fled into the wyldernesse, led his lyfe there with his companie among wylde beastes, and vpon the mountaynes, dwellyng there, and eatyng hearbes, left they shoulde be partakers of the fylthinesse. * of them that fledde for religion.

q. The. vi. Chapter.

1. The Iewes are compelled to leaue the lawe of God. 4. The temple is defiled. 12. The readers are admonished that they shal not abhorre the aduersitie wherewith the Lorde afflicteth them. 18. The greeuous payne of Eleazarus.

1 NOt long after this, sent the kyng an olde man of Antioche, for to compell or, Athens.

the Iewes to transgresse the ordinances of the fathers, and of the lawe of God,

2 To defyle the temple that was at Hierusalem, and to call it the temple of Iupiter Olympius: and that they should be in Garizim, as those whiche dwel at the place of Iupiter the harberous.

3 This wycked sedition of the vngodly, was heauie vpon al the people:

4 For the temple was full of voluptuousnesse, bibbing and bolling of the heathen, of rybaudes and harlottes togeather: the women went into the holy place, and bare in that was not lawful.

5 The auiter also was full of vnlawfull thinges, whiche the lawe forbiddeth to lay vpon it,

6 The Sabbothes were not kept, the other solemne feastes of the land were not regarded: to be playne, there durst no man be knowen that he was a Iewe.

7 In the day of the kynges byrth they were compelled parforce to offer, and when the feast of Bacchus was kept, they were constrayned to weare garlandes of yuie, and so to goe about to the honour of Bacchus.

8 Moreouer, through the counsel of Ptolomeus, there went out a commaundement vnto the next cities of the heathen, agaynst the Iewes, that the like custome and banketting should be kept.

Or, eatyng of the fleshe that was sacrificed.

9 And who so woulde not conforme themselues to the maners of the gentiles, should be put to death: then might a man haue seene the present miserie.

10 For there were two women accused to haue circumcised their sonnes, whom when they had led rounde about the citie, the babes hanging at their brestes, they cast them downe headlonges ouer the walles.

11 Some that were crept in dennes, and had kept the Sabboth, were accused vnto Philip, and brent in the fyre, because that for the feare of GOD they kept the commaundement so stifly, and woulde not defende themselues.

12 Nowe I beseche al those which reade this booke, that they refuse it not for these falles of aduersitie, and iudge the thinges that are happened for no destruction, but for a chastening of our people.

13 And why? When God suffereth not sinners long to folowe their owne minde, but shortly punisheth them, it is a token of his great louing kyndnesse.

14 For this grace haue we of God, more then other people, that he suffereth not vs long to sinne vnpunished, lyke as other nations:

15 That when the day of iudgement commeth, he may punishe them in the fulnesse of their synnes.

16 If we sinne, he correcteth vs, but he neuer withdraweth his mercie from vs: and though he punishe with aduersitie, yet doeth he neuer forsake his people.

17 But let this that we haue spoken nowe with fewe woordes, be for a warning and exhortation * of the heathen: nowe wyll we come to the declaryng of the matter.

Or, vnto vs.

18 Eleazar one of the principall scribes, an aged man, and of a wel fauoured countenance, was constrayned to gape with open mouth, and to eate swynes fleshe.

19 But he desyring rather to dye gloriously, then to lyue with shame, offered himselfe wyllyngly to the martyrdome.

20 Nowe when he sawe that he must needes goe to it, he tooke it patiently: for he was at a poynt with him selfe, that he woulde not consent to any vnlawful thyng for any pleasure of lyfe.

21 They that a stoode by, beyng moued with pitie (but not aryght) for the olde freendshyp of the man, tooke hym aside priuilie, and prayed hym that he woulde let suche fleshe be brought him as were lawful to eate, and then to make a countenance as though he had eaten of the fleshe of the sacrifice, like as the kyng commaunded, a They that had the charge of that wycked banquet.

22 For so he might be deliuered from death: and so for the olde freendshyp of the man, they shewed hym this kyndnesse.

23 But he beganne to consyder discreetely, and as became his age, and the excellencie of his auncient yeeres, and the honour of his gray heares whereunto he was come, and his most honest conuersation from his childehood, but cheefly the holy lawe made and geuen by God, therefore he answeared consequently, and wylled them straightwayes to sende hym to the graue:

24 For it becommeth not mine age, sayde he, in any wyse to dissemble, whereby many young persons might thinke that Eleazar beyng fourescore yeeres olde and ten, were nowe gone to a strange religion:

25 And so through mine hypocrisie for a litle tyme of a transitorie lyfe, they might be deceyued: by this meanes also shoulde I defyle myne age, and make it abhominable.

26 For though I were nowe deliuered from the tormentes of men, yet shoulde I not escape the hande of almightie God, neither alyue nor dead.

27 Wherefore I wyl dye manfully, & doo as it becommeth mine age:

28 Whereby I may peraduenture leaue

an example of stedfastnesse for suche as be young, yf I with a redy mynd, and manfully, dye an honest death for the most worthy and holy lawes. When he had sayde these woordes, immediatly he was drawen to the torment.

29 Nowe they that led hym, and were mild a litle afore, began to take displeasure, because of the woordes that he sayde: for they thought he had spoken thē of an high mind.

30 But when he was in his martyrdome, he mourned and sayde, Thou, O Lord, which hast the holy knowledge, knowest openly, that where as I might be deliuered from death, I suffer these sore paines of my body: but in my mynde I am wel content to suffer them, because I feare thee.

31 Thus this man dyed, leauing the memorial of his death for an example, not onely vnto young men, but vnto al the people to be stedfast and manly.

¶ The. vii. Chapter.

The punishment of the seuen brethren, and of their mother.

1 IT happened also that there were seuen brethren with their mother taken, & compelled by the kyng agaynst the lawe to eate swines flesshe, namely with scourges and leatherne whyppes.

2 And one of them, whiche was the cheefe, sayde, What seekest thou, and what requyrest thou of vs? As for vs, we are redy rather to suffer death, then to offend the lawes of God and the fathers.

3 Then was the kyng angry, and bade heate cauldrons, and brasen pottes: whiche when they were made hot,

4 Immediatly he commaunded the tongue of hym that spake first, to be cut out, to pul the skynne ouer his head, to pare the edges of his handes and feete, yea, and that in the syght of his mother, and the other of his brethren.

5 Nowe when he was cleane mangled, he commaunded a fire to be made, & so (whyle there was any breath in hym) to be fryed in the cauldron: In the which when he had ben long payned, the other brethren with their mother, exhorted hym to dye manfully, saying,

6 The Lord GOD shall regarde the trueth, and comfort vs, lyke as Moses testifieth & declareth in his songue, saying, And he wyll
Deu. 32. 43 * haue compassion on his seruantes.

7 So when the first was dead after this maner, they brought the seconde, to haue hym in derision, pulled the skynne with the heare ouer his head, & asked hym yf he would eate swynes flesshe or he were payned in the other members also throughout his body.

8 But he answeared in his owne language, and sayde, I wyl not doo it: and so he was tormented lyke as the first.

9 And when he was euen at the geuyng vp of the ghost, he sayde, Thou most vngratious person puttest vs nowe to death: but the king of the world shal rayse vs vp which dye for his lawes, in the resurrection of euerlasting lyfe.

10 After hym was the thyrde had in derision, and when he was required, he put out his tongue, and that ryght soone, holdyng foorth his handes manfully:

11 And spake with a stedfast fayth, These haue I of heauen, but now for the lawes of God I despise them: for my trust is that I shall receiue them of hym agayne.

12 In so muche that the kyng and they which were with hym, marueyled at the young mans boldnesse, that he nothyng regarded the paynes.

13 Nowe when he was dead also, they vexed the fourth with tormentes in lyke maner.

14 So whē he was now at his death, he said. It is better that we, beyng put to death of men, haue our hope and trust in God, for he shall rayse vs vp agayne: as for thee, thou shalt haue no resurrection to lyfe.

15 And when they had spoken to the fifth, they tormented hym.

16 Then looked he vnto the kyng, & sayde, Thou hast power among men, for thou art a mortal man also thee selfe, to doo what thou wylt: but thynke not that God hath forsaken our generation.

17 Abyde thee, tarry styl a whyle, and thou shalt see the great power of God, howe he wyl punishe thee and thy seede.

18 After hym they brought the sixt, whiche beyng at the poynt of death, sayde, Be not deceiued, O kyng: for this we suffer for our owne sakes, because we haue offended our God, and therefore marueylous thynges are shewed vpon vs.

19 But thinke not thou whiche takest in hande to striue agaynst God, that thou shalt escape vnpunished.

20 This excellent mother, worthy to be wel reported of, and had in remembrance, saw her seuen sonnes dye in one day, and suffered it patiently, because of the hope that she had in God:

21 Yea, she exhorted euery one of them in her countrey language, and that boldly and stedfastly with perfect wisedome, wakyng vp

vp her wyuiſhe thought with a manly ſtomacke, and ſayde vnto them,

22 I can not tel how ye ſprang in my wombe, for I neyther gaue you breath, nor ſoule, nor lyfe, it is not I that ioyned the members of your bodyes togeather,

23 But the maker of the worlde, which faſhioned the birth of man, & began al things: euen he alſo of his owne mercy ſhall geeue you breath and lyfe agayne, lyke as ye nowe regarde not your owne ſelues for his lawes ſake.

24 Nowe thought Antiochus that ſhe had deſpiſed hym, therefore he let her goe with her reproofes, and began to exhort the youngeſt ſonne which was yet left, not only with woordes, but ſwore vnto hym with an othe, that he ſhoulde make him a riche and wealthy man, yf he woulde forſake the lawes of his fathers: yea, and that he ſhoulde geue hym what ſo euer were neceſſary for hym.

25 But when the young man woulde not be mooued for all theſe thynges, he called his mother, and counſelled her to ſaue her ſonnes lyfe.

26 And when he had exhorted her with many woordes, ſhe promiſed him that ſhe would ſpeake to her ſonne.

27 So ſhe turned her vnto hym, laughing ye cruel tyrant to ſcorne, & ſpake in her country language, O my ſonne, haue pitie vpon me, that bare thee niene monethes in my wombe, that gaue thee ſucke, nouriſhed thee, and brought thee vp vnto this age:

28 I beſeeche thee my ſonne, looke vpon heauen and earth, and al that is therein, and conſyder that God made them & mans generation of nought:

29 So ſhalt thou not feare this hangman, but ſuffer death ſtedfaſtly, lyke as thy brethren haue doone: that I may receyue thee agayne in the ſame mercie with thy brethren.

30 While ſhe was yet ſpeaking theſe woords, the youngman ſayde, Whom looke ye for? wherefore doo ye tarry? I wyll not obey the kinges commaundement, but the lawe that God gaue vs by Moſes.

31 As for thou that imagineſt all miſcheefe agaynſt the "Iewes, thou ſhalt not eſcape the hande of God.

" Or, Hebrues.

32 For we ſuffer theſe thinges becauſe of our ſinnes.

33 And though the lyuyng Lorde be angrie with vs a litle while, for our chaſtenyng, and reformation, yet ſhal he be at one againe with his ſeruantes.

34 But thou, O godleſſe man, and of al other the moſt wicked, pryde not thee ſelfe through vayne hope, in beyng ſo malitious vpon the ſeruantes of God:

35 For thou haſt not yet eſcaped the iudgementes of God, which is almighty, & ſeeth al thinges.

36 My brethren that haue ſuffered a litle payne, are nowe vnder the couenant of euerlaſtyng lyfe: but through the iudgement of God, thou ſhalt be puniſhed ryghteouſly for thy pryde.

37 As for me, lyke as my brethren haue done, I offer my "ſoule & my body for the lawes of our fathers, callyng vpon GOD, that he wyl ſoone be mercyful vnto our people, yea, and with payne and puniſhment to make thee graunt that he only is God. * Or, lyfe.

38 In me nowe and in my brethren the wrath of almightie GOD is at an ende, whiche ryghteouſly is fallen vpon all our people.

39 Then the kyng, being kyndled in anger, was more cruel vppon hym then vpon al the other, and tooke indignation that he was ſo lyghtly regarded.

40 So this young man dyed vndefiled, and put his truſt ſtill in the Lorde.

41 Laſt of all, after the ſonnes, was the mother put to death alſo.

42 Let this nowe be enough ſpoken concernyng the offerynges and extreeme crueltie.

¶ The. viii. Chapter.

1. Iudas geathereth togeather his hoaſt. 9, Nicanor is ſent agaynſt Iudas. 22. The Iewes geue thanckes after they haue put their enimies to flyght, dyuidyng the ſpoyles vnto the fatherleſſe and vnto wyddowes.

1 THen Iudas Machabeus, and they that were with him, went priuily into the townes, called their kinſfolkes and freendes togeather, tooke vnto them al ſuch as continued yet in the fayth and lawe of the Iewes, and brought forth ſixe thouſand men.

2 So they called vppon the Lorde, that he woulde haue an eye vnto his people whiche was troden downe of euery man, to be gratious vnto the temple that was defiled of the vngodly,

3 To haue compaſſion vpon the deſtruction of the citie, whiche was ſhortly lyke to be layde waſt, to heare the voyce of the blood that cryed vnto hym,

4 To remember the moſt vnryghteous deathes of young innocent chyldren, the blaſphemies alſo done vnto his name, and to puniſhe them.

5 Nowe

5 Nowe when Machabeus had geathered this multitude togeather, he was too mightie for the heathen: for the wrath of ỹ Lorde was turned into mercie.

6 He fell vppon the townes and cities vnwares, brent them, tooke the most commodious places, and slue many of the enimies:

7 But specially he made suche chases by nyght, in so much that his manlinesse was spoken of euery where.

8 So when Philip sawe that the man increased by little & little, and that the matter prospered with him for the most part: he wrote vnto Ptolome, which was a captayne in Coelosyria and Phenice, to helpe hym in the kynges businesse.

9 Then sent he Nicanor the sonne of Patroclus, a speciall frend of his, in all the haste, and gaue hym of the common sort of ỹ Heathen, no lesse then twentie thousande harnessed men, to roote out the whole generation of the Iewes, hauing to helpe him one Gorgias a man of warre, which in matters concerning battayles had great experience.

10 Nicanor ordeyned also the tribute which the Romanes shoulde haue had to be geuen vnto the kyng out of the captiuitie of the Iewes, namely, two thousand talentes.

11 And immediatly he sent to the cities of the sea coast, requiring them for to buye Iewes to be theyr seruantes and bondmen, promising to sel them foure score and tenne for one talent: but he consydered not the wrath of almighty God that was to come vpon hym.

12 When Iudas knewe of this, he tolde the Iewes that were with hym of Nicanors comming.

13 Nowe were there some of them fearefull, not trustyng vnto ỹ righteousnesse of God, and fledde theyr way, and abode not in that place:

14 But the other solde al that they had left, and besought the lord to deliuer them from that wicked Nicanor, which had sold them or euer he came nygh them:

15 And though he would not doo it for their sakes, yet for the couenant that he made with their fathers, and because they called vpon his holy and glorious name.

16 And so Machabeus called his men togeather, namely, about fyue thousand, exhorting them not to agree vnto theyr enimies, neyther to be afrayde for the multitude of theyr aduersaries comming agaynst them vnrygh teously, but to fyght manly,

17 Consydering the reproofe that they had done to the holy place without cause, howe they had defyled and oppressed the citie, yea, & destroyed the lawes of their fathers.

18 For they, sayd he, trust in theyr weapons, and boldnesse: but our confidence is in the almyghty Lorde, whiche in the twynckling of an eye, may both destroy them that come agaynst vs, and all the world.

19 *He exhorted them also to call to remembraunce the helpe that God shewed vnto theyr fathers, as when there perished * an hundred foure score and fyue thousande of Sennacheribs people: *4.Re.19.35 *Ecc.48.24 Esai.37.36.

20 And of the battell that they had in Babylon agaynst the Galathians: how all the Macedonians that came to helpe them, beyng foure thousand, stoode in feare: and howe they, beyng onely but fyue thousand, slue an hundred & twentie thousand, thorowe the helpe that was geuen them from heauen, whereby they also had receyued many benefytes. a Or, 175 thousand.

21 Through these wordes, the men tooke good hartes vnto them, redy to dye for the lawe and the countrey.

22 So he set vppon euery company a captayne, one of his owne brethren, Simon, Joseph, and Jonathas, geuyng eache one fyftene hundred men.

23 He caused a Esdras also to reade the holy booke vnto them, and to geue them a token of the helpe of God: then he hym selfe, beyng captayne in the forefront of the battell, buckled with Nicanor. a Or, Eleazarus.

24 And God was theyr helpe, in so muche that they slue aboue niene thousand men, and compelled the more part of Nicanors host to flee, they were so wounded & feeble.

25 Thus they tooke the money from those that came to buye them, and folowed vpon them on euery side.

26 But when the tyme came vppon them, they returned, for it was the day before the Sabboth, and therefore they folowed no more vpon them.

27 So they toke theyr weapons and spoyles, and kept the Sabboth, geuing thankes vnto the Lord, which had deliuered them that day, and shewed them the beginnyng of his mercie.

28 After the Sabboth, they distributed the spoyles to the sicke, to the fatherlesse, and to wyddowes, and the residue had they them selues, with theyrs.

29 When this was done, and they all had made a general prayer, they besought ỹ merciful Lord to be at one with his seruaumes.

30 Of those also that were with Timotheus and Bacchides, whiche fought agaynst them, they slue twentie thousand, wan high & strong holdes, & diuided more spoyles, euer geuing an equall portion vnto ỹ sicke, to the fatherlesse, to widdowes, & to aged persons.

31 And

31 And when they had diligently geathered theyr weapons togeather, they layde them all in conuenient places, and the remnaunt of the ſpoyles brought they to Hieruſalem.
32 They ſlue alſo Philarches that wicked perſon, which was with Timotheus, and had vexed many Iewes.
33 And when they held the thankes geuing at Hieruſalem for the victory, they brent thoſe that had ſet fyre on the portes of the temple, namely, Caliſthenes, whiche was fledde into an houſe, and ſo they gate a worthy reward for theyr wickednelſe.
34 As for that moſt vngracious Nicanor, which had brought a thouſand Marchants to buye the Iewes,
35 He was through the helpe of the Lorde brought downe, euen of them whom he regarded not: in ſo muche that he put of his glorious rayment, fledde by ſea, and came alone to Antioche with great ſhame and diſhonour, whiche he gate through the de-ſtruction of his hoſt.
36 Thus he that promiſed the Romanes to pay them their tribute when he tooke Hieruſalem, began nowe to ſay plainely, that God was the defender of the Iewes, and therefore not poſſible to wound them, becauſe they folowed the lawes whiche God had made.

¶ The.ix.Chapter.

1. Antiochus wylling to ſpoyle Perſepolis, is dryuen to flight. 9. As he perſecuted the Iewes, he is ſtricken of the Lorde. 13. The faigned repentance of Antiochus. 28. He dyeth.

1 AT the ſame time came Antiochus a-gayne with diſhonour out of Perſia.
2 For when he came to Perſopolis, and vndertooke to robbe the temple, and to ſubdue the citie, the people ran togeather, and defended them ſelues, in ſo muche that he and his were fayne to flee with ſhame:
and ſo after that flight, it happened that Antiochus came agayne with diſhonour.
3 But when he came to Ecbatana, he gate knowledge what was happened vnto Nicanor and Timotheus.
4 Now as he was maaunſing him ſelfe in his wrath, he thought he was able to auenge the iniurie that was done to them vpon the Iewes: and therefore commaundyng to make redy his charret, haſting on his iourney without ceaſſing, ỹ iudgement of GOD prouokyng hym, becauſe he had ſpoken ſo proudly, that he woulde come to Hieruſalem, and make it a graue of the Iewes.
5 But the Lorde God of Iſrael that ſeeth all thynges, ſmote hym with an vncurable and inuiſible plague, whiche no man could beale:
For as ſoone as he had ſpoken theſe wordes, there came vppon him an horrible payne of his bowels, and a ſore greefe of the inner partes,
6 And that was but right: for he had martyred other mens bowelles with diuers and ſtrange tormentes.
7 Howbeit, he would in no wyſe ceaſſe from his malice: yea, he was yet the prouder, and more malicious agaynſt the Iewes: but whyle he was commaunding to make haſte in ỹ matter, it happened that he fell downe violently from ỹ charet that ranne ſwiftly, ſo that it bruyſed his body, and dyd hym great payne.
8 And ſo he that thought a little before he myght commaund the flooddes of the ſea, (ſo proude was he beyond the condition of man) and to weygh the hygh mountaynes in a payre of ballance, was nowe brought downe to the ground, and carried vppon a horſelytter, knowledging the manifeſt power of God vpon him:
9 So that the wormes came out of the body of this wicked man in abundance: and whyles he was alyue, his fleſhe fell of for payne and torment, and all his armie was greeued at his "ſmell. "or, rottenneſs.
10 Thus he that a little afore thought he myght reache to the ſtarres of heauen, hym myght no man nowe abyde nor beare, for the vehemencie of ſtinke.
11 Therefore he beyng brought from his great pride, beganne to come to the knowledge of hym ſelfe, for the puniſhment of God warned hym, and his payne encreaſed euer more and more.
12 And when he hym ſelfe myght not abide his owne ſtinke, he ſayde theſe wordes, It is reaſon to be obedient vnto GOD, and that a man whiche is mortall, thynke not through pride, him ſelfe to be equall vnto
God.
13 This wicked perſon prayed alſo vnto the Lorde, who nowe would haue no mercie vpon hym:
14 And as for the citie that he came vnto ſo haſtily, to bring it downe to ỹ grounde, and to make it a graue for dead men, nowe he de-ſyreth to deliuer it free.
15 And as touchyng the Iewes whom he had iudged not worthy to be buried, but would haue caſt them out with theyr chyldren, for to be deuoured of the foules and wylde beaſtes, ſaying that he wouulde haue deſtroyed both olde and young, nowe he promiſed to make them lyke the citizens of Athens.
16 And

16 And when as he had ſpoyled the holy temple afore, nowe he maketh promiſe to garniſhe it with great gyftes, to encreaſe the holy ornamentes, and of his owne rents to beare the coſtes and charges belongyng to the offerynges.

17 Yea, and that he wouldе alſo become a Iewe hym ſelfe, to goe through euery place of the worlde that was inhabited, and to preache the power of God.

18 But when his paynes wouldе not ceaſſe (for the ryghteous iudgement of God was come vpon him) out of a very diſpayre he wrote vnto the Iewes a letter of interceſſion, conteyning theſe wordes.

19 The king and prince Antiochus, wiſheth vnto the vertuous citizens of the Iewes, much health, and good proſperitie, 20 If ye and your children fare well, and if al thynges goe after your mynde, we geue great thankes.

21 In my ſickneſſe alſo doo I remember you louyngly: for as I came out of Perſia, and was taken with ſore diſeaſe, I thought it neceſſary to care for the common wealth:

22 Neyther diſpayre I in mee ſelfe, but haue a good hope to eſcape this ſickeneſſe.

23 But conſyderyng that my father led an hoaſt ſometyme in the hygher places, and ſhewed who ſhould raigne after hym, 24 That yf there happened any controuerſie, or any harde thyng were declared, they in the lande myght know their cheefe lord, that there ſhouldе be no inſurrection.

25 Agayne, when I ponder with mee ſelfe how that al the mightie men, and neighbours rounde about, are layeng wayte, and looke but for opportunitie to do harme: I haue ordeyned, that my ſonne Antiochus ſhall raigne after me, whom I oft commended to many of you whē I was in the higher kingdomes, and haue written vnto hym as it followeth hereafter.

26 Therefore I pray you, and require you, to remember the benefites that I haue done vnto you generally, and in eſpecial, & that euery man wyll be faythfull to me and my ſonne.

27 For I hope that he ſhall be of ſober and louyng behauiour, and yf he folowe my deuice, he ſhal be indifferent vnto you.

28 Thus that murderer and blaſphemer of God was ſore ſmitten: and lyke as he had entreated other men, ſo he dyed a miſerable death in a ſtraunge countrey vpon a mountayne.

29 And his body dyd Philip that went with hym carry away, whiche fearyng the ſonne of Antiochus, went into Egypt to Ptolome Philometor.

¶ The x. Chapter.

1 Iudas Machabeus taketh the citie and the temple. 10. He beginneth to shewe the actes of Eupator. 29. Fyue men appeare in the ayre to the helpe of the Iewes. 39. Timothi is ſlayne.

1 MAchabeus nowe and his companíe, through the helpe of the Lorde, wan the temple and the citie agayne,

2 Deſtroyed the aulters and chappels that the heathen had builded through the ſtreetes,

3 Cleanſed the temple, made another aulter of hycke ſtone, and after two yeeres they offered ſacrifices, ſet vpwith the incenſe, the lyghtes, and ſhewe bread.

4 When that was done, they fel downe flat vpon the grounde, and beſought the Lord that they myght come no more into ſuche trouble: but yf they ſinned any more agaynſt him, he hym ſelfe to chaſten them with mercy, and not to come into the hands of thoſe aliantes, and blaſphemous men.

5 Nowe vpon the ſame day that the ſtrangers polluted the temple, it happened that on the very ſame day it was cleanſed agayne, namely the twentie and fifth day of the moneth called [a] Caſleu. [a] Or, November.

6 They kept eyght dayes in gladneſſe, lyke as in the feaſt of the tabernacles, remembring that not long afore they helde the feaſt of the tabernacles vpon the mountaynes, and in dennes, lyke beaſtes.

7 And for the ſame token they bare greene bowes, branches, and palmes, and ſong pſalmes before him that had geuen them good ſucceſſe to cleanſe his place.

8 They agreed alſo togeather, and made a ſtatute, that euery yeere thoſe dayes ſhould be ſolemly kept of al the people of the Iewes.

9 How Antiochus then, that was called the noble, dyed, it is ſufficiently tolde.

10 Now wyll we ſpeake of Eupator the ſonne of that wicked Antiochus, how it happened with hym, & ſo with few wordes to comprehend the aduerſitie that chaunced in the warres.

11 When he had taken in the kingdome, he made one Lyſias, whiche had been captayne of the hoaſt in Phenices and [a] Syria, ruler ouer the matters of the Realme. [a] Or, Coloſyria

12 For Ptolome, that was called Macron, being a ruler for the Iewes, and ſpecially to ſyt in iudgement for ſuch wrong as was doone vnto them, vndertooke to deale peaceably with them.

13 For

13 For the whiche cauſe he was accuſed of his freendes before Eupator: and when he was ſuſpect to be a traytour, becauſe he had left Cyprꝛes, that Philometor had committed vnto him, and becauſe he departed from noble Antiochus that he was come vnto, he poyſoned hym ſelfe, and dyed.

14 Nowe when Gorgias was gouernour of the ſame places, he tooke ſtrangers, and vndertooke oft tymes to warre with the Iewes.

15 Moreouer the Idumeans that helde the ſtrong holdes, receyued thoſe that were driuen from Hieruſalem, and tooke in hande to warre alſo.

16 But they that were with Machabeus, beſought and prayed vnto the Lorde, that he would be their helper, and ſo they fel vpon the ſtrong holdes of the Idumeans, 17 And wan many places by ſtrength: ſuche as came againſt them they ſlue, and killed no leſſe of altogeather then twentie thouſande.

18 Neuertheleſſe, ſome, no leſſe then nine thouſande, were fled into two ſtrong towres, hauing all maner of ordinance to withſtande them.

19 Then Machabeus leauing Simon, Joſephus, Zacheus, & thoſe that were with them, which were very many, went to beſiege them, and to fight where moſt neede was.

20 Nowe they that were with Simon, beyng led with couetouſneſſe, were intreated for money, though certaine of thoſe that lay in the caſtles, and tooke threeſcore and tenne thouſande a dragmas, and let ſome of them eſcape.

a A dragma is the eyght part of an ounce, which is about three pence.

21 But when it was tolde Machabeus what had happened, he called the captaynes of the people togeather, accuſyng thoſe perſons that they had ſolde the brethren for money, and let their enimies goe.

22 So he ſlue thoſe traytours, and immediatly went in hande with the two caſtles.

23 And when they hadde ordered thē ſelues manly with their weapons and handes, they ſlue in the two caſtles more then twenty thouſande.

24 Nowe Timotheus, whom the Iewes had ouercome afore, geathered a multitude of ſtrange people, brought an hoaſt alſo of horſemen of the Aſians, to wyn Iurie by ſtrength.

25 But when he drewe nygh, Machabeus and they that were with hym, fell to their prayer, ſprynkeled aſhes vpon their heades, beyng gyrded with heary cloth about their loynes, 26 Fel downe before the aulter, and beſought the Lord that he would be mercifull to them, but an enimie vnto their enimies, and to take part againſt their aduerſaries, according as it is promiſed in the lawe.

27 So after the prayer they tooke their weapons, & went on further from the citie: and when they came nygh the enimies, they prepared them ſelues againſt them.

28 And betimes in the morning at the breake of the day, both the hoaſtes buckled togeather: the one part had the Lorde for their refuge, whiche is the geuer of proſperitie, ſtrength, and victorie, the other had a manly ſtomacke, whiche is a captayne of warre.

29 The battayle nowe beyng great, there appeared vnto the enimies from heauē fiue goodly men vpon horſebackes, with bridles of golde, leadyng the Iewes:

30 And two of them hauyng Machabeus betwixt them, that kept him ſafe on euery ſide with their weapons, but ſhot dartes & lightnynges vpon the enimies, where through they were confounded with blyndneſſe, and ſo fore afrayde, that they fell downe.

31 There were ſlayne of footemen twentie thouſande and fiue hundred, and fiue hundred horſemen.

32 As for Timotheus hym ſelfe he fled vnto Gazara, a very ſtrong holde, wherein Chereas was captayne.

33 But Machabeus and his company laide ſiege to it chearefully foure dayes.

34 Nowe they that were within, truſtyng to the ſtrength of the place, curſed and banned exceedyngly, and made great crakyng with wicked wordes.

35 Neuertheleſſe, vpon the fifth day in the morning, twentie young men of Machabeus companie, being ſet on fire in their mindes, becauſe of the blaſphemie, came manfully vnto the wall, and with bolde ſtomackes ſmote downe thoſe that they met.

36 Others alſo clymed vp vppon the towers, vndertakyng to ſet fire vpon the portes, and to burne thoſe blaſphemous perſons quicke with the fyres that they had made, others brake open the gates, and receiued the reſt of the armie, and tooke the citie.

37 Two dayes were they deſtroying the caſtle, which when they found Timotheus that was crept in a corner, they killed him, and ſlue Chereas his brother in like maner, with Apollophanes.

38 When this was done, they ſong pſalmes with prayſes and thankes geuyng vnto the Lorde, whiche hadde doone ſo great thynges for Iſrael, and geuen them the victorie.

The

¶ The xi. Chapter.

1. Lysias goeth about to overcome the Iewes.
2. Succour is sent from heauen vnto the Iewes.

1 NOT long after this, Lysias ỳ kynges steward, and a kinsman of his, which had the gouernaunce of his matters, tooke sore displeasure for the thynges that had happened.

2 And when he had gathered fourescore thousand men of foote, with all the host of the horsemen, he came against the Iewes, thynkyng to wynne the citie, to make it an habitation for the heathen:

3 And the temple woulde he haue to be an house of lucre, like as the other goddes houses of the heathen are, and to sell the priestes office euery yeere.

4 Not consydering the power of God, but was wylde in his minde, trustyng in the multitude of footemen, in thousandes of horsemen, & in his fourescore Elephantes.

5 So he came into Iurie, and then to Bethsura, a castle of defence, lying in a narrowe place, fiue furlonges from Hierusalem, and layd sore siege vnto it.

6 Nowe when Machabeus and his company knewe that his strong holdes were besieged, they fel to their prayers, with weeping and teares before the Lorde: and all the people in lyke maner besought hym that he would send a good angel to deliuer Israel.

7 Machabeus him selfe was the fyrst that made him redy to the battayle, exhortyng the other that were with him, to ieopard them selues, and to helpe their brethren.

8 And when they were going forth of Hierusalem together with a redy and wyllyng mind, there appeared before them vpon horsebacke, a man in white clothyng, with harnesse of gold, shakyng his speare.

9 Then they praysed the Lord altogether, which had shewed them mercie, and were confyrmed in their mindes, in so much that they were redy not only to fight with men, but with the most cruell beastes, yea, and runne through walles of iron.

10 Thus they went on wyllyngly, hauyng an helper from heauen, and the Lorde mercifull vnto them.

11 They fell mightely vpon their enimies lyke Lions, slue eleuen thousand footemen, sixteene hundred horsemen, and put all the other to flight, 12 Many of them beyng wounded, and some gate away naked: yea Lysias him selfe was fayne to flee shamefully, and so to escape.

13 Neuertheles, that man was not without vnderstandyng, but consydered by him selfe that his power was minished, and pondered howe the Iewes, beyng defended by the helpe of almighty God, were not able to be ouercome: wherefore he sent them woord,

14 And promised that he woulde consent to all thynges which were reasonable, and to make the kyng their frende.

15 To the whiche prayer of Lysias, Machabeus agreed, seeking in all thynges the common wealth: and what so euer Machabeus wrote vnto Lysias concerning ỳ Iewes, the kyng graunted it.

16 For there were letters written vnto the Iewes, from Lysias, conteyning these woordes, Lysias sendeth greetyng to the people of the Iewes, 17 Iohn and Ablalon whiche were sent from you, deliuered me writynges, and required me to fulfyl the thynges concerning their errande. *Or, Absalom.

18 Therefore looke what myght be graunted, I certified the kyng therof: and whatsoeuer was conuenient, he agreed thereto.

19 Yf ye now wyl be faythfull in these matters, I shall endeuour my selfe hereafter to doo you good.

20 As concerning these thynges, by euery article therof, I haue committed them to your messengers, and to those whom I sent vnto you to commune with you of the same particularly.

21 Fare ye well. In the hundred fourty and eyght yeere, the twentie and fourth day of the moneth Dyoscorinthius.

22 Nowe the kynges letter conteyned these woordes, Kyng Antiochus sendeth greetyng vnto his brother Lysias, 23 For so much as our father is nowe translated vnto the goddes, our wyl is, that they which are in our realme, lyue without any insurrection, and euery man to be diligent in his owne matters.

24 We vnderstand also that ỳ Iewes would not consent to our father for to be brought vnto the custome of the Gentiles, but stifely to keepe their owne statutes, for ỳ which cause they require of vs also to let them remayne styl after their owne lawes.

25 Wherefore our mind is, that this people shalbe in rest: we haue concluded and determined also to restore them their temple agayne, that they may liue accordyng to the vse and custome of their forefathers.

26 Thou shalt doo vs a pleasure therefore, yf thou send vnto them, and graunt them peace: that when they are certified of our minde, they may be of good cheare, and looke to their owne wealth.

27 And

27 And this was the letter that the kyng wrote vnto the Iewes, King Antiochus sendeth greeting vnto the counsaile, and the other people of the Iewes, 28 If ye fare well, we haue our desyre: as for vs, we are in good health.

29 Menelaus came and tolde vs how that your desyre was to returne home, & peaceably to enioy your owne possessions.

30 Wherfore, those that wyll come, we geue them free libertie vnto the thirtieth day of the moneth of *Apill, 31 That they may vse the meates of the Iewes, and theyr owne lawes, lyke as afore, and none of them by any maimer of wayes to haue harme for thinges done in ignorance.

32 I haue sent also Menelaus, that he may comfort you.

33 Fare ye well. In the hundred fourtie and eyght yeere, the fyfteenth day of the moneth of Apill.

34 The Romanes also sent a letter, conteyning these wordes, Quintus Memmius, and Titus Manilius, ambassadours of the Romanes, send greeting vnto the people of the Iewes.

35 Looke what Lysias the kynges kinsman hath graunted you, we graunt you the same also.

36 But as concernyng the thynges whiche he referred vnto the kyng, send hyther some with speede, and ponder the matter diligently among your selues, that we may *cast the best to your profite: for we must depart nowe vnto Antioche.

37 And therefore wryte shortly agayne, that we may knowe your minde.

38 Farewell. In the hundred fourtie and eyght yeere, the fyfteenth day of the moneth of Apill.

*Zanthicus.

*Or, consult.

¶ The xii. Chapter.

a. Timotheus troubleth the Iewes. 3. The wicked deede of them of Ioppa agaynst the Iewes.

1 When these couenantes were made, Lysias went vnto the kyng: and the Iewes tylled theyr ground.

2 But Timotheus and Apollonius the sonne of Iennei, Ieronie, and Demophon the proud, Nicanor the captayne of Cypers, and they that lay in those places, would not let them liue in rest and peace.

3 They of Ioppa also did euen such a shamefull deede: they prayed the Iewes that dwelt among them, to go with their wiues and chyldren into the shippes whiche they had prepared, & dyd with them as though they had ought them no euyll wyll:

4 For so much then as there was gone foorth a generall proclamation throughout the citie because of peace, they consented therto, and suspect nothyng: but when they were gone foorth into the deepe, they drowned no lesse then two hundred of them.

5 When Iudas knew of this cruelte shewed vnto his people, he commaunded those that were with him to make them redy,

6 Exhortyng them to call vpon God the ryghteous iudge, bente foorth agaynst those murderers of his brethren, set fyre in the hauen by nyght, brent vp the shippes: and those that escaped from the fyre, he slue with the swoord.

7 And when he had done this, he departed, as though he woulde come agayne, & roote out all them of Ioppa.

8 But when he had gotten woorde that the Iamnites were minded to doo in lyke maner vnto the Iewes whiche dwelt among them,

9 He came vpon the Iamnites by nyght, and set fyre on the hauen, with the shippes: so that the lyght of ỳ fyre was seene at Hierusalem, vpon a two hundred and fourtie furlonges.

10 Now when they were gone from thence nyene furlonges in theyr iourney towarde Timotheus, fyue thousand men on foote, and fyue hundred horsemen of the Arabians fought with him.

11 So when the battell was earnest, and prospered with Iudas through the helpe of God, the residue of the a Arabians beyng ouercome, besought Iudas to be at one with them, and promised to geue hym certayne *pastures, and to doo him good in other thinges.

12 Iudas thynkyng that they should in deede be profitable concernyng many thinges, promised them peace, wherevpon they shooke hands, and so they departed to their tentes.

13 Iudas went also vnto a citie, which was very fast kept with bridges, fenced rounde about with walles, and diuers kindes of people dwelling therein, called Caspin.

14 They that were within it, put such trust in the strength of the walles, and in theyr store of victuals, that they were the slacker in theyr doynges, cursyng and reuyling Iudas with blasphemies, and speakyng such woordes as it becommeth not.

15 But Machabeus callyng vpon the great prince of the worlde (whiche without any battayle rammes or ordinances of warre, dyd cast downe ỳ walles of *Iericho in the time of Iosuah) fell manfully vpon ỳ wals, a. The Nomades of Arabia, so called, because they wer Shepheardes, *Or, cattell.

*Iosu. 6. 26.

16 Tooke the citie, and through the helpe of the Lord made an exceding great slaughter: in so much that a lake of two furlongs brode, whiche lay thereby, seemed to flowe with the blood of the slayne.

17 Then departed they from thence seuen hundred and fyftie furlonges, and came to "Taraca, vnto the Iewes that are called Tubianei.

"Or, Characa.

18 But as for Timotheus, they coulde not get hym there: for (not one matter dispatched) he was departed from thence, and had left certayne men in a very strong hold.

19 But Dositheus, and Sosipater, whiche were captaynes with Machabeus, slue those that Timotheus had left in the house of defence, more then ten thousand men.

20 And Machabeus prepared him with the fyue thousand men that were about hym, set them in order by companies, and went forth agaynst Timotheus, which had with hym an hundred and twentie thousande men of foote, two thousand and fyue hundred horsmen.

21 When Timotheus had knowledge of Judas comming, he sent the women, chyldren, and the other baggage, vnto a castle called Carnion: for it could not be wonne, and was harde to come vnto, the wayes of the same places were so narowe.

22 And when Judas his first band came in syght, the enimies were smytten with feare through the presence of GOD, whiche seeth al thynges: in so muche that they fleeing one here, another there, were rather discomfited of their owne people, and wounded with the strokes of their owne swordes.

23 Judas also was very earnest in folowing vpon them, punyshyng those vngodly, and slue thyrtie thousande men of them.

24 Timotheus also hym selfe fell into the handes of Dositheus and Sosipater, whom he besought with much craft to let him goe with his lyfe, because he had many of the Iewes fathers & brethren in prison: which yf they put him to death, should be despised.

25 So when he had promysed faythfully to delyuer them agayne, according to the condition made, they let hym goe without harme, for the health of the brethren.

26 Then Machabeus marched forth to Carnion, and Atargation, and there slue twentie and fiue thousande men.

27 Now after that he had chased away and slayne his enimies, he remoued the host toward Ephron, a strong citie, wherein was Lysias, and a great multitude of diuers nations: and the strong young men kept the walles, defendyng them myghtyly: In this citie was much ordinaunce and prouision of dartes.

28 But when Judas and his companye had called vpon almyghtie God, whiche with his power breaketh the strength of the enimies, they wanne the citie, and slue twenty and fyue thousand of them that were within.

29 From thence went they to the citie of the "Scithians, which lyeth fyue hundred furlonges from Hierusalem.

"Or, Scythopolis.

30 But when the Iewes which were in the citie, testified that the citizens dealt louingly with them, yea & entreated them kindely in the tyme of their aduersitie, 31 Judas & his companie gaue them thankes, desyryng them to be freendly styl vnto them: and so they came to Hierusalem, the hygh feast of weekes beyng at hande.

32 And after the feast of Pentecost they went forth agaynst Gorgias the gouernor of Idumea, 33 Who came out with thyrr thousand men of foote, and foure hundred horsmen.

34 Which whē they met togeather, it chaunced a fewe of the Iewes to be slayne.

35 And Dositheus one of the Bacenors, a myghtie horsman, tooke holde of Gorgias, and would haue taken hym quycke: but an horsman of Thracia fel vpon hym, & smote of his arme, so that Gorgias escaped, and fled into "Maresa.

"Or, Maresa.

36 When they nowe that were of "Gorgias syde, had foughten long, and were weerie, Judas called vpon the Lord, that he woulde be their helper, and captayne of the feelde:

"Or, Esdrim.

37 And with that he began in his owne language, and song psalmes with a loud voice, insomuch that he made the enimies afraid, and Gorgias men of warre tooke their flyght.

38 So Judas geathered his host, and came into the citie of Odolla: and when the seuenth day came vpon them, they cleansed them selues as the custome was, and kept the Sabboth in the same place.

39 And vpon the day folowing, as necessitie requyred, Judas and his companie came to take vp the bodies of them that were slaine, and to burie them in their fathers graues.

40 Nowe vnder the coates of certayne Iewes which were slayne, they founde iewels that they had taken out of the temple, and from the idols of the Jamnites, "which thyng is forbydden the Iewes by the law: then euery man sawe that this was the cause wherfore they were slayne.

"Deut. 7. 15.

41 And so euery man gaue thankes vnto the Lorde for his ryghtrous iudgement, whiche had opened the thing that was hid.

42 They fel downe also vnto their praiers, and besought God that the fault whiche was made, myght be put out of remembraunce: Beside that, Iudas exhorted the people earnestly to keepe them selues from suche sinne, for so muche as they sawe before their eyes that these men were slaine for the same offence.

43 So he gathered of every one a certaine, and sent two thousande drachmes of syluer vnto Hierusalem, that there myght a sacrifice be offred for the misdeede: in the which he did wel and right, for he had some consyderation and pondering of the lyfe that is after this tyme.

44 For yf he had not thought that they whiche were slayne shoulde ryse agayne, it had been superfluous and vayne to make anye vowe or sacrifice for them that were dead.

45 But for so muche as he sawe that they which die in the fauour and beleefe of God, are in good rest and ioy, he thought it to be good and honourable for a reconcilyng, to doo the same for those whiche were slayne, that the offence myght be forgeuen.

¶ The.xiii. Chapter.

1. The comming of Eupater into Iurie. 4. The death of Menelaus.

1 IN the hundred fourtie and niene yeere, gat Iudas knowledge that Antiochus Eupator was comming with a great power into Iurie,

2 And Lysias the Steward and ruler of his matters with hym, hauyng an hundred and ten thousand men of foote of the Gretians, fyue thousande horsmen, twentie and two Elephantes, and three hundred charrets set with hookes.

3 Menelaus also ioyned him self with them, but with great deceite, spake fayre to the kyng, not for any good to the countrey, but because he thought to haue been made some great man of authoritie.

4 But the kyng of kynges mooued Antiochus mynde agaynst this vngodly person, and Lysias enfourmed the kyng that this Menelaus was the cause of al mischefe: so that the kyng cõmaunded to bryng hym vnto Berea, as the maner of them is, to put hym vnto death in the same place.

5 There was also in the same place a towre of fyftie cubites hygh, heaped with ashes: and it had an instrumẽt that turned round, and on euery syde it rolled downe into the ashes, and there whosoeuer was condemned of sacrilege, or of any other greeuous crime, was cast of al men vnto the death.

6 Whereinto the kyng commaunded that shameful person to be cast among the ashes, as one that was cause of all vngratiousnesse.

7 And reason it was that the vnthryft should dye suche a death, and not to be buried:

8 For he had doone muche mischeefe vnto the aulter of GOD, whose fyre and ashes were holy: therefore was it right that he hym selfe also shoulde be destroyed with ashes.

9 But the king was wood in his mynd, and came to shewe hym selfe more cruel vnto the Iewes then his father was.

10 Which when Iudas perceyued, he commaunded the people to call vpon the Lorde nyght and day, that he would nowe helpe them also, lyke as he had done alway: for they were afrayd to be put from their lawe, from their naturall countrey, and from the holy temple:

11 And not to suffer the people which a litle while afore began to reconer, to be subdued agayne of the blasphemous nations.

12 So when they had doone this togeather, and besought the Lorde for mercye, with weepyng and fastyng three dayes long, flat vpon the grounde, Iudas exhorted them to make them selues redy.

13 But he and the elders togeather deuised to goe forth first with the people, afore the kyng brought forth his host into Iurie, and afore he besieged the citie, and so to commit the matter vnto God.

14 Wherefore he committed the charge of all thynges vnto God the maker of all the worlde, exhortyng his people to fyght manfully, yea euen vnto death, for the lawes, the temple, the citie, their owne native countrey, and to defende the citizens: and he set his host before Modin.

15 He gaue them also that were with hym a token of the victorie of God, choosing out the manlyest young men, went by nyght into the kynges pauilion, slue of the host fourteene thousand men, and the greatest of the Elephantes, with those that sate vppon them.

16 Thus when they had brought a great feare and rumour among the tentes of their enimies, and al thynges went prosperously with them, 17 They departed in the breake of the day, God beyng their helper and defender.

18 Nowe when the king perceiued the manlynesse of the Iewes, he went about to take the strong places by craft,

19 And remooued his host vnto Bethsura, whiche was a well kept house of defence of the Iewes: but they were chased away, hurt,

20 And Judas sent vnto them that were in it, suche thinges as were necessarie.

21 In the Iewes host also there was one Rhodocus, which bewrayed the enimies their secretes: but they sought hym out, and when they had gotten hym, they put hym in prison.

22 After this did the kyng commune with them that were in Bethsura, tooke truice with them, departed, and stroke a battayle with Judas, which ouercame hym.

23 But when he vnderstoode that Philip, whom he had left to be ouerseer of his businesse at Antioche, began to rebel agaynst him, he was astonied in his mynde, so that he yeelded hym selfe to the Iewes, & made them an othe to doo what so euer they thought ryght.

24 Nowe when he was reconciled with them, he offered, made muche of the temple, gaue great gyftes vnto it, 25 Embraced Machabeus, makyng hym captayne and gouernour from Ptolemais vnto the Gerrhenes.

26 Neuertheless, when he came to Ptolemais, the people of the citie were not content with the bonde of freendshyp: for they were afrayde that he woulde breake the couenant.

27 Then went Lysias vp into the iudgement seate, and excused the fact as wel as he could: and enfourmed the people, shewed them the cause why, and pacified them: so he came agayne to Antioche. This is nowe the matter concernyng the kynges iourney, and his returne.

¶ The xiiii Chapter.

By the motion of the Lorde, Demetrius sendeth Nicanor to kil the Iewes.

1 After three yeres was Judas infourmed howe that Demetrius the sonne of Seleucus was come vp with a great power and shippes, through the hauen of Tripolis,

2 To take certayne commodious places and countreyes, agaynst Antiochus and his captayne Lysias.

3 Nowe Alcimus, whiche had been hygh priest, and wylfully defiled him selfe in the tyme of the mixting, seeing that by no meanes he coulde be helped, nor haue any more entrance to the aulter.

4 He came to kyng Demetrius in the hundred fiftie & one yeere, presenting vnto hym a crowne of golde, a paulme, and an Olyue tree, whiche as men thought belonged to the temple: and that day helde his tongue.

5 But when he had gotten opportunitie for his madnesse, Demetrius called hym to counsel, and asked him what thinges or counsels the Iewes leaned vnto?

6 He answeared, The Iewes that be called Assidei (whose captayne is Judas Machabeus) maynteyne warres, make insurrections, and wyl not let the realme be in peace.

7 For I being depriued of my fathers honour (I meane the hygh priesthood) am come hyther:

8 Partly because I was fayethful vnto the kyng, and partly because I sought the profite of mine owne citizens: And why? all our people through the wickednesse of them are not a litle troubled.

9 Wherefore I beseeche thee, O kyng, consider al these thynges diligently, and then make some prouision for the lande and the people, according to the kyndnesse that thou hast offered vnto them.

10 For as long as Judas lyueth, it is not possible that men can lyue in peace.

11 When he had spoken these wordes, other freends also hauing euyl wyl at Judas, set the kyng Demetrius on fyre agaynst hym.

12 Whiche immediatly sent Nicanor, ruler of the Elephantes, a captayne in Jurie, 13 Commaunding hym to slay Judas, and to scatter them that were with hym, and to make Alcimus hygh priest of the great temple.

14 Then the heathen, which fledde out of Jurie from Judas, came to Nicanor by flocches, thynking the harme and decay of the Iewes to be their welfare.

15 Nowe when the Iewes heard of Nicanors comming, and the gatheryng togeather of the heathen, *they sprinckled them selues with earth, and belought him which made them his people, and euer defended his owne portion with euident tokens, that he woulde preserue them styl. *2. Mac. 10. 25.

16 So at the commaundement of the captayne they remooued straight wayes from thence, and came to a towne called Dessau.

17 And Simon Judas brother fel in hande with Nicanor: but through the sodayne *comming of the enimies he was afrayde. *or, falsenes.

18 Neuertheless, Nicanor hearing the manlinesse of them that were with Judas, and the bolde stomackes that they had to fight for their natural countrey, durst not proue the matter with bloodshedding.

19 Wherefore he sent Possidonius, *Theodotus, and Matthathias before, to geue and to take peace. *or, Theodosius, Matthias.

20 So when they had taken long aduisement thereupon, and the captayne shewed it vnto the multitude, they were agreed in one mynde to haue peace.

21 And they appoynted a day to sit vppon these matters quietly among them selues, and for euery one stooles also were brought, and set forth.

22 Neuertheless, Judas commaunded certayne men of armes to wayte in conuenient places, lest there shoulde sodenly arise any euyl through the enimies: and so they communed reasonably togeather.

23 Nicanor while he abode at Hierusalem, ordered him selfe not vnreasonably, but lent away the people that were geathered togeather.

24 He loued Judas euer with his hart, and fauoured hym.

25 He prayed him also to take a wyfe, and to bryng forth children. So he maryed, lyued in rest, and they led a common lyfe.

26 But Alcimus perceyuing the loue that was betwirt them, and howe they were agreed togeather, came to Demetrius, and tolde hym that Nicanor had taken strange matters in hande, and ordeyned Judas, an enimie of the realme, to be the kynges successour.

27 Then the kyng was sore displeased, and through the wicked accusations which Alcimus made of Nicanor, he was so prouoked, that he wrote vnto Nicanor, saying that he was very angry for the freendshyp and agreement whiche he had made with Machabeus, neuertheless, he cõmaunded him in al the haste that he should take Machabeus prysoner, & sende him to Antioche.

28 Whiche letters when Nicanor had seene, he was at his wittes end, and sore greeued, that he shoulde breake the thynges wherein they had agreed, specially seeyng Machabeus was that man that neuer dyd him harme.

29 But because he might not withstande the king, he sought opportunitie to fulfyl his commaundement.

30 Notwithstanding, when Machabeus sawe that Nicanor beganne to be cruell vnto hym, and that he entreated hym more roughly then he was wont, he perceyued that suche vnkyndnesse came not of good, and therefore he geathered a fewe of his men, and withdrewe him selfe from Nicanor.

31 Whiche when he knewe that Machabeus had manfully preuented hym, he came into the great and most holy temple, and commaunded the priestes which were dooyng their vsual offeringes, to deliuer hym the man.

32 And when they sware that they coulde not tel where the man was whom he sought,

33 He stretched out his right hande toward the temple, and made an othe, saying, * If ye wyl not deliuer me Judas captiue, I shal remoue this temple of GOD into the playne feelde, I shal breake downe the aulter, and consecrate this temple vnto Bacchus. * 1 Mac. 7.35

34 After these wordes he departed. Then the priestes lyft vp their handes towarde heauen, and besought him that was euer the defender of their people, saying,

35 Thou, O Lorde of all, which hast neede of nothyng, wouldest that the temple of thy habitation shoulde be among vs:

36 Therefore nowe, O most holy Lorde, keepe this house euer vndefyled, whiche lately was clensed, & stoppe al the mouthes of the vnryghteous.

37 Nowe was there accused vnto Nicanor one Razis, an Alderman of Hierusalem, a louer of the whole citie, and a man of good report, whiche for the kynde harr that he bare vnto the people, was called a father of the Jewes.

38 This man oft times when the Jewes were mynded to keepe them selues vndefyled, defended and deliuered them, beyng content stedfastly to spende his body and his lyfe for his people.

39 So Nicanor wylling to declare the hate that he bare to the Jewes, sent fiue hundred men of warre to take hym.

40 For he thought if he gate him, he shoulde bryng the Jewes in great decay.

41 Nowe when the people began to rushe in at his house, to breake the doores, and to set fyre on it, he beyng nowe taken a fel vpon his swoorde,

42 Chooſyng rather to dye manfully, then to yeelde hym selfe to those wycked doers: and because of his noble stocke, he had rather haue ben put to extreme cruelte. a. This fact is not to be approoued, for that it is contrary to Gods commaundement. Thou shalt not kyl.

43 Notwithstanding, what time he missed of his stroke for haste, & the multitude rushed in violently betwixt the doores, he ranne boldely to the wall, & cast hym selfe downe manfully among the heape of them:

44 Which gaue soone place to his fal, so that he fel vpon his belly.

45 Neuertheless, while there was yet breath within hym, beyng kindled in his mynde, he rose vp, & while his blood gushed out exceedingly (for he was very sore wounded) he ranne through the middest of the people, and gate hym to the toppe of a rocke.

46 So when his blood was nowe gone, he tooke out his owne bowels, and with both his handes threwe them vpon the people, calling callyng vpon the Lord of lyfe and spirite to rewarde hym this agayne: and so he dyed.

¶ The.xv. Chapter.

Nicanor goeth about to come vpon Judas on the Sabboth day. The blasphemie of Nicanor.

1 NOwe when Nicanor knewe that Judas & his companie were in the countrey of Samaria, he thought with all his power to strike a feelde with hym vpon a Sabboth day.

2 Neuertheleſſe, the Iewes that were compelled to goe with hym, sayde, O do not so cruelly and vnkindly, but haowe the Sabboth day, and woorship hym that seeth all thynges.

3 For althis yet sayde the vngratious person, Is there a mightie one in heauen that commaunded the Sabboth day to be kept?

4 And when they said, Yea the liuing God, the mightie Lorde in heauen commaunded the seuenth day to be kept,

5 He sayd, And I am mightie vpon earth, to commaunde them for to arme them selues, & to perfourme the kings businesse: Notwithstandyng, he myght not haue his purpose.

6 Nicanor had deuised with great pryde to ouercome Judas, and to bryng away the victorie:

7 But Machabeus had euer a fast confidēce and a perfect hope in God, that he woulde helpe hym:

8 And exhorted his people not to be afrayde at the commyng of the Heathen: but alway to remember the helpe that had ben shewed vnto them from heauen, yea, and to be sure nowe also that almightie God would geue them the victorie.

9 He spake vnto them out of the lawe and prophetes, putting them in remembrance of the battayles that they had striken afore, and made them to be of good courage.

10 So when their hartes were pluckt vp, he shewed them also the deceitfulnesse of the Heathen, and howe they woulde keepe no couenant nor othe.

11 Thus he weaponed them, not with the armour of shield and speare, but with wholsome woordes and exhortations, he shewed them a dreame also worthy to be beleeued, wherethrough he made them al glad.

12 Whiche was this: He thought that he sawe Onias, whiche had ben hygh priest, a vertuous and louyng man, sad, and of honest conuersation, wel spoken, and one that had ben exercised in godlynes from a child, holdyng vp his handes toward heauen, and prayying for his people.

13 After this, there appeared vnto hym another man, whiche was aged, honourable, and glorious.

14 And Onias sayde, This is a louer of the brethren, and of the people of Israel: this is he that prayeth much for the people, and for all the holy citie, Jeremie the prophete of God.

15 He thought also that Jeremie helde out his ryght hand, and gaue vnto Judas a swoorde of golde, saying, 16 Take this holy swoord, a gyft from God, wherewith thou shalt smite downe the enimies of the people of Israel.

17 And so they were wel comforted through the woordes of Judas, whiche were very sweete, and able to styrre vp their courage, and tooke courage vnto them, so that the young men were determined in their mindes to fight, and to abide cliuely at it, in so much that in the thynges whiche they tooke in hande, their boldnesse shewed the same, because the holy citie, the sanctuarie, and the temple were in perill.

18 For the which they tooke more care, then for their wiues, children, brethren, and kinsfolkes.

19 Agayne, they that were in the citie, were most carefull for those which were to fight.

20 Nowe when they were al in a hope that the iudgement of the matter was at hande, and the enimies drue nygh, the host being set in aray, the Elephantes and horsemen euery one standyng in his place,

21 Machabeus consyderyng the commyng of the multitude, the ordinance of diuers weapons, the cruelnesse of the beastes, helde vp his handes toward heauen, calling vpon the Lord that doth wonders, which geueth not the victorie after the multitude of weapons, & power of the host, but to them that please hym, according to his owne wyll.

22 Therefore in his prayer he sayde these woordes, *O Lorde, thou that dyddest sende thyne angel in the tyme of Ezecias kyng of Juda, and in the host of Sennacherib slewest an hundred, foure score, and fyue thousande:

23 Sende nowe also thy good angel before vs, O Lorde of heauens, in the fearefulnesse and dread of thy myghtie arme, 24 That they which come agaynst thy holy people to blaspheme them, may be afrayde. And so he made an ende of his woordes.

25 Then Nicanor and they that were with hym, drue nigh, with trumpettes and showtynges for ioy, 26 But Judas & his companie with prayer and callyng vppon God, encountred with the enimies.

*4.kin.19.35 Tobi.2.21. Eccl.48.24. Esai.37.36.

27 With their handes they smote, but with their hartes they prayed vnto the Lord, and slue no lesse then thirtie and fyue thousande men: for through the present helpe of God they were gloriously comforted.

28 Nowe when they left of, and were turnyng agayne with ioy, they vnderstood that Nicanor him self was slaine with the other for al his armour.

29 Then they gaue a great showte & a crie, praysing the almightie Lorde in their owne language.

30 And Iudas, whiche was euer redy to spende his body and lyfe for his citizens, commaunded to smyte of Nicanors head, with his arme and hand, and to be brought to Hierusalem.

31 When he came there, he called al the people and the preestes, to the aulter, with those that were in the castle, 32 And shewed them Nicanors head, and his wicked hand, which he had presumptuously holden vp agaynst the temple of God.

33 He caused the tongue also of that vngodly Nicanor to be cut in litle peeces, and to be cast to the fowles, and that cruell mans hande to be hanged vp before the temple.

34 So euery man gaue thankes vnto the Lorde, saying, Blessed be he that hath kept his place vndefiled.

35 As for Nicanors head, he hanged it vp vppon the hygh castle, for an euident and playne token of the helpe of God.

36 And so they agreed al togeather to keepe that day holy, namely the thirteenth day of the moneth Adar. Februarie.

37 Whiche in the Syrians language is called, the next day before Mardocheus day.

38 Thus was Nicanor slayne, and from that tyme forth the Iewes had the citie in possession: and here wyll I make an ende.

39 If I haue done wel, and as the storie required, it is the thyng that I desyred: but yf I haue spoken slenderly and barely, I haue done that I coulde.

40 For as it is hurtful to drinke wine alone, and then agayne water, and as wyne tempered with water is pleasant, and delyteth the tast: so the setting out of the matter, delyteth the eare of them that reade the storie: and here shalbe the ende.

IESVS CHRISTE.

FOR better vnderſtandyng of the contentes of this Table, ye ſhal note that the Euangeliſtes, Saint Matthewe, and Saint Luke, haue diuerſly recited the generation of our Sauiour Chriſte, accordyng to the fleſhe, and yet tende both to one ende: that is, to prooue (that accordyng to that whiche is written of him in the propheſies) he is deſcended of the royall blood of Dauid, and rightly ſucceeded him in the kingdome. So the diuerſitie of the ſaide recitall conſyſteth in this: that Saint Matthewe ſeeketh forth the ſayde generation deſcending from father to ſonne, and Saint Luke aſcendeth from ſonne to father, whiche come al to one end. But to ſhew ꝑ agreement of S. Luke, with S. Matthew, we haue here ſet forth the generation by him deſcribed, deſcendyng after the order of S. Matthew, to the end that the one may be conferred with ꝑ other. Furthermore, Saint Matthewe deſcribeth the generation of Ioſeph, though it belong nothing eb Ieſus Chriſt after the fleſh, and S. Luke that of the Virgin Marie: for it was very necceſſary to recite both, for as much as women were commonly reputed of the line or kinred of their husbandes; And ſo as touchyng her husbandes ſide, as other owne ofſpring, it is manifeſt that ſhe was of the royal lyne of Dauid.

* Iuda of the line of Nathan, engendred Simeon, called Ioas, which came to ꝑ royal ſeate, becauſe the poſteritie of Solomon fayled in Ochoſias: and therefore the kingdome belonged to Nathans poſteritie, accordyng to the ordinance of Dauid, as Philo reciteth, that is, the youngeſt of the chyldren of Beerſabe (whiche was Solomon) ſhould raigne after him, and that yf the poſteritie fayled, the kyngdome ſhoulde come to the poſteritie of the next younger, whiche was Nathan: and therfore Nathan was called Anſear, that is to ſay, Brother of the prince, and they of his poſteritie, Aduſcarim, that is to ſay, Brothers of the prince, and Mathithim, which ſignifieth, Geuen to ſucceede. The ſaid Philo recyteth, that the poſteritie of ꝑ ſaid Nathan was ſo honoured of the king Ioſaphat, that he called his chyldren the brothers of Ioram his ſonne, & their children ꝑ brothers of Ochoſias his nephew: and this is the cauſe why the Scripture ſayth, that Ioas was the ſonne of Ochoſias, though he were not his natural ſonne, but the ſonne of Iuda, deſcended from Nathan.

Note that Saint Matthewe going about to deſcribe the generation by fourteenes, dyd kyll Ieaue out Ioas, Amazias, and Azarias, which are ſet in betweene Ochoſias, the laſt of the race of Solomon, and Ioathan. Further, he hath left out Ichaas, and Ioacim, placed betweene the ſame deſcription more perfect and playne.

* For as much as it ſeemeth that Saint Luke maketh no mention of the generation of Marie, but rather of Ioſeph, for he vſeth theſe wordes, that Ieſus was counted the ſonne of Ioſeph, whiche was of Heli, that is to ſay, the ſonne of Heli: we muſt vnderſtand that in this place the name of ſonne is taken for the name of ſonne in lawe, and that Saint Luke meaneth, that Ioſeph was the ſonne in lawe to Heli, for that he tooke to wyfe the Virgin Marie daughter to the ſayde Heli, whiche maner of ſpeache is common in the ſcripture: for we fynde that Noemi calleth Ruth her daughter, whiche was but her ſtepdaughter, her ſonnes wyfe.

20 But whyle he thought these thinges, behold, the angel of the Lorde appeared vnto him in a dreame, saying, Ioseph thou sonne of Dauid, feare not to take vnto thee Marie thy wyfe, for that whiche is conceyued in her, is of the holy ghost.

21 She shal bryng foorth a sonne, *and thou shalt cal his name Iesus: for he shall saue his people from theyr sinnes, *Luke.1.38. Act.4.11.

22 (Al this was done, that it might be fulfylled, which was spoken of the Lorde by the prophete, saying, 23 *Beholde, a virgin shalbe with chylde, and shal bryng foorth a sonne, and they shal call his name Emmanuel, which is by interpretation, God with vs.) *Esai.7.14.

24 Then Ioseph, being rayled from sleepe, dyd as the angel of the Lorde had bydden hym, and he tooke his wyfe:

25 c And knewe her not, tyl she had brought foorth her fyrst borne sonne, and called his name Iesus.

c. This phrase doeth not import that he knewe her afterward: as the lyke phrase vsed, Mat.5.28. and Psal.110 of that she had any moe children.

¶ The ii. Chapter.

1. The time and place of Christes byrth.
14. Christ fleeth into Egypt.
16. The young chyldren are slayne.

1 WHen * Iesus was borne in Bethlehem, a citie of Iurie, in the dayes of Herode the king: behold, there came wyse men from the East to Hierusalem, *Luke.2.6. The Gospel on the Epiphanie.

2 Saying, Where is he that is borne kyng of the Iewes? For we haue seene his starre in the East, and are come to worshyp hym.

3 When Herode the kyng had heard these thinges, he was troubled, and al the citie of Hierusalem with hym.

4 And when he had geathered al the chefe priestes and scribes of the people togeather, ther, he demaunded of them where Christe shoulde be borne.

5 And they sayde vnto him, At Bethlehem in Iurie: For thus it is written by the pro-phete,

*Mich.5. 2. John.7. 41. 6 *And thou Bethlehem in the lande of Iu-da, art not the least among the princes of Iuda: For out of thee shal there come a captayne, that shal gouerne my people Israel.

7 Then Herode, when he had priuily called the wyse men, enquyred of them diligently what tyme the starre appeared.

8 And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Goe, and searche diligently for the young childe, and when ye haue found him, bring me woorde agayne, that I may come and woorshyp hym also.

9 When they had heard the kyng, they departed, and lo, the starre which they sawe in the East, went before them, tyl it came and stoode ouer the place wherein the young childe was.

10 When they sawe the starre, they reioy-ced exceedingly with great ioy,

11 And went into the house, and they sawe
the young childe with Marie his mother, and fel downe, and woorshypped hym: and when they had opened their treasures, presented vnto hym gyftes, gold, and frankensence, and myrre.

12 And after they were warned of God in a dreame that they should not returne to He-rode, they departed into their owne countrey another way.

The Gospel on Innocentes day.

13 When they were departed, beholde, the angel of the Lorde appeared to Ioseph in a dreame, saying, Arise, and take the young childe, and a his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there tyl I bring thee woorde: for it wil come to passe, that Herode shal seeke the young childe to destroy hym.

a. Ioseph was not the father of Christe, els the angell would not haue sayd, Take the chylde and his mother, but father, take thy chylde.

14 When he arose, he tooke the young childe and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt:

15 And was there vnto the death of Herode, that it might be fulfylled whiche was spoken of the Lorde by the prophete, saying,
*Out of Egypt haue I called my sonne.

*Osee.11. 1.

16 Then Herode, when he sawe that he was mocked of the wyse men, was exceedyng wroth, and sent foorth, and slue al the chyldren that were in Bethlehem, and in al the coastes therof, as many as were two yeeres olde and vnder, accordyng to the tyme, which he had diligently searched out of the wyse men.

17 Then was fulfylled that whiche was spoken by Ieremie the Prophete, saying,

18 In Rama was there a voyce heard, *lamentation, weeping, and great mour-nyng, Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they were not.

*Ier.31.15

19 But when Herode was dead, beholde, an angel of the Lorde appeared in a dreame to Ioseph in Egypt,

20 Saying, Arise, & take the young childe and his mother, and goe into the lande of Israel: For they are dead which sought the young childes lyfe.

21 And he arose, and tooke the young childe and his mother, and came into the lande of Israel.

22 But when he heard that Archelaus did raigne in Iurie in the roome of his father Herode, he was afrayde to goe thyther:
notwithstanding, after he was warned of God in a dreame, he turned aside into the parties of Galilee:

23 And when he was come thyther, he dwelt in a citie, which is called Nazareth, that it might be fulfylled whiche was spoken by the prophetes, He shalbe called a Nazarite.

¶ The iii. Chapter.

1. Iohns preachyng, office, lyfe, baptisme, 7. repre-hendyng of the Pharisees, 13. and baptising of Christe in Iordane.

1 IN those dayes came *John the Baptist, preachyng in the wyldernesse of Iurie,

*Marke.1.4 Luke.3.3.

2 And saying, Repent a ye: for the kingdome of heauen is at hande.

a. This worde is, after a sort to be wisshed in a mynde to a mende.

3 For this is he that was spoken of by the prophete Esaias, saying, *The voyce of one crying in the wyldernes, Prepare ye ỹ way of the Lorde, make his pathes straight.

*Esai.40.3. Marke.1.3.

4 *This John had his rayment of Camels heare, & a letherne girdle about his loynes, his meate was locustes and wylde honie.

*Marke.1.6

5 *Then went out to hym Hierusalem, and al Iurie, & al the region rounde about Iordane,

*Marke.1.5. Luke.3.7.

6 And were baptised of hym in Iordane, confessyng their sinnes.

7 But when he sawe many of the Pharisees and Saduces come to his baptisme, he sayde vnto them, *O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the anger to come?

*Mat.13.34

8 Bring foorth therefore fruites meete for repentance.

9 And be not of suche minde, that ye would say within your selues, *We haue Abraham to our father: For I say vnto you, that God is able of these stones to rayse vp children vnto Abraham.

*John.8.33 Act.13.26.

11 *I baptise you in water vnto repentance: but he that commeth after me, is myghtier then I, whose shoes I am not woorthie to beare, he shall baptise you with the holye ghost and with fire.

Luke.3.18.
12 *Whose fanne is in his hande, and he wil throughly purge the floore, and geather his wheate into his garner: but wyll burne vp the chaffe with vnquenchable fire.

Mark.1.8. Luke.3.22.
13 *Then commeth Iesus from Galilee to Iordane, vnto Iohn, to be baptised of him.
14 But Iohn forbade hym, saying, I haue nede to be baptised of thee, and commest thou to me?
15 Iesus answering, sayde vnto hym, Suffer it to be so nowe: for thus it becommeth vs to fulfyl al righteousnesse. Then he suffered hym.
16 And Iesus, when he was baptised, went vp strayghtway out of the water: and loe, the heauens were opened vnto hym, and Iohn sawe the spirit of God dessendyng lyke a Doue, and lyghtyng vpon hym.
17 And loe there came a voyce from the heauens, saying, *This is my dearly beloued sonne, in whom I am wel pleased.

¶ The.iiii.Chapter.

3. Christe fasteth, and is tempted. 18. He calleth Peter, Andrewe, Iames, and Iohn.

The Gospel on the first sunday in Lent.
1 THen was *Iesus led vp of the spirite into wyldernesse, to be tempted of the deuyl.

Mar.1.12. Luke.4.1.
2 And when he had fasted fourtie dayes and fourtie nyghtes, he was afterwarde an hungred.
3 And when the tempter came to hym, he sayde, If thou be the sonne of God, commaunde that these stones be made bread.
4 But he answeared, and sayd, It is wrytten, *Man shal not lyue by bread onely, but by euery woorde that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

Deut.8.3.
5 Then the deuyl taketh him vp into the holy citie, and setteth hym on a pinacle of the temple,
6 And sayth vnto hym, If thou be the sonne of God, cast thee selfe downe: For it is written, *that he shall geue his angelles charge ouer thee, and with their handes they shall lyft thee vp, lest at any tyme thou dashe thy foote against a stone.

Psa.90.12
7 Iesus sayd vnto him, it is written againe, *Thou shalt not tempt the Lorde thy God.

Deut.6.16
8 Agayne the deuyll taketh hym vp into an exceedyng hygh mountayne, and sheweth hym al the kyngdomes of the woorlde, and the glory of them:
9 And sayth vnto hym, Al these thyngs wyl I geue thee, yf thou wylt fal downe and woorshyp me.
10 Then sayth Iesus vnto hym, Geat thee hence behynde me Satan: for it is wrytten, *Thou shalt woorshyp the Lorde thy God, and hym onely shalt thou serue.

*Deut.6.13 and.10.20.
11 Then the deuyll leaueth hym, & beholde, the angels came and ministred vnto hym.
12 *When Iesus had heard that Iohn was a delyuered vp, he departed into Galilee,

*Mar.1.14. Luke.4.14. Iohn.4.43.
13 And when he had left Nazareth, he went and dwelt in Capernaum, whiche is a citie vpon the sea coast, in the borders of Zabulon and Nephthali.

a. That is, cast in prysion.
14 That it myght be fulfylled, whiche was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying,
15 *The lande of Zabulon, and the lande of Nephthali, by the way of the sea beyonde Iordane, Galilee of the Gentiles.

*Esai.9.1.
16 The people, which sate in darknes, sawe great lyght, and to them whiche sate in the region & shadowe of death, lyght is sprong vp.
17 *From that tyme Iesus began to preach, and to say, Repent: for the kyngdome of heauen is at hande.

*Mark.1.13
18 *And Iesus walkyng by the sea of Galilee, sawe two brethren, Simon, which was called Peter, & Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea (for they were Fyshers.)

*Mark.1.16 The Gospel on S. Andrewes day.
19 And he sayth vnto them, Folowe me: and I wyl make you Fyshers of men.
20 And they strayght way left their nettes, and folowed hym.
21 And whē he was gone forth from thence, he sawe other two brethren, Iames the sonne of Zebedee, & Iohn his brother, in the shyp with Zebedee their father, mendyng their nettes: and he called them.
22 And they immediately left the shyp and their father, and folowed hym.
23 And Iesus went about al Galilee, teachyng in their Synagogues, and preaching the Gospel of the kingdome, and healing al maner of sickenesse, and all maner of disease among the people.
24 And his fame spread abrode throughout al Syria: & they brought vnto hym al sicke people that were taken with diuers diseases, and grypinges, and them that were possessed with deuyles, and those whiche were lunatike, and those that had the palsie, and he healed them.
25 And there folowed hym great multitudes of people, from Galilee, b and from Decapolis, and from Hierusalem, and from Iurie, and from the regions that lye beyonde Iordane.

b. A countrey conteyning ten cities.

¶ The .v. Chapter.

In this Chapter, and in the two next folowyng, is conteyned the moste excellent and lofyng sermon of Christe, in the mount, whiche sermon, is the very key that openeth the understandyng into the lawe. In this fifth Chapter specially, he preacheth of the eight beatitudes, or blessinges, 21 of manslaughter, 22. of wrath, and angre, 31. of swearyng.

The Gospel on al saintes day.

1 When he sawe the multitude, he went vp into a mountayne: and when he was set, his disciples came vnto hym.

2 And when he had opened his mouth, he taught them, saying,

*Luk.6.20. 3 *Blessed are the poore in spirite: for theirs is the kyngdome of heauen.

*Esai.61.2. 4 *Blessed are they that mourne: for they shalbe comforted.

*Psal.38.11. 5 *Blessed are the meeke: for they shall inherite the earth.

*Esai.65.9. 6 *Blessed are they whiche doo hunger and thirst after ryghteousnesse: for they shalbe satisfied.

7 Blessed are the mercifull: for they shall obteyne mercy.

*Psal.24.4 8 *Blessed are the pure in hart: for they shal see God.

9 Blessed are the peace makers: for they shalbe called the chyldren of God.

*1. Pet.3.14 10 *Blessed are they whiche haue been persecuted for ryghteousnesse sake: for theirs is the kyngdome of heauen.

11 Blessed are ye, when men shall reuyle you, and persecute you, and lying, shal say al maner of* euil saying agaynst you, for my sake.

*1.Pe.4.14. 12 Reioyce ye and be glad: for great is your rewarde in heauen. For so persecuted they the prophetes whiche were before you.

*Mar.9.50 Luk.14.34. 13 *Ye are the salt of the earth: But yf the salt become vnsauerie, wherein shall it be salted? It is thencefoorth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be troden vnder foote of men.

14 Ye are the lyght of the worlde. A citie that is set on an hyl, can not be hyd.

*Mar.4.21. Luke.8.16. and.11.33. 15 *Neyther doo men light a candle, and put it vnder a bushel: but on a candlesticke, and it geueth light vnto al that are in the house.

*1. Pet.2.12 16 Let your lyght so shyne before men, *that they may see your good woorkes, and glorifie your father whiche is in heauen.

17 Thynke not that I am come to destroye the lawe or the prophetes. I am not come to destroy, but to fulfyl.

*Luk.17.10. 18 For truely I say vnto you, *Tyl heauen and earth passe, one iote or one title of the lawe shal not scape, tyl al be fulfylled.

*Jam.2.10. 19 *Whosoeuer therefore shall breake one of these least commaundementes, and shal teach men so, he shalbe called the least in the kyngdome of heauen: but whosoeuer shall doo and teache so, the same shalbe called great in the kyngdome of heauen.

20 For I say vnto you, * Except your righteousnesse shal exceede the ryghteousnesse of the Scribes and Pharisees, ye shal in no case enter into the kyngdome of heauen.

*Luk.11.39. The Gospel on the .vi. sunday after trinitie.

21 Ye haue heard, that it was sayd to them of olde tyme, * Thou shalt not kyl: whosoeuer kylleth, shalbe in danger of iudgement.

*Exo. 20.13 Deuter.5.17.

22 But I say vnto you, that whosoeuer is angrye with his brother vnaduisedly, shalbe in danger of iudgement: And whosoeuer shall say vnto his brother, Racha, shalbe in danger of a counsel: but whosoeuer shal say thou foole, shalbe in danger of hel fire.

23 Therefore yf thou bryng thy gyft to the aulter, and there remembrest that thy brother hath ought agaynst thee:

24 Leaue there thy gyfte before the aulter, and goe thy way, firste be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gyfte.

25 *Agree with thyne aduersarie quickly, whyles thou art in the way with hym: lest at any tyme the aduersarie delyuer thee to the iudge, and the iudge delyuer thee to the minister, and then thou be cast into prison.

*Luk.12.58.

26 Verely I say vnto thee, thou shalt by no meanes come out thence, tyl thou hast paid the vttermost farthyng.

27 Ye haue hearde that it was sayde vnto them of olde tyme, * Thou shalt not commit adulterie.

*Exo.20.14

28 But I say vnto you, that whosoeuer loketh on a woman to lust after her, hath committed adulterie with her alredy in his hart.

29 *Yf thy ryght eye offende thee, pucke it out, and cast it from thee: For it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perysh, & not that thy whole body should be cast into hel.

*Math.18.8 Mark.9.47

30 And yf thy ryght hande offende thee, cut it of, and cast it from thee: For it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perysshe, and not that al thy body shoulde be cast into hel.

31 It hath been sayde, *Whosoeuer wyl put away his wyfe, let hym geue her a writyng of deuorcement.

*Deu. 24.1 Math.19.7 Mark.10.4. Luke.16.18.

32 But I say vnto you, That whosoeuer doeth put away his wyfe, except it be for fornication, causeth her to commit adulterie: and whosoeuer marrieth her that is deuorced, committeth adulterie.

1. Cor. 7.10

33 Agayne, ye haue heard that it hath been sayde vnto them of olde tyme, * Thou shalt not forswear thee selfe, but shalt perfourme

*Exo.20.7. Leuit. 19.12 Deute.5.11.

sourme vnto the Lorde thine othes.

34 But I say vnto you, Sweare not at al, neyther by heauen, for it is Gods seate, 35 Nor by the earth, for it is his footestoole: neyther by Hierusalem, for it is the citie of the great kyng.

36 Neyther shalt thou sweare by thy head, because thou canst not make one heare white or blacke.

37 *But let your communication be yea, yea: nay, nay: For what so euer is more then these, commeth of euyl. *Iam.5. 12.

38 Ye haue heard howe it hath been sayde, *An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth. *Exo.21. 24 Leui.24. 20 Deut.19.21.

39 But I say vnto you, *that ye resist not euyl: but who so euer wyl geue thee a blow on thy ryght cheeke, turne to hym the other also. *Luke.6. 29 Rom.12.17. 1.Cor.6.7.

40 And if any man wyll sue thee at the lawe, and take away thy coate, let hym haue thy cloke also.

41 And who so euer wyl compel thee to goe a mile, goe with hym twayne.

42 *Geue to hym that asketh thee: and from him that woulde borowe of thee, turne not thou away. Deut.15.8.

43 Ye haue heard that it hath been sayde, *Thou shalt loue thy neyghbour, and hate thine enimie: *Leui.19.18.

44 But I say vnto you, *Loue your enimies, blesse them that curse you, doo good to them that hate you, *pray for them whiche hurt you, and persecute you: *Luke.6.27 *Luk.23.24 Ac.7. 60. 1.Cor.4.13. *Luke.6.32.

45 *That ye may be the children of your father which is in heauen: for he maketh his sunne to ryse on the euyl & on the good, and sendeth raine on the iust, and on the vniust.

46 For if ye loue them whiche loue you, what rewarde haue ye? Doo not the Publicanes euen the same?

47 And if ye *salute your brethren onely, what singuler thyng doo ye? Doo not also the Publicanes likewyse? *Or, Greete with embracyng.

48 Ye shal therfore be perfect, euen as your father which is in heauen is perfect.

¶ The.vi. Chapter.

Of almes. 5. prayer, 16. of fastyng. 19. He forbiddeth the careful seeking of vvorldly thinges.

1 TAke heede that ye doo not your almes before men, to the intent that ye would be seene of them, or els ye haue no rewarde of your father, which is in heauen.

2 Therefore, *when thou dost thine almes, doo not blowe a trumpet before thee, as hypocrites doo, in the synagogues, and in the streetes, that they might be esteemed of men. Verely I say vnto you, they haue their rewarde. *Rom.12. 8.

3 But when thou doest almes, let not thy leaft hande knowe, what thy ryght hande doeth:

4 That thine almes may be in secrete: And thy father which seeth in secrete, him selfe shal rewarde thee openly.

5 And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they loue to pray standing in the synagogues, and in the corners of the streetes, that they may be seene of men. Verely I say vnto you, they haue their rewarde.

6 But when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy doore, pray to thy father whiche is in secrete, and thy father whiche seeth in secrete, shal rewarde thee openly.

7 But when ye pray, babble not muche, as the heathen doo. For they thynke that they shalbe heard, for their muche babblinges sake.

8 Be not ye therefore lyke vnto them: For your father knoweth, what thynges ye haue neede of, before ye aske of hym.

9 After this manner therefore pray ye: *Our father whiche art in heauen, halowed be thy name. *Luke.11. 2.

10 Let thy kingdome come. Thy wyll be done, as wel in earth, as it is in heauen.

11 Geue vs this day our dayly bread.

12 And forgeue vs our debtes, as we forgeue our debters.

13 And leade vs not into temptation, * but deliuer vs from euyl: for thine is the kingdome, and the power, and the glory, for euer, Amen. *Mat.13.19

14 For, *if ye forgeue men their trespasses, your heauenly father shal also forgeue you. *Mar.11.25 Eccl.28.2.

15 But, if ye forgeue not men their trespasses: no more shall your father forgeue you your trespasses.

16 Moreouer, when ye fast, be not of an heauy countenance, as the hypocrites are: for they disfygure their faces, that they myght appeare vnto men to fast: Verely I say vnto you, they haue their rewarde.

17 But thou, when thou fastest, annoynt thyne head, and washe thy face: The Gospel on the fyrst Sunday in Lent.

18 That thou appeare not vnto men to fast, but vnto thy father which is in secrete: and thy father which seeth in secrete, shall rewarde thee openly.

19 * Heape not vp for your selues treasures vpon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where theeues breake through, and steale. *Luk.12.33. 1.Tim.6.19

20 * But lay vp for you treasures in heauen, where neyther moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where theeues doo not breake through, nor steale. *Luk.12.34

21 For where your treasure is, there wyll your hart be also.

*Luke.11.34 22 *The candle of the body is the eye: wherefore if thine eye be single, al thy body shalbe ful of light.

23 But if thine eye be wycked, al thy body shal be ful of darkenesse. Wherefore, if the light that is in thee be darkenesse, howe great is that darkuesse?

*Luke.16.13 24 *No man can serue two maisters: for eyther he shal hate the one and loue the other, or els he shal leane to the one and despise the other. Ye can not serue God, and a Mammon.

*Luk.12.22. Psal.55.23. 1.Pet.5.7. 25 *Therefore I say vnto you, Be not careful for your life, what ye shal eate or drinke, nor yet for your body what ye shal put on: Is not the lyfe more worth then meate? and the body then rayment?

26 Beholde the foules of the ayre: for they sowe not, neyther doo they reape, nor cary into barnes, yet your heauenly father feedeth them. Are ye not muche better then they?

27 Whiche of you by takyng of carefull thought, can adde one cubite vnto his stature?

Lilies. 28 And why care ye for rayment? Learne of the Lillies of the field, howe they growe: they weerie not themselues with labour, neither doo they spinne.

29 And yet I say vnto you, that euen Solomon in al his royaltie, was not arayed like one of these.

30 Wherefore if God so clothe the grasse of the fielde, which though it stande to day, is to morowe cast into the Ouen: shal he not muche more doo the same for you, O ye of litle fayth?

31 Therefore take no thought, saying, What shal we eate? or, what shal we drinke? or, wherewith shal we be clothed?

32 (For after al these thynges doo the gentiles seeke:) for your heauenly father knoweth that ye haue neede of al these thynges.

33 But seeke ye fyrst the kyngdome of God, and his righteousnesse, and al these thinges shalbe added vnto you.

b. That is, the present day hath ynough of his owne greefe or affliction. 34 Care not then for the morowe, for the morowe shal care for it selfe: b Sufficient vnto the day, is the euyl thereof.

The.vii.Chapter.

1. He forbiddeth foolyshe and rash iudgement.
5. He reprooueth hypocrisie.

*Luke.6.37. Rom.2.1. 1.Cor.4.3. *Mar.25.4. Luke.6.38. 1 IUdge ye *not, that ye be not iudged.

2 For with what iudgement ye iudge, ye shalbe iudged: *and with what measure ye meate, it shalbe measured to you agayne.

3 *Why seest thou the more that is in thy brothers eye, but perceyuest not the beame that is in thine owne eye?

*Luke.6.41 4 *Or howe wylt thou say to thy brother, Suffer me, I wyl cast out a mote out of thine eye: and beholde, the beame is in thine owne eye?

5 Thou hypocrite, fyrst cast out the beame out of thine owne eye: and then shalt thou see clearely to cast out the mote that is in thy brothers eye.

6 Geue not that whiche is holy vnto the dogges, neither cast ye your pearles before the swine: lest they treade them vnder their feete, and turnyng agayne, al to rent you.

*Mat.21.22 Mar.11.24. Luke.11.9. Iohn.16.14 Iames.1.6. 7 *Aske ye, and it shalbe geuen you: seeke, and ye shal finde: knocke, and it shalbe opened vnto you.

8 For euery one that asketh, receyueth: and he that seeketh, findeth: and to hym that knocketh, it shalbe opened.

9 What man is there of you, if his sonne aske breade, wyl he geue hym a stone?

10 Or if he aske fishe, wyl he geue hym a serpent?

11 If ye then, beyng euyl, knowe to geue your chyldren good gyftes: howe muche more wyl your father which is in heauen, geue good thynges to them that aske hym?

*Luke.6.31. Tobi.4.16. 12 Therefore al thynges *what so euer ye woulde that men shoulde doo to you, doo ye euen so to them: For this is the law and the prophetes.

*Luk.13.24. 13 *Enter ye in at the straite gate, for wide is the gate, and brode is the way that leadeth to destruction, & many there be which goe in thereat.

The Gospel on the.ix. sunday after trinitie. 14 Because straite is the gate, and narowe is the way which leadeth vnto lyfe, & fewe there be that finde it.

15 Beware of the false prophetes whiche come to you in shepes clothing, but inwardly they are rauenyng woolues.

*Luke.6.43 16 Ye shal knowe them by their fruites: *Doo men gather grapes of thornes? Or, figges of thistles?

17 Euen so, euery good tree, bringeth forth good fruite: but a corrupt tree, bryngeth forth euyl fruite.

18 A good tree can not bryng forth bad fruite, neyther can a bad tree bryng forth good fruite.

*Math.3.10 19 *Euery tree that bryngeth not forth good fruite, is hewen downe and cast into the fyre.

20 Wherefore, by their fruites ye shall knowe them.

*Rom.2.13. Iames.1.22 21 Not euery one that sayth vnto me, *Lord, Lorde, shal enter into the kyngdome of heauen: but he that doeth the wyl of my father which is in heauen.

22 Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, haue we not prophesied thorough thy name? and through thy name haue cast out deuils? and done many great workes through thy name?

23 And then will I confesse vnto them, That I neuer knewe you: Depart from me all ye that worke iniquitie.

'Luk.13.26 'Psal.6.9.

24 Therefore, whosoeuer heareth of me these sayinges, and doth the same, I wyl liken him vnto a wise man, which buylt his house vpon a rocke.

'Luk.6.47.

25 And the rayne descended, and the floods came, and the windes blewe, and beate vpon that house: and it fell not, because it was grounded on a rocke.

26 And euery one that heareth of me these sayinges, and doth them not, shalbe likened vnto a foolishe man, which buylt his house vpon the sande:

27 And the rayne descended, and the floods came, and the windes blew, and beat vpon that house, & it fell, & great was the fall of it.

28 And it came to passe, when Iesus had ended these sayinges, the people were astonied at his doctrine.

'Mark.1.12 Luk.4.32.

29 For he taught them as one hauyng power, and not as the Scribes.

¶ The.viii. Chapter.

Christ cleanseth the leper. 14. stylleth the sea and wynde. 28. and dryueth the deuyls out of the possessed, into the swyne.

The Gospel on the.iii. Sunday after the Epiphanie.

1 When he was come downe from the mountaine, great multitudes followed hym.

'Mark.1.4. Luk.5.12.

2 And beholde, there came a leper, and worshipped hym, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me cleane.

3 And Iesus, when he had put forth his hand, touched him, saying, I will, be thou cleane. And immediatly his leprosie was cleansed.

4 And Iesus sayth vnto hym, See thou tell no man, but goe, shewe thy selfe to the priest, and offer the gyft that 'Moses commaunded, for a witnesse vnto them.

'Leuit.14.4

'Luk.7.1.

5 And when Iesus was entred into Capernaum, there came vnto him a Centurion, beseechyng him,

6 And saying, Lord, my seruant lyeth at home sicke of the palsie, grieuously pained.

7 And Iesus sayth to hym, I when I come, I wil heale him.

8 The Centurion answeared, and sayde, Lorde, I am not worthy that thou shouldest come vnder my rooфe, but speake the worde onely, and my seruant shalbe healed.

9 For I also am a man set vnder auctoritie, hauyng souldiers vnder me: and I say to this man, Goe, and he goeth; & to another, Come, and he commeth: and to my seruant, Doo this, and he doeth it.

10 When Iesus heard that, he marueyled, and sayde to them that followed, Verely I say vnto you, I haue not founde so great fayth, no not in Israel.

11 I say vnto you, that many shal come from the East and West, and shal rest with Abraham, and Isahac, and Iacob, in the kyngdome of heauen.

12 But the chyldren of the kingdome shall be cast out into vtter darkenesse: there shalbe weeping and gnashyng of teeth.

*Mat.22.13

13 And Iesus sayde vnto the Centurion, Goe thy way, and as thou hast beleeued, so be it done vnto thee. And his seruant was healed in the selfe same houre.

14 And when Iesus was come into Peters house, he sawe his wiues mother layd, and sicke of a feuer:

*Mark.1.29 Luk.4.38.

15 And he touched her hand, & the feuer left her: and she arose, and ministred vnto them.

19 And a certayne Scribe came, and sayde vnto hym, Master, I wyl folow thee, whyther so euer thou goest.

20 And Iesus sayth vnto him, The foxes haue holes, and the byrdes of the ayre haue nestes: but the sonne of man hath not where to rest his head.

21 And another of his disciples sayde vnto hym, Lorde, suffer me first to goe, and bury my father.

22 But Iesus sayde vnto hym, Folowe me, and let the dead bury their dead.

23 And when he entred into a ship, his disciples folowed hym.

*Mark. 5.1. Luk. 8.26. 28 * And when he was come to the other syde, into the countrey of the Gergesines, there met him two possessed with deuylles, comming out of the graues, very fierce, so that no man myght passe by that way.

29 And beholde, they cryed out, saying, O Iesu, thou sonne of God, what haue we to doo with thee? Art thou come hyther to torment vs before the tyme?

30 And there was a good way of from them, an heard of many swine, feedyng.

31 So the deuyls besought him, saying, If thou cast vs out, suffer vs to goe away into the heard of the swyne.

32 And he sayd vnto them, Goe. Then went they out, and departed into the heard of the swine: and beholde, the whole heard of the swyne rushed headlong into the sea, and perished in the waters.

33 Then they that kept them, fled, and went their wayes into the citie, and tolde euery thyng, and what was done of the possessed with the deuyls.

34 And beholde the whole citie came out to meete Iesus: and when they sawe hym, they besought hym that he would depart out of their coastes.

¶ The. ix. Chapter.

a. He healeth the palsie. 9. and calleth Matthewe from the custome.

The Gospel on the. xix. Sunday after Trinitie.

1 AND he entred into a shyp, and passed ouer, and came into his owne citie.

*Mark. 2.3. Luke. 5.24. 2 * And behold, they brought to hym a man sicke of the palsie, lying in a bed: and when Iesus sawe the fayth of them, he sayde vnto the sicke of the palsie, Sonne be of good cheare, thy sinnes be forgeuen thee.

3 And beholde, certayne of the Scribes sayde within them selues, This man blasphemeth.

4 And when Iesus sawe their thoughtes, he sayde, Wherfore thinke ye euyl in your hartes.

5 Whether is easier to say, Thy sinnes be forgeuen thee: or to say, Arise, and walke?

6 But that ye may know that the sonne of man hath power to forgeue sinnes in earth (Then sayde he to the sicke of the palsie) Arise, take vp thy bed, and goe vnto thyne house.

7 And he arose, and departed to his house.

8 But when the multitudes sawe it, they marueyled, and glorified God, which had geuen such power vnto men.

¶ The .x. Chapter.

Christe sendeth out his twelue Apostles to preache vnto Israe.

Mark.3.15 Luke.9.1. AND *when he had called his twelue disciples, he gaue them power against vncleane spirites, to cast them out, and to heale all maner of sickenesse, and all maner of disease.

2 The names of the twelue Apostles, are these: The first, Simon, whiche is called Peter, and Andrewe his brother, James the sonne of Zebedee, and John his brother:

3 Philip, and Bartholomewe, Thomas, and Matthew, which was a Publicane, James the sonne of Alphei, and Lebbeus, whose surname was Thaddeus:

4 Simon the Chananite, and Judas Iscariot, which also betrayed hym.

5 Jesus sent forth these twelue, when he had commaunded them, saying, Goe not into the way of the Gentiles, and into the citie of the Samaritanes enter ye not:

6 *But goe rather to the lost sheepe of the house of Israel. *Act.13.46.

7 As ye goe, preache, saying, *The kyngdome of heauen is at hand. *Luke.10.9

¶ The.xi. Chapter.

1. Christe preacheth. 2. Iohn Baptist sendeth his disciples vnto him. 7. Christes testimonie concernyng Iohn.

1 AND it came to passe, that when Jesus had made an end of commaundyng his twelue disciples, he departed thence to teache, and to preache in their cities.

2 * When Iohn had heard in the prison the woorkes of Christe, he sent twa of his disciples, The Gospel on the thyrd Sunday in Advent.

3 And sayde vnto hym, Art thou he that should come? Or doo we looke for another? *Luke.7.18.

4 Jesus answeared, and saide vnto them, Goe, and shewe Iohn againe those thynges which ye doo heare and see;

5 The blinde receyue their sight, the halt doo walke, the lepers are cleansed, and the deafe heare, the dead are raysed vp, and the poore haue the Gospel preached to them;

6 And happy is he who so euer shall not be offended in me.

7 And as they departed, Jesus began to say vnto the multitude concernyng Iohn, What went ye out into the wyldernesse to see? A reede shaken with the wynde?

8 Or what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft rayment? Behold, they that weare soft clothyng, are in kynges houses.

9 But what went ye out for to see? A prophete? yea I say vnto you, and more then a prophete.

10 For this is he of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messanger before thy face, which shal prepare thy way before thee. *Mala.3.1.

11 Verily I say vnto you, Among them that are borne of women, there hath not ryssen a greater then Iohn the Baptist: notwithstanding, he that is lesse in the kingdome of heauen, is greater then he.

17 And

17 And saying, We haue pyped vnto you, and ye haue not daunced: we haue mourned vnto you, and ye haue not sorowed.
18 For Iohn came neyther eatyng nor drinking, and they say, He hath a deuil.
19 The sonne of man came eating and drinkyng, & they say, Beholde a man gluttonous, and a wyne bybber, and a freende vnto publicanes and sinners: and wisedome was iustified of her children.
20 * Then began he to vpbrayde the cities, wherein most of his mightie woorkes were done, because they repented not.
21 Woe vnto thee Chorazin, woe vnto thee Bethsaida: for if the mightie woorkes which were done in you, had ben done in Tyre and Sidon, they woulde haue repented long agoe in sackcloth and ashes.
22 But I say vnto you, It shalbe easier for Tyre and Sidon at the day of iudgement then for you.
23 And thou Capernaum whiche hast ben lifted vp into heauen, shalt be brought downe to hel: For if the mightie woorkes whiche haue ben done in thee, had ben done among them of Sodome, they woulde haue remayned vntyl this day.
24 But I say vnto you, that it shalbe easyer for the lande of Sodome in the day of iudgement, then for thee.
25 * At that time Iesus answeared, and said, I thanke thee, O father, Lord of heauen and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast shewed them vnto babes, 26 Euen so, O father, for so was it thy good pleasure.
27 All thynges are geuen vnto me of my father: * and no man knoweth the sonne, but the father: neyther knoweth any man the father, saue the sonne, and he to whom so euer the sonne wyl open him.
28 Come vnto me al ye that labour sore, and are laden, and I will ease you.

¶ The. xii. Chapter.

Christe excuseth his disciples which plucke the eares of corne

1 * AT that time, Iesus went on the Sabboth dayes through the corne, and his disciples were an hungred, and began to plucke the eares of corne, and to eate.
2 But when the Pharisees sawe them they saide vnto him, Beholde, thy disciples do that whiche is not lawfull to doo vpon the Sabboth day.
3 But he saide vnto them, Haue ye not read * what Dauid dyd when he was an hungred, and they that were with him,
4 How he entred into the house of God, and dyd eate the shewe breade, which was not lawfull for hym to eate, neyther for them which were with him, * but onely for the priestes?
5 Or haue ye not read in the * law, how that on the Sabboth dayes the priestes in the temple ª prophane the Sabboth, and are blamelesse?
6 But I say vnto you, that in this place is one greater then the temple.
7 But if ye had knowen what this meaneth, * I wil mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not haue condemned the giltlesse.
8 For the sonne of man is Lorde of the Sabboth day.
9 * And when he was departed thence, he went into their synagogue,
10 And behold, there was a man which had his hande dried vp, and they asked hym, saying, Is it lawfull to heale on the Sabboth dayes? that they might accuse hym.
11 And he sayde vnto them, What man of you wil there be that shal haue one sheepe: and if it fal into a pit on the Sabboth day, wil he not take holde of it, and lift it out?
12 Howe muche more then is a man better then a sheepe? Wherefore it is lawfull to doo well on the Sabboth dayes.
13 Then saith he to the man, Stretche forth thy hande: and he stretched it forth, and it was restored whole, like as the other.
14 Then the Pharisees went out and helde a counsayle agaynst him, how they might destroy hym.
15 But when Iesus knewe it, he departed thence: and great multitudes folowed him, and he healed them all,
16 And charged them that they shoulde not make him knowen:
17 That it might be fulfilled whiche was spoken by Esaias the prophete, saying,
18 * Beholde my childe whom I haue chosen, my beloued, in whom my soule well delighteth: I wyl put my spirite vpon hym, and he shal shew iudgement to the Gentiles.
19 He shal not striue, nor crie, neither shal any man heare his voyce in the streetes.
20 A bruised reede shal he not breake, and smoking flaxe shal he not quench, til he send forth iudgement vnto victorie.
21 And in his name shal the Gentils trust.
22 * Then was brought vnto him one possessed with a deuil, blinde, & dumbe: and he healed him, insomuche that the blinde and dumbe

26 And if Satan cast out Satan, then were he diuided agaynst hym selfe, how shal then his kingdome endure?

27 Also if I by Beelzebub cast out deuyls, by whom doo your children cast them out? Therefore they shalbe your Iudges.

28 But if I cast out the deuyls by the spirite of God, then is the kingdome of God come vpon you.

45 Then goeth he, and taketh with hym selfe, seuen other spirits woorse then hym selfe, and they entred in, and dwelt there: * And the last state of that man is woorse then the first. Euen so shal it be also vnto this froward generation. *2.Pet. 2.20. Heb.6.4.

46 Whyle he yet talked to the people, * behold, his mother and his brethren stoode without, desiring to speake with hym. *Mark.3.31 Luk.8.20. *Mark.3.32

47 Then one said vnto him, * Beholde, thy mother and thy brethren stande without, desiring to speake with thee. Luk.8.21.

48 But he answeared, and sayd vnto him that tolde him, Who is my mother? Or who are my brethren?

49 And when he had stretched forth his hande toward his disciples, he said, * Behold my mother and my brethren. *Joh.15.7.

50 For who so euer shall doo the wyl of my father which is in heauen, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.

¶ The.xiii.Chapter.

3. The parable of the seede. 24. and of the tares.

1 THe same day when Jesus was gone out of the house, * he sate by the sea side.

2 And great multitudes were geathered togeather vnto him, so that he went into the ship, and sate, and the whole multitude stoode on the shore. *Mark.4.1. Luk.8.5.

3 And he spake many thinges to them in parables, saying, Behold, the sower went forth to sowe.

4 And when he sowed, some seedes fell by the wayes side: and the foules came, and deuoured them vp.

5 Some

5 Some fell vppon stony places, where they had not much earth: and anone they sprong vp, because they had no deepenesse of earth.
6 And when the sunne was vp, they caught heate: and because they had not roote, they wythered away.
7 Agayne, some fel among thornes: and the thornes sprong vp, and choked them.
8 But some fel into good ground: & brought foorth fruite, some an hundred folde, some sixtie folde, some thyrtie folde.
9 Who hath eares to heare, let him heare.
10 And the disciples came, and saide vnto hym, Why speakest thou vnto them by parables?
11 He answeared, and sayde vnto them, Because it is geuen vnto you to knowe the secretes of the kingdome of heauen, but to them it is not geuen.
12 *For who so euer hath, to hym shalbe geuen, and he shal haue more abundance: but who so euer hath not, from him shalbe taken away, euen that he hath. *Math. 25. 29.
13 Therefore speake I to them in parables: because they seeing, see not: and hearyng, they heare not, neyther do they vnderstand.
14 And in them is fulfylled the prophesie of Esaias, whiche sayth, *With the eare ye shall heare, and shall not vnderstand: and seeing, ye shall see, and shal not perceyue. *Esai. 6.9. Mark. 4.12. Luke. 8.10. John. 12.40 Acts. 28.26 Rom. 11.8.
15 For this peoples hart is waxed grosse, and theyr eares are dull of hearyng, and theyr eyes haue they closed: lest at any time they shoulde see with their eyes, and heare with theyr eares, and should vnderstand with theyr hart, and should conuert, that I might heale them.
16 Blessed are your eyes, for they see: and your eares, for they heare.
17 Verely I say vnto you, *that many prophetes & righteous men haue desired to see those thinges whiche ye see, and haue not seene: and to heare those thinges which ye heare, and haue not heard. *Luk. 10.24
18 *Heare ye therefore the similitude of the Sower. *Mar. 4.15. Luke. 8.11.
19 When one heareth the word of the kyngdome, and vnderstandeth it not, then commeth that euyll, and catcheth away that whiche was sowen in his hart: this is he which receiued seede by the way side.
20 But he that receiued the seede into stony places, the same is he that heareth ỹ woord, and anone with ioy receiueth it:
21 Yet hath he not roote in him selfe, but dureth for a season: for when tribulation or persecution aryseth because of the word, by and by he is offended.
22 He also that receiued seede into the thornes, is he that heareth the woord, and the care of this world, and the deceitfulnesse of richesse, choke vp the woord, and so is he made vnfruitefull.
23 But he that receiued seede into the good ground, is he that heareth the woorde, and vnderstandeth it, which also beareth fruite: and bringeth foorth, some an hundred fold, some sixtie folde, some thyrtie folde.
24 Another parable put he forth vnto them, saying, * The kyngdome of heauen is likened vnto a man, which sowed good seede in his feelde. The Gospel on the fifth sunday after the Epiphanie.
25 But whyle men slept, his enimie came and sowed tares among the wheate, and went his way. Mark. 4.16
26 But when the blade was sprong vp, and had brought foorth fruite, then appeared the tares also.
27 So, the seruauntes of the housholder came, and sayd vnto hym, Syr, diddest not thou sowe good seede in thy feelde, from whence then hath it tares?
28 He sayd vnto them, The malitious man hath done this. The seruauntes sayde vnto hym, Wylt thou then that we goe, and gather them vp?
29 But he sayd, Nay: lest whyle ye gather vp the tares, ye roote vp also the wheate with them.
30 Let both growe together vntyl the harnest: and in tyme of haruest I wyll say to the reapers, Gather ye together fyrst the tares, and bind them in bundelles to burne them: but carry the wheate into my barne.
31 Another parable put he forth vnto them, saying, * The kyngdome of heauen is lyke to a grayne of mustard seede, whiche a man tooke, and sowed in his feelde. *Mat. 4.30. Luke. 13.18.
32 Which in deede is the least of all seedes: but when it is growen, it is the greatest among herbes, and is a tree: so that the byrdes of the ayre come and make theyr neasles in the branches thereof.
33 *Another parable spake he vnto them, saying, The kyngdome of heauen is lyke vnto leauen, which a woman tooke, and hyd in three pecks of meale, tyll all were leauened. *Luk. 13.20
34 *All these thynges spake Jesus vnto the people in parables, and without a parable spake he not vnto them: *Mark. 4.33
35 That it might be fulfylled whiche was spoken by the prophet, saying, * I wyl open my mouth in parables, I wyl speake foorth thynges which haue been kept secrete from the fundation of the world. *Psal. 68.2.
36 Then Jesus, when he had sent the people away, went into the house: * And his disciples came vnto him, saying, Declare vnto vs the parable of the tares of the feeld. *Mar. 4.24

37 He answeared, and sayde vnto them, He that soweth the good seede, is the sonne of man.

38 The feeld, is the worlde. The good seede, these are the chyldren of ỹ kyngdome. But the tares are the chyldren of the wicked.

39 And the enimie that sowed them, is the deuyll. * The harueſt, is the end of the worlde. The reapers, be the angels.

*Apoc.14.15 Joel.3.13.

40 Euen as the tares therefore are geathered and brent in the fyre: so shall it be in the end of the worlde.

Apoc.14.15.

41 * The sonne of man shal send foorth his angels, & they shall geather out of his kingdome al thinges that offend, & them whiche doo iniquitie:

42 And shal cast them into a furnace of fire: there shalbe wayling and gnashing of teeth.

*Sapi.3.3. Dan.12.34.

43 * Then shall the righteous shyne as the sunne in ỹ kingdome of theyr father. Who hath eares to heare, let him heare.

44 Agayne, the kyngdome of heauen is like vnto treasure hyd in the feelde: the which, when a man hath found, hydeth, and for ioy therof goeth and selleth al that he hath, and buyeth that feelde.

45 Agayne, the kingdome of heauen is lyke vnto a marchant man, seeking goodly pearles:

46 Which when he had found one precious pearle, went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

47 Agayne, the kyngdome of heauen is like vnto a net that was cast into the sea, and geathered of all kinde, 48 Which, when it was full, the Fyshers drue to land, and sate downe, and geathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away.

49 So shal it be at the end of the worlde: the angels shal come foorth, and seuer the bad from among the iust, 50 And shall cast them into a furnace of fyre: there shalbe waylyng and gnashing of teeth.

51 Iesus sayth vnto them, Haue ye vnderstand al these thinges? They say vnto him, Yea Lord.

52 Then said he vnto them, Therefore euery Scribe whiche is taught in ỹ kyngdome of heauen, is lyke vnto a man that is an housholder, whiche bringeth foorth out of his treasure thinges newe and olde.

53 And it came to passe, that when Iesus had finished these parables, he departed thence.

*Mark.6.1. Luke.4.16.

54 * And when he came into his owne countrey, he taught them in theyr Synagogue, in so muche that they were astonyed, and sayde, Whence commeth this wysedome and myghty woorkes vnto hym?

55 * Is not this the Carpenters sonne? Is not his mother called Marie? and his brethren, Iames, and Ioses, and Simon, and Iudas?

*Iohn.6.42

56 And are not all his sisters with vs? whence hath he then all these thinges?

57 And they were offended in hym. But Iesus sayde vnto them, * A prophete is not without honor, saue in his owne countrey, and in his owne house.

*Mark.6.4 Luke.4.24. Iohn.4.44.

58 And he dyd not many myghty woorkes there, because of their vnbeleefe.

¶ The .xiii. Chapter.

10. Iohn is taken and beheaded. 19. Christe feedeth fiue thousand men with fiue loaues & two fishes.

1 AT that time * Herode the Tetrarche heard of the fame of Iesu:

*Mar.6.14. Luke.9.7.

2 And sayd vnto his seruantes, This is Iohn the Baptist, he is risen from the dead, and therefore great woorkes doo shew foorth them selues in him.

3 * For Herode, when he had taken Iohn, he bound hym, and put hym in prison for Herodias sake, his brother Philips wyfe.

*Mar.6.17. Luke.3.19.

4 For Iohn sayd vnto hym, * It is not lawfull for thee to haue her.

*Leui.18.25

5 And when he woulde haue put him to death, he feared the people: * because they counted hym as a prophete.

*Mat.21.16.

6 But when Herodes byrth day was kept, the daughter of Herodias daunced before them, and pleased Herode.

7 Wherefore he promiseth, with an othe, to geue her what so euer she would aske.

8 And she, beyng before * instructed of her mother, sayd, Geue me here Iohn Baptists head in a platter.

*or, myssed. or, enduced.

9 And the kyng was sory: neuertheless, for the othes sake, and them whiche sate also at the table, he cõmaunded it to be geuen her:

10 And sent a tormenter, and beheaded Iohn in the prison.

11 And his head was brought in a platter, and geuen to the damsel: and she brought it to her mother.

12 And his disciples came, and tooke vp his body, & buryed it: and went & tolde Iesus.

13 * When Iesus heard of it, he departed thence in a shyp, vnto a desart place out of the way: & when ỹ people had heard therof, they folowed him on foote out of the cities.

*Mar.6.32. Luke.9.10.

14 And when Iesus went foorth, he sawe much people, and was moued with mercy toward them, and he healed theyr sicke.

15 * And when it was euenyng, his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desart place, and the houre is nowe past: let the people depart, that they may go into the villages, and buy them victuals.

*Mar.6.35. Luke.9.12. Iohn.6.5. Mar.6.5

16 But

16 But Jesus sayde vnto them, They haue no neede to goe away: geue ye them to eate.
17 They say vnto hym, We haue not here but fyue loaues, and two fyshes.
18 He sayde, Bryng them hyther to me.
19 And when he had commaunded the people to sit downe on the grasse, and had taken the fiue loaues, and the two fyshes, and lyfted vp his eyes towarde heauen, he blessed: and when he had broken them, he gaue the loaues to his disciples; and his disciples to the people.
20 And they dyd al eate, and were suffised: And they tooke vp (of the fragmentes that remayned) twelue baskets ful.
21 And they that had eaten, were about fiue thousande men, besides women & chyldren.
22 And strayght way Jesus constrayned his disciples to gat vp into a shyp, and to goe before him vnto the other side, while he sent the people away.
23 And when he had sent the people away, he went vp into a mountaine alone to pray: *and when nyght was come, he was there hym selfe alone:
*Mar.6.46 *Ioh.6.16.
24 But the shyp was nowe in the myddest of the sea, and was tost with the waues: for it was a contrary wynde.
25 And in the fourth watch of the night, Jesus went vnto them, walkyng on the sea.
26 And when the disciples sawe hym walkyng on the sea, they were troubled, saying, That it is a spirite: and they cryed out for feare.
27 But straight way Jesus spake vnto them, saying, Be of good cheare: it is I, be not afrayde.
28 Peter answeared hym, and sayd, Lorde, yf it be thou, bydde me come vnto thee on the water.
29 And he sayde, Come. And when Peter was come downe out of the shyp, he walked on the water, to goe to Jesus.
30 But when he sawe a myghtie wynde, he was afrayde: and when he began to sinke, he cryed, saying, Lorde saue me.
31 And immediately Jesus, when he had stretched forth his hand, caught hym, and sayd vnto hym, O thou of litle fayth, wherfore dyddest thou doubte?
32 And when they were come into the shyp, the wynde ceassed.
33 Then they that were in the shyp, came and worshypped hym, saying, Of a truth thou art the sonne of God.
Mar.6.54. 34 *And when they were gone ouer, they came into the lande of Genezaret.
35 And when the men of that place had knowledge of hym, they sent out into all that countreys rounde about, and brought vnto hym al that were sicke, 36 And besought him that they myght touch the hemme of his garment only: and as many as touched, were made perfectly whole.

¶ The.xv Chapter.

Christ excuseth his disciples, and rebuketh the Scribes and Pharisees.

Math.7.1. 1 THen came to Jesus Scribes & Pharisees, whiche were come from Hierusalem, saying,
2 Why doo thy disciples transgresse the tradition of the elders? for they washe not their handes when they eate bread.
3 But he answeared, and sayde vnto them, Why do you also transgresse the commaundement of God by your tradition?
*Exo.20.12 Deut.5.16. *Exo.21.17 Leuiti.20.9 4 For God commaunded, saying, *Honour thy father and thy mother: And he that curseth *father or mother, let hym dye the death.
Pro.20.20 5 But ye say, Whosoeuer shall say to his father or mother, By the gyft that is offered of me, thou shalt be helped:
6 And so shal he not honour his father or his mother. And thus haue ye made the commaundement of God of none effect by your tradition.
7 Ye hypocrites, full well dyd Esaias prophesie of you, saying,
*Esai.29.13 8 *This people draweth nigh vnto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lippes: howbeit, their hart is far from me.
9 But in vayne they doo worshyp me, teachyng doctrines, preceptes of men.
*Mark.7.17 10 *And whē he had called the people to him, he sayd vnto them, Heare and vnderstand.
11 That whiche goeth into the mouth, defileth not the man: but that which commeth out of the mouth, defileth the man.
12 Then came his disciples, and sayde vnto hym, Knowest thou not that the Pharisees were offended after they heard this saying?
*John.15.8 13 But he answeared, and sayde, *Al manner plantyng whiche my heauenly father hath not planted, shalbe rooted vp.
*Luke.6.39 14 Let them alone: *they be blinde leaders of the blinde. If the blinde leade the blinde, both shal fal into the dyche.
*Mar.7.17. 15 *Then answeared Peter, and sayd vnto hym, Declare vnto vs this parable.
16 Jesus sayde, Are ye also yet without vnderstandyng?
17 Doo not ye yet vnderstand, that whatsoeuer entreth in at the mouth, goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught?
18 But those thynges whiche proceede out of the mouth, come foorth from the hart, and they defile the man.

*Gene.6.5. 19 *For out of the hart proceede euyll thoughtes, murders, aduleteries, whoordomes, theftes, falſe witneſſe, blaſphemies.
20 Theſe are the thynges whiche defile a man: But to eate with vnwaſhen handes, defileth not a man.
The Goſpel on the.iii. ſunday in Lent. 21 *And Jeſus, when he went thence, departed into the coaſtes of Tyre and Sidon.
*Mar.7.24 22 And beholde, a woman of the Chananites, which came out of the ſame coaſtes, cryed vnto him, ſaying, Haue mercy on me, O Lorde, thou ſonne of Dauid, my daughter is greeuously vexed with a deuyl.
23 But he anſwered not a worde. And his diſciples came, and beſought hym, ſaying, Sende her away, for ſhe cryeth after vs.
24 But he anſwered, and ſayde, I am not *Mat.10.6. ſent * but vnto the loſt ſheepe of the houſe of Iſrael.
25 Then came ſhe, and worſhypped hym, ſaying, Lorde helpe me.
26 But he anſwered, and ſayde, It is not meete to take the chyldrens bread, and to caſt it to litle dogges.
27 And ſhe ſayde, Yes Lorde: for the litle dogges eate alſo of the crummes which fall from their maiſters table.
28 Then Jeſus anſwered, and ſayde vnto her, O woman, great is thy fayth: be it doone vnto thee euen as thou wylt. And her daughter was made whole euen from that ſame houre.
*Mat.7.31. 29 *And Jeſus, when he was departed from thence, came nygh vnto the ſea of Galilee, and when he was gone vp into a mountaine, he ſate downe there.
*Eſai.35.5. 30 *Then great multitudes came vnto him, hauyng with them thoſe that were lame, blinde, dumbe, maymed, and other many, and caſt them downe at Jeſus feete, and he healed them:
31 Inſomuche that the people woondered when they ſawe the dumbe ſpeake, the maimed to be whole, the lame to walke, and the blinde to ſee: and they glorified the god of Iſrael.
*Mark.8.1. 32 *Then Jeſus called his diſciples vnto hym, and ſayde, I haue compaſſion on the people, becauſe they continue with me now three dayes, and haue nothyng to eate: and I wyl not let them depart faſtyng, leſt they faynt in the way.
33 And his diſciples ſay vnto hym, Whence ſhoulde we get ſo muche bread in the wyldernelſe, as to ſuffiſe ſo great a multitude?
34 And Jeſus ſayth vnto them, Howe many loues haue ye? And they ſayde, Seuen, and a fewe litle fyſhes.
35 And he commaunded the people to ſit downe on the grounde.
36 And when he had taken the ſeuen loaues and the fyſhes, and had geuen thankes, he brake them, and gaue to his diſciples: and the diſciples gaue them to the people.
37 And they dyd al eate, and were ſuffiſed: and they tooke vp of the broken meate that was left, ſeuen baſkets ful.
38 And yet they that dyd eate, were foure thouſande men, beſide women & chyldren.
39 And when he had ſent away the people, he tooke ſhyp, and came into the partes of Magdala.

12 Then vnderſtoode they howe that he bade not them beware of the leauen of the bread: but of the doctine of the Phariſees and of the Sadducees.
13 When Jeſus came into the coaſtes of The Goſpel on S. Pamlay. Ceſarea, whiche is called Philippi, he aſked his his disciples, saying, *Whom doo men say that I the sonne of man am?

14 They sayde, Some say that thou art Iohn Baptist, some Elias, some Jeremias, or one of the prophetes.
15 He sayth vnto them, But whom say ye that I am?
16 Simon Peter answered, & sayd, *Thou art Christ, the sonne of the lyuing God.
17 And Jesus answeared, and sayde vnto hym, Happie art thou Simon Bar Iona:
for flesshe & blood hath not opened that vnto thee, but my father which is in heauen.
18 And I say also vnto thee *that thou art
Peter, and vpon this rocke I wyl buylde

the kyngdome of heauen: and what so euer thou shalt binde in earth, shalbe bounde in heauen, and what so euer thou shalt loose in earth, shalbe loosed in heauen.
20 Then charged he his disciples that they shoulde tel no man that he was Jesus Christe.
21 From that tyme forth began Jesus to shewe vnto his disciples, howe that he must goe vnto Hierusalem, and suffer many thynges of the elders & high priestes and Scribes, and must be kylled, and be raised agayne the thirde day.
22 And when Peter had taken hym aside, he began to rebuke hym, saying, Lorde, fa-uour thee selfe, this shal not be vnto thee.
23 But he turned hym about, and sayd vnto Peter, Goe after me Satan, thou art an offence vnto me: for thou sauerest not the thynges that be of God, but those that be of men.
24 *Then said Jesus vnto his disciples, If any man wyl goe after me, let him forsake hym selfe, & take vp his crosse, & folowe me.
25 *For who so euer wyl saue his lyfe, shall loose it: agayne, who so euer wyl loose his lyfe for my sake, shal finde it.
26 *For what is a man profited yf he shall winne the whole worlde, & loose his owne soule? Or what shal a man geue for a raun-some of his soule?
27 For the sonne of man shal come in the glory of his father with his angels: and *then shal he rewarde euery man according to his workes.

were as white as the light.
3 And beholde there appeared vnto them
Moses, and Elias talking with hym.
4 Then answeared Peter, and sayde vnto
Jesus, Lorde, it is good for vs to be here. If 7 And Jesus came and touched them, and sayde, Aryse ye, and be not afrayde.

8 And when they had lyft vp their eyes, they sawe no man, saue Jesus onely.
9 And when they came downe from the mountayne, Jesus charged them, saying,
Shew the vision to no man, vntyl the sonne of man be risen agayne from the dead.

done vnto hym what so euer they listed:

23 And they shal kyl hym, and the thirde day shal he ryse agayne. And they were exceedyng sory.

24 And when they were come to Capernaum, they that receyued tribute money, came to Peter, and sayde, Doeth not your maister pay tribute?

25 He sayth, Yes. And when he was come into the house, Jesus preuented hym, saying, What thinkest thou Simon: of whom doo the kynges of the earth take tribute or tolle? of theyr owne chyldren, or of the strangers?

26 Peter sayth vnto him, Of the strangers. Jesus sayth vnto hym, Then are the chyldren free.

27 Notwithstanding, lest we should offend them, goe thou to the sea, & cast an hooke, and take vp the fishe that first commeth vp: and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt finde a peece of twentie pence: that take, and geue vnto them for me, and thee.

*Mark.9.33 The Gospel on Saint Michael and all angels.

1 AT *the same tyme came the disciples vnto Jesus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kyngdome of heauen?

2 Jesus called a litle chylde vnto hym, and set hym in the middes of them,

3 And sayde, Verily I say vnto you, *Except ye turne and become as litle chyldren, ye shal not enter into the kyngdome of heauen.

*Math.1.4 Luke.9.46. 1.Co.14.20

4 Who so euer therefore shal humble hym selfe as this litle chylde, the same is the greatest in the kyngdome of heauen.

5 And who so shal receyue such a litle chyld in my name, receyueth me.

*Mar.9.42. Luke.17.1.

6 *But who so shal offende one of these litle ones which be beleeue in me, it were better for hym that a millstone were hanged about his necke, and that he were drowned in the deapth of the sea.

7 Woe vnto the worlde because of offences, it must needes be that offences come: but woe to that man by whom the offence commeth.

8 If thy *hande or thy foote offende thee, a cut them of, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into lyfe halt or maymed, rather then thou shouldest, hauing two handes or two feete, be cast into euerlastyng fyre.

13 And if it so be that he finde it, verily I say vnto you, he reioyceth more of that sheepe, then of the nientie and niene which went not astray?

23 There

23 Therefore is the kyngdome of heauen lykened vnto a certayne man that was a king, whiche woulde take accompt of his seruantes.
24 And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought vnto hym whiche ought hym ten thousande talentes.
25 But for as much as he had not to pay, his lorde commaunded hym to be solde, and his wyfe, and chyldren, and all that he had, and payment to be made.
26 The seruaunt therefore fell downe, and besought hym, saying, Lorde, haue patience with me, and I wyl pay thee al.
27 Then the lorde of that seruant, mooued with pitie, loosed him, and forgaue him the debt.
28 But the same seruant went out, & founde one of his felowes whiche ought hym an hundred pence: and when he had layd handes on hym, he tooke hym by the throte, saying, Pay me that thou owest.
29 And his felowe fell downe at his feete, and besought hym, saying, Haue patience with me, and I wyl pay thee al.
30 And he woulde not: but went and cast hym into prysone, tyl he should pay the debt.
31 So when his felowes sawe what was doone, they were very sory: and came, and tolde vnto their lorde al that was doone.
32 Then his lorde, after that he had called hym, sayde vnto hym, O thou vngratious seruant, I forgaue thee all that debt when thou desiredst me:
33 Shouldest not thou also haue had compassion on thy felowe, euen as I had pitie on thee?
34 And his lorde was wroth, and delyuered hym to the tormentors, tyl he shoulde pay al that was due vnto hym.
35 So likewyse shal my heauenly father doo also vnto you, yf ye from your hartes forgeue not euery one his brother their trespasses.

*Mar.10.1. 1 AND it came to passe, * that when Iesus had finished these sayinges, he gate hym from Galilee, and came into the coastes of Iurie beyonde Iordane:
2 And great multitudes folowed hym, and he healed them there.
3 The Pharisees also came vnto him, temptyng hym, and saying vnto hym, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for euery cause?
4 He answeared, and sayd vnto them, Haue ye not read * that he whiche created at the *Gene.1.27. begynnyng, made them male and female?

6 Wherefore they are no more twayne, but one flesh. Let not man therefore put asunder, that which god hath coupled together.
7 They say vnto hym, * Why dyd Moses then commaunde to geue a writyng of deuorcement, and to put her away? *Deut.24.1
8 He sayde vnto them, Moses, because of the hardnesse of your hartes, suffred you to put away your wyues: but from the beginning it was not so.
9 * I say vnto you, Whosoeuer shal put away his wyfe, except it be for fornication, & shall marrie another, committeth adulterie: and who so marrieth her whiche is deuorced, doeth commit adulterie. *Math.32.5 Mar.10.11. Luke.6.18. *1.Co.7.11.
10 His disciples say vnto hym, Yf the case of the man be so with his wyfe, then is it not good to marrie.
11 But he sayde vnto them, Al men can not receyue this saying, saue they to whom it is geuen.
12 For there are some chaste, which were so borne out of their mothers wombe: and there are some chaste, whiche were made chaste of men: and there be chaste, whiche haue made them selues chaste for the kyngdome of heauens sake. He that is able to receyue it, let hym receyue it
13 * Then were there brought vnto hym young chyldren, that he should put his handes on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them. *Mar.10.13 Luke.18.15.
14 But Iesus sayde vnto them, Suffer the young chyldren, and forbyd them not to come vnto me: for to suche belongeth the kyngdome of heauen.
15 And when he had put his hands on them, he departed thence.
16 * And beholde, one came, and sayde vnto hym, Good maister, what good thyng shall I doo, that I may haue eternal lyfe. *Mar.10.17 Luke.18.18.
17 He sayde vnto hym, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, and that is God: But yf thou wylt enter into that life, keepe the commaundementes.
18 He sayth vnto hym, Which? Iesus sayd, * Thou shalt doo no murder, Thou shalt not cõmit adulterie, Thou shalt not steale, Thou shalt not beare false witnesse, *Exo.20.13
19 Honor thy father & thy mother: and, thou shalt loue thy neyghbour as thee selfe.
20 The young man saith vnto him, Al these thinges haue I kept from my youth vp: what lacke I yet?
21 Iesus sayde vnto hym, Yf thou wylt be perfect, goe and sell thy substance, and geue to the poore, and thou shalt haue treasure in heauen: and come and folowe me.

22 But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sory: for he had great possessions.

23 Then Jesus sayde vnto his disciples, Verely I say vnto you, that a rych man shal hardly enter into the kyngdome of heauen.

24 And agayne I say vnto you, It is easier for a Camel to goe through the eye of a needle, then for the ryche to enter into the kyngdome of God.

25 When the disciples heard that, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, Who then can be saued?

26 But Jesus behelde them, and sayde vnto them, With men this is vnpossible, but with God al thynges are possible.

¶ The xx. Chapter.

1. Christe teacheth by a similitude, that God is debter vnto no man. 20. He teacheth his disciples to be lowly, 30. and geueth two blinde men their sight.

The Gospel on Septuagesima sunday.

1 FOR the kyngdome of heauen is lyke vnto a man that is an housholder, whiche went out early in the morning to hyre labourers into his Vineyarde.

2 And when he had agreed with the labourers for a peny a day, he sent them into his Vineyarde.

3 And when he went out about the thyrde houre, he sawe other standyng idle in the market place,

4 And saide vnto them, Goe ye also into the Vineyarde, and what soeuer is ryght, I wil geue you. And they went their way.

5 Agayne, when he went out about the sixth and nienth houre, he dyd lykewyse.

6 And about the eleuenth houre, when he went out, he found other standyng idle, and sayth vnto them, Why stande ye here al the day idle?

7 They say vnto hym, Because no man hath hyred vs. He sayth vnto them, Goe ye also into the Vineyarde: and what soeuer is ryght, that shall ye receyue.

8 So when euen was come, the Lorde of the Vineyarde sayth vnto his Stewarde, Cal the labourers, and geue them their hyre, begynnyng from the last vnto the first.

9 And when they came that were hyred about the eleuenth houre, they receyued euery man a peny.

10 But whē the first came also, they supposed that they shoulde haue receyued more: and they lykewyse receyued euery man a peny.

11 And when they had receiued it, they murmured agaynst the good man of the house, 12 Saying, These last haue wrought but one houre, and thou hast made them equall vnto vs, whiche haue borne the burden and feruent heate of the day.

13 But he answeared to one of them, and sayde, Frend, I doo thee no wrong, diddest thou not agree with me for a peny?

14 Take that thyne is, and goe thy way, I wyl geue vnto this last, euen as vnto thee.

15 Is it not lawful for me to doo that I wil with mine owne? Is thyne eye euyll, because I am good?

16 *So the last shalbe first, and the first shalbe last: for many be called, but fewe be chosen.

20 *Then came to him ỹ mother of Zebedees chyldren, with her sonnes, worshyppyng hym, and desiring a certayne thyng of hym.

The Gospel on S. Iames the Apostle.

21 And he sayth vnto her, What wilt thou? She sayth vnto him, Graunt, that these my two sonnes may sit, the one on thy ryght hand, and the other on the left, in thy kingdome.

*Mar.10.35

22 But Jesus answeared, & sayde, Ye wote not what ye aske. Are ye able to drynke of the cup that I shal drynke of, and to be baptised with the baptisme that I am baptised with? They say vnto hym, We are able.

23 He sayth vnto them, Ye shall drynke in deede of my cup, and be baptised with the baptisme that I am baptised with: But to sit on my right hand, and on my leaft, is not myne to geue, but to them for whom it is prepared of my father.

24 And

*Mar.10.41 Luke.22.25 24 *And when the ten heard this, they disdayned at the two brethren.

25 But Jesus, when he had called them vnto him, sayde, Ye knowe that the princes of the Gentiles haue dominion ouer them, and they that are great, exercise auctoritie vpon them.

26 It shal not be so among you: But who so euer wyl be great among you, let hym be your minister.

27 And who so wyl be cheefe among you, let hym be your seruant.

*Phil.2.7. 28 Euen as *the sonne of man came not to be ministred vnto, but to minister, & to geue his lyfe a raunsome for many.

*Marke.10.46. Luke.18.35. 29 *And as they departed from Hiericho, muche people folowed hym.

30 And beholde, two blinde men sitting by the way side, when they heard that Jesus passed by, they cryed, saying, O Lord, thou sonne of Dauid, haue mercie on vs.

31 And the people rebuked them, because they should holde their peace: but they cryed the more, saying, Haue mercie on vs, O Lorde, thou sonne of Dauid.

32 And Jesus stoode styl, and called them, and sayd, What wyl ye that I shal doo vnto you?

33 They say vnto him, Lorde, that our eyes may be opened.

34 So Jesus had compassion on them, and touched their eyes: and immediatly theyr eyes receyued sight, and they folowed hym.

¶ The xxi. Chapter.

7. He rydeth into Hierusalem, 12. dryueth the marchantes out of the temple, 19. and curseth the figge tree.

The Gospel on the fyrst sunday in Lent. 1 AND *when they drue nigh vnto Hierusalem, and were come to Bethphage, vnto the mount of Oliues, then sent Jesus two of his disciples,

*Mar.11.1. Luke.19.29 2 Saying vnto them, Goe into the village that lyeth ouer agaynst you, & anone ye shal find an Asse tied, and a colt with her, when ye haue losed them, bring them vnto me.

3 And if any man say ought vnto you, ye shal say the Lord hath neede of them, & straightway he wyl let them goe.

4 All this was done, that it might be fulfylled which was spoken by the prophete, saying,

*Esai.62.11 Zach.2.9. John.12.15. 5 *Tel ye the daughter of Sion, Beholde, thy kyng commeth vnto thee meeke, and sitting vpon an Asse, and a colt, the foale of the Asse vsed to the yoke.

6 The disciples went, and did as Jesus commaunded them,

7 And brought the Asse, and the colt, and put on them their clothes, & he sate thereon.

8 And many of the people spread theyr garmentes in the way, other cut downe braunches from the trees, and strawed them in the way.

9 Moreouer, the multitudes that went before, and that came after, cryed, saying, Hosanna to the sonne of Dauid: Blessed is he that commeth in the name of the Lorde, Hosanna in the hyghest.

10 *And when he was come into Hierusalem, al the citie was mooued, saying, Who is this? *Mar.11.11. Luke.9.45. John.2.13.

11 And the multitude sayde, This is Jesus that prophete of Nazareth a citie in Galilee.

12 And Jesus went into the temple of God, *and cast out al them that solde & bought in the temple, and ouerthrewe the tables of the money changers, and the seates of them that solde Doues, *Deu.14.25

13 And sayde vnto them, It is written, My house shalbe called the house of prayer, *but ye haue made it a denne of theeues. *Esai.56.7. Jere.7.11.

14 And the blinde and the halt came to him in the temple, and he healed them. *Mar.11.17. Luke.19.46

15 When the cheefe priestes and Scribes sawe the woonders that he dyd, & the chyldren crying in the temple, & saying, Hosanna to the sonne of Dauid, they disdayned, 16 And sayde vnto hym, Hearest thou what these say? But Jesus saith vnto them, Yea, haue ye neuer read, *Out of the mouth of babes and sucklinges thou hast ordeyned prayse? *Psal.8.3.

17 And he left them, and went out of the citie vnto Bethanie, and he lodged there.

18 In the morning, as he returned into the citie, he hungred.

19 *And when he sawe one figge tree in the way, he came to it, & found nothyng thereon but leaues only, and sayd vnto it, Neuer fruite growe on thee hencefoorwarde. And anone the figge tree wythered away. *Mar.11.13.

20 And when the disciples sawe it, they marueyled, saying, Howe soone is the figge tree wythered away?

21 Jesus answeared, & sayd vnto them, Verely I say vnto you, if ye haue fayth, and doubt not, ye shal not only doo this whiche is done to the figge tree, but also, if ye shal say vnto this mountayne, Be thou remooued, and be thou cast into the sea, it shalbe done.

22 And al thinges what so euer ye shal aske in prayer, beleeuing, ye shal receyue.

23 *And when he was come into the temple, the cheefe priestes and the elders of the people came vnto him teaching, & say, By what auctoritie doest thou these thynges? and who gaue thee this power? *Mar.11.27 Luke.10.1.

24 Jesus answeared, and sayd vnto them, I also wyl aske you one question, whiche ye tell me, I in lykewyse wyl tel you by what auctoritie I doo these thynges:

25 The baptisme of John, whence was it? from heauen, or of men? And they reasoned with them selues, saying, If we shal say, From heauen, he wyl say vnto vs, Why did ye not then beleeue hym?

26 But if we shal say, Of men, then feare we the people, *for al men holde John as a prophete. *Mat.14.5.

27 And they answeared vnto Jesus, and sayde, We can not tel. And he sayde vnto them, Neither tel I you by what auctoritie I doo these thynges.

28 But what thinke you? A certayne man had two sonnes, and when he came to the fyrst, he sayde, Sonne, goe and worke to day in my vineyarde.

29 He answeared, and sayde, I wyl not: but afterwarde he repented, and went.

30 And when he came to the seconde, he sayde likewise: And he answeared, and sayde, I goe sir, and went not.

31 Whether of them twayne dyd the wyl of his father? And they sayde vnto him, The fyrst. Jesus sayth vnto them, Verily I say vnto you, that the publicanes & the harlots goe into the kingdome of God before you.

*Math.3.4. 32 For *John came vnto you by the way of righteousnesse, & ye beleeued hym not: but the publicanes and the harlottes beleeued hym. And ye, when ye had seene it were not mooued afterwarde with repentance, that ye might haue beleeued hym.

*Esaias.5.1. Jere.2.21. *Mark.12.1. Luke.20.9. 33 Hearken another similitude. *There was a certayne man, an housholder, which planted a vineyarde, and hedged it rounde about, and digged a wine presse in it, & built a towre, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a strange countrey.

34 And when the time of the fruite drewe neare, he sent his seruantes to the husbandmen, that they might receyue the fruites of it.

35 And the husbandmen when they had taken his seruantes, they beat one, kylled another, and stoned another.

36 Agayne, he sent other seruantes, moe then the first, and they did vnto them likewyse.

37 But last of al, he sent vnto them his owne sonne, saying, They wyl stande in awe of my sonne.

38 But when the husbandmen sawe the sonne, they sayd among them selues, *This is the heyre, come, let vs kyl hym, and let vs season vpon his inheritance. *Mat.26.3. Joyn.11.53.

39 And they caught hym, and thrust hym out of the vineyarde, and slue hym.

40 When the Lorde therefore of the vineyarde commeth, what wyl he doo vnto those husbandmen?

41 They say vnto him, He wyl miserablie destroy those wycked men, & wyl let out his vineyarde vnto other husbandmen, which shal render him the fruite in due seasons.

42 Jesus sayth vnto them, *Did ye neuer reade in the scriptures, The stone whiche the builders disalowed, the same is become the head of the corner? This is the Lordes dooing, and it is marueylous in our eyes. *Psa.118.22 Actes.4.11.

43 Therfore say I vnto you, the kingdome of God shalbe taken from you, and geuen to a nation bringing foorth the fruites therof.

44 And *who so euer shal fal on this stone, shalbe broken in peeces: but on whom so euer it shal fal, it shal al to grinde hym. *Rom.9.33. 1.Pet.2.7. Esai.8.14.

45 And when the cheefe priestes and Pharisees had heard his parables, they perceyued that he spake of them.

46 And when they sought to lay handes on hym, they feared the multitudes, because they tooke hym as a prophete.

4 Agayne, he sent foorth other seruantes, saying, Tel them which are bidden, Behold, I haue prepared my dinner, my Oxen and my fatlinges are kylled, & al thinges are redy: come vnto the mariage.

5 But they made light of it, and went their wayes, one to his farme, another to his marchandize:

6 And the remnant tooke his seruants, and entreated them spitefully, and slue them.

7 But when the kyng heard thereof he was wroth, and when he had sent foorth his armies, he destroyed those murderers, & brent vp their citie.

8 Then sayth he to his seruantes, The mariage in deede is prepared, but they whiche were bidden, were not woorthie.

9 Goe ye therefore out in the high wayes, and as many as ye shal finde, bidde to the mariage.

ye tell me, I in lykewyse wyl tel you by what auctoritie I doo these thynges:

25 The baptisme of John, whence was it: from heauen, or of men? And they reasoned with them selues, saying, If we shal say, From heauen, he wyl say vnto vs, Why did ye not then beleeue hym?

*Mat.14.5. 26 But if we shal say, Of men, then feare we the people, *for al men holde John as a prophete.

27 And they answeared vnto Jesus, and sayde, We can not tel. And he sayde vnto them, Neither tel I you by what auctoritie I doo these thynges.

28 But what thinke you? A certayne man had two sonnes, and when he came to the fyrst, he sayde, Sonne, goe and worke to day in my vineyarde.

29 He answeared, and sayde, I wyl not: but afterwarde he repented, and went.

30 And when he came to the seconde, he sayde likewise: And he answeared, and sayde, I goe sir, and went not.

*Esaias.5.1. Jerr.2.21. *Mark.12.1. Luke.20.9. 33 Hearken another similitude. *There was a certayne man, an housholder, which planted a vineyarde, and hedged it rounde about, and digged a wine presse in it, & built a towre, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a strange countrey.

34 And when the time of the fruite drewe neare, he sent his seruantes to the husbandmen, that they might receyue the fruites of it.

35 And the husbandmen when they had taken his seruantes, they beat one, kylled another, and stoned another.

36 Agayne, he sent other seruantes, moe then the first, and they did vnto them likewyse.

37 But last of al, he sent vnto them his owne sonne, saying, They wyl stande in awe of my sonne.

38 But when the husbandmen sawe the sonne, they sayd among them selues, *This is the heyre, come, let vs kyl hym, and let vs season vpon his inheritance. *Mat.26.3. Joyn.11.53.

39 And they caught hym, and thrust hym out of the vineyarde, and slue hym.

40 When the Lorde therefore of the vineyarde commeth, what wyl he doo vnto those husbandmen?

41 They say vnto him, He wyl miserablie destroy those wycked men, & wyl let out his vineyarde vnto other husbandmen, which shal render him the fruite in due seasons.

2 The kingdome of heauen is like vnto a man that was a kyng, whiche made a maryage for his sonne. *Luke.14.16 Apoc.19.9.

3 And sent foorth his seruantes, to cal them that were bidden to the wedding: and they would not come.

4 Agayne, he sent foorth other seruantes, saying, Tel them which are bidden, Behold, I haue prepared my dinner, my Oxen and my fatlinges are kylled, & al thinges are redy: come vnto the maryage.

5 But they made light of it, and went their wayes, one to his farme, another to his marchandize:

6 And the remnant tooke his seruants, and entreated them spitefully, and slue them.

7 But when the kyng heard thereof he was wroth, and when he had sent foorth his armies, he destroyed those murderers, & brent vp their citie.

8 Then sayth he to his seruantes, The mariage in deede is prepared, but they whiche were bidden, were not woorthie.

9 Goe ye therefore out in the high wayes, and as many as ye shal finde, bidde to the maryage.

10 And the seruantes went out into the high wayes, and gathered together al, as many as they founde, both good and bad, and the wedding was furnished with ghestes.

11 When the kyng came in to see the ghestes,

4 But the wyse tooke oyle in their vessels, with their lampes also.
5 Whyle the bridegrome tarryed, they all slumbred and slept.
6 And euen at midnight there was a crye made, Beholde, the bridegrome commeth, goe ye out to meete hym.
7 Then all those Virgins arose, and prepared their lampes.
8 So the foolishe saide vnto the wyse, Geue vs of your oyle, for our lampes are gone out.
9 But the wyse answeared, saying, Not so, lest there be not ynough for vs and you: but goe ye rather to them that sell, and buye for your selues.
10 And whyle they went to buye, the bridegrome came, and they that were redy, went in with hym to the marriage, and the doore was shut vp.
11 Afterward came also the other Virgins, saying, Lorde, Lorde, open to vs.
12 But he answeared, and sayde, Verely I say vnto you, I knowe you not.
13 *Watch therefore, for ye knowe neyther the day, nor yet the houre, wherin the sonne of man commeth.

*Mat.24. 43. Mar.13.33. *Luk.19.12.

14 *Likewyse, as vvhen a certayne man taking his iourney into a straunge countrey, called his owne seruantes, and deliuered vnto them his goodes.
15 And vnto one he gaue fiue talentes, to an other two, and to an other one, to euery man after his abilitie, & straightway tooke his iourney.
16 Then he that had receiued the fiue talentes, went and occupied with the same, and made them other fiue talentes.
17 And likewyse he that had receiued two, he also gayned other two.
18 But he that had receiued one, went and digged in the earth, and hyd his lordes money.
19 After a long season, the lorde of those seruauntes commeth, & reckeneth with them.
20 And so he that had receiued fiue talents, came and brought other fiue talentes, saying, Lorde, thou deliueredst vnto me fyue talentes, beholde, I haue gayned besides them, fiue talentes moe.
21 His lord sayd vnto hym. Well done thou good and faythfull seruant, thou hast been faythfull ouer fewe thinges, I wyll make thee ruler ouer many thynges: enter thou into the ioy of thy Lorde.
22 He also that had receyued two talentes, came, and sayde, Lord, thou deliueredst vnto me two talentes: behold, I haue wonne two other talentes besides them.
23 His Lord said vnto him, Well done good and faythfull seruant, thou hast been faithfull ouer fewe thynges, I wyll make thee ruler ouer many thynges: enter thou into the ioy of thy Lord.
24 Then he which had receiued the one talent, came, and sayde, Lorde, I knewe thee that thou art an hard man, reaping where thou hast not sowen, and geathering where thou hast not strawed:
25 And therefore was I afraide, and went and hyd thy talent in the earth: loe, there thou hast that thyne is.
26 His Lord answeared, and said vnto him, Thou euyll and slouthfull seruaunt, thou knewest that I reape where I sowed not, and geather where I haue not strawed:
27 Thou oughtest therefore to haue deliuered my money to the exchangers, and then at my comming shoulde I haue receyued myne owne with vauntage.
28 Take therefore the talent from him, and geue it vnto him which hath ten talentes.

Mat.12.13.

31 When the sonne of man shal come in his glory, and all the holy angels with hym, then shal he sit vpon the throne of his glory.

32 And before hym shalbe gathered all nations, and he shal separate them one from another, as a shepheard diuideth his sheepe from the goates.

33 And he shall set the sheepe on his right hande, but the goates on the left.

34 Then shal the king say vnto them which shalbe on his right hande, Come ye blessed of my father, inherite the kingdome, which hath been prepared for you from the fundation of the worlde.

Eccle.7.39 36 Naked, and ye clothed me: * I was sicke: and ye visited me: I was in prison: and ye came vnto me.

37 Then shal the righteous answere hym, saying, Lorde, when sawe we thee an hungred, and fedde thee? or thirstie, and gaue thee drinke?

38 When sawe we thee a stranger, and tooke thee in? or naked, and clothed thee?

39 Or when sawe we thee sicke, or in prison, and came vnto thee?

40 And the king shal answeare, and say vnto them, Verely I say vnto you, in as much as ye haue doone it vnto one of the least of these my brethren, ye haue done it vnto me.

Psal.6.9. Math.7.23. Luk.13.27. 41 * Then shal he say also vnto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into the euerlasting fyre, whiche is prepared for the deuyl and his angels.

42 For I was an hungred, and ye gaue me no meate: I was thirstie, and ye gaue me no drinke.

43 I was a stranger, and ye tooke me not in: naked, and ye clothed me not: sicke, and in prison, and ye visited me not.

44 Then shall they also answeare him, saying, Lord when sawe we thee an hungred, or a thirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sicke, or in prison, and did not minister vnto thee?

45 Then shall he answeare them, saying, Verely I say vnto you, in as muche as ye dyd it not to one of the least of these, ye dyd it not to me.

The xxvi. Chapter.

1. Marie Magdalen anoynteth Christe. 6. They eate the Easter lambe.

The Gospel on the next sunday after Easter.

1 AND it came to passe, when Jesus had finished all these thynges, he sayd vnto his disciples, Mar.14.1. Luke.22.1. 2 * Ye knowe that after two dayes is the feast of Passouer, and the sonne of man is betrayed to be crucified.

Joh.11.47. 3 * Then assembled togeather the cheefe priestes, and the Scribes, and the elders of the people, vnto the palace of the high priest, which was called Caiaphas:

4 And helde a counsell, that they myght take Jesus subtilly, and kyl hym.

5 But they sayde, Not on the feast day, least there be an vprore among the people.

6 When Jesus was in Bethanie, in the house of Simon the leper,

7 There came vnto hym a woman, hauing an Alabaster box of precious oyntment, & powred it on his head, as he sate at the borde.

8 But when his disciples sawe it, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste?

9 This oyntment might haue been solde for much, and geuen to the poore.

10 When Jesus vnderstoode that, he sayde vnto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good worke vpon me.

Deu.15.11. 11 * For ye haue the poore alwayes with you, but me ye haue not alwayes.

12 For in that this woman hath cast this oyntment on my body, she dyd it to burye me.

13 Verely I say vnto you, Wheresoeuer this gospel shalbe preached in the whole world, there shal also this that this woman hath done, be tolde for a memorial of her.

Mar.14.10. Luk.22.4. 14 * Then one of the twelue, called Judas Iscariot, went vnto the cheefe priestes, 15 And sayde vnto them, What wil ye geue me, and I wyl deliuer hym vnto you? And they appointed vnto him thirtie siluer peeces.

Mar.14.15 Luk.22.7. 16 And from that tyme forth, he sought opportunitie to betraye hym.

17 * The first day of sweete bread, the disciples came to Jesus, saying vnto hym, Where wylt thou that we prepare for thee to eate the Passouer?

18 And he sayd, Goe into the citie to suche a man, and say vnto hym, The maister sayth, My tyme is at hande, I make the Passouer at thy house with my disciples.

19 And the disciples dyd as Jesus had appointed them, & they made redy the Passouer.

Mar.14.8. Luk.22.14. John.13.31. 20 * When the euen was come, he sate downe with the twelue.

21 And

21 And as they dyd eate, he sayd, Verely I say vnto you, that one of you shall betray me.
22 And they being exceedyng sorowful, began euery one of them to say vnto hym, Lorde, Is it I?
23 He answeared, and sayde, He that hath dipped his hand with me in the dishe, the same shal betraye me.
24 The sonne of man truely goeth as it is written of hym: but woe vnto that man by whom the sonne of man is betrayed: It had ben good for that man if he had not ben borne.
25 Then Judas whiche betrayed hym, answeared, and sayd, Maister, Is it I? He sayde vnto hym, Thou hast sayd.
*1.Co.11.24 26 When they were eatyng, * Jesus, when he had taken the bread, and geuen thankes, he brake it and gaue it to the disciples, and sayd, Take ye, eate ye, this is my body.
27 And when he had taken the cuppe, and geuen thankes, he gaue it them, sayeing, Drynke ye al of it:
28 For this is my blood of the newe testament that is shed for many for the remission of sinnes.
29 But I say vnto you, I wyll in no wyse drynke hencefoorth of this fruite of the vine tree, vntyl that day when I drynke it newe with you in my fathers kingdome.
30 And when they had prayed God, they went out vnto the mount of Olives.
*Mar.14.27 Joh.16.30. *Zach.13.7. 31 * Then sayth Jesus vnto them, All ye shalbe offended because of me this nyght: For it is written, * I wyll smite the sheepehearde, and the sheepe of the flocke shalbe scattered abroade.
*Mar.14.28 and.16.7. 32 But after I am rysen agayne, * I wyll goe before you into Galilee.
33 Peter answeared, and sayde vnto hym, Though al men shalbe offended because of thee, yet wyl I neuer be offended.
*Joh.13.38. 34 Jesus sayde vnto hym, * Verely I say vnto thee, that in this same nyght before the Cocke crowe, thou shalt deny me thryse.
35 Peter sayde vnto hym, Though I shoulde dye with thee, yet wil I by no maner of meanes deny thee. Likewyse also said al the disciples.
*Mar.14.32 Luk.22.39. 36 * Then commeth Jesus with them vnto a place called Gethsemane, and sayeth vnto the disciples, Sit ye there whyle I goe and pray ponder.
37 And when he had taken with hym Peter, and the two sonnes of Zebedee, he began to be sorowful and heauie.
38 Then sayde Jesus vnto them, My soule is exceeding heauy, euen vnto the death: tarry ye here, and watche with me.
39 And when he had gone a little further, he fel flat on his face, prayeng, and saying, O my father, if it be possible, let this cup passe from me: neuertheles, not as I wyl, but as thou wylt.
40 And he commeth vnto the disciples, and findeth them a sleepe, and sayeth vnto Peter, What, coulde ye not watche with me one houre?
41 Watche and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: The spirite in deede is wyllyng, but the flesh is weake.
42 He went away agayne the seconde time, and prayed, saying, O my father, if this cup may not passe away from me, except I drynke it, thy wyl be fulfylled.
43 And when he came, he findeth them a sleepe agayne, for their eyes were heauye.
44 And he left them, and went agayne and prayed the thirde tyme, saying the same woordes.
45 Then commeth he to his disciples, and saith vnto them, Sleepe henceforth, & take your rest, behold, the houre is at hand, and the sonne of man is betrayed into the handes of sinners.
46 Rise, let vs be goeing: beholde, he is at hande that dooth betray me.
47 * Whyle he yet spake, loe Judas one of the twelue came, & with hym a great multitude with swoordes and staues from the chefe priestes and elders of the people. *Mar.14.43 Luk.22.47. Joh.18.3.
48 But he that betrayed hym, gaue them a token, saying, Whom so euer I shall kisse, that same is he, holde hym fast.
49 And foorthwith when he came to Jesus, he sayde, Hayle maister: and kissed him.
50 And Jesus sayde vnto hym, Freende, wherefore art thou come? Then came they and layd handes on Jesus, and tooke him.
51 And beholde, one of them whiche were with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drue his swoord, & smote the seruant of the hygh priest, and smote of his eare.
52 Then sayde Jesus vnto hym, Turne backe thy swoord into his place: for al they that take the swoorde, shall perishe with the swoorde. *Gene.9.6. Apoc.13.10.
53 Thinkest thou that I can not nowe pray to my father, and he shal sende to me more then twelue legions of angels?
54 But howe then shall the scriptures be fulfylled, that thus it must be? * Esa.53.10
55 In that same houre sayde Jesus to the multitudes, Ye be come out as it were vnto a theefe with swoordes and staues for to take me: I sate dayly with you teaching in the temple, and ye tooke me not.
56 But al this was done that the scriptures of the prophetes might be fulfilled. Then al the disciples, hauing forsaken him, fled. *Lame.4.20 Mat.20.31.

57 But

Mar.14.53. Luke.22.54 Joh.18.14. 57 * But they that had taken Jesus, led him away to Caiaphas the hye priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled.

58 But Peter folowed hym a farre off, vnto the hye priestes palace, and went in, and sate with the seruantes to see the end.

Mar.14.55 59 * The cheefe priestes and elders, and all the counsayle, sought false witnesse agaynst Jesus, to put him to death, 60 But found none: yea, when many false witnesses came, yet found they none. At the last came two false witnesses,

John.2.19 61 And sayde, This felowe sayde, * I am able to destroy the temple of GOD, and to build it in three dayes.

62 And the cheefe priest arose, and sayde vnto him, Answerest thou nothing? What is that which these witnesse agaynst thee?

63 But Jesus held his peace. And the cheefe priest answered, and sayde vnto hym, I charge thee by the liuyng God, that thou tell us whether thou be Christe the sonne of God?

64 Jesus sayth vnto hym, Thou hast sayd: Nuertheles, I say vnto you, * hereafter shall ye see the sonne of man sittyng on the ryght hand of the power of God, and comming in the cloudes of the skye.

65 Then the hye priest rent his clothes, saying, He hath spoke blasphemie: what neede we of any moe witnesses? Beholde, now ye haue heard his blasphemie.

66 What thinke ye? They answered, and sayde, He is woorthy to dye.

Mat.26.6. 67 * Then did they spit in his face, and buffeted him with fistes, and other smote hym on the face with the palme of their handes, 68 Saying, Prophesie vnto vs, O Christe, who is he that smote thee?

Mar.14.66. Luke.22.55 Joh.18.25. 69 * Peter sate without in the palace: And a damsell came vnto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus of Galilee.

70 But he denyed before them all, saying, I wote not what thou sayest.

71 When he was gone out into the porche, an other wenche sawe hym, and sayde vnto them that were there, This felowe was also with Jesus of Nazareth.

72 And agayne he denyed with an othe, I doo not knowe the man.

73 And after a whyle came vnto hym they that stoode by, and sayde to Peter, Surely thou art euen one of them: for thy speache bewrayeth thee.

74 Then began he to curse and to sweare, saying, I know not the man. And immediatly the Cocke crewe.

75 And Peter remembred the woordes of Jesu, whiche sayde vnto him, Before the Cocke crowe, thou shalt denye me thryse. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

The xxvii. Chapters.

1. Christe is deliuered vnto Pilate. 3. Judas hangeth himselfe.

1 When the morning was come, * all the cheefe priestes and elders of the people held a counsayle agaynst Jesus to put hym to death.

*Mark.15.1 Luke.22.66 John.17.22

2 And when they had bound hym, they led hym away, and deliuered hym to Pontius Pilate the deputie.

3 Then Judas, whiche had betrayed hym, when he sawe that he was condemned, repented hym selfe, and brought agayne the thyrtie * siluer peeces to the cheefe priestes and elders,

*Or, shekelynges.

4 Saying, I haue sinned, in that I haue betrayed the innocent blood. And they sayde, What is that to vs? see thou to that.

5 And when he had cast downe the peeces of siluer in the temple, he departed, * and went his way, and hanged him selfe.

*Acts.1.18.

6 And the cheefe priestes tooke the siluer peeces, and sayde, It is not lawfull for to put them into the treasurie, because it is the price of blood.

7 And when they had taken counsayle, they bought with them the potters feelde, to burie strangers in.

8 Wherefore that feelde was called, * The feelde of blood, vntyll this day.

*Acts.1.19.

9 Then was fulfylled that whiche was spoken by Jeremie the prophete, saying, * And they tooke the thyrtie siluer peeces, the price of hym that was valued, whom they bought of the chyldren of Israel:

*Zach.11.13.

10 And gaue them for the Potters feelde, as the Lorde appointed me.)

11 Jesus stoode before the deputie, and the deputie asked him, saying, Art thou ỳ kyng of ỳ Iewes? Jesus sayth vnto hym, Thou sayest.

12 * And when he was accused of the cheefe priestes and elders, he answered nothyng.

*Mark.15.3

13 Then sayth Pilate vnto hym, Hearest thou not howe many thynges they witnesse agaynst thee?

14 And he answered him to never a woord: in so much that the deputie marueyled greatly.

15 * At that feast the deputie was woont to let loose vnto the people a prisoner, whom they would.

*Mark.15.6 Luke.23.17.

16 He had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas.

17 Therfore when they were gathered together, Pilate sayde vnto them, Whether will ye that I geue loose vnto you Barabbas, or Jesus, which is called Christe?

18 For he knewe that for enuie they had deliuered delyuered hym.

19 When he was set downe on the iudgement seate, his wyfe sent vnto hym, saying, Haue thou nothing to doo with that iuste man: For I haue suffered many things this day in a dreame because of hym.

20 *But the chiefe priestes and elders perswaded the people that they shoulde aske Barabbas, and destroy Iesus. *Mar.15.11 Luke.23.17. John.18.40 Actes.3.14.

21 The deputie answeared, and sayde vnto them, Whether of the twayne will ye that I let loose vnto you? They said Barabbas.

22 Pilate said vnto them, What shal I doo then with Iesus whiche is called Christe? They all said vnto him, Let him be crucified.

23 The deputie sayde, What euyll hath he done? But they cryed exceedingly, saying, Let hym be crucified.

24 When Pilate sawe that he coulde preuayle nothyng, but that more busynesse was made, he tooke water, & washed his handes before the people, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this iuste person: see ye to it.

25 Then answeared all the people, and said, His blood be on vs, and on our childzen.

26 Then let he Barabbas loose vnto them, and when he had scourged Iesus, he deliuered hym to be crucified.

27 *Then the souldiers of ỹ deputie, when they had take Iesus into the common hall, gathered vnto hym all the band of souldiers. *Mar.15.16 Iohn.19.1.

28 And when they had stripped hym, they put on hym a scarlet robe.

29 And when they had platted a crowne of thorns, they put it vpon his head, and a reede in his right hande: and when they had bowed the knee before hym, they mocked hym, saying, Hayle kyng of the Iewes.

30 And when they had spit vpon hym, they tooke the reede, and smote him on the head.

31 And after that they had mocked hym, they tooke the robe of him, & put his owne rayment on hym, and led hym away to crucifie hym.

32 *And as they came out, they founde a man of Cyrene, Simon by name: him they compelled to beare his crosse. *Mar.15.28 Luke.23.26

33 *And when they were come vnto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, a place of a skull, *Mar.15.22 Luke.23.32 Iohn.19.16

34 They gaue hym vineger to drinke, mingled with gall: and when he had tasted thereof, he would not drinke.

35 *When they had crucified hym, they parted his garmentes, casting lottes: that it might be fulfilled whiche was spoken by the prophete, *They parted my garmentes among them, and vpon my vesture did they cast lottes. *Mat.15.24 *Psal.22.19

36 And sitting downe, they watched hym there:

37 And set vp ouer his head his accusation written, This is Iesus the kyng of the Iewes.

38 Then are there two theenes crucified with hym: one on the right hand, and another on the left.

39 They that passed by, reuiled hym, waggyng their heades,

40 And saying, *Thou that destroyest the temple, and buyldest it in three dayes, saue thee selfe: If thou be the sonne of GOD, come downe from the crosse. *Iohn.2.19

41 Likewyse also the hygh priestes mocking hym, with the scribes and elders, saide, 42 He saued other, hym self can he not saue: If he be the kyng of Israel, let hym nowe come downe from the crosse, and we will beleeue hym.

43 *He hath trusted in God, let hym deliuer hym nowe yf he will haue hym: for he sayde, I am the sonne of God. *Psal.22.9. Wisd.2.18.

44 The theeues also which were crucified with hym, cast the same in his teeth.

45 From the sixth houre was there darkenesse ouer all the land, vnto ỹ nienth houre.

46 And about the nienth houre, Iesus cryed with a loud voyce, saying, Eli, Eli, Lamasabachthani, that is to say, My god, my god, why hast thou forsaken me? *Psal.22.2.

47 Some of them that stoode there, when they heard that, sayde, This man calleth for Elias.

48 And straight way one of them ranne, *and tooke a sponge, and when he had fylled it ful of vineger, and put it on a reede, he gaue hym to drinke. *Psa.69.22

49 The rest sayd, Let be, let vs see whether Elias will come to saue hym.

50 Iesus, when he had cryed agayne with a loude voyce, yeelded vp the ghost.

51 And beholde, the vayle of the temple was rent in two partes, from the toppe to the bottome, and the earth dyd quake, and the stones rent, *1.Chr.3.14

52 And graues were opened, and many bodyes of saintes which slept, arose.

53 And after that they were come out of the graues after his resurrection, came into the holy citie, and appeared vnto many.

54 When the a Centurion, and they that were with hym watching Iesus, sawe the earthquake, and those thinges that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truely this was the sonne of God. a. A captayne of one hundred men.

55 And many women were there (beholding hym a farre off) which followed Iesus from Galilee, ministring vnto hym:

56 Among whiche was Marie Magdalene,

lene, and Marie the mother of James and Ioses, & the mother of Zebedees chyldren.

The Gospel on Easter Euen.

57 *When the euen was come, there came a ryche man from the citie of Arimathea, named Ioseph, whiche also hym selfe was Iesus disciple.

Mar.15.42 Luke.23.50 Iohn.19.38

58 He went to Pilate, and begged the body of Iesus: then Pilate commaunded the body to be delyuered.

59 And when Ioseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a cleane lynnen cloth:

60 And layde it in his newe tombe, whiche he had hewen out in the rocke: and when he had rolled a great stone to the doore of the sepulchre, he departed.

61 And there was Marie Magdalene, and the other Marie, sittyng ouer agaynst the sepulchre.

62 The next day that followed the day of preparyng, the hygh Priestes and Pharisees came togeather vnto Pilate, 63 Saying, Syr, we remember that this deceyuer sayde whyle he was yet alyue, After three dayes I aryse agayne.

64 Commaunde therefore, that the sepulchre be made sure vntyll the thyrde day: lest his disciples come by nyght, and steale hym away, and say vnto the people, He is rysen from the dead: and the last errour shalbe worse then the first.

65 Pilate sayde vnto them, Ye haue the watche, goe your way, make it as sure as ye knowe.

66 So they went, and when they had sealed vp the stone, they made the sepulchre sure with the watche.

¶ The.xxviii.Chapter.

2. The resurrection of Christe. 12. The hygh Priestes geue the souldiers money, to say that Christe was stollen out of his grane.

Mar.16.6. Iohn.20.11

1 IN the latter ende of the Sabboth day, which dawneth the first day of the weeke, came Marie Magdalene, and the other Marie, to see the sepulchre.

2 And beholde, there was a great earthquake, for the angel of the Lorde descended from heauen, and came and rolled backe the stone from the doore, and sate vpon it.

3 His countenaunce was lyke lyghtenyng, and his rayment whyte as snowe.

4 And for feare of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men.

5 The angel answeared, and sayde vnto the women, Feare ye not: for I knowe that ye seeke Iesus, whiche was crucified.

6 He is not here, he is rysen, as he sayde. Come, see the place where that the Lorde was layde,

7 And goe quickly, and tell his disciples that he is rysen from the dead. And beholde, he goeth before you into Galilee, there shall ye see hym: loe I haue tolde you.

8 And they departed quickly from the sepulchre, with feare, & great ioy, and did runne, to bryng his disciples worde.

9 And as they went to tell his disciples, beholde, Iesus met them, saying, All hayle. And they came, and helde hym by the feete, and worshipped hym.

10 Then sayd Iesus vnto them, Be not afrayd: goe tell my brethren that they goe into Galilee, and there shal they see me.

11 When they were gone, beholde, some of the watche came into the citie, and shewed vnto the hygh Priestes all the thynges that were done.

12 And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsell, they gaue large money vnto the souldiers, 13 Saying, Saye, His disciples came by nyght, and stole hym away whyle we slept.

14 And yf this come to the deputies eares, we wyll perswade hym, and make you careles.

15 So they, when they had taken the money, dyd as they were taught. And this saying was noysed among the Iewes, vntyll this day.

16 Then the eleuen disciples went away into Galilee, into a mountayne, where Iesus had appoynted them.

17 And when they sawe hym, they worshipped hym: but some doubted.

18 And Iesus came, and spake vnto them, saying, All power is geuen vnto me in heauen and in earth.

19 *Goe ye therefore, and teache all nations, baptising them in the name of the father, and of the sonne, and of the holy ghost: *Mar.16.15

20 Teachyng them to obserue all thynges, whatsoeuer I haue commaunded you: and loe, I am with you alway, euen vnto the ende of the worlde.

We haue in this deſcription conferred the vſe and maner of the celebration of Eaſter that the Iewes helde, with that which we vſe to reckon and begyn at, and alſo to name the dayes of the weeke, and haue added thereto certayne dayes of the Moneth of Marche, in the yeere that Ieſus Chriſte ſuffered, to declare the vnderſtandyng of the ſayde difficultie. Wherein there is to be noted, that the Lorde Ieſus celebrated not the Paſſeouer the ſame day that the Iewes did: but that he which came not to breake the lawe, but to fulfyl the lawe in euery poynt, ate the Lambe with his diſciples at the tyme ordeyned by the lawe. Exod. 12. which is the fourteenth day of the firſt Moneth (that is to ſay, Marche) in the after noone, on the whiche began the ſayde feaſt: whiche fel this yeeere on the Friday, the Euen of the Sabboth or day of reſt. On the whith day, he which was the true Lambe was offered, to the ende that the trouth myght agree with the figure: but the Iewes celebrated the ſayde Paſſeouer the day folowyng at Euen after Sonne ſet, Ieſus Chriſte being in the graue: for that by tradition of their predeceſſors, the ſayde feaſt whiche fel on the Friday, accordyng to the lawe, was deferred to the next day, whiche was the day of their weekely Sabboth, becauſe they woulde not keepe two feaſtes togeather: for this feaſt day they called the great Sabboth. Iohn. 19. and alſo becauſe (as enimies of the trueth) they woulde ſeeke all meanes poſſible to keepe hym from beyng knowen for the Meſſias.

The diſciples prepare the Lambe whiche Ieſus Chriſte ate with them after Euen, the ſame day of whiche Euen began the feaſt.	Ieſus hauing eaten the Lambe with his diſciples, inſtituteth the Sacrament of the Supper: is kyſſed by Iudas, is crucified, dead, and buryed.	Ieſus Chriſt reſteth in the graue all this day.	The women carrie oyntments very early in the morayng to the graue.

Here is alſo to be noted, that where the eatyng of the Lambe, the inſtitution of the Sacrament, with the reſidue before mentioned, is referred to Thurſday and Friday: Yf ye reckon accordyng to the Iewes accompt, who begin their Friday nyght on Thurſday after Sonne ſet, & continueth that night and day vntil the next day after Sonne ſet, ye ſhal find that Chriſt did eate the Paſcal Lambe, inſtituted the Sacrament of his body and blood, was kyſſed by Iudas, and was crucified, dead, and buried on Friday. But yf ye reckon after our vſe, then Chriſte dyd eate the Paſcal Lambe, inſtituted the Sacrament of his body & blood, and was kyſſed of Iudas on Thurſday, but was crucified, dead, and buried on Friday.

¶ The Gospel by Saint Marke.

¶ The first Chapter.

2. The office of Iohn Baptist. 9. The baptisme of Christe, 13. his fastyng, 14. and preachyng.

1 The begynnyng of ỳ Gospel of IESU Christe, the sonne of God,

2 As it hath been written in the Prophetes, *

*Mala.3. 1. Beholde, I sende my messenger before thy face, whiche shal prepare thy way before thee.

*Esai.40.3. 3 *A voyce of him that crieth in the wyldernesse, Prepare ye the way of the Lorde, and make his pathes straight.

John.1.15. Luke.3.4.

*Math.3.4. 4 *Iohn was baptising in the wyldernesse, and preaching the baptisme of repentance, for the remission of sinnes.

*Math.3.5. 5 *And all the lande of Iurie, and they of Hierusalem, went out vnto him, and were all baptised of him in the ryuer of Iordane, confessyng theyr sinnes.

6 Iohn was clothed with camels heare, and with a girdle of a skinne about his loynes: *and he did eate locustes and wylde honie,

*Leui.11.22. *Math.3.12 Luke.3.16. John.1.27. 7 *And preached, saying, There shal come one mightier then I, commeth after me, whose shoe latchet I am not worthie to stoupe downe, and vnloose.

8 I haue baptised you with water: but he shal baptise you with the holy ghost.

*Actes.1.5. *Mat.3.14. Luke.3.22. John.1.33. 9 *And it came to passe in those dayes, that Iesus came from Nazareth a citie of Galilee, *and was baptised of Iohn in Iordane.

10 And assoone as he was come vp out of the water, he sawe heauen open, and the spirite discending vpon him like a Doue.

11 And there came a voyce from heauen, Thou art my deare sonne, in whom I am wel pleased.

*Math.4.1. Luke.4.1. 12 *And immediatly the spirite driueth him into wyldernesse.

13 And he was there in the wyldernesse fourtie dayes tempted of Satan, and was with the wilde beastes, and the angels ministred vnto him.

*Math.4.12 Luke.4.14. John.4.43. 14 After that Iohn was deliuered to prison *Iesus came into Galilee, preachyng the Gospel of the kyngdome of God, 15 And saying, The tyme is come, and the kyngdome of GOD is at hande: repent ye, and beleeue the Gospel.

16 *As he walked by the sea of Galilee, he sawe Simon, & Andrew his brother, casting nettes into the sea (for they were fyshers.) *Math.4.18 Luke.5.2.

17 And Iesus sayd vnto them, Folowe me, & I wil make you to become fishers of men.

18 And straightway they forsooke theyr nettes, and folowed him.

19 And when he had gone a litle further thence, he sawe Iames the sonne of Zebedee, and Iohn his brother, which also were in the shyp mending theyr nettes.

20 And anone he called them: and they left theyr father Zebedee in the shyp with the hired seruantes, and folowed him.

21 *And they came into Capernaum, and straightway on the Sabboth dayes, he entred into the synagogue, and taught. *Math.4.23 Luke.4.31.

22 *And they were astonied at his learning: for he taught them as one that had auctoritie, and not as the Scribes. *Math.7.28 Luke.4.32.

23 *And there was in theyr synagogue, a man vexed with an vncleane spirite, and he cryed aloude, *Luke.4.32.

24 Saying, Let vs alone, what haue we to do with thee, thou Iesus of Nazareth? Art thou come to destroy vs? I knowe thee what thou art, euen that holy one of God.

25 And Iesus rebuked him, saying, Holde thy peace, and come out of him.

26 And when the vncleane spirite had torne him, and cryed with a loude voyce, he came out of him.

27 And they were al amased, insomuche that they demaunded one of another among themselues, saying, What thing is this? What newe doctrine is this? For with auctoritie cõmaundeth he the foule spirites, and they doo obey him?

28 And immediatly his fame spread abrode throughout al the region bordering on Galilee.

29 *And foorthwith, when they were come out of the synagogue, they entred into the house of Simon, & Andrewe, with Iames and Iohn. *Math.8.14 Luke.4.38.

30 But Simons wines mother lay sicke of a feuer: and anone they tel him of her.

31 And he came and tooke her by the hand, and lyft her vp: and immediatly the feuer forsooke her, and she ministred vnto them.

32 And at euen, when the sunne was downe, they brought vnto him al that were diseased, & them that were vexed with deuils:

33 And al the citie was geathered togeather at the dooze.
34 And he healed many that were ſicke of diuers diſeales, and calt out many deuyls:
and ſuffered not the deuyls to ſpeake, becauſe they knewe hym.
35 And in the mozning very early befoze day, Jeſus when he was ryſen vp, went out, and departed into a ſolitarie place, and there prayed.
36 And Simon, and they that were with hym, folowed after hym:
37 And when they had found him, they ſayd
vnto hym, Al men ſeeke foz thee.
38 And he ſayd vnto them, Let vs goe into the nexte townes, that I may preache there alſo: foz therefoze am I come.
39 And he preached in theyr ſynagogues in all Galilee, and caſt the deuyls out.
*Math.2.2. Luke.5.12. 40 *And there came a leper to hym, beſeeching him, and kneeling downe to him, and ſaying vnto him, If thou wylt, thou canſt make me cleane.
41 And Jeſus, hauing compaſſion on him, when he had put foozth his hande, touched him, and ſayth vnto him, I wyl, be thou cleane.
42 And aſſoone as he had ſpoken, immediatly the leproſie departed from him, and he was made cleane.
43 And after he had geuen hym a ſtraite commaundement, he ſent him away fooꝛthwith:
44 And ſayth vnto him, See thou ſay nothing to any man: but geat thee hence,
*Leui.14.4. Luke.5.12. ſhewe thee ſelfe to the prieſt, * and offer foz thy clenſing thoſe thinges whiche Moſes commaunded, foz a witneſſe vnto them.
*Math.9.1. 45 *But he, aſſoone as he was departed, began openly to declare many thinges, and to publiſhe this rumour: inſomuche, that Je-ſus coulde no moze openly enter into the citie, but was without in deſart places:
and they came to him from euery quarter.

¶ The ii. Chapter.

1. He healeth the man of the palſie, 14. and calleth Leui the cuſtomer.

*Mark.9,1. 1 AFter a fewe dayes alſo, *he entred into Capernaum agayne, and it was noy-ſed that he was in the houſe.
2 And anone many were geathered together, inſomuche that nowe there was no roome to receyue them, no not ſo muche as about the dooze: and he preached the woꝛde of the Goſpel vnto them.
3 And they come vnto hym, bryngyng one ſicke of the palſie, whiche was boꝛne of foure men.
4 And when they coulde not come nigh vnto hym foz preaſſe, they vncouered the roofe of the houſe that he was in: and when they had broken vp the roofe, they doo with cordes let downe the bed wherein the ſicke of the palſie lay.
5 When Jeſus ſawe their fayth, he ſayd vnto the ſicke of the palſie, Sonne, thy ſinnes be foꝛgeuen thee.
6 But there were certayne of the Scribes ſitting there, and reaſoning in their hartes,
7 Why doeth he thus ſpeake blaſphemies?
*Who can foꝛgeue ſinnes but God onely?
8 And immediatly, when Jeſus perceyued *Iohn.14.4 Eſai.43.15.
in his ſpirite that they ſo reaſon within them ſelues, he ſayth vnto them, Why reaſon ye ſuche thinges in your hartes?
9 Whether is it eaſyer to ſay to the ſicke of the palſie, Thy ſinnes be foꝛgeuen thee: oꝛ to ſay, Ariſe, take vp thy bedde and walke?
10 But that ye may knowe that the ſonne of man hath power in earth to foꝛgeue ſinnes, (He ſayth to the ſicke of the paul-ſie,) 11 I ſay vnto thee, Ariſe, and take vp thy bed, and geat thee hence into thine houſe.
12 And immediatly he aroſe, tooke vp the bed, & went foꝛth before them al, inſomuche that they were al amazed, & glorified God, ſaying, We neuer ſawe it on this faſhion.
13 *And he went agayne by the ſea ſide, and *Math.9.9. Luke.5.27.
al the people reſoꝛted vnto him, & he taught them.
14 And as Jeſus paſſed by, he ſawe Leui the ſonne of Alphee ſitting at the receipt of cuſtome, and ſayde vnto hym, Folowe me.
And he aroſe, and folowed hym.
15 And it came to paſſe, that when Jeſus ſate at meate in his houſe, many publicanes & ſinners ſate alſo togeather at meate with Jeſus and his Diſciples: foꝛ there were many, and they folowed hym.
16 And when the Scribes and Phariſees ſawe hym eate with Publicanes and ſinners, they ſayde vnto his diſciples, Howe is it that he eateth and dꝛynketh with Publicanes and ſinners?
17 When Jeſus heard that, he ſayth vnto them, They that be whole, haue no neede of the phyſition, but they that are ſicke: I came not to call the righteous, but ſinners to repentance.
18 *And the diſciples of Iohn, & of the Pha- *1.Tim.1.13

hym, Why doo the diſciples of Iohn, and Luke.5.33.
of the Phariſees faſt, but thy diſciples faſt
not?
19 And Jeſus ſayde vnto them, Can the chyldꝛen of the bꝛyde chamber faſt, whyle the bꝛydegrome is with them? As long as they haue the bꝛydegrome with them, they can not faſt.

20 But

20 But the dayes will come, when the bridegrome shalbe taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those dayes.

21 No man also soweth a peece of newe cloth, vnto an old garment: otherwaies, his newe peece taketh away somewhat from the old garment, and so the rent is made woorse.

22 And no man powreth newe wyne into olde vessels, els the newe wyne doeth burst the vessels, and the wyne runneth out, and the vessels wyl be marred: But newe wine, must be put into newe vessels.

Mat.12.1. Luke.6.1. 23 *And it came to passe, that he went thorowe the corne feeldes on the Sabboth dayes, and his disciples began by the way to plucke the eares of corne.

24 And the Pharisees sayde vnto hym, Beholde, why doo they on the Sabboth dayes that whiche is not lawful?

1.Re.21.6. 25 And he sayde vnto them, Haue ye neuer read what Dauid did, when he had neede, and was an hungred, both he, and they that were with hym?

26 Howe he went into the house of God in the dayes of Abiathar the high Priest, and did eate the shewe bread, * whiche is not lawfull to eate but for the Priestes, & gaue also to them whiche were with hym?

Exo.29.33 Leuit.8.31. 27 And he saide vnto them, The Sabboth was made for man, and not man for the Sabboth.

28 Therfore is the sonne of man Lorde also of the Sabboth.

¶ The.iij. Chapter.

1. He helpeth the man with the dried hand, 14. chooseth his Apostles.

Mat.12.9. Luke.6.6. 1 AND * he entred agayne into the Synagogue, and a man was there whiche had a wythered hande:

2 And they watched him, whether he would heale hym on the Sabboth day, that they myght accuse hym.

3 And he sayde vnto the man which had the withered hand, Aryse, and stand in the mids.

4 And he saith vnto them, Is it lawful to do good on the Sabboth daies, or to do euil? to saue life, or to kill? But they held their peace.

5 And when he had looked roundeabout on them with anger, mourning for the hardnesse of their hartes, he sayth vnto the man, Stretch foorth thyne hande. And he stretched it out: and his hande was restored as whole as the other.

6 And the Pharisees departed, & straightway geathered a counsel with the Herodians agaynst hym, that they myght destroye hym.

7 But Jesus auoyded, with his disciples, to the sea; and a great multitude followed hym from Galilee, and from Iurie,

8 And from Hierusalem, and from Idumea, and from the region which is beyond Iordane, and they that dwelt about Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, when they had heard what thynges he dyd, came vnto him.

9 And Jesus commaunded his disciples that a shyp should wayte on hym, because of the people, lest they should throng hym.

10 For he had healed many, insomuche that they preassed vpon hym for to touch hym, as many as had plagues.

11 And the vncleane spirites, when they sawe him, they fell downe before hym at his feete, and cried, saying, Thou art the son of God.

12 And he straitely charged them, that they shoulde not make hym knowen.

13 *And he goeth vp into a mountaine, and calleth vnto him whom he would: and they came vnto hym. *Mat.10.1. Luke.9.1.

14 And he ordeined twelue, that they should be with hym, and that he myght sende them forth to preache:

15 And that they myght haue power to heale sicknesses, and to cast out deuyls.

16 And he gaue vnto Simon to name Peter.

17 And he called James the sonne of Zebedee, and Iohn James brother (and gaue them names, Boanerges, whiche is to say, The sonnes of thunder.)

18 And Andrewe, and Philip, and Bartholomewe, and Matthewe, and Thomas, and James the sonne of Alpher, and Thaddeus, and Simon the Chanaanite, 19 And Judas Iscariot, which also betrayed hym: and they come into an house.

20 And the people commeth togeather agayne, so that they coulde not so muche as eate bread.

21 And when all they that belonged vnto hym, heard of it, they went out to lay hands vpon hym, for they sayde, He is madde.

22 And the Scribes whiche came downe from Hierusalem, sayde, *He hath Beelzebub, and by the prince of the deuyls, casteth he out deuyls. *Mat.9.34. and.12.24. *Luk.11.14.

23 And when he had called them vnto hym, he sayde vnto them in parables, Howe can Satan cast out Satan?

24 And yf a realme be diuided agaynst it selfe, that realme can not endure.

25 And if a house be diuided against it selfe, that house can not continue.

26 And yf Satan make insurrection agaynst hym selfe, and be diuided, he can not continue, but hath an ende.

27 No man can enter into a strong mans house, and take away his goodes, except he wyl first bynde the strong man, and then wyl spoyle his house.

*Mat.12.38 Luke.12.10 Iohn.5.16. 28 *Verely I say vnto you, All sinnes shalbe forgeuen vnto the chyldren of men, and blaspemies, wherewith so euer they shall blaspheme:

29 But he that shall blaspheme agaynst the holy ghoste, hath neuer forgeuenesse, but is in danger of eternal damnation.

30 *For they sayd, He hath an vncleane spirite.

*Mat.12.46 Luke.8.19. 31 *There come his mother, and his brethren, & standyng without, sent vnto hym, callyng hym.

32 And the people sate about hym, and sayd vnto hym, Behold, thy mother, and thy brethren, & thy sisterne, seeke for thee without.

33 And he answered them, saying, Who is my mother, or my brethren?

34 And when he had looked rounde about on them whiche sate about hym, he sayde, Beholde my mother and my brethren.

35 For whosoeuer shal doo the wyl of God, the same is my brother, and my syster, and mother.

The.iii.Chapter.

1. The parable of the Sowier. 37. Christe stylleth the tempest of the sea, vvhich obeyeth hym.

*Mat.13.1. Luke.8.4. 1 *AND he began againe to teach by the sea side: and there gathered vnto him muche people, so that he entred into a shyp, and sate in the sea: and all the people was by the sea side on the shore.

2 And he taught them many thynges by parables, and saide vnto them in his doctrine,

3 Hearken, Behold, there went out a Sower to sowe:

4 And it fortuned as he sowed, that some fel by the wayes syde; and the fowles of the ayre came, and deuoured it vp.

5 Some fel on stonie grounde, where it had not much earth: and immediatly it sprang vp, because it had no deapth of earth.

6 But as soone as the Sonne was vp, it caught heate, and because it had no roote, it wytherred away.

7 And some fel among thornes, & the thornes grewe vp, & choked it, and it gaue no fruite.

8 And some fell on good grounde, and dyd yeelde fruite that sprang vp, and grew, and brought forth, some thyrtie, and some sixtie, and some an hundred.

9 And he sayde vnto them, He that hath eares to heare, let hym heare.

10 And when he was alone, they that were about hym, with the twelue, asked of hym the parable.

11 And he sayde vnto them, Vnto you it is geuen to knowe the mysteris of the kyngdome of God: but vnto them that are without, all thynges are done by parables,

12 *That when they see, they may see, and not discerne: and when they heare, they may heare, and not vnderstande, lest at any tyme they shoulde turne, and their sinnes shoulde be forgeuen them. *Esai.6.9. Mat.13.14. Luke.8.10 Ioh.12.40 Acts.28.26 Roma.11.8

13 And he sayde vnto them, Knowe ye not this parable? And howe then wyl ye know al parables?

14 The Sower soweth the woorde.

15 And they that receyued seede by the way syde, are those where the woorde is sowen, but when they haue hearde, Satan commeth immediately, and taketh away the woorde that was sowen in their hartes.

16 And lykewyse they that receyued seede into the stonie grounde, are they, whiche when they haue hearde the woorde, at once receyue it with gladnesse:

17 Yet haue no roote in them selues, and so endure but a tyme: and anone when trouble and persecution ryseth for the woordes sake, immediatly they are offended.

18 And those be they that receyue seede among thornes: and they are suche as heare the woorde, 19 And the cares of this world, *and the deceytfulnesse of rychesse, and the lustes of other thynges entryng in, choke the woorde, and it is made vnfruiteful. *1.Tim. 6.17.

20 And they which receiued seede into good grounde, are such as heare the woorde, and receyue it, so that one corne doeth bryng forth thyrtie, some sixtie, some an hundred.

21 And he sayde vnto them, *Is the candle lyghted to be put vnder a bushel, or vnder the table? & not to be put on a candlesticke? *Mat.5.15. Luke.8.16. and.11.33.

22 *For there is nothyng so priuie that shall not be opened: neyther hath it been so secrete, but that it shal come abrode. *Mat.10.26 Luke.8.17. and.12.2.

23 If any man haue eares to heare, let hym heare.

24 And he sayde vnto them, Take heede what ye heare: *With what measure ye meate, with the same shal it be measured to you againe: And vnto you that heare, shall more be geuen. *Mat.7.2. Luke.6.38.

25 *For vnto him that hath, shal it be geuen: and from hym that hath not, shalbe taken away, euen that whiche he hath. *Mat.13.12 and.25.29. Luke.8.18. and.19.26.

26 And he saide, So is the kyngdome of God, euen as yf a man shoulde sowe seede in the grounde, 27 And shoulde sleepe, and rise nyght and day, and the seede should spring and growe vp, he knoweth not howe.

28 For the earth bringeth forth fruite of her selfe, first the blade, then the eare, after that the ful corne in the eare.

29 But when the fruite is brought forth anone anone he thrusteth in the sickle, because the haruest is come.

Mat.13.31. Luke.13.19. 30 And he sayde, *Whereunto shal we lyken the kyngdome of God? Or with what comparison shal we compare it?

31 It is lyke a grayne of mustarde seede: which when it is sowen in the earth, is lesse then al seedes that be in the earth:

32 And when it is sowen, it groweth vp, and is greater then al herbes, and beareth great braunches, so that the foules of the ayre may make theyr nestes vnder the shadowe of it.

Mat.13.34 33 *And with many such parables preached he the worde vnto them, as they were able to heare it.

34 But without parable spake he not vnto them, but when they were alone, he expounded al thinges to his disciples.

Mat.8.23. Luke.8.22. 35 *And the same day when the euen was come, he sayth vnto them, Let vs passe ouer vnto the other syde.

36 And they left the people, and tooke him, euen as he was in the shyp, and there were also with him other little shyppes.

37 And there arose a great stormе of wynd, and the waues dashed into the shyp, so that it was now ful.

38 And he was in the sterne a sleepe on a pyllowe: and they awake him, & say vnto him, Maister, carest thou not that we perishe?

39 And he arose, and rebuked the wynde, and sayde vnto the sea, Peace, and be styl: and the winde ceassed, and there folowed a great calme.

40 And he sayde vnto them, Why are ye fearefull? Howe is it that ye haue no fayth?

41 And they feared exceedingly, and sayde one to another, Who is this? that both the winde and the sea obey hym.

1. Christe deliuereth the possessed from the vncleane spirite, 23. the woman from the bloodie issue.

Mat.8.28. Luke.8.26. 1 AND they came ouer to the other syde of the sea, into the countrey of the Gadarenes.

2 And when he was come out of the shyp, immediatly there met him from among the tombes, a man possessed of an vncleane spirite,

3 Whiche had his abyding among the tombes, and no man could bind him, no not with chaynes:

4 Because that he had ben often bounde with fetters and chaynes, and the chaynes had been plucked a sunder by hym, and the fetters broken in peeces: neyther could any man tame hym.

5 And alwayes, night and day, he was in the mountaynes, and in the tombes, crying, and al to cutting him selfe with stones.

6 But when he had spied Jesus a farre of, he ranne, and worshipped hym:

7 And cryed with a loude voyce, and sayde, What haue I to doo with thee, Jesus thou sonne of the most highest God? I requyre thee in the name of God, that thou torment me not.

8 (For he sayde vnto hym, Come out of the man, thou foule spirite.)

9 And he asked hym, What is thy name? And he answered, saying, My name is Legion: for we are many.

10 And he prayed hym instantly that he would not send them away out of the countrey.

11 But there was there nigh vnto the mountaynes, a great heard of swine, feeding.

12 And al the deuyls besought him, saying, Sende vs into the swyne, that we may enter into them.

13 And anone Jesus gaue them leaue. And the vncleane spirites went out, and entred into the swine, and the heard ranne headlong into the sea (they were about two thousande) and were choked in the sea.

14 And the swineherdes fledde, and tolde it in the citie, and in the countrey. And they went out for to see what was done:

15 And they come to Jesus, & see hym that was vexed with the feende, and had the legion, sitting, and clothed, & in his ryght minde: and they were afrayde.

16 And they that sawe it, tolde them howe it came to passe to hym that was possessed with the deuyl, and also of the swine.

17 And they began to pray hym to depart out of theyr coastes.

18 And when he was come into the shyp, he that had ben possessed with the deuyl, prayed him that he might be with hym.

19 Howebeit, Jesus suffered hym not, but sayth vnto hym, Goe home to thy freendes, and shewe them howe great thynges the Lord hath done for thee, and had compassion on thee.

20 And he departed, and began to publishe in Decapolis, howe great thinges Jesus had done for him: and al men did maruyle.

21 And when Jesus was come ouer againe by shyp vnto the other syde, muche people gathered vnto him, and he was nigh vnto the sea.

Mat.9.18. Luke.8.41. 22 *And beholde, there commeth one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name: and when he sawe hym, he fel downe at his feete, 23 And besought him greatly, saying, My young daughter lyeth at poynt of death,

I pray thee come and lay thy handes on her, that she may be safe, and she shal lyue.

24 And Iesus went with hym, and muche people folowed him, and thronged hym.

25 And there was a certayne woman, whiche had ben diseased with an issue of blood twelue yeeres, 26 And had suffered many thinges, of many Phisitions, and had spent al that she had, and felt none amendement at al, but rather the woorse.

27 When she had heard of Iesus, she came in the preasse behinde him, and touched his garment.

28 For she sayde, If I may but touche his clothes, I shalbe whole.

29 And straightway the fountayne of her blood was dryed vp: and she felt in her body that she was healed of the plague.

30 And Iesus immediatly knowing in him selfe that vertue proceeded from hym, turned him about in the preasse, and said, Who touched my clothes?

31 And his disciples sayde vnto him, Thou seest the people thrust thee, and askest thou, Who did touche me?

32 And he looked rounde about, for to see her that had done this thyng.

33 But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing what was done within her, came and fel downe before him, and tolde him al the trueth.

34 And he sayde vnto her, Daughter, thy fayth hath saued thee, goe in peace, and be whole of thy plague.

35 While he yet spake, there come from the ruler of the synagogues house, certayne whiche sayde, Thy daughter is dead, why diseasest thou the maister any further.

36 As soone as Iesus heard the woorde that was spoken, he sayth vnto the ruler of the synagogue, Be not afrayde, onely beleeue.

37 And he suffered no man to folowe hym, saue Peter, and James, and John the brother of James.

38 And ye commeth to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and seeth the tumult, and them that wept and wayled greatly.

39 And when he was come in, he sayth vnto them, Why make ye this adoo, & weepe? the Damsel is not dead, but sleepeth.

40 And they laught hym to scorne: but he, after that he had put them al out, taketh the father and the mother of the Damsel, and them that were with him, and entreth in where the Damsel lay.

41 And when he had taken the Damsel by the hande, he sayth vnto her, Talitha cumi, which is, being interpreted, Damsel (I say vnto thee) aryse.

42 And straightway the Damsel arose, and walked, for she was of the age of twelue yeeres: and they were astonied out of measure.

43 And he charged them straightly that no man should knowe of it: and commaunded to geue her meate.

¶ The. vi. Chapter.

Of Christes doynges and estimation in his owne country.

1 AND he *departed thence, and came into his owne country, and his disciples folowe hym. *Mat.13.54 Luke.4.16.

2 And when the Sabboth day was come, he began to teache in the synagogue: And many hearyng hym, were astonied, saying, From whence hath he these thinges? And what wysedome is this that is geuen vnto him, and suche mightie woorkes that are wrought by his handes?

3 Is not this the carpenter, Maries sonne, the brother of Iames and Ioses, and of Iuda and Simon? And are not his sisters here with vs? And they were offended at hym.

4 Iesus sayde vnto them, *A prophete is not without honour, but in his owne country, and among his owne kinne, and in his owne house. *Iohn.4.44

5 And he could there doo no mightie woorke: but layde his handes vppon a fewe sicke folke, and healed them:

6 And he marueyled because of their vnbeleefe. *And he went about by the villages that lay on euery side, teaching. *Mat.9.35. Luke.13.22.

7 *And he calleth the twelue, and began to sende them forth, two and two, and gaue them power agaynst vncleane spirites, *Mat.10.1. Luke.9.1.

8 And commaunded them that they should take nothing in their iourney, saue a staffe a onely: no scrippe, no bread, no money in their purse:

a. They may take a staffe for their ease, and not to defende them selues, as in Math.x.

9 But should be shooed with *sandales: and that they shoulde not put on two coates.

10 And he sayde vnto them, Wheresoeuer ye enter into an house, there abide tyl ye depart thence. *Actes.12.8

11 *And who soeuer shal not receyue you, nor heare you, when ye depart thence, *shake of the dust that is vnder your feete, for a witnesse agaynst them: I say verily vnto you, it shalbe easier for the Sodomites and the Gomorrheans in the day of iudgement, then for that citie. *Mat.10.14 Luke.9.5. *Act.13.51. and.18.6.

12 And they went out, and preached, that men shoulde repent.

13 And they cast out many deuyls, *and annoynted many that were sicke with oyle, and healed them. *Iam.5.14.

14 *And kyng Herode heard of hym, (for his name was spread abrode:) and he sayde that *Math.14.1 Luke.9.7.

that John Baptist was ryſen from the dead, and therefore mighty wourkes doo ſhewe foorth them ſelues in hym.

15 Other ſayd, that it is Elias. Some ſayd, That it is a prophete, or as one of the prophetes.

16 * But when Herode had heard of hym, he ſayde, It is John, whom I beheaded, he is ryſen from death. *Luk.3.19.

17 For Herode him ſelfe had ſent foorth and layd handes vpon John, & bound him in priſon for Herodias ſake, his brother Philips wyfe, becauſe he had marryed her. *by ſeruantes.

18 For John ſayde vnto Herode, * It is not lawful for thee to haue thy brothers wife. *Luk.18.16.

19 Therfore Herodias laid waite for him, & would haue killed him, but ſhe coulde not.

20 For Herode feared John, knowing that he was a iuſt man, and an holy, and gaue him reuerence: and when he heard him, he did many thinges, and heard him gladly.

21 And when a conuenient day was come, that Herode on his byrth day made a ſupper to the lordes, high captaines, and cheefe eſtates of Galilee:

22 And when the daughter of the ſame Herodias came in, and daunced, and pleaſed Herode, & them that ſate at boorde alſo, the king ſayde vnto the Damſel, Aſke of me whatſoeuer thou wilt, & I wil geue it thee.

23 And he ſware vnto her, Whatſoeuer thou ſhalt aſke of me, I wyll geue it thee, euen vnto the one halfe of my kingdome.

24 And ſhe went foorth, and ſayd vnto her mother, What ſhal I aſke? She ſayd, John Baptiſtes head.

25 And ſhe came in ſtraightway with haſt vnto the king, and aſked, ſaying, I wil that thou geue me by and by in a charger, the head of John Baptiſt.

26 And the king was exceeding ſorye, howbeit for his othes ſake, and for their ſakes which ſate at ſupper alſo, he would not caſt her of.

27 And immediatly the king ſent the hangman, and commaunded his head to be brought in, and he went and beheaded him in the priſon, 28 And brought his head in a charger, and gaue it to the Damſel, and the Damſel gaue it to her mother.

29 And when his diſciples heard of it they came and tooke vp his body, and layd it in a tombe,

30 And the apoſtles geather them ſelues togeather vnto Jeſus, and tolde hym all thinges, both what they had doone, and what they had taught. *Luke.9.10.

31 And he ſayd vnto them, Come ye alone out of the way into the wildernesſe, and reſt a whyle. For there were many commers and goers, and they had no leyſure ſo much as to eate.

32 * And they departed by ſhyppe out of the way into a deſart place. *Mat.14.13. Luk.9.10.

33 And the people ſpied them when they departed, and many knewe him: & ran a foote thither out of all cities, and came thither before them, and came togeather vnto him.

34 * And Jeſus, when he came out, ſawe much people, and had compaſſion on them, becauſe they were lyke ſheepe not hauing a ſhepeheard: * And he began to teache them many thynges. *Mat.9.36. and.14.14. *Luke.9.11.

35 * And when the day was nowe far ſpent, his diſciples came vnto hym, ſaying, This is a deſart place, and nowe the tyme is far paſſed: *Mat.14.15.

36 Let them depart, that they may goe into the countrey rounde about, and into the villages, and buy them bread: for they haue nothing to eate.

37 He anſwearred, and ſayd vnto them, Geue ye them to eate. And they ſay vnto hym, ſhall vve goe and buye two hundred penywoorth of bread, and geue them to eate?

38 He ſayth vnto them, Howe many loaues haue ye? goe and looke. * And when they had ſearched, they ſay, Fiue, and two fiſhes. *Mat.14.17 Luke.9.13. John.6.5.

39 And he commaunded them to make them all to ſyt downe by companies vppon the greene graſſe.

40 And they ſate downe, here a rowe, and there a rowe, by hundredes, and by fifties.

41 And when he had taken the fiue loaues, and the two fyſhes, and loked vp to heauen, he bleſſed, and brake the loaues, and gaue them to his diſciples to ſet before them: and the two fyſhes diuided he among them al.

42 And they al dyd eate, and were ſatiſfied.

43 And they tooke vp twelue baſkets full of the fragmentes, and of the fyſhes.

44 And they that dyd eate the loaues, were about fiue thouſande men.

45 And ſtrayghtway he conſtrayned his diſciples to goe into the ſhip, and to go ouer the ſea before vnto Bethſaida, whyle he ſhoulde ſende away the people.

46 And when he had ſent them away, he departed into a mountayne to pray.

47 * And when euen was come, the ſhyp was in the middeſt of the ſea, and he alone on the lande. *Mat.14.23 John.6.16.

48 And he ſawe them troubled in rowyng (for the wynde was contrary vnto them:) and about the fourth watch of the night, he commeth vnto them, walking vpon the ſea, and woulde haue paſſed by them.

49 But when they ſawe him walking vpon the ſea, they ſuppoſed it had beene a ſpirite,

and

and cryed out.

50 (For they al sawe hym, and were troubled:) and a none he talked with them, and sayth vnto them, Be of good cheare, It is I, be not afrayde.

51 And he went vp vnto them into the ship, and the winde ceassed, and they were sore amazed in them selues beyond measure, and marueyled.

52 For they vnderstood not what was doone of the loaues, because their hart was hardened.

*Mat.14.34 53 *And when they had passed ouer, they came into the land of Genezareth, and drue vp into the hauen.

54 And when they were come out of the ship, strayght way they knewe hym, 55 And ranne foorth throughout al the region rounde about, and began to carrye about in beddes, those that were sicke, thyther where they hearde that he was.

56 And whyther soeuer he entred, into villages, or cities, or fieldes, they layd the sicke folkes in the streetes, and prayed him that they myght touche & it were but the hemme of his garment: and as many as touched it, were made whole.

¶ The. vii. Chapter.

2. The Pharisees finde fault at the disciples eatyng of meate vvith vnvvashed handes. 32. The healyng of the deafe and dumbe.

*Mat.15.2. 1 AND *the Pharisees come togeather vnto him, and certaine of the Scribes, which came from Hierusalem.

2 And when they sawe some of his disciples eate bread with defyled (that is to saye, with vnwashed handes) they found faulte.

3 For the Pharisees, and al the Iewes, except they washe their handes oft, eate not, obseruing the tradition of the elders.

4 And when they come from the market except they washe, they eate not. And many other thinges there bee, whiche they haue taken vpon them to obserue, as the washing of cuppes & pottes, brasen vessels, & of tables.

5 Then asked hym the Pharisees and Scribes, Why walke not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elderes, but eate bread with vnwashen handes?

6 He answeared and sayd vnto them, Surely Esaias hath prophesied wel of you hypocrites, as it is written, *Esa.29.13. *This people honoureth me with their lippes, but their hart is farre from me.

7 Howbeit in vaine doo they worshyp me, teaching doctrines, the commaundementes of men.

8 For the commaundementes of God being laide apart, ye obserue the tradition of men, as the washyng of pottes and cuppes: and many other suche like thynges ye doo.

9 And he sayde vnto them, Full well ye cast aside the commaundement of God, that ye may keepe your owne tradition.

10 For Moses sayde, *Honour thy father and thy mother: *and who so curseth father or mother, let hym dye the death. *Exo.20.12 Deut.5.16. Ephel.6.2.

11 But ye say, if a man shal say to his father or his mother, Corban (that is, by the gyft) that (is offered) of me, thou shalt be helped. *Exo.21.1. Leui.20.9. Pro.20.20 *

12 And so ye suffer hym no more to doo ought for his father, or his mother, 13 Making the worde of God of none effect through your tradition, whiche ye haue ordeyned: And many such thynges doo ye.

14 *And when he had called all the people vnto him, he sayd vnto them, Hearken vnto me euery one of you, and vnderstande. *Mat.15.10.

15 There is nothing without a man that can defile him, when it entreth into hym: but the thynges whiche proceede out of a man, those are they that defyle the man.

16 If any man hath eares to heare, let him heare.

17 And when he came into the house, away from the people, his disciples asked hym of the similitude.

18 And he sayth vnto them, Are ye also so without vnderstandyng? Doo ye not perceiue that whatsoeuer thyng from without entreth into the man, it can not defyle him, 19 Because it entreth not into his hart, but into the belly, & goeth out into the draught, purging al the meates?

20 And he sayd, That which commeth out of the man, defyleth the man.

21 *For from within, euen out of the hart of men, proceede euyll thoughtes, adulteries, fornications, murders, *Gen.9.5. and.8.21.

22 Thefte, couetousnesse, wickednesse, deceite, wantonnesse, a wicked eye, blasphemie, pryde, foolishnesse:

23 *All these euyll thynges come from within, and defyle the man. *Mat.15.21.

24 And from thence he arose, and went into the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and entred into an house, & would that no man shoulde haue knowen, but he coulde not be hyd.

25 For a certayne woman, whose young daughter had an vncleane spirite, when she had hearde of hym, came and fell at his feete.

26 (The woman was a Greeke, out of the nation of Syrophenissa:) and she besought hym that he woulde cast out the deuyl from her daughter.

27 But Iesus sayde vnto her, Let the chyldren first be fedde: for it is not meete to take the chyldrens bread, and to cast it vnto the little litle dogges.

28 She answeared, and said vnto hym, Yes lord, for the litle dogges also eate vnder the table of the chyldrens crumbes.
29 And he sayde vnto her, For this saying, goe thy way, the deuil is gone out of thy daughter.
30 And when she was come home to her house, she found that the deuyll was departed, and her daughter lying on the bed.
The Gospell on the.xii. sunday after Trinitie.
31 And when he was departed againe from the coastes of Tyre and Sidon, he came vnto the sea of Galilee, through the middes of the coastes of Decapolis.
32 And they bring vnto hym one that was deafe, & had an impediment in his speache: and they pray him to put his handes vppon him.
33 And when he had taken hym aside from the people, he put his fingers into his eares, and when he had spit, touched his tongue.
34 And when he had looked vp to heauen, sighed, and sayde vnto him, Ephphata, that is to say, Be thou opened.
35 And straightway his eares were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plaine.
36 And he commaunded them that they shoulde tell no man: but the more he commaunded them, so muche the more a great deale they published it.
37 And were beyond measure astonied, saying, He hath done all thinges well: he hath made both the deafe to heare, & the dumbe to speake.

¶ The.viii. Chapter.

1. The myracle of the seuen loaues. 34. How we should folowe Christe.

The Gospell on the.vii. sunday after Trinitie. *Mat.15.32
1 IN those dayes, * the company being very great, and hauing nothyng to eate, when Jesus had called his disciples vnto hym, he sayth vnto them,
2 I haue compassion on the people, because they haue nowe been with me three dayes, and haue nothyng to eate:
3 And yf I send them away fastyng to their owne houses, they shall faynt by the way: for diuers of them come from farre.
4 And his disciples answeared hym, From whence can a man satisfie these men with bread here in the wyldernesse?
5 And he asked them, Howe many loaues haue ye? They sayde, Seuen.
6 And he commaunded the people to syt downe on the ground: and he tooke the seuen loaues, & when he had geuen thankes, he brake, and gaue to his disciples to set before them: and they did set them before the people.
7 And they had a fewe small fishes: and when he had blessed, he commaunded to set them also before them.
8 So they did eate, and were suffised: and they tooke vp of the broken meate that was left, seuen baskets full.
9 And they that had eaten, were about foure thousand: And he sent them away.
10 * And anone, when he had entred into a ship with his disciples, he came into the partes of Dalmanutha. *Mat.15.39
11 * And the Pharisees came forth, and began to dispute with him, seeking of hym a signe from heauen, tempting him. *Math. 16.1 12 And when he had sighed deepely in his spirite, he sayth, Why doo this generation seeke a signe? Verely I say vnto you, There shall no a signe be geuen vnto this generation.
a. It is in the Greeke text, (yf a signe) which the Hebrues vse as a vehement negation.
13 * And when he had left them, and entred into the ship agayne, he departed ouer the water.
14 * And they had forgotten to take bread with them, neyther had they in the shippe with them more then one loafe. *Mat.16.4. *Mat.16.5.
15 And he charged them, saying, * Take heede, beware of the leauen of the Pharisees, and the leauen of Herode. *Mat.16.6.
16 And they reasoned among them selues, saying, We haue no bread.
17 And when Jesus knewe it, he sayth vnto them, Why reason ye, because ye haue no bread? Perceyue ye not yet, neyther vnderstand? Haue ye your hart yet hardened?
18 Hauing eyes, see ye not? & hauyng eares, heare ye not? Doo ye not remember?
19 * When I brake the fiue loaues among fiue thousand men, howe many baskets full of broken meate tooke ye vp? They say vnto hym, Twelue. *John.6.11.
20 When I brake the seuen among foure thousand, how many baskets of ỹ leauinges of the broken meate toke ye vp? They said, Seuen.
21 And he sayde vnto them, Howe happeneth it that ye doo not vnderstand?
22 And he commeth to Bethsaida, and they bring a blind man vnto hym, and desyred hym to touche hym:
23 And when he had caught the blinde by the hand, he led him out of the towne: and when he had spit in his eyes, and put his handes vpon hym, he asked hym yf he sawe ought.
24 And he looked vp, and said, I see men: for I perceiue them walke as they were trees.
25 After that he put his handes agayne vppon his eyes, and made him see: and he was restored, and sawe euery man clearely.
26 And he sent hym home to his house, saying, Neyther goe into the village, nor tell it to

to any in the village.

*Mat.16.13 Luke.9.19. 27 * And Jesus went out, and his disciples, into ỹ villages that long to Cesarea Philippi: and by the way he asked his disciples, saying vnto them, Whom doo men say that I am?

28 And they answeared, John Baptist, and some say, Elias: Againe, some say that thou art one of the prophetes.

29 And he sayde vnto them, But whom say ye that I am? Peter answereth, & sayth vnto hym, Thou art very Christe.

30 And he charged them that they shoulde tell no man.

31 And he beganne to teache them that the sonne of man must suffer many thyngs, and be reproued of the elders, and of the hygh priestes and scribes, and be killed, and after three dayes rise agayne.

32 And he spake that saying openly, and Peter tooke him aside, and began to rebuke hym.

33 But when he had turned about, and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Peter, saying, Goe after me Satan: for thou sauerest not the thinges that be of GOD, but the thynges that be of men.

34 And when he had called the people vnto hym, with his disciples also, he sayde vnto them, *Mat.10.38 Luke.9.23. * Who so euer wyll come after me, let hym forsake him selfe, and take vp his crosse, and folowe me.

*Mat.10.39 and.16.25. Luke.9.24. John.12.25. 35 * For who so euer wyll saue his lyfe, shall loose it: but whosoeuer shal lose his lyfe for my sake & the Gospels, the same shal saue it.

36 For what shall it profite a man, yf he shal winne all the world, & lose his owne soule?

37 Or what shal a man geue, for a raunsome of his soule?

*Mat.10.33 Luke.9.26. 38 * Who so euer therefore shalbe ashamed of me, and of my woordes, in this adulterous and sinful generation, of him also shall the sonne of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his father, with the holy angels.

¶ The.ix. Chapter.

The transfiguration of Christe. 49. Of seasonyng vvith salt.

*Mat.16.28 Luke.9.27. 1 AND he sayde vnto them, * Verely I say vnto you, that there be some of them that stand here, whiche shal in no wyse taste of death, tyll they haue seene the kyngdome of God come with power.

2 And after sixe dayes, Jesus taketh with hym Peter, and James, and John, and leadeth them vp into an hygh mountayne out of the way alone: and he was transfigured

*Mat.17.1. Luke.9.28. before them. 3 * And his rayment dyd shyne, and became very whyte, euen as snowe: so as no Fuller vpon the earth can whyte them.

4 And there appeared vnto them Elias with Moses: and they were talking with Jesus.

5 And Peter answeared, and sayth to Jesus, Maister, here is good being for vs: and let vs make three tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

6 For he wyst not what he shoulde say: for they were sore afraide.

7 And there was a cloude that shadowed them: and a voyce came out of ỹ cloude, saying, This is my beloued sonne: heare him.

8 And sodaynely when they had loked round about, they sawe no man, more then Jesus only with them selues.

*Mat.17.9. 9 * And as they came downe from the hyll, he charged them that they shoulde tell no man those thinges that they had seene, tyll the sonne of man was risen from the dead.

10 And they kept that saying with them, and demaunded one of an other, what the rysing from the dead should meane.

*Mala.4.3. 11 And they asked hym, saying, Why then say the scribes that * Elias must first come?

*Esai.53.4. 12 He answeared, and sayde vnto them, Elias verely when he commeth first, restoreth all thynges: and the sonne of man, * as it is written of hym, shall suffer many thynges, and be set at nought.

13 But I say vnto you, that Elias is come, and they haue done vnto hym what so euer they would, as it is written of him.

*Mat.17.14 Luke.9.38. 14 * And when he came to his disciples, he sawe much people about them, & the scribes disputing with them.

15 And straightway all the people, when they beheld hym, were greatly amazed, and runnyng to hym, saluted hym.

16 And he asked the scribes, What dispute ye * among your selues?

* some trade, vvith them.

17 And one of the company answeared, and sayde, Maister, I haue brought vnto thee my sonne, which hath a dumbe spirite:

18 And where so euer he taketh hym, he teareth hym, and he foometh, and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they shoulde cast hym out, and they could not.

19 He answereth hym, and sayth, O faythlesse nation, howe long shall I be with you, howe long shall I suffer you? Bryng hym vnto me.

20 And they brought hym vnto hym: and when he sawe hym, straightway the spirite tare hym, and when he fell downe on the ground, he wallowed, foming.

21 And he asked his father, howe long is it agoe since this came vnto hym? And he he sayde, Of a chylde.

22 And oft tymes it hath cast him into the fyre, and into the waters, to destroy hym: but if thou canst doo any thyng, haue mercy on vs, and helpe vs.

23 Jesus sayde vnto hym, This thing if thou canst beleeue, al thinges are possible to hym that beleeueth.

24 And straightway, when the father of the childe had cryed with teares, he sayd, Lord, I beleeue, helpe thou mine vnbeleefe.

25 When Jesus sawe that the people came running together, he rebuked the foule spirite, saying vnto hym, Thou dumbe and deafe spirite, I charge thee come out of hym, and enter no more into him.

26 And the spirite when he had cryed, and rent him sore, came out of hym, and he was as one that had been dead, insomuche that many sayde, He is dead.

27 But Jesus, when he had caught hym by the hande, lifted him vp: and he arose.

28 And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked hym secretely, Why coulde not we cast hym out?

29 And he sayd vnto them, This kinde *can come forth by nothyng, but by prayer and fasting.

*Mat.17.22 Luk.9.22. 30 *And after they departed thence, they tooke their iourney through Galilee, and he would not that any man shoulde knowe it.

31 For he taught his disciples, and sayd vnto them, The sonne of man is deliuered into the handes of men, and they shal kyl him, and after that he is kylled, he shall ryse the thirde day.

32 But they vnderstoode not that saying, and were afrayde to aske him.

*Mat.18.1. Luk.9.45. 33 *And he came to Capernaum: and when he was come into the house, he asked them, What was it that ye disputed among your selues by the way?

34 And they helde their peace: For by the way they had reasoned among them selues, who should be the cheefest.

35 And when he was set downe, he called the twelue, and sayth vnto them, If any man desire to be first, the same shalbe last of al, and seruant vnto al.

36 And when he had taken a young chylde, he set hym in the midst of them: and when he had taken him in his armes, he said vnto them, 37 Who so euer shall receyue any suche a young child in my name, receyueth me: and whosoeuer shall receyue me, receyueth not me, but hym that sent me.

Luke.9.49. 38 *John answeared him, saying, Maister, we sawe one casting out deuyles in thy name, and he followeth not vs, and we forbade him, because he followeth vs not.

39 But Jesus sayde, *Forbyd hym not, for there is no man, whiche if he doo a miracle in my name, can lightly speake euyl of me. *1.Cor.12.3.

40 For he that is not agaynst vs, is on our part.

41 *Who so euer shall in my name geue you a cup of colde water to drinke, because ye belong to Christe: Verely I say vnto you, he shal not loose his reward. *Mat.10.42

42 *And whosoeuer shal offende one of these litle ones that beleeue in me, it is better for hym if a millstone were hanged about his necke, and he were cast into the sea. *Mat.18.6. Luke.17.1.

43 *And if thy hande offende thee, cut it of: It is better for thee to enter into life, maymed, then hauing two handes to goe into hel, into fire that neuer shalbe quenched: *Mat.5.29. and.18.8.

44 *Where their worme dyeth not, and the fyre is not quenched. *Esa.66.24

45 And yf thy foote offende thee, cut it of: it is better for thee to enter halt into lyfe, then hauing thy two feete, to be cast into hel, into fyre that neuer shalbe quenched.

26 Where their worme dyeth not, and the fyre is not quenched.

47 And yf thyne eye offende thee, plucke it out: it is better for thee to enter into the kingdome of god with one eye, then hauing two eyes, to be cast into hel fyre:

48 Where their worme dyeth not, and the fire is not quenched.

49 For euery man shalbe salted with fire, & *euery sacrifice shalbe seasoned with salt. *Leui.2.23. *Mat.5.13.

50 *Salt is good, but if the salt be vnsauery, with what thyng shall you season it? Haue ye salt in your selues, and haue peace among your selues one with another. Luke.14.34.

¶ The. x. Chapter.

1. Of diuorcement. 7. Aryche man questioned howe he shoulde inherite eternal lyfe.

1 AND *when he rose from thence, he commeth into the coastes of Iurie, through the region that is beyonde Iordan: and the people resorte vnto hym a fresh, and as he was woont, he taught them agayne. *Mat.19.1.

2 And the Pharisees came, and asked him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wyfe? tempting hym.

3 And he answeared, and sayde vnto them, What dyd Moses commaund you to doo?

4 And they sayd, *Moses suffered to write a booke of diuorcement, & to put her away. *Deu.24.2.

5 And Jesus answered, and said vnto them, For the hardnesse of your harte he wrote this precept vnto you.

6 But from the beginning of the creation *God made them male and female, *Gene.1.27. Mat.19.4.

14 But when Iesus sawe it, he was sore displeased, and sayd vnto them, Suffer the young chyldren to come vnto me, and forbid them not: for to such belongeth the kingdome of God.
15 Verely I say vnto you, Whosoeuer shall not receiue the kingdome of god as a young childe, he shal in no wyse enter therein.
16 And when he had taken them vp in his armes, putting his handes vpon them, he blessed them.
17 And when he was gone foorth into the
*Mat.19.16 way, *there came one running and kneeled
Luk.18.18. to hym, and asked him, Good maister, what shal I doo that I may inherite eternal life?
18 Iesus sayde vnto hym, Why callest thou me good? There is no man good but one, vvhiche is God.
19 Thou knowest the commaundementes,
*Exo.20.13. Doo not commit adulterie, *Doo not kyll, Doo not steale, Do not beare false witnesse, Defraude no man, Honour thy father and mother.
20 He answeared, and sayde vnto hym, Maister, al these haue I obserued from my youth.
21 Iesus behelde hym, and loued him, and said vnto him, One thing thou lackest: Goe thy way, sel whatsoeuer thou hast, and geue to the poore, and thou shalt haue treasure in heauen, and come followe me, when thou hast taken vp the crosse.
22 But he was discomfyted because of that saying, and went away mourning; for he had great possessions.
23 And when Iesus had looked rounde about, he sayth vnto his disciples, Howe hardly shal they that haue ryches, enter into the kingdome of God?
24 And the disciples were astonied at his woordes. But Iesus answeared agayne, and sayth vnto them, Children, howe hard is it for them that trust in riches, to enter into the kingdome of God?
25 It is easier for a Camel to goe through the eye of a needle, then for the ryche to enter into the kingdome of God.
26 And they were astonied out of measure, saying among them selues, Who then can be saued?
27 Iesus, when he had looked vpon them, sayth, With men it is vnpossible, but not with God: for with God all thinges are possible.
28 And Peter began to say vnto him, Loe, *we haue forsaken al, & haue folowed thee.
29 Iesus answeared, and sayde, Verely I *Mat.19.27. Luke.18.28. say vnto you, There is no man that hath forsaken house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wyfe, or children, or landes, for my sake and the Gospels, 30 But he shall receyue an hundred folde now at this present, houses, and brethren, and systers, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions, and in the world to come eternal lyfe.
31 *But many that are fyrst, shalbe last: and the last fyrst. *Mat.19.30 Luke.13.30.
32 *And they were in the way going vp to *Mat.20.17 Hierusalem: and Iesus went before them, Luke.18.31. and they were amazed, & as they folowed, were afraid: and when he had againe taken with him the twelue, he began to tel them what thinges shoulde happen vnto him,
33 Saying, Behold, we goe vp to Hierusalem, and the sonne of man shalbe delyuered vnto the high priestes, and vnto the Scribes: and they shall condemne him to death, and shall deliuer him to the Gentiles.
34 And they shal mocke hym, and scourge hym, and spit vpon hym, and kyl him: and the thirde day he shal aryse.
35 *And Iames and Iohn the sonnes of *Mat.20. Zebedee came vnto hym, saying, Maister, 20. we wil that thou shouldest do for vs whatsoeuer we shal desyre.
36 He sayde vnto them, What wyll ye that I shoulde doo for you?
37 They sayde vnto hym, Graunt vnto vs that we may syt, one on thy ryght hand, and the other on thy leaft hande in thy glory.
38 But Iesus sayd vnto them, Ye wote not what ye aske: Can ye drinke of the cup that I drinke of? and be baptised with the baptisme that I am baptised with?
39 And they sayd vnto hym, That we can. Iesus sayde vnto them, Ye shal in deede drinke of the cup that I drinke of: and with the baptisme that I am baptised withal, shal ye be baptised:
40 But to syt on my ryght hand, and on my leaft hand, is not myne to geue, but it shal be

geuen

geuen vnto them for whom it is prepared.
41 And when the other tenne heard it, they began to disdayne at Iames and Iohn.
42 But Iesus, when he had called them to hym, sayth vnto them, *Ye knowe that they which seeme to beare rule among the Gentiles, raigne as Lordes ouer them: and they that be great among them, exercise auctoritie vpon them. *Mat.20.25. Luke.22.25.
43 But so shall it not be among you: but who so euer of you wyll be great among you, shalbe your minister:
44 And who so euer of you wyl be the cheefest, shalbe seruaunt of all.
45 For the sonne of man also came not to be ministred vnto, but to minister, and to geue his lyfe a raunsome for many.
46 *And they came to Iericho: and as he went out of the citie of Iericho with his disciples, and a great number of people, blind Bartimeus, the sonne of Timeus, sate by the hygh wayes side, begging. *Mat.20.29. Luke.18.35.
47 And when he heard that it was Iesus of Nazareth, he began to crye, and say, Iesus thou sonne of Dauid, haue mercie on me.
48 And many rebuked him, that he shoulde holde his peace: but he cryed the more a great deale, Thou sonne of Dauid, haue mercie on me.
49 And Iesus stood styll, and commaunded hym to be called, and they call the blinde, saying vnto hym, Be of good comfort, ryse, he calleth thee.
50 And when he had throwen away his cloke, he rose, and came to Iesus.
51 And Iesus answeared, and sayde vnto hym, What wylt thou that I do vnto thee? The blinde sayde vnto hym, Maister, that I myght see.
52 Iesus saide vnto hym, Goe thy way, thy fayth hath saued thee. And immediatly he receiued his sight, and folowed Iesus in the way.

¶ Th.xi.Chapter.

11. Christe rydeth to Hierusalem, 28. The Pharisees aske Christe of his authoritie.

*Mat.21.1. Luke.19.29 1 AND when they came nygh to Hierusalem, vnto Bethphage and Bethanie, at the mount of Olyues, he sendeth foorth two of his disciples, 2 And sayth vnto them, Goe your way into the towne that is ouer agaynst you, and as soone as ye be entred into it, ye shall finde a Colte tyed, whereon neuer man sate, loose hym, and bring hym hyther.
3 And yf any man say vnto you, Why doo ye so? Say ye that the Lord hath neede of him: and straight way he wyl send hym hyther.
4 And they went their way, and found the Colt tyed by the doore without, in a place where two wayes met: and they loose him.
5 And diuers of them that stoode there, sayd vnto them, What doo ye loosing the Colt?
6 And they sayde vnto them euen as Iesus had commaunded: and they let them goe.
7 *And they brought the Colt to Iesus, and cast their garmentes on him, and he sate vpon him. *Joh.12.14.
8 And many spread their garmentes in the way: other cut downe branches of ỳ trees, and strawed them in the way.
9 And they that went before, and they that folowed, cryed, saying, Hosanna, blessed is he that commeth in the name of the Lorde.
10 Blessed be the kingdome that commeth in the name of him that is Lorde of our father Dauid, Hosanna in the hyghest.
11 *And Iesus entred into Hierusalem, and into the temple, and when he had looked round about vpon all thinges, and now the euen tyde was come, he went out vnto Bethanie with the twelue. *Mat.21.10 Luke.19.45. or, O thou which art.
12 And on the morowe, when they were come from Bethanie, he hungred. *Mat.21.19
13 And when he had spied a figge tree a farre of, hauing leaues, he came to see yf he might finde any thyng thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaues: for the tyme of figges was not yet.
14 And Iesus answeared, and said vnto the figge tree, Neuer man eate fruite of thee hereafter whyle the worlde standeth. And his disciples heard it.
15 And they come to Hierusalem, and when Iesus went into the temple, he began to cast out them that solde and bought in the temple, and ouerthrewe the tables of the money changers, and the seates of them that solde Doues, 16 And would not suffer that any man should carry any stuffe through the temple.
17 And he taught, saying vnto them, *Is it not written, My house shalbe called the house of prayer vnto all nations? but ye haue made it a denne of theeues. *Esai.56.7. *Iere.7.11.
18 And the scribes and hygh priestes heard it, and sought howe they myght destroy hym: for they feared hym, because all the people was astonyed at his doctrine.
19 And when euen was come, Iesus went out of the citie.
20 *And in the morning as they passed by, they sawe the figge tree dryed vp from the rootes. *Mat.21.19
21 And Peter hauyng remembred, sayth vnto hym, Maister, beholde, the figge tree which thou cursedst, is wythered away.
22 And Iesus answearyng, sayth vnto them, Haue fayth in God.

23 For verily I say vnto you, that who so euer shal say vnto this mountayne, Be thou remooued, and be thou cast into the sea, and shall not doubt in his hart, but shall beleeue that those thynges which he sayth shal come to passe: what so euer he shal say, shalbe vnto hym.

*Mat.7.7. Luke.11.9. 24 Therefore I say vnto you, *What things so euer ye desyre when ye pray, beleeue that ye receiue them, and ye shall haue them.

*Mar.6.14 25 And when ye stand praying, * forgeue, yf ye haue ought agaynst any man: that your father also which is in heauen, may forgeue you your trespasses.

26 But yf you doo not forgeue, neyther wyll your father which is in heauen forgeue you your trespasses.

*Mat.21.14 Luke.20.1. 27 And they come agayne to Hierusalem: and * as he walked in the temple, there come to hym the high priests, and the scribes, and the elders, 28 And say vnto hym, By what auctoritie doest thou these thynges? and who gaue thee this auctoritie to doo these thynges?

29 Jesus answeared, and saide vnto them, I wyl also aske of you one question, and answeare me: and I wyll tell you by what auctoritie I doo these thynges.

30 The baptisme of Iohn, whether was it from heauen, or of men? Answeare me.

31 And they reasoned with them selues, saying, If we shal say from heauen, he wyl say, Why then dyd ye not beleeue him?

a. That is, the third person in Greke. 32 But yf we shall say, Of men, a we feare the people: for all men counted Iohn that he was a very prophete.

33 And they answearing, say vnto Jesus, We can not tell. And Jesus answearing, sayth vnto them, Neyther doo I tell you by what auctoritie I doo these thinges.

¶ The.xii. Chapter.

1. The Vineyard is let out to husbandmen. 41. The poore vvyddowes farthing.

*Mat.21.33 Luke.20.9. *Esai.5.1. Iere.2.21. 1 AND *he began to speake vnto them by parables. A certayne man planted a Vineyard, and he set an hedge about it, and digged a wine presse, & built a towre, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a straunge countrey.

2 And when the tyme was come, he sent to the husbandmen a seruant, that he myght receiue of the husbandmen of the fruite of the Vineyard.

3 And they caught hym, and beat him, and sent him away empty.

4 And agayne he sent vnto them an other seruant, and at hym they cast stones, & brake his head, and sent him away al to reuiled.

5 And agayne he sent an other, and him they kylled: and many other, beatyng some, and kyllyng some.

6 And so when he had yet but one beloued sonne, he sent him also at ỹ last vnto them, saying, They wyll stand in awe of my sõne.

7 But the husbandmen sayd amongst them selues. This is the heyre, come, let vs kyll hym, and the inheritance shalbe ours.

8 And they tooke hym, and kylled hym, and cast hym out of the Vineyard.

9 What shall therefore the Lorde of ỹ vineyard doo? He shall come and destroy the husbandmen, and wyl geue the Vineyarde vnto other.

10 Haue ye not read this Scripture? * The stone which the builders disalowed, is become the cheefe stone of the corner: *Psal.118. 22. *Mat.21.42 Acts.4.11.

11 This was the Lordes dooing, and it is marueylous in our eyes?

12 They went about also to take hym, and feared the people: for they knewe that he had spoken the parable agaynst them: and they left hym, and went theyr way.

13 * And they sent vnto hym certayne of the Pharisees and of the Herodians, to take hym in his woordes. *Mat.22.15 Luke.20.20

14 And when they were come, they say vnto him, Maister, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man: for thou considerest not the persons of men, but teachest the way of God in trueth: Is it lawfull to geue tribute to Caesar, or not?

15 Shall we geue, or shal we not geue? But he knowyng theyr hypocrisie, sayde vnto them, Why tempt ye me? Bring me a peny, that I may see it.

16 And they brought it: and he sayth vnto them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they sayd vnto him, Caesars.

17 And Jesus answearing, sayd vnto them, Geue to ' Caesar the thynges that belong to Caesar: and to God, the thinges which perteyne to god. And they marueyled at him. *Rom.13.7.

18 * There came also vnto hym the Sadducees, which say there is no resurrection, and they asked hym, saying, *Mat.22.23. Luke.20.27

19 Maister, *Moses wrote vnto vs, yf any mans brother dye, and leaue his wyfe behinde hym, and leaue no chyldren, that his brother should take his wyfe, and rayse vp seede vnto his brother. *Deut.25.5.

20 There were seuen brethren: and the first tooke a wyfe, & when he dyed, left no seede behinde him.

21 And the seconde tooke her, & dyed, neyther left he any seede: and the thirde lykewyse.

22 And seuen had her, and left no seede behinde them: last of all the wyfe dyed also.

23 In the resurrection therefore when they shall ryse, whose wyfe shall shee be of them? for for seuen had her to wyfe.

24 And Iesus answeryng, sayd vnto them, Doo ye not therfore erre, because ye knowe not the Scriptures, neyther the power of God?

25 For when they shall ryse from the dead, they neyther marrie, nor are geuen in marriage: but are as the angelles whiche are in heauen.

26 As touchyng the dead that they ryse: haue ye not read in the booke of Moses, howe in the bushe God spake vnto him, saying, *Exod.3.6. Mat.22.32 * I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isahac, and the God of Iacob.

27 He is not the God of the dead, but God of the lyuyng: ye therfore doo greatly erre.

*Mat.22.35 28 *And when there came one of the Scribes, and had hearde them disputyng together, and perceyued that he had answered them wel, he asked hym whiche is the firste commaundement of al.

29 Iesus answeared hym, The fyrst of all the commaundementes is, *Deut.6.4. *Heare, O Israel, the Lorde our God is one Lorde:

30 And thou shalt loue the Lorde thy God with al thy hart, and with al thy soule, and with al thy mind, and with al thy strength. This is the first commaundement:

*Leui.19.18 Mat.22.39 Roma.13.9. Galat.5.14. Iacob.2.8. 31 And the seconde is lyke vnto this, Thou shalt loue thy neyghbour as thee selfe: there is none other cõmaundement greater then these.

32 And the Scribe sayde vnto hym, Well maister, thou hast said the trueth: for there is one God, and there is none other but he.

33 And to loue hym with al the hart, & with al the vnderstanding, and with al the soule, and with all the strength, and to loue a mans neyghbour as hym selfe, is greater then all the burnt offerynges and sacrifices.

34 And when Iesus sawe that he answered discreetely, he said vnto hym, Thou art not farre from the kyngdome of God. And no man after that durst aske him any question.

*Mat.22.41 Luk.20.41. 35 *And Iesus answearyng, sayd, teachyng in the temple, howe say the Scribes that Christe is the sonne of Dauid?

Psa.110.1. 36 For Dauid hym selfe inspired with the holy ghoste, sayde, The Lorde sayde to my Lorde, Syt on my ryght hande, tyl I make thyne enimies thy footestoole.

37 Dauid hym selfe calleth hym Lord: and whence is he then his sonne? And muche people hearde hym gladly.

*Math.23.6 Luke.11.43. 38 And he sayde vnto them in his doctrine, *Beware of the Scribes, whiche desyre to walke in long clothing, and loue salutations in the market places, 39 And the chefe seates in the Synagogues, and the vppermost roomes at feastes.

40 *Whiche deuoure wyddowes houses, and vnder a pretence make long prayers: These shal receyue greater damnation. *Mat.23.14 Luk.20.47.

41 *And when Iesus sate ouer against the treasurie, he behelde howe the people put money into the treasurie: and many that were ryche, cast in muche. *Luk.21.1.

42 And there came a certayne poore wyddowe, and she threwe in two mytes, whiche make a farthyng.

43 And when he had called vnto hym his disciples, he sayth vnto them, Verely I say vnto you, that this poore wyddowe hath cast more in, then al they whiche haue cast into the treasurie.

44 For al they dyd cast in of their superfluitie: but she of her want, dyd cast in all that she had, euen all her lyuyng.

¶ The.xiii.Chapter.

2. The destruction of the temple. 24. Signes before Christes comming. 31. Gods vvoorde shall not passe avvay.

1 AND * as he went out of the temple, one of his disciples sayde vnto hym, Maister, see what stones and what buyldynges are here. *Mat.24.1. Luke.21.5.

2 And Iesus answearyng, sayde vnto hym, Seest thou these great buyldynges? *there shal not be left one stone vpon another, that shal not be throwen downe. *Luk.19.43

3 And as he sate vpon the mount of Olines, ouer against the temple, Peter, & James, and John, & Andrewe, asked hym secretly,

4 Tel vs, when shal these thynges be? And what shalbe the signe when al these thinges shalbe fulfylled?

5 And Iesus answearyng them, began to say, *Take heede lest any man deceiue you. *Exod.5.6.

6 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christe: and shal deceyue many. *2.Thes.2.3

7 When ye shal heare of warres, & tydinges of warres, be ye not troubled: For suche thynges must needes be, but the ende shal not be yet.

8 For there shal nation ryse against nation, and kingdome against kingdome: and there shalbe earthquakes in diuers places, and famines shal there be, and troubles: these are the begynnynges of sorowes.

9 But take heede to your selues: for they shal deliuer you vp to counsels, & to synagogues, and ye shalbe whypped, yea and shalbe brought before rulers & kynges for my sake, that this myght be for a witnesse against them.

10 *And the Gospel must first be publyshed among al nations. *Mat.10.19

11 But when they shal leade you, deliuering you vp, be not carefull aforehande, neyther take thought what ye shall speake: but whatsoeuer shalbe geuen you in the same Luke.12.11 and.21.14.

houre, that speake ye: for it is not ye that speake, but the holy ghost.

12 The brother shal betray the brother to death, and the father the sonne: and the children shal rise against their fathers and mothers, and shal put them to death.

13 And ye shalbe hated of all men for my names sake: but he that shall endure vnto the ende, the same shalbe safe.

*Mat.24.15 Luke.12.11. and.21.14. 14 *Moreouer, when ye see the abomination of desolation, whereof is spoken by Daniel the Prophete, standing where it ought not (let hym that readeth, vnderstand) then let them that be in Iurie, flee to ỹ mountaines.

15 And let hym that is on the house top, not goe downe into the house, neyther enter therein, to fetch any thyng out of his house.

16 And let him that is in the feeld, not turne backe againe for to take his garment with hym.

17 Woe shalbe then to them that are with childe, and to them that geue sucke in those dayes.

18 But pray ye that your flight be not in the wynter:

19 For there shalbe in those daies such tribulation, as was not from the begynnyng of the creation whiche God created, vnto this tyme, neyther shalbe in any wyse.

20 And except that the Lorde had shortened those dayes, no flesh shoulde be saued: but for the electes sake whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened those dayes.

*Mat.24.23 Luke.21.8. 21 *And then, if any man shal say to you, Loe here is Christe, or loe he is there: beleeue hym not.

22 For false Christes, and false Prophetes shal rise, and shal shewe signes & woonders, to deceiue, if it were possible, euen the elect.

23 But take ye heede: beholde, I haue shewed you al thynges before.

* Ezec.32.7. Esai.13.10. Ioel. 2.10. 24 *Moreouer, in those dayes, after that tribulation, the Sonne shalbe darkened, and the Moone shal not geue her lyght:

25 And the Starres of heauen shal fal, & the powers which are in heauen shalbe shaken.

26 And then shall they see the sonne of man commyng in the cloudes, with great power and glorie.

27 And then shall he sende his angelles, and shall geather togeather his elect from the foure wyndes, from the ende of the earth, to the vttermost part of heauen.

28 Learne a parable of the Fygge tree. Whē her branche is yet tender, and hath brought foorth leaues, ye knowe that Sommer is neare:

29 So ye in lyke maner, when ye shall see these thynges come to passe, vnderstande a that is nygh, euen at the doores.

a. That is, the kyngdome of God.

30 Verely I say vnto you, that this generation shal in no wyse passe, tyl al these things be doone.

31 Heauen and earth shall passe away: but my woordes shall in no wyse passe away.

32 But of that day and that houre knoweth no man, no not the angelles whiche are in heauen, neyther the sonne hym selfe, saue the father onely.

33 *Take ye heede, watch and pray: for ye knowe not when the tyme is. *Mat.24.13

34 *As a man whiche is gone into a strange countrey, and hath left his house, and geuen auctoritie to his seruantes, and to euery man his worke, and commaunded the Porter to watche: * For the sonne of man is.

35 Watche ye therefore (for ye knowe not when the maister of the house commeth, at euen, or at mydnight, whether at the Cocke crowyng, or in the dawnyng.)

36 Lest if he come sodainly, he finde you sleepyng.

37 And that I say vnto you, I say vnto all, Watche.

¶ The.xiiii. Chapter.

1. The hygh Priestes conspire against Christ, 12. the Passeouer is prepared and eaten.

1 AFter * two dayes was the feast of the Passeouer, and of vnleauened bread: and the hygh Priestes, & the Scribes sought howe they might take hym by craft, and put hym to death. The Gospel on the Munday neyte before Easter. *Mat.26.1. Luke.22.1.

2 But they sayde, Not in the feast day, lest any businesse aryse among the people.

3 *And when he was in Bethanie, in the house of Simon the Leper, euen as he sate at meate, there came a woman, hauyng an Alabaster boxe of very precious oyntment, called Narde pistike: and when she had broken the boxe, she powred it on his head. Mat. 26.6. John.12.2.

4 And there was some that had indignation within them selues, and sayd, Why was this waste of the oyntment made?

5 For it might haue been solde for more then three hundred pence, and haue been geuen to the poore. And they grudged against her.

6 And Iesus said, Let her alone, why trouble ye her? She hath done a good worke on me.

7 For ye haue poore with you alwayes, and whensoeuer ye wyl, ye may doo them good: but me haue ye not alwayes.

8 She hath doone that she could: she came afore hand to annoynt my body to ỹ burying.

9 Verely I say vnto you, Wheresoeuer this Gospel shalbe preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath doone, shalbe rehearsed in remembraunce of her.

10 *And Iudas Iscariot, one of the twelue, went away vnto the hygh Priestes, to betray hym vnto them. *Mat.26.14 Luke.22.4.

11 When

11 When they heard that they were glad, and promised that they woulde geue hym money. And he sought howe he might conueniently betray hym.

12 *And the fyrst day of vnleauened bread, when they dyd kyl the Passeouer, his disciples sayde vnto them, Where wylt thou that we goe and prepare, that thou mayest eate the Passeouer.

13 And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, & sayth vnto them, Goe ye into the citie, and there shal meete you a man bearing a pitcher of water: folowe hym.

14 And whyther so euer he shal goe in, say ye to the good man of the house, The maister saith, Where is ỹ ghest chamber, where I shal eate the Passeouer with my disciples?

15 And he wyl shewe you a large vpper chamber, paued and prepared: a there make redy for vs.

16 And his disciples went forth, and came into the citie, and found as he had sayd vnto them: and they made redy the Passouer.

17 And when it was nowe euen tide, he commeth with the twelue.

18 *And as they sate at boord, and did eate, Jesus sayde, Verely I say vnto you, one of you that eateth with me, shal betray me.

19 And they began to be sory, and to say vnto hym one by one, Is it I? And another sayde, Is it I?

20 He answeared, and sayde vnto them, It is one of the twelue, euen he that dippeth with me in the platter.

21 The sonne of man truely goeth as it is written of him: but wo to that man by whō the sonne of man is betrayed: Good were it for that man if he had neuer been borne.

22 *And as they did eate, Jesus, when he had taken bread and blessed, he brake it and gaue to them, and sayde, Take, eate: this is my body.

23 And when he had taken the cup, and geuen thankes, he gaue it to them: and they al dranke of it.

24 And he sayde vnto them, This is my blood of the newe Testament, whiche is shed for many.

25 Verily I say vnto you, I wyl drinke no more of the fruite of the vine, vntil that day that I drinke it new in ỹ kingdome of God.

26 And when they had praysed God, they went out into the mount of Olives.

27 *And Jesus sayth vnto them, Al ye shall be offended because of me this night: *for it is written, I wyll smite the shepheard, and the sheepe shalbe scattered.

28 But after that I am risen, I wyl goe into Galilee before you.

29 Peter sayde vnto him, Although al men shalbe offended, yet wyl not I.

30 And Jesus sayth vnto him, Verily I say vnto thee, that this day, euen in this night, before the Cocke crowe twyse, thou shalt denie me three times.

31 But he spake more vehemently, If I shoulde die with thee, I wyl not denie thee in any wyse. Likewyse also sayde they all.

32 *And they came into a place which was named Gethsemani, and he sayth to his disciples, Sit ye here, while I shal pray.

33 And he taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and began to be sore amazed, and to be in an agony, 34 And sayth vnto them, My soule is exceeding heauie, euen vnto the death: tarry ye here, and watche.

35 And when he had gone forward a litle, he fel on the ground: and prayed that if it were possible, the houre might passe from hym.

36 And he sayde Abba, father al things are possible vnto thee, take away this cup from me: Neuertheless, not that I wyl, but that thou wylt be done.

37 And he commeth & findeth them sleeping, and sayth vnto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? Couldest not thou watch one houre?

38 Watche ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation: The spirite truely is redy, but the flesshe is weake.

39 And agayne he went aside, and prayed, and spake the same wordes.

40 And when he returned, he founde them a sleepe againe (for their eyes were heauie) neyther wist they what to answeare hym.

41 And he commeth the third tyme, & sayth vnto them, Sleepe hencefoorth, and take your ease: it is ynough, the houre is come, beholde, the sonne of man is betrayed into the handes of sinners.

42 Ryse vp, let vs goe: Loe, he that betrayeth me is at hande.

43 *And immediatly whyle he yet spake, commeth Judas, being one of the twelue, and with hym a great number of people with swoordes and staues, from the high priestes, and scribes, and elders.

44 And he that betrayed hym, had geuen them a generall token, saying, Who so euer I shal kysse, that same is he: take hym, and leade hym away warely.

45 And as soone as he was come, he goeth straightway to hym, and sayth vnto hym, Maister, maister: and kyssed hym.

46 And they layde their handes on hym, and tooke hym.

47 And one of them that stoode by, when he had drawen out his swoorde, smote a seruant of the high priest, and *cut of his eare.

48 And Jesus answeared, and sayde vnto

64 Ye haue heard the blasphemie: what thinke ye? And they al condempned hym to be woorthie of death.
65 And some began to spit at hym, and to couer his face, and to beate him with fistes, and to say vnto hym, Prophesie: And the seruantes did beate him with roddes.
*Mat.26.71 Luke.22.58. Iohn.18.25. 66 *And as Peter was beneath in the palace, there commeth one of the wenches of the high priest.
67 And when she sawe Peter warming him selfe, after she had looked vppon him, she sayth, And thou also wast with Iesus of Nazareth.
68 But he denied, saying, I knowe him not, neyther wote I what thou sayest. And he went out into the porch, & the cocke crewe.
69 And a damsel, when she sawe him, began agayne to say to them that stoode by, This is one of them.
70 And he denied it againe. And anone after, they that stoode by sayde agayne to Peter, Surely thou art one of them: for thou art of Galilee, & thy speache agreeth thereto.
71 But he beganne to curse and to sweare, saying, I knowe not this man of whom ye speake.
72 *And the second time the Cocke crewe, and Peter remembred the woorde that Iesus sayde vnto hym, Before the Cocke crowe twyse, thou shalt denie me thrice times: And he began to weepe. *Mat.27.57 Iohn.13.38.

¶ The xv. Chapter.

1. Iesus is deliuered bounde to Pilate. 43. Ioseph beggeth Christes body, and buryeth it.

1 AND *anone in the dawning, when the high priestes had helde a counsel with the elders, and the scribes, & the whole congregation, & had bound Iesus, they caryed him away, & deliuered him to Pilate. The Gospel on the Tuesday next before Easter. *Mat.27.1. Luke.22.66
2 And Pilate asked him, Art thou the king of the Iewes? And he answearyng, sayde vnto hym, Thou sayest it.
3 And the high priestes accused hym of many thynges, but he answeared nothyng.
4 *So Pilate asked him agayne, saying, Answearest thou nothyng? beholde howe many thinges they witnesse agaynst thee. *Mat.27.12 Luke.23.3. Iohn.18.33.
5 Iesus yet answeared nothing at al, so that Pilate marueyled.
6 At that feast Pilate did deliuer vnto them one prysoner, whom so euer they desired.
7 And there was one that was named Barabbas, which lay bounde with them that made insurrectiō with him, which men had committed murder also in the insurrection.
8 And the people crying alonde, began to desyre that he vvoulde doo accordyng as he had euer done vnto them.
9 Pilate answeared them, saying, Wyl ye that I let loose vnto you the kyng of the Iewes?
10 (For he knewe that the hygh priestes had deliuered hym for enuie.)
11 But the high priestes moued the people, that he shoulde rather deliuer Barabbas vnto them.
12 Pilate answearyng agayne, sayde vnto them, What wyl ye then that I shal do vnto him whom ye cal the king of the Iewes?
13 Pilate sayde vnto them, What euyll hath hath he done: And they cryed the more feruently, Crucifie hym.

15 And so Pilate, wyllyng to content the people, let loose Barabbas vnto them, and delyuered vp Jesus, when he had scourged hym, for to be crucified.

¶ The Gospel by Saint Luke.

¶ The fyrst Chapter.

1. The Preface of Luke. 5. Of Zacharias and Elizabeth. 43 Marie visiteth Elizabeth.

1 FOrasmuche as many haue taken in hande to set forth in order the declaration of those thynges which are moste surely * beleeued among vs,
* By, proued.
2 Euen as they deliuered them vnto vs, which from the beginning sawe them them selues with their eyes, and were ministers of the a worde:
a. That is, they were doers in fache thynges as be set foorth in the Gospel.
3 It seemed good to me also, hauyng perfect vnderstandyng of all thynges from the begynnyng, to wryte vnto thee in order, moste excellent Theophilus,
4 That thou myghtest knowe the certaintie of those thynges whereof thou hast been taught by mouth.
5 THere was in the dayes of Herode the kyng of Iurie, a certayne Priest, named Zacharias, * of the course of Abia, and his wyfe was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth. *1. Chr.24.1
6 They were both ryghteous before God, walkyng in al the commaundementes and ordinaunces of the Lorde, blamelesse.
7 And they had no chylde, because that Elizabeth was barren, & they both were nowe wel stricken in age.
8 And it came to passe, that when Zacharie executed the Priestes office before God, as his course came,
9 Accordyng to the custome of the Priestes office, his lot was to burne incense when he went into the temple of the Lorde.
10 * And the whole multitude of the people were without in prayer, whyle the incense was burnyng. *Leui.16.17 Exod.30.7.
11 And there appeared vnto hym an angel of the Lorde, standyng on the ryght side of the aulter of the incense.
12 And when Zacharias sawe hym, he was troubled, troubled, and feare fell vpon hym.

13 But the angel sayd vnto hym, Feare not Zacharie, for thy prayer is heard, and thy wife Elizabeth shal beare thee a sonne, and thou shalt cal his name Iohn.

14 And thou shalt haue ioy and gladnesse, and many shal reioyce at his byrth:

15 And he shalbe great in the sight of the Lorde, and shal neither drinke wine nor strong drynke, and he shalbe fylled with the holy ghost, euen from his mothers wombe.

16 *For many of the chyldren of Israel shal he turne to their Lorde God. *Mala.4.5. Mat.11.14.

17 And he shal goe before hym with the spirite & power of Elias, to turne the hartes of the fathers to the chyldren, and the disobedient to the wysedome of the iust men, to make redy a perfect people for the Lorde.

18 And Zacharias sayd vnto the Angel, By what token shal I knowe this? For I am olde, and my wife wel stricken in yeeres.

19 And the angel answearyng, sayde vnto him, I am Gabriel that stande in the presence of God, and was sent to speake vnto thee, and to shewe thee these glad tidinges.

20 And beholde, thou shalt be dumbe, and not be able to speake, vntyll the day that these thinges shalbe performed, because thou beleeuedst not my wordes, which shalbe fulfylled in their season.

21 And the people wayted for Zacharias, and marueyled that he taried so long in the temple.

22 And when he came out, he coulde not speake vnto them: and they perceyued that he had seene a vision in ỹ temple, for he beckened vnto them, & remayned speachlesse.

23 And it came to passe, that assoone as the dayes of his office were out, he departed into his owne house.

24 And after those dayes, his wyfe Elizabeth conceyued, and hyd her selfe fiue monethes, saying,

The Gospel on the Annunciation of the virgin Marie.

25 Thus hath the Lorde dealt with me in the dayes wherein he looked on me, to take from me my rebuke b among men.

b For it was a cheefe blessing of God, to be fruitful in chyldren. Gene.7. Exod.23. Psal.127.&128 because it was a multiplying of the Lordes people, and fulfilling of Gods promise, Gene.13. and therefore was taken among ỹ Iewes for a reproche to be barren.

26 And in the sixth moneth the angel Gabriel was sent from GOD, vnto a citie of Galilee, named Nazareth, 27 To a virgin, spouled to a man whose name was Ioseph, of the house of Dauid, and the virgins name was Marie.

28 And when the angel was come in vnto her, he sayde, Hayle thou that art in hygh fauour, the Lorde is with thee: Blessed art thou among women.

29 And when she sawe hym, she was troubled at his saying, & cast in her mynd what manner of salutation this shoulde be.

30 And the angel sayde vnto her, Feare not Marie, for thou hast founde fauour with God.

31 *For beholde, thou shalt conceyue in thy wombe, and beare a sonne, and shalt cal his name Iesus. *Esai.7.14.

32 He shalbe great, & shalbe called the sonne of the highest, and the Lorde God shal geue vnto hym the seate of his father Dauid.

33 *And he shal raigne ouer the house of Iacob for euer, & of his kyngdome there shalbe none ende. *Dan.7.14. Micha.4.7.

34 Then sayd Marie vnto the angel, How shal this be, seeing I knowe not a man?

35 And the angel answearing, sayd vnto her, The holy ghost shal come vpon thee, & the power of the highest shal c ouershadowe thee. Therefore also that holy thing which shalbe borne, shalbe called ỹ sonne of God.

c. Shal woorke secretly in thee about a reason.

36 And beholde, thy cosin Elizabeth, she hath also conceyued a sonne in her olde age, and this is her sixth moneth, whiche was called barren.

37 For with God shal no word be vnpossible.

38 And Marie sayde, Behold the handmayden of the Lorde, be it vnto me according to thy word: and the angel departed from her.

39 And Marie arose in those dayes, & went into the hyl countrey with haste, into a citie of Iuda, 40 And entred into the house of Zacharie, and saluted Elizabeth.

41 And it came to passe, that when Elizabeth hearde the salutation of Marie, the babe sprang in her wombe, and Elizabeth was fylled with the holy ghost.

42 And she spake out with a loude voyce, and sayd, Blessed art thou among women, and the fruite of thy wombe is blessed.

43 And whence commeth this vnto me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?

44 For loe, assoone as the voyce of thy salutation sounded in mine eares, the babe sprang in my wombe for ioy.

45 And blessed is she that beleeued, for those thinges shalbe performed which were tolde her from the Lorde.

46 And Marie sayd, My soule magnifieth the Lorde,

47 And my spirite hath reioyced in God my sauiour.

48 For he hath looked on the lowlinesse of his handmaiden, for loe nowe from henceforth shal al generations cal me blessed.

49 Because he that is mighty hath done to me great thinges, and holy is his name.

50 And his mercie is on them that feare him, from generation to generation.

The Gospel on Saint Iohn Baptistes day.

57 Elizabethes time came that she shoulde be deliuered, & she brought foorth a sonne.
58 And her neyghbors and her cosins heard howe the Lorde had shewed great mercie vpon her, and they reioyced with her.
59 And it came to passe, that on the eyght day they came to circumcise the chylde, and called him Zacharias, after the name of his father.
60 And his mother answearyng, sayd, Not so, but he shalbe called Iohn.
61 And they sayde vnto her, There is none in thy kinred that is called by this name.
62 And they made signes to his father, what he woulde haue hym called.
63 And when he had asked for wrytyng tables, he wrote, saying, His name is Iohn: And they marueyled al.
64 And his mouth was opened immediatly, and his tongue loosed, and he spake, praysing God.
65 And feare came on all them that dwelt rounde about them, and all these sayinges were noysed abrode throughout al the hyll countrey of Iurie.
66 And al they that had heard them, layde them vp in their hartes, saying, What maner of childe shal this be? And the hande of the Lorde was with hym.
67 And his father Zacharias was filled with the holy ghost, and prophesied, saying,
*Math.1.22 68 *Praysed be the Lord God of Israel, for he hath visited and redeemed his people.

¶ The.ii. Chapter.

The taxing of the vvorlde by Augustus Caesar.

1 AND it came to passe in those dayes, that there went a commaundement from Augustus Caesar, that all the a worlde shoulde be taxed. a. So much as was subiect to the Romanes.
2 (And this fyrst taxing was made when Cyrenius was Lieftenant of Syria.)
3 And al went to be taxed, euery man into his owne citie.
4 And Ioseph went vp from Galilee, out of the citie Nazareth, into Iurie, vnto the citie of Dauid, *which is called Bethlehem, (because he was of the house and linnage of Dauid,) *Iohn.7.42
5 To be taxed with Marie his spoused wyfe, beyng great with chylde.
6 And so it was, that while they were there, the dayes were accomplished that she shoulde be deliuered.
7 And she brought foorth her fyrst begotten b sonne, and swadled hym, and layde hym in a manger, because there was no roome for them in the Inne. b. He is called the fyrst begotten, because she had none before.
8 There were in the same countrey sheepeheardes abyding in the feelde, keepyng watche ouer their flocke by nyght.
9 And loe, the angel of the Lorde stoode harde by them, and the glory of the Lorde shone rounde about them, and they were sore afrayde.
10 And the angel sayde vnto them, Be not afrayde: For beholde, I bryng you good tidinges of great ioy, that shalbe to al people.
11 For vnto you is borne this day, in the citie of Dauid, a sauiour, which is Christ the Lorde, 12 And take this for a signe, Ye shal finde the childe swadled, layde in a manger.
13 And sodenly there was with the angel a multitude of heauenly souldiers, prayseyng God, and saying,

The Gospel on xxvij yeres lg.

15 And it came to passe, assoone as the angels were gone away from them into heauen, the men the sheepheardes said one to another, Let vs goe nowe euen vnto Bethlehem, & see this thyng that is come to passe, which the Lord hath shewed vnto vs.

16 And they came with hast, and founde Marie and Joseph, and the babe layde in a manger.

17 And when they had seene it, they published abroade the saying, whiche was tolde them of this chylde.

18 And al they that heard it, woondered at those thynges which were told them of the sheepheardes.

19 But Marye kept all those sayinges, and pondered them in his hart.

20 And the sheepheardes returned, glorifyng and praysyng God, for al the thynges that they had heard and seene, euen as it was tolde vnto them.

Gen.17.18. Math.1.21.

21 *And when the eyght day was come, that the chylde shoulde be circumcised, his name was called Jesus, whiche was so named of the angel before he was conceyued in the wombe.

The Gospel on the purification of saint Marie the virgin.

22 And when the dayes of her purification, after the lawe of Moses, were accomplished, they brought hym to Hierusalem, to present hym to the Lorde, 23 (As it is written in the lawe of the Lord, Exod.13.2. Num.8.16.

* Euery man childe that first openeth the wombe, shalbe called holy to the Lorde.)

25 And behold, there was a man in Hierusalem, whose name was Simeon, and the same man was iust and godly, looking for the consolation of Israel: and the holy ghost was vpon hym.

26 And a reuelation was geuen him of the holy ghost, not to see death before he had seene the Lordes Christe.

27 And he came by inspiration into the temple: and when the parentes brought in the child Jesus, to doo for him after the custome of the lawe,

28 Then tooke he him vp in his armes, and prayed God, and sayde, 29 Lorde, nowe lettest thou thy seruant depart in peace, according to thy promise.

30 For myne eyes haue seene thy saluation.

31 Which thou hast prepared before the face of al people.

32 A light to be reuealed to the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel.

33 And his father & his mother marueyled at those thynges which were spoken of him.

34 And Simeon blessed them, and sayde vnto Marie his mother, Behold, this child is set to be the fal and [d] vprysing agayne of many in Israel, and for a signe whiche is spoken agaynst.

35 (And moreouer, the swoorde [e] shal pearce thy soule) that the thoughtes of many harts [f] may be opened.

36 And there was a prophetisse, one Anna, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Aser, which was of a great age, and had lyued with an husbande [g] seuen yeeres from her virginitie.

37 And she had been a widowe aboue foure scoore and foure yeeres, which departed not from the temple, but serued God with fastinges and prayers night and day.

38 And she comming at the same instant vpon them, gaue thankes likewyse vnto the Lorde, and spake of hym to all them that looked for redemption in Hierusalem.

39 And when they had perfourmed all thinges according to the lawe of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their owne citie Nazareth.

40 And the chyld grewe, and waxed strong in spirite, and was fylled with wysedome, and the grace of God was vpon him.

41 Nowe his parentes went to Hierusalem euery yere, *at the feast of the Passeouer. *Deut.26.1.

42 And when he was twelue yeeres olde, they ascended vp to Hierusalem, after the custome of the feast day:

43 And when they had fulfylled the dayes, as they returned home, the chylde Jesus abode styl in Hierusalem, and Joseph and his mother knewe not of it.

44 But they supposyng him to haue ben in the companye, came a dayes iourney, and sought him among their kinsfolke and acquaintaunce.

45 And when they found him not, they turned backe againe to Hierusalē, seeking him.

46 And it came to passe, that after three dayes, they found him in the temple, sytting in the middes of the doctors, hearyng them, and posyng them.

47 And al that heard hym, were astonied at his vnderstandyng and answeares.

48 And when they sawe him, they were amazed: and his mother sayde vnto hym, Sonne, why hast thou thus dealt with vs? Behold, thy father and I haue sought thee sorowing.

49 And he sayde vnto them, Howe is it that ye sought me? Wyst ye not that I muste goe about my fathers businesse?

50 And they vnderstoode not that sayeing which he spake vnto them.

¶ The iii. Chapter.

The preaching of Iohn. 23. The age and genealogie of Christe.

1 NOw in the fifteenth yeere of the raigne of Tiberius Caesar, Pontius Pilate being liefetenaunt of Iurie, and Herode being Tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip Tetrarch of Iturea, and of the region of the Trachonites, and Lysanias the Tetrarch of Abiline,

2 * When Annas and Caiaphas were the hygh a priestes, the woord of the Lord came vnto Iohn, the sonne of Zacharias, in the wilderneſſe.

3 And he came into al the coastes about Iordane: preaching the baptisme of repentance, for the remission of sinnes,

4 As it is written in the booke of the wordes of Esaias the prophete, saying, * The voyce of a cryer in the wilderneſſe, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his pathes strayght.

5 Euery valley shalbe fylled, & euery mountaine and hil shalbe brought lowe, & things that be croked, shalbe made b strayght, and the rough wayes shalbe made playne.

6 And al flesh shal see the saluation of God.

7 Then said he to the people that were come fooryth to be baptised of him, * O generation of vipers, who hath forewarned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 Bring fooryth therfore due fruites of repentance, & begin not to say within your selues, We haue Abraham to our father: For I say vnto you, that god is able of these stones to rayse vp chyldren vnto Abraham.

9 Nowe also is the c axe layd vnto the roote of the trees: Euery tree therefore whiche bringeth not fooryth good fruite, is hewen downe, and cast into the fyre.

10 And the people asked him, saying, What shal we doo then?

11 He answereth, and sayth vnto them, * He that hath two d coates, let him part with him that hath none, & he that hath meate, let hym doo likewyse.

12 Then came Publicanes e also to be baptised, and sayde vnto hym, Maister, what shal we doo?

13 And he said vnto them, Require no more then that which is appoynted vnto you.

14 The souldiers lykewyse demaunded of him, saying, And what shal we doo? And he sayd vnto them, Doo violence to no man, neyther accuse any falsely, and be content with your wages.

15 And the people wayted, and al men mused in their hartes at John, whether he were very Christe.

16 John answeared, saying vnto them all, * In deede I baptise you with water, but one stronger then I commeth, whose shoes latchet I am not worthy to vnloose, he shall baptise you with the holy ghost, & with fire.

17 * Which hath his fan in his hande, and wyll throughly purge his flooze, & will gather the wheate into his barne, but the chaffe wil he burne with fire vnquenchable.

18 And many other thinges in his exhortation preached he vnto the people.

19 * Then Herode the Tetrarch, when he was rebuked of him for Herodias his brother Philips wyfe, and for all the euyls which Herode dyd, 20 Added this aboue all, and shut vp Iohn in prison.

21 Nowe it came to passe, as all the people were baptised, and * when Jesus was baptised, and dyd pray, that the heauen was opened.

22 And the holy ghost came downe in a bodily shape like a doue vpon him, and a voyce came from heauē, which said, Thou art my beloued sonne, in thee I am wel pleased.

23 And Jesus him selfe began to be about thirtie yeeres of age, being (as he was supposed) the sonne of Joseph, whiche was the sonne of Heli,

¶ The.iiij. Chapter.

1. The temptation and fastyng of Christe. 41. The deuyls confesse Christe, and are of hym repressed.

*Mat.4.1. Mark.1.12.
1 JEsus *being full of the holy ghost, returned from Jordane, and was led by the same spirite into wyldernesse,
2 Being fourtie dayes tempted of the deuil, and in those dayes did he eate nothing: and when they were ended, he afterwarde hungred.
3 And the deuyl sayde vnto hym, Yf thou be the sonne of God, commaund this stone that it be made bread.
*Deut.8.3. Math.4.4.
4 And Jesus answeared him, saying, * It is written, that man shall not liue by bread onely, but by euery woord of God.

1. Christe teacheth out of a ship. 36. newe and olde agree not.

The Gospell on the.v. sunday after Trinite.

1 IT* came to passe, that when the people pressed vpon hym, to heare the woorde of God, he was standing by the lake of Genezareth.

*Mat.4.18. Mark.1.16. 2 And he sawe two shippes stand by the lakes side: but the fyshermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nettes.

3 And when he was entred into one of the shippes whiche parteyned to Simon, he prayed hym that he would thrust out a little from the land: and he sate downe, & taught the people out of the ship.

4 When he had left speakyng, he sayde vnto Simon, Launch out into the deepe, and let slip your nettes to catche.

5 And Simon answearing, saide vnto him, Maister, we haue laboured all nyght, and haue taken nothyng: neuertheles, at thy commaundement I wyll loose foorth the net.

6 And when they had this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes, but their net brake:

7 And they beckened vnto their partners, whiche were in the other ship, that they shoulde come & helpe them. And they came, and filled both the shippes that they suncke agayne.

8 When Simon Peter sawe this, he fell downe at Iesus knees, saying, Goe out from me, for I am a sinfull man, O Lorde.

10 And so was also James and John the sonnes of Zebedee, whiche were partners with Simon. And Iesus sayde vnto Simon, Feare not, from henceforth thou shalt a catch men.

11 And when they had brought vp their botes to the shore, b they forsooke all, and folowed hym.

*Mat.8.2. Mark.1.40 12 *And it came to passe, that when he was in a certayne citie, beholde, there was a man full.

full of leprosie: and when he had spied Jesus, he fell flat on his face, and besought him, saying, Lorde, if thou wylt, thou canst make me cleane.

13 And when he had stretched forth his hande, he touched hym, saying, I wyll: be thou cleane. And immediately the leprosie departed from hym.

14 And he charged him to tel no man: but, Luk.14.4. Goe sayth he, * and shewe thee selfe to the preest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Moses commaunded, for a witnesse vnto them.

15 But so much the more went there a fame abroade of hym, and muche people came together to heare, and to be healed of hym from their infirmities.

16 And he kept hym selfe aparte in the wyldernesse, and prayed.

17 And it came to passe on a certayne day, as he was teaching, that there weare Pharisels, and Doctours of the lawe sytyng by, whiche were come out of al the townes of Galilee, and Iurie, and Hierusalem: and the power of the Lord was present, to heale them.

Math.9.2. Marke.2.3. 18 * And beholde, men brought in a bed a man whiche was taken with a palsie: and they sought meanes to bryng him in, and to lay hym before hym.

19 And when they could not fynde on what side they might bring him in, because of the preasse, they went vpon the top of the house, and let hym downe through the tylyng with his couche, euen into the middest before Jesus.

20 When he sawe their fayth, he sayd vnto him, Man, thy sinnes are forgeuen thee.

Pharisees. 21 And the Scribes and the Pharisees began to thynke, saying, What felowe is this whiche speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgeue sinnes, but God onely?

22 But when Jesus perceyued their thoughtes, he answearing, sayd vnto them, What thynke ye in your hartes?

23 Whether is easier to say, Thy sinnes be forgeuen thee: or to say, Ryse vp and walke?

24 But that ye may knowe that the sonne of man hath power to forgeue sinnes on earth (he sayd vnto the sicke of the palsie,) I say vnto thee, Aryse, and when thou hast taken vp thy couche, goe vnto thine house.

25 And immediatly he rose vp before them, and when he had taken vp his couch, wheron he lay, he departed to his owne house, glorifying God.

26 And they were al amazed, and they gaue the glorye vnto God, and were fylled with feare, saying, Doubtlesse we haue seene strange thinges to day.

27 And after these thynges he went forth, and sawe a Publicane, named Leui, sytting at the receite of custome: and he sayde vnto hym, Folowe me. *Math.9.9. Mark.2.14.

28 And when he had leaft al, he rose vp, and folowed hym.

29 And Leui made him a great feast in his owne house: and there was a great compane of Publicanes, and of other that sate at meate with them.

30 But they that were Scribes and Pharisees among them, murmured against his disciples, saying, Why doo ye eate & drinke with Publicans and sinners?

31 And Jesus answearing, sayd vnto them, They that are whole neede not a phisition: but they that are sicke.

32 * I came not to cal the c ryghteous: but *1.Tim.1.15 sinners to repentance. c. Those which accompt them selues, or would seeme in the eyes of the worlde to be righteous.

33 And they sayd vnto hym, Why doo the disciples of John fast often, and make prayers, and lykewyse the disciples of the Pharises: but thyne eate and drinke?

34 * He sayde vnto them, Can ye make the childzen of the wedding chamber fast, while the bridegrome is with them? *Mat.9.14. Mark.2.18.

35 But the dayes wyl come: and when the bridegrome shalbe taken away from them, then shal they fast in those dayes.

36 He spake also vnto them a similitude. No man putteth a peece of a newe garment into an olde vesture: for then the newe rendeth the olde, and the peece that was taken out of the newe, agreeth not with the olde.

37 And no man powreth newe wyne into olde vessels: for if ye do, the newe wyne wil burst the vessels, and runne out it selfe, and the vessels shal perysh.

38 But newe wyne must be put into newe vessels, and both are preserued.

39 No man also hauing dronke olde wyne, wyl strayghtway haue newe: for he sayth, The olde is better.

*Exo.19.33. 5 And he sayd vnto them, That the sonne of man is Lorde also of the a Sabboth day.

a. That is, hauing power to dispence with the keepyng of the Sabboth day.

6 *And it came to passe also in another Sabboth, that he entred into the synagogue, and taught: and there was a man whose ryght hand was dryed vp.

* Mat.12.5. Mark.3.1. 7 And the Scribes and Phariſees watched hym, whether he would heale on the Sabboth day: that they myght fynde howe to accuse hym.

8 But he knewe their thoughtes, and sayde to the man whiche had the withered hand, Ryse vp, and stande foorth in the middes. And he arose, and stoode foorth.

9 Then sayd Iesus vnto them, I wyll aske you a question, Whether is it lawful on the Sabboth dayes to doo good, or to doo euyl: to saue ones lyfe, or to destroy it?

10 And when he had beheld them al in compasse, he said vnto the man, Stretche foorth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored agayne as whole as the other.

11 And they were fylled with madnesse, and communed together among them selues what they myght doo to Iesus.

12 And it came to passe in those dayes, that he went out into a mountayne to pray, and continued al nyght there in prayer to God.

13 And when it was day, he called his disciples: and of them he chose twelue, whom also he called Apostles:

* Mat.10.1. Mark.3.13. 14 (Simon, whom he also named Peter, and Andrewe his brother: Iames & Iohn, Philip, and Bartholomewe, 15 Matthewe, and Thomas, Iames the sonne of Alpheus, and Simon, which is called Zelotes:

16 And Iudas, Iames brother, and Iudas Iscariot, which also was the traytour.)

17 And when he came downe with them, he stoode in the playne field, and the companie of his disciples, and a great multitude of people, out of al Iurie, and Hierusalem, and from the sea coast of Tyre & Sidon, whiche came to heare him, and to be healed of their diseases,

18 And they that were vexed with foule spirites: and they were healed.

19 And al the people preassed to touche him: for there went vertue out of him, and healed them al.

20 And when he had lyfted vp his eyes vpon his disciples, he sayde, * Blessed be ye poore: for yours is the kingdome of God.

45 A good man out of ỹ good treasure of his hart, bringeth forth that whiche is good: and an euyll man out of the euyll treasure of his hart, bringeth forth that whiche is euyll: For of the abundance of the hart, his mouth speaketh.

Mat.7.21. Luk.13.2. 46 * Why call ye me Lorde, Lorde, and doo not as I byd you?

47 Who so euer commeth to me, and heareth my sayings, and doeth the same, I wil shewe you to whom he is lyke.

48 He is lyke a man whiche built an house, and digged deepe, and layd the fundation on the rocke. And when ỹ waters arose, the flood beat vehemently vpon that house, and coulde not moue it: for it was grounded vpon the rocke.

49 But he that heareth, and doeth it not, is lyke a man that without fundation built an house vpon the earth: against whiche the flood dyd beate vehemently, and it fell immediatly, and the fall of that house was great.

He healeth the captaynes seruaunt. 6. The fayth of the Centurion. 37. The woman washeth his feete with her teares.

Math.8.1. 1 When he had ended all his sayinges in the audience of the people, * he entred into Capernaum.

2 And a certayne Centurions seruaunt, whiche was deare vnto hym, being sicke, was in perill of death.

3 And when he heard of Iesus, he sent vnto hym the elders of the Iewes, beseeching hym that he would come and heale his seruaunt.

4 And when they came to Iesus, they besought him instantly, saying, He is worthy that thou shouldest doo this for hym.

5 For he loueth our nation, and hath built vs a synagogue.

6 Then Iesus went with them. And when he was nowe not farre from the house, the Centurion sent frendes to him, saying vnto hym, Lorde trouble not thee selfe: for I am not worthy that thou shouldest enter vnder my roofe.

7 Wherefore, I thought not mee selfe worthy to come vnto thee: but say thou the word, and my seruaunt shalbe whole.

8 For I also am a man set vnder power, hauing vnder me souldiers: and I say vnto one, Goe, and he goeth: and to another, Come, and he commeth: and to my seruaunt, Doo this, and he doeth it.

9 When Iesus heard these thinges, he marueyled at hym, and turned hym about, and sayde vnto the people that followed hym, I say vnto you, I haue not founde so great fayth, no, not in Israel.

10 And they that were sent, when they were returned home, found the seruaunt whole that had been sicke.

11 And it came to passe the day after, that he went into a citie called Naim: and many of his disciples went with hym, and much people. The Gospell on the .xvi. Sunday after Trinitie.

12 When he came nygh to the gate of the citie, beholde, there was a dead man caryed out, whiche was the onely sonne of his mother, and she was a widdowe: and much people of the citie was with her.

13 And when the Lorde sawe her, he had compassion on her, and saide vnto her, Weepe not.

14 And when he was come nigh, he touched the beere (and they that bare hym stoode styll.) And he sayde, Young man, I say vnto thee, Aryse.

15 And he that was dead, sate vp, and began to speake: and he deliuered hym to his mother.

16 And there came a feare on them all, and they gaue the glory vnto God, saying that a great prophete is risen vp among vs, and verely God hath visited his people.

17 And this rumor of hym went forth throweout all Iurie, and throughout all the regions which lye round about.

18 * And the disciples of Iohn shewed hym of all these thinges. *Mat.11.2.

19 And Iohn, when he had called vnto hym two of his disciples, he sent them to Iesus, saying, Art thou he that commeth, or looke we we for an other?

20 When the men were come vnto hym, they saide, Iohn Baptist hath sent vs vnto thee, saying, Art thou he that commeth, or looke we for an other?

21 And in that same houre he cured many of their infirmities and plagues, and of euil spirites, and vnto many that were blind he gaue sight.

22 Then Iesus answearing, saide vnto them, Goe your way, and bring woord agayne to Iohn, what thinges ye haue seene and heard, how that the blind see agayne, the halt goe, the lepers are cleansed, the deafe heare, the dead ryse, to the poore is the Gospel preached.

23 And happy is he who so euer shall not be offended at me.

24 And when the messengers of Iohn were departed, he began to speake vnto the people concerning Iohn: What went ye out into the wyldernesse for to see? A reede shaken with the winde?

25 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft rayment? Beholde, they whiche are gorgeously apparelled, and lyue delicately, are in kinges courtes.

26 But what went ye forth to see? A prophete? Yea, I say vnto you, and more then a prophete.

Mala. 3. I. 27 This is he of whom it is written, Beholde, I sende my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

28 For I say vnto you, among women children is there not a greater prophet then Iohn Baptist: neuertheles, he that is lesse in the kingdome of God, is greater then he.

29 And all the people that heard him, and the Publicanes, being baptised with the baptisme of Iohn, a iustified God.

a. That is, praised god, and acknowledged him to be most faythfull, good, and mercifull.

30 But the Pharisees and Lawyers despised the counsayle of GOD against themselues, being not baptised of him.

*Mat. 11. 16 31 And the Lorde sayde, * Where vnto shal I liken the men of this generation? and to what are they lyke?

32 They are lyke vnto children sitting in the market place, & crying one to an other, and saying, We haue piped vnto you, and ye haue not daunced: We haue mourned to you, and ye haue not wept.

b. That is, the children of wysedome, or the wyse, which beleue the gospel, do acknowledge the wysedome of God therein, whiche the pharisees condemne, so that wysedome is then iustified of her children, when the gospel is receiued.

33 For Iohn Baptist came, neyther eating bread, nor drinking wine, and ye say, He hath a deuyl.

34 The sonne of man is come, eating and drinking, and ye say, Beholde a gluttonous man, and a wine bibber, a frend of Publicanes and sinners.

35 And wysdome is iustified of al her children.

36 And one of the Pharisees desyred hym that he would eate with him. And he went into the Pharisees house, and sate downe to meate.

37 And beholde, a woman in that citie, which was a sinner, when she knewe that Iesus sate at meate in the Pharisees house, she brought an Alabaster boxe of oyntment:

38 * And stoode at his feete behinde hym, weeping, and began to washe his feete with teares, and dyd wype them cleane with the heares of her head, & all to kissed his feete, and annoynted them with the oyntment. * Mar. 15. 40. Iohn. 20. 11.

39 When the Pharisee whiche had bidden him, sawe it, he spake within himselfe, saying, If this man were a prophete, he would surely knowe who, and what maner of woman this is that toucheth him, for she is a sinner.

40 And Iesus answearing, said vnto him, Simon, I haue some what to say vnto thee. And he sayth, Maister, say on.

41 There was a certaine lender, which had two debters: the one ought fiue hundred pence, and the other fiftie.

42 When they had nothyng to pay, he forgaue them both. Tell me therefore, which of them will loue hym most?

43 Simon answeared, and sayde, I suppose that he to whom he forgaue most. And he sayd vnto him, Thou hast truely iudged.

44 And he turned to the woman, and sayde vnto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entred into thyne house, thou gauest me no water for my feete: but she hath washed my feete with teares, and wyped them with the heares of her head.

45 Thou gauest me no kysse: but this woman, since the time I came in, hath not ceased to kysse my feete.

46 Myne head with oyle thou dyddest not annoynt: but this woman hath annoynted my feete with oyntment.

47 Wherefore, I say vnto thee, many sinnes are forgeuen her, for she loued muche: to whom little is forgeuen, the same loueth little.

48 And he sayde vnto her, Thy sinnes are forgeuen thee.

49 And they that sate at meate with hym, began to say within themselues, Who is this that forgeueth sinnes also?

50 And he sayde to the woman, Thy fayth hath saued thee, goe in peace.

43 And a woman, hauyng an issue of blood twelue yeeres, whiche had spent all her substaunce vpon Phisitions, neyther coulde be holpen of any,

44 Came behynde hym, and touched the hemme of his rayment: and immediately her issue of blood stanched.

45 And Iesus sayde, Who is it that touched me? When euery man denied, Peter and they that were with hym, sayde, Maister, the people thrust thee, and vexe thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

46 And Iesus sayde, Some body hath touched me: for I perceyue that vertue is gone out of me.

47 When the woman saw that she was not hyd, she came trembleyng, and fel at his feete, and tolde him before al the people, for what cause she had touched hym, & howe she was healed immediatly.

48 And he sayde vnto her, Daughter, be of good comfort, thy faith hath saued thee, goe in peace.)

49 Whyle he yet spake, there commeth one from the ruler of the synagogues house, saying to hym, Thy daughter is dead, disease not the maister.

50 But when Iesus heard that word, he answeared hym, saying, Feare not, beleeue onely, and she shalbe made whole.

51 And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to goe in with hym, saue Peter, and James, and John, and the father and the mother of the mayden.

52 Euery body wept, and sorowed for her: and he sayde, Weepe not, the damsel is not dead, but sleepeth.

53 And they laughed hym to scorne, knowing that she was dead.

54 And he thrust them al out, and tooke her by the hande, and cryed, saying, Mayde, aryse.

55 And her spirite came agayne, and she arose strayghtway: and he commaunded to geue her meate.

56 And her parentes were astonied: but he warned them that they shoulde tell no man what was doone.

¶ The ix Chapter.

2. The Apostles are sent to preache. 57. Of three that vvoulde folovve Christe, but after diuers sortes of looking backe.

1 IEsus * when he had called the twelue together, gaue them power and auctoritie ouer al deuils, and to heale diseases.

*Mat.10.1. Mark.3.13 and.6.7.

2 And he sent them to preach the kyngdome of God, and to heale the sicke.

3 And he sayd vnto them, Take nothyng to a your iourney, neyther rodde, nor scrippe, neyther bread, neyther money, neyther haue two coates a peece.

a. Because this iourney was short, and but for a tyme, Christ wylled that they shuld make haste, & take nothyng with them, whereby they might be letted any thyng at al from the businesse.

4 And whatsoeuer house ye enter into, there abyde, and thence depart.

5 And whosoeuer wil not receiue you, when ye go out of that citie, shake of the very dust from your feete, for a testimonie agaynst them.

6 And they departed, and went through the townes, preachyng the Gospel, and healyng euery where.

7 *And Herode the Tetrarche heard of all that was done by hym: and he doubted, because cause that it was sayde of some, that Iohn was risen from death:

*Mat.6.14. Mark.14.1

8 And of some, that Elias had appeared, and of some, that one of the olde prophetes was risen.

9 And Herode said, Iohn haue I beheaded: but who is this of whom I heare suche thinges? And he desyred to see hym.

10 And the Apostles when they returned, tolde him al that they had done. *And he tooke them, and went aside into a solitarie place, nigh vnto the citie called Bethsaida,

*Mat.14.13 Mark.6.35.

11 Which when the people knewe, they folowed him: and when he had receyued them, he spake vnto them of the kyngdome of God, and healed them that had neede to be healed.

12 *And when the day began to weare away, then came the twelue, and sayde vnto him, Sende the people away, that they may goe into the villages and feeldes round about, and lodge, and geat meate: for we are here in a place of wyldernesse.

*Mat.14.16 Mark.6.35. Iohn.6.5.

13 But he sayd vnto them, Geue ye them to eate. And they sayde, We haue no moe but fiue loaues and two fishes, except we should goe and buy meate for al this people.

14 And they were about fiue thousande men. And he sayde to his disciples, Cause them to sit downe by fiftes in a companie.

15 And they did so, and made them to sit downe.

16 And when he had taken the fiue loaues, and the two fishes, and looked vp to heauen, he blessed them, and brake them, and gaue to the disciples to set before the people.

17 And they did al eate, and were satisfied. And there was taken vp of that remayned to them, twelue baskettes full of broken meate.

18 *And it came to passe, as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying, Whom say the people that I am?

*Mat.16.13 Mark.8.27.

19 They answearing, sayd, Iohn the Baptist: some say, Elias: and some say, that one of the olde prophetes is risen.

20 He sayde vnto them, But whom say ye that I am? Peter answearyng, sayde, thou art that Christe, of God.

21 And he warned and commaunded them to tel no man that thyng:

22 Saying, *That the sonne of man must suffer many thinges, and be reproued of the elders, & of the high priestes & Scribes, and be slayne, and rise the thirde day.

*Mat.17.22 Mark.8.31.

23 *And he sayde to them al, If any man wyl come after me, let hym denie him selfe, and take vp his crosse dayly, & folowe me.

*Mat.10.38

24 *For who so euer wyl saue his lyfe, shall loose it: but who so euer wyl loose his lyfe for my sake, the same shal saue it.

*Mat.10. 39. Mark.8.35.

25 *For what auantageth it a man, if he winne the whole worlde, and loose hym selfe, or runne in danger of hym selfe?

*Mat.16.26 Mark.9.36.

26 *For who so euer shalbe ashamed of me, and of my wordes, of him shal the sonne of man be ashamed when he shal come in the glory of hym selfe, and of his father, and of the holy angels.

*Mat.10.33 Mark.8.38.

27 *I tel you of a trueth, there be some standyng here, whiche shal in no wyse taste of death, tyl they see the kyngdome of God.

*Math.26. 28. Mark.9.1.

28 *And it came to passe, about an eyght dayes after these sayinges, he tooke Peter, and Iohn, and Iames, and went vp into a mountayne to pray.

*Mat.27.2. Mark.9.2.

29 And it came to passe as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was changed, and his garment shining very white.

30 And beholde, there talked with hym two men, which were Moses and Elias, 31 That appeared in glory, and spake of his departing, which he should ende at Hierusalem.

32 But Peter, & they that were with him, were heauie with sleepe: and when they awooke, they sawe his glory, and the two men standing with hym.

33 And it came to passe, as they departed from him, Peter sayde vnto Iesus, Maister, it is good beyng here for vs, and let vs make three tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias: not knowyng what he sayde.

34 While he thus spake, there came a cloud and ouershadowed them, and they feared, when they were come into the cloude.

35 And there came a voyce out of the cloud, saying, This is my deare sonne, heare hym.

36 And assoone as the voyce was past, Iesus was found alone, and they kept it close, and told no man in those dayes any of those thinges which they had seene.

37 *And it came to passe, that on the next day, when they were come downe from the hyl, muche people met hym.

*Mat.17.14 Mark.9.17.

38 And beholde, a man of the companie cryed out, saying, Maister, I beseeche thee behold my sonne, for he is al that I haue:

39 And see, a spirite taketh hym, and sodenly he crieth, and teareth him that he fometh agayne, and with muche payne departeth from him, when he renteth hym.

40 And I besought thy disciples to cast hym out, and they could not.

41 Iesus answearyng, sayde, O faythlesse and peruerse nation, howe shall I be with you, and shal sucker you? bryng thy sonne hyther.

42 As he was yet a comming, the feend rent him, and tare him: and Jesus rebuked the vncleane spirite, and healed the childe, and deliuered him agayne to his father.

43 And they were al amased at the maiestie of God: But while they woondred euery one at al thinges which Jesus dyd, he sayd vnto his disciples,

*Mat.17.22 Mark.9.35. 44 *Let these sayinges sincke downe into your eares: for it wyl come to passe, that the sonne of man shalbe deliuered into the handes of men.

45 But they wist not what that woorde meant, and it was hid from them, that they shoulde not vnderstande it: and they feared to aske hym of that saying.

*Mat.18.1. Mark.9.33. 46 *Then there arose a disputation among them, which of them should be the greatest.

47 When Jesus perceyued the thought of they hart, he tooke a chylde, and set hym hard by hym, 48 And sayde vnto them, Who so euer shal receiue this childe in my name, receyueth me: and who so euer shal receyue me, receyueth hym that sent me: For he that is least among you al, the same shalbe great.

*Mark.9.38 49 *And Johan answearing, sayd, Maister, we saw one casting out deuyls in thy name, and we forbade hym, because he folowyth not thee with vs.

50 And Jesus sayde vnto hym, Forbid ye him not: for he that is not against vs, is with vs.

51 And it came to passe, when the time was come that he should be receyued vp, he stedfastly set his face to goe to Hierusalem, 52 And sent messengers before his face, and they went and entred into a village of the Samaritanes, to make redy for hym.

b. Because they knewe that he was a Iewe, and the Samaritanes could not agree with the Iewes. Iohn.4. for that they differed in religion.

53 And they did not receyue hym, because his b face was as though he woulde goe to Hierusalem.

54 When his disciples, James and Johan saw this, they said, Lord wylt thou that we commaunde fyre to come downe from heauen, and consume them, euen as Elias did?

55 Jesus turnyng about rebuked them, saying, Ye wote not what manner spirite ye are of.

*Mat.8.19. 56 *For the sonne of man is not come to destroy mens liues, but to saue them. And they went to another village.

57 And it came to passe, that as they went walking in the way, a certayne man sayde vnto him, I wyl folowe thee, Lorde, whither so euer thou goest.

58 And Jesus sayde vnto hym, Foxes haue holes, and byrdes of the ayre haue nestes: but the sonne of man hath not where to lay his head.

59 *And he sayd vnto another, Folowe me: And the same sayde, Lorde, sucker me first to goe and burie my father. *Mat.8.21.

60 Jesus sayde vnto hym, Let the dead burie their dead: but goe thou and preache the kyngdome of God.

61 And another sayd, Lorde, I wyl folowe thee: but let me first goe bid them farewel c which are at home at my house.

c. When Christ calleth, we may not looke at any thing which may hinder vs from our vocation, but with al speede folow it.

62 Jesus sayde vnto hym, No man hauing put his hande to the plowe, and looking backe, is apt to the kyngdome of God.

¶ The.x. Chapter.

He sendeth seuentie disciples to preache, geuyng them charge howe to behaue them selues.

The Gospel on Saint Luke the Euangelistes day.

1 AFter these things the Lord appoynted other seuentie also, and sent them two and two before his face, into euery citie and place, whither he him selfe would come.

2 Therefore sayd he vnto them, *The haruest is great, but the labourers are fewe: pray ye therefore the Lorde of the haruest, to sende "foorth labourers into his haruest. *Mat.9.37.

3 Goe your wayes: *Beholde, I sende you foorth as lambes among woolues. *Mat.10.16

4 Beare no wallet, neyther scrippe, nor shoes, and salute a no man by the way.

a. He wylleth that they should dispatch this iourney with diligence and speede, and not occupie them selues about other duties, 2.Reg.4.

5 *Into what so euer house ye enter, fyrst say, Peace be to this house. *Mat.10.14

6 And if the sonne b of peace be there, your peace shal rest vpon him: if not, it shal turne to you agayne.

b. Which loueth the doctrine of peace, that is, the Gospel.

7 And in the same house tarrie styl, eatyng and drinking suche thynges as they haue: For the labourer is worthie of his reward. Goe not from house to house.

8 *And into what so euer citie ye enter, and they receyue you, eate suche thinges as are set before you: *Mat.10.11

9 And heale the sicke that are therein, and say vnto them, The kyngdome of God is come nygh vpon you.

10 But into what so euer citie ye enter, and they receyue you not, goe your wayes out into the streetes of the same, and say, 11 *Euen the very dust of your citie which cleaueth on vs, we doo wipe of against you: notwithstanding, be ye sure of this, that the kyngdome of God was come nygh vpon you. *Act.13.51.

12 I say vnto you, That it shalbe easyer in that day for Sodome, then for that citie.

13 *Wo vnto thee Chorazin, wo vnto thee Bethsaida: For if the mightie woorkes had been *Mat.11.21.

been doone in Tyre & Sidon, whiche haue been doone in you, they had a great whyle agoe repented, sitting in sackcloth & ashes.

14 Therefore it shalbe easier for Tyre and Sidon at the iudgement, then for you.

15 And thou Capernaum, which art exalted to heauen, shalt be thrust downe to hel.

Mat.10.40 John.13.20 16 *He that heareth you, heareth me: and he that despyseth you, despyseth me: and he that despyseth me, despyseth hym that sent me.

17 And the seuentie turned agayne with ioy, saying, Lord, euen the very deuylles are subdued vnto vs through thy name.

e The power of Satan is beaten downe by preachyng the Gospel. 18 And he sayde vnto them, I sawe Satan e as it had been lyghtening, fallyng downe from heauen.

19 Behold, I geue vnto you power to treade on Serpentes and Scorpions, and ouer al manner power of the enimie: and nothyng shal by any meanes hurt you.

20 But in this reioyce not, that the spirites are subdued vnto you: but rather reioyce, because your names are wrytten in the heauens.

21 The same houre Iesus reioyced in the spirite, and sayde, I confesse vnto thee father, Lorde of heauen and earth, that thou hast hyd these thynges from the wyse & prudent, and hast opened them vnto babes: euen so father, for so it pleased thee.

22 All thynges are geuen me of my father: no man knoweth who the sonne is, but the father: and who the father is, but the sonne, and he to whom the sonne wyl reueale him.

The Gospel on the xiii sunday after trinitie. 23 And he turned to his disciples, and sayde secretly, *Happie are the eyes which see the thynges that ye see.

*Mat.13.16 24 For I tel you, that many Prophets and Kynges haue desyred to see those thynges whiche ye see, and haue not seene them: and to heare those thynges whiche ye heare, and haue not hearde them.

*Mat.22.35 25 And beholde, a certayne Lawyer stoode vp, and tempted hym, saying, *Maister, what shal I doo to inherite eternal lyfe? He sayde vnto hym, 26 What is wrytten in the lawe? howe readest thou?

*Deut.6.1. 27 And he answearing, sayde, *Thou shalt loue the Lorde thy God, with all thy hart, and with al thy soule, and with all thy strength, and with al thy mynde, *and thy neyghbour as thee selfe.

*Leui.19.18. 28 And he sayde vnto hym, Thou hast answeared right, this doo, and thou shalt liue.

29 But he, wylling to iustifie hym selfe, said vnto Iesus, And who is my neyghbour?

30 And Iesus answeryng, sayd, A certayne man descended from Hierusalem to Iericho, and fel among theeues, whiche robbed hym of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leauyng hym halfe dead.

31 And it befell, that there came downe a certayne Priest that same way, & when he sawe hym, he passed by on the other side.

32 And lykewyse a Leuite, when he went nygh to the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.

33 But a certayne Samaritane as he iourneyed, came by hym: and when he sawe hym, he had compassion on hym, 34 And went to hym, and bounde vp his woundes, powryng in oyle and wyne, & set him on his owne beast, & brought him to a common Inne, and made prouision for hym.

d. Which was about ix. pence of sterlyng money. 35 And on the morowe when he departed, he tooke out d two pence, and gaue them to the host, & sayde vnto hym, Take cure of hym, and whatsoeuer thou spendest more, when I come agayne, I wyll recompence thee.

36 Whiche nowe of these three, thynkest thou, was neyghbour vnto hym that fell among the theeues?

37 And he sayde, He that shewed mercy on hym. Then sayd Iesus vnto hym, Goe, and doo thou lykewyse.

38 Nowe it came to passe as they went, that he entred into a certayne village: and a certayne woman, named Martha, receyued hym into her house.

39 And this woman had a syster, called Marie, whiche also sate at Iesus feete, and hearde his woorde:

40 But Martha was cumbred about much seruyng, and came to hym, and sayd, Lorde, doest thou not care that my syster hath left me to serue alone? Byd her therefore that she helpe me.

41 And Iesus answeared, & sayde vnto her, Martha, Martha, thou art careful, and troubled about many thynges:

e. That is, the hearyng of the woord of God, from whiche it was not meete that she should be drawen, hauyng not alwayes oportunitie to heare the same. 42 Verily one is needefull, Marie hath chosen the good part, e whiche shal not be taken away from her.

¶ The xi. Chapter.

2. Christe teacheth his disciples to pray. 14. He dryueth out a dumbe deuyl.

1 AND so it was, that as he was prayyng in a certayne place, when he ceassed, one of his disciples sayde vnto hym, Lord, teach vs to pray, as Iohn also taught his disciples.

2 And he sayde vnto them, When ye pray, say, *O our father whiche art in heauen, Halowed be thy name, Thy kyngdome come, Thy wyll be doone, euen in earth also as it is in heauen. *Mark.6.9.

3 Our dayly bread geue vs this day,
4 And forgeue vs our sinnes: for euen we forgeue euery man that trespasseth vs. And leade vs not into temptation, but delyuer vs from the euyl.
5 And he sayde vnto them, Whiche of you shal haue a freende, and shal goe vnto hym at mydnyght, and say vnto hym, Freende, lend me three loaues:
6 For a freende of myne is come out of the way to me, and I haue nothing to set before hym.
7 And he from within shall answeare, and say, Trouble me not, the doore is nowe shut, and my chyldren are with me in bed: I can not ryse and geue thee.
8 I say vnto you, Though he wyl not ryse, and geue hym, because he is his freende: yet because of his importunitie, he wyl rise, and geue him as many as he needeth.
*Math.7.7. Mar.11.24. John.14.13. James.1.10 9 *And I say vnto you, Aske, and it shalbe geuen you: seeke, and ye shal finde: knocke, and it shalbe opened vnto you.
*Math.7.7. 10 *For euery one that asketh, receyueth: and he that seeketh, findeth: and to hym that knocketh, it shalbe opened.
*Mat.9.32. Mark.3.20. 11 *Yf the sonne shal aske bread of any of you that is a father, wyll he geue him a stone? Or yf he aske fyshe, wyll he for fyshe geue hym a Serpent?
12 Or yf he shall aske an egge, wyll he offer hym a Scorpion?
13 Yf ye then, beyng euyll, haue knowledge to geue good gyftes vnto your chyldren: howe much more shal your father of heauen geue the holye spirite to them that desire it of hym?
The Gospel on the iii sunday in Lent. 14 And he was casting out a deuyl, and the same was dumbe. And it came to passe, when the deuyll was gone out, the dumbe spake, and the people woondred.
*Mat.9.24 15 But some of them sayde, *He casteth out deuyls, through Beelzebub the chefe of the deuyls.
16 And other tempting him, required of him a signe from heauen.
17 But he knowyng their thoughtes, sayde vnto them, *Euery kyngdome diuided agaynst it selfe, is desolate: and a house diuided agaynst a house, falleth.
*Mat.12.25 Mar.3.44.
18 Yf Satan also be diuided agaynst hym selfe, howe shal his kyngdome endure? Because ye say that I cast out deuyls through Beelzebub.
" the helpe of. 19 Yf I by "Beelzebub cast out deuyls, by whom doo your chyldren cast them out? therefore shall they be your iudges.
20 But yf I with the fynger of God cast out deuyls, no doubt the kyngdome of God is come vpon you.
21 When the strong man armed, keepeth his palace, his goodes are in peace.
22 But when a stronger then he shall come vpon hym, and ouercome hym, he taketh from him al his harnesse wherin he trusted, and diuideth his spoyles.
23 He that is not with me, is agaynst me: & he that gathereth not with me, scattereth.
24 When the vncleane spirite is gone out *of a man, he walketh through drye places, seekyng rest: and fyndyng none, he saith, I wyl returne vnto my house, whence I came out. *Mat.12.43
25 And when he commeth, he findeth it swept, and garnyshed.
26 *Then goeth he, and taketh to hym seuen other spirites woorse then hym selfe, and they enter in, and dwel there, and the last state of that man is woorse then the first. *Heb.6.4. 1.Pe.2.20
27 And it came to passe as he spake these thynges, a certayne woman of the company lyft vp her voyce, and sayde vnto hym, Happie is the wombe that bare thee, and the pappes whiche thou hast sucked.
28 But he sayd, Yea rather happie are they that heare the woorde of God, and keepe it.
29 *When the people were gathered thicke togeather, he began to say, This is an euyll nation: they seeke a signe, and there shal no signe be geuen them, * but the signe of Ionas the Prophet. *Mat.12.38 * Jonas.2.1.
30 For as Ionas was a signe vnto the Niniuites, so shall also the sonne of man be to this nation.
31 *The Queene of the South shall ryse in iudgment with the men of this nation, and condemne them: for she came from the vtmost partes of the earth, to heare the wysedome of Solomon: and beholde, a greater then Solomon is here. *3. Re.10.1. 2.Chro.9.1.
32 The men of Niniue shall ryse in iudgement with this nation, and shall condemne them: *for they repented at the preachyng of Ionas, and behold, a greater then Ionas is here. *Jonas.3.5.
33 *No man when he hath lighted a candle, putteth it in a priuie place, neyther vnder a bushell: but on a candlesticke, that they whiche come in, may see the lyght. *Mat.5.15. Mar.4.21. Luke.8.16.
34 *The a candle of the body is the eye: therefore when thine eye is single, al thy body also is full of lyght: but yf thyne eye be euyl, al thy body also is ful of darknesse. *Mat.6.22. a. That is the lyght.
35 Take heede therfore, that the lyght whiche is in thee, be not darknesse.
36 Yf al thy body therfore be cleare, hauing no parte darke: then shall it all be full of lyght, euen as when a candle doeth lyght thee with bryghtnesse.
37 And as he spake, a certayne Pharisee bebesought him to dine with him: And Jesus went in, and sate downe to meate.

38 When the Pharisee sawe it, he marueyled that he had not fyrst washed before dinner.

*Mat.23.29 39 *And the Lorde sayde vnto hym, Nowe doo ye Pharisees make cleane the outsyde of the cup, & the platter: but your inwarde part is ful of rauening and wyckednesse.

40 Ye fooles, did not he that made that whiche is without, make that whiche is within also?

b. Christ requireth here two thynges. First, that we come truely by our meate, next, that we geue almes: for charitie is the perfection of the lawe. *Or, present. 41 But rather b gene almes of those thynges which are *within: and beholde, al thynges are cleane vnto you.

*Mat.23.6. Mat.12.38. 42 But woe vnto you Pharisees: for ye tithe mint, and rue, and al maner herbes, and passe ouer iudgement, and the loue of God: These ought ye to haue done, and yet not to leaue the other vndone.

43 *Woe vnto you Pharisees: for ye loue the vppermost seates in the synagogues, & greetinges in the markettes.

44 Woe vnto you Scribes and Pharisees hypocrites: for ye are as graues which appeare not, and the men that walke ouer them, are not ware of them.

45 Then answered one of the lawyers, and sayde vnto hym, Maister, thus saying, thou puttest vs to rebuke also.

*Mat.23.4. Act.15.10. 46 *And he sayd, Woe vnto you also ye lawyers: for ye lade me with burdens greeuous to be borne, and ye your selues touche not the burdens with one of your fingers.

47 Woe vnto you, for ye build the sepulchres of the prophetes, and your fathers kylled them.

48 Truely ye beare witnesse that ye alowe the deedes of your fathers: for they kylled them, and ye build their sepulchres.

49 Therefore sayd the wisedome of God, I wyl send them prophetes and apostles, and some of them they shal slay and persecute:

50 That the blood of al the prophetes, which was shed from the fundation of the worlde, may be requyred of this generation,

*Gene.4.8. 1.Chro.24.22. 51 *From the blood of Abel, vnto the blood of Zacharie, which perished betweene the aulter and the temple: Verely I say vnto you, it shalbe required of this nation.

c. The pure doctrine, and true vnderstanding of the scriptures. 52 Woe vnto you lawyers: for ye haue taken away the c key of knowledge: ye entred not in your selues, and them that came in, ye forbad.

53 When he thus spake vnto them, the lawyers and the Pharisees began to vrge hym vehemently, and to prouoke hym to speake many thynges:

54 Laying wayte for hym, and seeking to catche somethyng out of his mouth, wherby they might accuse hym.

¶ The.xii.Chapter.

1. The leauen of the Pharisees is to be auoyded.
20. Agaynst care of earthly thynges.

*Mat.16.5. Mark.8.14. 1 IN the meane time, when there were gathered togeather an innumerable multitude of people, insomuche that they trode one another, he began to say vnto his disciples, Fyrst of al beware of the leauen of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisie.

*Mat.10.26 Mark.4.22 2 *For there is nothing couered, that shall not be vncouered, neyther hid, that shal not be knowen.

3 Therefore, what so euer ye haue spoken in darkenesse, shalbe hearde in the lyght: and that which ye haue spoken in the eare, euen in secrete places, shalbe preached a on the toppe of the houses.

a. Openly, that al men may heare.

*Mat.10.28 4 *And I say vnto you my frendes, Be not afrayde of them that kyl the body, & after that, haue no more that they can doo.

5 But I wyl forewarne you whom you shal feare: Feare him, which after he hath kylled, hath power to cast into hel, yea, I say vnto you, Feare him.

*Mat.10.29 6 *Are not fiue sparrowes solde for two farthinges, and not one of them is forgotten before God?

7 But, euen the very heares of your head are numbred: Feare not therefore, ye are more of value then many sparowes.

*Mat.10.23 Luke.9.26. 2.Tim.2.1. 8 *Also I say vnto you, Who so euer shall confesse me before men, him shal the sonne of man knowledge also before the angels of God.

9 But he that shal denie me before men, shal be denied before the angels of God.

10 And who so euer shal speake a woorde agaynst the sonne of man, it shalbe forgeuen hym: but vnto him that blaspheneth the holy b ghost, it shal not be forgeuen.

b. He that shal resist agaynst the woorde of God purposely of malice, or agaynst his owne conscience.

11 And when they bryng you vnto the synagogues, and vnto the rulers and officers, take ye no thought howe or what thing ye shal answeare, or what ye shal speake:

*Mat.10.29 Mat.13.12. 12 For the holy ghost shal teache you in the same houre, what ye ought to say.

13 One of the companie sayde vnto hym, Maister, speake to my brother, that he diuide the inheritance with me.

14 And he sayd vnto him, Man, who made me a iudge, or a diuider ouer you?

15 And he sayd vnto them, Take heede, and beware of couetousnesse: for no mans lyfe standeth in the abundance of the thynges which he possesseth.

*Eccl.11.19. 16 And he put forth a similitude vnto them, saying, *The grounde of a certayne rych man brought foorth plentiful fruites.

17 And he thought within hym selfe, saying, What shal I doo, because I haue no roome where to bestowe my fruites?

18 And he sayde, This wyl I doo, I wyll pul downe my barnes, and builde greater, and therein wyl I geather all my fruites and my goodes.

19 And I wyl say to my soule, Soule, thou hast much goodes layde vp in store for many yeeres, take thine ease, eate, drynke, and be merie.

20 But God sayde vnto hym, Thou foole, this night doo they require thy soule againe from thee: then whose shal those thinges be, which thou hast prouided?

21 So is he that geathereth ryches to him selfe, and is not riche towardes God.

22 And he spake vnto his disciples, Therefore I say vnto you, *Take no thought for your life what ye shal eate, neyther for the body what ye shal put on.

*Mat.6.15. 1.Pet.5.7. Psal.54.26.

23 The lyfe is more then meate, and the body is more then rayment.

24 Consyder the Rauens, for they neyther sowe nor reape, whiche neyther haue storehouse nor barne, and notwithstandyng God feedeth them: howe muche more are ye better then the foules?

25 Which of you with taking thought, can adde to his stature one cubite?

26 If ye then be not able to doo that thyng which is least: why take ye thought for the remnant?

27 Consyder the Lilies howe they growe, they labour not, they spinne not: and yet I say vnto you, that Solomon in all his royaltie, was not clothed like one of these.

28 If God so clothe the grasse, which is to day in the feelde, and to morowe is cast into the furnace: howe much more wyl he clothe you, O ye of litle fayth?

29 And aske not ye what ye shall eate, or what ye shal drynke, neither be ye of doubtful minde.

30 For al such thinges doo the people of the worlde seeke for: and your father knoweth that ye haue neede of these thynges.

31 But rather seeke ye after the kyngdome of God, and al these thinges shalbe added vnto you.

32 Feare not O litle flocke, for it is your fathers good pleasure to geue you a kyngdome.

33 Sell that ye haue, and geue almes: *and prepare you bagges which ware not olde, euen a treasure that fayleth not in the heauens, where no theefe approcheth, neither moth corrupteth.

*Mat.6.20.

34 For where your treasure is, there wyll your hart be also.

35 *Let your loynes be gyrde about, and your lightes burnyng.

*1.Pet.1.13.

36 And ye your selues be like vnto men that wayte for their Lord, when he wyl returne from the wedding, that when he shal come and knocke, they may open vnto him immediatly.

37 Happie are those seruantes whom the Lord when he commeth shal finde waking: Verely I say vnto you, That he shal gyrde hym selfe, and make them to sit downe to meate, and wyl come foorth, and minister vnto them.

38 And if he shal come in the second watch, yea, if he shal come in the third watch, and finde them so, happie are those seruantes.

39 *This vnderstande ye, that if the good man of the house had knowen what houre the theefe woulde come, he woulde surely haue watched, and not haue suffered his house to be broken through.

*Math. 24. 45. Apoc.16.15.

40 Be ye therfore redy also: for the sonne of man commeth at an houre when ye thinke not.

41 Then Peter said vnto him, Maister, tellest thou this similitude vnto vs, or to al?

42 And the Lorde sayde, Who is a faythful and wyse stewarde, whom his Lorde shall make ruler ouer his housholde, to geue them their portion of meate in due season?

43 Happie is that seruaunt, whom his Lorde when he commeth, shal finde so dooyng.

44 Of a trueth, I say vnto you, That he wyl make him ruler ouer al his substance.

45 But and if that seruaunt say in his hart, My Lorde delayeth his comming: and shal beginne to smite the seruauntes and maydens, and to eate and drinke, and to be drunken.

46 The Lorde of that seruaunt wyl come in a day when he looketh not for hym, and at an houre when he is not ware, and wyll hewe hym in peeces, and wyl set hym his portion with the vnbeleeuers.

47 And the seruaunt that knewe his maisters wyll, and prepared not hym selfe, neyther did according to his wyl, shalbe beaten with many stripes.

48 But he that knewe not, e and did commit thinges woorthie of stripes, shalbe beaten with fewe stripes. For vnto whom soeuer muche is geuen, of him shalbe muche required: and to whom men haue committed muche, of hym wyll they aske the more.

e. Ignorance wyl not excuse.

49 I am come to sende fyre d on the earth, and what is my desyre, e yf it be alredy kindled?

d. That is, the Gospel, whiche is as a vehemēt fyre, and maketh a change of thynges throwe al the worlde.

e. That is, but that it be.

50 Not-

50 Notwithstanding, I must be baptised with a baptisme, f and howe am I payned tyl it be ended.

51 * Suppose ye that I am come to sende peace on earth? I tel you, Nay, but rather g diuision.

52 For from henceforth there shalbe fyue in one house diuided, three agaynst two, and two agaynst three.

53 The father shalbe diuided agaynst the sonne, and the sonne agaynst the father: the mother agaynst the daughter, & the daughter agaynst the mother: the mother in lawe, agaynst the daughter in lawe, & the daughter in lawe agaynst the mother in lawe.

54 He sayd also to the people, * When ye see a cloude ryse out of the West, straightway ye say, There commeth a shewre: and so it is.

55 And when ye see the south wynde blowe, ye saye, It wyll be hot, and it commeth to passe.

56 Ye hypocrites, ye can discerne the face of the skye, and of the earth: but howe is it that ye doo not discerne this tyme?

57 Yea, and why iudge ye not of your selues what is ryght?

58 * When thou goest with thyne aduersary to the ruler: as thou art in the way, geue diligence that thou mayest be deliuered from him, lest he drawe thee violently to the iudge, and the iudge deliuer thee to the sergeant, and the sergeant cast thee into prison.

59 I tel thee, Thou shalt not depart thence, tyl thou haue made good the vttermost myte.

f He compareth affliction & his death to baptisme.

*Mat.10.34.

g Christ is not the cause that there is destruction for the Gospel, but the wickednes of worldlinges, which by nature contemning the Gospel, be at variance with al that professe it.

*Mat.5.25.

¶ The.xiij. Chapter.

1. Of the figge tree that bare no fruite. 24. Fewe enter into the kingdome of Christe.

1 There were present at the same season, certayne men that shewed hym of the Galileans, whose blood a Pilate had myngled with their owne sacrifice.

2 And Iesus answeryng, sayde vnto them, Suppose ye that these Galileans were greater sinners then al the other Galileans, because they suffered suche punishment?

3 I tel you, Nay: but except ye repent, ye shal al likewyse perishe.

4 Or those eyghteene, vpon which the towre in b Siloe fel, and slue them, thinke ye that they were sinners aboue all men that dwelt in Hierusalem?

5 I tell you, Nay: but except ye repent, ye shal al lykewyse perysshe.

6 He tolde also this similitude. A certayne man had a fygge tree planted in his vineyeard, and he came and sought fruite thereon, and founde none.

7 Then said he to the dresser of the vineyard, Beholde, this three yeeres I come seeking fruite in this fygge tree, and fynde none: cut it downe, why cumbreth it the grounde?

8 And he answearing, sayd vnto him, Lord, let it alone this yeere also, tyl I shal digge rounde about it, and doung it:

9 And if it beare fruite, thou mayest let it alone: and if it beare not, then after that thou shalt cut it downe.

10 And he was teaching in one of their Synagogues on the Sabboth dayes.

11 And beholde, there was a woman which had a spirite of infirmitie eyghteene yeeres, and was bowed togeather, and coulde in no wyse lyft vp her selfe.

12 When Iesus sawe her, he called her to him, and sayd vnto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thy disease.

13 And he layde his handes on her, and immediately she was made strayght, and glorifyed God.

14 And the ruler of the Synagogue answeared with indignation, because that Iesus had healed on the Sabboth day, and sayde vnto the people, There are sixe dayes in which men ought to woorke: in them therfore come, that ye may be healed, and not on the Sabboth day.

15 But the Lord answeared hym, and sayd, Thou hypocrite, dooth not eche one of you on the Sabboth day loose his ore or his asse from the staule, and leade hym to the water?

16 And ought not this daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bounde loe eyghteene yeeres, be loosed from this bonde on the Sabboth day?

17 And when he sayd these thynges, all his aduersaries were ashamed: and all the people reioyced for all the excellent deedes that were doone by hym.

18 * Then sayde Iesus, What is the kyngdome of God lyke? or whereto shal I compare it? *Mat.13.31. Mark.4.31.

19 * It is lyke a grayne of mustard seede, which a man tooke, and sowed in his garden, and it grewe, and waxed a great tree: and the foules of the ayre made nestes in the branches of it. *Mat.13.33

20 * And agayne he sayde, Wherevnto shall I lyken the kingdome of God? *Mat.9.35.

21 It is lyke leauen, whiche a woman tooke and hyd in three peckes of meale, tyl al was leauened.

22 * And he went through all townes and villages, teaching, & iourneying towardes Hierusa- *Mark.6.6.

Hierusalem.

23 Then sayde one vnto him, Loꝛde, are there fewe that be sauedꝰ and he sayde vnto them,

*Mat.7.13. e. We must endeuour to cut of al impediments that let vs.

24 *Striue e to enter in at the straite gate: foꝛ many, I say vnto you, wyll seeke to enter in, and shal not be able.

25 When the good man of the house is ryssen vp, and hath shut to the dooꝛe, and ye begyn to stand without, and to knocke at the dooꝛe, saying, Loꝛd, Loꝛd, open vnto vs, and he shal answere, and say vnto you, I knowe you not whence you are:

26 Then shal ye begyn to say, We haue eaten and dꝛunken in thy pꝛesence, and thou hast taught in our streetes.

*Mat.7.13. 27 *And he shal say, I tel you, I knowe you not whence ye are, depart from me all ye that wooꝛke iniquitie.

28 There shalbe weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shal see Abꝛaham, and Isahac, and Iacob, and all the pꝛophetes in the kingdome of God, and ye your selues thꝛust out:

d. The Gentiles whiche then were strangers.

29 And they d shal come from the East, and from the West, and from the Noꝛth, and from the South, and shal syt downe in the kingdome of God.

*Mar.10.30 e. That is, the Gentiles, which beleeue the Gospel, that were called after the Iewes. f. The Iewes, which though they had the lawe, yet refusyng the Gospel, are thꝛust out.

30 *And beholde, there are last, whiche shalbe e first, and there are first, which shalbe f last.

31 The same day came there certayne of the Pharisees, sayeing vnto hym, Geat thee out, and depart hence, foꝛ Herode wyll kyll thee.

32 And he sayde vnto them, Goe ye and tel that foxe, beholde, I cast out deuils, and I doo cures to day and to moꝛowe, and the thirde day I shalbe perfected.

33 Neuertheless, I must walke to day and to moꝛowe, and the day folowing, foꝛ it can not be that a pꝛophete perishe out of Hierusalem.

*Mat.23.37 34 *O Hierusalem, Hierusalem, which killest pꝛophetes, and stonest them that are sent vnto thee, howe often woulde I haue geathered thy chyldꝛen togeather, as a henne doth geather her young vnder her wynges, and ye woulde not?

g. That is, the temple and Hierusalem shoulde be destroyed.

35 Beholde, your g house is leaft vnto you desolate. Verely I say vnto you, ye shal not see me, vntyl the tyme come that ye shal say, Blessed is he that commeth into the name of the Loꝛde.

¶ Th. xiiii. Chapter.

11. To feast the poore. 16. Of the great supper. 34. The salt of the earth

1 AND it came to passe, as he went in to the house of one of the chiefe Pharisees to eate bꝛead on the Sabboth day, they were watching him. The Gospel on the .xvii. Sunday after Trinitie.

2 And beholde, there was a certayne man befoꝛe hym which had the dꝛopsie.

3 And Iesus answearing, spake vnto the Lawyers and Pharisees, saying, Is it laweful to heale on the Sabboth day?

4 And they helde their peace. And he tooke him, and healed him, and let hym goe,

5 And answeared them, saying, Whiche of you shal haue an asse oꝛ an oxe fallen into a pyt, and wyll not strayght way pull him out on the Sabboth day?

6 And they could not answeare him againe to these thynges.

7 He put fooꝛth also a similitude to the ghestes, when he marked howe they chose out the cheefe roomes, saying vnto them,

8 When thou art bydden of any man to a wedding, syt not downe in the hyghest roome: lest a moꝛe honourable man then thou be bydden of hym,

9 And he that bade thee and hym come, and say to thee, Geue this man roome: and thou then beginne with shame to take the lowest roome.

10 *But when thou art bydden, goe and sit in the lowest roome, that when he that bad thee commeth, he maye saye vnto thee, Freende, syt vp hier: then shalt thou haue wooꝛshyp in the pꝛesence of them that syt at meate with thee. *Pꝛou.25.7

11 *Foꝛ who so euer exalteth hym selfe, shal be bꝛought lowe: and he that humbleth him selfe, shalbe exalted. *Mat.23.12 Luke.18.14.

12 Then sayd he also to hym that bade him to meate, *When thou makest a dynner oꝛ a supper, call not thy fꝛeendes, noꝛ thy bꝛethꝛen, neyther thy kinsmen, noꝛ thy ryche neyghbours: lest they also byd thee againe, and a recompence be made thee. *Tobi.4.7. Pꝛou.3.9.

13 But when thou makest a feast, call the pooꝛe, the mayned, the lame, and the blind, 14 And thou shalt be happy, foꝛ they can not recompence thee: Foꝛ thou shalt be recompenced at the resurrection of the iust men.

15 When one of them that sate at meate also hearde these thynges, he sayde vnto hym, *Happy is he that shall eate bꝛead in the kingdome of God. *Mat.22.2 Apoc.19.9.

16 Then sayd he vnto hym, A certaine man oꝛdeyned a great supper, and bade many: The Gospel on the .xi. Sunday after Trinitie.

17 And sent his seruant at supper tyme, to say to them that were bydden, Come, foꝛ al thynges are nowe redy.

18 And they al at once began to make excuse: The first sayde vnto him, I haue bought a peece of ground, and I must needes goe and ſee it: I pray thee haue me excuſed.

19 And an other ſayde, I haue bought fyue yoke of Oxen, and I goe to proue them: I pray thee haue me excuſed.
20 And an other ſayde, I haue married a wyfe: and therefore I can not come.
21 And the ſeruaunt returned, and ſhewed his maiſter theſe thynges. Then the good man of the houſe being angry, ſayde to his ſeruaunt, Goe out quickly into the broade ſtreetes and lanes of the citie, and bring in hyther the poore, and the maymed, and the halte, and the blind.
22 And the ſeruaunt ſayde, Lord, it is done as thou haſt commaunded, and yet there is roome.
23 And the Lorde ſayde vnto the ſeruaunt, Goe out into the hygh wayes and hedges, and a compell them to come in, that my houſe may be filled.
a, By the power of Gods word preached 24 For I ſay vnto you, that none of thoſe men which were bidden, ſhall taſte of my ſupper.
25 There went a great company with him: and he returned, and ſayde vnto them,
26 *If any man come to me, and hate b not his father and mother, and wyfe, and chyldren, and brethren, and ſiſters, yea and his owne lyfe alſo, he can not be my diſciple.
*Mat.10.37 Luke.9.23.
b, We muſt caſt away all affection and deſire that draweth vs from Chriſte.
27 *And who ſo euer doeth not beare his croſſe, and come after me, can not be my diſciple.
*Mat.10.38 Mark.8.24.
28 For whiche of you diſpoſed to builde a towre, ſitteth not downe before, and counteth the coſte, whether he haue ſufficient to perfourme it?
29 Leſt at any tyme after he hath layde the fundation, and is not able to perfourme it, al that beholde it, begyn to mocke hym, 30 Saying, This man began to build, and was not able to make an end.
31 Or what kyng going to make battayle againſt an other king, ſitteth not downe firſt, and calleth in his mind whether he be able with tenne thouſande, to meete hym that commeth againſt him with twentie thouſand?
32 Or els, whyle the other is yet a greate way of, he ſendeth an embaſſage, and deſyreth conditions of peace.
33 So likewyſe, who ſo euer he be of you, that forſaketh not all that he hath, he can not be my diſciple.
*Mat.5.13. Mark.9.50
34 *Salt is good, but yf the ſalt haue loſt the ſaltneſſe: wherein ſhal it be ſeaſoned?
35 It is neyther good for the lande, nor yet for the dounghill: but men caſt it out at the doores. He that hath eares to heare, let hym heare.

¶ The.xv.Chapter.

The great mercie of God is ſet foorth in the parable of the loſt ſheepe.

1 THen reſorted vnto hym all the Publicanes and ſinners, for to heare hym. The Goſpel on the.iii.ſunday after Trinitie.
2 And the Phariſees and Scribes murmured, ſaying, He receiueth ſinners, and eateth with them.
3 But he put forth this parable vnto them, ſaying,
4 *What man of you, hauing an hundred ſheepe, yf he looſe one of them, doeth not leaue nienetie and niene in the wyldernes, and goe after that whiche is loſt, vntyll he fynde it? *Mat.18.12
5 And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his ſhoulders, reioycing:
6 And when he commeth home, he calleth togeather his freendes and neyghbours, ſaying vnto them, Reioyce with me: for I haue found my ſheepe whiche was loſt.
7 I ſay vnto you, that likewyſe ioy ſhalbe in heauen ouer one ſinner that repenteth, more then ouer nientie and niene iuſt perſons, which neede no repentance.
8 Eyther what woman hauyng a tenne peces of ſiluer, yf ſhe looſe one peece, doeth not lyght a candle, and ſweepe the houſe, and ſeeke diligently tyll ſhe finde it? a. One peece of this money, is ſomewhat more then fiue pence of olde ſterling money.
9 And when ſhe hath found it, ſhe calleth her freends and her neyghbours togeather, ſaying, Reioyce with me, for I haue founde the peece which I had loſt.
10 Likewyſe I ſay vnto you, there is ioy in the preſence of the angels of God ouer one ſinner that repenteth.
11 And he ſayde, A certayne man had two ſonnes:
12 And the younger of them ſayde to his father, Father, geue me the portion of the ſubſtance that to me belongeth. And he diuided vnto them his liuyng.
13 And not many dayes after, when ỹ younger ſonne had geathered all that he had togeather, he tooke his iourney into a farre countrey, and there waſted his ſubſtaunce with riotous liuyng.
14 And when he had ſpent all, there aroſe a great dearth in that lande, and he began to lacke.
15 And going, he ioyned hym ſelfe to a citizen of that countrey: and he ſent him into his feeldes to feede ſwyne.
16 And he would fayne haue filled his belly with the coddes that the ſwyne dyd eate: and no man gaue vnto hym.
17 And when he came to hym ſelfe, he ſayd, Howe many hyred ſeruantes of my fathers haue bread yenough and ſpare, and I periſh with with hunger?

18 I wyll aryse, and goe to my father, and wyll say vnto hym, Father, I haue sinned agaynst heauen, and before thee,
19 And am no more worthy to be called thy sonne: make me as one of thy hyred seruauntes.
20 And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way of, his father saw him, & had compassion, and ran, and fel on his necke, and all to kissed hym.
21 And the sonne sayde vnto hym, Father, I haue sinned agaynst heauen, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy sonne.
22 But the father sayde to his seruauntes, Bring foorth the best garment, and put it on hym, and put a ryng on his hand, and shooes on his feete.
23 And bryng hyther that fat Calfe, and kyll it, and let vs eate, and be merie.
24 For this my sonne was dead, and is aliue agayne: he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merie.
25 The elder brother was in the feeld: and when he came and drue nygh to the house, he heard minstrelsie, and daunsing, 26 And called one of his seruantes, and asked what those thinges meant.
27 And he sayde vnto hym, Thy brother is come, and thy father hath kylled the fatte Calfe, because he hath receiued hym safe and sound.
28 And he was angry, and would not goe in: therefore came his father out, and intreated him.
29 He answearing, sayd to his father, Loe, these many yeeres doo I serue thee, neyther brake I at any time thy commaundement, and yet thou neuer gauest me a Kyd, that I might make meery with my frendes:
30 But as soone as this thy sonne was come, whiche hath deuoured thy liuing with harlottes, thou hast for his pleasure kylled that fat Calfe.
31 And he sayde vnto hym, Sonne, thou art euer with me, and all that I haue is thyne.
32 It was meete that we should make meerie, and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is aliue againe: and was lost, and is found.

¶ The xvi Chapter.

13. No man can serue two maisters. 19. The riche glutton, and Lazarus.

The Gospell on the ix sunday after Trinitie.

1 AND he sayde vnto his disciples, There was a certayne riche man whiche had a Steward, and the same was accused vnto hym that he had wasted his goodes.
2 And when he had called hym, he sayde vnto hym, How is it that I heare this of thee? Geue accomptes of thy Stewardship: for thou mayest be no longer Steward.
3 The Steward sayde within hym selfe, What shall I doo, for my maister taketh away from me the Stewardship? I can not digge, and to begge I am ashamed.
4 I wote what to doo, that when I am put out of the Stewardship, they may receiue me into their houses.
5 So when he had called all his maisters detters togeather, he sayde vnto the fyrst, Howe much owest thou vnto my maister?
6 And he sayde, An hundred measures of oyle. And he sayd vnto hym, Take thy byl, and sit downe quickly, and wryte fyftie.
7 Then sayde he to another, Howe muche owest thou? And he sayd, An hundred measures of wheate. He sayde vnto hym, Take thy byll, and wryte fourescore.
8 And the Lorde commended a the vniust Steward, because he had done wyselye: for the chyldren of this world, are in their generation wyser then the chyldren of lyght.
9 And I say vnto you, Make you b frendes of the vnrighteous c Mammon, that when ye shall haue neede, they may receiue you into the euerlastyng d habitations.
10 He that is faithful in that which is least, is faythful also in much: and he that is vnrighteous in the least, is vnrighteous also in much.
11 So then, yf ye haue not been faythfull in the vnrighteous Mammon, who shall trust you in the true treasure?
12 And yf ye haue not been faythfull in that which is an other mans, who shal geue you that which is your owne?
13 No seruant can serue two maisters, for eyther he shall hate the one, and loue the other: or els he shall leane to the one, and despise the other: ye can not serue God and Mammon.
14 All these thinges heard the Pharisees also whiche were couetous: and they mocked hym greatly.
15 And he sayde vnto them, Ye are they which iustifie your selues before men, but God knoweth your hartes: for that which is hyghly esteemed among men, is abomination in the sight of God.
16 * The lawe and the prophetes raigned vntyll Iohn, and since that tyme the glad tydings of the kingdome of God is preached, and euery man striueth to goe in.
17 * Easier it is for heauen and earth to passe away, then one tytle of the lawe to fayle.

a. He speaketh after the common sort, not that such vntrueth is prayse worthy, but because it is thought wysedome in the eyes of the worlde.
b. Lay vp your treasure in heauen.
c. Not that riches are euyll of them selues, but that for the most part they be occasions of euyll.
d. God for their cause shall receiue you into lyfe euerlasting, and reward your good doynges, not for the woorthynesse thereof, but for his promise sake.

*Mat.5.31. 1.Cor.7.11.

The Gospel on the first Sunday after Trinitie.

19 There was a certayne riche man, which was clothed in purple and fine white, and fared very delitiously euery day.

20 And there was a certaine begger named Lazarus, whiche was layde at his gate full of sores:

21 And desyring to be refreshed with the crumbes whiche fell from the riche mans boorde, And no man gaue vnto him: but the dogges came and licked his sores.

22 And it came to passe that the begger dyed, and was carryed by the angels into c Abrahams bosome: The rich man also died, and was buryed.

c. The kingdome of heauen.

23 And beyng in hel in tormentes, when he had lyfted vp his eyes, he seeth Abraham a farre of, and Lazarus in his bosome:

24 And he cryed, and sayd, Father Abraham haue mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dippe the tippe of his fynger in water, and coole my tongue, for I am tormented in this flame.

25 But Abraham sayde, Sonne, remember that thou in thy lyfe tyme receiuedst thy pleasure, and likewise Lazarus paynes, but now is he comforted, & thou art tormented.

26 Besides all this, betweene vs and you there is a great gulfe stedfastly set, so that they whiche woulde goe from hence to you, can not, neither haue they passage to vs that woulde come from thence.

27 Then he sayde, I pray thee therefore father, that thou wouldest sende him to my fathers house:

28 For I haue fyue brethren, that he may witnesse vnto them, lest they also come into this place of torment.

29 Abraham sayth vnto hym, They haue Moses and the prophetes, let them heare them.

30 And he sayd, Nay father Abraham: but if one come vnto them from the dead, they wyl repent.

f. We must seeke for trueth in Gods woord, and not of the dead.

31 He sayd vnto him, If they heare not Moses and the prophetes, f neyther wyll they beleeue though one rose from death.

*Mat.17.26

7 But which of you, hauing a seruant plowyng, or feedyng cattel, wyll say vnto him by and by when he were come from the field, Goe and syt downe at the table?

8 And wyl not rather say vnto hym, Dresse wherewith I may suppe, and gyrde vp thee selfe, and serue me, tyll I haue eaten and dronken: and afterwarde thou shalt eate and drinke.

9 Doeth he thanke that seruant because he dyd the thynges that were commaunded vnto him? I trowe not.

10 So likewyse ye, when ye shal haue doone all those thinges whiche are commaunded you, say, We are vnprofitable seruantes: we haue done that which was our duetie to do.

11 And so it was, as he went to Hierusalem, that he passed through the middes of Samaria and Galilee.

The Gospel on the.xviii Sunday after Trinitie.

12 And as he entred into a certayne village, there met hym tenne men that were lepers, which stoode a farre of,

13 And they put forth their voyces, and sayd, Jesu maister, haue mercy on vs.

14 When he sawe them, he sayd vnto them, * Goe shewe your selues vnto the c priestes. And it came to passe, that as they went, they were cleansed.

¶ The xviii. Chapter.

Christ teacheth to continue in prayer. 5. He foresheweth his death.

AND hee put foorth a parable vnto them, to this ende that men ought * alwayes to pray, and not to be a wery:

2 Saying, There was in a certaine citie a certayne Judge, whiche feared not God, neither regarded man.

3 And there was a certayne wydowe in the same citie, and shee came vnto him, saying, Auenge " me of myne aduersarie:

4 And he would not for a whyle. But afterward he sayd within him selfe, Though I feare not God, nor care for man, 5 Yet because this wydowe muche troubleth me, I will auenge her, least shee come at the last, and make me weery.

6 And the Lorde sayde, Heare what the vnryghteous Judge sayth.

7 And shal not God auenge his elect, which crye day and nyght vnto hym, yea, though b he deferre them?

8 I tel you that he wyll auenge them, and that quickely. Neuertheless, when the sonne of man commeth, shal he fynde fayth on the earth?

9 And he tolde this parable vnto certayne which trusted in them selues that they were righteous, and dispised other:

10 Two menne went vp into the temple to pray, the one a Pharisee, and the other a Publicane.

11 The Pharisee stoode and prayed thus with hym selfe, God I thanke thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, vniust, adulterers, or as this publicane.

12 I fast twise in the weeke, I geue tithe of all that I possesse.

13 And the Publicane standing a farre of, wouldе not lyft vp his eyes to heauen: but smote vpon his brest, saying, God be mercyful vnto me a sinner.

14 I tel you, this man departed home to his house iustified rather then the other: * For euery one that exalteth hym selfe, shalbe brought lowe: and he that humbleth hym selfe, shalbe exalted.

15 They brought vnto hym also c infantes, that he shoulde touche them: when his disciples sawe, they rebuked them.

16 But Jesus, when he had called them d vnto hym, sayde, Suffer litle children to come vnto me, and forbid them not: for vnto suche e belongeth the kingdome of God.

17 Verily I say vnto you, Who so euer shal not receyue the kingdome of God as a f lytle chylde, shal in no wyse enter therein.

18 And a certayne ruler asked him, saying, Good maister, what ought I to doo to possesse eternal lyfe?

19 * Jesus sayd vnto him, Why callest thou me good? None is good, saue God onely.

22 When Jesus heard that, he sayde vnto hym, Yet lackest thou one thyng: Sell all that thou hast, and distribute vnto ỹ poore, and thou shalt haue treasure in heauen, and come, folowe me.

23 When he heard this, he was very sory: for he was very riche.

24 When Jesus sawe that he was very sory, he saide, How hardly shal they that haue money, enter into the kyngdome of God?

25 For it is easier for a Camell to goe thorowe a needles eye, then for a riche man to enter into the kyngdome of God.

26 And they that heard it, saide, And who then can be saued?

35 * And it came to passe, that as he was come nigh vnto Jericho, a certayne blinde man sate by the wayes side, begging.

36 And when he heard the people passe by, he asked what it meant.

37 And they saide vnto him, that Jesus of Nazareth passeth by.

38 And he cryed, saying, Jesu thou sonne of Dauid, haue mercie on me.

39 And they whiche went before, rebuked him, that he should holde his peace: but he cryed so muche the more, Thou sonne of Dauid, haue mercie on me.

40 And Jesus staying, commaunded hym to be brought vnto hym: and when he was come neare, he asked hym, 41 Saying, What wylt thou that I shall doo vnto thee? And he sayde, Lord, that I may receiue my sight.

42 And Jesus sayde vnto hym, Receiue thy sight, thy fayth hath saued thee.

43 And immediatly he receiued his sight, and folowed hym, glorifying God: and all the people when they sawe it, gaue prayse vnto God.

3 And he sought meanes to see Jesus what he should be, and couldе not for the preasse, because he was litle of stature.

4 And he ranne before, and clymed vp into a wylde figge tree, to see hym: for he was to come that way.

5 And when Jesus came to the place, he looked vp, and sawe hym, and sayde vnto him, Zache, come downe at once: for to day I must abide at thy house.

6 And he came downe hastily, and receiued hym ioyfully.

7 And when they all sawe it, they murmured, saying that he was gone in to tarry with a man that is a sinner.

8 And Zache stoode foorth, and sayde vnto the Lorde, Beholde Lorde, the halfe of my goodes I geue to the poore, and yf I haue taken from any man by forged " cauilation, I restore hym foure folde.

9 Jesus sayde vnto hym, This day is saluation come to a this house: because that he is also the chylde of b Abraham.

10 * For the sonne of man is come to seeke, and to saue that which was lost.

11 And as they heard these thinges, he added, and spake a parable, because he was nygh to Hierusalem, and because they thought that the kyngdome of God shoulde shortly appeare.

12 * He sayd therfore, a certayne noble man went into a farre countrey, to receiue for hym selfe a kyngdome, and to come againe.

16 Then came the fyrst, saying, Lorde, thy peece hath gayned ten peeces.

17 And he sayde vnto hym, Well thou good seruaunt: because thou hast been faythfull in a very litle thyng, haue thou auctoritie ouer ten cities.

18 And the seconde came, saying, Lorde, thy peece hath encreased fyue peeces.

19 And to the same he sayde, Be thou also ruler ouer fiue cities.

20 And another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy peece, whiche I haue layd vp in a napkyn:

21 For I feared thee, because thou art a strayte man: thou takest vp that thou laydest not downe, and reapest that thou dydest not sowe.

22 Then he sayth vnto hym, Of thyne owne mouth wyl I iudge thee, thou euil seruaunt: Knewest thou that I am a strayte man, takyng vp that I layde not downe, and reaping that I dyd not sowe:

23 And wherefore gauest not thou my money into the banke, and at my comming I myght haue requyred myne owne with vantage?

24 And he sayde vnto them that stoode by, Take from hym that peece, and geue it to hym that hath ten peeces.

25 And they sayde vnto hym, Lorde, he hath ten peeces.

26 For I say vnto you, *that vnto euery one which hath, shalbe geuen: and from hym that hath not, shalbe taken away euen that he hath. *Mat.13.12. and.25.39. Mark.4.25. Luke.8.18.

31 And yf any man aske you, Why doo ye loose hym? Thus shall ye say vnto hym, Because the Lorde hath neede of hym.

32 They that were sent, went their way, and founde euen as he hadde sayde vnto them.

33 And as they were a loosing the Colt, the owners thereof sayd vnto them, Why loose ye the Colte?

34 And they sayd, For the Lorde hath neede of hym.

35 *And they brought hym to Iesus: and their garmentes being cast on the Colte, they set Iesus thereon. *Mat.21.7. Iohn.12.14

36 And as he went, they spread their clothes in the way.

37 And when he was nowe come nygh to the going downe of the mount Oliuete, the whole multitude of the disciples began reioycing to prayse God with a loude voyce, for all the myracles that they had seene, 38 Saying, Blessed be the kyng that commeth in ỹ name of the Lord, peace in e heauen, and glory in the hyghest.

*Mat.21.23 Mar.11.27.

1 AND * it came to passe, that on one of those dayes, as he taught the people in the temple, and preached the Gospel, the hygh Priestes and the Scribes came vpon hym, with the elders,

2 And spake vnto hym, saying, Tel vs, by what auctoritie doest thou these thynges? Eyther who is he that gaue thee this auctoritie?

3 He answearyng, sayde vnto them, I wyll also aske you one wooꝛd, and answeare me.

4 The baptisme of a John, was it from heauen, oꝛ of men?

a That is, the whole ministerie of Iohn.

5 And they reasoned with them selues, saying, Yf we shal say from heauen, he wil say, Why then beleeued ye hym not?

6 But and yf we say of men, al the people wyll stone vs: Foꝛ they be perswaded that Iohn is a Prophete.

7 And they answeared, that they coulde not tel whence it was.

8 And Iesus sayde vnto them, Neyther tell I you by what auctoꝛitie I doo these thynges.

9 Then began he to put fooꝛth to the people this parable. * A certayne man planted a Vineyard, and let it fooꝛth to husbandmen, and went hym selfe into a strange countrey foꝛ a great season.

*Esai. 5.1. Ier.2.21. Mat.21.33 Mark.12.1.

11 And againe, he sent yet another seruaunt: but they, when they had beaten him also, and entreated him shamefully, sent him away emptie.

12 Agayne, he sent the thirde, and when they had wounded him also, they cast him out.

13 Then sayde the Loꝛde of the Vineyarde, What shal I doo? I wyll sende my deare sonne: it may be they wyl reuerence hym when they see hym.

14 But when the husbandmen sawe hym, they reasoned within them selues, saying, This is the heyre, come, let vs kyll hym, that the inheritaunce may be ours.

15 And when they had cast him out of the Vineyarde, they kylled hym. What then shal the Loꝛde of the Vineyarde doo vnto them?

16 He shal come and destroy these husbandmen, and shal let out his Vineyard to other. When they heard this, they sayde, God foꝛbyd.

d. For the ſonne is not Lord ouer his father, & therfore it foloweth that Chriſt is God.

45 Then in the audience of al the people, he ſayde vnto his diſciples.

*Mat.23.6. Mar.12.38. 46 * Beware of the Scribes, whiche wyll goe in long robes, and loue greetynges in the markettes, and the hyghest ſeates in the Synagogues, & the cheefe roomes at feaſtes, 47 Whiche deuour wyddowes houſes, vnder colour of long prayers: the ſame ſhall receyue greater damnation.

¶ The.xxi.Chapter.

2. The liberalitie of the poore vvyddovve. 27. Of the ende of the vvorlde.

*Mar.12.41 1 AS he looked vp, * he ſaw the rich men, which caſt their giftes into ỳ treaſurie.

2 He ſawe alſo a certayne poore wyddowe, caſting in thyther two mites.

3 And he ſayde, Of a trueth I ſay vnto you, that this poore wyddowe hath put in more then they al.

4 For al theſe haue of their ſuperfluitie caſt in vnto the offeringes of God, but ſhe of her penurie hath caſt in all the lyuyng that ſhe had.

*Mat.24.1. Mark.13.1. Luk.19.43. 5 * And vnto ſome that ſpake of the temple, howe it was garnyſhed with goodly ſtones and gyftes, he ſayde, 6 As for thoſe thynges whiche ye behold, the dayes wyl come, in the which there ſhal not be left one ſtone vpon another, that ſhall not be throwen downe.

7 And they aſked hym, ſaying, Maiſter, when ſhal theſe thyngs be? and what ſigne wyl there be, when theſe thynges ſhal come to paſſe?

8 And he ſayde, Take heede that ye be not deceyued: for many ſhal come in my name, ſaying, I am Chriſte, and the tyme draweth neare: goe ye not therefore after them.

9 But when ye ſhal heare of warres and ſeditions, be not afrayde: for theſe thynges muſt firſte come to paſſe, but the ende foloweth not by and by.

10 Then ſayde he vnto them, Nation ſhall ryſe agaynſt nation, and kyngdome agaynſt kyngdome:

*Mat.24.8. Mark.13.9. 11 * And great earthquakes ſhalbe in dyuers places, and hungers, and peſtilences, and fearful thynges: and great ſignes ſhal there be from heauen.

12 But before all theſe, they ſhall laye their handes on you, and perſecute you, delyueryng you vp to the Synagogues, and into priſons, and ſhall bryng you vnto kynges, and rulers, for my names ſake.

13 And it ſhal turne to you for a teſtimonial.

*Luk.12.12. Mat.10.19. Mar.13.11. 14 * Be at a ſure poynt therefore in your hartes, not to ſtudie before what ye ſhall anſweare.

15 For I wyll geue you a mouth and wyſedome, whereagaynſt al your aduerſaries ſhal not be able to ſpeake, nor reſiſt.

16 Yea, ye ſhalbe betrayed alſo of your parentes, and brethren, and kynſfolke, and freendes, and ſome of you ſhall they put to death, 17 And hated ſhal ye be of all men for my names ſake.

*Mat.10.30 18 * And there ſhall in no caſe one heare of your head perysshe.

a. Thoſe poſſeſſe their ſoules in patience, vnto whom God geueth a ioyful mynde vnder ỳ croſſe, euen vnto the ende.

19 Poſſeſſe ye your ſoules by your a patience.

*Mat.24.15 20 * And when ye ſhal ſee Hieruſalem beſieged with an hoſt, then be ſure that the deſolation of the ſame is nygh.

21 Then let them whiche are in Iurie, flee to the mountaines, & let them which are in the myddes of it, depart out, & let not them that are in other countreyes, enter therin.

22 For theſe be the dayes of vengeance, that all thynges whiche are wrytten may be fulfylled.

23 But woe vnto them that are with child, and to them that gene ſucke in thoſe dayes, for there ſhalbe great diſtreſſe in the lande, and wrath ouer this people.

24 And they ſhal fal through the edge of the ſworde, and ſhalbe led away captiue into al nations, and Hieruſalem ſhalbe troden downe of the Gentiles, vntyll the tyme of the Gentiles be fulfylled.

29 And he shewed them a similitude, Beholde the figge tree, and al the trees, 30 When they shoote foorth their buddes, ye beholding, knowe of your owne selues that Sommer is then nigh at hande.
31 So likewise ye, when ye see these thinges come to passe, be ye sure that the kingdome of God is nigh.
32 Uerily I say vnto you, this generation shal in no wyse passe, tyl al be fulfylled.
33 Heauen and earth shal passe, but my woordes shal in no wise passe.
34 Take heede to your selues, least at any tyme your hartes be ouercome with surfetyng, and drunkennesse, and cares of this lyfe, and so that day come vppon you vnawares.
35 For as a snare shal it come on all them that dwel on the face of the whole earth.
36 Watche ye therefore, at al tymes praying, that ye may be accompted woorthie to escape all these thynges that shal come, and that ye may stande before the sonne of man.
37 In the day tyme he was teaching in the temple, and at night he went out, and abode in the mount that is called Oliuet.
38 And al the people came early in the morning to him in the temple, for to heare him.

¶ The xxii. Chapter.

4. Iudas selleth Christe. 7. They eate the Passeouer.

The Gospel on wednesday next before Easter.
1 THE feast of sweete bread drue nygh, which is called the Passeouer.
2 And the high Priestes and Scribes sought howe they might kyl hym, for they feared the people.
*Mat.26.14 Mar.14.10.
3 *Then entred Satan into Iudas, whose surname was Iscariot, being of the number of the twelue.
*Mat.26.17 Mark.14.13
4 *And he went his way, and communed with the high priestes and captaynes, howe he might betray him vnto them.
5 And they were glad, and promised to geue him money.
6 And he consented, and sought opportunitie to betray hym vnto them without tumult.
*Mat.26.17 Mark.14.12.
7 *Then came the day of sweete bread, when of necessitie the Passeouer must be kylled.
8 And he sent Peter and Iohn, saying, Goe and prepare vs the Passeouer, that we may eate.
9 They sayde vnto hym, Where wylt thou that we shoulde prepare it?
10 And he sayde vnto them, Beholde, when ye are entred into the citie, there shal a man meete you, bearing a pitcher of water, him folowe into the same house that he entreth in.
11 And ye shal say vnto the good man of the house, The maister saith vnto thee, Where is the ghest chamber, where I shal eate the Passeouer with my disciples?
12 And he shal shewe you a great vpper chamber prepared, there make redy.
13 And they went, and founde as he had sayde vnto them, and they made redy the Passeouer.
14 *And when the houre was come, he sate downe, and the twelue apostles with hym. *Math.26. 20.
15 And he sayde vnto them, With hartie desyre, I haue desyred to eate this Passeouer with you before that I suffer. Mark.14.18
16 For I say vnto you, Hencefoorth I wyl not in any wyse eate of it any more, vntyl it be fulfylled in the kyngdome of God.
17 And when he had taken the cup, and geuen thankes, he sayde, Take this, and diuide it among you.
18 For I say vnto you, I wyl not in any wise drinke of the fruite of the vine, vntyll the kyngdome of God shal come.
19 *And when he had taken bread, and geuen thankes, he brake it, and gaue vnto them, saying, This is my body whiche is geuen for you, this doo in the remembrance of me. *Math. 26. 20. Mar.14.22. 1.Cor.11.24
20 Likewise also when he had supped, he tooke the cup, saying, This cup is the newe Testament in my blood, whiche is shed for you.
21 *Yet beholde the hande of hym that betrayeth me, is with me on the table. *Mat.26.21 Mar.14.19.
22 And truely the sonne of man goeth as it is appointed, but woe vnto that man by whom he is betrayed. Iohn.13.18. Psal.40.11.
23 And they began to enquire among them selues, which of them it was that shoulde doo this thing.
24 *And there was a strife among them, which of them should seeme to be the greatest. *Mat.20.25 Mar.10.42
25 *And he sayde vnto them, The kynges of nations be Lordes ouer them, and they that haue authoritie vpon them, are called benefactours. *Math. 20. 25. Mar.14.42
26 But ye shal not be so: but he that is greatest among you, shalbe as the younger, and he that is cheefe, shalbe as he that doeth ministre.

The Gospel on saint Bartholomewes day.

27 For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meate, or he that serueth? Is not he that sitteth at meate? But I am among you as he that ministreth.

28 Ye are they which haue continually bidden with me in my temptations.

29 And I appoynt vnto you a kyngdome, as my father hath appoynted vnto me, 30 That ye may eate and drynke at my table in my kyngdome, * and sit on seates, iudging the twelue tribes of Israel.

*Mat.19.28

*1.Pet.5.8. 31 *And the Lorde sayde, Simon, Simon, beholde, Satan hath earnestly desyred to sift you, as it were wheate:

32 But I haue prayed for thee, that thy fayth shoulde not fayle, and when thou art conuerted, strength thy brethren.

33 And he sayde vnto hym, Lorde, I am redy to goe with thee both into prysон, and to death.

*Math.26.34. Mar.14.30. John.13.38. 34 *And he sayde, I tel thee Peter, the Cocke shal in no wyse crowe this day, before that thou shalt thryse denie that thou knowest me.

*Mat.10.9. 35 *And he sayde vnto them, When I sent you without wallet, and scrip, & shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they sayde, No.

36 Then sayde he vnto them, But nowe he that hath a wallet, let him take it vp, and lykewise his scrip: and he that hath none, let him sel his coate, and buy a swoorde.

37 For I say vnto you, that yet the same whiche is written must be perfourmed in me, whiche is, *Euen among the wicked was he reputed: For those thinges whiche are written of me, haue an ende.

*Esai.53.12

38 And they sayde, Lorde, beholde here are two swoordes. And he sayde vnto them, It is yenough.

*Mat.26.36 Mar.14.32. 39 *And he came out, and went as he was wont to mount Oliuet, and his disciples folowed hym.

*Mat.26.41 Mar.14.38. 40 *And when he came to the place, he sayd vnto them, Pray, lest ye fal into temptation.

41 And he was pulled away from them about a stones cast, and kneeled downe, and prayed, 42 Saying, Father, if thou wylt, remoue this cup from me, neuertheless, not my wyl, but thine be done.

43 And there appeared an angel vnto hym from heauen, comforting him.

a. He felt the horrour of Gods wrath & iudgement agaynst sinne.

44 And he was in an a agonie, and he prayed more earnestly, and his sweate was like droppes of blood, trickling downe to the grounde.

45 And when he rose vp from prayer, and was come to his disciples, he founde them sleeping for heauinesse, 46 And sayde vnto them, Why sleepe ye? Ryse, and pray, lest ye fal into temptation.

47 While he yet spake, beholde, *there came a companie, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelue, went before them, and preassed nigh vnto Jesus, to kysse hym.

*Math. 26. 47. Mar.14.43. John.18.3.

48 But Jesus sayde vnto him, Judas, betrayest thou the sonne of man with a kysse?

49 When they which were about him, sawe what woulde folowe, they sayde vnto him, Lorde, shal we smite with swoorde.

50 And one of them smote the seruaunt of the high priest, and tooke away his right eare.

51 Jesus answeared, and sayde, Suffer ye thus farre forth. And when he touched his eare, he healed hym.

52 Then Jesus sayd vnto the high priestes and "rulers of the temple, and the elders which were come to him, Be ye come out as vnto a theefe, with swoordes and staues?

53 When I was dayly with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no handes agaynst me: But this is euen your very houre, and the power of darkenesse.

54 *Then tooke they him, and led him, and brought hym to the high priestes house, and Peter folowed a farre of.

*Math. 26. 57. Mar.14.53. John.18.24

55 *And when they had kindled a fyre in the middes of the hall, and were set downe together, Peter also sate downe among them.

*Math.26. 69. Mar.14.66

56 But when a certayne wenche beheld hym as he sate by the fyre, & earnestly looked vpon him, she sayde, This same felowe was also with hym.

John.18.26

57 And he denied hym, saying, Woman, I knowe him not.

58 And after a while another sawe him, and sayde, Thou art also of them: And Peter sayde, Man, I am not.

59 And about the space of an houre after, another affirmed, saying, Verily this felowe was with hym also: for he is of Galilee.

60 And Peter sayde, Man, I wote not what thou sayest. And immediatly whyle he yet spake, the Cocke crewe.

61 And the Lorde turned backe, and looked vpon Peter: and Peter remembred the woorde of the Lorde, howe he had sayd vnto him, *Before the Cocke crowe, thou shalt denie me thryse.

*Math.26. 34. John.30.31.

62 And Peter went out, and weapt bitterly.

63 And the men that helde Jesus, mocked him, and smote him.

64 And

64 And when they had blyndfolded hym, they stroke him on the face, and asked hym, saying, Areede, who is it that smote thee?
65 And many other thynges blasphemously spake they agaynst hym.
66 *And as soone as it was day, the elders of the people, and the hygh Prieſtes, and the Scribes, came togeather, and led hym into their counsel, saying,
67 Art thou very Christ, tel vs? And he said vnto them, Yf I tell you, you wyll not beleeue in any wyse.
68 And yf I aske you, you wyll not in anye wyse answeare me, nor let me goe.
69 Hereafter shall the sonne of man syt on the ryght hande of the power of God.
70 Then sayde they all, Art thou then the sonne of God? He sayd, Ye say that I am.
71 And they sayde, What neede we any further witnes? For we our selues haue heard of his owne mouth.

*Mat.27.1. Mark.15.1. Iohn.18.28

¶ The xxiii. Chapter.

Ieſus is accuſed before Pilate, and ſent to Herode.

The Gospel on the Thurſday nexte before Easter.

1 AND the whole multitude of them arose, and led hym vnto Pilate.
2 And they began to accuse hym, saying, We founde this felowe peruerting the people, *and forbidding to geue tribute to Caesar, saying that he is Christ, a kyng.
3 *And Pilate asked hym, saying, Art thou the kyng of the Iewes? He answeared him, and sayde, Thou sayest it.
4 Then said Pilate to the high Priests, and to the people, I finde no fault in this man.
5 And they were the more fierce, saying, He mooueth the people, teachyng throughout al Iurie, and began at Galilee, euen to this place.
6 When Pilate heard mention of Galilee, he asked whether the man were of Galilee.
7 And as soone as he knewe that he belonged vnto Herodes iurisdiction, he sent hym to Herode, whiche was also at Hierusalem at that tyme.
8 And when Herode sawe Ieſus, he was exceeding glad, for he was desyrous to see him of a long season, because he had heard many thinges of hym, and he trusted to haue seene some miracle doone by hym.
9 Then he questioned with hym manye wordes, but he answeared hym nothyng.
10 The hygh Prieſtes and Scribes stoode forth, and accused hym straytely.
11 And Herode with his men of warre despysed him, and when he had mocked him, he arayed hym in whyte clothyng, and sent hym agayne to Pilate.
12 *And the same day Pilate and Herode were made freendes togeather, for before they were at variance betwene them selues.
13 And Pilate, when he had called togeather the hygh Prieſtes, and the rulers, and the people,
14 Sayde vnto them, Ye haue brought this man vnto me, as one that peruerteth the people, and beholde, I hauing examined him before you, haue founde no fault in this man, of those things wherof ye accuse him,
15 No, nor yet Herod: for I sent you to him, and loe, nothing woorthie of death is doone to hym.
16 I wyl therefore chasten hym, and let him loose.
17 For of necessitie he must haue let one loose vnto them at the feast.
18 And al the people cryed aloude, saying, Away with hym, and delyuer to vs Barabbas.
19 Which for a certayne insurrection made in the citie, & for murder, was cast in prison.
20 Pilate therefore spake agayne to them, wyllyng to let Ieſus loose.
21 But they cryed, saying, Crucifie hym, crucifie hym.
22 He sayd vnto them the third time, What euyl hath he doone? I haue found no cause of death in him, I wyll therefore chasten hym, and let hym goe.
23 And they were instant with loude voyces, requiring that he might be crucified, and the voyces of them, and of the hygh Prieſtes, preuayled.
24 And Pilate gaue sentence that it shoulde be as they required.
25 And he let loose vnto them, hym that for insurrection and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired, and he delyuered Ieſus to their wyl.
26 *And as they led him away, they caught one Simon of Cyrene, commyng out of the feelde, and on hym layd they the crosse, that he myght beare it after Ieſus.
27 And there folowed hym a great companie of people, and of women, which also bewayled and lamented hym.
28 But Ieſus turning backe vnto them, sayde, Ye daughters of Hierusalem, weepe not for me, but weepe for your selues, and for your children.
29 For beholde, the dayes are commyng, in the which they shal say, Happie are the barren, and the wombes that neuer bare, and the pappes whiche neuer gaue sucke.
30 Then shal they begin to say to the mountaynes, *Fal on vs, and to the hylles, Couer vs.
31 For yf they doo these thynges in a moyste tree, what shalbe doone in the drye?
32 *And there were other two cuyll doers led with hym, to be put to death.

*Mat.27.28 Mar.15.27. Iohn.19.18.

33 *And after that they were come to the place whiche is called Caluarie, there they crucified hym, and the euyl doers, one on the ryght hande, and the other on the leaft.

34 Then sayd Iesus, Father, forgeue them, for they wote not what they doo: And they parted his rayment, and cast lottes.

35 And the people stoode, beholdyng, and the rulers mocked hym with them, saying, He saued other men, let him saue him selfe, if he be very Christe the chosen of God.

36 The souldiers also mocked him, cōming to hym, and offeryng hym vineger, 37 And saying, If thou be the kyng of the Iewes, saue thee selfe.

38 And a superscription was wrytten ouer him, with letters of Greke, and Latine, and Hebrue, This is the kyng of the Iewes.

39 And one of the euyl doers, whiche were hanged, rayled on hym, saying, If thou be Christe, saue thee selfe and vs.

40 But the other answearyng, rebuked hym, saying, Fearest thou not God, seeyng thou art in the same damnation?

41 And we truely are ryghteously punished, for we receyue accordyng to our deedes, but this man hath doone nothyng amysse.

42 And he sayde vnto Iesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kyngdome.

43 And Iesus sayd vnto hym, Verily I say vnto thee, to day shalt thou be with me in paradise.

44 And it was about the sixth houre, and there was a darknesse ouer al the earth, vntyl the nienth houre.

45 And the Sonne was darkened, and the vayle of the temple was rent, euen through the myddes.

46 And when Iesus had cryed with a loud voyce, he sayde, *Father, into thy handes I wyl commende my spirite: And when he thus had sayde, he gaue vp the ghost.

*Psal.30.6.

47 When the Centurion sawe what was doone, he glorified God, saying, Verily this was a ryghteous man.

48 And all the people that came togeather to that syght, when they sawe the thynges whiche were doone, smote their breastes, and returned.

49 And al his acquayntaunce, and the women that folowed hym from Galilee, stood a farre of, beholdyng these thynges.

*Mat.27.25 Mar.15.43. Iohn.19.38

50 *And beholde, there was a man named Ioseph, a counseller, & he was a good man, and a iust, 51 (The same had not consented to the counsell and deede of them) whiche was of Arimathea, a citie of the Iewes, which same also wayted for the kyngdome of God.

52 He went vnto Pilate, and begged the body of Iesus.

53 And when he had taken it downe, he wrapped it in a lynnen cloth, and layde it in a sepulchre that was hewen in stone, wherin neuer man before was layde.

54 And that day was the preparyng of the Sabboth, and the Sabboth drue on.

55 The women that folowed after, whiche had come with hym from Galilee, beheld the sepulchre, and howe his body was layd.

56 And they returned, and prepared sweete odours & oyntments, but rested the sabboth day, accordyng to the commaundement.

¶ The.xxiiii. Chapter.

13. Christe appeareth to the two disciples that went to Emaus.

1 BVT * vpon the a first day of the Sabbothes, very early in the morning, they came vnto the sepulchre, bryngyng the sweete odours, whiche they had prepared, and other women with them.

*Mar.16.1. Iohn.20.21

2 And they founde the stone rolled away from the sepulchre.

3 And they went in, but found not the body of the Lorde Iesu.

4 And it came to passe, as they were amazed thereat, behold two men stoode by them in shyning garmentes.

5 And as they were afrayd, & bowed downe their faces to the earth, they sayde vnto them, Why seeke ye the lyuyng among the dead?

6 He is not here, but is rysen: *Remember howe he spake vnto you when he was yet in Galilee,

*Mat.17.23 Mar.9.31. Luke.9.22.

7 Saying, The sonne of man must be delyuered into the handes of sinfull men, and be crucified, and the thirde day ryse.

8 And they remembred his woordes,

9 And returned from the sepulchre, and told al these thynges vnto those eleuen, and to al the remnant.

10 It was Marie Magdalen, and Ioanna, and Marie Iacobi, and other that were with them, whiche tolde these thynges vnto the Apostles.

11 And their woordes seemed to them faigned thynges, neyther beleeued they them.

12 *Then arose Peter, and ranne vnto the sepulchre, and when he had looked in, he saw the lynnen clothes laid by them selues, and departed, woondring in hym selfe at that whiche was come to passe.

b That is, vii. miles & a halfe.

14 And

14 And they talked togeather of all these thinges that had come to passe.
15 And it came to passe, that while they communed togeather, and reasoned, Jesus himselfe drue neare, and went with them.
16 But their eyes were holden, that they shoulde not knowe hym.
17 And he sayde vnto them, What manner of communications are these that ye haue one to another as ye walke, and are sadde?
18 And the one of them, whose name was Cleophas, answearing, sayde to him, Art thou onely a stranger in Hierusalem, and hast not knowen the thinges whiche are come to passe there in these dayes?
19 He sayd vnto them, What thinges? And they sayd vnto him, Of Jesus of Nazareth, which was a Prophete, mightie in deede and woorde before God and al the people, 20 And howe the high priestes and our rulers deliuered him to be condempned to death, and haue crucified him.
21 But we trusted that it had been he which shoulde haue redeemed Israel: and as touching al these thinges, to day is euen the thirde day since they were done.
22 Yea, and certayne women also of our companie made vs astonied, whiche came early vnto the sepulchre.
23 And when they found not his body, they came, saying that they had seene a vision of angels, which say that he was aliue.
24 And certayne of them which were with vs, went to the sepulchre, and found it euen so as the women had sayde, but hym they sawe not.
25 And he sayde vnto them, O fooles, and slowe of hart, to beleeue al that the Prophetes haue spoken:
26 Ought not Christ to haue suffered these thinges, and to enter into his glory?
27 And he began at Moses, and al the prophetes, and throughly interpreted vnto them in all the scriptures, those thynges which were written of him selfe.
28 And they drue nigh vnto ỹ village which they went vnto, and he made as though he would haue gone further.
29 And they constrayned him, saying, Abide with vs, for it drawerh toward night, and the day is farre passed: And he went in to tarie with them.
30 And it came to passe, as he sate at meate with them, he tooke bread, and [c] blessed it, and brake, and gaue to them.
31 And their eyes were opened, and they knewe him, & he vanished out of their sight.
32 And they sayd one vnto another, Did not our hartes burne within vs, while he talked with vs by the way, and opened to vs the scriptures?
33 And they rose vp the same houre, and returned agayne to Hierusalem, and found the eleuen geathered togeather, and them that were with them, 34 Saying, The Lorde is risen in deede, and hath appeared to Simon.
35 And they tolde what thinges were done in the way, and howe he was knowen of them in the breaking of the bread. The Gospel on the Tuesday in Easter vweeke.
36 *And as they thus spake, Jesus hym selfe stoode in the middes of them, & sayth vnto them, Peace be vnto you. *Mar.16.14 Joh.20.19
37 But they were abashed and afrayde, and supposed that they had seene a spirite.
38 And he sayde vnto them, Why are ye troubled, and why doo thoughtes arise in your hartes?
39 Beholde my handes and my feete, that it is euen I mee selfe, handle me and see, for a spirite hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me haue.
40 And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his handes and his feete.
41 And while they yet beleeued not for ioy, and woondred, he sayd vnto them, Haue ye here any meate?
42 And they offered hym a peece of a broyled fishe, and of an hony combe.
43 And he tooke it, & did eate before them.
44 And he sayde vnto them, These are the woordes which I spake vnto you, while I was yet with you, that al must needes be fulfylled whiche were written of me in the lawe of Moses, and in the Prophetes, and in the Psalmes.
45 Then opened he their [n]wittes, that they might vnderstande the scriptures, [n] or, myndes.
46 And sayde vnto them, Thus is it written, and thus it behoued Christ to suffer, and to rise from death the thirde day:
47 And that repentance & remission of sinnes shoulde be preached in his name among all nations, and must begyn at Hierusalem.
48 And ye are witnesses of these thinges.
49 *And beholde, I wyl sende the promise of my father vpon you: But tarie ye in the citie of Hierusalem, vntyl ye be indued with power from an high. *John.15.26 Actes.1.4.
50 And he led them out into Bethanie, and lyft vp his handes, and blessed them.
51 *And it came to passe, as he blessed them, he departed from them, and was caryed vp into heauen. *Mar.10.19 Actes.1.9.
52 And when they had woorshipped hym, they returned to Hierusalem, with great ioy:
53 And were continually in the temple, praysyng and lauding God. Amen.

¶ The fyrst Chapter.

c. The diuinitie, humanitie, and office of Christe. 15. The testimonie of Iohn. 38. The callyng of Andrewe, Peter, Philip, and Nathanael.

The Gospel on Christmas day.

IN the begynnyng was the worde, and the word was with God, and *or, and that worde was God was that worde.

2 *The same was in the begynnyng with God.

*Gene.1. 1.

3 All thinges were made by it, and without a it, was made nothing that was made.

a. Without Christ no creature was made.

4 In it was lyfe, and the life was the light of men.

5 And the light shineth in the darkenesse, and the darkenesse comprehended it not.

6 *There was a man sent from God, whose name was Iohn:

*Math.3. 1. Mark.1.2. Luke.3.2.

7 The same came for a witnesse, that he shoulde beare witnesse of the b light, that al men through him might beleeue.

b. That is, of Christe, whiche is the true light.

8 He was not that light, but was sent to beare witnesse of the light.

9 That light was the true light, whiche lighteth euery man that commeth into the worlde.

10 He was in the worlde, *and the worlde was made by hym, and the worlde knewe hym not.

*Hebr.11. 4.

11 He came in to his owne, and his owne receyued hym not.

12 But as many as receyued hym, to them gaue he c power to be the sonnes of God, euen to them that beleeued on his name.

c. Meanyng, priuilledge, or dignitie.

13 Which *were borne not of bloode, nor of the wyl of the flesshe, nor yet of the wyl of man, but of God.

*or, was made

*Mat.1. 16. Luke.2. 7.

14 *And the same woorde became d flesshe, and dwelt among vs (and we sawe the glorie of it, as the glory of the onely begotten sonne that came from the father) ful of grace and trueth.

d. That is to say, man.

*or, worthier then I.

15 Iohn beareth witnesse of hym, and cryed, saying, This was he of whom I spake, He that commeth after me, is preferred before me, for he was *before me.

16 And of his *fulnesse haue al we receyued, and grace e for grace.

e. That is, God doth fauour vs, and geueth grace to so many as beleeue in Christ, and are become his members, that God in his sonne is well pleased.

17 For the lawe was geuen by Moses, but grace and trueth came by Iesus Christe.

*Coloss.1.19 *1.Ioh.4.12 1.Tim.6.16

18 *No man hath seene God at any tyme, the onely begotten sonne, whiche is in the bosome of the father, he hath declared him.

19 And this is the recorde of Iohn, when the Iewes sent priestes and Leuites from Hierusalem to aske hym, What art thou?

The Gospel on the fourth sunday in Advent.

20 And he confessed, and denied not, & sayd playnely, I am not that Christ.

21 And they asked hym, what then? Art thou Elias? And he sayth, I am not. Art thou that prophete? And he answered, No.

22 Then sayde they vnto hym, What art thou, that we may geue an answere to them that sent vs? What sayest thou of thee selfe?

23 *He sayd, I am the voyce of a cryer in the wyldernesse: Make straight the way of the Lorde, as sayde the prophete Esaias.

*Esai.40.3. Math.3.3. Luke.3. 4.

24 And they which were sent, were of the Pharisees.

25 And they asked him, and sayd vnto him, Why baptisest thou then yf thou be not that Christe, nor Elias, neyther *a prophete?

26 Iohn answeared them, saying, I baptise with water, but there standeth one among you, whom ye knowe not,

27 *He it is which though he came after me, was before me, whose shoes latchet I am not woorthie to vnloose.

*Math.3.2. Mark.1.7. Luke.3.16.

28 These thinges were done in *Bethabara beyonde Iordayne, where Iohn was baptising.

Actes.19.4. *or, Bethania.

29 The next day, Iohn seeth Iesus commyng vnto hym, and sayth, Beholde the lambe of God, which taketh away the sinne of the worlde.

30 This is he of whom I sayde, After me commeth a man, which is preferred before me: for he was before me.

31 And I knewe him not: but that he should be declared to Israel, therefore am I come baptising with water.

32 *And Iohn bare recorde, saying, I sawe the spirite dessending from heauen, like vnto a Doue, and it abode vpon him.

*Math.3.16 Mark.1.10. Luke.3. 22.

33 And I knewe him not: but he that sent me to baptise with water, the same said vnto me, Vpon whom thou shalt see the spirit dessendyng, & tarying styl on him, the same is he which baptiseth with the holy ghost.

34 And I sawe, and bare recorde, that this is the sonne of God.

35 The next day after, Iohn stoode agayne, and two of his disciples.

36 And

36 And when he beheldе Jesus walking, he sayth, Beholde the lambe of God.
37 And the two disciples heard him speake, and they followed Jesus.
38 And Jesus, when he turned about, and sawe them folowing him, sayth vnto them,
What seeke ye? They sayd vnto hym, Rabbi, (whiche is to say if one interprete it, Maister) where dwellest thou?
39 He saith vnto them, Come and see. They came, and sawe where he dwelt, and abode with hym that day: for it was about the f tenth houre.
40 One of the two whiche hearde John speake, and folowed hym, was Andrewe, Simon Peters brother.
41 The same fyndeth his brother Simon the Messias, whiche is by interpretation, the "annoynted,

42 And brought hym to Jesus. And when Jesus beheldе hym, he sayd, Thou art Simon the sonne of Jonas, thou shalt be called Cephas, which is by interpretation a stone.
43 The day folowing, Jesus woulde goe forth into Galilee, and findeth Philip, and sayth vnto hym, Folowe me.
44 Philip was of Bethsaida, out of the citie of Andrewe and Peter.
45 Philip findeth Nathanael, and saith vnto him, We haue founde him of whom "Moses in the lawe and the" prophetes did write, Jesus of Nazareth the sonne of g Joseph.
46 And Nathanael sayde vnto hym, Can there any good thyng come out of Nazareth? Philip sayth vnto hym, Come and see.
47 Jesus sawe Nathanael comming to him, and saith of him, Behold a right Israelite, in whom is no guyle.
48 Nathanael saith vnto him, Whence kno-west thou me? Jesus answeared, and sayde vnto hym, Before that Philip called thee, being vnder the fygge tree, I sawe thee.
49 Nathanael answeared, and sayth vnto hym, Rabbi, thou art euen the very sonne of God, thou art the king of Israel.
50 Jesus answeared, and sayde vnto hym,
Because I sayde vnto thee, I sawe thee vnder the fygge tree, thou "beleeuest: thou shalt see greater thynges then these.

¶ The. ij. Chapter.

Christe turneth water into wyne.

1 AND the thirde day was there a marriage in Cana "a citie of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there.
2 And both Jesus was called and his disciples vnto the marryage.
3 And when they wanted wyne, the mother of Jesus sayth vnto hym, They haue no wyne.
4 Jesus sayth vnto her, Woman, what haue I to doo with thee? myne houre is not yet come.
5 His mother sayth vnto the "ministers,
What so euer he sayth vnto you, doo it.
6 And there were set there sixe water pottes of stone, after the maner of the purifying of the Iewes, conteyning two or three "fir-kens a peece.
7 Jesus sayth vnto them, Fill the water pottes with water. And they filled them vp to the brym.
8 And he sayth vnto them, Draw out now, and beare vnto the gouernour of the feast.
And they bare it.
9 When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine (and knewe not whence it was, but the ministers whiche drue the water knewe) the gouernour of the feast calleth the bridgrome, 10 And sayth vnto hym, Euery man at the beginnyng dooth set forth good wyne, and when the gheستes haue well dronke, then that which is woorse: but thou hast kept the good wyne vntyl nowe.
11 This beginning of myracles dyd Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and shewed his glory:
and his disciples beleeued on hym.
12 After this he went downe to Capernaum, and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples, and there continued not many dayes.
13 And the Iewes Passeouer was at hand, and Jesus went vp to Hierusalem, 14 And founde sytting in the temple those that solde oxen, and sheepe, and doues, and changers of money.
15 And when he had made as it were a scourge of smal cordes, he droue them al out of the temple, with the sheepe and oxen, and powred out the changers money, and ouerthrewe the tables:
16 And sayde vnto them that solde doues:
Haue these thinges hence, and make not my fathers house an house of marchandise.
17 And his disciples remembred that it was written, * The zeale of thyne house hath euen eaten me.
18 Then answeared the Iewes, and sayd vnto hym, What token shewest thou vnto vs, seeyng that thou dooest these thinges?
19 Jesus answeared, and sayde vnto them,

21 But he spake of the temple of his body.
22 When therfore he was risen from death, his disciples remembred that he thus had sayd: and they beleeued the scripture, and the woordes which Iesus had sayd.
23 When he was in Hierusalem at the Passeouer, in the feast day, many beleeued on his name, when they sawe his miracles whiche he dyd.
24 But Iesus dyd not commyt hym selfe vnto them, because he knewe al men:
25 And needed not that any shoulde testifie of man: for he knewe what was in man.

¶ Th.iii. Chapter.

Christe teacheth Nicodemus. 16. The loue of God towarde the worlde.

The Gospel on Trinitie Sunday.

1 THere was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Iewes:
2 The same came to Iesus by night, and sayd vnto him, Rabbi, we knowe that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him.
3 Iesus answeared, and sayd vnto hym, Verely, verely I say vnto thee, except a man be borne from aboue, he can not see the kingdome of God.
4 Nicodemus sayth vnto hym, Howe can a man be borne when he is olde? can he enter the seconde tyme into his mothers wombe, and be borne?
5 Iesus answeared, Verily, verily I say vnto thee, except a man be borne of water and of the spirite, he cannot enter into the kingdome of God.
6 That which is borne of the flesh, is flesh, and that whiche is borne of the spirite, is spirite.
7 Marueyle not thou that I sayd vnto thee, Ye must be borne from aboue.
8 The wynde bloweth where it listeth, and thou heareſt the sound therof, but canst not tel whence it commeth, & whither it goeth: So is euery one that is borne of the spirite.
9 Nicodemus answeared, and sayde vnto hym, Howe can these thynges be?
10 Iesus answeared, and saide vnto him, Art thou a maister of Israel, and knowest not these thynges?
11 Verily, verily I say vnto thee, We speake that we doo know, and testifie that we haue seene: and ye receyue not our witnesse.
12 If I haue tolde you earthly thinges, and ye beleeue not: howe shal ye beleeue if I tel you of heauenly thynges?
13 And no man hath ascended vp to a heauen, but he that came downe from heauen, euen the sonne of man whiche is in b heauen.
14 * And as Moses lift vp the serpent in the wildernesse: euen so must the sonne of man be lyft vp:
15 That whosoeuer beleeueth in him, should not perishe, but haue eternal lyfe.
16 * For God so loued the worlde, that he gaue his onely begotten sonne: that whosoeuer beleeueth in him, shoulde not perysh, but haue euerlasting lyfe.
17 For God sent not his sonne into the worlde to condemne the worlde: but that the c worlde through him myght be saued.
18 He that beleeueth on hym, is not condemned: but he that beleeueth not, is condemned alredy, because he hath not beleeued in the name of the onely begotten sonne of God.
19 And this is the condemnation, * that light is come into the worlde, and men loued darkenesse rather then lyght: because their deedes were euyl.
20 For euery one that euyl dooth, hateth the light, neyther commeth to the lyght, lest his deedes shoulde be reproued.
21 But he that dooth trueth, commeth to the lyght, that his deedes may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.
22 After these thynges, came Iesus and his disciples into the lande of Iurie, and there he taryed with them, and d baptised.
23 * And Iohn also was baptising in Aenon, neare to Salim, because there was muche water there: & they came, & were baptised.
24 For Iohn was not yet cast into prison.
25 And there arose a question betweene Iohns disciples and the Iewes, about purifying.
26 And they came vnto Iohn, and sayd vnto hym, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyonde Iordane, * to whom thou bareſt witnesse, behold, the same baptiseth, and al men come to hym.
27 Iohn answeared, and sayd, A man can receyue nothing, except it be geuen hym from heauen.
28 Ye your selues are witnesses, how that I sayd, I am not that Christ, but am sent before hym. *Iohn.1.20
29 He that hath the bride, is the bridegrome: but the freende of the bridegrome, whiche standeth and heareth hym, reioyceth greatly, because of the bridegromes voyce: This my ioy therefore is fulfylled.

¶ The. iiij. Chapter.

7. Christe vveeried asketh vvater of the vvoman of Samaria. 19. The liuely vvater.

1 AFter that the Lorde knewe howe the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and baptised moe disciples then John.

2 (Though that Jesus him selfe baptised not, but his disciples:)

3 He left Jurie, and departed agayne into Galilee.

4 For it vvas so that he must needes goe through Samaria.

5 Then commeth he to a citie of Samaria, which is called Sichar, neare to the possession * that Jacob gaue to his sonne Joseph.

*Gen. 33. 19. and. 48. 22. Josu. 24. 32.

6 And there was Jacobs well. Jesus then being weery of his iourney, sate thus on the well, and it was about the a sixth houre.

a. That is, twelue of the clocke.

7 And there commeth a woman of Samaria to drawe water: Jesus sayth vnto her, Geue me drinke.

8 For his disciples were gone away vnto the towne to buye meate.

9 Then sayth the woman of Samaria vnto hym, How is it that thou, being a Jewe, askest drinke of me, whiche am a woman of Samaria? For ỹ Jewes meddle not with the Samaritanes.

10 Jesus answeared, and saide vnto her, Yf thou knewest the gyft of God, and who it is that sayth to thee, Geue me drinke: thou wouldest haue asked of hym, and he would haue geuen thee water of lyfe.

11 The woman sayth vnto him, Syr, thou hast nothyng to drawe with, and the well is deepe: from whence then hast thou that water of lyfe?

12 Art thou greater then our father Jacob, whiche gaue vs the well, and he hym selfe dranke thereof, and his children, and his cattel?

13 Jesus answeared, and sayde vnto her, Who so euer drinketh of this water, shall thyrst agayne:

14 But who so euer drinketh of the water that I shall geue him, shall neuer be more a thyrst: but the water that I shal geue hym, shalbe in hym a well of water springing vp into euerlastyng lyfe.

15 The woman sayth vnto hym, Syr, geue me of that water, that I thyrst not, neither come hyther to drawe.

16 Jesus sayth vnto her, Goe, call thy husband, and come hyther.

17 The woman answeared, and sayde vnto hym, I haue no husband. Jesus sayde vnto her, Thou hast well sayde, I haue no husband.

18 For thou hast had fiue husbandes: and he whom thou nowe hast, is not thy husband: In that saydest thou truely.

19 The woman sayth vnto hym, Syr, I perceiue that thou art a prophete.

20 Our fathers woorshipped in this mountayne, and ye say that * in Hierusalem is the place where men ought to woorship. *Deut. 12. 6

21 Jesus sayth vnto her, Woman, beleeue me, the houre commeth, when ye shall neyther in this mountayne, nor yet at Hierusalem woorship the father.

22 * Ye woorship ye wote not what, we knowe what we woorship: for saluation commeth of the Jewes. *4. Reg. 17. 29.

23 But the houre commeth, and nowe is, when the true woorshippers shall woorship the father in spirite, and in the trueth: for such ỹ father also requireth to worship him.

24 * God is a spirite, and they that woorship him, must woorship hym in spirite, and in the trueth. *2. Cor. 3. 17

25 The woman sayth vnto hym, I wote that Messias commeth, whiche is called Christe: When he is come, he will tell vs all thynges.

26 Jesus sayth vnto her, I that speake vnto thee, am he.

27 And immediatly came his disciples, and marueiled that he talked with the woman: Yet no man sayde, What seekest thou, or, why talkest thou with her?

28 The woman then left her water pot, and went her way into the citie, and saith to the men, 29 Come, see a man which told me al things that euer I dyd: Is not he that Christe?

30 Then they went out of the citie, & came vnto him.

31 In the meane whyle his disciples prayed him, saying, Maister, eate.

32 He

32 He sayde vnto them, I haue meate to eate that ye wote not of.
33 Therefore sayde the disciples one to an other, Hath any man brought him ought to eate?
34 Iesus sayth vnto them, My meate is that I doo the wyl of him that sent me, and finishe his worke.
35 Say not ye, There are yet foure monethes, and then commeth harueſt? Beholde, I say vnto you, Lyft vp your eyes, and looke on the regions: * for they are white alredy vnto haruest.
*Mat.9.37. Luke.10.1. 36 * And he that reapeth, receiueth wages: and gathereth fruite vnto lyfe eternall: that both he that soweth, and he that reapeth, myght reioyce togeather.
37 And herein is the saying true, That one soweth, and another reapeth.
38 I sent you to reape that, whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men a laboured, and ye are entred into their labours.
a. Meanyng, the prophetes.
39 Many of the Samaritanes of that citie beleeued on hym, for the saying of the woman, whiche testified that he tolde me all that euer I dyd.
40 So, when the Samaritanes were come vnto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them: and he abode there two dayes.
41 And many moe beleeued, because of his owne worde:
42 And sayde vnto the woman, Nowe we beleeue, not because of thy saying: for we haue heard him our selues, and know that this is euen that Christe, the sauiour of the worlde.
43 After two dayes he departed thence, and went away into Galilee.
*Mat.13.58. Mark.6.4. Luke.4.24. 44 * For Iesus him selfe testified, that a prophete hath none honour in his owne countrey.
45 Then when he was come into Galilee, the Galileans receyued him, when they had seene all the thynges that he dyd at Hierusalem at the feast: For they went also vnto the feast day.
*John.2.1. The Gospell on the xix. sunday after Trinitie. 46 * So Iesus came agayne into Cana of Galilee, where he made the water wine. And there was a certayne ruler, whose sonne was sicke at Capernaum.
47 When the same heard that Iesus was come out of Iurie into Galilee, he went vnto hym, and besought hym that he would come downe, and heale his sonne: for he was euen at the poynt of death.
48 Then sayde Iesus vnto hym, Except ye see signes and woonders, ye wyl in no wyse beleeue.
49 The ruler sayth vnto hym, Syr, come downe or euer that my sonne dye.
50 Iesus sayth vnto hym, Goe thy way, thy sonne liueth. And the man beleeued the worde that Iesus had spoken vnto him, and he went his way.
51 And as he was nowe going downe, the seruantes met hym, and tolde hym, saying, Thy sonne liueth.
52 Then enquired he of them the houre when he began to amend: and they sayde vnto hym, Yesterday at the seuenth houre the feuer left him.
53 So the father knewe, that it was doone the same houre, in the whiche Iesus sayde vnto hym, Thy sonne liueth: and he beleeued, and all his houshold.
54 This is agayne the second myracle that Iesus dyd, when he was come out of Iurie into Galilee.

5 And a certayne man was there, whiche had been diseased thyrtie and eyght yeeres.
6 When Iesus sawe hym lye, and knewe that he now long tyme had ben diseased, he sayth vnto him, Wylt thoube made whole?
7 The sicke man answeared hym, Syr, I haue no man when the water is troubled, to put me into the poole: but in the meane time, whyle I am about to come, an other steppeth downe before me.
8 Iesus sayth vnto hym, Ryse, take vp thy bed, and walke.
9 And immediatly the man was made whole, and tooke vp his bed, and walked: And on the same day was the Sabboth.
10 The Iewes therefore sayde vnto hym that was made whole, It is the Sabboth day, * it is not lawfull for thee to carry thy bed. *Iere.17.1.
11 He answeared them, He that made me whole, sayde vnto me, Take vp thy bed, and walke.

12 Then

12 Then asked they him, What man is that whiche sayde vnto thee, Take vp thy bed, and walke?

13 And he that was healed, wyst not who it was: for Iesus had gotten hym selfe away, because that there was preasse of people in that place.

14 Afterwarde Iesus fyndeth hym in the temple, and sayde vnto hym, Beholde, thou art made whole: sinne no more, least a worse thyng come vnto thee.

15 The man departed, and tolde the Iewes that it was Iesus whiche had made hym whole.

16 And therefore dyd the Iewes persecute Iesus, and sought the meanes to slea hym, because he had doone these thynges on the Sabboth day.

17 Iesus answeared them, My father worketh hytherto, and I worke.

18 Therefore the Iewes sought the more to kyl hym, not onely because he had broken the Sabboth, but sayde also, that God was his father, and making him selfe equal with God.

19 Then answeared Iesus, and sayde vnto them, Verely, verily I say vnto you, The sonne can do nothing of him selfe, but that he seeth the father doo: for what so euer he dooth, that also doth the sonne likewyse.

20 For the father loueth the sonne, and sheweth him al thinges that he him selfe doth: and he wyl shewe hym greater workes then these, because ye shoulde marueyle.

21 For lykewyse as the father rayseth vp the dead, and quickeneth them: euen so the sonne quickeneth whom he wyl.

22 Neyther iudgeth the father any man: but hath committed al iudgement vnto the sonne, 23 Because that all men shoulde honour the sonne, euen as they honour the father. He that honoureth not the sonne the same honoureth not the father which hath sent him.

24 Verely, verely I say vnto you, He that heareth my worde, and beleeueth on hym that sent me, hath euerlastyng lyfe, and shal not come into damnation: but is escaped from death vnto lyfe.

25 Verely, verely I say vnto you, The houre is commyng, and nowe is, when the dead b shall heare the voyce of the sonne of God: and they that heare, c shal lyue.

b. Meanyng those that are drowned in sinne.
c. That is, they that receyue it by fayth.

26 For as the father hath life in him selfe: so likewyse hath he geuen to the sonne to haue lyfe in him selfe:

27 And hath geuen hym power also to iudge, because he is the sonne of man.

28 Marueyle not at this: for the houre is commyng, in the whiche all that are in the graues shal heare his voyce,

29 And shal come forth, * they that haue doone good, vnto the resurrection of lyfe, and they that haue doone euyl, vnto the resurrection of dampnation. *Mat.25.41

30 I can of myne owne selfe doo nothyng: as I heare, I iudge: and my iudgement is iust, because I seeke not myne owne wyll, but the wyl of the father, whiche hath sent me.

31 * If I beare witnesse of me selfe, my witnesse is not true. *Iohn.8.14.

32 * There is an other that beareth witnesse of me, and I am sure that the witnesse whiche he witnesseth of me is true. *Mat.3.17.

33 * Ye sent vnto Iohn, and he bare witnesse vnto the trueth. *Iohn.1.27.

34 But I receyue not the recorde of man: neuertheless, these thynges I say, that ye myght be saued.

35 He was a burning and a shyning lyght: and ye woulde for a season haue reioyced in his lyght.

36 But I haue greater witnesse then the witnesse of Iohn: for the workes which the father hath geuen me to finishe, the same workes that I do, beare witnesse of me, that the father hath sent me.

37 And the father him selfe which hath sent me, * hath borne witnesse of me. Ye haue not heard his voyce at any tyme, * nor seene his shape, *Mat.3.17. and.17.5. *Deut.4.12.

38 And his worde haue ye not abyding in you: for whom he hath sent, hym ye beleeue not.

39 Searche the Scriptures, for in them ye thinke ye haue eternal lyfe: and they are they which testifie of me.

40 And yet wyll ye not come to me, that ye myght haue lyfe.

41 I receyue not the prayse of men.

42 But I knowe you, that ye haue not the loue of God in you.

43 I am come in my fathers name, and ye receyue me not: * if another shal come in his owne name, hym wyl ye receyue. *Ioh.12.41.

44 Howe can ye beleeue, whiche receyue honour one of another, and seeke not the honour that commeth of God onely?

45 Doo not thinke that I wyl accuse you to my father: there is one that accuseth you, euen Moses in whom ye trust.

46 For had ye beleeued Moses, ye woulde haue beleeued me: * for he wrote of me. *Gene.3.15. Deu.18.15.

47 But yf ye beleeue not his writinges, howe shal ye beleeue my wordes?

¶ The.vi. Chapter.

29 Fayth is the vvorke of God. 35. Of the bread of lyfe. 40. Of fayth.

1 AFter these thynges, Iesus went his way ouer the sea of Galilee, whiche is the sea of Tiberias:

2 And a great multitude folowed hym, because they sawe his miracles whiche he dyd on them that were diseased.

3 And Iesus went vp into a mountaine, and there he sate with his disciples.

* Leui.23.2. Deut.16.1. 4 And the Passeouer, a feast of the Iewes, was nygh.

*Mat.14.16 Mark.6.38. Luke.9.13. 6 (This he sayde to proue hym: for he him selfe knewe what he woulde doo.)

7 Philip answeared him, Two hundred a penyworth of bread ary not sufficient for them, that euery man may take a little.

a. This summe amounteth to aboue fiue pound sterling.

8 One of his disciples, Andrewe Simon Peters brother, sayth vnto him:

9 There is a litle lad here, which hath fyue barley loaues, and two fyshes: but what are they among so many?

10 And Iesus sayde, Make the people syt downe. There was muche grasse in the place. So the men sat downe, in number about fyue thousande.

11 And Iesus tooke the bread, and when he had geuen thankes, he distributed to the disciples, & the disciples to them that were set downe, and lykewyse of the fyshes, as muche as they woulde.

12 When they were fylled, he sayd vnto his disciples, Gather vp the broken meat that remayneth, that nothing be lost.

13 And they gathered it togeather, and fylled twelue baskets with the broken meate of the fiue barley loaues, which broken meate remayned vnto them that had eaten.

14 Then those men, when they had seene the myracle that Iesus dyd, sayd, This is of a trueth the same prophete that shoulde come into the worlde.

15 When Iesus therefore perceyued that they would come and take hym vp by force, to make hym kyng, he departed againe into a mountayne hym selfe alone.

*Mat.14.25 Mark.6.47 16 *And when euen was nowe come, his disciples went downe vnto the sea, 17 And gat vp into a shyp, and went ouer the sea, towardes Capernaum: and it was nowe darke, and Iesus was not come to them.

18 And the sea arose with a great wynd that blewe.

19 So when they had rowed about .xxv. or xxx. furlonges, they sawe Iesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh vnto the shyp: and they were afrayde.

20 But he sayth vnto them, It is I, be not afrayd.

21 And they would haue receyued him into the shyp, and immediatly the shyp was at the lande whyther they went.

22 The day folowyng, when the people which stoode on the other side of the sea, saw that there was none other shyp there, saue that one wherein his disciples were entred, and that Iesus went not in with his disciples into the shyp, but that his disciples were gone away alone:

23 Howbeit, there came other shyppes from Tiberias, nygh vnto the place where they dyd eate bread, after that the Lorde had geuen thankes.

24 When the people therfore sawe that Iesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also tooke shypping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Iesus.

25 And when they had founde hym on the other syde of the sea, they sayde vnto hym, Rabbi, when camest thou hyther?

26 Iesus answeared them, and sayd, Verely, verely I say vnto you, Ye seeke me, not because ye sawe the myracles, but because ye dyd eate of the loaues, and were fylled.

27 Labour not for the meat whiche perisheth, but for that meat which endureth vnto euerlastyng lyfe, which meate the sonne of man shal geue vnto you: *for him hath God the father sealed.

*Mat.3.17. and.17.3. Iohn.1.32.

28 Then sayde they vnto hym, What shall we doo, that we myght worke the workes of God?

29 Iesus answeared, and sayde vnto them, *This is the worke of God, that ye beleeue on hym whom he hath sent.

*1.Ioh.3.23

30 *They sayde therefore vnto hym, What signe shewest thou then, that we may see, and beleeue thee? What doest thou worke?

31 Our fathers dyd eate Manna in the desart, as it is written, *He gaue them bread from heauen to eate.

*Exo.16.14. Numb.11.7. Psa.78.24. Wis.16.20.

32 Then Iesus sayde vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, Moses gaue you not that bread from heauen, but my father geueth you the true bread from heauen.

33 For the bread of God, is he which commeth downe from heauen, and geueth lyfe vnto the worlde.

34 Then sayde they vnto him, Lorde, euermore geue vs this bread.

35 And Iesus sayde vnto them, I am the bread of lyfe: he that commeth to me, shall not hunger in any wyse: * and he that beleeueth on me, shal neuer thirst.

*Eccl.24.19

36 But I say vnto you, that ye also haue seene me, and yet ye beleeue not.

37 All that the father geueth me, shal come to me, me, and hym that commeth to me, I wyl in no wyse cast out.

38 For I came downe from heauen, not to doo myne owne wyll, but the wyll of hym that sent me.

39 And this is the fathers wyll which hath sent me, that of al which he hath geuen me, I shall loose nothing, but rayse it vp againe at the last day.

40 And this is the wyl of him that sent me, that euery one whiche seeth the sonne, and beleeueth on him, may haue euerlastyng lyfe: & I wyl rayse him vp at the last day.

41 The Iewes then murmured at him, because he saide, I am the bread of lyfe whiche came downe from heauen.

Mat.13.55 42 And they sayd,* Is not this Iesus, the sonne of Ioseph, whose father and mother we knowe? Howe is it then that he sayth, I came downe from heauen.

43 Iesus answeared, and sayde vnto them, Murmure not among your selues.

44 No man can come to me, except the father, whiche hath sent me, drawe him: and I wyll rayse him vp at the last day.

48 I am that bread of lyfe.

Exo.16.15. 49 * Your fathers dyd eate * Manna in the wyldernesse, and are dead.

50 This is that bread whiche commeth downe from heauen, that yf any man eate thereof, he should not dye.

51 I am that liuing bread, whiche came downe from heauen. Yf any man eate of this bread, he shal lyue for euer: & the bread that I wyl geue, is my flesshe, which I wyll geue for the lyfe of the worlde.

52 The Iewes therefore strone amongst them selues, saying, Howe can this felowe geue vs that flesshe of his to eate?

53 Then Iesus sayd vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, Except ye eate the flesh of the sonne of man, and drinke his blood, ye haue no lyfe in you.

1.Co.11.27 54 * Who so eateth my flesshe, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life, and I wil rayse hym vp at the last day.

55 For my flesshe is meate in deede, and my blood is drinke in deede.

56 He that eateth my flesshe, and drynketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in hym.

57 As the liuyng father hath sent me, and I lyue by the father: Euen so, he that eateth me, shall lyue by the meanes of me.

58 This is that bread whiche came downe from heauen: not as your fathers dyd eate Manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread, shal lyue euer.

59 These thynges saith he in the synygogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

60 Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, sayde, This is an hard saying, who can abide the hearyng of it?

61 When Iesus knewe in him selfe that his disciples murmured at it, he saide vnto them, Doeth this offend you?

62 What and yf ye shal see the sonne of man assend * vp thyther where he was before?

63 It is the spirite that quickeneth, the flesshe profiteth a nothyng: The woordes that I speake vnto you, are spirite and life.

64 But there are some of you that beleeue not. For Iesus knew from the beginning, whiche they were that beleeued not, & who should betray him.

65 And he sayde, Therefore sayde I vnto you, that no man can come vnto me, except it were geuen vnto hym of my father.

66 From that time many of his disciples went backe, and walked no more with him.

67 Then sayd Iesus vnto the twelue, Wyl ye also goe away?

68 Then Simon Peter answeared hym, Lorde, to whom shal we goe? Thou hast the woordes of eternall lyfe:

69 * And we beleeue and are sure that thou art that Christ, the sonne of the liuing god.

70 Iesus answeared them, Haue not I chosen you twelue, and one of you is a deuyl?

71 He spake of Judas Iscariot the sonne of Simon: for he it was that shoulde betray hym, being one of the twelue.

*John.3.13. a. To wit, yf it be separate frō the spirit, whereof it hath the force. For it cōmeth of the power of the sprite, that the flesshe geueth vs lyfe, and feedeth vs: And therefore, that we may be truely fed and nourished with it, we must bryng the spirituall mouth of fayth to receiue it.

*Mat.16.16

¶ The.vii.Chapter.

i. Iesus fled the murmuring Iewes. 5. Christes kynsmen beleeued not on him.

1 After these thinges, Iesus went about in Galilee: for he would not goe about in Iurie, because that ỳ Iewes sought to kyll hym.

2 * The Iewes feast of tabernacles a was at hand. *Leui.23.34

3 His brethren therefore sayde vnto hym, Get thee hence, & go into Iurie, that thy disciples also may see the woorkes that thou dooest.

a. At this feast they dwelled seuen dayes in theyr tentes.

4 For there is no man that doth any thing in secrete, and he hym selfe seeketh to be knowen openly: Yf thou doo such things, shew thee selfe to the worlde.

5 For neither his brethren beleeued in hym.

6 Then

6 Then Iesus sayde vnto them, My tyme is not yet come: but your tyme is alway redy.

7 The worlde can not hate you, but me it hateth, because I testifie of it, that ỹ workes thereof are euyl.

*Iohn.8.20 8 Goe ye vp vnto this feaste: I goe not vp yet vnto this feast, * for my tyme is not yet full come.

9 When he had sayde these woordes vnto them, he abode still in Galilee.

10 But when his brethren were gone vp, then went he also vp vnto ỹ feast, not openly, but as it were priuily.

11 Then sought hym the Iewes at the feast, and sayde, Where is he?

12 And much murmuring of hym was there among the people: For some sayde, He is good: Other sayde, Nay: but he deceiueth the people.

13 Howbeit, no man spake openly of hym, for feare of the Iewes.

14 Nowe when halfe of the feast was done, Iesus went vp into the temple, and taught.

15 And the Iewes marueyled, saying, How knoweth he the scriptures, seeing that he neuer learned?

16 Iesus answeared them, and sayde, My doctrine is not myne, but his that sent me.

17 If any man will doo his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of god, or whether I speake of mee selfe.

18 He that speaketh of him selfe, seeketh his owne glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent hym, the same is true, and no vnrighteousnesse is in hym.

*Exod.24.3 19 * Dyd not Moses geue you the lawe, and

*Iohn.5.18. yet none of you keepeth the lawe? * Why goe ye about to kyll me?

20 The people answeared, and sayd, Thou hast ỹ deuil: Who goeth about to kil thee?

21 Iesus answeared, and said vnto them, I haue done one woorke, and ye all marueile.

*Leuit.12.3. 22 *Moses therefore gaue vnto you the circumcision (not because it is of Moses, but *Gen.17.10 of the fathers) and yet ye on the Sabboth day circumcise a man.

23 If a man on the Sabboth day receiue circumcision, without breaking of the lawe of Moses: disdayne ye at me, because I haue made a man euerywhit whole on the Sabboth day?

*Deut.1.16. 24 * Iudge not after the vtter appearance, but iudge with a righteous iudgement.

25 Then sayd some of them of Hierusalem, Is not this he, whom they goe about to kyll?

*or, openly. 26 But loe, he speaketh *boldely, and they say nothing vnto hym: Doo the rulers know in deede that this is very Christe?

27 Howbeit, we know this man whence he is: but when Christe commeth, no man knoweth whence he is.

28 Then cryed Iesus in the temple as he taught, saying, Ye both knowe me, and whence I am, ye know, and I am not come of mee selfe, but he that sent me is true, whom ye knowe not.

29 But I knowe hym, for I am of him, and he hath sent me.

30 Then they sought to take hym: but no man layd handes on him, because his houre was not yet come.

31 Many of the people beleeued on hym, and sayde, When Christe commeth, wyl he doo moe myracles then these that this man hath done?

32 The Pharisees hearde that the people murmured such thynges concernyng him: And the Pharisees and the hygh priestes sent seruantes to take hym.

33 Then saide Iesus vnto them, Yet am I a little whyle with you, and then I goe vnto hym that sent me.

34 * Ye shal seeke me, and shal not finde me: and where I am, thyther can ye not come. *Iohn.13.33

35 Then sayde the Iewes among them selues, Whyther wyll he goe, that we shall not finde him? Wyll he goe vnto ỹ dispersed among the Gretians, and teache the Gentiles?

36 What maner of saying is this that he said, Ye shall seeke me, and shall not finde me? and where I am, thyther can ye not come.

37 In the last day, that * great day of the feast, Iesus stoode, and cryed, saying, If any man thyrst, let hym come vnto me, and drinke: *Leui.23.36

38 * He that beleeueth on me, as the scripture hath sayde, out of his belly shall flowe ryuers of water of lyfe. *Deut.18.15

39 (*But this spake he of the spirite which they that beleeue on hym shoulde receiue. For the holy ghost was not yet " there, because that Iesus was not yet glorified.) *Ioel. 2.28. Actes. 2.17. "or, geuen: vnderstanding by the holy ghost, the visible gifts of the holy ghost

40 Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, sayde, Of a trueth this is the prophete.

41 But other sayde, This is Christe. But some sayde, Shall Christe come out of Galilee?

42 * Hath not the scripture sayde, that Christe commeth of the seede of Dauid, and out of the towne of Bethlehem, where Dauid was? *Miche.5.2. Math.2.5.

43 So was there dissention among the people because of hym.

44 And some of them woulde haue taken hym, but no man layd handes on hym.

45 Then

45 Then came the ſeruauntes to the hygh Prieſtes and Phariſees, and ſayde vnto them, Why haue ye not brought hym?
46 The ſeruauntes anſwearedNeuer man ſpake as this man doeth.
47 Then anſwered them the Phariſees, Are ye alſo deceyued?
48 Haue any of the rulers or of the Phariſees beleeued on hym?
49 But this common people whiche knowe not the lawe, are curſed.
Iohn.3.2. 50 Nichodemus ſaith vnto them, (He that came to Ieſus by nyght, beyng one of them,) 51 Doeth our lawe iudge any man before it
Deu.17.8. and.19.15. heare hym, and knowe what he doeth?
52 They anſwered, and ſayde vnto hym, Art thou alſo of Galilee? ſearch, and looke: for out of Galilee aryſeth no prophet.
53 And euery man went vnto his owne houſe.

¶ The. viii. Chapter.

12. Chriſte the light of the vvorlde. 36. Abraham dyd ſee Chriſtes day.

1 IEſus went out vnto mount Oliuete:
2 And early in the morning he came againe into the temple, and all the people came vnto hym, and he ſate downe, and taught them.
3 And the Scribes and Phariſees brought vnto hym a woman taken in adulterie, and when they had ſet her in the myddes,
4 They ſay vnto hym, Maiſter, this woman was taken in adulterie, euen as the deede was a doyng.
Luk.20.10. 5 *Moſes in the lawe commaunded vs that ſuch ſhould be ſtoned, but what ſayeſt thou?
6 This they ſayd, tempting hym, that they myght accuſe hym. But Ieſus ſtowped downe, and with his fynger wrote on the grounde, as though he hearde them not.
7 So when they continued aſking hym, he
*Deu.17.7. lyft vp hym ſelfe, and ſayde vnto them, *Let hym that is among you without ſinne, firſte caſt the ſtone at her.
8 And agayne, he ſtowped downe, & wrote on the grounde.
9 And when they heard this, being accuſed of their owne conſciences, they went out one by one, begynnyng at the eldeſt, euen vnto the laſt: and Ieſus was left alone, and the woman ſtandyng in the myddes.
10 When Ieſus had lyft vp hym ſelfe, and ſawe no man but the woman, he ſayd vnto her, Woman, where are thoſe thyne accuſers? hath no man condemned thee?
11 She ſayde, No man Lorde. And Ieſus ſayde, Neyther doo I condemne thee: Goe, and ſinne no more.
12 Then ſpake Ieſus agayne vnto them, ſaying, *I am the lyght of the worlde: He that foloweth me, ſhall not in any wyſe walke in darkneſſe, but ſhal haue the lyght of lyfe. *Iohn.1.5. and.9.5.
13 The Phariſees therfore ſayd vnto hym, Thou beareſt recorde of thee ſelfe, thy recorde is not true.
14 Ieſus anſwered, and ſayde vnto them, *Though I beare recorde of mee ſelfe, yet my recorde is true: for I knowe whence I came, and whyther I goe: but ye can not tel whence I come, and whyther I goe. *Iohn.5.31.
15 Ye iudge after the fleſh, I iudge no man,
16 And yf I iudge, my iudgement is true: for I am not alone, but I and the father that ſent me.
17 *It is alſo written in your lawe, that the teſtimonie of two men is true. *Deut.17.6 and.19.15.
18 I am one that beareth witneſſe of mee ſelfe, and the father that ſent me, beareth witneſſe of me. Mat.18.16. 2.Cor.13.1. Heb.10.28.
19 Then ſayde they vnto hym, Where is thy father? Ieſus anſwered, Ye neyther knowe me, nor yet my father, yf ye had knowen me, ye ſhoulde haue knowen my father alſo.
20 Theſe wordes ſpake Ieſus in the treaſurie, as he taught in the temple: and no man layd handes on him, for his houre was not yet come.
21 Then ſayde Ieſus agayne vnto them, I goe my way, and ye ſhal ſeeke me, and ſhall dye in your ſinnes: Whither I goe, thyther can ye not come?
22 Then ſayde the Iewes, Wyl he kyl him ſelfe, becauſe he ſayth, Whyther I goe, thither can ye not come?
23 And he ſayde vnto them, Ye are from beneathe, I am from aboue: ye are of this worlde, I am not of this worlde.
24 I ſayde therefore vnto you, that ye ſhall die in your ſinnes. For if ye beleeue not that I am he, ye ſhal dye in your ſinnes.
25 Then ſayde they vnto hym, Who art thou? And Ieſus ſayth vnto them, Euen the very ſame thyng that I ſayde vnto you from the begynnyng.
26 I haue many thyngs to ſay, and to iudge of you: Yea, and he that ſent me is true, and I ſpeake to the worlde thoſe thynges whiche I haue hearde of hym.
27 Howbeit, they vnderſtoode not that he ſpake to them of his father.
28 Then ſayde Ieſus vnto them, When ye haue lyft vp an high the ſonne of man, then ſhal ye knowe that I am he, & that I do nothyng of mee ſelfe: but as my father hath taught me, euen ſo I ſpeake theſe thynges.

29 And he that sent me, is with me, the father hath not left me alone: for I doo alwayes those thynges that please hym.
30 As he spake those woordes, manye beleeued on hym.
31 Then sayde Iesus to those Iewes which beleued on him, If ye continue in my woord, then are ye my very disciples.
32 And ye shall knowe the trueth, and the trueth shal make you free.
a. These were not those Iewes that beleeued, but mockers, & beleeued not.
33 They a answeared hym, We be Abrahams seede, and were neuer bonde to any man: howe sayest thou then, Ye shalbe made free?
*Rom.6.20 2.Pet.2.19.
34 Iesus answeared them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, *That whosoeuer committeth sinne, is the seruaunt of sinne.
35 And the seruaunt abydeth not in the house for euer: but the sonne abydeth euer.
36 If the sonne therfore shal make you free, then ye shalbe free in deede.
37 I know that ye are Abrahams seede, but ye seeke meanes to kyll me, because my woord hath no place in you.
38 I speake that whiche I haue seene with my father: and ye doo that whiche ye haue seene with your father.
39 They answeared and sayde vnto hym, Abraham is our father. Iesus sayth vnto them, If ye were Abrahams children, ye woulde doo the woorkes of Abraham.
40 But nowe ye goe about to kyl me, a man that hath tolde you the trueth, whiche I haue heard of God: this dyd not Abraham.
41 Ye doo the deedes of your father. Then sayde they to him, We be not borne of fornication, we haue one father, euen God.
42 Iesus sayde vnto them, If God were your father, truely ye woulde loue me, for I proceeded foorth, and came from God: neyther came I of mee selfe, but he sent me.
43 Why doo ye not knowe my speach? euen because ye can not heare my woorde.
*1.John 3.8
44 *Ye are of your father the deuyll, and the lustes of your father wyll ye doo: he was a murderer from the begynnyng, and abode not in the trueth, because there is no trueth in hym. When he speaketh a lye, he speaketh of his owne: For he is a lyer, and the father of it.
45 And because I tel you the trueth, therefore ye beleeue me not.
The Gospel on the v. Sunday in Lent.
46 *Which of you rebuketh me of sinne? If I say the trueth, why doo ye not beleue me?
*1.Joh.4.6.
47 He that is of God, heareth Gods woords, Ye therefore heare them not, because ye are not of God.
48 Then answeared the Iewes, and sayde vnto hym, Say we not well that thou art a Samaritane, and hast a deuyl?
49 Iesus answered, I haue not a deuyl: but I honour my father, & ye doo dishonour me.
50 I seeke not myne owne glory, there is one that seeketh, and iudgeth.
51 Verely, verely I say vnto you, If a man keepe my saying, he shal neuer see death.
52 Then sayd the Iewes vnto hym, Nowe knowe we that thou hast a deuyl. Abraham is dead, and the prophetes: and thou sayest, If a man keepe my saying, he shall neuer taste of death.
53 Art thou greater then our father Abraham, whiche is dead? and the prophetes are dead: whom makest thou thee selfe?
54 Iesus answeared, If I glorifie mee self, my glorye is nothyng: It is my father that glorifieth me, whiche ye say, that he is your God:
55 And yet ye haue not knowen hym, but I knowe hym: and yf I say that I knowe hym not, I shalbe a lyer lyke vnto you: but I knowe hym, and keepe his saying.
56 Your father Abraham was b glad to see my day: and he sawe it, and reioyced.
b. To see the commyng of Christe in the flesshe, whiche thyng Abraham dyd see a farre of, with the eyes of fayth.
57 Then sayde the Iewes vnto hym, Thou art not yet fyftie yeeres olde, and hast thou seene Abraham?
58 Iesus sayde vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, Before Abraham was, I am.
59 Then toke they vp stones to cast at him: but Iesus was hydde, and went out of the temple.

¶ Th.ix.Chapter.

Christe restoreth sight vpon the Sabboth day to hym that was borne blynde.

1 AND as Iesus passed by, he sawe a man which was blind from his birth.
2 And his disciples asked hym, saying, Maister, who did sinne, this man, or his parentes, that he was borne blinde?
3 Iesus answeared, Neyther hath this man sinned, nor yet his parentes: but that the woorkes of God shoulde be made manifest in hym.
4 I must woorke the woorkes of hym that sent me, whyle it is a day: The nyght commeth, when no man can woorke.
a. While opportunitie serueth.
5 As long as I am in the world, * I am the lyght of the worlde.
*John.1.9. and.8.12. and.12.35.
6 When he had thus spoken, he spyt on the grounde, and made claye of the spyttle, and he annoynted the claye vpon the eyes of the blynde,
7 And sayd vnto hym, Goe washe thee in the poole of Siloe (whiche by interpretation is as muche to say, as sent.) He went his way therefore, and washed, and came again seeing.

8 The

8 The neyghbours therefore, and they that had seene him before when he was blynde, sayde, Is not this he that sate and begged?

9 Some sayde, This is he: Other sayde, He is lyke him. He hym selfe sayde, I am euen he.

10 Therfore sayde they vnto hym, Howe were thine eyes opened?

11 He answeared, and sayde, The man that is called Iesus, made clay, and annoynted mine eyes, and sayde vnto me, Goe to the poole Siloe, and washe: and when I went and washed, I receyued my sight.

12 Then sayde they vnto hym, Where is he? He sayde, I can not tel.

13 They brought to the Pharisees hym, that a litle before was blinde.

14 And it was the Sabboth day when Iesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Then agayne the Pharisees also asked hym howe he had receyued his syght. He sayde vnto them, He put clay vpon myne eyes, and I washed, and doo see.

16 Therefore sayde some of the Pharisees, This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the Sabboth day. Other sayde, Howe can a man that is a synner doo suche myracles? and there was a *strife among them.

*Wasciſme.

17 They say vnto the blynde man agayne, What sayest thou of hym, because he hath opened thine eyes? He sayde, He is a prophete.

18 But the Iewes did not beleeue the man howe that he had been blynde, and receyued his sight, vntyl they called the parentes of him that had receyued his syght.

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your sonne, whom ye say that he was borne blynde? howe doth he nowe see then?

20 His parentes answeared them, & sayde, We knowe that this is our sonne, and that he was borne blynde:

21 But by what meanes he nowe seeth, we can not tel, or who hath opened his eyes, can not we tel, he is of age, aske hym, he shal speake for him selfe.

22 Suche woordes spake his parentes, because they feared the Iewes: for the Iewes had agreed alredy, that if any man did confesse that he was Christe, he shoulde be excommunicate out of the synagogue.

23 Therefore sayde his parentes, He is of age, aske hym.

24 Then agayne called they the man that was blynde, and sayde vnto hym, Geue GOD the prayse, we knowe that this man is a synner.

25 He answeared, and sayde, Whether he be a synner or no, I can not tel: One thyng I am sure of, that whereas I was blynde, nowe I see.

26 Then sayde they to hym agayne, What dyd he to thee? Howe opened he thine eyes?

27 He answeared them, I tolde you yer while, and ye did not heare: wherefore woulde you heare it agayne? Wyl ye also be his disciples?

28 Then rated they him, and sayd, Thou art his disciple: we are Moses disciples.

29 We are sure that God spake vnto Moses: as for this felowe, we knowe not from whence he is.

30 The man answeared, and sayde vnto them, This is a marueylous thyng, that ye wote not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.

31 For we be sure that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a woorshipper of God, and doeth his wyl, hym heareth he.

32 Since the world began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was borne blinde:

33 If this man were not of God, he coulde doo nothyng.

34 They answeared, and sayde vnto him, Thou art altogeather borne in sinne, and dooest thou teache vs? And they cast hym out.

35 Iesus heard that they had excommunicate hym: and when he had founde him, he sayde vnto him, Dooest thou beleeue on the sonne of God?

36 He answeared and sayde, Who is he Lorde, that I might beleeue on hym?

37 And Iesus sayde vnto hym, Thou hast both seene hym, and it is he that talketh with thee.

38 And he sayde, Lorde, I beleeue: and he b woorshipped him.

b. He declared his fayth by his outwarde profession.

39 And Iesus sayde vnto hym, *I am come vnto iudgement in this worlde, that they which see not, might see: and that they which see, might be made blinde.

*Iohn. 3. 17. and. 12. 47.

40 And some of the Pharisees which were with him heard these woordes, and sayd vnto him, Are we blinde also?

41 Iesus sayd vnto them, If ye were blind, ye shoulde haue no sinne, but nowe ye say, We see: therefore your sinne remayneth.

¶ The. x. Chapter.

1. Christe the true shepheardе, and the doore.
34. Princes called goddes.

1 VEryly, veryly I say vnto you, He that entreth not in by the dooze into the sheepefolde, but climeth vp some other way, the same is a theefe, and robber.

The Gospel on the Tuesday after VVhitsunday.

2 But he that entreth in by the dooze, is the shepheard of the sheepe.
3 To him the porter openeth, and the sheepe heare his voyce, and he calleth his owne sheepe by name, and leadeth them out.
4 And when he hath put foorth his owne sheepe, he goeth before them, & the sheepe folowe him: for they knowe his voyce.
5 A stranger wyl they in no wyse folowe, but wyl flee from him, for they knowe not the voyce of strangers.
6 This proverbe spake Iesus vnto them: but they vnderstoode not what thynges they were which he spake vnto them.
7 Then sayde Iesus vnto them agayne, Verily, verily I say vnto you, I am the dooze of the sheepe.
a. He meaneth al false prophetes, who led not men to Christe, but from hym to other, or els preached them selues.
8 Al a euen as many as came before me, are theeues and robbers: but the sheepe did not heare them.
9 I am the dooze: by me if any man enter in, he shalbe safe, and shal goe in, and goe out, and finde pasture.
10 The theefe commeth not but for to steale, kyl, and to destroy: I am come that they might haue lyfe, and that they might haue it more abundantly.
The Gospel on the seconde sunday after Easter.
11 I am the *good shepheard, the good shepheard geueth his lyfe for the sheepe.

12 An hyrelyng, and he whiche is not the shepheard, neyther the sheepe are his owne, seeth tye woolfe commyng, and leaueth the sheepe, and fleeth: and the woolfe catcheth them, and scattereth the sheepe.
13 The hyrelyng fleeth, because he is an hyrelyng, and careth not for the sheepe.
14 I am the good shepheard, and knowe my sheepe, and am knowen of mine.
15 As the father knoweth me, euen so knowe I also the father: and I geue my lyfe for the sheepe.
b. To wit, they among the gentiles when they were strangers from Gods Churche.
16 And other b sheepe I haue, whiche are not of this folde: them also I must bryng, and they shal heare my voyce, * and there shalbe one folde and one shepheard.

*Actes.4.28
19 There was a dissention therefore agayne among the Iewes, for these thinges.
20 And many of them sayde, He hath a deuyl, and is mad, why heare ye hym?
21 Other sayd, These are not the wordes of hym that hath a deuyl. Can a deuyl open the eyes of the blynde?
22 *And it was at Hierusalem the feast of the dedication, and it was winter:
*1.Mach.4.59.
23 And Iesus walked in the temple, euen in Solomons porch.
24 Then came the Iewes rounde about hym, and sayde vnto hym, Howe long doest thou make vs to doubt? If thou be Christ, tel vs playnely.
25 Iesus answeared them, I tolde you, and ye beleeued not: the workes that I doo in my fathers name, they beare witnesse of me.
26 But ye beleeue not, because ye are not of my sheepe, as I sayde vnto you.
27 My sheepe heare my voyce, & I knowe them, and they folowe me:
28 And I geue vnto them eternal lyfe, and they shal neuer perishe, neyther shal any man plucke them out of my hande.
29 My father which gaue them me, is greater then al: and no man is able to take them out of my fathers hande.
30 I and my father are one.
31 Then the Iewes tooke vp stones, to stone him vvithal.
32 Iesus answeared them, Many good workes haue I shewed you from my father, for which worke of them doo ye stone me?
33 The Iewes answeared him, saying, For a good worke we stone thee not, but for thy blasphemie, and because that thou, being a man, makest thee selfe God.
34 Iesus answeared them, Is it not writ- *Psal.82.6.

35 If he called them Gods, vnto whom the woorde of God was spoken, and the scripture can not be broken:
36 Say ye of him whom the father hath sanctified and sent into the worlde, Thou blasphemest: because I sayde, I am the sonne of God?
37 If I doo not the woorkes of my father, beleeue me not.
38 But if I doo, and if ye beleeue not me, beleeue the woorkes: that ye may knowe and beleeue that the father is in me, and I in hym.
39 Agayne they went about to take hym: and he escaped out of theyr hande, 40 And went away agayne beyonde Iordane, into the place where Iohn was fyrst baptising: and there he abode.
41 And many resorted vnto hym, and sayd, Iohn did no myracle: but al thinges that Iohn spake of this man, were true.
42 And many beleeued on him there.

¶ The.xi.Chapter.

43. Christ rayseth Lazarus from death. 45. Certayne Iewes beleeue in Christe.

1 A cer-

1 A Certayne man was ſicke, named Lazarus, of Bethanie, the towne of Marie, and her ſyſter Martha.
2 (It was that Marie whiche annoynted the Lorde with oyntment, and wyped his feet with her heare, whoſe brother Lazarus was ſicke.)
3 Therfore his ſiſter ſent vnto hym, ſaying, Lord, behold, he whom thou loueſt is ſicke.
4 When Jeſus heard that, he ſayde, This infirmitie is not vnto death, but for the glorie of God: that the ſonne of God myght be glorified thereby.
5 Jeſus loued Martha, and her ſiſter, and Lazarus.
6 When he had hearde therfore that he was ſicke, he abode two dayes ſtyll in the ſame place where he was.
7 Then after that, ſayth he to his diſciples, Let vs goe into Jurie agayne.
8 His diſciples ſay vnto hym, Maiſter, the Jewes lately ſought to ſtone thee, and goeſt thou thyther agayne?
9 Jeſus anſwered, Are there not twelue houres of the day? If any man walke in the day, he ſtumbleth not: becauſe he ſeeth the lyght of this worlde.
10 But if a man walke in the night, he ſtumbleth: becauſe there is no lyght in hym.
11 Theſe thynges ſayd he, and after that, he ſaith vnto them, Our freende Lazarus ſleepeth, but I goe, that I may awake hym out of ſleepe.
12 Then ſayde his diſciples, Lorde, yf he ſleepe, he ſhal doo wel yenough.
13 Howbeit, Jeſus ſpake of his death: but they thought that he had ſpoken of taking of reſt in ſleepe.
14 Then ſayde Jeſus vnto them playnely, Lazarus is dead:
15 And I am glad for your ſakes that I was not there (becauſe ye may beleue:) Neuertheleſſe, let vs goe vnto hym.
16 Then ſayde Thomas, whiche is called Didymus, vnto his felow diſciples, Let vs alſo goe, that we may dye with hym.
17 Then when Jeſus came, he founde that he had lien in his graue foure dayes alredy.
18 (Bethanie was nigh vnto Hieruſalem, about a fyfteene furlonges of:)
19 And many of the Jewes came to Martha and Marie, to comfort them ouer their brother.
20 Martha, aſ ſoone as ſhe hearde that Jeſus was commyng, went and met him: but Marie ſate ſtyl in the houſe.
21 Then ſayde Martha vnto Jeſus, Lorde, yf thou haddeſt been here, my brother had not dyed.
22 But euen nowe I knowe, that whatſoeuer thou wylt aſke of God, God wyll gene it thee.
23 Jeſus ſayth vnto her, Thy brother ſhall ryſe agayne.
24 Martha ſayth vnto hym, I knowe that he ſhall ryſe agayne in the * reſurrection at the laſt day. *Iohn.5.29 Luke.14.14
25 Jeſus ſayde vnto her, I am the reſurrection and the * lyfe: he that beleeueth on me, yea though he were dead, yet ſhal he lyue. *Iohn.6.35.
26 And whoſoeuer lyueth, and beleeueth on me, ſhall neuer dye. Beleeueſt thou this?
27 She ſayth vnto hym, Yea Lorde, I beleue that thou art Chriſt the ſonne of God, whiche ſhould come into the worlde.
28 And when ſhe had ſo ſayde, ſhe went her way, and called Marie her ſiſter ſecretely, ſaying, The maiſter is come, and calleth for thee.
29 Aſ ſoone as ſhe hearde that, ſhe aryſeth quickly, and commeth vnto hym.
30 Jeſus was not yet come into the towne: but was in that place where Martha met hym.
31 The Jewes then whiche were with her in the houſe, and comforted her, when they ſawe Marie that ſhe roſe vp haſtily, & went out, folowed her, ſaying, She goeth vnto the graue, to weepe there.
32 Then when Marie was come where Jeſus was, and ſawe hym, ſhe fel downe at his feete, ſaying vnto hym, Lorde, yf thou haddeſt been here, my brother had not been dead.
33 When Jeſus therfore ſawe her weeping, and the Jewes alſo weepyng, whiche came with her, he groned b in the ſpirite, and was troubled in hym ſelfe, 34 And ſayde, Where haue ye layde hym? They ſay vnto hym, Lorde, come, and ſee.
35 Jeſus wept.
36 Then ſayde the Jewes, Beholde howe he loued hym.
37 And ſome of them ſayde, Could not this man, * which opened the eyes of the blinde, haue cauſed that this man alſo ſhoulde not haue dyed? *Iohn.9.6.
38 Jeſus therefore agayne gronyng in hym ſelfe, commeth to the graue: It was a caue, and a ſtone layde on it.
39 Jeſus ſayde, Take ye away the ſtone. Martha, the ſiſter of him that was dead, ſayth vnto hym, Lord, by this tyme he ſtynketh: for he hath been dead foure dayes.
40 Jeſus ſayth vnto her, Sayde I not vnto thee, that yf thou wouldeſt beleeue, thou ſhouldeſt ſee the glorie of God?
41 Then they tooke away the ſtone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus lyft vp his eyes, and sayde, Father, I thanke thee that thou hast heard me.

42 Howbeit, I knowe that thou hearest me alwayes: but because of the people whiche stand by, I sayde it, that they maye beleeue that thou hast sent me.

43 And when he thus had spoken, he cryed with a loude voyce, Lazarus, come forth.

44 And he that was dead, came forth, bound hand and foote with graue clothes, and his face was bounde about with a napkyn. Iesus sayth vnto them, Loose hym, and let hym goe.

45 Then many of the Iewes whiche came to Marie, and had seene the thynges which Iesus dyd, beleeued on hym.

46 But some of them went their wayes to the Pharisees, and tolde them what Iesus had doone.

47 Then gathered the hygh Priestes and the Pharisees a counsel, and sayde, What doo we? for this man doeth many miracles.

48 If we let him scape thus, al men wyl beleeue on hym, & the Romanes c shal come, and take away both our roome, and the people.

c. By the same way that they thought to escape daunger, they fel into it.

49 And one of them, named Caiaphas, being the hygh Priest that same yeere, sayde vnto them, Ye perceyue nothyng at al,

*Ioh.14.8. 50 *Nor consyder that it is expedient for vs, that one man should dye for the people, and not that al the nation perysh.

51 This spake he not of him selfe, but being hygh Priest that same yeere, he prophesied that Iesus should dye for that nation.

52 And not for that nation onely, but that also he should geather togeather in one the chyldren of God that were scattred abrode.

53 Then from that day forth, they tooke counsel togeather for to put hym to death.

54 Iesus therefore walked no more openly among ỳ Iewes: but went his way thence vnto a countrey nygh to a wylderneſſe, into a citie whiche is called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.

55 And the Iewes Easter was nigh at hand, and many went out of the countrey vp to Hierusalem before the Easter, to purifie them selues.

56 Then sought they for Iesus, and spake among them selues, as they stoode in the temple, What thynke ye, seeyng he commeth not to the feast day?

57 Both the hygh Priestes and the Pharisees had geuen a commaundement, that yf any man knewe where he were, he shoulde shewe it, that they myght take hym.

¶ The xii Chapter.

a. Marie anoynteth Iesus feete. 37. Wherefore the Iewes beleeue not.

1 THen *Iesus before sixe dayes of the Passeouer, came to Bethanie, where Lazarus was, whiche had been dead, whom he rayled from death. *Mat.26.6. Mark.14.3.

2 There they made him a supper, and Martha serued: but Lazarus was one of them that sate at the table with hym.

3 Then tooke Marie a pound of oyntment, of Spyke narde, very costly, and annoynted Iesus feete, & wyped his feete cleane with her heare: and the house was fylled with the odour of the oyntment.

4 Then sayth one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simons sonne, whiche should betray hym, 5 Why was not this oyntment sold for three hundred pence, and geuen to the poore?

6 *This he sayde, not that he cared for the poore: but because he was a theefe, & had the a bagge, and bare that whiche was geuen. *Ioh.13.29.

a. The wicked thinke al lost that scapeth their handes.

7 Then sayde Iesus, Let her alone, agaynst the day of my burying hath she kept this.

8 For the poore alwayes ye haue with you: but me haue ye not alwayes.

9 Muche people of the Iewes therefore had knowledge that he was there: and they came, not for Iesus sake only, but that they myght see Lazarus also, whom he rayled from death.

10 But the high Priestes held a counsel, that they myght put Lazarus to death also, 11 Because that for his sake many of the Iewes went away, and beleeued on Iesus.

12 *On the next day, much people that were come to the feast, when they heard that Iesus commeth to Hierusalem, *Mat.21.8. Mar.11.7.

13 Tooke branches of Palme trees, and went forth to meete hym, and cryed, b Hosanna, blessed is he that commeth in the name of the Lorde, kyng of Israel.

b. That is, Saue I beseech thee.

14 And Iesus, when he had found a young Asse, sate thereon, as it is wrytten, 15 Feare not daughter of Sion, behold, thy kyng commeth, sittyng on an Asses Colte. *Zacha.9.9.

16 These thynges understoode not his disciples at the first, but when Iesus was glorified, then remembred they that such thynges were wrytten of hym, and that suche thynges they had doone vnto hym.

17 The people that was with him, when he called Lazarus out of his graue, and raised him from death, bare recorde.

18 Therfore met him the people also, because they heard that he had doone suche a miracle.

19 The Pharisees therefore sayde among them selues, Perceyue ye howe ye preuayle nothyng? Beholde, al the whole worlde is gone after hym.

20 There were certayne Greekes among them, them, that came to worship at the feast.

21 The same came therefore to Philip, which was of Bethsaida, a citie of Galilee, and desyred him, saying, Sir, we would fayne see Jesus.
22 Philip commeth and telleth Andrewe: and againe Andrewe & Philip tolde Jesus.
23 And Jesus answered them, saying, The houre is come, that the sonne of man should be glorified.
24 Verily, verily I say vnto you, Except the wheate corne fal into the grounde, and dye, it abydeth alone: if it dye, it bringeth foorth muche fruite.
*Mat.10.39 and.16.25. Mark.8.35. Luke.9.24. and.17.33.
25 *He that loueth his lyfe, shal loose it: and he that hateth his lyfe in this worlde, shall keepe it vnto lyfe eternal.
26 If any man minister vnto me, let him folowe me: and where I am, there shal also my minister be: If any man minister vnto me, him wyl my father honour.
27 Nowe is my soule troubled, and what shal I say: Father, saue me from this houre, but therefore came I into this houre.
28 Father glorifie thy name. Then came there a voyce from heauen, saying, I haue both glorified it, and wyl glorifie it againe.
29 The people therefore that stoode by, and heard it, sayde that it thundred, other sayd, An angel spake to him.
30 Jesus answeared and sayd, This voyce came not because of me, but for your sakes.
31 Nowe is the iudgement of this worlde: Nowe shal the prince of this worlde be cast out.
32 And I, if I were lyft vp from the earth, wyl drawe al men vnto me.
33 (This he sayde, signifying what death he should dye.)
*Psal.110.4 Esai.40.8. 34 The people answeared him, *We haue heard out of the lawe, that Christe dyeth euer: and howe sayest thou, the sonne of man must be lyft vp? Who is that sonne of man?
*John.1.9. 35 Then Jesus sayd vnto them, Yet a litle while is the *light with you: walke while ye haue light, lest the darkenesse come on you: For he that walketh in the darke, wotteth not whyther he goeth.
36 While ye haue light, beleeue on the light, that ye may be the children of the light. These thinges spake Jesus, and departed, and was hid from them.
37 But though he had done so many myracles before them, yet beleeued not they on him:
*Esai.53.1. Rom.10.16. 38 That the saying of Esaias the prophete might be fulfylled, which he spake, *Lord, Who hath beleeued our saying? and to whom hath the arme of the Lorde been declared?
39 Therefore couldе they not beleeue, because that Esaias sayde agayne,

*Esai.6.9. Math.13.14 Mark.4.12. Luke.8.11. Actes.28.26
41 Suche thinges sayde Esaias, when he sawe his glory, and spake of him.
42 Neuertheless, among the cheefe rulers also many beleeued on him: but because of the Pharisees they did not confesse him, lest they shoulde be put out of the synagogue.
43 *For they loued the prayse of men, more then the prayse of God.
*John.5.44
44 Jesus cryed, and sayde, He that beleeueth on me, beleeueth not on me, but on him that sent me.
45 And he that seeth me, seeth him that sent me.
46 I am come, * a light into the worlde, that who so euer beleeueth on me, shoulde not bide in darkenesse.
*John.8.18. and.9.39.
47 *And if any man heare my wordes, and beleeue not, I iudge him not: For I came not to iudge the worlde, but to saue the worlde.
*John.3.17.
48 He that refuseth me, and receyueth not my wordes, hath one that iudgeth him: *the worde that I haue spoken, the same shal iudge him in the last day.
*Mar.16.26
49 For I haue not spoken of mee selfe: but the father which sent me, he gaue me a commaundement what I shoulde say, and what I shoulde speake.
50 And I knowe that his commaundement is lyfe euerlasting: What so euer I speake therefore, euen as the father bade me, so I speake.

¶ The.xiii. Chapter.

13. Christ washeth the apostles fete, 35. whereby Christes disciples are knowen.

1 BEfore *the feast of the Passeouer, when Jesus knewe that his houre was come that he should depart out of this worlde vnto the father, when he loued his owne which were in the worlde, vnto the ende he loued them.
*Mat.26.2. Mark.14.1. Luke.22.1.
2 *And when it was nowe supper (after that the deuyl had put in the hart of Judas Iscariot Simons sonne to betray him.)
*Some reade, and when supper was ended.
3 Jesus knowyng that the father had geuen al thynges into his handes, and that he was come from GOD, and went to GOD.
4 He riseth from supper, & layeth aside his vpper garmentes: and when he had taken a towel, he gyrded hym selfe.

5 After that he powreth water into a bason, and began to washe the disciples feete, and to wipe them cleane with the towel wherewith he was girded.

6 Then commeth he to Simon Peter: and Peter sayth vnto him, Lorde, doest thou washe my feete?

7 Iesus answeared, and sayde vnto hym, What I doo, thou woteſt not nowe: but thou shalt knowe hereafter.

8 Peter sayth vnto him, Thou shalt neuer washe my feete. Iesus answeared hym, If I washe thee not, thou hast no part with me.

9 Simon Peter sayth vnto him, Lorde, not my feete onely, but also my handes, and my head.

10 Iesus sayth to hym, He that is washed, needeth not saue to washe his feete, but is cleane euery whit: And ye are cleane, not al.

11 For he knewe who it was that should betray hym: therefore sayde he, Ye are not al cleane.

12 So after he had washed their feete, and receyued his clothes, and was set downe agayne, he sayde vnto them, Wote ye what I haue done to you?

13 Ye cal me Maister and Lord, and ye say wel: for so am I.

14 If I then your Lorde and Maister haue washed your feete, ye also ought to washe one anothers feete.

15 For I haue geuen you an ensample, that ye shoulde doo as I haue done to you.

16 *Verely, verely I say vnto you, the seruaunt is not greater then his maister, neyther the messenger greater then he that sent hym.

*Ioh.15.20. Mat.10.24 Luke.6.40.

17 If ye knowe these thinges, happie are ye if ye doo them.

18 I speake not of you al, I knowe whom I haue chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled, *He that eateth bread with me, hath lyft vp his a heele agaynst me.

*Psal.41.10 a Vnder pretence of friendship, seeketh his destruction.

19 Nowe tel I you before it come, that when it is come to passe, ye might beleeue that I am he.

20 *Verely, verely I say vnto you, he that receyueth whom so euer I sende, receyueth me: and he that receyueth me, receyueth hym that sent me.

*Mat.10.40 Luke.10.16.

21 *When Iesus had thus sayde, he was troubled in spirite, and testified, and sayd, Verely, verely I say vnto you, that one of you shal betray me.

*Mat.26.21 Mark.14.18 Luke.22.21

22 Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.

23 There was one of Iesus disciples leaning on Iesus bosome, euen he whom Iesus loued.

24 To hym beckened Simon Peter therefore, that he shoulde aske who it shoulde be of whom he spake.

25 He then, when he leaned on Iesus brest, sayde vnto him, Lorde, who is it?

26 Iesus answeared, He it is to whom I shal geue a sop, when I haue dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gaue it to Iudas Iscariot the sonne of Simon.

27 And after *the sop, Satan entred into hym: Then sayde Iesus vnto hym, That thou doest, doo quickly.

*he had taken.

28 That wyst no man at the table, for what intent he spake vnto hym.

29 Some of them thought, because Iudas had the bagge, that Iesus had sayde vnto him, Buy those thinges that we haue neede of agaynst the feast: or that he shoulde geue some thing to the poore.

30 As soone then as he had receyued the sop, he went immediatly out: and it was night.

31 Therefore, when he was gone out, Iesus sayde, Nowe is the sonne of man glorified: and God is glorified in hym.

32 If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in him selfe, & shal straightway glorifie hym.

33 Litle chyldren, yet a litle while am I with you. *Ye shal seeke me: and as I sayd vnto the Iewes, whyther I goe, thyther can ye not come: to you also say I nowe,

*Iohn.7.34.

34 *A newe commaundement geue I vnto you, That ye loue together, as I haue loued you, that euen so ye loue one another.

*Iohn.15.18 Leuit.19.18.

35 By this shal al men knowe that ye are my disciples, yf ye haue loue one to another.

36 *Simon Peter sayde vnto hym, Lorde, whyther goest thou? Iesus answeared him, Whyther I goe, thou canst not folow me nowe: but thou shalt folowe me afterwardes.

*Math.26.24. Mar.24.30 Luke.22.34

37 Peter sayde vnto him, Lorde, why can not I folowe thee nowe? I wyl ieopарde my lyfe for thy sake.

38 Iesus answeared hym, Wylt thou ieopарde thy lyfe for my sake? Verely, verely I say vnto thee, the Cocke shal not crowe, tyl thou haue denied me thryse.

¶ The.xiiii. Chapter.

He armeth his disciples with consolation agaynst troubles.

1 AND he sayde vnto his disciples, Let not your hart be troubled: ye beleeue in God, beleeue also in me.

The Gospel on Saint Philip and Iames day.

2 In my fathers house are many dwel-

lyng places: if it were not so, I would haue tolde you, I goe to prepare a place for you.

3 And if I goe and prepare a place for you, I wyl come agayne, and receyue you euen vnto mee selfe: that where I am, there may ye be also.

4 And whyther I goe, ye knowe, and the way ye knowe.

5 Thomas saith vnto him, Lord, we knowe not whyther thou goest: and howe can we knowe the way?

6 Iesus sayth vnto hym, I am the way, and the trueth, and the lyfe: No man commeth vnto the father, but by me.

7 If ye had knowen me, ye shoulde haue knowen my father also: and nowe ye knowe him, and haue seene hym.

8 Philip sayth vnto him, Lord, shewe vs the father, and it suffiseth vs.

9 Iesus saith vnto him, Haue I been so long tyme with you, and yet hast thou not knowen me? Philip, he that hath seene me, hath seene the father: and howe sayest then, Shewe vs the father?

10 Beleuest thou not that I am in the father, and the father in me? The woordes that I speake vnto you, I speake not of mee selfe: but the father that dwelleth in me, is he that dooth the woorkes.

11 Beleeue me that I am in the father, and the father in me: or els beleeue me for the woorkes sake.

12 Verily, verily I say vnto you, he that beleeueth on me, the woorkes that I doo, the same shal he doo also, and greater woorkes then these shal ye doo: because I goe vnto the father.

*Math.7.7. Mar.11.24. Iames.1.5.

13 *And whatsoeuer ye shall aske in my name, that wyl I doo: that the father may be glorified in the sonne.

14 If ye shal aske any thyng in my name, I wyl doo it.

The Gospel on whitsunday.

15 If ye loue me, keepe my commaundementes,

16 And I wyll pray the father, and he shall geue you another comforter, that he may byde with you for euer.

17 Euen the spirite of trueth, whom the world can not receyue, because the world seeth hym not, neyther knoweth hym: but ye knowe hym, for he dwelleth with you, and shalbe in you.

18 I wyl not leaue you comfortlesse, I come to you.

19 Yet a little whyle, and the world seeth me no more: but ye see me, because I lyue, and ye shal lyue also.

20 That day shall ye knowe, that I am in my father, and you in me, and I in you.

21 He that hath my commaundementes, and keepeth them, the same is he that loueth me: and he that loueth me, shalbe loued of my father, and I will loue him, and will shewe myne owne selfe to hym.

22 Iudas sayth vnto hym, not Iudas Iscariot, Lord, what is done that thou wylt shewe thee selfe vnto vs, and not vnto the world?

23 Iesus answeared, and sayd vnto him, If a man loue me, he wyll keepe my sayinges: and my father wyll loue hym, and we wyll come vnto hym, and make our dwelling with hym.

24 He that loueth me not, keepeth not my sayinges, and the woorde which ye heare is not myne, but the fathers whiche sent me.

25 These thynges haue I spoken vnto you, being yet present with you.

26 But the comforter whiche is the holy ghoste, whom the father wyll sende in my name, he shall teache you all thynges, and bring all thinges to your remembraunce, what so euer I haue sayde vnto you.

27 Peace I leaue with you, my peace I geue vnto you: not as the worlde geueth, geue I vnto you: let not your hart be troubled, neyther let it feare.

28 Ye haue hearde howe I sayde vnto you, I goe away, and come agayne vnto you. If ye loue me, ye would verily reioyce, because I sayde, I goe vnto the father: for the father is greater then I.

29 And nowe haue I shewed you before it come to passe, that when it is come to passe, ye myght beleeue.

30 Hereafter wil I not talke many woordes vnto you: for the a prince of this worlde commeth, and hath nought in b me.

a. Satan is the prince of the world, because he exerciseth tyrannie in this worlde, and worldlings are subiect vnto hym.
b. Because Christe was without sinne.

31 But that the worlde may knowe that I loue the father: and as the father gaue me commaundement, euen so doo I: Vyse, let vs goe hence.

¶ The.xv. Chapter.

5. The consolation betweene Christe and his members, vnder the parable of the vine.

1 I Am the true vine, and my father is the husbandman.

The Gospel on Saint Markes day.

2 Euery * branch that beareth not fruite in me, he taketh away: and euery branche that beareth fruite, he purgeth, that it may bring forth more fruite.

*Mat.15.13.

3 * Nowe are ye cleane through the woorde whiche I haue spoken vnto you.

*Joh.13.11.

4 Byde in me, and I you: As the branche can not beare fruite of it selfe, except it bide in the vine: no more can ye, except ye a abide in me.

a. Those bring foorth no fruite, that are not graft in Christe.

5 I am the vine, ye are the branches: he that that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth foorth much fruite: For without me can ye doo nothing.

6 If a man byde not in me, he is cast foorth as a branche, and withereth, and men gather them, and cast them into the fyre, and they burne.

7 If ye byde in me, and my wordes abide in you, ye shal aske what ye wyl, and it shalbe doone for you.

8 Herein is my father glorified, that ye beare muche fruite, and become my disciples.

9 As the father hath loued me, euen so haue I loued you: continue you in my b loue.

b. That is, the loue wherewith Christ loued vs,

10 If ye kepe my commaundements, ye shal abyde in my loue, euen as I haue kept my fathers commaundementes, & abide in his loue.

11 These thynges haue I spoken vnto you, that my ioy myght remayne in you, and that your ioy myght be ful.

The Gospel on Saint Barnabe Apostle.

12 * This is my commaundement, that ye loue together, as I haue loued you.

Ioh. 13. 16. 1. Ioh. 3. 11. 1. Thes. 4. 9.

13 Greater loue hath no man then this: that a man bestowe his lyfe for his freendes.

14 Ye are my freends, if ye doo whatsoeuer I commaunde you.

15 Hencefoorth cal I not you seruantes, for the seruant knoweth not what his Lorde dooeth, but you haue I called freendes, for al e thinges that I haue heard of my father, haue I made knowen vnto you.

e. So that there is nothing omitted that is necessary for our saluation.

16 * Ye haue not chosen me, but I haue chosen you, and ordeyned you, that you shoulde goe and bring foorth fruite, and that your fruite shoulde remayne: that whatsoeuer ye shal aske of the father in my name, he may geue it you.

Mat. 28. 19

17 This commaunde I you, that ye loue together.

The Gospel on Soint Simon & Iudes day.

18 If the worlde hate you, ye knowe that it hated me before it hated you.

19 If ye were of the world, the world would loue his owne: howbeit, because ye are not of the worlde, but I haue chosen you out of the worlde, therfore the worlde hateth you.

Ioh. 13. 16. Mat. 10. 24.

20 * Remember the worde that I sayd vnto you, The seruant is not greater then the Lord: if they haue persecuted me, they wyl also persecute you: yf they haue kept my saying, they wyl keepe d yours also.

d. It is called their worde, not that it dooth disagree from Gods Woord, but because they preache it. 2. Corin 4.

21 But al these thynges wyl they doo vnto you for my names sake, because they haue not knowen him that sent me.

22 If I had not come, and spoken vnto them, they shoulde haue had no sinne: but nowe haue they nothing to cloke their sinne withal.

23 He that hateth me, hateth my father also.

24 If I had not doone among them the woorkes whiche none other man dyd, they shoulde haue had no e sinne: but nowe haue they both seene, and hated both me and my father,

e. They are without al excuse that folow not the worde of God preached vnto the.

25 But this commeth to passe, that the woorde myght be fulfylled that is written in their lawe, * They hated me without a cause.

Psa. 35. 19.

26 But when the comforter is come, whom I wyl sende vnto you from the father, euen the spirite of trueth, whiche proceedeth of the father, he shal testifie of me.

The Gospel on the sunday after Ascention day.

27 And ye shall beare witnesse also, because ye haue been with me from the beginning.

Ioh. 14. 26. Luk. 24. 49.

¶ The xvi. Chapter.

7. Of the holy Ghost, and of his office. 17. Of Christe ascention. 23. To aske in the name of Christe.

1 These thynges haue I sayde vnto you, because ye shoulde not be offended.

2 They shal put you out of their synagogue: yea, the tyme commeth, that whosoeuer killeth you, wyll thinke that he dooth God seruice.

3 And suche thinges wyl they doo vnto you: because they haue not knowen the father, neyther yet me.

4 But these thynges haue I tolde you, that when the time shal come, ye may remember then that I tolde you: These thinges sayde I not vnto you at the beginning, because I was present with you.

The Gospel on the iiii. sunday after Easter.

5 But nowe I goe my way to him that sent me, & none of you asketh me, Whyther goest thou?

6 But because I haue sayde suche thinges vnto you, sorowe hath fylled your hartes.

7 Neuertheles I tel you the trueth, it is expedient for you that I goe away: For if I goe not away, that comforter wyl not come vnto you: but if I depart, I wyl sende hym vnto you.

8 And when he is come, he wil rebuke the worlde of sinne, and of ryghteousnesse, and of iudgement.

9 Of sinne, because they beleeued not on me,

10 Of ryghteousnesse, because I goe to my father, and ye see me no more.

11 Of iudgement, because the prince of this worlde is iudged alredy.

12 I haue yet many thinges to say vnto you, but ye can not beare them away nowe.

13 Howbeit, when he is come whiche is the spirite of trueth, he wyll leade you into all trueth. He shal not speake of him selfe: but whatsoeuer he shall heare, that shall he speake: & he wyl shewe you thinges to come.

14 He shal glorifye me, for he shall receyue of

a. That when the worlde shal see after his ascention the power of his spirite, shewed vpon the Apostles by hym, they shalbe compelled in conscience to confesse that he was iust, and that he was not condemned of God for a blasphemer, (as they had iudged) but approued and receyued. Acte. 2. 37 of myne, and shall shewe vnto you.

15 All thinges that ỹ father hath, are mine: therefore sayd I vnto you, that he taketh of myne, and shall shewe vnto you.
The Gospel on the third sunday after Easter.
16 After a whyle, and ye shall not see me: and agayne after a whyle, and ye shall see me: for I goe to the father.
17 Then said some of his disciples betweene them selues, What is this that he sayth vnto vs, After a whyle, and ye shall not see me, and agayne, After a whyle, and ye shall see me: and, That I goe to the father.
18 They sayde therefore, What is this that he sayth, After a whyle? we can not tell what he sayth.
19 Iesus perceiued that they woulde aske him, and sayde vnto them, Doo ye enquire among your selues of that I sayde, After a whyle, and ye shall not see me: and agayne, After a whyle, and ye shall see me?
20 Verily, verily I say vnto you, that ye shall weepe and lament, the worlde shall reioyce: ye shall sorowe, but your sorowe shalbe turned to ioy.
21 A woman, when she trauayleth, hath sorowe, because her houre is come: but as soone as she is deliuerd of the childe, she remembreth no more the anguishe, for ioy that a man is borne into the world.
22 And ye nowe therefore haue sorowe: but I wyll see you b agayne, and your hartes shall reioyce, and your ioy no man taketh from you.
b. By the power of the holy spirite, which I wyl sende to you, whereby your harts shal be comforted.
23 And in that day shall ye aske me no question: Verily, verily I say vnto you, Whatsoeuer ye shall aske the father in my name, he wyll geue it you.
The Gospel on the fifth sunday after Easter.
24 Hitherto haue ye asked c nothyng in my name: aske, and ye shall receiue, that your ioy may be full.
*Math.7.7.
c. They were not yet induced to the certayne knowledge that he was the only mediator, and therefore that which they asked before, was nothyng in respect of that which they shoulde aske and obteyne by fayth, when their knowledge was grounded, and that he was ascended.
25 These thinges haue I spoken vnto you by prouerbes: the tyme commeth when I shall no more speake vnto you by prouerbes, but I shall shewe you plainely of my father.
26 At that day shall ye aske in my name: and I say not vnto you that I wyl pray vnto my father for you:
27 For the father hym selfe loueth you, because ye haue loued me, and haue beleeued that I came out from God.
28 I went out from the father, and came into the world: againe, I leaue the worlde, and goe to the father.
29 His disciples say vnto him, Loe, nowe talkest thou plainely, and speakest no prouerbe.
30 Nowe are we sure that thou knowest all thinges, & needest not that any man shoulde aske thee any question: therefore beleeue we that thou camest from God.
31 Iesus answeared them, Doo ye now beleeue?
32 *Behold, the houre draweth nigh, and is alredie come, that ye shalbe scattered, euery man to his owne, and shall leaue me alone: and yet am I not alone, for the father is with me.
*Mat.26.31 Mar.14.27
33 These woordes haue I spoken vnto you, that in me ye might haue peace, for in the worlde ye haue tribulation: but be of good cheare, I haue ouercome the worlde.

¶ The. xvii. Chapter.

Christe prayeth to his father, that their glorie might be made manifest.

1 THese woordes spake Iesus, and lyft vp his eyes to heauen, and saide, Father, the houre is come, glorifie thy sonne, that thy sonne also may glorifie thee:
2 *As thou hast geuen him power ouer all flesshe, that he should geue eternall lyfe to as many as thou hast geuen hym.
*Mat.28.18
3 This is the lyfe eternall, that they myght knowe thee the onely true God, and Iesus Christe whom thou hast sent.
4 I haue glorified thee on the earth: I haue finished the woorke whiche thou gauest me to doo.
5 And nowe glorifie thou me, O father, with thyne owne selfe, with the glory whiche I had with thee yer the world was.
6 I haue declared thy name vnto the men a which thou gauest me out of the worlde: thyne they were, and thou gauest them me, and they haue kept thy woord.
a. That is, to the Apostles.
7 *Nowe they haue knowen that al things whatsoeuer thou hast geuen me, are of thee:
*Ioh.26.27
8 For I haue geuen vnto them the woordes which thou gauest me, and they haue receiued them, and haue knowen surely that I came out from thee, and they haue beleeued that thou diddest send me.
9 I pray for them, I pray not for the b world: but for them which thou hast geuen me, for they are thyne.
b. That is, the reprobate, that seeke ỹ worlde, and not Christ.
10 And al myne, are thyne, and thyne, are myne: and I am glorified in them.
11 And nowe am I not in the worlde, and they are in the worlde, and I come to thee. Holy father, keepe through thyne owne name them, whiche thou hast geuen me, that they may also be c one, as we are.
c. That they may be ioyned togeather in loue, and vnitie of loue, fayth, and spirite.
12 Whyle I was with them in the worlde, I kept them in thy name: those that thou gauest me, haue I kept, and none of them is lost, but that d lost childe: * that the scripture myght be fulfilled.
d. That is, Iudas Iscariot.

13 Now

13 Nowe come I to thee, and these wordes speake I in the world, that they might haue my ioy fulfilled in them selues.
14 I haue geuen them thy word, and the worlde hath hated them, because they are not of the worlde, euen as I also am not of the worlde.
15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the worlde, but that thou shouldest keepe them from the euyll.
16 They are not of the worlde, as I also am not of the worlde.
17 Sanctifie them through thy trueth: thy word is the trueth.
18 As thou diddest send me into the worlde: euen so haue I also sent them into the worlde.
19 And for their sakes sanctifie I mee selfe, that they also myght be sanctified through the trueth.
20 Neuertheless, I pray not for them alone: but for them also which shall beleeue on me through their preaching:
21 That they al may be one, as thou father art in me, and I in thee, and that they also may be one in vs: that the worlde may beleeue that thou hast sent me.
22 And the glory which thou gauest me, I haue geuen them: that they also may be one, as we also are one.
23 I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one, and that the worlde may knowe that thou hast sent me, and hast loued them, as thou hast loued me.
24 *Father, I wyll that they whiche thou hast geuen me, be with me where I am: that they may see my glory which thou hast geuen me, for thou louedst me before the fundation of the worlde.
25 O righteous father, the world also hath not knowen thee: but I haue knowen thee, and these haue knowen that thou hast sent me.
26 And I haue declared vnto them thy name, and wyll declare it: that the loue wherewith thou hast loued me, may be in them, and I in them.

¶ The.xviii.Chapter.

3. Christe is betrayed by Iudas. 40. The Iewes aske Barabbas to be let loose.

The Gospel on good Fryday.
Mat.26.36 Mar.14.32. Luke.22.39

1 When Iesus had spoken these wordes, * he went forth with his disciples ouer the brooke Cedron, where was a garden, into the which he entred and his disciples.
2 Iudas also whiche betrayed him, knewe the place: for Iesus oft times resorted thyther with his disciples.
3 *Iudas then, after he had receiued a band of men, and officers of the hygh priestes and Pharisees, commeth thyther with lanternes, and torches, and weapons.
4 And Iesus knowyng all thynges that should come on hym, went forth, and saide vnto them, Whom seeke ye?
5 They answeared him, Iesus of Nazareth. Iesus sayth vnto them, I am he. Iudas also whiche betrayed him, stoode with them.
6 As soone then as he had sayde vnto them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground.
7 Then asked he them agayne, Whom seeke ye? They saide, Iesus of Nazareth.
8 Iesus answeared, I haue tolde you that I am he: If ye seeke me therefore, a let these goe their way.
9 That the saying might be fulfilled which he spake, * Of them which thou gauest me, haue I not lost one.
10 Then Simon Peter hauing a sworde, drewe it, and smote the hygh priestes seruaunt, and cut of his right eare: The seruantes name was Malchus.
11 Therefore sayde Iesus vnto Peter, Put vp thy sworde into the sheathe: Shal I not drinke of the cup which my father hath geuen me?
12 Then the companie, and the captayne, and officers of the Iewes, tooke Iesus, and bound hym:
13 And * led him away to Annas first, (for he was father in lawe vnto Caiaphas) which was the hygh priest that same yeere.

And Annas sent Christe bounde vnto Caiaphas the hygh priest.

14 * Caiaphas was he which gaue counsell to the Iewes, that it was expedient that one man should dye for the people.
15 * And Simon Peter followed Iesus, and so dyd another b disciple: That disciple was knowen vnto the high priest, and went in with Iesus into the palace of the hygh priest.
16 But Peter stoode at the doore without. Then went out that other disciple, whiche was knowen vnto the hygh priest, and spake vnto the Damsel that kept the doore, and brought in Peter.
17 Then sayth ỹ damsell that kept the doore vnto Peter, Art not thou also one of this mans disciples? He sayth, I am not.
18 The seruantes and officers stoode there, whiche had made a fyre of coales (for it was colde) and they warmed them selues: Peter also was standyng among them, warming him.

his disciples, and of his doctrine.
20 Iesus answeared him, I spake openly to the world, I euer taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither al the Iewes resort, and in secrete haue I sayd nothing.
21 Why askest thou me? Aske them whiche heard me what I haue sayde vnto them: beholde, they can tel what I sayde.
22 When he had thus spoken, one of the officers whiche stoode by, smote Iesus with a rodde, saying, Answearest thou the hygh priest so?

30 They answeared and sayd vnto hym, If he were not an euyl doer, we woulde not haue delyuered hym vnto thee.
31 Then sayde Pilate vnto them, Take ye him, and iudge him after your owne lawe. The Iewes therefore sayd vnto him, It is not lawful c for vs to kyl any man.

35 Pilate answeared, Am I a Iewe? Thine owne nation and high priestes haue delyuered thee vnto me: what hast thou doone?
36 Iesus answeared, My kingdome is not of this worlde: if my kingdome were of this worlde, then woulde my seruantes surely fight, that I shoulde not be delyuered to the Iewes: but now is my kingdome not from hence.
37 Pilate therefore sayd vnto hym, Art thou a kyng then? Iesus answeared, Thou sayest that I am a king: For this cause am I borne, and for this cause came I into the worlde, that I shoulde beare witnesse vnto the trueth, and all that are of the trueth heare my voyce.

¶ The xix. Chapter.

1. Christ is whipped, beaten, and crowned. 11. All power is of God.

1 Then Pilate tooke Iesus therefore, and scourged hym.
2 *Ma.27.26 Mar.15.18. * And the souldiers, when they had wound a crowne of thornes, they dyd put it on his head, and they dyd cast about hym a purple garment,
3 And sayde, Hayle king of the Iewes: and stroke hym with roddes.
4 Pilate went foorth agayne, and sayd vnto them, Behold, I bring him foorth to you, that ye may knowe that I fynde no fault in him.
5 Then came Iesus foorth, wearing the crowne of thorne, and the robe of purple: and Pilate sayth vnto them, Beholde the man.
6 When the hygh priestes therefore and officers sawe hym, they cryed, saying, Crucifie hym, crucifie hym. Pilate sayth vnto them, Take ye hym, and crucifie hym: for I finde no fault in him.
7 The Iewes answeared hym, We haue a lawe, and by our lawe he ought to dye: because he made him selfe the sonne of God.
8 When Pilate hearde that saying, he was the more afrayde,
9 And went againe into the iudgement hal, and sayth vnto Iesus, Whence art thou? But Iesus gaue hym no answeare.
10 Then sayth Pilate vnto him, Speakest thou not vnto me? Knowest thou not that I haue power to crucifie thee, & haue power to loose thee?
11 Iesus answeared, Thou couldest haue no power at all agaynst me, except it were geuen thee from aboue: therfore he that deliuered me vnto thee, hath the more sinne.

12 And

12 And from thencefoorth sought Pilate meanes to loose him: but the Iewes cryed, saying, If thou let him goe, thou art not Caesars freende: For whosoeuer maketh hym selfe a kyng, speaketh agaynst Caesar.

13 When Pilate heard that saying, he brought Iesus foorth, and he sate downe in the Iudgement seate, in a place that is called the pauement, but in the Hebrue tongue, Gabbatha,

14 It was the preparyng of the Passeouer, and about the sixth houre: and he sayth vnto the Iewes, Beholde your king, 15 They cried, Away with him, away with hym, crucifie him. Pilate sayth vnto them, Shall I crucifie your king? The hygh priests answeared, We haue no kyng but Caesar.

*Mat.27.31 Mar.15.21. Luk.23.20. 16 *Then deliuered he him therefore vnto them to be crucifyed: and they tooke Iesus, and led hym away.

17 And he bearyng his crosse, went foorth into a place whiche is called the place of a skul, but in the Hebrue, Golgotha:

18 Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on euery syde one, and Iesus in the middes.

19 And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the crosse. The writing was, Iesus of Nazareth, the king of the Iewes.

20 This title read many of the Iewes: for the place where Iesus was crucified, was nygh to the citie: And it was written in Hebrue, and Greeke, and Latine.

21 Then sayde the hygh priestes of the Iewes to Pilate, Write not the king of the Iewes: but that he sayde, I am king of the Iewes.

22 Pilate answeared, What I haue written, that haue I written.

*Mat.27.35 Mar.15.14. Luke.23.33. 23 *Then the souldiers, when they had crucified Iesus, tooke his garmentes, (and made foure partes, to euery souldier a part) and also his coate: the coate was without seame, wouen from the toppe throughout.

24 They sayd therefore among themselues, Let vs not diuide it, but cast lottes for it, whose it shalbe. That the scripture myght be fulfylled, saying, *They parted my rayment among them, and for my coate dyd they cast lottes. And the souldiers dyd suche thynges in deede.

*Psa.22.29

25 There stoode by the crosse of Iesus, his mother, and his mothers sister, Marie the wife of Cleophas, and Marie Magdalene.

26 When Iesus therefore sawe his mother and the disciple standing by, whom he a loued, he sayth vnto his mother, Woman, beholde thy sonne.

a. That is, Iohn.

27 Then sayth he to the disciple, Beholde thy mother. And from that houre the disciple tooke her vnto his owne house.

28 After these thinges, Iesus knowing that all thinges were nowe perfourmed, *that the scripture myght be fulfylled, he sayth, I thirste. *Psa.69.22

29 So there stood a vessel by, ful of vineger: Therfore when they had fylled a spunge with vineger, and put it vpon hyssope, they offered it to his mouth.

30 When Iesus therefore had receyued the vineger, he sayde, It is b finished, and when he had bowed his head, he gaue vp the ghoste.

b. The mystery of mans redemption and saluation is perfected by the onely sacrifice of Christe, the promise to the fathers fulfilled, the ceremonies of the lawe ended.

31 The Iewes therefore, because it was the preparyng of the Sabboth, that the bodyes shoulde not remayne vppon the crosse on the Sabboth day (for that Sabboth day was an hygh day) besought Pilate that their legges myght be broken, & that they might be taken downe.

c Because they were not yet dead, for that was their custome.

32 Then came the souldiers, and c brake the legges of the fyrst, and of the other whiche was crucified with him.

33 But when they came to Iesus, and sawe that he was dead alredy, they brake not his legges.

34 But one of the souldiers with a speare thrust hym into the syde, and foorthwith came there out blood and water.

35 And he that sawe it, bare record, and his record is true, and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye myght beleeue also.

36 For these thynges were doone that the scripture shoulde be fulfylled, *A bone of hym shal not be broken. *Num.9.12. Exo.12.46.

37 And agayne an other scripture sayth, *They shal looke on hym whō they pearsed. *Zach.12.10

38 *After this, Ioseph of Arimathea (being a disciple of Iesus, but secretely for feare of the Iewes) besought Pilate that he might take downe the bodye of Iesus, and Pilate gaue hym licence: he came therefore and tooke the body of Iesus. *Ma.27.57 Mar.15.42. Luk.23.50.

39 And there came also Nicodemus, which at the beginning came to Iesus by nyght, and brought of myrrhe and aloes myngled togeather, about an hundred pounde weyght.

40 Then tooke they the body of Iesus, and wound it in linnē clothes, with the odours, as the manner of the Iewes is to bury.

41 And in the place where he was crucified there was a garden, and in the garden a newe sepulchre, wherein was neuer man yet layde.

42 There layd they Iesus therfore, because of the preparing of the Sabboth of the Iewes, for the sepulchre was nigh at hand.

i. Marie commeth to the sepulchre. 9. The Apostles were ignorant of the resurrection.

The Gospel on Easter day.

1 THe fyrst day of the a Sabbothes, commeth Marie Magdalene early, when it was yet darke, vnto the sepulchre, and seeth ỹ stone taken away from ỹ graue.

a. That is, of the weeke.

2 Then she runneth, and commeth to Simon Peter, & to the other disciple * whom Jesus loued, & sayth vnto them, They haue taken away the Lorde out of the graue, and we can not tell where they haue layde him.

*Mat.16.1. Luke.14.1.

3 Peter therefore went foorth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre.

4 They ranne both together, and the other disciple did outrunne Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.

5 And when he had stowped downe, he saw the lynnen clothes lying, yet went he not in.

6 Then commeth Simon Peter folowing hym, and went in to the sepulchre, and seeth the linnen clothes lye,

7 And the napkin that was about his head, not lying with ỹ linnen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by it selfe.

8 Then went in also that other disciple whiche came fyrst to the sepulchre, and he sawe, and beleeued.

9 For as yet they knewe not the scripture, that he should ryse from death.

10 Then the disciples went away agayne vnto their owne house.

*Math.28.1 Mark.16.5.

11 *Marie stoode without at the sepulchre, weeping: so as she wept, she bowed her selfe into the sepulchre, 12 And seeth two angels clothed in white, sittyng, the one at the head, and the other at the feete, where the body of Jesus was layde.

13 They say vnto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She sayth vnto them, For they haue taken away my Lord, and I wote not where they haue layde hym.

14 When she had thus sayde, she turned her selfe backe, and sawe Jesus standyng, and knewe not that it was Jesus.

b. Hereby Christe correcteth her carnall affection, looking too much to his bodyly presence, and therefore he pulled her frō outward and externe offices toward his bodyly presence, and wylled her to be mindfull of his attention

15 Jesus sayth vnto her, Woman, why weepest thou? Whom seekest thou? She supposing that he had been the gardiner, sayth vnto hym, Syr, yf thou haue borne hym hence, tell me where thou hast layde hym, and I wyl fetche him.

16 Jesus sayth vnto her, Marie. She turned her selfe, and sayde vnto him, Rabboni, which is to say, Maister.

17 Jesus sayth vnto her, Touche b me not, for I am not yet assended to my father, but goe to my brethren, and say vnto them, I * assende vnto my father and your father, and to my God, and your God.

*Psal.23.23

18 Marie Magdalene commeth, bringyng tydinges to the disciples that she had seene the Lorde, and that he had spoken suche thynges vnto her.

The Gospel on the fyrst sunday after Easter.

19 * The same day at nyght, whiche was the first day of the "Sabbothes, when the doores were shut, where the disciples were assembled together for feare of the Jewes, came Jesus, and stoode in the c middes, and sayth vnto them, Peace be vnto you.

*Luk.24.36

"Or, vveke.

c. He came in miraculously to geue the Apostles comfort, as also an outward taste and sure argument of his diuinitie, that by his notable myracle, he might confirme the Apostles in the fayth of his resurrection.

20 And when he had so sayde, he shewed vnto them his handes and his side. Then were the disciples glad, when they saw the Lorde.

21 Then said Jesus to them agayne, Peace be vnto you: As my father hath sent me, euen so send I you also.

22 And when he had sayde these woordes, he breathed on them, and sayth vnto them, Receyue ye the holy ghost.

*Mat.28.18

The Gospel on Saint Thomas day.

23 *Whosoeuer sinnes ye remit, they are remitted vnto them, and whosoeuers sinnes ye reteyne, they are reteyned.

24 But Thomas, one of the twelue, which is called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came.

25 The other disciples therefore sayde vnto hym, We haue seene the Lorde. But he sayd vnto them, Except I shall see in his handes the print of the nayles, and put my fynger into the print of the nayles, and thrust my hand into his side, I wil in no wise beleeue.

26 And after eyght dayes, agayne his disciples were within, & Thomas with them: Then came Jesus, the doores being shut, and stoode in the middes, and saide, Peace be vnto you.

27 After that sayth he to Thomas, Bring thy fynger hyther, and see my handes, and reache hither thy hand, & thrust it into my side, and be not faythlesse, but beleeuing.

28 Thomas answeared, and said vnto him, My Lorde, and my God.

29 Jesus sayth vnto hym, Thomas, because thou hast seene me, thou hast beleeued, blessed are they that haue not seene, and yet haue beleeued.

30 *And many other signes truely dyd Jesus before the eyes of his disciples, whiche are not written in this booke.

*Joh.21.25.

31 These are written, that ye might d beleeue that Jesus Christe is the sonne of God, and that in beleeuing, ye myght haue lyfe thorowe his name.

d. The scripture written, is sufficient to confirme our fayth vnto saluatiō by Christ

¶ The.xxi.Chapter.

Christe forewarneth Peter of his death and persecution.

1 After.

1 AFterwarde dyd Jesus shewe hym selfe againe to his disciples at the sea of Tiberias, and on this wyse shewed he him selfe.
2 There were togeather Simon Peter, and Thomas, which is called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sonnes of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples.
3 Simon Peter sayth vnto them, I goe a fishing. They say vnto hym, We also goe with thee. They went theyr way, and en-tred into a ship immediatly, and that nyght caught they nothing.
4 But when the mornyng was nowe come,
Jesus stoode on the shore: neuertheless, the disciples knewe not that it was Jesus.
'Or, Syr. 5 Jesus sayth vnto them, 'Chyldren, haue ye any meate? They answeared him, No.
6 And he sayth vnto them, Cast out the net on the ryght side of the shyp, and ye shall finde. They cast out therefore, and anone they were not able to drawe it for the multitude of fishes.
7 Then sayde the disciple whom Jesus loued vnto Peter, It is the Lord. When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lorde, he gyrd his coate vnto him (for he was naked) and dyd cast hym selfe into the sea.
8 The other disciples came in a little shyp, (for they were not farre from land, but as it were two hundred cubites) drawyng the net with fishes.
9 As soone then as they were come to land, they sawe whot coales, and fishe layd thereon, and bread.
10 Jesus sayth vnto them, Bring of the fishe, which ye haue nowe caught.
11 Simon Peter went vp, and drewe the net to the lande full of great fishes, an hundred and fiftie and three, and for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken.
12 Jesus sayth vnto them, Come, and dine.
And none of the disciples durst aske him,
Who art thou? knowyng that it was the Lorde.
13 Jesus then commeth, and taketh bread, and geueth them, and fishe likewyse.
14 This is nowe the thyrde tyme that Jesus appeared to his disciples, after that he was ryssen from death.
15 So when they had dined, Jesus sayth to Simon Peter, Simon "Joanna, louest thou me more then these? He sayth vnto hym, Yea Lorde, thou knowest that I loue thee. He sayth vnto him, Feede my lambes.
"Or, sonne of Iona.
16 He sayth to hym againe the second time,
Simon Joanna, louest thou me? He sayth vnto hym, Yea Lorde, thou knowest that I loue thee. He sayth vnto hym, Feede my sheepe.
17 He sayde vnto hym the thyrd tyme, Simon Joanna, louest thou me? Peter was sorie, because he sayde vnto hym the thyrde tyme, Louest thou me: And he sayde vnto hym, Lorde, thou knowest all thynges, thou knowest that I loue thee. Jesus sayth vnto hym, Feede my sheepe.
18 Verely, verely I say vnto thee, when thou wast younger, thou gyrdedst thee selfe, and walkedst whyther thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be olde, thou shalt stretche forth thy handes, and another shall gyrde thee, and carrie thee whyther thou wou-dest not.
19 This spake he, signifiyng by what death he shoulde glorifie God. And when he had spoken this, he sayth vnto him, Folowe me.
20 Peter turnyng about, seeth the disciple whom *Jesus loued, folowyng, whiche also leaned on his breast at supper, and sayde,
Lorde, whiche is he that betrayeth thee?
*Ioh.13.23.
21 When Peter therefore sawe hym, he sayth to Jesus, Lorde, what shall he doo?
22 Jesus sayth vnto hym, If I will haue hym to tarry till I come, what is that to thee? Folowe thou me.
The Gospell on Saint Iohn Euangelists day.
23 Then went this saying abrode among the brethren, that that disciple shoulde not dye: Yet Jesus sayd not vnto hym, He shal not dye: but, If I wyl that he tarrie tyll I come, what is that to thee?
24 The same disciple is he which testifieth of these thynges, and wrote these thinges, and we knowe that his testimonie is true.
25 * There are also many other thinges which Jesus dyd, the which yf they should be written euery one, I suppose the worlde could not conteyne the bookes that shoulde be written. Amen.

The first Chapter.

7. The wordes of Christe and his angelles to the Apostles. 9. His Assention. 14. Wherin the Apostles are occupied, tyl the holy ghost be sent. 16. And of the election of Matthias.

The Epistle on Assention day.

1 THE former booke haue I made, O Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach,

2 Untyll the day in whiche he was taken vp, after that he through the holy ghost had geuen commaundementes vnto the Apostles, whom he had chosen.

3 To whom also he shewed hym selfe alyue after his passion, and that by many tokens, appearyng vnto them fourtie dayes, and speakyng of the kyngdome of God.

4 And geatheryng them togeather, cõmaunded them that they shoulde not depart from Hierusalem, but wayte for the promyse of the father, * whereof sayth he, ye haue heard of me.

*Luk.24.49 Joh.14.25

5 * For John truely baptised with water, but ye shalbe baptised with the holy ghoste, after these fewe dayes.

*Matth.3.11. Marke.1.8. Luke.3.12. John.1.26.

6 When they therfore were come togeather, they asked of hym, saying, Lorde, wylt thou at this tyme restore agayne the kyngdome of Israel?

7 And he sayde vnto them, It is not for you to knowe the tymes or the seasons, whiche the father hath put in his owne power.

*Actes.2.1.

8 *But ye shall receyue power after that the holy ghost is come vpon you, and ye shalbe witnesses vnto me, both in Hierusalem, and in al Jurie, and in Samaria, and euen vnto the worldes ende.

*Luk.24.52

9 * And when he had spoken these thynges, whyle they behelde, he was taken vp an hygh, and a cloude receyued hym vp out of their syght.

10 And whyle they looked vp stedfastlye towarde heauen, as he went, beholde, two men stoode by them in whyte apparell, 11 Whiche also sayde, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gasing vp into heauen? This same Jesus which is taken vp from you into heauen, shal so come, euen as ye haue sene hym goe into heauen.

12 Then returned they vnto Hierusalem, from the mount that is called Oliuet, whiche is from Hierusalem a Sabboth dayes iourney.

13 And when they were come in, they went vp into a Parlour, where abode both Peter, and James, and John, and Andrewe, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, James the sonne of Alpheus, and Simon Zelotes, and Judas the brother of James.

14 These all continued with one accorde in prayer and supplication, with the women, and Marie the mother of Jesus, and with his brethren.

The Epistle on saint Matthias day.

15 And in those dayes Peter stoode vp in the middes of the disciples, and sayd, (The number of [a] names togeather, were about an hundred and twentie.)

a. That is, of men, for men are wont namely to be counted when they are numbred.

16 Ye men and brethren, this Scripture must needes haue been fulfylled, * whiche the holy ghost by the mouth of Dauid spake before of Judas, which was guyde to them that tooke Jesus:

*Psal.50.9. John.13.18.

17 For he was numbred with vs, and had obteyned felowshyp in this ministerie.

18 *And the same hath nowe purchased a feelde, with the reward of [b] iniquitie, and when he was hanged, he burst asunder in myddes, and al his bowels gushed out.

*Mat.27.5.

b. It is called the rewarde of iniquitie, because the wycked Iewes gaue the reward, and the wicked Iudas receyued the reward, to shed the blood of Christe that innocent Lambe.

19 And it is knowen vnto al the dwellers at Hierusalem, insomuch that the same feelde is called in their mother tongue Aceldema, that is to say, The feelde of blood.

20 For it is wrytten in the booke of Psalmes, * Let his habitation be desart, and no man dwellyng therein: * And his Byshoprike let another take.

*Psa.69.26 *Psa.109.8

21 Wherefore of these men whiche haue companied with vs all the tyme that the Lorde Jesus went out and in [c] among vs, 22 Begynnyng from the baptisme of John, vnto that same day that he was taken vp from vs, must one be ordeyned to be a witnesse with vs of his resurrection.

c. That is to say, after the language of the Hebrues, he had his conuersation, and lyued with vs.

23 And they appoynted two, Joseph which is called Barsabas, whose surname was Justus, and Matthias.

24 And when they had prayed, they sayde, Thou Lorde whiche knowest the hartes of al men, shewe whether of these two thou hast chosen,

25 That he may take the roome of this ministerie and Apostleshyp, from whiche Judas by transgression fel, that he myght goe to his owne place.

26 And they gaue forth their d lottes, and the lot fell vpon Matthias, & he was counted with the eleuen Apostles.

d. Lottes for choosing of officers, or diuiding of inheritance, ground, or goodes, are alowed of god, as appeareth in the holy Scriptures, lots staye stryfe, saith Salomon. But lots of diuination to knowe superstitiously of things to come, are disalowed of God, and vtterly forbydden.

The holy ghoste came vpon the Apostles in visible signes. 42. The godly exercise of the faithful.

The Epistle on VVhitsunday.

1 AND when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accorde in one place.

*Act.II.15. 2 *And sodainely there came a sounde from heauen, as it had been the commyng of a myghtie wynde, and it fylled all the house where they were sittyng.

3 And there appeared vnto them clouen tongues, lyke as they had been of fire, and it sate vpon eache of them.

4 And they were al fylled with the holye ghost, and began to speake with other tongues, as the spirite gaue them vtteraunce.

5 There were dwellyng at Hierusalem Iewes, deuoute men, out of euery nation of them that are vnder heauen.

6 When this was noysed about, the multitude came together, and were astonied, because that euery man hearde them speake in his owne language.

a. It is moste lyke that the miracle was both in the speakers, and also in the hearers. In the speakers, for that they speaking the Hebrue tongue, dyd well perceyue that straungers of diuers nations & languages did vnderstand them: And in the hearers, for that euerye man hearde sensibly his owne countrey language out of the apostles, speakyng in their mother tongue.

7 They woondred al, and marueyled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these whiche speake, of Galilee?

8 And howe heare we euery man his owne a tongue wherein we were borne?

9 Parthians, & Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Iurie, and in Capadocia, in Pontus, & Asia,

10 Phrygia, and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parties of Lybia, which is beside Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, Iewes and b Proselytes,

b. That is, such as were conuerted to the Iewes religion, and whose auncestours were no Iewes.

11 Cretes, and Arabians, we do heare them speake in our tongues the woonderful workes of God.

12 They were al amazed, & were in a doubt, saying one to another, What meaneth this?

13 Other mockyng, sayd, These men are ful of newe wyne.

14 But Peter standyng forth with the eleuen, lyft vp his voyce, and sayd vnto them, Ye men of Iurie, and all ye that dwel at Hierusalem, be this knowen vnto you, and heare my woordes, 15 For these are not dronken, as ye suppose, seeing it is but the c thirde houre of the day.

c. The Iewes count y houres of the day, from sixe of the clocke in the mornyng, to sixe at nyght: therefore the thirde houre after the Iewes computation, is our nyene of the clocke.

16 But this is that whiche was spoken by the prophet Ioel, *Ioel.2.28. Esai.44.3. 17 *And it shalbe in the last dayes (sayth God) of my spirit I wyl powre out vpon al flesh: and your sonnes and your daughters shal prophesie, & your young men shal see visions: & your old men shal dreame dreames:

18 And on my seruauntes, and on my handmaydens, I wyl powre out of my spirite in those dayes, and they shal prophesie:

19 And I wil shewe woonders in heauen aboue, & tokens in the earth beneathe, blood, and fire, and the vapour of smoke.

*Joel.2.32. 20 *The Sonne shalbe turned into darkenesse, & the Moone into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come.

*Rom.10.13 21 *And it shall come to passe, that whosoeuer shal cal on the name of the Lord, shalbe saued.

22 Ye men of Israel, heare these woordes, Iesus of Nazareth, a man approued of God among you, with miracles, woonders, and signes, whiche God dyd by hym in the myddes of you, as ye your selues also knowe,

23 Hym, after that ye had taken by wycked handes, beyng deliuered by the determinate counsell and foreknowledge of God, haue ye crucified and slayne:

24 Whom God hath rayled vp, hauing loosed the sorowes of death, because it was impossible that he shoulde be holden of it.

*Psal.16.9 25 For Dauid speaketh of him, *I sawe the Lorde alwayes set forth before my face, for he is on my ryght hande, that I should not be mooued.

26 Therefore dyd my hart reioyce, and my tongue was glad: Moreouer also, my flesh shall rest in hope.

27 Because thou wylt not leaue my soule in hel, neyther wylt thou suffer thyne holy one to see corruption.

28 Thou hast shewed me the wayes of lyfe, thou shalt make me ful of ioy with thy countenaunce.

*3.Re.2.10. 29 Ye men & brethren, let me freely speake vnto you of the *Patriarch Dauid: For he is both dead and buryed, and his sepulchre is with vs vnto this day:

*Psa.132.11 30 Therefore being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworne with an othe to him, *that he would raise vp Christe, as concernyng the flesh, of the fruite of his loynes, to sit on his seate,

*Psal.16.10 31 He seeing this before, spake of y resurrection of Christe, * that his soule was not left in hell, neither his flesh did see corruption.

32 This

32 This Jesus hath GOD rayſed vp, whereof we al are witneſſes.
33 Then being by the ryght hande of God exalted, and hauing receyued of the father the promiſe of the holy ghoſt, he hath ſhed foorth this, which ye nowe ſee and heare.
34 For Dauid is not aſſended into the heauens, but he ſayth hym ſelfe, *The Lorde ſayde vnto my Lorde, Sit thou on my ryght hande, 35 Untyl I make thy foes thy footeſtoole.
36 Therefore let all the houſe of Iſrael knowe for a ſuretie, that God hath made that ſame Jeſus whom ye haue crucified, both Lorde and Chriſte.
37 Nowe when they heard this, they were pricked in their hart, and ſayde vnto Peter, and to the other Apoſtles, Ye men and brethren, What ſhal we doo?
38 Then Peter ſayde vnto them, Repent ye, and let euery one of you be baptiſed in the name of Jeſus Chriſt, for the remiſſion of ſinnes, and ye ſhal receyue the gyft of the holy ghoſt.
39 For the promiſe was made vnto you, and to your children, and to al that are a farre of, euen as many as the Lorde our God ſhal cal.
40 And with many other wordes bare he witneſſe, and exhorted them, ſaying, Saue your ſelues from this vntowarde generation.
41 Then they that gladly receyued his worde, were baptiſed, and the ſame day there were added vnto them about three thouſande ſoules.
42 And they continued ſtedfaſtly in the Apoſtles doctrine and d felowſhyp, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers.
43 And feare came vpon euery ſoule, and many woonders and ſignes were done by the Apoſtles.
44 And al that beleeued were togeather, and had al thynges common,
45 And ſolde their poſſeſſions and goodes, and parted them to al men, as euery man had neede.
46 And they continuing dayly with one accorde in the temple, and breakyng bread from houſe to houſe, did eate their meate togeather with gladneſſe of hart,
47 Praying God, and hauing fauour with al the people. And the Lorde added to the Church dayly ſuch as ſhoulde be ſaued.

*Psal.110.1.

d By felowſhipment a godly companiyng togeather, in practiſing the workes of charitie, in tenderyng and helpyng one another, in diſpoſing by almes their goodes to their needie neyghbours. By breaking of bread, is meant the myſterie wherein our Sauiour Chriſte doth communicate and diſtribute vnto vs his body and blood, by his bleſſed ſacrament of bread & wine, where is preſented to the eyes of our faith, the breaking of Chriſtes body, and the ſhedding of his blood.

The iij. Chapter.

The halt is reſtored to his feete. 12. Peter preached Chriſte vnto the people.

1 NOwe Peter and John went vp togeather into the temple at the nienth houre of prayer.
2 And a certayne man that was lame from his mothers wombe was brought, whom they layde dayly at the gate of the temple which is called beautiful, to aſke almes of them that entred into the temple.
3 Which ſeeing Peter and John about to goe into the temple, aſked an almes.
4 And Peter faſtening his eyes vpon hym, with John, ſayde, Looke on vs.
5 And he gaue heede vnto them, truſting to receyue ſomething of them.
6 Then ſayde Peter, Siluer and golde haue I none, but ſuch as I haue, geue I thee, In the name of Jeſus Chriſte of Nazareth riſe vp, and walke.
7 And he tooke him by the ryght hand, and lift him vp, and immediatly his feete and ankle bones receyued ſtrength.
8 And he leaping vp, ſtoode, and walked, and entred with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praying God.
9 And al the people ſawe hym walking and praying God.
10 And they knewe him, that it was he which ſate for the almes at the beautifull gate of the temple, and they woondred, and were ſore aſtonied at that which had happened vnto him.
11 And as the lame which was healed helde Peter and John, al the people ran togeather greatly amazed vnto them in the porch, that is called Solomons.
12 And when Peter ſawe that, he anſweared vnto the people, Ye men of Iſrael, why marueyle ye at this? or why looke ye ſo earneſtly on vs, as though by our owne power or a godlineſſe we had made this man to walke?
13 The God of Abraham, and of Iſahac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers hath glorified his ſonne Jeſus, whom ye betrayed and denied in the preſence of Pilate, when he had iudged hym to be looſed.
14 *But ye denied the holy and iuſt, and deſyred a murderer to be geuen you.
15 And kylled the Lorde of lyfe, whom God hath rayſed from the dead, of the which we are witneſſes.
16 And his name, through the fayth in his name, hath made this man ſound, whom ye ſee and knowe, and the fayth whiche is by hym, hath geuen to this man healthy in the preſence of you al.
17 And nowe brethren, I wote that thorowe ignorance ye dyd it, as dyd alſo your rulers.
18 But thoſe thinges which God before had ſhewed by the mouth of all his prophetes, that Chriſt ſhoulde ſuffer, he hath ſo fulfylled.
19 Repent ye therefore, and reuert, that your

7. The apoſtles are brought before the counſayle.
22. The Churche encreaſeth in doctrine, and exerciſes of al godlineſſe.

1 AND as they ſpake vnto the people, the prieſtes and the *ruler of the temple, and the Saduces came vpon them, *or, captayne.

2 Takyng it greeuouſly that they taught the people, and preached in Jeſus the reſurrection from the dead.

3 And they layde handes on them, and put them in holde vnto the next day: for it was nowe euentide.

4 Howbeit, many of them which hearde the woorde, beleeued, and the number of the men was about fiue thouſande.

5 And it came to paſſe, on the morowe, that their rulers and elders, and Scribes,

6 And Annas the cheefe prieſt, and Caiaphas, and Johan, and Alexander, & as many as were of the kinrede of the high prieſtes, were gathered togeather at Hieruſalem.

7 And when they had ſet them before them, they asked, By what power, or in what name haue ye done this?

8 Then Peter ful of the holy ghoſt, ſayde vnto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Iſrael.

9 If we this day be examined of the good deede done vnto the ſicke man, by what meanes he is made whole,

10 Be it knowen vnto you al, and to all the people of Iſrael, that by the name of Jeſus Chriſte of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God rayſed agayne from the dead, euen by him, doeth this man ſtande here before you whole.

11 *This is the ſtone which was ſet nought by of you builders, which is the head of the a corner.

12 Neither is there b ſaluation in any other: for among men vnder heauen, there is geuen none other name wherein we muſt be ſaued.

13 Nowe when they ſawe the boldneſſe of Peter and John, and vnderſtood that they were vnlearned, and ignorant men, they marueyled, and they knewe them that they had been with Jeſu:

14 And beholding alſo the man which was healed, ſtanding with them, they could not ſay agaynſt it.

15 But when they had commaunded them to goe aſyde out of the counſel, they counſelled among them ſelues, 16 Saying, What ſhal we doo to theſe men? for a manifeſt ſigne is done by them, and is openly knowen to all them that dwell in Hieruſalem, and we can not denie it.

17 But that it be noyſed no farther among the people, let vs threaten, and charge them that they ſpeake henceforth to no man in this name.

18 And they called them, and commaunded them, that in no wyſe they ſhoulde ſpeake nor teache in the name of Jeſu.

19 But Peter and John anſwered, & ſayd vnto them, Whether it be right in the ſight of GOD, to hearken vnto you more then to God, iudge ye.

20 For we can not but ſpeake that, whiche we haue ſeene and heard.

21 So when they had more ſharpely threatened them, they let them goe, finding nothyng howe to punithe them, becauſe of the people: for al men glorified God, becauſe of that which was done.

22 For the man was about fourtie yeeres olde, on whom this myracle of healing was ſhewed.

23 Then aſſoone as they were let goe, they came to their felowes, and ſhewed all that the high prieſtes and elders had ſayde vnto them.

24 And when they heard that, they lyft vp their voyces to God with one accord, & ſaid, Lord, thou art God whiche haſt made heauen and earth, the ſea, & al that in them is, *pſal.118.22 Eſai.28.16. Mat.21.42.

a. Chriſt is called the cheefe corner, or corner ſtone, becauſe ỹ Iewes, and the gentiles are ioyned togeather, and buylded vppon hym by fayth, and made one Church.

b. Neyther Saint, nor Angel, nor works, nor ought elſe can ſaue, but Chriſt alone.

25 Which

25 Whiche by the mouth of thy seruaunt Dauid hast sayde, * Why dyd the heathen rage, and the people imagine vaine thinges?
*Psalm.2.1.
26 The kynges of the earth stoode vp, and the rulers came togeather agaynst the lord, and agaynst his Christe.
27 For of a trueth agaynst thy holy childe Iesus, whom thou hast annoynted, both Herode, and also Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles, and the people of Israel, geathered themselues togeather.
28 For to doo whatsoeuer thy hand and thy counsel determined before to be doone.
29 And nowe Lorde, beholde their threatenynges, and graunt vnto thy seruantes, that with al boldnes they may speake thy word.
30 So that thou stretch foorth thyne hand, that healing, and signes, and woonders, be doone by the name of thy holy child Iesus.
31 And as soone as they had prayed, the place mooued where they were assembled togeather, and they were al fylled with the holye ghost, and they spake the woorde of GOD boldly.
32 And the multitude of them that beleued, were of one hart, and of one soule: Neyther sayde any of them, that ought of the things whiche he possessed was his owne, but they had al thynges common.
33 And with great power gaue the Apostles witnesse of the resurrection of the Lord Iesu, and great grace was with them al.
34 Neither was there any among them that lacked: For as many as were possessours of landes, or houses, solde them, and brought the price of the thynges that were solde,
35 And layd it downe at the Apostles feete: And distribution was made vnto euery man accordyng as he had neede.
36 And Ioses, which was also called of the Apostles Barnabas (that is to say ye interprete it, The sonne of consolation) being a Leuite, and of the countrey of Cypers.
37 Hauyng lande, solde it, and brought the money, and layde it downe at the Apostles feete.

¶ The.v.Chapter.

12. Miracles are doone by the Apostles. 34. The sentence of Gamaliel.

1 BVT a certayne man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wyfe, solde a possession,
2 And kept away part of the price, his wyfe also being of counsell, & brought a certayne parte, and layde it downe at the Apostles feete.
3 But Peter sayde, Ananias, how is it that Satan hath fylled thyne hart, to lye vnto the holy ghoste, and keepe away part of the price of the lande?
4 Whyles it remayned, was it not thyne owne? and after it was solde, was it not in thine owne power? why hast thou conceyued this thyng in thyne hart? thou hast not lyed vnto men, but vnto God.
5 Ananias hearyng these woordes, fell downe, & gaue vp the ghost: and great feare came on al them that hearde these thynges.
6 And the young men rose vp, & put him apart, and carried him out, and buried him.
7 And it came to passe, that as it were about the space of three houres after, his wife came in, not knowyng that whiche was doone.
8 And Peter sayde vnto her, Tel me, solde ye not the land for so muche? And she sayd, Yea, for so muche.
9 Then Peter sayde vnto her, Why haue ye agreed togeather, to tempt the spirite of the Lord? beholde, the feete of them which haue buryed thy husbande, are at the doore, and shal carrie thee out.
10 Then fell she downe strayghtway at his feete, and yeelded vp the ghoste: And the young men came in, and founde her dead, & caried her out, & buried her by her husband.
11 And great feare came vpon al the church, and vpon as many as hearde these thynges.
12 And by the handes of the Apostles, were many signes and woonders shewed among the people. (And they were altogeather with one accorde in Solomons porch. The Epistle on S. Bartholomewe the Apostle.
13 And of other durst no man ioyne hym selfe to them: nuertheless, the people magnified them.
14 The number of them that beleued in the Lorde, both of men and women, grew more and more.)
15 Insomuch that they brought the sicke into the streetes, and laid them on beddes and couches, that at the least way the a shadow of Peter when he came by, myght shadowe some of them.
16 There came also a multitude of the cities rounde about vnto Hierusalem, bryngyng sicke folkes, and them whiche were vexed with vncleane spirites: and they were healed euery one.
17 Then the cheefe Priest rose vp, & al they that were with hym (whiche is the sect of the Sadducees) & were full of indignation, 18 And layde handes on the Apostles, and put them in the common prison.
19 But the angel of the Lorde by night opened the prison doores, and brought them foorth, and sayde, 20 Goe, and stand & speake in the temple to the people al the woordes of this life.

a. God at the first publyshing of his Gospel, wrought woonders by these thynges that seemed tryfles to the worlde, which thynges as they were done for a time, so now the lyke must not be looked for.

21 And when they heard that, they entred into the temple early in the morning, and taught, but the chefe Priest came, and they that were with hym, & called a counsell togeather, and al the elders of the chyldren of Israel, and sent to the prison to fetch them.
22 But when the officers came, and founde them not in the prison, they returned, & told,
23 Saying, The pryson truely founde we shut with al diligence, and the kepers standyng without before the doores, but when we had opened, we founde no man within.
24 Then when the cheefe Priest, and the captayne of the temple, and the hygh Priestes hearde these thynges, they doubted of them whereunto this would growe.
25 Then came one, and shewed them, saying, Beholde, the men that ye put in prison, are standyng in the temple, and teachyng the people.
26 Then went the captayne of the temple with the officers, and brought them without violence: (For they feared the people, lest they shoulde haue been stoned.)
27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the counsell, and the cheefe Priest asked them, 28 Saying, *Dyd not we straytly cõmaund you that ye should not teache in this name? And beholde, ye haue fylled Hierusalem with your doctrine, and intende to bryng b this mans blood vpon vs.
29 Then Peter and the other Apostles answeared, and sayd, We ought more to obey God then men.
30 The God of our fathers rayled vp Iesus, whom ye slue, and hanged on tree.
31 Hym hath GOD lyft vp with his right hande, to be a Prince and a Sauiour, for to geue repentaunce to Israel, and forgeuenes of sinnes.
32 And we are recordes of those thinges which we say, and so is also the holy ghost, whom God hath geuen to them that obey hym.
33 When they hearde that, they claue asunder, and sought meanes to slay them.
34 Then stood there vp one in the counsell, a Pharisee, named Gamaliel, a doctour of lawe, had in reputation among al the people, and commaunded to put the Apostles foorth a litle space, 35 And sayde vnto them, Ye men of Israel, take heede to your selues, what ye intend to doo as touchyng these men.
36 For before these dayes rose vp one Theudas, reporting hym selfe to be some great man, to whom a number of men, about a foure hundred, ioyned them selues: whiche was slayne, and they al whiche *beleeued hym, were scattered abrode, and brought to nought.
37 After this man arose vp one Judas of Galilee, in the dayes of tribute, and drue away muche people after hym: he also perysshed, and all, euen as many as obeyed hym, were scattered abrode.
38 And nowe I say vnto you, refrayne your selues from these men, and let them alone: for yf this counsel or this woorke be of men, it wyl come to nought:
39 But and yf it be of God, ye can not destroy it, lest haplye ye be founde to stryue agaynst God.
40 And to hym they agreed: and when they had called the Apostles, & beaten them, they commaunded that they shoulde not speake in the name of Iesu, and let them goe.
41 And they departed from the face of the counsell, reioycyng that they were compted worthy to suffer shame for his name.
42 And dayly in the temple, and in euery house, they ceassed not to teach and preache Iesus Christe.

*Act.4.18.

b. By this speache, they meane that they woulde charge them as guyltie of Christes blood that was shed.

11. Steuen is accused.

1 AND in those dayes, when the number of the disciples grewe, there arose a grudge among the Grekes against the Hebrues, because their widdowes were despysed in the dayly ministerie.
2 Then the twelue called the multitude of the disciples togeather, and sayde, It is not good that we shoulde leaue the woorde of God, and serue tables.
3 Wherefore brethren, looke ye out among you seuen men of honest report, and full of the holy ghost, and wyse dome, to whom we may commit this businesse.
4 But we wyll geue our selues continually to prayer, & to the ministerie of the woorde.
5 And the saying pleased the whole multitude: * and they chose Steuen, a man ful of fayth, and of the holy ghoste, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Permenas, and Nicholas a conuert of Antioche. *Act.21.8.
6 These they set before the Apostles, and when they had prayed, they layde their handes on them.
7 And the woord of God encreased, and the number of the disciples multiplied in Hierusalem greatly, and a great companye of the Priestes were obedient to the fayth.
8 And Steuen full of fayth and power, dyd great woonders and miracles among the people.

9 Then

9 Then there arose certayne of the a synagogue, which is called the synagogue of the Libertines, and Cyrenians, and of Alexandria, and of Cilicia, and of Asia, disputing with Steuen:

10 And they coulde not resist the wisedome and the spirite by the which he spake.

11 Then they priuily prepared men, whiche sayde, b We haue heard him speake blasphemous woordes agaynst Moses, and agaynst God.

12 And they mooued the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came vpon hym, and caught him, and brought hym to the counsel:

13 And brought foorth false witnesses, whiche sayde, This man ceasseth not to speake blasphemous woordes agaynst this holy place, and the lawe.

14 For we heard hym say, that this Jesus of Nazareth shal destroy this place, and shal change the ordinances whiche Moses gaue vs.

15 And al that sate in the counsel, lookyng stedfastly on him, sawe his face as it had been the face of an angel.

a Or, Colledge. For in the citie of Hierusalem there were erected many houses or scooles, wherein the youth of the Iewes and strangers were instructed: as nowe a dayes are vsed in our vniuersities.

b The wicked setteth foorth false witnesses, when they by reasoning can not preuayle agaynst the trueth: And thus malice seeketh false Christes, when the trueth fayleth her.

19 The same dealt subtylly with our kinrede, and euyl intreated our fathers, and made them cast out theyr young chyldren, that they shoulde not remayne alyue.

20 *The same time was Moses borne, and was acceptable vnto God, and nourished vp in his fathers house three monethes:

*Exod.2.1. Hebr.11.23.

21 And when he was cast out, Pharaoes daughter tooke hym vp, and nourished him for her owne sonne.

22 And Moses was learned in al maner of wysedome of the Egyptians, & was mighty in deedes and in woordes.

23 And when he was ful fourtie yeeres old, it came into his hart to visite his brethren the chyldren of Israel.

24 *And when he sawe one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and auenged his quarel that had the harme done to him, and smote the Egyptian.

*Exod.2.11.

25 For he supposed his brethren woulde haue vnderstande, howe that God by his hande should deliuer them: but they vnderstoode not.

26 *And the next day he shewed hym selfe

*Exo.20.13

vnto them as they stroue, and woulde haue set them at one agayne, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren, why do ye wrong one to another?

27 But he that did his neyghbour wrong, thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a iudge ouer vs?

28 Wylt thou kyl me, as thou diddest the Egyptian yesterday?

29 Then fled Moses at that saying, and was a stranger in the lande of Madian, where he begate two sonnes.

*Exo.3.2. 30 *And when fourtie yeeres were expired, there appeared to hym c in the wyldernesse of mount Sina, an angel of the Lorde in a flame of fyre in a bramble bushe.

c. That is to say, Moses.

31 When Moses sawe it, he woondred at the sight: and as he drue neare to beholde, the voyce of the Lorde came vnto hym, 32 Saying, I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isahac, and the God of Iacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not beholde.

33 Then sayde the Lorde to hym, Put of thy shoes from thy feete: for the place where thou standest, is holy grounde.

34 I haue seene, I haue seene the affliction of my people which is in Egypt, & I haue heard their groning, and am come downe to deliuer them: And nowe come and I wyl sende thee into Egypt.

35 This Moses whom they forsooke, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a iudge? the same did God sende to be a ruler and a deliuerer, by the handes of the angel which appeared to him in the bramble bushe.

*Exod.7. 9. 36 *He brought them out, after that he had shewed woonders and signes in Egypt, and in the red sea, *and in the wyldernesse fourtie yeeres.

*Exod.16.1.

37 This is that Moses whiche sayde vnto the children of Israel, *A prophete shal the Lorde your God rayse vp vnto you of your brethren, lyke vnto me: hym shal ye heare.

*Deut.18.15

*Exod.19.2. 38 *This is he that was in the Church in the wyldernesse with the angel, whiche spake to him in the mount Sina, and with our fathers: this man receyued the woorde of lyfe, to geue vnto vs.

39 To whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust hym from them, & in their hartes turned backe agayne into Egypt,

*Exod.32.1. 40 Saying vnto Aaron, *Make vs gods to goe before vs. For as for this Moses that brought vs out of the lande of Egypt, we wote not what is become of hym.

41 And they made a Calfe in those dayes, and offered sacrifice vnto the idol: and reioyced ouer the woorkes of their owne handes.

*Amos.5.25 42 *Then God turned hym selfe away, and gaue them vp to woorshyp the hoste of heauen, as it is written in the booke of the prophetes, O ye house of Israel, haue ye offered to me d slayne beastes, and sacrifices by the space of fourtie yeeres in the wyldernesse?

d. God tooke their offeringes to be abominable, and vtterly none at al: partly for that they offered with a dissembling hart and a wicked lyfe, and partly because they mingled togeather the seruice deuised by man with the true seruice of God. Exo.25.40.

43 Yea ye tooke vnto you the tabernacle of Moloch, and the starre of your God Remphan, figures which ye made, to woorshyp them: and I wyl carie you away beyonde Babylon.

44 Our fathers had the tabernacle of witnesse in the wyldernesse, as he had appoynted, speakyng vnto Moses that he shoulde make it according vnto the fashion that he had seene:

45 Which also our fathers that came after, brought in with Iesus into the possession of the Gentiles, whom God draue out before the face of our fathers, vnto the dayes of Dauid, 46 Which founde fauour before God, and woulde fayne haue founde a tabernacle for the God of Iacob.

47 *But Solomon built hym an house. *1.Chro.17.

48 *Howebeit, he that is highest of al, dwelleth not in temples made with e handes, as sayth the prophete, *Act.17.24.

e. Here is reprooued the grosse dulnesse of the people, who vaynely fantasied that Gods power was conteyned within the temple, which is the place of my rest, not the house buylt with mens handes, but an humble and a quiet spirite, which trembleth at my holy woorde.

49 Heauen is my seate, and earth is my footestoole: What house wyl ye buyld me, sayth the Lorde? Or which is the place of my rest?

50 Hath not my hande made all these thynges?

51 Ye stifnecked & of vncircumcised hartes and eares, ye doo alwayes resist the holy ghost, as your fathers did, so doo ye.

52 Which of the Prophetes haue not your fathers persecuted? And they haue slayne them which shewed before of the comming of the iust, of whom ye haue been nowe the betrayers and murderers:

53 Which also haue receyued the law by the disposition of angels, and haue not kept it.

54 When they heard these thynges, their hartes claue a sunder, and they gnashed on him with their teeth.

55 But he being ful of the holy ghost, looked vp stedfastly into heauen, and sawe the glory of God, and Iesus standyng on the ryght hande of God, The Epistle on Saint Stevens day.

56 And sayde, Beholde, I see the heauens open, and the sonne of man standing on the ryght hande of God.

57 Then they gaue a shoute with a loude voyce, and stopped their eares, and ran vpon him al at once,

58 And cast hym out of the citie, and stoned hym: and the witnesses layde downe their clothes at a young mans feete, whose name name was Saule.

59 And they stoned Steuen, callyng on, and saying, Lorde Iesu receyue my spirite.

60 And he kneeled downe, f and cried with a loude voyce, Lorde, lay not this sinne to theyr charge. And when he had thus spoken, he fel a sleepe.

f He prayed for him selfe standing, but praying for his enemies he kneeled downe, meaning thereby first that their great iniquitie required a greater & a more fervent prayer: secondly, he declareth his mighty charitie, praying so earnestly for his enimies.

¶ The. viij. Chapter.

1. The Apostles are scattered abroade. 5. Philip baptiseth the Eunuch.

1 AND Saul was consenting vnto his death: and at that tyme there was a great persecution against the Churche which was at Hierusalem, and they were al scattered abrode throughout the regions of Iurie, and Samaria, except the Apostles.

2 And deuout men carryed Steuen togeather to his buryal, and made great lamentation ouer hym.

3 As for Saul, he made hauocke of the Churche, entryng into euery house, and drawyng out both men and women, dyd put them into prison.

4 Therefore they that were scattered abrode, went euery where preaching ỹ word of God.

5 Then came Philip into the citie of Samaria, and preached Christe vnto them.

6 And the people gaue heede vnto those thinges whiche Philip spake, with one accorde, hearing and seeing the myracles whiche he dyd.

7 For vncleane spirites, crying with loude voyce, came out of many that were possessed with them: and many taken with paulsies, and many that halted, were healed.

8 And there was great ioy in that citie.

9 But there was a certayne man called Simon, whiche before tyme in the same citie vsed witchcraft, and bewitched the people of Samaria, saying that he was a man that coulde doo great thynges:

10 To whom they al gaue heede, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God.

11 And hym they set muche by, because that of long tyme he had bewitched them with sorceries.

12 But when they beleeued Philips preachyng of the kingdome of God, and of the name of Iesus Christe, they were baptised, both men and women.

13 Then Simon him selfe beleeued also: and when he was baptised, he continued with Philip, and wondred, beholding the myracles and signes which were doone.

14 When the Apostles whiche were at Hierusalem, hearde say that Samaria had receyued the woorde of God, they sent vnto them Peter and John.

The Epistle on the Tuesday in vvhitsun vveeke.

15 Whiche when they were come downe, prayed for them that they might receyue the holy ghost.

16 (For as yet he was come downe vppon none of them: but they were baptised a onely in the name of Christ Iesu.)

17 Then layed they theyr handes on them, and they receyued the holy ghost.

18 And when Simon saw that through laying on of the Apostles handes, the holy ghost was geuen, he offered them money, 19 Saying, Geue me also this power, that on whom so euer I put the handes, he may receyue the holy ghost.

20 But Peter sayd vnto hym, Thy money perysh with thee, because thou hast thought that the gyft of God may be obteyned with money.

21 Thou hast neyther part nor felowshyp in this businesse: for thy hart is not ryght in the syght of God.

22 Repent therfore of this thy wickednesse, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine hart may be forgeuen thee.

23 For I perceyue that thou art b in the gal of bytternesse, and in the bonde of c iniquitie.

24 Then answeared Simon, and sayde, Pray ye to the Lorde for me, that none of these thynges which ye haue spoken, fal on me.

25 And they, when they had testified and preached the woord of the Lorde, returned toward Hierusalem, and preached the Gospel in many villages of the Samaritanes.

26 And the angel of the Lorde spake vnto Philip, saying, Aryse, and goe towarde the South, vnto the way that goeth downe frō Hierusalem vnto Gaza, which is desart.

27 And he arose, and went on: and beholde a man of Ethiopia, an Eunuch, e of great auctoritie with Candace, Queene of the Ethiopians, and had the rule of al her treasure, whiche came to Hierusalem for to worshyp.

28 And as he returned home againe, sitting in his charet, he read Esaias the prophet.

29 Then the spirite said vnto Philip, Come neare, and ioyne thee selfe to this charet.

30 And Philip ran thyther to hym, and heard him reade the prophet Esaias, & said, Understandest thou what thou readest?

31 And he sayde, Howe can I, except some man shoulde guyde me? And he desyred Philip that he woulde come vp, and syt with hym.

32 The tenor of the scripture whiche he read,

a. They that were baptised onely in the name of Christ, no doubt had receyued the holy ghost sufficiently touchyng their salvation: but for further confirmation of Christes religion, nowe newe lye set foorth, the manifest & vnwont gyftes of the holy ghost appeared among the Christians, by layeing on of the handes of the Apostles.

b. Thou art filled with melancoly & enuie.

Thou wouldest haue dooinges with the highest, otherwyse thou canst not be quiet.

c. Through the desire of money and colourable couetousnesse.

Take heede ye symoniakes, that onely for lyuing enter into the ministerie.

*Esai.53.7. read, was this, *He was led as a sheepe to the slaughter, & like a lambe dumbe before the shearer: so opened not he his mouth.

33 In his humilitie, his iudgement is exalted: but who shal declare his generation? For his lyfe is taken from the earth.

34 And the Eunuch answeared Philip, and sayd, I pray thee of whom speaketh the prophete this? of him selfe, or of some other man?

35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same scripture, and preached vnto hym Iesus.

36 And as they went on theyr way, they came vnto a certaine water: & the Eunuch sayd, See, here is water, what dooth let me to be baptised?

37 Philip sayde vnto him, If thou beleeuest with al thine hart, thou mayest. And he answeared, and sayd, I beleeue that Iesus Christe is the sonne of God.

38 And he commaunded the charret to stand styl: and they went downe both into the water, both Philip, & also the Eunuch, and he baptised him.

39 And as soone as they were come out of the water, the spirite of the Lorde caught away Philip, that the Eunuche sawe hym no more: and he went on his way reioycing.

40 But Philip was founde a Azotus: and he walked throughout the countrey, preachyng in all the cities, tyll he came to Cesarea.

¶ The. ix. Chapter.

S. The conuertion of Saul. 34. Peter healeth Eneas, 40. and rayseth vp Tabitha.

1 AND *Saul a yet breathing out threatenynges and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went vnto the hygh priest,

*Rom.9.3. The Epistle on the conuertion of saint Paul.

2 And desyred of hym letters to carie to Damascus, to the synagogues, that if he founde any of this way, whether they were men or women, he myght bring them bounde vnto Hierusalem.

a. Saul breathed & blustred with rage and crueltie against christes church, which declareth whereunto man is led by his rashe zeale, before he hath the true knowledge of God.

3 And when he iourneyed, it came to passe, that as he was come nygh to Damascus, sodaynely there shyned rounde about hym a lyght from heauen.

4 And he fel to the earth, and heard a voyce saying vnto him, *Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

*1.Cor.15.8.

5 And he sayd, Who art thou Lorde? And the Lord sayd, I am Iesus whom thou persecutest: It is harde for thee to kicke against the prickes.

6 And he both trembling and astonied, said, Lord, what wylt thou haue me to doo? And the Lorde sayd vnto hym, Aryse, and goe into the citie, and it shalbe told thee what thou must doo.

7 The men also which iorneyed with hym, stoode amazed, b hearyng a voyce, but seeing no man.

b. No marueile through weake & corruptible fleshe was amased at heauenly thinges, and at the talke of God, wher by it came to passe, that they heard a voyce, as here is written, & heard no voyce, as is written in the. 22. Chapter. For they heard a voyce, and vnderstoode it not.

8 And Saul arose from the earth, and when his eyes were opened, he sawe no man: but they led hym by the hande, and brought him into Damascus.

9 And he was three dayes without syght, and neyther dyd eate nor drynke.

10 And there was a certayne disciple at Damascus, named Ananias: and to him sayde the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he sayd, Beholde, I am here Lorde.

11 And the Lorde sayd vnto hym, Aryse, and go into the streete, which is called Straight, and seeke in the house of Iudas, after one called Saul, of Tarsus: for beholde he prayeth, 12 And hath seene in a vision, a man named Ananias, commyng in to hym, and puttyng his handes on hym, that he myght receyue his syght.

13 Then Ananias answeared, Lorde, I haue heard by many of this man, howe muche euyll he hath doone to thy saintes at Hierusalem:

14 And here he hath auctoritie of the hygh priestes, to bynd al that cal on thy name.

15 The Lorde sayde vnto hym, Goe thy way, for he is a chosen vessell vnto me, to beare my name before the Gentiles, and kinges, and the children of Israel:

16 For I wyl shewe him howe great thinges he must suffer for my names sake.

17 And Ananias went his way, and entred into the house, and put his handes on hym, and sayde, Brother Saul, the Lorde (euen Iesus that appeared vnto thee in the waye as thou camest) hath sent me, that thou myghtest receiue thy syght, and be fylled with the holy ghost.

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had ben scales, & he receiued syght forthwith, and arose, and was baptised.

19 And when he had receyued meate, he was comforted. Then was Saul certayne dayes with the disciples whiche were at Damascus.

20 And strayghtwaye he preached Christe in the synagogues, that he is the sonne of God.

21 But all that heard hym, were amazed, and sayde, Is not this he that destroyed them whiche called on this name in Hierusalem, and came hyther for that intent, that he myght bryng them bounde vnto the hygh priestes.

22 But Saul increased the more in strength, strength, and confounded the Iewes which dwelt at Damascus, prouing by conferring one Scripture with an other, that this is very Christe.

23 And after that many dayes were fulfilled, the Iewes tooke counsayle togeather to kyll him.

24 But their layeng awayte was knowen of Saul: and they watched the gates day and nyght to kyll him. 2.Co.11.32

25 Then the disciples tooke him by nyght, and put him downe by the wall, and let him downe in a basket.

26 And when Saul was come to Hierusalem, he assayed to couple him selfe to the disciples, but they were all afraide of hym, and beleeued not that he was a disciple.

27 But Barnabas tooke him, & brought him to the Apostles, declared vnto them howe he had seene the Lorde in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Iesus.

28 And he was with them comming in, and going out at Hierusalem, 29 Speaking boldly in the name of the Lord Iesus, and he spake and disputed agaynst the Grekes: but they went about to slaye hym.

30 Whiche when the brethren knewe, they brought hym to Cesarea, & sent hym forth to Tarsus.

31 Then had the Churches rest throughout all Iurie, and Galilee, and Samaria, and were edified, and walked in the feare of the Lorde, and multiplied by the comfort of the holy ghost.

32 And it came to passe, as Peter walked throughout all quarters, he came also to the saintes which dwelt at Lydda.

33 And there he founde a certayne man named Eneas, which had kept his bed eyght yeeres, and was sicke of the palsie.

34 And Peter sayde vnto him, Eneas, Iesus Christe maketh thee whole: aryse, and make thy bed. And he arose immediatly.

35 And all that dwelt at Lydda and Saron, sawe him, which turned to the Lorde.

36 There was also at Ioppa a certayne woman, a disciple, named Tabitha, whiche by interpretation is called c Dorcas: the same was full of good woorkes, and almes deedes, which she dyd.

37 And it came to passe in those dayes that she was sicke, and dyed: who when they had washed, they layde her in an vpper chamber.

38 And for as much as Lydda was nygh to Ioppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent vnto him two men, desyring him that he woulde not be greeued to come to them.

39 Then Peter arose, and came with them: when he was come, they brought him into the vpper chamber: And al the wyddowes stoode rounde about hym weeping, and shewing the coates and garmentes whiche Dorcas made whyle she was with them.

40 And Peter put them al forth, and kneeled downe, and prayed, and turned hym to the body, and sayde, Tabitha, aryse. And she opened her eyes, and when she sawe Peter, she sate vp.

41 And Peter gaue her the hand, and lyft her vp: and when he had called the saintes and wyddowes, he deliuered her aliue.

42 And it was knowen throughout al Ioppa, and many beleeued in the Lorde.

43 And it came to passe, that he tarried many dayes in Ioppa, with one Simon a Tanner.

c Tabitha is called Dorcas. Dorcas signifieth a Roe Bucke, a beast of sharpe sight. Such an one was Tabitha, to this effect, that she being on earth farre from heauen, did behold heauenly thinges, and drew neare vnto heauen with godly woorkes.

¶ The.x. Chapter.

11. The vision that Peter savve. 17. He vvas sent to Cornelius.

1 THere was a certayne man in Cesarea, called Cornelius, a captayne of the band, called the Italian band,

2 A deuoute man, and one that feared God with all his household, whiche gaue muche almes to the people, and prayed GOD alway.

3 The same sawe by a vision euidently, about the nienth houre of the day, an angell of God comming in to him, and saying vnto him, Cornelius.

4 And when he looked on hym, he was afrayde, and sayde, What is it Lord? And he sayde vnto him, Thy a prayers and thyne almes are come vp into remembrance before God.

a. The prayers and almes of Cornelius pleased God before he was baptised: but without fayth God can not be pleased. Cornelius therfore (as Bede truely noteth) had fayth, whereby his prayers and almes pleased god. For (sayth he) he came nog to faith thorow workes, but to woorkes thorowe fayth.

5 And nowe sende men to Ioppa, and call for one Simon, whose syrname is Peter.

6 He lodgeth with one Simon a Tanner, whose house is by the sea side: He shall tell thee what thou oughtest to doo.

7 And when the angel whiche spake vnto Cornelius, was departed, he called two of his household seruantes, and a deuoute souldier of them that wayted on him,

8 And tolde them all the matter, and sent them to Ioppa.

9 On the morowe as they went on their iourney, and drewe nygh vnto the citie, Peter went vp into the highest part of ỹ house to pray, about the sixth houre.

10 And when he wared hungry, he woulde haue eaten: But whyle they made redy, he fell into a traunce,

11 And

11 And he seeth b heauen opened, and a certayne vessel come downe vnto him, as it had been a great sheete, knitte at the foure corners, and let downe to the earth:

12 Wherein were all maner of foure footed beastes of the earth, and wylde beastes, and such as creepe, and foules of the ayre.

13 And there came a voyce to him, Ryse Peter, kyll, and eate.

14 But Peter sayde, Not so Lorde: for I haue neuer eaten any thing that is common or vncleane.

15 And the voyce spake vnto him againe the second time, What God hath cleansed, that c call not thou common.

16 This was done thryse: and the vessell was receiued vp agayne into heauen.

17 Nowe whyle Peter doubted in him selfe what this vision which he had seene should meane: beholde, the men which were sent from Cornelius, had made enquiraunce for Simons house, and stoode before the dooze, 18 And called, and asked whether Simon, which was syrnamed Peter, were lodged there.

19 Whyle Peter thought on the vision, the spirite saide vnto hym, Beholde, three men seeke thee.

20 Aryse therefore, and get thee downe, and goe with them, doubting nothing: for I haue sent them.

21 Then Peter went downe to the men whiche were sent vnto him from Cornelius, and saide, Beholde, I am he whom ye seeke: what is the cause wherfore ye are come?

22 And they saide, Cornelius the captaine, a iust man, and one that feareth God, and of good report among all the people of the Iewes, was warned by an holy angel, to send for thee into his house, and to heare woordes of thee.

23 Then called he them in, & lodged them: And on ỹ morowe Peter went away with them, and certayne brethren from Ioppa accompanied him.

24 And the third day after entred they into Cesarea: and Cornelius wayted for them, and had called togeather his kinsmen and speciall freendes.

25 And it came to passe as Peter came in, Cornelius met him, and fell downe d at his feete, and woorshipped him.

26 But Peter tooke him vp, saying, Stand vp, I mee selfe also am a man.

27 And as he talked with him, he came in, & findeth many that were come togeather.

28 And he said vnto them, Ye knowe howe that it is an vnlawfull thing for a man that is a Iewe, to company or come vnto one of another nation: but God hath shewed me, that I shoulde not call any man common or vncleane.

29 Therefore came I vnto you without delay, as soone as I was sent for: I aske therefore for what intent ye haue sent for me?

30 And Cornelius saide, Foure dayes agoe vntyll this houre I was fasting, and at the nienth houre I prayed in my house, and beholde, a man stoode before me in bright clothyng,

31 And sayde, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thyne almes deedes are had in remembrance in the sight of God:

32 Send therefore to Ioppa, and call for Simon, whose syrname is Peter, he is lodged in the house of one Simon a Tanner, by the sea side, who when he commeth, shal speake vnto thee.

33 Then sent I for thee immediatly, and thou hast well done that thou art come. Nowe therefore are we all here present before God, to heare all thinges that are commaunded vnto thee of God.

34 Then Peter opened his mouth, and sayde, * Of a trueth I perceiue that GOD hath no regard of persons: The Epistle on Munday in Whitsun weeke.

35 But in euery nation, he that feareth him, and woorketh righteousnesse, is accepted with him. Deu. 10. 17 Roman. 2. 11 1. Pet. 1. 17. Luke. 4. 14.

36 Touching the woord whiche God sent vnto the children of Israel, preachyng peace by Iesus Christ (he is Lord ouer al.)

37 Ye know how the woord was published throughout al Iurie, beginning in Galilee, after the baptisme which Iohn preached:

38 How God annoynted Iesus of Nazareth with the holy ghost, and with power, who went about doing good, and healyng all that were oppressed of the deuyll: for God was with him.

39 And we are witnesse of al thinges which he dyd in the lande of the Iewes, and at Hierusalem, whom they slue, when they had hanged him on a tree.

40 Him God raysed vp the thyrd day, and shewed him openly.

41 Not to all the people, but vnto vs witnesses, chosen before of GOD, euen to vs which dyd eate and drinke with him after he rose from the dead.

42 And he commaunded vs to preache vnto the people, and to testifie that it is he which was ordeyned of God to be ỹ iudge of quicke and dead.

43 * To hym geue all the prophetes witnesse, that through his name whosoeuer beleueth in him, shal receiue remission of sins. Actes. 15. 9. Iere. 31. 34. Miche. 7. 18.

44 Whyle Peter yet spake these woords, the holy ghost fel on all them which heard the

b. This vision doth teache manifolde mysteries. First, that the restraint of meates made vnto the Iewes, is take away, & bindeth not the Christians. For nowe to the cleane, al meats are cleane. Secondly, the graces and giftes of God are cõmon also to the haethen, who before this time were excluded: whiche thyng is signified by the foure cornerd sheete, which signifieth the foure coastes of ỹ world. Now heauen is open to al that is inclosed in ỹ sheete, whiche is the holy congregation of God.

c. Or, doo not thou pollute.

d. Cornelius dyd reuerence Peter more then he ought to haue done, supposing hym eyther to be a God, eyther to be indued with such power and vertue, for the which he shuld be honoured as God.

45 And they of the circumcision whiche beleeued, were astonied, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was powred out the gyft of the holy ghost.

46 For they heard them speake with tongues, and magnifie God. Then answered Peter, 47 Can any man forbid water, that these shoulde not be baptised, whiche haue receyued the holy ghost as wel as we?

48 And he commaunded them to be baptised in the name of the Lorde. Then prayed they hym to tarry certayne dayes.

¶ The. xi. Chapter.

Barnabas and Paul preach at Antiochia. 28. Agabus prophesieth dearth to come.

1 AND the Apostles and brethren that were in Iurie, heard that the heathen had also receyued the woorde of God.

2 And when Peter was come vp to Hierusalem, they that were of the circumcision contended agaynst hym,

3 Saying, Thou wentest in to men vncircumcised, and diddest eate with them.

4 But Peter rehearsed the matter from the begynnyng, and expounded it by order vnto them, saying,

5 I was in the citie of Ioppa praying, and in a traunce I sawe a vision, a certaine vessel descende, as it had ben a great sheete, let downe from heauen by the foure corners, and it came euen vntyl me.

6 Upon the whiche when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and sawe foure footed beastes of the earth, and wylde beastes, and suche as creepe, and foules of the ayre.

7 And I hearde a voyce, saying vnto me, Aryse Peter, slay, and eate.

8 But I sayde, Not so Lorde: for nothyng common or vncleane hath at any tyme entred into my mouth.

9 But the voyce answeared me againe from heauen, Doo not thou make them [a] common which God hath cleansed.

a. What meates soeuer the Iewes vsed contrary to the order of Gods law, they called it common or vncleane.

10 And this was doone three tymes: and al were taken vp agayne into heauen.

11 And beholde, immediately there were three men alredy come vnto the house where I was, sent from Cesarea vnto me.

12 And the spirite sayde vnto me, that I shoulde goe with them, nothing doubting: Moreouer, these sixe brethren accompanied me, and we entred into the mans house:

13 And he shewed vs howe he had seene an angel in his house, whiche stoode and sayde vnto hym, Sende men to Ioppa, and cal for Simon, whose surname is Peter.

14 He shal tel thee woordes, whereby both thou, and al thy house shalbe saued.

15 And as I began to speake, the holy ghost fel on them, * as he did on vs at the begynnyng. * Actes.2.4.

16 Then remembred I the woorde of the Lorde, howe that he sayde, * Iohn baptised with water: but ye shalbe baptised with [b] the holy ghost. * Iohn.1.17. Actes.1.5.

b. To be baptised with the holy ghost, is to receyue the visible graces and gyftes of the holy ghost.

17 For as much then as God gaue them the like gyft as he did vnto vs when we beleeued on the Lorde Iesus Christe: what was I that I shoulde haue withstande God?

18 When they heard these thynges, they held their peace, and glorifyed God, saying, Then hath god also to the Gentiles graunted repentaunce vnto lyfe.

19 * They also which were scattered abrode through the affliction that arose about Steuen, walked throughout vnto Phenice, and Cypres, and Antioche, preachyng the woorde to no man, but vnto the Iewes onely. * Actes.8.1.

20 And some of them were men of Cypres, & Cyrene, which when they were come to Antioche, spake vnto the Grekes, and preached the Lorde Iesus.

21 And the hande of the Lorde was with them: and a great number beleeued, and turned vnto the Lorde.

22 * Then tidinges of these thinges came vnto the eares of the Churche whiche was in Hierusalem: and they sent foorth Barnabas, that he shoulde goe vnto Antioche. * The Epistle on saint Barnabas Apostle.

23 Which when he came, and had seene the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted them all, that with purpose of harte they woulde cleaue vnto the Lorde.

24 For he was a good man, and ful of the holy ghost, and of fayth: and muche people was added vnto the Lorde.

25 Then departed Barnabas to Tharsus, for to seeke Saul.

26 And when he had found him, he brought hym vnto Antioche. And it came to passe, that a whole yeere they had their conuersation with the Churche there, and taught much people: insomuch that the disciples of Antioche were the [c] first that were called Christians. * The Epistel on saint Iames the Appostle.

c. Not for that they were the first Christians: but for that the people both of the Iewes and gentiles, grewe into one body, & were more bolde freely to confesse the fayth of Christ.

27 * And in those dayes came prophetes from Hierusalem vnto Antioche.

28 And there stoode vp one of them, named Agabus, and signified by the [d] spirite, that there shoulde be great dearth throughout al the world: which came to passe in the dayes of Claudius Caesar.

d. By these woordes saint Luke doth signifie that the spirite of God was the auctor of this prophecie, that thereby we myght vnderstand the knowledge not to be gathered eyther of the course of the starres, or any other naturall causes.

29 Then the disciples, euery man according to his habilitie, purposed to sende succour vnto the brethren which dwelt in Iurie.

30 Whiche

30 Which thyng they also dyd, and sent it to the elders, by the handes of Barnabas and Saul.

¶ The xii. Chapter.

1. Herode persecuteth the Christians. 24. The Gospel florisheth.

The Epistle on saint Peters day.

1 AT the same tyme Herode the king stretched forth his handes to vexe certayne of the Churche.

2 And he killed James the brother of John with the swoorde.

3 And because he sawe it pleased the Iewes, he proceeded further, and toke Peter also. (Then were the dayes of sweete bread.)

4 And when he had caught him, he put him in prison also, and deliuered hym to foure a quaternions of souldiers to be kept, intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people.

a. That is, to xvi. souldiers.

5 And Peter was kept in prison, but prayer was made without ceassing of the Church vnto God for hym.

6 And when Herode woulde haue brought him forth vnto the people, the same nyght Peter was sleeping betweene two souldiers bounde with two chaynes, and the keepers before the doore kept the prison.

7 And beholde, the angel of the Lorde was there present, and a lyght shyned in the prison: and he smote Peter on the syde, and stirred hym vp, saying, Aryse vp quickely. And his chaynes fel of from his handes.

8 And the angel sayd vnto hym, Gyrde thee selfe, and bynde on thy Sandales. And so he dyd. And he sayth vnto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and folowe me.

9 And Peter came out, and folowed him, and wist not that it was trueth which was done by the angel: but thought he had seene a vision.

10 When they were past the first and the second watche, they came vnto the Iron gate that leadeth vnto the citie, which opened to them by the owne accorde: and they went out, and passed through one streete, & forthwith the angel departed from hym.

11 And when Peter was come to him selfe, he sayde, Nowe I knowe of a suretie that the Lord hath sent his angel, and hath deliuered me out of the hande of Herode, and from al the wayting for of the people of the Iewes.

12 And as he considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John, whose surname was Marke, where many were gathered togeather in prayer.

13 As Peter knocked at the entrie doore, a damsel came forth to hearken, named Rhoda.

14 And when she knewe Peters voyce, she opened not the doore for gladnesse, but ran in, and tolde howe Peter stoode before the doore.

15 And they sayde vnto her, Thou art mad. But she affirmed that it was euen so. Then sayd they, It is his b angel.

b. For they did know by Gods woord, that angels were apointed to defende the faithful, and also in those dayes they were accustomed to see suche sightes.

16 But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened the doore, and sawe him, they were astonied.

17 And when he had beckened vnto them with the hand, that they myght hold their peace, he tolde them by what meanes the Lorde had brought him out of the prison: And he sayd, Goe shewe these thinges vnto James, and to the brethren. And he departed, and went into another place.

18 Nowe as soone as it was day, there was no litle adoo among the souldiers, what was become of Peter.

19 And when Herode had sought for hym, and founde him not, he examined the keepers, and commaunded them to be caried away. And he discended from Iurie to Cesarea, and there abode.

20 And Herode was displeased with them of Tyre and Sidon: but they came al with one accorde to hym, and made intercession vnto Blastus the kinges chamberlaine, and desyred peace, because their countrey was nourished by the kinges countrey.

21 And vppon the day appoynted, Herode arrayed hym in royal apparell, and set him in his seate, and made an oration vnto them.

22 And the people gaue a shout, saying, It is the voyce of a God, and not of a man.

23 And immediatelye the angel of the Lorde smote hym, because he gaue not God the honour, and he was eaten of c woormes, and gaue vp the ghost.

c. The vilenesse of the punishement declareth here that God detesteth pride and tyrannye. His Grandfather also was eaten of lice.

24 And the word of God grewe, and d multiplied.

d. The more that tyrannes goe about to suppresse Gods word, the more dooth it encrease and multiply.

25 And Barnabas and Saul returned to Hierusalem, when they had fulfylled their office, and tooke with them John, whose surname was Marke.

1. Of Sergius Paulus, and Elimas the sorcerer. 26. The Iewes are reiected.

shed vp with Herod the Tetrarch, & Saul.

2 As they ministred to the Lorde, and fasted, the holy ghost sayde, Separate me Barnabas and Saul, for the worke wherunto I haue called them.

3 And when they had fasted and prayed, and layde their handes on them, they let them goe.

4 And they, after they were sent forth of the holy ghost, departed vnto Celeucia, and from thence they sayled to Cyprus.

5 And when they were at Salamine, they preached the worde of GOD in the synagogues of the Iewes: and they had also Iohn to their minister.

6 And when they had gone through the Ile vnto Paphos, they found a certayne sorcerer, a false prophete, a Iewe, whose name was Barieſu:

7 Which was with the deputie of the country, one Sergius Paulus, a prudent man; the same when he hadde called vnto hym Barnabas and Saul, desyred to heare the worde of God.

8 But Elimas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstoode them, seekyng to turne the deputie away from the fayth.

9 Then Saul (whiche also is called Paul) being full of the holy ghost, set his eyes on hym,

10 And sayde, O full of all subtiltie and all mischiefe, thou childe of the deuyll, thou enimie of all righteousnesse, wylt thou not ceasse to peruert the right wayes of ỹ Lord?

11 And nowe beholde, the hand of the Lorde is vpon ther, and thou shalt be blinde, not seeing the sonne for a season. And immediatly there fell on hym a myst and a darkenesse, and he went about, seeking them that should leade him by the hand.

12 Then the deputie, when he saw what was done, beleeued, and woondred at the doctrine of the Lorde.

13 Nowe when they that were with Paul, were departed from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia: and Iohn, when he departed from them, returned to Hierusalem.

14 But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioche in Pisidia, and went into the synagogue on ỹ sabboth day, and sate downe.

15 And after the readyng of the lawe and the prophetes, the rulers of the synagogue sent vnto them, saying, Ye men and brethren, yf ye haue any worde to exhort the people, say on.

16 Then Paul stoode vp, and when he had beckened with the hand for silence, sayde, Men of Israel, and ye that feare God, geue audience.

17 The God of the people of Israel, chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt as strangers in the * lande of Egypt, and with an hygh * arme brought he them out of it. *Exo.1.1. *Exo.13.14.

22 And when he had remooued hym, he set vp Dauid to be their kyng, of whom he reported, saying, * I haue found Dauid the sonne of Ieſſe, a man after mine owne hart, which shall fulfill all my wyll. *1.Re.16.13 Psal.89.21.

26 Ye men and brethren, children of the generation of Abraham, and whosoeuer among you feareth God, to you is the worde of this saluation sent. The Epistle on Tueseday in Easter vveeke.

27 For they that dwell at Hierusalem, and their rulers, because they knew hym not, nor yet the voyces of the prophets which are read euery sabboth day, they haue fulfylled them in condemnyng him.

28 And though they founde no cause of death in him, * yet desyred they Pilate that he should be slayne. *Mat.23.22 Luke.23.23.

33 God

a. The worde signifieth, to execute a publique office, as the Apostles was, so that here is shewed that they preached and prophesied, and did not offer a sacrifice, or say Masse at Antioche, as some wrongfully gather.

33 God hath fulfilled the same vnto vs their children, in that he hath rayſed vp Ieſus agayne, as it is alſo written in the ſeconde Pſalme: * Thou art my ſonne, this day haue I begotten thee.

*Pſalm.2.7 Hebre.1.5.

34 And as concernyng that he rayſed hym vp from the dead, nowe no more to returne to corruption, he ſayd on this wyſe, * I will geue you the holy thinges of Dauid, which are b ſaythfull.

*Eſai.55.3.

b Meanyng, that he woulde faythfully accompliſhe the promiſes which he made of his free mercie with the forefathers, that Chriſte ſhoulde be borne of the ſtocke of Dauid.

35 Wherefore he ſayth alſo in another place, * Thou ſhalt not ſuffer thyne holy one to ſee corruption.

*Pſal.16.10

36 For Dauid after he had ſerued his tyme, by the wyl of God, * fell on ſleepe, and was layd vnto his fathers, and ſawe corruption:

*3.Re.2.10.

37 But he whom God rayſed agayne, ſawe no corruption.

38 Be it knowen vnto you therefore, ye men and brethren, that * through this man is preached vnto you the forgeuenesse of ſinnes:

39 And by him, all that beleeue, are iuſtified from all thinges, from which ye coulde not be iuſtified by the lawe of Moſes.

40 Beware therefore, leſt that fall on you, which is ſpoken of in the prophetes.

*Abac.1.5.

41 * Beholde ye deſpiſers, and wonder, and periſhe ye: for I do a worke in your dayes, a worke which ye ſhal in no wyſe beleeue, though a man declare it to you plainely.

42 And when they were gone out of the ſynagogue of the Iewes, ỹ Gentiles beſought that theſe wordes might be preached to them the next Sabboth.

43 Nowe when the congregation was broken vp, many of the Iewes, and deuout Proſelytes folowed Paul and Barnabas, whiche ſpeaking to them, exhorted them to continue in the grace of God.

44 And the next Sabboth day came almoſt the whole citie togeather to heare the word of God.

45 But when the Iewes ſawe the people, they were full of indignation, and ſpake agaynſt thoſe thinges which were ſpoken of Paul, ſpeaking agaynſt, and rayling.

46 Then Paul & Barnabas waxed bolde, and ſayd, It was neceſſarie that the word of God ſhould firſt haue ben ſpoken to you: but ſeeing ye put it from you, and thynke your ſelues vnworthy of euerlaſting lyfe, loe, we turne to the Gentiles.

47 For ſo hath the Lorde commaunded vs, ſaying, * I haue made thee a light of the Gentiles, that thou be the ſaluation vnto the ende of the worlde.

*Eſa.49.10

48 And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lorde: and as many as were ordeyned to to eternall lyfe, beleeued.

49 And the word of the Lorde was publiſhed throughout all the region.

50 But the Iewes moued the deuoute c and honeſt women, and the cheefe men of the citie, and rayſed perſecution agaynſt Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coaſtes.

51 But they ſhooke of the duſt of their d feete agaynſt them, and came vnto Iconium.

52 And the diſciples were filled with ioy, and with the holy ghoſt.

c. Theſe were wealthy & ſubſtantiall wome, and yet ſuperſtitious, beyng ledde with a blinde zeale, whom the common people eſteemed very godly, and therefore Luke ſpeaketh here of theſe women, as the worlde eſteemed them. d. This they dyd accordyng to the commaundement of the Goſpell, for a witneſſe of their trauayle, that they came into their citie, and offered to them the doctrine of the Goſpell, whiche they contemned, and thereby ſignified alſo that they ſo deteſted theyr company, for this their contempt, that they woulde not haue the duſt of theyr citie hang vppon theyr ſhooes.

¶ The.xiiii.Chapter.

1. God geueth ſucceſſe to his worde. 19. Paul is ſtoned.

1 AND it came to paſſe in Iconium, that they went both togeather into the ſynagogue of the Iewes, and ſo ſpake, that a great multitude both of the Iewes, and alſo of the Greekes beleeued.

2 But the vnbeleeuing Iewes ſtirred vp, and corrupted the mindes of the Gentiles agaynſt the brethren.

3 Long tyme therefore abode they there, ſpeaking boldly with the helpe of the Lord, whiche gaue teſtimonie vnto the word of his grace, and graunted ſignes and wonders to be done by their handes.

4 But the multitude of the citie a was diuided: and part helde with the Iewes, and part with the Apoſtles.

a. As it is a curſed vnitie the which doo ſeparate vs frō God, ſo it is better an hundred times that a fewe depart from all the world, and to be at vnitie with God, then being at variance with hym to be at peace with the world.

5 And when there was an aſſaule made both of the Gentiles, and alſo of the Iewes, with theyr rulers, to doo them violence, and to ſtone them,

6 They were ware of it, and fled vnto Lyſtra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and vnto the region that lyeth round about.

7 And there were they preaching the b Goſpel.

b. The perſecution of the Goſpell, is an occaſion oftentimes of further aduauncement of the Goſpell.

8 And there ſate a certayne man at Lyſtra, weake in his feete, being a creeple from his mothers wombe, and neuer had walked.

9 The ſame heard Paul ſpeake: which beholding hym, and perceiuing that he had fayth to be whole,

10 Sayde with a loude voyce, Stande vp right on thy feete: And he ſtart vp, and walked.

11 And when the people ſawe what Paul had done, they lyft vp theyr voyces, ſaying in the ſpeeche of Lycaonia, The goddes are come downe to vs in the lykenesse of men.

12 And they called Barnabas Jupiter, and Paul Mercurius, because he was the cheefe speaker.

13 Then Jupiters Priest, whiche was before their citie, brought Oxen, & garlandes vnto the doore, and woulde haue doone sacrifice with the people.

14 Whiche when the Apostles, Barnabas and Paul heard of, they rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying, 15 And saying, Syrs, Why do ye these thinges? We also are mortall men lyke vnto you, and preach vnto you the gospel, that ye shoulde turne from these vanities, vnto the lyuyng God, *which made heauen & earth, and the sea, and all things that are therin.

16 The whiche in tymes past, * suffered all nations to walke in their owne wayes.

17 Neuertheles, he left not him selfe without witnes, in that he shewed his benefites from heauen, in geuyng vs raine, and fruitfull seasons, fylling our hartes with foode and gladnesse.

18 And with these sayinges scarse refrained they the people, that they had not doone sacrifice vnto them.

19 Then thyther came certayne Jewes, from Antioch and Iconium, whiche when they had perswaded the a people, *and had stoned Paul, drue hym out of the citie, supposing he had been dead.

20 Howbeit, when the disciples stood round about hym, he rose vp, and came into the citie, and the next day he departed, with Barnabas to Derbe.

21 And when they had preached the Gospel to that citie, and had taught many, they returned agayne to Lystra, and to Iconium, and Antioche, 22 And strengthed the disciples soules agayne, & exhorted them to continue in the fayth, and that we must through much tribulation enter into the kyngdome of God.

23 And when they had ordeyned them elders by election in euery Churche, and had prayed with a fastyng, they commended them to the Lorde, on whom they beleeued.

24 And whē they had gone throughout Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia.

25 And when they had spoken the woord of God in Perga, they descended into Attalia, 26 And thence departed by shyp to Antioch, from whence they were committed vnto the grace of God, to the woorks which they fulfylled.

27 And when they were come, and had gathered the Church togeather, they rehearsed all that God had doone with them, and howe he had opened the doore of fayth vnto the Gentiles.

28 And there they abode long tyme with the disciples.

¶ The.xv.Chapter.

1. The decree of the Apostles concernyng circumcision, and other ceremonies of the Iewes. 35 Paul and Barnabas preach in Antioch. 39. Paul and Barnabas fallyng at stryfe, breake company.

1 AND certaine men which came downe from Iurie, taught the brethren, *and sayd, Except ye be circumcised after the maner of Moses, ye can not be saued. *Gen.5.3.

2 So when there was rysen dissention and disputyng not a litle vnto Paul and Barnabas agaynst them, they determined that Paul and Barnabas, and certayne other of them, shoulde goe vp to Hierusalem vnto the Apostles and Elders, about this question.

3 And after they were brought on their way by the Churche, they passed through Phenice and Samaria, declaryng the conuersation of the gentiles: and they brought great ioy vnto al the brethren.

4 And whē they were come to Hierusalem, they were receyued of the Churche, and of the Apostles, and Elders, and they declared all thynges that God had doone with them.

5 Then rose vp certayne of the secte of the Pharisees whiche dyd beleeue, saying that it was needefull to circumcise them, and to commaunde to keepe the lawe of Moses.

6 And the Apostles and Elders came togeather for to consyder of this matter.

7 And when there had been muche disputyng, Peter rose vp, and sayde vnto them, *Ye men and brethren, ye knowe howe that a good whyle agoe, God dyd choose among vs, that the Gentiles by my mouth shoulde heare the woorde of the Gospel, and beleeue. *Act.10.30 and.11.13.

8 And God, which knoweth the harts, bare them witnesse, and gaue vnto them the holy ghost, euen as he dyd vnto vs;

9 *And put no differēce betweene vs and them, purifyng their hartes by fayth. *Act.10.43 1.Cor.1.1. Mat.23.4.

10 Nowe therefore why tempt ye God, to put on the disciples neckes the a yoke, whiche

a. He meaneth the holye lawe, and not the ceremonies only, and calleth it a yoke not able to be borne, because no man, not the most holyest and perfectest that euer was (Christ onely excepted) was able to performe the same in al poynts, both outwardly accordyng to the letter, and inwardly accordyng to the spirite.

'Gene.1.1. Psal.146.6 Apoca.14.7. *Psal.81.13.

*2. Corin. 11.22.

c. They that a litle before woulde haue woorshypped Paul as God, nowe they are content that he should be stoned as a wycked man: suche inconstancie is in the ignorant multitude.

a. Here we learne, whensoeuer we goe about anye weyghty matter, we ought with abstinēce prepare our myndes vnto prayer, that it maye be the more earnest.

whiche neyther our fathers nor we were able to beare?

11 But we beleeue that through the grace of the Lorde Jesus Christ, we shalbe saued, euen as they.

12 Then al the multitude kept scilence, and gaue audience to Barnabas & Paul, which tolde what signes and woonders God had shewed among the Gentiles by them.

13 And when they helde their peace, James answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken vnto me.

14 Simeon tolde howe God at the begynnyng dyd visite, to receyue of the Gentiles a people in his name.

15 And to this agree the woordes of the prophetes, as it is wrytten,

16 *After this I wyll returne, & wyl buylde agayne the b tabernacle of Dauid, which is fallen downe: and that whiche is fallen in decay of it, wyll I buylde agayne, and I wyl set it vp:

17 That the residue of men myght seeke after the Lorde, & al the Gentiles vpon whom my name is called, sayth the Lorde, whiche doeth al these thynges.

18 Knowen vnto God are al his woorkes from the begynnyng of the worlde.

19 Wherefore my sentence is, that we trouble not them, whiche from among the Gentiles are turned to God:

20 But that we wryte vnto them, that they abstayne them selues from fylthinesse of idols, and from fornication, and from strangled, and from blood.

21 For Moses of olde tyme hath in euery citie them that preache him in the Synagogues, when he is read euery Sabboth day.

22 Then pleased it the Apostles & Elders, with the whole Churche, to sende chosen men of their owne companie to Antioche, with Paul and Barnabas: That is, Judas, whose surname was Barsabas, and Silas, whiche were cheefe men among the brethren, 23 And wrote letters by them after this maner, The Apostles, and Elders, and brethren, send greeting vnto the brethren, whiche are of the gentiles in Antiochia, Syria, and Cilicia.

24 For as muche as we haue heard that certayne whiche departed from vs, haue troubled you with woordes, and cumbred your myndes, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keepe the lawe, to whom we gaue no suche commaundement:

25 It seemed therefore to vs a good thyng, when we were come togeather with one accorde, to send chosen men vnto you, with our beloued Barnabas and Paul,

26 Men that haue ieoparded their liues for the name of our Lorde Jesus Christe.

27 We haue sent therefore Judas & Silas, which shal also tel you the same thynges by mouth.

28 For it seemed good to the holy ghost and to vs, to laye vppon you no greater burden then these necessary thynges.

29 That is to say, That ye abstaine from thinges offered to idolles, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication: from whiche yf ye keepe your selues, ye shall doo wel. So fare ye wel.

30 Nowe therefore, when they were departed, they came to Antioch: and when they had geathered the multitude togeather, they delyuered the Epistle.

31 Whiche when they had read, they reioyced of the consolation.

32 And Judas and Silas, beyng prophetes also them selues, exhorted the brethren with many woordes, and strengthed them:

33 And after they had tarried there a space, they were let goe in peace of the brethren vnto the Apostles.

34 Notwithstandyng, it pleased Silas to abyde there styl.

35 Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teachyng & preachyng the woorde of the Lorde, with other many also.

36 But after a certaine space, Paul said vnto Barnabas, Let vs goe agayne and visite our brethren in euery citie where we haue vttered the woorde of the Lorde, & knowe and see howe they doo.

37 And Barnabas gaue counsell to take with them John, whose surname was Marke.

38 But Paul woulde not take hym vnto their companie, which departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the woorke.

39 And c the contention was so sharpe betweene them, that they departed asunder one from the other: and so Barnabas tooke Marke, and sayled vnto Cypers.

40 And Paul chose Silas, and departed, beyng committed of the brethren vnto the grace of God.

41 And he went through Syria and Cilicia, stablyshyng the Churches.

c. Paul circumciseth Timothi. 7. The spirite calleth them from one countrey to another. 14. Lydia is conuerted.

mans sonne which was a Jewesse, and beleeued: but his father was a Greeke.

2 Which was wel reported of the brethren that were at Lystra and Iconium.

3 Paul woulde that he shoulde goe forth with him, and tooke and circumcised him, because of the Jewes which were in those quarters: for they knewe al that his father was a Greeke.

4 And as they went through the cities, they deliuered them the decrees for to keepe, that were *ordeyned of the Apostles and elders which were at Hierusalem. *Act.25.28.

5 And so were the Churches stablished in the fayth, and encreased in number dayly.

6 Nowe when they had gone throughout Phrygia, and the region of Galatia, and were forbidden of the holy ghost to preache the woorde in Asia,

7 They comming to Mysia, sought to goe into Bithynia: but the spirit suffered them not.

8 And they passyng through Mysia, came downe to Troada.

9 And a vision appeared to Paul in the night, There stoode a man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come into Macedonia, and helpe vs.

10 And after he had seene the vision, immediatly we prepared to go into Macedonia, gathering by conference, that the Lorde had called vs for to preache the Gospel vnto them.

11 Then we beyng caryed from Troada, came with a straight course to Samothracia, and the next day to Neapolis:

12 And from thence to Philippos, whiche is the cheefe citie in the parties of Macedonia, and a free citie: and we were in that citie abyding certayne dayes.

13 And on the day of the Sabbothes we went out of the citie, besides a riuer, where prayer was wont to be made, and we sate downe, and spake vnto the women whiche resorted thyther.

14 And a certayne woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the citie of the Thyatirians, which woorshipped God, gaue vs audience: Whose hart the Lorde opened, that she attended vnto the thinges whiche were spoken of Paul.

15 And when she was baptised, and her housholde, she besought vs, saying, If ye haue iudged me to be faythful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she constrayned vs.

16 And it came to passe, as we went to prayer, a certayne damsel possessed with a spirite of a soothsaying, met vs: whiche brought her maisters muche vantage with soothsaying.

17 The same folowed Paul and vs, and cryed, saying, These men are the seruantes of the most high God, whiche shewe vnto vs the way of saluation.

18 And this did she many dayes: but Paul not content, turned about, and sayde to the spirite, I commaunde thee in the name of Iesu Christe, that thou come out of her. And he came out the same houre.

19 And when her maisters sawe that the hope of their gaines was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and drue them into the market place, vnto the rulers,

20 And brought them to the officers, saying, These men being Jewes, doo exceedingly trouble our citie:

21 And preache ordinances, which are not lawful for vs to receiue, neither to obserue, seeing we are Romanes.

22 And the people ranne agaynst them, and the officers rent their clothes, and commaunded *to beate them with roddes. *1.Cor.5.25 1.Thes.

23 And when they had layde many stripes vpon them, they cast them into prison, commaunding the iaylour of the prison to keepe them diligently.

24 Which when he had receyued such commaundement, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feete fast in the stockes.

25 And at midnight, Paul & Silas prayed and lauded God: and the prisoners heard them.

26 And sodaynely there was a great earthquake, so that the foundation of the prison was shaken: and immediatly al the doores opened, & euery mans bandes were loosed.

27 When the keeper of the prison waked out of his sleepe, and saw the prison doores open, he drue out his swoorde, and woulde haue kylled hym selfe, supposing that the prisoners had been fledde.

28 But Paul cryed with a loude voyce, saying, Doo thee selfe no harme, for we are all here.

29 Then he called for a lyght, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fel downe before Paul and Silas, 30 And brought them out, and sayd, Syrs, what must I doo to be saued?

31 And they sayde, Beleeue on the Lorde Jesus Christe, and thou shalt be saued, and thy houshold.

32 And they spake vnto him the woorde of the Lorde, and to al that were in his house.

33 And he tooke them the same houre of the night, and washed their woundes, and was baptised hym selfe, and al they of his houshold straightway.

34 And when he had brought them into his house, he set meate before them, and ioyed that he with al his housholde beleeued on God.

35 And when it was day, the officers sent the sergeantes, saying, Let those men goe.

36 And the keeper of the prison tolde this saying to Paul, The officers haue sent worde to loose you: Nowe therefore, geat you hence, and goe in peace.

37 Then sayde Paul vnto them, They haue beaten vs openly vncondemned, being Romanes, and haue cast vs into prison, nowe doo they thrust vs out priuily? Nay verily: but let them come them selues, and fetche vs out.

38 And the sergeantes tolde these woordes vnto the officers: and they feared when they heard that they were Romanes.

39 And they came and besought them, and brought them out, and desyred them to depart out of the citie.

40 And they went out of the prison, and entred into the house of *Lydia, and when they had seene the brethren, they comforted them, and departed.

*Actes.5.14.

¶ The.xvii.Chapter.

Paul commeth to Thessalonica, where the Iewes set the citie in an vprore.

1 AS they made their iourney through Amphypolis, & Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Iewes.

2 And Paul as his maner was, went in vnto them, and three sabboth dayes disputed with them out of the scriptures:

3 Opening and alleaging, that Christ must needes haue suffered and risen agayne from the dead: and that this is Christe Iesus which I preache vnto you.

4 And some of them beleeued, and ioyned with Paul and Silas, and of the deuoute Greekes a great multitude, & of the cheefe women not a fewe.

5 But the Iewes which beleeued not, mooued with enuie, tooke vnto them certayne vagabondes, and euyl men, and geathered a companie, and set al the citie on a roze, and made assault vnto the house of Iason, and sought to bryng them out to the people.

6 And when they founde them not, they drue Iason and certayne brethren vnto the heades of the citie, crying, These that haue troubled the worlde, are come hyther also,

7 Whom Iason hath receyued priuily: and these all doo contrary to the decrees of Caesar, a saying that there is another kyng, one Iesus.

8 And they troubled the people, and the officers of the citie, when they heard these thinges.

9 And when they had taken sufficient suretie of Iason, and of the other, they let them goe.

10 And the brethren immediatly sent away Paul and Silas by night vnto Berea: which when they were come thyther, they entred into the synagogue of the Iewes.

11 These were the noblest of byrth among them of Thessalonica, which receyued the woorde with al redinesse of minde, & searched the scriptures dayly, whether those thinges were so.

12 Therefore many of them beleeued: also of honest women which were Greekes, and of men not a fewe.

13 But when the Iewes of Thessalonica had knowledge that the woorde of GOD was preached of Paul at Berea, they came thyther, and mooued the people.

14 And then immediatly the brethren sent away Paul, to goe as it were to the sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there styl.

15 And they that guided Paul, brought him vnto Athens, & receyued a commaundement vnto Silas and Timotheus, for to come to hym with speede, and went their way.

16 While Paul wayted for them at Athens, his spirite was mooued in him, when he saw the citie geuen to worshipping of idols.

17 Therefore disputed he in the synagogue with the Iewes, and with the deuout persons, and in the market dayly with them that came vnto him by chaunce.

18 Then certayne philosophers of the b Epicures, & of the c Stoickes, disputed with him: and some sayd, What wyl this babler say? Other some, He seemeth to be a setter foorth of newe gods: because he preached vnto them Iesus, and the resurrection.

19 And they tooke him, & brought hym into the streete of Mars, saying, May we know what this new doctrine wherof thou speakest is?

20 For thou bryngest certayne strange thinges to our eares, we woulde knowe therefore what these thinges meane.

21 (For al the Athenians & strangers which were there, had leasure to nothyng els, but eyther to tell or to heare some newe thyng.)

22 Then Paul stoode in the middes of the streete of Mars, and sayde, Ye men of Athens, I perceyue that in al thinges ye are to superstitious.

23 For

a. Like quarel piking they vsed agaynst Christ, & these be the weapons whereby the worlde continually fighteth against y members of Christ, treason and sedition.

b. The Epicures were a sect of learned men, which (being without the knowledge of God) helde opinion, there was no life or ioy after this lyfe, but that al mans felicitie did consist in the pleasures of this worlde, &c. The Stoickes were another kinde of learned men, which likewise wanting the knowledge of God, affirmed that mans whole felicitie & happinesse did consist in the qualities and vertues of the mynde.

23 For as I passed by, and beheelde the maner howe ye woorshyp your gods, I founde an aulter wherein was wrytten, Unto an vnknowen God. Whom ye then ignorantly woorshyp, hym shewe I vnto you.

*Act.7.48. 24 *God that made the worlde, and all that are in it, seeyng that he is Lorde of heauen and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with handes:

*Psal.50.8. 25 *Neyther is woorshypped with mens handes, as though he needed of any thing, seeing he hym selfe geueth lyfe and breath to al euery where:

26 And hath made of one blood, all nations of men, for to dwel on al the face of the earth, and hath determined the tymes before appoynted, and also the bondes of their habitation:

27 That they should seeke the Lord, yf perhappes they myght haue felt and founde hym: though he be not farre from euerye one of vs.

28 For in hym we lyue, and moue, and haue our beyng, as certayne of your owne Poets haue sayde: For we are also his offspryng.

*Esai.40.18 29 *For as much then as we are the d offspring of God, we ought not to thynke that the Godhead is lyke vnto golde, syluer, or stone, grauen by art and mans deuice.

d. The apostle termeth vs the generation of God, not that we be of the substaunce and nature of God, but because God hath created vs, and by his sonne Iesus Christ hath redeemed vs, and made vs his children by adoption.

30 And the time of this ignorance GOD wynked at, but nowe byddeth al men euery where to repent:

31 Because he hath appoynted a day in the whiche he wyll iudge the worlde in ryghteousnesse, by that man whom he hath appoynted, and hath offered fayth to all men, in that he hath rayſed hym from the dead.

32 And when they hearde of the resurrection from the dead, some mocked: and other sayde, We wyl heare thee agayne of this matter.

33 So Paul departed from among them.

34 Howbeit, certayne men claue vnto him, and beleeued: among the whiche was Dionys Areopagita, and a woman named Damaris, and other with them.

¶ The xviii. Chapter.

3. Paul preacheth at Corinth. 24 Of Apollos, 26. Aquila and Priscilla.

1 AFter these thynges, Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth,

*Rom.16.5. 2 And founde a certayne Iewe, named *Aquila, borne in Pontus, lately come from Italie with his wyfe Priscilla (because that Claudius had commaunded all Iewes to depart from Rome) and he came vnto them.

3 And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them, & wrought (for by their occupation they were Tent makers.)

4 And he disputed in the Synagogue euery Sabboth, and exhorted the Iewes, and the Grekes.

5 And when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul was constrained by the spirite to testifie to the Iewes that Iesus was Christe.

6 And when they sayde contrary, and blasphemed,* he shooke his rayment, and sayde vnto them, Your blood be a vpon your owne heades: from hencefoorth wyll I goe blameleſſe vnto the Gentiles.

*1. Cor.1.14

7 And he departed thence, and entred into a certaine mans house, named Iustus, a woorshypper of God, whose house ioyned harde to the Synagogue.

8 *And one Crispus, the cheefe ruler of the Synagogue, beleeued on the Lorde with al his household, and many of the Corinthians hearyng, beleeued, and were baptised.

9 The spake the Lord to Paul in the nighe by a vision: Be not afrayd, but speake, and holde not thy peace.

10 For I am with thee, and no man shal inuade thee, to hurt thee: For I haue muche people in this citie.

11 And he continued there a yeere and sixe monethes, teachyng the woorde of God among them.

12 And when Gallio was the deputie of Achaia, the Iewes made insurrection with one accorde against Paul, and brought him to the iudgement seate, 13 Saying, This felowe counselleth men to woorshyp God contrary to the lawe.

14 And when Paul now was about to open his mouth, Gallio sayde vnto the Iewes, Yf it were a matter of wrong, or an euyll deede, O ye Iewes, reason woulde that I shoulde beare with you:

15 But if it be a question of words & names, or of your lawe, looke ye to it your selues: for I wyll be no iudge of suche matters.

16 And he draue them from the iudgement seate.

17 Then all the Grekes tooke Sosthenes the cheefe ruler of the Synagogue, and smote hym before the iudgement seate: and Gallio cared for none of those thynges.

18 And Paul after this tarried there yet a good whyle, and then tooke his leaue of the brethren, and sayled thence into Syria, (Aquila & Priscilla accompanying hym.) And he shore his head in b Cenchrea: for he had a vowe.

b. Cenebrea is a hauen at Corinth, where Paul takyng ship, did sheare his head, accordyng to his vowe. For accordyng to the lawe of Moses, they that vowed them selues to God, were commaunded to suffer theyr heare to growe as long as they woulde continue Nazarites, and afterwarde to sheare it, and to burne it. This dyd Paul, not forgettyng what he had before decreed with the Apostles, touchyng the abolishyng of the law: but lest the Iewes which beleeued should be offended, he fayned him selfe a Iew, to wynne the Iewes. 1. Cor. 9.

19 And he came to Ephesus, and left them there: but he him selfe entred into the Synagogue, and reasoned with the Iewes.

20 When they desired hym to tarrie longer tyme with them, he consented not:
21 But bade them farewell, saying, I must needes at this feast that commeth, be in Hierusalem, but I wyl returne agayne vnto you, * yf God wyll: And he sayled from Ephesus.
22 And when he was come vnto Cesarea, and assended vp, and saluted the Churche, he went to Antioch.
23 And when he had tarried there a whyle, he departed, and went ouer al the countrey of Galatia and Phrygia by order, strengthnyng al the disciples.
24 *And a certayne Iewe, named Apollos, borne at Alexandria, came to Ephesus, an eloquent man, & myghtie in the scriptures.
25 The same was informed in the way of the Lorde, and being feruent in the spirite, he spake and taught diligently the thynges of the Lorde, knowyng only the baptisme of Iohn.
26 And the same began to speake boldely in the Synagogue: Whom when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they tooke hym vnto them, and c expounded vnto hym the way of God perfectly.
27 And when he was disposed to goe into Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhortyng the disciples to receyue hym: Whiche when he was come, helped them muche whiche had beleeued through grace.
28 For he ouercame the Iewes myghtyly, and that openly, shewyng by the scriptures that Iesus was that Christe.

c. Apollo being a wyttye & a learned man, was not ashamed to be taught and instructed in the doctrine of Christe, of a poore craftes man and his wyfe.

¶ The. xix. Chapter.

a. Of baptisme. 6. Of the holy ghoste geuen by Paules handes. 9. The Iewes blaspheme the doctrine of Paul.

AND it came to passe, that whyle Apollos was at Corinth, Paul passed thorowe the vpper coastes, and came to Ephesus, and founde certayne disciples,
2 And sayd vnto them, Haue ye receiued the a holye ghoste since ye beleeued? And they said vnto him, We haue not heard whether there be any holy ghoste or no.
3 And he sayde vnto them, Vnto what then were ye baptised? And they sayde, Vnto b Iohns baptisme.
4 Then sayde Paul, Iohn verely baptised with the baptisme of repentaunce, saying vnto the people, that they should beleeue on hym whiche should come after him, that is, on Christe Iesus.
5 When they heard this, they were baptised in c the name of the Lorde Iesus.
6 And when Paul had layd his handes vppon them, the holy ghost came on them, and they spake with tongues, and prophesied.
7 And al the men were about twelue.
8 And he went into the Synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three moneths, disputyng and perswadyng those thynges that apparteyne to the kyngdome of God.
9 But when diuers waxed hard harted, and beleeued not, but spake euyll of the way of the Lorde, and that before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples: and he disputed dayly in the scoole of one called Tyrannus.
10 And this continued by the space of two yeeres, so that al they which dwelt in Asia, heard the woorde of the Lorde Iesus, both Iewes and Grekes.
11 And God wrought special miracles by the handes of Paul:
12 So that from his body were brought vnto the sicke, napkyns, and partlets, and the diseases departed from them, and the euyl spirites went out of them.
13 Then certayne of the vagabound Iewes, exorcistes, tooke vppon them to call ouer them whiche had euyl spirites, the name of the Lorde Iesus, saying, We adiure you by Iesus whom Paul preacheth.
14 And there was seuen sonnes of one Sceua a Iewe, and cheefe of the Priestes whiche dyd so.
15 And the euyl spirite answeared, & sayde, Iesus I knowe, and Paul I knowe, but who are ye?
16 And the man in whom the euyl spirite was, ranne on them, and ouercame them, and preuayled agaynst them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.
17 And this was knowen to all the Iewes and Grekes also which dwelt at Ephesus, and feare came on them al, and the name of the Lorde Iesus was magnified.
18 And many that beleeued, came, and confessed, and shewed their woorkes.
19 Many also of them whiche vsed curious craftes, brought their bookes, and burned them before all men: and they counted the pryce of them, and founde it fyftie thousand peeces of siluer.
20 So mightily grewe the woorde of God, and preuayled.
21 After these thynges were ended, Paul purposed in the spirite, when he had passed ouer Macedonia & Achaia, to goe to Hierusalem, saying, After I haue been there, I must also see Rome.
22 So sent he into Macedonia two of them that ministred vnto hym, Timotheus and Erastus, a. By the holy ghoste, here he meaneth the visible graces of the holye spirite.

b. By this place, Iohns baptisme signifieth Iohns doctrine, whiche therefore is so called, for that he sealed his doctrine with the seale of baptisme in them that beleeued.
c. They that were baptised, were not baptised with water, beyng before baptised of Iohn with water: but they were baptised with visible giftes of the holy ghoste, whiche Saint Luke declaring howe it was, wryteth that it was by the laying on of Saint Paules handes.

Erastus, but he him selfe remayned in Asia for a season.

23 And the same time there arose no little a doo about that way.

24 For a certayne man, named Demetrius, a siluer smith, whiche made siluer shrines for Diana, ministred no smal gayne vnto the craftes men:

25 Whom he called togeather, with the workemen of like occupation, and sayde, Syrs, ye knowe that by this craft we haue aduantage.

26 Moreouer, ye see and heare, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout al Asia, this Paul hath perswaded and turned away much people, saying that they be no goddes which are made with handes.

27 So that not onely this our craft commeth into peryl to be set at nought: but also that the temple of the great goddesse Diana shoulde be dispised, and her magnificence shoulde be destroyed, whom all Asia and the worlde worshippeth.

28 And when they heard these sayinges, they were ful of wrath, and cryed out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

29 And al the citie was on a roze, and they rushed into the common hal, with one assent, and caught Gaius and Aristarcus, men of Macedonia, Paules companions.

30 When Paul would haue entred in vnto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

31 But certayne of the cheefe of Asia, which were his frendes, sent vnto him, desyring him that he would not presse into the common hal.

32 Some therefore cryed one thing, and some another: and the assemblie was al out of quiet, & the more part knewe not wherefore they were come togeather.

33 And certaine of the people drue Alexander out of the multitude, the Iewes thrusting him forwardes. And Alexander beckened with the hande, and woulde haue geuen the people an answeare.

34 But when they knewe that he was a Iewe, there arose a shoute almost for the space of two houres, of al men, crying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

35 And when the towne clarke had pacified the people, he sayde, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is it that knoweth not howe that the citie of the Ephesians is *the temple keeper of the great goddesse Diana, and of the image which came downe from Iupiter?

*Some reade a worshypper.

36 Seeyng then that these thynges can not be spoken agaynst, ye ought to be quiet, and to doo nothing rashly.

37 For ye haue brought hyther these men, whiche are neyther robbers of Churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddesse.

38 Wherefore yf Demetrius, & the craftes men which are with him, haue a matter agaynst any man, the lawe is open, & there are deputies, let them accuse one another.

39 But yf ye enquyre any thing concernyng other matters, it shalbe determined in a lawfull assemblie.

40 For we are in ieopardie to be accused of this dayes vproze, forasmuch as there is no cause whereby we may geue a reckonyng of this concourse of people.

41 And when he had thus spoken, he let the assemblie depart.

¶ The xx. Chapter.

1. Paul goeth into Macedonia and Gretia, 7. he celebrateth the Lordes supper, and preacheth.

1 AND after the vproze was ceassed, Paul called the disciples, & tooke his leaue of them, and departed, for to goe into Macedonia:

2 And when he had gone ouer those partes, and had geuen them a long exhortation, he came into Greece,

3 And there abode three monethes: and when the Iewes layde wayte for hym, as he was about to sayle into Syria, he purposed to returne through Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him into Asia Sopater of Berea: and of the Thessalonians Aristarcus, and Secundus, & Gaius of Derbe, and Timotheus: and out of Asia Tychicus and Trophimus.

5 These going before, taried vs at Troas:

6 And we sayled away from Philippos, after the dayes of sweete bread, and came vnto them to Troas in fiue dayes, where we abode seuen dayes.

7 And vppon one of the Sabboth dayes, when the disciples came togeather for to *breake bread, Paul reasoned with them, redy to depart on the morowe, and continued the talke vnto midnight. *Act.2.46.

8 And there were many lightes in an vpper chamber where they were geathered togeather.

9 And there sate in a windowe a certayne young man named Eutichus, being fallen into a deepe sleepe, and as Paul was long reasoning, he was the more ouercome with sleepe, and fel downe from the thirde lofte, and was taken vp dead.

10 But when Paul went downe, he fel on him, and imbraced him, and sayde, Make nothing a doo: for his lyfe is in hym.

11 When he therefore was come vp agayne, and had broken bread and eaten, and talked a long while, euen tyl the morning, so he departed.

12 And they brought the young man alive, and were not a litle comforted.

13 And we went afore to shyp, and sayled vnto Asson, there to receyue Paul: for so had he appoynted, mynding him selfe to go a foote.

14 And when he was come to vs to Asson, we tooke him in, and came to Mitylene.

15 And we sayled thence, and came the next day ouer against Chios, and the next day we arriued at Samos, and taryed at Trogyllium: the next day we came to Miletum.

16 For Paul had determined to sayle ouer by Ephesus, because he woulde not spende the time in Asia: for he hasted, if it were possible for him, to be at Hierusalem the day of Pentecost.

17 And from Miletum he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the Churche.

18 Which when they were come to hym, he sayde vnto them, Ye knowe from the fyrst day that I came into Asia, after what maner I haue been with you at al seasons,

19 Seruing the Lorde with al humblenesse of mynde, and with many teares, & temptations, whiche came vnto me by the layinges of wayte of the Iewes:

20 And howe I kept backe nothing that was profitable vnto you, but haue shewed you, and haue taught you openly and throwout euery house:

21 Witnessyng both to the Iewes and also to the Greekes, the repentance that is towarde God, & the fayth which is towarde our Lorde Iesus Christe.

a. That is to say, I goe by the impulsion and commaundement of the holy ghost, who draweth me as with a bande.

22 And nowe beholde, I goe bounde a in the spirite vnto Hierusalem, not knowyng the thynges that shal come vnto me:

23 But that the holy ghost witnesseth in euery citie, saying that bondes and troubles abide me.

24 But none of these thinges moue me, neyther count I my lyfe deare vnto mee selfe, so that I might fulfyl my course with ioy, and the ministerie which I haue receyued of the Lorde Iesu, to testifie the Gospel of the grace of God.

25 And nowe behold, I am sure that hencefoorth ye al, among whom I haue gone preachyng the kyngdome of God, shall see my face no more.

26 Wherfore, I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the blood of al men.

27 For I haue kept nothing backe, but haue shewed you al the counsel of God.

28 Take heede therefore vnto your selues, and to al the flocke, ouer the which the holy ghost hath made you ouerseers, to rule the Churche of God, which he hath purchased b with his owne blood.

b. That whiles apparteineth to Christes manhood (which is shedding of blood) is here spoken of his godhead, because of the communion of the properties and vnion of two natures in one person.

29 For I know this, that after my departing, shal greeuous woolues enter in among you, not sparyng the flocke.

30 Also of your owne selues shal men arise, speaking peruerse thinges, to c draw away disciples after them.

c. Through their ambition, which is mother of al sectes & heresies.

31 Therfore watch, & remember that by the space of three yeeres I ceassed not to warne euery one night and day with teares.

32 And nowe brethren, I commende you to God, and to the woorde of his grace, which is able to builde further, and to geue you an inheritance among al them whiche are sanctified.

33 I haue desyred no mans siluer, or golde, or vesture.

34 Yea, ye your selues knowe, that these handes haue ministred vnto my necessities, and to them that were with me.

35 I haue shewed you al thinges, howe that so labouring ye ought to helpe the weake, and to remember the woordes of the Lorde Iesu (howe that he sayde) *It is more blessed to geue, then to receyue.

*1. Cor. 4. 12. 1. Thes. 2. 9. 2. Thes. 3. 8.

36 And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled downe, and prayed with them al.

37 And they al wept sore, and fel on Paules necke, and kyssed hym, 38 Sorowing most of al for the woordes whiche he spake, that they shoulde see his face no more: And they accompanied hym vnto the shyp.

¶ The. xxi. Chapter.

1. Paules iourney by shyp. 8. Of Philip the Euangelist, 10. and Agabus the prophete.

1 AND when it came to passe that we had lanched foorth, & were departed from them, we came with a straight course vnto Choos, and the day folowing vnto the Rhodes, and from thence vnto Patara.

2 And when we had founde a ship sayling vnto Phenice, we went aboord, & set forth.

3 Nowe when Cyprus beganne to appeare vnto vs, we left it on the leaft hand, and sayled into Syria, and came vnto Tyre: for there the shyp vnladed the burden.

4 And when we had founde disciples, we taryed there seuen dayes: who sayd to Paul through the spirite, that he shoulde not goe vp to Hierusalem.

5 And when the dayes were ended, we departed, and went our way, and they all brought vs on our way, with wiues and children, tyl we were come out of the citie:

and

and we kneeled downe on the shore, and prayed.

6 And when we had taken our leaue one of another, we tooke shyp, and they returned home agayne.

7 When we had full ended the course from Tyre, we went downe to Ptolomaida, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

8 And the next day, we that were of Paules company, departed, and came vnto Cesarea, and we entred into the house of Philip the Euangelist (*which was one of the seuen) and abode with him.

*Acts.6.5.

9 And the same man had foure daughters, virgins, whiche dyd prophesie.

10 And as we tarryed there a good many of dayes, there came a certayne prophete from Iurie, named Agabus.

11 And when he was come vnto vs, he tooke Pauls gyrdle, and bounde his owne handes and feete, and sayde, Thus sayth the holy ghost, So shall the Iewes at Hierusalem bynd the man that oweth this girdle, and shal deliuer hym into the handes of the Gentiles.

12 And when we hearde these thynges, both we and other which were of the same place, besought hym, that he woulde not goe vp to Hierusalem.

13 Then Paul answeared, What doo ye weeping and vexing mine hart? for I am ready not to be bounde onely, but also to dye at Hierusalem, for the name of the Lord Iesus.

14 And when we could not turne his mind, we ceassed, sayeing, The wyll of the Lorde be fulfylled.

15 And after those dayes we tooke vp our burdens, and went vp to Hierusalem.

16 There went with vs also certayne of the disciples of Cesarea, & brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an olde disciple, with whom we shoulde lodge.

17 And when we were come to Hierusalem, the brethren receyued vs gladly.

18 And on the morowe Paul went in with vs vnto a James, and al the elders came togeather.

a. This Iames was the Lordes brother the sonne of Marie, whiche was the sister of the blessed virgin: whiche Iames afterward was bishop of Hierusalem.

19 And when he had saluted them, he tolde by order al thynges that God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministery.

20 And when they heard it they glorified the Lorde, and sayde vnto them, Thou seest brother, howe many thousand Iewes there are whiche beleeue, and they are all earnest folowers of the lawe.

21 And they are enformed of thee, that thou teachest all the Iewes, whiche are among the Gentiles, to forsake Moses, saying that they ought not to circumcise their childre, neither to walke after the customes.

22 What is it therefore, the multitude must needes come togeather: for they shall heare that thou art come.

23 Doo therefore this that we say to thee: We haue foure men whiche haue a vowe on them, 24 Them take, and purifie thee selfe with them, and doo cost on them, that they may shaue their heades: *and al shal knowe that those thynges whiche they haue heard concerning thee, are nothing, but that thou thee selfe also walkest and keepest the lawe. *Num.6.18.

25 As touching the Gentiles which beleeue, *we haue written and concluded, that they obserue no suche thyng, saue onely that they keepe them selues from thinges offered to idoles, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication. *Acte.15.20

26 Then Paul tooke the men, and the next day purifying hym selfe with them, entred into the temple, *declaring the accomplishment of the dayes of the purification, vntyl that an offeryng should be offered for euery one of them. *Num.6.13.

27 And when the seuen dayes were almost ended, the Iewes whiche were of Asia, when they sawe hym in the temple, mooued al the people, and layde handes on hym, 28 Crying, Menne of Israel, helpe: this is the man that teacheth all men euery where agaynst the people, and the lawe, and this place: he hath also brought Greekes into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place.

29 (For they had seene before with him in the citie, Trophimus an Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.)

30 And all the citie was mooued, and the people swarmed togeather: and they tooke Paul, and drewe him out of the temple: and foorthwith the doores were shut.

31 And as they went about to kyll hym, tydinges came vnto the hygh captaine of the souldiers, that al Hierusalem was in an vproare.

d. God ofentymes appoynteth his magistrates to delyuer his faythful ministers from al dangers of their enimies.

32 Which immediately tooke b souldiers, and vnder captaynes, and ranne downe vnto them, and when they sawe the cheefe captayne and the souldiers, they lefte smytyng of Paul.

33 Then the cheefe captayne came neare, and tooke hym, & commaunded hym to be bounde with two chaynes, and demaunded who he was, and what he had doone.

34 And some cryed one thing, some another, among the people: and when he coulde not knowe the certayntie for the rage, he commaunded hym to be caried into the castle.

35 And

35 And when he came vpon the stayres, it was so that he was borne of the souldiers for the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the people folowed after, crying, Away with hym.

37 And when Paul began to be carried into the castle, he sayd vnto the hygh captayne, May I speake vnto thee? Who said, Canst thou speake Greeke?

*Acte.5.36. 38 *Art thou not that Egyptian which before these dayes madest an vprore, and leddest out into the wildernesse foure thousand men that were murderers?

*Acte.22.3. 39 But Paul sayde, I am a man which am a Iewe of *Tarsus, a citie in Cilicia, a citizen of no vile citie: and I beseeche thee suffer me to speake vnto the people.

40 And when he had geuen hym licence, Paul stood on the stayres, and beckened with the hande vnto the people: and when there was made a great silence, he spake vnto them in the Hebrue tongue, saying.

¶ The .xxii. Chapter.

1. Paul rendreth an account of his lyfe and doctrine. 25. He escapeth the vvhyppe, by reason he vvas a citizen of Rome.

1 MEn, brethren, and fathers, heare ye myne answeare, whiche I make vnto you.

2 (And when they hearde that he spake in the Hebrue tongue to them, they kept the more silence: and he sayth,)

3 I am verely a man whiche am a Iewe, borne in Tarsus a citie in Cilicia, and yet brought vp in this citie at the feete of Gamaliel, and taught accordyng to the perfect manner of the lawe of the fathers, and was zelous towardes God, as ye al are this same day.

*Actes.9.8. 4 And *I persecuted this way vnto the death, byndyng and deliuering into prisons both men and women, 5 As also the cheefe priestes booth beare me witnesse, and all the estate of the elders; of whom also I receyued letters vnto the brethren, and went to Damascus, to bring them which were there bound vnto Hierusalem, for to be punished.

a. Iesus was now in heauen, & could not be persecured of Paul. But the persecution which Paule exercised agaynst the faythful being his members, Christe counted it as donne to hym selfe.

6 And it came to passe, that as I made my iourney, and was come nygh vnto Damascus about noone, sodaynely there shone from heauen a great light round about me:

7 And I fel to the earth, and hearde a voyce saying vnto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 And I answeared, Who art thou Lorde? And he sayd vnto me, I am Iesus of Nazareth, a whom thou persecutest.

9 And they that were with me, sawe verely the light, and were afrayde: but they heard not the voyce of hym that spake to me.

10 And I sayde, What shall I doo Lorde? And the Lorde sayd vnto me, Arise, and goe into Damascus: and there it shalbe tolde thee of all thynges which are appoynted for thee to doo.

11 And when I saw nothing for the brightnesse of the lyght, being led by the hande of them that were with me, I came into Damascus.

12 And one Ananias, a deuout man as pertayning to the lawe, hauing a good report of al the Iewes which there dwelt, 13 Came vnto me, and stoode, and said vnto me, Brother Saul, receyue thy syght. And the same houre I looked vp vpon hym.

14 And he sayd, the God of our fathers hath ordeyned thee before, that thou shouldest knowe his wil, and see that iust one, & shouldest heare the voyce of his mouth.

15 For thou shalt be his witnesse vnto all men, of those thynges whiche thou hast seene and hearde:

18 And now, why tarryest thou? Arise, and be baptised, and washe away thy sinnes, in callyng on the name of the Lorde.

17 And it came to passe, that when I was come agayne to Hierusalem, and prayed in the temple, I was in a traunce, 18 And sawe hym sayeing vnto me, Make hast, and geat thee quickely out of Hierusalem: for they wyl not receyue thy witnesse concernyng me.

19 And I sayd, Lorde, they knowe that *I prisoned, and beat in euery synagogue them that beleeued on thee. *Actes.8.3.

20 And when the blood of thy witnesse Steuen was shed, *I also was standing by, and consenting vnto his death, and kept the rayment of them that slue hym. *Act.7.58.

21 And he sayd vnto me, Depart: for I wyl sende thee farre hence vnto the Gentiles.

22 And they gaue hym audience vnto this woord, and then lyft vp theyr voyces, and sayd, Away with suche a felowe from the earth: for it is no reason that he should lyue.

23 And as they cryed, and cast of their clothes, and threwe dust into the ayre.

24 The cheefe captayne commaunded him to be brought into the castle, and bade that he shoulde be scourged, and examined: that he myght knowe wherefore they cryed so on hym.

d. He was not borne at Rome, but at Tarsus: the citizens whereof, enioy the priuiledge of the citie of Rome, and were counted as Romans.

25 And as they bound hym with thongues, Paul sayde vnto the Centurion that stoode by, Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is b Romane, and vncondemned?

26 When

26 When the Centurion heard that, he went and tolde the cheefe captayne, saying, Take heede what thou dooest, for this man is a Romane.

27 Then the cheefe captayne came, & sayde vnto hym, Tell me, art thou a Romane? He sayde, Yea.

28 And the cheefe captayne aunswered, With a great summe obteyned I this freedome. And Paul saide, I was free borne.

29 Then straightway departed from him they which should haue examined him: and the cheefe captayne also was afraide after he knewe that he was a Romane, and because he had bound him.

30 On the morowe, because he would haue knowen the certaintie wherefore he was accused of the Iewes, he loosed him from his bandes, and commaunded the hygh priestes and all the counsayle to come together, and brought Paul foorth, and set him before them.

¶ The.xxiii. Chapter.

1. Paul commeth before the counsayle. 2. Ananias causeth him to be stricken.

1 AND Paul earnestly beholdyng the counsayle, sayde, Men and brethren, I haue liued in all good conscience before God vntyl this day.

2 And the hygh priest Ananias commaunded them that stoode by, to smite hym on the mouth.

a. Paul doeth not curse the hygh priest, but denounce sharply the punishment of God, which shoulde lyght vpon him in the way of prophesiyng. *Exo. 21. 18.

3 Then sayde Paul vnto him, God shall smite thee thou a painted wall: for sittest thou and iudgest me after the lawe, and commaundest me to be smitten contrary to the lawe?

4 And they that stoode by, sayde, Reuilest thou Gods high priest?

b. It is thought that Paul in mockerie thus excused hym selfe, as though thus he shoulde say, I see nothyng in this man woorthy the office of the hygh priest. *Phi. 3. 5 Acts. 24. 22

5 Then sayde Paul, I wyst not brethren, b that he was the hygh priest: For it is written, * Thou shalt not curse the ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceiued that the one part were Saducees, and the other Pharisees, he cryed out in the counsayle, * Men and brethren, I am a Pharisee, the sonne of a Pharisee: of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am iudged.

7 And when he had so sayde, there arose a debate betwene the Pharisees and the Saducees: and the multitude was diuided.

*Mat. 22. 33

8 * For the Saducees say that there is no resurrection, neyther angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confesse both.

9 And there arose a great crye: and when the scribes whiche were of the Pharisees part arose, they stroue, saying, We fynde no euyll in this man: but yf a spirite or an angel hath spoken to hym, let vs not striue agaynst God.

10 And when there arose a great debate, the cheefe captaine fearing lest Paul should haue ben pluckt a sunder of them, commaunded the souldiers to goe downe, and to take him from among them, and to bring him into the castle.

11 And the night folowing, the Lorde stoode by hym, and sayd, Be of good cheare Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Hierusalem, so must thou beare witnesse also at Rome.

c. The woord properly signifieth cursing, as when a man eyther sweareth, vowerh, or wysheth hym selfe to dye, or to be geuen to the deuil, except he bring his purpose to passe.

12 And when it was day, certayne of the Iewes geathered them selues togeather, and made a c vowe, saying that they would neyther eate nor drinke tyll they had kylled Paul.

13 And they were more then fourtie men, which had made this conspiracie.

14 And they came to the cheefe priestes and elders, and said, We haue bound our selues with a vowe, that we wyll eate nothyng vntyll we haue slayne Paul.

15 Nowe therefore geue ye knowledge to the cheefe captayne, and to the counsayle, that he bring him foorth vnto you to morowe, as though ye would know somethyng more perfectly of him: and we, or euer he come neare, are redy to kyll hym.

16 And when Pauls sisters sonne heard of their laying awayte, he went and entred into the castle, and tolde Paul.

17 And Paul called one of the vnder captaynes vnto hym, and sayde, Bring this young man vnto the hygh captayne: for he hath a certayne thyng to shewe hym.

18 And he tooke hym, and brought him to the hygh captayne, and sayde, Paul the prisoner called me vnto him, and prayed me to bring this young man vnto thee, which hath a certayne matter to shew thee.

19 Then the hygh captayne tooke hym by the hand, and went with hym out of the way, and asked hym, What is it that thou hast to tell me?

20 And he sayde, The Iewes are determined to desyre thee, that thou wouldest bring foorth Paul to morowe into the counsayle, as though they woulde enquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But folowe not thou their mindes: for there lye in wayte for hym of them moe then fourtie men, whiche haue bound them selues with a vowe, that they wyll neyther eate nor drinke, tyll they haue kylled hym: and nowe are they redy, and looke for a promise from thee.

22 The cheefe captayne then let the young man man depart, and charged him, See thou tel it out to no man, that thou hast shewed these thinges to me.

23 And he called vnto him two vnder captaynes, saying, Make redie two hundred souldiers to goe to Cesarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and speamen two hundred, at the third houre of the nyght:

24 And deliuer them beastes, that they may set Paul on, and bring hym safe vnto Felix the hygh deputie.

25 And he wrote a letter after this maner,

26 Claudius Lysias, vnto the most mighty ruler Felix, sendeth greetinges.

27 This man was taken of the Iewes, and shoulde haue been killed of them: Then came I with an armie, and rescued hym, and perceiued that he was a Romane:

28 And when I woulde haue knowen the cause wherefore they accused hym, I brought him foorth into their counsayle.

29 Whom I perceiued to be accused of questions of their lawe: but hauing nothyng layde to his charge woorthy of death, or of bondes.

30 And when it was shewed me howe that the Iewes layde wayte for the man, I sent hym straightway to thee, and gaue commaundement to his accusers, that ỹ thinges which they haue agaynst hym, they shoulde tell before thee. Farewel.

31 Then the souldiers, as it was commaunded them, tooke Paul, and brought him by nyght to Antipatridis.

32 On the morowe, they left the horsemen to goe with him, and returned vnto the castle.

33 Which when they came to Cesarea, and deliuered the Epistle to the deputie, presented Paul also before him.

34 And when the deputie had read the letter, he asked of what Prouince he was. And when he vnderstoode that he was of Cilicia:

35 I wyl heare thee, said he, when thyne accusers are come also. And he commaunded hym to be kept in Herodes iudgement hal.

¶ The. xxiiii. Chapter.

Paul being accused, answereth for his lyfe and doctrine.

1 AND after fyue dayes, Ananias the hygh priest descended, with the elders, and with a certayne oratour, named Tartullus, whiche appeared before the deputie agaynst Paul.

2 And when Paul was called foorth, Tartullus began to accuse hym, saying, Seeing that we haue obteyned great quietnesse by the meanes of thee, and that many good thynges are done vnto this nation through thy prouidence,

3 That allowe we euer, and in all places, most noble Felix, with al thankes.

4 Notwithstandyng, that I be not tedious vnto thee, I pray thee, that thou wouldest heare vs of thy curtesie a fewe woordes.

5 For we haue found this man a pestilent fellowe, and a mouer of debate vnto all the Iewes in the whole world, and a maintayner of the secte of the Nazarites.

6 Whiche also hath gone about to pollute the temple, whom we tooke, and woulde haue iudged accordyng to our lawe.

7 But the hygh captayne Lysias came vpon vs, & with great violence tooke him away out of our handes,

8 Commaundyng his accusers to come vnto thee, of whom thou mayest, yf thou wylt enquire, knowe the certaynte of all these thinges whereof we accuse hym.

9 And the Iewes likewyse affyrmed, saying that these thinges were so.

10 Then Paul, after that the deputie hym selfe had beckened vnto hym that he should speake, answeared, With a more quiet minde doo I answeare for mee selfe, for as muche as I vnderstand that thou hast been of many yeeres a iudge vnto this nation:

11 Because that thou mayst knowe, that there are yet but twelue dayes, since I went vp to Hierusalem for to worship.

12 And they neyther founde me in the temple disputing with any man, eyther raysing vp the people, neyther in the synagogues, nor in the citie:

13 Neyther can they proone the thinges whereof they accuse me.

14 But this I confesse vnto thee, that after the way which they call b heresie, so worship I the God of my fathers, beleeuing all thynges which are written in the lawe and the prophetes,

15 And haue hope towardes God, that the resurrection of the dead, whiche they them selues looke for also, shalbe both of the iust and vniust.

16 And herein studie I, to haue alway a cleare conscience toward God, and toward men.

17 Nowe after many yeeres, I came and brought almes to my nation, and offeringes:

18 * In the whiche they found me purified in the temple, neyther with multitude, nor yet with vnquietnesse.

19 Howbeit, there were certaine Iewes out of Asia,

20 Which

a. Felix by his diligence had taken Eleazarus the captayne of the murderers, and put the Egyptians to flight, which raysed vp tumultes in Iurie. For these the orator prailed him: otherwayes he was both cruell and couetous.

b. No marueile though in our time Gods true religion be called heresie, for so it was counted of the wicked, euen in the beginnyng of Christes kyngdome.

* Acts. 21. 27

20 Whiche ought to be here e presente before thee, and accuse me, if they had ought agaynst me.

21 Or els let these same here say, yf they haue founde any euyl dooyng in me whyle I stand here in the counsayle.

22 Except it be for this one voyce, that I cryed standyng among them, * That of the resurrection from the dead, am I iudged of you this day.

23 And when Felix heard these thynges, he deferred them: for he knewe very well of that way, and sayde, When Lysias the captayne is come downe, I will knowe the vttermost of your matter.

24 And he commaunded an vnder captaine to keepe Paul, and to let hym haue rest, and that he shoulde forbyd none of his acquaintance to minister vnto hym, or to come vnto hym.

25 And after certayne dayes, when Felix came with his wyfe Drusilla, whiche was a Iewesse, he called forth Paul, and heard him of the fayth which is toward Christ.

26 And as he reasoned of ryghteousnesse, temperance, and iudgement to come, Felix d trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this tyme, when I haue a conuenient season, I will sende for thee.

27 He hoped also that money shoulde haue been geuen him of Paul, that he myght loose hym: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him.

28 But after two yeeres, Portius Festus came into Felix roome: and Felix willyng to shewe the Iewes a pleasure, left Paul bounde.

e These accuse him but vpon false reportes, which the bellowes of them had blowen abroade. And durst not for shame appeare them selues.

* Act. 23. 7.

d Suche is the myght & force of gods heauenly woorde, that it causeth the verye wicked to tremble and quake.

¶ The xxvi. Chapter.

1. The Iewes accuse Paul before Festus, 8. He answeareth for hym selfe.

1 THEN when Festus was come into the prouince, after three dayes he assended from Cesarea to Hierusalem

2 Then enfourmed him the high priest, and the cheefe of the Iewes, agaynst Paul, and they besought hym,

3 And desyred fauour agaynst hym, that he would sende for hym to Hierusalem, layeng wayt in the way to kyl hym.

4 But Festus answeared, that Paul should be kept at Cesarea, and that he hym selfe shoulde depart shortly thyther.

5 Let them therefore, sayd he, which among you are able, come downe with vs, and accuse him, if there be any fault in this man.

6 And when he had tarryed among them more then ten dayes, he went downe vnto Cesarea, and the nexte day sate downe in the iudgement seate, & commaunded Paul to be brought.

7 Who being come, the Iewes which were come from Hierusalem, stoode about hym, and laide many & greeuous complaynts against Paul, which they could not aproue,

8 Whyle he answeared for hym selfe that neyther against the lawe of the Iewes, neyther agaynst the temple, nor yet against Caesar, haue I offended any thyng at al.

9 But Festus wyllyng to doo the Iewes a pleasure, answeared Paul, and sayd, Wylt thou goe vp to Hierusalem, and there be iudged of these thynges before me?

10 Then sayde Paul, I stande at Caesars iudgement seate, where I ought to be iudged, to the Iewes haue I done no wrong, as thou very wel knowest.

11 For if I doo any wrong, or haue committed any thyng worthy of death, I refuse not to dye: but yf there be none of these thynges wherof they accuse me, no man may deliuer me vnto them. I appeale vnto b Caesar.

12 Then spake Festus with the counsayle, and answeared, Hast thou appealed vnto Caesar? vnto Caesar shalt thou goe.

13 And after certayne dayes, king Agrippa, and Bernice, came vnto Cesarea, to salute Festus.

14 And when they had ben there a good season, Festus rehearsed Paules cause vnto the king, sayeing, There is a certayne man leaft in bondes of Felix.

15 About whom, when I came to Hierusalem, the high priestes and the elders of the Iewes enfourmed me, and desyred to haue iudgement agaynst hym.

16 To whom I answeared, It is not the maner of the Romans, for fauour to deliuer any man that he shoulde perysshe, before that he which is accused, haue the accusers face to face, and haue licence to answeare for hym selfe, concernyng the cryme layde agaynst hym.

17 Therfore when they were come thyther, without any delay, on the morowe I sate on the iudgement seate, and commaunded the man to be brought forth.

18 Against whom, when the accusers stoode vp, they brought none accusation of suche thynges as I supposed:

19 But had certaine questions against him of their owne superstition, & of one Iesus, whiche was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alyue.

20 And because I doubted of such maner of questions, I asked hym whether he would go to Hierusalem, and there be iudged of these matters.

a. Whiles Paul lyued vnder the lawe like other Iewes, his conuersation was perfect and notable, and after his conuertion vnto Christe, he became a more notable example of innocencie: but it is a common case, that the seruants of god are euyl spoken of for their wel dooing.

b. The iniquitie of the iudge, who contrary to equitie, wylling to pleasure the Iewes, deuised howe to betray Paul, draue Paul to appeale, which is the vttermost remedie for suche as by wrong iudgement are oppressed: & this appellation by gods prouidence, was a meane that Paul shoulde testifie of Christe at Rome also 21 But when Paul had appealed to be kept vnto the knowledge of Augustus, I commaunded hym to be kept, tyl I myght sende hym vnto Caesar.

22 Then Agrippa sayde vnto Festus, I woulde also heare the man mee selfe. To morowe sayd he, thou shalt heare hym.

23 And on the morowe when Agrippa was come and Bernice, with great pompe, and was entred into the counsayle house, with the cheefe captaynes, and cheefe men of the citie, at Festus commaundement was Paul brought foorth.

24 And Festus sayde, Kyng Agrippa, and al men whiche are here presente with vs, ye see this man, about whom al the multitude of the Iewes haue intreated me, both at Hierusalem, and also here, crying that he ought not to lyue any longer.

25 Yet founde I nothing woorthy of death that he had committed: Neuertheless, seeing that he hath appealed to Augustus, I haue determined to sende hym, 26 Of whom I haue no certayne thyng to write vnto my Lorde: Wherefore I haue brought hym foorth before you, & specially before thee, O king Agrippa, that after examination had, I might haue somewhat to write.

27 For me thynketh it vnreasonable for to send a prisoner, and not to shewe the causes whiche are layde against hym.

¶ The. xxvi. Chapter.

1. King Agrippa heareth Paul. 25. Paules modest answere against the slaundre of Festus.

1 THen Agrippa sayde vnto Paul, Thou art permitted to speake for thee selfe. Then Paul stretched foorth the hand, and answeared for hym selfe.

2 I thynke mee selfe happy, king Agrippa, because I shall answeare this day before thee of al the thinges whereof I am accused of the Iewes:

3 Namely, because thou are expert in al customes and questions whiche are among the Iewes: wherefore I beseeche thee to heare me patiently.

4 My lyfe that I haue led of a chyld, which was at the first among myne owne nation at Hierusalem, knowe al the Iewes,

5 Whiche knewe me from the beginning, (if they would testifie) that after the most straitest sect of our religion, I lyued a Pharisee.

6 And nowe I stande, and am iudged for the hope of the promise made of God vnto our fathers:

7 Vnto whiche promise our twelue tribes instantly seruing God day and nyght, hope to come: For which hopes sake, king Agrippa, I am accused of the Iewes.

8 Why shoulde it be thought a thyng incredible vnto you, that God rayseth the dead?

9 I also verily thought in mee selfe, that I ought to doo many contrary thyngs cleane against the name of Iesus of Nazareth:

10 Which thing I also did in Hierusalem, and many of the Saintes dyd I shut vp in prison, hauing receyued auctoritie of the hygh priestes, and when they were put to death, I gaue the sentence. *Actes.8.3.

11 And I punished them oft in euery synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme, and was yet more mad vpon them, and persecuted them euen vnto strange cities.

12 About whiche thynges as I went to Damascus, with auctoritie & commission of the hygh priestes. *Actes.9.1.

13 Euen at myddaye, O king, I sawe in the way a lyght from heauen, aboue the brightnesse of the sunne, shyne rounde about me, and them which iourneyed with me.

14 And when we were al fallen to the earth, I hearde a voyce, speaking vnto me in the Hebrue tongue, and saying, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? It is hard for thee to kicke against the prickes.

15 And I sayd, Who art thou Lorde? And he sayd, I am Iesus whom thou persecutest.

16 But ryse and stande vpon thy feete, for I haue appeared vnto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witnesse, both of these thynges which thou hast seene, and of those thinges in the which I wil appeare vnto thee,

17 Deliuering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, vnto whom nowe I sende thee, 18 To open their eyes, that they may be turned from darkenesse to lyght, and from the power of Satan vnto God, that they may receyue forgeuenesse of sinnes, and inheritaunce among them whiche are sanctified by fayth that is in me.

19 Wherefore, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient vnto the heauenly vision:

20 But shewed first vnto them of Damascus, and at Hierusalem, and throughout all the coastes of Iurie, and then to the Gentiles, that they shoulde repent and turne to God, and doo such workes as become them that repent.

21 For this cause the Iewes caught me in the temple, and went about to kyl me.

22 Seeyng therefore that I haue obteyned helpe of God, I continue vnto this daye, witnessyng both to smal and great, saying nothing

a. He knewe much, but he fayled in the right applying of his knowledge, as they doo which be wyse in their owne conceites only, and haue the zeale of God, but not accordyng to knowledge.
b. He taketh the secte of the pharisees to be perfectest because their doctrine was better then the other sectes. The Saduces denied the resurrection of the dead. The Essens glorying in straytnesse of lyfe, lytle regarde true doctrine.

none other thinges then those whiche the prophetes and Moses dyd say should come:
23 That Christe shoulde suffer, and that he should be the fyrst that shoulde ryse from the dead, and should shewe lyght vnto the people, and to the Gentiles.
24 And as he thus spake for him selfe, Festus sayde with a loude voyce, Paul, thou art beside thee selfe, much learning doeth make thee mad.
25 But he sayde, I am not mad, most noble Festus, but speake foorth the woordes of trueth and sobernesse.
26 For the kyng knoweth of these thinges, before whom also I speake freely, neythee beleeue I, that any of these thinges are hidden from hym, for this thing was not done in a corner.
27 King Agrippa, beleeuest thou the prophetes? I wote well that thou beleeuest.
28 Then Agrippa sayd vnto Paul, Somewhat thou perswadest me to be a Christian.
29 And Paul sayde, I would to God, that not only thou, but also all that heare me to day, were both somewhat, & also in a great deale such as I am, except these bondes.
30 And when he had thus spoken, the king rose vp, and the vyceroy, and Bernice, and they that sate with them.
31 And when they were gone aparte, they talked betweene themselues, saying, This man doeth not ayng woorthy of death, or of bondes.
32 Then sayd Agrippa vnto Festus, This man might haue been let loose, yf he had not appealed vnto Caesar.

¶ The xxvii Chapter.

Paul shipped to Italie. Iulius the captayne entreateth him curteously.

1 AND when it was concluded that we should sayle into Italie, they deliuered both Paul and certayne other prisoners, vnto one named Julius, an vnder captayne of Augustus band.
2 And we entred into a ship of Adramyttium, and loosed from lande, appoynted to sayle by the coastes of Asia, one Aristarchus out of Macedonia, of the countrey of Thessalonica, tarrying styll with vs.
3 And the next day we came to Sidon. And Julius curteously entreated Paul, and gaue hym libertie to goe vnto his frendes, and to refreshe hym selfe.
4 And when we had launched from thence, we sayled hard by Cyprus, because the wyndes were contrary.
5 And when we had sailed ouer the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra a citie which is in Lycia,
6 And there the vnder captayne founde a shyp of Alexandria sayling into Italie, and he put vs therein.
7 And when we had sayled slowly many dayes, and scarse were come ouer against Gnidum, because the winde withstood vs, we sayled hard by "Candie, ouer against Salmone,
8 And with much woorke sayled beyond it, and came vnto a place whiche is called the Fayre hauens, nygh wherevnto was the citie Lasea.
9 When much tyme was spent, and when sayling was nowe ieopardous, because also that the fast was nowe already past, Paul put them in remembraunce,
10 And sayde vnto them, Syrs, I perceiue that this voyage wyl be with hurt & much domage, not of the ladyng and ship onely, but also of our liues.
11 Neuertheleile, the vnder captayne beleeued the gouernour and the maister of the ship, more then those thinges whiche were spoken of Paul.
12 And because the hauen was not commodious to winter in, many tooke counsaile to depart thence, yf by any meanes they might atteyne to Phenice, and there to winter, which is an hauen of Candie, and lyeth toward the Southwest and Northwest winde.
13 And when the South winde blew softly, they supposing that they had obteyned their purpose, loosed vnto Asson, and sayled past Candie.
14 But not long after, there arose against them purpose a flawe of winde out of the Northeast, which is called Euroclydon.
15 And when the ship was caught, and could not resist the winde, we let her goe, & were driuen with the weather.
16 But we were carried into an Ile, which is called Clauda, and had muche woorke to come by a boate, 17 Whiche they tooke vp, and vsed helpe, and made fast the ship, fearing lest they should fall into the Syrtes: and so they let downe a "vessel, and were carried.
18 The next day when we were tossed with an vnruly tempest, they lyghted the ship:
19 And the thirde day we cast out with our owne handes the tackling of the ship.
20 And when neyther the Sunne nor Starres in many dayes appeared, and no small tempest lay vpon vs, all hope that we should be saued was then taken away.
21 But after long abstinence, Paul stoode forth in the middes of them, and sayde, Syrs,

"Or, Creta, whiche was an hygh hyll of Candie.

"Some reade, the sayles.

Syrs, ye shoulde haue hearkened vnto me, and not haue loosed from Candie, and to haue gayned vnto vs this harme and losse.

22 And nowe I exhort you to be of good cheare: for there shalbe no losse of any mans lyfe among you, but of the ship.

23 For there stoode by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, & whom I serue, 24 Saying, Feare not Paul, thou must be brought before Caesar, and loe, God hath geuen thee all them that saile with thee.

a. The graces and blessinges which God geueth to his children, profite many times the enimies, whiche are vnworthy to receiue the fruite thereof.

25 Wherefore syrs, be of good cheare: for I beleeue God, that it shalbe euen as it was tolde me.

26 Howbeit, we must be cast into a certaine Iland.

27 But when the fourtienth night was come, as we were sailing in Adria about midnight, the shipmen deemed that they drewe neare to some countrey:

28 And sounded, and found it twentie fadomes: and when they had gone a litle further, they sounded agayne, and found it fifteene fadomes.

29 Then fearing lest we should haue fallen on some rocke, they cast foure ankers out of the sterne, and wyshed for the day.

30 And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let downe the boate into the sea, vnder a colour as though they would haue cast ankers out of the foreship, 31 Paul sayde to the vnder captayne, and to the souldiers: Except these abide in the ship, ye b can not be saued.

b. Paul would vse such meanes as God had ordeyned, lest he should seeme to haue tempted hym.

32 Then the souldiers cut of the rope of the boate, and let it fall away.

33 And when the day began to appeare, Paul besought them all to take meate, saying, This is the fourteenth day that ye haue tarried and continued fasting, receiuing nothyng at all.

34 Wherefore, I pray you to take meate, for this no doubt is for your health: for there shall not c an heare fall from the head of any of you.

c. By this Hebrue speache is ment, that they should be in all poyntes safe & sound.

35 And when he had thus spoken, he tooke bread, and gaue thankes to God in presence of them all: and when he had broken it, he began to eate.

36 Then were they all of good cheare, and they also tooke meate.

37 And we were all together in the ship, two hundred, threescore, and sixteene soules.

38 And when they had eaten ynough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheate into the sea.

39 And when it was day, they knewe not the land: but they spied a certayne hauen with a bayne, into the which they were minded, yf it were possible, to thrust in the ship.

40 And when they had taken vp the ankers, they committed them selues vnto the sea, and loosed the rudder bandes, and hoysed vp the mayne sayle to the wynde, and drewe to lande. Or, the ship.

41 And when they fell into a place whiche had the sea on both sides, they thrust in the ship, and the forepart stucke fast & mooued not, but the hynder part brake with the violence of the waues.

42 And the souldiers counsayle was to kyll the prisoners, lest any of them, when he had swomme out, should runne away.

43 But the vnder captayne, wylling to saue Paul, kept them from their purpose, and commaunded that they which could swim, shoulde cast them selues fyrst into the sea, and scape to land:

44 And the other, some on boordes, and some on broken peeces of the shyp: and so it came to passe, that they escaped all safe to lande.

The xxviii. Chapter.

1. The Viper byteth not Paules hand. 8. Paul preacheth Christe at Rome.

1 AND when they were escaped, then they knewe that the Ile was called Melita.

2 And the barbarous people shewed vs no litle kindnesse, for they kyndled a fyre, and receiued vs euery one, because of the present rayne, and because of the colde.

3 And when Paul had gathered a bundle of stickes, and layde them on the fire, there came a Viper out of the heate, and caught him by the hand.

a. Such is the peruerse iudgement of men, that they condemne them whom they see in any afflictions

4 And when the strangers sawe the beast hang on his hand, they sayde among them selues, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom though he haue escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to liue.

b. By this miracle God perfourmed his promise made to his disciples, that neyther serpentes, nor poyson should hurte them, and also by ỹ same, was confirmed the Gospel of his sonne Iesus Christe, whiche Paul preached vnto the world.

5 And he shooke of the Viper into the fyre, and b felt no harme.

6 Howbeit, they wayted when he should haue swollen, or fallen downe dead sodainly: but after they had looked a great whyle, and sawe no harme come to hym, they changed their myndes, and sayde that he was a God.

c. Behold the extremitie of Infidels, for after any rage & errour they fall forthwith into the contrary.

7 In the same quarters were possessions of the cheefe man of the Ile, whose name was Publius, whiche receiued vs, and lodged vs three dayes curteously.

8 And it came to passe, that ỹ father of Publius lay sicke of a feuer, & of a bloody fluxe, to whom Paul entred in, and prayed, and layde his handes on him, and healed him.

9 So when this was doone, other also whiche had diseases in the Ile, came, and were healed:

10 Whiche also dyd vs great honour, and when we departed, they laded vs with such thynges as were necessary.

11 And after three monethes we departed in a shyp of Alexandria, whiche had wyntred in the Ile, whose badge was d Castor and Pollux.

d These the Paynims fayned to be Iupiters children, gods of the sea.

12 And when we came to Syracusa, we tarried there three dayes.

13 And from thence we fet a compasse, and came to Rhegium, and after one day the South wynde blewe, and we came the next day to Puteolus:

14 Where we found brethren, and were desired to tarrie with them seuen dayes: and so we came toward Rome.

15 And from thence, when ỹ brethren heard of vs, they came to meete vs at Appii forum, and at the three tauerns: Whom Paul sawe them, he thanked God, and waxed bolde.

16 And when we came to Rome, the vnder captayne delyuered the prysoners to the cheefe captayne of the host: but Paul was suffered to dwell by hym selfe with a souldier that kept hym.

17 And it came to passe, that after three dayes, Paul called the cheefe of the Iewes togeather. And when they were come togeather, he sayde vnto them, Men and brethren, though I haue committed nothing agaynst the people or lawes of the fathers, yet was I delyuered prysoner from Hierusalem into the handes of the Romanes.

18 Whiche when they had examined me, wolde haue let me goe, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Iewes spake contrary, I was constrayned to appeale vnto Caesar, not that I had ought to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause then haue I called for you, euen to see you, and to speake with you: because that for the e hope of Israel I am bounde with this chayne.

e That is, for Iesus Christes sake, whom they had long looked for, to be the redeemer of the worlde.

21 And they sayd vnto him, We neyther receyued letters out of Iurie cõcernyng thee, neyther anye of the brethren that came, shewed or spake any harme of thee.

22 But we wyl heare of thee what thou thynkest: for as concernyng this secte, we knowe that euery where it is spokẽ against.

23 And when they had appoynted hym a day, there came many to hym in his lodging, to whom he expounded and testified the kyngdome of God, perswadyng them concernyng Iesus, both out of the lawe of Moses, and out of the prophetes, euen from morning to nyght.

24 And some were perswaded in the thynges which were spoken, and some beleeued not.

25 And when they agreed not among themselues, they departed after that Paul had spoken one woorde, that is to say, Well spake the holy ghost by Esaias the prophet, vnto our fathers, 26 Saying, *Goe vnto this people, and say, with your eares shall ye heare, and shall not vnderstand, and with your eyes shall ye see, and not perceyue.

*Esai.6.9. Mat.13.14. Mark.4.12 Luke.8.10. Joh.12.40. Rom.11.8.

27 For the hart of this people is waxed grosse, and their eares are dull of hearyng, and their eyes haue they closed, lest they shoulde see with their eyes, and heare with their eares, and vnderstande with their hartes, and shoulde be conuerted, and I shoulde heale them.

28 Be it knowen therefore vnto you, that this saluation of God is sent vnto the Gentiles, and they shal heare it.

29 And when he had sayde these woordes, the Iewes departed, and had great reasoning among themselues.

30 And Paul dwelt two yeres full in his owne hyred house, and receyued all that came in vnto hym, 31 Preachyng the kyngdome of God, and teachyng those thynges which concerne the Lorde Iesus Christ, with al confidence, no man forbyddyng hym.

Amen.

The Epistle of the Apostle Saint Paul to the Romanes.

The first Chapter.

a. Paul sheweth to whom and to what purpose he is called. 16. What the Gospel is. 18. The vengeaunce of God upon the wicked. 20. The use of the creatures. 24. The ingratitude and punishment of the wicked.

1 PAUL the servant of IESVS CHRIST, a called to be an Apostle, severed into ỹ Gospel of GOD,

2 Which he had promised afore by his prophetes in the holy scriptures

3 Of his sonne, which was made of the seede of David after the flesshe:

4 And hath been declared to be the sonne of b God, with power after the spirite that sanctifieth, by the resurrection from the dead, of Jesus Christe our Lorde:

5 By whom we haue receyued grace & Apostleshyp, that obedience myght be geuen vnto the faith in his name among al Heathen,

6 Among whom, ye are also the called of Jesus Christe:

7 To all that be in Rome, beloued of God, saintes by callyng: Grace to you, and peace from God our father, and the Lorde Jesus Christe.

8 Fyrst verely I thanke my God through Jesus Christe for you al, that your faith is published throughout al the worlde.

9 For GOD is my witnesse whom I serue with my spirite in the Gospel of his sonne, that without ceassyng I make mention of you:

10 Prayyng alwayes in my prayers, that by some meane at the last, one tyme or other, I myght take a prosperous iourney by the wyl of God, to come vnto you.

11 For I long to see you, that I might bestowe among you some spiritual gyft, that ye myght be stablyshed.

12 That is, that I myght haue consolation togeather with you, each with others faith, yours and myne.

13 I woulde that ye should knowe brethren, howe that I haue oftentymes purposed to come vnto you (and haue been let hitherto) that I myght haue some fruite also among you, as among other of the Gentiles.

14 I am debter both to the Grekes, and to the c barbarous, both to the wyse, and to the vnwyse.

15 So that as muche as in me is, I am redy to preache the Gospel to you that are at Rome also.

16 For I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christe, because it is the power of God vnto saluation to all that beleeue, to the Jewe first, and also to the Greke.

17 For by it is the ryghteousnesse of God opened from fayth to fayth. As it is wrytten, The iust shal lyue by fayth.

18 For the wrath of God d is reuealed from heauen, agaynst al vngodlynesse and vnryghteousnesse of men, which e withholde the trueth in vnryghteousnesse.

19 For that that may be knowen of God, is manifest among them, because God hath shewed it vnto them.

20 For his inuisible thynges, beyng vnderstanded by his woorkes, throughe the creation of the worlde, are seene, that is, both his eternall power and Godhead, so that they are without excuse:

21 Because that when they knewe GOD, notwithstandyng, they glorified hym not as God, neyther were thankful, but waxed ful of vanities in their imaginations, and their foolyshe hart was blynded.

22 When they counted them selues wyse, they became fooles:

23 And turned the glory of the incorruptible God vnto an image, made not onely after the similitude of a corruptible man, but also, of byrdes, and foure footed beastes, and of creepyng beastes.

24 Wherfore God gaue them vp to vncleanesse, throughe the lustes of their owne hartes, that their owne bodyes should be defyled among them selues.

25 Whiche changed his f trueth for a lye, and woorshypped and serued the creature, more then the creator, whiche is to be praysed for euer. Amen.

26 Wherfore God gaue them vp vnto shameful lustes, for euen their women did change the naturall vse, into that whiche is agaynst nature.

27 And lykewyse also, the men left the natural

a. By this he declareth, that he came not into the office of the Apostleship by his owne arrogancie, but by the callyng of God, wherby he differeth frō the false Apostles.

b. Three maner of wayes Paul sheweth here Christe to be declared the sonne of GOD. First, by power or woorkyng of miracles. Secondly, by ỹ holy ghoste appearyng in visible signes. Thirdly, by his resurrection from the dead.

c. All those that were not Iewes, by a common woorde were called Heathen. And here they are diuided into Grekes & barbarous. By Grekes he vnderstandeth those that were learned, ciuil, and of good bryngyng vp. By barbarous, he meaneth rude & sauage people, with whom no man could wel haue to doo.

d. Which appearaunce the world knoweth nothyng of For in the syght of God all men are godlesse, sinners, and the chyldren of wrath, & when they know any thyng of God, yet they be naught, because they neyther thanke hym, nor serue hym, & therefore plagues are powred vpon them from heauen.

e. They hold the trueth in vnryghteousnes, the whiche vnderstand the trueth, and doo not expresse the same in their deedes & lyfe.

f. By this trueth here he vnderstandeth the glory of God, and his true religion: and a lye he calleth idols, because the Idolaters went about to take away frō wood & stone that whiche they were, thinkyng them to be neyther wood nor stone but attributed to them that they were not, that is, diuine power and name.

turall vse of the woman, and brent in their lustes one with another, and men with men wrought filthinesse, and receyued in themselues the reward of their errour (as it was accordyng.)

28 And as they regarded not to know God: euen so, God deliuered them vp vnto a lewde mynde, that they should doo those thynges whiche were not comely:

29 Beyng full of all vnrighteousnesse, fornication, craftynesse, couetousnesse, malitiousnesse, full of enuie, murder, debate, deceyte, euyl conditioned, whysperers,

30 Backbyters, haters of God, despytefull, proude, boasters, bryngers vp of euyl thinges, disobedient to father and mother:

31 Without understandyng, couenant breakers, without naturall affection, truce breakers, vnmerciful.

32 The whiche knowing the ryghteousnes of God (howe that they which commit such thynges, are woorthy of death) not only doo the same, but also haue pleasure in them that doo them.

¶ The ii Chapter.

r. Gods iudgement vpon the hypocrites. 12. All men are sinners.

1 THerefore art thou inexcusable, O man, whosoeuer * thou be that a iudgest: For in that same wherein thou iudgest another, thou condemnest thee selfe. For thou that iudgest, doest euen the selfe same thynges.

2 But we are sure that the iudgement of God is accordyng to the trueth, agaynst them whiche commit suche thynges.

3 Thynkest thou this, O thou man that iudgest them which doo suche thynges, and doest the same thee selfe, that thou shalt escape the iudgement of God?

4 Eyther despysest thou the ryches of his goodnesse, and patience, & long sufferaunce, not knowyng that the goodnesse of GOD leadeth thee to repentaunce?

5 But thou, after thy stubbernesse and hart that can not repent, heapest vnto thee selfe wrath, agaynst the day of wrath and declaration of the righteous iudgement of God:

6 * Whiche wyll rewarde euery man accordyng to his b deedes:

7 To them whiche by continuyng in well dooyng, seeke for glorye, and honour, and immortalitie, eternall lyfe.

8 But vnto them that are contentious, and doo not obey the trueth, but obey vnrighteousnesse, shal come indignation and wrath,

9 Tribulation, and anguyshe, vpon euery soule of man that doeth euyll, of the Iewe first, and also of the Greke:

10 But glorye, and honour, and peace, to euery man that doeth good, to the Iewe first, and also to the Greke.

11 * For there is no respecte of persons with God. *2.Pa.19.7 Actes.10.34

12 For whosoeuer hath sinned without law, shal also perysh without lawe: and as many as haue sinned in the law, shalbe iudged by the lawe, 13 (For in the syght of God, the hearers of the lawe are not ryghteous: but the doers of the lawe shalbe iustified. *Iam.1.22.

14 For when the Gentiles whiche haue not the lawe, doo of nature the thynges conteyned in the lawe: they hauyng not the lawe, are a lawe vnto them selues.

15 Whiche shewe the woorkes of the lawe wrytten in their hartes, their conscience bearyng them witnesse, and their thoughts accusing one another, or excusing,)

16 At the day when God shall iudge the secretes of men by Iesus Christe, accordyng to my c Gospel.

17 Beholde, thou art called a Iewe, and d restest in the lawe, and makest thy boaste of God.

18 And knowest his wyll, and alowest the thinges that be excellent, informed by the lawe:

19 And beleeuest that thou thee selfe art a guyde of the blynde, a syght of them whiche are in darknesse, 20 An informer of them whiche lacke discretion, a teacher of the vnlearned: whiche hast the fourme of knowledge, and of the trueth in the lawe.

21 Thou therefore whiche teachest another, teachest not thee selfe? Thou preachest a man shoulde not steale, yet stealest thou?

22 Thou that sayest a man should not commit adulterie, breakest thou wedlocke? Thou abhorrest idols, and yet committest sacrilege?

23 Thou that makest thy boast of the lawe, through breakyng the lawe dishonourest thou God?

24 For the name of God is euyl spoken of among the Gentiles through you, as it is wrytten, 25 For circumcision verily auayleth, yf thou keepe the lawe: but yf thou be a breaker of the lawe, thy circumcision is made vncircumcision.

26 Therefore, yf the e vncircumcision kepe the ordinaunces of the lawe, shal not his vncircumcision be counted for circumcision?

27 And

*Mat.17.1. a S. paul speaketh here against those men only, whobeing them selues filled with al wickednesse, and impietie, yet be of al other most busy & curious in noting & reprehendyng other mens faultes: not of anye godlye zeale, but to iustifie them selues, & to bryng other men into hatred and contempt.

*Mat.16.27 b. Not that our workes be of such merite, that they deserue rewarde: but the scriptures vse this kynde of speakyng, that therby it maye prouoke and stirre vp men vnto good lyuyng, whereby our fayth may the more appeare. Whiche good workes God of his free grace doeth reward.

c. It is his gospel both for the feruēt loue and zeale that he beareth to it, and also for the great paynes that he hath taken in settyng foorth the same.

d. He awaketh the Iewes whiche were aslepe through a certayne securitie and confidence in the lawe.

e. By this word he meaneth all the people, of what countrey or natiō soeuer they be, whiche haue not receyued the signe of circumcision accordyng to the lawe of Moses.

27 And shal not vncircumcision which is by nature, yf it kepe the lawe, iudge thee, which being vnder the letter and circumcision, doest trangresse the lawe?

28 For he is not a Iewe, which is a Iewe outwarde. Neyther is that circumcision, which is outwarde in the flesshe.

29 But he is a Iewe, which is one inwardly, and the circumcision of the hart, which consisteth in the spirite, and not in the letter: circumcision whose prayse is not of men, but of God.

The iij. Chapter.

1. The Iewes haue a preheminence. 4. All are iustified by grace through fayth, and not through woorkes.

1 WHat preferment then hath the Iewe? or what profite is there of circumcision?

2 Much every way. First, forasmuche that vnto them were committed the woordes of God.

3 What then though some of them did not beleeue? Shal their vnbeleefe make the a fayth of God without effect?

4 God forbyd: Yea let GOD be true, and euery man a lyer, as it is written, That thou mightest be iustified in thy sayinges, and ouercome when thou art iudged.

5 But if our vnrighteousnesse setteth foorth the righteousnesse of God, what shall we say? Is God vnrighteous which taketh vengeance? (I speake after the maner of men,)

6 God forbid: for howe then shal GOD iudge the worlde?

7 For if the trueth of God hath more abounded through my lye vnto his glory, why am I as yet iudged as a synner?

8 And not rather (as we be slaunderously reported, and as some affirme that we say) let vs doo euyl, that good may come thereof? whose damnation is iust.

9 What then? are we better then they? No, in no wise: for we haue before accused both Iewes and Gentiles, that they are al vnder sinne:

10 As it is written, * There is none righteous, no not one:

11 There is none that vnderstandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.

12 They are al gone out of the way, they are al become vnprofitable, there is none that doeth good, no not one.

13 Their throte is an open sepulchre, with their tongues they haue deceyued, the poyson of aspes is vnder their lyppes.

14 *Whose mouth is ful of cursyng and bitternesse:

15 Their feete are swift to shed blood,

16 In their wayes greefe and misery are in their wayes.

17 And the way of peace haue they not knowen.

18 There is no feare of God before their eyes.

19 Nowe we knowe that what thynges so euer the lawe sayth, it sayth it to them which are vnder the lawe: that euery mouth may be stopped, and that al the worlde may be inuangered to God.

20 Because that by the deedes of the b lawe, there shal no flesshe be iustified in his syght: for by the lawe commeth the knowledge of sinne.

21 *But nowe the righteousnesse of God without the lawe is made manifest, being witnessed by the lawe and the prophetes.

22 The righteousnesse of God commeth by the fayth of Iesus Christe, vnto al, and vpon al them that beleeue. There is no difference:

23 For al haue sinned, and haue neede of the glory of God,

24 But are iustified freely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Christe Iesu:

25 Whom God hath set foorth to be a c propitiation, through fayth in his blood, to declare his righteousnesse, by the forgeuyng of the sinnes that are past, 26 Which God did suffer, to shewe at this tyme his righteousnesse: that he might be iust, and the iustifier of hym which beleeueth on Iesus.

27 Where is then thy boasting? It is excluded. By what lawe? Of woorkes? Nay: but by the lawe of fayth.

28 Therefore, we holde that a man is iustified by fayth, without the deedes of the lawe.

29 Is he the God of the Iewes only? Is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, euen of the Gentiles also.

30 For it is one God which shal iustifie the circumcision by fayth, and vncircumcision through fayth.

31 Doo we then destroy the lawe through fayth? God forbid: but we rather maynteyne the lawe.

The iiij. Chapter.

1. Iustification is by the free gift of God, as it appeareth by Dauid and Abraham, 13. and also by the effect of lawe and fayth.

1 WHat shal we say then that Abraham our father, as pertayning to the flesshe, dyd finde.

2 For if Abraham were iustified by woorkes, then hath he wherein to boast, but not before God.

3 For what sayth the scripture? *Abraham beleeued God, & it was counted vnto him for ryghteousnesse.

4 To hym that worketh, is the rewarde not reckened of grace, but of dutie.

a. That is, whiche meaneth not to obteyne saluation thorowe the worthinesse of his workes.

5 To him that worketh a not, but beleeueth on him that iustifieth the b vngodly, his fayth is counted for ryghteousnesse.

b. God is sayd to iustifie the vngodly, because he pardoneth his sinnes, and of a wicked man maketh hym good.

6 Euen as Dauid describeth the blessednesse of the man vnto whom God imputeth ryghteousnesse without woorkes:

7 *Saying, *Blessed are they whose vnrighteousnesse are forgeuen, and whose sinnes are couered.

*Psal.32.1.

8 Blessed is that man to whom the Lorde wyl not impute sinne.

The Epistle on newe yeeres day.

9 Came this blessednesse then vppon the circumcision onely, or vpon the vncircumcision also? For we say that fayth was reckened to Abraham for ryghteousnesse.

10 Howe was it then reckened? when he was in the circumcision, or when he was in the vncircumcision? Not in the circumcision, but in vncircumcision.

*Gen.17.11.

11 *And he receyued the signe of circumcision, as the c seale of the ryghteousnesse of fayth, which he had yet being vncircumcised: that he shoulde be the father of al them that beleeue, though they be not circumcised, that ryghteousnesse might be imputed vnto them also.

c. So was Abrahams circumcision called, because thereby was sealed the ryghteousnesse that through fayth was imputed to hym before his circumcision.

12 And that he might be father of circumcision, not vnto them onely which came of the circumcised, but vnto them also that walke in the steppes of the fayth that was in our father Abraham, before the time of circumcision.

13 For the promise that he shoulde be the heyre of the worlde, was not to Abraham, or to his seede through the lawe, but through the ryghteousnesse of fayth.

14 For if they whiche are of the lawe be heyres, then is fayth but vayne, and the promise made of none effect:

15 Because the lawe causeth wrath: For where no lawe is, there is no transgression.

*Gene.17.4.

16 Therefore by fayth is the inheritance geuen that it might be by grace, that the promise might be sure to al the seede, not to that only whiche is of the lawe, but to that also which is of the fayth of Abraham, which is the father of vs al.

d. In the creation of the worlde this appeared. For when he commaunded any thing to be, foorthwith it was.

17 (As it is written, *I haue made thee a father of many nations) before God whom ye beleeued, which restoreth the dead vnto lyfe, and calleth those thinges whiche be not, as d though they were.

c. That is, which beleeued and hoped for those things which God dyd promise, when as to mans reason they were without hope.

18 Who contrarie to hope, e beleeued in hope, that he shoulde be the father of many nations: according to that which was spoken, *So shal thy seede be.

*Gene.15.5.

19 And he faynted not in the fayth, nor consydered his owne body nowe dead, when he was almost an hundred yeeres olde, neyther yet the f deadnesse of Saraes wombe.

f. For that she was past childe bearyng.

20 He staggered not at the promise of God through vnbeleefe: but was strong in fayth, geuing glory to God.

21 And beyng ful certified, that what he had promised, he was able also to performe.

22 And therefore was it reckened vnto hym for ryghteousnesse.

23 Neuertheless, it is not written for him onely, that it was reckened to hym:

24 But also for vs, to whom it shalbe reckened, so that we beleeue on hym that raysed vp Iesus our Lorde from the dead, 25 Which was deliuered for our sinnes, and was rayed agayne for our iustification.

¶ The.v. Chapter.

1. The fruite of fayth. 12. From whence commeth death, and from whence lyfe.

1 THerefore beyng iustified by fayth, we are at a peace with God, through our Lorde Iesus Christe:

a. By peace, which is the fruite of fayth, is meant the incredible and most constant ioy of mynde, our consciences being quiet, & established in Gods grace.

2 *By whom also we haue had an entrance by fayth, vnto this grace wherein we stande, and reioyce in hope of the glory of God.

*Ephe.2.23

3 Not that onely: *but also we reioyce in tribulations, knowyng that tribulation worketh patience:

*Iames.1.3.

4 Patience proofe, proofe hope:

5 And hope maketh not b ashamed, because the loue of GOD is shed abrode in our harts by the holy ghost, whiche is geuen vnto vs.

b. Both for that the hope of the godly is not disapointed of that whiche they hope for, & also for that they are not ashamed of any affliction in this worlde, as the worldly mynded be: but constantly abyde without shame, what so euer trouble God doeth sende to them.

6 For when we were yet weake, accordyng to the tyme, Christe dyed for the vngodly.

7 Nowe scarse wyl any man dye for the righteous: Yet peraduenture for the good some man durst dye.

8 But God setteth out his loue towarde vs, seeyng that whyle we were yet synners, Christe dyed for vs.

9 Muche more then nowe, we that are iustified by his blood, shalbe saued from wrath through hym.

10 For if when we were enimies, we were reconciled to GOD by the death of his sonne: muche more, seeyng we are reconciled, we shalbe saued by his lyfe.

11 Not onely so, but we also ioy in GOD, through throughe our Lorde Jesus Christe, by whom we haue nowe receyued the attonement.

12 Wherefore as by one man sinne entred into the worlde, and death by sinne: euen so, death entred into all men, insomuche as all haue sinned.

13 For vnto the lawe was sinne in the worlde: but sinne is not imputed when there is no lawe.

14 Neuertheles, death raigned from Adam to Moses, ouer them also that had not sinned with like transgression as dyd Adam, whiche is the figure of hym that was to come.

15 But not as the sinne, so is the free gyft. For if throughe the sinne of one many be dead: muche more the grace of God, and the gyft by grace, whiche is by one man Jesus Christe, hath abounded vnto many.

16 And not as by one that sinned euen so the gyft, for the sinne entred by one offence into condemnation: but the gyft c of many sinnes into iustification.

c. For by Christe we are not onely delyuered from the sinnes of Adam, but also from all such sinnes as we haue added thereunto.

17 For if by the sinne of one, death raigned by the meanes of one, much more they which receyue abundance of grace and of the gyft of ryghteousnesse, shal raigne in lyfe by the meanes of one, Jesus Christe.

18 Likewyse then, as by the sinne of one sinne came on all men to condemnation: euen so, by the ryghteousnesse of one good come vpon al men to the ryghteousnesse of lyfe.

19 For as by one mans disobedience many became sinners: so by the obedience of one, shal many be made ryghteous.

20 But the lawe in the meane tyme entred in, that sinne shoulde increase. But where sinne was plenteous, grace was more plenteous.

21 That as sinne hath raigned vnto death: euen so myght grace raigne throughe ryghteousnesse vnto eternal life, by Jesus Christ our Lorde.

¶ The. vi. Chapter.

Newenesse of lyfe followeth iustification, to the whiche he exhorteth.

1 What shal we say then? Shal we continue in sinne? that grace may abounde? God forbyd.

a. He dyeth to sinne, in whom the strength of sinne is broken by the power of Christe. The Epistel on the vi sunday after trinitie.

2 Howe shal we that are dead a to sinne, liue any longer therein?

3 Knowe ye not, that al we which haue ben baptised into Jesus Christe, haue ben baptised b into his death.

a. That is, that sinne thorowe Christes death may be abolished & dye in vs: & that as we are made cleane outwardly with water in our baptisme, so inwardly our sins may be washed away, & cleansed by ỹ blood of Christ.

4 We are buried then with hym by baptisme into his death, that lykewyse as Christe was raised vp from the dead by the glory of the father: euen so, we also shoulde walke in newenesse of lyfe.

5 For if we be graft togeather by the lykenesse of his death: euen so shal we be partakers of the resurrection:

6 Knowing this, that our olde man is crucified with hym also, that the body of sinne myght vtterly be destroyed, that henceforth we shoulde not serue sinne.

7 For he that is dead, is iustified from sinne.

8 And if we be dead with Christe, we beleeue that we shal also lyue with hym:

9 Knowyng that Christ being raysed from the dead, dyeth no more, death hath no more power ouer hym.

10 For as touching that he dyed, he dyed concerning sinne once: And as touchyng that he lyueth, he lyueth vnto God.

11 Likewyse recken your selues to be dead vnto sinne: but alyue vnto God, throughe Jesus Christe our Lorde.

12 Let not sinne raigne therefore in your mortal body, that ye shoulde thereunto obey by the lustes of it.

13 Neyther geue ye your members a as instrumentes of vnryghteousnesse vnto sinne: but geue your selues vnto God, as they that are alyue from the dead, and your members a as instrumentes of ryghteousnesse vnto God.

a Or, weapons.

a Or, weapons.

14 For sinne shall not haue power ouer you, because ye are not vnder the c lawe, but vnder grace.

c. That is, vnder the curse of the lawe, whose office is to accuse and condemne: but vnder grace, whereby we haue forgeuenes of our sinnes, and are sanctified by the holy ghost into the newenesse of lyfe.

15 What then? Shall we sinne, because we are not vnder the lawe, but vnder grace? God forbyd.

16 *Knowe ye not howe that to whom so euer ye commit your selues as seruantes to obey, his seruantes ye are to whom ye obey: whether it be of sinne vnto death, or of obedience vnto ryghteousnesse?

*John. 8. 34.

17 But God be thanked, that ye were the seruauntes of sinne: but ye haue obeyed with hart the fourme of doctrine, into the which ye were brought vnto.

18 Being then made free from synne, ye are become the seruauntes of ryghteousnesse.

19 I speake after d the maner of men, because of the infirmitie of your flesh. For as ye haue geuen your members seruauntes to vncleanenesse and iniquitie, vnto iniquitie: euen so nowe geue your members seruants to ryghteousnesse, vnto holynesse.

d. Men vse to speake gently to their friends, & not to exact so much as they might, but so farre foorth as reason requireth.

20 For when ye were the seruantes of sinne, ye were free from ryghteousnesse.

21 What

21 What fruite had ye then in those things, wherof ye are nowe ashamed? For the ende of those thynges, is death.

22 But now ye being made free from sinne, and made the seruantes of God, haue your fruite vnto holynesse, and the ende euerlasting lyfe.

23 For the rewarde of sinne is death: but the gyft of God is eternal lyfe, through Iesus Christe our Lorde.

¶ The. vii. Chapter.

The fight betweene the lawe of the flesshe, and the lawe of the spirite.

1 KNowe ye not brethren (for I speake to them that knowe the a lawe) howe that the lawe hath power ouer a man, as long as he lyueth?

2 For the woman whiche hath an husband, is bound by the law to her husband, as long as he lyueth: but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the lawe of her husbande.

3 So then if while her husband liueth, she couple her selfe with an other man, she shalbe " counted a wedlocke breaker: but yf her husbande be dead, she is free from the lawe, so that she is no wedlocke breaker, though she couple her selfe with another man.

4 Euen so, ye also my brethren, are dead concerning the law by the b body of Christ, that ye shoulde be coupled to another, who is rayled from the dead, that we shoulde bring foorth fruite vnto God.

5 For when we were in the flesshe, the lustes of sinne which were by the lawe wrought in our members, to bring foorth fruite vnto death.

6 But now are we deliuered from the lawe, and dead vnto it wherunto we were in bondage, that we shoulde serue in newnesse of spirite, and not in the oldenesse of the letter.

7 What shall we say then? Is the lawe sinne? God forbyd. Neuertheles I knewe not sinne, but by the lawe: For I had not knowen lust, except the lawe had sayde, Thou shalt not lust.

8 But sinne taking occasion by the commaundement, wrought in me al maner of concupiscence. For without the lawe sinne was dead.

9 I once lyued without lawe: but when the commaundement came, sinne reuiued,

10 And I was dead: and the very same commaundement whiche was ordeyned vnto lyfe, was founde to be vnto me an occasion of death.

11 For sinne taking occasion by the commaundement, hath deceyued me, and by the same slue me.

12 Wherfore the lawe is holy, and the commaundement holy, and iust, and good.

13 Was that then whiche was good, made death vnto me? God forbid. But sinne, that sinne myght appeare, by that whiche was good to worke death in me: that sinne by the commaundement myght be out of measure sinful.

14 For we knowe that the lawe is spirituall: but I am carnal, solde vnder c sinne.

15 For that whiche I doo, I alowe not: for what I woulde, that doo I not: but what I hate, that doo I.

16 If I doo nowe that whiche I woulde not, I consent vnto the lawe that it is good.

17 Nowe then, it is not I that doo it: but sinne that dwelleth in me.

18 For I knowe, that in me (that is to say in my flesshe) dwelleth no good thyng. For to wyl, is present with me: but I finde no meanes to perfourm: that which is good.

19 For the good that I would, do I not: but the euyl whiche I would not, that doo I.

20 And if I doo that I woulde not, then is it not I any longer that doth it, but sinne that dwelleth in me.

21 I finde then by the lawe, that when I woulde doo good, euyl is present with me.

22 For I delite in the lawe of God, after the inwarde man.

23 But I see another lawe in my members, rebelling agaynst the lawe of my mind, and subduing me vnto the lawe of sinne, whiche is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am: who shal deliuer me from the d body of this death?

25 I thanke God through Iesus Christe our Lorde. So then, with the mynde I mee selfe serue the lawe of GOD: but with the flesshe, the lawe of sinne.

¶ The. viii. Chapter.

1. The assurance of the faythful. 6. The fruites of the holy ghost.

1 THere is then no damnation to them which are in Christ Iesu, which walke not after the flesshe, but after the spirite.

2 For the law of the a spirite of lyfe, through Iesus Christe, hath made me free from the lawe of sinne and death.

3 For what the lawe coulde not doo, in as muche as it was weake through the flesshe, God hauing sent his owne sonne, in the similitude of sinful flesshe, euen by sinne, b condemned sinne in the flesshe:

4 That

a. Before the comming of Christe, al men were married and bounde to the lawe, which dyd then none other seruice but disclosed their sinne and wyckednesse, forcyng them to seeke helpe for their sinne els where. Nowe then the lawe beyng abolished for her imperfection, and they clensed through Gods grace, are spoused vnto Christe their newe husband, hym to serue in newenesse of lyfe.

"Or, called.

b. Because the body of Christe is made an offering and a sacrifice for our sinnes, whereby God is pleased, and his wrath appeased: and for Christes take the holy ghost is geuen to al beleeuers, whereby the power of sinne is in vs dayly weakened: we are counted dead to the lawe, for that the lawe hath no dominion ouer vs.

c. Lyke as bond men are violētly thurst, hurled, and turmoyled, as it pleaseth their cruel maister: So are we thorowe heapes of sinnes drawen to many euyl dooyngs, which we doo neyther like nor alowe.

d. It is called the body of sinne, for that it is an whole lumpe of sinne, tossing & tormenting the whole man, and plucking hym from God, wherby plagues and miseries are heaped on, and man lyueth as he were in the middest of death.

a The lawe of the spirite and the lawe of sinne, is here taken improperly for the power and strength of the lawe and sinne: and it is called the spirite of lyfe, because it quickeneth and geueth lyfe.

b. God thorowe the sacrifice of sinne, which he Christe his onely sonne offered vpon the crosse in his flesh, hath condemned & abbolished sinne, Which raigned in our mortal flesshe.

4 That the righteousnesse of the law might be fulfylled in vs, whiche walke not after the flesshe, but after the spirite.

5 For they that are carnall, are c carnally minded: but they that are spirituall, are spiritually minded.

c Φρονοῦσι & φρονήμα Greeke wordes do not so much signifie wysdom and prudēce, as affection, carefulnes, & minding of any thyng.

6 To be carnally minded, is death: but to be spiritually minded, is lyfe and peace:

7 Because that the fleshly minde is enmitie agaynst God: for it is not obedient to the lawe of God, neyther can be.

8 So then, they that are in the flesshe, can not please God.

9 But ye are not in the flesshe, but in the spirite, yf so be that the spirite of God dwel in you. Yf any man haue not the spirite of Christe, the same is none of his.

10 And yf Christe be in you, the body is dead because of d sinne: but the spirite is lyfe for righteousnesse sake.

d Albeit we haue a body which is dead to all goodnes, by reason of sinne, whiche so stōgly raygneth in it, yet when we are grafted in Christe, his spirite of lyfe geueth vs lyfe, & iustifieth vs.

11 But yf the spirite of hym that raysed vp Iesus from the dead, dwell in you; euen he that raysed vp Christe from the dead, shall also quicken your mortall bodyes, because that his spirite dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore brethren, we are detters, not to the flesshe, to liue after the flesshe.

13 For yf ye liue after the flesshe, ye shal dye: but yf ye through the spirite, doo mortifie the dedes of the body, ye shall liue.

The Epistle on the eyght Sunday after Trinite.

14 For as many as are led by the spirite of God, they are the sonnes of God.

15 For ye haue not receiued the spirite of bondage agayne to feare: but ye haue receiued the spirite of adoption, whereby we crye, Abba, father.

16 The spirite it selfe beareth witnesse to our spirite, that we are the sonnes of God.

17 Yf we be sonnes, then are we also heyres, the heyres of God, and ioynt heyres with Christe: so that we suffer togeather, that we may be also glorified togeather.

The Epistle on the fourth Sunday after Trinite.

18 For I am certaynely e perswaded, that the afflictions of this time, are not woorthy of the glorye whiche shalbe shewed vpon vs.

e Λογιζομαι, signifieth to weygh, or to consyder. But because the matter was certayne, & S. Paul nothing doubted therof, it is thus made: I am perswaded.

19 For the earnest expectation of the creature abydeth, lookyng when the sonnes of God shall appeare:

20 Because the f creature is subiect to vanitie, not wyllyng, but for him which hath subdued the same in hope.

f The creatures shall not be restored before gods chyldren be brought to their perfectiō. In the meane season they desire, grone, and walke.

21 For the creature it selfe shalbe made free from the bondage of corruption, into the glorious libertie of the sonnes of God.

22 For we knowe that euery creature groneth with vs also, and trauayleth in payne with vs, euen vnto this tyme.

23 Not onely they, but we also whiche haue the first fruites of the spirite, and we our selues mourne in our selues, wayting for the adoption, euen the deliuerance of our body.

24 For we are saued by hope: But hope that is seene, is no hope. For howe can a man hope for that which he seeth?

25 But and yf we hope for that we see not, then doo we with patience abide for it.

26 Likewyse, the spirite also helpeth our infirmities. For we knowe not what to desyre as we ought: but the spirite it selfe maketh great g intercession for vs, with gronynges, which can not be expressed.

g. The ryght fourme & affection of prayer, commeth by the holy ghost, who maketh intercession for vs, not that he prayeth and mourneth: but that he so styreth our harts, that we lift them vp to heauen earnestly and feruētly, which is the true prayer.

27 And he that searcheth the hartes, knoweth what is the meanyng of the spirite: for he maketh intercession for the saintes, according to the pleasure of God.

28 For we knowe that all thinges woorke for the best, vnto them that loue God, to them whiche also are called of purpose.

29 For those whiche he knewe before, he also dyd predestinate, that they should be lyke fashioned vnto the shape of his sonne; that he myght be the fyrst begotten among many brethren.

30 Moreouer, whom he dyd predestinate, them also he called: and whom he called, them also he iustified: and whom he iustified, them also he glorified.

31 What shall we then say to these thinges? Yf God be on our side, who can be against vs?

32 Whiche spared not his owne sonne, but gaue hym for vs all: how shall he not with hym also geue vs all thynges?

33 Who shall lay any thyng to the charge of Gods chosen? It is God that iustifieth:

34 Who is he that condemneth? It is Christe which dyed, yea rather whiche is raysed agayne, whiche is also on the ryght hand of God, and maketh intercession for vs.

35 Who shall separate vs from the loue of Christe? Shall tribulation, or anguishe, or persecution, eyther hunger, eyther nakednesse, eyther perill, eyther swoord?

36 (As it is written, * For thy sake are we kylled all day long, and are counted as sheepe for the slaughter.) * Psal. 43. 23

37 Neuertheles, in all these thynges we ouercome, through hym that loued vs.

38 For I am sure, that neyther death, neyther lyfe, neyther angels, nor rule, neyther power, neyther thynges present, neyther thynges to come,

39 Neyther heygth, nor deapth, neyther any other creature, shalbe able to separate vs from the loue of God, whiche is in Christe Iesu our Lorde.

¶ The ix. Chapter.

Paul declareth his feruent loue towarde his nation.

*1.Cor.15.7

1 I Say the trueth in Christe, I lye not (my conscience also bearing me witnesse by the holy ghost)

2 That I haue great heauinesse, and continuall sorowe in my hart.

3 For I haue wyshed mee selfe to be cursed from a Christe, for my brethren, my kynsmen as partayneth to the flesshe,

a. He sawe the losse & destruccio of his whole nation, fallyng so far fro gods true religion, he consydered how sore God should be dishonoured, whe his woonderfull benefices and blessinges, bestowed vpon his people, should take none effect but vtterly be defaced, which so mightyly mooued hym, that he wyshed rather to be cut of frō Christe, then those thinges should come to passe.

4 Which are the Israelites: to whom parteyneth the adoption, and the glory, and the couenauntes, and the law that was geuen, and the seruice of GOD, and the promises:

5 Of whom are the fathers, and of whom as concerning the flesshe Christe came which is God, in all thinges to be praysed for euer, Amen.

6 And it can not be, that the woorde of God hath taken none effect. For they are not all Israelites, which are of Israel:

7 Neyther are they all children, that are the seede of Abraham: but in Isahac shall thy seede be called.

8 That is to say, They which are the children of the flesshe, these are not the children of God: but they whiche be the children of promise, are counted the seede.

*Gen.18.10. 9 For this is the woorde of promise, * About this time wyl I come, and Sara shall haue a sonne.

*Gen 25.21. 10 Not only this, but also * Rebecca was with childe by one, euen by our father Isahac.

11 For yer the children were borne, when they had neyther doone good, neyther badde, (that the purpose of GOD by b election myght stand: not by the reason of workes, but by the caller)

b. The wyll & purpose of god, is the cause of the election & reprobatiō. For his mercie and calling through Christe, are the meanes of saluation. and the withdrawing of his mercie, is the cause of damnation.

12 It was sayde vnto her, The elder shall serue the younger.

13 As it is written, Iacob haue I loued, but Esau haue I hated.

14 What shall we say then? is there any vnrighteousnesse with GOD? God forbid.

15 For he sayth to Moses, I wyll shewe mercie, to whom so euer I shewe mercie: and wyll haue compassion, on whom so euer I haue compassion.

16 So then election is not of the wyller, nor of the runner: but of GOD that taketh mercie.

17 For the scripture sayth vnto Pharao, *Euen for this same purpose haue I stirred thee vp, that I myght shewe my power in thee, and that my name myght be declared throughout all the worlde.

*Exod.9.16

18 So hath he mercie on whom he wyl, and whom he wyll he hardeneth.

19 Thou wylt say then vnto me, Why then blameth he vs yet? For who hath resisted his wyll?

20 But O man, what art thou whiche disputest with God? * Shall the woorke say to the woorkeman, Why hast thou made me on this fashion? *Esai.45.9

21 * Hath not the Potter power ouer the clay, euen of the same lumpe to make one vessell vnto honor, & another vnto dishonor? *Wisd.15.7 Iere.18.6.

22 What if God, wylling to shew his wrath, and to make his power knowen, suffered with long patience the vessels of wrath ordeyned to destruction, 23 To declare the richesse of his glory on the vessels of mercie, which he had prepared vnto glory?

24 Whom also he called, I meane vs, not of the Iewes onely, but also of the Gentiles.

25 As he sayth also in Osee, * I wyll call them my people, whiche were not my people: and her beloued, whiche was not beloued. *Osee.2.23. I.Pet.2.10

26 * And it shall come to passe, that in the place where it was sayde vnto them, Ye are not my people: there shall they be called the children of the liuyng God. *Osee.1.10.

27 And Esaias cryeth concernyng Israel, * Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, yet but a remnant shalbe saued. *Esai.10.22

28 For he finisheth the c woorde, and maketh it short in righteousnesse: for a short woorde wyll the Lorde make on earth.

c. The woorde here is take for a thyng or matter. The Lorde diminished his people by sundry plagues, persecutions, & banishmentes, and brought them to a very fewe. Likewyse meaneth Paul, that a fewe of them shalbe saued, whichefewe notwithstandyng shall abounde in righteousnesse to the glory of God.

29 And as Esaias sayde before, Except the Lorde of Sabaoth had left vs d seede, we had been made as Sodoma, and had been likened to Gomorrha.

d. The seede is Christe Iesus, sowen abrode by his Apostles and Disciples.

30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles whiche folowed not righteousnesse, haue obteyned righteousnesse: euen the righteousnesse which commeth of fayth.

31 But Israel whiche folowed the lawe of righteousnesse, hath not atteyned to the law of ryghteousnesse.

32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by fayth, but as it were by the woorkes of the lawe: For they haue stumbled at the stumblyng stone.

33 As it is written, Beholde, I put in * Sion a stumblyng stone, & a rocke of offence, and who so euer beleeueth on him, shall not be confounded. *Esai.28.16. I.Pet.2.6.

e. Criste doeth iustifie vs by fayth without workes, whiche thyng the Iewes and Iusticiaries can not beleeue. Therfore they stumble at Christe, and are offended with hym.

¶ The

¶ The.x. Chapter.

1 BRethren, my hartes desyre and prayer to God for Israel is, that they myght be saued.

2 For I beare them recorde, that they haue a a zeale of God: but not according to knowledge.

3 For they being ignorant of Gods ryghteousnesse, and goeing about to stablishe their b owne ryghteousnesse, haue not been obedient vnto the ryghteousnesse of God.

4 For Christe is the ende of the lawe, c for ryghteousnesse to al that beleeue.

5 For Moses writeth of the ryghteousnesse which is of the lawe, howe that y man which doeth those thinges, shal lyue by them.

6 But the ryghteousnesse which is of fayth, speaketh on this wyse: Say not thou in thine hart, Who shal ascende into d heauen? That is, to fetche Christe downe from aboue.

7 Eyther who shall descende into the deepe? That is, to fetche vp Christe agayne from the dead.

8 But what sayth he, The woorde is nygh thee, euen in thy mouth, and in thy hart. This same is the woorde of fayth, which we preache.

9 For if thou shalt knowledge with thy mouth the Lord Iesus, and shalt beleeue in thine hart that God raysed hym from the dead, thou shalt be saued.

10 For with the hart man beleeueth vnto ryghteousnesse, and with the mouth confession is made vnto saluation.

11 For the scripture saith, Whosoeuer beleeueth on hym, shal not be confounded.

12 There is no difference betweene the Iewe and the Greeke: for the same Lorde ouer al, is ryche vnto all that cal vpon hym.

13 For whosoeuer shal cal on the name of the Lorde, shalbe saued.

14 Howe then shall they call on hym, on whom they haue not beleeued? Howe shall they beleeue on hym, of whom they haue not heard? Howe shal they heare without a preacher?

15 And howe shall they preache, except they be sent? As it is written, Howe beautiful are the feete of them whiche bring good tidinges of peace, and bring good tidinges of good thynges?

16 But they haue not al obeyed the Gospel: for Esaias sayth, Lorde who hath beleeued our sayinges?

17 So then fayth commeth by hearyng, and hearyng commeth by the woorde of God.

18 But (I aske) haue they not hearde? No doubt, their sound went out into al landes, and their woordes into the endes of the worlde.

19 But I demaunde whether Israel dyd knowe, or not? First Moses sayth, * I wyl prouoke you to enuie by them that are no people, and by a foolyshe nation I wyll anger you. * Deu.32.21.

20 And Esaias is bolde, and sayth, * I haue ben founde of them that sought me not: I haue ben made manifest vnto them that asked not after me. * Esai.65.1.

21 But agaynst Israel he sayth, * All day long haue I stretched out my handes vnto a people that beleeueth not, but speaketh agaynst me. * Esai.65.12

¶ The.xi. Chapter.

19. God repenteth hym not of his gyftes. 33. The depth of Gods iudgementes.

1 I Say then, hath God cast away his people? God forbyd. For I also am an Israelite, of the seede of Abraham, of the tribe of Beniamin.

2 God hath not cast away his people which he knewe before. Wote ye not what the scripture sayth of Elias? howe he maketh intercession to God agaynst Israel,

3 * Saying, Lorde, they haue kylled thy prophetes, and digged downe thine a aulters: and I am left alone, and they seeke my lyfe. * 1.kin.19.10

4 But what sayth the answeare of God vnto hym? I haue reserued vnto me selfe seuen thousande men, which haue not bowed the knee to the image of Baal.

5 Euen so at this tyme there is a remnant, according vnto the election of grace.

6 Yf it be of grace, then is it not nowe of woorkes: for then grace is no more grace. But yf it be of woorkes, then is it nowe no grace, for then woorke is no more woorke.

7 What then? Israel hath not obteyned that which he seeketh for, but the election hath obteyned it, the remnant hath been * blynded.

8 (According as it is written, * God hath geuen them the spirite of b renowse eyes, that they shoulde not see, and eares, that they shoulde not heare) euen vnto this day. * Esai.29.10 Math.13.14

10 Let their eyes be * blynded, that they see not, and bowe thou downe their backes alway.

11 I say then, haue they therfore stumbled, that they shoulde fall? God forbid, but through their fal, saluation is come vnto the c Gentiles, for to prouoke them withal.

12 Nowe if the fall of them, be the ryches of the worlde, and the minishyng of them, the ryches of the Gentiles: howe muche more more their fulnesse?

13 For I speake to you Gentiles, in as much as I am the Apostle of the Gentiles, I magnifie mine office, 14 If by any meane I may prouoke them which are my flesh, and myght saue some of them.

15 For if the castyng away of them, be the reconcilyng of the world, what shal the receyuing of them be, but life from the dead?

16 For if the first fruites be holy, the whole lumpe also is holy. And if the roote be holy, the branches also.

17 And if some of the branches be broken d of, and thou being a wylde Olyue tree, wast graft in among them, and made partaker of the roote and fatnesse of the Olyue tree:

18 Boast not thee selfe against the branches. For if thou boast thee selfe, thou bearest not the roote, but the roote thee.

19 Thou wylt say then, The branches are broken of, that I myght be graft in.

20 Well: because of vnbeleefe they were broken of, and thou stoodest stedfast in fayth. Be not hygh mynded, but feare.

21 For seeing that God spared not the naturall branches, take heede lest it come to passe, that he spare not thee.

22 Beholde therefore the kindnesse and rigorousnesse of God: on them which fel rigorousnesse: but towardes thee, kyndnesse, if thou continue in kindnesse: or els thou also shalt be hewen of.

23 And they, if they byde not styl in vnbeleefe, shalbe grafted in: for God is of power to graffe them in agayne.

24 For if thou were cut out of a naturall wild Olyue tree, and were grafted, contrarie to nature, in a true Olyue tree: howe much more shal these which be the naturall branches, be grafted in their owne Olyue tree?

25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mysterie (least ye should be wyse in your owne conceytes) that partly * blyndnesse is happened in Israel, vntyl the fulnesse of the Gentiles be come in.

26 And so all Israel shalbe saued, as it is written: * There shal come out of Sion he that doeth delyuer, and shal turne away vngodlynesse from Iacob.

27 And this is my couenant vnto them * when I shal take away their sinnes.

28 As concernyng the Gospel, they are enimies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are loued for the fathers sakes.

29 For the free giftes and calling of God, are without repentance.

30 For as ye in tyme past haue not beleeued God, yet haue ye nowe obteyned mercie through their vnbeleefe:

31 Euen so nowe haue they not * beleeued the mercie shewed vnto you, that they also may obteyne mercy.

32 For God hath shut vp all nations in vnbeleefe, that he might haue mercie on al.

33 O the depenesse of the ryches both of the wisedome and knowledge of GOD: howe vnsearchable are his iudgementes, and his wayes past finding out!

34 For * who hath knowen the mynde of the Lorde? Or who hath ben his counseller?

35 Eyther who hath geuen vnto hym first, e and he shalbe recompenced agayne?

36 For of hym, and through hym, and for hym, are al thynges: to whom be glory for euer. Amen.

d. These broken branches, were the vnbeleeuing Iewes, which for theyr vnbeleefe, were cut of from the promise of god, in whose steede was the wilde Olyue, that is, the Gentiles, grafted thorow fayth.

¶ The xii. Chapter.

How we euery man shoulde walke in his seueral callyng.

1 I Beseeche you therefore brethren, by the mercifulnesse of God, that ye * geue vp your bodyes a quicke a sacrifice, holy, acceptable vnto God, which be is your reasonable seruice.

2 And be not ye fashioned lyke vnto this b worlde: but be ye changed in your shape, by the renueing of your mynde, that ye may prooue what is the good, and acceptable, and perfect wyl of God.

The Epiſtle on the firſt Sunday in Aduent. *Exo.20.14 Deut.5.18. *Leui.19.18. Mat.22.39. Mark.12.31 Galat.5.14. Iames.2.8.

10 Charitie woꝛcketh no yll to his neyghbour, therefoꝛe the fulfilling of the lawe is charitie.)

11 And theſely conſydering the ſeaſon, how that it is tyme that we ſhoulde now awake out of ſleepe; Foꝛ nowe is our ſaluation b nearer then when we beleeued.

b. The further we go, the nearer are we to the end. Nowe therefore our perfect and full ſaluation, is nearer vnto vs, then when we firſt began to beleeue. *Luke.21.14

12 The nyght is paſſed, the day is come nygh. Let vs therefoꝛe caſt away the deedes of darkeneſſe, * and let vs put on the armour of lyght.

13 Let vs walke honeſtly, as in the day, not in rioting and dronkenneſſe, neyther in chambring and wantonneſſe, neyther in ſtrife and enuying.

14 But put ye on the Lord Ieſus Chriſte, and make not pꝛouiſion foꝛ the fleſhe, to fulfill the luſtes thereof.

¶ The.xiiii. Chapter.

One ought to beare vvith an others conſcience in charitie.

1 HIm that is weake in the fayth receiue, not to doubtfulneſſe of a diſputations.

a. That is, not to this end, ctentiouſly to diſpute with hym in matters of religion, wherynto thoſe ron the weaknes of fayth, he can not as yet atteyne, leſt he ſhould depart with a greater ſcruple of conſcience, or be offended with vncharitable reaſonyng.

2 One beleeueth that he may eate euery thyng: another which is weake, eateth herbes.

3 Let not hym that eateth, deſpiſe hym that eateth not: and let not hym whiche eateth not, iudge hym that eateth. Foꝛ God hath receiued hym.

4 What art thou that iudgeſt another mans ſeruant? To his owne maiſter he ſtandeth oꝛ falleth: Yea, he ſhalbe holden vp, foꝛ God is able to make hym ſtand.

5 This man putteth difference betweene day and day. Another man counteth all dayes alyke. Let euery man be fully perſwaded in his owne b mynde.

b. We muſt be aſſured in our conſcience by Gods woord in all thyng that we doo, that yf we be ſtrog, we may know what is our libertie; and yf we be weake, yet may learne to proſite dayly.

6 He that eſteemeth the day, eſteemeth it vnto the Lorde: and he that eſteemeth not the day, to the Lorde he doth not eſteeme it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, foꝛ he geueth god thankes: & he that eateth not, eateth not to the Lord, & giueth God thankes.

7 Foꝛ

7 For none of vs liueth to hym selfe, and no man dyeth to him selfe.
8 For yf we lyue, we liue vnto the Lord: and yf we dye, we dye vnto the Lord: Whether we liue therefore, or dye, we are the Lordes.
9 For to this ende Christe both dyed, and rose, and reuiued, that he might be Lorde both of dead and quicke.
10 But why doest thou then iudge thy brother? Either, why doest thou set at nought thy brother? * we shal all stande before the iudgement seate of Christe.
11 For it is written, * I liue, sayth the Lord, and all knees shall bowe to me, and all tongues shall geue prayse to God.
12 So shall euery one of vs geue accompt of hym selfe to God.
13 Let vs not therefore iudge one another any more: but iudge this rather, that no man put a stumbling blocke, or an occasion to fall, in his brothers way.
14 For I knowe, and am perswaded by the Lorde Iesus, that there is nothyng common of it selfe, but vnto hym that iudgeth it to be common, to him it is common.
15 But yf thy brother be greeued with thy meate, nowe walkest thou not charitably: * destroy not him with thy meate, for whom Christe dyed.
16 Let not your good be euill spoken of.
17 For the kyngdome of God is not meate and drinke: but righteousnesse, and peace, and ioy in the holy ghost.
18 For he that in these thinges serueth Christe, pleaseth God, and is commended of men.
19 Let vs therefore folowe those thynges whiche make for peace, and thinges wherewith one may edifie another.
20 Destroy not the woorke of GOD for meates sake: * all thinges are pure, but it is euill for that man whiche eateth with offence.
21 It is good neyther to eate flesshe, neyther to drinke wine, neither any thing wherby thy brother stumbleth, eyther is offended, or is made weake.
22 Hast thou c fayth? Haue it with thee selfe before God. Happy is he that condemneth not hym selfe in that thing whiche he alloweth.
23 For he that maketh conscience, is damned if he eate, because he eateth not of fayth: For what so euer is not of fayth, is d sinne.

c. Fayth is here taken for a full perswasion of the christian liberte in thynges indifferent. d. This sentence, both Augustine & Origene doo take to be generally meant of all mens woorkes what so euer they be, whiche proceede not of a right conscience, and an vndoubted fayth, grounded vpon the woord of God.

¶ The xv. Chapter.

Paul sheweth his zeale toward them, &c. and requireth the like of them.

1 WE which are strong, ought to beare the infirmitie of the weake, and not to stand in our owne conceytes.
2 Let euery man please his neyghbour in that that is good to a edifying.
3 For Christe pleased not hym selfe, but as it is written, The rebukes of them whiche rebuked thee, fell on me.
4 For what soeuer thinges haue been written afore time, were written for our learnyng, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures, might haue hope.
5 The God of patience and consolation, * graunt you to be lyke mynded one towardes another, after the ensample of Christe Iesu:
6 That ye al agreeing togeather, may with one mouth prayse God, & the father of our Lorde Iesus Christe.
7 Wherefore, receiue ye one another, as Christe receiued vs, to the glory of God.
8 And I say, that Iesus Christe was a minister of the circumcision for the trueth of God, to confirme the promises made vnto the fathers:
9 And that the Gentiles might glorifie God, for his mercie, as it is written, * For this cause I wyll prayse thee among the Gentiles, and sing vnto thy name.
10 And agayne he sayth, * Reioyce ye Gentiles with his people.
11 And agayne, * Prayse the Lorde all ye Gentiles, and laude him all ye people togeather.
12 And agayne, Esaias sayth, * There shal be the roote of Iesse, and he that shall ryse to raigne ouer the Gentiles, in hym shal the Gentiles trust.
13 The GOD of hope fyll you with all ioy and peace in beleeuing, that ye may be riche in hope, through the power of the holy ghost.
14 I mee selfe am perswaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodnesse, and filled with all knowledge, able also to exhort one another.
15 Neuertheles, brethren, I haue somewhat more boldly written vnto you, as putting you in remembrance through the grace that is geuen to me of God,
16 That I shoulde be the minister of Iesus Christe to the Gentiles, * and should minister the Gospel of God, that the offering of the b Gentiles might be acceptable, and sanctified by the holy ghost.
17 I haue therefore whereof I may reioyce through Christe Iesus, in those thynges which pertayne to God.
18 For I wyll not be bolde to speake of any of those thynges whiche Christe hath not wrought

a. To edifie, signifieth to do all maner of duelies to our neyghbours, eyther to bring him to Christe, or if he be won, that he may go forward to vertue.

d. That is, to cary to ỹ poore saintes that lyued at Hierusalem, the almes that be gathered for them among the Gentiles where he preached. 1.Cor.9.11

26 For it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia, to make a certayne common gatherynge for the poore saintes whiche are at Hierusalem.

27 *It hath pleased them verely, and their debters are they. For yf the Gentiles be made partakers of their spirituall thinges, their duetie is to minister vnto them in carnal thinges.

28 When I haue perfourmed this, & haue e sealed to them this fruite, I wyl come by you into Spayne.

29 And I am sure that when I come vnto you, I shal come with abundance of the blessyng of the Gospel of Christe.

30 I beseeche you brethren for the Lord Iesus Christes sake, and for the loue of the spirite, that ye helpe me in my busines with your prayers to God for me:

31 That I maye be delyuered from them whiche beleeue not in Iurie, and that this my seruice whiche I haue at Hierusalem, may be accepted of the saintes:

32 That I may come vnto you with ioy by the wyll of God, and maye with you be refreshed.

33 The GOD of peace be with you all. Amen.

¶ The.xvi Chapter.

a. A number of salutations. 17. Paul wylleth them to beware of false brethren. 20. He prayeth and geueth thankes for them.

1 I Commende vnto you Phebe our sister, whiche is a minister of the a Churche of Cenchrea:

a. In the primatiue Church auncient wydowes, & other vertuous womē were chosen and appoynted to minister vnto the needie, and therefore called Ministers: and not because they had anye publique authoritie to teache in the congregation. *Actes.18.3.

2 That ye receyue her in the Lorde, as it becommeth saintes, and that ye assyst her in whatsoeuer busines she hath neede of you: For she hath succoured many, and mee selfe also.

3 *Greete Priscilla, and Aquila, my helpers in Christe Iesu:

4 (Which haue for my lyfe laid downe their owne neckes: Unto whom, not only I geue thankes, but also al the Churches of the Gentiles:)

5 Lykewyse greete the Churche that is in their house. Salute my welbeloued Epenetus, whiche is the first fruite of Achaia in Christe.

6 Greete Marie, whiche bestowed muche labour on vs.

7 Salute Andronicus, & Iunia my cosins, and prysoners with me also, which are well taken among the apostles, & were in Christ before me.

8 Greete Amplias my beloued in the Lorde.

9 Salute Urban, our helper in Christe, and Stachys my beloued.

10 Salute Appelles, approoued in Christe. Salute them whiche are of Aristobulus housholde.

11 Salute Herodion my kynsman. Greete them that be of the household of Narcissus, whiche are in the Lorde.

12 Salute Tryphena, and Tryphosa, whiche labour in the Lord. Salute the beloued Persis, whiche laboured muche in the Lorde.

13 Salute Ruphus chosen in the Lorde, and his mother and myne.

14 Greete Asyncritus, Phlegon, Herman, Patrobas, Mercurius, and the brethren whiche are with them.

*2.Co.13.13

15 Salute Philologus, and Julia, Nereus, and his sister, & Olympas, and al the saintes whiche are with them.

b. This was a signe of amitie among ỹ Iewes whiche S. Paul wylleth to be holye, that is, that it come from a mind ful of godly charitie.

17 Nowe I beseech you brethren, c marke them whiche cause diuision, and geue occasions of euyll, contrary to the doctrine whiche ye haue learned, and auoyde them.

c. There are two markes to knowe the false Apostles by, the one is, whē they leane Christe, and serue their bellye. The other, when they regarde not the holye scripture, but preache lyes, and their owne fantasies.

18 For they that are suche, serue not the Lorde Iesus Christe, but their owne belly, and with sweete and flatteryng woordes deceyue the hartes of the innocentes.

19 For your obedience is gone abrode vnto al men, I am gladtherfore on your behalfe: but yet I woulde haue you wyse vnto that which is good, & simple concernyng euyl.

20 The God of peace ſhall treade Satan vnder your feete ſhortly. The grace of our Lord Jeſus Chriſte be with you. Amen.

The firſt Chapter.

1. He prayſeth the great graces of God ſhewed towarde them. 10. Exhorting them to concorde and humilitie.

1 PAUL called to be an apoſtle of Jeſus Chriſte, through the wyll of God, and brother Soſthenes:

2 Unto the Churche of God whiche is at Corinthus, to them that are ſanctified in Chriſte Jeſus, a ſaintes by calling, * with all that call on the name of the Lorde Jeſus Chriſte in euery place, both of theirs and ours:

*Actes.15.9.

a. Made holye by the free mercy and callyng of God.

*Rom.1.17.

The Epiſtle on the. xviii. ſunday after Trinite.

4 I thanke my god alwaies on your behalfe, for the grace of God whiche is geuen you in Jeſus Chriſte,

5 That in all thinges ye are enriched in him, in all vtterance and in al knowledge:

6 As the teſtimonie of Jeſus Chriſte was confirmed in you.

7 So that ye are deſtitute of no gifte, waiting for the appearing of our Lorde Jeſus Chriſte.

b. For there is no condemnation to them that are grafted in Chriſte Ieſus.

*1.Theſſa. 5.24.

8 Which ſhal alſo *ſtrengthen you vnto the ende, that ye may be b blameleſſe in the day of our Lorde Jeſus Chriſte.

9 *God is faithfull, by whom ye haue been called vnto the felowſhip of his ſonne Jeſus Chriſte our Lorde.

10 Nowe I beſeeche you brethren by the name of our Lorde Jeſus Chriſte, that ye al ſpeake one thyng, and that there be no diſſentions among you: but that ye be perfectly ioyned togeather in the ſame minde, and in the ſame meaning.

11 For it hath ben declared vnto me, my brethren, of you, by them whiche are of the houſe of Cloe, that there are contentions among you.

12 This I ſay, that euery one of you ſaith, I am of Paul, and I am of * Apollo, and I am of Cephas, and I am of Chriſte. *Act.18.24.

13 Is Chriſte diuided? was Paul crucified for you? eyther were ye baptiſed in the name of Paul?

14 I thanke God that I baptiſed none of you but * Criſpus and Gaius: *Act.18.28.

15 Leſt any ſhoulde ſay that I had baptiſed in mine owne name.

16 I baptiſed alſo the houſehold of Stephana: Beſides, I know not whether I baptiſed any other.

17 For Chriſte ſent me not to baptiſe, but to preache the Goſpel: * not with wyſedome of c woordes, leſt the croſſe of Chriſte ſhould be made of none effect. *Galat.5.2. 2.Pet.1.16.

c. When men ſhoulde attribute that vnto eloquẽce, whiche only belongeth to the power of God.

18 For the preaching of the croſſe is to them that periſhe, fooliſhneſſe: but vnto vs which are ſaued, * it is the power of God. *Rom.1.16.

19 For it is written, I wyl deſtroy the wyſdome of the wyſe, and wyll caſt away the *vnderſtandyng of the prudent. *Eſa.29.14

20 Where is the wyſe? where is the ſcribe? where is the diſputer of this worlde? hath not God made the wiſedome of this worlde fooliſhe?

21 For after that in the wyſedome of God, the worlde through their wyſedome knewe not not God, it pleased God through foolishnes of preaching, to saue them that beleeue.

22 For *the Iewes requyre a signe, and the Greekes seeke after wysedome. *Math.12. 38.

23 But we preache Christe crucified, vnto the Iewes a stumbling blocke, and vnto the Greekes foolishnesse.

24 But vnto them which are called, both Iewes and Greekes, Christe, the power of God, and the wysedome of God.

25 For the foolishnesse of God is wiser then men: and the weakenesse of God is stronger then men.

26 Brethren, ye see your calling, howe that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mightie, not many noble are called:

27 But God hath chosen the foolishe things of the worlde, to confounde the wyse: and God hath chosen the weake thinges of the worlde, to confounde the thynges whiche are mightie:

28 And vnnoble thinges of the worlde, and thinges which are dispised, hath God chosen, yea and thinges which are not, to bring to nought thinges that are:

29 That no flesh shoulde glory in his presence.

30 And of him are ye in Christ Iesus, which of God is made vnto vs wysedome, and ryghteousnesse, and sanctification, and redemption:

'Iere.9. 23. 31 That according as it is written, He that glorieth, let hym glory in the Lorde.

¶ The.ii.Chapter.

He putteth for an example his maner of preachyng, which was according to the tenor of the Gospel.

1 AND I, brethren, when I came to you, *came not in 'glorioulnesse of wordes, or of wysedome, shewing vnto you the a testimonie of God.

2 For I esteemed not to knowe any thyng among you, saue Iesus Christe, and hym crucified.

3 And I was among you in weakenesse, and in feare, and in muche tremblyng.

'2.Pet.1. 10 4 And my woordes and my preaching 'was not with entising woordes of mans wysedome, but in shewyng of the spirite, and of power:

5 That your fayth should not stande in the wysedome of men, but in the power of God.

6 And we speake wysedome among them that are perfect: not the wysedome of this world, neither of the princes of this world, which come to nought:

7 But we speake the wysedome of God in a mysterie: euen the hydde wysedome whiche God ordeyned before the worlde, vnto our glory.

8 Which none of the princes of this worlde knewe: for had they knowen it, they would not haue crucified the Lorde of glory.

9 But as it is written, *The eye hath not seene, and the eare hath not heard, neyther haue entred into the hart of man, the thinges whiche GOD hath prepared for them that loue hym. *Esai.64.4

10 But God hath reuealed them vnto vs by his spirite: for the spirite searcheth all thinges, yea the deepe thinges of God.

11 For what man knoweth the thinges of a man, saue the b spirite of man which is in hym? Euen so the thinges of God knoweth no man, but the spirite of God. b. Mans mind, which vnderstandeth and iudgeth.

12 And we haue not receyued the spirite of the world, but the spirite which is of God, that we might knowe the thinges that are geuen to vs of God.

13 *Which thinges also we speake, not in the woordes whiche mans wysedome teacheth, but whiche the holy ghost teacheth: comparyng spiritual thinges with spirituall thinges. *2.Pet.1. 16

14 But the natural man perceyueth not the thinges of the spirite of God, for they are foolishnesse vnto him: Neither can he knowe them because they are spiritually discerned.

15 *But he that is spiritual, discerneth all thynges, yet he hym selfe is iudged of no man. *Pro.27. 19 16 *For who hath knowen the mynde of the Lorde, that he might instruct hym? But we haue c the minde of Christe. *Rom.11.34 Esai. 40. 13 c. That is, Christes spirit.

¶ The.iii.Chapter.

3. Paul rebuketh the sectes and authours thereof. 13. Christe is the fundation of the Churche.

1 AND I coulde not speake vnto you brethren, as vnto spiritual, but as vnto carnal, euen as vnto a babes in Christ. a. Being ingrafted in Christe by faith, we begin to mone by his spirite: and as we profite in fayth, we growe vp to a ripe age. And here let hym take heede that teacheth, lest for mylke he geue poyson. For mylke and strong meate in effect are one, but onely differ in maner and fourme.

2 I haue nourished you with mylke, and not with meate: for ye then were not strong, neyther are ye as yet.

3 For ye are yet carnal: Seeyng then there is among you enuiyng, and strife, & sectes, are ye not carnal, and walke as men?

4 For whyle one sayth, I am of Paul, and another, I am of Apollo, are ye not carnall?

5 For what is Paul? what is Apollo? But ministers by whom ye beleeued, euen as the Lorde gaue to euery man.

6 I haue planted, Apollo watered: but God gaue the encrease.

7 So then, neyther is he that planteth any thing: neyther he that watereth: but God that geueth the encrease.

8 He that planteth, and he that watereth, are one: *and euery man shall receyue his rewarde according to his labour.

9 For we togeather are Gods labourers, ye are Gods husbandrie, ye are Gods buyldyng.

10 According to the grace of God which is geuen vnto me, as a wyse maister buylder haue I layde the fundation, and another buyldeth thereon. But let euery man b take heede howe he buyldeth vpon.

11 For other fundation can no man lay then that is layde, which is Iesus Christe.

12 If any man buylde on this fundation, golde, syluer, precious stones, timber, hay, or stubble:

13 Euery mans woorke shalbe made manifest. The day shal declare it, because it shal be reuealed by the fyre, and the fyre shal trie euery mans woorke what it is.

14 If any mans woorke that he hath buylt vpon abide, he shal receyue a rewarde.

15 If any mans woorke burne, he shal suffer losse, but he shalbe safe hym selfe: yet as it vvere through fyre.

16 *Knowe ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the spirite of God dwelleth in you?

17 If any man *defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy: for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.

18 Let no man deceyue him selfe: If any man among you seeme to him selfe to be wise in this worlde, let him become a foole, that he may be wyse.

19 For the wisedome of this worlde, is foolishnesse with God: for it is written, *He compasseth the wise in c their owne craftinesse.

20 And agayne, The Lorde knoweth the thoughtes of the wyse, that they be vayne.

21 Therefore let no man glory in d men, for al thynges are yours:

22 Whether Paul, or Apollo, or Cephas, eyther the worlde, either lyfe, or death, whether thinges present, or thynges to come, al are yours:

23 But ye are Christes, and Christ is Gods.

¶ The.iij. Chapter.

1. After that he had described the office of a true apostle, 3. seeyng they dyd not acknowledge hym suche one, 4. he appealeth to Gods iudgement.

The Epistle on the third sunday in Aduent.

1 LEt a man so esteeme of vs as the ministers of Christ, and dispolers of the secretes of God.

2 Furthermore, it is requyred in the dispolers, that a man be founde faythful.

3 With me it is but a very smal thyng that I shoulde be iudged of you, eyther of mans iudgement: yea, I iudge not a mine owne selfe.

4 For I knowe nothing by mee selfe, yet am I not thereby iustified: but he that iudgeth me, is the Lorde.

5 *Therefore iudge nothing before the time, vntyl the Lorde come, who wyl lyghten the hidden thinges of darkenesse, and open the counsels of the hartes: and then shall euery man haue prayse of God.

6 And these thynges brethren, I haue figuratiuely applied vnto mee selfe and to Apollos, for your sakes: that ye might learne by vs, not to be wyse aboue that whiche is written, that you swel not one agaynst another for any mans cause.

7 For who b separateth thee? And what hast thou that thou hast not receyued? If thou hast receyued it, why doest thou glory as though thou hadst not receyued it?

8 Nowe ye are ful, nowe ye are ryche, ye haue raigned as kynges without vs, and I woulde to God ye did raigne, that we also might raigne with you.

9 For me thinketh that God hath set foorth vs which are the last apostles, as it were men appointed to death. For we are made a gasing stocke vnto the worlde, and to angels, and to men.

10 We are e fooles for Christes sake, but ye are wyse in Christ. We are weake, but ye are strong: Ye are honourable, but we are dispised.

11 Euen vnto this *tyme we both hunger and thirste, and are naked, and are buffeted, and haue no certayne dwelling place,

12 *And labour, woorking with our owne handes: being reuiled, we blesse: beyng persecuted, we suffer it:

13 *Being defamed, we pray: we are made as the fylthinesse of the worlde, and are the ofscouryng of al thinges vnto this day.

14 I write not these thynges to shame you, but as my beloued sonnes I warne you.

15 For though ye haue ten thousande instructours in Christe, yet haue ye not many fathers: For in Christe Iesus I haue begotten you through the Gospel.

16 Wherefore I desyre you, be ye folowers of me.

17 For this cause haue I sent vnto you Timotheus, which is my beloued sonne, and faythful in the Lorde, who shal put you in remembrance of my wayes whiche be in Christ, as I teach euery where in al Churches.

a. Whether I haue great gyftes or litle, fewe or many.

¶ The. v. Chapter.

1. He reproueth sharply their negligence in punishyng hym that had committed incest, 3. wyllyng them to excommunicate hym, 7. to imbrace puritie, 9. and flee vncleanesse.

1 There goeth a common saying, that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not named among the a Gentiles: that one shoulde haue his fathers wyfe.

a Who would thinke that you would suffer the mischeefe vnpunyshed, which the moste barbarous nations abhorre to speake of. *Col.2.5.

2 And ye are puffed vp, and haue not rather sorowed, that he that hath done this deede, myght be taken away from among you.

3 *For I veryly, as absent in body, but present in spirite, haue determined alredy, as though I were present, that he that hath so doone this deede,

4 In the name of our Lorde Jesus Christe, you being gathered together, and my spirite with you, with the power of the Lorde Jesus Christe,

*1.Ti.1.20. 5 *To delyuer such a one vnto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirite may be saued in the day of the Lorde Jesus.

b. Seeyng you suffer suche monstruous vices vnpunished *Galat.5.9. 6 Your glorying is not b good. Knowe ye not that a litle leauen leaueneth the whole lumpe?

'Or, is flayne. 7 Purge out therefore the olde leauen, that ye may be a newe lumpe, as ye are vnleauened. For euen Christe our Passeouer is 'offered vp for vs.

8 Therefore let vs keepe holy day, not with olde leauen, neyther with the leauen of malitiousnesse and wickednesse: but with the vnleauened bread of pureneſse and trueth.

9 I wrote vnto you in an Epistle, that ye shoulde not company with fornicatours.

10 I dyd not meane not at all with the fornicatours of this woorlde, or with the couetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters: for then must ye needes haue gone out of the woorld.

11 But nowe this I wryte vnto you, not to companie together, yf any that is called a brother be a fornicatour, or couetous, or a woorshypper of idols, or a rayler, or a dronkarde, or an extortioner: with hym that is suche, not to eate.

12 For what haue I to doo to iudge them that are without? doo not ye iudge them that are within?

13 Them that are without, God shal iudge. And ye shal put away from among you that wicked person.

¶ The. vi Chapter.

7. Christians ought rather to suffer. 12. He reproueth the abusing of Christian libertie, 15. and sheweth that we ought to serue God purely, both in body and soule.

1 Dare any of you, hauing busines 'with another, be iudged vnder the a vniust, and not rather vnder the saintes?

'Or, against. a. He calleth them vniust, whosoeuer are not sanctified in Christe.

2 Doo ye not knowe that the saintes shall iudge the woorlde? Yf the woorlde shalbe iudged by you, are ye vnworthie to iudge the smallest matters?

3 Knowe ye not howe that we shal iudge the angels? Howe muche more, thynges that partayne to this lyfe?

4 Yf then ye haue iudgement of thynges partayning to this lyfe, set vp them to iudge whiche are least esteemed in the Churche.

5 I speake it to your shame. Is it so that there is not a wyse man among you? no not one that shalbe able to iudge betweene his brethren?

6 But brother goeth to lawe with brother, and that vnder the vnbeleeuers?

'Or, wrong. *Mat.5.39. Luke.6.29. Rom.12.19. *1.The.4.6 7 Nowe therefore, there is vtterly a 'fault among you, because ye goe to law one with another: *why rather suffer ye not wrong? why rather suffer ye not harme?

8 Nay, *ye your selues doo wrong, and doo harme, and that to your brethren.

9 Knowe ye not that the vnrighteous shall not inherite the kyngdome of God? Be not deceyued, neyther fornicatours, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of them selues with mankynde, 10 Nor theeues, nor couetous, nor dronkardes, nor reuylers, nor 'pyllers, shal inherite the kyngdome of God.

'Or, extortioners. *Titus.3.3. 11 *And some suche lyke you were: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are iustified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the spirite of our God.

12 All thinges are lawfull vnto me, but all thynges are not profitable: all thynges are lawful for me, but I wyll not be brought vnder the b power of any.

b. For we are subiect to those thynges which we can not wāt c. They abused meates both in that they offended other thereby, and also prouoked their owne lustes to vncleanesse. *Rom.6.5.

13 Meates for the belly, & the belly for meates: but God shal destroy both it and them. Nowe the body is not for c fornication, but for the Lord: and the Lord for the body.

14 And God both hath rayled vp the Lord, *and also shall rayse vs vp by his power.

15 Knowe ye not that your bodyes are the members of Christ? Shall I then take the members of Christe, and make them the members of an harlot? God forbyd.

16 What, knowe ye not that he whiche is coupled with an harlot, is one body? * For two (sayth he) shalbe one flesshe.

17 But he that is coupled vnto the Lorde, is one spirite.

18 Flee fornication. Euery sinne that a man doeth, is without the body: but he that committeth fornication, sinneth against his owne body.

19 What, * knowe ye not that your body is the temple of the holy ghost which is in you, whom ye haue of God, and ye are not d your owne?

¶ The.vij. Chapter.

The Apostle answeareth to certayne questions which the Corinthians desired to knowe.

1 NOwe as concerning the thinges whereof ye wrote vnto me: It is a good for a man not to touche a woman.

2 Neuertheles, to auoyde fornication, let euery man haue his owne wyfe, & let euery woman haue her owne husbande.

3 * Let the husband geue vnto the wyfe due benevolence: Lykewyse also the wyfe vnto the husbande.

4 The wife hath not the power of her owne body, but the husbande: And lykewyle also the husbande hath not the power of his owne body, but the wyfe.

5 Defraud you not the one the other, except it be with both your consentes for a tyme, that ye may geue your selues to fastyng and prayer: and afterwarde come together agayne, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinencie.

6 This I say * of fauour, and b not of commaundement.

7 For I would that all men were euen as I mee selfe: but euery man hath his proper gyft of God, one after this maner, another after that.

8 I say therfore to the vnmarried and wyddowes, it is good for them yf they abyde euen as I:

9 But yf they can not abstayne, let them marrie: for it is better to marrie then to burne.

10 Vnto the married commaunde, not I, but the Lorde, * Let not the wyfe departe from her husbande:

11 But and yf she departe, let her remayne vnmarried, or be reconciled to her husband agayne: And let not the husbande put away his wyfe.

12 But to the remnant speake I, not the Lorde, Yf any brother haue a wyfe that beleeueth not, and she consent to dwell with hym, let hym not put her away.

13 And the woman whiche hath to her husbande an infidell, and he consent to dwell with her, let her not put hym away.

14 For the vnbeleeuyng husbande is sanctified by the wyfe, and the vnbeleeuyng wyfe is sanctified by the husbande: els were your chyldren vncleane, but nowe are they c holy.

15 But yf the vnbeleeuyng departe, let hym departe. A brother or a syster is not made subiect in suche thynges but God hath called vs in peace.

16 For howe knowest thou, O woman, whether thou shalt saue thy husbande? or howe knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt saue thy wyfe?

17 But as God hath distributed to euery man, as the Lorde hath called euery one, so let him walke, and so ordeine I in al Churches.

18 Is any man called beyng circumcised? let hym not adde vncircumcision: Is any called in vncircumcision, let hym not be circumcised.

19 Circumcision is nothing, and vncircumcision is nothyng, but the keepyng of the commaundementes of God.

20 Let euery man abyde in the same calyng wherein he was called. * Ephe.4.1.

21 Art thou called a seruaunt? care not for it: neuertheles, yf thou mayest be made free, vse it rather.

22 For he that is called in the Lorde beyng a seruaunt, is the Lordes free man: lykewise also he that is called beyng free, is Christes seruaunt.

23 * Ye are bought with a price, be not ye the seruauntes of men. * 1.Pe.1.20 24 Brethren, let euery man wherein he is called, therein abyde d with God.

25 Nowe concernyng virgins, I haue no commaundement of the Lorde: yet geue I counsel as one that hath obteyned mercie of the Lorde to be faythful.

26 I suppose therfore that it is good for the present necessitie, that I say, it is good for a man so to be.

27 Art thou bounde vnto a wyfe? seeke not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wyfe? seeke not a wyfe.

28 But & yf thou marry, thou hast not sinned, and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned: neuertheless, such shal haue trouble in the

a. Or expedient, because marriage through mans corruption, and not by gods institutiō, bryngeth cares and troubles.
* 1.Pet.3.7.
* or, by way of sufferance.
b. He sheweth that he cōmandeth not precisely to marry, but that GOD hath graunted this remedye vnto them whiche can not lyue chaste.
* Mat.5.32. and.19.9.
c. They that are borne of eyther of the parentes faithfull, are also counted members of Christes Churche, because of the Promyse.
d. Or, sincerely, as in the presence of God.

the flesshe: but "I beare with you.

"Or, spare you.

29 But this say I brethren, because the time is short: it remayneth that they also whiche haue wyues, be as though they had none:

30 And they that weepe, as though they wept not: and they that reioyce, as though they reioyced not: and they that buye, as though they possessed not:

31 And they that vse this worlde, as not abusing it: for the fashion of this world goeth away.

32 I would haue you without care. He that is vnmaryed, careth for the thynges that belong to the Lorde, howe he may please the Lorde:

33 But he that hath maryed, careth for the thinges that are of the world, howe he may please his wyfe.

34 There is difference betweene a virgin and a wyfe: the vnmaryed woman careth for the thinges that are of the Lorde, that she may be holy both in body and in spirite: but she that is maryed, careth for the thinges that parteyne to the worlde, howe she may please her husbande.

35 This speake I for your profite: not that I may cast a snare vpon you, but for comlinesse sake, and sitting fast vnto the Lorde without separation.

36 But if any man thinke that it is vncomely for his virgin if she passe the tyme of maryage, [a] and needs so require, let him doo what he wyl, he sinneth not: let them be maryed.

a. That is, that she should marrie to auoyde fornication.

37 Neuertheless, he that standeth stedfast in his hart, hauing no neede, but hath power ouer his owne wyl, and hath so decreed in his hart that he wyl keepe his virgin, doeth wel.

38 So then he that geueth in maryage doeth wel: but he that geueth not in maryage, doeth better.

"Rom.7.1. "Or, by the lawe of maryage.

39 *The wyfe is bound to the "lawe as long as her husbande lyueth: but if her husbande be dead, she is at libertie to be maryed to whom she wyl, onely in the Lorde.

40 But she is happier if she so abide, after my iudgement: 'and I thinke verely that I haue the spirite of God.

'1.Thes.4.8

¶ The.viii. Chapter.

He rebuketh them that vse theyr libertie to the slaunder of other, in goyng to the idolatrous sacrifices.

1 AS touching things offered vnto idols, we knowe that we all haue knowledge. Knowledge maketh a man swel: but charitie edifieth.

2 If any man thynke that he knoweth any thyng, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to knowe.

3 But if any man loue GOD, the same is "knowen of hym.

"Or, taught.

4 As concernyng therefore the eatyng of those thynges that are offered in sacrifice vnto idols, we knowe that an idol is nothyng in the worlde, and that there is none other God but one.

5 And though there be that are called gods, whether in heauen or in earth (as there be gods many, and [a] lordes many:)

a. Which being idols, yet are esteemed of men, as Lordes & Seigneours.

6 Yet vnto vs is there but one God, vviche is the father, of whom are al thinges, and we in him, *and one Lorde Iesus Christe, by whom are al thynges, and we by hym.

*John.13.13 1.Cor.12.3.

7 But there is not in euery man that knowled: for some hauing conscience of the idol vnto this houre, eate as a thyng offered vnto idols, and theyr conscience, being weake, is defyled.

8 But meate doeth not commende to God: For neyther if we eate, haue we the more: neither if we eate not, haue we the lesse.

9 But take heede lest by any meanes this liberty of yours become a stumbling to them that are weake.

10 For if any man see thee which hast knowledge, sit at meate in the idols temple: shal not the conscience of him which is weake, be [b] boldened to eate those thinges whiche are offered to idols,

b. By thine example, without any grounde of doctrine.

11 And thyrough thy knowledge shall the [c] weake brother perishe, for whom Christ dyed?

c. Whiche eateth against his conscience.

12 But when ye sinne so agaynst the brethren, and wounde theyr weake conscience, ye sinne agaynst Christe.

13 Wherefore, *if meate offend my brother, I wyl eate no flesshe whyle the worlde standeth, lest I shoulde offende my brother.

*Rom.14.21

¶ The.ix. Chapter.

He exhorteth them by his example to vse theyr libertie to the edification of others.

1 AM I not an apostle? am I not free? haue I not seene Iesus Christe our Lorde? Are not ye my worke in the Lorde?

2 If I be not an apostle vnto other, yet doubtlesse am I vnto you: for the [a] seale of mine apostleshyp are ye in the Lorde.

a. I neede no further declaration, but the woorkes that I haue wrought among you.

3 Mine answeare to them that aske me, is this.

4 Haue we not power to eate and to drynke?

5 Haue we not power to leade about a
b. Or a sister a wyfe. Saint Paul vseth none other woorde to expresse a wyfe then γυνὴ. valla, what needeth it to adde a woman, where was premised a sister? Wherefore I thinke (sayth he) it ought to be translated a wyfe. specially because it is expressed in ỹ singuler number γυναῖκα. The olde translation printed, transposeth the wordes saying, Mulierem sororem, where the most olde written copies constantly haue. sororem mulierem. as al the Greeke copies ἀδελφὴν γυναῖκα.
b sister a woman, aswel as other apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord & Cephas?
6 Is the libertie of not labouring *taken from me and Barnabas onely?
7 Who goeth a warfare any time at his owne cost? who planteth a vineyarde, and eateth not of the fruite thereof? or who feedeth a flocke, and eateth not of the mylke of the flocke?
8 Say I these thinges after the maner of men? or sayth not the lawe the same also?
9 For it is written in the lawe of Moses, Thou shalt not muosel the mouth of the oxe that treadeth out the corne. Doeth God take care for oxen?
10 Eyther sayth he it not altogether for our sakes? For our sakes no doubt this is written: that he which eareth, should eare in hope: and that he whiche threshyth in hope, shoulde be partaker of his hope.
11 If we haue sowen vnto you spirituall thinges, is it a great thyng if we shal reape your carnal thynges?
12 If others be partaker of their power ouer you, wherefore are not we rather? Neuertheless, we haue not vsed this power: but suffer al thinges, lest we shoulde hinder the Gospel of Christe.
13 Doo ye not knowe that they whiche minister about holy thinges, eate of the thinges of the temple? and they which wayte at the aulter, are partakers with the aulter?
14 Euen so hath the Lorde ordeyned, that they which preache the Gospel, should lyue of the Gospel.
15 But I haue vsed none of these thynges. Neuertheless, I wrote not these thynges, that it shoulde be so done vnto me: For it were better for me to dye, then that any man shoulde make my *reioycing vayne.
16 For if I doo preache the Gospel, I haue nothing to reioyce of for necessitie is layde vpon me. But wo is vnto me if I preache not the Gospel.
17 For if I doo this thing with a good wyl, I haue a rewarde: but if agaynst my wyl, the c dispensation is committed vnto me.
18 What is my rewarde then? Verely that when I preache the Gospel, I may make the Gospel of Christe free, that I misuse not mine authoritie in the Gospel.
19 For though I be free from all men, yet haue I made mee selfe seruant vnto all men, that I might winne the more.
20 Vnto the Iewes, I became as a Iewe, that I might winne the Iewes: to them that are vnder the lawe, as vnder the lawe, that I might winne them that are vnder the lawe:
21 To them that are without lawe, as without lawe (when I was not without lawe as parteyning to the lawe of God, but was in the lawe of Christ) that I might winne them that are without lawe.
22 To the weake became I as weake, that I might winne the weake: I am made all thinges to al men, that I might by al meanes saue some.
23 And this I doo for the Gospels sake, that I might be partaker thereof.
24 Knowe ye not, that they which runne in a race, runne al, but one receyueth the rewarde? So runne, that ye may obteyne. The Epistle on Septuagesima Sunday.
25 Euery man that prooueth maisteries, absteyneth from al thinges: and they doo it to obteyne a corruptible crowne, but we to obteyne an incorruptible crowne.
26 I therefore so runne, not as at an vncertayne thyng: so fyght I, not as one that beateth the ayre:
27 But I tame my d body, and bryng it into subiection: lest by any meanes that when I haue preached to other, I mee selfe shoulde be a cast away. d. Lest I shoulde be reproued of men when they shoulde see him doo contrarie, or contemne that thing whiche he taught other to doo.

¶ The.v. Chapter.

1. He feareth them with the examples of the Iewes, that they put not their trust carnally in the graces of God, 14. exhorting them to flee al idolatrie, 23. and offence of their neyghbour.

1 BRethren, I woulde not that ye shoulde be ignorant, howe that al our fathers were vnder the cloude, and all passed through the sea: The Epistle on the. ix. Sunday after trinitie.
2 And were al baptised *vnto Moses in the cloude, and in the sea:
3 And dyd all eate of the same a spirituall meate:
4 And did al drynke of the same spirituall drinke: (For they dranke of that spirituall rocke that folowed them: and that rocke was b Christe.)
5 But in many of them had God no delight: for they were ouerthrowen in the wyldernesse.
6 These thinges verely are our ensamples, that we shoulde not be lusters after euyll thynges, as they also lusted.
7 Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them, as it is written, *The people sate downe to eate & drinke, and rose vp to play.
8 Neither let vs commit fornication, as some of them committed *fornication, and fel in one day three and twentie thousande.
9 Neither let vs tempt Christe, as some of them tempted, and were destroyed of Serpentes.
10 Neyther murmure ye as some of them murmured,

*vvith the bandes.

*Or, boasting.

*Or, boast of.

murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer.

11 All these thynges happened vnto them for ensamples: but they are written e for our admonition, vpon whom the endes of the worlde are come.

e. Howe God will plague vs, if we be subiect to the like vices.

12 Wherfore, let hym that thinketh he standeth, take heede lest he fal.

13 There hath no temptation taken you, but such as foloweth the nature of man: but God is faythfull, whiche shal not suffer you to be tempted aboue that you are able: but shal with the temptation make away to escape, that ye may be able to beare it.

14 Wherfore my dearely beloued, flee from idolatrie.

15 I speake as vnto them whiche haue discretion: iudge ye what I say.

16 The cuppe of blessyng whiche we blesse, is it not the partakyng of the blood of Christe? The bread whiche we breake, is it not the partaking of the body of Christe?

17 For we that are many, are one bread, and one body, in as muche as we all are partakers of one bread.

18 Beholde Israel viche is after the flesshe: are not they whiche eate of the sacrifices, partakers of the aulter?

19 What say I then? that the idoll is any thyng? or that it whiche is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thyng?

20 But this I say that the thynges which the Gentiles offer in sacrifice, they offer to deuyls, and not to GOD: And I woulde not that ye should haue d felowshyp with the deuylles.

d. Whiche is to assemble in that companie, where idols are called vpon.

21 Ye can not drynke the cuppe of the Lord, and the cup of deuyls: Ye can not be partakers of the Lordes table, and of the table of deuylles.

22 Eyther doo we pronoke the Lorde to anger? What, are we stronger then he?

*Eccl.37.31 23 *All thynges are lawefull for me, but all thynges are not expedient: All thinges are lawful for me, but al thinges edifie not.

24 Let no man seeke his owne: but euery man anothers vvealth.

*or, in the market of victuals. 25 Whatsoeuer is solde in the* market, that eate, asking no question for conscience sake.

*Psal.24.1. 26 For *the earth is the Lordes, and the plentie thereof.

27 If any of them whiche beleeue not, byd you to a feast & ye be disposed to goe, whatsoeuer is set before you, eate, asking no question for conscience sake.

28 But yf any man say vnto you, This is offered in sacrifice vnto idols, eate not for his sake that shewed it, and for conscience sake. The earth is the Lordes, and the plentie thereof.

29 Conscience I say, not of thine owne selfe, but of the other: For why is my e libertie iudged of an other mans conscience?

e, We must take heede that through our abuse, our libertie be not condemned.

30 For, yf I by Gods benefite may be partaker of the gyftes of God, why am I euyl spoken of, for that wherefore I geue thankes?

31 *Whether therefore ye eate or drinke, or whatsoeuer ye doo, doo all to the glorye of God.

*Coloss.3.7.

32 See that ye geue none offence, neyther to the Iewes, nor yet to the Grecians, neyther to the Churche of God.

33 Euen as I please all men in all thinges, not seeking myne owne profite, but the profite of many, that they may be saued.

¶ The. xi. Chapter.

He rebuketh the abuses vvhiche vvere crept into their Churche, 4. as touching prayer, or prophesying, 18. and ministring the Lordes supper, 23. bringing them agayne to the first institution thereof.

1 BE *ye folowers of me, euen as I am of Christe.

*2.Thes.3.9

2 I commende you brethren, that ye remember al my *thinges, and keepe the ordinaunces, as I delyuered them to you.

*or, preachinges

3 *But I wyl that ye knowe, that Christe is the head of euery man: and the man is the womans head, and God is Christes head.

*Ephe.5.23.

4 Euery man praying or prophesying, hauyng any thyng on his head, shameth his head.

5 But euery woman that prayeth or prophesieth bare headed, dishonesteth her head, for that is euen all one as yf she were shauen.

6 If the woman be not couered, let her also be shorne: yf it be a shame for a woman to be shorne, or shauen, let her be couered.

7 A man ought not to couer his head, *for as muche as he is the image and glory of god: but the woman is the glory of the man.

*Gene.1.26. Coloss.3.10.

8 For the man is not of the woman: but the woman of the man.

9 *Neyther was the man created for the woman: but the woman for the man.

*Gene.2.23.

10 For this cause ought the woman to haue a power on her head, for the angels sake.

a. Some thing to couer her head in signe of subiection.

11 Neuertheless, neyther is the man without the woman, neyther the woman without the man, in the Lorde.

12 For as the woman is of the man, euen so is the man also by the woman, but all thinges of God.

13 Iudge in your selues, whether it be comely that a woman pray vnto GOD bare headed.

14 Doth not nature it selfe teach you, that it is a shame for a man, if he haue long heare?

15 But

15 But yf a woman haue long heare, it is a prayse for her: for her heare is geuen her for a couerynge.

16 Yf any man lust to stryue, we haue no suche custome, neither the churches of God.

The Epistle on Thursday next before Easter.

17 This I warne you of, and commend not, that ye come together for the better, but for the woorse.

18 For fyrst of al, when ye come together in the churche, I heare that there be dissentions among you, and I partly beleeue it.

19 For there must be also heresies among you, that they which are "approoued among you, myght be knowen.

"Or, tryed.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, "you can not eate the Lordes supper:

Or, this is not to eate.

21 For euery one preuenteth other, in eating his owne supper: and one is hungrie, and another is dronken.

22 What, haue ye not houses to eate and to drynke in? Or dispise ye the church of God, and shame them that haue not? What shall I say vnto you, shal I prayse you? in this I prayse you not.

23 That which I delyuered vnto you, I receiued of the Lord, that the Lorde Iesus the same nyght in the whiche he was betrayed, tooke bread:

24 And when he had geuen thankes, he brake it, and sayd, * Take ye, eate ye, this is my body whiche is broken for you: this doo ye in the remembrance of me.

*Mat.20.26 Mar.14.22. Luke.22.17.

25 After the same maner also he tooke the cuppe when he had supped, saying, This cuppe is the newe Testament in my blood: this doo ye, as oft as ye drynke it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as ye eate this bread, and drynke this cuppe, ye doo shewe the Lordes death tyl he come.

27 Wherefore, who so euer shall eate this bread, and drynke this cuppe of the Lorde b vnworthyly, shalbe giltie of the body and blood of the Lorde.

b. By peruerting the true & pure vse of the same.

28 * But let a man examine hym selfe, and so let hym eate of this bread, and drynke of this cuppe.

*2. Cor.13.1.

29 For he that eateth and drinketh vnworthyly, eateth and drynketh damnation vnto hym c selfe, making no difference of the Lordes body.

c. But as though these holy mysteries of the Lordes body and blood were common meates so with out reuerence he commeth vnto them.

30 For this cause many are weake and sicke among you, and many sleepe.

31 For yf we woulde iudge our selues, we shoulde not be "iudged.

"Or, punyshed.

32 But when we are "iudged, we are "chastened of the Lorde, that we shoulde not be damned with the worlde.

"Or, punyshed, "Or, instructed.

33 Wherefore my brethren, when ye come together to eate, tarry one for another.

34 Yf any man hunger, let hym eate at home, that ye come not together vnto condemnation. The rest wyll I set in order when I come.

¶ The.xii Chapter.

1. The diuersitie of the gyftes of the holy ghost, ought to be vsed to the edifiyng of Christes Churche, 12. as the members of man body serue to the vse one of another.

1 COncerning spiritual gyftes brethren, I woulde not haue you ignorant.

The Epistle on the fourth Sunday after Trinitie.

2 Ye knowe that ye were Gentiles, caried away vnto dumbe idolles, euen as ye were a led.

a. By Satans suggestion.

3 Wherefore I declare vnto you, that * no man speaking by the spirite of God "defyeth Iesus: * also no man can say "that Iesus is the Lorde, but by the holy ghost.

*Mar.9.39. Or, calleth Iesus accursed. *John.13.13 Philip.2.10 "some reade the Lord Iesus.

4 There are diuersities of gyftes, but it is the selfe same spirite.

5 And there are differences of administrations, but it is the selfe same Lorde.

6 And there are diuers maners of operations, but it is the selfe same GOD, whiche woorketh al in al.

7 The manifestation of the spirite, is geuen to euery man to profite withall:

8 For to one is geuen by the spirite the word of wysedome, to another the woorde of knowledge by the same spirite:

9 To another is geuen fayth by the same spirite, to another the gyft of healyng by the same spirite:

10 To another power to doo miracles, to another b prophesie, to another discerning of spirites, to another diuers kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues.

b. Meaning the declaration of gods mysteries.

11 * But these all woorketh euen that one and the selfe same spirite, diuiding to euery man seuerally euen as he wyl.

*Rom.12.3. Ephe.4.8.

12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and al the members of that one body, beyng many, are one body: euen so is Christe also.

13 For by one spirite are we al baptised into one body, whether we be Iewes or Gentiles, whether we be bonde or free: and haue al dronke of one spirite.

14 For the body is not one member, but many.

15 Yf the foote doo say, Because I am not the hande, I am not of the body: is it therefore not of the body?

16 And yf the eare doo say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body: is it therefore not of the body?

17 Yf al the body were an eye, where were then the hearyng? Yf all were hearyng, where where were the smelling?

18 But nowe hath God set the members, euery one of them seuerall in the body, as it hath pleased him.
19 If they were all one member, where were the body?
20 Nowe are there many members, yet but one body?
21 And the eye can not say vnto the hand, I haue no neede of thee: nor agayne, the head to the feete, I haue no neede of you.
22 Yea rather a great deale those members of the body which seeme to be more c feeble, are necessarie.
23 And vpon those members of the body which we thinke to be lesse honourable, we owe d more honour: and our vncomely partes haue more comelinesse.
24 For our comely members neede it not: but God hath tempered the body togeather, hauing geuen the more honour to that part which lacked,
25 That there shoulde be no strife in the body: but that the members shoulde haue the same care one for another.
26 And yf one member suffer, all the members suffer with it. If one member be honoured, all the members reioyce with it.
27 Ye are the body of Christe, and members e in part.
28 "And God hath ordeyned some in the Churche, first Apostles, secondarily Prophetes, thirdly Teachers, then them that doo myracles: after that, the giftes of healyng, helpers, gouernours, "diuersities of tongues.
29 Are all, Apostles? are all, Prophetes, are all, Teachers? are all doers of myracles?
30 Haue all the giftes of healing? doo all speake with tongues? doo all interprete?
31 Couet after the best giftes: And yet shewe I vnto you a more excellent way.

c Whose vse semeth to be more vyle.

d We are more carefull to couer them.

e That is, euery one is a member of the body of Christe for his part.

"Ephes.4.11

"Or, kindes.

¶ The xiii. Chapter.

Because loue is the fountayne and rule of edifying the Churche, he setteth foorth the nature, office, and prayse thereof.

The Epistle on Quinquagesima sunday.

1 THough I speake with the tongues of men, and of a angels, and haue not charitie, I am as soundyng brasse, or a tinckling Cymbale.
a. If the angels had tongues, and I had the vse thereof, and did not bestow them to profite my neyghbour, it were nothing but vayne babbling.
2 And though I haue prophesie, and vnderstand all secretes, and all knowledge: yea yf I haue all fayth, so that I can remoue mountaynes, and haue not charitie, I am nothyng.
3 And though I bestowe all my goodes to feede the poore, and though I geue my body that I shoulde be burned, and haue not charitie, it profiteth me nothing.
4 Charitie suffereth long, and is curteous: Charitie enuieth not, charitie doeth not frowardly, "swelleth not,
5 Dealeth not dishonestly, seeketh not her owne, is not bytter, thinketh not euyll,
6 Reioyceth not in iniquitie, but reioyceth in the trueth:
7 Suffereth all things, beleeueth al things, hopeth all thinges, endureth all thinges.
8 Though that prophesiynges fayle, eyther tongues cease, or knowledge vanishe away, yet charitie falleth neuer away.
9 For our knowledge is "vnperfect, and our prophesiyng is vnperfect:
10 But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is vnperfect shalbe done away.
11 When I was a chylde, I spake as a chylde, I vnderstoode as a chylde, I imagined as a chylde: but as soone as I was a man, I put away chyldishnesse.
12 Now we see in a b glasse, euen in a darke speakyng: but then shall we see face to face. Nowe I knowe vnperfectly: but then shal I knowe, euen as I am knowen.
13 Nowe abideth fayth, hope, and charitie, these three, but ỹ cheefe of these is charitie.

"Or, swelleth not vp.

"Or, in part.

b. The mysteries of God.

¶ The xiiii. Chapter.

1. He exhorteth to charitie, commendeth the gift of tongues, and other spirituall giftes. 5. But cheefely prophesiyng.

1 FOlowe after charitie, and couet spirituall giftes: but most cheefely that ye may prophesie.
2 For he that speaketh with an vnknowen tongue, speaketh not vnto men, but vnto God: For no man a heareth him: Howbeit, in the spirite he speaketh mysteries.
3 But he that prophesieth, speaketh vnto men to edifiyng, and exhortation, and comfort.
4 He that speaketh with an vnknowen tongue, edifieth hym selfe: but he that prophecieth, edifieth the Church.
5 I would that ye all spake with b tongues, but rather that ye prophesied: For greater is he that prophesieth, then he that speaketh with tongues, except he expound it, that the Church may receiue edifying.
6 Nowe bretheren, yf I come vnto you speakyng with tongues, what shall I profite you, except I shall speake to you eyther by reuelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesiyng, or by doctrine?
7 And euen thinges without lyfe, geuing sound, whether it be a pipe, or an harpe, except they geue a distinction in the sounde,

a. Vnderstandeth hym.

b. Tongue, in this place and such lyke, signifieth not the instrument that we speake with, but proprietie of some language that the hearer vnderstandeth not without an interpreter.

howe

howe ſhall it be knowen what is piped or harped?
8 For yf the Trumpe geue an vncertayne ſound, who ſhalbe prepared to the warre?
9 So likewyſe you, except ye vtter woordes by the tongue eaſie to be vnderſtoode, howe ſhall it be knoken what is ſpoken? For ye ſhall ſpeake in the b ayre.
d. Your words ſhalbe loſt, for ye ſhall neither glorifie God thereby, nor profite man.
10 There are happily ſo many kindes of voyces in the worlde, and none of them are without ſignification.
11 Therefore yf I knowe not the meanyng of the voyce, I ſhalbe vnto him that ſpeaketh an aliant, and he that ſpeaketh ſhalbe an aliant vnto me.
12 Euen ſo ye, for as much as ye couet ſpirituall giftes, ſeeke that ye may excell, vnto the edifiyng of the Churche.
13 Wherefore, let him that ſpeaketh with tongues, pray that he may interprete.
14 For yf I pray with an vnknowen tongue, my ſpirite prayeth, but my vnderſtandyng is vnfruitefull.
15 What is it then? I wyll pray with the ſpirite, and wyll pray with the vnderſtandyng alſo: I wyll c ſyng with the ſpirite, and wyll ſing with the vnderſtanding alſo.
c. Or geue thankes by ſingyng.
16 For when thou ſhalt bleſſe with the ſpirite, how ſhal he that *occupieth the roome of the vnlearned ſay Amen at thy geuing of thankes, ſeeing he vnderſtandeth not what thou ſayeſt?
*Or, ſtandeth.
17 Thou veryly geueſt thankes well, but the other is not edified.
18 I thanke my God, I ſpeake with tongues more then ye all.
19 Yet had I rather in the Church to ſpeake fiue woordes with my vnderſtandyng, that by my voyce I might teach other alſo, then tenne thouſande woordes in an vnknowen tongue.
20 Brethren, be not chyldren in vnderſtandyng: howebeit, as concernyng noughtineſſe be ye chyldren, but in vnderſtandyng be perfect.
*Eſai.28.11. 21 In the lawe it is written, * With men of ſundry tongues and ſundry lippes, wyll I ſpeake vnto this people: and yet for al that, wyll they not heare me, ſayth the Lorde.
22 Wherefore tongues are for a ſigne, not to them that beleeue, but to them that beleeue not: but propheſying ſerueth not for them that beleeue not, but for them whiche beleeue.
23 If therefore all the Churche be come together into one place, and all ſpeake with tongues, and there come in they that are vnlearned, or they whiche beleeue not, wyll they not ſay that ye are mad?
24 But yf all propheſie, and there come in one that beleeueth not, or one vnlearned: he is rebuked of all men, he is iudged of all men.
25 And ſo are the ſecretes of his hart made manifeſt, and ſo hauing fallen downe on his face, he wyll worſhip God, ſaying that God is in you of a trueth.
26 How is it then brethren? When ye come togeather, euery one of you hath a Pſalme, hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a reuelation, hath an interpretation: Let all thinges be done vnto edifiyng.
27 If any man ſpeake with tongue, let it be by two, or at the moſt by three, and that by courſe, and let one interprete.
28 But yf there be no interpreter, let hym keepe ſcilence in the Churche, and let hym ſpeake to hym ſelfe, and to God.
29 Let the prophetes ſpeake two or three, and let the other iudge.
30 If any reuelation be made to another that ſitteth by, let the fyrſt holde his peace.
31 For ye may all prophecie one by one, that all may learne, and all may be comforted.
32 And the d ſpirites of the prophetes are ſubiect to the prophetes.
d. That is, the doctrine that they do bring, as being put in mind by the ſpirite of God.
33 For God is not the auctour of confuſion, but of peace, as in all Churches of the ſaintes.
34 *Let your women keepe ſcilence in the Churches: for it is not permitted vnto them to ſpeake, but they are commaunded to be vnder obedience, * as ſayth the lawe.
*1. Tim. 2. 12.
*Gen.3.16.
35 If they wyl learne any thyng, let them aſke their husbandes at home: For it is a ſhame for women to ſpeake in the Church.
36 Sprong the woord of God from you? eyther came it vnto you onely?
37 If any man thynke hym ſelfe to be a prophete, eyther ſpirituall, let hym knowe that the thynges that I write vnto you, are the commaundementes of the Lorde.
38 But yf any man be ignorant, let hym be ignorant.
39 Wherefore brethren, couet to propheſie, and forbid not to ſpeake with tongues.
40 Let all thinges be done honeſtly, and in order.

The.xv. Chapter.

1. He proueth the reſurrection of the dead, 3. and fyrſt that Chriſte is ryſen.

The Epiſtle on the .xi. ſunday after Trinitie.
1 MOreouer, * brethren, I declare vnto you, the Goſpell whiche I preached vnto you, whiche alſo ye haue receiued, and wherein ye haue "continued, *Galat.1.11.
"Or, ſtoode.
2 By the whiche alſo ye are ſaued, yf ye keepe the doctrine whiche I preached vnto you, except ye haue beleeued in vayne.

3 For I deliuered vnto you first of all, that
a. He sheweth that nothyng ought to be taught, whiche we haue not learned by gods worde.
whiche also I a receyued, howe that Christ dyed for our sinnes, accordyng to the scriptures:
4 *And that he was buryed, and that he arose the thirde day, accordyng to the scriptures:
*Iohn.2.1.
*Ioh.20.19.
5 *And that he was seene of Cephas, then of the twelue:
6 After that he was seene of moe then fyue hundred brethren at once: of whiche, the more part remayne vnto this day, and some are fallen asleepe.
7 And after that he was seene of Iames, then of al the Apostles.
*Act.9.4.
Ephe.3.7.
8 *And last of all he was seene of me, as of one borne out of due tyme.
9 For I am the least of the Apostles, which am not woorthy to be called an Apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.
*Ephe.3.7.
10 *But by the grace of God, I am that I am, and his grace which is in me, was not vayne: but I laboured more abundantly then they al, yet not I, but the grace of God whiche is with me.
11 Therefore, whether it were I or they, so we preache, and so haue ye beleeued.
12 If Christ be preached, howe that he rose from the dead: howe say some among you, that there is no resurrection of the dead?
13 If there be no rysyng of the dead, then is Christe not risen.
14 If Christe be not risen, then is our preachyng vayne, and your faith is also b vayne.
b. For if Christ be swalowed vp of death, there remayneth no hope of lyfe any more.
15 Yea, and we are founde false witnesses of God, because we haue testified of God, how that he raysed vp Christ: whom he raised not vp, if so be that the dead rise not.
16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christe risen.
17 If it be so that Christe is not risen, then is your fayth vayne, ye are yet in your sinnes:
18 But also they whiche are fallen a sleepe
in Christe, are perished.
19 If in this life only we haue hope in Christ, then are we of al men most miserable.
20 But nowe is Christe risen from the dead, he is become the c first fruites of them that slept.
c. As by the offeryng of the first frute, the whole fruit is sanctified: so by Christe, whiche is the fyrst that is raysed, all haue assurance of the resurrection.
21 For since by man came death, euen so by man came the resurrection of the dead.
22 For as by *Adam all dye, euen so *by Christe shal al a be made alyue,
*Or, in Adam.
*Or, in Christe.
a. To wyt, the faythful.
23 But euery man in his owne order. The first fruites is Christ, afterwarde, they that are Christes at his commyng.
24 Then commeth the ende, when he shall haue deliuered vp the kingdome to God the father, when he shall haue put downe all rule, and al authoritie, and power.
25 For he must raigne *tyl he shal haue put al his enimies vnder his feete.
*Psal.110.1.
Actes.2.34.
Hebr.1.13.
26 The last enimie that shalbe destroyed, is death.
27 *For he hath put downe all thinges vnder his feete: But when he sayth, Al thinges are put vnder hym, it is manifest that he is excepted whiche dyd put all thynges vnder hym.
*Psal.8.7.
Hebr.2.8.
28 When all thynges shalbe subdued vnto hym, then shall the sonne also hym selfe be subiect vnto hym that put al thynges vnder him, that God may be al in al.
29 Els what shal they doo whiche are baptised for the dead, if the dead rise not at all?
Why are they then baptised for the dead?
30 And why stande we in ieopardie euery houre?
31 I protest by our reioycing which I haue in Christe Iesus our Lorde, I dye dayly.
32 If I haue fought with beastes at Ephesus, after the c maner of men, what auan-tageth it me, if the dead rise not? *Let vs eate and drinke, for to morowe we dye.
c. That is, hauyng regarde to this present lyfe, and not to Gods glory, and to lyfe euerlastyng.
*Esa.22.13.
33 Be ye not deceyued: Euyl woordes corrupt good maners.
34 Awake to righteousnesse, and sinne not:
for some haue not the knowledge of God, I speake this to your shame.
35 But some man wyll say, Howe are the dead raysed vp? With what body doo they come?
36 Thou *foole, that whiche thou sowest, is not quickened, except it dye.
*Or, mad man.
37 And that whiche thou sowest, thou so-west not that body that shalbe, but bare corne, it may chaunce of wheate, or of some other corne.
38 But God geueth it a body, as it hath pleased hym, and to euery seede his owne body.
39 Al flesche, is not *the same flesh, but there is one maner of flesche of men, another flesche of beastes, another of fishes, and another of byrdes.
*Or, one maner of flesche.
40 There are also celestial bodyes, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, & the glory of the terrestrial another.
41 There is one glory of the f sunne, and another glory of the moone, and another glory of the starres: For one starre differeth from another starre in glory.
f. Euen as the sunne and the moone being of one substace, differ in dignitie: so in the resurrection, our bodies shal haue more excellent qualities then they haue nowe.
42 So is the resurrection of the dead. It is sowen in corruption, it riseth in incorruptiō.
43 It is sowen in g dishonour, it riseth in honour. It is sowen in weakenesse, it riseth in power.
g. For what is more vyle to looke vnto the dead carkase.
44 It is sowen a natural body, it ryseth a spiritual body: There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.

45 And

45 And so it is also written: The first man *Adam was made a lyuing soule, and the last Adam was made a quickening spirite.

*Gene.2.7.

46 Howebeit, that is not fyrst whiche is spiritual, but that which is natural, and then that which is spiritual.

47 The first man is of the earth, earthie, the seconde man is the Lorde from heauen:

48 As is the earthie, suche are they that are earthie: and as is the heauenly, such are they also that are heauenly.

49 And as we haue borne the image of the earthie, we shall also beare the image of the heauenly.

50 This say I brethren, that flesh & blood can not enherite the kingdome of God: neyther doth corruption inherite incorruption.

51 Beholde, I shewe you a mysterie. We shal not al sleepe, but we shal al be changed.

52 In a moment, in the twinckling of an eye, *at the last trumpe (for the trumpe shal blowe) and the dead shal ryse incorruptible, and we shalbe changed.

*Mat.24.13 1.The.4.16

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortalitie.

54 When this corruptible shall haue put on incorruption, and this mortal shall haue put on immortalitie, then shalbe brought to passe the sayeing that is written, Death is swalowed vp in victorie.

*1.Joh.5.5.

55 *O death, where is thy styng? O *hel where is thy victorie?

*Or, grane.

56 The styng of death is sinne, and the b strength of sinne is the lawe.

h. Sinne first brought in death, and geueth it power ouer vs, and the strēgth of sinne is the lawe, because it doth reueale the iudgement of God agaynst vs or els y cheefe cause of our destruction is in our selues.

57 But thankes be vnto God, which geueth vs the victorie through our Lorde Iesus Christe.

i. The hope of resurrection, causeth the faythful to surmount al difficulties.

58 Therefore my beloued brethren, be ye stedfast, vnmoueable, alwayes abounding in the worke of the Lorde, for as muche as ye knowe that your labour is not in vayne in the Lorde.

¶ The .xvi. Chapter.

He putteth them in remembrance of the gathering for the poore brethren at Hierusalem.

1 COncerning the * collection for the saintes, as I haue ordeyned in the Churches of Galatia, euen so doo ye.

* Act.11.29.

2 *Upon some Sabboth day, let euery one of you put aside by hym selfe, laying vp as God hath prospered hym, that then there be no gatherynges when I come.

*Or, euery first day of the weeke.

3 When I am come, whomsoeuer ye shall allowe by your letters, them wyl I sende to bryng your liberalitie vnto Hierusalem.

4 And yf it be meete that I goe also, they shal goe with me.

5 I wyl come vnto you, after I shall haue gone ouer Macedonia, (For I doo nowe passe through Macedonia.)

6 And it may be that I wyl abyde, yea, or wynter with you, that ye may bryng me on my way, whyther soeuer I goe.

7 For I wyl not see you nowe in my passage, but I trust to abide a while with you, if the Lorde suffer me.

8 I wyl tarry at Ephesus vntyll Whitsuntide:

9 For a great doore and effectual is opened vnto me, and there are many aduersaries.

10 If Timotheus come, see that he may be without feare with you: for he worketh the worke of the Lorde, as I doo.

11 Let no man therefore dispise hym, but conuey him foorth in peace, that he may come vnto me, for I looke for hym with the brethren.

12 As touching our brother Apollo, I greatly desired hym to come vnto you with the brethren, but his wyl was not at al to come at this tyme: but he wyl come when he shall haue conuenient tyme.

13 a Watche ye, stande ye fast in the fayth, quite you lyke men, be strong.

a. Lest Satan steale vpon you at vnwares.

14 Let all your thynges be doone with charitie.

15 I beseech you brethren, (ye knowe the house of Stephana, that it is the b first fruites of Achaia, and that they haue addicted them selues to the ministerie of the saintes,)

b. That is, the first whiche imbraced the Gospel.

16 That ye be also obedient vnto suche, and to al that helpe with vs, and labour.

17 I am glad of the comming of Stephana, and Fortunatus, and Achaicus: for that which was lacking vnto me on your c part, they haue supplied.

c. The greefe that I tooke for your absence, was greatly asswaged by their presence.

18 For they haue comforted my spyrite and yours: therefore knowe ye them that are suche.

19 The Churches of Asia salute you: Aquila and Priscilla salute you muche in the Lorde, with the churche that is in their house.

20 All the brethren greete you. *Greete ye one another with an holy kysse.

*Rom.16.16 2.Cor.13.12 1.Pet.5.14.

21 The salutation of me Paul, with myne owne hande.

22 If any man loue not the Lorde Iesus Christ, the same be Anathema *maranatha.

* A woorde wherewith the accursed or vile person in the extremest degree is signified.

23 The grace of our Lorde Iesus Christe be with you.

24 My loue be with you al in Christ Iesus, Amen.

The ſeconde Epiſtle of ſaint Paul the Apoſtle to the Corinthians.

¶ The firſt Chapter.

He declareth the great profyte that commeth to the faythfull by theyr afflictions.

1 PAUL an Apoſtle of Jeſu Chriſte, by the wyll of GOD, and brother Timotheus, vnto the Churche of GOD, which is at Corinthus, with all the ſaintes which are in all Achaia:

2 Grace be with you, and peace from God the father, and from the Lorde Jeſus Chriſte.

3 Eph.1.3. 1.Pet.1.3. *Bleſſed be GOD the father of our Lord Jeſus Chriſte, which is the father of mercies, and the God of all comfort:

4 Whiche comforteth vs in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them whiche are in all maner trouble, with the comfort wherewith we our ſelues are comforted of God.

5 a. Which I ſuffer: for Chriſt, or which Chriſt ſuffereth in me. For as the a afflictions of Chriſt are plenteous in vs: euen ſo is our conſolation plenteous by Chriſte.

6 Whether we be troubled, it is for your conſolation and ſaluation, whiche ſaluation is wrought by the ſuffering of the ſame afflictions which we alſo ſuffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your conſolation and ſaluation, and our hope of you is ſtedfaſt:

7 Knowyng that as ye are partakers of the afflictions, ſo ye ſhal be partakers alſo of the conſolation.

8 For we would not brethren, haue you ignorant, of our trouble whiche came vnto vs in Aſia: that we were greeued out of meaſure, paſſing ſtrength, in ſo much that we were in great doubt, euen of lyfe.

9 But we receiued the ſentence of death in our ſelues, that we ſhould not put our truſt in our ſelues, but in God, which rayſeth the dead:

10 Who deliuered vs from ſo great a death, and doth deliuer: in whom we truſt that hereafter alſo he wyll deliuer vs:

*Rom.15.30 11 *You alſo helping togeather by prayer for vs, that for the benefites beſtowed vppon vs by the meanes of many perſons, thankes may be geuen of many on our behalfe.

12 For our reioycing is this, the teſtimonie of our conſcience, that in ſimplicitie and godly pureneſſe, not with fleſhly wyſdome, b but by the grace of God, we haue had our conuerſation in the worlde, and moſt of all to youwardes.

b. Vſing that wyſedome whiche God gaue me frō heauen.

13 For we write none other thynges vnto you then that ye reade, and alſo that ye acknowledge: and I truſt ye ſhall acknowledge vnto the ende.

14 Euen as ye haue acknowledged vs partly, that we are your reioycing, euen as ye are c ours in the day of the d Lorde Jeſus.

c. Becauſe we haue won you to Chriſte.

d. Which ſhall aboliſhe all worldly glory.

15 And in this confidence was I minded firſt to haue come vnto you, that ye myght haue had "one pleaſure more:

"Or, the ſeconde benefite.

16 And to paſſe by you into Macedonia, and to come agayne out of Macedonia vnto you, and to be led forth of you into Jurie.

17 When I therfore was thus minded, did I vſe lyghtneſſe? or minde I e carnally thoſe thinges which I mind, that with me ſhould be yea yea, and nay nay?

e. Not to affirme one thing, & then to denie it, which is a ſigne of inconſtancie.

18 Yea, as God is faythfull, for our preaching to you, was not yea, and nay.

19 For Gods ſonne Jeſus Chriſte, whiche was preached among you by vs, euen by me, and Syluanus, and Timotheus, was not yea and nay, but in him it was yea.

f. He taketh God to witnes, that he preacheth the truth.

20 For all the promiſes of God in hym are yea, and are in him, Amen, vnto the glory of God through vs.

21 And he whiche ſtabliſheth vs with you in Chriſte, and hath annoynted vs, is God:

22 Which hath alſo ſealed vs, and hath geuen the earneſt of the ſpirite in our hartes.

23 I call God for a recorde vnto my ſoule, that to ſpare you, I came not as yet vnto Corinthus.

24 Not that we be lordes ouer your fayth, but are helpers of your ioy: for by fayth re ſtand.

¶ The.ii.Chapter.

Paul reioyceth in God for the efficacie of his doctrine.

1 BUt I determined this in mee ſelfe, that I would not come againe to you in heauineſſe.

2 For yf I make you ſory, who is he that maketh me glad, but the ſame whiche is made a ſory by me?

a. Which was geuen to Satan, but now dooth repent.

3 And I wrote this ſame vnto you, leſt when I came, I ſhould take heauineſſe of them them of whom I ought to reioyce, hauyng confidence in you all, that my ioy, is the ioye of you all.

4 For in great affliction and anguiſh of hart, I wrote vnto you with many teares: not that ye ſhoulde be made ſory, but that ye might perceiue the loue which I haue moſt aboundantly vnto you.

5 But yf any man hath cauſed ſorowe, the ſame hath not made me ſory, but partly, leſt I ſhould ouergreeue you all.

6 It is ſufficient vnto the ſame man that he was rebuked of many.

7 So that nowe contrarywyſe ye ought rather to forgeue him, and comfort him, leſt the ſame perſon ſhould be ſwalowed vp with ouermuch heauineſſe.

8 Wherefore, I pray you, that you woulde confirme your loue towardes him.

9 For to this end alſo dyd I write, that I myght knowe the proofe of you, whether ye be obedient in all thynges.

10 To whom ye forgeue any thyng, I forgeue alſo: For yf I forgeue any thing, to whom I forgaue it, for your ſakes forgaue I it in the [b] ſight of Chriſte,

b. That is, truely & from myne hart, euē as in the preſence of Chriſt.

11 Leſt we ſhoulde be circumuented of Satan: for we are not ignorant of his deuiſes.

12 Furthermore, when I came to Troada, to preache Chriſtes Goſpel, and a dooze was opened vnto me of the Lorde, 13 I had no reſt in my ſpirite, becauſe I found not Titus my brother, but when I had taken my leaue of them, I went away into Macedonia.

14 Nowe thankes be vnto God, whiche alwayes cauſeth vs to triumph [c] in Chriſte, and openeth the ſauour of his knowledge by vs in euery place.

c. In workyng mightily by vs, he maketh vs partakers of his victorie and triumphe.

15 For we are vnto God the ſweete ſauour of Chriſte in them that are ſaued, and in them which periſhe.

16 To the one are vve the ſauour of death, vnto death: and vnto the other, the ſauour of lyfe, vnto lyfe: *And who is meete vnto theſe thinges?

*Rom.11.16

17 For we are not as many are, which chop and change with the woord of God: but as of pureneſſe, but as of God in the ſight of God, ſpeake we "in Chriſte.

"Or, of Chriſte.

¶ The iii Chapter.

Paul exalteth his apoſtleſhip againſt the braggers of the falſe apoſtles.

1 DO we begin to commend our ſelues agayne? Or nede we, as ſome other Epiſtles of commendation vnto you? or letters of commendation from you?

2 Ye are our Epiſtle writtē in our hartes, "vnderſtoode and read of all men:

"Or, knowen.

3 For as much as ye are manifeſtly declared that ye are the Epiſtle of Chriſte miniſtred by vs, written not with inke, but with the ſpirite of the liuing God, not in ſtony tables, but in fleſhy tables of the hart.

4 Suche truſt haue we through Chriſte to Godward.

5 Not that we are ſufficient of our ſelues, to thinke any thing, as of our ſelues: but our ſufficiencie is of God:

The Epiſtle on the .xii. Sunday after Trinitie.

6 Whiche hath made vs able miniſters of the newe teſtament, not of the letter, but of the ſpirite: for the letter kylleth, but the [a] ſpirite geueth lyfe.

7 But yf the miniſtration of death in letters figured in ſtones, was with glory, ſo that the chyldren of Iſrael coulde not ſtedfaſtly behold the face of Moſes, for [b] the glory of the countenaunce, whiche glory is done away:

a. Meaning the ſpirituall doctrine whiche is in our hartes.

b. After that God had ſpoken with hym, and geuen hym the lawe.

8 Howe ſhall not the miniſtration of the ſpirite be much more in glory?

9 For yf the miniſtration of condemnation be glory: much more doth the miniſtration of righteouſneſſe exceede in glory.

10 For euen that which was glorified, was not glorified in this behalfe, becauſe of the exceedyng glory.

11 For yf that whiche is put away was glorious: much more that which remayneth, is glorious.

12 Seyng then that we haue ſuche hope, we vſe great boldneſſe of ſpeache:

13 And not as Moſes, [c] whiche put a vale ouer his face, that the chyldren of Iſrael ſhoulde not ſtedfaſtly looke into the ende of that which is aboliſhed.

c. Moſes ſhewed the lawe as it was couered with ſhadowes, ſo that the Iewes eyes were not lightned, but blinded, and ſo could not come to Chriſte, who was the ende thereof. Againe, the goſpel ſetteth foorth the glory of God clearely, not couering our eyes, but driuing the darkneſſe away from them.

14 But theyr mindes were "blinded: for vntyll this day remayneth the ſame vale vntaken away in the readyng of the olde teſtament, which vale is put away in Chriſte.

"Or, hardened.

15 But euen vnto this day when Moſes is read, the vale is layd vpon theyr hart.

16 Neuertheleſſe, when it ſhall turne to the Lorde, the vale ſhalbe taken away.

17 *The Lorde is the ſpirite: and where the ſpirite of the Lord is, there is libertie.

*Ioh.4.24

18 But we all beholdyng as in a [d] myrrour the glory of the Lorde, with his face open, are changed vnto the ſame image from glory to glory, euen as of the ſpirite of the Lorde.

d. In Chriſte who is god manifeſt in the fleſhe, we ſee God the father as in a moſt cleare glaſſe.

¶ Thr.iiii.Chapter.

1. He declareth his diligence and rewndneſſe in his office, 17. ſhewyng vvhat profite commeth thereby.

1 Therfore

The Epistle of S. Matthewe the Apostle.

1 THerefore, seeyng that we haue suche a ministerie, as we haue receyued mercy, we faynt not:
2 But haue cast from vs the clokes of vnhonestie, walkyng not in craftinesse, neyther handeling the woorde of God deceytefully, but in openyng of the trueth, commendyng our selues to euery mans conscience in the sight of God.
3 Yf our Gospel be hyd, it is hyd in them that are lost:
4 In whom the a God of this worlde hath blynded the myndes of them which beleeue not, lest the lyght of the Gospel of the glory of Christe shoulde shyne vnto them (which is the image of God.)
5 For we preach not our selues, but Christe Jesus the Lorde, and our selues your seruantes for Jesus sake.
6 For it is GOD that *commaunded the lyght to shyne out of darkenesse, who hath shyned in our hartes, for to geue the lyght of the knowledge of the glory of God, in the face of Jesus Christe.
7 But we haue this treasure in earthen vesselles, that the excellencie of the power may be Gods, and not of vs.
8 We are troubled on euery side, yet are we not "without shift: We are in pouertie, but not in extreme pouertie.
9 We are persecuted, but are not forsaken therein: we are cast downe, but we perysshe not:
10 We alwayes beare about in the body the dying of our Lorde Jesus, that the lyfe of Jesus myght also be made manifest in our body.
11 For we whiche lyue, are alwayes delyuered vnto death for Jesus sake, that the lyfe also of Jesus myght be made manifest in our mortal flesshe.
12 So then, death woorketh in vs, but lyfe in you.
13 Seeyng then that we haue the same spirite of fayth (accordyng as it is wrytten, 'I beleeued, and therefore haue I spoken:) We also beleeue, and therefore speake:
14 Knowyng that he, whiche rayled vp the Lorde Jesus, shall rayse vp vs also by the meanes of Jesus, and shall set vs with you.
15 For all thynges "doo I for your sakes, that the plenteous grace by thankes geuyng of many, may redounde to the prayse of God.
16 Wherefore we are not weeried: but though our outward man perish, yet the inwarde man is renued day by day.
17 For the momentanie b lyghtnesse of our tribulation, prepareth an exceedyng and an eternal weyght of glory vnto vs:
18 While we looke not on the thynges which are seene, but on the thynges which are not seene: for the thynges whiche are seene, are temporall: but the thynges whiche are not seene, are eternal.

a. To wit, Satan.

'Gene.1.3.

"Or, driuen into a narowe corner.

"Psalm. 116.10.

"Or, are doone.

b. Which is so called in respecte of the euerlastyng life.

¶ The.v.Chapter.

Paul procedeth to declare the vtilitie that commeth by the crosse.

1 FOR we knowe that yf our earthlye a house of this tabernacle were destroyed, we haue a buyldyng of GOD, euen an habitation not made with handes, but eternal in heauen.
2 For therfore sygh we, desiryng vpon our clothyng to be further clothed with our house whiche is from heauen:
3 Yf so be that we *beyng clothed, shall not be founde naked.
4 For we that are in this tabernacle, sygh, beyng burdened, because we woulde not put of our clothyng, but vpon the same put on more, that mortalitie myght be swalowed vp of lyfe.
5 He that hath ordeyned vs for the selfe same thyng, is God, whiche hath also geuen vnto vs the earnest of the spirite.
6 Therefore we are alway of good cheare, and knowe that as long as we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lorde.
7 (For we walke by fayth, not after outwarde appearaunce.)
8 Neuertheless, we are of good comfort, and had rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lorde.
9 Wherfore, whether we be at home, or from home, we endeuour our selues to be accepted vnto hym.
10 *For we must al appeare before the iudgement seate of Christe, that euery man maye receyue the woorkes of his body, accordyng to that he hath doone, whether it be good or bad.
11 Knowing therefore the feare of the Lord, we perswade men, for we are b knowen wel yenough vnto God: I trust also that we are knowen in your consciences.
12 For we commende not our selues agayne vnto you, but geue you an occasion to glory on our behalfe, that ye may haue somewhat agaynst them whiche glory in the face, and not in the hart.
13 For c yf we be too feruent, to God are we too feruent: Or yf we keepe measure, for your cause keepe vve measure.
14 For the loue of Christe constrayneth vs, because we thus iudge, that yf one dyed for al, then were al dead.
15 And he dyed for all, that they whiche

a. After this bodye, shalbe dissolued, it shalbe made incorruptible and immortal.

*Apo.16.15.

b. By imbracyng the same fayth which we preache to others.

c. The Greke soundeth thus. Whether we be out of wyt, to God we be out of wit: whether we be wyse, to you we be wise lyue, should not hencefoorth lyue vnto them selues, but vnto hym which dyed for them, and rose agayne.

16 Wherefore hencefoorth knowe we no man after the d flesshe: Insomuch though we haue knowen Christ after the flesh, now yet hencefoorth knowe we hym no more.

17 *Therfore yf any man be in Christe, he is a newe creature: Olde thynges are passed away, behold, al thynges are become newe.

18 And al thynges are of God, whiche hath reconciled vs vnto hym selfe by Iesus Christ, and hath geuen to vs the ministerie of reconciliation.

19 For God was in Christ, reconcilyng the worlde to hym selfe, not imputyng their sinnes vnto them, and hath committed to vs the preachyng of the attonement.

20 Now then are we messengers for Christ, euen as though GOD dyd beseeche you through vs: so pray we you in Christes steade, that ye be reconciled vnto God.

21 For he hath made hym to be sinne for vs, whiche knewe no sinne, that we shoulde be made the ryghteousnesse of God in hym.

d. Accordyng to the estimation of the flesh: but as he is guyded by the spirite of God.
*Esai.43.19 Apoca.21.5.

¶ The.vi Chapter.

An exhortation to Christian lyfe.

1 WE also as helpers to hym exhort you, that ye receyue not the grace of God in vayne.

2 (For he sayth, * I haue hearde thee in a tyme accepted, and in the day of saluation haue I succoured thee: Beholde, nowe is that a accepted tyme, beholde, now is that day of saluation,)

3 Geuyng no offence in anye thyng, that the ministerie be not blamed:

4 But in al thynges behauyng our selues as the ministers of God, in muche patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in anguyshes,

5 In strypes, in pryssonmentes, in stryfes, in labours, in watchynges, in fastynges,

6 By pureneſse, by knowledge, by long sufferyng, by kyndeneſse, by the holy ghoste, by loue vnfaigned:

7 By the woorde of trueth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousnesse of the ryght hande and on the left,

8 By honour and dishonour, by euyl reporte and good report, as deceyuers, and yet true,

9 As vnknowen, and yet knowen: as dying, and beholde we lyue: as chastened, and not killed:

10 As sorowyng, and yet alway mery: as poore, and yet makyng many ryche: as hauyng nothyng, and yet possessyng al things.

11 O ye Corinthians, our b mouth is open vnto you, our hart is enlarged.

12 Ye are not pressed into a narowe roome in vs, but are pressed into a narowe roome in your owne bowels.

13 Now for the same recompence (I speake as vnto my chyldren) be ye also c enlarged.

14 And * beare not ye the yoke togeather with the vnbeleeuers. For what felowshyp hath righteousnesse with vnrighteousnesse? or what communion hath lyght with darknesse?

15 Or what concorde hath Christ with Belial? eyther what parte hath he that beleeueth with an infidel?

16 Or what agreement the temple of God with idolles? For ye are the temple of the lyuyng God, as sayde God, * I wyl dwel in them, and walke in them, and wyll be their God, and they shalbe my people.

17 * Wherfore come out from among them, and be ye separated from them (sayth the Lord) and touch no vncleane thyng, and I wyll receyue you,

18 And wyll be a father vnto you, and ye shalbe my sonnes and daughters, sayth the Lorde almyghtie.

a. To wit, gods free mercye, wherin he hath powred foorth his infinite loue

b. signifying his most vehement affection.

c. Shewe lyke affection towardes me.

*Or, be not ye vnequally yoked.

¶ The vii. Chapter.

He exhorteth them by the promyse of God to keepe themselues pure.

1 HAuyng therefore these promyses (dearlye beloued) let vs cleanse our selues from all fylthynesse of the flesshe and a spirite, perfectyng holynesse in the feare of God.

2 *Receyue b vs: we haue wronged no man, we haue corrupted no man, we haue defrauded no man.

3 I speake not this to condemne you, for I haue shewed you before, that ye are in our hartes to dye and lyue with you.

4 I vse great boldnesse of speache towardes you, I glory greatly in you: I am fylled with comfort, and am exceedyng ioyous in al our tribulation.

5 For when we were come into Macedonia, our flesshe had no rest, but we were troubled on euery side: without were fightinges, within were feares.

6 Neuertheless, God that comforteth the humble, comforted vs by the commyng of Titus.

7 And not by his commyng onely, but also by the consolation whiche he receyued of you, when he told vs your vehement desire, your weepyng, your feruent mynde toward me: so that I reioyced the more.

8 For though I made you sory with a letter, I repent not, though I dyd repent: For

a. That is, of body and soule
*Or, vnderstand
b. To preache the Gospel vnto you.

For I perceyue that the same Epistle made you sorie, though it were but for a season.

9 I nowe reioyce: not that ye were made sorie, but that ye were made sorie to repentance: for ye were made sorie to Godward, that in nothing ye might be hurt by vs.

1.Pet.2.19 10 *For godly sorowe, causeth repentance vnto saluation, not to be repented of: but the sorowe of the worlde causeth death.

11 For beholde, this selfe same thing that ye were made sorie to Godward, howe much carefulnesse it hath wrought in you: yea vvhat b clearing of your selues, yea vvhat indignation, yea vvhat feare, yea vvhat vehement desyre, yea vvhat zeale, yea vvhat punishment? for in al thinges ye haue shewed your selues that ye were cleare in that matter.

b. In asking God forgeuenesse.

12 Wherefore, though I wrote vnto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the hurt, neyther for his cause that was hurt: *but that your good minde to vswarde, might appeare among you in the syght of God.

*Or, but that our care towarde you in the sight of God, might appeare vnto you. So hath Codex Complutensis, Ambrosius, and Theophilactus, and so readeth the old translation, and the translation of Stephanus.

13 Therefore we are comforted in your comfort: yea and exceedingly the more ioyed we for the ioy of Titus, because his spirite was refreshed by you al.

14 But if I haue boasted any thing vnto him of you, I haue not been shamed therein, for as we speake all thinges vnto you in trueth, euen so our boasting which I made vnto Titus, is founde a trueth.

15 And his *inwarde affection is more abundant towarde you, while he remembreth the obedience of you al, howe with feare and trembling ye receyued him.

*Or, his bowels are.

16 I reioyce that I haue confidence in you in al thinges.

¶The.viii.Chapter.

1. By the example of the Macedonians, 9. and Christe, he exhorteth them to continue in releeuyng the poore saintes, commending theyr good beginning.

1 MOreouer, we do you to wit brethren, of the grace of God, which was geuen in the Churches of Macedonia,

2 Howe that in muche triall of affliction theyr ioy abounded, and theyr deepe pouertie abounded into the richesse of theyr liberalitie.

3 For to their powers (I beare them recorde) yea and beyonde theyr powers, they vvere wyllyng of them selues:

4 Praying vs with great instance, that we woulde receyue this a grace and societie of the ministerie whiche is towarde the saintes.

a. Grace here signifieth benefolence or almes.

5 And this they dyd not as we looked for: but gaue theyr owne selues fyrst to the Lorde, and after vnto vs by the wyl of God,

6 That we shoulde desyre Titus to accomplishe the same grace among you also, euen as he had begunne.

7 Nowe therefore as ye are plenteous in all thinges, in fayth, and in woorde, and in knowledge, and in al feruentnesse, and in loue, which ye haue to vs: euen so, see that ye be plenteous in this grace also.

8 This say I not by commaundement, but because of the feruentnesse of *other, and prouing the vnfaignednesse of your loue.

*Or, reade, but through the feruentnesse of other, prouoking also the perfectnesse of your loue.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Iesus Christ, that though he was riche, yet for your sakes he became poore, that ye thorow his pouertie might be made riche.

10 And I geue counsel herein: for this is expedient for you, which haue begunne not to doo onely, but also to wyl a yeere agoe.

11 Nowe therefore perfourme to doo it also: that as there appeared in you a redinesse to wyl, euen so there may appeare a redinesse to perfourme, of that which ye haue.

12 For if there be fyrst a wyllyng mynde, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 Truely, not that other be set at ease, and you burdened:

14 But of like condition nowe at this time your abundance supplieth theyr want, that theyr abundance also may supplie your want, that there may be equalitie:

15 As it is written, *He that had geathered muche, had nothing ouer, and he that had geathered litle, had no lacke.

*Exo.16.18.

16 Thankes be vnto God, which put the same earnest care for you in the hart of Titus.

17 Because he accepted the exhortation: and being the more careful, came of his owne accorde vnto you.

18 We haue sent with hym that brother b whose prayse is in the Gospel throughout al the Churches:

b. In preaching the Gospel. Some vnderstande Luke, other Barnabas.

19 And not that onely, but he was also chosen of the Churches to be a felowe with vs in our iourney, concernyng this *grace that is ministred by vs vnto the glory of the same Lorde, and declaration of your redy minde,)

*Or, beneficence.

20 Eschewing this, that any man shoulde rebuke vs in this plenteous distribution that is ministred by vs:

21 Making prouision for c honest thinges, not onely in the sight of the Lorde, but also in the sight of men.

c. His wel doing is approoued before God and man.

22 We haue sent with them a brother of outs, whom we haue oftentimes prooued diligent in many thinges, but nowe muche more diligent, for the great confidence

"or, vvhiche he hath. "vvhiche I haue in you:
23 Whether any doo enquire of Titus, he is my felowe and helper concerning you: or of other whiche are our brethren, they are the messengers of the Churches, and the glorie of Christe.
24 Wherefore shewe ye vnto them the proofe of your loue, and of our boasting on your behalfe in the sight of the Churches.

¶ The.ix.Chapter.

The cause of Titus and his companions commyng to them.

1 FOr of the ministring to the saintes, it is superfluous for me to write vnto you:
2 For I knowe the redinesse of your minde, whereof I boast on your behalfe vnto them of Macedonia, that Achaia was prepared a yeere agoe: and "your zeale hath prouoked many.
"or, zeale in you.
3 Yet haue I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you shoulde be in vayne in this behalfe, that (as I haue sayde) ye may be prepared.
4 Lest haply if they of Macedonia come with me, and finde you vnprepared, we (I wyl not say you) should be ashamed in this boldnesse of boasting.
5 Therefore I thought it necessarie to exhort the brethren, that they woulde come before vnto you, and prepare your forepromised beneficence, that it might be redie as a beneficence, and a not as an extortion.
a. That is, as a thing extorted, or violently wrong from you.
6 This yet I say he which soweth sparingly, shal reape sparingly: and he that soweth bountifully, shal reape bountifully.
*Rom.12.8. 7 *Euery man according as he purposeth in his hart, so let hym geue, not grudgingly, or of necessitie: "for God loueth a cheareful geuer.
"Eccl.35.11.
8 God is able to make you plentiful in all grace, that ye in all thinges hauyng alwayes sufficient vnto the vttermost, may be plentiful in euery good woorke.
*Psal.112.9. 9 As it is written, *He hath b dispearsed abrode, he hath geuen to the poore, his righteousnesse remayneth for euer.
b. Dauid speaketh of the man which feareth God, and loueth his neyghbour.
10 Moreouer I beseeche hym that ministreth seede vnto the sower, to minister bread also for foode, and to multiplie your seede, and to encrease the fruites of your righteousnesse:
11 That in al thinges ye may be made riche vnto al bountifulnesse, which causeth thorowe vs thankes geuing vnto God.
12 For the administration of this seruice, not onely supplieth the want of the saintes: but also is abundant by the thankes geuing of many vnto God,
13 (Whiles by the experiment of this ministration, they glorifie God for the obedience of your consenting to the Gospel of Christe, and for your liberal distribution to them, and to al men:)
14 And by theyr prayers for you, whiche "long after you for the abundant grace of God in you.
"or, are greatly affectioned towarde you.
15 Thankes be vnto God, for his vnspeakeable gyft.

¶ The.x.Chapter.

He toucheth the false apostles, and defendeth his authoritie, exhorting them to obedience.

1 I Paul mee selfe beseche you by the meekenesse and gentlenesse of Christe, which in presence am lowly among you: but am bolde towarde you being absent.
2 I beseche you, that I may not neede to be bolde when I am present, with that same boldnesse, wherewith I "am supposed to haue been bolde against some, whiche repute vs as though we walked according to the flesh.
"or, wherewith I meane to be bolde.
3 For walking in the flesh, yet we doo not warre according to the flesh.
4 (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mightie through God, to the ouerthrowing of strong holdes,)
5 Wherwith we ouerthrowe counsels, and euery high thyng that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bryng into captiuitie al imagination to the obedience of Christe:
6 And hauing in a redinesse wherewith to take vengeance on al disobedience, when your obedience is fulfylled.
7 Looke ye on thinges after the vtter appearance? If any man trust in him selfe that he is Christes, let hym consyder this agayne of hym selfe, that as he is of Christe, euen so are we of Christe.
8 For though I shoulde boast somewhat more of our authoritie, whiche the Lorde hath geuen to vs for edification, and not for your destruction, I shoulde not be ashamed, 9 Lest I shoulde seeme as it were to make you afrayde by letters.
10 For the letters a (sayth he) are sore and strong: but his bodily presence is weake, and his speache nothing woorth.
a. Meanyng a certayne man among them, whiche thus spake of Paul.
11 Let hym that is suche a one, thynke on this wyse, that as we are in woorde by letters when we are absent, suche also are we in deede when we are present.

12 For

12 For we dare not number or compare our selues with certayne whiche prayse them selues: neuertheless, whyle they measure them selues with them selues, and compare them selues with them selues, they vnderstande not.

b. That is, the gyftes and vocation whiche God had geuen hym to wynne others by.

13 But we wyll not boaste aboue measure: but accordyng to the b measure of the rule whiche GOD hath distributed vnto vs, a measure to reache euen vnto you.

14 For we stretch not out our selues beyond measure, as though we reached not vnto you: For euen to you also haue we come with the Gospel of Christe:

15 Not boastyng our selues out of measure in other mens labours: but hopyng when your fayth is encreased, to be magnified among you accordyng to our measure abundantly,

16 That I may preache the Gospel in those regions which are beyonde you: and not glory of those thynges which by another mans measure are prepared alredy.

*Jer.9.24 1.Cor.1.31.

17 *But let hym that glorieth, glory in the Lorde.

18 For he that commendeth him selfe, is not alowed, but whom the Lord commendeth.

¶ The xi. Chapter.

1. He declareth his affection towarde them. 5. The excellencie of his ministerie. 9. And his diligence in the same.

1 WOulde to God ye coulde suffer a litle my foolishenesse, & in deede suffer me.

2 For I am ielous ouer you with godlye ielousie: for I haue coupled you to one man, to present you a chaste virgin vnto Christe.

*Gene.3.4.

3 But I feare lest by any meanes, that as the serpent beguyled Eue through his subtiltie, euen so your mindes shoulde be corrupted from the singlenesse that is towarde Christe.

a. That is, more perfect doctrine concernyng Iesus Christe.

4 For if he that commeth, preacheth another a Iesus, whom we haue not preached: or if ye receiue another spirite whom ye haue not receiued: eyther another Gospel whiche ye haue not receiued, you woulde well haue suffered hym.

5 Verily, I suppose that I was not behinde the cheefe Apostles.

6 But though I be rude in speakyng, yet not in knowledge: but in all thynges among you we haue been wel knowen to the vttermoste.

7 Haue I committed an offence because I submitted mee selfe, that ye myght be exalted, because I preached to you the Gospel of God freely?

8 I robbed other Churches, takyng wages of them to doo you seruice.

9 And when I was present with you, and had neede, *I was chargeable to no man by my idlenesse: for that whiche was lackyng vnto me, the brethren whiche came from Macedonia, supplied: and in al thynges I haue kept mee selfe not chargeable to you, and so wyl I keepe mee selfe. *2 Co.12.13

10 b The trueth of Christe is in me, that this boastyng shal not be shut vp agaynst me in the regions of Achaia.

b. Let not the trueth of Iesus Christe be thought to be in me, yf I suffer my ioye to be shut vp, whiche I haue conceyued of Grecia.

11 Wherefore? because I loue not you? God knoweth.

12 But what I doo, that wyll I doo, that I may cut away occasion from them which desire occasion: that they myght be founde lyke vnto vs, in that wherein they glory.

13 For suche false Apostles, are deceytefull woorkers, transfourmed into the Apostles of Christe.

14 And no marueyle: for Satan hym selfe is transfourmed into an angel of lyght.

15 Therefore it is no great thyng yf that his ministers also be transfourmed as the ministers of ryghteousnesse: whose end shalbe accordyng to their woorkes.

16 I say agayne, Let no man thynke that I am foolyshe: or els euen nowe take ye me as a foole, that I also maye boaste mee selfe a litle.

17 That I speake, I speake it not after the c Lorde, but as it were foolyshly in this boldnesse of boastyng.

c. In this cause he had respecte to the Lorde: but this fashion of boasting seemed accordyng to man, wherevnto they compelled hym.

18 Seeyng that many glory after the flesshe, I wyl glory also.

19 For ye suffer fooles gladly, seeyng ye your selues are wyse.

20 For ye suffer, yf a man bryng you into bondage, yf a man deuoure, yf a man take, yf a man exalt hym selfe, yf a man smyte you on the face.

The Epistle on Sexagesima Sunday.

21 I speake concernyng reproch, as though we had been weake: Howbeit, wherein so euer any man is bolde (I speake foolyshly) I am bolde also.

22 *They are Hebrues, euen so am I: they are Israelites, euen so am I: they are the seede of Abraham, euen so am I: *Phil.3.5.

23 They are the ministers of Christe (I speake as a foole) I am more, in labours more abundantly, in stripes aboue measure, in prison more plenteously, in deathes d ofte.

d. In the present danger of death.

24 Of the Iewes fiue times receiued I fourtie stripes saue one.

25 *Thryse was I beaten with rodes, *once stoned, *thryse I suffered shipwracke, a night and a day haue I been in the depth: *Act.16.25. *Act.15.19. *Actes.27.1.

26 In iourneying often, in perilles of waters, in perilles of robbers, in perilles of myne owne nation, in perylles among the heathen, in perylles in the citie, in perylles in the wylderneſſe, in perylles in the ſea, in perylles among falſe brethren.

27 In labour and trauayle, in watchynges often, in hunger and thyrſte, in faſtynges often, in colde and nakednesſe, 28 Beſides the thynges whiche outwardlye come vnto me: the trouble whiche priuylye conſpyreth agaynſt me daylye, is the care of al the Churches.

29 Who is weake, and I am not weake? who is offended, and I burne not?

30 Yf I muſt needes glorye, I wyll glorye of the thynges that concerne myne infirmities.

31 The God and father of our Lorde Ieſus Chriſte, which is bleſſed for euermore, knoweth that I lye not.

32 In the citie of Damaſcus, the gouernour of the people appoynted by kyng Aretas, layde wayte in the citie of Damaſcus, deſyrous to haue caught me:

33 And at a windowe was I let downe in a baſket through the wall, and eſcaped his handes.

¶ The xii. Chapter.

1. He reioyceth in preferment, 5. but cheefely in his humbleneſſe.

1 IT is not expedient doubtleſſe for me to glorye, I wyll come to viſions and reuelations of the Lorde.

a. That is, Chriſtiã, or I ſpeake in Chriſte.

2 *For I knewe a man in a Chriſt, aboue fourteene yeeres agoe (whether in the body I can not tell, or whether out of the body I can not tell, God knoweth) taken vp into the thirde b heauen:

*Actes.9.3.

b. That is to ſay, into ỹ higheſt heauen.

3 And I knewe the ſame man (whether in the body, or out of the body, I can not tell, God knoweth,)

c. Mans infirmitie was not able to declare them, neyther were they ſhewed vnto hym for that ende.

4 Howe that he was taken vp into c paradiſe, and heard vnſpeakable wordes, whiche is not lawfull for man to vtter.

5 Of ſuche "a man wyll I glorye, yet of mee ſelfe wyll I not glorye, but in myne infirmities.

"Or, thyng.

6 For though I woulde deſire to glorye of them, I ſhal not be a foole, for I wyl ſay the trueth, but I nowe refrayne, leſt anye man ſhoulde thynke of me aboue that whiche he ſeeth me to be, or that he heareth of me.

7 And leſt I ſhoulde be exalted out of meaſure through the abundance of the reuelations, there was geuen to me a pricke to the fleſhe, the meſſenger of Satan to buffet me, becauſe I ſhoulde not be exalted out of meaſure.

8 For this thing beſought I the Lord thrise, that it myght depart from me.

9 And he ſayde vnto me, My grace is ſufficient for thee: for my ſtrength is made perfect in weakeneſſe. Moſt gladly therefore I wyl rather glorye in my infirmities, that the power of Chriſte myght dwel in me.

10 Therfore haue I delectation in infirmities, in rebukes, in neceſſities, in perſecutions, in anguyſhes for Chriſtes ſake: For when I am weake, then am I ſtrong.

11 I am become a foole in glorying, ye haue compelled me: for I ought to haue been commended of you. For nothyng was I inferior vnto the cheefe apoſtles, though I be nothyng.

12 Truely the ſignes of an Apoſtle were wrought among you, in all patience, in ſignes, and woonders, and myghty deedes.

13 For what is it wherein ye were inferior vnto other Churches, excepte it be that I was not chargeable vnto you by my idleneſſe: forgeue me this wrong.

14 Beholde nowe the thyrde tyme I am redy to come vnto you, and yet wyll I not be chargeable vnto you by my idleneſſe. For I ſeeke not yours, but you. For the chyldren ought not to lay vp for the parentes, but the parentes for the chyldren.

15 I wil very gladly ſpend, and wil be ſpent for your ſoules, though the more abundantly I loue you, the leſſe I be loued agayne.

16 But be it, that I was not chargeable vnto you: d neuertheleſſe, beyng craftie, I caught you with guyle.

d. Thus ſayde his aduerſaries, that though he tooke it not by hym ſelf, yet he dyd it by the meanes of others.

17 Dyd I pyll you by any of them whom I ſent vnto you?

18 I deſired Titus, and with hym I ſent a brother: Dyd Titus defraude you of anye thyng? Haue we not walked in the ſame ſpirite? not in the ſame ſteppes?

19 Agayne, thinke you that we excuſe our ſelues vnto you? We ſpeake in Chriſte in the ſight of God: but we do all thynges dearely beloued for your edifying.

20 For I feare leſt when I come, I ſhal not finde you ſuche as I woulde, and that I ſhalbe founde vnto you, ſuche as ye woulde not: leſt there be debates, enuying, wrathes, ſtrifes, backbitings, whiſperings, ſwellings, and ſeditions:

21 And that when I come againe, my God bring me lowe among you, and I ſhall bewayle many of them whiche haue ſinned alredy, and haue not repented of the vncleanneſſe, and fornication, and wantonneſſe which they haue committed.

¶ The xiii. Chapter.

1. He threateneth the obſtinate, 5. and declareth vvhat his povver is, by their ovvne teſtimonie.

1 NOw come I the thyrd time vnto you: *In the mouth of two or three witneſſes ſhall euery woorde be eſtabliſhed.

2 Cor.13.28.

2 I tolde you before and tel you before, as though I had been present with you the seconde time, so write I nowe being absent, to them whiche in time past haue sinned, and to al other: that if I come agayne, I wyl not spare,
3 Seeing that ye seeke experience of Christ which speaketh in me, which to youwarde is not weake, but is mightie in you.
4 For though he was crucified of weake-nesse, yet lyueth he of the power of GOD:
And we also are weake in him, but we shal lyue with hym by the might of GOD to-warde you.
*1.Cor.11. 22. 5 *Examine your selues whether ye are in the fayth: Prooue your owne selues. Know ye not your owne selues howe that Iesus
Christe is in you? except ye be reprobates.
6 But I trust ye shal knowe that we are not reprobates.
7 Truely I pray to God that ye doo none
euyl, not that we shoulde seeme approoued, but that ye shoulde doo that whiche is honest, though we be as a reprobates.
8 For we can doo nothing agaynst the trueth, but for the trueth.
9 For we are glad when we are weake, and ye are strong. Truely this also we wishe, euen your perfection.
10 Therefore write I these thinges beyng absent, lest being present, I shoulde vse sharpnesse, according to the power whiche the Lorde hath geuen me to edification, and not to destruction.
11 Finally brethren, farewel, be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one minde, lyue in peace, and the God of loue and peace shalbe with you.
12 Greete one another in an holy kysse.
13 All the saintes salute you.
14 The grace of 'our Lorde Iesus Christ, 'Or, the Lorde.
and the loue of God, and the "communion "Or, seruyce.
of the holy ghost, be with you al, Amen.

¶ The seconde Epistle to the Corinthians, was written from Philippos, a citie of Macedonia, by Titus & Lucas.

a. In that he humbled hym selfe, and tooke vpon hym the fourme of a seruant.

¶ The Epistle of the Apostle saint Paul to the Galathians.

¶ The fyrst Chapter.

Paul rebuketh their inconstancie, vvhiche suffered them selues to be seduced by the false Apostles.

1 PAul an Apostle not of men, neyther by man, but by Iesus Christ, and by God
the father, whiche raysed him vp from the dead:
2 And al the brethren which are with me,
vnto the Churches of Galatia:
3 Grace be with you, and peace from God
the father, & from our Lord Iesus Christe:
4 Whiche gaue him selfe for our sinnes, to deliuer vs from this a present euyl worlde, according to the wyl of God, and our father:
5 To whom be glory for euer and euer,
Amen.
6 I marueyle that ye are so soone turned from him that had called you in the grace of Christe, vnto another Gospel:
7 Whiche is not another Gospel, but that there be some which trouble you, and in-tende to peruert the Gospel of Christ.
8 Neuertheless though we, or an angel from heauen, preache any other Gospel vnto you, then that whiche we haue preached vnto you, let hym be accursed.
9 As we sayde before, so say I nowe a-gayne, If any man preache any other Gospel vnto you, then that ye haue receyued, let hym be accursed.
10 Doo I nowe perswade men, or God?
Other doo I seeke to please men? For yf I yet pleased men, I shoulde not be the ser-uaunt of Christe.
11 *I certifie you, brethren, that the Gospel *1.Cor.15.1.
which was preached of me, is not after man.
12 For I neyther receyued it of man, neyther was I taught it, but by the reuelation of Iesus Christe.
13 For ye haue heard of my conuersation in time past, *in the Iewes religion, howe *Acts.9.1.
that beyonde measure I persecuted the Churche of God, and spoyled it:
14 And profited in the Iewes religion a-bone many of my "companions in mine "Or, myne age.
owne nation, beyng a very feruent mayn-teyner of the b traditions of my fathers.
15 But when it pleased God, which separated me from my mothers wombe, and called me by his grace,

a. Which is the corrupt life of man without Christe.

b. That is, of the law of god, which was geuen to the ancient fathers.

16 To reueale his ſonne by me, that I ſhoulde by the Goſpel preache him among the heathen: immediatly I communed not with a fleſhe and blood:

a. That is, with any man, as though I had neede of his counſel to approue my doctrine.

17 Neyther went I vp to Hierusalem, to them which were apoſtles before me: but went my wayes into Arabia, and came agayne vnto Damaſcus.

18 Then after three yeeres, I went vp to Hierusalem to ſee Peter, and abode with him fiftreene dayes.

19 But other of the Apoſtles ſawe I none, ſaue James the Lordes brother.

20 The thinges therefore whiche I write vnto you, beholde, before God I lye not.

21 Afterwarde I came into the coaſtes of Cyria and Cilicia, and was vnknowen in face vnto the Churches of Iurie whiche were in Chriſte:

22 But they had heard only, that he which perſecuted vs in times paſt, now preacheth the d fayth, which before he deſtroyed.

d. That is, the Goſpel, which is the doctrine of fayth.

23 And they glorified God in me.

¶ The.ii. Chapter.

1. Confyrming his apoſtleshyp to be of God, 3. he sheweth why Titus was not circumciſed.

1 THen fourteene yeeres after, I went vp agayne to Hierusalem with Barnabas, and tooke Titus with me.

2 I went vp by reuelation, and I declared vnto them the Goſpel whiche I preache among the Gentiles: but priuately with them which were eſteemed the cheefe, leſt by any meanes I ſhoulde runne, or had runne in vayne.

3 But neyther Titus which was with me, being a Greeke, was compelled to be circumciſed:

4 And that becauſe of incommers, beyng falſe brethren, which came in prpuily to ſpie out our libertie which we haue in Chriſte Ieſu, that they might bryng vs into bondage.

5 To whom, no not for an *houre, we gaue place by ſubiection, that the trueth of the Goſpel might continue with you.

*Or, moment.

6 Of them which ſeemed to be ſomewhat (what they a were in tymes paſſed it maketh no matter to me, God accepteth no mans perſon:) for they whiche ſeemed cheefe, b added nothing to me.

a. Albeit, they had been conuerſant with Chriſte afore tyme.
b. That is, they taught me not but approued my doctrine perfect in al poyntes.

7 But contrariwiſe, when they ſawe that the Goſpel of the vncircumciſion was committed vnto me, as the Goſpel of the circumciſion was committed vnto Peter:

*Deu.10.17 Iob.34.19.

8 (For he that was mightie in Peter to the apoſtleſhip of the circumciſion, the ſame was mightie in me toward the Gentiles:)

9 When they perceyued the grace that was geuen vnto me, then James, Cephas, and Iohn, which ſeemed to be pyllers, gaue to me and Barnabas the ryght handes of felowſhyp: that we ſhoulde be apoſtles vnto the Heathen, and they vnto the circumciſion, 10 Onely *that we ſhoulde remember the poore: wherein alſo I was diligent to doo the ſame.

11 But when Peter was come to Antioch, I withſtoode him c to the face, becauſe he was to be blamed.

c. Meaning before al men.

12 For before that certayne came from James, he did eate with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrewe, and ſeparated hym ſelfe, fearing them which were of the circumciſion.

13 And the other Iewes diſſembled lykewyſe with hym: inſomuche that Barnabas alſo was brought into theyr ſimulation.

14 But when I ſawe that they went not the ryght way to the trueth of the Goſpel, I ſayde vnto Peter before them al, If thou beyng a Iewe, lyueſt after the maner of the Gentiles, and not as doo the Iewes: Why compelleſt thou the Gentiles to lyue as doo the Iewes?

15 We which are Iewes by nature, and not d ſinners of the Gentiles,

d. For ſo the Iewes called the Gentiles in reproche.

16 Knowe that a man is not iuſtified by the deedes of the lawe, but by the fayth of Ieſus Chriſte: and we haue beleeued on Ieſus Chriſte, that we might be iuſtified by the fayth of Chriſte, and not by the deedes of the lawe: becauſe by the deedes of the lawe, no fleſhe ſhalbe iuſtified.

17 *If then while we ſeeke to be made righteous by Chriſte, we our ſelues alſo are found ſinners: is therfore Chriſt the miniſter of ſinne? God forbyd.

*Rom.3.19

18 For if I buyld agayne the thinges which I deſtroyed, then make I mee ſelfe a treſpaſſer.

19 For I, through the lawe, am dead to the lawe, that I might lyue vnto God: I am crucified with Chriſte.

20 Neuertheleſſe, I lyue: yet nowe not I, but Chriſt lyueth in me: and the life which I nowe lyue in the fleſhe, I lyue by the fayth of the ſonne of God, which loued me, and gaue hym ſelfe for me.

21 I reiect not the grace of God: For yf righteouſneſſe come of the lawe, then Chriſt is dead in vayne.

¶ The.iii. Chapter.

1. He rebuketh them sharpely, 2. and proueth by dyuers reaſons, that iuſtification is by fayth.

1 O foo-

1 O Foolish Galathians, who hath bewitched you, that ye shoulde not obey the trueth: to whom Iesus Christ was before a described before the eyes, and among you crucified?

a. To whom Christe was so lyuely preached, as if his lyuely image were set before your eyes, or els had ben crucified among you.

2 This onely woulde I learne of you, whether ye receyued the spirite by the deedes of the lawe, or by the hearyng of the fayth?

3 Are ye suche fooles, that after ye haue begunne in the spirite, ye would nowe ende in the flesshe?

4 Haue ye suffered so great thyngs in vaine? If it be yet in vayne.

5 He therefore that ministreth to you the spirite, and worketh myracles among you, doeth he it through the deedes of the lawe, or by hearyng of the fayth?

*Gene.15.6. Rom.4.3. James.2.23 6 *Euen as Abraham beleeued GOD, and it was ascribed to hym for ryghteousnesse.

7 Knowe ye therfore, that they whiche are of fayth, the same are the chyldren of Abraham.

8 For the scripture seeing afore hande that God woulde iustifie the Heathen through fayth, shewed before hand glad tydings vnto Abraham saying, * In thee shal al nations be blessed.

*Gene.21.3. Eccl.44.20

9 So then, they whiche be of fayth, are blessed with the faythful Abraham.

b. Whiche thynke to be iustified by the*Deu.27.26

10 For as many as are of the b deedes of the lawe, are vnder the curse: for it is written, * Cursed is euery one that continueth not in al thinges which are written in the booke of the lawe, to doo them.

11 But that no man is iustified by the lawe in the syght of God, it is euident: * for the iust shal lyue by fayth.

14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Iesus Christ, that we might receyue the promise of the spirite through fayth.

*c. I wyl vse a common example, that you may be ashamed to attribute lesse vnto God, then to suche couenantes whiche one man maketh to another.

15 Brethren c I speake after the maner of men, * though it be but a mans testament, yet if it be alowed, no man reiecteth it, or addeth therto.

16 * To Abraham and his seede were the promises made. He saith not, To the seedes, as of many: but, To thy seede, as of one, whiche is Christ.

*Gen.17.7.

17 This I say, that the lawe whiche began afterward beyonde * four hundred and thirtie yeeres, doeth not disanull the testament that was confyrmed afore of God vnto Christewarde, to make the promise of none effect.

The Epistle on the xiii sunday after trinitie.

18 For if the enheritance be of the lawe, then not nowe of promise. But God gaue the inheritance vnto Abraham by promise.

19 Wherefore then serueth the lawe? It * was added because of transgressions, til the seede shoulde come to whom the promise was made: and it was ordeyned by angels in the hande of a mediatour.

* the lawe,

20 A mediatour is not a mediatour of one, but God is d one.

21 Is the lawe then agaynst the promise of God? God forbyd. For if there had been a lawe geuen whiche coulde haue geuen lyfe, then no doubt ryghteousnesse shoulde haue ben by the lawe.

d. Constant, and alwayes lyke hym selfe.

22 * But the scripture hath concluded al vnder sinne, that the promise by the fayth of Iesus Christe shoulde be geuen vnto them that beleeue.

*Rom.3.4.

23 But before fayth came, we were kept vnder the lawe, & were shut vp vnto the fayth whiche shoulde afterwarde be reuealed.

24 * Wherefore the lawe was our scoolemaister vnto Christ, that we should be iustified by fayth.

*Rom.10.4.

25 But after that fayth is come, we are no longer vnder a scoolemaister.

26 For ye are all the chyldren of GOD by fayth in Christe Iesus.

27 * For * all ye that are baptised, haue put on Christe.

*Rom.6.3.

* Some reade, al ye that are baptised into Christe, haue put on Christ, 28 There is no Iewe, neyther Greeke, there is neyther bond, nor free, there is neyther male nor female: for ye are al one in Christe Iesus.

29 If ye be Christes, then are ye Abrahams seede, and heyres according to the promise.

¶ The.iiii. Chapter.

He sheweth wherefore the ceremonies were ordeyned, which beyng shadowes, must ende when Christe the trueth commeth.

1 AND I say, That the heyre as long as he is a chylde, differeth nothyng from a seruant, though he be Lorde of al:

The Epistle on the second sunday after Christmas.

2 But is vnder tutours and gouernours, vntyl the tyme appoynted of the father.

3 Euen so we, when we were children, were in bondage vnder the a rudimentes of the worlde:

a. That is, the lawe, which before he called a scoolmaister,

4 But when the fulnesse of the tyme was come, God sent his sonne made of a woman, and made vnder the lawe,

5 To redeeme them that were vnder the lawe, * that we myght receyue the adoption of chyldren.

*Rom.8.15.

6 Because

6 Because ye are sonnes, GOD hath sent forth the b spirite of his sonne into your hartes, crying b Abba father.
7 Wherefore thou art no more a seruant, but a sonne: if thou be a sonne, thou art also an heyre of God, through Christe.
8 Notwithstandyng, when ye d knewe not God, ye dyd seruice vnto them whiche by nature are no goddes.
9 But now after that ye haue knowen God, yea rather are knowen of God, howe turne ye agayne vnto the weake and beggerly ru-dimentes, whereunto agayne ye desyre afreshe to be in bondage.
10 Ye obserue dayes, and monethes, and tymes, and yeeres.
11 I am in feare of you, lest I haue bestowed on you labour in vayne.
12 Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am, for I am as ye are: Ye haue not iniured me at all.
13 Ye knowe howe through infirmitie of the flesshe, I preached the Gospel vnto you at the first:
14 e And my temptation whiche was in my flesshe ye despised not, neyther abhorred: but receyued me as an angel of God, euen as Christe Iesus.
15 What is then your felicitie? for I beare you recorde, that if it had ben possible, ye woulde haue plucked out your owne eyes, and haue geuen them to me.
16 Am I therefore become your enimie, because I tel you the trueth?
17 They are ielous ouer you f amisse: Yea, they intende to exclude g you, that ye shoulde be feruent to them warde.
18 It is good alwayes to be zelous in a good thyng, and not onely when I am present with you.
19 My lytle chyldren, of whom I trauayle in byrth agayne, vntil Christe be h fashioned in you.
20 But I desyre to be present with you nowe, and to change my voyce: for I stande in doubt of you.
21 Tell me, ye that desyre to be vnder the lawe, doo ye not heare the lawe?
22 For it is written that Abraham had two sonnes, *the one by a bonde mayde, * the other by a free woman.
23 But he whiche was of the bond woman, was borne after the flesshe: but he whiche was of the free woman was borne by promise.
24 Whiche thynges are spoken by i an allegorie: for these are two testamentes: the one from the mount Sina, whiche gendreth vnto bondage, whiche is Agar:
25 For *Agar is the mount Sina in Arabia, and bordereth vpon the citie which is nowe called Hierusalem, and is in bondage, with her chyldren.
26 But *Hierusalem whiche is aboue, is free, whiche is the mother of vs al.
27 For it is written, * Reioyce thou barren that bearest no chyldren, breake forth and crye, thou that trauaylest not: for the desolate hath many moe children then she which hath an husbande.
28 But brethren, we are* after Isahac the chyldren of promise.
29 But as then he that was borne after the flesshe, persecuted hym that was borne after the spirite, euen so is it nowe.
30 Neuertheless, what sayth the scripture?
*Put away the bondwoman and her sonne:
for the sonne of the bondwoman shall in no wyse be heyre with the sonne of the free woman.
31 So then brethren, we are not chyldren of the bondwoman, but of the free.

¶ The .v. Chapter.

1. He laboureth to drawe them away from circumcision, 7. and sheweth them the battayle betwixt the spirite & the flesshe, and the fruites of them both.

1 STande * fast therefore in the libertie wherewith Christe hath made vs free, and be not entangled "agayne with the yoke of bondage.
2 Beholde, I Paul say vnto you, that yf ye be a circumcised, Christe shal profite you nothyng.
3 For I testifie agayne to euery man whiche is circumcised, that he is a detter to doo the whole lawe.
4 Christe is become but vayne to you, as many of you as are iustified by the lawe, are fallen from grace.
5 For we through the spirite, wayte for the hope of ryghteousnesse by fayth.
6 For in Iesus Christe, neyther is circumcision any thyng woorth, neyther yet vncir-cumcision: but fayth, whiche woorketh by loue.
7 Ye did runne wel, who was a let vnto you, that ye shoulde not obey the trueth?
8 This perswasion commeth not of him that called you.
9 *A litle leauen leaueneth the whole lumpe of dowe.
10 I haue trust towarde you in the Lorde, that ye wyl be none otherwyse mynded: but he that troubleth you, shall beare iudge-ment, what so euer he be.
11 And brethren, if I yet preach circumcison, why doo I yet suffer persecution? Then is the slaunder of the crosse ceassed.

12 I

b. For our adoption vnto Christ sealed by him.
c. He instructeth both Iewes and Gentiles to call God their father in euery language, so that none are excepted.
d. When ye receyued the Gospel, ye were Idolaters, therfore it is shame for you to refuse libertie and become seruauntes, yea and seeyng the Iewes desyre to be out of their felowshyp.
e. That is, the troubles and vexations which God sent to trye me whyle I was among you.
f. For they are but ambitious.
g. They would turne you from me, that you might folowe them.
h. And imprinted so in your hartes, that ye loue none other.

The Epistle on the.xiiii. sonday after trinitie.

16 *Then I say, walke in the spirite, and ye shal not fulfyl the lust of the flesshe.

20 Worshippyng of images, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, sectes, 21 Enuiynges, murders, dronkennesse, glutonies, and suche like, of the whiche I tel you before, as I haue tolde you in tyme past, that suche they which doo such thinges, shal not inherite the kyngdome of God.

22 But the fruite of the spirite is, loue, ioy, peace, long sufferyng, gentlenesse, goodnesse, fayth, 25 If we lyue in the spirite, let vs also walke in the spirite.

26 Let vs not be desyrous of vayne glorie, prouoking one another, enuiyng one another.

¶ The.vi. Chapter.

1. He exhorteth them to vse gentlenesse towarde the weake, 2. and to shewe their brotherly loue and modestie, 6. also to prouide for their ministers.

1 BRethren, yf a man be preuented in any fault, ye whiche are spirituall, restore such a one in the spirite of meekenesse, considering thee self, lest thou also be tempted.

2 Beare ye one anothers burden, and so fulfill the lawe of Christe.

3 For yf any man seeme to him selfe that he is somewhat, when he is nothyng, the same deceiueth hym selfe in his owne fantasie.

4 But let euery man prooue his owne worke: and then shall he haue a reioycing onely in his owne selfe, and not in another.

a. For his reioycing is a testimonie of a good cōscience *1.Cor.3.8.

5 For euery man shall beare his owne burden.

6 Let hym that is taught in the worde, minister vnto hym that teacheth hym, in all good thynges.

7 Be not deceiued, God is not mocked: for what so euer a man soweth, that shall he also reape.

8 For he that soweth in his flesh, shall of the flesshe reape corruption: but he that soweth into the spirite, shall of the spirite reape life euerlastyng.

9 Let vs not be weerie in well dooing: for in due season we shal reape, yf we faint not.

10 Whyle we haue therefore tyme, let vs doo good vnto all men, specially vnto them which are of the household of fayth.

11 Ye see how large a letter I haue written vnto you with myne owne hand.

The Epistle on the. xv. sonday after Trinitie.

12 As many as desyre with outward appearance to please *carnally, y same constraine you to be circumcised: onely lest they should suffer persecution for the crosse of Christe.

*Or, in the flesh.

13 For they them selues which are circumcised, keepe not the law: but desyre to haue you circumcised, that they might glory in your flesshe.

14 God forbyd that I shoulde glory, but in the crosse of our Lorde Iesus Christ: wherby the b worlde is crucified vnto me, and I vnto the worlde.

b. By the world he meaneth all outwarde pompes, ceremonies, and thynges whiche please mens fantasies.

15 For in Christe Iesu neyther circumcision auayleth any thyng, nor vncircumcision, but a newe creature.

18 Brethren, the grace of our Lorde Iesus Christe be with your spirite. Amen.

The Epistle vnto the Galathians, was written from Rome.

The Epistle of Saint Paul the Apostle vnto the Ephesians.

The first Chapter.

After his salutation, 4. he shevveth that the cheefe cause of theyr salvation standeth in the free election of God through Christe. 16. He declareth his good vvyll tovvard them, geuing thankes, and praying God for theyr fayth. 21. The maiestie of Christe.

*1.Cor.1.1. 1 PAUL * an Apostle of Jesus Chriſte by the wyll of GOD, to the saintes whiche are at Ephesus, and to the faithfull in Chriſte Jesus,

2 Grace be with you, and peace from GOD our father, and from the Lorde Jesus Chriſte.

*1.Cor.1.3. 2.Pet.1.2. 3 *Blessed be God the father of our Lorde Jesus Chriſte, which hath blessed vs in all spirituall blessing in heauenly thinges by Chriſte:

*2.Tim.1.9 *Colos.1.29 4 According as he had chosen vs in him, before the fundation of the world, that we should be holy, and without blame before hym through loue.

a. Whereas we were not the natural children, he receiued vs by grace, and made vs his children.

5 Who hath predestinated vs into the adoption of a chyldren by Jesus Chriſte vnto hym selfe, according to the good pleasure of his wyll:

6 To the prayse of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made vs accepted in the beloued.

7 In whom we haue redemption through his blood, the forgeuenesse of sinnes, according to the riches of his grace,

8 Wherein he hath abounded towarde vs in all wysedome and prudence.

9 And hath opened vnto vs the mysterie of his wyll, according to his good pleasure which he had purposed in him selfe,

10 That in the dispensation of the fulnesse of ỹ tymes, he might geather togeather in one all thinges in Chriſt, both which are in heauens, and which are in earth, in him.

11 In whom also we are chosen, being predestinate according to the purpose of hym who worketh all thinges after the counsel of his owne wyll:

b. Though we be redeemed from the bondage of sinne by the death of Christe. Rom. 6 yet we hope for this seconde redemptiō, which shalbe when we shal possesse our inheritance in the heauens, whereof we haue the holy ghost for a gage as chap. 4.

12 That we should be vnto the praise of his glory, which before beleeued in Chriſte.

13 In whom also ye hoped after that ye heard the worde of trueth, the Gospell of your saluation: wherein also after that ye beleeued, were sealed with the holy spirite of promise, 14 Which is the earnest of our inheritance, vnto the b redemption of the purchased possession, vnto the prayse of his glory.

15 Wherefore I also, after that I heard of the fayth which ye haue in the Lord Jesus, and loue vnto all the saintes,

16 Ceasse not to geue thankes for you, making mention of you in my prayers,

17 That the God of our Lorde Jesus Chriſt, the father of glory, may geue vnto you the spirite of wysedome and reuelation, in the knowledge of hym,

18 The eyes of your minds being lightened: that ye may knowe what the hope is of his callyng, and what the richesse of the glory of his inheritance is in the saintes:

19 And what is the exceedyng greatnesse of his power to vsward whiche beleeue,* according to the worckyng of his mighty power, *Colos.2.19

20 Which he wrought in Chriſte, when he rayled him from the dead, and set hym on his right hand in heauenly places, 21 Farre aboue all rule, and power, and might, and dominion, and euery name that is named, not onely in this world, but also in the worlde to come.

22 And hath put all thinges vnder his feete, and gaue him to be the head ouer all thinges to the Church, 23 Which is his body, the fulnesse of hym that filleth all in all.

¶ The.ii. Chapter.

To magnifie the grace of Christe, vvhich is the only cause of saluation.

1 AND he quickened you that were * dead in trespasses and sinnes. *Colos.2.13

2 In the which in time passed ye walked,* according to the course of this world, after the gouernour that ruleth in the ayre, the spirite that nowe worcketh in the chyldren of disobedience. *Ephes.6.11

3 Among whom we all had our conuersation also in time past in the lustes of our flesh, fulfyllyng the wyll of the flesh, and of the minde, and a were by nature the chyldren of wrath, euen as other:

a. Not by creation, but by Adams transgression, and so by birth.

4 But God which is riche in mercie, for his great loue wherwith he loued vs,

5 Euen

5 Euen when we were dead by sinnes, hath quickened vs togeather with Christe, by vvhose grace ye are saued,

6 And hath rayled vs vp togeather, and made vs sit togeather in heauenly thynges in Christe Iesus.

7 That in ages to come he myght shewe the exceeding riches of his grace, in his kindnesse to vs warde, through Christe Iesus.

8 For by grace ye are made safe through fayth, and that not of your selues: it is the gyft of God.

9 Not of woorkes, lest any man shoulde boast hym selfe.

10 For we are his woorkmanshyp, created in Christ Iesus vnto good woorkes, which God hath before ordeyned, that we shoulde walke in them.

11 Wherefore remember that ye beyng in tyme passed Gentiles in the flesshe, called vncircumcision of that which is called circumcision in the flesshe, made by handes.

12 That at that tyme ye were without Christe, beyng aliantes from the common wealth of Israel, and strangers from the * Testamentes of promise, hauing no hope, and without God in this worlde.

Rom.9.4.

13 But nowe in Christe Iesus, ye whiche sometyme were farre of, are made nygh by the blood of Christe.

14 For he is our peace, whiche hath made both one: and hath broken downe the b middle wall that was a stop betweene vs,

b. That is, the cause of the diuision that was betweene the Iewes and the Gentiles.

15 Taking away in his flesshe the hatred, euen the * law of commaundements conteyned in ordinances, for to make of twayne one newe man in hym selfe, so making peace:

*Col.2.14.

16 And that he myght reconcile both vnto God in one body through his crosse, and slue hatred thereby,

17 And came & preached the glad tydynges of peace to you vvhiche vvere a farre of, and to them that were nygh.

18 For through hym we haue both an entrance in one spirite vnto the father.

The Epistle on Saint Thomas day.

19 Nowe therfore, ye are no more strangers and forayners: but felowe citizens with the saintes, and of the housholde of God,

20 And are buylt vpon the foundation of the Apostles and Prophetes, Iesus Christe him selfe being the head corner stone, 21 In whom al the buylding coupled togeather, groweth vnto an holy temple in the Lorde.

22 In whom also ye are buylded togeather for an habitation of God through the spirite.

¶ The .iii. Chapter.

1. He sheweth the cause of his imprisonment, 13. and desyreth them not to faynt because of his trouble.

1 FOr this cause I Paul am a prysoner of Iesus Christ for you heathen:

The Epistle on the Epiphanie.

2 If ye haue heard of the dispensation of the grace of God, whiche is geuen me to youwardes:

3 For by reuelation shewed God the a mysterie vnto me (as I wrote afore in fewe woordes,

a. Mysterie is that secrete hydden purpose of saluation through Christe.

4 Whereby when ye reade, ye may vnderstande my knowledge in the mysterie of Christe.)

5 Whiche mysterie in other ages was not opened vnto the sonnes of men, as it is nowe reuealed vnto his holy Apostles & Prophetes by the spirite:

6 That the Gentiles shoulde be inheritours also, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the Gospel:

7 Wherefore I was made a minister, according to the gyfte of the grace of God, which is geuen vnto me * after the woorking of his power.

*Ephe.1.19.

8 Unto me which am lesse then the least of al saintes is this grace geuen, that I shoulde preache among the Gentiles the vnsearchable riches of Christe,

9 And bring to lyght to all men what the felowshyp of the mysterie is, whiche from the beginning of the worlde hath been hyd in God, whiche made al thynges through Iesus Christe:

10 To the intent that nowe vnto the rulers and powers in heauenly thinges myght be knowen by the b Church, the very manifold wysedome of God,

b. The church being geathered of so many kyndes of people, is an example or a glasse for the angels to beholde the wysedome of God in, who hath turned their particuler discordes, into an vniuersall concorde, and of the sinagogue of bondage hath made the Church of freedome

11 Accordyng to the eternall purpose whiche he wrought in Christe Iesus our Lorde:

12 By whom we haue boldnesse & entrance in the confidence by fayth of hym.

13 ¶ Wherfore I desire that ye faynt not for my tribulations for you, whiche is your glory.

¶ The Epistle on the .xvi. sunday after trinitie.

14 For this cause I bowe my knees vnto the father of our Lorde Iesus Christe.

15 Of whom all the familie in heauen and earth is named:

16 That he would graunt you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthed with might by his spirite in the inner man,

17 That Christe may dwell in your hartes by fayth: that ye being rooted and grounded in loue,

18 Myght be able to comprehende with all saintes, what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and heyght:

19 And to knowe the loue of Christe, which excelleth al knowledge, that ye myght be filled with al fulnesse of God.

20 Unto hym that is able to doo exceeding abundantly aboue all that we aske or thinke, thinke, accoꝛding to the power that wooꝛketh in vs,

21 Be glozy in the churche by Chꝛiste Jesus throughout all ages, wozlde without ende, Amen.

1 I Therefoꝛe a pꝛysoner *in the Loꝛde exhoꝛt you, that ye walke wooꝛthie of the vocation wherewith ye are called,

2 With al lowlinesse and meekenesse, with long sufferyng, foꝛbeareing one another in loue,

3 Endeuouring to keepe the vnitie of the spirite in the bonde of peace.

a. so that ye can not dissent one from another, seeyng the spirite whiche ioyneth you in one body can not dissent from hym selfe.

4 One body, and one a spirite, euen as ye are called in one hope of your callyng.

5 One Loꝛde, one fayth, one baptisme.

*1.Co.12.28

11 * And he gaue some Apostles, and some Pꝛophetes, and some Euangelistes, & some Shepheardes, and Teachers,

12 To the geatheryng togeather of the saintes, into the wooꝛke of ministration, into the edifiyng of the body of Chꝛiste:

13 Tyll we al meete togeather into the vnitie of faith & knowledge of the sonne of God, vnto a perfect man, vnto the measure of the age of the fulnesse of Chꝛiste:

14 That we hencefooꝛth be no moꝛe chyldren, wauerying and caryed about with euery wynde of doctrine, and in the wilynesse of men, in craftinesse, to the laying b wayte of deceyte.

b. Whereby they laye in wayte to deceyue.

15 But folowing trueth in loue, let vs growe vp into hym in al thynges which is the head euen Chꝛiste:

16 In whom all the body being comenient-ly coupled, & knyt togeather by euery ioynt, yeeldyng nourishment accoꝛdyng to the effectual power in the measure of c euery part, maketh encrease of the body, vnto the edifiyng of it selfe in loue.

d. That is, wherewith one ministreth to another.

17 This I say therefoꝛe, and testifie in the Loꝛde, that ye hencefooꝛth walke not * as other Gentiles walke, in vanitie of theyꝛ mynde:

The Epistle on the xix. sunday after trinitie.

27 Neyther geue place to the deuyl.

28 Let hym that stoole, steale no moꝛe: but let hym rather labour, wooꝛking with his handes the thyng whiche is good, that he may geue vnto hym that needeth.

29 Let no fylthie communication pꝛoceede out of your mouth, but that whiche is good to edifie withall, as oft as neede is, that it may minister grace vnto the hearers.

30 And greeue not g the holy spirite of God, by whom ye are sealed vnto the day of redemption.

g. So behaue your selues, that the holy ghost may wylyngly dwel in you, and geue hym no occasion to depart for sorow, by your abusing of Gods graces.

31 Let all bytternesse, and fiercenesse, and wꝛath, and crying, and euyll speaking, be put away from you, with al noughtinesse.

32 Be ye curteous one to another, merciful, foꝛgeuing one another, euen as God foꝛ Chꝛistes sake hath foꝛgeuen you.

¶ The.v.Chapter.

He entreateth of corporal marryages, and of the spiritual betwixt Christe and his Churche.

1 BE ye therefoꝛe folowers of God, as deare chyldren:

*1. The. 1. 3. The Epistle on the. xii. sunday after Trinitie.

3 *I thanke my God with all remembrance of you:

4 (Allwayes in al my prayer for all you, makyng prayer with gladnesse:)

a. That ye receiued the gospel.

5 For your felowshyp in the gospel, from the fyrst a day vnyll nowe:

6 Being perswaded of the same thing, that he which hath begun a good worke in you, wyll perfourme it vntyll the day of Iesus Christe:

7 As it becommeth me to iudge this of you all, because I haue you in my hart, and in my bondes, in the defence and confirmation of the Gospell, you all being partakers of my b grace.

b. Of this peculier benefite to suffer for Christes sake.

8 For God is my recorde howe greatly I long after you all in the c bowels of Iesus Christe.

c. That is, from the very hart roote of Iesus Christe,

9 And this I pray, that your loue may abound yet more and more in knowledge, and in all vnderstandyng:

10 That ye may discerne thinges that differ: that ye may be pure and without offence tyll the day of Christe, 11 Being filled with the fruites of righteousnesse, whiche are by Iesus Christe, vnto the glory and prayse of God.

12 But I would ye should vnderstand, brethren, that the thyngs which came vnto me, hath come rather vnto the furtherance of the Gospell.

13 So that my d bondes in Christe are manifest throughout all the iudgement hall, and in all other places.

d. Which I susteyne for Christes cause.

14 And many of the brethren in the Lorde, being incouraged through my bondes, dare more plentifully speake the woord without feare.

18 What then? so that Christe be preached any maner of way, whether it be by pretence, or by trueth, I ioy therein, & wyl ioy.

19 For I knowe that this shal turne to my saluation through your prayer, and ministryng of the spirite of Iesus Christe, 20 Accordyng to my earnest expectation and my hope, that in nothing I shalbe ashamed: but that with all boldenesse, as alwayes, so nowe also Christe shalbe magnified in my body, whether it be by lyfe, or by death.

21 For Christe is to me lyfe, and death is to me aduauntage.

22 But whether to liue in the flesshe, this be the fruite of my labour, and what I shall choose, I wote not.

23 For I am in a strayte betwixt two, hauing a desire to depart, & to be with Christ, whiche is muche farre better.

24 Neuertheless, to abyde in the [a] flesshe, is more needeful for you.

25 And this I am sure of, that I shal abyde and continue with you al, for your furtheraunce and ioy of fayth:

26 That your reioycyng may be the more abundant in Iesus Christe for me, by my comming to you agayne.

¶ The.ii.Chapter.

1. Hauyng protested his good vvyl towarde them, 4. he admonisheth them not to turne backe from Christe.

1 FOr I would that ye knewe what great fight I haue for you, and for them that are at Laodicea, and for as many as haue not seene my face in the flesshe:

2 That their hartes might be comforted, being knit togeather in loue, and in al rychesse of certayntie of vnderstanding, to knowe the mysterie of God, and of the father, and of Christe:

3 In whom are hyd al the treasures of wisedome and knowledge.

4 This I say, lest any man shoulde beguile you with perswasion of woordes.

5 *For though I be absent in the flesshe, yet am I with you in the spirit, ioying and beholding your order, and your stedfast fayth in Christe. *1.Cor.5.3.

6 As ye haue therefore receyued Christ Iesus the Lorde, so walke ye in him:

7 Rooted and buylt in hym, and stablished in the fayth, as ye haue been taught, *abounding therein with thankesgeuyng. *1.Cor.1.5.

8 Beware lest any man spoyle you thorowe a philosophie and vayne deceyte, after the tradition of men, and after the rudimentes of the worlde, and not after Christe:

a. Teachyng you vayne speculations, as woorshipping of angelles, of blynde ceremonies, and beggerly traditions: for nowe they haue no vse, seeyng Christ is come.

9 For in him dwelleth al the fulnesse of the Godhead bodily:

10 And ye are complete in hym, whiche is the head of al principalitie and power.

11 In whom also ye are *circumcised with circumcision made without handes, by putting of the body of the flesshe subiect to sinne, by the circumcision of Christe: *Rom.2.29.

12 *Buryed with hym in baptisme, in whom ye are also ryssen agayne through the fayth b of the operation of God, who hath rayssed hym from the dead. *Ephes.1.19

b. In beleeuyng that God by his power rayssed vp Christe, where of we haue a sure token in our baptisme.

13 And ye beyng dead in your synnes, and the vncircumcision of your flesshe, hath he quickened with hym, hauing forgeuen all your trespasses,

14 And when he had blotted out the hande writyng of ordinances that was agaynst vs, and that was contrarie to vs, euen that hath he taken out of the way, hauing fastened it to his crosse:

15 And hauyng spoyled all principalities and powers, hath made a shewe of them openly, triumphing ouer them in hym selfe.

16 Let no man therefore iudge you in meate or in drynke, or in part of an holy day, or of the newe Moone, or of the Sabboth dayes:

17 Which are shadowes of thinges to come, but the body is of Christe.

c. Meaning that the hypocrites led them at their pleasure into all superstition and errour

18 Let no man beguyle c you of victorie, in the humblenesse and worshyppyng of angels, intrudyng hym selfe into those thynges whiche he hath not seene, causelesse puft vp with his fleshly mynde:

19 And holdeth not the head, whereof all the body by ioyntes and bandes, hauyng nourishment ministred and knit togeather, encreaseth with the encrease of God.

20 Wherefore yf ye be dead with Christe from the rudimentes of the world: why, as though lyuyng in the worlde, are ye ledde with traditions, 21 Touche not, taste not, handle not?

*Or, doo perish in abusing. Erasmus.

22 Whiche al* be in corruption, in abusyng after the commaundementes and doctrines of men:

23 Whiche thynges haue a shewe of wysedome in voluntarie religion and humblenesse of mynde, and in not sparyng of the bodye, not in any honour* to the satisfiyng of the flesshe.

*seeyng they pertayne.

¶ The.iii. Chapter.

1. He shevveth vvhere vve shoulde seeke Christe. 5. He exhorteth to mortification, 10. to put of the olde man, and to put on Christe.

The Epistle on Easter day.

1 IF ye then be rysen with Christe, seeke those thynges whiche are aboue, where Christe sitteth on the ryght hand of God.

a. Which eyther serue but for a time, or els are inuented by man.

2 Set your affection on a thynges aboue, not on thynges on the earth.

3 For ye are dead, and your lyfe is hyd with Christe in God.

4 Whensoeuer Christe whiche is our lyfe shal appeare, then shal ye also appeare with hym in glory.

*Ephe.5.3.

5 Mortifie therefore your members whiche are vpon the earth: *fornication, vncleannesse, inordinate affection, euyll concupiscense, and couetousnesse, whiche is worshippyng of images:

6 For whiche thynges sake, the wrath of God commeth on the chyldren of disobedience,

7 In the whiche ye also walked sometime, when ye lyued in them.

*Rom.6.4. Ephe.4.23 Heb.12.1.

8 *But nowe put ye of also all wrath, fiercenesse, malitiousnesse, blasphemie, fylthye communication out of your mouth.

9 Lye not one to another, seeing that ye haue put of the olde man with his workes:

10 And haue put on the newe man, whiche is renued into knowledge, after the image of hym that made hym.

11 Where is neyther Greke nor Iewe, circumcision nor vncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bonde, free: but Christe is all, and in al.

The Epistle on the fifth Sunday after the Epiphanie.

12 *Put on therefore (as the electe of God, b holye and beloued) bowelles of mercye, kyndenesse, humblenesse of mynde, meekenesse, long sufferyng,

*Ephe.6.11.

b. He sheweth what fruites are in them that are dead to the worlde, and are rysen agayne with Christe.

13 Forbearyng one another, and forgeuyng one another, yf any man haue a quarell agaynst any: euen as Christe forgaue you, so also doo ye.

14 And aboue all thynges put on charitie, whiche is the bonde of perfectnesse.

15 And let the peace of God haue the victorie in your hartes, to the which also we are called in one body, and see that ye be thankful.

16 Let the word of Christ dwel in you richly in all wysedome, teachyng and admonishyng your owne selues, in Psalmes, and Hymnes, and spirituall songes, syngyng with grace in your hartes to the Lorde.

17 *And whatsoeuer ye doo in worde or deede, doo all in the name of the Lorde Iesus, geuyng thankes to God and the father by hym.

*1. Co.10.31

18 *Wyues, submit your selues vnto your owne husbandes, as it is comely in the Lorde.

*Ephe.5.22 1. Pet.3.1.

19 *Husbandes, loue your wyues, and be not bytter vnto them.

*Ephes.6.1.

20 Chyldren, obey your parentes in al thinges, for that is well pleasyng vnto the Lorde.

21 Fathers, c prouoke not your chyldren to anger, lest they be discouraged.

c. By to much rigour.

22 *Seruauntes, obey in all thynges your bodyly maisters: not with eye seruice, as men pleasers, but in singlenesse of hart, fearyng God.

*Ephes.6.5. Titus.2.9. 1. Pet.2.18.

23 And whatsoeuer ye doo, doo it hartily, as to the Lorde, and not vnto men:

24 Knowyng, that of the Lorde ye shall receyue the rewarde of inheritaunce: for ye serue the Lorde Christe.

25 But he that doeth wrong, shal receyue for the wrong whiche he hath doone: *and there is no respect of persons.

¶ The.iiii. Chapter.

1. He exhorteth them to be feruent in prayer, 5. to vvalke vvysely tovvarde them that are not yet come to the true knovvledge of Christ. 10. he saluteth them, and vvisheth them all prosperitie.

that ye also haue a maister in heauen.

4 That I maye vtter it as I ought to speake.

*Ephe.5.15. 5 *Walke in wysedome towarde them that are without, redeeming the time.

6 Let your speache be alway in grace, powdered with salt, to knowe howe ye ought to answeare euery man.

7 All my state shall Tychicus declare vnto you, who is a dearely beloued brother, and a faithfull minister, and felowe seruaunt in the Lorde:

8 Whom I haue sent vnto you for the same thing, that he might knowe your state, and comforte your hartes:

9 With Onesimus a faithful and dearely beloued brother, whiche is of you. They shal shewe you of all thinges which are done here.

10 Aristarcus my prison felowe saluteth you, and Marcus Barnabas systers sonne, (touchyng whom ye receiued commaundementes:) If he come vnto you, receiue him, 12 Epaphras whiche is of you, a seruant of Christ, saluteth you, alwayes labouryng feruently for you in prayers, that ye may stand perfect, and filled in al the wyll of God.

13 For I beare him record that he hath a great zeale for you, and them that are in Laodicea, and them that are in Hierapolis.

14 Deare Lucas the Physition, and Demas greeteth you.

15 *Salute the brethren whiche are in Laodicea, and Nymphas, and the Churche whiche is in his house. *2. Ti.4.11.

16 And when the Epistle is read of you, cause that it be read also in the Churche of the Laodiceans: and that ye likewyse reade the Epistle from Laodicea.

17 And say to Archippus, Take heede to the ministerie that thou hast receiued in the Lorde, that thou fulfyl it.

18 The salutation by the hand of me Paul. Remember my bondes. Grace be with you, Amen.

¶ Written from Rome to the Collossians, by Tychicus and Onesimus.

¶ The fyrst Epistle of saint Paul the Apostle to the Thessalonians.

¶ The fyrst Chapter.

1. Hi thanketh God for them, that they are so stedfaste in fayth and good vvoorkes

1 PAul and Siluanus and Timotheus, vnto the Churche of the Thessalonians vvhiche is in a God the father, and in the Lord Iesus Christe, Grace be vnto you, and peace from God our father, and the Lorde Iesus Christe. a. For there is no Churche which is not ioyned togeather in God.

*2.The.1.3. 2 * We geue thankes to God alwayes for all you, making mention of you in our prayers.

3 Without ceassing callyng to remembrance the woorke of your fayth, and labour of loue, and patient abyding in the hope of our lord Iesus Christ, in the syght of God and our father.

4 Knowing, brethren beloued, your election of God.

5 For our Gospel came not vnto you in woord onely, but also in power, and in the holy ghoste, and in muche certaynetie, as ye knowe after what maner we were among you for your sake.

6 And ye became folowers of vs, and of the Lord, hauyng receyued the woorde in much affliction, with b ioy of the holy ghost: b. To beleeue, and to be fully perswaded to haue the giftes of ỹ holy ghost, and ioyfully to suffer for Christes sake, are most certayne signes of our election.

7 So that ye were an ensample to all that beleeue in Macedonia and Achaia.

8 For from you sounded out the woorde of the Lorde, not onely in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in euery place your fayth to godward is spread abrode, so that we neede not to speake any thyng.

9 For they them selues shewe of you, what maner of entring in we had vnto you, and howe ye turned to God from c images, to serue the lyuyng and true God: c. For images are dead things and onely faigned fantasies.

10 And to tarrie for his sonne from heauen, whom he raysed from the dead, euen Iesus which deliuereth vs from ỹ wrath to come.

¶ The

¶ The.ii. Chapter.

2. He commendeth his diligence in preachyng, 13. and theyrs in obeying.

1 FOr ye your selues, brethren, knowe our entraunce in vnto you, that it was not in a vayne.

a. Not in outwarde shewe and in pompe, but in trauel, and in the feare of God.

2 *But euen after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated as ye knowe at Philippos, we were bolde in our God, to speake vnto you the Gospel of God, in muche striuing.

*Act.16.22.

3 For our exhortation was not of deceyte, neyther of vncleannesse, neyther in guile:

4 But as we were alowed of God to be put in credite with the Gospel, euen so we speake, not as pleasyng men, but GOD, which tryeth our hartes.

5 For neyther at any time vsed we flatering woordes, as ye knowe, neither cloke of couetousnesse, God is recorde,

6 Neither sought we prayse of men, neither of you, nor yet of others:

7 When we might haue been in *aucthoritie, as the Apostles of Christ, but were tender among you, euen as a b nurse cherisheth her chyldren.

*Or, a burden.

b. He humbled hym selfe to support all thyngs without all respect of lucre: euen as the tender mother which nurseth her chyldren, and thynketh no office to vile for her chyldrens sake.

8 So, being tenderly affected towarde you, our good wyl was to haue dealt vnto you, not the Gospel of God onely, but also our owne soules: because ye were deare vnto vs.

9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and trauayle: *for we labouring night and day, because we woulde not be chargeable vnto any of you, preached vnto you the Gospel of God.

*Act.20.34. 2.Thes.3.8.

10 Ye are witnesses, and God also, howe holily, and iustly, and vnblameably, we behaued our selues among c you that beleeue.

c. For it is not possible to auoyde the reproche of the wycked, which euer hate good dooynges.

11 And ye knowe howe that as a father his chyldren, so we haue exhorted, comforted, and besought euery one of you, 12 That ye would walke woorthie of God, *who hath called you vnto his kyngdome and glory.

*Ephes.4.1.

13 For this cause thanke we God also without ceassyng, because when ye had receyued the woorde of God whiche ye heard of vs, ye receyued it not as the woorde of men (but as it is in deede) the woorde of God, which effectuously woorketh also in you that beleeue.

14 For ye, brethren, became folowers of the Churches of God, which in Iurie are in Christ Iesus: for ye also haue suffered like thinges of your countreymen, as they haue of the Iewes:

15 Who both kylled the Lorde Iesus, and their owne prophetes, and haue persecuted vs: and God they please not, and are contrarie to d al men:

d. And woulde hynder al men from theyr saluation.

16 And hynder vs to speake to the Gentiles, that they might be saued, to fulfyl theyr sinnes alway. For the wrath of God is come on them to the vttermost.

17 Forasmuche, brethren, as we are kept from you for a short season, in person, not in hart, *we enforced the more to see you personally with great desyre.

*Rom.1.11.

18 And therefore we would haue come vnto you (euen I Paul) once and agayne: but Satan hyndered vs.

19 For what is our hope, or ioy, or crowne of reioycing? Are e not ye it in the presence of our Lorde Iesus Christ at his comming?

e. Therefore I coulde not forgeat you, except I woulde forgeat mee selfe.

20 Yea, ye are our glory and ioy.

¶ The.iii Chapter.

2. He sheweth howe greatly he was affectioned towarde them, both in that he sent Timotheus to them, 10. and also prayed for them.

1 WHerefore, since we coulde no longer forbeare, we thought it good to remayne at Athens alone:

2 *And sent Timotheus, our brother and minister of God, and felowe labourer in the Gospel of Christe, to stablishe you, and to comfort you concerning your fayth:

*Actes.16.1.

3 That no man shoulde be mooued in these afflictions: for ye your selues knowe that we are appoynted thereunto.

4 For verely when we were with you, we tolde you before, that we shoulde suffer tribulation: euen as it came to passe, and as ye knowe.

5 For this cause when I a could no longer forbeare, I sent hym to knowe your fayth, lest by some meanes the tempter had tempted you, and our labour had been vayne.

a. His great affection towarde the small flocke.

6 But nowe lately when Timotheus came from you vnto vs, and brought vs good tydinges of your fayth and charitie, & howe that ye haue good remembrance of vs alwayes, desyring greatly to see vs, as we also to see you:

7 Therefore, brethren, we were comforted ouer you, in al our aduersitie and necessitie, because of your fayth:

8 For nowe we b lyue, yf ye stande fast in the Lorde.

b. If ye remayne constant in fayth & true doctrine, I shall thynke that al mine afflictions be so many pleasures, and I shalbe restored from death to lyfe.

9 For what thankes can we recompence to God agayne for you, for al the ioy wherewith we ioy for your sakes before our God?

10 *Praying night and day exceedingly to see you personally, and repayre the wantinges of your fayth.

*Rom.1.10.

11 Nowe God him selfe, and our father, and our Lorde Jesus Christe, guide our way vnto you.

12 And the Lorde increase you, and make you abounde in charitie one towarde another, and towarde al men, euen as we also towarde you:

13 To stablishe your hartes vnblameable *in holinesse before God and our father, in the commyng of our Lorde Jesus Christe with al his saintes.

*2.Cor.1.8.

¶ The.iiij.Chapter.

1. He exhorteth them to holinesse, 6. and innocencie, 9. loue, 11. labour, 13. and moderation in lamenting for the dead.

The Epistle on the.ij.sunday in Lent.

1 FUrthermore we beseeche you brethren, and exhort you by the Lorde Jesus, that ye encrease more and more, as ye haue receiued of vs, howe ye ought to walke and to please God.

2 For ye knowe what commaundementes we gaue you by the Lorde Jesus.

*or, sanctification.

3 For this is the wyl of God, euen your *holinesse, a that ye should abstayne from fornication:

*Rom.12.1. Ephes.5.27.

a. That is, that ye shoulde dedicate your selues wholy to God.

4 That euery one of you shoulde knowe howe to possesse his vessel in holinesse and honour:

5 Not in the lust of concupiscence, euen as the Gentiles whiche knowe not God.

*1.Cor.6.8.

6 *That no man oppresse and defraude his brother in any matter, because that the Lord is the auenger of al suche, as we also haue forewarned you, and testified.

*1.Cor.1.2.

7 *For GOD hath not called vs vnto vncleannesse, but into holinesse.

8 He therefore that despyseth, despiseth not man, but God, who hath also geuen to you his holy spirite.

*John.13.34. *1.John.1.8.

9 *But as touching brotherly loue, ye neede not that I write vnto you: for ye are taught of God to loue one another.

10 Yea, and that thing verily ye doo vnto al the brethren, whiche are in al Macedonia: but we beseeche you brethren, that ye encrease more and more:

11 And that ye studie to be quiet, and to doo your owne busines, and to worke with your owne handes, as we commaunded you:

12 That ye may walke honestly towarde them that are without, and that ye may haue lacke of nothing.

b. He doeth not condemne al kinde of sorowe, but that which proceedeth of infidelitie.

13 But I woulde not haue you to be ignorant, brethren, concernyng them whiche sleepe, that ye b sorowe not, euen as other which haue no hope.

14 For if we beleeue that Jesus dyed, and rose agayne, euen so them also which sleepe by Jesus, wyl God bryng with hym.

15 For this we say vnto you in the woorde of the Lorde: that we which *lyue, which remayne vnto the commyng of the Lorde, shal not preuent them which sleepe.

*1.Cor.15.51

16 *For the Lorde hym selfe shal dissende from heauen in a shout, and in the voyce of the Archangel, *and in the trumpe of God: and the dead in Christe shal rise fyrst.

*Mat.24.31. *1.Cor.15.52.

17 Then we which lyue, whiche remayne, shalbe caught vp together with them in the cloudes, to meete the Lorde in the ayre: and so shal we euer be with the Lorde.

18 Wherefore comfort your selues one another in these woordes.

¶ The.v.Chapter.

He enformeth them of the day of iudgement, and comming of the Lorde.

1 BUt of the times & seasons, brethren, ye haue no neede that I write vnto you.

2 *For ye your selues knowe perfectly that the day of the Lorde so commeth, euen as a theefe in the night.

*Math.24.44. 2.Pet.3.10. Apoc.3.3.

3 For when they shal say peace and safetie: then sodaynely destruction commeth vpon them, a as sorowe vpon a woman with chylde, and they shal not escape in any wyse.

a. That is, sodenly and vnlooked for.

4 But ye brethren are not in darknesse, lest that day shoulde ouertake you, as a theefe.

5 Ye are al the chyldren of lyght, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, neyther of darknesse.

6 Therefore let vs not b sleepe, as doo other: but let vs watche, and be sober.

b. Here sleepe is taken for contempt of saluation, when men continue in sinnes, and wyl not awake to godlinesse.

7 For they that sleepe, sleepe in the nyght: and they that be dronken, are dronken in the nyght.

8 But let vs which are of the day, be sober, *putting on the brest plate of faith and charitie, and a helmet, the hope of saluation.

*Esai.59.17 Ephes.6.17

9 For God hath not appoynted vs to wrath: but to obteyne saluation by our Lorde Jesus Christ,

10 Whiche dyed for vs, that whether we wake or sleepe, we shoulde lyue together with him.

11 Wherefore, comfort your selues together, and edifie euery one another, euen as ye doo.

12 And we beseeche you, brethren, to knowe them which labour among you, and haue the ouersight of you in the Lorde, and admonishe you:

13 That ye haue them in high reputation, in loue for their worke: and be at peace among among your selues.

14 We exhort you, brethren, warne them that are vnruly, comfort the feeble minded, lyft vp the weake, be patient towarde all men.
*Mat.5.44. 15 *See that none recompence euyl for euyl vnto any man: but euer followe that whiche is good, both among your selues, and to all men.
16 Reioyce euer.
*Luke.18.1. 17 *Pray continually.
18 In all thynges geue thankes: For this is the wyll of God in Christ Iesus toward you.
19 Quenche not the spirite.
c. The preachyng of the worde of God. 20 Despise not c prophesiynges.
21 Examine all thynges: holde fast that whiche is good.
22 Abstayne from al apparance of euyl.
23 And the very God of peace sanctifie you throughout, And I pray God that your whole spirite, and soule, and body, may be preserued blameles in the commyng of our Lord Iesus Christe.
24 *Faythfull is he whiche called you, whiche wyl also doo it. *1.Cor.1.7.
25 Brethren, pray for vs.
26 Greete all thy brethren in an holy kysse.
27 I charge you in the Lord, that this Epistle be read vnto al the holy brethren.
28 The grace of our Lorde Iesus Christe be with you, Amen.

1. He thanketh God for theyr fayth, loue, and patience. 11. He prayeth for the encrease of the same, 12. and sheweth what frute shall come thereof.

1 PAul and Siluanus, and Timotheus, vnto the Churche of the Thessalonians, in God our father, and the Lorde Iesus Christe.
2 Grace vnto you, and peace from God our father, & the Lord Iesus Christe.
*1.Thes.1.2 3 *We are bounde to thanke God alwayes for you, brethren, as it is meete, because that your fayth groweth exceedyngly, and the charitie of euery one of you towardes another aboundeth:
4 So that we our selues reioyce in you in the Churches of God, for your a patience & fayth in all our persecutions and tribulations that ye suffer.
a. Whiche proceedeth of your fayth as a most notable fruite.
5 Which is a b token of the ryghteous iudgement of God, that ye may be counted woorthie of the kingdome of God, for whiche ye also suffer.
b. The faythful by theyr afflictions, see as in a cleare glasse, the ende of Gods iust iudgement, when as they shal raigne with Christe which haue suffered with him: and the wicked shal feele his extreeme wrath and vengeance.
6 For it is a ryghteous thyng with God, to recompence tribulation to them that trouble you:
7 And to you which are troubled, rest with vs, in the reuelation of the Lord Iesus from heauen, with the angels of his power,
8 In flamyng fyre, rendryng vengeance vnto them that knowe not God, and that obey not the Gospel of our Lorde Iesus Christe,
9 Which shalbe punished with euerlasting damnation from the presence of the Lorde, and from the glory of his power:
10 When he shall come to be glorified in his saintes, and to be made marueylous in al them that beleeue (because our testimonie towarde you was beleeued) in that day.
11 Wherfore also we pray allwayes for you, that our God woulde make you worthy of the callyng, and fulfyll all good pleasure of goodnesse in the c woorke of fayth in power:

7 For the mysterie of iniquitie doth alredy worke, onely he whiche nowe letteth vvyl let, vntyl he be taken out of the way.

8 And then shall that wicked be reuealed, * Esai.11.4. *whom the Lord shal consume with the spirite of his mouth, and shal destroy with the bryghtnesse of his commyng:

9 Euen hym whose commyng is after the working of Satan, in al power and signes, and woonders of lying,

10 And in all deceyuablenesse of vnryghteousnesse, in them that perysshe: because they receiued not the loue of the trueth, that they myght be saued.

11 And therefore GOD shall sende them strong delusion, that they shoulde beleeue lyes:

12 That al they myght be damned whiche beleeued not the trueth, but had pleasure in vnrighteousnesse.

13 But we are bounde to geue thankes alway to God for you, brethren, beloued of the Lorde, because that God hath from the begynnyng chosen you to saluation, in sanctifying of the spirite, and in fayth of the trueth.

14 Wherunto he called you by our Gospel, to the obteynyng of the glory of the Lorde Iesus Christe.

15 Therfore brethren stande fast, and holde the ordinaunces which ye haue ben taught, whether it were by our preachyng, or by our Epistle.

16 Our Lorde Iesus Christe, and God and our father whiche hath loued vs, and hath geuen vs euerlasting consolation, and good hope in grace, 17 Comfort your hartes, and stablyche you in al good saying and dooyng.

¶ The.iii.Chapter.

He desyreth them to pray for hym, that the Gospel may prosper.

1 FVrthermore brethren, * pray ye for vs, that the woorde of the Lorde may haue free passage, and be glorifyed, euen as with you: * Ephe.6.19 Colos.4.3.

2 And that we may be deliuered from disordered and euyl men: For al men haue not fayth.

a Although they bost themselues thereof.

3 But the Lorde is faythful, which shal stablyshe you, and keepe you from euyl.

4 And we haue confidence in the Lorde touwarde, that ye both doo, and wyl do the thynges whiche we commaunde you.

5 And the Lorde guide your hartes to the loue of God, and to the pacient waiting for Christe.

6 We commaund you, brethren, in the name of our Lorde Iesus Christe; that ye withdrawe your selues from euery brother that walketh inordinately, & not after the b institution whiche he receyued of vs.

b. Which is, to trauayle yf he wyl eate. * 1.Cor.11.1. * 1.Thess.4.11.

7 For ye your selues knowe * how ye ought to folowe vs: * For we behaued not our selues inordinately among you,

8 * Neyther tooke we bread of any man for nought: but wrought with labour and sweate nyght and day, because we woulde not be chargeable to any of you. * Act.20.34 1.Thess.2.9

9 Not because we haue not auctoritie, but to make our selues an ensample vnto you to folowe vs.

10 For when we were with you, this we warned you of, that yf any woulde not worke, the same shoulde not eate.

11 For we heare that there are some which walke among you inordinately, woorkyng not at al, but be busibodies.

12 Them that are suche, we commaunde, and exhort by our Lorde Iesus Christ, that they working in quietnesse, eate their owne bread.

13 And ye, * brethren, be not weery in well dooyng. * Galat.6.9.

14 If any man obey not our doctrine, signifie hym by an Epistle, * and haue no companie with hym, that he may be ashamed. * Mat.18.17 2.Cor.5.6.

15 Yet count hym not as an c enimie, but warne hym as a brother.

c. The ende of excommunication, is, not to dryue from the Church such as haue fallen, but to win them to the Churche by amendment.

16 Nowe the very Lorde of peace, geue you peace alwayes, by al meanes. The Lord be with you all.

17 The salutation of me Paul, with myne owne hande, whiche is the token in euery Epistle. So I write.

18 The grace of our Lorde Iesus Christe be with you all, Amen.

The .i. Epistle of Saint Paul the Apostle vnto Timothie.

The first Chapter.

He exhorteth Timothie to vvayte vppon his office, namely, to see that nothyng be taught but Gods vvoorde.

1 PAUL the Apostle of Iesus Chriſte, by the commiſſion of GOD our ſauiour, & Lorde Ieſus Chriſt vvhiche is our hope,

2 Unto * Timothie a naturall a ſonne in the fayth: Grace, mercie, and peace from God our father, and Ieſus Chriſte our Lorde.

3 As I beſought thee to abide ſtill at Epheſus, when I departed into Macedonia, ſo doo, that thou commaunde ſome that they teache no other doctrine:

4 Neither gene heede to fables, and endleſſe genealogies, whiche breede queſtions, more then godly edifiyng, which is in fayth.

5 But the b ende of the commaundement, is charitie out of a pure hart, and of a good conſcience, and of fayth vnfaigned.

6 From the whiche thinges, ſome hauyng erred, haue turned vnto vayne iangelyng:

7 Coueting to be doctours of the lawe, not vnderſtandyng what they ſpeake, neyther whereof they affirme.

8 But we knowe that the lawe is good, yf a man vſe it lawfully:

9 Knowing this, that the lawe is not geuen vnto a righteous man, but vnto the lawleſſe and diſobedient, to the vngodly, and to ſynners, to vnholy, and vncleane, to murderers of fathers, and murderers of mothers, to manſlears,

10 To whoremongers, to them that defile themſelues with mankind, to manſtealers, to lyers, to periured, & yf there be any other thyng that is contrary to wholeſome doctrine:

11 Accordyng to the Goſpel of the glory of the bleſſed God, whiche is committed vnto me.

12 And I thanke Chriſte Ieſus our Lorde, whiche hath made me ſtrong: for he counted me faythfull, putting me into the miniſterie, 13 Who was before a blaſphemer, and an oppreſſour: But yet I obteyned mercie, becauſe I dyd it c ignorantly, in vnbeleefe.

14 Neuertheleſſe, the grace of our Lorde was exceeding abundant, with faith, and loue, which is in Chriſte Ieſus.

15 This is a faythfull ſaying, and by all meanes worthy to be receiued, * that Chriſt Ieſus came into the worlde to ſaue ſinners, of whom I am cheefe. * Mat. 9. 3. Mar. 2. 17.

16 Notwithſtandyng, for this cauſe was mercie ſhewed vnto me, that in me the firſt, Ieſus Chriſte might ſhewe all long ſuffering, to the example of them which ſhoulde beleeue on hym to lyfe euerlaſtyng.

17 d Nowe vnto the kyng euerlaſtyng, incorruptible, inuiſible, vnto God only wyſe * be honour and glory for euer and euer. Amen. d. He burſteth foorth into theſe godly affections, conſydering Gods great mercy toward hym.

18 This commaundement commit I vnto thee ſonne Timotheus, accordyng to the propheſies whiche went before vppon thee, that thou in them ſhouldeſt fyght a good fyght:

19 Hauing fayth and good conſcience, which ſome hauyng put away, as concernyng fayth, haue made ſhipwracke.

20 Of whom is * Hymeneus and Alexander, whom I haue * deliuered vnto Satan, that they may learne not to blaſpheme. * 1. Cor. 5. 5. d. Excommunicate, or caſt out of the Churche.

¶ The .ii. Chapter.

1. He exhorteth to pray for all men, 4. vvherefore. 8. and howe. 9. & touchyng the Apparell and modeſtie of vvomen.

1 I Exhort you therefore, that fyrſt of al prayers, ſupplications, interceſſions, and geuyng of thankes be made for all men:

2 For kynges, and for all that are in authoritie, that we may leade a quiet and peaceable lyfe, in all godlineſſe and honeſtie.

3 For that is good and acceptable in the ſight of God our Sauiour.

4 Who wyll haue all men to be ſaued, and to come vnto the knowledge of the trueth.

5 For there is one GOD, and one mediatour of God and men, the man Chriſte Ieſus.

6 Who gaue hym ſelfe, a a raunſome for al, a teſtimonie in due tymes: a. He ſheweth that there can be no mediator, except he be alſo the redeemer.

7 * Whereunto I am ordeyned a Preacher and an Apoſtle (I tell the trueth in Chriſt, and lye not) a teacher of the Gentiles in fayth, and veritie. * 2. Ti. 1. 11.

8 I wyll

*Actes. 16. 2 a So called, becauſe he followed the ſimplicitie of the Goſpel.

b. Becauſe theſe queſtionaries preferred their curious fables to all other knowledge, & beautified thē with the lawe, as yf they had been the very law of God: S. Paul ſheweth that the ende of Gods lawe is loue, which can not be without a good conſcience, neyther a good conſciēce without fayth, nor fayth without the woorde of God: So their doctrine, which is an occaſion of cōtention, is worth nothing.

c. Not knowing that I fought agaynſt God.

8 I wyll therefore that the men pray euery where, lifting vp holy handes without wrath and reasoning.

*2. Pet. 3. 1. 9 * Likewyse also the women, that they aray them selues in comely apparel, with shamefastnesse and discreete behauiour, not in brayded heare, eyther gold, or pearles, or costly aray:

10 But (that becommeth women professing godlynesse) through good woorkes.

*1. Cor. 14. 34. 11 * Let the woman learne in scilence with all subiection.

12 But I suffer not a woman to teache, neither to vsurpe auctoritie ouer the man, but to be in scilence.

*Gene. 1. 27. 13 * For Adam was first fourmed, then Eue.

*Gene. 3. 6. 14 And Adam was not deceiued, but the woman being deceiued, was b in the transgression.

b. That is, gilty of the transgression.

15 Notwithstandyng, through bearyng of chyldren she shalbe saued, yf they continue in fayth and charitie, and holynesse, with modestie.

¶ The .iii. Chapter.

a. He declareth vvhat is the office of Ministers, 11. and as touching theyr families. 15. The dignitie of the Church. 16. and the principall poynt of the heauenly doctrine.

1 THIS IS a faythfull saying: Yf a man desyre the office of a Bysshop, he desyreth a good woorke.

*Tit. 1. 6. 2 * A Bysshop therefore must be blameles, the husband of one wyfe, watching, sober, comely apparelled, a louer of hospitalitie, apt to teache,

3 Not geuen to ouermuch wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre: but gentle, abhorring fighting, abhorring couetousnesse:

4 One that ruleth well his owne house, hauing children in subiectiō with all grauitie.

5 (For yf a man knowe not to rule his owne house, howe shall he care for the Church of God?)

c. Lest beyng proude of his degree, he be lykewyse condemned as the deuyll was for lyftyng vp hym selfe by pryde.

6 Not a young scholler, lest he, being puffed vp, c fal into the condemnation of the deuil.

7 He must also haue a good report of them which are without, lest he fall into the rebuke and snare of the deuill.

*Or, deacons. 8 Likewyse must the * ministers be graue, not double tongued, not geuen to muche wine, neither greedy of filthy lucre:

b. Hauing the true doctrine of the Gospel, and the feare of God. 9 b Holdyng the mysterie of the fayth in a pure conscience.

10 And let them first be proued, then let them minister, being blameles.

11 Euen so must theyr wyues be graue, not euyll speakers, sober, faythfull in al things.

12 Let the deacons be the husbandes of one wyfe, and such as can rule their chyldren well, and theyr owne housholdes.

13 For they that haue ministred well, get them selues a good degree, and great libertie to speake in the fayth vvhiche is in Christ Iesus.

14 These thinges write I vnto thee, hoping to come shortly vnto thee:

15 But yf I tarry long, that thou mayest knowe howe thou oughtest to behaue thee selfe in the house of GOD, whiche is the Churche of the liuyng God, the pyller and *ground of the trueth.

*Or, stay.

16 And without doubt, great is that mysterie of godlynesse: God was shewed manifestly in the flesshe, was iustified in the spirite, was seene among the angels, was preached vnto the Gentiles, was beleeued on in the world, and was receiued vp in glory.

¶ The .iiii. Chapter.

a. He teacheth hym vvhat doctrine he ought to flee, 6. 8. 11. and vvhat to folovve, 15. and vvherin he ought to exercise him selfe continually.

1 NOwe the spirite speaketh euidently, that * in the latter tymes some shal depart from the fayth, geuing heede vnto spirites of errour, and doctrines of deuils,

*2. Tim. 3. 13. 1. Pet. 2. 3. Iude. 1. 18.

2 Which speake false in hypocrisie, hauyng theyr a conscience seared with an hot iron:

a. Theyr dull consciences, first waxed hard, the after, canker and corruption bred therein, last of all, it was burnt of with an hot iron, so that he meaneth such as haue no conscience. Ephes. 4.

3 Forbidding to marrie, and commaundyng to abstayne from meates which GOD hath created to be receiued with geuing thanks, of them whiche beleeue and knowe the trueth.

4 For euery creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, yf it be receiued with thankes geuing.

5 For it is sanctified by the woord of God, and prayer.

6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these thinges, thou shalt be a good minister of Iesus Christe, whiche hast been nourished vp in the woordes of fayth, and of good doctrine, whiche thou hast continually folowed.

*2. Tim. 2. 23. Titus. 3. 9. 7 * But cast away prophane and old wyues fables, and exercise thee selfe rather vnto godlynesse:

8 For bodyly exercise profiteth little, but godlynesse is profitable vnto all thinges, hauing promises of the lyfe that is nowe, and of that which is to come.

9 This is a sure saying, and by all meanes woorthy to be receiued:

10 For therefore we both labour, and suffer rebuke, because we haue hoped in the liuing God, which is the sauiour of al men, specially specially of those that beleeue.

11 These thynges commaund and teache.

12 Let no man despise thy youth: but be thou a paterne of the beleeuers, in woorde, in conuersation, in charitie, in spirite, in fayth, in chastitie.

13 Tyl I come geue attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.

14 Despise not the gyft that is in thee, which was geuen thee b through prophesie, with the laying on of handes, by the authoritie of the eldership.

b. A reuelation of ỹ holy ghost.

15 Haue a care of these thynges, and geue thee selfe vnto them, that it may be seene howe thou profitest in al thynges.

16 Take heede vnto thee selfe, and vnto doctrine, and continue therein: for in doing this, thou shalt both c saue thee selfe, and them that heare thee.

c. Thou shalt faithfully doo thy duetie, which is an assurance of thy saluation.

¶ The.v.Chapter.

1. He teacheth hym howe he shal behaue hym selfe in rebuking al degrees. 3. An order concerning wydowes.

1 REbuke not an elder, but exhort hym as a father, the younger men as brethren:

2 The elder women as mothers, the younger as sisters, in al chastitie.

3 Honour wydowes, whiche are wydowes in deede.

4 But if any wydowe haue children or nephues, let them learne fyrst to rule their owne houses godly, and to recompence also their elder kinsfolkes: for that is good and acceptable before God.

5 And she that is a wydowe a in deede, and left alone, hopeth in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers nyght & day.

a. Which hath no maner of worldly meanes to helpe her selfe with.

6 But she that lyueth in pleasure, is dead, being alyue.

7 And these thynges commaunde, that they may be blameles.

8 But if any prouide not for his owne, and specially for them of his housholde, he hath denied the fayth, and is worse then an infidel.

9 Let not a wydowe be chosen vnder three score yeeres olde, hauing ben the wife of one man,

10 And wel reported of in good woorkes, if she haue brought vp children, if she haue lodged strangers, if she haue washed the Saintes feete, if she haue "ministred vnto them that were in aduersitie, if she haue ben continually geuen to euery good woorke.

"Or, holpen them.

11 But the younger wydowes refuse, for when they haue begun to waxe wanton against Christe, they wyl marry

12 Hauing damnation, because they haue cast away their first fayth.

13 They learne to wander about from house to house idle, yea not idle only, but also tatlers and busibodies, speaking thinges that are not comely.

14 I wyll therefore that the younger women doo marry, to beare children, to guide the house, to geue none occasion to the aduersarie to speake slaunderously.

15 For certayne of them are alredy turned backe after Satan.

16 If any man or woman that beleeueth haue wydowes, let them sustein them, and let not the Church be charged, that it may sustein them that are wydowes in deede.

17 The elders that rule well, let them be counted woorthie of double honour, most specially they which labour in the woorde and teachyng.

18 For the scripture sayth, "Thou shalt not moosel the Oxe that treadeth out the corne: and, "The labourer is woorthy of his reward. "Deut.25.4. "Mat.10.10

19 Against an elder receiue none accusation, but vnder two or three witnesses.

20 Them that sinne, rebuke before al, that other also may feare.

21 I testifie before God, and the Lorde Iesus Christe, and the elect angels, that thou obserue these thynges without hastinesse of iudgement, & doo nothing after partialitie.

22 Lay handes sodaynely on no man, neyther be partaker of other mens sinnes. Keepe thee selfe chaste.

23 Drynke no longer water: but vse a litle wyne for thy stomackes sake, and thyne often diseases.

24 Some mens sinnes are open before hand, hasting before vnto iudgement, and in some b they folowe after.

b. Their sinnes folowe, whiche for a tyme haue deceiued the godly, and after are detected, as Saul, Iudas, and other hypocrites.

25 Likewyse also good woorkes are manifest before hande, and they that are otherwise, can not be hyd.

¶ The.vi.Chapter.

1. The duety of seruauntes towarde theyr maisters. 3. against suche as are not satisfied with the worde of God.

1 LEt as many seruantes as are vnder the yoke, count their maisters woorthy of al honour, that the name of GOD and his doctrine be not blasphemed.

2 And they which haue beleeuing maisters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren, but rather let them doo seruice, for as muche as they are beleeuyng and beloued, and partakers of the a benefite: These thynges

a. That is, the grace of God.

thinges teache and exhort.

3 If any man teache otherwyse, and consenteth not vnto the wholsome woordes of our Lorde Jesus Christe, and to the doctrine which is accordyng to godlynesse:

*1.Tim.1.4 4 He is puft vp, knowyng nothyng, but dotyng about questions, and strifes of woordes, whereof commeth enuie, stryfe, raylynges, euil surmisinges,

5 Vaine disputations of men of corrupt myndes, destitute of the trueth, thinking lucre to be godlynesse: From suche be thou seperate.

6 Godlinesse is great lucre, yf a man be content with that he hath.

*Job.1.21. 7 *For we brought nothing into the worlde, and it is certayne that we may cary nought away.

8 But hauing foode and rayment, we must therewith be content.

b. That set their felicitie in richesse. 9 For they b that wyll be ryche fall into temptation and snares, and into many foolishe and noysome lustes, whiche drowne men in perdition and destruction.

*Or, haue missed to marke concernyng the fayth. 10 For loue of money is the roote of al euil, which whyle some lusted after, they *erred from the fayth, and c pearsed them selues thorough with many sorowes.

c. For they are neyther quiet, neyther in soule nor body. 11 But thou, O man of GOD, flee these thynges, and folowe after ryghteousnesse, godlinesse, faith, loue, patience, meekenesse.

12 Fight the good fyght of fayth, lay hand on eternal lyfe, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.

13 I geue thee charge in the syght of God, who quickeneth al thynges, and before Jesus Christ, * which vnder Pontius Pilate witnessed a good profession, *Mat.17.11 Joh.18.37.

14 That thou keepe the commaundement without spot, vnrebukeable, vntyl the appearyng of our Lorde Jesus Christe:

15 *Whiche in his tymes he shal shewe that is blessed and prince onely, d the king of kynges, and lorde of lordes. *Apoc.17.14

b. By this mightie power of God, the faythful are admonished boldly to stande in theyr vocation although the worlde, satan, and hel, rage and gaynst them.

16 Who onely hath immortalitie, dwelling in the lyght that no man can attayne vnto, whom no man hath seene, neyther can see, vnto whom be honour and power euerlastyng, Amen.

17 Charge them whiche are ryche in this worlde, that they be not hygh mynded, nor *trust in vncertayne ryches, but in the lyuing GOD (which geueth vs abundantly al thinges to enioy:)

c. In thynges partteynyng this lyfe. *Mat.4.19. Luke.12.15.

18 That they doo good, that they be ryche in good woorkes, that they be redy to geue, glad to distribute:

19 *Laying vp in store for them selues a good fundation against the tyme to come, that they may lay holde on eternal lyfe. *Mat.6.20

f. The gyftes of God for the vtilitie of the Churche.

20 O Timotheus, saue f that which is geuen thee to keepe, auoyding prophane (and) vaine babblynges, and g oppositions of science, falsely so called:

g. As when question engendereth question.

21 Which some professyng, haue erred concernyng the fayth. Grace be with thee, Amen.

¶ The.ii. Epistle of Saint Paul to Timothie.

The first Chapter.

 Paul exhorteth Timotheus to stedfastnesse and pacience in persecution, and to continue in the doctrine that he had taught hym.*

1 PAul an Apostle of Jesus Christe by the wyll of God, a accordyng to the promyse of lyfe, whiche is in Christ Jesus,

a. Beyng sent of God to preach that life which he had promised in Christ Iesus. 2 To Timothie my dearely beloued sonne: grace, mercy, and peace from God the father, and Christe Jesus our Lorde.

*Actes.22.3 3 I thanke god, *whom I worshyp from my forefathers in pure conscience, that without ceassing I haue remembrance of thee in my prayers nyght and day, 4 Greatly desyryng to see thee, beyng mindful of thy teares, that I may be fylled with ioy.

b. The gift of God, is a certayne lyuely flame, kindeled in our hartes, whiche Satan & the flesh labour to quenche, and therefore we must nourish it, and styrre it vp. Rom.12

5 When I call to remembrance the vnfayned fayth that is in thee, whiche dwelt first in thy graundmother Lois, and in thy mother Eunica, and I am assured that it dwelleth in thee also.

6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou b styrre vp the gyft of GOD, whiche is in thee, by the puttyng on of my handes.

7 For

7 For God hath not geuen to vs the spirite of feare, but of power, and of loue, and of a sound mind.

8 Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimonie of our Lord, neyther of me his prisoner, but suffer thou aduersitie with the Gospel, according to the power of God,

9 Who hath *saued vs, and called vs with an holy callyng, not according to our workes: but according to his owne purpose and grace, whiche was geuen vs in Christe Iesus, *before the worlde began:

10 But is nowe made manifest by the appearing of our sauiour Iesus Christ, who hath put away death, and hath brought life and immortalitie vnto light through the Gospel:

11 *Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an Apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

12 For the whiche cause I also suffer these thinges, neuertheless, I am not ashamed, for I knowe whom I haue beleeued, and I am perswaded that he is able to keepe that whiche I haue committed to him agaynst that day.

13 See thou haue the paterne of wholesome wordes, whiche thou hast heard of me in fayth and loue, that is in Christe Iesus.

14 That c good thing whiche was committed to thy keeping, hold fast through the holy ghost which dwelleth in vs.

15 This thou knowest, that all they whiche are in Asia be "turned from me, of whom are Phygellus and Hermogenes.

16 The Lord geue mercie vnto the house of Oneliphorus, for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chayne.

17 But when he was in Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 The Lord graunt vnto hym that he may finde mercie with the Lorde in that day: And in how many thinges he ministred vnto me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

¶ The .ii. Chapter.

He exhorteth him to be constant in trouble, to suffer manly, to abyde fast in the wholesome doctrine of our Lorde Iesus Christe.

1 Thou therefore my sonne, be strong in the grace that is in Christe Iesus.

2 And the things that thou hast heard of me by many witnesses, the same commit thou to faythfull men, which shalbe apt to teache other also.

3 Thou therefore suffer afflictions as a good souldier of Iesus Christe.

4 No man that warreth, entangleth hym selfe with the affayres of this lyfe, that he may please him whiche hath chosen him to be a souldier.

5 And yf a man also wrestle, yet is he not crowned, except he wrestle lawfully.

6 The labouring husbandman a must fyrst be partaker of the fruites.

7 Consyder what I say: and the Lord geue thee vnderstandyng in all thinges.

8 Remember that Iesus Christ, of the seede of Dauid, was rayled from the dead, according to my Gospel:

9 Wherin I suffer trouble as an euyll doer, euen vnto bondes: but the worde of God is not bound.

10 Therefore I suffer all thinges for the electes sakes, that they might also obteyne the saluation whiche is in Christe Iesus, with eternall glory.

11 It is a faythfull saying: for yf we be dead with hym, we shall also liue with him:

12 If we be patient, we shall also raigne with him: *Yf we deny him, he also shall deny vs.

13 *If we be vnfaythful, he abydeth faythfull, he can not deny hym selfe.

14 Of these thinges put them in remembrance, testifie before the Lorde, that they striue not about wordes to no profite, but to the peruerting of the hearers.

15 Studie to shewe thee selfe approoued vnto God, a workeman not to be ashamed, rightly diuidyng the worde of trueth.

16 But prophane voyces of vanitie passe ouer: for they wyll encrease vnto greater vngodlyneSSe.

17 And their worde shal fret as doeth a canker: of whom is Hymeneus & Philetus, 18 Which about the trueth haue" erred, saying that the resurrection is past alredy, and doo ouerthrowe the fayth of some.

19 But the strong fundation of God standeth styll, hauyng this seale, b the Lorde knoweth them that are his: and, Let euery one that nameth the name of Christ, depart from iniquitie.

20 But in a great house are not onely vessels of gold, and of siluer, but also of wood and of earth: some to honour, and some vnto dishonour.

21 Yf a man therefore purge hym selfe from these, he shalbe a vessel sanctified vnto honor, and meete for the vse of the Lorde, and prepared vnto euery good worke.

22 Lustes of youth auoyde: but folowe righteousnesse, fayth, charitie, peace, with them that call on ỹ Lorde out of a pure hart.

23 *But foolish and vnlearned questions put from thee, knowyng that they doo but gender strife.

3 For we whiche haue beleeued, do enter into his rest, as he said, * Euen as I haue swoorne in my wrath, if a they shal enter into my rest: although the woorkes were made perfect from the fundation of the woorlde.

*Psal.95.11 a. Although that God by his rest after the creation of his woorkes, signified the spirituall rest of the faythful: yet he sware to geue rest in Chanaan which was but a figure of the heauenly rest, and dured but for a tyme. *Gene.2.5.

4 For he spake in a certaine place of the seuenth day on this wyse: * And God dyd rest the seuenth day from al his woorkes.

5 And in this place agayne, If they shal enter into my rest.

6 Seing therefore it foloweth that some must enter thereinto, and they to whom the Gospel was first preached entred not therein for vnbeleefe.

7 Againe, he appoynteth a certaine day, by to day, saying in Dauid after so long a tyme, (as it is said) *To day yf ye wil heare his voyce, harden not your hartes.

*Psal.95.8.

8 For yf b Iesus had geuen them rest, then woulde he not afterwarde haue spoken of another day.

b. By Iesus, is meant Iosua.

9 There remaineth therefore yet a rest to the people of God.

10 For he that is entred into his rest, hath ceassed also from his owne woorkes, as God dyd from his.

11 Let vs studie therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fal a after the same example of disobedience.

a Or, into.

12 For the woorde of God is quicke and myghtie in operation, and sharper then any two edged sword, and entreth through euen vnto the diuiding asunder of the c soule and the d spirite, and of the ioyntes and the marow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and of the intentes of the hart.

c. Where the affections are. d. Which conteyneth wil & reason.

13 Neyther is there any creature that is not manifest in the sight of him: but al thinges are naked and open vnto the eyes of him of whom we speake.

14 Seeyng then that we haue a great hygh priest, whiche is entred into heauens, Iesus the sonne of God, let vs holde fast this confession.

15 For we haue not an high priest whiche can not be touched with the feelyng of our infirmities: but was in al poyntes tempted like as we are, and yet without sinne.

16 Let vs therefore come boldlye vnto the throne of grace, that we may obteyne mercy, and fynde grace to helpe in tyme of neede.

¶ The.v.Chapter.

He compareth Iesus Christe vvith the Leuiticall Priestes, shevvyng vvherin they eyther agree, or dissent.

1 FOr euery high priest taken from among men, is ordeyned for men, in thinges pertaynyng to God, to offer gyftes, and sacrifices for sinne:

a. He sheweth that man can haue none accesse to GOD, without an hye priestte, because that of him self he is prophane and sinfal.

2 Whiche can sufficiently haue compassion on the ignorant, and on them that erre out of the way, forasmuch as he him selfe also is compassed with infirmitie.

3 And for the same infirmitie he is bound to offer for sinnes, aswel for him selfe, as for the people.

4 And no man taketh the honour vnto hym selfe, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.

*1. Chro. 23.13.

5 Euen so, Christ also glorified not hym selfe to be made the high priest: but he that sayde vnto hym, * Thou art my sonne, to day I haue begotten thee, gaue it hym.

*Psalm. 2.7

*Psa. 110.4

6 As he sayth also in another place, * Thou art a priest for euer, after the order of Melchisedech.

7 Whiche in the dayes of his flesthe, when he had offered vp prayers and supplications, with b strong crying and teares, vnto hym that was able to saue him from death, & was heard in that which he c feared:

b. He meaneth the most earnest prayer whiche Christe prayed in the Garden where he sweat drops of blood

c. Beyng in perplexitie, & fearyng the horrours of death.

8 Though he were the sonne, yet learned he obedience, by these things whiche he suffered.

9 And being perfect, was made the authour of eternal saluation vnto al them that obey hym:

10 And is called of God an high priest after the order of Melchisedech.

11 Of whom we haue many thinges to say, and harde to be vttered, seeing ye are dul of hearyng.

12 For when as concerning the time, ye ought to be teachers, yet haue ye neede agayne that we teach you the first principles of the beginning of the worde of God, and are become suche as haue neede of mylke, and not of strong meate.

13 For euery one that vseth mylke, is vnexpert of the worde of ryghteousnesse, for he is a babe.

14 But strong meate belongeth to them that are perfect, euen those which by reason of vse, haue their wyts exercised to discerne both good and euyl.

¶ The vi. Chapter.

He proceedeth in reproouing them, and exhorteth them not to faynt, 12. but to be stedfast and patient, 18. for as muche as God is sure in his promyse.

1 THerefore leauing the doctrine of the beginning a of Christe, let vs goe forth vnto perfection, not layng agayne the fundation of repentance from dead workes, and of fayth towarde God,

a. Wherby it maye appeare, that you are fully perswaded of lyfe euerlasting

2 Of the doctrine of Baptismes, and of layng on of handes, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal iudgement.

3 And this wyl we doo, yf God permyt.

4 * For it can not be that they whiche were once lighted, and haue tasted of the heauenly gift, and were become partakers of the holy ghost,

*Mat. 12.45 2. Pet. 2.20

5 And haue tasted of the good woorde of God, and the powers of the world to come:

6 And they fal away, shoulde be renued agayne vnto repentance, crucifiyng to them selues the sonne of God afreshe, and making a mocke of him.

7 For the earth which hath dronken in the rayne that commeth oft vpon it, & bryngeth forth herbes, meete for them by whom also it is tylled, receiueth blessing of God:

8 But that grounde whiche beareth thornes and bryers, is reprooued, and is nigh vnto curling, whose ende is to be burned.

9 Neuertheless, deare freendes, we are perswaded better thinges of you, and thynges which accompany saluation, though we thus speake.

10 For GOD is not vnryghteous, to forget your worke and labour of loue, which ye haue shewed towarde his name, hauyng ministred to the saintes, and do minister.

11 Yea, and we desyre that euery one of you doo shewe the same diligence, to the full assurance of hope vnto the ende, 12 That ye faynt not, but be folowers of b them, whiche through fayth and pacience inherite the promises.

b. As the holy fathers, prophetes, & martyrs, that were before vs.

13 For when God made the promise to Abraham, because he coulde sweare by no greater, he sware by him selfe, 14 Saying, * Surely, blessyng, I wyl blesse thee, and multiplying, I wyll multiplie thee.

*Gene. 12.1.

15 And so after that he had taryed patiently, he obteyned the promise.

16 For men verily sweare by the greater, and an othe of confyrmation, is to them an ende of al stryfe.

17 Wherein God willing more c abundantly to shewe vnto the heyres of promyse the stableness of his counsel, confyrmed by an othe:

c. Because of mans wycked-nesse, whiche wyl not beleue God, except he sweare.

18 That by d two immutable thynges, in which it was impossible for God to lye, we might haue a strong cõsolation, which haue fled to holde fast the hope layde before vs.

d. Gods word & othe, are two thynges in hym vnchangeable.

19 Which hope we holde as an anker of the soule, both sure and stedfast, an entryng in into into that thing which is within the valle:

20 Whyther the forerunner is for vs entred, euen Iesus, after the order of Melchisedech made a priest for euer.

¶ The .vii. Chapter.

He compareth the priesthood of Christe vnto Melchisedech, 11. also Christes priesthood vvith the Lewites.

*Gene.1. 18. 1 FOR this *Melchisedech kyng of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kynges, and blessed hym.
2 To whom also Abraham gaue tithe of all thinges: fyrst being called by interpretation kyng of righteousnesse: and after that also, kyng of Salem, which is kyng of peace,
a. So called, because that Moses maketh no mention of his parentes or kinsfolkes, but as he had been sodaynly sent of God into the worlde, to be a figure of Christ, or euerlasting priest, & shortly taken out of ỹ worlde agayne. So Christ as touching his humanitie, had no father, and concerning his diuinitie, no mother.
3 Without a father, without mother, without kinne, hauing neyther beginning of dayes, neyther ende of lyfe, but lykened vnto the sonne of God, continueth a priest for euer.
4 Nowe consyder howe great this man was, vnto whom also the patriarch Abraham *gaue tithe of the spoyles.
5 And verely they which are of the chyldren of Leui, whiche receyue the office of the priesthood, haue a commaundement to take tithe of the people, according to the lawe, that is, of their brethren, though they came out of the loynes of Abraham.
6 But he whose kinrede is not counted among them, receyued tithe of Abraham, and blessed hym that had the promises.
*Nu.18. 21. 7 And without al controuersie, the lesse is blessed of the better.
8 And here men that die, receyue tithes: but there he receyueth them of whom it is witnessed that he lyueth.
9 And (to say the trueth) Leui also, whiche receyueth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.
10 For he was yet in the loynes of his father, when Melchisedech met Abraham.
11 If therefore perfection was by the priesthood of the Lewites (For vnder that priesthood the people receyued the lawe) what needeth it furthermore that another priest shoulde rise after the order of Melchisedech, and not to be called after the order of Aaron?
12 For if the priesthood be translated, of necessitie also there is made a translation of the lawe.
13 For he of whom these thinges are spoken, parteyneth vnto another tribe, of whithe no man gaue attendance at the aulter.
14 For it is euident that our Lorde sprong out of Iuda, of whiche tribe spake Moses nothing concerning priesthood:
15 And it is yet a farre more euident thyng, if after the similitude of Melchisedech there aryse another priest,
16 Which is not made after the lawe of the carnall commaundement, but after the power of the endelesse lyfe:
17 For he thus testifieth, *Thou art a priest for euer, after the order of Melchisedech. *Psal.110.4 Hebr.5.6.
18 For there is truely a disanulling of the commaundement goyng before, for the weakenesse and vnprofitablenesse thereof.
19 For the lawe made nothing perfect, but was the bryngyng of a better hope, by the which we drawe nigh vnto God.
20 And in as muche as that was not without an othe, (For those priestes were made without an othe:
21 But this priest with an othe, by him that sayde vnto him, *The Lorde sware, and wyl not repent hym, thou art a priest for euer, after the order of Melchisedech,) *Psal.110.4
22 By so much was Iesus made a suretie of a better testament.
23 And among them many were made priestes, because they were forbidden by death to endure:
24 But this man, because he endureth euer, hath b an vnchangeable priesthood.
b. Therefore al others are blasphemous that either make themselues his successours, or pretende any other sacrifice.
25 Wherefore he is able also euer to saue them to the vttermost, that come vnto God by hym, seeyng he euer lyueth, to make intercession for them.
26 For such an high priest became vs, which is holy, harmelesse, vndefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher then heauens.
27 Which needeth not dayly, as those high priestes, to offer vp sacrifice *fyrst for his owne sinnes, and then for the peoples: for that dyd he once, when he offered vp hym selfe. *Leui.16.11.
28 For the lawe maketh men high priestes which haue infyrmitie, but the woorde of the othe which was after the lawe maketh the sonne, which is perfect for euermore.

¶ The .viii. Chapter.

6. He proueth the abolishyng as wel of the Leuiticall priesthood, as of the olde couenant, by the spirituall and euerlastyng priesthood of Christ, 8. and by the newe couenant.

1 BVt of the thynges whiche we haue spoken, this is the summe: We haue suche an high priest, that sitteth on the right hande of the throne of the maiestie in the heauens,
2 A minister of holy thynges, and of the true tabernacle, whiche the Lorde pight, and not man.

3 For euery high priest is ordeyned to offer gyftes and sacrifices: Wherefore it is of necessitie, that this man haue somewhat also to offer.

4 For he were not a priest, yf he were on the earth, seeing that there are priestes, that according to the lawe offer gyftes,

5 Who serue vnto the example and shadowe of heauenly thynges, as Moses was admonished of God, when he was about to finishe the tabernacle: *For see, sayth he, that thou make al thinges according to the paterne shewed to thee in the mount.

6 But nowe hath he obteyned a more excellent office, by howe much also he is the mediatour of a better "couenant, which was confyrmed in better promises.

7 For if that first couenant had been faultelesse, then shoulde no place haue been sought for the seconde.

8 For in rebuking them he sayth, *Behold, the dayes a come, sayth the Lorde, and I wyl finishe vpon the house of Israel, and vpon the house b of Juda, a newe couenant:

9 Not like that, that I made with their fathers, in the day when I tooke them by the hande, to leade them out of the lande of Egypt: because they continued not in my couenant, and I regarded them not, sayth the Lorde.

10 For this is the couenant that I wyll make with the house of Israel after those dayes, sayth the Lorde: geuing my lawes into their minde, and in their hart I wyll write them, and I wyl be to them a God, and they shalbe to me a people.

11 And they shal not c teache euery man his neyghbour, and euery man his brother, saying, Knowe the Lorde: for al shal knowe me, from the litle of them, to the great of them.

12 For I wyl be merciful to their vnrighteousnesse, and their sinnes and their iniquities wyl I thinke vpon no more.

13 In that he sayth a newe couenant, he hath worne out the first: for that which is worne out and waxed olde, is redy to vanishe away.

*Exo.25.40 Acces.7.44.

"Or, testament.

*Jere.31.31.

a. That is, when Christ shal remit our sinnes by the preachyng of the Gospel.

b. Signifiyng that there shoulde be no more diuision, but al shalbe made one Churche.

c. Men shal not in the tyme of the Gospel be so ignorant as they were before: but shal knowe God muche more perfectly thorowe Christe.

¶ The ix Chapter.

1. Howe that the ceremonies and sacrifices of the lawe are abolished, 11. by the eternitie and perfection of Christes sacrifice.

1 The first couenant then had verily "iustifiying ordinances, seruinges of God, and worldly holinesse.

2 *For there was a tabernacle made, the first truely wherein was the candlesticke, and the table, and the shewe bread, whiche is called holy.

"Or, ceremonies of seruice.

*Exo.26.1.

3 But after the a seconde vayle, was a tabernacle, which is called holiest of al:

4 Whiche had the golden sencer, and the arke of the couenant ouerlayde rounde about with golde, wherein was the golden pot hauing Manna, and *Aarons rodde that had budded, and *the tables of the couenant:

5 *And ouer it the Cherubims of glory, shadowing the mercie seate: Of whiche thinges we can not nowe speake particularly.

6 When these thinges were thus ordeyned, the priestes went alwayes into the first tabernacle, accomplishyng the seruice of God.

7 But into the seconde vsent the high priest alone, once euery yeere, not without blood, which he offered for him selfe, and for the ignorances of the people.

8 The holy ghost this signifiyng, that the b way of holy thinges, was not yet made manifest, while as yet the first tabernacle was standyng:

9 Which was a similitude for the time then present, in which were offered gyftes, and sacrifices, that coulde not make the worshipper perfect as parteyning to the conscience.

10 With only meates and drinkes, and diuers washinges, and iustifiynges of the flesshe, which were layde vp vntyl the time of reformation.

11 But Christe beyng come an high priest of good thynges that shoulde be, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with handes, that is to say, not of this buildyng, 12 Neyther by the blood of Goates, and Calues: but by his owne blood he entred in once into the holy place, and found eternall redemption.

13 For if the c blood of Oxen & of Goates, and the ashes of a young Cawe, sprinckling the vncleane, sanctifieth to the purifiyng of the flesshe:

14 Howe much more the blood of Christe, which thyough the eternall spirite offered hym selfe without spot to God, shal purge your consciences from dead workes, to serue the lyuyng God?

15 And for this cause is he the mediatour of the newe couenant, that thyough death, which was for the redemption of the transgressions that were vnder the first "couenant, they which are called, might receyue the promise of eternal inheritance.

16 For where as is a testament, there must also of necessitie be the death of him that made the testament.

a. That is, on the inwarde side of the vayle whiche was hyd from the people.

*Nu.17.10. *1.king.8.9.

*Exo.25.22

b. So long as the high priest offered once a yeere for his owne sinnes and for the peoples and also whyle this earthly tabernacle stoode, the way to the heauenly tabernacle, which is made open by Christes blood, coulde not be entred into.

The Epistle on the fyfth Sunday in Lent.

c. The Leuitical priestes offered beastes blood: But Christ the true and eternall priest, offered his owne blood, which was most holy and pure. The Leuitical priest offered yeerely, and therefore dyd only represent the true holynesse: but Christe by one only sacrifice hath made holy for euer them that beleeue.

"Or, testament.

The Epistle on the vvednesday before Easter.

17 For

17 For a testament is confirmed when men are dead: for it is yet of no value, as long as he that made the testament is alyue.
18 For whiche cause also, neyther the fyrst testament was dedicated without blood.
19 For when Moses had spoken euery precept to al the people accordyng to the lawe, taking the blood of Calues, and of Goates, with water, and purple wool, and Hysope, he sprinckled both the booke it selfe, and al the people,
*Exo.24.8. 20 Saying, * This is the blood of the testament, which God hath enioyned vnto you.
21 And likewyse he sprinckled with blood both the tabernacle, and al the vessels of the ministery.
22 And almost all thynges are by the lawe purged with blood, and without sheddyng of blood is no remission.
23 It is neede then that the paternes of heauenly thynges be purified with suche thinges: but the heauenly thynges them selues be purified with better sacrifices then are those.
24 For Christe is not entred into the holy places made with handes, whiche are paternes of true thynges: but into heauen it selfe, nowe to appeare in the syght of God for vs.
b. Therefore to make any other offering or sacrifice for sin, after that Christes body was once offered, is blasphemie.
25 Not that he shoulde offer hym selfe d often, as the hygh priest entreth into the holy places euery yeere in strange blood.
26 (For then must he haue often suffered since the fundation of the worlde:) but nowe once in the ende of the worlde hath he appeared, to put away sinne, by the sacrifice of hym selfe.
27 And as it is appoynted vnto men once to dye, and after this the iudgement:
*Rom.5.8. 1.Pet.3.18. 28 * Euen so Christe once offered to take away the sinnes of many, the seconde tyme shalbe seene without sinne, of them whiche wayte for hym vnto saluation.

The.x.Chapter.

1, The olde lawe had no power to cleanse away sinne, 10. but Christe dyd it with offeryng of his body once for all.

The Epistle on good Fryday. 1 FOR the lawe hauing the a shadowe of good thynges to come, and not the very fashion of the thynges them selues, can neuer with those sacrifices whiche they offer yeere by yeere continually, make the commers thereunto perfect.
a. Whiche was as it were the first draught & purtract of the lyuely paterne to come.
2 For would not then those sacrifices haue ceassed to haue ben offered, because that the offerers once purged, shoulde haue had no more conscience of sinnes?
3 Neuertheles, in those sacrifices is mention made of sinnes euery yeere.
4 For it is not possible that the blood of Bulles and of Goates, shoulde take away sinnes.
5 Wherefore when he commeth into the worlde, he sayth, * Sacrifice and offeryng thou wouldest not haue: but a body hast thou ordeyned me. *Psa.40.7.
6 In burnt sacrifices and offeringes for sinne thou hast had no pleasure.
7 Then sayde I, Loe, I come, (In the beginning of the booke it is written of me) to doo thy wyl, O God.
8 Aboue when he sayth, that sacrifice, and offeryng, and burnt offeringes, and offeringes for sinne thou wouldest not, neither haddest pleasure therein (whiche are offered by the lawe:)
9 Then sayd he, Loe, I come to do thy wil, O God: He taketh away the fyrst, b to stablyshe the c seconde.
b. That is, Sacrifices.
c. which is the wyl of God, to stand content with Christes sactifice.
10 In the whiche wyll we are made holy, euen by the offeryng of the body of Iesus Christe once for all.
11 And euery priest standeth dayly, ministring, and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can neuer take away sinnes:
12 But this man, after he hath offered one sacrifice for sinnes, * is syt downe for euer on the ryght hand of God, *Heb.1.13.
13 From hencefoorth tarrying * tyl his foes be made his footestoole. *1.Co.15.25
14 For with one offering hath he made perfect for euer them that are sanctified.
15 And the holy ghost also beareth vs recorde: For after that he had tolde before,
16 * This is the couenant that I wyl make vnto them after those dayes (sayth the lord) geuing my lawes in their hart, and in their myndes wyl I write them: *Jer.31.33. *Or, testament
17 And their sinnes and iniquities wyl I in no wyse remember any more.
18 And where remission of these thynges is, there is no more offering for sinne.
19 Hauing therfore, brethren, libertie to enter into holy places in the d blood of Iesus,
d. We by Christe haue that libertie which the ancient fathers could not haue by the lawe.
20 By the newe and e liuing way, whiche he hath prepared for vs through the vayle, that is to say, his flesshe:
e. The blood so Christ is alwayes fresh and lyuely before the father, to sprenkle and quicken vs.
21 And seing we haue an hygh priest ouer the house of God:
22 Let vs drawe nygh with a true hart, in assurance of fayth, sprinkeled in our hartes from an euyl conscience, and washed in body with pure water.
23 Let vs holde the profession of the hope without wauering, (for he is faythful that promised:)
24 And let vs consyder one another, to prouoke vnto loue, and good workes,

25 Not

25 Not forsaking the assembling of our selues togeather, as the maner of some is, but exhorting one another, and so muche the more, as ye see the day approchyng.

*Heb.6.4. 26 *For if we sinne wyllingly, after that we haue receyued the knowledge of the trueth, there remayneth no more sacrifice for sinnes:

27 But a fearefull loking for of iudgement, and violent fire, which shal deuoure the aduersaries.

*Deu.19.15. Mat.18.16. 1.Cor.13.1. 28 He that despiseth Moses law, dieth without mercy *vnder two or three witnesses:

29 Of how muche sorer punishment suppose ye shall he be woorthy, whiche hath troden vnder foote the sonne of God? & hath counted the blood of the couenant, wherein he was sanctified, an vnholy thyng, and hath doone dispite vnto the spirite of grace?

*Deu.32.35 Rom.12.19. 30 For we know him that hath sayd, *Vengeance belongeth vnto me, I wyll render, sayth the Lorde: And agayne, the Lord shal iudge his people.

31 It is a fearefull thyng to fall into the handes of the lyuyng God.

32 Cal to remembrance the former dayes, in the whiche after ye had receyued lyght, ye endured a great fyght of aduersities:

33 Partly whyle ye were made a gasyng stocke both by reproches & afflictions, and partly whyle ye became companions of them which were so tossed to and fro.

34 For ye suffered also with my bonds, and tooke in woorth the spoylyng of your goodes with gladnesse: knowyng in your selues howe that you haue in heauen a better and an enduryng substance.

35 Cast not away therfore your confidence, which hath great recompence of rewarde.

36 For ye haue neede of patience, that after ye haue doone the wyl of God, ye might receyue the promise.

37 For yet a very litle whyle, and he that shal come, wyl come, and wyl not tarry.

*Abacu.2.4 Rom.1.17. Galat.3.11. 38 And *the iust shal lyue by fayth: And if he withdrawe hym selfe, my soule shal haue no pleasure in hym.

39 We are not of them whiche withdrawe our selues vnto perdition: but we parteyne vnto fayth, to the winning of the soule.

¶ The xi. Chapter.

What fayth is, and a commendation of the same.

a Or, representation.

a. Haue ben approued, & so obteyned saluation.

1 FAyth is the a groūde of thynges hoped for, the euidence of thynges not seene.

2 For by it b the elders a obteyned a good report.

3 Through fayth we vnderstande that the *worldes were ordeyned by the woorde of God, and that thynges whiche are seene, were made of thinges which were not seene. *Gen.1.1.

4 By fayth Abel offered vnto God a more excellent sacrifice then Cain, *by whiche he was witnessed to be b ryghteous, God testifying of his gyftes: by which also he beyng dead, yet speaketh. *Gen.4.24. b. Because God receyued hym to mercy, therefore he imputed hym righteous.

6 But without fayth it is vnpossible to please hym: for he that commeth to God, must beleeue that God is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seke him.

7 *By fayth Noe being warned of God of thynges not seene as yet, moued with reuerence, prepared the arke, to the sauing of his house, through the which arke he condemned the worlde, and became heyre of the ryghteousnesse whiche is by fayth. *Gen.6.13

8 By faith *Abraham, when he was called, obeyed God to goe out into a place which he shoulde afterwarde receyue to inheritance: and he went out, not knowyng whyther he shoulde goe. *Gen.12.4.

10 For he looked for a citie hauing a fundation, whose buylder and maker is God.

11 Through fayth also *Sara her selfe receyued strength to conceyue seede, and was deliuered of a chyld when she was past age, because she iudged hym faythful which had promised. *Gen.21.3.

16 But nowe they desyre a better countrey, that is, a heauenly: Wherefore God is not ashamed of them to be called their God, for he hath prepared for them a citie. c. For it might seeme to the flesshe, that the promise was contrary to the commaundement, to sacrifice his sonne, 34 Quenched the violence of fyre, escaped the edge of the swoord, out of weakenesse were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliantes.

35 The women receiued their dead raised to lyfe againe: Other were racked, not lookyng for deliueraunce, that they might receiue a better resurrection.

36 And others were tried with mockinges, and scourginges: Yea moreouer, with bondes and prisonment:

37 They were stoned, were hewen asunder, were tempted, were slaine with swoord, wãdred about in sheepe skinnes, & goate skinnes, being destitute, afflicted, & tormented:

38 Of whom the worlde was not worthie: They wandred in wyldernesse, and in mountaynes, and in dennes, and caues of the earth.

39 And these al through fayth, hauyng obteyned good reporte, receyued d not the promyse:

d. They had not such cleare lyght as we, for they looked for that whiche we haue, therfore it were shame for vs yf at the least we haue not as great constancie as they.

40 Whereas God hath prepared a better thing for vs, that they without vs shoulde not be made perfect.

¶ The.xii.Chapter.

1 An exhortation to be patient and stedfast in trouble and aduersitie, vppon hope of euerlastyng reward. 25. A commendation of the newe Testament aboue the olde.

1 Wherfore, seeyng that we are compassed with so great a cloude of witnesses, al * layde away that a presseth downe, and the synne that hangeth so fast on, let vs run with patience vnto the battel that is set before vs:

*Ephe.4.24

a. As ryches, cares, and such lyke, and to become Christes disciples by denying our selues, and takyng our crosse to folowe hym. *Or, that so lightly vppon euery circumstance or occasion taketh holde of vs. *Or, beginner.

2 Lokyng vnto Jesus the * captaine & fynisher of our fayth, whiche for the ioy that was set before hym, endured the crosse, hauing despised the shame, and is set downe on the ryght hande of the throne of God.

3 Consyder therfore him that endureth such speaking against him of synners, lest you shoulde be weeryed, fayntyng in your myndes.

4 Ye haue not yet resysted vnto the shedding of blood, striuing agaynst synne.

5 And ye haue forgotten the exhortation whiche speaketh vnto you as vnto children, * My sonne despise not thou the chastening of the Lorde, neyther faynt when thou art rebuked of hym.

*Pro.3.11.

6 For whom the Lord loueth, he chasteneth, and scourgeth euery sonne that he receiueth.

7 Yf ye endure chastening, God tendreth you as his sonnes: for what sonne is he whom the father chasteneth not?

8 But yf ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastardes, and and not ſonnes.

9 Furthermore, we haue had fathers of our fleſhe, whiche corrected vs, and we gaue them reuerence: ſhall we not then much rather be in ſubiection vnto the father of ſpirites, and lyue?

10 For they verily for a fewe dayes chaſtened vs after their owne pleaſure: but he, for our profite, that we might be partakers of his holyneſſe.

11 No chaſtiſyng for the preſent ſeemeth to be ioyous, but greeuous: neuertheleſſe, afterward it bringeth the quiet fruite of righteouſneſſe, vnto them whiche are exerciſed thereby.

12 Straighten vp therefore the handes which were let downe, and the weake knees:

13 And make right ſteppes vnto your feete, leſt that which is b haltyng, be turned out of the way: but let it rather be healed.

b. Their halting partly declared their ſlowneſſe, and partly their inconſtancie in doctrine: therefore they were in bondage to be punyſhed.

14 * Folowe peace with all men, and holyneſſe, without the whiche no man ſhall ſee the Lorde:

*Rom.12.18

15 Taking heede that no man fall away from the grace of God, leſt any roote of bitterneſſe ſpringing vp, trouble you, & thereby many be defiled.

16 Let there be no fornicatour or vncleane perſon, as * Eſau, whiche for one morſell of meate ſolde his byrthryght.

*Gen.25.33.

17 * For ye knowe howe that afterward, when he would haue inherited the bleſſing, he was rebrobated: For he found no place of repentance, though he ſought it carefully with teares.

*Gen.27.38.

*Exo.19.16.

c. Whiche might be touched & ſeene, for it was materiall, but god commaunded that none ſhould touch it.

19 And ſound of a trumpe, and the voyce of woordes: whiche voyce, they that heard it, wyſhed away, that the woorde ſhoulde not be ſpoken to them:

20 (For they did not abide that which was commaunded. * And yf ſo much as a beaſt touche the mountayne, it ſhalbe ſtoned, or thruſt through with a darte.

*Exo.19.12.

21 And ſo terrible was the ſight which appeared, that Moſes ſaid, I feare exceedingly, and quake:)

22 But ye are come vnto the mount Sion, and to the citie of the liuing God, the celeſtiall Hieruſalem, and to an innumerable company of d angels,

d. By the goſpell, we are ioyned with the angels and patriarches.

23 And vnto the congregation of the fyrſt borne, which are written in heauen, and to God the iudge of all, and to the ſpirites of iuſt and perfect men:

24 And to Jeſus the mediatour of the newe * couenant, and to the blood of ſprinckling, that ſpeaketh better then dyd the blood of Abel.

25 See that ye deſpiſe not him that ſpeaketh: For yf they eſcaped not whiche refuſed him that ſpake on earth, much more ſhal we not eſcape yf we turne away from hym that ſpeaketh from heauen:

26 Whoſe voyce then ſhooke the earth, and nowe hath declared, ſaying, * Yet once more I ſhake, not the earth onely, but alſo heauen.

*Aggr. 2.7.

27 And this vvoord yet once more, ſignifieth remouyng of thoſe thinges whiche are * ſhaken, as of thinges which are made, that the thynges whiche are not ſhaken, may remayne.

*Or, changeable
*Or, changeable

28 Wherefore, we receiuing a kyngdome which can not be moued, let vs haue grace, whereby we may ſo ſerue God acceptable, with reuerence and godly feare.

¶ The first Chapter.

1. He exhorteth to reioyce in trouble, 6. to be fernent in prayer, with stedfast beleefe, 17. and to looke for all good thynges from aboue.

The Epistle on S. Philip and Iames day.

1 Iames a seruaunt of God, & of the Lorde Iesus Christ, to the twelue tribes whiche are scattered abroade, greeting.
2 My brethren count it al ioy when ye fal into diuers temptations:
3 *Roma.5.3. *Knowyng this that the trying of your fayth woorketh patience,
4 And let patience haue her perfect woorke, that ye may be perfect, and sounde, lacking nothyng.
5 If any of you lacke wisedome, let him aske of God, that geueth to al men indifferently, and casteth no man in the teeth: and it shalbe geuen hym.
6 *Math.7.7. Mark 11.24 Luke.11.9. *But let hym aske in fayth, nothyng wauering: For he that wauereth, is lyke a waue of the sea, tost of the wynde, and caryed with violence:
7 Neyther let that man thinke that he shall receyue any thyng of the Lorde.
8 A double mynded man is vnstable in all his wayes.
9 Let the brother of lowe degree, reioyce in that he is a exalted:
10 Agayne the ryche, in that he is made lowe: *Because as the flowre of the grasse he shal passe away.
11 For as the Sunne hath risen with heate, and the grasse hath withered, & his floure hath fallen away, and the beautie of the fashion of it hath perished: so also shall the ryche man fade away in his wayes.
12 *Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tryed, he shal receyue the crowne of lyfe, whiche the Lorde hath promised to them that loue hym.
13 Let no man say when he is b tempted, I am tempted of God: For God can not be tempted with euyll, neyther tempteth he any man.
14 But euery man is tempted, when he is drawen away, and entised with the bayte of his owne concupiscence.

16 Doo not erre my deare brethren.

17 Euery good c geuing, and euery perfect gyft is from aboue, and commeth downe from the father of lyghtes, with whom is no variablenesse, neyther shadowe of turnyng.

18 Of his owne wyl begate he vs, with the woorde of trueth, that we shoulde be the first fruites of his creatures.

19 Wherefore my deare brethren, *let euery man be swyft to heare, slowe to speake, slowe to wrath.

20 For the wrath of man, worketh not that whiche is ryghteous before God.

21 Wherefore lay apart all fylthinesse, and superfluitie of *naughtinesse, and receyue with meekenesse the woord that is graffed in you, whiche is able to saue your soules.

22 And *be ye doers of the woord, and not hearers only, deceyuing your owne selues.

23 For if any be a hearer of the woorde, and not a doer, he is lyke vnto a man beholding his bodily face in a d glasse.

24 For he hath considered him selfe, and is gone his wayes, and hath forgotten immediately what his fashion was.

25 But who so looketh in the perfect lawe of libertie, and continueth therein, he *being not a forgeatful hearer, but a doer of the woorke, shalbe blessed in his deede.

26 If any man among you seeme to be *deuout, and refrayneth not his tongue, but deceyueth his owne hart, this mans *deuotion is vayne.

27 Pure deuotion e vndefiled before God and the father, is this, To visite the fatherlesse and wydowes in their aduersitie, and to keepe him selfe vnspotted of the worlde.

1 MY brethren, *haue not the fayth of our Lorde Iesus Christ, the Lord of glory, a with respect of persons.

2 For if there come into your *congregation a man wearyng a golde ryng, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poore man, in vyle rayment:

3 And ye haue a respect to him that weareth the gay clothyng, and say vnto hym, Syt thou here in a good place: and say to the poore, Stande thou there, or syt here vnder my footestoole:

4 Are ye not partial in your selues, and are made iudges of euyl thoughtes?

*Or, congregation.

5 Hearken my deare beloued brethren, hath not God chosen the poore of this worlde, *that they might be ryche in fayth, and heyres of the kingdome, which he promised to them that loue hym?

6 But ye haue despised the poore. Doo not ryche men oppresse you by tyrannie, and drawe you before the iudgement seates?

7 Do not they blaspheme that good b name, by the whiche ye are named?

8 If ye fulfyl the royal lawe accordyng to the scripture, * Thou shalt loue thy neyghbour as thy selfe, ye doo wel:

9 But if ye regarde one person more then another, ye commit sinne, and are rebuked of the lawe as transgressours.

10 * Who so euer shal keepe the whole law, and yet faile in one point, he is gylty of al.

11 For he that sayde, Doo not commit adulterie: sayde also, Doo not kyl. Though thou do none adulterie, yet if thou kyl, thou art become a transgressour of the lawe.

12 So speake ye, and so doo, as they that shalbe iudged by the lawe c of libertie.

13 For he shall haue iudgement without mercie, that hath shewed no mercie: and mercie reioyceth agayast iudgement.

14 What profiteth it, my brethren, though a man say, he hath fayth, and hath not deedes? can fayth saue hym?

15 * If a brother or a sister be naked, and destitute of dayly foode, 16 And one of you say vnto them, Depart in peace, be you warmed and fylled: notwithstandyng ye geue them not those thynges whiche are needefull to the body: what shal it profite?

17 Euen so fayth, if it haue not deedes, is dead in it selfe.

18 But some man wil say, Thou hast fayth, and I haue deedes: shewe me thy fayth by thy d deedes, and I wyll shewe thee my fayth by my deedes.

19 Thou beleeuest that there is one God, thou doest wel: the deuyls also beleeue, and tremble.

20 But wylt thou knowe, O thou vayne man, that that fayth whiche is without woorkes, is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father iustified through woorkes, when he had offered * Isaac his sonne vpon the aulter?

22 Seest thou not howe that fayth wrought with his deedes, and through the deedes was the fayth made perfect?

23 And the scripture was fulfylled, whiche sayth, * Abraham beleeued God, and it was reputed vnto hym for ryghteousnesse: and he was called the freende of God.

¶ The iii. Chapter.

a He forbiddeth all ambition to seeke honour aboue our brethren. 3. He describeth the properte of the tongue.

1 My brethren, be not many maisters, knowyng howe that we shall receiue the greater damnation.

*Eccl. 14. 1. a. He that is able to moderate his tongue, hath attayned to an excellent vertue.

2 For in many thinges we sinne all. *If a man sinne not in a woord, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle all the body.

3 Beholde, we put bittes in the horses mouthes, that they may obey vs, and we turne about their whole body.

4 Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driuen of fierce windes, yet are they turned about with a very small helme, whyther so euer the lust of the gouernour wyll:

5 Euen so the tongue is a little member also, and boasteth great thinges: behold how great a matter a little fyre kindleth.

6 And the tongue is fyre, euen a woorlde of wickednesse: so is the tongue set among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and b setteth on fyre the course of nature, and it is set on fyre of hell.

b. The intemperancie of the tongue is a flame of hell fyre.

7 All the nature of beastes, and of byrdes, and of serpentes, and thynges of the sea, is mecked and tamed of the nature of man:

8 But the tongue can no man tame, it is an vnruly euyll, full of deadly poyson:

9 Therewith blesse we our God and father, and therewith curse we men, whiche are made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of one mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing: My brethren, these thynges ought not so to be.

11 Doth a fountayne send foorth at one hole sweete water, and bitter also?

12 Can the figge tree, my brethren, beare Olyue beries? eyther a vine beare figges? so can no fountayne gene both salt water, and freshe also.

13 Who is a wyse man, and endued with knowledge among you? let hym shewe his woorkes out of good conuersation with meekenesse of wysedome.

14 But yf ye haue bitter enuying and strife in your hart, glory not, neither belyers a gaynst the trueth.

15 For such wysedome descendeth not from aboue: but is earthly, sensuall, and deuillish.

16 For where enuying and strife is, there is sedition, and all maner of euyll woorkes.

17 But the wysedome that is from aboue, is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easie to be entreated, full of mercie and good fruites, without iudging, without simulation.

18 Yea, and the fruite of righteousnesse is sowen in peace, of them that make peace.

¶ The iiii. Chapter.

4. He exhorteth them to loue God, 7. and submit them selues to hym.

1 From whence commeth warres & fightynges among you? Come they not hence, euen of your lustes that fight in your members?

a For the lawe of the members continually fyghteth gaynst the lawe of the minde.

2 Ye lust, and haue not: ye enuy, and haue indignation, and can not obteyne: Ye fyght and warre, ye haue not, because ye aske not.

3 Ye aske, and receiue not, because ye aske amisse, euen to consume it vpon your lustes.

4 Ye adulterers, and b adultresses, knowe you not howe that the frendshyp of the woorlde is enmitie with God? who so euer therefore wyll be a frend of the woorlde, is made the enimie of God.

b. He calleth adulterers here after the maner of the scriptures, them which preferre the pleasures of the worlde to the loue of God.

5 Eyther wo ye thinke that the scripture sayth in vayne, The c spirite that dwelleth in vs, lusteth to enuie?

c. The imagination of mans hart is wicked.

6 But the scripture offereth more grace, and therefore sayth, *God resysteth the proude, but geueth grace vnto the lowly.

*1. Pet. 5. 9. Prou. 3. 34.

7 Submit your selues therefore to God: but resist the deuyll, and he wyll flee from you.

8 Draw nyghe to God, and he wyll draw nigh to you: cleanse your handes ye sinners, and purifie your hartes ye double minded.

9 Suffer afflictions, and mourne, & weepe: Let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your ioy to heauinesse.

10 *Humble your selues in the sight of the Lorde, and he shall lyft you vp.

*1. Pet. 5. 6.

11 Backbite not one another brethren: He that backbyteth his brother, and he that iudgeth his brother, backbiteth the lawe, and iudgeth the lawe: but and yf thou iudge the lawe, thou art not an obseruer of the lawe, but a iudge.

12 There is one lawe geuer, whiche is able to saue, and to destroy: *What art thou that iudgest another?

*Rom. 14. 4

13 Goe to nowe ye that say, To day and to morowe let vs goe into suche a citie, and continue there a yeere, and buye, and sell, and winne:

b. We ought to submit our selues to the prouidence of God.

*1. Cor. 4. 19 15 For that ye ought to say, *If the Lorde will, and if we liue, let vs doo this, or that.

16 But nowe ye reioyce in your boastings: All such reioycing is euyll.

17 Therefore to him that knoweth howe to doo good, and doth it not, to him it is sinne.

¶ The. v. Chapter.

He threatneth the wicked riche men. 7. exhorteth vnto patience, 12. and to beware of swearing.

1 GO to nowe ye riche men, weepe, and howle for your miseries that shall come vpon you.

2 Your rychesse is corrupt, your garmentes are moth eaten:

3 Your golde and siluer is cankred, and the rust of them shalbe a witnesse against you, and shall eate your flesshe as it were fyre. Ye haue heaped treasure together in the last dayes.

a. And kyndle the wrath of God against you.

b. To suffer vntil the ende of the world.

4 Beholde, the hyre of the labourers whiche haue reaped downe your feeldes, whiche hyre is of you kept backe by fraude, cryeth: and the cryes of them which haue reaped, are entred into the eares of the Lord of Sabaoth.

5 Ye haue lyued in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton: Ye haue nourished your hartes, as in a day of slaughter.

6 Ye haue condemned and kylled the iust, and he doth not resist you.

7 Be patient therefore brethren, vnto the comming of the Lord, behold, the husbandman wayteth for the precious fruite of the earth, and hath long patience therevpon, vntyll he receiue the early and latter rayne.

8 Be ye also patient, and settle your hartes: for the comming of the Lord draweth nigh.

9 Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be damned: beholde, the iudge standeth before the doore.

10 Take, my brethren, the prophetes for an example of suffering aduersitie, and of patience, which spake in the name of the Lorde.

11 Behold, we count them happy which endure. Ye haue heard of the patience of Iob, and haue seene the end of the Lord: For the Lorde is very pitifull and mercifull.

12 *But aboue all thinges, my brethren, sweare not, neither by the heauen, neyther by the earth, neither by any other othe: Let your c yea, be yea, and your nay, nay, lest you fall into condemnation.

*Mat. 5. 34.

c. That whiche must be affirmed, affirme it simply, & without othes: likewise that which must be denied. By this he taketh not from the magistrate his auctoritie, who may require an othe for the maintenance of iustice, iudgemẽt, & truethe.

13 Is any among you afflicted? let him pray, Is any merey? let him sing Psalmes.

14 Is any diseased among you? let him call for the elders of the Churche, and let them pray for hym, and *annoynt hym with oyle in the name of the Lorde:

*Mark. 6. 13

15 And the prayer of fayth shall saue the sicke, and the Lorde shall rayse hym vp: and yf ye haue committed sinnes, they shalbe forgeuen hym.

16 Knowledge your faultes one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed: For the feruent prayer of a ryghteous man auayleth much.

17 *Elias was a man vnder infirmities euen as we are, and he prayed in his prayer that it myght not rayne: and it rayned not on the earth, by the space of three yeeres, and sixe monethes.

*1. Re. 17. 1. Luke. 4. 25.

18 And he prayed agayne, and the heauen gaue rayne, and the earth brought forth her fruite.

19 Brethren, *if any of you doo erre from the trueth, and an other conuert him,

*Mat. 18. 15.

20 Let the same knowe, that he which conuerteth the sinner from going astray out of his way, shall saue a soule from death, and shall hyde the multitude of sinnes.

¶ The end of the Epistle of S. Iames.

The. i. Epistle of S. Peter the Apostle.

¶ The fyrst Chapter.

He sheweth that through the abundant mercie of God, we are elect and regenerate to a liuely hope, 7. and howe fayth must be tryed.

1 PEter an Apostle of Iesus Christe, to them that dwell here and there as strangers throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia:

a. Which were Iewes, to whom he was appoynted to be an Apostle.

2 Elect accordyng to the b foreknowledge of GOD the father, vnto the sanctifiyng of the spirite, through obedience and sprinckling of the blood of Iesus Christe: Grace

b. The free election of God, is the efficient cause of our saluation: the materiall cause is Christes obedience: our effectuall callyng is the former cause: and the finall cause, is our sanctification.

Grace and peace be multiplied vnto you.

3 Blessed be God the father of our Lord Jesus Christe, whiche accordyng to his abundant mercy begate vs agayne vnto a lyuely hope, by the ryslng of Jesus Christe from the dead,

4 To an inheritaunce incorruptible, and vndefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserued in heauen for you,

5 Whiche are kept by the power of GOD through faith vnto saluation, redy to be shewed in the last tyme.

6 In the which ye reioyce, though nowe for a season (yf neede require) ye are in heauinesse through manifolde temptations:

7 That the tryall of your fayth, being much more precious then golde that perysheth, though it be tryed with fyre, myght be founde to be vnto you vnto laude, honor, and glory, at the appearyng of Jesus Christe,

8 Whom ye haue not seene, & yet loue him, in whom euen nowe though ye see him not, yet doo ye beleeue hym, and reioyce with ioy vnspeakable and glorious:

9 Receyuyng the end of your fayth, euen the saluation of your soules.

10 Of whiche saluation haue the prophetes enquired and searched diligently, whiche prophesied of the grace that shoulde come vnto you:

11 Searchyng when or what tyme the spirite of Christe whiche was in them, should signifie, whiche Spirite testified before the passions that shoulde happen vnto Christ, and the glory that shoulde folowe after.

12 Unto which prophetes it was also reuealed, that not vnto them selues, but vnto vs, they should minister the thinges which are nowe shewed vnto you of them, whiche by the holye ghoste sent downe from heauen, haue in the Gospel preached vnto you, the thinges which the angels desire to beholde.

13 Wherefore gyrde vp the loynes of your mynde, be sober, and trust perfectly on the grace that is brought vnto you by the reuelation of Jesus Christe:

14 As obedient chyldren, not fashionyng your selues vnto the former lustes of your ignorannce:

15 But as he whiche called you is holye, Luke.1.71. euen so be ye holye also in al maner of conuersation.

Leuit.11.44 16 Because it is wrytten, *Be ye holy, for I am holy.

17 And yf so be that ye call on the father, Deu.10.27 Roma.2.11. Galath.2.6. whiche without respect of person iudgeth accordyng to euery mans woorke, see that ye passe the tyme of your dwellyng here, in feare.

18 For as much as ye knowe, howe that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as siluer and gold, from your vayne conuersation, whiche ye receyued by the tradition of the fathers:

19 *But with the pretious blood of Christ, as of a Lambe vndefiled, and without spot: Heb.9.14. I.Joh.1.7. Apoca.1.5.

20 Which was ordeyned before hande, euen before the world was made, but was declared in the c last tyme for your sakes:

c. Whē Christ appeared vnto the worlde, and when the gospel was preached.

21 Whiche by his meanes doo beleeue on God that rayled hym vp from the dead, and gaue hym glorye, that ye myght haue fayth and hope towarde God.

22 Euen ye whiche haue purified your soules, through the spirite in obeying the trueth, *with brotherly loue vnfaigned, see that ye loue one another with a pure hart feruently: Rom.12.10

23 For ye are borne a newe, not of corruptible seede: but of incorruptible, by the word of God, whiche lyueth and lasteth for euer:

24 *For all flesh is as grasse, and al the glory of man is as the floure of grasse: the grasse wythereth, & the floure falleth away: Esa.40.6. Eccle.14.18 James.1.10

25 But the woorde of the Lorde endureth euer: and this is the woorde whiche by the Gospel was preached vnto you.

¶ The.ij. Chapter.

1. He exhorteth them to laye aside al vice, 4. shewyng that Christe is the fundation vvhereuppon they buylde.

1 WHerefore *al *noughtinesse, and al guile, and faignednesse, and enuie, and backbyting layde aside, Roma.6.4. Ephe.4.22. Collos.3.8. Hebr.12.2.

2 As newe borne babes, desire ye the mylke of the woorde, whiche is without deceyte: that ye may growe thereby vnto saluation, or, malitiousnesse.

3 Yf so be that ye haue tasted howe gracious the Lorde is:

4 To whom ye come as vnto a liuing stone, disalowed of men, but chosen of God, and pretious.

5 And ye as lyuely stones, be you made a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, for to offer vp spirituall sacrifice, acceptable to God by Jesus Christe.

6 Wherfore it is conteyned al[illegible].he scripture, *Beholde, I put in Sion a stone to be layd in the cheefe corner, elect and pretious, and he that beleeueth on hym, shall in no wyse be confounded. Esa.28.10. Roma.9.3.

7 Unto you therefore whiche beleeue, he is pretious: but vnto them which beleeue not, *the stone whiche the buylders disalowed, the same is made the head of the corner: Psa.118.22 Mat.21.42. Acres.4.12.

8 And a stone of stumblyng, and a rocke of offence, whiche stumble at the woorde, and beyng disobedient, vnto the whiche thyng they were ordeyned.

*Exo.19.9. 9 But ye are a chosen generation, * a royal priesthood, an holye nation, a peculier people: that ye should shewe forth the vertues of him that called you out of darkenesse into his marueylous lyght.

*Osee.2.23. Roma.9.25. 10 *Whiche in tyme past were not a people, but are nowe the people of God: whiche sometyme had not obteyned mercye, but nowe haue obteyned mercy.

The Epistle on the thyrd Sunday after Easter 11 Dearely beloued, I beseech you as strangers and pylgrimes, * abstayne from fleshly lustes, whiche fyght agaynst the soule,

*Galat.5.17. *Rom.13.14 12 And see that ye haue honest conuersation among the Gentiles: that whereas they backbyte you as euyll doers, they maye by your good workes vvhiche they shall see, glorifie God in the day of visitation.

Roma.13.1. 13 *Submit your selues therefore vnto all maner ordinance of man for the Lords sake: whether it be vnto the kyng, as hauyng the preeminence, 14 Other vnto rulers, as vnto them that are sent by hym for the punyshment of euyl doers, but for the laude of them that doo wel.

15 For so is the wyl of God, that with well dooyng ye may stop the ignorance of foolish men:

16 As free, and not as hauyng the libertie for a cloke of noughtinesse, but euen as the seruauntes of God.

*Rom.12.10 17 Honour all men. * Loue brotherly felowshyp. Feare God. Honour the kyng.

*Ephes. 6.5. Collos.3.22 18 *Seruauntes obey your maisters with al feare, not onely yf they be good and curteous, but also though they be frowarde.

The Epistle on the second sunday after Easter 19 * For it is thanke worthye, yf a man for conscience towarde God endure greefe, and suffer wrong vndeserued.

*1. Co.7.10. 20 For what prayse is it, yf when ye be buffeted for your faultes, ye shall take it patiently? But yf when ye doo well, and suffer wrong, and shall take it patiently, then is there thanke with God.

21 For hereunto verily were ye called: for Christe also suffered * for vs, leauyng vs an ensample that ye should folowe his steppes.

* Some reade, for you.

*Esai.53.9. 1. Joh.3.5. 22 *Which dyd no sinne, neyther was there guyle founde in his mouth.

23 Whiche when he was reuyled, reuyled not againe: when he suffered, he threatened not, but committed the vengeaunce to hym that iudgeth ryghteously.

*Mat.8.17. *Esai.53.5. 24 * Whiche his owne selfe bare our sinnes in his body on the tree, that we being deliuered from sinne, shoulde lyue vnto ryghteousnesse: by whose stripes ye were healed.

25 For ye were as sheepe goyng astray: but are nowe turned vnto the Shephearde and Bishop of your soules.

¶ The iii. Chapter.

a. Howe wyues ought to order themselues to vvarde their husbandes, 3. and in their apparel.

*Tyte. 2.5. Collos.3.18. 1 LYkewyse * ye wyues be in subiection to your husbandes, that euen they which obey not the woorde, may without the woorde be woonne, by the conuersation of the wyues:

2 After that they haue beholden your chaste conuersation coupled with feare.

*1. Tim.2.9 3 * Whose apparell let it not be that whiche is outwarde, with brayded heare, and hangyng on of golde, eyther in putting on of gorgeous apparel:

4 But let the hyd man vvhiche is in the hart, be without al corruption, of a meeke & quiet spirite, which spirite is before God a thyng muche set by.

5 For after this maner in the olde tyme dyd the holy women also which trusted in God, tyre them selues, being obedient vnto their husbandes.

*Gen.18.10. 6 Euen as * Sara obeied Abraham, calling hym lorde, whose daughters ye are as long as ye doo well, and are not afrayde for anye terrour.

*1 Co.5.1. 7 *Lykewyse ye husbandes, dwel with them accordyng to knowledge, geuyng honour vnto the wyfe, as vnto the weaker vessell, and as vnto them that are heyres also of the grace of lyfe, that your prayers be not hyndered.

The Epistle on the. v. Sunday after trinite. 8 In conclusion be ye al of one mynd, hauing compassion one of another, loue as brethre, be pitifull, be curteous, *

* meeke.

9 Not rendryng euyl for euyll, or rebuke for rebuke: but contrarywyse blesse, knowing that ye are therevnto called, euen that ye shoulde be a heyres of the blessyng.

a. God hath made vs when we were his enimies, heyres of his kyngdome, and shal not we forgeue our brethren a smal fault?

10 For he that doeth long after lyfe, and loueth to see good dayes, let hym refrayne his tongue from euyll, and his lyppes that they speake no guyle.

*Esai.1.16. 11 *Let hym eschewe euyl, and doo good, let hym seeke peace, and ensue it.

12 For the eyes of the Lorde are ouer the ryghteous, and his eares are open vnto their prayers: agayne, the face of the Lorde is b ouer them that doo euyl.

b. To take vengeaunce on them.

13 Moreouer, who is he that wyl harme you, yf ye be folowers of that whiche is good?

*Mat.5.10. Esai.8.12. 14 *Yea, happy are ye, yf any trouble happe vnto you for ryghteousnesse sake, be not ye afraid for any terrour of them, neyther be ye troubled:

15 But

15 But ſanctifie the Lorde GOD in your hartes. Be redy alwayes to geue an answere to euery man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you,

16 And that with meekenesse and feare, hauyng a good conscience: that whereas they backbite you as euyl doers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conuersation in Christe.

The Epistle on Easter Euen.

17 For it is better, if the wyl of God be so, that ye suffer for wel dooyng, then for euyl dooyng.

Rom.5.6. Heb.9.15.

18 *For asmuche as Christ hath once suffered for sinnes, the iust for the vniust, to bring vs to God, and was kylled as pertayning to the flesshe, but was quickened in the spirite.

19 In which spirite, he also went and preached vnto the spirites that were in pryson.

20 Which sometime had been disobedient, when once the longe suffering of God abode in the dayes of Noe, while the arke was a preparing, wherein fewe (that is to say) eyght soules were saued in the water.

21 To the whiche also the figure agreeth that nowe saueth vs, euen baptisme: (not the putting away the fylth of the flesshe, but in that a good conscience maketh request to GOD) by the resurrection of Jesus Christe:

22 Which is on the ryght hande of God, and is gone into heauen, angels, powers, and might subdued vnto hym.

¶ The.iiii.Chapter.

1. He exhorteth men to ceasse from sinne, 7. to be sober, and apt to pray.

1 FOR as much then as Christe hath suffered for vs in the flesshe, arme ye your selues lykewyse with the same mynde: for he which suffereth in the flesshe, ceasseth from sinne:

2 That he hencefoorth shoulde lyue, as muche tyme as remayneth in the flesshe, not after the lustes of men, but after the wyll of God.

Ephe.4.23 3 *For it is sufficient for vs that we haue spent the tyme that is past of the lyfe, after the wyl of the Gentiles, walking in wantonnesse, lustes, in excesse of wines, in excesse of eating, in excesse of drinking, and abominable idolatrie.

4 And it seemed to them a strange thyng, that ye runne not also with them vnto the same excesse of riot, and therefore speake they euyl of you:

5 Which shal geue accomptes to hym that is redy to iudge quicke and dead.

6 For vnto this purpose verily was the Gospel preached also vnto the a dead, that they should be iudged lyke other men in the flesshe, but shoulde lyue before God in the spirite.

a. Although the wycked thynke this Gospel newe, and vexe you that imbrace it, yet hath it been preached to them of time past, which now are dead: to the intent that they might haue ben dead to sinne, & the flesh, and so might haue lined to God in the spirit, whiche two are the effect of the Gospel.

¶ The Epistle on the sunday after Assension day.

7 ¶ The end of al thinges is at hande. Be ye therefore sober, and watche vnto prayer,

8 But aboue al thinges haue feruent charitie among your selues: for charitie shal couer the multitude of sinnes.

9 Be ye harberous one to another, without grudgyng.

10 As euery man hath receyued the gyft, euen so minister the same one to another, as good stewardes of the manifolde grace of God.

11 If any man speake, let hym talke as the woorde of God: yf any man minister, let him doo it as of the abilitie which God ministreth vnto hym, that God in al thynges may be glorified through Jesus Christe, to whom be prayse and dominion for euer and euer, Amen.

12 Dearely beloued, thinke it not strange concerning the fierie triall, which thyng is to trye you, as though some strange thyng happened vnto you.

13 But reioyce, in as muche as ye are partakers of Christes passions: that when his glory appeareth, ye may be merie & glad.

14 *If ye be rayled vpon for the name of Christe, happie are ye: for the spirite of glorie and of God resteth vpon you: on their part he is euyl spoken of, but on your part he is glorified.

*Mat.5.10.

15 See that none of you be punished as a murderer, or as a theefe, or an euyl doer, or as a busie body in other mens matters.

16 If any man suffer as a Christian man, let hym not be abashed, but let him glorifie God on this behalfe.

17 For the time is (come) that iudgement must begin at the house of God. If it fyrst begin at vs, what shal the ende be of them which beleeue not the Gospel of God?

18 And if the righteous scasely be saued, where shal the vngodly and the synner appeare?

19 Wherefore, let them that are troubled according to the wyl of God, commit the keeping of their soules to him with well dooyng, as vnto a faythful creator.

¶ The.v.Chapter.

The duetie of pastours is to feede the flocke of Christ, and vvhat revvarde they shal haue yf they be dilygent.

1 THE a elders which are among you I exhort, which am also an elder, and a witnesse of the afflictions of Christe, a. By elders, he vnderstandeth al them whiche preache, teach, or minister in the Churche.

and also a partaker of the glory that shall be opened:

2 Feede you Gods flocke which is committed vnto you, takyng the ouersight of them, not as compelled thereto, but wyllyngly: not for the desyre of fylthie lucre, but of a cheareful mynde.

3 Not as though ye were lordes ouer Gods heritage: but that ye be an ensample to the flocke.

4 And when the cheefe shepheарde shal appeare, ye shal receyue an incorruptible crowne of glory.

The Epistle on the iii Sunday after trinitie.

5 Likewise ye younger, submit your selues vnto the elder: Submit your selues euery man one to another, decke your selues inwardly in lowlinesse of minde: *For God resisteth the proude, and geueth grace to the humble. *Iames.4.6

*Iames.4.10. Mat.6.25. Luke.12.24

6 *Submit your selues therefore vnder the mightie hande of God, that he may exalt you when the tyme is come.

7 Cast al your care vpon hym, for he careth for you.

8 Be sober and watch: *for your aduersarie the deuyl, as a roaring Lion walketh about, seeking whom he may deuoure. *Luke.21.31

9 Whom resist stedfast in the fayth: knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the worlde.

10 But the God of al grace him selfe, which hath called vs vnto his eternall glory by Christe Iesus, after that ye haue suffered a litle affliction, make you perfect, settle, strengthen, and stablishe you.

11 To him be glory and dominion for euer and euer, Amen.

12 By Syluanus a faythful brother, vnto you (as I suppose) I haue written briefely, exhorting & testifiyng, howe that this is the true grace of God, wherein ye stande.

13 The Churche that is at Babylon elected together with you, saluteth you, and so doeth Marcus my sonne.

14 *Greete ye one another with a kysse of charitie. Peace be with you al whiche are in Christe Iesus, Amen. *Rom.16.16 1.Cor.16.20

¶ The.ii. Epistle of Saint Peter.

The first Chapter.

Forasmuche as the power of God hath geuen them all thynges parteynyng vnto lyfe, he exhorteth them to flee the corruption of vvorldly lustes.

1 Simon Peter, a seruaunt and an Apostle of Iesus Christe, to them whiche haue obteyned like pretious fayth with vs, through the ryghteousnesse of our God and Sauiour Iesus Christe.

2 Grace and peace be multiplied vnto you, through the knowledge of God, and of Iesus our Lorde:

3 Accordyng as his godly power hath geuen vnto vs all thinges that parteyne vnto lyfe and a godlinesse, through the knowledge of him that hath called vs vnto glory and vertue:

a. The summe of our saluation and religion is, to be ledde by Christe to the father, who calleth vs in the sonne.

4 By the which are geuen vnto vs excellent and most great promises, that by the meanes therof, ye might be partakers of the godly nature, yf ye flee the corruption of worldly lust.

5 And hereunto geue all diligence, in your fayth minister vertue, in vertue knowledge,

6 In knowledge temperance, in temperance patience, in patience godlinesse,

7 In godlinesse, brotherly kindnesse, in brotherly kyndnesse, charitie.

8 For if these thinges be among you, and be plenteous, they make you that ye neyther shalbe idle, nor vnfruitful in the knowledge of our Lorde Iesus Christe.

9 But he that lacketh these thynges, is blinde, and can not see farre of, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sinnes.

10 Wherefore brethren, geue the more diligence for to make your callyng and election b sure: for if ye doo such thynges, ye shal neuer fal.

b. Albeit it be sure in it selfe, forasmuche as God can not change: yet we must confyrme it in our selues by the fruites of the spirite, knowyng that the purpose of God electeth, calleth, sanctifieth, and iustifieth vs.

11 Yea and by this meanes an entring in shalbe ministred vnto you abundantly, into the euerlasting kingdome of our Lorde and sauiour Iesus Christe.

12 Wherefore I wyl not be negligent to put you alwayes in remembrance of suche thinges, though ye know them your selues, and be stablished in the present trueth.

13 Notwithstanding I thinke it meete, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stirre you vp, by puttyng you in remembrance:

14 Knowyng that shortly I must put of this this my tabernacle, * euen as our Lorde Jesus Christe shewed me.

*Joh.21.19.

15 I wyll euer also geue my diligence, that ye may haue wherewith to stirre vp the remembrance of these thynges after my departing.

16 * For we haue not folowed deceitful fables, when we opened vnto you the power and comming of our lord Jesus Christ, but with our eyes we sawe his maiestie;

*1.Cor.1.17.

17 Euen then veryly when he receiued of God the father honour & glory, and when there came suche a voyce to hym from the excellent glory: * This is my deare beloued sonne in whom I delight.

*Math.17.5

18 This voyce we heard come from heauen, when we were with him in the holy mount.

19 We haue also a ryght sure worde of prophesie, whereunto if ye take heede, as vnto a light that shineth in a darke place, ye doo well, vntil the day dawne, & the day starre aryse in your hartes.

20 So that ye first knowe this, that no prophesie in the scripture is of anye priuate * motion.

*Or, interpretation.

21 For the prophesie came not in olde tyme by the wyll of man: but holy men of God, spake as they were moued by the holy ghost.

The.ij. Chapter.

He prophesieth of false teachers, and sheweth their punyshment.

1 There were false prophetes also among the people, euen as there shalbe false teachers among you, which priuily shal bring in damnable heresies, euen denying the Lord that hath bought them, and bring vpon them selues swyft damnation.

2 And many shall followe their damnable wayes, by whom the way of truth shalbe euil spoken of:

3 And through couetousnesse shall they with faigned wordes make a marchandise of you, whose iudgement nowe of long time ceaseth not, and their damnation sleepeth not.

a That is euidently seene in the Pope and his prieستes, which by lyes and flatteries sel mens soules: so that it is certayne that he is not the successour of Simon Peter, but of Simon Magus.

4 For if * God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them downe into hel, and deliuered them into chaynes of darkenesse, to be kept vnto iudgement:

*Job.4.12. *Gene.7.1.

5 * Neyther spared the old world, but saued Noe the eight person, a preacher of righteousnesse, and brought in the flood vpon the worlde of the vngodly,

*Gen.19.13.

6 And turned their cities of * Sodome and Gomorrhe into ashes, ouerthrewe them, damned them, & made them an ensample vnto those that after shoulde liue vngodly:

7 And iust Lot, vexed with the vncleane conuersation of the wicked, deliuered he.

8 (For he being righteous, and dwellyng among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soule from day to day with their vnlawful deedes.)

9 The Lord knoweth howe to deliuer the godly out of temptation, and to reserue the vniust vnto the day of iudgement for to be punished.

10 But cheefely them that walke after the flesshe in the lust of vncleannesse, and despise auctho*r*itie. Presumptuous are they, and stande in their owne conceyt, which feare not to speake euil of them that excell in worshyp.

11 Whereas the angles which are greater both in power & myght, geue not b raylyng iudgement agaynst them before the Lorde.

b. Albeit the angelles condemne the vice & iniquitie of wycked magistrates, yet they blame not the auctho*r*itie and power which is geuen them of God.

12 But these as brute beastes, led with sensualitie, and made to be taken and destroyed, speake euil of the thinges that they vnderstande not, and shall perishe through their owne corruption:

13 And receiue the reward of vnrighteousnesse, they counte it pleasure to liue delitiously for a season: spots they are and blots, c delighting them selues in their deceiuinges, in feastyng with you:

c. For in your holy feasts, they sit as members of the Church, where as in deede they be but spors, and so deceyue you.

14 Hauyng eyes full of adulterie, and that can not ceasse from sinne, laying bayte for vnstable soules: hartes they haue exercised with * robberis, they are cursed chylderen,

*Or, couetousnesse.

15 Which haue forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, folowyng the way of Balaam the sonne of Bosor, which loued the rewarde of vnrighteousnesse:

18 For when they speake the great swelling wordes of vanitie, they entice through lustes with the bayte of wantonnesse of the flesshe, them that were cleane escaped from them, whiche are wrapped in errour:

from the fylthinesse of the worlde, through the knowledge of the Lorde and the sauiour Jesus Christ, are yet tangled againe therein, and ouercome, their is the latter ende worse with them then the beginning.

21 For it had ben better for them not to haue knowen the way of righteousnesse, then after they haue knowen it, to turne from the holye commaundement that was geuen vnto them.

¶ The iii. Chapter.

8. He shewth the impietie of them which mocke at Gods promises. 7. After what sort the end of the world shalbe. 8. That they prepare them selues thereunto. 16. Who they are whiche abuse the wrytynges of Saint Paul, and the rest of the Scriptures, 18 concludyng with eternall thankes to Christe Iesu.

1 This is the second Epistle that I nowe write vnto you, dearly beloued, wherewith I stirre vp and warne your pure myndes,

2 To be mindful of the wordes which were tolde before of the holy prophetes, and also the * commaundement of vs, whiche be apostles of the Lorde and sauiour:

*or, doctrine.

*1. Ti.4.1. 2. Tim.2.1. 3 * Knowing this first, that there shal come in the last dayes mockers, walking after their owne lustes,

4 And saying, Where is the promyse of his comming? For sence the fathers fel asleepe, all thynges continue alyke from the begynnyng of the creation.

a. He meaneth them which had once professed christian religion, but became afterward contemners and mockers, as Epicures and Atheistes.

5 For this they knowe not (& that a wylfully) howe that the heauens were of old, and the earth consisting of the water, and by the water, by the worde of God:

6 By the whiche thynges the worlde that then was, perished, beyng then ouerrunne with water.

7 But the heauens and earth whiche are nowe, be kept by his worde in store, and reserued vnto fyre agaynst the day of iudgement, and perdition of vngodly men.

8 Dearely beloued, be not ignorant of this one thyng, * howe that one day is with the Lorde as a thousand yeeres, and a thousand yeeres as one day.

*Psal.90.4.

9 The Lorde that hath promysed, is not slacke (as some men count slacknesse) *but is patient to vswarde, for as muche as he woulde haue no man lost, but wyll receyue al men to repentaunce.

*1. Tim.2.4

10 Neuertheles, *the day of the Lorde wyll come as a theefe in the nyght, in the whiche the heauens shall passe away with a great noyse, and the elementes shal melt with feruent heate, the earth also, and the workes that are therein, shalbe vtterly burned.

*Mat.24.4 1. Thes.5.2. Apoca.3.3.

11 Seeyng then that all these thynges shall perysshe, what maner persons ought ye to be in holy conuersation and godlynesse, 12 Lookyng for, and hastyng vnto the comming of the day of God, * by whom the heauen shal perysshe with fyre, and the elements shall melt with feruent heate.

*Somewhat, wherein.

13 Neuertheless, we accordyng to his promyse, looke for a newe heauen, and a newe earth, wherein dwelleth rygh teousnesse.

*Apoca. 21.1 Esai.65.17.

14 Wherfore dearly beloued, seeyng that ye looke for suche thynges, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace without spot, and vndefiled:

15 * And suppose that the long suffering of the Lord is saluation, euen as our dearely beloued brother Paul also, according to the wysedome geuen vnto hym, hath wrytten vnto you.

*Rom.2.4.

16 Yea almost in euery Epistle, speaking of such thinges, among which are many thinges harde to be vnderstande, whiche they that are vnlearned and vnstable, peruert, as they do also the other scriptures, vnto their owne destruction.

17 Ye therefore beloued, seeing ye be warned afore hande, beware lest ye also, being led away with the errour of the wicked, fal from your owne stedfastnesse.

18 But growe in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord & sauiour Jesus Christe: To whom be glory both now and for euer. Amen.

Here endeth the seconde Epistle of Saint Peter.

¶ The fyrſt Epiſtle of Saint Iohn the Apoſtle.

¶ The fyrſt Chapter.

1. The true witneſſe of the everlaſtyng woorde of God. 7. The bloud of Chriſte is the purgation of ſinne. 10. No man is voyde of ſynne.

The Epiſtle on ſaint Iohns Euangelyſtes day.

THat whiche was from the beginnyng, whiche we haue heard, whiche we haue ſeene with our eyes, whiche we haue looked vpon, and our handes haue handled, of the woorde of lyfe:

2 (And the life appeared, and we haue ſeene, and beare witneſſe, and ſhewe vnto you that eternal lyfe whiche was with the father, and appeared vnto vs:)

3 That whiche we haue ſeene and heard, declare we vnto you, that ye alſo may haue [a] felowſhyp with vs, and that our felowſhyp may be with the father, and his ſonne Ieſus Chriſte.

[a] The effect of the Goſpel is, that we all beyng ioyned together in Chriſt by faith, ſhould be the ſonnes of God.

4 And theſe thinges write we vnto you, that your ioy may be ful.

5 And this is the tydinges whiche we haue heard of hym, and declare vnto you, * that God is lyght, and in him is no darkeneſſe at al.

*1. Ioh. 8. 12.

6 If we ſay that we haue felowſhyp with hym, and walke in darkeneſſe, we lye, and doo not the trueth.

7 But if we walke in the lyght, euen as he is in the light, they haue we felowſhyp [b] one with another, * and the bloud of Ieſus Chriſte his ſonne cleanſeth vs from all ſinne.

[b] That is, Chriſt with vs, and we with our ſelues.

*Hebr. 9. 28. 1. Ioh. 8. 46. *2. Chr. 6. 36

8 *If we ſay that we haue no ſynne, we deceyue our ſelues, and the trueth is not in vs.

9 If we knowledge our ſinnes, he is faythful and iuſt to forgeue vs our ſinnes, and to cleanſe vs from al vnryghteouſneſſe.

10 If we ſay that we haue not ſinned, we make hym a lyer, and his woorde is not in vs.

¶ The ii. Chapter.

1. Chriſt is our aduocate. 10. Of true loue, and howe it is tryed, 18. To beware of Antichriſt.

1 MY litle chyldren, theſe thynges write I vnto you, that ye ſynne not. And if any man ſinne, we haue an aduocate with the father, Ieſus Chriſte the ryghteous.

2 And he is the attonement for our ſynnes, not for our ſinnes onely, but alſo for the ſinne of al the woorlde.

3 And hereby we are ſure that we [a] knowe him, if we keepe his commaundementes.

[a] That is, by fayth, and ſo obey hym: for knowledge can not be without obedience.

4 He that ſayth, I knowe hym, and keepeth not his commaundementes, is a lyer, and the [a] veritie is not in hym.

[a] His trueth.

5 But who ſo keepeth his woorde, in hym is the loue of God perfect in deede: Hereby knowe we that we are in hym.

6 He that ſayth he abyderh in hym, ought him ſelfe to walke, euen as he walked.

7 Brethren, I write no newe commaundement vnto you, but an olde commaundement which ye haue heard from the beginnyng. The olde commaundement, is the woorde which ye haue heard from the beginnyng.

8 Againe, a newe commaundement I write vnto you, that is true in hym, and the ſame is true alſo in you, for the darkeneſſe is paſt, and the true light nowe ſhineth.

9 He that ſaith howe that he is in the light, and yet hateth his brother, is in darkneſſe euen vntyl this tyme.

10 *He that loueth his brother, abyderh in the lyght, and there is none occaſion of ſtrif in hym.

*1. Ioh. 3. 14.

11 He that hateth his brother is, in darkeneſſe, and walketh in darkneſſe, and can not tel whyther he goeth, becauſe that darkneſſe hath blynded his eyes.

12 Babes I write vnto you, becauſe your ſinnes are forgeuen you for his name ſake.

13 I write vnto you fathers, becauſe ye haue knowen hym that is from the begynnyng. I write vnto you young men, becauſe ye haue ouercome the wycked.

14 I write to you litle chyldren, becauſe ye haue knowen the father. I haue written to you fathers, becauſe ye haue knowen hym that is from the beginning. I haue written vnto you young men, becauſe ye are ſtrong, and the woorde of God abyderh in you, and ye haue ouercome the wycked.

15 See that ye loue not the woorlde, neyther the thynges that are in the woorlde. If any man loue the woorlde, the loue of the father is not in hym.

16 For al that is in the woorld, as the luſt of the fleſhe, and the luſt of the eyes, and the pride of lyfe, is not of the father, but of the worlde.

17 And the worlde passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that fulfylleth the wyl of God, abydeth for euer.

18 Litle chyldren, it is the last tyme: and as ye haue heard howe that antechriste shal come, euen nowe there are many antechristes: whereby we knowe that it is the last tyme.

19 They went out from vs, but they were not of vs: For if they had been of vs, they woulde no doubt haue continued with vs: But that it might appeare that they are not all of vs.

20 Neuertheles, ye haue an a anoyntment of him that is holy, and ye knowe all thynges.

21 I haue not written vnto you as though ye knewe not the trueth: but because ye knowe it, and that no lye is of the trueth.

22 Who is a lyer, but he that denieth that Iesus is Christ? he same is antechrist, that denieth the father and the sonne.

23 Who so euer denieth the sonne, the same hath not the father: But he that knowledgeth the sonne, hath the father also.

24 Let therefore abide in you, that same which ye heard from the beginning: if that which ye haue heard from the beginning shal remayne in you, ye also shal continue in the sonne, and in the father.

25 And this is the promise that he hath promised vs, euen eternal lyfe.

26 These thinges haue I written vnto you, concernyng them that deceyue you.

27 And the annoynting which ye haue receyued of him dwelleth in you: and ye neede not that any man teache you, but as the same e annoynting teacheth you of all thinges, and it is true, and not lying: and as it taught you, ye shal abide in it.

28 And nowe babes, abide in him: that when he shal appeare, we may be bold, and not be ashamed * of him at his commyng.

29 If ye knowe that he is ryghteous, know also that euery one which doeth ryghteousnesse, is borne of him.

a. thirdemanne the holy ghost.

b. the grace of the holy ghost.

e. Christ communicateth hym selfe vnto you, & teacheth you by the holy ghost and his ministers.

b. By this name, he meaneth the whole Churche of Christ in generall.

* Or, before.

¶ The iii. Chapter.

1. The singuler loue of GOD towarde vs, 7. and howe we agayne ought to loue one another.

1 BEholde what charitie the father hath shewed vs euen that we shoulde be called the sonnes of God: for this cause the worlde knoweth vs not, because it hath not knowen him.

2 Dearely beloued, nowe are we the sonnes of God, and yet it doeth not appeare what we shalbe: But we knowe that when he shal appeare, we shalbe like him: for we shal see him as he is.

3 And euery man that hath this hope in him, purgeth him selfe, euen as he also is pure.

4 Who so euer committeth sinne, transgresseth also the lawe: for sinne is the transgression of the lawe.

5 And ye knowe that he appeared to * take away our synnes, and in him is no sinne. * Esai.53.5. 1.Pet.2.22.

6 As many as bide in him, sinne not: who so euer sinneth, hath not seene him, neyther knowen him.

7 Babes, let no man deceyue you: he that doeth ryghteousnesse, is righteous, euen as he is ryghteous.

8 * He that committeth sinne, is of the deuyl, for the deuyl sinneth since the beginning: For this purpose appeared the sonne of God, to louse the woorkes of the deuyl. * Iohn.8.44

9 Who so euer is borne of God, sinneth not: for his seede remayneth in him, and he can not sinne, because he is borne of God.

10 In this are the chyldren of God knowen, and the chyldren of the deuyl: who so euer doeth not ryghteousnesse, is not of God, neither he that loueth not his brother.

11 * For this is the tydinges that ye heard from the beginning, that ye shoulde loue one another. * Iohn.13.34

12 Not as * Caine which was of that wycked, and slue his brother: And wherefore slue he him? because his owne woorkes were euyl, and his brothers ryghteous. * Gene.4.8.

13 Marueyle not, my brethren, yf the worlde hate you.

14 We knowe that we are translated from death vnto lyfe, because we a loue the brethren: he that loueth not his brother, abydeth in death.

15 Who so euer hateth * his brother, is a manslear: and ye knowe that no manslear hath eternal lyfe abyding in him. * Leui.19.17.

16 Hereby perceyue we loue, because he layde downe his lyfe for vs: and we ought to lay downe our lyues for the brethren.

17 * But who so hath this worldes good, and seeth his brother haue neede, and shutteth vp his compassion from him: howe dwelleth the loue of God in him? * Luke.3.11.

18 My babes, let vs not loue in woorde, neither in tongue, but in deede and in veritie.

19 Hereby we knowe that we are of the trueth, & shal assure our hartes before him.

20 For if our hart condemne vs, God is greater then our hart, and knoweth all thynges.

21 Dearely beloued, if our hart condemne vs vs not, then haue we boldenesse towarde God.

*Mat.21.12 Iohn.15.7. 22 And *whatsoeuer we aske, we receiue of hym, because we keepe his commaundementes, and doo those thynges whiche are pleasyng in his syght.

*Iohn.6.29 23 *And this is his commaundement, that we should beleeue on the name of his sonne Iesus Christe, and loue one another, as he gaue vs commaundement.

*Ioh.13.34. 24 *And he that keepeth his commaundementes dwelleth in hym, and he in hym, and hereby we know that he abideth in vs, euen by the spirite which he hath geuen vs.

The.iiii.Chapter.

1. Difference of spirites, 2. howe the spirite of God may be knowen from the spirite of errour.

1 DEarely beloued, beleeue not euery spirite, but prooue the spirites whether they are of God, or not: for many false prophetes are gone out into the worlde.

2 Hereby shal ye knowe the spirite of God: Euery spirite that confesseth that Iesus a Christe is come in the flesshe, is of God:

a Who being very god came from his father, and tooke vpon hym our flesshe. He that confesseth or Preacheth this truely, hath the spirit of god, els not.

3 And euery spirit which confesseth not that Iesus Christe is come in the flesshe, is not of God, and this is that spirit of Antechriste, of whom ye haue heard how that he should come: and euen nowe alredy is he in the worlde.

4 Litle chyldren, ye are of God, and haue ouercome them: for greater is he that is in you, then he that is in the worlde.

5 They are of the worlde, therefore speake they of the worlde, and the worlde heareth them.

*Ioh.8.47. 6 *We are of God, he that knoweth God, heareth vs: he that is not of God, heareth vs not. Hereby knowe we the spirite of veritie, and the spirite of errour.

The Epistle on the first sunday after Trinitie.

7 Dearely beloued, let vs loue one another, for loue commeth of God: and euery one that loueth, is borne of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loueth not, knoweth not God: for God is loue.

*Ioh.3.16. 9 *In this appeared the loue of God to vs ward, because God sent his onely begotten sonne into the worlde, that we myght lyue through hym.

10 Herein is loue, not that we loued God, but that he loued vs, and sent his sonne to be the agreement for our sinnes.

11 Dearely beloued, if God so loued vs, we ought also to loue one another.

*1.Ioh.1.12. 1.Tim.6.16 12 *No man hath seene God at any tyme. If we loue one another, God dwelleth in vs, and his loue is perfect in vs.

13 Hereby knowe we that we dwel in hym, and he in vs: because he hath geuen vs of his spirite.

14 And we haue seene, and doo testifie that the father sent the sonne to be the sauiour of the worlde.

15 Who so euer confesseth that Iesus is the sonne of God, in hym dwelleth God, and he in God.

16 And we haue knowen and beleeued the loue that God hath to vs. God is loue, and he that dwelleth in loue, dwelleth in God, and God in hym.

17 Herein is the loue perfect in vs, that we shoulde haue boldenesse in the day of iudgement: For as he is, euen so are we in this worlde.

18 There is no feare in loue, but perfect loue casteth out feare: for feare hath paine. fulnesse. He that feareth, is not perfect in loue.

19 We loue hym, for he loued vs fyrst.

20 If a man say, I loue God, and yet hate his brother, he is a lyer: For howe can he that loueth not his brother whom he hath seene, loue God whom he hath not seene?

21 *And this commaundement haue we of hym, that he which loueth God, should loue his brother also. *Ioh.13.34 and.15.12.

The.v.Chapter.
Of the fruites of fayth.

1 WHo so euer beleeueth that Iesus is Christe, is borne of God: and euery one that loueth hym which begate, loueth hym also which is begotten of hym.

2 *By this we knowe that we loue the chyldren of God, when we loue God, and keepe his commaundementes. *Mat.12.57

3 For this is the loue of God, that we keepe his commaundementes: and *his commaundementes are not greeuous. *1.Co.15.57

4 For al that is borne of god, ouercommeth the worlde: and this is the victorie that hath ouercome the worlde, euen our fayth. The Epistle on the first sunday after Easter.

5 Who is it that ouercommeth the worlde, but he whiche beleeueth that Iesus is the sonne of God?

6 This Iesus Christ is he that came by water and a blood: not by water only, but by water and blood: and it is the spirite that beareth witnesse, because the spirite is b trueth.

a. The water & blood that came out of his side, declare that we haue our sinnes washed by hym, and he hath made ful satisfaction for the same.

b. which testifieth to our hartes, that we be the children of God.

7 For there are three whiche beare record in heauen, the father, the woorde, and the holy ghost, and these three are one.

8 And there are three whiche beare record in in earth, the spirite, and water, and blood, and these three agree in one.

9 If we receiue the witnesse of men, the witnesse of God is greater: For this is the witnesse of God, whiche he testifieth of his son.

10 * He that beleeueth on the sonne of God, hath the witnesse in him selfe: He that beleeueth not God, hath made hym a lyer, because he beleeued not the recorde that God gaue of his sonne.

11 And this is the recorde, that God hath geuen vnto vs eternal lyfe, and this lyfe is in his sonne.

12 He that hath the sonne hath life, & he that hath not the sonne of God, hath not lyfe.

13 These thynges haue I written vnto you that beleeue on the name of the sonne of God, that ye may knowe that ye haue eternall lyfe, and that ye may beleeue on the name of the sonne of God.

14 And this is the trust that we haue in him: that * if we aske any thyng according to his wyl, he heareth vs.

15 And if we knowe that he heare vs whatsoeuer we aske, we knowe that we haue the petitions that we desyre of hym.

16 If any man see his brother sinne a sinne which is not vnto death, he shal aske, and he shal geue hym life for them that sinne not vnto death. There is a sinne vnto death: I say not that ye shoulde pray for it.

17 * All vnrygh teousnesse is sinne: and there is sinne not vnto death.

18 We knowe that who so euer is borne of God, sinneth not: but he that is begotten of God, keepeth hym selfe, and that wicked toucheth hym not.

19 We knowe that we are of God, and the whole worlde lyeth in wickednesse.

20 We knowe that the sonne of GOD is come, and hath * geuen vs a mind to knowe hym which is true: and we are in him that is true: through his sonne Iesus Christe: This same is very God, and eternal lyfe.

1 THe elder vnto the elect Lady and her children, whom I loue in the a trueth, and not I onely, but also al that haue knowen the trueth:

2 For the truethes sake whiche dwelleth in vs, and shalbe with vs for euer:

3 Grace be with you, mercy, and peace from God the father, and from the Lorde Iesus Christe, the sonne of the father in b trueth and loue.

4 I reioyced greatly that I founde of thy children walking in c trueth, as we haue receyued a commaundement of the father.

5 And nowe I beseeche thee Lady, not as though I wrote a newe commaundement vnto thee: but that same whiche we haue had from the begynnyng, that we shoulde loue one another.

6 And this is the loue, that we should walke after his commaundementes: This is the commaundement, that as ye haue heard from the begynning, ye should walke in it.

7 For many deceyuers are entred into the worlde, whiche confesse not that Iesus Christe is come in the flesh. This is a deceyuer, and an Antechriste.

8 Looke on your selues, that we loose not that we haue wrought: but that we may haue a ful reward.

9 Who so euer transgresseth, and abydeth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God: He that endureth in the doctrine of Christ, hath both the father and the sonne.

10 If there come any vnto you, and bryng not this learnyng, * hym receyue not to house, neyther byd hym God speede.

3 Beloued, when I gaue all diligence to wryte vnto you of the common saluation, it was needefull for me to write vnto you, exhortyng you that ye should earnestly a contend for the fayth whiche was once geuen vnto the saintes.

a. Against assaultes of Satan and Heretikes.

4 For there are certayne vngodly men craftily crept in, which were before of olde ordeyned to this condemnation, turnyng the grace of our God vnto wantonnesse: and denying God, which is the onely Lord, and our Lorde Iesus Christe.

5 My minde is therefore to put you in remembrance hereof, for as muche as ye once knowe this, howe that the Lorde after that he had deliuered the people out of Egypt, *destroyed them whiche afterward beleeued not. *Nu.14.37.

6 *The angels also which kept not their first estate, but left their owne habitation, he hath reserued in euerlastyng chaynes vnder darkenesse, vnto the iudgement of the great day. *2.Pet.2.4.

7 *Euen as Sodome and Gomorrhe, and the cities about them, which in lyke maner defiled them selues with fornication, and folowed strange flesshe, are set forth for an ensample, and suffer the payne of eternall fyre. *Gen.19.24.

8 Likewyse these being deceined by dreames, defyle the flesshe, despise rulers, and speake euill of them that are in auctoritie.

9 Yet Michael the archangel, when he stroue against the deuil, and disputed about the body of Moses, durst not geue railyng sentence, but said, The Lord rebuke thee.

10 But

10 But these speake euyll of those thynges which they knowe not, and what thynges they knowe naturally, as beastes which are without reason, in those thinges they corrupt themselues.

11 Woe be vnto them, for they haue gone in the way of * Cain, and are vtterly geuen to the errour of Balaam for lucres sake, and haue perished in the gaynesaying of * Core.

12 These are "spottes in your feastes of charitie, when they feast with you, without all feare feeding themselues: cloudes they are without water, carried about of wyndes, "trees wythered at fruite geatheryng, and without fruite, twyse dead, and plucked vp by the rootes:

13 They are the raging waues of the sea, foming out their owne shame: they are wandring starres, to whom is reserued the myst of darknesse for euer.

14 Enoch the seuenth from Adam prophesied before of such, saying, Behold, the Lord shall come with thousandes of saintes, 15 To geue iudgement agaynst al men, and to rebuke al that are vngodly among them, of al their vngodly deedes which they haue vngodly committed, and of all their cruell speakinges, whiche vngodly sinners haue spoken agaynst hym.

16 These are murmurers, complainers, walkyng after their owne lustes, * whose mouthes speake proude thynges, they haue men in great reuerēce because of aduantage. *Psal.17.10

17 But ye beloued, remember the woordes whiche were spoken before of the Apostles of our Lorde Iesus Chriſte.

18 How that they tolde you, * that there shoulde be mockers in the last tyme, whiche shoulde walke after their owne vngodly lustes. *1.Tim.4.1 2.Tim.3.1. 2.Pet.2.3.

19 These are makers of sectes, sleshly, hauing not the spirite.

20 But ye dearely beloued, edifie your selues in your most holy fayth, praying in the holy ghost.

21 And keepe your selues in the loue of God, looking for the mercie of our Lorde Iesus Chriſte vnto eternall lyfe, 22 And haue compassion of some, "separatyng them: "Or, in putting differences.

23 And other saue with feare, pulling them out of the fyre: hatyng euen the garment spotted by the flesshe.

24 Vnto him that is able to keepe you free from sinne, and to present you faultlesse before the presence of his glory with ioy,

25 To God our sauiour which only is wyse, be glory and maiestie, dominion, and power, nowe and euer. Amen.

The Reuelation of Saint Iohn the Diuine.

The fyrst Chapter.

1. The cause of this Reuelation. 3. Of them that reade it. 4. Iohn vvryteth to the seuen Churches. 5. The Maiestie and office of the Sonne of GOD. 20. The vision of the Candlestickes, and Starres.

1 THE a Reuelation of Iesus Chriſte, whyth b GOD gaue vnto him, for to shewe vnto his seruaunes thinges which must shortly come to passe: and when he had sent, he shewed by his angel vnto his seruant Iohn,

2 Which bare recorde of the woord of God, and of the testimonie of Iesus Chriſte, and of all thinges that he sawe.

3 Happy is he that readeth, and they that heare the woordes of this prophecie, and keepe those thinges which are written therein: for the time is at hand.

4 Iohn to the seuen Churches in Asia, Grace be vnto you, & peace from him which * is, and which was, and which is to come, and from the seuen spirites whiche are before his throne: *Exod.3.14

5 And from Iesus Chriſte, vvhich is a faithfull witnesse and first begotten of the dead, and Lord ouer the kynges of the earth: vnto hym that loued vs, and washed vs from our sinnes in his owne blood, *1.Co.15.21

6 And made "vs kinges and priestes vnto God and his father: to him be glory and dominion for euermore. Amen. *Heb.9.14.

7 Beholde, he commeth with the cloudes, and all eyes shall see him, and they also which pearsed him, and all kynredes of the earth shall waile before him: euen so. Amen.

8 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginnyng and the endyng, sayth the Lorde Almighty, which is, and which was, and whiche is to come.

9 I Iohn your brother, and companion in tribulation,

a. Of thinges which were told before.
b. Christe receiued this Reuelation out of his fathers bosome as his owne doctrine, but it was hyd in respect of vs, so that Christe as Lorde and God reuealeth it to Iohn his seruant, by the ministery of his angel, to the edification of his Church.

tribulation, and in the kingdome and patience of Iesus Christe, was in the Ile that is called Pathmos, for the woorde of God, and for the witnessing of Iesus Christ.

10 I was in the spirite on the a Lordes day, and heard behynde me a great voyce, as it had been the voyce of a trumpe, 11 Saying, I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: that thou seest, write in a booke, and sende it vnto the seuen churches which are in Asia, vnto Ephesus, and vnto Smyrna, and vnto Pergamos, and vnto Thyatira, and vnto Sardis, & vnto Philadelphia, and vnto Laodicea.

12 And I turned backe to see the voyce that spake to me. And when I was turned, I sawe seuen golden candelsticks, 13 And in the middest of the seuen candelsticks, one lyke vnto the sonne of man, clothed with a garment downe to the feete, & gyrd about the pappes with a golde girdle.

14 His head and his heares were white, as white wool, and as snowe, & his eyes were as a flame of fyre.

15 And his feete lyke vnto fine brasse, as though they burnt in a furnace: and his voyce as the sounde of many waters.

16 And he had in his right hande seuen starres: and out of his mouth went a sharpe two edged swoord, and his face shone euen as the Sunne in his strength.

17 And when I sawe hym, I fel at his feete euen as dead: and he layde his right hande vpon me, saying vnto me, Feare not, * I am the fyrst and the last,

18 I am alyue, and was dead: and beholde I am alyue for euermore, Amen, and haue the keyes of hel and of death.

19 Write therefore the thynges whiche thou hast seene, and the thynges which are, and the thynges whiche shalbe fulfylled hereafter.

20 The mysterie of the seuen starres which thou sawest in my ryght hande, & the seuen golden candlestickes. The seuen starres, are the Angels of the seuen Churches: and the seuen candlestickes which thou sawest, are the seuen Churches.

* Esa. 44. 4.

¶ The ii. Chapter.

1. He exhorteth foure Churches, 5. to repentance, 10, to perseuerance, patience, and amendement, 14. 20. 23. as well by threatnynges, 7. 16. 17. 26. as by promises of rewarde.

1 VNto the angel of the Church of Ephesus, write, These thinges saith he that holdeth the seuen starres in his ryght hande, and that walketh in the middes of the seuen golden candlestickes:

2 I know thy workes, and thy labour, and patience, and howe thou canst not forbeare them whiche are euyll: and hast examined them whiche say they are apostles, and are not, and hast founde them lyers:

3 And hast suffered, and hast patience, and for my names sake hast laboured, and hast not fayntes.

4 Neuertheleſſe, I haue somewhat against thee, because thou hast leaft thy first loue.

5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, & do the first workes: or els, I wyll come vnto thee shortly, and wyll remoue thy candelsticke out of his place, except thou repent.

6 But this thou hast, because thou hatest the deedes of the Nicolaitans, which deedes I also hate.

7 Let hym that hath an eare, heare what the spirite sayth vnto the Churches: To hym that ouercommeth, wyl I geue to eate of the tree of life, which is in the myddes of the paradise of God.

8 And vnto the Angel of the Churche of Smyrna, write, These thynges sayth he that is first and the last, whiche was dead, and is a alyue.

a. The eternal diuinitie of Iesus Christe, is here most playnly declared, with his manhood and victorie ouer death, to assure his, that they shal not be ouercome dy death.

9 I knowe thy woorkes, and tribulation, and pouertie, (but thou art b ryche:) and I knowe the blasphemie of them whiche call them selues Iewes, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan.

b In spiritual treasure.

10 Feare none of those thynges which thou shalt suffer: beholde, the deuyl shal cast some of you into prison to tempt you, and ye shall haue tribulation ten dayes: be thou faythful vnto the death, and I wyll geue thee a crowne of lyfe.

11 Let hym that hath an eare, heare what the spirite sayth vnto the Churches. He that ouercommeth, shal not be hurt of the second death.

12 And to the angel of the Churche in Pergamos, write, These things saith he which hath the sharpe c swoorde with two edges,

c. The woorde of God is the sworde with two edges.

13 I knowe thy woorkes, and where thou dwellest, euen where Satans seate is, & that thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my fayth, euen in those dayes, when Antipas my faythful martyr was slayne among you, where Satan dwelleth.

14 But I haue a fewe thinges against thee, because thou hast there them that mayntayne the doctrine of * Balaam, whiche taught * Balac to put a stumbling blocke before the children of Israel, that they should eate of meate sacrificed vnto Idoles, and commit fornication.

* Nu. 24. 14.

* Somme reade, taught in Balac.

15 Euen

15 Euen so hast thou them that maynteine the doctrine of the Nicolaitans, whiche thyng I hate.

16 Repent, or els I wyll come vnto thee shortly, and wyl fyght agaynst them with the swoorde of my mouth.

17 Let hym that hath an eare, heare what the spirite sayth vnto the Churches. To hym that ouercommeth, wyl I geue to eate Manna that is hyd, and wyll geue hym a whyte stone, and in the stone a newe name written, which no man knoweth, sauing he that receyueth it.

18 And vnto the angel of the Churche of Thyatira, wryte, These thynges sayth the sonne of GOD, who hath eyes lyke vnto a flame of fyre, and his feete are lyke fyne brasse:

19 I knowe thy woorkes, and thy charitie, seruice, and fayth, and thy patience, and thy deedes, whiche are moe at the last then at the first.

20 Notwithstanding, I haue a fewe thinges against thee, because thou sufferest that woman Iesabel, whiche called her selfe a prophetisse, to reache, and to deceyue my seruantes, to make them commit fornication, and to eate meate sacrificed vnto idols.

21 And I gaue her space to repent of her fornication, and she repented not.

22 Beholde, I wyl cast her into a bed, and them that commyt fornication with her into great aduersitie, except they repent of theyr deedes.

23 And I wyl slyl her chyldren with death, and all the Churches shall knowe that * I am he whiche searcheth the raynes and hartes: and I wyll geue vnto euery one of you accordyng to his woorkes.

*Iere.11.20 and.17.10.

24 Unto you I say, and vnto other of them of Thyatira, as many as haue not this learning, & whiche haue not knowen the deepenesse of Satan, as they say, I wyl put vpon you none other burden:

25 But that which ye haue alredy, hold fast tyl I come.

26 And whosoeuer ouercommeth, and keepeth my woorkes vnto the ende, to hym wil I geue power ouer nations:

*Psal. 2.9.

27 * And he shal rule them with a rodde of Iron: and as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to sheuers.

28 Euen as I receyued of my father, so wyl I geue hym the morning starre.

29 Let hym that hath an eare, heare what the spirite sayth to the Churches.

¶ The.iii. Chapter.

He exhorteth the churches or ministers to the true profession of fayth, and to watchyng.

1 AND write vnto the angel of the church that is at Sardis, These thyngs sayth he that hath the seuen spirites of God, and the seuen starres, I knowe thy woorkes, how that thou hast a name that thou lyuest, and thou art dead.

2 Be awake, and strength the thynges which remayne, that are redye to dye: For I haue not founde thy woorkes perfect before God.

3 Remember therfore howe thou hast receyued and heard, and holde fast, and repent. * If thou shalt not watche, I wyll come on thee as a theefe, and thou shalt not knowe what houre I wyl come vpon thee.

*1. Thes.5.2 2.Pet.3.10.

4 Thou hast a fewe names in Sardis, whiche haue not defyled their garmentes, and they shal walke with me in white: for they are woorthy.

5 He that ouercommeth, shalbe thus clothed in whyte aray, and I wyl not blot out his name out of the * booke of lyfe: and I wyl confesse his name before my father, and before his angels.

*Apo.20.12 Phillt.4.4.

6 Let hym that hath an eare, heare what the spirite sayth vnto the Churches.

7 And write vnto the angel of the Churche of Philadelphia, These thynges sayth he that is holy and true, which hath the key of Dauid, which openeth, & no man shutteth, and shutteth, and no man openeth.

8 I knowe thy woorkes: beholde, I haue set before thee an open doore, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a lytle strength, and hast kept my sayinges, and hast not denyed my name.

9 Beholde, I wyll make them of the synagogue of Satan, whiche call them selues Iewes, and are not, but do lye: behold, I wyl make them that they shall come and woorshyp before thy feete, and shall knowe that I haue loued thee.

10 Because thou hast kept the woorde of my patience, therefore I wyll keepe thee from the houre of temptation, whiche wyll come vpon all the worlde, to trye them that dwel vpon the earth.

11 Beholde, I come shortly, holde that fast whiche thou hast, that no man take awaye thy crowne.

12 Hym that ouercommeth, wyl I make a pyller in the temple of my God, and he shal goe no more out: and I wil write vpon him the name of my God, and the name of the citie of my God, which is newe Hierusalem, which commeth downe out of heauen from my God: and I wyl write vpon hym my newe name.

13 Let hym that hath an eare, heare what the spirite sayth vnto the Churches.

14 And

14 And vnto the angel of the Church which is in Laodicea, wryte, These thinges sayth Amen, the faythfull and true witnesse, the beginning of the creatures of God.

15 I knowe thy woorkes, that thou art neyther cold nor hot: I would thou were cold or hot.

16 So then because thou art luke warme, and neyther cold nor hot, I wyll spewe thee out of my mouth.

17 Because thou sayest, I am riche, and encreased with goodes, and haue neede of nothyng: and knowest not howe that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poore, and blinde, and naked.

18 I counsayle thee to buye of me gold tryed in the fyre, that thou mayest be riche, and white rayment, that thou maiest be clothed, that thy fylthy nakednesse doo not appeare, and annoynt thyne eyes with eye salue, that thou mayst see.

Prou. 3. 2. Hebr. 12. 5. 19 * As many as I loue, I rebuke and chasten, be feruent therefore, and repent.

20 Behold, I stand at the doore, and knocke: yf any man heare my voyce, and open the doore, I wyl come in to him, and wyl supp with hym, and he with me.

21 To him that ouercommeth, wyll I graunt to syt with me in my throne, euen as I ouercame, and haue sitten with my father in his throne.

22 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the spirite sayth vnto the Churches.

¶ The iiii. Chapter.

1. The vision of the maiestie of God. 2. He seeth the throne, and one sitting vpon it, 4. and foure and twentie seates about it, with foure and twentie elders sittyng vppon them, and foure beastes praysing God day and nyght.

The Epistle on Trinitie Sunday. 1 AFter this I looked, and behold a doore was open in heauen: and the first voyce whiche I heard, was as it were of a trumpet, talking with me, whiche saide, Come vp hyther, and I wyll shewe thee thinges whiche must be fulfilled hereafter.

2 And immediatly I was in the spirit: and behold, a throne was set in heauen, and one sate on the throne.

3 And he that sate, was to looke vpon lyke a Jasper stone, and a Sardine stone: and there was a raynebowe about the throne, in syght lyke vnto an Emeralde.

4 And about the throne were foure & twentie seates, and vpon the seates I sawe foure and twentie elders sytting, clothed in white rayment, and they had on their heades crownes of golde.

5 And out of the throne doo proceede lightenynges, and thundrynges, and voyces: and there were seuen lampes of fyre burning before the throne, which are the seuen spirites of God.

6 And before the throne there was a sea of glasse, lyke vnto Crystal: and in the myddest of the throne, and round about the throne, were foure beastes full of eyes before and behynde.

7 And the fyrst beast was lyke a Lion, and the second beast lyke a Calfe, and the thyrd beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was lyke a fleeing Egle.

8 And the foure beastes had eache of them sixe wynges about him, and they were full of eyes within, and they had no rest day nether nyght, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lorde God almighty, whiche was, and is, and is to come.

9 And when those beastes gaue glory, and honour, and thankes to him that sate on the throne, which liueth for euer and euer.

10 The foure and twentie elders fel downe before him that sate on the throne, and woorshipped hym that liueth for euer and euer, and cast their crownes before the throne, saying,

11 * Thou art woorthy, O Lorde, to receyue glory, and honour, and power: for thou hast created al thinges, and for thy pleasures sake they are, and were created. * Apoc. 5. 12.

¶ The v. Chapter.

1. He seeth the Lambe opening the booke, 8. 14. and therefore the foure beastes, the foure and twentie elders, and the angels, prayse the Lamb, and doo him woorshyp, 9. for their redemption, and other benefites.

1 AND I sawe in the right hand of him that sate on the throne, a booke written within, and on the backside, sealed with seuen seales.

2 And I sawe a strong angel preaching with a loude voyce, Who is woorthy to open the booke, and to loose the seales thereof?

3 And no man in heauen, nor in earth, neyther vnder the earth, was able to open the booke, neyther to looke thereon.

4 And I wept muche, because no man was found woorthy to open, and to reade the booke, neyther to looke thereon.

5 And one of the elders sayth vnto me, Weepe not: beholde, that Lion that is of the tribe of Juda, the roote of Dauid, hath obteyned to open the booke, and to loose the seuen seales thereof.

6 And I beheld, and loe, in the middes of the throne, & of the foure beastes, and in the middes mídes of the elders stoode a Lambe as though he had been killed, hauyng seuen hornes and seuen eyes, whiche are the seuen spirites of God, sent into all the earth.

7 And he came, and tooke the booke out of the ryght hand of him that sate vppon the throne.

8 And when he had taken the booke, the foure beastes and foure and twentie elders fell downe before the Lambe, hauing euery one of them harpes and golden vials full of odours, which are the prayers of saintes:

9 And they song a newe songue, saying, Thou art worthy to take the booke, and to open the seales therof: for thou wast killed, and hast redeemed vs to GOD by thy blood, out of all kynrede, and tongue, and people, and nation:

*1. Pet. 2. 9. 10 And hast made vs vnto our God kinges and priestes, and we shall raigne on the earth.

11 And I beheld, and I heard the voyce of many angels about the throne, and about the beastes and the elders, and heard thousand thousandes, 12 Saying with a loud voyce, Worthy is the Lambe that was killed to receiue power, and riches, and wysdome, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

13 And all the creatures whiche are in heauen, and on the earth, and vnder the earth, and in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Blessing, honour, glory, and power be vnto hym that sitteth vppon the throne, & vnto the Lambe for euermore.

14 And the foure beastes saide, Amen. And the foure and twentie elders fell vpon their faces, and worshipped him that liueth for euermore.

¶ The vi. Chapter.

The Lambe openeth the sixe seales, and many thynges folowe the opening thereof.

1 AND I sawe when the Lambe opened one of the seales, and I heard one of the foure beastes say, as it were the noyse of thunder, Come, and see.

2 And I sawe, and behold there was a white horse, and he that sate on him had a bowe, and a crowne was geuen vnto him, and he went forth conquering, and for to ouercome.

3 And when he had opened the second seale, I heard the seconde beast say, Come, and see.

4 And there went out another horse that was redde: and power was geuen to him that sate theron to take peace from the earth, and that they should kyll one another: and there was geuen vnto him a great sworde.

5 And when he had opened the thirde seale, I heard the thirde beast say, Come, and see. And I beheld, and loe, a blacke horse: and he that sate on him, had a payre of ballances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voyce in the middes of the foure beastes say, A measure of wheate for a peny, and three measures of barley for a peny, and oyle and wine see thou hurt not.

7 And when he had opened the fourth seale, I heard the voyce of the fourth beast say, Come, and see.

8 And I looked, and beholde a pale horse, and his name that sate on him was death, and hell folowed with him: and power was geuen vnto hym ouer the fourth part of the earth, to kyll with sworde, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beastes of the earth.

9 And when he had opened the fifth seale, I sawe vnder the aulter the soules of them that were killed for the worde of God, and for the testimonie which they had.

10 And they cryed with a loude voyce, saying, Howe long tarryest thou Lorde holy and true, to iudge and to auenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth.

11 And long white garmentes were geuen vnto euery one of them, and it was sayd vnto them that they shoulde rest yet for a little season, vntyll their felowe seruantes, and their brethren that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.

12 And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seale, and loe there was a great earthquake, and the sunne was as blacke as sackcloth made of heare, and the moone waxed all euen as blood.

13 And the starres of heauen fell vnto the earth, euen as a figge tree casteth her vntimely figges when she is shaken of a mightie winde.

14 And heauen vanished away as a scrowle when it is rolled together, and all mountaynes and Iles were moued out of their places.

15 And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the riche men, and the cheefe captaynes, and the mightie men, and euery bondman, and euery free man, hydde themselues in the dennes, & in the rockes of the hilles:

16 And sayde to the hylles and rockes, *Fal on vs, and hide vs from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lambe: *Esai. 2. 19. Osee. 10. 8. Luke. 23. 30

¶ The

¶ The.vii.Chapter.

4. 9. He seeth the seruauntes of God sealed in their foreheades, out of al nations, and people, 13. vvhi-che though they suffer trouble, yet the Lambe feedeth them, leadeth them to the fountaynes of liuyng vvater, 17. and God shal vvype avvay al teares from their eyes.

1 AND after that, I sawe foure angelles standyng on the foure corners of the earth, holding the foure wyndes of the earth, that the wynde should not blowe on the earth, neyther on the sea, neyther on any tree.

The Epistle on al saintes day.

2 And I saw another angel assendyng from the rysing of the Sonne, hauing the seale of the lyuyng God: and he cryed with a loude voyce to the foure angelles, to whom power was geuen to hurt the earth and the sea,

3 Saying, Hurt not the earth, neyther the sea, neyther the trees, tyll we shal haue sealed the seruantes of our GOD in their foreheades.

4 And I hearde the number of them which were sealed: and there were sealed an hundred and fourtie and foure thousande, of al the tribes of the chyldren of Israel.

5 Of the tribe of Juda were sealed twelue thousande. Of the tribe of Ruben were sealed twelue thousande. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelue thousande.

6 Of the tribe of Aser were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Nephthali were sealed twelue thousande. Of the tribe of Manasses were sealed twelue thousand.

7 Of ỳ tribe of Simeon were sealed twelue thousande. Of the tribe of Leui were sealed twelue thousande. Of the tribe of Isachar were sealed twelue thousande.

8 Of the tribe of Zabulō were sealed twelue thousande. Of the tribe of Joseph were sealed twelue thousande. Of the tribe of Beniamin were sealed twelue thousande.

9 After this I behelde, and loe a great multitude whiche no man coulde number, of al nations, and kynredes, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lambe, clothed with whyte garmentes, and palmes in their handes:

10 And cryed with a loude voyce, saying, Saluation be ascribed to hym that sitteth vpon the throne of our GOD, and vnto the Lambe.

11 And al the angelles stoode in the compasse of the throne, and of the elders, and of the foure beastes, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshypped God.

12 Saying, Amen: Blessyng, and glory, and wysedome, and thankes, and honour, and power, and might, be vnto our GOD for euermore, Amen.

13 And one of the elders answeared, saying vnto me, What are these whiche are arayed in white garmentes? and whence came they?

14 And I said vnto him, Lord, thou woteste. And he said to me, These are they whiche came out of great tribulation, and haue washed their long robes, and made them white by the blood of the lambe.

a. That is, the said long robes.

15 Therefore are they in the presence of the throne of GOD, and serue hym day and night in his temple: and he that sytteth in the throne wyl dwel among them.

16 *They shal hunger no more, neyther thyrst, neyther shal the sunne light on them, neyther any heate.

*Esa.49.10

17 For the lambe whiche is in the myddest of the throne shal feede them, and shall leade them vnto liuing fountaynes of waters: *and GOD shal wype away al teares from theyr eyes.

¶ The.viii.Chapter.

1. The seuenth seale is opened, there is silence in heauen. 6. The foure angelles blovve their Trumpets, and great plagues folovve vpon the earth.

1 AND when he had opened the seuenth seale, there was silence in heauen about the space of halfe an houre.

2 And I sawe the seuen angels whiche stoode before God, and to them were geuen seuen trumpets.

3 And another angel came and stoode before the aulter, hauing a golden senser, and many odours were geuen vnto hym, that he shoulde offer with the prayers of all saintes vpon the golden aulter which was before the throne.

4 And the smoke of the odours which came of the prayers of saintes, assended vp before God, out of the angels hande.

5 And the angel toke the senser, & filled it with fyre of the aulter, and cast it into the earth: and voyces were made, and thunderinges, and lightninges, and earthquake.

6 And the seuen angels which had the seuen trumpets, prepared them selues to blow.

7 The first angel blewe, and there was made hayle and fyre myngled with blood, and they were cast into the earth, and the third part of trees was burnt, and al greene grasse was burnt.

8 And the second angel blewe, and as it were a great mountayne burning with fyre was cast into the sea, and the thyrde part of the sea turned to blood.

9 And the thirde part of the creatures whiche were in the sea, and had life, dyed, and the thirde part of the shyps were destroyed.
10 And the third angel blew, and there fel a great starre from heauen, burning as it were a lampe, and it fel into the thirde part of the riuers, & into fountaynes of waters:
11 And the name of the starre is called wooꝛmewood, and the thyꝛde part was turned to wooꝛmewood, and many men dyed of the waters, because they were made byter.
12 And the fourth angel blewe, & the thirde part of the Sonne was smitten, and the thirde part of the Moone, & the third part of starres, that the third part of them should be darkened: and the day was smytten that the third part of it should not shine, & likewise the night.
13 And I beheld, and heard an angell fleeing through the middes of heauen, saying with a loud voyce, Wo, wo, wo to the inhabiters of the earth, because of the voyces to come of the trumpe of the three angels whiche were yet to blowe.

The.ix.Chapter.

1. The firste woe is past. 14. The foure angelles that were bounde are loosed. 18. And the thyrde part of men is killed.

1 AND the fift angel blewe, and I sawe a starre fall from heauē vnto the earth: and to him was geuen the key of the bottomlesse pyt.
2 And he opened the bottomelesse pyt, and the smoke of the pyt arose, as the smoke of a great furnace, and the Sunne and the ayꝛe were darkened, by the reason of the smoke of the pyt.
3 And there came out of the smoke Locustes vpon the earth, and vnto them was geuen power, as the Scoꝛpions of the earth haue power.
4 And it was commaunded them that they shoulde not hurte the grasse of the earth, neither any greene thing, neither any tree: but only those men which haue not the seale of God in theyꝛ foꝛeheades.
5 And to them it was geuen that they should not kyll them, but that they should be vexed fiue monethes, and theyꝛ payne was as the payne that commeth of a Scoꝛpion, when he stal haue stricken a man.
6 *And in those dayes shal men seeke death, and shal not finde it, and shal desyꝛe to dye, and death shal flee from them.
7 *And the similitude of the Locustes was like vnto hoꝛses prepared vnto battayle, and on theyꝛ heades were as it were crownes like vnto golde, and theyꝛ faces were as it had been the faces of men.
8 And they had heare as the heare of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of Lions.
9 And they had habergions, as it were habergions of iron, and the sounde of theyꝛ wynges was as the sound of charrets when many hoꝛses runne to battayle.
10 And they had tailes like vnto Scoꝛpions, and there were stinges in their tailes: and theyꝛ power was to hurte men fiue monethes.
11 And they had a king ouer them, which is the angel of the bottomlesse pit, whose name in the Hebꝛue tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greke tongue hath his name Apollyon, that is to say, A destroyer.
12 One woe is past, and beholde two woes come yet after this.
13 And the sixth angel blewe, and I heard a voyce from the foure hoꝛnes of the golden aulter, whiche is before God,
14 Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpe, Loose the foure angels whiche are bounde in the great ryuer Euphꝛates.
15 And the foure angels were loosed, which were pꝛepared foꝛ an houre, and a day, and a moneth, and a yeere, foꝛ to slay the thyꝛde part of men.
16 And the number of the hoꝛsmen of the armies were twentie thousande tymes tenne thousande: And I heard the number of them.
17 And thus I saw the hoꝛses in the vision, and them that sate on them, hauyng fyerie habergions of a Iacinct colour, and bꝛymstone, and the heades of the hoꝛses were as the heades of Lions, and out of their mouthes commeth fooꝛth fyre, and smoke, and bꝛymstone.
18 And of these thꝛee was the thyꝛd part of men kylled, that is to say, of the fyre, and of the smoke, and of the bꝛymstone, which pꝛoceeded out of the mouthes of them.
19 Foꝛ their powers be in their mouthes, and in their tayles: foꝛ their tayles were lyke vnto Serpentes, hauyng heades, and with them they doo hurt.
20 And the remnant of the men whiche were not kylled by these plagues, repented not of the deedes of their handes, that they shoulde not wooꝛshyp deuylles, *and idols of golde, and siluer, and bꝛasse, and stone, and of wood, whiche neyther can see, neyther heare, neyther goe: *Psal.115.4 and.135.15.
21 Also they repented not of their murders, and of their soꝛceries, neyther of their foꝛnication, neyther of their theftes.

1. The angel hath the booke open, 6. he ſvveareth there ſhalbe no more time, 9. he geueth the booke vnto Iohn, vvhich eateth it vp.

1 AND I ſawe another mightie angel come downe from heauen, clothed with a cloude, and the raynebowe vpon his head: and his face as it were the ſunne, and his feete as it were pyllers of fyre.

2 And he had in his hande a litle booke open: and he put his right foote vppon the ſea, and his leaft foote on the earth:

3 And cryed with a loude voyce, as when a Lion roareth, and when he had cryed, ſeuen thunders vttered theyr voyces.

4 And when the ſeuen thunders had vttered their voyces, I was about to write: and I heard a voyce from heauen, ſaying vnto me, Seale vp thoſe thynges whiche the ſeuen thunders vttered, and write them not.

5 And the angel which I ſawe ſtande vpon the ſea, and vpon the earth, lyft vp his hande to heauen.

6 And ſware by hym that lyueth for euermore, which created heauen, & the thinges that therein are, and the earth, and the thinges that therein are, and the ſea, and the thinges which therein are, that there ſhoulde be no longer tyme.

7 But in the dayes of the voyce of the ſeuenth angel, when he ſhal begin to blowe, and the miniſterie of God ſhalbe finiſhed, as he declareth to his ſeruantes the Prophetes.

8 And the voyce which I heard from heauen, ſpake vnto me agayne, and ſayde, Goe, and take the litle booke which is open in the hand of the angel which ſtandeth vpon the ſea, and vpon the earth.

9 And I went vnto the angel, and ſayd vnto hym, Geue me the litle booke. And he ſayde vnto me, Take it, and eate it vp, and it ſhal *make thy belly bitter, but it ſhall be in thy mouth as ſweete as hony.

*Ezech.2.9.

10 And I tooke the litle booke out of the angels hande, and ate it vp, and it was in my mouth as ſweete as hony: and aſſoone as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

11 And he ſayde vnto me, Thou muſt prophecie agayne among the people, and nations, and tongues, and to many kynges.

¶ The.xi.Chapter.

1. The temple is meaſured. 3. Two vvitneſſes rayſed vp by the Lorde, are murdered by the beaſt.

1 AND then was geuen me a reede lyke vnto a rodde, and the angel ſtoode by, ſaying, Riſe and meaſure the temple of God, and the aulter, and them that woorſhyp therein.

2 But the court which is without the temple caſt out, and meaſure it not: for it is geuen vnto the Gentiles, and the holy citie ſhall they treade vnder foote fourtie and two monethes.

3 And I wyl geue power vnto my two witneſſes, and they ſhal prophecie a thouſande, two hundred, and threeſcore dayes, clothed in ſackecloth.

4 These are two Oliue trees, and two candlekickes, ſtanding before the God of the earth.

5 And if any man wyl hurt them, fyre proceedeth out of theyr mouthes, and conſumeth theyr enimies: and yf any man wyll hurt them, this wyſe muſt he be kylled.

6 These haue power to ſhut heauen, that it raine not in the dayes of their prophecying: and haue power ouer waters, to turne them to blood, and to ſmite the earth with all maner plagues, as often as they wyl.

7 And when they haue finiſhed theyr teſtimonie, the beaſt that commeth out of the bottomleſſe pit, ſhal make warre agaynſt them, and ſhal ouercome them, & kyl them.

8 And theyr bodies ſhal lye in the ſtreetes of the great citie, whiche ſpiritually is called Sodome and Egypt, where alſo our Lord was crucified.

9 And they of the people, and kynredes, and tongues, and they of the nations, ſhall ſee theyr bodies three dayes and an halfe, and ſhal not ſuffer theyr bodies to be put in graues.

10 And they that dwel vpon the earth ſhall reioyce ouer them, and be glad, and ſhall ſende gyftes one to another: for theſe two prophetes vexed them that dwelt on the earth.

11 And after three dayes and an halfe, the ſpirite of lyfe commyng from God, entred into them: And they ſtoode vpon theyr feete, and great feare fel vpon them which ſawe them.

12 And they heard a great voyce from heauen, ſaying vnto them, Come vp hyther. And they aſcended vp to heauen in a cloud, and theyr enimies ſawe them.

13 And the ſame houre was there a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the citie fel, & in the earthquake were ſlayne names of men ſeuen thouſande: and the remnant were afrayde, and geue glory to the God of heauen.

15 And the seuenth angel blewe, and there were made great voices in heauen, saying, The kingdomes of this worlde are our Lordes, & his Christes, and he shal raigne for euermore.

16 And the .xxiiii. elders which syt before God on their seates, fel vpon their faces, and worshipped God, 17 Saying, We geue thee thankes, O Lord God almightie, which art, and wast, and art to come: for thou hast receyued thy great might, and hast raigned.

18 And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, and the tyme of the dead that they shoulde be iudged, and that thou shouldest geue rewarde vnto thy seruantes the Prophetes and Saintes, and to them that feare thy name, smal and great, and shouldest destroy them which destroy the earth.

19 And the temple of God was opened in heauen, and there was seene in his temple the arke of his testament: and there folowed lightninges, and voyces, & thundringes, and earthquake, and muche hayle.

¶ The .xii. Chapter.

There appeareth in heauen a woman clothed with the sunne. &c.

1 AND there appeared a great *woonder in heauen, A woman clothed with the Sunne, and the Moone vnder her feete, & vpon her head a crowne of twelue starres:

2 And she beyng with childe, cryeth, trauayling in byrth, and payned redy to be deliuered.

3 And there appeared another woonder in heauen, for beholde a great red Dragon, hauing seuen heades, and ten hornes, and seuen crownes vpon his heades.

4 And his tayle draweth the thirde part of the starres of heauen, and he cast them to the earth: And the Dragon stoode before the woman which was redy to be deliuered, for to deuoure her childe assoone as it were borne.

5 And she brought forth a man childe, which shal rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her sonne was taken vp vnto God, and to his throne,

6 And the woman fledde into the wyldernesse, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should fede her there a thousand, two hundred, and threescore dayes.

The Epistle on saint Michael and al angels.

7 And there was a battayle in heauen, Michael and his angels fought with the Dragon, and the Dragon fought and his angels,

8 And preuayled not, neyther was their place founde any more in heauen.

9 And the great Dragon, that olde Serpent, called the deuyl and Satanas, was cast out, which deceyueth al the worlde: and he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

10 And I hearde a loude voyce saying in heauen: Nowe is come saluation, and strength, and the kyngdome of our God, and the power of his Christe: For the accuser of our brethren is cast downe, whiche accused them before our GOD day and nyght.

11 And they ouercame him by the blood of the lambe, and by the woorde of his testimonie, and they loued not their lyues vnto the death.

12 Therefore reioyce heauens, and ye that dwel in them. Wo to the inhabiters of the earth, and of the sea: for the deuyl is come downe vnto you, which hath great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short tyme.

13 And when the Dragon sawe that he was cast vnto the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man childe.

14 And to the woman were geuen two winges of a great Eagle, that she might flee into the wyldernesse into her place, where she is nourished for a tyme, & tymes, and halfe a tyme, from the face of the Serpent.

15 And the serpent cast out of his mouth water after the woman, as it had been a flood: that he might cause her to be caryed away of the flood.

16 And the earth holpe the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swalowed vp the ryuer which the Dragon cast out of his mouth.

17 And the Dragon was wroth with the woman, and went and made warre with the remnant of her seede, whiche keepe the commaundementes of God, and haue the testimonie of Iesus Christe.

18 And *I stoode on the sea sande.

2 And

*Or, figure.

*Some reade, and he stoode.

2 And the beast which I saw, was like a Leopard, and his feete were as the feete of a Beare, & his mouth as the mouth of a Lion: and the Dragon gaue him his power, and his seate, and great auctho*r*itie.

3 And I sawe one of his heades as it were wounded to death, & his deadly wounde was healed: and al the wo*r*ld wondred after the beast.

4 And they woo*r*shypped the Dragon which gaue power vnto the beast, and they woo*r*shypped the beast, saying, Who is lyke vnto the beast? Who is able to warre with hym?

5 And there was geuen vnto him a mouth speaking great thinges, and blasphemies, and power was geuen vnto him, to do fourtie and two monethes.

6 And he opened his mouth vnto blasphemie against GOD, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwel in heauen.

7 And it was geuen vnto hym to make warre with the saintes, and to ouercome them: And power was geuen him ouer all kinredes, and tongues, and nations,

8 And al that dwel vpon the earth, shall woo*r*ship him, whose names are not wo*r*itten in the booke of life of the lambe, which was killed from the begynning of the wo*r*lde.

11 And I behelde another beast commyng vp out of the earth, and he had two hornes lyke a lambe, and he spake as did the Dragon.

12 And he doth all that the fyrst beast could doo in his presence, and he causeth the earth and them whiche dwel therein to wo*r*shyp the fyrst beast, whose deadly wounde was healed.

13 And he doth great wonders, so that he maketh fyre come downe from heauen on the earth in the sight of men,

14 And deceiueth them that dwell on the earth, by the meanes of those signes whiche he had power to doo in the sight of the beast, saying to them that dwell on ỳ earth, that they should make an image to the beast whiche hath the wounde of a swo*r*de, and dyd lyue.

15 And he had power to geue a spirite vnto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast shoulde both speake, and shoulde cause that as many as would not wo*r*shyp the image of the beast, should be kylled.

16 And he causeth al, both smal and great, rich & poo*r*e, free and bonde, that he shoulde geue them a marke in their right hande, o*r* in their fo*r*eheades.

17 And that no man might buy o*r* sell, saue he that had the marke, o*r* the name of the beast, other the number of his name.

18 Here is wysedome. Let him that hath wyt, count the number of the beast: For it is the number of a man, and his number is fyre hundred threescore and sixe.

The. xiiii. Chapter.

1. The notable company of the lambe 6. One announceth the Gospel. 8. Another, the fal of Babylon. 9. And the thyrde warneth to flee from the beast. 18. Of the Lordes haruest.

1 AND I looked, and loe, a Lambe stood on the mount Sion, and with hym an hundred fourtie and foure thousande, hauyng his fathers name wo*r*yten in their fo*r*eheades. The Epistle on the Innocents day.

2 And I heard a voyce from heauen as the sounde of many waters, and as the voyce of a great thunder: and I heard the voyce of Harpers, harpyng with their Harpes:

3 And they sing as it were a newe songue before the throne, and before the foure beastes, and the elders, & no man could learne that songue, but the hundred and fourtie and foure thousande, which were redeemed from the earth.

4 These are they whiche were not defyled with women, for they are virgins: These are they which folowe the Lambe whither soeuer he goeth: These were redeemed from men, being the first fruites vnto God, and to the Lambe.

5 And in their mouth was founde no guyle: for they are without spot before the throne of God.

6 And I saw another angel flee in the myddest of heauen, hauing the euerlastyng Gospel, to preache vnto them that dwell on the earth, and to al nations, and kynredes, and tongues, and people.

7 Saying with a loude voyce, *Feare God, and geue glo*r*y to hym, for the houre of his iudgement is come: * and wo*r*shyp hym that made heauen and earth, and the sea, and fountaynes of waters. *Psa.146.6 *Acts.14.15

9 And the third angel folowed them, saying with a loude voyce, If any man wo*r*shyp the beast and his image, & receiue his marke in his fo*r*eheade, o*r* in his hande,

10 The ſame ſhall drinke of the wine of the wrath of God: yea, of the pure wine which is powred in the cup of his wrath, and he ſhalbe punished in fyre and brymſtone before the holy angelles, and before the lambe.

11 And the ſmoke of their torment aſſendeth vp euermore: And they haue no reſt day nor nyght whiche woorſhyp the beaſt and his image, and who ſo euer receyueth the print of his name.

12 Here is the patience of the ſaintes: Here are they that keepe the commaundementes of God, and the fayth of Ieſus.

13 And I hearde a voyce from heauen, ſaying vnto me, Wryte, bleſſed are the dead, whiche hereafter dye in the Lord. Euen ſo ſayth the ſpirite, that they may reſt from their labour, & their woorkes folowe them.

14 And I looked, and beholde a whyte cloud, and vpon the cloud one ſyttyng lyke vnto the ſonne of man, hauing on his head a golden crowne, and in his hand a ſharpe ſickle.

15 And another angel came out of the temple crying with a loude voyce to hym that ſate on the cloud: *Thruſt in thy ſickle and reape, for the tyme is come to reape, for the *harueſt of the earth is *rype.

16 And he that ſate on the clonde thruſt in his ſickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

17 And another angel came out of the temple which is in heauen, hauing alſo a ſharpe ſickle.

18 And another angel came out from the aulter, whiche had power ouer fyre, and cryed with a loud crye to hym that had the ſharpe ſickle, ſaying, Thruſt in thy ſharpe ſickle, and geather the cluſters of the vineyarde of the earth, for her grapes are rype.

19 And the angel thruſt in his ſharpe ſickle on the earth, and cut downe the vineyarde of the earth, and caſt it into the great wineſat of the wrath of God.

20 And the wineſat was troden without the citie, and blood came out of the fat euen vnto the horſe bydles, by the ſpace of a thouſande and fyre hundred furlonges.

¶ The.xv. Chapter.

The ſong of them that ouercome the beaſt.

1 AND I ſawe another ſigne in heauen great and marueylous, ſeuen angels hauing the ſeuen laſt plagues, for in them is fulfylled the wrath of God.

2 And I ſawe as it were a glaſſie ſea, mingled with fyre, and them that had gotten the victorie of the beaſt, and of his image, and of his marke, and of the number of his name, ſtand on the glaſſie ſea, hauyng the harpes of GOD.

3 And they ſyng the ſong of Moſes the ſeruant of God, and the ſong of the lambe, ſaying, Great & marueilous are thy woorkes, Lorde God almyghtie, *iuſt and true are thy wayes, thou kyng of ſaintes.

4 *Who ſhall not feare thee, O Lorde, and glorifie thy name? for thou onely art holy: And al Gentiles ſhall come, and woorſhyp before thee, for thy iudgementes are made manifeſt.

*Ierr. 10.7.

5 And after that I looked, and beholde, the temple of the tabernacle of the teſtimonie was open in heauen:

6 And the ſeuen angelles came out of the temple, hauing the ſeuen plagues, clothed in pure and bright linnen, and hauing their breſtes gyrded with golden gyrdles.

7 And one of the foure beaſtes gaue vnto the ſeuen angels ſeuen golden vials, full of the wrath of God whiche liueth for euermore.

8 And the temple was full of the ſmoke of the glory of God, and of his power, and no man was able to enter into the temple, tyll the ſeuen plagues of the ſeuen angels were fulfylled.

¶ The.xvi. Chapter.

1. The angels powre out their vialles full of vvrath. 6. and vvhat plagues folovve thereof. 15. Admonition to take heede and vvatch.

1 AND I hearde a great voyce out of the temple, ſaying to the ſeuen angels, Goe your wayes, powre out the vials of the wrath of God vpon the earth.

2 And the fyrſt angel went and powred out his vial vpon the earth, and there fel a noyſome and a ſore botche vpon the men which had the marke of the beaſt, and vpon them which woorſhypped his image.

3 And the ſeconde angel ſhed out his vial vpon the ſea, and it turned as it were into the blood of a dead man: and euery liuyng thyng dyed in the ſea.

4 And the third angel ſhed out his vial vpon the ryuers and fountaynes of waters, and they turned to blood.

5 And I hearde the angel of the waters ſay, Lorde, which art, and waſt, thou art righteous and that holy one, becauſe thou haſt geuen ſuche iudgementes:

6 For they haue ſhed out the blood of ſaints and prophetes, and therefore haſt thou geuen geuen them blood to drynke: for they are worthie.

7 And I heard another out of the aulter say, Euen so Lorde God almightie, true and ryghteous are thy iudgementes.

8 And the fourth angel powred out his viall on the Sunne, and power was geuen vnto him to vexe men with feruent heate of fyre.

9 And men boyled in great heate, and blasphemed the name of GOD, whiche hath power ouer these plagues, and they repented not, to geue him glory.

10 And the fifth angel powred out his vial vpon the seate of the beast, and his kyngdome waxed darke, and they gnewe theyr tongues for sorowe, 11 And blasphemed the God of heauen, for theyr sorowes, and for theyr sores, and repented not of theyr deedes.

12 And the sixth angel powred out his vial vpon the great ryuer Euphrates, and the water thereof dryed vp, that the way of the kynges of the East shoulde be prepared.

13 And I sawe three vncleane spirites lyke frogges, come out of the mouth of the Dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophete.

14 For they are the spirites of deuyls working myracles, to goe out vnto the kynges of the earth, and of the whole worlde, to gather them to the battayle of that great day of God almightie.

*Math.24.44. Luke.12.39. 15 *Beholde, I come as a theefe. Happie is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garmentes, lest he walke naked, and men see his filthinesse.

16 And he gathered them togather into a place, called in the Hebrue tongue Armagedon.

17 And the seuenth angel powred out his vial into the ayre: and there came a great voyce out of the temple of heauen, from the throne, saying, It is doone.

18 And there folowed voyces, thunderinges, and lightninges: and there was a great earthquake, suche as was not since men were vpon the earth, so mightie an earthquake, and so great.

19 And the great citie was diuided into three partes, and the cities of the nations fel: And great Babylon came in remembrance

*Iere.25.15. before God, to geue vnto her the cup of the wine of the fiercenesse of his wrath.

20 Euery Ile also fled away, and the mountaynes were not founde.

21 And there fel a great hayle, as it had been talentes, out of heauen, vpon the men, and the men blasphemed God, because of the plague of the hayle: for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

¶ The xvii. Chapter.

1. The description of the great whoore, &c. and her synnes, and punishment.

1 AND there came one of the seuen angels, which had the seuen vials, and talked with me, saying vnto me, Come, I wyl shewe vnto thee the iudgement of the great whoore, that sitteth vpon many waters:

2 With whom haue committed fornication the kynges of the earth, and the inhabiters of the earth are dronken with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he caryed me away in the spirite into the wyldernesse: and I sawe a woman sit vpon a scarlet coloured beast, ful of names of blasphemie, hauing seuen heades and ten hornes.

4 And the woman was arayed in purple and scarlet colour, and decked with golde, pretious stone, and pearles, hauing a cup of golde in her hande, ful of abominations and filthinesse of her fornication.

5 And in her forehead was a name written, a mysterie, great Babylon, the mother of whoredome & abominations of the earth.

6 And I sawe the woman dronken with the blood of the saintes, and with the blood of the martyrs of Iesus: and when I sawe her, I woondred with great marueyle.

7 And the angel sayde vnto me, Wherefore marueylest thou? I wyl shewe thee the mysterie of the woman, & of the beast that beareth her, which hath seuen heades and ten hornes.

8 And the beast that thou sawest, was, and is not, and shal assende out of the bottomlesse pit, and goeth into perdition, and they that dwel on the earth shal wonder (whose names are not written in the booke of lyfe from the beginning of the worlde) when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 And here is a meanyng that hath wysedome. The seuen heades, are seuen mountaynes, on which the woman sitteth: they are also seuen kynges.

10 Fiue are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come: And when he commeth, he must continue a short space.

11 And the beast that was, and is not, is euen the eyght, and is one of the seuen, and goeth into destruction.

12 And the ten hornes whiche thou sawest, are ten kynges, whiche haue receyued no kyngdome as yet: but receyue power as kynges at one houre with the beast.

13 These haue one minde, and shall geue their power and strength vnto the beast.
14 These shall fight with the Lambe, and the Lambe shall ouercome them: * For he is the Lord of Lordes, and kyng of kynges, and they that are on his side, are called, and chosen, and faythfull.
15 And he sayth vnto me, The waters which thou sawest where the whore sitteth, are people, & folke, and nations, & tongues.
16 And the ten hornes whiche thou sawest vpon the beast, are they that shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate, and naked, and shall eate her flesh, and burne her with fyre.
17 For God hath put in their hartes to fulfyll his wyll, and to doo with one consent, for to geue theyr kyngdome vnto the beast, vntyll the woordes of God shalbe fulfylled.
18 And the woman whiche thou sawest, is that great citie whiche raigneth ouer the kinges of the earth.

¶ The. xviii. Chapter.

The. 9. The louers of the vvorld are sory for the fall of the vvhore of Babylon. 20. But they that be of God, haue cause to reioyce for her destruction.

1 AND after that, I sawe another angel come from heauen, hauing great power, and the earth was lightened with his glory.
2 And he cryed mightily with a strong voyce, saying, * Great Babylon is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of deuilles, and the hold of all foule spirites, and a cage of all vncleane and hatefull birdes:
3 For all nations haue dronken of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, & the kinges of the earth haue committed fornication with her, and the marchantes of the earth are waxed riche of the abundance of her pleasures.
4 And I heard another voyce from heauen say, Come away from her my people, that ye be not partakers of her sinnes, and that ye receiue not of her plagues.
5 For her sinnes are gone vp to heauen, and God hath remembred her wickednesse.
6 Reward her euen as she rewarded you, and geue her double accordyng to her woorkes, and powre in double to her in the same cup which she filled vnto you.
7 And as much as she glorified her selfe, and liued wantonly, so much powre ye in for her of punishment and sorowe: for she sayde in her hart, I sit being a queene, * and am no wydowe, and shall see no sorowe.
8 Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and sorowe, and hunger, and she shalbe vtterly brent with fyre, for strong is the Lorde which iudgeth her.
9 And they shal bewayle her, and the kings of the earth shal lament for her, which haue committed fornication with her, and haue liued wantonly with her, when they shall see the smoke of her burnyng:
10 Standyng a farre of for feare of her punishment, saying, Alas, alas, that great citie Babylon, that mightie citie, for at one houre is thy iudgement come.
11 And the marchantes of the earth doo weepe and wayle ouer her, for no man buyeth theyr ware any more.
12 The ware of golde, and siluer, and precious stones, and of pearle, and raynes, and purple, and silke, & scarlet, and all Thyine wood, and all maner vessels of Yuorie, and all maner vesselles of most precious wood, and of brasse, and iron, and marble,
13 And Cinamome, and odours, and oyntmentes, and frankensence, and wine, and oyle, and fine floure, and wheate, & beastes, and sheepe, and horses, and charets, and bodyes and soules of men,
14 And the apples that thy soule lusted after, are departed from thee, and all thinges whiche were dayntie and had in price, are departed from thee, and thou shalt finde them no more at all.
15 The marchantes of these thynges which were waxed riche, shal stand a farre of from her, for feare of the punishment of her, wepyng and waylyng,
16 And saying, Alas, alas, that great citie, that was clothed in raynes, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearles:
17 For at one houre so great riches is come to nought. And euery ship gouernour, and all they that occupie shippes, and shypmen, and as many as woorke in the sea, stoode a farre of,
18 And cryed when they sawe the smoke of her burnyng, saying, What citie is lyke vnto this great citie?
19 And they cast dust on theyr heades, and cryed, weeping, and wayling, and saying, Alas, alas, that great citie, wherein were made riche all that had shippes in the sea, by reason of her costlinesse, for at one houre is she made desolate.
20 Reioyce ouer her thou heauen, and ye holy apostles and prophetes, for God hath geuen your iudgement on her.
21 And a mighty angel tooke vp a stone like a great mylstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, With suche violence shall that great citie Babylon be cast, and shalbe founde no more at al.

22 And the voyce of harpers, & musitions, and of pipers, & trumpetters, shalbe heard no more at al in thee: and no craftes men, of whatsoeuer craft he be, shalbe founde any more in thee: and the sounde of a mylstone shalbe heard no more at al in thee:

23 And the lyght of a candle shall shyne no more at all in thee, & the voyce of the bridegrome & of the bryde, shal be heard no more at al in thee: for thy marchantes were the great men of the earth, and with thine enchauntment were deceyued al nations.

24 And in her was founde the blood of the prophetes, and of the saintes, and of al that were slayne vpon the earth.

¶ The.xix.Chapter.

Prayses are geuen vnto God for iudging the whoore.

1 AND after these thinges, I heard a great voyce of much people in heauen, saying, a Alleluia: saluation, and glory, and honour, and power, be ascribed to the Lorde our God:

a That is, prayse ye God, because that Antechrist and al wickednesse is taken out of the worlde.

2 For true and ryghteous are his iudgements, for he hath iudged the great whoore whiche dyd corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath throughly auenged the blood of his seruauntes of her hande.

3 And agayne they sayde, Alleluia: and her smoke rose vp for euermore.

4 And the foure and twentie elders, and the foure beastes fel downe, and woorshypped God that sate on the throne, saying, Amen, Alleluia.

5 And a voyce came out of the throne, saying, Prayse our Lord God al ye that are his seruantes, and ye that feare hym both smal and great.

6 And I heard as it were the voyce of muche people, euen as the voyce of many waters, & as the voyce of strong thundrings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lorde God omnipotent raigneth.

7 Let vs be glad and reioyce, and geue honour to hym: for the marryage of the lambe is come, and his wyfe hath made her selfe redy.

8 And to her was graunted that she shoulde be arayed with pure and goodly raines: for the raynes is the righteousnesse of saintes.

'Mat.22.2. 9 And he sayd vnto me, Write, 'Happy are they which are called vnto the supper of the lambes marryage. And he sayde vnto me, These are the true sayinges of God.

10 And I fel at his feete to woorshyp hym: And he sayd vnto me, See thou doo it not: for I am thy felowe seruant, and of thy brethren that haue the testimonie of Iesus. Woorship God: for the testimonie of Iesus, is the spirite of prophesie.

11 And I sawe heauen open, and beholde a white horse, and he that sate vpon him was called faythful and true, and in ryghteousnesse he doth iudge and make batayle.

12 His eyes were as a flame of fyre, and on his head were many crownes, and he had a name wrytten, that no man knewe but he him selfe.

13 'And he was clothed with a vesture dipt in blood: and his name is called the woorde of God. 'Esai. 63.2.

14 And the armies whiche were in heauen folowed hym vpon white horses, clothed with whyte and pure raynes.

15 And out of his mouth goeth a sharpe swoorde, that with it he shoulde smite the heathen: 'And he shal rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the wynefat of the fiercenesse and wrath of almyghty God. 'Psal. 2.15.

16 And he hath on his vesture, and on his thygh a name wrytten, 'Kyng of Kynges, and Lorde of Lordes. 'I.Ti.9.16.

17 And I sawe an angel stand in the Sunne, and he cried with a loud voyce, saying to al the foules that flee by the myddes of heauen, Come and geather your selues togeather vnto the supper of the great God: Apoc.17.14.

18 That ye may eate the fleshe of kinges, and the fleshe of hygh captaynes, and the fleshe of myghtie men, and the fleshe of horses, and of them that syt on them, and the fleshe of all free men, and bond men, and of smal and great.

19 And I sawe the beast, and the kinges of the earth, and their armies geathered togeather, to make battayle agaynst him that sate on the horse, and agaynst his armie.

20 And the beast was taken, and with hym that false prophete that wrought myracles before hym, with whiche he deceyued them that receyued the beastes marke, and them that woorshypped his image. These both were cast quicke into a ponde of fire, burnyng with brymstone.

21 And the remnant were slayne with the swoorde of hym that sate vpon the horse, which swoord proceeded out of his mouth: and all the foules were fylled with their fleshe.

¶ The.xx.Chapter.

1. Satan beyngbounde for a certayne tyme, and after let loose, vexeth the Churche greeuously.

1 AND I sawe an angel come downe from heauen, hauing the key of the bottom-bottomlesse pytte, and a great chayne in his hande.

2 And he tooke the Dragon, that olde serpent, which is the deuyl and Satanas, and he bound hym a thousande yeeres.

3 And cast him into the bottomlesse pyt, and he shut hym vp, and set a seale on hym, that he shoulde deceyue the nations no more, tyl the thousande yeeres shoulde be fulfylled: and after that he must be loosed for a little season.

4 And I sawe thrones, and they sate vpon them, & iudgement was geuen vnto them: and I sawe the soules of them that were beheaded for the witnesse of Iesus, and for the woorde of God, and whiche had not woorshypped the beast, neyther his image, neyther had taken his marke vpon their foreheades, or in their handes, & they lyued and raigned with Christe a thousand yeeres.

5 But the other of the dead men dyd not liue agayne, vntyl the thousand yeeres were finished. This is the fyrst resurrection.

6 Blessed and holy is he that hath parte in the fyrst resurrection: for on such the second death hath no power, but they shalbe the priestes of God, and of Christ, & shal raigne with hym a thousand yeeres.

7 And when the thousande yeeres are expyred, Satan shalbe loosed out of his pryson:

8 And shall goe out to deceyue the nations whiche are in the foure quarters of the earth, * Gog and Magog, to geather them togeather to batayle: whose number is as the sande of the sea.

*Ezec.39.2.

9 And they went vp in the playne of the earth, & compassed the tentes of the saintes about, and the beloued citie: and fyre came downe from God out of heauen, and deuoured them:

10 And the deuyl that deceyued them, was cast into a lake of fyre and brymstone, where the beast and the false prophete shalbe tormented day and nyght for euermore.

11 And I sawe a great white throne, and hym that sate on it, from whose face fledde away both the earth and the heauen, and their place was no more founde.

12 And I sawe the dead both smal & great stand before God: and the bookes were opened: & another * booke was opened, which is the booke of life: and the dead were iudged of those thynges which were written in the bookes, according to their deedes.

*Apoc.3.5. and.21.17. Philip.4.3.

13 And the sea gaue vp her dead which were in her: and death and hel deliuered vp the dead whiche were in them: and they were iudged euery man according to his deedes.

14 And death and hell were cast into the lake of fyre: this is the seconde death.

15 And who so euer was not found written in the booke of lyfe, was cast into the lake of fyre.

¶ The. xxi. Chapter.

S. 1 The blessed estate of the godly, S. 27. and the miserable condition of the vncleane.

1 AND I sawe a newe heauen, and a newe earth: * for the first heauen and the first earth were vanished away, and there is no more sea.

*Esai.65.17 2.Pet.3.13.

2 And I Iohn sawe the holy citie newe Hierusalem, come downe from God out of heauen, prepared as a bryde garnished for her husbande.

3 And I heard a great voyce out of heauen, saying, Beholde, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he wyl dwel with them, and they shalbe his people, and God hym selfe shalbe with them, and be their God.

4 * And God shal wipe away al teares from their eyes, and there shalbe no more death, neyther sorowe, neyther crying, neither shal there be any more payne: for the former thynges are gone.

6 And he sayde vnto me, It is doone: I am Alpha and Omega, the begynnyng and the ende. * I wil geue vnto hym that is a thirst of the wel of the water of lyfe freely.

*Apoc.1.8. and.22.13.

7 He that ouercommeth, shall inherite all thinges, and I wyl be his God, and he shalbe my sonne.

8 But the fearefull, & vnbeleeuing, and the abhominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and al lyers, shall haue their parte in the lake whiche burneth with fyre and brymstone: whiche is the seconde death.

9 And there came vnto me one of the seuen angels, whiche had the seuen vials full of the seuen last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hyther, I wyl shewe thee the bryde, the lambes wyfe.

10 And he carryed me away in the spirite to a great and hygh mountayne, and he shewed me the great citie holy Hierusalem, descendyng out of heauen from God,

11 Hauing the glory of God: and her shynyng was lyke vnto a stone most precious, euen lyke a Iasper, cleare as Crystal:

12 And had a wal great and hygh, and had twelue gates, and at the gates twelue angels, angels, and names wrytten, which are the names of the twelue tribes of Israel.

13 On the East side three gates, and on the North side three gates, and towardes the South three gates, and from ỳ West three gates.

14 And the wall of the citie had twelue fundations, and in them the twelue names of the Lambes twelue Apostles.

15 And he that talked with me, had a golden reede to measure the citie withall, and the gates thereof, and the walles thereof,

16 And the citie lyeth foure square, and the length was as large as the breadth: and he measured the citie with the reede twelue thousand furlonges, and the length, and the breadth, and the height of it are equall.

17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred, and fourtie, and foure cubites, by the measure of man, that is, of the angel.

18 And the building of the wall of it was of Jasper, and the citie was pure golde lyke vnto cleare glasse.

19 And the fundations of the wall of the citie were garnished with all maner of pretious stones. The fyrst fundation was Jasper, the second Saphyre, the thirde a Chalcedonie, the fourth an Emeralde, 20 The fifth Sardonyx, the sixth, Sardius, the seuenth Chrysolite, the eyght Beryl, the nienth a Topas, the tenth a Crysophrasus, the eleuenth a Jacinct, the twelfth an Amethist.

21 The twelue gates were twelue Pearles, euery gate was of one Pearle, & the streete of the citie was pure golde, as it were shinyng glasse.

22 And I sawe no temple therein: For the Lorde God Almighty, and the Lambe are the temple of it.

*Esa.60.19 23 * And ỳ citie hath no neede of the Sunne, neyther of the Moone to lighten it: for the glory of GOD dyd lyghten it, and the Lambe is the light of it.

*Philip.4.3 Apoc.1.5. and.20.12.

¶ The xxii. Chapter.

1. The ryuer of the water of lyfe. 9. The angel will not be worshipped.

1 AND he shewed me a pure ryuer of water of lyfe, cleare as Crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God, and of the Lambe.

2 In the middest of the streete of it, and of eyther side of the ryuer was there wood of lyfe, which bare twelue maner of fruites, and gaue fruite euery moneth: & the leaues of ỳ wood serued to heale ỳ people withall.

3 And there shalbe no more curse, but the throne of God, and the Lambe shalbe in it, and his seruantes shall serue him.

4 And they shall see his face, and his name shalbe in their foreheads.

5 * And there shalbe no nyght there, and they neede no candle, neyther lyght of the sunne, for the Lord God geueth them light, and they shall raigne for euermore. *Esai.60.19

6 And he sayde vnto me, These sayinges are saythfull and true. And the Lorde God of the holy prophetes sent his angel to shew vnto his seruantes the thinges which must shortly be fulfilled.

7 Behold, I come shortly: Happy is he that keepeth the sayinges of the prophesie of this booke.

8 I John sawe these thinges, and heard them. And when I had heard and seene, I fell downe to * worship before the feete of the angel, whiche shewed me these thinges. *Apo.19.10

9 Then sayth he vnto me, See thou doo it not: for I am thy felowe seruaunt, and the felowe seruant of thy brethren the prophetes, and of them which keepe ỳ sayinges of this booke: but worship God.

10 And he sayth vnto me, Seale not the sayinges of the prophecie of this booke: for the tyme is at hand.

11 He that doeth euyll, let him doo euyl styl: and he whiche is fylthy, let him be filthy styll: and he that is righteous, let hym be righteous styll: and he that is holy, let him be holy styll.

12 And beholde, I come shortly, and my reward is with me, * to geue euery man accordyng as his deedes shalbe. *Rom.2.6.

13 I am Alpha and Omega, * the beginnyng and the end, the fyrst and the last. *Esai.41.6. and.44.6.

14 Blessed are they that doo his commaundementes, that their power may be in the tree of lyfe, and may enter in through the gates into the citie.

15 For without shalbe dogges, and inchaunters, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and who so euer loueth or maketh leasinges.

16 I Jesus sent myne angel, to testifie vnto you these thinges in the Churches. I am the roote, and the generation of David, and the bright morning starre.

17 And

17 And the ſpirite and the bride ſay, Come. And let hym that heareth, ſay alſo, Come. * And let him that is a thyrſt, come. And who ſo euer wyl, let him take of the water of lyfe freely.

* Eſai. 55. 1.

18 I teſtifie vnto euery man that heareth the woordes of the prophecie of this booke. If any man ſhall adde vnto theſe ſayinges, God ſhall adde vnto him the plagues that are written in this booke.

19 And if any man ſhall take away from the woordes of the booke of this prophecie, GOD ſhall take away his part out of the booke of life, & out of the holy citie, & from the things which are written in this booke.

20 He which teſtifieth theſe thinges, ſayth ſurely, I come quickly. Amen. Euen ſo, come Lorde Ieſus.

21 The grace of our Lord Ieſus Chriſte be with you all. Amen.

of God amongst vs, in the chefest of our sepulchres bury thy dead: none of vs shall forbyd thee his sepulchre, but thou mayest bury thy dead where thou.

7 Abraham stoode vp, and bowed hym selfe before the people of the land, that is, the children of Heth.

8 And he communed with them, saying, If it be your [a] mynde that I shal bury my dead out of my sight, heare me, and speake for me to Ephron the sonne of Soar, 9 That he may geue me the cane of [b] Machpelah, whiche he hath in the ende of his feelde: but for as muche money as it is worth, shal he geue it me for a possession to bury in amongest you.

10 (For Ephron dwelled among the children of Heth.) And Ephron the Hethite answered Abraham in the audience of the children of Heth, and of al that [c] went in at the gates of his citie, saying, 11 Not so my lorde, heare me: The feelde geue I thee, and the cane that therein is geue I thee also, in the presence of the sonnes of my people geue I it thee: burye thy dead.

12 And Abraham bowed hym selfe before the people of the lande, 13 And spake vnto Ephron in the audience of the people of the country, saying, If thou wylt geue it then I pray thee heare me, I wyll geue syluer for the feelde, take it of me, and I wyl bury my dead therein.

14 Ephron answered Abraham, saying vnto hym,

15 My Lorde, hearken vnto me: The land is worth foure hundred [d] peces of syluer, what is that betwixt thee and me? burye therefore thy dead.

16 And Abraham hearkened vnto Ephron, and weyghed hym the syluer whiche he had sayde in the audience of the sonnes of Heth, euen foure hundred syluer sicles of currant money among the Marchantes.

17 And the feelde of Ephron in Machpelah, whiche was before Mamre, euen the feelde, and the cane that was therin, and al the trees that were in the feelde, and that were in all the borders rounde about, was made sure

18 Vnto Abraham for a possession in the sight of the children of Heth, before al that went in at the gates of his citie.

19 After this dyd Abraham bury Sara his wyfe in the double cane of the feelde that lyeth before Mamre, the same is Hebron in the lande of Chanaan.

20 And so both the feelde and the cane that is therein, was made vnto Abraham a sure possession to bury in by the sonnes of Heth.

The xxiiii. Chapter.

Abraham causeth his seruaunt to sweare to take a wyfe for Isaac of his owne kinrede.

1 AND Abraham was olde and stricken in dayes: and the Lorde had blessed Abraham in al thynges.

2 And Abraham sayde vnto his eldest seruaunt of his house, which had the rule ouer al that he had, Put [a] thy hande vnder my thygh:

3 And I wyl make thee [b] sweare by the Lord God of heauen, and God of the earth, that thou shalt not take a wyfe vnto my sonne, of the daughters of the Chanaanites, amongest whiche I dwel:

4 But thou shalt go vnto my countrey, and to [b] my kynrede, and take a wyfe vnto my sonne Isaac.

5 But the seruaunt sayde vnto hym, Peraduenture the woman wyll not agree to come with me vnto this lande, shall I bryng thy sonne agayne vnto the lande whiche thou camest out of?

6 To whom Abraham answered, Beware that thou bryng not my sonne thither agayne.

7 The Lorde God of heauen, which tooke me from my fathers house, and from the lande of my kynrede, and whiche spake vnto me, and that sware vnto me, saying, Vnto thy seede wyl I geue this lande: he shall sende his Angell before thee, and thou shalt take a wyfe vnto my sonne from thence.

8 Neuertheles, yf the woman wyll not folowe thee, then shalt thou be cleare from this my othe: only bryng not my sonne thither agayne.

9 And the seruaunt put his hand vnder the thygh of Abraham his master, and sware to hym as concerning that matter.

10 And the seruant tooke tenne Camelles, of the Camelles of his master, and departed, (and had of all maner of goodes of his master with hym) and so he arose, and went to [c] Mesopotamia, vnto the citie of Nachor.

11 And made his Camelles to lye downe without the citie, by a welles side of water, at euen, about the time that women come to drawe water.

12 And he sayde, Lorde [c] God of my master Abraham, I pray [d] thee shewe me good speede this day, and shewe mercy vnto my master Abraham.

d. Make to me before me to day.

13 Lo, I stande here by the well of water, and the daughters of the men of this citie come out to drawe water?

14 d Nowe let the damsel to whom I say, Bowe downe thy pitcher I pray thee that I may drynke: If she say also, Drynke, and I wyl geue thy Camels drynke also: let the same be she that thou hast ordeyned for thy seruant Isahac, and thereby shall I knowe that thou hast shewed mercie on my maister.

d. The seruant moued by gods spirite, desired to be assured by a signe whether he shoulde speede of his message, or not.

15 And it came to passe yer he had left speakyng, behold Rebecca came out, the daughter of Bethuel sonne of Milcha, the wyfe of Nachor Abrahams brother, and her pitcher vpon her shoulder.

16 The damsel was very fayre to looke vpon, and yet a mayde, e vnknowen of man: and she went downe to the well, and fylled her pitcher, and came vp.

17 And the seruant runnyng to meete her, sayde, Let me, I pray thee, drynke a litle water of thy pitcher.

18 And she sayde, Drynke my Lorde. And she hasted, and let downe her pitcher vpon her arme, and gaue hym drynke.

19 And when he had geuen hym drynke, she sayde, I wyll drawe water for thy Camels also, vntyl they f haue dronke ynough.

f. Or, cease to drynke.

20 And she powred out her pitcher into the trough hastily, and ranne agayne vnto the well to drawe water, and dyd we for all his Camels.

21 And the man woondred at her, but helde his peace: to wit whether the Lorde had made his iourney prosperous, or not.

22 And as the Camels had left drynking, the man tooke a golden earreyng of halfe a sicle wayght, and two bracelets for her handes of ten sicles wayght of golde, 23 And sayde, Whose daughter art thou? tell me, I pray thee: is there roome in thy fathers house for vs to lodge in?

24 She answered hym, I am the daughter of Bethuel the sonne of Milcha, which she bare vnto Nachor:

25 And sayd moreouer vnto hym, We haue litter and prouender ynough, & also roome to lodge in.

26 And the man bowed him selfe, and worshipped the Lorde, 27 And sayde, Blessed be the Lorde God of my maister Abraham, which hath not left destitute my maister of his mercie and trueth, for when I was g on my iourney, the Lorde brought me to my maisters brother house.

e. Such things as happen in mens iourneyes, are gouerned by the prouidence of God.

28 And the damsel ranne, and tolde them of her mothers house these thynges.

29 And Rebecca had a brother called Laban: and he ranne out vnto the man to the well.

30 For assone as he had seene the earerynges, and the bracelettes in his sisters handes, and hearde the woordes of Rebecca his sister, saying, Thus sayde the man vnto me: he went out vnto the man, and lo, he stoode with the Camles by the welles side:

31 And he sayde, Come in, thou blessed of the Lorde, wherefore standest thou without? I haue dressed the house, and roome for thy Camels.

32 And then the man came into the house: and he vnharnessed the Camelles, and brought litter and prouender for the Camels, and water to washe his feete, and the mens feete that were with hym.

33 And there was set meate before hym to eate: f but he sayde, I wyl not eate, vntyll I haue sayde myne errande. And he sayd, Say on.

f. In Abrahams seruant is set foorth the condition of faythful seruantes.

34 And he sayde, I am Abrahams seruant,

35 And g God hath blessed my maister marueylously, that he is become great: and hath geuen hym sheepe and oxen, siluer and gold, men seruantes, and mayde seruantes, Camels and Asses.

g. To blesse, signifieth here to enriche and to encrease with substances.

36 And Sara my maisters wife bare a sonne to my maister when he was olde: and vnto hym hath he geuen al that he hath.

37 And my maister made me sweare, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife to my sonne amongst the daughters of the Chanaanites in whose lande I dwel:

38 But thou shalt goe vnto my fathers house, and to my kynred, and take a wyfe vnto my sonne.

39 And I sayde vnto my maister, Peraduenture the woman wyl not folowe me.

40 And he answered me, The Lorde, before whom I walke, wyl sende his angell with thee, and prosper thy iourney: and thou shalt take a wife for my sonne of my kinred, and of my fathers house.

41 Then shalt thou be free from this othe made to me, when thou comest to my kynred: and if they geue not thee one, thou shalt be free from this othe made to me.

42 And so I came this day vnto the well, and sayde, h O Lorde, the GOD of my maister Abraham, if it be so nowe that thou makest my iourney whiche I goe prosperous,

h. Though he was perswaded that an angel of God was a guyde to hym in his iourney, yet he prayeth not to hym.

43 Beholde, I stande by the well of water: and when a virgin cometh forth to drawe water, and I say to her, Geue me I pray thee a litle water of thy pitcher to drynke:

44 And she say to me, Drynke thou, and I wyl also make for thy Cammels: let the same be the woman whom the Lorde hath prepared for my maisters sonne.

45 And before I had made an ende of speakyng in myne hart, beholde, Rebecca came forth, and her pitcher on her shoulder: and she went downe vnto the wel, and drue water: and I sayde vnto her, Geue me drynke, I pray thee.

46 And she made hast, and tooke downe her pitcher from her shoulder, and sayd, Drynke, and I wyl geue thy Cammelles drynke also. So I dranke, and she gaue the Cammels drynke also.

47 And I asked her, saying, Whose daughter art thou? She answeared, The daughter of Bethuel, Nachors sonne, whom Milcha bare vnto hym: and I put the earyng [a] vpon her face, and the braceletes vpon her handes.

48 And I bowed mee selfe, and worshipped the Lorde, and blessed the Lorde God of my maister Abraham, whiche had brought me the ryght way, to take my maisters brothers daughter vnto his sonne.

49 Now also if ye wyl consent to deale mercifully and truely with my maister, tel me: [b] and if not, tel me also, that I may turne me to the ryght hande, or to the left.

50 Then answeared Laban and Bethuel, saying, This saying proceedeth of the Lorde: we can not therefore say vnto thee either good or bad.

51 Beholde, Rebecca [c] before thee, take her, & goe, that she may be thy maisters sonnes wyfe, euen as God hath sayde.

52 And when Abrahams seruaunt heard their wordes, he worshipped the Lorde, bowyng hym selfe towarde the earth.

53 And the seruaunt tooke forth [d] iewelles of syluer, and iewelles of golde, and rayment, and gaue them to Rebecca, and to her brother, and to her mother he gaue [e] costly giftes.

54 And they dyd eate and drynke, both he and the men that were with hym, and taried al nyght: and when they rose vp in the morning, he sayde, Let me depart vnto my maister.

55 Her brother and her mother answeared, Let the damsel abyde with vs, and it be but ten dayes, and then shal she goe.

56 He sayde vnto them, Hynder me not: beholde, the Lord hath prospered my iourney, sende me away therefore, that I may goe to my maister.

57 And they sayde, [m] We wyl cal the damsel, and enquyre [n] at her mouth.

58 And they called forth Rebecca, and sayd vnto her, Wylt thou goe with this man? And she answeared, I wyl goe.

59 So they let Rebecca their sister goe, and her nurse, and Abrahams seruaunt, and his men.

60 And they blessed Rebecca, and sayd vnto her, Thou art our sister, growe into thousande thousandes: and thy seede [o] possesse the gate of his enimies.

61 And Rebecca arose, and her damselles, and gate them vp vpon the Cammels, and folowed the man: and the seruant tooke Rebecca, and went his way.

62 And Isahac was comming from the way of the wel of the lyuing and seeing me: for he dwelt in the south countrey.

63 And Isahac was [p] gone out to pray in the feelde at the euentyde: and he lyft vp his eyes, and sawe the Cammels comming.

64 And Rebecca lyft vp her eyes, and when she sawe Isahac, she lighted of the Cammel.

65 (For she sayde vnto the seruant, What man is this that commeth walking against vs in the feelde? And the seruant sayde, It is my maister:) therefore she tooke her [q] vayle, and couered her.

66 And the seruant tolde Isahac al thinges that he had done.

67 And Isahac brought her into his mother Sarahs tent, and tooke Rebecca, and she became his wyfe, and he loued her: and so Isahac receyued comfort after his mother.

¶ The xxv. Chapter.

1. Abraham taketh Cetura to wyfe, and begetteth many children. 5. The patrimonie geuen to Isahac, and gifts to the children of his concubines. 24. The byrth of Iacob and Esau.

1 ABraham proceeded further, and tooke hym another wyfe, called Cetura, 2 Whiche bare hym Zimran, and Iocsan, and Madan, and Madian, and Iesbac, and Suah.

3 Iocsan begate Seba and Dedan. And the sonnes of Dedan were Assurim, and Letussim, Leummim.

4 And the sonnes of Madian, Epha, and Epher, and Hanoch, and Abida, and Eldaah: all these were the children of Cetura.

5 And Abraham gaue all his goodes vnto Isahac.

6 But vnto the sonnes of the Concubines whiche Abraham had, he gaue giftes: and sent them away from Isahac his sonne (whyle he yet lyued) eastwarde, vnto the east countrey.

24 Therefore, when her tyme was come to be deliuered, behold, there were two twins in her woumbe.

¶ The xxvi. Chapter.

9. Abimelech rebuketh Isahac for callyng his wyfe his sister. 25. The attonement betweene Abimelech and Isahac.

1 AND there fell a famine in the lande, beside the fyrst that was in the dayes of Abraham: and Isahac went vnto a Abimelech kyng of the Philistines, vnto Gerar.

a. Al ỻ kinges of Gerar were called Abimelech, as ỻ kinges of Egypt Pharao.

2 And the Lorde appeared vnto hym, and sayd, Go not downe into Egypt, but abyde in the lande whiche I shal shewe vnto thee.

3 Soiourne in this lande, and I wyll be with thee, & wyll blesse thee: for vnto thee, and vnto thy seede, I wyll geue all these countreyes, and I wyll performe the othe whiche I sware vnto Abraham thy father:

4 And wyll make thy seede to multiplye as the starres of heauen, and wyll geue vnto thy seede all these countreyes: and in thy seede shal all the nations of the earth be blessed:

5 Because

5 Because that b Abraham hearkened vnto my voyce and kept my ordinaunce, my commaundements, my statutes, and my lawes.
6 And Isahac dwelled in Gerar.
7 And the men of the place asked hym of his wyfe. And he sayd, c She is my sister:
for he feared to say, She is my wife: lest the men of the place shoulde haue kylled hym because of Rebecca, whiche was beautifull to the eye.
8 And after he had been there a long tyme, Abimelech kyng of the Philistines looked out of a wyndowe, and saw Isahac d spor-tyng with Rebecca his wyfe.
9 And Abimelech called Isahac, and sayd, Beholde, she is of a surtie thy wyfe: and why sayedst thou, She is my sister? To whō Isahac answered, Because I thought that I myght peraduenture haue dyed for her sake.
10 Abimelech e sayd, Why hast thou done thus vnto vs: one of the people might lightly haue lyen by thy wyfe, and so shouldest thou haue brought sinne vpon vs.
11 And so Abimelech charged al his people, saying, He that toucheth this man or his wyfe, shall dye the death.
12 Then Isahac sowed in that lande, and receiued in the same yeere "an hundred folde: and the Lorde blessed hym.
13 And the man waxed myghty, and went forth, and grewe, tyll he was exceedyng great.
14 For he had possession of sheepe, of oxen, and a myghtie housholde: and therefore the Philistines had enuie at hym.
15 For the Philistines f stopped and filled vp with earth all the welles whiche his ser-uantes had dygged in his father Abrahams tyme.
16 And Abimelech sayde vnto Isahac, Get thee from vs, for thou art mightier then we, a great deale.
17 Therefore Isahac departed thence, and "abode in the valley of Gerar, and dwelt
there.
18 And Isahac returnyng, dygged agayne the welles of water whiche they dygged in the daves of Abraham his father, which the Philistines had stopped after the death of Abraham, and named them after the same names, by the whiche his father had named them.
19 Isahacs seruantes dygged in the valley, and founde a well of "springyng water.
20 And the heardmen of Gerar dyd stryue with Isahacs heardmen, saying, The water is ours. Then called he the wel "contention, because they stroue with hym.
21 And they digged another wel, and stroue for that also: and he called the name of it
"enmitie.
22 And then he departed thence, and digged another well, for the which they stroue not:
therfore called he it "roometh, saying, The Lorde hath made vs nowe roome, that we may encrease vpon the earth.
23 And he went vp thence to Beer-seba.
24 And the Lorde appeared vnto hym the same myght, and sayde, I am the g God of Abraham thy father, feare not, for I am with thee, and wyl blesse thee, and multiply thy seede, for my seruant Abrahams sake.
25 And he buylded an h aulter there, and called vpon the name of the Lorde, and pitched his tent, and there Isahacs seruantes dygged a well.
26 Then i came Abimelech to hym from Gerar, and Ahazah his freende, and Phicol the captayne of his armie.
27 And Isahac sayde vnto them, Wherefore come ye to me, seeyng ye hate me, and haue put me away from you?
28 Whiche aunsweared, "We saw most certaynly that the Lord was with thee, and we sayd, Let there be nowe an othe betwixt vs, euen betwixt vs and thee, and let vs make a league with thee:
29 That thou shouldest doo vs no hurt, as we haue not touched thee, and as we haue doone vnto thee nothyng but good, and sent thee away in peace: for thou art nowe the blessed of the Lorde.
30 And he made them a feast, and they dyd
eate and dranke.
31 And they rose vp betimes in the morning, and sware one to another: and Isahac sent them away, and they departed from hym in peace.
32 And the same day Isahacs seruauntes came, and tolde hym of a well whiche they had digged, and sayde vnto hym, We haue founde water.
33 And he called it "Sebah: and the name of the citie is called k Beer-seba vnto this day.
34 Esau was fourtie yeeres olde, and he tooke a wyfe called Judith, the daughter of Beeri an Hethite, and Basemah the daughter of Elon an Hethite also, 35 l Whiche were "a greefe of mynde vnto Isahac and Rebecca.

1 AND it came to passe, that when Isahac waxed old, & his eyes were dimme, so that he couldē not see, he called Esau his eldest sonne, and said vnto him, My sonne: And he sayde vnto hym, Here am I.

2 And he sayde, Beholde, I am nowe olde, and knowe not the day of my death.

3 Nowe therfore take, I pray thee, thy weapons, thy quiuer, and thy bowe, and geat thee to the feelde, that thou mayest take me some venelon.

4 And make me well tasting meate, suche as I loue, & bring it to me, that I may eate, a that my soule may blesse thee before that I dye.

a. The carnall affection which Isahac dyd beare to his elder sonne, made him forget what God spake to his wyfe concernyng the younger. Gene. 25. verse. 23.

5 But Rebecca hearde when Isahac spake to Esau his sonne: And Esau went into the feelde to hunt venelon, and to bring it.

6 And Rebecca spake vnto Jacob her sonne, saying, Beholde, I haue hearde thy father talkyng with Esau thy brother, and saying,

7 Bring me venelon, and make me dayntie meate, that I may eate, and blesse thee before the Lorde, afore my death.

b. she setled her selfe vpon Gods promise, and not weyed the dangers that might follow.

8 Nowe therefore my sonne, b heare my voyce, in that which I commaund thee,

9 Geat thee to the flocke, & bring me thence two good kyddes from the goates, and I wyll make of them pleasaunt meates for thy father, such as he loueth.

10 And thou shalt bring it to thy father, that he may eate, and that he may blesse thee before his death.

11 Then sayde Jacob to Rebecca his mother, Beholde, Esau my brother is a heary man, and I am smoother.

12 My father shall peraduenture feele me, and I shall seeme vnto him as though I went about to beguile him, and so shall I bring a curse vppon me, and not a blessing.

c. The assurance of Gods decree made her bolde.

13 And his mother sayde vnto him, c Vpon me be the curse, my sonne: onely heare my voyce, and goe and fetche me them.

14 And Jacob went, and fet them, & brought them to his mother, and his mother made pleasant meate, suche as she knewe his father loued.

a. or, tastly.

15 And Rebecca fet a goodly rayment, of her eldest sonne Esau, which were in the house with her, and put them vppon Jacob her younger sonne:

16 And she put the skinnes of the kids vpon his handes, and vpon the smoothe of his necke.

17 And she put that pleasaunt meate and bread, which she had prepared, in the hande of her sonne Jacob.

18 Whē he came to his father, he said, My father? And he answeared, Here am I: who art thou, my sonne?

19 And Jacob sayde vnto his father, d I am Esau thy eldest sonne, I haue doone accordyng as thou badest me: aryse, I pray thee, sitte, and eate of my venelon, that thy soule may blesse me.

d. This subtyll dealyng of Rebecca and Jacob with Isahac considered by it selfe, is altogeather blame worthy: but yf it be referred to the wyl of God and setting foorth of his decree, it is commendable.

20 And Isahac sayde vnto his sonne, Howe commeth it that thou hast found it so quickly, my sonne? He answeared, The Lord thy God brought it to my handes.

21 Then sayde Isahac vnto Jacob, Come neare, and I wyll feele thee, my sonne, whether thou be my very sonne Esau, or not.

22 Then went Jacob to Isahac his father, and he felt him, and sayde, The voyce is Jacobs voyce, but the handes are the handes of Esau.

e. His ignorance hindered not Gods decree.

23 And he e knewe him not, because his handes were hearie, as his brother Esaus handes: and so he blessed him.

24 And he asked him, Art thou my sonne Esau? And he sayde, That I am.

25 Then sayde he, Bring me, & let me eate of my sonnes venelon, that my soule may blesse thee. And he brought hym, and he ate: and he brought him wine also, and he dranke.

f. We must not so much behold the outwarde doings as here, as the prouidence of God, who would by suche weaknesse haue his election declared.

26 And his father Isahac sayde vnto hym, f Come neare, and kisse me my sonne.

27 And he went vnto him, and kyssed hym: and he smelled the sauour of his rayment, and blessed him, and sayde, See, the smell of my sonne, is as the smell of a feelde whiche the Lorde hath blessed.

g. Vnder these worldly blessinges, the godly fathers embraced the heauenly promises.

28 God geue thee g of the deawe of heauen, and of the fatnesse of the earth, and plentie of corne and wine.

29 People be thy seruantes, and nations bowe to thee: be lorde ouer thy brethren, and thy mothers children stoupe with reuerence vnto thee: cursed be he that curseth thee, and blessed be he that blesseth thee.

30 As soone as Isahat had made an ende of blessyng Jacob, and Jacob was scarse gone out from the presence of Isahac his father, then came Esau his brother from huntyng.

31 And he also had made a pleasant meate, and brought it vnto his father, and sayde vnto his father, Let my father aryse, and eate of his sonnes venelon, that thy soule may blesse me.

32 Then his father Isahac sayde vnto him, Who art thou? he answeared, I am thy sonne, thy first borne Esau.

33 And Isahac was greatly astonyed out of measure, and sayde, Whiche is he, and where where is he then, that hath hunted venesone and brought it me, and I haue eaten of all before thou camest? and haue blessed hym, yea h and he shalbe blessed.

h. What Gods ministers promise by his worde, it shalbe sure.

34 When Esau heard the woordes of his father, he cryed aloude and bitterly aboue measure, and saide vnto his father, Bleſſe me, I also am thy sonne O my father.

35 Who answeared, Thy brother came with subtelte, and hath taken away thy blessing.

36 And he saide againe, Is not he rightly named * Iacob? for he hath vndermined me now two times: First he tooke away my birthryght, and see, nowe hath he taken away my blessing also. And he saide, Hast thou kept neuer a blessing for me?

* Or, a supplanter.

37 Isahac answeared, and saide vnto Esau, Beholde, I haue made him thy lorde, and all his brethren haue I made his seruantes: Moreouer, with corne and wine haue I stablished him: what shall I doo vnto thee nowe my sonne?

38 And Esau saide vnto his father, Hast thou but that one blessing my father? bleſſe me, I am also thy sonne, O my father. So lifted vp Esau his voyce, i and wept.

i. The wicked lament their losses, yet they amend not their wickednesse.

39 Then Isahac his father answeared, and sayde vnto him, Beholde, k thy dwelling place shalbe the fatnesse of the earth, and of the deawe of heauen from aboue.

k. The spirituall blessing only remayned in Iacob: this was but a temporall blessing.

40 And through thy sworde shalt thou liue, and shalt be thy brothers seruant: and it shall come to passe, that thou shalt gest the maistrie, g thou shalt loose his yoke from of thy necke.

41 And Esau hated Iacob, because of the blessing that his father blessed him withal: And Esau sayde in his hart, The dayes of sorowing for my father are at hande, then wyl I l slay my brother Iacob.

l. The wicked thinke by their power to ouerthrowe Gods iudgements.

42 And these woordes of Esau her elder sonne, were tolde to Rebecca: And she sent, and called Iacob her younger sonne, and saide vnto him, Behold, thy brother Esau, as touching thee, dooth comfort him selfe full purposing to kyll thee.

43 Nowe therefore my sonne, heare my voyce: make thee redy, and flee to Laban my brother at Haran,

44 And tary with him a while, vntill thy brothers fiercenesse be swaged, 45 And vntill thy brothers wrath turne away from thee, and he forget the thynges which thou hast done to him: then wyll I send, and fetche thee away from thence: m why shoulde I be desolate of you both in one day?

m. For the wicked sonne wyll kyl the godly, and the plague of God wyl afterward lyght vpon the wicked sonne.

46 And Rebecca saide to Isahac, n I am weerie of my lyfe for the daughters of Heth: If Iacob take a wyfe of the daughters of Heth, such as these whiche are of the daughters of this lande, what good shal my lyfe doo me?

n. Which were Esaus wyues, whose euil manners she vseth as an argument to send Iacob away.

¶ The. xxviii. Chapter.

1. Isahac forbiddeth Iacob to take a wyfe of the Chanaanites. 18. Iacob setteth vp a piller, and maketh a vowe.

1 AND so Isahac called Iacob, a and bleſsed him, and charged him, and sayde vnto him, See thou take not a wyfe of the daughters of Chanaan:

a. This second blessing was to confirme Iacobs fayth, lest he shoulde thinke that his father had bleſsed him before, without Gods motion.

2 Aryse, and goe thee to "Mesopotamia, to the house of Bethuel thy mothers father, and there take a wyfe of the daughters of Laban thy mothers brother.

" Padan Aram.

3 And GOD Almightie bleſse thee, and make thee to encrease, and multiplie thee, that thou mayest be a number of people:

4 And geue b blessing of Abraham vnto thee, and to thy seede with thee, that thou mayest receiue to inherite the land wherin thou art a stranger, whiche God gaue vnto Abraham.

5 Thus Isahac sent forth Iacob, and he went toward Mesopotamia, vnto Laban, sonne of Bethuel the Syrian, and brother to Rebecca, Iacob and Esaus mother.

6 When Esau sawe that Isahac had bleſsed Iacob, and sent him to Mesopotamia to fetche him a wyfe from thence, and that as he bleſsed him, he gaue him a charge, saying, Thou shalt not take a wyfe of the daughters of Chanaan,

7 And that Iacob hadde obeyed his father and mother, and was gone to Mesopotamia:

8 And Esau seeing also that the daughters of Chanaan pleased not Isahac his father:

9 Then went Esau vnto Ismael, and tooke vnto the wyues whiche he had Mahalah b the daughter of Ismael Abrahams sonne, the sister of Nebaioth, to be his wyfe.

b. Thinking thereby to haue reconciled him selfe to his father, but all was in vayne, for he taketh not away the cause of his euyl, c. It may figure Christe, by whose mediation all graces come downe to vs, and al helpe, and by whom we assend into heauen.

10 Iacob departed from Beer seba, and went toward Haran.

11 And he came vnto a certayne place, and taryed there all nyght, because the Sunne was downe: and tooke of the stones of the place, and put vnder his head, and layde him downe in the same place to sleepe.

12 And he dreamed, and beholde there stoode c a ladder vppon the earth, and the top of it reached vp to heauen: and see, the angels angels of GOD went vp and downe vpon it:

13 Yea, and God stode aboue leaned vpon it, and sayde, I am the Lorde God of Abraham thy father, and the GOD of Isahar, d the lande whiche thou sleepest vpon, wyll I geue thee and thy seede.

d. Isahacs ministerie in blessing his sonne, is confirmed by God, who geueth to Iacob this lande for a pledge of the spirituall inheritance.

14 And thy seede shalbe as the dust of the earth, and thou shalt spreade abrode to the West, to the East, to the North, and to the South: and in thee, and in e thy seede, shal all the kynredes of the earth be blessed.

e. Christ promised.

15 And see, I am with thee, and wyll be thy keeper, and in all places whyther thou goest, and wyll bryng thee agayne into this land: For I wyll not f leaue thee, vntyll I haue made good that whiche I haue promised thee.

f God taketh all the charge of his elect, and neuer forsaketh them.

16 When Iacob was awaked out of his sleepe, he sayde, Surely, the Lorde is in this place, and I knewe it not.

17 And he was afrayde, and sayde, Howe dreadfull is this place! It is none other, but the g house of God, and it is the gate of heauen.

g. Where God appeareth by the ministerie of Angels or men according to his woorde, there he is sayd to dwell.

18 And Iacob rose vp early in the mornyng, and tooke the stone that he had layde vnder his head, and pitched it vp on an ende, and powred oyle in the top of it.

19 And he called the name of the place Bethel: but the name of the citie was called Luza, before tyme.

20 And Iacob vowed a vowe, saying, If God wyll be with me, and wyll keepe me in this iourney in whiche I goe, and wyl geue me bread to eate, and clothes to put on,

21 So that I come agayne vnto my fathers house in safetie, then shall the Lorde be my God:

22 And this stone whiche I haue set vp on an ende, shalbe Gods house: and of all that thou shalt geue me, I wyll surely geue the tenth vnto thee.

¶ The xxix. Chapter.

1. Iacob commeth to his vncle Laban, and serueth him seuen yeares for his daughter Rachel. 25. Lea vvas brought to his bed in steede of Rachel.

1 Then Iacob "went on his iourney, and came into the lande of the "people of the East.

"Lyft vp his feete.
"Children.

2 And a he looked about, beholde, there was a well in the feelde, and loe three flockes of sheepe lay thereby, for at that well were the flockes watered: and there was a great stone vpon the welles mouth.

3 And thyther were all the flockes brought, and they rolled the stone from the welles mouth, and watered the sheepe, and put the stone agayne vpon the welles mouth vnto his place.

4 And Iacob sayd vnto them, My brethren, whence be ye? And they sayd, Of Haran are we.

5 And he sayde vnto them, Knowe ye Laban the sonne of Nachor? They sayd, We know hym.

6 And he sayde vnto them, Is "he in good health? And they said, He is in good health: and beholde his daughter Rachel commeth with the sheepe.

"Peace to him

7 And he sayde, Loe it is yet a great "whyle to nyght, neyther is it tyme that the cattell shoulde be gathered togeather: water ye the sheepe, and goe and feede them.

"Great day.

8 And they sayde, We may not, vntyll al the flockes be brought togeather, and tyll they rolle the stone from the welles mouth, and so we water our sheepe.

9 Whyle he yet talked with them, Rachel came with her fathers sheepe: for she kept them.

10 Assone as Iacob sawe Rachel the daughter of Laban his mothers brother, and the sheepe of Laban his mothers brother, Iacob went, & rolled the stone from the welles mouth, and watered the flocke of Laban his mothers brother.

11 And Iacob kissed Rachel, and lyft vp his voyce and wept.

12 And Iacob told Rachel that he was her fathers a brother, and that he was Rebeccas sonne: therefore ranne she, and tolde her father.

a. The Hebrues cal all kinsmen brethren.

13 And when Laban hearde certaynely tell of Iacob his sisters sonne, he ran to meete hym, and imbraced hym, and kyssed hym, and brought hym to his house: And he told Laban b all these thynges.

b. That is, vpon what causes he came alone & so haste from his countrey.

14 To whom Laban sayde, Well, thou art my bone and my flesshe. And he abode with hym the space of a moneth.

15 And Laban sayde vnto Iacob, Though thou be my brother, shouldest thou therfore serue me for nought? Tell me, what shall thy wages be?

16 Laban had two daughters: the elder called Lea, and the younger Rachel.

17 Lea was tender eyed: but Rachel was beautifull and well fauoured.

18 And Iacob loued Rachel, and sayde, I wyll serue thee seuen yeeres for Rachel thy younger daughter.

19 Laban answeared, c It is better that I geue her vnto thee, then that I should geue her vnto another man: abyde with me.

c. As an hypocrite, he hath respect to his owne gayne in the marriage, or this selling of his daughter.

20 And Iacob serued seuen yeeres for Rachel: and they seemed vnto hym but a fewe dayes, for the loue he had to her.

21 And

21 And Iacob sayde vnto d Laban, Geue me my wyfe, that I may "lye with her: for my dayes are fulfylled.

22 Then Laban gathered togeather al the men of that place, and made a feast.

23 And when euen was come, he tooke Lea his daughter, e and he brought her to hym, and he went in vnto her.

24 And Laban gaue vnto his daughter Lea, Zilpha his mayde to be her seruant.

25 And when the morning was come, behold it was Lea. Then sayde he to Laban, Wherefore hast thou played thus with me? dyd not I serue thee for Rachel? Wherefore then hast thou beguiled me?

26 Laban answered, f It is not the maner of this place to marrie the younger before the eyst borne.

27 Passe out this weeke, and then we wyll geue thee this also, for the seruice whiche thou shalt serue me yet seuen yeeres more.

28 And Iacob dyd euen so: g passed out the weeke: and then he gaue hym Rachel his daughter to wyfe also.

29 And Laban gaue to Rachel his daughter, Bilha his handmayde, to be her seruant.

30 So lay he by Rachel also, and loued Rachel more then Lea: and serued hym yet seuen yeeres more.

31 When the Lord sawe that Lea was "despised, he made her "fruitfull: and Rachel remayned barren.

32 And Lea conceiued and bare a sonne, and she called his name "Ruben: for she sayde, The Lord hath looked vpon my tribulation: now wyl therefore my husbande wyll loue me.

33 And she conceiued agayne, and bare a sonne, and sayde, The Lord hath heard that I am despised, and hath therefore geuen me this sonne also. And she called his name "Simeon.

34 And she conceiued yet, and bare a sonne, and sayde, Nowe this once wyll my husbande keepe my companie, because I haue borne hym three sonnes. And therefore was his name called "Leui.

35 And she conceiued yet agayne, and bare him a sonne, saying, Nowe wyl I g prayse the Lorde. Therefore she called his name "Iudah, and left bearyng.

¶ The xxx. Chapter.

4. 9. Rachel and Lea being both barren, geue their maydens to theyr husbande. 27. God enriched Laban for Iacobs sake, 43. and blessed Iacob with plenty.

1 RAchel when she sawe that she bare Iacob no children, she enuyed her sister, and sayde vnto Iacob, Geue me children, or els I am but dead.

2 And Iacobs a angre was kyndled agaynst Rachel, and sayde, Am I in Gods steade, whiche keepeth from thee the fruite of thy wombe?

3 Then she sayde, Here is my mayde Bilha: goe in vnto her, and she shall b beare vpon my knees, that I may also "haue children by her.

4 And she gaue hym Bilha her handmayde to wyfe: and Iacob went in vnto her.

5 And Bilha conceiued, and bare Iacob a sonne.

6 Then sayde Rachel, God hath geuen sentence on my side, and hath also heard my voyce, and hath geuen me a sonne. Therefore called she hym "Dan.

7 And Bilha Rachels mayde conceiued agayne, and bare Iacob another sonne.

8 And Rachel sayd, With "godly wrastlings haue I wrastled with my sister, and haue gotten the vpper hande. And she called his name "Nephthali.

9 When Lea sawe that she had left bearyng children, she tooke Zilpha her mayde, and gaue her Iacob to wyfe.

10 And Zilpha Leas mayde bare Iacob a sonne.

11 Then sayde Lea, "Good lucke: and called his name "Gad.

12 And Zilpha Leas mayde bare Iacob another sonne.

13 Then sayde Lea, Happy am I: for the "daughters wyl cal me blessed: and called his name "Aser.

14 And Ruben went out in the dayes of the wheate haruest, and found Mandragoras in the feelde, and brought them vnto his mother Lea. Then sayde Rachel to Lea, Geue me, I pray thee, of thy sonnes Mandragoras.

15 To whom Lea answeared, Is it not yenough that thou hast take away my husbande? but wouldest thou take away my sonnes Mandragoras also? Then sayd Rachel, Well, let hym sleepe with thee this nyght for thy sonnes Mandragoras.

16 And Iacob came from the feelde at euen, and Lea went out to meete hym, and sayde, Thou shalt come in to me: for I haue bought thee in decde with my sonnes Mandragoras. And he slept with her that same nyght.

17 And God hearde Lea, that she conceiued, and bare Iacob the fyfth sonne.

18 Then sayde Lea, c GOD hath geuen me a reward, because I gaue my mayden to my husbande. And she called hym "Issachar.

19 Agn

a. This was godly anger, whiche preserued the honor of God to his wyfe, whom he sharpely admonisheth.

19 And Lea conceiued yet agayne, and bare Iacob the sixth sonne.

20 And Lea saide, GOD hath endued me with a good dowrie, now wyll my husband dwell with me, because I haue borne hym sixe sonnes: and called his name "Zabulō.

21 After that she bare a daughter, and called her name "Dina.

22 And GOD remembred Rachel, and GOD d heard her, and "made her fruitefull.

23 So that she conceiued and bare a sonne: and sayde, GOD hath taken away my rebuke, 24 And she called his name "Ioseph, saying, The Lorde geue me yet another sonne.

25 e Assoone as Rachel had borne Ioseph, Iacob sayde vnto Laban, Send me away, that I may goe vnto myne owne place, and to my countrey.

26 Geue me my wyues and my children, for whom I haue serued thee, and let me goe: for f thou knowest what seruice I haue done thee.

27 To whom Laban answeared, I pray thee, yf I haue founde fauour in thy sight, tary: (for I haue proued that g the Lorde blessed me for thy sake.)

28 Also he saide, Appoynt what thy reward shal be, and I wyll geue it thee.

29 But he saide vnto him, Thou knowest what seruice I haue doone thee, and in what taking thy cattell haue been vnder me:

30 For that little whiche thou haddest before "I came, is now increased vnto a multitude, and the Lorde hath blessed thee through "my trauayle: but now when shal I make prouision for myne owne house also?

31 And he saide, What shall I then geue thee? And Iacob answeared, Thou shalt geue me nothing at all: yf thou wylt doo this thing for me, then wyl I turne againe, feede thy sheepe, and keepe them.

32 I wyl goe about all thy flockes this day, and separate from them all the cattell that are spotted, and of diuers colours: and all the blacke among the sheepe, and the partie and spotted among the kiddes, the same shalbe my reward.

33 So shall my righteousnesse answeare for me "in tyme to come: for it shall come for my reward before thy face. And euery one that is not specked and partie amongst the Goates, and blacke amongst the sheepe, let it be counted theft in me.

34 And Laban said, Goe to, would GOD it might be according to thy saying.

35 Therefore he tooke out the same day the hee goates that were ringstraked, and of diuers colours, and all the shee goates that were spotted and coloured, and all that had white in them, and all the blacke amongst the sheepe, and put them in the keeping of his sonnes, 36 And set three dayes iourney betwixt him selfe and Iacob: and so Iacob kept the rest of Labans sheepe.

37 b Iacob tooke roddes of greene populer, hasel, and chesnut trees, and pilled white strakes in them, c made the white appeare in the roddes, 38 And put the roddes, whiche he had pilled, before the sheepe, in the gutters and watering troughes when the sheepe came to drinke, that they shoulde conceiue when they came to drinke.

39 And the sheepe conceiued before the roddes, and brought foorth lambes ringstraked, spotted, and partie.

40 And Iacob dyd separate these lambes, and i turned the faces of the sheepe, whiche were in the flocke of Laban, towarde these ringstraked, and all maner of blacke: and so put his owne flockes by them selues, and put them not with Labans cattel.

41 And in euery conceiuing time of the stronger cattel, Iacob layde the roddes before the eyes of the cattell in the gutters, namely that they myght conceiue before the roddes.

42 But when the cattell were feeble, he put them not in: and so the feebler were Labans, and the stronger Iacobs.

43 And the man k increased exceedyngly, and had much cattel, and maide seruantes, and men seruantes, and Camelles, and Asses.

¶ The xxxi. Chapter.

1. Labans chyldren doo grudge against Iacob: wealth. 19. Rachel stealeth her fathers goddes. 23. Laban pursueth Iacob.

1 AND he heard the woordes of a Labans sonnes, saying, Iacob hath taken away all that was our fathers, and of our fathers goodes hath he gotten al his glorie.

2 And Iacob beheelde the countenaunce of Laban, and beholde, it was not towarde him "as it was woont to be.

3 And b the Lord saide vnto Iacob, Turne agayne into the lande of thy fathers, and to thy kynrede, and I wyll be with thee.

4 Therfore Iacob sent, and called Rachel and Lea to the feelde, vnto his flocke:

5 And

d. Faythfull prayer obteyneth at the length her request.

e. Nowe his xiiii. yeeres seruice was expired.

f. He had done his seruice vpon and of a good confidence.

g. This hypocrite speaketh of God, and yet he worshippeth false goddes, & continueth in his wickednes.

h. It is not lawfull by fraude to seeke recompence of iniury: therfore Moses sheweth afterward that God thus instructed Iacob.

i. He dyd drinke his owne lambes before Labans sheepe, so that, they alwayes fauoured them, such as were of diuers colours.

k. By Gods singuler prouision, and accordyng to his promise.

a. The emulous chyldren of couetous Laban, thinke the wealth of another their vtter vndooing.

b. Though he was in great feare & doubt, yet he durst not returne without Gods commaundement.

5 And saide vnto them, I see your fathers countenaunce, that it is not towarde me as it was wonte to be: but the GOD of my father hath been with me.

6 And ye knowe howe I haue serued your father to the best of my power.

7 But your father hath deceiued me, and changed my wages e ten times: but God suffered him not to hurt me.

8 d When he saide, The spotted shalbe thy wages: then al the sheepe bare spotted. And when he saide, The ringstraked shalbe thy reuarde: then bare all the sheepe ringstraked.

9 Thus hath God taken away the encreasse of your fathers flocke, and geuen it to me.

10 But in ramming time I lifted vp myne eyes, and saw in a dreame, and beholde, the "rammes leaped vpon the sheepe that were ringstraked, spotted, and partie.

11 And the angel of God spake vnto me in a dreame, saying, Iacob? And I answeared, Here am I.

12 And he saide, Lift vp nowe thyne eyes, and see all the rammes leaping vppon the sheepe that are ringstraked, spotted, and partie: for I haue e seene all that Laban doeth vnto thee.

13 I am the God of Bethel, where thou anoyntedst the stone set vpon an end, and where thou vowedst a vowe vnto me: nowe therfore aryse, and geat thee out of this countrey, and returne vnto the land where thou wast borne.

14 Then answeared Rachel, and Lea, and sayde vnto him, Haue we had as yet any portion or inheritaunce in our fathers house?

15 Doeth not he counte vs euen as straungers? for he hath solde vs, and hath quite deuoured also our money.

16 Therefore al the riches which God hath taken from our father, that is ours, and our childrens: nowe then what soeuer God hath saide vnto thee, that doo.

17 Then Iacob rose vp, and set his sonnes and wiues vp vpon Camels:

18 And caried away all his flockes, and all his substaunce which he had possessed, the increase of his cattell which he had gotten in "Mesopotamia, for to goe to Isahac his father, into the land of Chanaan.

19 But Laban was gone to sheare his sheepe: and Rachel had stolen her fathers f images.

20 And Iacob g stale away the hart of Laban the Syrian, in that he tolde him not that he fledde.

21 So fledde he, and all that he had, and made him selfe redy, and passed ouer the riuer, and set his face straight toward the mount Gilead.

22 Vpon the third day after, was it tolde Laban that Iacob fledde.

23 Then he tooke his h brethren with him, and folowed after hym seuen dayes tourney, & ouertooke him at the mount Gilead.

24 And GOD i came to Laban the Syrian in a dreame by night, and saide vnto him, Take heede that thou speake not to Iacob ought "saue good.

25 And Laban ouertooke Iacob: and Iacob had pitched his tent in the mount, and Laban with his brethren pitched also vpon the mount Gilead.

26 And Laban saide to Iacob, What hast thou doone? For thou hast stolen away my hart, and caryed away my daughters, as though they had been taken captiue with the swoord.

27 Wherefore wentest thou away secretly "vnknowen to me, k and diddest not tell me, that I myght haue let thee goe thy way with mirth and songues, with tymbrel and harpe?

28 And hast not suffered me to kysse my sonnes and my daughters? Thou wast a foole nowe in so dooing.

29 For it is in l my "hand through God to doo you hurt: but the God of your father spake vnto me yesternyght, saying, Take heede that thou speake not to Iacob ought saue good.

30 And now though thou wouldest needes be gone away, because thou sore longest after thy fathers house, yet wherefore hast thou stolen my goddes?

31 Iacob answeared and sayde to Laban, Because I was afraide, and thought that peraduenture thou wouldest take away thy daughters from me.

32 But with whomsoeuer thou findest thy goddes, let him dye. Here before our brethren, seeke that thyne is by me, and take it to thee: But Iacob wyst not that Rachel m had stollen them.

33 Then went Laban into Iacobs tent, and into Leas tent, and into the two mayde seruauntes tentes: but founde them not. Then went he out of Leas tent, and entred into Rachels tent.

34 And Rachel had taken the images, and put them in the Camelles strawe, and sate downe vpon them, and Laban tossed vp all the tent, but found them not.

35 Then sayde she to her father, My lorde, be not angry that I can not ryse vp before thee: for the custome of women is come vpon me. So searched he, but found not those images.

m. It was no godlynesse, but superstition, that moued Rachel to the theft.

n. So this superstition remayned in Iacobs house, yll ynough the destruction of children.

36 And Iacob was wroth, and chode with Laban. Iacob also answered, and sayd to hym, What haue I trespassed? or what haue I offended ther, that thou doest so pursue after me?

37 Thou hast tossed vp all my stuffe: and what hast thou founde of all thy houshold stuffe: put it here before thy brethren and my brethren, that they maye iudge betwixt vs both.

38 Behold, this twentie yeeres haue I been with ther, thy Sheepe & thy Goates haue not been barren, and the Rammes of thy flocks haue I not eaten.

39 That so euer was spoyled, I brought it not vnto ther, but made it good mine selfe: of my hand dyddest thou require it that was stollen by day or nyght.

40 I was in such case, that by day the heate consumed me, and the frost by nyght, and my sleepe departed from myne eyes.

41 Thus haue I been twenty yeeres in thy house, and serued ther fourtene yeeres for thy two daughters, and sixe yeeres for thy Sheepe, and thou hast changed my reward tenne tymes.

42 And except the God of my father, the God of Abraham, and the feare of Isahac had been with me, surely thou haddest sent me away notwe al emptie: but God beholde my tribulation, and the labour of my handes, and rebuked thee yesternyght.

43 And Laban answered, and sayd vnto Iacob, These daughters are my daughters, and these children are my children, and these Sheepe are my Sheepe, & al that thou seest is myne: and what can I do this day vnto these my daughters, or vnto their children whiche they haue borne?

44 Nedes therfore come on, and let vs make a league, I, and thou, which may be a witnesse betweene me and thee.

45 Then tooke Iacob a stone, and set it vp on ende.

46 And Iacob sayd vnto his brethren, Gather stones. And they tooke stones, and made an heape, and they dyd eate ther vpon the heape.

47 And Laban called it Iegar Sahaduthah: but Iacob called it Galeed.

48 Then sayde Laban, This heape is witnesse betweene thee and me this day. Therfore it is called Galeed, 49 And Mizpah: for he sayde, The Lord looke betweene ther and me, when we are departed one from another.

50 If thou shalt vexe my daughters, or if thou take other wiues beside my daughters: here is no man with vs, beholde, God is witnesse betwixt ther and me.

51 And Laban sayde moreouer to Iacob, Beholde this heape, and this stone set vp on ende, which I haue layd betwixt me and thee, 52 This heape be witnesse, and also this stone set vp on ende, that I will not come ouer this heape to thee, and thou shalt not come ouer this heape, and this stone set vp on ende, vnto me, to doo any harme.

53 The God of Abraham, and the God of Nachor, and the God of their father, be iudge betwixt vs. And Iacob sware by the feare of his father Isahac.

54 Then Iacob dyd sacrifice vppon the mount, & called his brethren to eate bread: and they dyd eate bread, & tarried al nyght in the hyl.

55 And early in the morning Laban rose vp, and kyssed his sonnes and his daughters, and blessed them: and Laban departing, went into his place agayne.

The xxxi. Chapter.

1. God comforteth Iacob by a vision of Angelles.
24. Iacob wrestleth with the Angel, who named hym Israel.

1 BVT Iacob went forth on his iourney, and the Angelles of God came and met hym.

2 And when Iacob sawe them, he sayde, This is Gods host, and called the name of the same place Mahanaim.

3 And Iacob sent messengers before hym to Esau his brother, vnto the lande of Seir, the feelde of Edom:

4 And he commanded them, saying, Thus shal ye speake to my Lorde Esau, Thy seruaunt Iacob saith thus, I haue been a stranger with Laban, and haue stayen there vnto this tyme,

5 And haue Oxen, Asses, and Sheepe, men seruantes, and women seruantes: and haue sent to sheme my Lorde, that I may finde grace in thy sight.

6 And the messengers came agayne to Iacob, saying, We came to thy brother Esau, and he commeth to meete thee, & hath fower hundred men with hym.

7 But Iacob was greatly afraide, and wist not whiche way to turne hym selfe, and deuided the people that was with hym, and the Sheepe, and Oxen, and Camelles, into two companies:

8 And sayde, If Esau come to the one part, and smyte it, the other shal saue it selfe.

9 And Iacob sayde agayne, O God of my father Abraham, and God of my father Isahac, Lorde which sayest vnto me, Returne vnto thy country, & to thy kynrede, a. This was Gods benefite, yet bestowed vpon Laban for Iacobs sake: & Iacob confesseth it his.

p. God would not haue the feruent defraudel of his iuste rewarde.

q. Thes be Syriake woordes, and signifie the heape of witnesse, whiche thyng also this word Galeed meaneth.

r Galed.

s Mizpah, that is, a lokyng glasse.

t. This was wicked fact, to ioyne his faith goddes with the true God, and to iudge the falst to be the elder god.

u. Iacob wouldnot sweare so corrupelye as Laban wouldne haue had him.

v. The superstitious keepe the outwarde maners of the godly.

f. God comforteth his in their feare.

a. God would certaynely perswade him of his protection, in the feare he was in of Esau. That is, two armies of aungels.

b Or, regions.

c. Thus his faith ouercame his feare: thus prayer is their godlye sure refuge in trouble.

and I wyl doo wel with ther.

10 I am not "worthie of the leaſt of al the a mercies and treuth whiche thou haſt ſhe-wed vnto thy ſeruaunt: for with my ſtaffe came I ouer this Iordane, and nowe haue
I gotten two companies.

11 Deliuer me from the hand of my brother Eſau: for I feare hym, leſt he wyll come and smyte me, and the mother with the chyldren.

12 Thou ſayeſt, I wyll ſurely doo ther good, and make thy ſeede as the ſand of the ſea, whiche can not be nombred for multitude.

13 And he tarried there that ſame nyght, b toke of that whiche came to hande, c a preſent for Eſau his brother,

14 Two hundred ſhee Goates, and twentie her Goates, two hundred Sheepe, and twentie Rammes,

15 Thirtie mylche Camelles with their Colles, fourtie Kyne, and tenne Bulles, twentie ſhee Aſſes, and tenne Foales:

16 And deliuered them into the handes of his ſeruauntes, euery droue by them ſelues, and ſayde vnto his ſeruauntes, Goe foorth before me, and put a ſpace betwixt droue and droue.

17 And he commaunded the foremoſte, ſaying, If Eſau my brother meete ther, and aſke thee, ſaying, Whoſe art thou? d whytther goeſt thou? and whoſe are theſe that go before ther?

18 Thou ſhalt ſay, They be thy ſeruaunt
Iacobs, e it is a preſent ſent vnto my Lorde Eſau: and beholde, he hym ſelfe commeth after vs.

19 And ſo commaunded he the ſeconde, and the thyrde, and al that followed the droues, ſaying, On this maner ſee that you ſpeake vnto Eſau when ye meete hym.

20 And ſay moreouer, beholde, thy ſeruaunt
Iacob alſo commeth after vs: for he ſayde,
I wil appeaſe "his wrath with the preſent that goeth before me, and afterwarde I wyl ſee hym mine ſelfe, peraduenture he wyl receyue "me to grace.

21 So went the preſent before him: and he tarried al that nyght in the companie.

22 And he roſe vp the ſame nyght, f tooke his wyues, and his two mayde ſeruauntes, and his eleuen ſonnes, and went ouer the foorde Iabok.

23 And he tooke them, and ſet them ouer the ryuer, and ſent ouer that he had.

24 And Iacob was left hym ſelfe g alone, and there wreſtled a man with hym, vnto
the breaking of the day.

25 And when he ſawe that he could not preuayle againſt hym, h he ſmote hym vppon the huckle bone of his thygh, and the huckle bone of Iacobs thygh ſlipped out of ioynt as he wreſtled with hym.

26 And he ſayde, Let me goe, for the day breaketh. Which anſwered, I wyl not let thee goe, except i thou bleſſe me.

27 And he ſayde vnto hym, What is thy name? He anſwered, Iacob.

28 He ſayde, Thy name ſhalbe called no more Iacob, but "Iſrael: For as a prince haſt thou wreſtled with God, k with men, and haſt preuayled.

29 And Iacob aſked hym, ſaying, Tell l me thy name. And he ſayd, Wherefore doeſt thou aſke after my name? And he bleſſed hym there.

30 And Iacob called the name of the place
"Peniel: for I haue m ſeene God face to face, and my lyfe is preſerued.

31 And as he went ouer Peniel, the Sunne roſe vpon hym, and he halted vpon his thygh.

32 And therefore it is that the chyldren of Iſrael eate not of the ſynnowe that ſhanke in that place of the thygh, vnto this day:
becauſe that he touched the huckle bone of Iacobs thygh, about the ſynnowe that ſhanke.

¶ The xxxiii. Chapter.

1. Eſau meeteth with his brother Iacob, 4. and is agreed with hym. 19. Iacob buyeth a poſſeſſion, and buyldeth an Aulter vnto God.

1 IAcob lyfting vp his eyes, looked, and be-holde Eſau came, hauyng with hym foure hundred men: and he diuided the chyldren vnto Lea, and vnto Rachel, and vnto the two handmaydens.

2 And he put the handmaydens & their chyldren foremoſt, and Lea and her chyldren after, & Rachel and a Ioſeph hyndermoſt.

3 And he went before them, and bowed hym ſelfe to the grounde ſeuen tymes, vntil he came to his brother.

4 Eſau ranne to meete hym, and imbraced hym, and fel on his necke, and kyſſed hym, and they wept.

5 And he lyfte vp his eyes, and ſawe the women and the chyldren, & ſayde, Whence haſt thou theſe? And he anſwered, They are the chyldren whiche God hath geuen thy ſeruaunt.

6 Then came the handmaydens foorth, and their chyldren, and bowed them ſelues.

7 Lea alſo with her chyldren, came and dyd their obeyſaunce: and laſt of all, came Io-ſeph and Rachel, and dyd b their obeyſaunce.

8 And he ſayd, What is al the droue which

---

a. I am leſſe.

c. Al gods benefites come of his mere benevolence and fauour.

d. Though he was certainely perſwaded of Gods helpe, yet he vſeth ſuche meanes as he could for his defence, and commytteth the ſucceſſe to God.

e. His face.

f. My face.

g. He fought a ſolitary place for prairer, wher God declared vnto him, that many troubles remayned, yet he ſhould ouercome al.

h. Though the godlye ouercome in temptations, yet ſome infirmitie remayneth.

i. We ought to deſyre Gods bleſſyng, how greeuous ſo euer Gods preſence hath ben to vs.

k. One that wreſtleth with God.

l. He deſyreth more perfect knowledge of this wreſtler, whiche is not graunted him.

m. The face of God.

l. Iacob glorieth of this knowledge of God which he had by this viſion.

a. As yet Iacob was not certified of the preroguatiue of Iuda.

b. A figure of the Churche, as appeareth in Iacobs houſhold, which was in no al ſanctified reſpect.

I met? he answeared, That I may finde grace in the syght of my Lorde.

9 And Esau sayde, I haue yenough my brother, keepe that thou hast vnto thee selfe.

10 And Iacob answeared, Nay, I pray thee: but if I haue found grace in thy light, receyue, I pray thee, my present of my hande: for I haue seene thy face, as though I had seene the face of God, and so thou hast receyued me to grace.

11 Oh take my blessyng that is brought thee: for GOD hath had mercie on me, and I haue yenough. And so he compelled hym, and he tooke it.

12 And he sayde, Let vs take our iourney, and goe, I wyl goe before thee.

13 Iacob answeared hym, My Lorde, thou knowest that the children are tender, and the sheep and great cattel with yonge vnder my handes, which if men shoulde ouerdryue but euen one day, all the flocke wyll dye.

14 Oh let my Lorde goe before his seruant, and I wyl driue fayre and softly, according as the cattel that goeth before me, and the children be able to endure, a vntyl I come vnto my Lorde vnto Seir.

15 And Esau sayde, I wyl leaue some of my folke with thee. And he answeared, What needeth it? I shal finde grace in the syght of my Lorde.

16 So Esau went his way agayne that same day vnto Seir.

17 And Iacob tooke his iourney towarde Suchoth, and buylt hym an house, and made boothes for his cattel: and therefore is it that the name of the place is called Suchoth.

18 And Iacob came to Sale, a citie of b Sichem, which is in the land of Chanaan, after that he was come from Mesopotamia: and pitched before the citie, 19 And bought a parcel of grounde, where he pitched his tent, of the children of Hemor Sichems father, for an hundred peeces of money.

20 And he made there an aulter, c and called it, The mightie GOD of Israel.

¶ The xxxiii. Chapter.

1. The rauishyng of Dina Iacobs daughter by Sichem the sonne of Hemor. 3. Who requyreth her in marriage for his sonne. 13. The sonnes of Iacob doo guylefully requyre the Sichemites to be circumcised. 25. The whoredome is reuenged by Simeon and Leui Iacobs sonnes. 30. Iacob reproueth his sonnes.

1 DIna the daughter of Lea, whiche she bare vnto Iacob, went out to see the daughters of the lande.

2 Whom when Sichem the sonne of Hemor the Henite lorde of the country sawe, he tooke her, and lay with her, and "vyolated her.

3 And his hart lay vnto Dina the daughter of Iacob, and he loued that damsel, a spake "kyndly vnto her.

4 And Sichem spake vnto his father Hemor, saying, Gette me this mayden vnto my wyfe.

5 And Iacob heard that he had defiled Dina his daughter (his sonnes beyng with their cattel in the feelde) and Iacob b helde his peace vntyl they were come.

6 ¶ And Hemor the father of Sichem, went out vnto Iacob to commune with hym.

7 And when the sonnes of Iacob (comming out of the feelde) heard it, it grieued them, and they were not a litle wroth, because he had wrought folly in Israel, in that he had lyen with Iacobs daughter, which thing ought not to be done.

8 And Hemor communed with them, saying, The soule of my sonne Sichem longeth for your daughter: I pray you c geue her hym to wyfe.

9 And make marriages with vs, and geue your daughters vnto vs, c take our daughters vnto you.

10 And ye shal dwel with vs, and the lande shalbe before you: dwel, and doo your businesse therein, and haue possessions therein.

11 And Sichem sayde vnto her father and vnto her brethren, Let me finde grace in your eyes, and what so euer ye appoynt me, that wyl I geue.

12 Aske freely of me both d dowrie and gyftes, and I wyl geue accordyng as ye say vnto me, so that ye geue me the damsel to wyfe.

13 But the sonnes of Iacob answeared to Sichem and Hemor his father, talkyng amongst them selues deceytfully: because he had defiled Dina their sister.

14 And they sayde vnto them, We can not doo this thyng, that we shoulde geue our sister to one that is e vncircumcised: for that were an abomination vnto vs.

15 But in this wyl we consent vnto you: yf ye wyl be as we be, and all the "males amongst you be f circumcised:

16 Then wyll we geue our daughters vnto you, and take your daughters to vs, and wyll dwell with you, and be one people.

"humbled.

"to her hart.

a. This was through great greefe, and not that he mynded reuengement.
b. A godly father would first haue seene his sonne corrected.

c. This proueth that the consent of parentes is requisite in mariage, seeing the very infidels did obserue it wisely.

d. The Hebrue woorde signifieth that which was geuen to a mayde in recompence of her virginitie.

e. Religion is rather a preparation for them to receiue the thyng agreed.

f. Thereby he vnderstandeth, that the holy signe receiued auayleth nothyng, without the partakers harty

17 But and if ye wyl not hearken vnto vs to be circumcised, then wyl we take our daughter, and goe our wayes.

18 Their wordes pleased Hemor, and Sichem his sonne.

19 And the young man deferde not for to doo the thyng, because he had a lust to Iacobs daughter: he was also most set by of al that was in his fathers house.

20 Then Hemor and Sichem his sonne, went vnto the g gate of their citie, and communed with the men of their citie, saying, 21 These men lyue peaceablie among vs, and dwel in the lande, and doo their occupation therein: and beholde, the lande is large ynough for them, we wyl take their daughters to wyues, and geue them our daughters.

22 Onely herein wyl they consent vnto vs, for to dwel with vs, and to be one people: If al the males that are among vs be circumcised, as they are circumcised.

23 Shal not their goodes and their substaunce, and al their cattel h be ours? let vs onely consent vnto them, and they wyll dwel with vs.

24 And vnto Hemor and Sichem his sonne hearkened all that went out at the gate of the citie: and all the males were circumcised, what so euer went out of the gate of his citie.

25 And the thyrde day whyles they were sore, two of the sonnes of Iacob, Simeon, and Leui, Dinas i brethren, tooke either of them his swoorde, and went into the citie boldely, and slue al the males, 26 And slue also Hemor and k Sichem his sonne, with the edge of the swoord, and tooke Dina out of Sichems house, & went their way.

27 And the sonnes of Iacob commyng vpon the "dead, l spoyled the citie, because they had defiled their sister, 28 And tooke their sheepe, oxen, and their asses, and what so euer was in the citie, and also in the fieldes.

29 And al their goodes, and al their chyldren, & their wyues, tooke they captiue, and made hauocke of al that was in the house.

30 But Iacob sayde to Simeon and Leui, Ye haue troubled me, and made me to "be abhorred of the inhabitours of the lande of the Chananite and the Pherezite: and I being fewe in number, they shall gether them selues togeather against me, and slay me, and so shal I and my house be destroyed.

31 And they answeared, Should m he deale with our sister as with an harlot?

g Common assembles and iudgementes were then in the gates of cities.

h Buyl magistrates pretend a common wealth, and yet all is but for their owne gaine.

i Thus were capteynes of the bande.

k The magistrates sinne is punished vpon al the people.

l The vncleane.

m God wonderfully kepte al men vnderfoote, howe euer he be iuste to al vncleannesse.

n So fyercely. m. They foolyshly deteste suche barbarous cruelnesse, done without authoritie vpon so slender occasion, vnder godly pretence, to the confusing of the godly.

9 Thirteen Chapter.

1. Iacob at Gods commaundement goeth vp to Bethel, and burieth his images vnder an okt. 16. Rachel dyeth in trauayle of Benamin.

1 AND a God sayde vnto Iacob, Aryse, and get thee vp to Bethel, and dwell there: and make there an aulter vnto God, that appeared vnto thee when thou fleddest from the face of Esau thy brother.

2 Then sayde Iacob vnto his householde, and to all that were with hym, b Put away the strange goddes that are among you, and be cleane, and change your garmentes.

3 For we wyl aryse and goe vp to Bethel, and I wyl make an aulter there vnto God, which heard me in the day of my affliction, and was with me in the way which I went.

4 And they gaue vnto Iacob al the c strange goddes which they had in their hande, and all their earerynges which were in their eares, and Iacob hyde them vnder an okr which was by Sichem.

5 And when they departed, the feare of God fel vpon the cities that were rounde about them, and they dyd not pursue the sonnes of Iacob.

6 So came Iacob to Luza, which is in the lande of Chanaan (the same is Bethel) he and al the people that was with hym.

7 And he d buylded there an aulter, & called the place, The God of Bethel: because that God appeared vnto him there when he fled from the face of his brother.

8 But Debora Rebeccas nurse dyed, and was buried beneath Bethel vnder an okr: and the name of it was called, The "okr of lamentation.

9 And God appeared vnto Iacob agayne, after he came out of Mesopotamia, and e blessed hym.

10 And God sayde vnto hym, Thy name is Iacob: notwithstanding thou shalt be no more called Iacob, but Israel shal be thy name. And he called his name Israel.

11 And God sayde vnto hym, I am God almightie, be fruitefol, and multiplie: a nation, and f a multitude of nations shal spring of ther, yea and kynges shal come out of thy loynes.

12 And the lande which I gaue Abraham and Isahac, wyl I geue vnto ther, and vnto thy seede after thee wyl I geue that land also.

13 And so God departed from hym, in the place where he had talked with hym.

14 And Iacob set vp an ende in the place where he talked with hym, euen a stone set

25 And the sonnes of Bilha Rachels handmayde: Dan and Nephthali.

26 And the sonnes of Zilpha Leas handmayde: Gad and Aser. These are the sonnes of Jacob: whiche were borne hym in Mesopotamia.

27 And so Jacob came d vnto Isahac his father, to Mamre, vnto Kiriath-arba, / whiche is Hebron, where Abraham and Isahac dwelt.

28 And the dayes of Isahac were an hundred and foure score yeeres.

29 And Isahac perished away, and died, and was layde vnto his people, beyng olde and full of dayes: and his sonnes Esau and e Jacob buried hym.

The xxxvi. Chapter.

2. The wyues of Esau. 3. Jacob and Esau are reconciled. 8. Esau departeth from Iacob, & dwelleth in mount Seir. 9. The pedigree of Esau.

1 These are the generations of Esau, the same is Edom.

2 Esau toke his wiues of the daughters of Chanaan: a Ada the daughter of Elon an Hethite, and Aholibama the daughter of Ana the daughter of Sibeon, an Heuite:

3 And Basemath Ismaels daughter, and sister of Nebaioth.

4 And b Ada bare vnto Esau Eliphaz: and Basemath bare Reuuel. b 1. Cro. 1. 19

5 And Aholibama bare Iehus, and Ialam, and Coah. These are the sonnes of Esau, whiche were borne hym in the lande of Chanaan.

6 And Esau toke his wyues, and his sonnes and daughters, and all the soules of his house, his goodes and al his cattell, and all his substance which he had got in the lande of Chanaan, and went into a countrey away from the face of his brother Jacob.

7 For their riches was muche, and they coulde not dwell together: and the lande wherein they were straungers coulde not receyue them, because of their possessions.

8 Thus dwelt Esau c in mount Seir, the same Esau is Edom. c. It is lyke that he came thether when Jacob came from Mesopotamia, and came after his father Isahac, returnyng thyther altogether. Augus.

9 These are the generations of Esau, father of the Edomites in mount Seir.

10 And these are the names of Esaus sonnes: Eliphas the sonne of Ada the wyfe of Esau, and Reuuel the sonne of Basemath the wyfe of Esau.

11 And the sonnes of Eliphas, were Theman, Omar, Sephe, and Gathem, and Cenaz.

12 And Thomna was concubyne to Eliphas Esaus sonne, and bare vnto Eliphas Amalec: and these be the sonnes of Ada Esaus wyfe.

13 And these are the sonnes of Reuuel: Nahath, and Serah, Samma, and Mosa: these were the d sonnes of Basemath Esaus wyfe. d. These were her sonnes children.

14 And these were the sonnes of Aholibama the daughter of Ana, daughter of Sebeon Esaus wyfe: and she bare vnto Esau, Iahus, and Ialam, and Coah.

15 These were e dukes of the sonnes of Esau. f The children of Eliphas the fyrst borne sonne of Esau were these. e. Or, Princes.

16 Duke Theman, duke Omar, duke Sephe, duke Cenez, and duke Cozah, duke Gatham, and duke Amalec: these are the dukes that came of Eliphas in the land of Edom, & these were the sonnes of Ada. f. The Hebrue also of Esaus sonnes, most wyll be worthy. g. The Hebrue woorde signifieth hym that hath a thousand vnder hym

17 These also are the children of Reuuel Esaus sonne: duke Nahath, duke Serah, duke Samma, duke Mosa. These are the dukes that came of Reuuel in the lande of Edom: and these are the sonnes of Basemah Esaus wyfe.

18 These were the children of Aholibama Esaus wyfe: duke Iehus, duke Ialam, duke Coah: these dukes came of Aholibama the daughter of Ana Esaus wyfe.

19 Theſe are the children of Eſau, and theſe are the dukes of them: which Eſau is * Edom.
20 Theſe are the children of Seir the Horite, the inhabitantes of the lande: Lotan, and Sobal, and Sebeon, and Ana,
21 And Diſon, and Eſer, and Diſan: theſe are the dukes of the Horites, the children of Seir in the lande of Edom.
22 And the children of Lotan, were Hori, and Heman: and Lotans ſiſter was called Thimna.
23 The children of Sobal were theſe: Alnan, and Manahath, and Ebal, Sepho, and Onam.
24 Theſe are the children of Sebeon, both Aia and Ana: this was that Ana that founde * Mules in the wildernes as he fedde her father Sebeons aſſes.
25 The children of Ana were theſe: Diſon, and Aholibama the daughter of Ana.
26 Theſe are the children of Diſon: Hemdan, and Eſban, and Jethran, and Cheran.
27 The children of Eſer are theſe: Bilhan, and Saauan, and Acan.
28 The children of Diſan alſo are theſe: Uz, and Aran.
29 Theſe are the dukes that came of the Horites: duke Lotan, duke Sobal, duke Sebeon, duke Ana,
30 Duke Diſon, duke Eſer, duke Diſan: theſe be the dukes that came of Hori after their dukedomes, in the lande of Seir.
31 Theſe are the kinges that raigned in the lande of Edom, before there raigned any kyng vpon the children of Iſrael.
32 Bela the ſonne of Beor raigned in Edom: and the name of his citie was Dinhabah.
33 And when Bela died, Jobab the ſonne of Serah out of Boſra raigned in his ſtede.
34 When Jobab alſo was dead, Huſam of the land of * Temani raigned in his ſtead.
35 And after the death of Huſam, * Hadad the ſonne of Bedad, whiche ſlue the Madianites in the fielde of the Moabites, raigned in his ſtede: and the name of his citie was Anith.
36 When Hadad was dead, Samlah of Maſrecah raigned in his ſtede.
37 When Samlah was dead, Saul of the riuer of * Aehoboth raigned in his ſtede.
38 When Saul was dead, Baal-hanan the ſonne of Achbor raigned in his ſtede.
39 And after the death of Baal-hanan the ſonne of Achbor, Hadar raigned in his ſtede: and the name of his citie was Pau, and his wyues name Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Mezahab.
40 Theſe are the * names of the dukes that came of Eſau, according to their kynredes, places, and names: duke Timna, duke Aliah, duke Jetheth,

The xxxvii. Chapter.

Ioſeph telleth his dreames, and is hated of his brethren. 34 Iacob being perſwaded that his ſonne Ioſeph was dead, bewayleth hym.

1 IAcob dwelt in the lande wherein his father was a ſtranger, in the lande of Chanaan.
2 Theſe are the * generations of Iacob: when Ioſeph was ſeuenteene yeres old, he kept Sheepe with his brethren, and the lad was with the ſonnes of Bilha, and with the ſonnes of Zilpha, his fathers wyues: and Ioſeph brought vnto his father * their euil reporte.
3 But Iſrael loued Ioſeph more then all his children, becauſe he begate hym in his * olde age: and he made hym a coate of many * colours.
4 And when his brethren ſawe that their father loued him more then all his brethren, they hated hym, & couldē not ſpeake peaceably vnto hym.
5 Moreouer, when Ioſeph * had dreamed a dreame, he tolde it his brethren, whiche hated hym yet the more.
6 And he ſayd vnto them, Heare I pray you this dreame whiche I haue dreamed.
7 Beholde, we were bynding theaues in the fielde, and loe, my theafe aroſe, and ſtoode vpright, and beholde, your theaues ſtoode rounde about, and made obeyſaunce to my theafe.
8 To whom his brethren ſayde, Shalt thou be a kyng in deede ouer vs? or ſhalt thou in deede haue dominion ouer vs? * And they hated hym yet the more, becauſe of his dreames, and of his wordes.
9 And he dreamed yet another dreame, and tolde it his brethren, ſaying, Beholde, I haue had one dreame more, and beholde, the Sunne, and the Moone, and eleuen Starres made obeyſaunce vnto me.
10 And when he had tolde it to his father and his brethren, his father rebuked hym, and ſayde vnto hym, What is this dreame that thou haſt dreamed? Shall * I and thy 11 And his brethren envied hym: but his father noted the saying.

12 His brethren also went to kepe his fathers cattel in Sichem.

13 And Israel sayde vnto Ioseph, Doo not thy brethren kepe in Sichem? come, and I wyll sende thee to them.

14 He answered, Here I am. And he sayde vnto hym, Goe, I pray thee, see whether it be wel with thy brethren and the cattel, and bryng me woorde agayne. And so he sent him out of the vale of Hebron, and he came to Sichem.

15 And a certayne man founde hym, and beholde, he was wandring out of his way in the feelde, and the man asked hym, What seekest thou?

16 He answered, I seeke my g brethren: tel me, I pray thee, where they kepe cattel.

17 And the man sayde, They are departed hence: for I haue heard them say, Let vs goe vnto Dothan. Thus went Ioseph after his brethren, and founde them in Dothan.

18 And when they sawe him a farre of, before he came at them, they tooke counsel against hym h for to slea hym:

19 For one sayde to another, Behold, this "notable dreamer commeth.

20 Come nowe therefore and let vs slay him, and i cast him into some pitte, and we wyl say, some noughty beast hath deuoured hym: and we shal see what wyll come of his dreames.

21 When Ruben hearde that, he rydde him out of their handes, and sayde, Let vs not "kyl hym.

22 And Ruben sayde moreouer vnto them, Shedde no blood, but cast him into this pit that is in the wyldernesse, and lay no hande vpon hym, that he sayde, that he might rydde hym out of theyr handes, and deliuer hym to his father agayne.

23 And when Ioseph was come vnto his brethren, they stript him out of his coate, his parted coloured coate that was vppon hym.

24 And they tooke hym and k cast him in to an empte pitte, wherein was no water.

25 And they sate l them downe to eate bread: and as they lyft vp theyr eyes and looked about, beholde, there came a companie of Ismaelites from Gilead: and theyr Camels laden with spiceries, baulme, and myrche, and were going downe to carry it to Egypt.

26 And Iuda sayd vnto his brethren, What m auayleth it if we slay our brother, and keepe his blood secrete?

27 Come on, and let vs sell him to the Ismaelites, and let not our handes be vppon him: for he is our brother, and our flesh. And his brethren were content.

28 Then as the Madianites marchant men passed by, they drue and lyft Ioseph out of the pitte, and solde hym vnto the Ismaelites for twentie peeces of syluer: And they brought Ioseph into Egypt.

29 Then Ruben came agayne vnto the pit, and beholde, Ioseph was not in the pitte: then he rent his clothes.

30 And went agayne vnto his brethren, saying, The ladde is not yonder, wo is me, whether shal I goe?

31 And they tooke Iosephes coate, and killed a kidde, and dipped the coate in the blood, 32 And they sent that partie coloured coate, and caused it to be brought vnto theyr father, and sayde, This haue we founde, see whether it be thy sonnes coate, or no.

33 And he knewe it, saying, It is my sonnes coate, a noughtie beast hath deuoured hym, Ioseph is without doubt rent in peeces.

34 And Iacob rent his clothes, & put sackecloth about his loynes, and mourned for his sonne a long season.

35 But al his sonnes and all his daughters rose vp to comfort hym: neuertheles n he wouldne not be comforted, but sayde, I wyll goe downe into the graue vnto my sonne, mourning. And thus his father wept for hym.

¶ The xxxviii. Chapter.

The marriage of Iuda. 7. The trespasse of Er and Onan, and the vengeance of GOD that came therefore.

1 ABout that tyme "Iuda went downe from his brethren, and gate hym to a man called Hirah, of Odollam,

2 And there he sawe a the daughter of a man called Sua, a Chananite: and he tooke her, and went in to her.

3 And she conceyued, and bare a sonne, and called his name Er.

4 And she conceyued agayne, and bare a sonne, and called him Onan.

5 And she conceyued agayne, and bare yet a sonne, whom she called Selah: and he was at b Chezib when she bare hym.

6 And Iuda c gaue Er his first borne sonne a wyfe, whose name was Thamar.

19 Thus wyl I execute my iudgementes in Egypt, and they shal know how that I am the Lorde.

20 And in the f eleuenth yeere, vppon the seuenth day of the fyrst moneth, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying, 21 Thou sonne of man, I haue g broken the arme of Pharao king of Egypt: and lo, it shal not be bound vp to be healed, to put a roller to bind it, to make it strong to holde the swoord.

22 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I wyl vpon Pharao king of Egypt, and breake his arme that was strong, but is broken: and I wyl cause the swoord to fal out of his hand.

23 As for h Egyptians I wyll scatter them among the nations, and strawe them in the landes about.

24 Agayne, I wyll strengthen the arme of the king of Babylon, & geue him my swoord in his hand, but I wyll breake Pharaos armes, and he shall grone the grones of a deadly wounded man before him.

25 Yea, I wyll strengthen the king of Babylons arme, and the armes of Pharao shal fal downe: and they shal knowe that I am the Lord, when I shal i geue my swoord into the hand of the king of Babylon, that he may stretche it out vppon the landes of Egypt.

26 And I wyll scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and strawe them in the landes about: and they shall knowe that I am the Lorde.

¶ The xxxi Chapter.

1. A comparison of the prosperitie of Pharao with the prosperitie of the Assyrians. 10. He prophesieth a like destruction to them both.

1 MOreouer, in the a eleuenth yeere, the first day of þ third moneth, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

2 Thou sonne of Man, speake vnto Pharao king of Egypt, & al his people, Whom art thou b like in thy greatnesse?

3 Beholde, Assur is a Cedar in Libanon, with fayre branches, and with thicke shadowing boughes of a high stature, and his toppe was among the thicke bowes.

4 The waters made him great, and the deepe set him vp on high, with the ryuers runnyng rounde about his plantes, and sent out her c little ryuers vnto all the trees of the feelde.

5 Therefore was he higher then al the trees of the feelde, and his bowes were multiplied, and his branches were long, because of the multitude of þ waters which he the deepe sent out.

6 All foules of the 'ayre made their nestes in his branches, vnder his boughes dyd all the beastes of the feelde bring foorth their young, and vnder his shadowe dwell all mighty nations.

7 Beautifull was he in his greatnesse, and in the length of his branches: for his roote stoode beside great waters.

8 No Cedar tree might d hyde him in the garden of God, there was no Fyre tree like his branches, the Chestnut trees were not like the boughes of him: all the trees in the garden of God might not be compared vnto him in his beautie.

9 I made him fayre with the multitude of his branches: insomuch that all the trees in the pleasant garden of God had enuie at him.

10 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, For so much as he hath lifte vp him selfe so high, and hath shot vp his toppe among the thicke boughes, and his hart is lyft vp in his heyght:

11 I haue therefore deliuered him into the handes of the e mightyest among the heathen: he shall handle him, for in his wickednesse haue I cast him away.

12 And strangers haue destroyed him, euen the terrible nations, and haue left him vpon the mountaynes, and vpon all valleyes haue his boughes fallen, and his boughes are f broken by al the riuers in the lande: and all the people of the earth are departed from his shadowe, and haue forsaken him.

13 Vpon his ruine shall all the foules of the 'ayre remayne, and all the beastes of the feelde shalbe vpon his branches.

14 So that none of al the trees by the waters shalbe exalted in their height, nor shoote vp their toppes among the thicke boughes, neyther shall their trees stande in their height, as many of them as drinke water: for they are all deliuered vnto death in the nether parts of the earth, in the middes of the children of men, among them that goe downe to the pit.

15 Thus sayth the Lorde God, In the day when he went downe to þ graue, I caused a lamentation to be made, I g couered the deepe for him, I restrayned the floodes

¶ The.xxxii. Chapter.

1. The Prophet is commaunded to bewayle Pharao king of Egypt. 12. He propheseith that destruction shal come vnto Egypt through the king of Babylon.

In the a twelfth yeere, the fyrst day of the twelfth moneth, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

2 Thou sonne of man, take vp a lamentation vpon Pharao the kyng of Egypt, and say vnto hym, Thou art b lyke a Lion of the heathen, c as a Whale fyshe in the sea: thou walwest out thy ryuers, thou c troublest the waters with thy feete, and stampest in their ryuers.

3 Thus sayth the Lorde God, I wyl spreade my net ouer thee with a great multitude of people, these shal make thee come vp into my net.

4 For I wyll leaue thee vpon the lande, and cast thee vpon the open feelde, and I wyl cause al the foules of the ayre to remayne vpon thee, and fyl al the beastes of the feeld with thee.

5 Thy flesh wyl I lay vpon the hylles, and fyl the valleys with thy d hyghnesse.

6 I wyl e water thyne ouerflowyng lande with thy blood, euen to the mountaynes, and the ryuers shalbe ful of thee.

7 When thou art put out, I wyll couer the heauen, and make his starres dymme: I wyll spread a cloude ouer the Sunne, and the Moone shal not geue her lyght.

8 All the lyghtes of heauē wil I make darke for thee: and bryng darknes vpon thy land, sayth the Lorde.

9 I wyl stirre vp to anger the hartes of many people, when I bryng thy destruction among the heathen, and vpon the countreyes whiche thou knowest not.

10 Yea I wyll make many people amased at thee, g their kynges shalbe astonyshed with feare for thee, when I shall make my swoord to glytter agaynst their faces: and they shalbe afrayde at euery moment, euery man for his owne lyfe, in the day of thy fal.

11 For thus sayth the Lord God, The kyng of Babylons swoorde shal come vpon thee:

12 With the swoordes of the myghtie wyll I smyte downe thy multitude, they all shalbe terrible nations, and they shall destroy the f pompe of Egypt, and the multitude therof shalbe consumed.

13 I wyll destroy also all the beastes therof from the great waters sydes, neyther shal the foote of man trouble them any more, nor the hooues of beastes trouble them.

14 Then wil I make their waters g depe, and cause their ryuers to runne like h oyle, sayth the Lorde.

15 When I make the lande of Egypt desolate, and when the country with all that is therein shalbe layde waste, and when I smyte al them whiche dwel in it, then shall they knowe that I am the Lorde.

16 This is the mourning when they shall lament her, The daughters of the nations shall lament her, they shall make the lamentation ouer Egypt, and ouer al the people therof, sayth the Lorde.

17 In the twelfth yeere, the fyfteenth day of the moneth, came the woorde of the Lorde vnto me, saying,

18 Thou sonne of man, lament for the multitude of Egypt, and i cast them downe, euen them, k the daughters of the famous nations, to the neather partes of the earth, with them that goe downe into the pyt.

19 Whom doest thou passe in k beauty, goe downe and sleepe with the vncircumcised.

20 Among those that be slayne with the swoorde shal they lye, to the swoorde is l she alredy deliuered: drawe her downe, and al her multitude.

21 The m myghtie woorthies shall speake to her out of the myddest of hell, and to her helpers: they are gone downe and sleepe with the vncircumcised that be slayne with the swoorde.

22 Assur is there also with al his company, and their graues round about hym, whiche were slayne and fel al with the swoorde:

in the lande of the lyuyng.

24 There is Elam alſo, with all his people rounde about his graue, whiche al being ſlayne and fallen with the ſwoꝛde, are gone doꝛwne vncircumciſed vnder the earth, whiche neuertheleſſe ſometyme bought feare into the lande of the a lyuyng: they beare their owne ſhame, with the other that be gone doꝛwne to the graue.

a. They whiche being aliue were a terrour toal the world, nowe beyng dead, are deſpiſed both of the lyuyng and the dead.

25 They haue made his bedde in the myddeſt of the ſlayne, with al his multitude, their graues are rounde about hym: al theſe vncircumciſed ſlayne by the ſwoꝛde, although they cauſed their feare in the lande of the lyuyng, yet haue they boꝛne their ſhame with them that goe doꝛwne to the pit, they are layde in the myddeſt of them that are ſlayne.

26 There is b Meſech alſo and Tubal, and their people, and their graues round about hym: theſe all vncircumciſed were ſlayne with the ſwoꝛde, becauſe aforetyme they made the lande of the lyuyng afrayde.

b. That is, the Capadocians, & Italians, or Spaynyardes, Ioſephus wryteth.

29 There is Edom with her kynges and pꝛinces alſo, which with their ſtrength are layde by them that were ſlayne with the ſwoꝛde: yea among the vncircumciſed ſhal they ſleepe, and with them whiche are gone doꝛwne into the pyt.

30 Moꝛeouer, there be al the pꝛinces of the d Noꝛth, with al the Sidonians, whiche are gone doꝛwne with the ſlaine: with their feare and ſtrength they are come to confuſion, & lye there vncircumciſed among thoſe that be ſlayne with the ſwoꝛde, and beare their owne ſhame with them that be gone doꝛwne to the pyt.

d. That is, the kynges of Babylon.

31 Pharao ſhal ſee them, and be e comfoꝛted ouer all his multitude: Pharao and all his armie ſhalbe ſlayne with the ſwoꝛd, ſayth the Lorde God,

e. Lyke as the wicked reioyce when they ſee other partakers of their miſeries.

32 Foꝛ I haue geuen my feare f in the land of the lyuyng: but Pharao and al his people ſhalbe layde among the vncircumciſed, and among them that be ſlayne with the ſwoꝛde, ſayth the Lorde God.

f. I wil make the Egyptians to feare me, as they haue cauſed other to feare them.

1 AGayne, the woꝛde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſaying,

2 Thou ſonne of man, ſpeake to the chyldren of thy people, and tel them, When I ſend a ſwoꝛd vpon a land, yf the people of the land take a man of their coaſtes, and ſet hym to be their a watchman:

a. Heb. their watchman.

3 Yf when he ſeeth the ſwoꝛd come vpon the land, he ſhal blowe the trumpet, and warne the people:

4 Then he that heareth the noyſe of the trumpet, and wyll not be warned, and the ſwoꝛde come and take hym away, his blood ſhalbe vpon his owne head.

5 Foꝛ he heard the ſounde of the trumpet, and would not be warned, therefoꝛe his blood be vpon hym: but he that receyueth warnyng, he ſhal ſaue his lyfe.

6 Agayne, yf the watchman ſee the ſwoꝛde come, and blow not the trumpet, ſo that the people is not warned: yf the ſwoꝛde come then, and take any man from among them: the ſame ſhalbe b taken away in his owne ſinne, but his blood wyl I requyre at the watchmans hande.

b. Heb. taken in his iniquitie.

7 And thou, O ſonne of man, I haue made thee a watchman vnto the houſe of Iſrael: therefoꝛe thou ſhalt heare the woꝛd at c my mouth, & thou ſhalt warne them from me.

c. Heb. mouth.

8 Yf I ſay vnto the wycked, Thou wicked, thou ſhalt ſurely dye, and thou ſpeakeſt not to admonyſhe the wycked of his way: that wycked man ſhal dye in his owne ſinne, but his blood wyl I requyre at thy hande.

9 Neuertheleſſe, yf thou warne the wycked of his way to turne from it, and he yet wyll not be turned from his way: then ſhall he dye in his iniquitie, but thou haſt deliuered thy ſoule.

10 Therefoꝛe, O thou ſonne of man, ſpeake vnto the houſe of Iſrael, yea ſay thus, Yf our offences and ſinnes lye vpon vs, and we be conſumed in them, d howe ſhoulde we then lyue?

d. Heb. how ſhoulde we liue.

11 Tel them, As truely as I lyue, ſayth the Lorde God, I haue no pleaſure in the death of the wycked, but muche rather that the wycked turne from his way, and lyue: Turne you, turne you from your wycked wayes, foꝛ why wyl ye dye, O ye of the houſe of Iſrael?

12 Therefoꝛe thou ſonne of man, tel the chyldren of thy people, The ryghteouſneſſe of of the ryghteous shal not saue hym in the day of his iniquitie: agayne the wickednesse of the wycked shal not ouerthrowe hym of it, in the day that he returneth from his wickednesse: neyther shal the ryghteous lyue for his ryghteousnesse in the day that he sinned.

13 If I say vnto the ryghteous, He shal surely lyue, & so he trust to his owne ryghteousnesse, and doo sinne: then shall his righteousnesse be no more thought vpon, but in his wickednesse that he hath done, in it he shal dye.

14 Agayne, if I say vnto the wicked, Thou shalt surely dye: and so he turne from his sinnes, and f doo the thing that is lawful and right, 15 In summe that the same wycked man geueth the pledge agayne, restoreth that he had taken away by robberie, walketh in the commaundementes of lyfe, and doeth none iniquitie: then shal he surely lyue, and not dye.

16 None of the sinnes that he hath committed shalbe mentioned vnto hym: for inasmuche as he doeth nowe the thyng that is lawful and ryght, he shal lyue.

17 And yet the chyldren of thy people say, The way of the Lorde is not equal: but their owne way is rather vnequal.

18 When the ryghteous turneth from his righteousnesse, and doeth the thing that is wycked, he shal dye therein.

19 But if the wicked turne from his wickednesse, dooing the thing that is lawful and right, he shal lyue therefore.

20 Yet ye say, The way of the Lorde is not equal: O ye house of Israel, I wyl iudge euery one of you after his wayes.

21 In the twelfth yeere, the fifth day of the tenth moneth of our g captiuitie, one which was escaped out of Hierusalem came vnto me, and sayde, The citie is smitten.

22 Nowe the h hande of the Lorde had ben vpon me the euening afore this man which was escaped came vnto me, and had i opened my mouth, vntyl the morowe that he came to me: yea my mouth was opened, so that I was no more dumbe.

23 Then came the woorde of the Lorde vnto me, and sayde, 24 Thou sonne of man, these that dwel in the wasted lande of Israel talke and say, Abraham was but one man and he had the lande in possession: nowe are we many, and the lande is geuen vs to possesse also.

25 And therefore tel them, thus sayth the Lorde God, In the blood haue ye eaten, your eyes haue ye lyft vp to idols, and haue shed blood: shal ye then haue the lande in possession?

26 Ye l leane vpon your swoordes, ye worke abominations, euery one defyleth his neyghbours wyfe: and shal ye possesse the lande?

l. As they that are redy styl to shedde blood.

27 Say thou thus vnto them, thus sayth the Lorde God, As truely as I lyue, they that are in the desolate places shall fall by the swoorde, and him that is in the open feelde, wil I geue vnto the beastes to be deuoured: and they that be in the strong holdes and dennes shal dye of the pestilence.

28 For I wyl make the lande desolate and waste, that the pompe of her strength shall ceasse: the mountaynes of Israel shalbe so waste, that no man shal trauayle thereby.

29 Then shal they knowe that I am the Lorde, when I make the land desolate and waste, because of their abominations that they haue wrought.

30 And thou sonne of man, the chyldren of thy people that talke of thee by the waters and in the doores of their houses, & speake one to another, euery one to his brother, saying, Come I pray you, let vs heare what woorde is gone foorth from the Lorde:

31 They come vnto thee as the people vseth to come, and my people sit before thee and heare thy woordes, but they doo not thereafter: for in their mouthes they make a m iest of them, and their hart goeth after their couetousnesse.

m. This declareth that we ought to heare Gods worde with such zeale and affection, that we should not only delyght therein to heare it preached, but also in all poynctes obey it: els we abuse the worde to our owne condempnation, and make of the ministers as though they were iestes to serue mens fantasies.

32 And loe, thou art vnto them as a n iesting song of one that hath a pleasant voyce and can syng wel: for they heare thy woordes, but doo them not.

n. Or a song of pastime and pleasure.

33 When this commeth to passe (loe it commeth) then shal they knowe that there hath ben a prophete among them.

¶ The. xxxiiii. Chapter.

Agaynst shepheardes that despise the flocke of Christ, and seeke their owne gayne.

1 And the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

2 *Thou sonne of man, prophesie agaynst the shepheardes of Israel, prophesie and speake vnto them, Thus sayth the Lorde God vnto the shepheardes, Woe be vnto the a shepheardes of Israel that feede them selues: shoulde not the shepheardes feede the flockes?

*Ierr. 23. 1.

a. By the shepheardes he meaneth the kyng, the magistrates, priestes, and prophetes.

3 Ye eate vp the fatte, ye clothe you with the wool, the best feede doo ye slay: but the flocke doo ye not feede.

4 The weake haue ye not strengthened, the sicke haue ye not healed, the broken haue ye not bounde togeather, the driuen away haue ye not brought againe, the loſt haue ye not ſought: but with force & cruelnie haue ye ruled them.

5 They are ſcattered without a ſhepheard, yea all the beaſtes of the feelde b deuoure them, and they goe aſtray.

6 My ſheepe goe wandryng vpon al mountaynes, and vpon euery high hyl, yea my flocke is ſcattered through al the face of the earth, and there is no man that ſeeketh or ſearcheth after them.

7 Therefore, O ye ſhepheardes heare the worde of the Lorde.

8 As truely as I lyue, ſayth the Lorde God, for as muche as my ſheepe are robbed and deuoured of all the wylde beaſtes of the feelde, hauing no ſhephearde, and ſeeyng that my ſhepheardes ſeeke not my ſheepe, but the ſhepheardes feede them ſelues, and feede not my ſheepe:

9 Therefore heare the worde of the Lorde, O ye ſhepheardes,

10 Thus ſayth the Lorde God, Beholde, I wyl vpon the ſhepheardes, and requyre my ſheepe from their handes, and make them ceaſſe from feeding of the ſheepe, yea the ſhepheards ſhal feede them ſelues no more: for I wyl c deliuer my ſheepe out of their mouthes, ſo that they ſhal not deuoure them after this.

11 For thus ſayth the Lorde God, Beholde, I, euen I wyl looke to my ſheepe mee ſelfe, and ſeeke them out.

12 Like as a ſhephearde when he hath ben among the flocke, ſeeketh after the ſheepe that are ſcattered abrode: euen ſo wyll I ſeeke after my ſheepe, and deliuer them out of al places where they haue ben ſcattered in the d cloudie and darke day.

13 I wyl bryng them out from the people, and gather them together out of the landes, I wyl bryng them into their owne land, and feede them vpon the mountaynes of Iſrael by the ryuers, and in al the inhabited places of the countrey.

14 I wyl feede them in right good paſtures, and vpon the hygh mountaynes of Iſrael ſhal their folde be: there ſhal they lye in a good folde, and in a fat paſture ſhal they feede, euen vpon the mountaynes of Iſrael.

15 I wyl feede my ſheepe, and bryng them to their reſt, ſayth the Lorde God.

16 Suche as be loſt, wyl I ſeeke: ſuche as are driuen away, wyl I bryng agayne: ſuche as be broken, wyl I binde vp: ſuche as be weake, wyl I make ſtrong: ſuche as be fat and ſtrong, thoſe wyl I roote out, & feede them with e iudgement.

17 And as for you, O my ſheepe, ſayth the Lorde God, I wyl iudge betweene catel and catel, betweene the rammes and the goates.

18 Seemeth it a ſmal thyng to you to haue eaten vp the good f paſture, and to treade downe the reſidue of your paſture with your feete alſo? to dryncke the deepe waters, and to trouble the reſt alſo with your feete?

19 Thus my ſheepe muſt be fayne to eate the thyng that ye haue troden downe with your feete, and to dryncke it that ye with your feete haue defiled.

20 Therfore thus ſayth the Lorde God vnto them, Behold, I euen I wil iudge betweene the fatte catel and the leane catel, 21 For ſomuche as with ſide and ſhoulder ye haue ſhoued, and with your hornes haue puſhed al the weake, tyl ye haue ſcattered them abrode.

22 I wyl ſaue my ſheepe, ſo that they ſhall no more be ſpoyled, yea I wyl iudge betweene catel and catel.

23 *I wyl ſet vp ouer them a ſhephearde, and he ſhal feede them, euen my ſeruaunt g Dauid, he ſhal feede them, and he ſhalbe their ſhephearde.

24 And I the Lorde wyl be their God, and my ſeruaunt Dauid ſhalbe their prince: I the Lorde haue ſpoken it.

25 Moreouer, I wyl make a couenant of peace with them, and cauſe euyl beaſtes to ceaſſe out of the lande: ſo that they may dwel h ſafely in the wyldernes, and ſleepe in the woods.

26 And I wyl ſet them and a bleſſyng round about my hyl, & I wyl cauſe rayne to come downe in due ſeaſon, and there ſhalbe rayne of bleſſyng.

27 And the tree of the feelde ſhal yeelde her fruite, and the earth ſhal geue her encrealſe: they ſhalbe ſafe in their lande, and ſhall knowe that I am the Lorde, when I haue broken the bondes of their yoke, and deliuered them out of the handes of thoſe that ſerued them ſelues of them.

28 They ſhal no more be ſpoyled of the heathen, nor deuoured with the beaſtes of the lande: but ſafely ſhal they dwel, and no man ſhal fray them.

29 And I wyl rayſe vp from them a plant of renowme, and they ſhalbe no more conſumed with hunger in the lande, neyther beare the reproche of the heathen any more.

30 Thus ſhal they vnderſtande that I the Lorde their God am with them, and that they, euen the houſe of Iſrael, are my people, ſayth the Lorde God:

31 *And ye my ſheepe, the ſheepe of my paſture,

¶ The.xxxv. Chapter.

The destruction that shall come on the mount Seir, that is, on the Idumeans, because they troubled the people of the Lorde.

1 MOreouer, the worde of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

2 Thou sonne of man, set thy face toward the mount a Seir, prophesie against it,

3 And say vnto it, Thus saith the lord God, Behold, O thou mount Seir, I wyl vpon thee, I wyll reache out my hande ouer thee, yea waste and desolate wyl I make thee.

4 Thy cities wyl I laye waste, and thou shalt be waste, that thou mayst know howe that I am the Lorde.

5 For as much as thou hearest anoldy enmitie, and hast put the chyldren of Israel to flye bi the force of the sworde, in the tyme of their calamitie, when their iniquitie had an ende:

6 Therefore as truely as I liue, saith the Lord God, I wyll prepare thee vnto blood, yea blood shal follow vpon thee, except thou hate blood, eue blood shal persecute thee.

7 Thus wyl I make the mount Seir desolate and waste, & cut out from it hym that passeth out, and hym that returneth:

8 His mountaynes wyl I fyl with his slaine men, thy hylles, valleys, and all thy ryuers, the slayne with the sworde shal fal in them.

9 I wyl make thee a perpetual wylderneſſe, so that thy cities shall not returne: that ye may know that I am the Lorde.

10 And because thou hast sayde, Both these nations, and both these landes must be myne, & we wyl haue them in possession, where as the Lorde was there:

11 Therefore as truely as I liue, saythe the Lorde God, I wyll euen doo accordyng to thy wrath, & according to thyne enuying which thou hast vsed in thy hatred against them: and I will make me selfe knowen amongest them, when I haue iudged thee.

12 Yea, and thou shalt knowe that I the Lorde haue heard of thy blaſphemies, whiche thou hast spoken against the mountaines of Israel, saying. They are made waste, and geuen vs to deuoure.

13 Thus with your mouthes ye haue made your boastes against me, yea and multiplied your wordes against me, which I haue heard.

14 Thus sayth the Lorde GOD, To the ioye of all the worlde wyll I make thee waste.

15 And lyke as thou wast glad because the heritage of the house of Israel was destroyed, euen so wyl I doo vnto thee, thou shalt be destroyed, O mount Seir, and all Idumea wholly, and they shal knowe that I am the Lorde.

¶ The.xxxvi. Chapter.

a. The promisith to deliuer Israel from the Gentiles. 22. The benefites doone vnto the Israelites, are to be ascribed to the mercye of God, not vnto their deseruynges.

1 THou sonne of man, prophesie vnto the mountaynes of Israel, & speake, Heare the worde of the Lorde, O ye mountaynes of Israel. *Ezech.6.2.

2 Thus sayth the Lorde God, Because your enimie hath sayde vnto you aha, the high places of the worlde are nowe become ours in possession:

3 Prophesie therefore, and speake, thus sayth the Lorde God, For because that they haue made you desolate, and swallowed you vp on euery syde, that ye my ght be a possession vnto the residue of the Gentiles, and ye are taken vp in the a lippes and tongues of men, and to the reproche of the people:

4 Therefore heare the worde of the Lorde God, O ye mountaynes of Israel, thus sayth the Lorde God to the mountaynes and hils, to the ryuers and valleys, to the waste and desolate places, and to the cities that are forsaken, whiche are spoyled and had in derision on euery syde, among the residue of the heathen:

5 Therefore thus sayth the Lord God, Surely in the fyre of my iealousie haue I spoken against the residue of the Gentiles, and against al Edom, whiche haue b appoynted my lande for their possession, whiche also reioyced from their whole hart with a despyteful stomacke, to cast it out for a pray.

6 Prophesie therefore vpon the lande of Israel, and speake vnto the mountaynes and hylles, to the ryuers and dales, thus sayth the Lord God, Behold, this haue I spoken in my iealousie and terrible wrath, because ye haue borne the c shame of the heathen:

7 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde God, I haue d lyft vp my hande, surely the heathen that are about you, shal beare their shame.

8 But you, O ye mountaynes of Israel, ye shal e shoote out your branches, and bryng forth your fruite to my people of Israel: for they are at hande to come.

g. God declareth his mercy & goodnes towarde his Church, whyle he preserueth his enimies when he destroyeth his enimies.

9 Beholde, I come vnto you, and vnto you wyl I turne, that ye may be tylled & ſowen.
10 I wyll multiplye men vpon you, euen al the houſe of Iſrael wholly, the cities ſhalbe inhabited, and the decayed places ſhalbe repayred agayne.
11 And I wyl multiplye vpon you man and beaſt, which ſhal encreaſe and bryng fruite: and I wyl cauſe you to dwell after your old eſtate, and be better h vnto you then at the begynnyng: and ye ſhal knowe that I am the Lorde.
12 Yea, I wyl cauſe men to walke vpon i you, euen my people Iſrael, and they ſhal poſſeſſe k thee, and thou ſhalt be their inheritaunce, and thou ſhalt no more henceforth bereyue them of men.
13 Thus ſayth the Lorde God, For ſo much as they ſay vnto you, Thou art an l eater vp of men, and a waſter of thy people:
14 Therefore thou ſhalt eate no mo men, neyther deſtroy thy people any more, ſayth the Lorde God:
15 Neither wyl I cauſe men to heare in thee the ſhame of the heathen any more: neyther ſhalt thou beare the repioche of the people any more, nor cauſe the folke to fall any more, ſayth the Lorde God.
16 Moreouer, the woorde of the Lord came vnto me, ſaying,
17 O thou ſonne of man, when the houſe of Iſrael dwelt vpon their owne ground, they defyled them ſelues with their owne wayes and imaginations, ſo that in my ſyght their way was lyke the vncleanneſſe of a remoued woman.
18 Wherefore I powred my wrathful diſpleaſure vpon them, becauſe of the blood that they had ſhed in the lande, & becauſe of their idols wherewith they had defiled it:
19 I ſcattered them alſo among the heathen, ſo that they were ſtrawed about in the landes: according to their wayes, and after their owne inuentions, ſo dyd I iudge them.
20 *And when they entred vnto the heathen whether they went, they polluted my holye name, when they ſayde of them, These are the people of God, and are gone out of his lande.
21 Then ſpared I my holy m name, which the houſe of Iſrael had diſhonoured among the Gentiles where they came.
22 Therefore tell the houſe of Iſrael, thus ſayth the Lord God, I do not this for your ſakes, O houſe of Iſrael, but for my holy names ſake, which ye diſhonoured among the heathen where ye came.
23 Therefore I wyl hallowe my great name agayne, *whiche among the Gentiles is polluted, for ye your ſelues haue diſhonoured it among them: and the Gentiles ſhall knowe that I am the Lord, ſayth the Lorde God, when I ſhalbe ſanctified in you before your eyes.
24 As for you, I wyl take you from among the heathen, and gather you together out of al countreyes, and bryng you agayne into your owne lande.
25 Then wyll I ſprynckle cleane n water vpon you, and ye ſhalbe cleane: yea from al your vncleanneſſe and from al your idols wyl I cleanſe you.
26 A newe hart alſo wyl I geue you, and a newe ſpirite wyl I put into you: as for that ſtonie hart I wyll take it out of your fleſhe, and geue you a fleſhie hart.
27 I wyl geue my ſpirit among you, & cauſe you to walke in my commaundements, and ye ſhall keepe my iudgements, and do them.
28 And ye ſhall dwell in the lande that I gaue to your fathers: and ye ſhalbe my people, and I wyl be your God.
29 I wyl deliuer you from al your vncleanneſſe, I wyl cal for the p corne, and wyl encreaſe it, and lay no famine vpon you.
30 I wyl multiplye the fruites of the trees, and the encreaſe of the fielde, ſo that ye ſhal receyue no more repioche of hunger among the heathen.
31 Then ſhal ye remember your owne wycked wayes, and your imaginations which were not good: ſo that ye ſhalbe q aſhamed in your owne eyes for your ſinnes and abominations.
32 But I wyl not do this for your ſakes, ſayth the Lorde God, be ye ſure of it: therefore, O ye houſe of Iſrael, be aſhamed and confounded of your owne wayes.
33 Moreouer, thus ſayth the Lorde God, What time as I ſhall cleanſe you from all your iniquities, then wyl I make the cities to be inhabited againe, and the places that be decayed ſhalbe repayred.
34 The deſolate lande ſhalbe tylled againe, whiche afore time lay waſte in the ſyght of al them that went by.
35 And they ſhall ſay, This waſte lande was lyke the garden of Eden: and the waſte and deſolate and ruinous cities were ſtrong and inhabited.
36 Then the reſidue of the heathen that ye rounde about you, ſhal knowe that I the Lorde r repayre that was broken downe, & plante agayne that that was made waſte: euen I the Lorde haue ſpoken it, and wyll doo it in deede.
37 Thus ſayth the Lord God, Yet wyl I for this be ſought of the houſe of Iſrael to doo

The xxxvii. Chapter.

The prophesieth the bryngyng agayne of the people beyng in captyuitie. 16. He sheweth the vnion of the two tribes vnder one kyng.

1 THe hande of the Lorde was vpon me, and caryed me out in the spirite of the Lorde, and set me downe in the middest of a playne feelde that was ful of a bones.

2 And he led me rounde about by them, and beholde there was very many in the open feelde, and lo they were very dyre.

3 Then sayde he vnto me, Thou sonne of man, thynkest thou these bones may lyue agayne? I answeared, O Lorde God, thou knowest.

4 And he sayde vnto me, Prophesie thou vpon these bones, & speake vnto them; Ye dre bones heare the woorde of the Lorde.

5 Thus sayth the Lorde GOD vnto these bones, Beholde, I wyl cause breath to entre into you, that ye may lyue.

6 I wyl geue you sinowes, and make flesshe growe vpon you, and couer you ouer with skinne, and so geue you breath, that ye may lyue, and knowe that I am the Lorde.

7 So I prophesied as I was commaunded: and as I was prophesying, there was a noyse, and lo a great motion, so that the bones came neare togeather, bone to his bone.

8 Howe when I had looked, beholde they had sinowes, and flesshe grewe vpon them, and aboue they were couered with skinne: but there was no breath in them.

9 Then sayde he vnto me, Thou sonne of man, prophesie thou towarde the wynde, prophesie and speake to the wynde, thus sayth the Lorde God, Come, O thou ayre from the foure wyndes, and blowe vpon these slayne, that they may lyue.

10 So I prophesied as he had commaunded me: then came the breath into them, and they receyued lyfe, and stoode vp vpon their feete, a marueylous great armie.

11 Moreouer, he sayd vnto me, Thou sonne of man, these bones are the whole hoult of Israel: beholde they say, Our bones are dryen vp, our hope is gone, and we are cleane lost.

12 Therefore prophesie thou, and speake vnto them, thus sayth the Lorde God, Beholde, I wyl open your graues, O my people, and cause you to come vp out of your sepulchres, and bryng you into the lande of Israel agayne.

13 So shal ye knowe that I am the Lorde, when I open your graues, O my people, and bryng you b out of your sepulchres.

b. That is, when I bryng you out of these places and townes where ye are captiues.

14 My spirite also wyl I put in you, and ye shal lyue, I wyl set you agayne in your owne lande: and ye shal knowe that I the Lord haue sayd it, and fulfylled it in deede, sayth the Lorde.

15 The woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

16 Thou sonne of man, take one sticke, and write vpon it, Vnto Juda and to the chyldren of Israel his companions. Then take another sticke, and write vpon it, Vnto Joseph the 'stocke of Ephraim, and to all the houlsholde of Israel his companions.

'Or, tree

17 And c ioyne them one to another into one sticke: and they shalbe as one in thy hande.

c. Which signifieth the ioyning togeather of the two houses of Israel and Juda.

18 Nowe if the chyldren of thy people speake vnto thee, saying, Wylt thou not shewe vs what thou meanest by these?

19 Then geue them this answeare, thus sayth the Lorde God, Beholde, I wyl take the d 'stocke of Joseph, whiche is in the hande of Ephraim, and of the tribes of Israel his felowes, and wyl put them with him, euen with the stocke of Juda, & make them one 'stocke, and they shalbe one in my hande.

d. This is the hoult of Israel.

'Or, tree.

'Or, tree.

20 And the sticken whereupon thou wrytest, shalt thou haue in thy hande, that they may se.

21 And thou shalt say vnto them, thus sayth the Lorde God, Beholde, I wyl take the chyldren of Israel from among the heathen vnto whom they be gone, and wyl gather them togeather on euery side, & bryng them agayne into their owne lande.

22 'Yea I wyl make one people of them in the lande vpon the mountaynes of Israel, and one kyng shalbe kyng to them al: they shal no more be two peoples, neyther be diuided from henceforth into two kyngdomes.

'Ioh.10.16.

23 They shall also defyle them selues no more with their idolles and abominations, and al their wycked bootinges: I wyl saue them out of al their dwellyng places wherin they haue sinned, & wyl so cleanse them, that they shalbe my people, and I wyl be their God.

24 'Dauid my seruant shalbe their kyng, and they al shal haue one heyrdeare: they shal walke in my iudgementes, and my

¶ The xxxviii. Chapter.

He propheſieth that Gog and Magog ſhall come with an appoynted hoſt into the lande of promiſe.

1 AND the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſaying,

*Apoc.20.8. a. Which was a people that came of Magog the ſonne of Iaphet, Geneſis.10. Magog alſo here ſignifieth a certayne countrey, ſo that by theſe countreyes which had the gouernment of Gretia and Italie, he meaneth the principal enimies of the Church Apo.20 vi, deſtroyed.

2 *Thou ſonne of man, ſet thy face agaynſt a Gog, the lande of Magog, which is the cheefe prince of Meſech and Tubal, and propheſie agaynſt hym,

3 And ſay, thus ſayth the Lorde God, O Gog, thou cheefe prince of Meſech & Tubal, beholde I wyl vpon thee:

4 And I wyl turne thee backe, and put hookes in thy tawes, I wyl bryng thee forth and al thine hoſt, both horſe & horſemen, al armed with al ſortes of armour, a great multitude with ſpeares and ſhieldes, al handlyng ſwoordes.

5 They of b Paras, of Chuth, and Phut, with them euen al hauyng ſhieldes and helmets, 6 Gomer and al his boſtes, the houſe of Togarma out of the North quarters and al his boſtes, yea and muche people with thee.

7 Therefore prepare thee, ſet thee ſelfe in aray with al the people that are come vnto thee by heapes, and be thou their defence.

8 After many dayes thou ſhalt be viſited, and in the latter yeeres thou ſhalt come into the lande that hath been turned and roſt with the ſwoorde, and gathered together agayne out of many people vpon the mountaynes of Iſrael, which haue ben alwayes ſubiect to waſte: but it is brought out of the people, and they dwel al fatr.

b. The Perſians, Ethiopians, and men of Aphrica.

9 Thou ſhalt aſſende and come vp like a ſtorme, as a cloude to couer the lande ſhalt thou be: thou with al thine hoſtes, and a great multitude of people with thee.

10 Moreouer, thus ſayth the Lorde God, At the ſame tyme ſhal thynges come into thy mynde, ſo that thou ſhalt thinke euyl thoughtes,

11 And ſay, I wyl vp to the lande of d vnwalled villages, I wyl goe to them that be at reſt, whiche dwel ſafely, al dwelling without walles, they haue neyther barres nor gates:

12 To ſpoyle the pray, and to take a bootie, to turne thy hande vppon the deſolate places that are now inhabited, and vppon that people that is gathered together from among the heathen, which haue gotten catel and goodes, & dwel in the middes of the lande.

13 Then ſhal Saba and Dedan, and the marchantes of Tharſis with al theyr Lions, ſay vnto thee, Art thou come to ſpoyle a pray? haſt thou gathered thy people together to take a bootie, to take away ſiluer and gold, to carry away catel and good, and to haue a great pray?

14 Therefore, O thou ſonne of man, thou ſhalt propheſie and ſay vnto Gog, thus ſayth the Lorde God: In that day when my people Iſrael f dwelleth ſafe, ſhalt thou not knowe it?

15 And thou ſhalt come from thy place out of the North partes, thou and muche people with thee, whiche ryde al vppon horſes, euen a great multitude and a mighty armie.

16 Yea thou ſhalt come vppon my people of Iſrael, as a cloude to couer the lande: this ſhal come to paſſe in the g latter dayes, and I wyl bryng thee vp into my lande, that the heathen may knowe me, when I ſhall be h ſanctified in thee, O Gog, before their eyes.

17 Thus ſayth the Lorde God, Art thou not he of whom I haue ſpoken in olde tyme by the handes of my ſeruauntes the propheetes of Iſrael, which propheſied in thoſe dayes and yeeres, that I ſhoulde bryng thee vpon them?

18 At the ſame tyme when Gog commeth vp into the lande of Iſrael, ſayth the Lorde God, ſhal mine indignation ryſe in my wrath.

19 For in my ielouſie and fyre of my wrath haue I ſpoken it, ſurely at that tyme there ſhalbe a great ſhaking in the land of Iſrael.

21 I wyl call for a swoorde vpon b hym in all my mountaynes, sayth the Lorde God: so that every mans swoorde shalbe vppon an other.

22 With pestilence and blood wyl I pleade against hym: so raine and haylestones, fire and brymstone wyll I cause to rayne vpon hym and all his hoastes, yea, and vppon al that great people that is with hym.

23 Thus wyll I be magnified, sanctified, and knowen in the eyes of many nations: and they shall knowe that I am the Lorde.

The xxxix. Chapter.

He driveth the destruction of Gog and Magog.

12. The graue of Gog and his hoste.

1 THerefore, O thou sonne of man, prophecie against Gog, and speake, thus sayth the Lorde God, Beholde, O Gog, thou cheefe prince of Meseth and Tubal, I wyl vpon thee.

2 And I wyl c turne thee about, and I wyl prouoke thee forwarde, and cause thee to come vp from the North parres, and bring thee vp to the mountaynes of Israel.

3 And as for thy bowe, I wyl smite it out of thy left hande, and cause thyne arrowes to fall out of thy right hande.

4 Thou, with all thyne hoste, and all the people that is with thee, shalt fall vppon the mountaynes of Israel: then will I geue thee vnto the d flockes of byrdes, and to al feathered foules and beastes of the feelde, to be deuoured.

5 Thou shalt fall vpon the open feelde: for I haue spoken it, sayth the Lorde God.

6 Into Magog, and among those that sitte so carelesse in the Iles wyll I sende a fyre, and they shal knowe that I am the Lorde.

7 I wyll make also the name of my holynes to be knowen among my people of Israel, and I wyll not let them pollute my holy name any more: but the very Heathen also shal know that I am the Lorde, the holy one of Israel.

8 Beholde, it is e come, and it is done, sayth the Lorde God, this is the day whereof I haue spoken.

9 They that dwell in the cities of Israel, shall goe forth, and f set fyre vppon the weapons, and burne them, shieldes and speares, bowes and arrowes, g handstaues, and swoords, and they shal burne them with fyre seuen yeere.

10 So that they shal ne bryng no wood fro the feelde, neyther hewe downe any out of the woodes: for with weapons shal they make their fyre, they shall robbe those that robbed them, and spoyle those that spoyled them, sayth the Lorde God.

11 At the same tyme wyll I geue vnto Gog a place to be buryed in Israel, euen the valley where through men goe towarde the East sea: those that trauayle thereby, shall stoppe their noses, there shall Gog and all his multitude be buried: and it shalbe called the valley of the h multitude of Gog.

12 Seuen monethes long shall the house of Israel be burying of them, that they may cleanse the lande.

13 Yea, all the people of the lande shal burie them, and they shall haue a name when I shalbe glorified, sayth the Lorde God.

14 They shall choose out men to goe continually through the lande, to i bury as they passe through those that remayne vpon the grounde, to cleanse it: after the ende of seuen monethes shall they make their searche.

15 And the trauaylers that passe through the land, where they see a mans bone, they shall set vp a token by it, tyll the dead burgers haue buried it also in the valley of the multitude of Gog.

16 And the name of the citie shalbe called k Hamonah: thus shall they make the lande cleane.

17 And thou sonne of man, thus sayth the Lorde GOD, Speake vnto all feathered foules, yea, and to all the beastes of the feelde, Assemble you togeather, and come, gather you rounde about to my l sacrifice that I sacrifice for you, euen a great sacrifice vppon the mountaynes of Israel, that ye may eate flesh, and drynke blood.

18 Ye shal eate the flesh of the valiant, and drynke the blood of the princes of the lande, of the rammes, of the weathers, of the goates, and of the bullockes, that be all fedde at Basan.

19 Ye shall eate the fatte vntil ye be full, and drynke blood tyll ye be dronken of my sacrifice, which I haue sacrificed for you.

20 Ye shall fyll you at my table with horses and m horsemen, with the valiant, and men of warre, sayth the Lorde God.

21 I wyl set my glory also among the Gentiles, that al the Heathen may see my iudgement that I haue executed, and my hande which I haue layde vpon them.

22 And the house of Israel shall know that I am the Lorde their God, from that day, and so forwarde.

g. As solemne sacrifices were common feastes to great multitudes of people assembled, so was this slaughter as a great sacrifice & feast for al byrdes & beastes to feede vpon.

h. As solemne sacrifices were common feastes to great multitudes of people assembled, so was this slaughter as a great sacrifice & feast for al byrdes & beastes to feede vpon.

23 And the heathen shall know, that wheras
the house of Israel was led into captiuitie, it was for their wickednes sake, because they offended me: for the which cause I hid my face from them, and deliuered them into the hands of their enimies, that they might all be slayne with the swoorde.

24 According to their vncleannesse, and according to their transgressions haue I done vnto them, and hyd my face from them.

25 Therfore thus sayth the Lorde GOD,
Nowe will I bring againe the captiuitie of Iacob, and haue mercye vpon the whole house of Israel, and be ielous for my holy names sake,

26 After that they haue borne their shame, and all their transgression, whereby they haue transgressed against me, when they dwell safely in their lande, and no man to feare them:

27 And when I haue brought them againe from among the people, when I haue gea-thered them together out of their enimies landes, and am sanctified in them in the sight of many nations:

28 Then shall they know, that I am the Lorde their God, which caused them to be led into captiuitie among the Heathen, but haue gathered them into their owne land, and not left one of them any more there.

29 After that will I hyde my face no more from them, but will powre out my spirite vpon the house of Israel, sayth the Lorde
GOD.

The .xl. chapter.

The restoring of the vision, and of the temple that was to come, is shewed vnto the prophete.

1 IN the fyue and twentieth yeere of our captiuitie, in the a beginning of the yeere, the tenth day of the moneth, that is, the fourteenth yeere after the citie was smitten, the selfe same day came the hande of the Lorde vpon me, and brought me thether:

2 Euen into the lande of Israel brought he me in the visions of God, and sette me downe vpon a maruelous high mountaine, whervpon there was as it had been the buyldyng of a citie towarde the South.

3 Thyther he caryed me, and beholde, there was a b man, whose similitude was lyke brasse, whiche had a smitten lyne of flaxe in his hande, and a cane to measure with: and he stoode in the doore.

4 And that man sayd vnto me, Thou sonne of man, marke well with thyne eyes, hearken to with thyne eares, and fasten it in thy hart whatsoeuer I shall shewe thee: for to the intent that I may shewe ther, therefore are thou brought hyther: and whatsoeuer thou seest, shalt thou declare vnto the house of Israel therof.

5 Beholde, there was a wall on the c outside of the house rounde about: the cane to measure with, that he had in his hande, was sixe cubites long by the d cubite, and a hande breadth: so he measured the breadth of the buylding with one cane, and the heyght with one cane.

6 Then came he to the gate which looketh towarde the East, and went vp the staiyes thereof, and measured the poste of the gate one cane broade, and the other poste of the gate one cane broade.

7 And euery chamber was one cane long, and one cane broade, and betweene the chambers, were fyue cubites: and the post of the gate by the porche of the gate within, was one cane.

8 He measured also the porche of the gate within, with one cane.

9 Then measured he the porche of the gate eyght cubites: and the e pentises therof two cubites, and the porche of the gate was inwarde.

10 And the chambers of the gate Eastward, were three on this syde, and three on that syde: they three were of one measure, and the pentises had one measure on this syde, and one measure on that syde.

11 After this he measured the breadth of the entrie of the gate ten cubites, and the height of the gate thirteene cubites.

12 The space also before the chambers, was one cubite on this side, and the space one cu-bite on that syde: and the chambers, fyue cubites on this syde, and fyue cubites on that syde.

13 He measured the gate from the roofe of a chamber to his owne roofe, the breadth of fyue and twentie cubites, doore against doore.

14 He made f frontes also of threescore cu-bites, euen vnto the front of the court rounde about the gate.

15 And from the foreffront of the entrie of the gate, vnto the forefront of the gate within, were fyftie cubites.

16 And there were narrowe wyndowes in the chambers, and in the frontes within the gate rounde about, and so in the archet:
and the wyndowes were rounde about within, and vpon the frontes were Palme trees.

17 Then brought he me into the outwarde court, whereas were chambers, and a pavement made for the court rounde about: thirtie chambers were vpon the pauement.

18 And

1. The Heathē shal knowe that they ouercame not my people by their owne strēgth, neither yet by the weakenesse of mine arme, but that this was for my peoples sinnes.

a. The Iewes counted the beginning of the yeere after two sortes: for feasts, they began to count in March: and for their other affaires, in September, so that this is to be vnderstande of September.

b. Which was an angell in forme of a man, that came to measure out this buyldyng.

c. By this and the like Hebrue phrases, he exhorted hym to beholde, and marke diligētly as a thyng worthy notyng.

d. Whiche contayned the whole hyght of Sion, in the vpmeast, that is, the temple.

e. Or, ouerlay.

f. Or, porche.

35 And the pauement vnder vp the fore of the gate ouer against the lenght of the gates: and the pauement was beneath.

19 Then he measured the breadth from the fore front of the lower gate without, vnto the fore front of the court within, a hundred cubites Eastward and Northward.

20 And the gate in the outward court that looked toward the North, measured the after the length and breadth thereof.

21 And the chambers thereof were three on this syde, and three on that syde: and the frontes thereof, and the arches thereof were after the measure of the first gate: the length thereof was fifty cubites, and the breadth five and twentie cubites.

22 And their windowes, and their arches, with their palme trees were after the measure of the gate that looketh toward the East: and the going vp vnto it had seuen steppes, and the arches thereof were before them.

23 And the gate of the inner court stood ouer against the gate toward the North and toward the East, and he measured from gate to gate a hundred cubites.

24 After that he brought me towarde the South, where there stoode a gate towarde the South: and he measured the frontes thereof and the arches thereof according to those measures.

25 And there were windowes in it, and in the arches thereof round about like these windowes: the length was fifty cubites, and the breadth five and twentie cubites.

26 And there were seuen steppes at the going vp to it, and the arches thereof before them: and it had palme trees, one on this syde, and another on that syde, vpon the frontes thereof.

27 And there was a gate in the inner court toward the South, and he measured from gate to gate towarde the South a hundred cubites.

28 So he brought me into the inner court through the South gate, & he measured the South gate according to those measures.

29 And the chambers thereof, the frontes thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures, and windowes in it and in the arches thereof round about, fifty cubites long, & five and twentie cubites wyde.

30 And the arches rounde about were five and twenti cubites long, and five cubites wyde.

31 And the arches thereof were toward the vtter court, & palme trees vpon the frontes thereof, and the going vp to it had eyght steppes.

32 He brought me also into the inner court toward the East, and measured the gate according to those measures.

33 And the chambers thereof, and frontes thereof, & the arches thereof were according to those measures, and there were windowes therein, and in the arches thereof round about, it was fifty cubites long, and five and twentie cubites wyde.

34 And the arches thereof were toward the vtter court, & palme trees vpon the frontes thereof on this syde, and on that syde, and the going vp to it had eyght steppes.

35 And he brought me to ᵇ North gate, and measured it according to those measures.

36 The chambers thereof, the frontes thereof, and the arches thereof, and there were windowes therin rounde about: and the length was fifty cubites, and the breadth five and twentie cubites.

37 And the frontes thereof were toward the vtter court, and palme trees were vpon the frontes thereof on this syde and on that syde, and the going vp to it hadde eyght steppes.

38 And a chamber and the entrie thereof were vnder the frontes of the gates, there they washed the ᶜ burnt offerings.

39 And in the porche of the gate stood two tables on this syde, and two tables on that syde, vpon the which they slue the burnt offering, and the sinne offering, and the trespasse offering.

ᵇ That is, the inwardes or entrayles of the sacrifice that was offered for a burnt offring.

40 And at the syde without the steppes, at the entrie of the North gate stoode two tables, and on the other syde which was at the porche of the gate were two tables.

41 Foure tables were on this syde, and foure on that syde, by the syde of the gate were eyght tables, whereupon they slue their sacrifice.

42 And ᵈ foure tables were of hewen stone for the burnt offring, of a cubite and a halfe long, and a cubite and a halfe broade, and one cubite hygh, whereupon were layde the instrumentes wherewith they slue ᵉ burnt offering, and the sacrifice.

43 And within there were ᶠ hookes one hand breadth long, fastened rounde about, and vpon the tables was the offering of the flesh.

44 And without the inner gate were the chambers of the syngers in the inwarde court, whiche was at the syde of the North gate, & their prospect was toward ᵍ South: and one was at the syde of the East gate, hauing the prospect toward the North.

ᵍ the.

45 And he saide vnto me, This chamber whose prospect is toward the South, is for the preistes that haue charge to keepe the house.

46 And

46 And the chamber whose prospect is toward the North, for the priestes that have charge to keepe the aulter: these are the sonnes of Sadoc, whiche of the sonnes of Leui come neare to the Lorde, to minister vnto him.

47 So he measured the court, which had in length a hundred cubites, and a hundred in breadth, was lowre square: and the aulter stoode before the house.

48 And he brought me to the porche of the house, and measured the porche fyue cubites on this side, and fiue cubites on that side: and the breadth of the gate was three cubites on this side, on three cubites on that side.

49 The length of the porche was twentie cubites, the breadth eleuen cubites, and by steppes went men vp to it: by pilliers also were pillers, one on this side, and another on that side.

The disposition and desire of building against the temple, and of the other thinges thereto belonging.

1 AFter this he brought me to the temple, and measured the frontes, fiue cubites broade on the one side, and fiue cubites broade on the other side, which was the breadth of the tabernacle.

2 The breadth of the doore was tenne cubites, and the sides of the doore were fiue cubites on the one side, and fiue cubites on the other side, and he measured the length thereof fourtie cubites, and the breadth twentie cubites.

3 Then went he in and measured the front of the doore two cubites: but the doore it selfe was fiue cubites, and the breadth of the other side of the doore was seuen cubites.

4 He measured the length thereof twentie cubites, and the breadth twentie cubites before the temple: and he said vnto me, This is the most holy place.

5 He measured also the wall of the house fiue cubites, and the breadth of a chamber foure cubites rounde about the house on euery side.

6 And the chambers were chamber vpon chamber, three and thyrtie in order: and they entred the wal which was of the house for the chambers round about, that they might be fastened, & not be fastened in the wall of the house.

7 There was an enlarging, and a winding about, mounting still vpward to the chambers: for the stayre of the house was mounting still vpward rounde about the house, therefore the house was larger vpwards: so they went vp from the lowest to the highest by the midwest.

8 And I sawe the house high round about: the foundations of the chambers were a full cane of fiue cubites vp to the same holes.

9 The thicknesse of the wal which was for the chamber without was fiue cubites, and that which remayned was the place of the chambers that were within.

10 And betweene the chambers was the wydenesse of twentie cubites rounde about the house on euery syde.

11 And the doores of the chambers were toward the place that remayned, one doore toward the North, and another toward the South: and the breadth of the place that remayned, was fiue cubites rounde about.

12 Now the building that was before the separate place at the ende toward the West was seuentie cubites wyde: and the wall of the building was fiue cubites thicke round about, and the length ninetie cubites.

13 So he measured the house, which was a hundred cubites long, and the separate place and the building with the walles, were a hundred cubites long also.

14 The breadth also of the fore front of the house, and of the separate place toward the East, was a hundred cubites.

15 And he measured the length of the building ouer against the separate place which was behinde it, and the chambers on the one syde, and on the other side, a hundred cubites, with the temple within, and the porches of the court.

16 The doore postes, & the narow windowes, and the chambers round about, on three sides ouer against the doore, were lied with wood rounde about, and from the ground vp to the wyndowes: and the wyndowes them selues were lied.

17 And from aboue the doore vnto the house without and without, and vpon euery wall rounde about within and without, by a iust measure.

18 And it was made with Cherubims and Palme trees, so that a Palme tree was betweene a Cherub and a Cherub, and euery Cherub had two faces.

19 So that the face of a man was toward the Palme tree on the one side, and the face of a Lion toward the palme tree on the other side: thus was it made through all the house rounde about.

¶ The .xlii. Chapter.

Of the chambers of the temple for the prieſtes, and the holy thynges.

1 THen led he me into the vtter court by the way towarde the North, and he brought me into the chamber that was ouer againſt the ſeparate place, which was before the buyldyng towarde the North.

2 Before the length of an hundred cubites was the North dooꝛe: and the breadth was fyftie cubites.

3 Ouer againſt the twentie cubites which were for the inner court, and ouer againſt the pauement, which was for the vtter court, was chamber againſt chamber, three orders.

4 And before the chambers there was a walkyng place of ten cubites wide inwarde, the way of one cubite: and their dooꝛes toward the North.

5 Thus the vpper chambers were alway narrower: for thoſe chambers ſeemed to eate by theſe, to wit the lower and the middlemer of the buyldyng.

6 For they were in three orders, but had no pyllers as the pyllers of the courtes: therefore were they ſmaller then the neathermoſt and the middlemoſt to reckon from the grounde.

7 And the wall that was without ouer againſt the chambers, towarde the vtter court on the foꝛefront of the chambers, the length therof was fyftie cubites.

8 For the length of the chambers that were in the vtter court, was fyftie cubites, and loe, before the temple was a hundred cubites.

9 And vnder theſe chambers was the entrie from the Eaſt: as one goeth vnto them from the vtter court.

10 In the thicknesſe of the wall of the court towarde the Eaſt, before the ſeparate place, and before the buyldyng of the chambers.

11 And the way before them after the appearance of the chambers whiche were toward the North: as their length, ſo was their breadth: and all their entries were accoꝛdyng to their fashion, and accoꝛding to their dooꝛes.

12 And accoꝛdyng to the dooꝛes of the chambers that were toward the South, was a dooꝛe in the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the Eaſt as one entreth.

13 Then ſayde he vnto me, The chambers towarde the North, and the chambers towarde the South, whiche are before the ſeparate place, thoſe be holy chambers, wherin the prieſtes that a approche vnto the Lord muſt eate the moſt holy thynges, and there muſt they lay the moſt holy thinges, and the meate offeryng, and ſinne offeryng, and treſpaſſe offeryng: for it is a holy place.

14 When the prieſtes come therein, they ſhall not goe out of the holy place into the vtter court, but there they ſhall lay vp their garmentes wherin they miniſter, for they are holy: and ſhal put on b other garmentes, and ſo ſhall approche to thoſe whiche are for the people.

15 Nowe when he had fynished the meaſuryng of the houſe within, he led me forth towarde the gate, whoſe proſpect is towarde the Eaſt, and he meaſured it round about.

16 He meaſured the Eaſt ſide with the meaſuryng cane, fyue hundred canes, even with the meaſuring cane rounde about.

17 And he meaſured the North ſide fiue hundred canes, even with the meaſuryng cane rounde about.

18 The South ſyde alſo meaſured he fyue hundred canes, by the meaſuryng cane.

19 He turned about alſo to the Weſt ſyde, and meaſured fyue hundred canes, by the meaſuryng cane.

20 So he meaſured it by the foure ſydes: it had a wall round about, fiue hundred canes long, and fyue hundred broade, to make a ſeparation betweene the c ſanctuarie, and the prophane place.

¶ The .xliii. Chapter.

He ſeeth the glory of God goyng into the temple from whence it had before departed.

a. That is, which exerciſe the prieſtes office, as more fully is declared in the next chapter folowyng. verſe. 19.

b. That is, their common apparel whiche they vſed among the people: and as ſome ſay, was ſuche as the common people vſed.

c. That is, betweene the temple and the citie, which in reſpect of the ſanctuarie and the temple was counted prophane.

1 SO he brought me to the gate, euen the gate that turneth towarde the Eaſt:

2 And beholde, then came the glory of the GOD of Iſrael from out of the Eaſt, whoſe voyce was lyke a great noyſe of waters, and the earth was lightened with his glorie.

*Ezech. 9. 1. 3 *And accordyng to the appearance of the viſion whiche I ſawe, euen accordyng to the viſion whiche I ſawe a when I came to deſtroy the citie: and the viſions were lyke the viſions which I ſawe by the riuer Chebar, and I fel vpon my face.

b. Which was departed before. Chap. 10. 4 And the b glory of the Lorde came into the houſe by the way of the gate whoſe proſpect is towarde the Eaſt.

*Or, the ſpirite. 5 So a *wynde tooke me vp, and brought me into the innerme court: and beholde, the houſe was ful of the glorie of the Lorde.

6 And I hearde one ſpeaking vnto me out of the houſe, and there ſtoode a man by me,

7 And he ſayde vnto me, O thou ſonne of man, this roome is my ſeate, & the place of my ſoorecteps, wherras I wyl dwel among the children of Iſrael for euermore, c ſo that the houſe of Iſrael ſhall no more defile my holy name, neyther they nor their kynges thorowe their whoredome, and through the dead bodyes of their kynges in their hygh places.

c. He alludeth to Ammon and Manaſſes, who were buryed in their gardens neare the temple, and there had erected vp monumentes to their idols. 8 Albeit they haue ſet their threſholdes by my threſholdes, and their poſtes by my poſtes, and a wall betweene me and them, yet haue they defyled my holy name with their abominations that they haue committed: wherefore I haue conſumed them in my wrath.

9 But nowe let them put away their whoredome, and the dead bodyes of their kynges out of my ſyght, and I wyll dwell among them for euermore.

10 Therefore, O thou ſonne of man, ſhewe thou the houſe of Iſrael this houſe, that they may be aſhamed of their wickednelle, and meaſure them ſelues an example therof.

11 And if they be aſhamed of al their works: then ſhew them the fourme of the houſe and patterne therof, the goyng out, the commyng in, al the maner therof, yea, al the ordinances therof, the figures, and all the lawes therof, and wryte it in their ſight, that they may keepe the whole faſhion therof, and al the ordinances therof, and do them.

d. Deſcription. 12 This is the d lawe of the houſe: vppon the top of the mount ſhal al the limits therof be, rounde about the moſt holy place, loe, this is the lawe of the houſe.

13 And theſe are the meaſures of the aulter in cubites: the cubite is a cubite & a handebreadth, the bottome ſhalbe a cubite, and the breadth a cubite, and the borders therof by the edge therof rounde about was one ſpanne, and this ſhalbe the heyght of the aulter.

14 And from the bottome vpon the ground vnto the lower peece, ſhalbe two cubites, the breadth one cubite: and from the litle peece to the great peece, ſhalbe foure cubites, and the breadth one cubite.

15 The aulter was foure cubites hygh, and from the aulter vpwarde ſtoode foure hornes.

16 And the aulter was twelue cubites long, and twelue cubites broade, ſquare in the foure corners therof.

17 The frame of the aulter ſhalbe fourteene cubites long, and fourteene broade in the foure ſquare corners therof, and the border about it ſhalbe halfe a cubite, & the bottome therof ſhalbe a cubite about, and the ſteppes therof ſhalbe turned towarde the Eaſt.

18 And he ſayde vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, thus ſayeth the Lorde God, Theſe are the ordinances of the aulter, in the day whē it is made, to offer burnt offerynges therupon, and to ſprinkle blood therupon.

19 And thou ſhalt geue to the prieſtes, to the Leuites that be of the ſtede of Sadoc, and approche vnto me, ſayeth the Lorde God, to miniſter vnto me, a young bullocke for a ſinne offerynge.

20 And thou ſhalt take of the blood therof, and put it on the foure hornes of it, and on the foure corners of the frame, and vpon the border rounde about: thus ſhalt thou clenſe it, and purge it.

21 Thou ſhalt take the bullocke alſo of the ſinne offerynge, and burne hym in the appointed place without the ſanctuarie.

22 The ſecond day, take a goate bucke without blemiſhe for a ſinne offerynge, to clenſe the aulter withall, lyke as it was cleanſed with the bullocke.

23 Nowe when thou haſt made an ende of cleanſing it, then offer a young bullocke without blemiſhe, and a ramme out of the flocke without blemiſhe alſo.

24 Offer them before the Lorde, and let the prieſtes caſt ſalt therupon, and geue them ſo vnto the Lorde for a burnt offerynge.

25 Seuen dayes ſhalt thou prepare euery day a goate bucke for ſinne, a young bullocke and a ramme of the flocke, both without blemiſhe ſhall they prepare.

26 Seuen dayes ſhal they reconcile & cleanſe the aulter, and e fyll the place therof. e. Or, conſecrate.

27 When theſe dayes are expired, then vpō the eyght day, and ſo forth, the prieſtes ſhal make your burnt offerynges, and peace

offeringes vpon the aulter: so I wyll accept you, sayth the Lord God.

¶ The.xliiii. Chapter.

He sheweth vvhat doore of the temple is shutte. 6. He is commanded to vpbraide the people vvith theyr offence.

1 AFter this he brought me agayne to the outward gate of the sanctuarie on the East syde, and that was shut.

2 Then saide the Lord vnto me, This gate shalbe kept shut, and not opened, neyther shall any man goe thyrough it: for the Lorde God of Israel hath entred by it, and it shalbe shut.

3 Ie is for the prince, the prince him self shal sye in it to eate bread before the Lorde: he shall enter by the way of the porche of that gate, & shal go out by the way of the same.

4 Then brought he me to ward the North gate before the house: and as I looked, beholde, the glory of the Lord fylled the house of the Lorde, and I fell vpon my face.

5 So the Lord spake vnto me: O thou sonne of man, set thyne hart, and beholde with thyne eyes, and heare with thyne eares, all that I say vnto thee concernyng all the ordinances of the house of the Lord, and al the lawes therof, and marke wel the entryng in of the house, with euery going foorth of the sanctuarie.

6 And thou shalt say to the rebellious euen to the house of Israel, thus sayth the Lorde God, O house of Israel, ye haue yenough of all your abominations.

7 Seeing ye haue brought into my sanctuarie b straungers, hauing vncircumcised harte, and vncircumcised flesshe, to be in my sanctuarie to pollute my house, when ye offer my bread, fatte, and blood, and they haue broken my couenant because of al your abominations.

8 And he haue not kept the c ordinances of my holy thinges, and ye haue set keepers to kepe my sanctuarie d for you.

9 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde God, Of al the strangers that dwell among the children of Israel, no straunger vncircumcised in hart, nor vncircumcised in flesshe, shal enter into my sanctuarie.

10 But the Leuites that went backe from me when Israel went astray, which straied from me after their idols, e shal beare their iniquitie:

11 And they shalbe ministers in my sanctuarie, and keepe the gates of the house, and minister in the house: they shall slay the burnt offeringes, and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them, to serue them.

12 Because they serued before their idolles, and caused the house of Israel to fall into iniquitie: therefore haue I lyft vp my hand agaynst them, sayth the Lord God, & they shal beare their iniquitie.

13 And they shall not come neare vnto me, to doo the office of a priest vnto me, neyther shal they come neare vnto any of myne holy thinges in the most holy place: but they shal beare their owne shame and abominations which they haue done.

14 And I wyll make them keepers of the watch of the house, for al the seruice therof, and for al that shalbe done therein.

15 But the Priestes, the Leuites, the sonnes of Sadoc, that kept the charge of my sanctuarie when the children of Israel strayed from me, shal come to me, to doo me seruice, to stand before me, & to offer me the fat and the blood, sayth the Lorde God. f Whiche obserued the lawes of God and fell not to idolatrie

16 They shal goe into my sanctuarie, and approche vnto my table to doo my seruice, and they shal keepe my charge.

17 Nowe when they goe in at the gates of the innermer court, they shal put on lynnen clothes, so that no wollen come vpon them whyle they do seruice vnder the gates of the innermer court, and within.

18 They shal haue lynnen bonnettes vpon their heades, and lynnen "breeches vpon their loynes: they shal not gyrd them selues in the "sweate. "Slopper. "in the places of sweate, or els not ouer straite to make them to sweate.

19 And when they goe foorth into the vter court, euen to the vter court of the people, they shall put of the clothes wherein they haue ministred, and lay them in the chamber of the sanctuarie, and put on other apparel, and they shal not sanctifye the people with their clothes.

20 They shal not g shaue their heades, nor suffer their heare to growe long, but powle their heads onely. g. For that no saincte Hieronyme sayth, was the maner of the Gentiles and Infidels.

21 Al the priestes that goe into the innoost court shal drinke no wine.

22 *They shal marry no wyndow, neyther one that is put from her husbande, but a mayde of the seede of the house of Israel, or a wyndowe that hath had a priest before. *Leui. 21. 13

23 They shal shew my people the difference betweene the holy and vnholy, & cause them to discerne betwixt the cleane & vncleane.

24 And in controuersie they shal stande to iudge, and gene sentence after my iudgementes: and my lawes and my statutes shal they keepe in al my solemne feastes, and halowe my Sabboothes.

25 They shall come at no dead person to defyle them selues, but to father or mother, sonne ſomme or daughter, brother or ſiſter, that hath yet no husbande, in thoſe may they be b defyled.

b. They may be at theyr buryal, which was reamed a defylyng.

26 And when he is cleanſed, there ſhalbe reckoned vnto him ſeuen dayes.

27 And when he goeth into the ſanctuarie vnto the inner court to miniſter in the ſanctuarie, he ſhal bring his ſinne offering, ſaith the Lorde.

*Deut.18.1. Num.18.20

28 i There ſhal be to them an inheritance, euen I their inheritance: but poſſeſſion ſhal ye geue them none in Iſrael, for I am theyr poſſeſſion.

i. Vnderſtand the prieſthood.

29 The meate offering, ſinne offering, and treſpaſſe offering ſhall they eate: and euery dedicate thing in Iſrael ſhalbe theyrs.

*Exod.13.2. and.22.29.

30 * And all the fyrſt of the fyrſt borne, and euery oblation, euen all of euery ſort of your oblations ſhalbe the prieſtes: ye ſhall alſo geue vnto the prieſtes the fyrſt of your dough, that he may cauſe the bleſſing to reſt in thyne houſe.

*Leui.22.8.

31 * But the prieſtes ſhall eate nothing that is dead by it ſelfe or torne of foule, or of beaſt.

¶ The xlv. Chapter.

Of iuſt weyghtes and meaſures.

1 WHen ye diuide the land by the lot for inheritance, ye ſhal offer an oblatiõ to the Lorde, a holy a portion of the land, twentie & fyue thouſand canes long, and ten thouſand brode: this ſhalbe holy in all the borders thereof round about.

a. Of all the land of Iſrael the Lord requireth only this portion, for the temple and for the prieſtes, for the citie, and for the prince.

2 Of this part there ſhall belong vnto the ſanctuarie fyue hundred cubites in length with fyue hundred in breadth ſquare rounde about: and fyftie cubites rounde about for the ſuburbes.

3 And of this meaſure ſhalt thou meaſure, namely of the length of twentie & fiue thouſand, and the breadth of ten thouſande, and in it ſhalbe the ſanctuarie, and the moſt holy place.

4 That holy portion of the lande ſhall partayne vnto the prieſtes which doo ſeruice in the ſanctuarie, whiche come neare to ſerue the Lorde: and it ſhalbe vnto them a place for their houſes, & a holy place for the ſanctuarie.

5 And in the twentie & fyue thouſand length, and ten thouſand breadth, ſhall the Leuites that miniſter in the houſe haue their poſſeſſion for twentie chambers.

6 Ye ſhal geue alſo vnto the citie a poſſeſſion of fyue thouſand canes brode, and twentie and fyue thouſand long, ouer agaynſt the oblation of the holy portion that ſhalbe for the whole houſe of Iſrael.

7 And a portion ſhalbe for the prince on this ſide and on that ſide of the oblation of the holy portion, and of the poſſeſſion of the citie, euen before the oblation of the holy portion, and before the poſſeſſion of the citie, from the Weſt corner weſtward, and from the Eaſt corner eaſtward: and the length ſhalbe by one of the portions, from the weſt border vnto the eaſt border.

8 In this land ſhalbe his poſſeſſion in Iſrael: and my princes ſhall no more oppreſſe my people, and the reſt of the land ſhall they geue to the houſe of Iſrael according to theyr tribes.

9 Thus ſayth the Lorde God, b Let it ſuffiſe you, O ye princes of Iſrael: leaue of crueltie and oppreſſion, and execute iudgement and iuſtice: take away your exactions from my people, ſayth the Lord God.

a. The prophet foreſeeth that the lande ſhall be ſtil reſtored, after my good order and be eſtabliſhed among the people.

10 Ye ſhal haue a true ballance, a true c Ephah, and a true Bath.

c. Ephah & Bath were both of one quantitie, for the Ephah conteyned in dry things, that as the Bath dyd in liquor.

11 The Ephah and the Bath ſhalbe alyke: one Bath ſhal conteyne the tenth part of an Homer, and the Ephah the tenth part of an Homer: the equalitie thereof ſhalbe after the Homer.

12 * The Sicle maketh twentie Gerahs: and twentie Sicles, and d twentie and fiue Sicles, and fiftreene Sicles make a Mineh.

*Exo.30.13. Leuit.27.25 Num.3.47.

d. That is, three ſcore ſicles make a weyght called Mineh: for he reckeneth three parres to a Mineh.

13 This is the oblation that ye ſhall offer: the ſixth part of an Ephah out of an Homer of wheate, and the ſixth part of an Ephah out of an Homer of barley.

14 Concerning the ordinances of theoyle, euen of the Bath of oyle ye ſhall offer the tenth part of a Bath out of the Cor: ten Bathes ſhalbe a Homer, becauſe ten Bathes is a Homer.

15 And one lambe from two hundred ſheepe out of the fat paſtures of Iſrael for a meate offering, whole burnt offering, and peace offering, to reconcile them, ſayth the Lorde God.

16 All the people of the land ſhall geue this oblation for the prince in Iſrael.

17 Againe, it ſhalbe the princes part to offer whole burnt offeringes, meate offeringes, and wine offeringes, in the holy dayes, new Moones, Sabbothes, and in all the hyghe feaſtes of the houſe of Iſrael: he ſhall prepare the ſinne offering, meate offering, whole burnt offering, and peace offering, to reconcile the houſe of Iſrael.

18 Thus ſayth the Lorde God, The fyrſt day of the fyrſt e moneth, thou ſhalt take a young bullocke without blemiſhe, & cleanſe the ſanctuarie.

e. Which was Niſan, conteyning part of March and part of Aprill.

19 So the prieſt ſhal take of the blood of the ſinne offering, and put it vpon the poſtes of the house, and vpon the foure corners of the frame of the aulter, and vpon the postes of the gate of the inner court.

the

20 And thus shalt thou doo also the seuenth day of the moneth, for suche as haue sinned of ignorance, or being deceyued, to reconcile the house withal.

21 Vpon the fourth day of the firste moneth ye shall haue the Passouer, a feast of seuen dayes, and ye shall eate vnleauened bread.

22 Vpon the same day shal the prince prepare for hym selfe and al the people of the lande, a bullocke for a sinne offeryng.

23 And in the seuen dayes of the feast, he shal make a whole burnt offeryng to the Lorde, euen of seuen bullockes and seuen Rammes without blemyshe, daily, for seuen dayes, and a hee Goate daily for a sinne offeryng.

24 And he shal prepare a meate offeryng of an Ephah for a bullocke, & an Ephah for a Ramme, and a hin of oyle for an Ephah.

25 In the seuenth moneth also in the fifteenth day of the moneth, on the feast, he shal doo accordyng vnto these for seuen dayes: accordyng to the sinne offeryng, accordyng to the whole burnt offeryng, and accordyng to the meate offeryng, and accordyng to the oyle.

¶ Diuers Ordres.

The sacrifices of the Sabbothes, and of the newe Moones. 1. Through which dores they must goe in, & come out of the temple.

Thus sayth the Lorde God, The gate of the inner coure towarde the East, shalbe shut the sixe woorkyng dayes: but in the Sabboth, and in the day of the newe Moone it shalbe opened.

2 And the prince shal enter by the way of the porche of the gate without, and shall stande by the post of the gate: and the Priestes shal make his whole burnt offeryng, and his peace offeryngs: and he shall woorshyp at the threshold of the gate, and goe forth: and the gate shal not be shut tyl the euening.

3 Likewise shall the people of the lande also woorshyp before the Lorde, at the doore of this gate vpon the Sabboths, and newe Moones.

4 The whole burnt offeryng that the prince shal bryng vnto the Lorde vpon the Sabboth, shalbe sixe lambes without blemyshe, and a Ramme without blemyshe.

5 And the meate offeryng shalbe an Ephah for a Ramme, and the meate offeryng for the Lambes a gyft of his hande, and a Hin of oyle to an Ephah.

6 In the day of the newe moneth, it shalbe a young bullocke without blemyshe, and sixe Lambes, and a Ramme also without blemyshe.

7 With the bullocke he shal geue an Ephah: and with the Ramme an Ephah also for a meate offeryng: but to the Lambes b accordyng as his hande shal take, and a Hin of oyle to an Ephah.

8 And when the prince shal enter, he shal goe in by the way of the porche of that gate: he shal goe forth by the way thereof.

9 But when the people of the land come before the Lorde in the dyuers solemne feastes, as many as come in by the North gate to doo woorshyp, shall goe out agayne at the South gate: and they that come in at the South gate, shal goe forth agayne at the North gate: there shal none returne by the gate where he came in, but shall goe right forth ouer on the other syde.

10 And the prince by shal goe in the myddest of them when they goe in, and to come forth when they come forth.

11 Vpon the solemne and dyuers feast dayes, this shalbe the meate offeryng: an Ephah to a bullocke, and an Ephah to a Ramme, and to the Lambes the gyft of his hande, and a Hin of oyle to an Ephah.

12 Nowe when the prince shall make a free whole burnt offeryng, or peace offeryngs freely vnto the Lorde: one then shall open him the gate that turneth toward the East, and he shall make his whole burnt offeryngs, and his peace offeryngs, as he dyd on the Sabboth day: after he shal goe forth, and when he is gone forth, he shal shut the gate.

13 Thou shalt daily make a whole burnt offeryng vnto the Lorde of a Lambe of one yeere without blemyshe, thou shalt doo it euery morning.

14 Thou shalt prepare a meate offeryng for it euery morning, y sixth part of an Ephah, and the thyrde part of a Hin of oyle to myngle with the fyne flour: this meate offeryng shalbe continually by a perpetual ordinance vnto the Lorde.

15 Thus shall they prepare the Lambe, the meate offeryng, and oyle, euery morning, for a continual whole burnt offeryng.

16 Moreouer, thus sayth the Lorde God, If the prince geue a gyfte vnto anye of his sonnes, the inheritaunce thereof shalbe his sonnes: their possession shalbe by inheritaunce.

17 But if he geue a gyft of his inheritaunce to one of his seruantes, then it shalbe his to the yeere of libertie, and then returne to the prince: but the inheritaunce thereof is his sonnes, and shalbe theirs.

b. Accordyng to his habilitie.

c. Which was at the yeere of Iubilee. Le 25.

Cccc 18 The 18 The prince also d shall take none of the peoples inheritaunce, nor put them from their possession: but to his sonnes shall he gene his owne possession, that my people be not scattered abrode, euery man from his possession.

d. But be content with that portion ỹ God hath assigned hym. Ezec. 45.

19 And he brought me through the entrance at the syde of the gate to the holy chambers of the priestes, which stoode towarde the North, and beholde there was a place vpon the vtmost syde of them.

20 Then said he vnto me, This is the place where the priestes shal seethe the trespasse and sinne offeringes, and bake the meate offeringes: that they nede not beare them into the outwarde court, and to e sanctifie the people.

e. To cause the people to thynke it is lawfull for them to eate them, and so fal into a vaine opinion of holynesse & sanctification.

21 So he brought me into the vtter court, and caused me to goe by the foure corners of the court: and beholde in euery corner of the court there was a court.

22 In the foure corners of the court there were courts ioyned of fourtie cubites long, and thyrtie brode: these foure corners were of one measure.

23 And there went a wal rounde about them, euen about thole foure: and vnder the walles there were f kytchins made rounde about.

f Rangers.

24 Then sayde he vnto me, These are the Cookes houses, where the ministers of the house shall boyle the sacrifice of the people.

¶ The xlvi. Chapter.

a. The vision of the waters that came out of the temple. b. The costes of the lande of promyse, and the diuision thereof by tribes.

1 AFterwarde he brought me backe vnto the doore of the house, and beholde there gushed out g waters from vnder the threshold of the house Eastwarde: for the forefront of the house stoode toward the East, & the waters ranne downe from vnder the right syde of the house, which lyeth to the aulter Southwarde.

g. Whereby are meant the spirituall graces ỹ shoulde be geuen to the Churche vnder the kingdome of Christe, as Iohn. 4.

2 Then led he me to the North gate, and led me about by the way without vnto the vtter gate by a way that turneth Eastwarde: and beholde, there issued fourth waters from the right syde.

3 Now, when the man that had the lyne in his hand went fourth Eastwarde, he measured a thousande cubites, & then he brought me through the waters, the waters were to the ankles.

4 So he measured yet a thousande, & brought me through the waters, the waters were to the knees: yet measured he a thousande, and brought me through, the waters were to the loynes.

5 After this he measured a thousande againe, then was it such a h ryuer that I myght not wade through it, the waters were risen, and the waters dyd flowe as a ryuer that myght not be waded ouer.

h. Signifieth that the grace of God is neuer diminished but euer increaseth in his Church.

6 And he sayde vnto me, Hast thou seene this, O thou sonne of man? and with that he brought me, & caused me to returne to the ryuer banke againe.

7 Nowe when I returned, beholde, at the banke of the ryuer were very many trees on the one syde and on the other.

8 Then said he vnto me, These waters flowe out towarde the East countrey, and runne downe into the playne, and come into the i sea: whiche when it entereth into the sea, the k waters shalbe wholesome.

i. Meaning, the middest of them that shoulde be established by the Gospell in Iurie.

k. Signifieth that the doctrine of the Gospell in Iurie shoulde make sweete and comfortable.

9 Now, all that lyue and moue, whyther soeuer this ryuer commeth, shall lyue: there shalbe a very great multitude of fishe, because these waters shal come thyther, for they shalbe wholesome: and euery thyng shall lyue whyther the ryuer commeth.

10 By this ryuer shall the fyshers stande, from Engaddi vnto En-eglaim, and shall spreade out their nettes: for their fyshe shalbe according to their kyndes as the fyshe of the mayne sea, exceedyng many.

11 But the maryshes thereof, and the pytes thereof, shal not be made wholesome: they shalbe made salt pytes.

12 By this ryuer, vpon the bankes thereof on this syde & on that syde, shall grow all trees for meate, whose leaues shall not falle, neyther shall the fruite thereof fayle, but shall bring fourth newe fruite according to his monethes, for the waters thereof come out of the sanctuarie: and the fruite thereof shalbe for meate, and the leaues thereof for l medicine.

l. Or, for breade, for meate and sause.

13 Thus sayth the Lorde GOD, This shalbe the border, whereby ye shall inherite the land, according to the twelue tribes of Israel: Ioseph shal haue two portions.

Gen. 48. 22

14 And ye shall inherite one as well as another, concerning the which I lyfte vp my hand to geue it vnto your fathers: and this land shal fall vnto you for inheritance.

15 This is the border of the m lande vpon the Northside, from the mayne sea eastward Hethlon, as men goe to Zedad:

m. By the land of promyse is signified the Church militant, wherof this was a figure.

16 Hemath, Berothe, Sibraim, which are betweene the borders of Damascus, and betweene the borders of Hamath, Hazar, Hatichon, that lyeth vpon the coastes of Hauran.

17 Thus the borders from the sea shalbe shalbe Hazar Enan, the border of Damascus, and the North Northwarde, to the borders of Hamah: this is the North part.

18 The East side shal ye measure from Hauran and Damascus, from Gilead and the lande of Israel by Jordane, and from the border vnto the East sea: and this is the East part.

19 The South side shalbe towarde Temian, from Thamar to the waters of strife in Cades, and the ryuer to the mayne sea: and that is the South part towarde Temin.

20 The West part also shalbe the great sea, from the borders tyl a man come ouer against Hamah: this is the West part.

21 This lande shal ye part among you according to the tribes of Israel.

22 And deuide it by lot to be an heritage for you, and for the strangers that dwel among you, and beget children among you: for ye shal take them among the children of Israel, like as though they were of your owne countrey, & they shal haue y heritage with you among the children of Israel.

23 And in what tribe the stranger dwelleth, in the same tribe shal ye geue him his heritage, saith the Lorde God.

The diuision of the land.

The lottes of the seuen tribes. 22. The lottes of the other tribes.

1 These are the names of the tribes: from the North side to the coast towarde Hethlon, tyl thou comest vnto Hamah, and Hazar Enan, the borders of Damascus Northwarde, the coast of Hamah, Dan shal haue his portion from the East quarter vnto the West.

2 Vpon the borders of Dan, from the East side vnto the West, shal Aser haue his portion.

3 Vpon the borders of Aser, from the East part vnto the West, shal Nephthali haue his portion.

4 Vpon the borders of Nephthali, from the East quarter vnto the West, shal Manasses haue his portion.

5 Vpon the borders of Manasses, from the East side vnto the West, shal Ephraim haue his portion.

6 Vpon the borders of Ephraim, from the East part vnto the West, shal Ruben haue his portion.

7 Vpon the borders of Ruben, from the East quarter vnto the West, shal Juda haue his portion.

8 Vpon the borders of Juda, from the East part vnto the West part, shalbe the offeryng which they shal offer, of fiue and twentie thousand a brode, and of length as one of the partes from the East side vnto the West side: and the sanctuarie shalbe in the middest of it.

9 The oblation that ye shal offer vnto the Lorde, shalbe fiue and twentie thousande long, and ten thousande brode.

10 And for these shal the priestes, shalbe this holy oblation: towarde the North fiue and twentie thousande long, and towarde the West ten thousande brode, toward the East ten thousande brode also, and toward the South fiue and twenty thousand long, and the sanctuarie of the Lord shalbe in the middest therof.

11 This sanctified portion shalbe the priestes that are of the children of Sadoc, which haue kept my charge, which went not astray in the erroure of the children of Israel, like as the Leuites went astray.

12 Therefore this oblation of the lande that is offered, shalbe theyrs as a thyng most holy, harde vpon the borders of the Leuites.

13 And ouer against the border of the priestes, shal the Leuites haue fiue & twentie thousand long, and ten thousande brode: all the length shalbe fiue and twentie thousande, and the breadth ten thousande.

14 Of this portion they shal sel nothyng, nor make any permutation therof, nor alienate the first fruites of the lande: for it is holy vnto the Lorde.

15 And the fiue thousande that are left in the breadth ouer against the fiue and twentie thousande, shalbe a prophane place for the citie, for housing and for suburbes: and the citie shalbe in the middes therof.

16 And these shalbe the measures therof: The North part fiue hundred and foure thousande, and the South b part fiue hundred and foure thousande, and the East part fiue hundred and foure thousande, and the West part fiue hundred and foure thousande.

17 The suburbes of the citie shal haue towarde the North two hundred and fiftie, toward the South two hundred and fiftie, towarde the East two hundred & fiftie, towarde the West also two hundred & fiftie.

18 And the residue in length ouer against the oblation of the holy portion, shalbe ten thousande towarde the East, and ten thousande towarde the West: and it shalbe ouer against the oblation of the holy portion, and the encrease therof shalbe for their meate that serue the citie.

19 And they that serue the citie, they shall serue it out of al the tribes of Israel.

20 Al the oblation shalbe fiue and twentie

a. That is, the portion of the grounde which they shal separate and appoynt to the Lorde, whiche shalbe diuided into three partes, for the priestes, for the prince, and for the citie.

b. Meanyng that it shoulde be square.

thousande: with fine and twentie thousande: ye shal offer this oblation foure square, for the sanctuarie, and for the possession of the citie.

c. Every way it shalbe fine and twentie thousande.

21 And the residue shalbe for the prince, on the one side and on the other of the holy oblation, and of the possession of the citie ouer against the fine and twentie thousande of the oblation toward the east border, & westward ouer against the fine & twentie thousand toward the west border, ouer against shalbe the portion for the prince: this shalbe the holy oblation, and the house of the sanctuarie shalbe in the middest thereof.

22 Moreouer, from the possession of the Leuites, and the cities possession, that whiche is in the middest shalbe the princes, betwixt the border of d Iuda, and the border of Beniamin shalbe the princes.

d. So that Iuda was on the North side of the princes and Leuites portions, and Beniamin on the South side.

23 Howe of the other tribes: from the east part vnto the west, shal Beniamin haue his portion.

24 Vpon the borders of Beniamin, from the east side vnto the west, shal Simeon haue his portion.

25 Vpon the borders of Simeon, from the east side vnto the west, shal Issachar haue his portion.

26 Vpon the borders of Issachar, from the east side vnto the west, shal Zabulon haue his portion.

27 Vpon the borders of Zabulon, from the east part vnto the west, shal Gad haue his portion.

28 Vpon the borders of Gad at the south side toward the Temanah, the border shalbe from Thamar, vnto the waters of e Strife to Cades, and to the ryuer vnto the maine sea.

e. Or, to Meribah.

29 This is the lande which ye shal deuide by lot for an inheritance vnto the tribes of Israel, and these be their portions, sayth the Lorde God.

30 These be the bounds of the citie, vpon the North part fiue hundred & foure thousande measures.

31 The gates of the citie shal haue the names of the tribes of Israel, three gates of the North side: one gate of Ruben, another of Iuda, the thirde of Leui.

32 Vpon the East side fiue hundred and foure thousande measures, with their three gates: the one of Ioseph, another of Beniamin, the thirde of Dan.

33 Vpon the South side fiue hundred and foure thousande measures, with their three gates: the one of Simeon, another of Issachar, the thirde of Zabulon.

34 And vpon the West side, fiue hundred and fiue thousande measures, with their three gates also: the one of Gad, another of Aser, the thirde of Nephthali.

35 Thus shal it haue eyghteene thousande measures rounde about: and the name of the citie from that tyme forth shalbe, "The Lorde is there.

The ende of the prophesie of Ezechiel.

¶ The booke of the prophete Daniel.

The first Chapter.

1. The prophete sheweth the captiuitie of Iehoiakim king of Iuda. 4. Of the children that were in captiuitie, the king commaundeth to choose which of them shoulde be taught the learning and language of the Chaldeans.

a. Reade 2. Kyng. 24. 10.

IN the a thyrde yere of the raigne of Iehoiakim kyng of Iuda, came Nabuchodonosor kyng of Babylon vnto Hierusalem, and besieged it.

2 And the Lorde deliuered Iehoiakim the kyng of Iuda into his hande, with part of the vesselles of the house of God, which he caryed away into the lande of b Sennar, to the house of his God, and he brought the vesselles into the goddes treasurie.

b. Which was a place by the ryuer Euphrates, where was the seate of the great kyngdome of the Assyrians.

3 And the kyng spake vnto Aspheuas the c eheefe chamberlaine, that he should bring hym certayne of the children of Israel, of the kynges seede, and of the princes.

c. Or, master of the eunuches.

4 Youngmales without any blemyshe, but wel fauoured, cunning in all wysedome, skylful of knowledge, able to vnderstande knowledge, and such as haue lyuelynesse in them, that they d may stande in the kynges palace:

d. And be fitte to be taken by the kyng, as men of good behauiour.

they d may stande in the kynges palace: and whom they myght teache the learnyng and the tongue of the Chaldeans.

5 Unto these the kyng appoynted a dayly pouision euery day of a portion of the kynges meate, & of the wyne whiche he dranke, so to nourysshe them three yeeres, that afterwarde they myght stande before the kyng.

6 Among these nowe were certayne of the chyldren of Iuda, namely, Daniel, Ananias, Misael, and Azarias.

7 Unto these the cheefe Chamberlaine gaue other names, and called Daniel Baltasar: Ananias, Sidrach: Misael, Misach: and Azarias, Abednego.

8 But Daniel purposed in his hart that he shoulde not defyle hym selfe with the portion of the kynges meate, nay with the wyne whiche he dranke: therefore he requyred the cheefe Chamberlaine that he might not defyle hym selfe.

9 (And God brought Daniel into fauour and tender loue with the cheefe Chamberlayne.)

10 And the cheefe Chamberlayne sayd vnto Daniel, I am afrayde of my loyde the kyng which hath appoynted you your meate and your drynke: wherefore shoulde he se your faces woorse lykyng then the yongmaldes of your age, and so ye shall make me endanger my head vnto the kyng.

11 Then Daniel said vnto Melassar, whom the cheefe Chamberlayne had set ouer Daniel, Ananias, Misael, and Azarias:

12 O proue but ten dayes with thy seruantes, and let vs haue pulse to eate, and water to drynke.

13 Then let our countenaunces be looked vpon before thee, and the countenaunces of the chyldren that eate of the portion of the kynges meate: and as thou seest, deale with thy seruantes.

14 So he consented to them in this matter, and proued them ten dayes.

15 And at the ende of ten dayes their countenaunces appeared fayer and f fatter in sighte then al the chyldrens whiche dyd eate the portion of the kynges meate.

16 Thus Melassar tooke away the portion of their meate, & the wyne that they shoulde drynke, and gaue them pulse.

17 As for those foure chyldren, God gaue them knowledge and vnderstandyng in g [illegible] and wysedome: also he gaue [illegible] vnderstandyng of al h visions and [illegible]

18 [illegible] when the i tyme was expired that the [illegible] had appoynted to bryng them in, the cheefe Chamberlayne brought them before Nabuchodonosor.

19 And the kyng communed with them: but among them all were founde none suche as Daniel, Ananias, Misael, and Azarias: therefore stoode they before the kyng.

20 In all matters of wysedome and vnderstandyng that the kyng enquired of them, he founde them ten tymes better then al the wyse men and soothsayers that were in al his Realme.

21 And Daniel abode styl vnto the k fyrste yeere of kyng Cyrus.

¶ The ii. Chapter.

1. The dreame of Nabuchodonosor. 2. He calleth vnto hym soothsayers, and requyreth of them both the dreame and the interpretation thereof.

1 IN the a seconde yeere of the raigne of Nabuchodonosor, had Nabuchodonosor a dreame, wherethrough his spirite was troubled, and his sleepe brake from hym.

2 Then the kyng commaunded to call the wyse men, and soothsayers, and sorcerers, and the Chaldees, for to shewe the kyng his dreame: So they came, & stoode before the kyng.

3 And the kyng sayde vnto them, I haue dreamed a dreame, and my spirite was troubled to knowe the dreame.

4 Upon this the Chaldeans answeared the kyng in the Syrians speache. O kyng, God saue thy lyfe for euer: shewe thy seruantes the dreame, and we shal shewe the interpretation.

5 The kyng answeared and sayde to the Chaldeans, The thyng is gone from me: If ye wyl not make me vnderstande the dreame, with the interpretation thereof, ye shalbe drawen in peeces, and your houses made a lakes.

6 But if ye tel me the dreame, and the interpretation thereof, ye shal receyue of me gyftes, rewardes, and great honour, therefore shew me the dreame, and the interpretation thereof.

7 They answeared agayne, and sayde, The kyng must shewe his seruantes the dreame, and so shall we declare the interpretation thereof.

8 Then the kyng answeared, saying, I perceyue of a trueth that ye would b redeme the tyme, for so muche as ye se the thyng is gone from me.

9 Therefore if ye wyl not tel me the dreame, this is your onely purpose, Ye haue prepared lying and corrupt wordes to speake before me, tyll the tyme be changed: therefore tel me the dreame, that I may knowe that ye can declare me the interpretation thereof.

k. That is, he was esteemed in Babylon as a prophet, and in authoritie so long as y^e common wealth stoode.

a. The father and the sonne were both called by this name, so that it is meant of the sonne when he raigned alone: for he raigned also after a sort with his father. Or els in the seconde yeere of his generall conquest of other barbarous nations.

b. Ye seke occasion of delaies, vntyll some other affayres myght happen, and make me forget the matter.
